

Concubine 151

Chapter 151: Su Ji's Might!

The next morning, Aunt Wu had already prepared breakfast when Su Ji came downstairs.

There were meat buns, millet porridge, and Xu Mingzhi's favorite soy milk.

Xu Mingzhi had received a call from Wei Wei about work.

...

When it came to work, the woman was swift and decisive. Her expression was completely different from the loving mother she had a moment ago.

She was beautiful and charming.

Su Ji tidied up her scripts for the day and stuffed it into her backpack.

"Alright," Xu Mingzhi said, "we'll talk about it when I get back to the company. I'm having breakfast with my daughter."

The Xu Corporation also had a company in China, and Xu Mingzhi had already asked Wei Wei to move all the main projects in State M to China.

After she hung up the phone, Su Ji had just finished her meal.

Xu Mingzhi sent her out.

When they passed the wooden training dummy in the yard, Xu Mingzhi smiled, "baby, when are you going to spar with me? We haven't practiced in a long time."

Su Ji slung her backpack over her shoulder and turned around to smile at her.

Yes, at least a few thousand years.

Xu Mingzhi asked, "how are your skills now? Have you forgotten most of what I've taught you?"

"I didn't forget, I'm doing well~" Su Ji smiled.

Although she had encountered a difficult opponent, that person was not a normal person. Otherwise, they would not be able to defeat her.

Xu Mingzhi placed her elbow on the wooden stake and said, "great~"

**

Today's main cast was Su Ji and Yang Xiaotao.

The set was decorated like the streets in a foreign country, and it looked particularly high-end. Every detail shop looked exquisite, but in reality, there was a vegetable market right next to the set, and the potatoes cost 2 yuan per 500 grams, which was very affordable!

Pei Xi had some matters to attend to, so she didn't come today.

Su Ji brought Yang Xiaotao on a tour. As she had joined later, she couldn't help but feel that she was out of place.

"Su Ji, are you living with your mom or dad now?"

"I heard that your mother bought you a townhouse? Oh my, you're really rich."

"Why is she still working then? Can't even leave us some scraps."

Su Ji put her arm around Yang Xiaotao's shoulder, "look how nice they are..."

It couldn't be helped. Ever since Su Ji joined the crew, this group of people had been targeting her.

They were really envious and hateful!

However, seeing how chill Su Ji was, Yang Xiaotao wasn't so nervous anymore.

Huang Huayu looked at the line of 1.9-meter-tall strong foreign men in front of him. They all had dark skin, bulging muscles, and looked fierce. One of them even had a scar at the corner of his eye.

"Something doesn't seem right," he scratched his head.

"What's wrong?" Song Heng asked.

"Are they the extras I hired?" Huang Huayu asked. All of them look like they have criminal records."

Song Heng sneered, "that's more realistic. In the script, Bai Yueguang was going to be chased by a group of people like this."

Huang Huayu nodded doubtfully.

Before filming, Song Heng's usual routine was to explain the scene to them.

"Su Ji, your previous suggestion was not bad. It's not good to let Xiaomei get beaten up alone. Later, you and Xiaomei will be surrounded by the extras in this corner next to the house. But don't worry, they are all professionals hired by Assistant Director Huang. They know their limits and won't really hurt you."

Huang Huayu laughed and echoed, "that's right. Later on, you have to act as realistic as possible. Xiaomei, your character should show some fear, but Bai Yueguang has to be tougher. Even if you get beaten, you have to act like it doesn't hurt. Because what hurts the most isn't your physical body, but your heart!"

Su Ji nodded.

"Yes, director."

The special effects makeup artist came to apply makeup for the two of them. The injury on the forehead, the blood at the corner of the mouth, and even the bruises on the arms and ankles were all very realistic, as if they had really been beaten.

Yang Xiaotao looked at Su Ji in a daze and said, "the makeup looks good on you! I see beauty, strength, and misery!"

Su Ji's lips curved as she glanced at the few strong men beside her.

Yang Xiaotao's makeup was not as badass as Su Ji's. At first, it was quite good, but later, the makeup artist added a big bump on her left eye, ruining everything.

Song Heng was very satisfied with their makeup.

Even if it was a real beating, they couldn't tell from the distance.

"Everyone, get into position! Three, two, one! Action!"

Su Ji and Yang Xiaotao stood at the corner of the wall. The few brawny men stared at them fiercely. They rubbed their fists and wiped their palms. Their huge muscles were flexing on their arms and the veins showed on their foreheads.

"Be careful later, something doesn't feel right," Su Ji whispered to Yang Xiaotao.

"Ah?"

Before she could react, the leader of the group threw a punch at her.

Su Ji nimbly pulled Yang Xiaotao away. The fist brushed past her ear and hit the wall beside her face.

Bang! The cement wall fell to the ground.

However, the person who threw the punch looked like he could not feel any pain. His face was filled with ferocity.

If Su Ji had not pulled Yang Xiaotao away just now, this punch would have hit her face directly, or at the very least, her nose would have been crushed.

Immediately after, another strong man pounced on Su Ji. Su Ji crouched and dodged to the side, perfectly avoiding him.

In front of the monitor screen in the distance, several screenwriters were praising her.

In the camera, the brawny man was punching fiercely, Yang Xiaotao was running around with a pale face, and Su Ji was dodging left and right very calmly.

This was exactly what the script required.

"It's so real!"

"It's like a real fight!"

Song Heng narrowed his eyes dangerously.

After so many punches, there must be some hits.

Let's see if Su Ji would still dare to cross him in the future.

Meanwhile, Su Ji was still unscathed. She dodged while helping Yang Xiaotao.

Yang Xiaotao was already in tears, "what's going on? Are they extras or professional fighters?"

Su Ji paid close attention to everyone's movements.

It had only been a dozen seconds since the start of the fight. She might have dodged the first few moves well, but then a strong man lifted a huge stone and threw it at them like a madman.

Su Ji turned around with Yang Xiaotao and protected her with her body.

"Clang!"

The huge rock smashed into the wall and shattered into pieces.

One of the stones fell on Su Ji's head.

In an instant, the world fell silent.

Yang Xiaotao looked at the drop of blood on Su Ji's forehead and was dumbfounded, "are you alright? Director, stop the filming! She is injured..."

Before Huang Huayu and the others could hear what she said, Su Ji covered her mouth.

If they stopped now, all of that would be for nothing.

The brawny men, who were still arrogant a second ago, were suddenly intimidated by an inexplicable aura and felt uncomfortable all over.

They looked around for the source of the aura, and finally, their eyes focused on Su Ji.

Su Ji's head was slightly lowered, and the hair on her forehead covered her eyes.

The smile at the corner of her mouth gradually became terrifying as she clenched her fists.

"You're not going to act properly, are you?"

"You're really going to fight?"

The brawny men subconsciously took two steps back. The next second, Su Ji suddenly raised her head.

The strong men's pupils suddenly contracted, and Su Ji's reflection in their eyes quickly enlarged.

Chapter 152: Do You Think I will Let This Go?

The brawny man's eyes were filled with fear. Before he could say a word, a solid fist landed on his skull.

A brawny man fell to the ground, one of his feet still twitching slightly.

The rest of the brawny men: "..."

...

Yang Xiaotao: "..."

Song Heng gestured wildly at them from a distance, "what is going on? Why did he fall down? Hurry up and fight!"

The brawny men braced themselves and pounced on Su Ji. She stepped on one of the men's calves and forced him to kneel down.

Then, she grabbed another person's arm and quickly exerted force on his wrist.

"Ahhhh!"

The man's arm had been dislocated.

Yang Xiaotao shook her head left and right and saw Su Ji rapidly shuttling between the strong men. When she returned to her side, the strong men had all fallen to the ground.

This time, the whole audience: "..."

Song Heng was dumbfounded.

