Chapter 621

The door was blocked for more than ten minutes before the reporters finally dispersed to interview other contestants.

Gong Shangze was a completely unfamiliar face, and today he was wearing a mask because he was sick, so naturally no one paid attention to him at all.

But they were also happy to be quiet, and immediately rushed to the backstage to make preparations.

When Gong Shangze passed by, Dai Wei looked suspiciously at his back, but quickly looked away, and continued to chat with the designers around him who fawned on him.

Backstage.

I saw that there were all models preparing, some dangling in underwear, and there were many male designers and assistants, but they were obviously used to it, and they didn't regard them as men at all.

Gong Shangze probably hadn't seen such a scene very often, his eyes were somewhat embarrassed, but when he started to check the clothes on the model, his eyes immediately became focused.

"Wow... so many supermodels! The figure is so good! A woman like me is drooling!" Han Momo swallowed.

At this time, an imposing model in high-heeled shoes strode towards them, "Jian Rang! Get out of the way!"

The model who was changing clothes in front of Gong Shangze was pushed by her without checking, and she was about to step on the hem of the skirt...

Fortunately, Selena quickly grabbed the model's waist and stabilized her dangerously, otherwise not only would she fall, but even her clothes would be lost.

"Hey! What's the matter with you? You almost ruined our clothes!" Han Momo was anxious, and stopped the rampant model.

The man glanced at the clothes on their models, and seeing that the style was very similar to Dai Wei, his face was filled with contempt, "It's just plagiarism and tatters! You want to extort money? Believe it or not, I will let the above disqualify you from the competition! Get out of the way." !"

Han Momo wanted to refute, but recognized that the other party was Angel, a world famous model. She was very famous in the industry and had a close relationship with the organizer. It would be no good to offend her on such an occasion today, so she could only hold back her anger.

"An Qi, dear, come here and change!" Someone greeted not far away.

An Qi immediately smiled and walked towards the opposite side, "Wow, Director Dai, this is so beautiful!"

"It's beautiful! I told you that you will definitely like it!" Dai Wei looked pale.

"Well, it's so beautiful! As expected of Director Dai, he can surprise me every time! No wonder even Teacher Li said that this time the Golden Top Award belongs to you!" After An Qi finished speaking, she turned to Gong Shangze and the others. Fang Fang glanced, "However, this Golden Top Award is really going back more and more, why can anyone be selected! The one who tried to blackmail me just now is obviously imitating your style! It's ridiculous!"

Dai Wei smiled generously with the attitude of someone who has experienced it, "Hehe, this is the way it is in this business, just get used to it!"

An Qi fiddled with the dress in her hand, and the more she looked at it, the more she liked it, "Ms. Dai is amazing, every piece is so different! You are born for design! You are worthy of Teacher Li's evaluation of you, and you have been imitated all the time. , has never been surpassed!"

...

The moment Gong Shangze saw the dress in Dai Wei's hand, his face turned pale.

"What's the matter Director Gong?" Seeing that Gong Shangze's expression was not right, Han Momo immediately asked uneasily.

Selena frowned, "This Dai Wei is ruthless enough to choose such a trick..."

Gong Shangze mentioned this dress to her, and she still remembers his proud expression when he mentioned this design draft.

Chapter 622

Gong Shangze's dry voice trembled slightly, "That was the most satisfying and perfect work of my peak inspiration period. The theme is life. There are six sets in the same series. For this competition, Dai Wei is just enough..."

Selena wanted to comfort her, but Gong Shangze took a deep breath and had already calmed down. Instead, she comforted Selena and said, "Boss, the competition is about to start, you go to the front first, I'll be there soon!"

Seeing that his condition was stable, Selena patted him on the shoulder, "Okay, call me if you need something! Momo, take care of him, and if he feels unwell, let me know immediately!"

"Understood, Miss Xi! Even if the director bites me, I will resolutely make a small report!"

