Chapter 241 Master Pei Surprising Su Ji at Work

In the opposite room, Pei Huai was talking on the phone...

Receiving Su Ji's compliments, he had mixed feelings.

She seemed to be complimenting him, but it also didn't seem like she was complimenting him!

...

On the other hand, every time Huai Huai was scolded, his face darkened

What a shame to have that name.

The person couldn't answer anything!

Today was definitely an intense class. The students quickly reviewed their past lessons after class finished.

They didn't want to be picked on like Huai Huai!

After class, Su Ji felt better.

It was as if the anger that had been stuck in her for a few days had finally been released.

She put away the brush, ink, paper, and inkstone, and took out her phone.

After a while, the phone wasn't hot anymore and she opened WeCat.

For some reason, she tagged Meng Na this time.

[ "@Meng Na Nana, you never wear a dress? And you never grow out your hair?" ]

[ Meng Na: Of course not! Gross!" ]

[ "Pan Lian: "why is it gross to wear a dress and have long hair?" ]

[ Tao: "I've always had long hair and wore beautiful dresses since I was young!" ]

[ Meng Na: "I'm sorry. I'm talking about myself. I've always felt uncomfortable when my hair grows out. I can't stand wearing a dress at all." ]

Su Ji nodded.

She didn't know if "." was like Meng Na or if she was sexy and charming with long hair.

However, she didn't ask these questions for that reason...

Fortunately, no one asked why she asked. Pan Lian quickly shifted everyone's attention to another matter.

[ Pan Lian: "Baby! I heard that there's a bed scene tomorrow! And it's with that super handsome new actor!" ]

After today's shoot, Xu Ni had become popular.

He had good looks and a rebellious personality.

Blue Whale was never short of newcomers. Tang Yimo was too arrogant.

Yang Xiaotao was also part of the crew, so she knew the latest news!

[ Meng Na: "Is that true? How R-rated is it? Would it be censored?" ]

[ Tao: "I don't know if I should ask this but what's CEO Pei's reaction?" ]

Su Ji's eyes twitched.

[ "It's not a bed scene, but a fight scene in bed!" ]

[ Meng Na: "..."]

[ Pan Lian: "..."]

[ Tao: "Although it's a fight scene, it's still in bed, so you might have physical contact with each other. Su Ji, you have to be careful!" ]

Yang Xiaotao's words were not without reason, but...

[ "I've read the script. I'm better than him in fighting. He is the one who needs to be careful." ]

As soon as this message was sent, she received three replies simultaneously.

[ Meng Na: "Poor guy!" ]

[ Pan Lian: "Poor guy? He is clearly lucky to be crushed by baby!" ]

[ Tao: "Both of them are handsome. I don't know who to envy anymore! I would like to be in the middle!" ]

The next day, on set.

Su Ji and Xu Ni's fight scene in bed was definitely the highlight of the day.

Han Junlei had arranged for the entire morning to be dedicated to this scene.

In the morning, the main actors, Su Ji and Xu Ni arrived on set.

Xu Ni had an assistant with him today, who was hired by Lu Ailian.

Pei Xi came with Su Ji.

The setting was Bai Yueguang's bedroom. Facing the camera was a large bed.

After the Bai family fell from grace, their mansion was seized and Bai Yueguang was in huge debt. After returning to the country, she rented two rooms in a house with Xiaomei.

Bai Yueguang's room was not big, but it was very clean and filled with a fresh smell of soap. The quilt was folded like a piece of tofu, and the decoration in the room was very simple. There was almost nothing in the room, just like a soldier's.

Today's plot was a continuation of yesterday's.

Yesterday, Bai Ye stopped Bai Yueguang at the door.

He wanted to humiliate her and ask her for money, but in the end, he was the one who was humiliated.

Bai Ye would not let this go.

He immediately had evil thoughts.

This house was not in a safe location. The previous tenant had left because their things were always stolen. When Bai Yueguang saw that the rent here was cheap, she still chose to rent it.

That night, Bai Ye sneaked into the house, preparing to attack Bai Yueguang at night.

Even if he could not get the money, he wanted to teach her a lesson.

He had been too careless a few years ago, but this time, he would definitely make her suffer!

Then, it was the fight scene in bed.

Now that the actors had arrived, Han Junlei first explained the scene to Su Ji and Xu Ni.

He climbed into bed to demonstrate the scene to them.

Han Junlei was usually a serious person, but every time he demonstrated, his expression and actions were on point.

This held true even when he was teaching an actress how to cry.

It was quite a contrast to his usual self, and sometimes the staff couldn't help but laugh.

However, he never found it weird, as this was how a professional actor should behave.

He designed a few fighting moves, and the filming would be very intense later!

He looked at Su Ji and was worried. "Xu Ni, you are stronger since you are a man. When Su Ji pounces on you later, you have to hold back a little."

Xu Ni recalled how Su Ji had pushed him yesterday!

His face darkened, but he still agreed. "I understand."

The other staff members who had seen Su Ji fight against a hundred men were also silent.

Although it was still uncertain whether it was Director Song who bribed the men, Director Han was clearly clueless about Su Ji's strength...

After he finished explaining, Han Junlei asked Su Ji and Xu Ni to prepare in the dressing room.

It was unknown whether Xu Ni was nervous, but when he thought of the scene, he looked nervous.

Pei Xi hugged Su Ji and walked towards the dressing room, as if she had just survived a disaster. "Hahaha, you scared me to death. I really thought it was a bed scene. However, it still seems quite intense based on Director Han's explanation. Fortunately, Pei Huai isn't here, or else he would have died of anger on the spot."

Su Ji frowned, thinking that she was exaggerating. "No way. I'm on top, I won't be at a disadvantage."

"Don't worry about that. Trust me. As long as you're on the same bed as someone else, Pei Huai will become a scary person."

Su Ji was silent for a moment. "It's a good thing he didn't come."

The two of them entered the dressing room while they were talking.

Little did they know that at the same time, a black luxury car was slowly driving towards the set.

It was a sunny day and the sky was clear.

Pei Huai decided to visit her at work.

He wanted to give Su Ji a surprise!

Chapter 242 This is Going to be Exciting!

Before Xu Ni went to the dressing room, he went to the bathroom to smoke a cigarette.

He wanted to relax, but when he was smoking, the picture Su Ji showed him yesterday kept popping up in his mind.

...

He was more annoyed now.

However, he still finished the whole cigarette. He needed nicotine to relieve his nerves.

He fanned himself to get rid of the cigarette smell before heading to the dressing room.

Today's scene was different from yesterday's.

Yesterday, he only had to speak, but today...

It was such an intense fight scene, but Director Han asked for a few specific moves.

One of them was to have Su Ji lift his T-shirt and cover his head before subduing him.

But in that case..

Xu Ni subconsciously covered his crotch.

Before he entered the dressing room, he told his assistant.

"I'll go in by myself."

The assistant was a young lady called Xiaohua. She was ignorant about everything.

She blushed and nodded. "Okay."

He was already annoyed, and now his grandma got him an assistant.

Meanwhile, Su Ji was sitting in front of the makeup desk. The makeup artist, Ms. He was worried about Su Ji's stunning bare face.

Putting on makeup for Su Ji every day really made her feel a sense of defeat. Unless Su Ji put on very heavy makeup, there was no difference!

Pei Xi sat beside her and looked at Su Ji in the mirror. She was obviously a little excited about today's scene.

"Su Ji, if there really is a bed scene in the future, will you accept it?"

As a manager, this was not just out of curiosity!

She had to understand her sister-in-law's limits so that she could help her with future roles.

Su Ji said casually, "depends on the pay."

"?"

She had asked this question to many artists before, but her sister-in-law's answer was the most practical!

"If the pay is good, you'll take it?"

