

Concubine 261

Chapter 261 Who Said that CEO Xu Doesn't Know How to Flirt?

Seeing Tong Le's words, Su Ji stretched her long legs.

She smiled casually, "sure, I'll go."

...

Meng Na and Pan Lian looked at each other and smiled. They quickly sent this great news to the group!

[ "Wow! That's great!" ]

[ "I'm about to graduate! I must take this opportunity to get close to her!" ]

[ "Why does Su Ji glow? Wait, she is the light!!" ]

Tong Le rolled his eyes and put his phone away.

In the afternoon, Xu Mingzhi and Wen Man met at a restaurant under the Xu building.

As soon as Xu Mingzhi went downstairs, she saw a slender figure waiting at the entrance of the restaurant.

She was wearing a long cloak with soft fur around her collar. Her hair was tied up in a bun. She looked very gentle like an ancient beauty.

She immediately had a good impression of her.

When the woman saw Xu Mingzhi coming out, a bright smile appeared on her gentle face. She waved, "Ms. Xu!"

Xu Mingzhi smiled and gestured to Wei Wei to not follow her. Then, she strode toward her.

It was Wen Man's first time seeing Xu Mingzhi, and she was a little nervous. She took a step forward and did not see where she was going.

She almost tripped. Luckily, Xu Mingzhi had already walked in front of her and nimbly reached out to support her, helping her to stabilize herself.

Wen Man bumped into her and straightened up. She was half a head shorter than her. "I'm sorry."

Xu Mingzhi smiled. She took out a rose from her suit pocket and pinned it on her hair. "The rose you gave me. It's just right to put it on your hair. It's beautiful."

Wen Man's face turned red!

Across the road, Wei Wei was dumbfounded.

Who said that CEO Xu only knew how to work?

She definitely had potential!

When they entered the restaurant, Xu Mingzhi held the door open for Wen Man.

She remembered what Su Ji said. Since Wen Man was not in good health, she should take care of her.

Wen Man's heart fluttered.

She kept telling herself in her heart, "you have a husband, you have a husband, you have a husband."

When it was time to pay, Xu Mingzhi did not allow her to pay.

Wen Man insisted.

However, the waiters in the restaurant all knew CEO Xu and were afraid of her, so they let her pay the bill in the end.

Wen Man's face was red, "Ms. Xu, I've already promised to treat you to a meal today as an apology, but you're the one who paid for it in the end. This is not..."

Xu Mingzhi's red lips curled up slightly. "I'll treat this time, and you treat me next time."

Her flirting technique was amazing!

She already got a second date!

Wen Man chanted in her heart, "I have two sons. I have two sons..."

Finally, they left the restaurant and parted ways.

Xu Mingzhi called out to her.

Wen Man turned around. "?"

Xu Mingzhi said, "tonight..."

"What's happening tonight?"

Xu Mingzhi smiled. "Don't forget to watch The Billion Stars tonight. Both our babies are in it, you can't miss it!"

Wen Man paused and could not help but laugh. "Don't worry!"

**

At night, Xu Mingzhi returned home on time.

She watched the fifth episode with her daughter.

Xu Ni's appearance had undoubtedly become the highlight of this episode.

In particular, the fight scene between him and Su Ji in bed was well-received.

Although he played a very annoying character, he was able to capture the audience's heart.

The netizens were exclaiming how wonderful he was!

[ "Xu Ni is so beautiful!" ]

[ “I don’t know why, but I am shipping the Bai stepsiblings!” ]

[ “It’s obvious when Su Ji likes someone!” ]

[ “You guys are really perverted. In the last episode, you shipped her with Nicha Sonpashan. It seems like you guys are shipping her with whoever she’s acting with?” ]

At home, Huang Huayu was thanking the heavens and earth that the newbie was fine.

Su Ji was also watching this episode very seriously. She held the remote control and turned up the volume.

She turned to see Xu Mingzhi typing on the phone with one hand.

She didn’t know who she was talking to, but her expression didn’t seem like she was doing work.

“How was your chat with Auntie Man today?”

Xu Mingzhi looked up at her and smiled. “I am chatting to her about the plot of this episode. What do you think?”

Su Ji smiled in relief. “There’s one more thing. The class is having a meet up next Tuesday, so I might be back late.”

Xu Mingzhi touched her head. “Don’t drink too much. Ask Uncle Wang to pick you up.”

Xu Mingzhi immediately knew what she wanted to say. “Otherwise, I will be worried.”

Su Ji smiled, “alright.”

The ending theme was playing. Xu Mingzhi sighed. “Time flies. It’s going to be the new year in two months.”

“I’ll spend the new year with you this year. The Billions Stars will be done with filming after the new year.”

As their drama was aired weekly, the series was not long. It would only be a dozen episodes.

“Okay, we’ll spend the new year together...”