The others thought it was an impromptu performance by these people.

"What's going on? Shouldn't Bai Yueguang be bullied by these people? How did she win the fight? But it's cool!"

"I also think that the scene just now was really cool. Even a professional martial artist might not be able to give off such a realistic feeling!"

Huang Huayu suppressed his excitement, "Director Dong, why don't we take this scene? I feel that Su Ji has really understood this character thoroughly. Bai Yueguang could choose to fight back, which is more in line with the character's personality!!"

The others were convinced by Huang Huayu, but Song Heng was not in the mood to think about anything else, "as you wish."

He strode forward and faced the few brawny men on the ground, "get up, all of you!"

Yang Xiaotao hurriedly pulled Su Ji to the side and anxiously wanted to see the injury on her head.

"It's fine, just a little cut," Su Ji blocked it.

However, Yang Xiaotao realized that her fists had also turned red from the beating.

Song Heng looked at the brawny men who were struggling to stand up. They were either holding their stomach or their head. He lowered his voice and said in English, "what's this?"

"It's not our fault. That woman is too scary!"

Song Heng noticed that Su Ji was looking at him from the corner of his eye. He was afraid that someone would find out, "hurry up and get out of here, or don't even think about getting a single cent!"

The brawny men picked up their phones and wallets that had been knocked to the ground, and they didn't dare to stay for a moment longer.

"You haven't even got paid for today's work, why are you leaving?" Huang Huayu chased after them, but he couldn't catch up.

She turned around and looked at Su Ji, “the wound on your head isn’t from makeup, is it? No wonder they ran away so quickly. They must have known that they’d hit your head and were afraid that we’d hold them accountable. He then called the staff beside him, “hurry up and get a doctor!

It wasn’t that these people were too stupid to see it. Normal people wouldn’t have thought that such a thin girl like Su Ji could defeat so many strong men by herself!

Therefore, they all thought that it was on purpose.

However, Yang Xiaotao and Su Ji definitely knew that it was not the case.

Song Heng gritted his teeth and glared at the two of them. He heaved a sigh of relief when he saw that they did not say anything to the others and allowed the doctor to examine their head injuries.

At least Su Ji knew what was good for her. As the director, he wanted to teach her a lesson and she swallowed it.

1

In the crew, the director had the highest authority, so don’t think about challenging that authority!

Song Heng did not know what had happened just now. He did not believe that Su Ji could really defeat those strong men.

However, he was not in a hurry. He was the director, so he would have plenty of opportunities to mess with Su Ji in the future!

Yang Xiaotao said, “there’s definitely something wrong. I think it’s Director Dong’s doing. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have looked so guilty and anxious!

Su Ji asked the doctor to disinfect her wound and not bandage it up, “I know.”

Yang Xiaotao’s hands were chafed and she was applying medicine at the moment, “so we’re just going to take it? But he’s the director after all...”

“Do you think I’ll just let it go like this?” Su Ji scoffed.

Yang Xiaotao raised her head and met Su Ji’s bright and beautiful eyes.

At that moment, she realized that she had been too naive!

“Are you sure you don’t want to bandage it?” she pointed at Su Ji’s head.

“I’m not so delicate,” Su Ji replied.

She didn’t want Xu Mingzhi to be worried when she got home.

**

In the afternoon, the large truck from the moving company that had just gone to Su Ji’s house a few days ago was now parked in front of the Pei family’s house.

“Is there a better location in A City than here? Where is the boss moving to?”

“Who knows? In any case, he won’t move next to my house.”

“Just mind your own business.”

In the living room, Pei Qingshen pretended to be reluctant, “why are you moving out? Grandpa will miss you so much!”

Pei Huai half-leaned against the door and watched as the workers moved some important documents out box by box, “stop pretending. Didn’t Shen Mu tell you why I moved out?”

Pei Qingshen and Shen Mu quickly exchanged glances.

“How did he know we’re on the same side?”

“I swear I didn’t say anything!”

Pei Qingshen pretended not to understand and sighed, “we can’t keep the children by our side as they grow older. At least it’s still in the same city. Don’t worry about me. I have your elder sister and second brother to take care of me. I’ll be fine.”

After all the boxes had been moved away, Pei Huai stood at the door and smiled, “don’t worry, I’ll bring one more person with me when I move back.”

Pei Qingshen almost couldn’t hold back his tears of excitement.

“The pig that I’ve raised painstakingly for so many years finally knows how to dig up cabbages!”

1

Wuwuwu....

**

The car drove into Shuitian Residences, and Su Ji got out of the car with her heavy backpack.

The moving company’s car was parked in front of the neighbor’s house.

So they really did have neighbors.

The two houses shared the same garbage bins, which were placed in front of the two courtyards.

Su Ji quietly weighed the bag on her shoulder and glanced at the bin.

She was going to throw the book away before her mom saw it.

“Baby, why aren’t you coming in?”

Unfortunately, Su Ji had just thrown the book into the bin and put her backpack on her shoulders when Xu Mingzhi came out.

She walked in front of Su Ji and saw the book in the bin.

The awkwardness continued for a second, then two.

At the third second, Xu Mingzhi took a deep breath, “whose book is this? Owning kind of book in the great Shang Dynasty is enough to face capital punishment!”

Su Ji’s brain worked quickly, and she lifted her chin towards the moving vehicle parked next door, “probably the neighbors’. Aren’t they moving in now?”

Chapter 153: An Embarrassing Situation

Xu Mingzhi narrowed his eyes in disgust and pulled her into the house, “come in. We better not bump into this kind of neighbor!”

Su Ji obediently followed her into the house and silently apologized to her future neighbor.

Hope he doesn’t mind.

...

After dinner, Su Ji suddenly remembered something.

If the neighbor saw the book, wouldn’t they know it was from them?

She should have put it in a plastic bag before throwing it away, then it wouldn’t have been so troublesome.

“Aunt Wu, give me the trash. I’ll take it out.”

The chubby Aunt Wu paused, “ah, thank you, miss!”

“You’re welcome,” Su Ji smiled, “oh right, give me another garbage bag.”

“Alright, miss.”

Then, she went out.

“...”

The book was gone!

And she was very sure that the people who cleaned the garbage truck had not come.

The few bags of trash that had been under the book were still there, but the book was missing.

Su Ji slowly turned. The lights on the second floor of the neighbor’s house were on.

There was a figure sitting in front of the window, seemingly flipping through a book.

1

She narrowed her eyes and turned around to return to her room.

As long as she wasn’t embarrassed.

They didn’t know each other anyway.

Back in the room, Xu Mingzhi was reviewing the contract in the study, while Su Ji was sitting in the living room, occasionally glancing at the trash can outside the window.

On the phone, she added Yang Xiaotao into her friends' group chat.

[Meng Na: "Really? Director Song is so shameless? Isn't that a violation of workplace policy?]

[Pan Lian: "Baby, is your head still bleeding? Quick, take a picture and show us!"]

[Yang Xiaotao: "I've seen scummy ex-boyfriends, but I've never seen one like him! Director Song had definitely reached the peak of a*sholeness! I really hope that Su Qianrou gets together with him. Otherwise, there will be two innocent people in this world who will be hurt!!"]

Every exclamation mark represented her anger.

[Su Ji: "The first episode of 'The Billions Stars' is about to be aired. We'll talk about it later."]

[Meng Na: "Right. They just changed the second female lead. If they change the director before the episode is aired, it will definitely affect the ratings."]

[Pan Lian: "The first episode is about what happened to the male lead three years ago, so our baby will be the main character. We must make sure the ratings are high. In the second episode, Xuefang will be the main character."]

[Yang Xiaotao: "Yeah, I almost forgot."]

However, this was not the reason why Su Ji did not say anything.

[Su Ji: "Let him continuing dreaming for two more days."]

The more beautiful the dream, the more one cries when one wakes up.