Su Ji thought about it seriously. "As long as I'm on top."

"??"

So she liked to be on top.

Pei Xi started imagining.

Su Ji was on top, and she pulled on Pei Huai's tie and pinned him down.

She was wearing a tight black leather dress, while Pei Huai was wearing a black shirt.

Su Ji pulled on his bright red tie and the bright red velvet bedsheet under them was shimmering.

If Pei Huai were to put on a pair of handcuffs...

Ah!!!!

That would be illegal!

Su Ji looked at Pei Xi through the mirror. "I see that you're a little short of breath. Are you okay?"

She had been nursing Pei Xi's body recently and was paying close attention to her health.

Even if she was not competing with Pei Huai, she would still be concerned.

Pei Xi exhaled. "I'm fine, I'm fine."

She got a little too excited. It seemed like she'd been reading too many erotic novels.

She hoped that Pei Huai was lucky enough to marry Su Ji in this life!

Half an hour later, Ms. He gave Su Ji a natural look. It was as if she hadn't put on any makeup.

Her costume was very simple. It was Bai Yueguang's daily pajamas.

It was a set of white top and bottom.

Ordinary people would look sickly in it, but Su Ji looked good.

Pei Xi said with a smile, "I just asked. Xu Ni is actually slower than you. Most male celebrities take half the time to change. You guys are the opposite."

Su Ji straightened her outfit and stood up. "There's no hurry. I need to go to the bathroom."

She passed by Xu Ni's dressing room when she went to the bathroom.

From a distance, she saw that Xiaohua was bored waiting outside.

Not only Xiaohua, but even the stylist and makeup artist were sent out by Xu Ni.

When she saw Su Ji, she smiled. "Xu Ni is changing inside. He's quite shy."

Su Ji shrugged, "maybe it's just a habit. "

After the two makeup artists left, Su Ji happened to pass by Xu Ni's dressing room.

At this moment, she suddenly heard a muffled thumping sound from inside.

It seemed quite loud.

Su Ji didn't have time to think and pushed the door open.

The next second, she saw Xu Ni, who was on the ground.

Before this, Xu Ni lifted his t-shirt and rehearsed the plot in front of the mirror.

However, he was obviously clumsy, and fell to the ground.

At this moment, he looked like a tortoise.

At that moment, Su Ji understood the expression on Xu Ni's face.

He looked worried.

Because of yesterday's incident, Xu Ni was a little afraid of Su Ji. Not to mention, Su Ji's character in today's scene was also very domineering.

Seeing her, Xu Ni smiled awkwardly.

"You're practicing by yourself? Later, Director Han will let us try out the scene first."

Xu Ni's expression was unnatural. "Ah, I just want to try it out myself first. I'll be out in a while."

“Alright.” Su Ji was about to close the door.

She subconsciously glanced at him.

He had already changed. He was wearing a loose T-shirt and a pair of jeans. His arms were long and fair, and his shoulder blades could be vaguely seen from his back.

Because of the fall, his clothes were lifted and she saw his extremely slender waist.

“...”

**

Huang Huayu received a call from Ren Guanghua.

“Ah? CEO Pei is here for an inspection today?”

He hurriedly informed Han Junlei and walked out to welcome him.

When Han Junlei heard that CEO Pei was coming, so he subconsciously straightened his clothes.

It could be seen that CEO Pei really cared about this project.

Blue Whale was mainly in charge of marketing and human resources. Later, it began to involve itself in film and television production, and gradually developed into a well-known comprehensive agency.

In the past few years, they had produced many movies and TV series. Some of them had high ratings, and many of the movies they produced were blockbusters.

However, he had never seen CEO Pei value any other project as much as this!

It was definitely his first time coming to set for an inspection!

However, the viewership ratings since the start of the show had also proved that CEO Pei had good foresight. The ROI of this show was really high!

When Huang Huayu arrived at the entrance of the set, Pei Huai’s car happened to drive in.

After the car was parked, Huang Huayu jogged to the back door to help open it, but Pei Huai came out of the driver’s seat.

He actually drove here by himself!

Huang Huayu felt proud. He carefully walked beside Pei Huai, leading him inside.

As they walked, he explained today’s schedule. “CEO Pei, you came at the right time. We have a bed scene to shoot later.”

Pei Huai glanced at him.

“A fight scene in bed.”

Pei Huai was not really here to watch the scene and had no interest in bed scenes.

He asked, “where’s the actress I worked with last time?”

“Su Ji?” Huang Huayu smiled brightly. “She will be participating in this bed scene. She’s practicing right now. Shall I take you there?”

Chapter 243 Savage!

Pei Huai stopped and he turned his head to look at Huang Huayu.

“Say that again.”

...

Huan Huayu repeated it.

He could repeat n times for the CEO!

The strange silence between the two lasted for a few seconds. Huang Huayu gradually felt that something was wrong.

He was wearing two layers of cotton-padded jacket today, so why was his back still feeling cold?

After a while, Pei Huai convinced himself.

Calm down.

He looked at Huang Huayu. “You said that it’s a fight scene in bed, right?”

Huang Huayu hurriedly replied, “yes, yes. It’s called a bed scene for short.”

Pei Huai’s expression was even colder than today’s weather.

“You should just call it a fight scene.”

Huang Huayu paused. Although he did not know why CEO Pei was so angry, he was drenched in sweat.

“Yes, it’s a fight scene! My bad for using the wrong expression! CEO Pei, this way please!”

**

Su Ji was already trying out the scene.

The lines were fixed, but the body movements weren’t. Especially for a fight scene like this, they had to rehearse first.

The two of them got into bed while Han Junlei guided them.

The few of them were so focused that they didn’t even notice that someone had entered the room.

As soon as Pei Huai entered the door, he saw Su Ji grabbing Xu Ni’s T-shirt. The two of them were pushing and shoving each other as they tried out a scene.

Pei Huai’s face darkened.

In front of him, Pei Xi cried out, “yes, that’s it! Tear his clothes! Nice!”

“...”

A few seconds later, Pei Xi felt as if the back of her head had been placed into a refrigerator.

Her entire body trembled.

He turned around and first saw Huang Huayu.

She even laughed. "Assistant Director Huang, who did you say you were going to pick up?"

Huang Huayu made a serious gesture to his side. "CEO Pei is here for an inspection."

At the same time, Pei Xi saw her brother, the cold and handsome Nicha Sonpanshan.

Her expression froze. "Huai..."

As soon as she said that, Pei Huai put his index finger to his lips and made a "shush" gesture with an expressionless face.

Even though the scene just now shocked him, he knew that if he interrupted the rehearsal, it would only make Su Ji do it again.

It was a fight scene in bed.

Not a bed scene.

"..."

She turned and looked at Su Ji, who was still focused on lifting Xu Ni's T-shirt.

She broke out in a cold sweat.

CEO Pei's appearance made the staff even more serious than before!

Since Pei Huai didn't want to interrupt, no one in the surrounding area dared to make a sound.

Right now, the people who were the most invested in the scene were Han Junlei, Su Ji, and Xu Ni, who were surrounding the single bed.

Pei Huai looked around. Everyone was wearing winter jackets except for Su Ji, who was wearing thin pajamas.

In fact, Xu Ni was also wearing very little, but he didn't notice it.

Pei Huai lowered his voice and said to Huang Huayu, "raise the temperature of the air conditioner a little."

Huang Huayu was stunned. "Yes, CEO Pei."

The weather was cold in winter, but because there were many lights on set, it would naturally heat up, so they didn't pay much attention to it.

The actors were fully engrossed in their acting and didn't feel the cold.

But afterwards, they tend to catch a cold.

He did not expect CEO Pei to be so considerate!

After adjusting the temperature, Huang Huayu felt that CEO Pei's mood had stabilized. He poured him a glass of warm water.

