

Concubine 211

Chapter 211: Even the Devil Concubine Couldn't Stand It

Si Jingchuan took a taxi from the hospital to Blue Whale.

He was in a daze the whole time in the car.

...

His mind was filled with the "cuttlefish juice" that his boss had given him.

It seemed that the miracle drink was not cuttlefish juice.

His boss had given first aid to his younger brother before, so he knew that she had medical skills.

However, he was suffering from congenital heart disease!

Moreover, the doctor had already said that there was no cure for it.

At 1 p.m., the main cast of "The Billions Stars" gathered at the recording studio.

This included leading and supporting actors.

Yang Xiaotao smiled as she nudged Su Ji. "I heard that you gave Pan Lian a big surprise?"

Su Ji stood lazily. "Not really."

She was just a middleman.

"Not really? She worships you now! She also said that her child's English name will be Bill Gates!"

"..."

Si Jingchuan stood behind them silently, looking at his boss' head.

No one knew what she was thinking.

Han Junlei clapped his hands. "Everyone, settle down."

He announced today's plans, "tonight, at the end of the third episode of 'The Billions Stars', I plan to add an easter egg to thank the audience for their support over the past three weeks."

I've written a line for each of you according to the character's personality. Today, each of you will go into character, and try your best to deliver your lines."

Huang Huayu liked this idea very much. He had already done some preparation work before the others came. Then, he said to Director Han, "I'll send everyone's lines to you later. Get ready in the recording studio. Mr. Ke will combine everyone's lines together."

"I'm sure you've all heard Mr. Ke's music, it'll be very popular. And in future publicity events, the recording will be played."

Mr. Ke was a well-known figure. His full name was Ke Tou.

He was also the one who produced the song “Love Contract”.

Ke Tou wore black-rimmed glasses and looked rather serious.

The songs he produced were popular all over the country, and everyone in this room had heard of them.

They all bowed and greeted him respectfully. Even Zhou Xuefang and Tang Yimo appeared to be very humble.

Ke Tou’s gaze swept over the actors and nodded.

However, when he saw Su Ji, his expression changed slightly.

He still remembered the time when the big bosses came to talk to him during the recording of “Love Contract”.

Why was she here again?

Damn it.

He thought that he would be able to slack a little today, but it seemed like he had to put in more effort!

Everyone’s lines were distributed, and they all watched excitedly.

These were the lines:

Mai Zi : “Qianqian, look, our CEO is so handsome!”

Ms. Feng: “Focus on this month’s performance!”

The evil stepmother: “Bai Yueguang! You little b * tch!”

Xiaomei : “Yueguang, we’ll be sisters from now on.”

Tang Yichen tried out her line on the spot. “Qianqian, look, our CEO is so handsome!”

Her voice was thin and sweet, like a love-struck girl.

In an instant, everyone looked at her.

“Yimo, you sound so sweet.”

“She looks like a character from an anime.”

“That’s good, be more passionate later.” Han Junlei nodded and said, “you sound quite professional, have you done voice acting before?”

Tang Yimo smiled sweetly. “I used to do voice acting for anime characters in short videos, but I wasn’t a professional.”

She stuck out her tongue.

Su Ji tutted and wanted to pull her tongue out and give her a back throw.

Even she, a devil concubine, could not stand it.

As for the lead actors' lines:

Shen Qianqian : "Gu Shen, look closely. I'm Shen Qianqian, not Bai Yueguang."

Bai Yueguang: "Gu Shen, are you still waiting for me?"

Gu Shen : "Qianqian...Bai Yueguang..."

It was a love triangle.

Zhou Xuefang was very satisfied with her own lines, because her lines were the longest among all of them.

She smiled. "Director Han, I've looked at our lines. Should we arrange them in order? I think you should put Si Jingchuan after me and Su Ji."

In order to be fair, she deliberately said "me and Su Ji".

However, Han Junlei quickly said, "yes, you'll be the first, Su Ji will be the second, and Si Jingchuan the last."

He didn't have any selfish motives this time. He was purely doing it according to the relationship between the characters.

Zhou Xuefang glanced at Su Ji smugly. "Don't worry, I've done dubbing in university before."

Su Ji raised her eyebrows and looked at her.

The longer the lines, the better, so she could stand out.

Besides, she had a good voice.

Han Junlei nodded and looked at Su Ji. "What about you, Su Ji?"

Su Ji said casually, "I've never done this before. This is my first time."

Tang Yimo sneered.

Han Junlei said, "it's okay. You deliver your lines well anyways. This should be no problem."

Finally, he asked Si Jingchuan how he's doing.

Unexpectedly, Si Jingchuan seemed to be in a daze. Instead of answering him, he looked at Su Ji and asked, "boss, my throat is a little dry. I'm afraid it'll affect my performance later. Do you have something to drink?"

It was obvious what he wanted.

Su Ji gave him a side glance. "Oh, I did bring you something to drink today."

Si Jingchuan clapped his hands happily.

Su Ji happened to be free in the morning, so she prepared a portion of medicine for Si Jingchuan. She took it out of her bag and gave it to him. "Drink it."

It was a bottle of black liquid.

The people around them looked at the thermos in her hand and were about to say something when they saw Si Jingchuan open the lid and took a big gulp. They all swallowed their words.

Not only did Si Jingchuan drink it, but he also tasted it carefully.

Everyone looked like they were in pain.

Sure enough, the drink was stickier and more flavorful.

Drinking boss' medicine was like having sex.

Only the first time was painful.

He felt that the thing he had drunk had flowed directly into his heart and was beginning to take effect.

However, he left a small portion of it untouched. "Boss, can I take the remaining half home and drink it slowly?"

"Sure, but don't let your brother drink it."

"Why?"

If she didn't tell him, Si Jingchuan was about to take it back and let his brother try it.

Both of them had weak hearts.

Su Ji did not say the reason. She just lifted her chin, "just drink it first."

He smiled. He thought that his boss favored him. However, he had other plans for the remaining portion of the drink.

Chapter 212: Please Review Su Ji's Voice Again!

The people around them thought that their sickly prince charming was either really thirsty or had some indescribable obsession with black drinks.

That thing looked terrifying, but he treated it like it was a treasure.

...

It's fine if he only took a sip, but he wanted to savor it slowly at home?

Yang Xiaotao was different from them. Regardless of what was inside the bottle, if Su Ji gave it to her, she would also treasure it.

She had forgotten how she behaved when she was obsessing over Si Jingchuan.

Why was it that no matter how handsome a male celebrity was, as long as he was close to Su Ji, he would automatically become feminine?

It seemed that only CEO Pei could control her!

Ke Tou was already ready. He took off his headphones and looked at them. "It's almost time to start recording. Otherwise, we won't make it in time. I need at least four hours for post-production work."

Huang Huayu blinked. "Mr.. Ke, didn't you say that the post-production would be done in 40 minutes?"

Ke Tou pushed his glasses up with a serious expression. "I was wrong. I'm a perfectionist. I want it to be perfect."

"Mr. Ke is indeed a professional."

"Otherwise, how could he produce so many classic songs?"

As he listened to these praises, Ke Tou secretly glanced at Su Ji.

He hoped that these words would reach the CEO's ears through Su Ji!

Huang Huayu was also deeply impressed. He clapped his hands to get everyone's attention. "In that case, let's go in and start recording as soon as possible. Don't waste Mr. Ke's time."

Tang Yimo was the first to enter the recording studio. She had a sweet loli voice and only recorded two times before passing her.

Zhou Xuefang had indeed taken a dubbing course before, so she knew how to make up for his ordinary voice.

Then, it was Si Jingchuan's turn. By the time he was done, the girls at the scene were going crazy.

"He's like the main character of a novel!"

"What a sickly beauty!"

Yang Xiaotao also felt that it sounded good, but she tapped her finger on her chin, as if it was still lacking something.

Then, Su Ji entered the recording studio.