"Hey, go ahead and fight, Sister Xi will support you!"

Listening to the conversation between the two, Gong Shangze felt helpless on his face, and a tinge of warmth welled up in his bone-cold blood.

He carefully took out the clothes for this competition, with a dim light shining in his eyes...

The competition is about to start, and the venue is very lively.

After the reporters had finished interviewing the contestants, they were scrambling to interview the celebrities in the circle who were present this time.

Recently, "The World" is about to be released, and there are all kinds of publicity bombardment. As the heroine, Susie naturally has a high exposure rate and topicality. In addition, Dai Wei is the hottest winner of the award, and Susie is History's boss, so almost half of the reporters surrounded her.

"Miss Ning, how did you discover David in the first place? Can you share your story with us?" The reporters asked the most interesting questions of everyone.

Susie didn't know what to think of, she showed a gentle look, and said softly, "If you really want to talk about Bole, it's not me, it was my boyfriend who first discovered David, and I thought it was good after looking at it later After discussing with him, I decided to invest..."

"There is such a good story! The two really have a good understanding! Even the eyes are equally good!"

"The popularity of "The World" is already so high before it's released, and it will definitely sell well at the box office! And I heard that "The World" will compete for several important awards in the future. Susie, you really have a bumper harvest this year!" The familiar reporter complimented.

"Hahaha, yes, I even wrote the headline for Susie to win the Best Actress in advance!"

It was not until the host on the stage announced the start of the game that the reporters finally dispersed and returned to their seats.

Selena's location was relatively remote, in a corner quite far back, and she was taking advantage of the time when the host was giving the opening remarks to close the door to rest, when an unpleasant voice suddenly sounded in her ear...

"Hey... Isn't this Selena Ning the big star? You also come to the game? Don't you know that you need a ticket to enter today? Just walk in and be careful not to be chased away!"

The one who spoke was Li Leling who was holding Susie's arm.

Selena's lazy eyes flashed a hint of displeasure at being disturbed, and she unhurriedly raised her eyes to glance at Li Leling, and said with a surprised expression, "Miss Li has changed her career to be a security guard?"

Li Leling was taken aback for a moment, and then became furious, "You are the only security guard!"

Selena suddenly realized and nodded, "Oh, sorry, I was just meddling in my own business, I misunderstood."

"You...!!!" Li Leling was half dead with anger.

Susie at the side tried to smooth things over, and kindly reminded, "Selena, Le Ling is just a good intention, all the seats here have quotas, you can't just sit around..."

Chapter 623

Selena immediately closed her eyes, not wanting to waste even a second on these people.

Li Leling pulled Susie away, and walked towards the seat, "Leave her alone, anyway, we won't be the ones who will lose face at that time! It's nothing else, but she has the nerve to come to this kind of place, does she know what fashion is? "

Susie hesitated, "Maybe she was indeed invited?"

Li Leling immediately said with a firm expression, "How is that possible! Today's seat is hard to find, even my mother asked a lot of people to get it, and I almost couldn't come with you!"

"She and Saul seem to have a good relationship..." Susie said intentionally.

Li Leling's face froze when he heard the words, "I don't think it's that good. Otherwise, with Saul's ability, he could be in the front row. How can he sit in that kind of corner! This kind of person is really disgusting! Hugging everywhere Thighs, you can't do without her anywhere!"

After finishing speaking, he snorted and said excitedly, "Forget it, let's not talk about her, by the way, Susie, after the awards ceremony is over, let's go directly to the Royal Hotel, I've booked a box for you to celebrate! "

Susie gave her an angry look, "I don't know if I can win the prize yet!"

"Why don't you know? I've inquired about it a long time ago. Among the entries selected this time, you are the strongest, and the grand prize must go to you!" After speaking, she leaned into Susie's ear mysteriously, and whispered Said, "I asked my mother to help me find out, this time the Golden Top Award is Dai Wei, don't worry!"

