

Concubine 251

Chapter 251 A Woman's Behavior Towards the Opposite Sex

The people on the internet probably thought that she was the one who did this, but Pei Song...

Sonya took a deep breath and put down her ego. She thought that she'd do this to see Xingxing again.

...

"Let me explain. This really has nothing to do with me..."

"Sonya." The voice on the other end sounded empty and tired.

He asked, "is that true?"

Sonya's ears buzzed. She walked to the window and pushed it open to calm herself down. "You think I did it too? How long have I been in the industry? Do I have to fight with a newcomer? And it's not like I didn't know she's the Pei family's baby now? Why would I attack her at this time?"

Her words were very convincing, but the person on the other end chuckled. "So, if Su Ji has no relationship with the Pei family, you will target her, right?"

"..."

Pei Song understood Sonya. If Sonya were to do this, she would do it flawlessly and no one would be able to find any clues.

From the looks of it, this matter was most likely her manager's own decision.

However, if Sonya didn't turn a blind eye, her manager wouldn't dare to do such a thing.

Pei Song knew that.

There was silence on both ends of the phone. Xue Jian was making a phone call behind him.

Sonya chuckled and suppressed the sourness in her heart. "So, you called to lecture me for your future sister-in-law? Even though you know that I didn't do it?"

Emotions surged in her heart, and Sonya's eyes turned red. "Pei Song, do you still remember what you said? You said that even if the whole world hates me, you will stand by my side unconditionally."

In the years after the divorce, Sonya had not dated anyone else, and she knew that Pei Song had not either.

The last time she went to Huichun Hall to look for Pei Song, the look in Pei Song's eyes spoke the truth..

He still had her in his heart.

After she established herself in the entertainment industry, they might still be able to get back together.

Then, Xingxing could also have a complete family.

The next second, Pei Song's indifferent voice came from the other end of the phone. "I was wrong."

“...”

Sonya covered her mouth, feeling wronged, but before she could say anything she heard him say:

“I shouldn’t have said that.”

Pei Song’s voice was cold and distant. She had never heard that before. “Sonya, it’s all in the past now. Take care of yourself.”

They had already divorced three years ago, but Pei Song only said this now.

Sonya put her hand on the window sill, and her tears fell on the back of her hand.

“You’re so cruel,” she said.

“Sonya.” Pei Song seemed to be laughing.

“You were the one who abandoned Xingxing and me first.”

Sonya bit her lip.

When Pei Song was on the phone with her just now, another call came in at the same time. After Pei Song hung up, the call came again.

Sonya picked it up weakly. It was Nan Miaomiao’s crying voice on the other end. “Yaya, it’s all my fault this time. I’ve already asked my team to help you. It should be more or less controlled now. I really drank too much at that time and wanted to fight for you. I’ll definitely make it up to you next time.”

“I don’t blame you,” Sonya said.

A few seconds later, she repeated, “if I want to blame someone for this, it wouldn’t be you...”

Even if Nan Miaomiao did something wrong, she did it for her.

**

The next day.

On the way to the set, Su Ji received a message on TikTok.

It was from Huaihuai.

[“Master, please take a look. If this is correct, I will write the remaining 49 times according to this.”]

She was very polite.

Previously, when Su Ji was selecting her students, she had seen their handwriting.

This time, she carefully examined it.

She was indeed not Pei Huai.

As soon as she arrived at the set, Huang Huayu rushed to her side and asked her about yesterday’s incident.

The entire crew was so scared that they almost had a heart attack.

Small-time actors could be replaced or their faces could be changed by AI, but Su Ji was one of the main characters. If something really happened to her, their show would be over.

Su Ji said humbly, "I'm sorry for the trouble."

"It's fine, it's fine," Huang Huayu replied. "Fortunately, it was a false alarm."

Si Jingchuan stood beside Su Ji and said, "you can't blame my boss for this. There's always trouble when you're popular. He looked at Su Ji and continued, "I saw some people on the internet saying that Sonya did it. Is it true? Didn't we participate in shooting her MV last time? I don't think she's that kind of person...but I might be blind."

Su Ji shrugged, "who knows?"

After Han Junlei finished explaining the scene, the actors took a break for a few minutes.

Today, it was finally Zhou Xuefang's turn to shoot. Her eyes wandered between Xu Ni, Su Ji, and Si Jingchuan for a long time.

Finally, it landed on Xu Ni, who was smoking in the corner.

"Hello, I'm Zhou Xuefang, the female lead of this film." She reached out to him. "You must be new here. You can ask me if you have any questions."

This was how she had managed to win over Meng Na, Tang Yimo, and the others previously.

Xu Ni blew a puff of smoke directly on her face without any expression. "No thanks."

Zhou Xuefang's perfect smile froze on her face. She took a puff and coughed a few times.

Xu Ni put out his cigarette. His eyes were cold and he looked fierce. "We're not close."

This was the first time Zhou Xuefang had been rejected so badly.

It was very awkward.

"Xu Ni!"

She turned and realized that it was Su Ji calling.

On the opposite side of the couch, Su Ji was like a seductress. She beckoned Xu Ni with her finger. "Let's rehearse our scenes."

Xu Ni, who was very cold to Zhou Xuefang, walked up to Su Ji with red ears. "Yeah, okay."

Although he sounded annoyed, it was completely different from the cold attitude he had towards Zhou Xuefang.

"..."

Su Ji had the upper hand because she wasn't here for the past two days.

As for Xu Ni, he couldn't help but observe Su Ji when he was acting with her.

Su Ji stared at him, not avoiding his eyes at all. Her smile was bright and attractive.

He didn't know if it was because she was too beautiful, but he always felt that Su Ji was strange!

She liked to talk to him, put her arm around his shoulder, and looked at him with strange eyes!

How could a woman behave like this towards the opposite sex?

This girl couldn't possibly like him, right?

Su Ji smiled at him. "I'm done with my lines. What are you staring at?"

Xu Ni was not in the mood to rehearse.

His face turned green.

No, to be precise, it was red for a moment and then green for a moment.

Did she really like him?

That would be troublesome!

Chapter 252 Do You Not Love Me Anymore?

Today's filming went quite smoothly. After the first few days, Bai Yueguang and Bai Ye had a lot of interaction, and the two of them had more and more chemistry.

In the afternoon, when the last scene was finished, Si Jingchuan came out of the meeting room angrily, tugging at his tie.

...

"Wow, Si Jingchuan looked so handsome when he pulled off his tie just now!"

"So sexy!"

"I really want to be enslaved by him!"

Every time Si Jingchuan acted, there would be many infatuated staff members around him.

However, this time, they would never have expected that Si Jingchuan was pulling his tie in frustration because he was about to lose his boss!

Si Jingchuan was especially hostile to Xu Ni.

Why was he not hostile to CEO Pei, but to Xu Ni?

It might be because CEO Pei had a different kind of relationship with boss and had no conflict with him. On the other hand, Xu Ni and him were competitors!

Si Jingchuan looked into the distance and gradually narrowed his eyes.

Xu Ni was indeed with the boss again!

A few minutes later, Xu Ni and Su Ji finished talking about today's scenes and went to the side to smoke.

While he was smoking, there was a shadow on the wall in front of him.

He turned around and saw Si Jingchuan with his hands in his pockets and his tie hanging loosely around his neck. He raised his chin slightly and looked at him with a weary expression.

“What are you looking at?”

Si Jingchuan replied, “I don’t like the look of you.”

“Crazy!” Xu Ni said.

“???”

Si Jingchuan placed his hands on the wall behind and trapped him between his arms.

Si Jingchuan took two steps forward, and Xu Ni’s back was pressed against the wall.

Si Jingchuan scoffed and said threateningly, “, have you heard of the Si family?”

Xu Ni’s chest heaved up and down violently. After a moment, he pushed away his hands. “I’m not interested!”

“Hiss...” Si Jingchuan was a super handsome and intimidating man. However, when Xu Ni pushed his hand away, his palm rubbed against the rough cement wall. When he looked at it, his skin was already broken.

He exhaled. “Why don’t I see you being so resistant when my boss puts her arm around your shoulder every day?!”

“Because your boss is a gi-” Xu Ni suddenly stopped.