The group was chatting happily when the dialog box showed that there was a new message.

Su Ji left the chatroom. Pei Huai had sent her a message.

["Come to the neighbor's house."]

???

Why did it sound like she was getting reprimanded?

Su Ji had a very bad feeling.

[Pei Huai: "If you don't, I'll go over."]

Su Ji's eyebrows twitched. She told herself that he had only moved next door and had not seen the book.

The next second...

[Pei Huai: "I'll come with the book."]

Su Ji was speechless.

When she went downstairs, she noticed that Xu Mingzhi was still on the phone in the study.

She was now preparing to move the main company back to China, so she would be very busy for a while.

Su Ji informed Aunt Wu and quickly went downstairs. To save time, she did not use the door but crossed the fence and landed in the courtyard next door.

Pei Huai had left the door open for her. The layout of the house was exactly the same as her house, but there were very few things in it. It was obvious that he had just moved in.

A butler on the first floor was not surprised to see her come in. He smiled kindly and said, "I'm Uncle He. Young master is on the second floor."

"Thank you, Uncle He," Su Ji replied.

Before she came, she saw a light upstairs, which was where Xu Mingzhi's study was located.

The door wasn't closed.

Su Ji walked to the door and entered the house.

The warm light in the study illuminated the small corridor.

Pei Huai was sitting peacefully in front of his desk. In front of him was the book that Su Ji had dreamed of destroying.

"Come here," Pei Huai looked at her with a smile that was not a smile.

Su Ji only took two steps forward. When she was about three meters away from his desk, she stopped and repeated the lines she had thought of in a serious tone, "actually, this book belongs to Uncle Wang."

Pei Huai took out a card from the book, his thin lips smiling, "this card also belongs to Uncle Wang?"

It was the bank card Su Cunyi gave her!

Last time, she closed the book as soon as Su Cunyi left, and she never took out the card!

Su Ji narrowed her eyes, took a few steps forward, and snatched the card from his hand, "the card is mine."

Pei Huai only took the book because he saw the card. He was worried that it was something important, so he took the book out. Then, he found out what the book was about.

Although Su Ji was standing beside him, she turned her head to the wall as if someone was standing there as well. She did not look at him.

Pei Huai chuckled and pulled her to sit on his lap. His well-defined fingers pointed at the open book, "young lady, are you interested in human anatomy?"

Su Ji remembered that the chapter that the card was on was about...

When she glanced at the title of the chapter, even Su Ji, who always had a poker face, could not remain calm!

“Chapter 419: The devil concubine had learned a new move. Prince Huai persevered for 49 days and finally committed the crime!”

1

Of all the chapters, it had to be this one!

The most exciting chapter in the entire book!

Without thinking about anything else, Su Ji clarified, “I swear! I didn’t even read this chapter!”

At that time, she had only flipped to this chapter to read about Prince Huai’s life.

“If you didn’t read this chapter, then which chapter did you read?” Pei Huai chuckled.

Su Ji’s ears were getting hot, and she felt that she would lose face if she continued like this.

After thinking about it, she changed her attitude and snorted, “it’s none of your business which chapter I’m reading. I’m an adult, it’s my freedom to read whatever I want!”

However, Pei Huai did not get angry. Instead, he laughed, “don’t worry, I just want to say...”

“I’m also interested...” he whispered in her ear, “next time, don’t read it secretly. We can discuss it together.”

Su Ji’s face was uncomfortably hot. She bumped her head against his. She wanted to push him away, but she forgot that there was a wound on her head.

“Hiss...”

The wound split open, and red blood seeped out from between her hair.

Pei Huai’s expression turned cold almost instantly.

“How did this happen?” his eyes glinted coldly.

Chapter 154: Su Ji’s Backer

Su Ji could have said, “it’s just a small injury. Don’t worry about it.”

But Su Ji was not like that. She immediately said, “I was tricked by Song Heng.”

Pei Huai looked at the wound on her head for a while, “I’ll help you apply some medicine first.”

...

Pei Huai made her sit on his chair and got up to get the medicine.

Su Ji knew that he was a very stubborn person. He had insisted on applying medicine for her when she had a few small wounds on her fingers, let alone when her forehead was bleeding.

Therefore, Su Ji did not refuse and cooperated with him.

Pei Huai carefully cleaned her wound. Her beautiful skin had already formed a scab, but she tore it.

Pei Huai's brows were tightly furrowed.

Su Ji saw that he seemed so serious and wanted to relax the atmosphere.

She quietly reached for the book.

As expected, Pei Huai noticed her actions, "you still want to read it?"

Su Ji smiled, "well, not exactly..."

Pei Huai's expression didn't change much while he carefully disinfected the wound, "I'm confiscating it."

"Where did you buy the book?" Pei Huai asked after a long while.

He was just curious where she bought it from.

However, Su Ji misunderstood what he meant, "you also want to buy it?"

"Just read mine, you don't have to waste money on buying another one," Su Ji said.

Pei Huai didn't bother to explain.

Su Ji suddenly thought of something, "well, it's best not to let my mom know that you're living next door for now."

"Why?" Pei Huai asked.

Su Ji's eyes flickered, "there's no reason. Just listen to me."

"Alright," Pei Huai smiled.

**

The next day, Pei Huai left for the company very early.

Xu Mingzhi never mentioned the neighbor again.

Su Ji still had to go to the set today to reshoot the previous scenes with Su Qianrou.

"Did you see our neighbor last night?" Xu Mingzhi asked when she saw her leaving the house, "he leaves early and returns late. How mysterious."

"No, I didn't," Su Ji touched the tip of her nose.

"Oh," Xu Mingzhi said, "it's better that you don't meet them. Those who read that kind of book are most likely perverts. When you go to bed at night, you must draw the curtains properly. The window facing east is facing his bedroom window."

"Is that so?" Su Ji didn't notice it last night.

"Why don't I switch rooms with you?" Xu Mingzhi suggested.

Su Ji was afraid that her boyfriend, who was her scapegoat, would be exposed, “no need. I’ll open the south-facing window. It’s fine as long as I don’t open the curtain.”

Xu Mingzhi nodded, but she still didn’t feel at ease.

The first episode of “The Billion Stars” was about to air, so Su Ji was quite busy these few days.

Not only did she have to reshoot the scenes, but she also had to record the theme song.

Meng Na had finished writing the song and she named it “Love Contract”. The three of them went to the recording studio to record their respective parts.

The teacher in the recording studio was a veteran and had helped many newcomers record their first singles, but he had never witnessed such a scene!

First, the top manager from Blue Whale, Pei Xi, came to greet him, “Mr. Ke, please take care of them. These three kids are quite talented, but they don’t have much experience.”

Then, Manager Ren came over and asked, “how did it go? If there’s anything that needs to be improved, be patient and don’t be too hard on them.”

Finally, the CEO, Pei Huai, came and sat beside him. He even asked him in a serious tone, “do you think this song will become popular?”

The legendary Old Ke was speechless.

With so many big shots supporting them, it would be strange if it wasn’t popular!

**

The first episode was released on Saturday night at 8 pm.

Meng Na and the others also finished recording the theme song at the same time.

Xu Mingzhi informed all the employees that they had to sit in front of the TV and watch this episode at 8 pm that night.

And she would pay them for overtime.

This included those in Continent M, who could watch it online.

Blue Whale’s production was definitely of high quality.

The press conference had already created the hype, and the few lead actors were trending every few days.

Not only did the viewership of the first episode break the record, Su Ji’s one-shot fight scene also exploded on the internet!

Previously, Su Ji was already trending due to her family drama, but now she was once again in the headlines.

[“I’m already tired of saying this, but Su Ji is so cool!”]

[“This is the most powerful female lead I’ve ever seen!”]

[“This is why the male lead cannot forget about her!”]