**

Time seemed to have passed quickly without the ones causing trouble.

In the next few days, Tong Yingjie tried to make an appointment with Wei Wei, but Xu Mingzhi was not free.

Instead, she went to have a meal with her best friend, Wen Man.

During the calligraphy class on Monday, Su Ji had also tried to find out who Pei Huai was, but she did not find any clues.

Huaihuai and “.” were two students who were the most attentive and performed the best.

In a flash, it was already Tuesday, and Su Ji’s class group chat was already bustling with activity.

Everyone started to confirm the time with each other during the day to prevent people from standing them up.

In the last year of university, the students were all considered small celebrities. They had more money and were more aware of their privacy. When they first entered the university, they would go to places like the KTV. This time, the class monitor booked a private room in a high-class club.

Su Ji glanced at the class group chat and was about to put away her phone when she received another WeChat message.

[Pei Huai: "I have a business meeting tonight, so I might be home late. What about you? Are you busy tonight?" ]

She didn't know when it started, but Pei Huai would habitually report to her whenever he had a social gathering at night and if he would return late.

Another girl would feel very reassured.

However, the big boss' way of thinking was different. Su Ji felt that he was showing off to her.

To her, the sentence sounded like, "I have a social event tonight, do you??"

For some reason, it sounded proud.

When facing Pei Huai, Su Ji's desire for victory was inexplicably strong.

She pursed her lips and typed.

[ "I also have a social gathering tonight at a high-end club with dozens of people. I will drink and be home late!" ]

A class gathering instantly sounded more grand!

Chapter 262 Class Gathering

When Pei Huai received this reply, he was like an old grandpa in the subway looking at his phone.

Knowing that his girlfriend was going to drink and socialize with dozens of people in the club tonight, he frowned and was very worried!

...

However, he could tell from this reply that she was showing off.

Although he did not know where this feeling of smugness came from, Pei Huai started typing. It's better to send a message that his girlfriend would feel happy reading it.

[ "You're amazing." ]

When Su Ji received the reply, she smiled.

Tuesday was the day of the Calligraphy Association's exchange meeting.

The largest hall was booked by a group of rich old ladies.

It was organized by Lu Ailian, and she was sitting in the middle at the moment.

Zhang Guihua, who used to sit in the middle, was sitting in the corner today. She looked dull.

The waiter served the tea, and the rich old ladies began to flatter her.

“Madam Lu, we all watched last week’s episode!”

“Your grandson is so good at acting! We can’t even tell that it was his first time acting!”

“What? Was that Xu Ni’s first time acting?” At this moment, Zhang Guihua, who was sitting in the corner, exclaimed in a particularly exaggerated way, attracting the attention of the others.

Zhang Guihua would not let herself sit in the corner forever.

She stood up with the help of her walking stick and walked to Lu Ailian’s side. She asked in surprise, “was that his first time acting? That’s impossible! I think his acting is even better than my granddaughter’s!”

Then, she sat down beside Lu Ailian.

The old lady who was pushed to the side by her had this expression:

Σ(っ°Д°;)っ

Lu Ailian was annoyed at her initially, but her expression was so sincere that she became happy. After a long time, she finally gave in and laughed proudly.

“Of course it’s his first time. Even the director didn’t believe it, let alone you!”

The others continued to flatter her.

“He is indeed the future heir of the Xu family.”

“Some time ago, I took my granddaughter to Blue Whale for an interview, but she was rejected! Not everyone can enter Blue Whale, the standard is really high!”

“He’s the only child of the Xu family and the future heir. Can your granddaughter compare to him?”

“I’m going to get my daughter-in-law to give me a grandson as soon as possible!”

Zhang Guihua’s eyes widened. “Your son is almost 50. Your daughter-in-law is almost 40, right?”

The old lady who spoke was furious. “That’s why I’m anxious! If they don’t hurry up and have a son, our family will have no descendants in the future! They’ve been married for so many years, but she’s only given birth to a daughter. So disappointing!”

Zhang Guihua was busy giving them ideas. “Why don’t you ask your son to marry another one? What hope does a woman who’s almost 40 have? I don’t think she’ll be able to give birth to a son. Didn’t my son’s first wife give birth to a daughter? She never treated me as her mother-in-law, but he married another one later on and she gave birth to a pair of twins!”

Envious voices instantly rang out around them.

Lu Ailian patted Zhang Guihua and said, "this time, Madam Zhang is right. Back then, my son had a lot of love affairs because he was too handsome. Whoever gives me a grandson first will be allowed to enter the Xu family!

The others nodded. "If only we had your persistence."

"I've said the same thing to my son, but he didn't listen at all!"

"Do you know why Madam Lu looks so young? It's because she doesn't have to worry, and everything has been going her way since she was young. If she wants a son, she'll have a son. If she wants a grandson, she'll have a grandson!"