Susie's eyes lit up when she heard the words, but she still said modestly, "Let's wait for the results to come out!"

Just as he was talking, Dai Wei also took his seat. Seeing him, Li Leling teased immediately, "Hey, our great talent is here! If you won the award this time, there must be more people poaching you, right?"

"Miss Li, look at what you said, the boss is my reborn parent! I can't leave the boss even if I fly into the sky!" Dai Wei has always been a speculator, and his skill in flattering is even more top-notch. coaxed elated.

On the other side, Gong Shangze and his assistant walked to the seat next to Selena and sat down.

"Is everything done?"

"En." Gong Shangze nodded, he had done everything he could, and now he just had to wait for the result.

Soon, the host's opening speech ended and the competition officially began.

On the catwalk, after the lights flickered for a while, the first contestant's work came up.

This first designer is quite capable, just looking at the introduction on the big screen is a long paragraph: Liu Sheng, the winner of the 17th Huaguo Fashion Design "Golden Summit Award". Currently the art director of Liusheng Clothing Co., Ltd. Director of Huaguo Fashion Designers Association, member of Fashion Art Committee, once awarded the title of Excellent Fashion Designer, Top Ten Fashion Designers...

Liu Sheng's design theme is the zodiac, which uses the totem elements of the Chinese zodiac, which is eye-catching.

However, after a brief astonishment, everyone's first feeling is that they seem to have known each other.

"Tsk, is even Liu Sheng exhausted? This is obviously Dai Wei's style!"

"Since Dai Wei's Huaguo style became popular, everyone started to adopt Huaguo elements, this is going to be a bad street!"

"The key is that those people's designs are very deliberate. If you look closely, you will find that they are nondescript. They don't have Dai Wei's natural fluency at all!"

...

Listening to the discussions around her, Han Momo felt a cold sweat in her heart. Just being imitated has already been scolded like this. When Director Gong's work comes out, what will she be scolded for?

Chapter 624

The three patiently watched the other entries, and finally, it was their turn to play.

However, the next one to come out was not their model, but another contestant!

"What's going on?" Selena's face changed slightly.

Han Momo hurriedly said, "I'll go backstage and ask!"

Soon, Han Momo came back, panting with red eyes, "The organizer said that our order has been transferred to the last place. I asked them why, but they had the nerve to say that the last one is better and can be the finale, but, the last second is Dai Wei's work, originally our design style was close to theirs, but now we are deliberately arranged behind him, let alone winning an award, we will definitely be sprayed to death..."

You don't need to ask, this petty move is most likely caused by that supermodel An Qi just now. That woman is notoriously domineering in the circle, and she will punish you if she disagrees with you.

In the end, it was Gong Shangze who comforted them, saying indifferently, "It doesn't matter, if my work is really considered plagiarism, then the order will be the same everywhere."

This competition adopts the mode of on-the-spot scoring. Six judges take the average score. Five of the works that have appeared so far have been scored with a high score of more than nine points. The competition is still very fierce.

The previous Liu Sheng's score, no matter how hard he tried, was only a little over 7. It can be seen that the judges are also very displeased with the behavior of following the trend.

At this time, bursts of intense exclamations and snapping pictures suddenly sounded at the scene.

It was Dai Wei's turn to play.

Not only others, Selena, Han Momo, and Gong Shangze were also completely attracted by the models on stage.

The most eye-catching thing is the main piece on An Qi's body. The long dress covered with flowers is like spring returning to the earth, instantly giving people a sense of vitality.

The original and simple Qiang embroidery technique, combined with the modern three-dimensional cutting technology, can be described as "integrating ancient and modern, connecting Chinese and Western", realizing the perfect combination of traditional culture and modern clothing, and fully fitting the theme of "life".

The model is the international supermodel An Qi, and the material is "inches of brocade" and "sage of weaving" Kesi. The jewelry sponsor is a luxury brand under Ning's International. There are only two of Dai Wei's works in this set. Words can describe it – perfect!