However, Si Jingchuan had obviously heard it.

“?”

“Because my boss is a girl?”

“So let the opposite sex touch you but not the same sex. I’ll tell the boss later and ask her to stay away from you!”

Xu Ni wasn’t afraid at all. “I think you’re obsessed with your boss!”

“???”

Si Jingshan was baffled. “How dare you insult my boss!”

Today’s scenes had ended early, and some of the crew members had already started discussing where to go for dinner later.

Si Jingchuan just wanted to give Xu Ni a warning. However, after talking to Xu Ni, he felt even more threatened!

In order to improve their relationship, he tried to persuade Su Ji. "Boss, you haven't been to my house for a long time. Why don't you come to my house for dinner tonight?"

"I still have some things to do tonight."

"I went to your house last time. I'd feel bad if I didn't treat you to a meal!"

"Don't worry about it."

"Boss, do you not love me anymore?"

In his anxiety, he spoke the last sentence a little loudly. The staff around them looked over at them with very surprised expressions.

"Did I hear it wrong? Was Si Jingchuan asking Su Ji if she loves him?"

"You must have heard wrong. You must have been too tired recently. Go back and have a good rest!"

Su Ji looked around.

She took a deep breath and looked at Si Jingchuan again. "What's for dinner?"

Upon hearing this, Si Jingchuan immediately became happy. He followed behind her with a smile.

"They're all your favorite food. The kind that's so spicy that it'll kill you!"

**

Fu Xiaofeng's car drove to the entrance of a private residence, and two men in uniform respectfully opened the door for them.

"Welcome home, young master. Welcome home, Ms. Su!"

That sounded weird.

As soon as Si Ke heard that Su Ji was coming to his house for dinner, he quickly asked the kitchen to prepare a few of her favorite dishes.

He supported his son being filial to his boss!

Besides, Su Ji was his youngest son's savior. He would never forget that.

When they entered the house, Wen Man was dressed in an elegant purple cheongsam. Although the house was warm, she still wore a coat. She looked fragile, but she was indeed a beauty.

She took Su Ji's hand and led her into the house. "Su Ji, why haven't you come to our house for dinner in such a long time? I miss you."

"Me too," Si Ke said. "Make yourself at home, and you can come anytime."

He laughed heartily.

"Pretty miss!"

Si Jingbin's voice wasn't as energetic as usual, but he couldn't hide the smile on his face when he saw Su Ji.

The nanny smiled and explained, "the young master said he was sleepy when he just came back from kindergarten. He just woke up from a nap."

Si Jingbin rubbed his eyes. "Why didn't pretty uncle come today?"

Su Ji smiled and touched his fluffy little head. "Your pretty uncle has something to do today," she said.

Halfway through her sentence, she stopped. After a moment, she said, "Binbin, you seem to have a small fever."

Upon hearing this, everyone in the room immediately quieted down.

Si Ke quickly went over and touched his head. "I think so too." He looked at the nanny sternly. "How can you not know? If it wasn't for Su Ji, we wouldn't even know!"

Si Jingbin's body temperature wasn't too high. The nanny thought that he was just warm from the nap, so she didn't pay much attention to it. She apologized, "I'm sorry, sir. I'll call the family doctor now!"

"It's all my fault," Wen Man said. "I heard that there are many cases of flu in Binbin's kindergarten. If I had known earlier, I would have asked for two days of leave for him. He must have caught it."

"If it's just a cold, it's not a big problem."

Wen Man said, "Binbin has been weak and sickly since he was young. He gets sick every year during the changing seasons."

Everyone in the Si family, except for Si Ke, was weak and sickly. Si Jingchuan was the only one who had not fallen sick for a while after taking Su Ji's medicine.

Therefore, the Si family was quite used to this. After the doctor arrived and they settled Si Jingbin down, Si Jingchuan smiled at Su Ji and said, "boss, let's eat first. The doctor is here. If you're worried, you can see him after dinner."

Si Ke and Wen Man also smiled and said yes.

After they left, Su Ji looked at Si Jingbin's room for a while before following them to the dining room.

Chapter 253 Su Ji, the Eternal God

At the dinner table, Si Ke was concerned about the recent incident.

Wen Man also asked about the drama that's happening on the Internet.

...

Su Ji smiled, "I didn't expect you to keep track of what's happening online."

Wen Man smiled. "Of course, I'm not like my husband."

Since Si Jingbin had caught a cold, Si Ke was very worried about his wife. He didn't say anything even though he was being insulted. He placed his hand on her shoulder and squeezed it. "Are you cold wearing such thin clothes?"

That gentle tone was a stark contrast to the scar on his face.

Wen Man looked like a little bird and said in a soft voice, "don't be so long-winded. You've asked several times. I'm not cold."

It was not an exaggeration to say that Si Ke's arms were thicker than Wen man's legs. Moreover, the two of them were completely different. One looked ferocious, while the other was fair and gentle.

However, when these two people, who were so different from each other, stood together, there was a different feeling.

When Su Ji saw this, she could not help but think of her mother, who had lived a life as tough as steel.

"..."

She loved her mother, but the love and care she had for her mother was definitely different from that of her husband.

She wanted to introduce someone to her mother, but there was no suitable person around.

Not to mention their age and looks, there was no man who could beat her mother in terms of martial arts.

Even if he couldn't, he had to at least make sure he wouldn't be killed.

She asked Si Jingchuan, "do you know any good-looking, elite men in their forties or fifties?"

Si Jingchuan was stunned. "Why?"

"I want to introduce them to my mother."

"I see." Si Jingchuan thought hard. "Aunt Xu is an outstanding woman. I have to find someone equally outstanding!"

Wen Man smiled and looked at Su Ji. "How would he know? You should ask me, I'll help you look around and let you know the moment I found someone!"

"Thank you, Aunt Man," Su Ji replied.

A few seconds later, she added, "money is not a factor, but he has to be handsome."

Her mother was just like her.

Take Su Cunyi as an example. Although he had no skills and was not a first-class business-minded person, his looks were absolutely unparalleled.

Although he did not have the kind of appearance that could blind people with a single glance, he looked sophisticated. He was the gentle and elegant type. If it was 20 years ago, he would definitely be an elegant young master. In the past, Ning Lihua would throw a tantrum because there were always young girls in the company who wanted to get close to Su Cunyi.

Wen Man couldn't help but laugh. "No problem. He will definitely look like a Greek god."

"Just like me," said Sike calmly.

They fell into an awkward silence.

After the meal, Su Ji went with them to visit Si Jingbin.

At this moment, Binbin was lying in bed, his lips purple.

The family doctor was examining him.

After a while, the machine he carried with him printed out the test results. He unfolded it in his hand and looked at it. His expression was slightly relaxed. "He has a normal low fever. The young master's immune system is weak, so it's normal for him to be infected. I'll prescribe some medicine."

Si Ke and Wen Man relaxed upon hearing this. "Alright, thank you."

Si Ke turned around and glared at the nanny with a fierce face. "I'll give you an extra month's salary. You're leaving tomorrow! You can't even tell that the young master is running a low fever!"

"Sir, I've just gotten to know the young master recently. I've really taken good care of him. Please give me another chance...."

Si Ke was determined and did not show any mercy.

Su Ji had also heard that Binbin's nanny would change every one or two weeks.

She said calmly, "Uncle Si, I suggest that you don't change the nanny so frequently. You changed the nanny before she could get used to Binbin's life, which caused the nanny to misjudge his health because she wasn't familiar with him."

Hearing her say this, the expression on Si Ke's dark face suddenly changed, and his tone became gentler. "Is that so?"

Wen Man poked his head with her finger angrily. "Did you hear that? It's all your fault!"

"..." Si Ke was silent for a while. Then he said to the nanny, "then I'll give you another chance this time!"

The nanny thanked Su Ji profusely.

Su Ji walked to the bed and gently pulled Si Jingbin's small wrist. "Are you hungry?"

"No. Cough, cough." Si Jingbin's face was flushed red. He took a deep breath and said, "I can only eat congee when I'm sick. Congee doesn't taste good."

The others were all amused by his childish voice, but Su Ji's expression gradually became serious.