Zhou Xuefang and Tang Yimo looked on with anticipation.

Su Ji had no experience in voice acting, what would be the quality of the recording?

As everyone knew, dubbing was different from singing. Those who could sing didn't necessarily know how to dub.

Moreover, the recorded sound would be magnified. The slightest unnatural tone change would be very obvious.

Su Ji entered the recording studio and put on her headphones.

She raised her chin slightly.

The black headphone cable extended along her fair neck.

The curve of her neck was shockingly beautiful.

She closed her eyes and recalled every detail of Bai Yueguang in the script.

If Bai Yueguang had not been forced to leave the country by her stepmother, she might have been with Gu Shen a long time ago.

However, she was the one who rejected Gu Shen first. After she returned to the country, Gu Shen had already fallen for the female lead.

Therefore, when Han Junlei was writing this line for Bai Yuuguang, he wanted Su Ji to ask in a regretful and careful tone.

When Su Ji got into the character's state of mind, she opened her eyes and spoke with a smile. "Gu Shen, are you still waiting for me?" She asked slowly.

That smile was neither haughty nor humble, and it was completely unpretentious.

In Su Ji's understanding, if Bai Yueguang didn't like the male lead at that time, she had the right to reject him. If she did at the moment, then she should express it boldly.

There was no rule that one couldn't take it back after rejecting a person, so what was there to regret?

After her voice was amplified, it sounded like a confident, badass woman.

Yang Xiaotao could not resist it!

This was the voice that no one could resist!

If Bai Yueguang and Gu Shen were to be together, Bai Yueguang would definitely be the dominatrix!

Zhou Xuefang and Tang Yimo looked at each other and then at Su Ji, who was in the recording studio.

Was her voice that magnetic?

Tang Yimo was extremely suspicious.

She felt that Su Ji was not as ordinary as Xuefang had described...

Su Ji's delivery was completely different from what Han Junlei had imagined in the beginning, but after listening to it, he thought her version was better!

Everyone's lines were delivered. There was still some time left, so Han Junlei let everyone into the studio and recorded a sentence together, "You, are the billion stars".

**

In the evening, before the third episode was broadcast.

Tong Le's Weibo exploded.

The reason was that he had posted a criticism of Su Ji's singing.

Tong Le was crushed by Su Ji's absolute sense of sound at school that day. The more he thought about it, the angrier he got!

He found a song by Su Ji a year or two ago, and it was a horrible sight to watch.

He really couldn't take it anymore, so he posted it on the internet.

A long post of more than a thousand words, trampling on Su Ji and showing off his skills.

Then, he tagged it with a few keywords “out of tune”, “horrible sound”...

Now that Su Ji was popular, the effect of such a post was obvious.

In a short time, a large group of fans rushed to the battlefield.

[“Can’t people improve?”]

[“What’s the point of listening to her old songs?”]

[“We’ve heard her unedited voice live several times! She’s not out of tune when she sings now!!”]

Tong Le knew that someone would diss him. As a rap singer, he was least afraid of this!

He replied on Weibo:

[“Okay, then let’s not talk about the pitch. Let’s talk about the voice. Listen to the few clips I’ve picked out. Isn’t it thin and flat?”]

The original owner’s voice was light, and she liked to use a nasal voice, so her voice could not be compared to Su Ji’s.

The fans really wanted to defend her, but they were helpless. The two songs that Tong Le had picked out were really unpleasant to the ears.

The fans were angry, but they couldn’t refute, so they went to watch TV.

The third episode of “The Billions Stars” began. This time, the plot was full of ups and downs and was very intense.

The second female lead, Bai Yueguang, who was loved by everyone, returned to the country.

The opening scene caught the audience’s attention.

Later on, the netizens’ blood boiled when they saw the confrontation between Bai Yueguang, Shen Qianqian and Ms. Feng in the office. They exclaimed that it was wonderful!

Bai Yueguang slaughtered them. Her aura was simply unparalleled!

Not long after that scene was finished, someone took the highlights and posted it online, and the number of shares broke a million in an hour.

Everyone gave up halfway through the second episode, but just as they were enjoying this episode, the ending theme song started.

[“This episode is 45 minutes long? Why does it feel like it finishes so fast?”]

Everyone was still feeling unsatisfied, the easter egg that Director Han had prepared for the audience was broadcast.

In the beginning, everyone’s lines were played consecutively, and it switched from one person to the other faster and faster. Then, it finished with the line “you, are the billion stars”.

Among all the soliloquies, the one that caught the most attention after Si Jingchuan's, was definitely Su Ji's

"Gu Shen, are you still waiting for me?"

That alluring and magnetic voice, coupled with a seductive chuckle caused the chat to spam "my ears are pregnant!"

Oh right, where was the rap star who mocked Su Ji's voice just now?

The army of fans formed teams and went to Tong Le's Weibo profile!

["Please review Su Ji's voice again!" [Audio]]

Chapter 213: Addicted to Su Ji

Tong Le clicked his tongue and arrogantly clicked on the audio.

A minute later, he had already played the audio 10 times on loop with a red face!

...

"Gu Shen, are you still waiting for me?"

That was Su Ji's f * cking voice?

Then, he went online to see the third episode of "The Billion Stars" and saw the Easter egg.

In the video, everyone had a line. When he heard this sentence, he confirmed that it was Su Ji's voice!

Tong Le clicked on the clip of Su Ji singing a year or two ago again.

This was the same person??

Listening carefully, it did seem to be the same person, but the pronunciation was different, which led to the texture of the voice being completely different.

Tong Le fell back into his chair, his expression mysterious and confused.

How infuriating!

**

After the third episode finished playing, Su Ji was trending on Weibo again.

#How many words can Su Ji say in one breath?#

#Jingchuan's acting skills are amazing!#

#Su Ji's line's challenge #

#Si Jingchuan looking at Zhou Xuefang affectionately!#

#Gu Shen, are you still waiting for me?#

#Gu Shen, Shen Qianqian, Bai Yueguang#

New topics kept emerging, and the third episode was a complete victory!

The official account of the series was flooded with fans.

[“As long as the actors are still alive, continue filming!!!”]

[“Please air 2 episodes next week!!!”]

Countless clips of the episode were shared on the Internet in one night.

Zhou Xuefang was extremely pleased with herself. Although Si Jingchuan was looking at Su Ji, the audience had no idea.

Because of this, she was also trending.

Many people started to look at Gu Shen and Shen Qianqian as a couple because of that look.

Zhou Xuefang smiled. So what if she had embarrassed herself on the day of filming? In the end, Su Ji still made her popular.

Zhou Xuefang tried to remember.

That day, no one took a photo of Si Jingchuan looking at Su Ji, right?

Definitely not!

**

Pei Huai had downloaded Su Ji’s recording in high definition audio.

Before he went to bed, he took a shower, and lay on the bed.

Lights out.

In the quiet room, he put on his headphones and repeated Su Ji’s words.

Those who didn’t know him would think that he was an obsessive fan.

“Are you still waiting for me?”

Pei Huai had a feeling that he had been waiting for her for a long time.

Pei Huai was a terrifying man.

He had an almost abnormal sense of self-control.

He was the enemy of all things addictive.

Cigarettes, alcohol, and drugs.

However, he was addicted to Su Ji.

Pei Huai listened to the line over and over again in his earphones.

His breathing gradually stabilized, as if he was about to fall asleep. However, for some reason, his deep eyes suddenly opened again.

He had been listening to the second half of the sentence and only realized something.

Who the hell was Gu Shen?

**

On Sunday, the series was at its peak popularity, even before the plot had reached its climax.

After the second episode, many people thought that the show would start high and end low. Who would have thought that the third episode would bring it back from the dead!

Early in the morning, Si Jingchuan arrived at the hospital, fully armed and carrying a thermos.

He knew that he shouldn't have gone out after the third episode was out.

However, he was afraid that boss's medicine would go bad, which would be too wasteful.