When the first episode was aired, the character created by Su Ji, with her beautiful and badass image, firmly captured the audience’s attention.

Their original theme song was also pushed to the top of the billboard.

The song “Love Contract ” was just like its name. It made people want to fall in love.

The next day at work, half of the Xu Group employees knew how to sing it!

There were even some who were good at sucking up and suggested that this song should be the theme song for the Xu’s Group annual dinner.

Zhou Xuefang felt threatened. She hadn’t even appeared yet but the series had already exploded.

In the first episode, Su Ji was the main character, while she was the main character in the second episode. There would be an implicit competition.

Now that the response to Su Ji’s episode was so good, she must not lose!

Meanwhile, Song Heng enjoyed the success.

Even Zhang Guihua called him to congratulate him.

He had woken up twice in one night with joy. With the initial popularity, he had definitely succeeded!

He was popular in directing movies and TV series. How could there be someone as talented as him in this world? Those so-called great directors could just pack up and retire.

2

The next morning after the premiere of “The billion Stars”, Song Heng received a call from Manager Ren.

“Song Heng, come to the office this morning,” Ren Guanghua said.

Song Heng was so happy that he did not notice the coldness in his voice, “no problem! I’ll be there immediately!”

When he arrived at the meeting room, Ren Guanghua was not there, but Song Heng saw Su Ji sitting inside.

The smile on his face immediately froze, “Su Ji, what are you doing here? Where’s Manager Ren? Wasn’t he looking for me?”

Su Ji sat in a manly posture, her slender elbow resting on the armrest of the chair. She gently touched the wound on her forehead that had already formed a scab, “to be exact, I’m the one looking for you.”

Song Heng suddenly recalled what happened the other day and asked warily, “why? I’m warning you, be careful with your words! I’m the director!”

“Soon, you won’t be anymore,” Su Ji smiled and pushed a contract to him, “sign the termination contract and withdraw from the ‘The Billion Stars’. As for the reason, you should know without me saying, right? As the director, you took advantage of your position and replaced the extras with professional fighters. Do you need me to continue?”

Song Heng quickly glanced behind Su Ji and saw that the door to the meeting room was tightly shut. He then looked for the surveillance camera in the room but did not find it. He pushed his glasses up with a fierce expression, “Su Ji! I thought you were quite sensible, but it seems that I was wrong. Let’s not talk about whether you have any evidence about the incident. Even if you do, the show is so popular now, do you think I’m stupid enough to quit? What right do you have to change the director?”

Su Ji smiled and did not say anything.

“What if I was the one who suggested changing the director?”

Pei Huai’s deep voice came.

The door of the meeting room opened, and a man appeared behind Su Ji.

On his left and right were Pei Xi and Ren Guanghua.

Chapter 155: An Interrogation by Master Pei

Song Heng felt a chill run down his spine and his blood froze.

1

Song Heng’s words could be regarded as evidence. However, Pei Xi stepped forward and threw a stack of documents on the table.

It was easy to find the group of people who helped him hire the thugs.

...

Those people were just there for the money. When Pei Xi mentioned Su Ji’s name to them, they agreed to tell her everything.

Song Heng was stunned the moment he saw the information.

Pei Xi stood beside Su Ji.

The aura of the two women was so strong that it was explosive.

However, Song Heng’s gaze fell on Pei Huai.

How could it be like this?

Recalling their analysis at the hospital the other day, Song Heng did not understand, “CEO Pei, don’t you hate Su Ji? ”

1

PEI Huai slowly walked behind Su Ji and patted her head, "Director Song, why would I hate my girlfriend?"

1

"What?"

Girlfriend?

To be honest, Song Heng had also thought that there was something going on between them.

However, he thought that Su Ji was seducing him.

To Song Heng, hearing CEO Pei personally admit that Su Ji was his girlfriend and giving her a proper status was simply a fantasy!

The ex-girlfriend that he had been so worried about not being able to get rid of had actually become CEO Pei's girlfriend?

What Song Heng didn't know was that not only did Pei Huai want to admit that Su Ji was his girlfriend, but if Su Ji didn't say that she wanted to hide it, he would have already announced it publicly.

Ren Guanghua was unperturbed, "Director Song, you shouldn't worry about CEO Pei's relationship with the artists. There are still many procedures to be done after signing the termination contract."

Song Heng's hands were numb. Su Ji was right. The more beautiful the dream was, the more painful it would be when one woke up.

Last night, he had thought that he had already reached the peak of the entertainment industry, but facing him today was a contract termination!

Song Heng could not accept this decision and his voice was trembling, "don't you forget that I own the script. If I quit, you guys can forget about continuing the show!"

Pei Xi snorted, "Director Song, it is a shared copyright between you and the other screenwriters."

"As for your share, we can choose to buy it or not. But don't forget that you need to pay a penalty."

"You've violated the company's policy, used your position to take revenge on private matters during work, harm an employee, and cause us loss from having to hire a new director. How much should you pay in total? If you can't figure it out, we'll help you calculate it."

"The cost of buying your share should be able to cover one-tenth of the debt you owe the company, right?"

Song Heng supported himself on the table with both hands and looked at the three mountains behind Su Ji. He only came to his senses at this moment.

What he was facing now was not as simple as losing money and losing his job.

Now that he had offended Blue Whale and the CEO, he would be blacklisted!

Beads of cold sweat dripped on the conference table, and his glasses slid to the tip of his nose.

The successful Song Heng in Su Qianrou's heart was finished.

After that, Song Heng's legs turned to jelly and he could not walk on his own. The security guards took him away.

Ren Guanghua was talking to Su Ji about the company while Pei Xi and PEI Huai stood at the side.

Pei Xi said softly, "to be honest, on the plane back to China, I was worried that Su Ji wouldn't be good enough for you, but after I watched the first episode and saw that she could fight so many men on her own, I was so impressed by her coolness!

"So, you don't have to worry anymore," Pei Huai raised an eyebrow.

Pei Xi shook her head, "no! I'm even more worried!"

"?"

"Because I feel that you're not good enough for her!" Pei Xi replied.

2

"..."

He leaned against the table behind him, his hands in his pockets, the buttons of his shirt stretched out in a Z-shape. After a short moment of shock, he smiled.

"I don't know how good she is, but I know that she can't beat me," he said.

**

The next day, the production team welcomed a new director, Han Junlei.

He advocated military-style management in the crew.

That was why he stood out among the new directors at such a young age without relying on any connections.

They heard that the blankets of the crew that were brought his subordinates were folded like tofu blocks.

However, even though he seemed to be very tough, his appreciation of the art of film and television was also extremely high.

Huang Huayu was still an assistant director. He thought that he would be able to get promoted after Song Heng left, but...

Han Junlei was very strict. On his first day of work, he asked all the actors and staff members of the production team to come to a meeting.

Therefore, even Yang Xiaotao and Su Ji, who did not have any scenes today, must be there.

The spacious filming location was like a military training field.

Han Junlei said, "everyone, take your positions! Stand at attention!"

The actors stood in the first row, the other staff members stood in the second row, and the managers stood in the third row.

Si Jingchuan insisted on standing beside Su Ji. He was so anxious when he heard that his boss' head was injured that he insisted on sticking to her to see if she's okay.

However, Si Jingchuan was tall, so he stood out from the crowd.

"You!" Han Junlei pointed at him, "go stand behind!"

Si Jingchuan mumbled, "you're so strict. I'm going to tell on you to my dad!"

"Don't think I didn't hear you!" Han Junlei said, "if you continue to blabber, I'll make you run around the filming location!"

Si Jingchuan obediently went to the back of the line.

"You, stand up straight!"

"You, straighten your back!"

"You smoke? Quit it!"

1

Zhou Xuefang was the best at showing off herself. She stood upright and even made a forbearing expression from time to time.