She was taking Si Jingbin's pulse.

The doctor had started to pack up after prescribing the medicine. Su Ji said, "it's not a common cold."

"?" The doctor paused for a moment before he noticed Su Ji. "This is..."

She didn't look like a doctor, but more like a celebrity.

Wen Man's heart skipped a beat. "Well, she knows medicine too. When Binbin was in a car accident, it was her who gave him first aid."

The doctor didn't think much of that.

Si Ke and Si Jingchuan looked at each other with worried expressions. "It's not a common cold?"

"It's early myocarditis," Su Ji said.

As soon as she said that, the temperature in the room seemed to drop to freezing point.

Both Si Jingchuan and Wen Man had heart problems. They knew the condition too well.

For people with weak hearts, contracting myocarditis is much more serious compared to normal healthy people.

Si Ke often brought his family for physical examinations to check for signs of infection.

"Really?" said Si Ke. "I just took him for a checkup last weekend. There were no signs of infection."

Wen Man said, "don't worry so much. Why don't we send Binbin to the hospital first?"

At this moment, the doctor said politely, "Ms. Su, are you sure? I've said before that the young master's body is weak, and he has a low fever. If he were to be sent to the hospital for treatment, it would easily lead to a cross-infection. This is not a joke."

As soon as he said that, the others didn't dare to act rashly.

"I'm not joking," Su Ji said, "I'm sure it's myocarditis."

The doctor did not want to save her face. He looked like he was in a difficult position. "Ms. Su, the fact that you know about myocarditis means that you do have some medical skills. However, there is a series of checks for myocarditis. Even my equipment can't do it. How do you tell?"

Su Ji's tone was normal. "I took his pulse."

"What?" The doctor was speechless for two seconds. He shook his head and stopped talking to Su Ji. He turned to look at Wen Man and the rest. "It's easy to cause cross-infection in the hospital. Besides, the examination for myocarditis requires a series of complicated tests, which will be very troublesome for young master. It's not a wise move. Anyway, with my twenty years of medical experience, I suggest that he should be observed for two days. It's up to you to decide."

After he finished speaking, he picked up his bag and prepared to leave.

He had already tried his best to give Ms. Su face. The Si family were all wise people and wouldn't allow her to mess around.

Just as he stepped out of the room, he heard the people from the Si family surrounding the bed.

Si Jingchuan said, "dad, I'll carry Binbin to the car now. Hurry up and contact the hospital!"

"Make him wear something thicker!" said Si Ke.

"Su Ji, can you come with us to the hospital?" Wen Man asked. "I'm not sure I know what to do!"

Su Ji nodded slightly. "I'll go home and prepare the medicine. I'll meet you at the hospital."

Chapter 254 Good Boy

Two hours later, the pitiful Si Jingbin brought his small luggage and was admitted to the children's ward in Central Hospital.

Their doctor was the famous head of cardiology in A City who examined Si Jingchuan previously. He was also the doctor who had "Love Contract" as his ringtone.

...

He was Dr. Mo.

Si Jingbin had already changed into a blue and white striped hospital gown and was lying in bed.

Wen Man touched her youngest son's face with heartache. "Baby, do you still feel uncomfortable?"

Si Jingbin coughed a few times, his voice as soft as a cat's. "Mommy, don't worry. I'll be okay."

Wen Man smiled and turned to look at her husband. "Did Dr. Mo say when the test results will be out?"

"Jingchuan went with him," said Si Ke. "He should be back soon..."

Before he could finish, the door was pushed open.

Dr. Mo strode in front while Si Jingchuan hurriedly closed the door behind him.

The people in the room looked at them.

Dr. Mo showed the test results in one hand. "Early stage myocarditis."

As expected.

Everyone's heart skipped a beat.

Dr. Mo said, "but don't worry, everyone. It's considered an early stage, so it's not difficult to treat."

There was one thing that Dr. Mo found very magical. "The professional equipment tested it twice before the results came out. How did you know? Thank God you sent him to the hospital now, if it's dragged on for two more days, it'll be hard to say..."

Wen Man's eyes reddened with fear. She clutched her chest and said, "it's all thanks to Su Ji. If she didn't come to our house today, Binbin's illness would have worsened!"

Si Ke looked up and said in a serious tone, "she saved Binbin again."

They owed Su Ji another favor.

Dr. Mo looked at Si Ke, then at Wen Man.

"May I ask, who is this Su Ji you're talking about?"

Who was this godly doctor who was even more accurate than the medical equipment?

Si Jingchuan's words piqued Dr. Mo's curiosity to the peak.

Si Jingchuan replied, "she is the one who gave me that bottle of medicine. She's going back to make medicine for Binbin. You'll see her when she comes."

?

He was actually the creator of that medicine?

He was getting more and more curious.

Dr. Mo's eyes lit up. "Then I must meet her!"

Dr. Mo was supposed to be done for the day, but he was afraid of missing the opportunity to meet her, so he simply changed his shift.

He stayed in Si Jingbin's ward and got IV drips for Si Jingbin.

Si Jingbin's condition had stabilized.

After another half an hour, Su Ji arrived.

She was holding a thermos in her hand, which was filled with the classic thick cuttlefish juice!

Su Ji had come in a hurry and was not wearing a mask.

When Dr. Mo saw her face, his first reaction was to blush.

He stood up and shook her hand. "You are Su Ji, right? I like you so much! I watch every episode of 'The Billions Stars'! I can even sing 'Love Contract'!"

At that moment, Dr. Mo did not realize that she was the one Si Jingchuan and the others had been talking about.

It was just a fan meeting his idol.

Without waiting for Su Ji's response, he raised his arm and pointed to the sky with his index finger. He sang two lines of "Love Contract" as he did that.

Imagine a bald head of cardiology wearing a white coat and glasses, singing and dancing to "Love Contract".

However, even though Dr. Mo was wearing glasses and was bald, this was actually an image that he deliberately maintained to make patients feel at ease. In the past, he permed his hair and dyed his hair rainbow colors!

"Thank you for your support."

Then, Dr. Mo realized that they were still in Si Jingbin's ward.

"You know this patient?"

"Su Ji, the doctor said that it is indeed early stage myocarditis! It's a good thing we followed your orders and sent him here!"

"Su Ji, thank you for making the medicine for Binbin!"

"Boss, sit, sit."

Before the doctor could finish speaking, the other three members of the Si family surrounded her and blocked his view.

But what they said made the doctor freeze, as if he couldn't understand.

After a minute, his lips suddenly trembled. "What do you mean? She...is the divine doctor you all talk about, Su Ji?"

He thought the person would be at least 50 years old.

He didn't expect that they were actually talking about Su Ji!

The doctor's shocked expression was even more exaggerated than Si Jingchuan had imagined. He moved a chair over to Binbin's bed and poured a glass of water for the boss. After he was done, he smiled and said, "yes, it's her. You didn't expect this, did you?"

"..."

How could he have?

It was only then that Dr. Mo noticed the thermos in Su Ji's hand. He spoke to Su Ji again. "Excuse me, is this the miracle medicine?"

Su Ji took a sip of water and placed the cup aside. She unscrewed the lid of the thermos and poured a cup for Si Jingbin. After a moment of silence, she said, "I think so..."

She took a look at the components of Si Jingbin's IV drip that the doctor had given him. After confirming that there was no conflict, she said, "if he takes this, it can speed up his recovery."

Si Ke held Wen Man tightly and exchanged a look with her.

Su Ji was like a god!

Si Jingchuan helped his younger brother up and let him lean into his arms.

Su Ji bent down and smiled at him. "It might taste a little bad. Can you do it?"

Si Jingbin nodded very sensibly. "Everything that pretty miss gives is delicious! I won't waste a single drop!"

"You can't just give the patient any other medicine!"

At this moment, the nurse came in for a ward round. She was shocked to see this scene and put down the medicine tray to stop her.

Fortunately, Su Ji held the bottle in time, or the medicine would have spilled.

Su Ji pointed at Si Jingchuan. "Don't worry. He's taken the medicine before. They have the same heart problem."

Si Jingchuan said firmly, "yes, I've drunk it. It's indeed good for the heart."