"CEO Pei, have some water."

Pei Huai took it.

Pei Xi laughed. "Drink some water and relax. We're just filming."

However, at this moment, another "wow" was heard.

On the bed, Su Ji was already at the part where he could take advantage of her!

The plastic cup in Pei Huai's hand was crushed.

His face turned completely black.

Warm water flowed out from the gaps between his fingers.

He looked savage.

"..."

Huang Huayu was so shocked that he covered his mouth.

Was this scene that exciting?

Even CEO Pei had such a huge reaction?

The next step was to lift Xu Ni's t-shirt and cover his head.

She grabbed Xu Ni's arm and was about to lift his T-shirt.

Xu Ni's face heated up. Once his T-shirt was lifted, the places that should be covered would not be covered.

He wanted to cover up, but his hands were held by Su Ji and he could not move at all!

He knew it!

This woman was very strong!

She was the same height as him, but she was so much stronger than him!

He pursed his thin lips and his forehead was sweating.

Although he had put in some protective measures, the staff would still find it strange if he was exposed.

Just as he was feeling conflicted, Su Ji also noticed that he was wearing a short T-shirt under his T-shirt.

Although only a small part of it was exposed, she still saw it.

She instantly narrowed her eyes, as if she had confirmed something.

She didn't lift his T-shirt again, but the trick that a certain someone often used on her suddenly appeared in her mind.

The next second, she pulled Xu Ni's arm and turned him over. Xu Ni didn't even react to what had happened when he felt the world spinning.

Su Ji's swift and clean movement had caught his hand behind his back!

"Wow..." The surrounding people exclaimed.

Su Ji looked up and said, "Director Han, I think this is better than covering his head with the T-shirt. What do you think?"

Han Junlei touched his chin and thought about it seriously for a moment. "I do agree. I'll change the angle and you guys can try it again."

Su Ji smiled and let go.

Xu Ni only got up after a long time. To be honest, it was really painful.

However, why did Su Ji suddenly change her movements just now?

Not having to lift his T-shirt was a great help to him!

He sneaked a glance at Su Ji. Su Ji was currently gesturing with Han Junlei to practice their grappling moves.

She looked normal.

She probably didn't notice anything, right?

Han Junlei adjusted the angle again and let Su Ji and Xu Ni do it again.

This time, there was even more tension. Su Ji moved forward and pinned Xu Ni's arm behind his back, then turned around and seized him!

She clutched Xu Ni's wrist tightly.

It was powerful and domineering!

Han Junlei was very satisfied, and the staff around him were also full of praise.

"It's good! This part will be absolutely wonderful to watch!"

"Su Ji is really suitable to act in this type of drama!"

Su Ji felt like she hadn't heard Pei Xi's voice for a long time. Usually, when she was acting, Pei Xi would be particularly excited.

She thought that she had gone out, but when she turned around, she saw her.

She even gestured to her, as if trying to tell her something.

Did she just learn sign language?

Then, the next second, Pei Huai's handsome face came into view.

"..."

Su Ji glanced at Pei Huai and then lowered her head to look at Xu Ni, who was still under her.

Pei Huai nodded and said, “acting, huh?”

Su Ji was silent for a few seconds before she replied with an “mm”.

Pei Huai smiled and narrowed his eyes. “Carry on. Don’t worry about me.”

Chapter 244 A Beauty from Ancient Times

The crew looked back and forth between the two of them a few times.

Was CEO Pei acting weird today?

...

He looked upset but he was smiling.

However, the veins at the back of his neck were popping out!

Su Ji: “...”

Han Junlei was the most optimistic person in the room. “Hahaha, since CEO Pei said so, let’s continue filming!”

Immediately after that, it was another half an hour of practice and filming.

Xu Ni’s bangs were covering his eyes during the first shot, so Han Junlei asked them to do it again.

Huang Huayu sat beside Pei Huai. “CEO Pei, Director Han is a perfectionist. He won’t even allow a hair to be at the wrong place.”

He was still waiting for Pei Huai to compliment them.

Pei Huai looked at the time. “Is it time for lunch?”

“It’s still early. If we can’t finish it, we won’t have time to eat,” Huang Huayu said.

Pei Huai’s brows furrowed. “Is this how you treat your actors?”

“...”

Most bosses hoped that their employees would be as diligent as possible, and they would rather them work the whole day.

CEO Pei was indeed different.

Or else how could he be so successful?

Huang Huayu finally understood how to please CEO Pei. Fortunately, Director Han was finally satisfied with the scene.

Han Junlei was smiling. “Alright, Su Ji and Xu Ni, you did well just now. We’re done!”

The entire crew heaved a sigh of relief when they could finally rest.

This bit of physical work was nothing to Su Ji, but she had to repeat the scene several times. Every time, she had to focus and be in the right mood. In the end, when the shoot was over, she felt warm.

She took out a rubber band from her pocket and casually tied her long hair up, revealing her delicate and beautiful facial features.

She looked sophisticated in the white pajamas.

Everyone in the crew gathered around Pei Huai. Only Xu Ni, who had finished filming with Su Ji, tidied his crumpled T-shirt and glanced at Pei Huai. He said flatly, "CEO Pei is your boyfriend?"

Su Ji froze.

Eh?

"How did you know?"

Xu Ni snorted. "When we were filming just now, his eyes were so murderous!"

Su Ji chuckled. "You should be glad that he only used his eyes."

"???"

Pei Xi, who was beside him, heard and smiled at him. "You're sensitive. I feel that among all the people in the crew, you're the only one who noticed."

She had been thinking about this when Huang Huayu repeatedly challenged Pei Huai's limits.

No one in the room could tell that Pei Huai liked Su Ji?

Finally, a smart one.

Hearing Pei Xi's words, Xu Ni's face turned red. "Sensitive? I'm just observant!"

After that, he took the water from his assistant, Xiao Hua, and left.

Su Ji was a weirdo! Su Ji's manager was also a weirdo!

The terms they used were so strange!

Pei Xi glanced at his reddened neck and said to Su Ji, "your new partner is quite thin-skinned, huh?"

Su Ji swiped on her phone and remembered what she saw today...

Her lips curved into a smile. "He's indeed thin-skinned. Don't tease him."

During the lunch break, Han Junlei wanted to talk to Su Ji about the upcoming scenes.

"Su Ji, come here..."

"Su Ji."

Before Han Junlei could finish, someone else called Su Ji.

That voice was deep and magnetic, much more attractive than his.

It was CEO Pei.

Su Ji was just about to get her lunch box when she heard two people calling her. She turned around to look at them.

Pei Huai met Han Junlei's gaze. There was no expression on his face. "I'm sorry. I have something to discuss with Su Ji."

When Han Junlei heard that, he did not dare to take her. "Ah, go ahead, I'm not in a hurry."

In the dressing room, Pei Huai ordered a few dishes and placed them in front of Su Ji.

He took Su Ji away from Han Junlei just so that Su Ji could have a peaceful lunch.

Pei Xi was there as well.

Su Ji was reading her script as she ate. Pei Huai was sitting opposite her and looking at her.

He had thought about what to say to convince her to stop participating in scenes like these.

Su Ji felt his burning gaze and looked up. She glanced at him with her flirtatious eyes, "what's wrong? Do you have something to tell me?"

Pei Huai's mind went blank for a second, and all his words of lecture were thrown to the back of his mind. "Nothing, the food is getting cold. Eat first."

Su Ji raised her eyebrows and went back to the script. "I'll eat while I read."

It was a meat dish that Su Ji liked very much. Pei Xi also thought it was good.

Su Ji was focused on the script in her hands and ate slowly. Pei Xi was eating four times as quick as her.

After a short while, the meat was almost finished.