One of the old ladies recalled the past. "Ailian, I remember that your daughter-in-law came to our house when she was pregnant last time. At that time, I thought she was pregnant with a girl when I saw the shape of her belly. I didn't expect that she would give birth to such a handsome young man!"

Lu Ailian sneered, "of course you can't tell just by looking!"

After that, the exchange meeting went on as usual. Laughter and cheers continued to come from the largest hall.

In the evening, Wang Zhicheng drove Su Ji to the Four Seasons Club.

Su Ji had specifically asked him to park the car at an intersection away from the clubhouse's main entrance.

She got out of the car and headed to the club. As soon as she reached the entrance, she ran into a few of her classmates.

And they saw Su Ji get out of Wang Zhicheng's car.

They immediately surrounded her in envy.

"Su Ji, is that your driver?"

Su Ji glanced at them indifferently. "No, I called for a taxi."

After they heard that, they felt better. The next second, Wang Zhicheng suddenly stuck his head out of the driver's seat in the distance. "Have fun, young miss. I'll be waiting for you here! I'll bring you home later!"

"Wow! He called you young miss!"

"Su Ji, you're too low-key. You didn't even tell us that you have a driver. I'm so envious!"

Tong Le happened to arrive at this time. He looked at the people who were making a big fuss around Su Ji and rolled his eyes in annoyance. He then walked into the club.

A few minutes later, Meng Na and Pan Lian also arrived.

“We’re not the same people as we were three years ago. Don’t wait at the door, or you’ll be targeted by the paparazzi!”

Only then did everyone enter the club in a lively manner.

By the time they entered, everyone in the private room was already there.

It was the first time that a class gathering was held in the clubhouse, and everyone was very excited.

Class Monitor couldn’t count the number of people, so he roughly glanced at everyone.

He thought everyone should have arrived. Then, he happily asked the waiter to order.

Since everyone was there, no one was looking at their phones.

No one noticed that someone said she couldn’t make it.

[ Xuefang: “I’m so sorry, I can’t make it today. I’ve been trying to talk to Ms. Jing, hoping to make time, but unfortunately, I still failed in the end. I really can’t go today. You guys have fun!” ]

Now that Su Ji was in the limelight, Zhou Xuefang would not attend the gathering. She didn’t want to give Su Ji the chance to show off in front of her.

However, she was afraid that her classmates would not let her off and would force her to go.

After all, she was popular.

She would find it troublesome if everyone kept pestering her.

Therefore, she hesitated for a few days before sending this message.

After sending the message, she muted the group.

But in fact, no one in the group paid any attention to her!

Chapter 263 Su Ji Slays!

Class Monitor He’s full name was He Yu. He looked refined, non-competitive, and knew how to take care of people.

He was not an actor, he had recently participated in the production of a web drama. As a new director, although he had no experience, he had a lot of new ideas and was quite popular with the crew.

...

Now that everyone was here, he gave a few words of encouragement and toasted with everyone.

Pan Lian and Meng Na didn’t usually drink, but after hearing what he said, they wanted to drink too.

“Where’s the bottle opened?”

“Waiter, please get me a bottle opener!”

The waiter leaned in with one hand on the door and said, “okay, please wait a moment!”

They didn't know how long they would have to wait. The Four Seasons Club was the most famous club in A City, and it was full every day.

Although there were a lot of people, the room was not very big. The waiter would definitely have to serve the big shots in the other rooms first.

In just a short while, the waiter had gone to the room next to theirs several times. But everything was served slowly to them.

They complained for a while, but before the bottle opener arrived, Pan Lian was already eager to try.

Tong Le glanced at the table. Some students were smoking, and there were a few lighters on the coffee table.

He took one and pressed it against the bottle.

"Wow, you know how to open a bottle like this?"

"So cool!"

The next second, Tong Le raised his lighter.

"Pa!"

The bottle didn't open, and the lighter broke into pieces.

"..."

Tong Le was a little embarrassed. "What kind of useless lighter is this?"

Then, he picked up two disposable chopsticks and tried again.

His fangirls in class started to cheer him on again.

This time, even the disposable chopsticks were broken!

The bottle was still not open!

"..."

Meng Na said, "don't break everything."

Pan Lian said, "the disposable chopsticks here cost 10 yuan a pair. Class monitor, when we settle the bill later, take the money from him!"

Tong Le couldn't keep a straight face.

His fans defended him.

"Maybe the bottles in this club are of good quality, so it's hard to open?"

"Maybe we need special tools to open it?"

"The waiter must have gone to get it."

At this moment, a cold sigh came from a corner.

They looked over and saw that it was Su Ji.

Su Ji took the two bottles and placed one of them on the table. She hooked the cap of the other bottle on the first bottle. Then, she placed her palm on the bottom of the second bottle that was placed diagonally and slapped it upwards.