He wanted to confirm if it was indeed curing his heart.

When he arrived at the hospital, he handed the thermos to the doctor.

The doctor raised the thermos and turned it against the sun. His eyes widened in wonder. "You drank this?"

Si Jingchuan nodded.

The doctor's eyes sparkled. "How about this? You wait for me outside for two hours. I'll test the ingredients."

"Don't waste too much of it. I still want to drink it."

"Don't worry," the doctor said.

Si Jingchuan had covered his face so tightly that only his ears could be seen. He sat in the corridor outside and read the script that Director Han just sent him.

Her long legs were tucked under the bench, and he looked a little aggrieved.

He didn't notice a die-hard fan in the distance, who was holding an enlarged photo of his ear and carefully comparing it.

Si Jingchuan was too attractive to go unnoticed.

His die-hard fan had already noticed him.

After carefully comparing the photos for a long time, the sparks in her eyes became brighter.

"He's definitely Si Jingchuan!"

With a single call, the other fans immediately widened their eyes.

Si Jingchuan's hand that was holding the phone froze.

Then, Si Jingchuan spent two hours like a zoo animal!

He let the fans take photos of him and gave them autographs.

The fans didn't expect to see him in the hospital, so they didn't have a notebook and just asked him to sign on their medical report.

Si Jingchuan was quite patient. After all, he doted on his fans.

Two hours later, the doctor opened the door and called him in.

Si Jingchuan signed the last few medical reports and hurried into the office.

The doctor got straight to the point. "Mr. Si, the prescription is simply amazing!"

As expected!

It was the boss' medicine that was curing his heart!

The doctor held the test report in excitement. It was as if he had just discovered something that could shock the entire medical world. "Not only was it good for the heart, it also had other effects."

Si Jingchuan leaned forward. "What other effects?"

"It's good for the skin."

There was isatis indigotica fortune inside!

The herb was extremely expensive.

Si Jingchuan's lips parted slightly.

The doctor said, "Mr. Si, may I ask where you got this from? "A medical professor or a cardiologist?"

The doctor was a famous head of cardiology in A City.

He was really curious about who had come up with such an amazing prescription.

Si Jingchuan sighed.

If he knew that it was made by a super young and beautiful female star, he would probably vomit blood.

Si Jingchuan didn't know if his boss wanted others to know about this, so he didn't say anything. He only said, "you must keep this prescription a secret."

This was his boss' recipe.

The doctor replied, "don't worry, Mr. Si. I will only analyze the ingredients. However...I would appreciate it if you could introduce me to the person..."

At this moment, the doctor's phone rang.

Si Jingchuan smiled as he stood up. "You should already know her."

"Huh?"

"Nothing. Take the call." Si Jingchuan picked up his thermos and left the office.

The doctor's ringtone was "Love Contract".

Chapter 214: 30 Years Old was Almost the Start of Middle Age

After leaving the hospital, Si Jingchuan couldn't wait to take a taxi to his boss' place.

This was his first time visiting her at her house.

...

He had read about her mother, so he was a little nervous.

When he had called his boss just now, she told him that Madam Xu Mingzhi would also be there today.

When Si Jingchuan entered, Xu Mingzhi was reading a contract on the sofa. She was dressed in a formal suit and high heels and had a laptop on her lap while her fingers were tapping on it nimbly.

Her hair was tucked behind her ears, and she exuded a sophisticated aura.

His boss was really similar to her, but boss was more attractive.

Si Jingchuan couldn't help but exclaim, "boss, this is the first time a mother who's prettier than my mother. I really thought she was your sister!"

Su Ji glanced at him.

The young man would have a bright future.

Everyone loves compliments. The more sincere they were, the better.

As expected, Xu Mingzhi looked up when she heard the voice and smiled. "Oh, I know you. I just watched the series last night. You're so handsome."

After she finished speaking, she saved her documents, closed the laptop, and put it aside. "Come and sit down. I'll cut up some fruits for you."

Si Jingchuan was flattered. "I'll help you!"

Xu Mingzhi rejected him immediately. "Don't worry, make yourself at home!"

She was used to doing everything by herself.

Si Jingchuan stared at her back for a while, lost in thought.

His mother Wen Man was a typical sickly beauty. She was very gentle. This was the first time he had seen someone who was as hardworking as boss' mother. He felt as if a whole new world had been opened up to him.

Su Ji gestured to the sofa at the side. "Come and sit."

On the way here, he had already finished drinking the treasured medicine in the thermos.

He returned the flask to Su Ji. "Boss, to tell you the truth, I went to the hospital today..."

He told Su Ji everything about the decrease in heart murmurs during his previous physical examination, as well as his subsequent visits to the hospital.

Su Ji was not surprised. "No wonder you wanted to drink that black stuff. Oh right, did you get the medical report?"

Si Jingchuan gave her a document and said, "all the recent reports are in there."

Su Ji nodded.

Yes, this was exactly what she needed.

Xu Mingzhi brought out a plate of fruits. Each lychee had been peeled, and they were crystal clear.

The fruit plate was placed between the two. Xu Mingzhi sized Si Jingchuan up.

He was quite good-looking, gentle and well-behaved, and most importantly, he had a sweet mouth.

Although Pei Huai was not too bad...

However, he liked her daughter too much. Moreover, based on Xu Mingzhi's experience, she could tell at one glance that Pei Huai was not a simple person like Si Jingchuan. He was shrewd and meticulous.

Xu Mingzhi had a feeling that if she didn't keep an eye on her for a moment, that person would abduct her.

She looked at her daughter and Si Jingchuan before smiling at Si Jingchuan. "Do you think my daughter..."

At the same time, Su Ji took out the medical report and said to him, "the reduction of heart murmurs is a good sign. It means that your heart disease can still be cured."

Xu Mingzhi's mouth twitched.

Heart disease?

Was this child so sick?

"Really? That's great, boss." He remembered that Xu Mingzhi was talking to him just now, so he said, "Aunt Xu, what did you say just now?"

"Well," Xu Mingzhi chuckled. "I just wanted to ask, do you think my daughter is a competent boss?"

Si Jingchuan's eyes lit up at the mention of this. "Of course she is. She'll be my boss for life!"

Xu Mingzhi nodded. "I'm glad to hear that."

She felt sorry for him. "My baby does have some medical skills. Let her help you with your body. It's very important for actors like you to be healthy since you have to go on business trips frequently."

Si Jingchuan was extremely touched!

"Alright, you guys continue. I'll go upstairs to work."

"Bye, aunty."

He remembered something.

"I just remembered this," he looked at Su Ji. "I read the script for next week this morning. We're really going to shoot a scene in a foreign country next week."

Su Ji raised her eyebrows slightly. "An overseas setting might not be shot overseas."

He nodded. "That's true. When the Song guy was around, the overseas scenes were also shot in our city. It's up to the director to arrange it. Don't worry, boss, I won't let you tire yourself out."

Su Ji put a lychee in her mouth.

She didn't have much to worry about.

After she transmigrated, she learnt about many modern technological products such as cars, mobile phones, and computers.

However, she had never taken a plane before.

If they were going to film overseas next week, it would be good to experience it.

**

After sending Si Jingchuan off, Su Ji returned to her room and studied the prescription for a while.

She wanted to improve and adjust the prescription based on the notes in Si Jingchuan's medical reports.

Just as she was thinking about this, she received a WeChat message from Pei Huai.

He made a request to her, but the request was very different than usual.

Pei Huai, "call out to me."

Su Ji pulled open the curtains and shouted at Pei Huai, who was also sitting on the sofa opposite. "Hello!

Su Ji was a good person, she really took it seriously.

After the fever last time, Su Ji had not allowed Pei Huai to open the window. Now that the windows on both sides were closed, Pei Huai could not hear her voice, but he could understand just by reading her mouth.

After a long silence, he lowered his eyes and sent another message.