Pei Huai frowned slightly and pushed the meat in Su Ji's direction, so that Pei Xi could not reach it.

Pei Xi reached out with her chopsticks, but realized that she couldn't reach it. "Pei Huai, do you have to go that far?"

Pei huai looked at her and smiled emotionlessly. "You've gained weight recently, you should eat less."

He killed her with one sentence.

Pei Xi almost vomited blood in anger!

She had reason to suspect that if there was a famine in the world, he would rather starve his whole family than have Su Ji eat a little less.

Pei Xi quickly looked at herself in the mirror.

Although she had really put on a little weight recently, she was still a beauty!

Besides, didn't she do this so that she could conceive?

When Su Ji gave her the prescription, she also told her that she might gain a little weight during this period of time and asked her not to worry.

Although she didn't know if the method would work, there's no harm in trying.

"I'm doing this to get pregnant! When have you seen me gain weight? Do you know how much a woman has to do to have a child?"

As expected, Pei Huai fell into deep thought afterwards. His expression was serious and solemn.

Pei Xi asked quietly, "do you feel bad now?"

However, Pei Huai did not look at her. In the next second, he clasped Su Ji's hand. "Su Ji, let's be a DINK couple."

Pei Xi: "???"

He did hear her, but it was obvious that he wasn't thinking about her!

Su Ji was focused on reading the script and did not hear what the two were talking about at all. She only looked up when she felt Pei Huai holding her hand. "What's a DINK?"

Pei Huai explained it to her.

Su Ji narrowed her eyes and slapped his hand away.

Pei Xi looked at Su Ji for a while and suddenly laughed. "I feel like you're a beauty from ancient times who doesn't understand modern terms..."

Chapter 245 The Unforgettable Figure on the Horse

Su Ji's hand, which was holding the script, paused.

That was really accurate.

...

Just as she was thinking about how to change the subject, Pei Huai said in a natural tone, "my girlfriend is just innocent."

Pei Xi made a retching expression and did not want to talk to them anymore.

That day, Pei Huai stayed on set until afternoon.

Because of his presence, the crew's efficiency went up another level. In the end, they finished two hours earlier than Han Junlei had expected.

Pei Huai spent the remaining time teaching Su Ji how to drive.

Su Ji learned very quickly, and she could now distinguish between left and right, so she drove steadily.

As she turned a corner, the wheels of the car screeched as they rubbed against the ground.

Even Pei Huai couldn't help but raise his eyebrows.

He could already see how great the electric vehicle advertisement would be in the future.

He had found an incredible spokesperson.

Su Ji used to be an expert at riding horses. On the battlefield, the horse seemed to know what she was thinking.

At the crucial moment, the horse raised its strong front legs high up and Su Ji stabbed the enemy commander with the spear. The scene was deeply engraved in the hearts of many soldiers. Even if they'd died and reincarnated, they would not be able to erase the memory!

As the car came down from the winding mountain road, Su Ji lifted her chin slightly at Pei Huai. "How was it?"

"Not bad." A few seconds later, Pei Huai added, "very good."

Later on, Su Ji drove the car back to the Pei residence.

The butler saw that the young master's car had returned. He jogged out and opened the driver's door.

Su Ji came out.

"Ms. Su?" The butler was pleasantly surprised.

Pei Huai got down from the front passenger seat.

Su Ji greeted the butler and threw the key to Pei Huai, who caught it casually.

"Come in for a while?" He asked.

Su Ji did not come back with him because she wanted to go home with him. She smiled and said, "I want to go next door and see Grandpa Wang."

Pei Huai was not surprised by her answer. He sent her to Commander Wang's house. "I'm going back to do some work. Can you go in yourself?"

He sounded worried, like a worried parent.

Su Ji smiled. "Go do your work."

At Commander Wang's house.

The TV in the living room was playing a Chinese epic drama, Legend of Wutian, which was a popular historical drama.

War flags fluttered in the wind, war horses galloped, and dust flew on the vast border. The two armies faced each other.

Commander Wang didn't flip the pages of the newspaper in his hand for a long time. He was so focused on it as if he was there.

The servant who was cleaning the place laughed and said, "sir, you really love to watch historical war dramas. Ever since I started working here, this has been on the TV whenever you are home."

Commander Wang's smile carried a sense of authority. He pointed at the white-haired general on the screen and said, "you won't believe me, but I think I was him in my previous life!"

Of course, the servants would not say that they did not believe him. They all laughed and went along. "Commander Wang, you are much better than him."

Commander Wang had heard too much flattery, and now he was basically immune to it. He only smiled faintly. "You don't understand."

The scene on the TV changed to the Imperial Palace.

The female star who played the role of the empress stood in court and waved her sleeves in a domineering manner.

Commander Wang sat up straight. The next second, his bright eyes dimmed. "Young girls nowadays can't act like a real empress at all."

"Sir, have you seen a real one before?" The servant teased.

Commander Wang choked and leaned back on the sofa. "Anyway, she didn't act well."

The servant glanced at the TV and recognized who the female celebrity was. A look of admiration immediately appeared on her face. "Sir, this is Nan Miaomiao. This movie became popular because of her. Later on, she acted in a few similar movies. Everyone on the internet is saying that she's the empress' spokesperson! No one can be more domineering than her."

Commander Wang didn't think much of it. "I don't think so."

He couldn't describe it, but he had a vague impression of the empress in his mind.

She was not only much more beautiful than many female stars, but what was more terrifying was her temperament.

The figure on the horse.

Saving the country from danger, unparalleled intelligence, extraordinary skills, courage and insight.

"Grandpa Wang, are you there..."

At this moment, a voice came from the courtyard.

The voice sounded young and teasing.

It was familiar and nostalgic.

Commander Wang was stunned.

When he turned around, Su Ji stepped into the room.

Commander Wang's pupils dilated, and an inexplicable feeling rose in his heart. It was a long time before he realized that he had lost his composure. He controlled his expression and asked, "Su Ji, why are you here?"

“The last time I saw you, I felt like we were old friends. I passed by here and decided to come and see you.”

The servants retreated to the side and looked at the young woman who came for the first time. They looked at each other and smiled.

They had heard a lot of people say something similar.

After all, Commander Wang had a high status, and there were many people who wanted to get close to him.

He didn't know what Commander Wang would say to drive her away this time.

However, Commander Wang suddenly broke into a smile and greeted her warmly, “come in! Come and sit beside me! I felt the same way! Are you sure we've never met before?”

The servants: “...”

The current Commander Wang seemed like a bootlicker!

Meanwhile, in another city in China, Haicheng City.

In a private room of a high-class tea restaurant in the bustling city center.

The woman had exquisite makeup on, and was on the phone. She smiled brightly. “I'm here Yaya. It's rare for us to be here together in Haicheng City. Hurry up, I've missed you so much.”

The waiter in an exquisite uniform put down the wine and left with his head lowered.

He tried his best to hide the excitement of seeing a big star.

Nan Miaomiao was even more beautiful in person than on television!

He had watched “Legend of Wu Tian” at least ten times!

He loved the empress to death!

That's right, the woman who was on the phone in the private room was the actress who played the empress, Nan Miaomiao.

She hung up the phone, crossed her beautiful legs in high heels, and swiped the phone with her manicured fingers. She exuded a refined aura from head to toe.

She waited for ten minutes before the door was finally pushed open.

When she saw who it was, she stood up happily and ran over to the woman to hug her.

It could be seen that they were close.

The woman took a step back and patted her back. “Alright, let me drink some water first. I'm thirsty.”

The woman took off her mask and hat. Her long hair fell to her shoulders, and her facial features were beautiful.

It was Sonya.

Chapter 246 Su Ji, the Most Loved Person by the Pei Family

Nan Miaomiao poured her a glass of red wine. "Why are you drinking water? When did we ever not drink when we met up?"