Almost every piece is so gorgeous that people have the urge to buy it on the spot. At this moment, the actresses and socialites below are even eager to find contacts everywhere to get this series of high-end products.

Although it was Gong Shangze's work, Selena knew that the more it was praised, the more uncomfortable it would be for Gong Shangze.

Just as he was about to comfort him, in the end, he saw a large piece of terrible burns on his hand from the corner of his eye, and his expression changed immediately, "What's wrong with your hand?"

Gong Shangze immediately flinched subconsciously, "It's okay, I was not careful..."

"You checked your clothes properly, why did you accidentally burn your hands like this? Momo, what's going on?" Selena turned to Han Momo and asked.

Han Momo looked confused, "Uh, I don't know either! Director Gong just said that there is only the last point left to finish, so he asked me to come to you first, and then I don't know what happened..."

"Boss, it's really all right!"

While the three were talking, Dai Wei's score had already come out.

Seeing the score, Han Momo's small face was filled with despair, "Nine...nine! I'll go! Director Gong, should I praise you? Do you want to be so awesome? After so many years, you have never Have you ever scored such a high score before? The highest is only 9.6 points! You are... simply!"

Chapter 625

Selena was also a little bit dumbfounded, it seemed that she was too good to be troubled!

Gong Shangze's work not only has a good theme, but also involves cultural inheritance. It is tailor-made for this kind of awards. In addition, the team is strong and all the resources are the best. No wonder the judges are so pleased. dear.

The applause at the scene became more and more intense, and most of the people stood up to congratulate Dai Wei and Susie. The reporters also focused their cameras on him, preparing to take pictures of him accepting the award on stage.

Dai Wei stood up triumphantly, and thanked everyone one by one, saying a set of humble and decent official words, "Everyone has praised me so much, this is the credit of our entire team! Especially my boss, Miss Susie , without her, there would be no Dai Wei today!"

Susie laughed and said, "Don't be modest, you are the soul and core of our studio."

Now that Dai Wei has won such a big award, in order to keep him, Susie made him even more determined and naturally treated him better.

Just as Dai Wei straightened his clothes and stepped out to receive the award, the host suddenly said, "Everyone, please be safe, we still have the last contestant!"

"What? Another one? What are you doing?"

"Forget about presenting the awards directly! Isn't this a waste of time?"

"No way, the game is like this, don't rush at this moment, wait until the process is over! Anyway, the result has been decided, just use this time to prepare the content of the interview later!"

...

Hearing the host's words, Dai Wei's footsteps stopped, his face was a little embarrassed, and then he suddenly remembered that An Qi had secretly told him about putting the previous plagiarist in the last place on stage, and he immediately recalled it, with a look of embarrassment. With a good-tempered expression, he returned to his seat and sat down.

Waiting for that contestant to play would not only set him off better but also take this opportunity to make an example of those crazy followers recently, killing two birds with one stone.

Susie wasn't in a hurry either, after all, she was already in the bag. Several competitive opponents among today's contestants had already entered the stage just now, and the one left was nothing more than a soy sauce, icing on the cake.

As a result, the actresses and socialites at the venue were all dating Susie, the designers were all around Dai Wei, the reporters' cameras were all on Dai Wei's side, and the judges had already started to pack their things and prepare to leave.

So much so that when the last contestant's work was on stage, almost no one paid attention to it...

Gong Shangze's condition is not very good at the moment, it seems that the burn is getting worse, his breathing is becoming more and more rapid, and the burn on his hand has not been treated yet, he probably has been holding it back just now.

Selena supported him, "Persist a little longer, and we'll be home soon!"

She originally wanted Momo to take him back directly, but she knew in her heart that he definitely wanted to see the final result.

She has seen Gong Shangze's entry, and it is very good. If there is no "life", he must be the first, but with "life", he may not only lose the prize, but also end up in the worst possible...