The nurse recognized Jingchuan and suddenly felt embarrassed.

Dr. Mo glanced at her and said, “you’re making a fuss over nothing. I’m still here. Will I allow it if there’s a problem?”

The nurse scratched her head in confusion.

In the past, when they encountered such things, Dr. Mo was always more nervous than them. This time, he let the patient’s family members mess around.

However, Dr. Mo had absolute authority in their hospital, so the nurse didn’t dare to express her opinion casually. “In this case, Dr. Mo, you stay here. I’ll go to the other ward...”

Si Jingbin looked down at the medicine in his glass. At first, he was still a little afraid, but when he looked up at the beautiful woman, he instantly regained his courage.

He closed his eyes, and drank it all in one gulp!

The ward was filled with applause!

Su Ji kissed his little face. “Good boy.”

Chapter 255 Binbin’s Previous Life

Si Jingbin’s body stiffened.

Something in his heart was ignited!

...

He quickly fanned his face with his little hand. “Pretty miss! I think I have a fever again!”

Everyone in the room laughed heartily.

Si Ke and Wen Man were relieved to see that their youngest son was fine. Wen Man was weak and was shocked when she heard that her youngest son had myocarditis. Her body was barely holding up.

Si Ke took her home to rest for a while.

Si Jingchuan smiled and asked casually, “boss, didn’t you tell me not to let Binbin take this medicine?”

“That’s because I’m afraid there will be adverse reactions. However, you’ve been drinking it for such a long time and there’s no problem.”

Si Jingchuan said, “is that so? Haha...”

Si Jingchuan’s laughter became more and more choppy until it finally disappeared.

When his boss told him not to let his younger brother drink it, he thought that it was because she liked him more

He knew the truth now!

It turned out that he was being used as a lab rat!

Dr. Mo was very objective. “You are brothers. Your heart problems are basically the same. It’s indeed the best choice to use you to test the medicine.”

Si Jingchuan's heart ached!

Su Yi stared at him and saw that he looked extremely aggrieved.

Su Ji smiled. "He's younger than you and his body is weaker than yours, please understand..."

"..."

Since the boss said so, he had to accept it.

Su Ji received a call from Pei Huai.

She told him Si Jingbin's ward number and hung up.

His boss was definitely the fastest person Si Jingchuan had ever seen to hang up on a boyfriend.

Si Jingchuan asked softly, "CEO Pei is coming too?"

"Yeah, I bumped into him on my way here. I told him about Binbin. His medical skills are pretty good too, so I asked him to come over and take a look at him. He even brought a friend along. Binbin knows him too."

Dr. Mo had finished mixing the medicine in the bottle and heard Su Ji's words when he came back.

"You have another miracle doctor friend?"

"I guess so..."

Dr. Mo was still shocked to see Su Ji. "Is the person...an actor too?"

How many great gods were hidden among the actors?

Before Su Ji could answer, Pei Huai arrived with Bian Tong.

When Dr. Mo saw Pei Huai, he was even more emotional!

"Nicha Sonpashan!!!"

"..."

"..."

He was a true fan.

Dr. Mo wished he could stay in this dazzling ward forever, but unfortunately, there were patients in other rooms who needed him.

After that, Dr. Mo left the room and closed the door for them.

He had gotten their signatures!

Nicha Sonpashan.

Bai Yueguang.

He didn't want the male lead, Gu Shen's, signature.

He wasn't too fond of him!

In the ward, Pei Huai removed his suit jacket and set it aside. He sat down beside Su Ji and took Si Jingbin's pulse.

Su Ji took the opportunity to introduce Bian Tong to Si Jingchuan.

Si Jingchuan stood up and shook hands with him. "Hi, Mr. Bian."

Su Ji was quite surprised that Bian Tong came.

This person's whereabouts had always been mysterious. After handling the case that Pei Huai asked him to, no one could predict where he would appear.

Today, Bian Tong had just returned from Country T and settled Tang Yimo's case.

When Su Ji bumped into them, she only asked Pei Huai to come.

Su Ji also noticed that Bian Tong seemed to care a lot about Si Jingbin at the Calligraphy Association.

A few minutes later, Pei Huai's conclusion was the same as that of Su Ji.

The people in the room were completely relieved.

"Thank you, pretty uncle." Si Jingbin stared at Pei Huai the entire time when he took his pulse. Now that he was done, he smiled and asked, "pretty uncle, will you kiss me too?"

Pei Huai's expression froze. "What?"

Si Jingbin tilted his head and smiled innocently. "Pretty sister kissed me right after she took my pulse!"

Si Jingchuan was shocked and could tell from his brother's smile that he was scheming!

His brother didn't seem to have said it by accident. He was so young, but he was already possessive of the girl he liked.

She usually hid it well, but today, because she was sick and her body was not in a good mood, she showed it when she was willful.

Su Ji's expression didn't change. She crossed her beautiful legs and slowly tapped her fingers on the keyboard.

Pei Huai's temple twitched. "Really?"

He was definitely more cunning than Pei Xingxing.

On the next second, Pei Huai kissed him in the same spot.

"..."

Now, the spot where he had been kissed by Su Ji was covered by Pei Huai's kiss.

So it was equivalent to Pei Huai kissing Su Ji.

And he had become the middleman of the kiss!

Si Jingbin raised his eyebrows, “!!”

Most people would not be jealous of a child, but Pei Huai was obviously not an ordinary person.

As long as it was related to Su Ji, he would be jealous of anyone regardless of age, gender, or even species!

When he kissed Su Ji for the first time, Su Ji thought that she hit a stone. Now, he hated the stones he saw on the roadside.

Bian Tong: “...”

He didn’t speak, in case he got dragged into it.

He knew that he could not afford to offend either of the two people in front of him.

Si Jingbin stretched out his hand to Bian Tong. “I want to drink some water.”

Si Jingchuan immediately said, “Binbin, how can you trouble Mr. Bian!”

But Bian Tong didn’t mind. He got up, walked to the water dispenser and poured a cup of warm water. “Here, young master.”

People with fevers were easily thirsty. Si Jingbin raised the cup with both hands and took a big gulp. “Thank you!”

Su Ji and Pei Huai looked at him.

Su Ji said, “Mr. Bian seems to like Binbin a lot.”

Bian Tong paused for a moment.

It was thousands of years ago, but Bian Tong would still subconsciously assume his past identity.

For example, when he spoke to Su Ji, he would subconsciously use honorifics.

He was a mysterious man, and he didn’t care what others thought about the way he spoke. He looked at Si Jingbin and a meaningful smile flashed across his lips.

“You have the face of an emperor, unfortunately you have a weak body.”

“If you become stronger, your future will be limitless.”

Chapter 256 Blind Date

Hearing this, Su Ji’s expression clearly froze.

Pei Huai’s gaze also slowly landed on Si Jingbin, but he was silent.

...

Si Jingbin was too young to understand all this, so he tilted his head and blinked his eyes.

Si Jingchuan asked in surprise, “Mr. Luo knows how to tell fortunes? Can you tell mine?”

Bian Tong looked at him for a moment, “you ...”

“What about me?” Si Jingchuan asked.

Bian Tong patted him on the shoulder and said solemnly, “be a good actor!”

“...”

He felt like he was being ignored?

Su Ji cupped her face in her hands, her fingers tapping on the table from time to time as her thoughts drifted away.

When she was doing history questions, one of the questions was about the national hero Zhou Zicheng who overthrew the tyranny of the great Shang Dynasty and established the great Zhou Dynasty.

Back then, Su Ji had called him a toad because there was really such a person in history.

But in fact, the so-called national hero Zhou Zicheng was a big villain. He was evil, cunning, and manipulative.

Although he was born in a humble family, he managed to develop his career step by step by manipulating others. The other records praising him for being good in politics and loving the people were completely opposite to his character. He changed the text later on.

In this life, the only person with the surname Zhou that Su Ji could think of was Zhou Xuefang.

Ugh ...

Su Ji believed Bian Tong’s words, and even more so, he believed that Zhou Zicheng was not a true emperor.

He was just a rebel.

However, he said that Si Jingbin was the emperor.

Some things happened after she died, so even she did not know.