Sonya hesitated for two seconds, but she still rejected it. "No, I have to attend a show tonight."

...

Nan Miaomiao pursed her lips and downed the glass of wine. "Fine, how boring."

Sonya said apologetically, "I'll make it up to you next time. When I don't have any jobs, I'll drink with you to my heart's content."

"You promised? You can't go back on your word!" Nan Miaomiao's eyes lit up when she heard this.

Sonya looked at her excited look and laughed tiredly. She threw her hat and mask on the coffee table and leaned back on the sofa. "Yes. I'll ask you out immediately when I'm free."

She had been in a bad mood ever since the last incident.

She heard Pei Huai call Pei Song with her own ears. She knew that it was over.

Although she missed Xingxing, she did not call Pei Song.

Pei Song would not let her see him anytime soon.

That day, she drunk dialed Ms. Liu. Fortunately, Ms. Liu didn't pick up, or it would have been too embarrassing.

After that, she got her team to fill up her schedule with work. She went on business trips to other provinces for several weeks without taking a breath.

If Nan Miaomiao didn't catch her today, she would not even have had the time to chill.

Nan Miaomiao was her best friend in this industry.

She was also the only one except her parents that knew she had a secret marriage and a child.

Nan Miaomiao's alcohol tolerance was average, but she loved to drink.

Her face was red after just one glass. She suddenly realized something. "Yaya, why do I feel like you're lying to me? You said you'd ask me out when you're free, but you're not letting yourself be free, right?"

Sonya smiled. "I know I can't fool you."

Nan Miaomiao poured herself another glass of wine and changed her sitting position. She moved closer to her and hesitated for a moment before saying, "Yaya, you don't have to pay for child support for Xingxing. Even if you win an Oscar, you might not be as rich as Second Master Pei. Why are you working so hard?"

When Sonya heard this, she suddenly felt emotional. I wish Pei Song would let me pay child support. Now, he doesn't let me see Xingxing at all, nor does he want me to do anything with Xingxing. It's as if Xingxing has nothing to do with me!"

"What? He doesn't let you see your own son?" Nan Miaomiao was filled with righteous indignation, and she raised her voice.

Seeing this, Sonya simply told her about what happened between her and Xingxing that day. Nan Miaomiao was so angry that she stood up from the sofa. "Why? CEO Pei is only thinking about his nephew and didn't even consider your feelings? Of course your heart ached when you abandoned him!"

Finally, someone was speaking up for her. Sonya held her head in her hands, her nose felt sour.

Nan Miaomiao could not stand her good friend being wronged. Seeing that her eyes were red, she tried to lighten up the atmosphere, "the Berlin Film Festival is over, why are you crying?"

Sonya sniffled and rolled her eyes at her. "Before I returned to China, the news that I attended the Berlin Film Festival was everywhere. It's only been a few months, and the fans have almost forgotten about me. Being a movie actress is really boring. I should have acted in TV dramas like you back then, which aired every summer and winter break. One drama could last a lifetime, and the fans wouldn't be able to forget it even if they wanted to."

"Sigh, both have their drawbacks. Legend of Wu Tian is just too popular. I do hope that someone can break its legend. You see, I have been typecast."

She leaned her head on Sonya's shoulder and said cooly, "I want to play the role of a weak woman sometimes."

Sonya pushed her away in disgust, and her tears turned into a smile. "Gross."

After Nan Miaomiao finished drooling, she suddenly said in a serious tone, "Yaya, there's a show that's really popular recently. Have you watched it?"

"You mean The Billion Stars, right? I don't have time to watch it."

Nan Miaomiao observed her expression and started to drink her third glass. "Not only is the drama popular, but the actress who plays Bai Yueguang is even more popular. I think she's going to catch up to us."

"Su Ji is beautiful, is a good actress, and has a good family background. Her mother is the CEO of the Xu Group. Just her family's affairs alone are always trending. Didn't she recently start a calligraphy class? I think we should just accept our fate. Some time ago, even members of my fan club were talking about her, saying that they like her."

"Really?" Nan Miaomiao took out her phone and opened Sonya's fan club. "Let me see."

The two of them were in each other's fan club.

"It was some time ago, it's gone now."

Later on, her agency made up some rumors about Su Ji being arrogant and disrespectful. As a result, not only did Sonya's fans no longer like Su Ji, but they also hated her.

However, Sonya had advised them to restrain themselves.

"Your manager complained to me the other day. She said that your fans didn't like her."

Sonya frowned. "What did he say to you?"

No wonder Nan Miaomiao insisted on drinking with her today. Her manager must have said something else.

"He told me everything. He said that a few of your clients have already announced that they are prepared to consider Su Ji when the contract is up. They said that Su Ji's style is similar to yours, but she's getting more popular..."

"What can I do? She's loved by everyone in the Pei family now, and touching her is equivalent to going against the Pei family. You don't know yet, right? Su Ji is CEO Pei's girlfriend."

Nan Miaomiao's expression became complicated.

A few seconds later, she said sarcastically, "so she has CEO Pei backing her? No wonder he gave her a role in the TV series and even had a cameo last week."

She felt even more indignant. "Yaya, you've gotten to where you are today all by yourself. Are you going to admit defeat to someone like her? I feel bad for you!"

As she spoke, the comments section of Sonya's fan club started to get busy.

"Sonya, what's going on?"

Sonya came over and saw a fan who posted a screenshot of Su Ji's calligraphy class and posted it in the group. Many people were talking about it.

She zoomed in on the picture.

The picture was very clear. Behind Su Ji was a painting that looked quite old.

She had no knowledge in this area and only understood after looking at the comments.

[ "My cousin is an appraiser. He confirmed that this painting is a genuine cultural relic from the tomb of the devil concubine!" ]

[ "Really? Can he tell just from the pictures?" ]

[how much does this relic cost? [I'll really believe it if you say that Su Ji's family is rich!]

[ "If you're sure, I'm going to call the police. Money isn't the important thing. Buying and selling cultural relics is a crime!" ]

[ "I'm already sick of celebrities trying to earn more money by starting a class. I heard that a class costs tens of thousands of yuan, but there are really blind people who would throw away their money!" ]

[ “I think they are in a cult. We should really expose Su Ji’s criminal behavior and destroy their entire nest!” ]

Sonya put her phone aside, feeling a little sour. “The Pei family is so rich. It’s normal for them to buy a relic for Su Ji from the black market.”

“Don’t break my phone,” Nan Miaomiao hurriedly picked it up and squinted her drunken eyes to look at it carefully. Suddenly, a mysterious smile appeared on her face.

She could not let her good friend suffer.

Sonya glanced at her. “Miaomiao, don’t mess around. I really can’t afford to offend the Pei family.”

Nan Miaomiao waved her hand. “Aiya, don’t worry.”

Even though she said that, her fingers were quickly typing on the phone.

Chapter 247 The Battle had Begun

**

By the time Pei Huai was done with his work, the food was almost ready.

...

He packed up and prepared to go next door.

Pei Qingshen happened to walk out of the room. “Pei Huai, I heard from the cook that you’ve added a few more dishes tonight. Do you have guests over?”

Pei Huai said in a good mood, “Su Ji.”

“Su Ji?” Pei Qingshen looked around. “Where is she?”

Pei Huai replied, “she’s at Commander Wang’s house. She’s been there for a while. I’ll go get her.”

“What?” Pei Qingshen was greatly agitated and took a step back with his walking stick. “Su Ji came and didn’t come and see me, her die-hard fan, but went to see Old Wang next door?”

“You...” He was so angry that he wanted to hit Pei Huai’s butt with his walking stick. “How could you let her go to Commander Wang’s house?”

Pei Huai was already used to his grandfather’s drama. He heard that his grandfather was also like this when he was in meetings.