With a sound of "bang", the bright and shining lights on the field to match the theme of "life" dimmed suddenly, and the music also changed to a low-pitched style, slightly depressing, which made people feel very uncomfortable.

Chapter 626

After a short prelude, the sound of the music suddenly became louder, and the lights began to gradually change from bright to dark.

Immediately afterwards, the first model appeared.

She is wearing a classic red dress with a gorgeous and dazzling style, as if what she wears is not a skirt, but the sunset glow from the sky. The details still use the Chinese elements such as embroidery and auspicious clouds that Gong Shangze is best at.

Although it was already very eye-catching, but against the backdrop of Dai Wei's extreme luxury just now, it was not so amazing immediately, and it even made people feel aesthetically tired.

However, it was just such a dress, everyone in the venue just casually glanced at it and snorted, but when the skirt turned from the dark to the bright and showed the whole picture, people could no longer look away!

Even Selena herself was stunned, "How could this happen!?"

Gong Shangze's six sets of works are still the same as his previous design, with the six natural elements of "sunset glow, aurora, cherry blossoms, ocean waves, snow forest, and starry sky" as the main colors, supplemented by traditional Huaguo techniques.

But, in particular, each dress is burned to varying degrees...

Such burning traces not only do not have a sense of incompleteness, but unexpectedly show a very special decadent magnificence, which takes away all eyes in an instant!

After a long while, someone at the scene finally came to their senses, and then the stunned photographers almost completely relied on their keen instincts to point their cameras at the stage immediately.

"Uh... Is there something wrong with my aesthetics? Why do I think that bright red dress is burnt and so beautiful! There is a sense of a lonely but still noble princess!"

"That sea blue mermaid dress is also so beautiful! The tail is burnt, but it's so poignant! It reminds me of the mermaid princess!"

"It's so special! How did you come up with it?"

...

More and more people looked towards the stage, and everyone's eyes were filled with amazement.

After a while, the theme of this entry – Nirvana slowly appeared on the big screen.

"Wonderful! It's really wonderful!" One of the judges stood up excitedly.

"It's really a great idea, it seems that I haven't seen such a spiritual work for a long time!"

"Hehe, this little rookie is very courageous! But, I like it!"

...

Because of this treatment, everyone focused their attention on the exquisite creativity of this theme, but no one paid attention to the elements of Huaguo.

Selena felt an indescribable shock in her heart. No wonder Gong Shangze's hands were burned. He actually...

How much determination do you have to burn your heart and soul for half a month with your own hands?

Such death and rebirth is worthy of the new theme he defined for this work: Nirvana and rebirth.

The host was also a designer before. After staring at the last set of works for a long time, he came back to his senses. Thinking of his work, he coughed lightly, "Next, please see the judges' ratings!"

After a while, the judges raised their scoring boards one after another.

The first judge: 10 points!

The second judge: 10 points!

The third judge: 10 points!

Five points in a row!

Until the last judge, Qu Guanyang, the first Chinese designer known for his pickiness.

He was the one who gave the lowest score to Dai Wei's work just now. He has served as a judge of the Eight Realms and is famous for being harsh and strict. He has never given a full score!

At this moment, everyone's eyes were fixed on Qu Guanyang's hand.

After an agonizing wait, he finally slowly showed the scoring board...10 points!

NEXT CHAPTER

Chapter 627

"Ten! The final score of our last contestant is... out of 10! My God! It's really 10! This is really amazing! Even our vicious judge, Mr. Qu, gave a perfect score! Unexpectedly, in our At the end of the race, a strong dark horse appeared!" The host was so excited that he seemed to be about to faint.

On the seat, Han Momo screamed uncontrollably, and shook Gong Shangze in her arms, "Ten! Ten! Dmn it! It's unbelievable! Director Gong, you are so amazing! From now on, I will be your brainless fan! "

Selena patted Gong Shangze's shoulder with an astonished expression, "My baby Ze is amazing!"