In fact, when Concubine Su was in power, the ministers elected little Weixin as the de facto ruler.

It was a pity that after Su Ji passed, Prince Huai did not have the heart to do anything else. His illness came like a landslide, and he followed Su Ji soon after. The few strongest forces in the dynasty collapsed, and the soldiers also lost their courage. This gave Zhou Zicheng an opportunity.

Although Su Ji didn’t know about this, she knew that little Weixin would have a bright future.

She looked at Si Jingbin with a burning gaze.

Pei Huai: “...”

A few seconds later, she said, “he’s too young for you.”

Su Ji was confused.

Pei Huai continued, “if you have a daughter in the future, you can consider it.”

Su Ji: "..."

At this moment, Si Jingbin was still confused. He wanted to be the beautiful uncle's love rival, but the beautiful uncle wanted to be his father-in-law!

**

The next day, Su Ji only had half a day to film.

After filming in the morning, she and Si Jingchuan went to the hospital to visit Si Jingbin.

Si Jingbin's condition was much better today. He leaned on Su Ji and held her. He said in a baby voice, "pretty sister, pretty uncle wasn't angry with me yesterday, was he? I didn't mean to tell him that you kissed me..."

Si Jingchuan was speechless.

It started again!

Pretentious b*stard!

Su Ji smiled. "Yes, he was."

"??"

Si Jingbin didn't expect this answer.

Su Ji patted his head. "Don't mess with him in the future. If you do, I'll have to coax him."

Si Jingbin lowered his head. "Sorry..."

Si Jingchuan shook his head as if he was watching a show.

His brother's first love was destined to end in failure.

Wen Man came to deliver Si Jingbin's lunch and happened to bump into Su Ji.

She was especially enthusiastic. "Su Ji, the thing you mentioned yesterday, there's a lead."

Su Ji tried to recall what she said.

"So fast?"

Wen Man pulled her to the side and said, "he's a friend of Jing Chuan's aunt's uncle's family. He just returned from overseas. His name is Tong Yingjie. He's 49 years old, unmarried, and childless. Although he's still in the middle of his career, he's super handsome!"

Wen Man felt that the Si family owed Su Ji too much and didn't know how to repay her. As soon as she returned home yesterday, she asked all her relatives to contact elites of the right age.

That's why they had news so quickly.

It was Su Ji's first time doing this kind of thing, so she was not very familiar with it. She did not know what to say.

“Oh...”

Wen Man asked, “didn’t your mother come back from abroad too? I think they have something in common there.”

Su Ji nodded.

Wen Man said, “if your mother is free, we can arrange a date for her. I think I can introduce about ten more people to her next week. Your mother is so outstanding. We have to spread our net wide.”

Su Ji thought for a moment, “when will Uncle Tong be free?”

Wen Man took out her phone. “Wait a minute, I’ll ask.”

Ten minutes later, she received a reply.

“He said he’s free this afternoon.”

“...”

“Alright, thank you. I’ll go back and ask my mother. I’ll contact you in the afternoon if she’s free.”

**

When she got home in the afternoon, it was a rare sight for Su Ji to see Xu Mingzhi not working in the study or at the office. Instead, she was watching TV in the living room and reviewing some documents that were not very important.

Su Ji went into the house and changed her shoes. She took off her clothes and hung them at the door. She took off her hat and mask, and her face was extremely pale.

She had just come back from outside, and the tips of her ears were a little red, which made her look particularly attractive.

Xu Mingzhi said, “baby, did today’s filming go smoothly? If you meet any weird people again, just write it down in your little notebook and tell me. I will kill them.”

She said the last few words with a smile.

Su Ji sat beside her and picked up a lychee from the fruit plate. She skillfully peeled off the skin and squeezed the crystal clear flesh into her mouth. “Mom, are you free this afternoon?”

Xu Mingzhi thought that she wanted to go out with her, “yes. Shall I take you out for a spin?”

“Not me.”

Xu Mingzhi picked up the coffee cup, “then...”

Su Ji smiled sweetly. “Mom, I’ve arranged a blind date for you.”

“Cough, cough, cough...” Xu Mingzhi almost choked on her coffee.

Su Ji patted her for a long time before she recovered.

Xu Mingzhi wiped the corner of his mouth with a tissue. "Baby, is it because I'm controlling you too much?"

Su Ji shook her head, "no."

"Did I say something that made you think I want to go on a date?"

Su Ji still shook her head. "No."

"Then why did you suddenly arrange a blind date for me?"

Wei Wei, who had just entered the room and was about to deliver some information to CEO Xu, stopped in her tracks.

???

The CEO of the Xu group was going on a blind date?

Xu Mingzhi glanced at her, "wait outside!"

"Yes!" Wei Wei immediately put down the documents, turned around, and walked out!

After the door was closed, Su Ji said, "I want many people to love you, even more than I do."

"..."

She seemed to want to introduce her to more than one boyfriend.

She knew that her daughter cared about her, but all these years, she had been either missing her daughter or working hard. There were also times when she was tired from work, but she would feel better after venting to Su Cunyi.

She didn't think about it any more.

"Baby, I'm already very happy to be able to live with you now. As for the blind dates..."

Before she could finish, Su Ji suddenly held her arm and rested her head on her shoulder.

Xu Mingzhi softened.

Su Ji didn't want to be the only one in her mother's world.

In the past, she also felt that men would only affect the speed at which she could draw her sword. Nothing was better than the mother and daughter being together for all their lives.

However, ever since she had no choice but to get a boyfriend, she felt that it was not as bad as she had imagined.

"Mom, are you still unable to let go of dad?"

The question was definitely Su Ji's trump card. The corners of Xu Mingzhi's mouth twitched. "Baby! It's done! I will go!"

Su Cunyi, who was next door, suddenly sneezed.

Chapter 257 Strong Aura

Xu Mingzhi did not change her clothes and left the house.

Su Ji also thought that it was fine. They did not know what kind of person he was, so there was no need to dress up. Madam Xu Mingzhi was already beautiful enough just like this.

...

Wei Wei was still waiting there. "Boss, let me send you there."

Xu Mingzhi remained silent for two seconds. "Alright."

Su Ji leaned against the fence in the courtyard and waved at her mother, who was in the car.

Xu Mingzhi smiled, "go in, baby."

In this life, no one could affect her mind, except for her precious baby.

Su Ji turned around and went back into the house. She saw a head sneakily sticking out from next door.

"Dad? Su Ji asked.

Su Cunyi didn't dare to come out until Xu Mingzhi's car had left. He hadn't had the chance to see his daughter for several days.

"Good. You haven't lost weight recently," Su Cunyi said as he looked at her.

Su Ji looked at him with her back against the sun and smiled. "Dad, shouldn't you go back to the Su family? You've been here for a while, right?"

"..."

Su Cunyi was stunned. "I'm just afraid that your mother is so busy every day and has no time to take care of you. Is filming tiring? Do you want me to take you out for a good meal while your mom is not here?"

Su Ji walked in front of him, and there was a fence between them. "I already ate lunch. She's not busy, and she takes very good care of me."

Su Cunyi gave her an "I know everything" expression. "How can she not be busy? I just saw her leave in the car. Isn't she going to the company again? I know her, she used to be like this too. All she did every day was work and nothing else."

Su Ji casually placed one of her legs on the fence between them. "No, she's not out for work today."

"No?" Su Cunyi was surprised and suspicious. "Then where is she going?"

Su Ji was very flexible. She pressed her face against her leg and said, "she's going on a blind date."

"What?"

Su Ji thought that he did not understand and repeated, "blind date. I introduced him to her."

When she raised her head again, there was no one in front of her. Only a shadow was left where Su Cunyi had just stood.

The car that was parked on the other side of the road had already left.

He might be able to catch up with Xu Mingzhi if he tried hard enough.

**

The blind date was held at Godear.

The Western food there was delicious.

Wen Man was the one who picked the place, and she had paid for it in advance. She then instructed the waiter to make sure that all the expenses were on her tab.

Xu Mingzhi was sitting by the window in a formal suit. The high heels on her feet made her look even more slender, and also colder.

Opposite her was Tong Yingjie, who was wearing a gentlemanly suit with vertical stripes and had a small beard.