With a clear sound, white beer foam gushed out, and the bottle cap was opened.

She didn't use any tools.

This time, Tong Le collapsed!

"She was just lucky!" He said.

Su Ji opened three more bottles.

"..."

She continued.

"F * ck."

Su Ji opened all the bottles.

A few of Tong Le's fans also moved to sit beside Su Ji.

"I won't call you Su Ji anymore," Meng Na said. "I'll call you Boss Ji!"

Pan Lian: "Look at the boys' expressions, they have been murdered!"

This time, not only Tong Le, but all the boys couldn't keep their faces straight.

Some people tried to imitate Su Ji's method of opening the bottle.

They scratched their hands badly but there was only a small hole on the cap.

"Su Ji did it so easily."

"Yeah, I used all my strength, but why can't I open it?"

Su Ji didn't want to embarrass them, but she couldn't stand the delay when she was drunk.

The cold beer was poured into the glass.

Su Ji loved to drink lychee wine, but she could also drink beer.

At this moment, the waiter brought the bottle opener over.

It was just an ordinary tool, not some special tool.

However, the boys could at least get a beer.

He Yu looked at Su Ji and Tong Le. He smiled warmly and tried to smooth things over. "Let's raise our glasses first..."

No one mentioned the awkwardness just now. They raised their glasses and drank together.

After three rounds of drinking, some of Tong Le's loyal fans wanted to help him win back his face.

They turned on the KTV system.

Sure enough, they found his latest rap single.

It was hailed as the most difficult rap in history. He rapped more than 50 words in one breath, fast and clear.

The music was very loud.

Other than Tong Le, no one else could sing it.

"Since it's such a happy occasion, why don't you sing for us?"

Tong Le actually didn't want to sing today, but he was embarrassed by the beer bottle incident.

He raised his eyebrows and took the microphone. "Alright."

The big gold chain swung behind his neck, and he started rapping.

In the next three minutes, Tong Le really amazed the class.

Even Meng Na couldn't speak.

In terms of writing songs, she could still compete with Tong Le.

But when it came to rapping, Tong Le was the only one in class who could do it.

Seeing that Su Ji's fans were no longer talking, Tong Le felt smug.

After he finished singing the remaining song, he took a deep breath and looked at Su Ji smugly. "I heard that some of your fans called you the Song Queen? May I have the honor of having the Song Queen sing one of my songs?"

The ratings of variety shows would explode whenever there was a battle!

The boys were on Tong Le's side.

"Su Ji, why don't you try? There are no cameras here anyway!"

"You sing really well. I've heard you sing before, so I'm sure you can rap too!"

Tong Le handed the microphone to Su Ji and raised his eyebrows at her provocatively.

Meng Na pulled Su Ji back.

Su Ji glanced at the microphone but did not take it.

Tong Le laughed. "Forget it. I won't make things difficult for the Song Queen."

Know yourself and know your enemy, and you will never be defeated.

He analyzed all the songs that Su Ji had sung before.

Although Su Ji's music style this year was very different from last year's, it was generally more feminine.

Su Ji had never sung any rap songs before.

However, just as he turned around and was about to sit back on the sofa, Su Ji said indifferently, "I didn't say that I won't sing, but I want another microphone."

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Su Ji explained patiently, "he just spat on the microphone."

Meng Na burst out laughing, and Pan Lian almost spat her glass of wine on the boy opposite her.

Tong Le clenched his fists and opened the door to call for the waiter. "Waiter! Bring me a new microphone!"

After he finished speaking, he looked back at Su Ji with a deep smile.

He thought that this was the finale.

However, Su Ji met his gaze and slowly leaned back.

Tonight's fight had only just begun!

Chapter 264 The Mysterious Private Room Next Door

A few minutes later, Su Ji received a new microphone.

Meng Na swallowed and helped Su Ji.

...

She had secretly practiced this song at home, and it was very hard.

Pan Lian purposely turned up the volume of the background music for her, so that no matter how she did, it would not be too obvious.

However, just as she thought that she was being very considerate, Su Ji turned to her, "baby, lower the volume."

Pan Lian's heart skipped a beat. "Oh..."

When the music started, Su Ji did not stand up like Tong Le, nor did she have the rich body movements or the angry and ferocious expression that Tong Le had. It was as if she would not be able to breathe the next second.

She sat on the sofa casually, holding the microphone with one hand. Her beautiful eyes were slightly narrowed.

However, she sang it perfectly. Su Ji even managed to copy the difficult transition at the end without any error.

It seemed effortless, and was also filled with emotions.

The audience thought, "that's a blow to my heart!"

This time, even Tong Le's remaining die-hard fans completely ran away and sat beside Su Ji as if they had been conquered.

The song ended very quickly, but everyone was still immersed in it and could not react.

This woman was deadly!

Oh, this damn charm!