He strode into the courtyard and asked indifferently, “why not?”

“Commander Wang’s grandson is even older than you! He is also single! It’s so dangerous for Su Ji to go there!” Pei Qingshen followed behind him. He walked as if he was flying, and he didn’t even need his walking stick. “I’ll go with you to bring her back.”

Pei Huai massaged his temple and let him be.

Meanwhile, Su Ji was playing Go with Commander Wang in the courtyard.

The weather was good today, and it wasn't too cold.

A white marble chess piece landed on the board with a powerful sound.

Commander Wang looked at the girl in front of him, surprise and love were about to overflow from the bottom of his heart.

At first, he had only casually suggested that Su Ji play Go with him for a while.

However, he did not expect that not only did Su Ji know how to, she was also an expert!

Her moves were aggressive. Fortunately, she didn't see two pieces that she could have taken, which gave him a chance to catch his breath.

Otherwise, it would be too embarrassing!

He carefully placed a chess piece on the board and looked up at Su Ji nervously.

Su Ji's lips curled up slightly. She pinched the white chess piece between her fingers and placed it on the board.

"I won this round."

"What? How?" Commander Wang looked at the chessboard and realized that it was clear after she placed the last piece.

He couldn't believe it.

Su Ji's one move took more than twenty of his pieces!

So just now...

"She didn't kill you on purpose just now. She was waiting to take you down in one move."

A man's deep and chuckling voice came from behind. Commander Wang turned around. "Pei Huai, you know how to play Go too?"

"A little."

He had never specifically learned Go, but he once had a mobile Go game installed on his phone.

However, he found it quite boring as he could beat the highest level, so he uninstalled it.

Now that he knew that Su Ji liked to play Go, he seemed to understand why he had chosen to play Go out of all the other games.

He liked whatever Su Ji liked.

He seemed to have a lot of hobbies, but in fact, he didn't have any. He only liked one person.

Su Ji.

Pei Qingshen stared at Su Ji's fingers, his heart aching. "Su Ji, how can you play chess outside on such a cold day? Old Wang, it's not that I'm picking on you, but what if she freezes? Su Ji, come home with us for dinner."

As he said that, he wanted to pull Su Ji's arm, but as soon as he did so, Commander Wang quickly grabbed Su Ji's other arm.

The battle was about to start!

"Just play a few more games. Why are you so anxious? Don't think I don't know what you're anxious about. My grandson isn't home, so can he steal your girl?"

Pei Qingshen saw that he was also pulling Su Ji's arm, and it was obvious that he wanted to challenge him.

How dare he say that he didn't want to poach her!

"Even if your grandson is here, he won't stand a chance. Su Ji likes Pei Huai."

Unexpectedly, his words provoked Commander Wang. That's not for sure, right? Su Ji, I'll show you my grandson's photo later. I don't think he's worse than Pei Huai!"

Pei Huai's thick brows furrowed deeply as he watched the two old men ramble on.

He put an arm around Su Ji's shoulders and pulled her away from the two old men.

He held back so that it wouldn't hurt, and Su Ji could get out of "danger."

The two old men looked at him at the same time.

Pei Huai's aura was imposing even though he was smiling. "If you continue to argue, the food will get cold."

Hearing this, Pei Qingshen changed the topic. "Right, let's go, Su Ji. The food will get cold."

They started to walk back. Commander Wang paused, then got up and followed them.

Pei Qingshen waved his hand at him. "Why are you following us? Stay in your own house!"

"It just so happens that the cook hasn't started cooking yet. I'll eat with you all."

"??"

**

Ten minutes later, at the dining table, Pei Xi, Bill and Pei Song looked at the four people who came back together.

"..."

Not only did they bring back Su Ji, but they also brought back an old man with a prominent status.

The few of them ignored their grandfather's dark expression.

"Hi, Grandpa Wang."

"Grandpa Wang, please have a seat," Pei Xi said.

Then, she kicked Bill under the chair.

Bill was like a puppet that needed to be wound. “Grandpa Wang, I miss you!”

He said the same thing when he first returned to the country and greeted Pei Qingshen.

Commander Wang also greeted them warmly, “hi everyone!”

Pei Xi pulled out the chair beside Su Ji. She had to watch over her sister-in-law as she ate.

It was extremely lively at the dining table. It was basically a competition between Commander Wang and Pei Qingshen, with daggers hidden in their smiles.

Pei Qingshen was speechless. His grandson had finally met someone he liked, yet so many people were trying to snatch her away from him.

Previously, it was Si Ke, and now it was Commander Wang.

However, as they were eating, Pei Xi suddenly received a call.

Seeing that it was Ren Guanghua, she picked up.

A few seconds later, her expression suddenly darkened.

There was a moment of silence at the dining table.

Everyone’s eyes were on her.

“Baby, did something happen?” Bill asked softly.

Pei Xi ignored him and listened attentively to Ren Guanghua on the other end of the phone. After half a minute, she slammed her hand on the table. “What? The police were even alerted?”

Pei Huai’s eyes turned cold, as if he had a premonition. He put down his chopsticks and took out his phone.

Chapter 248 Using a Sledgehammer to Crack a Nut

Su Ji also took out her phone.

Obviously, they had all received the news.

...

[ “A cultural relic appears in Su Ji’s calligraphy online class!” ]

[ “Su Ji is suspected of breaking the law. The authorities are investigating.” ]

Meanwhile, Weibo was also in an uproar.

#Su Ji, cultural relics#

#A summary of artists who broke the law#

#Netizens jointly begging The Billion Stars not to be taken down!#

If a celebrity was caught red-handed while cheating, even if the video was viral, it was still possible for them to make a comeback after a long time.

However, if they were convicted, there would be no chance of a comeback.

Not only that, but related works were also likely to be taken off the shelves.

Therefore, even though it did not seem to be a big deal, it was actually very serious.

Su Ji's fans were also in an uproar.

[ "No way? Are they really cultural relics? Su Ji definitely doesn't know either, right?" ]

[ "If Su Ji get banned because of this, I definitely won't be able to let this go!" ]

[ "I beg the company to clarify this as soon as possible!!" ]

[ "I'm the only one who noticed the painting. Who was the one who posted the screenshot?" ]

[ "This time, someone must be scheming against Su Ji. Otherwise, no one would have investigated this matter!!" ]

However, others on Weibo were not as nice.

Sonya's fans hated Su Ji. While they were discussing this, someone shared it on some major platforms. Later, even the Public Security Bureau of A City announced that it was illegal to resell cultural relics. If it was verified, it would not be tolerated. They also insinuated that some artists had a serious lack of legal knowledge.

Sonya's fans were even more confident now, and they quickly flooded the official account of "The Billion Stars" on Weibo.

[ "Ban criminals from the entertainment industry!!" ]

[ "Take down The Billion Stars!" ]

[ "How dare she act like a big shot in front of Sonya. Someone like her will get into trouble sooner or later!!!" ]

[ "Su Ji's fans, shut up, okay? Remember how Tang Yimo's fans were scolded when she was in trouble. Su Ji has broken the law, so the fans should just shut up, right?" ]

Pei Xi was furious.

However, she didn't say anything. The reason why she was once known as a legend in the industry was because of her superb public relations skills.

She looked at Su Ji and asked, "is that calligraphy painting really a cultural relic?"

"Yes," Su Ji lifted her chin at Pei Huai. "He gave it to me."

Pei Xi's heart was like a roller coaster. When she first heard that it was a cultural relic, her heart sank. However, when he heard that Pei Huai gave it to her...

Pei Xi and Pei Qingshen looked at each other as they both remembered.

Pei Qingshen said, "Pei Huai, didn't the Archeological Department grant you the painting formally?"