Pei Huai replied, "I mean on the phone. Call me by my name."

Su Ji furrowed her eyebrows.

This request didn't sound very serious.

["What's the reason."]

Pei Huai said, "there's no reason, just do it."

Su Ji hesitated for a while and clicked her tongue. It was just his name. It was not like she had never called him by his name before.

There was nothing to be shy about.

Thus, she tapped on the voice message.

She wanted to shout out loud, but when she opened her mouth, her tone subconsciously became softer.

“Pei Huai.”

It was inexplicably seductive.

Opposite her, Pei Huai placed his phone to his ear. When he heard her say his name, the corners of his lips unconsciously curved up.

He also edited the recording on his phone.

Soon, a new voice message was sent.

He clicked play.

“Pei Huai, are you still waiting for me?”

Pei Huai raised his eyebrows. He felt much better now.

Through the window, Su Ji saw Pei Huai’s strange smile as he gestured on his phone. She could not help but fall into deep thought.

Did she not care enough about her boyfriend?

She searched her mind for the information she had about Pei Huai.

The last time she accompanied her mother to meet Bill at the clubhouse, Pei Huai seemed to have said something when he told her his age...

“My birthday is at the end of the year, so I’m actually 29.”

It was already December.

His birthday was at the end of the year, wasn’t it this month?

A birthday was no small matter.

Besides, it was his 30th birthday.

Thirty years old was almost the start of middle age.

She should have prepared a birthday gift.

However, what Su Ji needed to know more now was when Pei Huai’s birthday was. Could it be that Pei Huai’s birthday was coming soon?

Chapter 215: I am His Girlfriend

Su Ji might be indifferent at times, but she was quite meticulous this time.

It would not be nice to ask Pei Huai when his birthday was, so she called Shen Mu.

...

When Shen Mu received the call, he was surprised and happy. "Ms. Su, I didn't expect you to be so meticulous. The boss' birthday is on the 9th of December, which is next Wednesday!"

In fact, even if Su Ji had not called, Shen Mu planned to remind her next Tuesday!

Hearing this, Su Ji was in a difficult position.

There was not enough time to prepare a birthday gift.

In the past, she had always prepared a birthday gift for her bestie a month in advance.

In the past, people celebrated their lunar birthdays, but now, they celebrated their Gregorian birthdays. Pei Huai was one of them.

Su Ji still remembered that her bestie's birthday was also in winter, which was November in the lunar calendar.

**

The next day, Monday morning, at around 5 am, Su Ji was woken up by Huang Huayu's call. "Do you have any work today?"

Su Ji looked at the time. She was silent for about a minute before she finally woke up. "I don't think so. Why?"

Huang Huayu said, "come to Blue Whale! Director Han has an urgent announcement!"

Su Ji paused.

40 minutes later, Si Jingchuan, Zhou Xuefang, Ms. Feng, Tang Yitian, and a few other people who were involved in "The Billions Stars" gathered for an emergency meeting.

They didn't even have time to put on makeup. It was obvious that they had just woken up and were all quite confused.

At this time, there were not many people in the building, and the security guards had not come to work yet.

However, this kind of meeting was very common in Han Junlei's production team.

Everyone was starting to get used to it.

It was like in the military.

Si Jingchuan waved at Su Ji and said, "boss, it was fun yesterday! "

Zhou Xuefang looked at the two of them suspiciously.

Tang Yimo's gaze was unfriendly as well.

How shameless, she actually met him in private.

However, when Han Junlei told them what the emergency meeting was about, the two of them no longer had the mood to care about Su Ji.

"Are we really going overseas for the shoot?" Zhou Xuefang asked.

Tang Yimo asked, "are we taking the flight this afternoon?"

Han Junlei was a perfectionist and did not want to fake the scene like Song Heng did.

Moreover, the fourth episode was about the company staff going abroad. There were many scenes abroad. If they were all set in China, the cost would be almost as high as going abroad.

Huang Huayu replied, "we are going to Country T. I'm taking a flight this afternoon. I'll be back on Thursday night. Everyone, go back and quickly prepare. It's quite warm there, so you don't have to bring thick clothes."

The room was filled with complaints

"I still have to stream tomorrow."

"The time is too tight."

"What if there's no one to dogsit for me?"

"Stop complaining," Han Junlei said. "Settle your personal matters. There's a special note in the contract that you signed. If there's a conflict in your schedule, you have to put the production first."

There was indeed such a clause in the contract. The moment Han Junlei said that, the others fell silent.

Si Jingchuan was very excited. "Boss, we can go abroad together. Country T is so fun. It's in the south. There are elephants and many beautiful ladies. Boss, you'll definitely like it!

"..."

Pei Huai's birthday was on Wednesday.

She couldn't spend his boyfriend's birthday with him.

It was already 9 o'clock when they left.

All the actors and actresses rushed home to prepare.

They had to gather in the afternoon and set off, so the schedule was very tight.

Su Ji called Pei Huai first, but his phone was off, which was rare.

She then called Shen Mu and found out why.

"Ms. Su, boss went to a factory today for an inspection. It's not convenient to turn on his phone in the workshop, so he turned it off. Is there anything I can help you with?"

"Can you send me the address of the factory?" Su Ji asked.

Shen Mu's voice was a little excited. "No problem, I'll send it to you now!"

An hour later, Su Ji arrived at the car factory.

The factory was located in the suburbs of A City. It covered a large area and was divided into many workshops.

The new energy vehicle that she was going to endorse in the future was also manufactured here.

An automobile factory like this was different from an ordinary factory. Usually, other than the employees, there were not many outsiders here.

As soon as Su Ji entered the hall, she was stopped by the receptionists.

The two girls at the front desk were not as enthusiastic as the ones working at the front desk in the Pei Corporation who were used to receiving guests. When they saw Su Ji, they did not even smile. "Who are you looking for?"

Su Ji was basically covered up whenever she went out, and ordinary people would definitely not be able to recognize her.

She walked over and placed her beautiful and slender hand on the table. "Hello. I'm looking for CEO Pei, who came for an inspection today."

"Who?" The receptionist's tone was very exaggerated.

Su Ji's face was expressionless as she spelled it out, "C-E-O P-E-I. "

They frowned. She was looking for CEO Pei instead of CEO Wang?

CEO Pei only came once a year, and she was not even wearing a formal suit.

One look and one could tell that she was just a fan of CEO Pei.

The receptionist sounded impolite. "CEO Pei is here for work today. He's not seeing any guests."

Su Ji raised her eyebrows and casually tapped her fingers. "Is it up to you to decide whether he will see the guests or not?"

Don't think they can bully her just because she's from ancient times.

"..."

Normally, she should have made an appointment. One of the receptionists rolled her eyes and impatiently opened the computer.

Her manicured fingers were tapping on the keyboard, and the sound of her nails scratching against the keyboard was very harsh.

The receptionist obviously felt that it was a waste of time. "We'll register your name first. But it's up to the CEO whether he wants to see you or not. Your name?"

Su Ji did not want to reveal her identity, but if she only mentioned Ms. Su, she was afraid that Pei Huai would not know it was her.

She hesitated for a few seconds before calmly replying, "his girlfriend."

The receptionist's hand that was tapping on the computer suddenly stopped. "Who?"

Su Ji ran out of patience. "Can you just check if I can meet him or not?"

"Pfft--"

The receptionists looked at each other and their faces turned red as they tried to hold back their laughter.

"Then, we'll make a note that you're CEO Pei's girlfriend."

"Don't blame us if he doesn't want to see you or calls the police."

This was really funny. Was she delusional?

She actually said that she was CEO Pei's girlfriend!

Su Ji smiled mysteriously. "Don't worry, I won't blame you."

The receptionists shook their heads helplessly.

Then, the door to the workshop behind opened, and polite greetings were heard.

A few men in suits and leather shoes walked out.

Pei Huai was the one walking in front.