It was Su Ji's first time rapping.

She had just heard Tong Le sing it once and learned it on the spot.

The experience was average.

She sang it once personally and also read through the lyrics. The lyrics were quite well written.

"..."

He was about to cry!

He had written this song himself and had specially made it extremely difficult. He practiced for three days and three nights before he could sing it!

"Baby! Hurry up and write a rap song with Nana! It was really too good! Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!"

"I didn't think that it could be sung like this!"

"I'm convinced. I'm completely convinced. That's it. If she's not popular, who is?"

Tong Le challenged her, but not only did he not defeat Su Ji, but he had also let her conquer the class with his song.

Tong Le was really afraid that his uncle would actually get together with her mother.

If that was the case, would they be siblings?

(Dream on.)

In the second half of the match, the atmosphere reached its peak.

A student who had finished smoking came back from outside in high spirits. "Did you know? The private room next door is super big! But there are less than ten people inside, and all of them are wearing suits. They look very rich!"

He picked up the drink list and pointed at the bottom of the list, where a bottle cost 6 figures. "I saw three bottles of this wine that we said no one would order in their private room!"

"Damn, a gathering of the rich??"

"I'm so envious. I wonder when we'll be able to get into that kind of gathering."

"Although there are many rich people in the entertainment industry, no one has that kind of wealth..."

Later on, someone suggested playing Truth or Dare, and they stopped talking about the other room.

Su Ji was almost done with drinking, so she didn't want to participate in the later part as it would be too noisy.

However, her classmates didn't want to let her leave.

"Don't go, don't go. Let's play for a while more. Let's go together later."

"Yeah, the person who leaves first at the class gathering is the most disappointing. If you leave, it'll be boring!"

Su Ji took out her phone, opened Pei Huai's WeChat, and tapped a few times on the screen.

[ "Are you done?" ]

The other party replied within two seconds.

[ Pei Huai: "Not yet." ]

[ Pei Huai: "What's the matter?" ]

[ Pei Huai: "I can leave early." ]

Su Ji looked at the messages for a while.

[ "It's fine, go back to your work." ]

[ Pei Huai: "How about you? How's the gathering going?" ]

[ Su Ji: "At its peak now." ]

After that, she slid her phone into her pocket, and smiled, "okay."

The room was in an uproar.

There was a wheel in the private room that was specially prepared for Truth or Dare.

No one could cheat.

Otherwise, everyone would target Su Ji.

After more than 30 rounds, Meng Na and Pan Lian beside her were already picked, but Su Ji was not.

It was ridiculous!

Next was Tong Le's turn. He didn't even look and just turned it around.

A few seconds later, the room was filled with enthusiastic cheers and wolf howls.

"Tong Le, you're so lucky!"

"It actually turned to Su Ji! You spun it, so quickly ask! Ask something more juicy!"

Tong Le didn't even think about it and said, "no."

Su Ji gave him PTSD.

Su Ji crossed her beautiful legs. "If you don't ask, then I'll take it as a forfeit. Next round."

The people around them were anxious when they heard this.

"No, no, you can't forfeit!"

"Quickly ask! Ask anything!"

Tong Le didn't know what to say, so he casually asked a question that someone had asked in the previous rounds, "then tell me, do you have a boyfriend now?"

Su Ji's expression froze for a moment.

All the wolves in the room were awake, as if they had seen a full moon.

Meng Na and Pan Lian knew the answer, but they didn't dare to show it.

Although her classmates did not have any bad intentions, if Su Ji admitted that she had a boyfriend now, the next question would definitely be who he was!

Then, there would be a trending topic the next day.

Meng Na and Pan Lian watched excitedly.

Now, the problem was left to Su Ji!

Su Ji looked at Tong Le until Tong Le's scalp went numb.

"I choose Dare," she said.

"..."

The private room was silent for a few seconds before wailing could be heard!

"No! You must answer this question!"

"If Su Ji doesn't answer, does it mean that she has a boyfriend?"

"Not necessarily, maybe she's just concerned about privacy!"

"You have to answer!"

Su Ji glanced at the few people who were screaming. "What? Isn't this game called Truth or Dare? I can only choose Truth?"

One look from Su Ji and everyone trembled.

The boys exchanged glances.

"Fine, you can choose dare, but we'll still decide what the Dare is!"

Su Ji agreed readily. "Sure."

One of the boys, the one who had peeked at the room next door, suggested, "how about we ask Su Ji to go to the room next door to borrow something?"

There was no greater risk than letting a celebrity enter a private room and talk to the people there.

Pan Lian was very protective of her. "Su Ji is a celebrity. It's not appropriate, right?"

Meng Na thought so too.

However, they were drunk. The more risky it was, the more exciting.

"It's decided. Let Su Ji represent our class and help us check out the room next door!"

