

Cruel Heart Lover Novel

Chapter 791

A week later, Huaguo International Fashion Week, a high-profile feast in the Huaguo fashion industry, officially kicked off in the imperial capital.

As a professional release platform for top domestic fashion and ready-to-wear new products, Fashion Week has become the main battlefield for well-known brands and designers to promote their images, showcase their creativity, and spread trends. It is no easy task to stand out among so many brands.

Many brands have already started preparations more than half a year in advance. Selena's studio has just been established, so it can't be compared with those brands that have already matured. In the end, the new products of this season were rushed out the day before the press conference. .

At this moment, in the corner of the audience, Gong Shangze was obviously a little nervous.

Selena had finally hired Qin Shengyue to be a model. If his works did not achieve the desired effect, not only would the reputation of the studio be damaged, but Qin Shengyue's reputation would also be affected. No matter how hard you try, it will all be in vain.

Selena patted him on the shoulder and said, "Honey, don't be nervous, have some confidence in yourself, okay? Your work is really great! Even Qin Shengyue praised you!"

Han Momo repeatedly echoed, "It's gold that will definitely shine!"

Gong Shangze looked at the two gratefully, "Thank you!"

Accompanied by a burst of traditional Chinese opera music, the opening ceremony officially began.

The background of the stage was made into antique vermilion gates and emerald green copper rings. When the gates were opened, the majestic palace walls were revealed, and models wearing luxurious palace cheongsams stepped out from behind the scenes.

Behind the big screen is the history logo.

After seeing this sign, there was an uproar in the field...

"The clothing brand for this opening ceremony is actually from history! It's only been a year since the brand started, right? It's incredible!"

"That's why I said that a designer is the soul of a brand. Dai Wei really deserves to be a rare genius once in a century. His works are so aura!"

"However, I heard that there was a dark horse in the Golden Top Awards last time, and Dai Wei was defeated!"

"The ingenuity of the anonymous designer at the Golden Summit Award is really amazing. Unfortunately, the style is too similar to history, and the chance of winning the award is also great. Who can guarantee that he can beat Dai Wei every time? I guess the final As a result, they were either squeezed out of the market or acquired by History! Haven't they all disappeared recently?"

At the end of the show, the international supermodel Angel made a stunning debut in the finale of history.

After the end, there was a burst of thunderous applause from the audience, and everyone congratulated Susie and Dai Wei.

"This costume show is amazing! No wonder the organizer chose history as the opening!"

"thank you all!"

At this moment, Susie was wearing a neat little suit, as if she had transformed from a glamorous big star into an elite image of a company CEO, responding to everyone's compliments gracefully.

Susie has been enjoying herself recently.

The newly released "The World" actually set a super high box office of 1.5 billion on the first day of its release, second only to the Hollywood blockbuster released at the same time and "Happy" directed by the talented comedy genius Fang, and became the biggest dark horse in this issue.

Since then, the daily box office has been getting higher and higher day by day due to the super high word-of-mouth and the self-importance of netizens. A week later, it ended with a perfect curtain call of 12.3 billion box office.

All of a sudden, Susie, the heroine, became so popular that she even became the most popular candidate for the next actress. It can be said that the entertainment and fashion circles have a double harvest...

Chapter 792

"This Susie is indeed capable. Other celebrities in the entertainment industry who create personal brands are nothing more than small troubles, and even lose money to make money, but she can do well!"

"Of course not in the general entertainment industry. She is a real Bai Fumei, a wealthy daughter, and has a CEO boyfriend who has been silently supporting her behind her back. If you don't want to succeed, you can't do it, right?"

"By the way, I don't know which clothes Qin Shengyue will wear this time? It's not history? Isn't she always fond of newcomers?"

"What's so strange about this, it must be some big international brand!"

...

Listening to the discussions around her, Susie frowned slightly.

"Unfortunately, I couldn't invite Qin Shengyue..."