He was indeed quite good-looking.

Before anyone could speak, Xu Mingzhi's phone vibrated. "Sorry, I have to take this call."

"Okay."

Xu Mingzhi was answering a work call. She was as swift and decisive as usual.

Occasionally, she would sneer.

Any normal man would be afraid when they saw this scene, but Tong Chu Yingjie was not. He was quite appreciative.

However, when Xu Mingzhi mentioned "why do they have to waste time on a business worth only one billion", his on the table trembled.

After hanging up, Xu Mingzhi apologized politely. "I'm sorry, work is busy."

Tong Yingjie replied in English, "no problem."

Xu Mingzhi crossed her arms and examined the man opposite her.

It was supposed to be a blind date, but because of her strong aura, it became an interview.

But little did she know that she had already controlled herself and tried to be as gentle as possible because her daughter had asked her to come!

A drop of cold sweat rolled down from Tong Yingjie's forehead. "Why don't we order first?"

Xu Mingzhi nodded slightly.

In the next five minutes, Tong Yingjie ordered the dishes in English.

His English pronunciation was perfect. Even if it was some very rare ingredient, he could still pronounce it.

After ordering the appetizer, main course and dessert, Tong Yingjie sneaked a glance at Xu Mingzhi, his expression a little proud. Then, like a gentleman, he asked Xu Mingzhi what she wanted.

Xu Mingzhi answered simply, "two tomahawk steak!"

"..."

Tong Yingjie said, "I don't eat that..."

Xu Mingzhi nodded politely. "Both are mine."

"..."

Then, Tong Yingjie ordered two plates of tomahawk steak for Xu Mingzhi in English. He also ordered some side dishes and soup that would go well with it.

After they finished ordering, the table behind Tong Yingjie stretched out a hand, signaling the waiter to take his order.

That hand was quite good-looking, and the sleeves of his suit were clean.

Xu Mingzhi looked at Tong Yingjie and was about to speak when the man's voice came from behind him. "Excuse me, can I not order in Chinese?"

"Yes sir, of course you may."

The man said in a strange tone, "that's weird. The customer just now clearly knew Chinese, but he still ordered in English!"

Once he said that, Tong Yingjie was so embarrassed that his expression froze.

The waiter didn't know what to say other than chuckling.

Xu Mingzhi tilted her head, wanting to see who the man behind him was.

However, the man was sitting with his back to her, so she couldn't see him.

The voice sounded a little familiar, and he spoke in a strange way as if he had deliberately changed his voice to avoid being discovered.

Xu Mingzhi narrowed her eyes suspiciously. After a moment, she looked back at Tong Yingjie.

In order to help him ease the awkwardness, Xu Mingzhi changed the topic. "I heard that you're starting a business now. What's your field?"

When Tong Yingjie talked about this, he was quite professional. He summarized the project he was working on to Xu Mingzhi.

Xu Mingzhi nodded. "That's very creative."

Xu Mingzhi had always been strict and didn't praise people often, but Tong Yingjie was a smart person who spoke logically. He also had his own ideas for his project.

They finally forgot about the awkwardness just now and started chatting. Who knew that the man behind him would put the phone to his ear again and start talking.

"Old Meng, I'm eating out. Why are you so worried? Your son wants to start a business? Now that the economy is in a slump, nine out of ten entrepreneurs will lose money. Don't believe in this!"

Tong Yingjie's heart was hit by an arrow again!

Xu Mingzhi's temples throbbed and she changed the topic again. "I heard that you are forty-nine years old this year and have never married. Do you like to be single? Or you just don't care about marriage?"

Tong Yingjie was a little shy when he mentioned this. "Actually, I've been in a relationship with my first girlfriend for 18 years. She never wanted to get married, so..."

"...in his forties and still hasn't gotten married? There's definitely something wrong with him, Old Meng!"

The voice came from behind again.

Xu Mingzhi couldn't take it anymore!

She picked up the fork in her hand. "Lower your head!"

Before Tong Yingjie could react to what was going on, he subconsciously lowered his head.

The next second, the fork flew past his head.

At this time, Su Cunyi turned around to watch the show, and his forehead was hit!

Chapter 258 At the Police Station

Su Cunyi's whole body fell backward on the table.

He only came back to his senses after a minute.

...

A bump appeared on the handsome man's forehead, and there were three red dots on it.

Tong Yingjie gasped.

If he had lowered his head a second later, the three red dots would have been on his forehead!

Even the waiter was shocked by this, but he turned back to look at Xu Mingzhi and smiled.

"Madam Xu, I didn't expect you to be so good at this!"

Xu Mingzhi looked at him with a stiff expression as a response, and when he looked at Su Cunyi again, she was furious, "Su Cunyi! I knew it was you!"

Su Cunyi covered his forehead and was silent.

Tong Yingjie's smile disappeared, and his eyes wandered between Su Cunyi and Xu Mingzhi for a few seconds, "so you know each other?"

He had just returned to the country and did not know many people here.

Xu Mingzhi gritted her teeth. "I will spare his life now because he is my daughter's father!"

Tong Yingjie understood. No wonder Su Cunyi had been causing trouble just now and poking at him with every word.

So they were...

"Su Cunyi, how did you know I was here?" Xu Mingzhi asked.

Su Cunyi couldn't help but straighten his sitting posture. "...by chance."

"Bullshit!" Xu Mingzhi said, "do you think I won't ask them to check the surveillance cameras right now to see how you followed me here?"

Su Cunyi was afraid that the fact that he was living next door to her would be exposed, so he became anxious. "If you weren't Su Ji's mother, I wouldn't care who you went on a blind date with! But now, the person you're going on a blind date with might be Su Ji's stepfather in the future! Of course I have to check!"

This seemed to be the first time Su Cunyi had retaliated against Xu Mingzhi since they had met.

Xu Mingzhi smiled dangerously. She cracked her knuckles. "Amazing. You dare to talk back to me now..."

Su Cunyi was sweating.

Seeing that the situation wasn't looking good, Tong Yingjie quickly tried to calm Xu Mingzhi down. "Ms. Xu, let's not waste our breath on him."

At that moment, the waiter served the dishes. His eyes wandered between the two tables for a while, then he quickly put down the dishes and ran away as if he was running for his life.

Tong Yingjie took this opportunity to say, "the food is here. Let's eat first."

Today's blind date was arranged by her daughter. Xu Mingzhi didn't want to disappoint her, so she swallowed her anger and sat back down.

Su Cunyi looked at Tong Yingjie's eager appearance and clenched his fists tighter and tighter. He stood on the spot for a few minutes and saw that Xu Mingzhi was ignoring him. He paid the bill and left.

However, he didn't completely leave.

He was smoking in the corridor.

Su Cunyi didn't know what he was angry about.

He stubbed out the cigarette in the trash can in frustration and lit another one.

He observed Tong Yingjie the moment he arrived.

Nothing great about him.

He was almost 50 years old, yet he still wanted to start a business. He was well-dressed, but he had ulterior motives.

He must have known that Xu Mingzhi was beautiful and rich, so he wanted to take advantage of her.

The more Su Cunyi thought about it, the more uneasy he felt.

If Xu Mingzhi was cheated, it would directly affect his daughter's future.

No.

At this moment, the door opened and Tong Yingjie came out talking on the phone.

Su Cunyi hid behind the wall.

Tong Yingjie didn't notice him and focused on answering the phone.

He sounded a little embarrassed.

"I do have a good impression of Ms. Xu, but I don't know if she likes me..."

Su Cunyi pricked up his ears.

"You're really making things difficult for me, forcing me to tell you my impression of her."

"Alright," he said.

"Looks, money, car and a house, I...!"

Su Cunyi's eyebrows suddenly furrowed.

How shallow!

Before he could finish his sentence, someone patted him on the shoulder.

He turned around and was surprised. "Mr. Su? Why haven't you left..."

The next second, a punch landed on his nose!

**

An hour later, at the street police station.

Tong Yingjie's nose was broken, Su Cunyi had a big bruise on the corner of his mouth, and a big bump on his head.

The two of them didn't look at each other and turned their heads to the side.