"We won't make things difficult for Su Ji. She just needs to borrow something. There are no rules. Anything will do, even disposable chopsticks!"

Everyone chimed in with high spirits.

Su Ji was not afraid. Facing everyone's expectant eyes, she stood up.

"Alright!"

Chapter 265 Jaws Dropped!

It was uncertain how those in the entertainment industry like to have fun, but they were definitely very serious about this game.

Before Su Ji left, they even checked to make sure that Su Ji did not take anything with her.

...

A few minutes later, Su Ji was standing at the door of the room next door.

At this moment, the door of the private room was tightly shut.

Just by looking at the door, one could feel the wealth emanating from the room. It was completely different from their "commoner" room.

Su Ji rubbed her eyebrows.

She didn't want to finish earlier than Pei Huai, so as not to let him think that her social event was fake.

She didn't expect to take on such a task.

She raised her hand and was about to knock on the door.

The door was pulled open from the inside.

A man in his forties or fifties, dressed in a white shirt and a black suit looked serious with a wine glass in his hand. He opened the door and was about to come out, almost bumping into her.

"I'm sorry," Su Ji apologized softly. She felt that he looked familiar. She searched her memory and seemed to have seen him in a finance magazine before.

He was someone on the list of the richest people in China.

His expression was serious, but Su Ji looked likable, so he wasn't annoyed.

He asked with a straight face, “who are you? What’s the matter?”

Su Ji peeked inside without a sound.

This private room was really big. There was another room in the corner, but she couldn’t see what was inside.

She could vaguely see a man in a suit sitting in the middle of the sofa. He was tall and it was quite impossible to ignore him.

Those people seemed to be talking about some serious topics related to the economy next year.

Su Ji was almost certain that if she told them she was picked to perform a dare, and that she came to borrow something from them, she would definitely be seen as a lunatic.

Forget it, she would just ask for a pair of disposable chopsticks from the waiter later and try to fool them.

“I’m sorry, I came to the wrong room.”

After that, she nodded apologetically and was about to leave when a few voices rang out in the room.

“Who is it, CEO Fu?”

The middle-aged man standing in front of Su Ji replied, “someone came to the wrong room.”

Following that, a few men came. They were all people that Su Ji had seen on the list of the richest people in the country.

Su Ji was not good at remembering faces, but she could remember these faces very clearly!

This was because they were all her competitors, and one day, her photo would be above them!

“Don’t tell me you’re pretending to enter the wrong room to listen in on some trade secrets?”

“The last time I was talking about real estate with CEO Qiu, a woman came in disguised as a waitress and heard an important piece of information. The next day, another company bid for that land!

“...”

Hearing them say that, CEO Fu was worried. “Tell me, who are you? Did you hear anything just now?”

Their concerns were not unreasonable, and Su Ji could understand.

So she explained patiently, “I’m actually a celebrity...”

“A celebrity?” They obviously didn’t follow the entertainment industry, so they were suspicious.

Su Ji did not notice that when she said that she was a celebrity, the figure sitting in the middle looked over.

As for Su Ji, in order to make it easier to explain her actions, she simply told the truth..

When she finished, the men didn’t say anything. Suddenly, a low laugh came from behind.

Su Ji’s brows furrowed. She felt that this laugh sounded familiar.

Then, she heard one of them speak with a smile. The stern look he had on his face earlier immediately turned into a flattering look when he turned around to look at the man behind.

“CEO Pei, what do you think? Is this little girl telling the truth?”

CEO Pei...

Could it be the CEO Pei she knew?

Su Ji turned around to leave, but several bodyguards immediately surrounded the door.

It wasn't that she couldn't beat them, she just didn't want to cause too much of a commotion.

In the back room, the man got up and said in a low and sexy voice, “yes.”

CEO Fu was puzzled. “How can you be so sure?”

“Because....”

As he spoke, they parted to the sides, and the tall man appeared in front of Su Ji.

Pei Huai smiled. “Let me introduce my girlfriend, Su Ji. She's a celebrity.”

“...”

Pei Huai had indeed heard everything she said!

Everyone in the room instantly fell silent.

They looked at each other.

The expression of astonishment was indescribable, and for a moment, they could not speak.

Not only was she a celebrity! She was CEO Pei's girlfriend!

Furthermore, she was still in school! Today was a class gathering!

Pei Huai ignored their exaggerated reaction and walked in front of Su Ji. His voice was deep, “so this is the social event you're talking about... were you guys the one singing just now?”

If he had known that she was in the room next door, he wouldn't have had to worry about her for the entire night.

Su Ji felt that she was being looked down upon and looked at him disdainfully. “they are all potential stocks. Don't underestimate their future value.”

“Of course not.” Pei Huai put his hands in his pockets and laughed. “You said something about a dare just now and wanted to borrow something? Do you have any requests?”

He had to help his girlfriend solve her problem first.