Originally, this time it could be a little more perfect, but I didn't expect that there would be some accidents in the end. For some reason, Qin Shengyue refused to act for them in the end.

Dai Wei on the side said, "An Qi is also great! She is also an international supermodel now, and her influence is no lower than Qin Shengyue's!"

Susie glanced at him, but said nothing.

Although Qin Shengyue has retired now, she was the first Chinese person to step onto the international stage back then. She was the darling of many international big names, and now her status in the fashion industry is like a weather vane. She also opened a clothing company. How could it be comparable to a newborn calf like An Qi?

However, he already knew that Qin Shengyue would be difficult to hire, and this result was also expected.

On the stage, other brands of clothing continued to show.

After a few well-known brands, the big screen turned, and a line of words – Zeling zx slowly appeared.

"Ah... Zeling! Isn't that the brand of the designer who won the Golden Summit Award?"

"I thought it was just a flash in the pan, and they won't be participating in this fashion show!"

"After all, if you are not careful, you will be compared by history. If you fail this time, even the title of the Golden Summit Award will be abolished!"

"Tsk, you have the courage, you really dare to come!"

...

For this designer who once broke the highest score record of the Golden Summit Award, everyone undoubtedly paid close attention to it, so they couldn't help but stare at it.

The greater the expectations of everyone, the more demanding they are. Zeling's situation this time is indeed difficult...

I saw that the models walked onto the runway one after another. When the first set of clothes appeared, the audience suddenly fell silent. After a while, there was a sound of exclamation.

The two sets of themes that Zeling showed this time are peach blossoms in the mountain temple and stars in midsummer, which are as beautiful as dreams.

Different from the decadent and gorgeous theme of "Nirvana Rebirth" on the Golden Summit Awards, these two sets of clothes are like Cupid's arrows, which make women's girls' hearts thump.

In the audience, Susie's reaction was calm, and Dai Wei was also an old god. Although there was a bit of jealousy in his eyes, he obviously didn't regard them as competitors at all.

So what if it's well designed?

In this circle, it is not enough to just know how to design.

They won the Golden Top Award last time, but so what, old customers will still only believe in their brand, and will not easily believe in a brand that is short-lived and may fall from the altar in the next second because of devaluation.

After all, they are all targeting high-end customer groups, and clothing is no different from their face to them, so they need to be cautious.

What they need to do now is to wait for Zeling to hit a wall everywhere and be desperate, then they can buy it at a low price, or even kill the brand directly, and poach the designer for their own use...

However, in the next second, Susie and Dai Wei, who were originally confident, suddenly widened their eyes...

Chapter 793

In addition, those who were shocked were all the people in the industry, guests, stars and others...

No one expected that the model who appeared in the last set of high-end custom-made dresses with the Zeling Midsummer Star theme turned out to be Qin Shengyue!

The dark blue background is inlaid with shimmering bright diamonds, the design of the v-neck on the chest is like a galaxy, and the whole suit is like the vast starry sky above Xia Ye's head, like a dream...

It's... crazy!

How is this going?

How did Qin Shengyue appear as Zeling's finale model?

Didn't she praise Dai Wei many times in public?

Now, on such an important occasion as today, she wears the clothes of the designer zx who defeated Dai Wei last time. Does this publicly show that she thinks that mysterious designer is stronger than Dai Wei?

All the guests, industry professionals and designers including reporters at the scene couldn't wait to ask about it!

Finally, the morning show is over.

In the audience, the reporters have long been looking forward to it.

After waiting for a long time, Qin Shengyue finally appeared from the backstage and changed into another set of clothes.

And what she was wearing was a fiery red Huaguo style classic embroidered dress. The wide skirt was burned to the knees by the flames, revealing a pair of smooth, slender and extremely beautiful legs...

Anyone with a discerning eye will recognize it immediately. This is a set from the work "Nirvana" by the designer zx who won the Golden Summit Award last time!

"Miss Qin, may I ask if the suit you are wearing is Zeling's clothes?"