To thank the Pei Huai did not look anxious, his expression was cold. "Yes, the documents are in my study."

Pei Qingshen's expression turned ugly when he heard that someone was slandering his future granddaughter-in-law. "Then quickly think of a way to settle this matter. Some people are just jealous of others for no reason. Don't worry, Su Ji!"

Su Ji was not.

It was useless to target her for something she had not done.

She also looked down on such underhanded methods.

At this moment, Pei Xi received another call. This time, it was from Huang Huayu. He saw that the internet was in an uproar and even said that "The Billions Stars" would be taken down, so he quickly asked what the situation was.

Pei Xi told him not to worry, as long as the production team did not cause any trouble.

When it came to handling public relations crises, Pei Xi was definitely an expert.

Even Bill was very confident in her.

After pondering for a moment, Pei Xi already had an idea in her mind.

She first looked at Su Ji. "I'm here to help you deal with this kind of thing. Trust me."

"Thank you," Su Ji said.

While Pei Xi was handling the problem, Su Ji did not idle around.

She opened the course software and looked at her 300 students. Her delicate eyebrows slightly furrowed.

Back then, after her first calligraphy class, a student had posted screenshots of her class on the Internet, causing quite a stir. Later, during her second class, she made it clear that everyone should keep a low profile and not post any more screenshots or videos on the Internet.

But now, it seemed that some of her students did not take her words seriously.

"No need to thank me." Pei Xi smiled. Then, she became serious again. "Pei Huai, find me the document from the Archeological Department. It would be best if someone from that department can show up in person. Do you have their phone number?"

"There's no need to call. I'll just send them a message."

Pei Xi raised her eyebrows. The six years of sponsorship had not been in vain.

Then, she gave Ren Guanghua a call.

He asked him to draft a reply.

Actually, the Public Security Bureau was just doing their job, but their announcement was a little too timely.

Now, the netizens were making all kinds of speculations. At this time, their reply made the netizens even more certain that Su Ji broke the law.

However, as soon as she hung up the phone, Commander Wang, who had been silent for a long time, spoke.

“Pei Xi, I’ll make the call.”

Pei Xi looked up at him.

Commander Wang usually handled big cases worth billions of yuan.

Wasn’t it like using a sledgehammer to crack a nut?

However, Commander Wang obviously wanted to help. He picked up his phone and walked to the side to make a call. He said a few words at the start, and his majestic voice made people’s hearts tremble.

“Have you investigated it thoroughly before posting it? Take it down immediately!”

At the same time, they deleted the post.

How did Commander Wang get involved in this?

They didn’t mishear the voice, did they?

Pei Xi was able to plan out this initially tricky matter in no time.

“One more person is missing.”

At this moment, Pei Huai was slowly typing a text message to the Archeological Department as he said calmly, “Pei Song, you should be able to help.”

Pei Song, who had been staying out of it all this time, paused. “How?”

As soon as Pei Xi stepped in, he knew that there would be no problem, so he did not participate in the discussion.

He was a doctor and was not involved in the entertainment industry.

However, when he heard Pei Huai mention his name, he put down his chopsticks.

His tone was quite relaxed, thinking that he was just joking.

However, Pei Huai said, “most of the haters are Sonya’s fans. I don’t remember my girlfriend offending her in any way...”

His tone was very protective, and Pei Song froze.

“You’re suspecting that Sonya is behind this?”

Chapter 249 If CEO Pei Likes Su Ji, I’ll Run Naked on the Streets!

Pei Song suddenly lost his appetite.

“...”

...

Meanwhile, after bidding farewell to the Pei family and Commander Wang, Pei Huai sent Su Ji home.

Before he got out of the car, he kissed her on the top of her head.

Pei Huai often treated Su Ji like this, and Su Ji thought that this was a habit of modern couples.

Su Ji did not get out of the car immediately. Instead, she mimicked Pei Huai's earlier actions and pulled him towards her.

She got up and planted a kiss on his forehead.

The ceremony was completed.

Pei Huai's eyes widened slightly, and his expression clearly froze for a moment.

Su Ji was so flirtatious that she didn't even realize it. "Why are you so surprised? Don't you want me to kiss you after you've kissed me?"

"I do."

Su Ji went back to her room. Aunt Wu told her that Xu Mingzhi had already returned.

In the study.

Su Ji was glad that her mother had not come out to look for her. That meant that she had not seen the news on the Internet.

Back in the room, she put on the coat on the back of the chair and took out her phone. The battle between fans on the internet had become more intense.

[ "Did anyone notice that the Public Security Bureau's post on Weibo has been deleted?" ]

[ "F * ck, that's true. What does that mean???" ]

[ "They are telling everyone to stop." ]

[ "It must be Blue Whale that paid for it to be taken down. I don't believe a crime can be suppressed!" ]

[ "@Blue whale @The Billions Stars @A City Police!!!" ]

The netizens were all waiting for replies from these three parties.

A new topic that was trending appeared.

#The National Archeological Bureau has opened a Weibo account#

There was a verification sign beside the account name.

[ “A large number of netizens have suddenly expressed their heartfelt love for the cultural relics excavated from the tomb of the demon concubine.” ]

[ “In order to reach everyone, the Archeological Department has opened an official Weibo account.” ]

[ “First of all, the painting in the screenshots of Ms. Su Ji’s calligraphy class that are circulating on the internet are authentic pieces from the tomb of the devil concubine.” ]

[ “However, this painting was not being bought illegally.” ]

[ “To thank the Per Corporation for their six years of unconditional support, the Archeological Department awarded the painting to Mr. Pei Huai a few months ago.” ]

[ “Mr. Pei Huai had the right to this painting, including but not limited to selling it and giving it away for free.” ]

[ “The National Archeological Bureau would not tolerate the illegal reselling of cultural relics, but we do not want to implicate the innocent.” ]

[ “Some netizens have fabricated or forwarded detailed rumors about how Ms. Su Ji bought this cultural relic. We have contacted the police and lawyers, and we reserve the right to file a lawsuit against this behavior.” ]

[ “We apologize for the inconvenience caused to Ms. Su Ji and Mr. Pei Huai.” ]

There were a few photos attached, which were all the documents and certificates for the formal award of the painting.

“ ... ”

Pei Huai just sent the message and they already created an account on Weibo to clarify.

Ten minutes after it was posted, the comments section exploded!

[ “The National Archeological Department created an account just to help Su Ji clarify!” ]

[ “Sonya’s fans, come out! Who’s the one getting mocked now?” ]

[ “Do your faces hurt now?!” ]

[ “Su Ji is awesome! Not only is the painting authentic, it’s confirmed by the National Archeological Department!” ]

[ “I didn’t expect the Pei Corporation to be the one sponsoring them! +1 + 1 +1!” ]

[ “am I the only one who noticed it? They said that the painting was given to CEO Pei as a gift. Why is it hanging in Su Ji’s room now?” ]

[ “Someone finally asking the right question!” ]

At this moment, Blue Whale’s official Weibo also released a statement.

[ “From CEO Pei:

“The painting is given to the most promising young star of Blue Whale.”]

It seemed like there were more to this statement.

The netizens were excited, but they did not know why!

[ “Nicha Sonpashan and Bai Yueguang’s joint attack!!!” ]

[ “Ahhh! I can’t anymore!” ]

[ “The National Archeological Department mentioned Su Ji and CEO Pei. I feel like crying! It’s a pity that they don’t have Weibo!” ]

[ “Does CEO Pei know that you’re overthinking things?” ]

[ “Does Blue Whale treat their employees so well? The newcomer with the most potential would get an authentic cultural relic!” ]

[ “I want to audition for Blue Whale!” ]

[ “Hahahaha, it’s great that Su Ji will be fine! I was worried for nothing!” ]

[ “Speaking of which, it hasn’t even been an hour since the news was released, and it’s already been clarified. Blue Whale is awesome!!!” ]

Ever since the National Archeological Department posted the statement, Sonya’s fans did not dare to make any noise.