CEO Wang was explaining something to him, and there were eight or nine senior executives behind him.

Pei Huai was still wearing his usual dark-colored suit and trousers, looking straight and tall. Under the light, his fair skin made his facial features look even more exquisite.

The people around him kept talking to him, and he would occasionally nod. He looked mature and sophisticated.

Pei Huai, who was leading a group of people over, suddenly turned his head and saw Su Ji standing at the front desk.

Even though she was fully covered, she could still recognize her instantly.

He stopped in his tracks.

He could not hide his surprise.

Then, he walked straight towards her.

The receptionists' face turned pale when she saw the CEO walking towards them.

She must have seen the registration and wanted to question them.

They glared at Su Ji and quickly ran over.

Pei Huai stopped in front of Su Ji, and the two receptionists also came over.

“Sorry, she was the one who insisted that we make an appointment and said that she was your girlfriend! We can’t make her leave.”

As they spoke, Pei Huai’s hand landed on Su Ji’s head. He spoke in an extremely doting voice, “why are you here?”

Chapter 216 A Trip to Country T

“Did you hear that? The CEO is asking why you’re here...”

The receptionist was eager to push the blame away. At first, she didn’t realize it and tried to make it difficult for Su Ji.

...

But halfway through her words, she realized that something was wrong.

The CEO’s tone...

And the way he looked at her...

Their faces suddenly dropped.

Could this girl really be his girl-...

The other executives looked at Su Ji.

They had been with the CEO for a few hours, but they had never seen him pat anyone’s head or speak to anyone in such a pampering tone.

It was obvious that they had a very close relationship.

CEO Wang had suffered a loss at Su Ji’s hands the last time, so he had learnt his lesson.

Based on his tone and actions just now, he knew that he was Su Ji.

After the incident at the clubhouse, the Pei Corporation’s executives had come to a consensus that as long as the CEO treated someone so well, that person, regardless of whether they were male or female, must be Su Ji!

Even if it was just a kitten, it would still be Su Ji!

Because other than Su Ji, the CEO would never show such an expression to any other carbon-based being!

Pei Huai’s eyes slowly turned to the two receptionists. He said, “CEO Wang, there’s nothing wrong with the factory’s assembly line, but it’s time to change the receptionists.”

The receptionists trembled and looked at CEO Wang, hoping that he would plead for them.

However, he quickly went forward with a smile. “I’ll replace them right away!”

He must please Ms. Su no matter what.

**

Sitting in the back seat of the car, Su Ji took off her hat, mask, and sunglasses. She pulled up the partition between the front seat and the back seat, blocking the smiling and gossipy driver's view.

She looked at Pei Huai and went straight to the point.

She said in an extremely serious and sincere tone, "Pei Huai, it's your birthday the day after tomorrow. Happy birthday in advance."

Pei Huai raised an eyebrow.

There were a few seconds of silence in the car.

Pei Huai did not say anything, but Su Ji could tell that he was happy.

It was obvious that he was just trying to restrain himself.

Su Ji knew that she had not come in vain.

Seeing him happy, she seemed to be even happier than she expected.

Pei Huai didn't expect Su Ji to know his birthday. He laughed and helped her tidy her hair. "You came all the way here just to wish me a happy birthday?"

Su Ji replied, "yeah. I'm flying to Country T in the afternoon to film for a few days. I won't be able to spend your birthday with you, so I'm wishing you in advance."

Pei Huai's smile instantly disappeared.

Who arranged the filming schedule?

Su Ji could tell that he was disappointed.

The people who were celebrating their birthdays were the most important.

Su Ji tried to coax him, "it's really too unfortunate. This morning, they informed us that we would be going overseas for a few days for filming and that we would only be back on Thursday night. I really wanted to spend your birthday with you."

Pei Huai narrowed his eyes slightly and crossed his long legs to change into a more comfortable sitting position. "So, if you don't have to go, you would plan something for me?"

He didn't have the habit of celebrating his birthday. In the past, he would spend his birthday at work. If his family didn't mention it, he wouldn't remember it at all.

However, Su Ji's wish surprised him.

Once he had a taste of it, he wanted more.

"Yeah, birthday is an important event in life. Besides, it's your 30th birthday, so you should celebrate it properly." Su Ji still doted on her boyfriend. After all, he was her first boyfriend.

She wouldn't be so patient with the second and third one.

???

Su Ji hugged him to comfort him. "If I don't have to go abroad, I will definitely accompany you. But I have to."

"Yeah..." Pei Huai smiled understandingly. "What time is your flight?"

"Two in the afternoon," Su Ji replied.

Well, it's the thought that matters.

She looked at the time and asked, "can you send me home? My schedule is tight."

Pei Huai smiled. "Of course."

Then, he gestured for the driver to start driving.

...

The car stopped in front of Su Ji's house. Pei Huai lowered the car window and said, "be careful. I'll wait for you to come back."

Su Ji waved at the birthday boy with a bright smile. "Happy birthday."

When she got home, Xu Mingzhi had also heard that she was going abroad in the afternoon.

So she rushed back from the company.

It was her daughter's first time flying abroad. As a mother, she was worried.

"Why so sudden?" Xu Mingzhi followed her upstairs to pack. "Fortunately, T Country isn't too far away. It's only a three or four-hour flight, and the weather is quite warm..."

Xu Mingzhi told her about the local customs of country T and reminded her with a smile, "baby, there are some places there that have special performances. If it doesn't suit you, don't go."

Su Ji nodded.

They were there to film, so they probably didn't have time to go sight-seeing.

Su Ji didn't like to pack, so she suggested taking a backpack and leaving immediately, but Xu Mingzhi and Aunt Wu her idea.

In the crew's group chat, Huang Huayu had already sent the specific flight number and time.

Su Ji glanced at it and kept her phone.

Seeing that they had already started to help her pack her luggage, she took her brush, ink, paper, and inkstone. She calculated the time and decided that the live calligraphy lesson would start by then.

Xu Mingzhi opened the closet and helped her find clothes that were suitable for her to wear there.

The painting in the corner of the cabinet caught Su Ji's attention.

It was the painting of Pei Huai in an ancient costume.

If her mother saw this, she would definitely misunderstand.

"It's over 20 degrees there. I will pack you some clothes for spring. This one is too short. There are too many mosquitoes there."

Su Ji took the painting away and hid it behind her back while her mother was focused on choosing her clothes.

She looked around and couldn't find a good place to hide the painting. She put the painting in the suitcase before Aunt Wu finished packing.

Xu Mingzhi was too busy to notice her actions.

Aunt Wu chuckled.

Downstairs, Pei Huai's car didn't leave immediately. Instead, it stopped there for a while.

The window of her bedroom was open, and the faint sound of a mother and daughter talking and laughing could be heard.

He pressed the phone to his ear.

Shen Mu's energetic voice came from the other end of the phone. "Boss, what can I do for you?"

Pei Huai looked at the window on the second floor and said, "clear my schedule from today afternoon until Thursday."

Chapter 217 Filled with Admiration

At around 12 in the afternoon, everyone in the crew was already ready at the airport.

In order to save costs, Han Junlei booked seats in economy class for the staff and himself.

...

The actors were in business class.

Most of the actors and actresses covered themselves. After all, they tend to get photographed in airports.

Fortunately, it was a last-minute plan, so the fans and paparazzi did not receive any news.

However, there were exceptions to everything. Tang Yimo did not wear any mask and even dressed up beautifully as she walked among them.

Why would she be afraid that her fans would recognize her?

The staff took their identity cards to retrieve their tickets and boarding passes.

The actors were waiting in the hall.

Soon, other passengers who were also waiting for their flights noticed Tang Yimo.

Even those who didn't know her thought that she had a pretty face, like a celebrity, and subconsciously looked at this group of people.

Ms. Feng said, “we’re all wearing masks because we’re afraid of being photographed. Yimo is still young and fresh. She looks good no matter what.”