Su Ji remembered that she was still in the middle of a challenge and that she had been out for a long time. She softened her tone and said, “just give me anything.”

When the others heard this, they definitely couldn't miss the opportunity to please the boss.

"I have something! It was all a misunderstanding. If I had known that she was CEO Pei's girlfriend, I would have invited her in!"

"I've long heard that CEO Pei has a girlfriend. I didn't expect to have the honor of meeting her today. Take mine. Consider it a gift!"

"Ms. Su is playing a game with her classmates. How can she just take one? We must make her the winner!"

In an instant, countless strange things were stuffed into Su Ji's hands.

Pei Huai looked at Su Ji. He did not carry anything special with him today and just gave her whatever he had with him. At the same time, he lowered his head and whispered in her ear. "You don't have to return it."

Su Ji really couldn't take any more things with her, so she thanked them and returned to the room next door.

Pei Huai stood at the door and watched her return before closing the door with a peace of mind.

Su Ji was dared to borrow one thing.

However, Su Ji had accidentally borrowed something from each of the rich men!

When Su Ji got back, the students looked at the things she borrowed.

Their jaws dropped.

They were all sober now!

Even flying through a wormhole might not be as magical as this!

They looked at an expensive watch, an exquisite emerald ring, the pink raw diamond that hadn't been polished yet, and all kinds of dazzling accessories. The last one was a black credit card that could be used globally, with no limit!

Chapter 266 Best On-screen Couple

Looking at the dazzling array of treasures, the room was so quiet that one could hear a pin drop.

Tong Le's tongue was almost tied. "You...you're sure you borrowed this? You didn't steal them, did you?"

...

Before he could finish his sentence, Meng Na was already looking at him.

"Why don't you try to steal one. I'll admit you're good if you can steal so many."

"..."

The boy who dared Su Ji was fascinated.

What kind of big bosses were next door?

They were too generous and too cooperative!

After Su Ji's turn, the rest of the rounds of Truth or Dare seemed dull.

Seeing that it was late, He Yu proposed to leave.

Most of them were definitely unwilling to do so, so they proposed to go somewhere else.

However, He Yu still took the big picture into consideration. Now that everyone was a bit tipsy, their photos might be taken by the paparazzi if they were to go somewhere else..

Besides...

Su Ji's bag of treasure had not been returned.

If she didn't return them, they would feel uneasy.

After the event was over, Su Ji went to return her things while the rest of the class peeked from not far away.

It was still CEO Fu who opened the door. When he saw that it was Su Ji, he smiled.

"They are so easy-going and friendly!"

"If we knew this would happen, we would have taken a dare to go to the next room too. We might have gotten to know some big shots!"

There was some distance between them and the people who were watching the show. They couldn't hear what they were saying clearly.

CEO Fu looked at the things in Su Ji's hands. "Aiya, I already said that you don't have to return it! You're too polite!"

"???"

"She doesn't need to return them?"

"Did I hear it wrong?"

"I must have heard wrong! Just that Patek Philippe watch alone was worth at least 20 million! Is he crazy?"

Su Ji did not notice the commotion behind the door. "No, it's not mine. Thank you so much."

After she returned them, she pinched the last item, which was the credit card.

CEO Fu immediately understood. He smiled and said, "CEO Pei went out to answer a call."

"Oh." Su Ji touched the card and put it into her coat pocket. "I'll return it to him later."

CEO Fu was still shocked

CEO Pei had personally acknowledged her as his girlfriend!

What the hell!

Behind the door that was shaking violently, the students' curiosity could no longer be contained.

One by one, the students peeked their heads out from behind the screen. "I definitely saw Su Ji put the card into her pocket!"

"What's happening??"

"We might have misheard, but we see it with our own eyes!"

Meng Na and Pan Lian looked at each other, as if they understood something.

They quickly dispersed the students who were watching. "Stop watching. If they find out, you'll have to bear the consequences!"

After being interrupted by them, when the students looked at the private room next door again, the door was already closed.

Then, they realized that Su Ji was standing in front of them!

This time, no one dared to look at her and left with embarrassed smiles.

At the entrance of the Four Seasons Club, Su Ji bade farewell to Meng Na and Pan Lian. She stood at the entrance for a while and said to someone, "come out."

A few seconds after she said that, a figure really did flash out of the door.

The girl was thin and small. She wore thick black-rimmed glasses and looked very plain.

As she approached, Su Ji saw her face clearly and recognized that she was a student from her class.

After Su Ji's rise to power, she was definitely the next wallflower, Dong Xiyou.

She had been secretly sizing her up just now, and now she was following her.

Su Ji stood in front of her with her arms crossed. She looked down at her. "What's the matter?"

The girl's face turned red, and she looked very shy.