"After fierce competition, our winner of the Golden Top Award was finally selected. Next, let's invite our last contestant, Mr. X, to come on stage to receive the award! That's right, this contestant signed up anonymously. Oh, it's too sweet! I'm curious, who is our mysterious winner of the Golden Top Award!" The host has a good ability to control the field, and quickly recovered from this sudden situation, and began to create gimmicks.

When the dust settled, everyone at the scene who had been stunned had all come to their senses at this moment.

"Dmn it! What's going on?"

"Who is x? Where did it come from?"

"Who knows, what is written on the big screen is the design director of Zeling Studio, and nothing else is written, not even his real name!"

"What Zeling studio? Who is the boss? I've never heard of it!"

...

The competition allows anonymous participation, so there are many people who use code names.

Back then when Gong Shangze told Selena that he wanted to remain anonymous, Selena didn't ask too much and let him decide for himself, thinking that he should announce his real identity after he wanted to become famous, which is also understandable.

"x...?" Han Momo rolled her eyeballs, and then suddenly realized, she slapped her head excitedly and said, "Wow! x! Sister Xi, is this the abbreviation of your name 'Xi'?"

"Huh? My initials?" Selena didn't think about it at all.

"En." Gong Shangze nodded, looking a little shy.

"Oh, my little Tibetan Mastiff is so heart-warming!" Needless to say, Selena was really moved.

The moment Dai Wei saw the score, he stood up suddenly, his face was extremely ugly, and the veins on his forehead were bulging.

At this moment, he was staring at those six sets of clothes, staring at every tiny detail on those six sets of clothes, with a hint of imperceptible panic hidden in his eyes.

The design of those clothes...especially the subtle handling and habits...why are you so familiar...

x...

Could it be...

Do not! impossible!

That guy Gong Shangze didn't have the slightest ability to survive other than being devoted to design. He didn't even leave a dime when he left. He must have been kicked out by the landlord to beg on the street. How could he return to the country? Participated in the Golden Summit?

Moreover, that guy is from a professional background, his style is more orthodox and stable, and he will never do such a thing of slanting his sword.

"How could this happen? Dai Wei actually lost!" Li Leling turned pale with shock.

"It's just sensationalist work!" Dai Wei gritted his teeth.

Susie didn't care about the design or not, she only knew that the cooked duck was flying, and her face was all trampled under her feet, her eyes turned cold when she looked at Dai Wei, "Didn't you say it was safe? How could you lose to an unknown rookie?"

Chapter 628

Dai Wei gritted his teeth and suppressed his panic, "Miss Ning, don't worry, I'll take care of it!"

After speaking, he winked at several people in the crowd.

Several small designers who depended on Dai Wei's resources understood what he meant, and immediately protested...

"I object. It's just that the plagiarized design can win the award by setting fire to it? This award is too good!"

"That's right! Any of us can burn it! Doesn't that mean we can all win prizes!"

"This is speculation and grandstanding!"

After someone started, the other designers couldn't sit still anymore. Their peers looked down upon each other. If they lost to Dai Wei, they would be convinced, and even began to doubt the fairness of the game.

"What kind of vision does the judges have? Could it be that they were bribed?"

"I'm so disappointed, I didn't expect even Qu Guanyang to be so unscrupulous this time!"

"We demand a re-competition!"

Seeing the excitement of the crowd, the host looked a little embarrassed and kept trying to smooth things over. Helpless, under the instigation of Dai Wei, Susie, and others, the scene was already in chaos, and even the referees were a little flustered. He couldn't help but look at Qu Guanyang in the middle.

"Teacher Qu, what do you think about this? Do you want to re-grade?"

"We were indeed amazed just now, but after looking at it comprehensively, it seems that it is not appropriate to give ten points!"

"Yes, Dai Wei has a great influence in the industry. If this matter is not handled well, it may affect the reputation of our award!"