She looked like she was physically disabled but determined!

Han Junlei adjusted his beret. He glanced around the team with an imposing gaze and lectured them one by one.

"From today onwards! I'm the director of. My name is Han Junlei! Let's work hard together! The filming efficiency would be increased by at least three times! Next, I'll say a few words to the actors. Si Jingchuan, your sickly look should only appear on the screen! Train your body to be stronger! Don't delay the shooting progress because of your health."

He had understood each one of them in advance.

Speaking of Su Ji, he became even more serious, "Su Ji, even if you're the newcomer supported by Blue Whale, I won't be soft-hearted! If you don't act well, I'll still scold you! You'll get the same treatment as everyone else!"

"That's great," Su Ji smiled.

In the third row, Pei Xi remained still as she asked Fu Xiaofeng, "do you know who hired this new director?"

"I think Manager Ren did," Fu Xiaofeng replied.

"He's dead," Pei Xi said.

1

Chapter 156: Asking for Trouble

After the meeting, everyone dispersed.

They whispered and mumbled to each other about two things.

First, it was about Han Junlei. Second, it was about Song Heng. Why was he suddenly fired?

...

Zhou Xuefang looked at Su Ji who looked smug.

Su Ji noticed that she was staring at her. After a while, she raised her eyebrows, “are you in love with me?”

Zhou Xuefang’s expression immediately turned cold. She snorted, turned around, and left.

Han Junlei did not give anyone any time to react and had already started the next step, “Jingchuan, Xuefang, come here, I’ll tell you about the next scene!”

**

At the same time, a black Maybach stopped in front of the Pei family’s house.

In the back row, a maid got out of the car first, then carefully helped the old lady down.

Zhang Guihua held her walking stick and glanced at the rich and magnificent Pei residence in front of her. She then turned her head and urged the driver, “son, come down quickly.”

Su Cunyi sighed and reluctantly got out of the car, “mom, if the Pei family really stopped cooperating with us because they are dissatisfied with us, then I don’t think there is a need to come here today!”

Zhang Guihua’s face was dark, “why not? She has caused too much trouble this time. If we don’t come and apologize today, we don’t know what will happen to us! Son, when you see Old Master Pei later, apologize to him and promise that Su ji won’t use CEO Pei to gain popularity again. Maybe we still have a chance.”

Su Cunyi asked, “when did Su Ji ride on his popularity? Now that she’s so popular, he might be the one riding on her popularity! Do they think that without Su Ji, the show would receive such high viewership?”

1

Zhang Guihua was speechless. She was such a smart person, how could she have given birth to such a stupid son?

1

When she saw the door of the Pei family open, she was afraid that Su Cunyi’s rebellious words would be heard by them, so she hit him with her crutch.

“You shut up! If you don’t want to anger your mother to death, then do as I say later!”

Su Cunyi let out another deep sigh.

Back then, if it wasn't for his mother, Xu Mingzhi might not have been so determined to divorce him.

A helper of the Pei family came out.

Su Cunyi had no choice but to reluctantly explain their purpose of visit. Then, he stood under the hot sun with Zhang Guihua and waited for more than ten minutes.

Inside the house, the butler came to the back garden. Pei Qingshen was currently listening to a lute tune and playing with the fish in the pond.

He didn't hear what the butler said at first, but when he heard the word "Su," he immediately turned around with a smile, "Su Ji is here?"

The butler bowed, "old master, it's not Ms. Su. It's the master and the old madam of the Su family.

Pei Qingshen's expression immediately turned serious, "what are they doing here?"

"It's probably because of the contracts."

Pei Qingshen's eyes narrowed as he turned back to feed the fish.

Fortunately, Su Ji's biological mother had returned. Otherwise, if she had stayed in the Su family for a while longer, she would have been tortured.

However, they were her family, so he was willing to give them a chance.

After a while, he raised his hand and gestured to the butler.

Pei Qingshen tilted his head slightly, "tell them this..."

Now that the hint had been given, it was up to them to see if they could understand it.

The butler went out and saw the two people waiting at the door.

He was polite but direct, "I'm sorry. The old master is resting. He doesn't want to see anyone at the moment."

Zhang Guihua frowned. She was angry, but she suppressed it.

She blamed it all on Su Ji.

If she hadn't acted so preposterously and angered the Pei family, would they have been given the cold shoulder here?

Zhang Guihua smiled and said, "can you make an exception? We're here to apologize."

Her maid saw the look in her eyes and stepped forward, holding a few boxes of gifts stacked together.

It was heavy and looked very valuable.

The butler smiled politely and made a gesture of refusal, "old master knows why you're here, but I believe you're well aware that this has something to do with one person."

Zhang Guihua was ashamed, "of course I understand. It's all because of my granddaughter."

The butler nodded, "the old master said that the person who tied the bell must untie the bell. To solve the problem between the Su and Pei families, the two of you shouldn't be here now. You should go to Ms. Su..."

1

In other words, they should apologize to Ms. Su now and the Pei family could resume their cooperation with the Su family.

After saying that, the butler returned to the house and closed the door in front of the two.

Su Cunyi looked at the closed door for a while and frowned, "mom, why do I feel that the Pei family's attitude is kind when they talk about Su Ji? They don't seem to be angry with her."

Zhang Guihua was already furious, "not angry? Did he have to scold her to be angry? The Pei family is a respectable family, and this is already giving her enough face!"

"Then what do you think the butler meant?" Su Cunyi disagreed.

Zhang Guihua rolled her eyes and said, "what else can it mean? He's already made it clear enough that it's useless for us to come and apologize. Su Ji has to come and apologize in person!"

1

"..."

Zhang Guihua sat back in the car, "son," she said, "take me to her filming location."

Su Cunyi immediately widened his eyes and said, "no!"

After that, Su Cunyi sat in the driver's seat and quickly sent his mother, who had poor comprehension, home.

In front of the Su family's villa, Su Cunyi stopped the car and waited for Zhang Guihua and her maid to get out. He lowered the window of the driver's seat and rushed out with a cold expression and a very serious tone, "mom, you can make me do whatever you want, but you're not allowed to look for Su Jji. She's very busy with filming now."

"It's none of your business," Zhang Guihua waved her hand, obviously not taking it seriously.

Su Cunyi added in a solemn tone, "if I found out that you've gone to look for her, you can forget about having me as your son."

His tone was calm, without any aggressiveness. It was obvious that he had said it after careful consideration.

Zhang Guihua paused and was about to lose her temper when Su Cunyi stepped on the accelerator and left, "I haven't been to the company in a few days. I'm going there now."

He really didn't want to stay with his mother.

Zhang Guihua's face was covered in car exhaust, and her eyebrows were raised.

The personal maid said worriedly, "old madam, I don't think he was just joking."

"Hmph!" Zhang Guihua slammed her walking stick on the ground.

Zhang Guihua was calm and composed, "call a taxi! Let's go to Su Ji now!"

Chapter 157: Her Love Affair was Exposed?

Meanwhile, the team had just finished filming a scene that was not that important.

Han Junlei checked Si Jingchuan and Zhou Xuefang's acting skills thoroughly.

Han Junlei asked Si Jingchuan to go to the side and rest for a while before he called Zhou Xuefang to the side.

...

It seemed that he was not satisfied with her acting and was lecturing her, but his attitude was not fierce.

Su Ji did not have any scenes today, so she was quite relaxed. She lay on a recliner in the distance while looking at them.

Zhou Xuefang nodded occasionally, showing a very humble attitude.

Su Ji casually flipped open a book and placed it on her face, closing her eyes to rest.

A few staff members happened to walk nearby and wanted to take advantage of the break time to gossip.

"Seriously, when I was carrying the camera, my hand trembled a little and Director Han saw it. He forced me to film it again."

"A strict teacher produces a good disciple, hehe."