"yes."

"Miss Qin, why do you love Zeling so much?"

Qin Shengyue caressed her skirt, her eyes flashed, and she asked in a natural tone, "Do you still need to ask?"

At this second, Qin Shengyue perfectly blended with the temperament of this suit, which was simply shocking.

Qin Shengyue is really suitable for this suit in terms of personality, temperament and figure!

"Yes... I don't need it... Zeling is too beautiful and aura, worthy of its brand name! Then, Ms. Qin, what do you think of history, how do you think Zeling compares with history? You seem to have always been interested in History is very appreciative, why suddenly turn to Zeling? Is there any inside story in this?" The reporter asked with deep meaning.

All eyes on the scene were also focused on Qin Shengyue for a moment.

Including Selena in the audience.

She was really afraid that Miss Qin would suddenly say something like "it's nothing, my sister is happy"...

Fortunately, Qin Shengyue was quite reliable at critical moments, and replied unhurriedly...

"Dai Wei is the most talented designer I have ever seen. I really admired him all the time before, but his designs are like a perfect world where time stands still. Beauty is beauty, but nothing remains the same. And Zeling, but I have seen growth and transformation, as well as infinite possibilities in the future!"

Qin Shengyue has a very high status in the industry, and her evaluation is extremely authoritative.

This sentence directly affirmed Zeling's ability, and pushed Zeling, who was originally unknown and wandering on the border, into the fashion circle, like an imperial plaque.

Not far away, Susie, who watched the situation develop to this point, almost lost control of her emotions, "Why is this happening? It's fine if it's another big name! How could it be Zeling! Last time we gave away all the clothes It passed, but Qin Shengyue refused, is there something wrong with your design?"

Chapter 794

Dai Wei hastily denied, "It's impossible! That suit was the finale of our exhibition at Milan Fashion Week last time..."

This happened again and again, Susie couldn't bear it no matter what, and said sharply, "No wonder Qin Shengyue said that you are the same, so you have no other plans?"

"But I also chose that one for insurance..."

Although Dai Wei said so, in fact, he had already started to panic.

If it could be said that the last time was just a coincidence, then this time, after seeing Zeling's other designs again, his already guilty fear deepened.

After all, everything he owns now is stolen. How many honors and praises he has during the day, and how much he fears the disappearance of all of them at night...

The most important thing is that his design draft is almost seriously insufficient. Although he secretly recruited a large number of people to imitate Gong Shangze's style, the imitated works, no matter how perfect the imitation is, are not the original after all...

No, he must find out who that zx is!

The more he looked at that person's work, the more frightened he became, and he even had the illusion that it was designed by Gong Shangze.

But, how is it possible, Gong Shangze will never turn over, and his design can't reach this height and realm...

At night, after the event, Dai Wei was in a bad mood, left Susie aside, and left alone.

Just as he was about to get in the car, he accidentally glanced across the road from the corner of the eye, and saw a face that appeared in his nightmare every night.

Gong... Gong Shangze!

Dai Wei was out of his wits, and was about to find out, but the man had already gotten into the car and quickly disappeared from sight.

Dai Wei calmed down after the car left for a long time. He must be too nervous, it must be...

That person's clothes and hairstyle are so fashionable, how could he be that slovenly madman like Gong Shangze?

In the car you just left.

Selena glanced in the rearview mirror, "That person across from me just now was Dai Wei, right? Did he recognize you?"

Gong Shangze obviously saw it too, and said with a wry smile, "Probably not, after all, I don't even recognize myself with my current appearance."

Selena nodded when she heard the words, "This is really..."

Han Momo looked curious, "What was Director Gong like before?"

"You'd better not know, you will be disillusioned..." While talking to the two, the phone suddenly rang, it was an unfamiliar number.

Selena picked it up suspiciously, "Hello?"

"Miss!!!" As soon as the phone was connected, an extremely excited voice came from the other end of the phone.