Qu Guanyang snorted coldly, "You guys, are you going back as you live? Are we the referees, or are they? Everyone understands so well, what do you want us referees to do? And you, sit. What do you do here? Change your judgment with just a few words, is this how you referees?"

Several referees were criticized so much that they touched their noses and couldn't say a word.

After spraying the referee, Qu Guanyang picked up the microphone, "Hehe, it seems that someone questioned my judgment!"

"That's because your rating this time is really unconvincing to everyone! This person is obviously a plagiarist! Even if you burn a fire, you can't hide this fact! This is trying to cover it up!" Someone in the crowd said angrily, causing a lot of echoes.

Qu Guanyang's eyes turned cold, he swept the crowd one by one, and said expressionlessly: "First, you have been clamoring for plagiarism, but what is the definition of plagiarism? Hua Guofeng, traditional elements, anyone can Doing, this is a public theme, not unique to anyone, whether you can make a splash, that is a personal ability;

Second, hehe, can you burn it too? Who of you thought of burning it? Who thought of that? Why did you go early? Why not burn it in the first place? "

Qu Guanyang's question made all those designers who had sworn to it just now speechless.

On this point, they were indeed a little bit unreasonable. Burning clothes is indeed something that anyone can do, but the difficulty is to think of this idea, so the people present at that time were so amazing.

"Even so, in terms of overall strength, that X is completely incomparable with David!" Some people are still not reconciled.

Qu Guanyang's tone was more severe, and he stared at the humanity coldly, "Heh, as a designer, I think you still don't understand what you are doing. What is our award this time?"

Chapter 629

Qu Guanyang's momentum was too severe, and the crowd replied weakly, "Costume design..."

"Yes, it's the Fashion Design Award! The most important thing about this award is not the model, the material, or the clothing skills, but the design and creativity!

The Golden Summit Award selects the best designer, not the best model, the most expensive material, and the best popularity!

If it is those, then anyone can do design! What else do you designers do? As a display? "

Qu Guanyang is worthy of being a poisonous tongue, he is so unceremonious when he sprays people, he can't even lift his head.

After finishing speaking, his gaze fell sharply in Dai Wei's direction, "The Golden Summit Award has been held for 23 times so far. The schedule is open and transparent, free from interference from any individual or organization. It has been in the past and will continue to be. Anyone who wants to We will resolutely resist the behavior of manipulating the comparison results by scheming, and everyone is welcome to supervise!"

These words were obviously accusing Dai Wei of trying to manipulate the result of the game by relying on his connections and power.

Anyone with a discerning eye knows that a rookie designer who has never even heard the name of the studio has the ability to bribe the six judges, but Dai Wei's behavior this time is more like forcing the referee to change the result of the competition.

All of a sudden, the game spectators and photographers on the field came back to their memories, and looked at Dai Wei with a somewhat sarcastic expression...

"Qu Guanyang is right. Those designers who made trouble just now were trying to find fault on purpose! Even laymen like us were amazed, how can we say that their design is not good?"

"Actually, I thought Dai Wei was a little too domineering before. What's wrong with being Hua Guofeng? Even if he became popular recently because of him, he wasn't the first to do it. Just like Teacher Qu said, everyone can do it. It can be done! Now it's as if he invented it, and whoever makes it is plagiarizing him and will be beaten and killed!"

"The grand prize that he got was snatched away like this. Can he not be in a hurry? The water behind is deep! Do you know how many resources and benefits such an award can bring?"

"That's right, the current domestic awards are too fake, and only the Golden Summit Award is more authoritative!"

After Qu Guanyang opened his mouth, the other referees, who were flustered by the riot just now, also calmed down. The five spoke separately and explained in detail the reasons why they scored ten points. In the end, they all came to a unanimous conclusion...

"So, we think that this year's Golden Summit Award, the designer x of Zeling Studio, is well-deserved!"