"Why do you guys think Director Dong is cut off? The viewership of the first episode is so high. It shouldn't be because he's not good enough, right?"

"I heard that the extras that he hired last time weren't actors, they were thugs!"

"Ah? Why?"

"Did you forget that he wanted to pay Su Ji to sleep with him and was instantly exposed? He must be resentful and want to take revenge."

On the lounge chair next to them, Su Ji's face was covered with a book, and her beautiful long legs were casually crossed. As she listened to them, her lips slowly curved up. They were right.

"Wait! If what you said is true, then was Su Ji really fighting? That's impossible, right? How can she beat so many people by herself?"

“Also, Director Song was fired just because he offended Su Ji? Is the company not considering other things?”

“Don’t you know who Su Ji is?”

Su Ji’s ears twitched. Could it be that her secret love affair was exposed?

The next second, she heard the person say with certainty, “she is Manager Ren’s lover!”

“Pa!”

The book that was covering her face slid down, revealing Su Ji’s beautiful face.

“Ahhhhhhhhhhhhh! It’s Manager Ren’s lover, Su Ji!”

When those people saw Su Ji, it was as if they had seen a ghost. They were just looking for a place to gossip, but who knew that she was right next to them!

“Su Ji, we were not talking about you!”

“Please don’t lower yourself to our level!”

After that, they all ran away in fear.

Beside Su Ji was Pei Xi, who was lying on the recliner, also with a book on her face.

Pei Xi opened the book, a drop of sweat on her forehead, “I know my brother isn’t good enough for you, but he is still better than Manager Ren!”

“Let’s wait for my mom to agree first,” Su Ji replied.

1

The next scene was more important.

It was the scene where the male lead, Gu Shen, and the female lead, Shen Qianqian, met for the first time.

At a roadside newspaper stand, the two of them were looking at the same magazine.

The two of them reached out for the magazine at the same time, but obviously, they touched the other’s hand.

It was Shen Qianqian’s first time being touched by a man. She was like a frightened deer and hurriedly retracted her hand. As a result, she lost her balance and almost fell. Gu Shen reached out to help her up. After a 360-degree Waltz spin, Shen Qianqian fell into his arms.

It was a very cliché plot. Han Junlei exclaimed after he finished reading it, “gross!”

However, he had no choice. He had already accepted the script, so he had to continue filming.

This was his principle.

Han Junlei called Si Jingchuan and Zhou Xuefang together to discuss the scene.

He asked the two of them to act out the scene according to the script.

Zhou Xuefang had told herself countless times that her episode had to surpass Su Ji's ratings!

This time, she subconsciously overdid it, especially when she was about to fall and made an awkward sound.

Si Jingchuan had goosebumps all over his body.

Then, just as Zhou Xuefang waltzed 360 degrees and was about to land in his arms, Si Jingchuan subconsciously dodged backward.

"Thump!"

Zhou Xuefang fell to the ground.

"Pfft, hahahaha!" Pei Xi could not hold back.

"Shut up!" Han Junlei roared. Who told you to mock the actress?"

Pei Xi looked at Su Ji angrily, "does he not f * cking know that my family owns Blue Whale?!"

1

Su Ji shrugged, "it's just work."

Pei Xi replied, "I think he's always fair and square with everyone but he's nicer to Zhou Xuefang..."

Han Junlei personally helped her up.

"What happened just now?" Zhou Xuefang's face turned red.

Han Junlei said sternly, "why did you step back just now?"

Si Jingchuan looked around and saw Su Ji, "director, I forgot to take my medicine today. I'll be back!"

Then, without waiting for his reply, he jogged to Su Ji, "boss, where's the cuttlefish juice you gave me? Hurry up and give me more!"

Although the cuttlefish juice was disgusting, it was better than dealing with Zhou Xuefang!

This was the first time Su Ji had seen him take the initiative. She nodded in satisfaction and passed him the cuttlefish juice she had prepared for him.

Si Jingchuan took a big gulp and then walked over to Su Ji, "boss, let me see how your head is."

Pei Xi held his hand, "my brother will apply the medicine three times a day for her, so you don't have to worry about it."

Si Jingchuan pursed his lips and looked aggrieved, "boss, why can't I film this scene with you? I can't stand someone like Zhou Xuefang!"

"I would rather fight 20 thugs."

Pei Xi was amused by her.

In the distance, Zhou Xuefang stared at them and said in embarrassment, "Director Han, look at them."

Han Junlei frowned and raised his voice, "you don't have any scenes with her today! Come over and cultivate your feelings with the female lead!"

Si Jingchuan looked at Su Ji as if he was facing a formidable enemy. He had an expression that said, "save me!"

Su Ji furrowed her brows helplessly. Si Jingchuan had no choice, "I have to go now..."

The filming was carried out efficiently. Half an hour later, at the entrance of the filming location, Zhang Guihua raised her head arrogantly and said, "ask Director Song to come out and meet me."

Chapter 158: The Situation is Getting Worse

The staff thought that it was the queen from some country, so they paused for a moment before replying to her expressionlessly, "old lady, Director Song has already stepped down. It's Director Han now, do you need me to call him over?"

Stepped down??

Zhang Guihua and her maid looked at each other, and the maid shook her head.

...

"Are you the crew of 'The Billions Stars'?"

"Yes," the staff said.

"..."

Why didn't he tell her?

With the director changed, Zhang Guihua lost her support and she no longer felt powerful. "Then call Su Ji out."

When the staff heard Su Ji's name, his attitude immediately changed, "you know Su Ji?"

Regardless of what the crew thought of her, there was one thing that everyone agreed on. They all knew that she was ruthless, quiet, and not to be trifled with. Her beautiful appearance was just a cover-up!

Zhang Guihua also noticed the obvious change in his attitude and was stunned.

Su Ji was doing quite well in the crew?

"Yes, I do," she replied.

"Please wait for a moment, I'll call her out right away," the staff member immediately said.

Zhang Guihua looked at the staff who quickly disappeared and was pleased with herself. Although she hated Su Ji, she did not hate the staff's respectful attitude toward her.

Meanwhile, Si Jingchuan managed to finish the scene with great difficulty, relying on his experience in shooting romantic films.

As Zhou Xuefang had just been hugged by him, she was a little shy as she looked at him.

“...”

He turned around and told Fu Xiaofeng to get the car ready, as he was going to go home and take a shower after he was done!

1

The staff found Su Ji and told her that an old lady was looking for her.

Pei Xi asked, “old lady? Who is it?”

“We’ll know soon,” Su Ji said with a calm expression.

A few minutes later, the staff member brought Su Ji to Zhang Guihua.

To ensure her safety, the staff member asked Su Ji, “do you know her?”

This was Zhang Guihua’s first time seeing Su Ji since she came back. She felt uncomfortable looking at Su Ji’s indifference, but she was still proud when she heard the staff’s question.

After all, they didn’t just know each other.

She was Su Ji’s grandmother!

Just as she thought that Su Ji would walk to her side and obediently call her “grandma”, Su Ji smiled coldly and said, “no.”

1

Then, she turned around to leave!

“You don’t know her?” the staff was confused.

Zhang Guihua’s expression froze instantly. She didn’t expect Su Ji to not give her any face. She quickly walked over and tried to pull Su Ji back, “Su Ji! How can you be so rude? I’m your grandmother!”

However, just as she reached out to Su Ji, Su Ji smacked her hand away with her cell phone.

She didn’t even want to touch her.

However, after Su Ji looked at her for a while, she remembered that she was indeed the grandma of the original owner.

1

Zhang Guifang hissed in pain and was about to scold her, but she took into account the staff member beside her. She suppressed her temper and explained, “I’m her grandmother. I’m just going to say a few words to her.”

The staff member glanced at Su Ji. Seeing that Su Ji did not deny it anymore, he left.