Xu Mingzhi went to help them with the procedures with a dark face.

The two officers in the interrogation room had just finished taking their statements. One of them pointed to the bruise on Su Cunyi's head and asked, "did he do that?"

"Yes, he did it."

"You!" Tong Yingjie was about to retort when he remembered where the bruise came from. "Yes, I hit him, but he attacked me first. I was defending myself!"

The police officers looked at each other and shook their heads.

After taking their statements, they stood up.

"Stay here. No more fighting."

After giving the instructions, they left.

"Already 50 years old, yet still fighting over a woman."

"But the woman who came with them is really pretty."

"Which one do you think she likes?"

"I guess none of them."

"Why do you say that?"

"When they first arrived, the woman asked me why I didn't detain them. I said that the injury is minor, so that's not necessary. Then, the woman smiled at me with a terrifying look and said 'if we seriously injure them now, you can detain them, right...?'"

"..."

In the interrogation room, Tong Yingjie didn't want to talk to Su Cunyi at first, but he couldn't take it anymore. He turned to him and said, "Mr. Su, I just want to ask you why you hit me. You should have a reason for hitting me, right? " What did I do to offend you?"

He covered his nose in pain after he finished speaking.

Su Cunyi also covered his mouth. "Don't you know why I hit you? It can't be the first time a pretty boy like you, who wants to make a fortune from women, has been beaten up, right?"

Hearing someone suddenly say that, Tong Yingjie's face turned red with anger. "Mr. Su, don't slander me. What right do you have to call me that? If that's true, would I still be starting a business?"

Su Cunyi also turned to him and narrowed his eyes. "I heard everything. Someone asked you to talk about your first impression of Mingzhi. And you said she's pretty, rich, with a car, a house, and a vulgar place!"

When Tong Yingjie realized what he had said at that time, he felt even more wronged.

"What I want to say is that I don't care about her being beautiful, rich, having a car, or having a house! What I care about is that she's straightforward, real, interesting, and cute!"

"I didn't even get to finish my sentence before you beat me up!"

"?" Su Cunyi carefully recalled that he seemed to have said the words "I don't..."

"If that's the case, why were your hands shaking when she mentioned a billion-dollar business?" Su Cunyi asked.

Tong Yingjie smiled bitterly. "You're quite observant. I was just shocked. I'm not like you. I'm not rich. It's normal for a normal person to be shocked when they hear such a large sum of money for the first time, right? "

He shook his head. "Mr. Su, I think it's because you can't let go of Ms. Xu in your heart. That's why you think that everyone has bad intentions!"

"I..." Su Cunyi felt that it was ridiculous. He opened his mouth to refute, but he was speechless.

Just then, the door was pushed open.

When he turned around, Xu Mingzhi entered.

Su Cunyi was embarrassed. He didn't know if Xu Mingzhi had heard what Tong Yingjie said.

Then, he saw Xu Mingzhi smirk sarcastically. "Mr. Tong, you've misunderstood. He got married in less than a year after we divorced. He and his wife even have twins. Do you think he hasn't let it go?"

Chapter 259 One-on-one, or All Together?

Su Cunyi's throat suddenly tightened, and he couldn't say a word.

However, at this moment, Tong Yingjie glanced at him. "Then it's over for you."

...

He did not expect that his competitor was so weak.

"!!!"

After a while, a police officer came in. "You can leave now. Oh right, your family members are here too. They're outside."

Hearing this, Xu Mingzhi immediately frowned. She left the two idiots behind and strode outside.

Under the streetlight outside the police station, a young girl was leaning against the wall, one leg bent as she stepped on the lamp post.

She was wearing a cap, which cast a shadow on her porcelain white face.

Pei Huai was standing beside her. Noticing that they had come out, he rubbed the top of her head to comfort her and pointed at them.

"They're out. I'll wait for you in the car," he said.

As Su Ji looked over, Xu Mingzhi walked up to her. "Baby, I can settle this myself. You're a public figure, don't always come to such places."

"..."

It was just a blind date, how did it end up in the police station?

Moreover, it was not Xu Mingzhi who did it!

This was something Su Ji had not expected.

Xu Mingzhi felt a little guilty under her stare. Seeing that they had come out, she introduced her daughter.

She ignored Su Cunyi. "This is Uncle Tong, the one you introduced to me."

Su Ji straightened her body slightly. "Hello, Uncle Tong."

Tong Yingjie smiled gently. "It's all a misunderstanding, don't worry. I heard you're an actress? My nephew is also an actor, but he's not very popular."

Then, she looked at Xu Mingzhi and said, "if you have time in the future, can I ask you out again?"

Xu Mingzhi was very calm and gestured to Wei Wei. "I'll give you my secretary's number. You can make an appointment with her."

Wei Wei gave him a business card swiftly, "here you go, Mr. Tong."

Tong Yingjie received it with both hands. "..."

That worked.

Tong Yingjie's family members were also here. He had no children, so his nephew came to pick him up.

Su Ji narrowed her eyes when she saw who his nephew was.

The roar of a heavy motorcycle was getting closer and closer. Finally, it stopped. A young man got off the motorcycle, took off his helmet, and put it under his armpit.

The large gold chain on his neck glowed under the streetlight.

Tong Yingjie's nephew was Tong Le!

In fact, the way Tong Le rap in English was similar to how Tong Yingjie ordered dishes in English.

"Uncle! Who hit you? Tell me and I'll avenge you!"

The police officer at the door looked over. "..."

Tong Yingjie pretended to be angry. "Don't talk nonsense. Are the others worried? I've just returned to the country and I've already caused trouble for you. I'm fine."

Tong Le saw his face clearly and was shocked. "You say you're fine? Your nose bridge is broken! They beat you up, right? Just wait! I'm going to break one of their arms!"

The police officer by the gate: "...."

When his gaze swept past Su Cunyi and he saw Su Ji...

It was like a mouse seeing a cat.

The memory of him criticizing Su Ji and getting slapped in the face was still fresh in his mind.

Su Ji also recognized him. She did not mind settling the old and new scores together. She cracked her knuckles and asked, "do you want to fight me one-on-one or all at once?"

The police officers at the door could no longer stand still. “!!!”

Fortunately, they didn’t fight in the end. Tong Le looked at the situation in front of him and felt a little guilty for some reason. “Since my uncle won’t pursue the matter, I’ll let you go!!”

After he finished speaking, he pulled Tong Yingjie to him and left.

Xu Mingzhi also pulled Su Ji and walked away.

Su Ji glanced at the wound on Su Cunyi’s face. Su Cunyi was about to smile at her, but Su Ji turned around and followed Xu Mingzhi.

Su Cunyi lowered his eyes in disappointment. He was about to take a taxi to the restaurant to get his car when he saw something flying toward him in a parabola from the corner of his eye.

Su Cunyi reached out and caught it. He looked carefully and saw that it was a bottle of homemade ointment.

He recognized the small bottle. It was the one Su Ji used.

When he raised his head, Su Ji had already walked far away.

Hot tears fell on the back of his hand.

Su Cunyi’s chest heaved.

He was so regretful that his heart ached.

At this moment, he finally realized that he had lost two precious treasures...

**

Pei Huai personally drove Su Ji and Xu Mingzhi home.

Su Ji and Xu Mingzhi sat in the back row.

Then, Wei Wei inexplicably sat in the front passenger seat while he was driving.

As sharp as she was, she could feel that this seat was different.

But she didn’t dare to go to the back and disturb the two.

She shouldn’t be here!

She should be under the car!

Wei Wei apologized to Pei Huai in a low voice with a serious expression. “I’m sorry, CEO Pei. I still have work to discuss with CEO Xu. Otherwise, I would have gone home by myself.”

Pei Huai nodded slightly.

Xu Mingzhi said, “Pei Huai, we’ve troubled you today. It’s so late and you’re still following us around.”

Pei Huai glanced at the rearview mirror. He looked at Su Ji first, then at Xu Mingzhi. “It’s no trouble at all. In the future, no matter how late it is, you can contact me at any time.”

Xu Mingzhi nodded in satisfaction.

Wen Man heard the news and quickly called Su Ji. "I'm sorry, Su Ji. Are your parents okay? What's wrong with this Tong Yingjie, he's really pissing me off. How could he fight with your father?"