Selena hesitated, "Are you... Mama Wu?" The only person who would call her that was the old servant beside Grandpa.

"Yes! It's me! Miss, you should hurry to the hospital! The master is in the hospital!" Wu Ma's tone was extremely sad.

"What did you say?"

With a piercing sound, Selena nearly parked the car on the side of the road, and asked with a bloodless face, "What's wrong with Grandpa?"

"Master, he fainted suddenly at home. The doctor said that he might not be able to survive this time... I don't think any of them informed you. Think about it, I made this call on my own. The person I most want to see must be It's you..." Wu Ma's tone actually meant to ask her to see her one last time.

"How could this be...Which hospital? I'll go there right away!"

Chapter 795

"Sorry, my grandpa is ill. I have to go to the hospital immediately. I may not be able to send you off."

"It's okay, it's okay, sister Xi, go quickly! Grandpa is important! We'll just take a taxi and go!"

"Okay, be careful on the road."

"Boss, don't worry too much, drive slowly on the road!"

"okay, I get it!"

...

After bidding farewell to Gong Shangze and Han Momo, Selena immediately rushed to the hospital address Wu Ma mentioned.

At the same time, while driving, he made another phone call to ask Mama Wu to inquire about the situation, "Mama Wu, what's going on? I called Grandpa a few days ago. Isn't he in good health?"

On the other end of the phone, Mama Wu sighed, "Hey, the master is comforting you. You also know the situation at home. The young master is only thinking about the adopted daughter, and the second young master's house, the two illegitimate daughters are even more serious." The sky is full of smog!

The master has waited eagerly for so many years, but he still hasn't found a great-grandson who will inherit his bloodline. As he gets older, his heart disease will inevitably get worse.

In fact, the old man is most worried about you. Miss Xin still has her mother to protect her, but what about you, Miss? He was afraid that after he left, you would be alone and helpless.

Before, he always wanted to match you with that young master of the Xi family, and he also wanted you to have someone to rely on in the future..."

Selena listened to these words quietly, unable to tell what it was like.

...

When Selena arrived, Ning Yaohua, Zhuang Lingyu, Susie, Ning Yaobang, Ning Tianxin, and Roman were already there.

Ning Yaohua and Zhuang Lingyu looked solemn, Susie cried until her eyes were swollen, and she was leaning weakly in Roman's arms.

Ning Yaobang didn't have any sadness on his face, he stared at Ning Yaohua, and said with disdain, "What are you pretending to do! You, one or two, all wish for the death of the old man! Once the old man dies, the Ning family will be the only one!" Yours!"

"Shut up! Are you talking like a human being? Dad is already like this, and you are still talking about this!" Ning Yaohua angrily scolded.

"What's wrong with me? Didn't I just say what was in your heart? This is a jump? Do you dare to say that you don't think so in your heart?"

...

As the two sides were arguing, there was a sound of hurried footsteps at the end of the corridor, and then everyone saw Selena rushing over.

"Yo, another family property contender!" Ning Yaobang snorted coldly.

Seeing Selena, Susie's eyes flashed a hidden vigilance.

Now the biggest obstacle for her to get the Ning family is that stubborn old man. As long as the old man is gone, the power will fall into Ning Yaohua's hands. Without the old man's preference for Selena, Ning Yaohua and Zhuang Lingyu will definitely stand by On her own side, then, the Ning family is still in her hands!

As for the second room, Ning Yaobang's unsupportable Adou and the weak-tempered Ning Tianxin are nothing to be afraid of. It is impossible for the old man to hand over the company to such people!

She's afraid now...if the old man is impulsive before he dies, and recklessly gives all the shares in his hand to Selena...then it will all be over!

Of course, this possibility is very small, and Ning Yaohua will never let this happen.

With the personality of the old man, it is estimated that part of it will be given to ensure that she has no worries about food and clothing...

Although she is not willing to let her take these shares for nothing, it is not bad for her to watch her take charge of the company as a small shareholder...