Zhou Xuefang chuckled but did not say anything.

She didn’t wear a mask because she was afraid of being photographed. In fact, she thought she was no less prettier than Tang Yimo.

“I’m the one who should be jealous. I’m getting pimples at this age, and I got another one today. It’s so annoying. It’s great that you don’t have pimples anymore,” Tang Yimo said.

There was a moment of silence for those who were no longer young.

Su Ji’s two large suitcases were filled with love.

A sweet burden.

Si Jingchuan took it from her. “Boss, I’ll help you check it in later.”

Check in.

That’s a new word for Su Ji.

She paused for a moment and said, “thank you.

Tang Yimo subconsciously paid attention to Su Ji’s every move. She had also heard Su Ji’s conversation with Si Jingchuan just now. She seemed to be thinking about something and had a strange expression.

“Look, isn’t that Tang Yimo?”

“She looks a little fatter than in photos, so I’m not sure if it’s really her.”

“But she’s really cute.”

“If so, then the people wearing masks around her must also be celebrities, right?”

The surrounding people started discussing.

Si Jingchuan walked forward with Su Ji, deliberately distancing himself from Tang Yimo.

Tang Yimo thought that they were going to have a secret conversation behind her back and followed them.

Si Jingchuan couldn’t take it anymore. He turned to look at her and said, “can you stop following us?”

Tang Yimo felt wronged. “Assistant Director Huang said that all of us should stay together. Why are you excluding me?”

Si Jingchuan was annoyed. “Then you should wear your mask and hat properly. Don’t disturb us.”

Tang Yimo felt even more indignant. “Is there a rule that we have to wear masks? It’s my own business if I don’t want to wear it. Why do you care?”

The crew members were very polite to Si Jingchuan, but Tang Yimo was different.

In idol dramas, the male lead would always first pay attention to the girls who went against him.

She thought she was special.

Moreover, she didn't care if Si Jingchuan liked her or not. She already had someone in her heart.

Si Jingchuan had never met such a person before. He was speechless.

Then, Su Ji patted his shoulder.

She stood in front of him.

She looked at Tang Yimo and said reasonably, "wearing a mask to cover your face is not a written rule, but it's a matter of manners."

Tang Yimo blushed. "Who has no manners?"

"You," Su Ji continued, "of course, that's your business, but if you don't wear a mask and insist on following us, you will attract the attention of others. You don't care because you are not famous enough, so even if you don't wear a mask, they may not be able to recognize you. But we are different. Even if we wear a mask, we will be easily recognized. So, if you don't want to wear a mask, you should stay away from us."

It was as though she went into character.

She spoke so fast that there was no pause in the middle for her to take a breath.

Every sentence stabbed at Tang Yimo's heart.

Han Junlei would definitely be satisfied with the delivery.

Tang Yimo was angry and annoyed, but she could not think of anything to refute her.

"You..."

Si Jingchuan was full of admiration!

He felt as if his boss had finally avenged him.

Cool!

In the crowd in the distance, a tall figure also looked in their direction and smiled at Su Ji's sharp words.

Si Jingchuan carried Su Ji's luggage and said, "let's go, boss. She can't even speak now. Just ignore her."

Tang Yimo's fair and tender little face instantly turned the color of a pig's liver.

Zhou Xuefang came over to comfort her. "That's just how Su Ji is. She never leaves room for others to speak. Forget it, she's your senior afterall..."

Tang Yimo seemed to be even angrier after being comforted by her.

Zhou Xuefang looked at her expression and laughed. "Alright, put on your mask first. There are people around you looking at you."

She finally put on her mask in annoyance.

The staff helped them check in their luggage, and boarded the plane one after another.

The actors were all in business class, and their seats were close to each other's.

Unfortunately, Tang Yimo and Su Ji sat next to each other, while Si Jingchuan and Zhou Xuefang sat beside each other.

Su Ji didn't know that there was a place for her luggage above, so she just left her bag on her seat.

The stewardess kindly reminded her, "I'm sorry, miss. Your backpack is too big. For your and others' safety, you must put it in the overhead compartment."

"Oh, okay," Su Ji asked politely. "Where is it?"

Si Jingchuan took great care of her. Without waiting for the stewardess' reply, he took her backpack and said, "boss, I'll help you put it on top."

"Thanks."

Tang Yimo was still angry with Su Ji, so took note of this incident.

Previously, she had seen Su Ji's strange reaction when Si Jingchuan mentioned checking in. Now, Tang Yimo was sure of something.

She laughed.

This country bumpkin had been on a plane before!

She happened to be sitting next to Su Ji and pretended to chat. "Su Ji, so this is your first time taking a plane? I think I first took a plane when I was three!"

"It's really rare for a 20-year-old to take a plane for the first time!"

"But I'm not saying that you're a bumpkin~"

Seeing that Su Ji did not speak, she became more and more enthusiastic.

Didn't she say a lot just now

Why wasn't she saying anything now?

She thought that she had definitely won this time, but when she looked up, she saw that Su Ji was wearing headphones.

Su Ji was listening to music and reading her script calmly.

She had not heard a single word she said!

Chapter 218 Master Pei Confirming Su Ji's identity

Tang Yimo felt as if she had just punched cotton!

Not only did it not relieve her of her anger, but it made her even angrier!

...

Si Jingchuan was sitting diagonally behind Tang Yimo.

He knew that Tang Yimo was up to no good when he saw her expression when she was talking to his boss.

After a few seconds of silence, he got up and knocked on the back of Tang Yimo's chair. "Tang Yimo, let's switch seats."

Tang Yimo blinked her innocent eyes. A few seconds later, she snorted. Didn't he just bully her just now?

Tang Yimo smiled and said, "I'm sorry, but I like to sit with Su Ji."

"..."

"Why don't you switch places with Su Ji?" He asked Zhou Xuefang.

Zhou Xuefang was more tactful than Tang Yimo, but she was also more hypocritical. "You should have told me earlier. But I've just put everything in place. It's a little too troublesome to switch now..."

In order to annoy Su Ji, she would not switch.

However, Su Ji did not seem to mind. She was wearing her headphones and looked very relaxed.

She leaned back in her chair, and prepared to close her eyes to rest.

As long as they didn't disturb her, it didn't matter who sat next to her.

However, if they did, she would slap her to the ground.

"Dear passenger, the plane is about to take off. Please return to your seat." At this time, another female flight attendant came from the front of the plane.

She obviously recognized Si Jingchuan, but she still reminded him with a red face.

"I'm sorry." Si Jingchuan had no choice but to sit back down.

Zhou Xuefang and Tang Yimo looked at each other in tacit understanding.

Just as she was feeling smug, the flight attendant walked to Su Ji's seat and said, "I'm sorry, Ms. Su, your seat is not in business class."

Su Ji looked up at her and took off her earphones.

Zhou Xuefang and Tang Yimo were both stunned.

However, they quickly realized.

There were only two classes in this plane.

One was economy class, and the other was business class.

If she wasn't in business class, then wouldn't she be in economy class like the other staff?

The smiles on the two women's faces grew even wider.

"Did you get the wrong ticket?" Zhou Xuefang asked. "Are you in economy class?"

Tang Yimo said, "don't all actors take business class? How could Director Han let Su Ji sit in economy class? This will make her lose face."

The other actors also started discussing.

Actually, it didn't matter. However, Si Jingchuan was very angry at the two of them. "Boss, I'll help you. You don't have to change your seat!"

Would the young master of the Si family let his boss suffer such a loss?

However, Su Ji checked her boarding pass. "It is business class."

The stewardess had just received a message. She looked at Su Ji again and said, "I'm sorry to have kept you waiting. You are not in business class because a gentleman in the first class has upgraded your seat. Please follow me to the first class..."

The cabin instantly fell silent.

It was not economy class, but first class?

It was not that Tang Yimo and Zhou Xuefang could not afford to buy first-class tickets, but they had never had someone upgrade their seats.