Thinking about how the original owner's grandmother had pretended to be fair, but turned a blind eye to Ning Lihua and the others' violent actions, and was an accomplice to bullying the original owner, Su Ji raised her eyes and looked at the old lady in front of her coldly, "what do you want?"

Zhang Guihua looked at her maid angrily, "look at her attitude towards her own grandmother!"

Her maid stepped forward and advised her gently and sanctimoniously, "young miss, the old lady has worked hard for this family for her entire life. You shouldn't treat her like this."

"If you have nothing to say, I'm leaving," Su Ji sighed and turned around.

Zhang Guihua almost choked to death. "Don't go!" she shouted.

Unbelievable!

She must have gained confidence from her mother!

In the past, Su Ji would never have dared to speak to her like this!

At that time, no matter how she beat and scolded her, Su Ji did not even dare to say a word.

Seeing that she didn't want to give her face at all, Zhang Guihua could only get down to business, "pack up and come with me. We're going to the Pei family to apologize!"

Su Ji raised her eyebrows and snorted in a strange way. A few seconds later, she replied, "No"

"..."

Zhang Guihua obviously did not expect her to refuse so quickly.

The Su family had to clean up her mess, but she was giving her the attitude?

"Su Ji, don't push your luck! I'll ask you one more time, come with me to the Pei family and apologize! Are you going or not?"

"Do you not hear me? I said I'm not going," Su Ji said.

Zhang Guihua waved her hand at the servant beside her in a domineering manner, "just grab her and get her in the car!"

She did not know that Su Ji could take on a group of strong men by herself.

However, the maid was old and Su Ji wouldn't fight senior citizens.

At this moment, Pei Xi's voice rang out from behind, "who's trying to take my artist?"

Pei Xi had been abroad all year round, so Zhang Guihua did not recognize her.

The Pei family who could save the Su family was right in front of her. Not only did she not know her, she also had a bad impression of her when she heard that she was Su Ji's manager.

Pei Xi was worried and decided to come over to take a look. She did not expect her to be a weirdo.

She was very protective of Su Ji now. Pei Huai had said that if Su Ji got hurt on set again, he would give her more money.

That might be a joke, but Pei Huai had seriously told her to take good care of Su Ji.

Su Ji glanced at her, "Pei Xi, let's go back. Ignore her."

Zhang Guihua could not get in, so she cursed angrily behind them. "Su Ji! I can't believe we have an ungrateful child like you! You don't care about the Su family's life just because you're living well! What's wrong with asking you to apologize to the Pei family? I'm telling you, you have to do it no matter what!"

Pei Xi could not take it anymore. She turned around and smiled, "old lady, do you know who I am?"

Zhang Guihua was going crazy, "I don't care! The manager of that wretched girl must be crazy!"

Pei Xi was speechless.

Great.

That night, Su Cunyi finally finished dealing with work and returned home exhausted. He was about to go back to his room to rest when he received a call from his secretary.

"Bad news, boss!"

"How bad can it be at this point? Tell me" Su Cunyi said.

The secretary stuttered, "the Pei Corporation just informed us that they're stopping two more projects with us!!"

Chapter 159: A New Housemate!

Su Cunyi hung up the phone and went downstairs in a huff. Zhang Guihua was sitting on the sofa.

"Mom! Did you go to Su Ji?"

Zhang Guihua was even angrier than he was, "this is the daughter you've been protecting? Quickly cut off all ties with her!"

...

Su Cunyi clenched his fists tightly. Since he was a child, he had always believed in being a filial son, but today, he really couldn't bear it anymore!

Zhang Guihua saw that he was glaring at her, "why are you looking at me like that? Do you want to kick your mother out?"

Su Cunyi, "you can stay here and I'll leave!"

"!"

**

Su Ji went home and took a shower first. The wind was strong today, and she had been in the studio the whole day.

After she came out of the bathroom, she put on a bathrobe that Xu Mingzhi had prepared for her. It was made of white silk satin and had a red dahlia on it.

It was actually a style that was hard to describe in a few words, but Su Ji was beautiful, so she looked exquisite wearing it.

Especially when a drop of water flowed along her beautiful collarbone and into her...

Su Ji was sitting in front of the desk, drying her hair. When her hair was almost dry, she suddenly remembered something.

The window in front of her desk happened to be facing east. When she went out this morning, her mother had said something about it.

Su Ji raised her head and saw Pei Huai's room opposite. The two windows were quite close, and it was not hard to jump over.

The next moment, the lights in the room lit up and Pei Huai entered.

Su Ji had perfect vision, so she could clearly see the furnishings in his room.

The colors were black, white, and gray. There was a sofa by the window opposite her.

There was almost nothing in there. A bed, an office desk, a bookcase, a sofa and lights. That was all.

There must be a few empty rooms for a single person to live in such a large house.

Pei Huai's window was open, and Su Ji had also pushed open her own window. Pei Huai seemed to have heard the sound and looked over.

This was the first time Pei Huai had seen Su Ji like this. Because she had just taken a shower, her skin was paler than usual and her eyes were moist.

"Have you seen enough?" Su Ji smiled after a while.

Pei Huai paused for a moment before he realized that his throat was very dry.

He chuckled and walked to the window, looking at her openly, "is your head better?"

She didn't expect that moving next to her would have such a benefit. They didn't have to text anymore.

"Much better, I don't need to apply medicine anymore," Su Ji replied.

"Do it for three more days," Pei Huai said assertively.

Both of them had good medical skills, so it was inevitable that they would have different opinions.

"Two days at most," Su Ji replied.

"Deal," Pei Huai said.

"Baby, can I come in? Mom brought you some fruits." Su Ji turned back to look at the door, then immediately closed the window and drew the curtains in one go.

"..."

The beautiful night came to an abrupt end.

After Xu Mingzhi left, Su Ji did not open the curtain again.

She went to bed and took out her phone to browse for a while. In order to create hype for the show, the marketing team had asked them to post at least one clip to TikTok every week.

Su Ji had sent one two days ago, and now that she remembered it, she opened it to take a look.

Then, she found that a fan called “Su Ji’s daddy fan” was spamming comments in her comment section.

[“There are many temptations in this world, but you have to believe that the people who love you the most will always be your parents.”]

[“Please give the person who loves you a chance to make up for it.”]

[“Regardless, the person who loves you will always be supporting you from behind!”]

1

“...”

Was this person heartbroken or what?

Soon, there was a reply to his first comment.

It was “.”, who had not appeared for a long time.

[“There are many temptations in this world, but you have to believe that the person who loves you the most will always be your future husband.”]

1

He imitated the format, but with a few words changed, the meaning was completely different.

Su Ji’s nose twitched, as though she smelled something sour.

[Su Ji’s daddy fan: “Husband? Only parents would truly wish for their daughter’s well-being at all times, and would even selflessly dedicate themselves to her!”]

[.: “But only her husband could accompany her to the end.”]

[Su Ji’s daddy fan: “Your name looks very familiar. I’ve reported someone with the same name on Weibo before. Tell me, are you the person I reported?”]

[.: “As expected, you’re the one who reported me last time. Great.”]

[Su Ji’s daddy fan: “Yes, I did. So what? You’re trying to threaten me?”]

Su Ji saw that these two people were fighting with each other, and she was thinking of posting something to ease the tension. After all, these two people were her biggest supporters.

But the next second, “Su Ji’s daddy fan” posted another message.

[Su Ji’s daddy fan: “I’m at my daughter’s house right now! Come if you dare!”]

“...”

Out of curiosity, she subconsciously looked out of the south window.

Sure enough, she saw a dispirited uncle sitting on the curb in front of her house, frantically tapping at the phone screen.

The more she looked at him, the more familiar he looked.

A few minutes later, Su Cunyi, who was still typing furiously on his phone, noticed a pair of sneakers in front of him.