If they dared to show up, they would definitely be burnt.

On the internet, public opinion was already leaning towards Su Ji, except for some of Pei Huai’s fans.

[ “CEO Pei is definitely not a person who would abuse his authority for personal gain!” ]

[ “CEO Pei would never fancy his own artist!!!” ]

[ “If CEO Pei likes Su Ji, I’ll run naked on the commercial streets of A City!” ]

Su Ji took a screenshot of the last comment and sent a message to the group of 300 students. Then, she opened the online classroom app on her phone.

The notice was sent out at the last minute, but many of her students were paying attention.

When the class was live, more than 200 students came.

Only a small portion of them didn’t show up, and most of them were people she knew, such as Pei Qingshen, Pei Song, and “.”.

This time, Su Ji did not use the phone stand. She held the phone in her hand and used the front camera.

In the camera, Su Ji was so beautiful that it made people’s hearts tremble!

However, she had the look of a master.

[ “I was just speaking up for master on the Internet! So that painting is really a cultural relic. Amazing! I must look at it more carefully in the next class!!!” ]

[ “Master doesn’t treat us as outsiders and shows us all the good things. Which of you betrayed her and leaked the screenshot???” ]

Su Ji spoke slowly. Her voice was cold, but it was very pleasant to listen to. “In the first class, I remember that I said that no one is allowed to leak the screenshots or videos of the class. Did I remember wrongly?”

She spoke slowly, but with a lot of power. When she paused, they stopped breathing.

[ “No, no!” ]

[ “Master definitely said it! I can be a witness!” ]

[ “We can all be witnesses!!!” ]

Su Ji squinted her eyes and looked at the screen. She raised her pair of devilish eyes. “Then, who took the picture? Tell me now and I’ll be lenient, otherwise, you’ll be severely punished.”

Chapter 250 Kill Them?

[ “Whoever did it, quickly own up.” ]

[ “Do you know how serious it will be if this is not clarified?” ]

...

[ “If no one owns up, master will investigate everyone!” ]

At this time, there were a lot of comments on the screen, and everyone seemed to be fighting to prove their innocence.

She looked at the time on her phone. “You have one minute.”

As soon as she said that, the comments immediately stopped.

The screen was quiet, without a single dot.

Everyone was admiring their master’s magnificent beauty.

In the last ten seconds, Su Ji looked down at the time. “10, 9, 8...”

Finally, there was a message.

[ “I’m sorry master! I was the one who took that photo!” ]

When Su Ji saw the name, she stopped.

Huaihuai??

Could it be that this was not Pei Huai’s alternate account?

[ “F * ck, it’s you!” ]

[ “Who’s this Huaihuai?” ]

[ “The one who was ‘abused’ by master last time!” ]

[ “Ah, ah, ah, I remember now. Could it be that you hate master because of that incident and want to take revenge on her?” ]

Huaihuai was scared out of her wits.

[ “I’m sorry master! I just sent the screenshot to my cousin, but I don’t know how it got posted online!” ]

[ “My cousin seems to be a fan of Sonya! I really don’t know anything else!” ]

[ “Master, you can punish me however you want, but please don’t kick me out of the class. I’ve memorized all the questions you asked me last time. I am sorry!” ]

Su Ji pinched between her eyes and pursed her beautiful lips. “Do you know how many people have been in trouble because of you?”

She stood up and walked to the painting.

[ “Wow! I saw master’s bed! I can smell the fragrance even through the screen!” ]

[ “Master’s bed is so big! It’s just the right size for both of us!” ]

[ “Perverts!” ]

[ “Typing with both hands to prove my innocence!” ]

Su Ji turned the camera to the painting. “As punishment, write these words 50 times. When you’re done, send me a private message on TikTok.”

Huaihuai was so touched that she burst into tears!

[ “Okay!” ]

[ “I’ll hand it in in three days!” ]

Su Ji narrowed her eyes. This person really didn’t seem to be Pei Huai.

Then where was Pei Huai hiding?

At the same time, in the study on the second floor.

In fact, Xu Mingzhi also knew about the incident.

Later, when she saw the official clarification and the change in the netizens’ opinion, she still looked upset.

When it came to her daughter, Xu Mingzhi was petty!

If someone harmed her baby, she would not let it go.

Even if a year and a half had passed, she would still feel a strong hatred towards the person.

Wei Wei hung up the phone and walked to Xu Mingzi. "Boss, I've found out."

"Who did this?"

"It was Sonya's manager, what do you want to do?"

Xu Mingzhi clenched her fists. "Kill them!"

"Ah?" Wei Wei was shocked.

Xu Mingzhi was silent for two seconds.

She had almost forgotten that she was in the modern era.

"Post all the information you've found on the internet. I'll treat them the same way they treated my baby."

"Yes," Wei Wei replied.

In an instant, there was a heated discussion on the Internet.

Soon, people noticed that the profile picture of the person who instigated it was a little familiar. It seemed to be the WeChat account of Sonya's manager!

At this moment, the situation had completely reversed, and it was Sonya's turn to be in deep trouble.

That night, Sonya heard about this as soon as she finished the variety show.

Her manager was a young man named Xue Jian. He was hurriedly making a phone call to delete the Weibo post.

However, after he deleted it, it was posted again.

If it wasn't for Sonya's big and professional team, they wouldn't have been able to hold on.

In the dressing room, Sonya casually looked at the trending topics on the internet, took off her earpiece, and threw it on the sofa. She was angry at Xue Jian. "I told you not to mess with her! The post had just been sent out and it was solved in less than an hour! Now the flames of war have shifted to me because of you!"

Xue Jian had just hung up and was a little anxious. "Miaomiao and I are just worried about you!"

Just as he finished speaking, his phone rang again.

Seeing the call, the manager's expression became serious and he quickly picked up. "Chief Wan? Why did..."

A voice could be heard from the other end. "Why did I call? I should be the one asking you what's going on! Didn't you say that she bought the painting illegally?"

"I'm really sorry, Chief Wan. We didn't know that the National Archeological Department had officially awarded it. Fortunately, you removed the Weibo post in time, so it shouldn't have caused you any trouble."

Chief Wan interrupted him, "you think we removed it? This matter had even alarmed Commander Wang and I was lectured by him! This year's promotion might even be affected, so don't ever call me again!"

Xue Jianyu took a step back and kicked the metal table leg.

"How could such a small matter alarm Commander Wan..."

Before he could finish, he hung up.

Xue Jian had really suffered heavy losses this time!

A double loss!

Chief Wan was a connection that he had worked hard to get after more than ten years in the entertainment industry. He thought that with him around in the future, he would be able to help out in special circumstances.

"How unfortunate!"

Sonya clenched her fists. "I told you, Su Ji is not someone you can mess with! You're simply brainless!"

They insisted on kicking the iron plate. They wanted to play tricks but didn't use their brains. They even used their own accounts to instigate the netizens. Weren't they waiting to be caught?

She could only hide from them at the moment. In the end, these people had to repeatedly remind her how much the Pei family liked Su Ji!

They wouldn't be satisfied until she was angered to death!

This matter had been settled so quickly. One could only imagine how much effort the entire Pei family put in.

Sonya still remembered that when Pei Song brought her home on the day they got their marriage certificate, she told Old Master Pei that she wanted to keep their marriage a secret. His expression had turned sour at that time. After that, even when she got pregnant, he never treated her like he treated Su Ji!

At the same time, Sonya's phone rang.

When she saw the caller ID, her already bleeding heart immediately clenched.

She picked it up and pursed her lips. "Hello, Pei Song."