Their brains were buzzing.

No one in their crew was in the first class cabin.

Could it be Su Ji's fan?

A sense of sourness instantly spread among them.

"Okay," To Su Ji, it didn't matter where she sat.

The stewardess offered to carry her luggage.

"No, it's quite heavy. I'll carry it myself."

Then, she took it with one hand.

The flight attendant tried to suppress her excited smile.

She's so cool!

Si Jingchuan was rather calm this time as he watched Su Ji head to the first-class cabin. He seemed to have figured out who the person was.

The flight attendant led Su Ji to the first-class cabin.

There were only 16 seats in the first class cabin.

They were all by the window.

A man in a suit and spotless leather shoes was sitting next to her, reading a newspaper.

If Su Ji wanted to return to her seat, she had to pass by that man.

"Excuse me."

The man's legs moved slightly to the side, but they were too long, leaving not much space for Su Ji.

Su Ji's leg brushed past his knee, and she could smell the familiar scent of fir on his body.

As she lowered her eyes to look, the man looked away from the newspaper.

Su Ji raised her eyebrows in confusion. "It's you? "

Pei Huai smiled and put away the newspaper. He stood up and helped her put her bag away. "We don't have to be away from each other now," he said in a low voice.

"?"

Pei Huai replied, "for my birthday."

The stewardess looked at the two of them with a motherly smile. "Ms. Su, this is the man who upgraded your cabin. Call me if you need anything."

Then, she left quickly and hid behind the curtain and peeked openly.

She must be Su Ji's fan.

Su Ji paused, "so you..."

Pei Huai seemed to know her thoughts and admitted it. "Yes, in order for you to celebrate my birthday with me, I boarded the same flight as you."

Su Ji's eyelids twitched. "I didn't expect that..."

"What?" Pei Huai asked.

Su Ji replied, "I didn't know you love celebrating your birthday so much."

"..."

He knew he shouldn't have had any expectations of her.

He loved celebrating his birthday?

He just wanted to spend his birthday with her.

He was looking forward to the trip to Country T with her.

Business class and first class were separated by a curtain.

Tang Yimo could not help but move closer to the curtain curiously. She was about to lift the curtain to see which gentleman had upgraded Su Ji's seat.

She was caught red-handed by the flight attendant. "I'm sorry, business class passengers are not allowed to enter the first class. The plane is about to take off. Please return to your seat as soon as possible."

Tang Yimo was embarrassed.

"Please fasten your seatbelt, stow away the table, straighten the back of your seat and turn off any electronic devices. "

"This is a non-smoking flight."

"Thank you for your cooperation!"

The warm reminder rang in her ears. After a while, Su Ji felt the plane take off.

This was the first time she felt weightless, and it made her a little excited.

Her hand on the armrest subconsciously tightened, and her eyes lit up.

Pei Huai admired her every little movement. "First time on a plane?"

Su Ji looked at him. "So? Are you also going to laugh at me for taking a plane for the first time?"

Pei Huai smiled.

Of course, he would not laugh at her. On the contrary, the first time she took a plane was next to him.

This made him feel a sense of satisfaction.

He asked just to confirm.

He knew that the former Su Ji had gone abroad to perform before.

But it was the first time for her...

Chapter 219 Uncle Pei

The light in Pei Huai's eyes flickered. Little by little, he was confirming his somewhat crazy conjecture.

This feeling was magical.

...

However, she was obviously still playing dumb and had no intention of sharing it with him.

Pei Huai smiled.

He recalled what Su Ji had just said and noticed something else.

"Who laughed at you?" Pei Huai's tone turned cold.

He was very attentive

Su Ji looked away from the beautiful scenery in the sky and glanced at him.

She actually heard what Tang Yimo said.

She spoke so loudly that she overpowered the sound from her headphones.

Su Ji pretended not to hear her because this was the easiest and most effective way to annoy her.

She smiled at Pei Huai and said, "you know this person."

"Who?"

Su Ji replied, "the one who was rumored to be with you."

Pei Huai asked, "the one you scolded in the departure hall?"

"Oh," Su Ji raised her eyebrows, "not bad. I didn't expect you to recognize her."

Pei Huai smiled

He said that on purpose.

When he first saw the scandal, Su Ji said that she was not angry, but he obviously liked it when Su Ji was slightly jealous.

He glanced at her. "Are you jealous?"

"Why would I be?" Su Ji narrowed her eyes. She did not think that she was the kind of person who would get jealous. She opened the script and placed it on her lap. "I just thought that since you're so perverted, you might like to hear high school students chasing after you and calling you Uncle Pei~"

Pei Huai did not seem to hear her clearly and asked in a low voice, "what did you call me?"

Su Ji turned her head and repeated it, "Uncle Pei."

He smiled again.

Su Ji realized that she had been tricked and made a "tsk" sound.

Indeed, after his condition was cured, he was no longer cute.

Pei Huai opened the newspaper again and said gently, "I don't like high school students. I like those who are exactly ten years younger than me, not even a year younger."

Su Ji glanced at him and continued to read the script.

During the three to four hours of flight, the two of them didn't interact much.

However, even though they were busy with their own things, Pei Huai would still ask for a cup of tea for her from time to time.

Sometimes, when he was tired, he would hold Su Ji's hand and feel it in his palm for a while.

Su Ji only put away the script when the plane was about to land.

She asked Pei Huai, "where will you be staying?"

Pei Huai replied, "next to you."

"I don't even know where I'll be staying."

When the plane landed, Pei Huai put on his sunglasses. "No matter where you stay, I'll stay next to you."

"..."

Fine, it's for the convenience of celebrating his birthday.

I'm going to do a stream of my calligraphy lesson later. Don't come and disturb me," Su Ji warned.

"Sure." He raised his eyebrows. "I'll come to you after your stream."

"..."

Wouldn't that later?

After they got off the plane, Su Ji and Pei Huai split up.

Everyone was carrying their own luggage.

They had been holding hands affectionately on the plane, but now they acted as if they didn't know each other.

Pei Huai cooperated. He still had to keep it a secret.

The people around them were speaking in a strange language. The advertisement was of a popular female star in Country T. Her smile was sweet and bright, and there were dazzling foreign words written below.

It was very warm here, and the people were dressed in beautiful summer clothes.

Su Ji liked to experience different local customs and practices. She had visited many border countries in the great Shang dynasty before, but she had never been to Country T.

Back then, she and her mother had drifted on the sea for ten days and had arrived at another country by chance.

However, Su Ji still couldn't quite figure out which country it was.

Anyway, she did leave something in that country.

The crew gathered again. Han Junlei rented a few cars and headed to the hotel they were going to stay at.

In the car, Zhou Xuefang asked Su Ji, "who upgraded your seat just now?"

Su Ji coldly replied, "I don't know him."

"He must be one of your fans, right? Your fans are really nice."

Su Ji didn't reply. She was studying her calligraphy notes for the evening.

Acting was for , and so was this.

With money in both hands, she had to grab both.

Zhou Xuefang subconsciously looked at Tang Yimo. This time, Tang Yimo did not cooperate with her to target Su Ji. Instead, she had both her hands on the car window and was looking behind her.

Zhou Xuefang teased her, “what are you looking at?”

The car drove through the congested road and quickly sped off. Tang Yimo did not have time to see the tall figure clearly.

But she did feel that it was very similar.

“I think I saw...” just as she was about to finish her sentence, she noticed Su Ji beside her. Obviously, she did not want Su Ji to hear her, so she said, “I’ll tell you who it is when we get to the hotel.”

Zhou Xuefang understood and nodded.

When they arrived at the hotel, Huang Huayu helped everyone get a room.

It was a five-star hotel. Although they were not staying in the presidential suite, the rooms were nice.