He almost thought that the person had really come looking for him. As she looked up, she saw her daughter, whom he had not seen for a few days. A bitter smile appeared on his face, “Su Ji, why did you come out?”

Su Ji looked at him with her arms crossed. Su Cunyi had grown a stubble, and the dark circles under his eyes were so deep that they looked like eyeliner.

“You’re ‘Su Ji’s daddy fan’.” She sighed.

Su Cunyi subconsciously put away his phone and tried to cover it up. “I just came out for a walk. I haven’t seen you in a few days and I miss you. You look good, so you must be doing well living with your mom. I’ll go back then...”

Su Ji glanced to the side and mercilessly exposed his lie, “you brought two large suitcases out for a walk?”

Su Cunyi’s expression at the moment was one of fear.

Su Ji didn’t know why he came, but since Zhang Guihua was at home, he probably couldn’t stay there with her.

“Don’t tell me you want to come to stay with me?”

Su Cunyi suddenly had hope, “if your mother allows it...”

“Mom won’t even let you stay in the garage,” Su Ji said objectively.

Su Cunyi’s hope was instantly extinguished.

He didn’t pester her and turned around to leave.

Su Ji couldn’t bear to see him like this, so she called out, “well, dad, if you really don’t have a place to stay, CEO Pei stays next to us. Why don’t you ask him?”

1

Chapter 160: I’ll Restore Two Projects

“CEO Pei?”

“Why is CEO Pei staying next door? Doesn’t he live in the Pei family’s old mansion?”

He immediately looked at the building next door and saw that the light in the study on the second floor was indeed on, and there was indeed a man sitting in front of the window.

...

He seemed to have heard their conversation. The moment he looked over, he closed the window, turned off the light, and closed the door. He was rejecting him implicitly.

Su Cunyi turned around and looked at his daughter.

If it was really as Zhang Guihua said, that the Pei family was angry at his daughter, then CEP Pei would not have moved next door for no reason.

However, Su Ji had no intention of explaining to him. With her hands in her pockets, she said casually, “mom will be coming out of the study in a while. I’ll go home first.”

“By the way,” she suddenly remembered something and turned to look at him, “‘.’ is a woman, don’t fight with her.”

Su Cunyi found it hard to believe. The person sounded more manly than an average man!

However, he was also worried that Xu Mingzhi would see them, so he waved his hand and said, “sure, go in.”

“Bye.”

Su Cunyi carried a suitcase in each hand and came to Pei Huai’s house.

Actually, even if he left the Su family, he could stay in a hotel. However, he really wanted to know why Pei Huai was staying next to his daughter!

There was an inexplicable sense of danger that made him want to move in, as if he was trying to spy on them.

He stood at the door and knocked twice. There were footsteps at the door, but no one answered or opened it.

Suspicious.

It was not appropriate for Su Cunyi to continue knocking on the door and disturb others. He stood at the door and sent his daughter a voice message, “it seems like no one is there. Why don’t you help me persuade your mom and see if I can stay with you guys tonight?”

As expected, the door opened before he could finish speaking.

In fact, he hadn’t even sent it.

Inside and outside the door, Pei Huai and Su Cunyi both squinted.

Pei Huai already knew that he was “Su Ji’s daddy fan”.

Although Su Cunyi didn't know that he was "...", he suspected that he was messing with his daughter's feelings.

Pei Huai acted as if he had just seen him and broke the silence, "Mr. Su?"

Although Su Cunyi felt that this kid had bad intentions, he was still the CEO of Pei Corporation after all, so he respectfully stated his intention.

Pei Huai, "there are empty rooms, but..."

"Thank you," Su Cunyi said before he could finish.

"..."

He was familiar with this trick.

However, the way Su Cunyi did it was not cute at all.

"Mr. Su, I'll help you clean up the room." Uncle He came out when he heard them.

From the moment Su Cunyi stepped into the house with his suitcase, he could almost see the sign "bachelor pad" written on the walls.

After entering the house, Su Cunyi couldn't help but ask, "CEO Pei, may I ask why you suddenly moved here?"

However, as soon as he said it, he felt that he was a little rude, so he tried to find an excuse for himself, "I know the property here has a lot of room for appreciation. I'm not surprised that you want to live alone as a young man..."

"That's not it," Pei Huai denied immediately.

"Then..."

Seeing Pei Huai's thin lips slightly open, he thought in his heart, "if you're toying with my daughter's feelings, I'll kill you!"

However, the next second, he heard him say, "it's because I'm officially dating your daughter now."

1

Su Cunyi paused. At that moment, he was almost fascinated by the serious look in his eyes.

However, he quickly came to his senses.

He was officially dating Su Ji?

Officially?

Dating?

"Now you know why we stopped working with you?" Pei Huai raised his eyebrows.

"..."

He didn't know how to react.

Although he was unhappy, he felt quite happy that he was willing to do this for his daughter.

He sized Pei Huai up.

For some reason, the more he heard him speak, the more he found it familiar.

The amount that her daughter's supporter had given her as a tip was not a small sum.

The kind of person who could spend this kind of money...

The two men stood face to face. Pei Huai was half a head taller than Su Cunyi.

For some unknown reason, Su Cunyi suddenly said, "there are many temptations in this world, but you have to believe that the person who loves you the most will always be your..."

Pei Huai smiled, "your future husband."

The suitcase fell to the ground with a thud.

"Parents!" Su Cunyi almost jumped, "you're really lying to my daughter? I'm going to tell her now!"

Actually, Pei Huai did not lie to Su Ji on purpose. Su Ji had told him confidently, "I'm pretty good at guessing people's gender."

He didn't want to hurt the little girl's confidence.

"Actually, she was the one who misunderstood first," Pei Huai said.

He didn't want Su Ji to know about it for the time being. After all, he wanted to better understand her thoughts, but he hadn't achieved much.

Su Cunyi walked to the door, "it doesn't matter. As her father, I can't let her be kept in the dark!"

"Two projects," Pei Huai walked to the desk at the side.

1

Su Cunyi stopped at the door.

Pei Huai took out two sets of documents from the drawer, "help me keep this a secret and I'll restore two projects with your company."

Su Cunyi turned around and asked with a sincere face, "Did Su Ji really misunderstand?"

Pei Huai nodded.

"The projects are not important, I trust you!" Su Cunyi said.

"Thank you," Pei Huai said with a smile.

**

Next door, Xu Mingzhi reviewed three contracts in one night, and her shoulders were sore.

In the living room, Su Ji was massaging her shoulders.

“Uh ...”

“My baby’s hands are still the best.”

“The others just felt like tickles.”

Xu Mingzhi was a ruthless person, so she wanted to be massaged until her veins popped out!

“Just come to me when you want a massage,” Su Ji said.

After a while, Xu Mingzhi patted Su Yi’s hand and pulled her to sit beside her, “okay, baby, your hands should be tired. I’ve recently understood your school system. How many credits are you short of before you graduate?”

“50 more credits should be enough to graduate,” Su Ji said after a rough calculation.

Xu Mingzhi acted swiftly and decisively. She took out her phone and dialed a number, “no problem. I will ask how much it costs to buy 50 credits.”

Su Ji paused and quickly held her phone, “mom, calm down. You really can’t buy this.”

“I can’t buy it?” Xu Mingzhi had never seen anything in this world that money couldn’t buy.

However, her daughter would graduate in more than half a year, so she could save this as a last resort.

Su Ji heaved a sigh of relief when she saw her put her phone away, “don’t worry. Maybe the credits will come to me one day.”

Xu Mingzhi touched her head lovingly.

Her daughter was really cute. She was always so optimistic.

If the credits could really come to her so easily, there would not be so many students who could not graduate.

**

Who knew that the next morning, a high-spirited man knocked on Su Ji’s door, promising that he would give her exactly 50 credits...