"It's alright, Aunt Man. Uncle Tong is actually nice. My dad has misunderstood."

Wen Man still felt embarrassed. "No matter what, I must treat your mother to a meal one day and apologize to her in person."

Su Ji chatted with her for a while and asked about Si Jingbin's condition. After hearing that he was recovering well, she hung up the phone with a peace of mind.

Xu Mingzhi knew about this. She looked at the date on her phone and remembered something. "Baby, are you having winter holiday soon?"

Su Ji never paid attention to this. "I don't know."

She took out her phone. "Let me check if the school sent out any notifications."

Pei Huai looked at the rearview mirror and said slowly, "the winter break in Kyokushin is held earlier than the other universities every year. In previous years, it's also in late December. This year, it should be next weekend."

At the same time, Su Ji also saw the notification.

It's indeed next weekend!

"You guessed it so accurately."

Xu Mingzhi nodded, "you are good at guessing."

Wei Wei's mouth twitched in the passenger seat.

Had they considered the possibility that CEO Pei knew this because of Su Ji?

Chapter 260 Too Arrogant!

**

The next day, Saturday morning.

...

When Xu Mingzhi arrived at the company in the morning, she noticed that the people around her were looking at her strangely.

All of them were smiling mischievously, and she wondered what they were plotting.

Xu Mingzhi strode to her office with a serious expression. She pushed open the door and realized why those people were smiling.

At this moment, her desk, which was usually filled with documents, had a large bouquet of fiery red roses on it.

“ ... ”

No one had dared to give her such a girly thing!

Behind her, a few heads stuck out from behind the door.

“Someone sent flowers to the CEO~~”

“I wonder which boss dares to pursue our CEO!”

“Well, our CEO is irresistible~~”

Xu Mingzhi cast a cold glance at them, and they quickly turned away and returned to their desks.

Wei Wei entered the office and closed the door for her.

Xu Mingzhi stared at the bouquet of flowers for a few seconds and suddenly said, “there must be two or three hundred flowers here.”

Wei Wei adjusted her glasses. “There are 999 of them. I have counted them for you.”

Xu Mingzhi raised her eyebrows slightly. “So many.”

Wei Wei observed her expression. CEO Xu was definitely attractive. However, because she rarely smiled, she looked very serious.

Ever since Wei Wei started working for CEO Xu, many bosses had fallen in love with CEO Xu, be it in China or overseas. However, they were all intimidated by her aura and didn’t dare to approach her.

Only Ms. Su understood CEO Xu, even more than CEO Xu herself.

“Who sent these?” Xu Mingzhi sat down quietly, took off her leather gloves, and stacked them on the table.

It was her first time receiving flowers, so she wasn’t sure what to do.

Wei Wei took a step forward. “There should be a card with a signature on it.”

Xu Mingzhi took a look and noticed a pink card.

The moment she took it out, two possibilities flashed through her mind.

When she opened it, she saw a completely unfamiliar name.

[“Wen Man”]

Xu Mingzhi paused for a moment and showed his card to Wei Wei.

“Do I know such a person?”

Wei Wei was speechless when she saw the name. She thought it was Mr. Su or Mr. Tong!

At that moment, Xu Mingzhi received a call from an unknown number.

She picked it up calmly.

Her low magnetic voice transmitted into the receiver.

The woman on the other end of the phone's mind went blank. "I...you...are you Ms. Xu?"

Xu Mingzhi chuckled and immediately understood. "Are you Wen Man?"

Wen Man's heart tightened. She felt as if she had been flirted with!

She had never heard such a pleasant voice before!

Because of yesterday's incident, she didn't sleep the entire night. After thinking about it, she still felt bad.

Si Ke was Wen Man's first love. They got married not long after they met. For decades, Si Ke protected her very well. She rarely went out to meet others and did not know how to apologize to anyone. She just followed the way Si Ke usually coaxed her after he provoked her. So, she sent a large bouquet of roses to Xu Mingzhi and just asked Su Ji for her phone number.

Wen Man said, "yes, I'm sorry about what happened yesterday. I know that you're usually busy with work. I'll wait for you at the restaurant downstairs. When you're free, I'll treat you to a meal as an apology..."

Her voice trembled. Xu Mingzhi thought it was cute and subconsciously softened her tone. "I've heard Su Ji mention you before. We're about the same age, so you don't have to be so polite with me."

She would treat her baby's best friend with gentleness.

Wei Wei's bones almost crumbled when she heard this!

She thought that this was better than if Mr. Su or Mr. Tong had sent the flowers.

"Alright, I'll wait for you."

Xu Mingmingzhi felt that she couldn't reject her. She smiled helplessly. "I have some time in the afternoon."

"Sure, Ms. Xu. I'll hang up now and leave you to your work."

Wen Man let out a long sigh of relief after she hung up.

Si Ke, who had been secretly observing his wife from the living room: "..."

Why was his wife so nervous?

If he didn't hear her say "Ms. Xu", he would have had the wrong idea!

Xu Mingzhi took her phone away and sent a WeChat message to Su Ji, telling her that Wen Man asked to treat her to a meal.

After half a minute, Su Ji replied.

["Auntie Man is a good person, but she's weak, so she rarely goes out. Maybe you two will become friends."]

Back then, Xu Minghi had cut off all ties and left the country in anger.

Now that she was back, her heart was all for her daughter. Wei Wei was her secretary and also her only friend.

Other than that, she had no friends in China, especially female friends.

“Alright, I will take care of her.”

Su Ji was currently in the lounge Blue Whale.

Xu Ni happened to pass by the door. This week of filming was also a probation period for him.

Due to the incident with Tang Yimo, Blue Whale had become much stricter with the new hires.

Today, Xu Ni had come to officially sign the contract. Zhang Guihua had brought him there.

She told everyone she met that this was her grandson, the future heir of the Xu family, and was especially proud.

Xu Ni didn't seem to want to walk with her, and there was a big distance between them.

When he passed by the entrance of the lounge, Xu Ni casually glanced inside and happened to see Su Ji looking at him and quickly walked away. He looked cool, but his red ears betrayed his thoughts at the moment.

Su Ji smiled. She didn't think Xu Ni was strange, but she felt that Xu Ni's grandmother was strange.

She said that she doted on her eldest grandson the most, but she didn't even know that he...

“Baby, our class is talking about next week's meetup.”

Opposite Su Ji, Meng Na and Pan Lian were sitting with her.

Both of them were looking at their phones.

They were chatting in the class group chat.

Su Ji was also in the group, but she muted it because she thought it was noisy. She was usually busy and never participated.

The winter holiday was coming. In the last semester of next year, most of the students had enough credits, and many of them were already famous. They probably wouldn't have time to meet after school.

Everyone chimed in and decided to have a meetup before the holidays next week.

In the past, no one would have thought of Su Ji when it came to such things. After all, she was invisible.

However, it was different now, especially after Su Ji had shown off her skills in class last time. The students wanted her to be there the most!

[“Pan Lian, aren't you the closest to Su Ji? Ask her to come!”]

[Meng Na, weren't you the leader of the group? She'll definitely listen to you.”]

[“My sister is still waiting for me to help her get Su Ji’s autographed photo!!”]

Everyone wanted Su Ji to come, except Tong Le.

[“Do you want to organize a class meetup or just a meetup with Su Ji?”]

[“Look how pathetic you are.”]

Once he sent that, he was attacked by the other students in the class.

[“Don’t think that we don’t know what you’re thinking. You criticized her publicly last time, so you must be too embarrassed to see her now!”]

[“Su Ji isn’t that petty. It’ll be over after you two drink a glass of wine. You’ll see each other all the time in the entertainment industry in the future. Why bother?”]

[Tong Le: “I’m afraid of her? Please! She’s the one who’s afraid of me!”]

From the beginning to the end, Zhou Xuefang did not say a word.

After Pan Lian and Meng Na finished reading the chat, they showed Su Ji Tong Le’s message.

“Baby, do you want to go?” Pan Lian asked.

Meng Na said, “that kid is too arrogant!”

Su Ji heard this and looked over.