“We just got off the plane, so I won’t be assigning any tasks to everyone tonight. Everyone, take your luggage and check in to rest. You’re not allowed to go to the bar tonight, and you’re not allowed to organize a party either. Conserve your energy and build up your strength. We’ll officially start shooting tomorrow at six o’clock. We’ll have a total of two and a half days to finish shooting the fourth episode. All the best, everyone!”

Si Jingchuan glanced at his room card, room 505, and felt a little disappointed. “We’re not on the same floor, boss.”

Su Ji smiled. “Don’t act like a child. It’s easy to go up and down with the elevator.”

“Okay...”

Su Ji was in Room 605, just above Si Jingchuan.

The actors looked at each other. The fifth and sixth floors were all actor rooms. Only room 606 next to Su Ji had been reserved by someone else.

As a result, Ms. Feng’s room was on the seventh floor.

She would be there all by herself.

“Who’s that annoying person?”

“I don’t know. It would have been nice if everyone was on the same floor.”

Su Ji silently moved away from the crowd.

It just so happened that Xu Mingzhi called her to check in.

Su Ji picked up the phone.

Si Jingchuan was carrying her luggage. “Boss, I’ll help you carry it up first!”

Su Ji nodded at him.

“What did you want to tell me in the car?” Zhou Xuefang asked Tang Yimo. “Let’s go up together.”

“Yes,” Tang Yimo replied.

As she responded, she caught a glimpse of that figure in the hotel lobby.

The man was wearing a suit and sunglasses. His short hair was neat and he was especially tall.

This time, Tang Yimo could see it clearly.

It was CEO Pei!

She was right!

The man glanced at Su Ji and then walked towards the elevator.

Tang Yimo was extremely excited. She pulled Zhou Xuefang along and ran over to him. “Hurry up! Hurry up! Maybe we can take the same elevator as him!”

Chapter220 This is Awkward!

“Ah?” Zhou Xuefang was pulled along by her.

Tang Yimo peeked at Su Ji carefully. She could not let Su Ji know about this!

...

The elevator door was about to close.

Tang Yimo blocked it with her hand.

A few seconds later, the elevator door opened again. There were a few people standing in the elevator, all looking at them with strange eyes.

Only the man standing at the back was indifferent, and he didn’t care if anyone came in.

Zhou Xuefang was stunned for a moment and exchanged a look of surprise with Tang Yimo.

Country T’s elevators were decorated with gold coins and elephant carvings.

Tang Yimo and Zhou Xuefang did not press the elevator button. They wanted to see which floor CEO Pei was on.

When they reached the sixth floor, the man’s cold voice rang out from behind her. “Excuse me.”

Tang Yimo and Zhou Xuefang did not turn around. Instead, they lowered their heads and gave way.

The two of them sneakily followed him and kept a distance.

“So he’s the guest on the sixth floor.”

Zhou Xuefang was on the fifth floor, but Tang Yimo was on the sixth.

Zhou Xuefang looked at her and smiled. “You guys are fated to meet. You’re both on the sixth floor.”

Before Tang Yimo could rejoice, she saw him swipe the room card for Room 606 and walk in.

There were a total of six rooms on the first floor. Room 606 was at the edge. Only room 605 was next to him.

Tang Yimo was in Room 601, which was the furthest away, so they were not likely to meet.

"I didn't expect CEO Pei to be here on a business trip. It's a pity that our rooms are too far apart."

"Who's in Room 605 again?" Zhou Xuefang asked.

That person's luck was good.

Just as she was thinking about this, the door of Room 605 opened and Si Jingchuan walked out.

At the same time, the elevator behind them stopped again, and Su Ji came out.

"Don't worry, mom. Everything's fine. I'm going to go now," she hung up the phone as she walked out of the elevator.

Si Jingchuan waved at her. "Boss, I've put your luggage in."

"Thanks," Su Ji replied.

His health had improved recently, and he was working more and more diligently.

Tang Yimo tugged at Zhou Xuefang's sleeve.

The last thing she wanted was for Su Ji to stay in Room 605!

Ever since she saw Su Ji enter the CEO's office that day, she had been feeling uncomfortable.

Zhou Xuefang acted like a big sister. She walked up to Su Ji and spoke to her with a smile. She was very friendly, as if all the unpleasant things had never happened.

"Su Ji, can you do us a favor?"

Su Ji was thinking about tonight's live calligraphy lesson, and she frowned when she was interrupted.

Zhou Xuefang continued, "Yimo likes Room 605. Can I trouble you to change rooms with her?"

Tang Yimo looked at her gratefully and then turned to Su Ji. "Su Ji, I like the direction of your room more. Can we switch rooms?"

Si Jingchuan had never seen such a shameless person.

They were all stunned.

"You want to change rooms?" Su Ji thought for a moment.

Si Jingchuan wanted to persuade his boss not to, but Su Ji continued, "you should have told me earlier. But Jingchuan just helped me put everything in just now. It's a little too troublesome to switch now."

Tang Yimo's adorable smile turned ugly in an instant.

Zhou Xuefang also found the words to be familiar.

That was what she said to Si Jingchuan when he asked her if she could switch seats with him!

Now, Su Ji had given her a taste of her own medicine.

Su Ji smiled.

Zhou Xuefang was even more certain that she did it on purpose!

Su Ji turned away slowly and returned to her room.

The door behind them closed with a “bang”.

It was like a silent mockery.

Si Jingchuan smiled and strode into the elevator.

Zhou Xuefang looked at Tang Yimo and whispered, “it’s fine. He’s not going to be here for just one day. We might have a better idea.”

**

In the room, Su Ji was preparing to stream.

Before boarding the plane, she had already announced today’s class time, so her students should have received it.

She set up her phone and entered the room on time.

On the right side, the students’ ID’s appeared one by one.

[“Based on my many years of business experience, the master is definitely in a hotel today!”]

[“Everyone, look at the text on the back of the master’s chair! It’s Country T!”]

[“You must have X-ray vision.”]

[“The next episode of ‘The Billions Stars’ will be shot in Country T? I’m looking forward to it!”]

[“According to the plot of the last episode, I guess their company is on a business trip together!”]

Su Ji’s students were smart.

Seeing that they had almost guessed the plot of the fourth episode, Su Ji’s beautiful hands unfolded the rice paper. “If you give more spoilers, today’s class will be canceled.”

The emotionless ‘threat’ instantly silenced the comments.

During class, Su Ji would mostly focus the camera on the rice paper and her own hands so that her students could feel the strength of the script.

However, just five minutes into today’s class, a super cool rainbow icon appeared on the screen.

This was a special icon that only those who tipped more than 100,000 yuan could use.

“.” had tipped her.

[“Move the camera up a little.”]

Su Ji would not care if someone else made such a request.

But this time, it was “.”, so Su Ji moved the camera up a little.

A few minutes later, “.” reappeared.

[“More.”]

Su Ji moved it up.

In the end, her face was on the screen.

The bullet screen was filled with “hahahahaha! I suspect that ‘.’ is a fan of the master!”]

[“The lesson just became 10 times more pleasant.”]

[“Suddenly seeing her face almost paralyzed me!”]

[“Compared to the master’s godly appearance, my face is dirt.”]

[“By the way, is ‘.’ a man or a woman? Does anyone know?”]

Ever since Su Ji showed her face, “.” stopped commenting.

The person was obviously satisfied.

[“It’s definitely a man. Otherwise, why did he keep asking her to show her face?”]

[“We treat you as a classmate, but you want to be our master’s husband!”]

[“I don’t want to know if ‘.’ is a man or a woman. I only want to know if ‘.’ likes men or women! (I’m a man btw, winking.jpg) ”]

Su Ji glanced at the screen and saw that everyone was getting more and more excited, so she definitely had to help “.” clear things up. “Don’t joke around, ‘.’ is a...”

At the same time, Pei Huai wanted to clarify after seeing the last comment.

Hence-...

“...a woman,” Su Ji replied.

At the same time, a super cool rainbow icon popped up on the screen.

[“.” : “I like women.”]

Awkward...