As soon as the words fell, there was a round of intense applause at the scene.

The actresses and celebrities who were invited to watch the game all had bloody expressions. The fashion circle always likes the new and dislikes the old, and the update is fast. Now there are new designs appearing, and they are so individual, naturally captured them in an instant. heart.

The people who were still surrounding Susie to ask for a quota just now had been staring at this mysterious designer like a wolf.

The host cleared his throat and said again, "Next, let's invite our designer x to come on stage to accept the award!"

Beside him, the beautiful emcee was holding the trophy with a smile on his face, looking forward to it, would he be a handsome guy?

For a moment, everyone's eyes fell on the audience, curious to see who the dark horse was this time.

Especially Dai Wei, the smoldering eyes in his eyes could hardly be suppressed.

who is it...

Who is it...

There is such a character in the circle, he must not know about it!

Chapter 630

When everyone was waiting to see through, Selena had a tragedy.

Because, Gong Shangze fainted.

This guy was already feverish and weak, and he probably had been holding on until now when the results came out, and finally he couldn't hold on anymore.

The host above was already urging, and in the corner, Han Momo was in a hurry, "Sister Xi, what should I do?"

Selena frowned and touched Gong Shangze's hot forehead, and helped him onto her shoulders, "I'll take him to the hospital, and you go to accept the award on his behalf."

"Ah? Me?" Han Momo was dumbfounded.

In the end, amidst everyone's eagerness to see through, Han Momo hurried up to the stage like a little rabbit. Because she was too nervous, she almost fell on the stage.

The most unfortunate thing is that Han Momo's outfit today...

She wore a Lolita tutu and looked like a doll.

"I'm going! What the hell? The designer of Nirvana is actually a little loli? This is unscientific!"

"With such a domineering style, even if she's not a man, she's still a sister Yu! Is this girl an adult?"

...

"Uh, you are...the designer of Nirvana, x?" The host was a little surprised.

Qu Guanyang raised his eyebrows, then touched his chin and said, "Are you here to accept the award on behalf of someone else?"

After all, he has been in the industry for so many years, and he still has some intuition, which tells him that the person in front of him is not the designer of "Nirvana".

Han Momo immediately nodded repeatedly, then politely bowed to everyone, and said, "Everyone, guests, judges, I'm very sorry, x can't come to accept the award in person due to illness, I'm his assistant, and I'm here to accept it for him award!"

I see...

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief, and at the same time, they became even more curious about this x!

The game is finally over.

Han Momo carefully carried the trophy, and sneaked away before the reporters gathered around her.

Therefore, Dai Wei and Susie received the most attention.

"Miss Ning, you lost the history competition this time, do you have anything to say?"

"Are Qu Guanyang's words accusing you of overpowering others and trying to manipulate the outcome of the game?"

"Director Dai, what do you think of losing to the rookie in Hua Guofeng, which you are best at?"

...

Dai Wei's face was extremely ugly, no response, no response.

Susie's cell phone has been ringing non-stop since the results of the competition came out. In just a few minutes, they blew several big orders and lost millions.

This is not the scariest thing yet, the Zeling studio whose strength is unknown is likely to become their biggest competitor.

Looking at Susie's expression, Dai Wei knew something was wrong, "Miss, it's just a domestic award, it's nothing at all!"

"It's nothing? In just a few minutes just now, we have already lost more than five million yuan!"

Most importantly, where is her face? Everyone said that she had a good vision, that she had won the prize, and now she was lucky, not to mention that the prize she got was gone, and she was scolded for maliciously manipulating the result of the game!

Dai Wei cursed in his heart when he heard the words, what's wrong with the five million, don't you look at how much I earned you before!

However, under the eaves, he could only say cautiously, "Miss Ning, you believe me, the influence is only temporary, that kid is similar to my style, but we have already occupied the market one step ahead, and now he is here to grab it! Don't leave too many customers!"

"It's better to be like this!"