She did not dare to look her in the eye, so she sneaked a glance at her. "I...I'm..." she stammered for a long time, as if she was upset with herself. She swallowed hard and closed her eyes. "I'm an intern who's involved in the episode planning of 'Hello, Sunday'. I...I would like to invite you to participate in the next special episode!"

After she finished speaking, she seemed like she was going to collapse. She stood with her head slightly lowered. She did not even pant. Her face was red as she held her breath, waiting for Su Ji's reply.

Her blushing face was quite cute. Su Ji had never seen someone so easily embarrassed.

Like a pufferfish, the reaction was obvious when one poked it lightly.

However, she couldn't underestimate this little girl.

Su Ji had participated in the "Hello, Sunday" before. At that time, she was an ambassador for a product by the Pei Corporation.

In the last year before graduation, all the students in their class began their internships. Some worked on stage while some worked behind the scenes.

Other than the artists who had just debuted, many of them were assistants, scriptwriters, or managers. However, it was extremely rare for them to be involved in the production of “Hello, Sunday”!

The production team of “Hello, Sunday” was one of the strongest in the entertainment industry. It was as if among all the fresh graduates, Dong Xiyou was the only one who got a job with the government.

If someone had “Hello, Sunday” in their resume, they would be able to do well in production. She heard that Hao Gou used to be involved in “Hello, Sunday”, which was what made him popular.

Such a promising position was bound to be competitive. There were three, including Dong Xiyou who got in as interns.

The weekend special of “Hello, Sunday” was not only for the sake of the audience, but also a test for the three interns.

Su Ji chuckled and spoke in a friendly manner, “what’s the theme this time?”

After “The Billions Stars” became popular, so did Su Ji.

Back then, if it were not for CEO Pei, they would not even let Su Ji attend. But this time, it’s different...

Dong Xiyou’s heart thumped with excitement when she saw that Su Ji did not immediately refuse and instead asked her more about the project. She gradually spoke more confidently. “It will be about the best on-screen couple! We’ll invite three groups of guests to play some games on stage. In the end, the most popular group will be voted by the netizens in the live broadcast. I’ll be in charge of one group, and I would like to ask you to come...”

Best on-screen couple...

Su Ji’s delicate eyebrows furrowed slightly. “Since it’s a couple, shouldn’t you invite two people?”

Dong Xi said shyly, “there’s still a few days before the live broadcast. If you agree, I plan to post your participation on Weibo first, then let the netizens vote for your best on-screen partner in their hearts. After that, we’ll invite that person. Since the netizens have chosen it themselves, you’ll already be popular...”

Su Ji raised her eyebrows slightly. Although she was soft-spoken, she had initiatives.

She didn’t care much about it, but the girl kept looking at her with hopeful eyes, and her heart softened for some reason.

After thinking about it, she smiled. “Sure.”

Chapter 267 Think About This in 10 Years!

Dong Xiyou immediately looked up.

She didn’t relax for even a moment during the entire gathering.

...

She had been thinking about how to ask Su Ji.

She had thought of many ways Su Ji could reply. She might reject her outright, say that she was busy, or something more tactful like “I’ll think about it and contact you later.”

After thinking so much, Dong Xiyou never expected that Su Ji would agree so quickly!

Dong Xiyou’s face was filled with shock, and her mouth was slightly agape.

Su Ji chuckled. She raised her hand and touched her delicate chin. “Your jaw is about to fall off.”

Dong Xiyou was taken aback and quickly closed her mouth.

In her three years in college, she had spoken to many of her classmates, but she had never had any interaction with Su Ji.

She never imagined that Su Ji was so nice!

Dong Xiyou took a small step back in confusion, her expression very serious as she examined her.

She drank a little that night, and her eyes were red, making her particularly attractive.

There seemed to be light behind her! No, she was the light!

Dong Xiyou then explained to Su Ji in detail about the episode.

The previous episodes, including the one that Su Ji was involved in, had always been recorded a few days in advance and aired later.

But this was different. It was a live broadcast, and there would be many online platforms broadcasting it!

It would definitely be trending!

“Send me a copy of what you said. I’ll send it to my manager. If I’m going to appear on screen with a partner, I’ll have to let the crew know. But it shouldn’t be a problem.”

Dong Xiyou nodded vigorously. She took out her phone. “So, Ms. Su, can I add you on WeChat? ”

“Of course,” Su Ji smiled and took out her phone. She found the QR code and showed it to her, “just call me Su Ji.”

Dong Xiyou added her on WeChat and said timidly, “then I’ll call you Su Ji...”

“Yes,” Su Ji continued, “I should be the one thanking you for inviting me.”

Dong Xiyou’s big, bright eyes widened. “I’ll definitely let you know if there are any other good shows in the future!”

**

When Su Ji returned home, Xu Minghi had just finished a call with Wen Man.

Wei Wei was typing on a computer beside her.

Wen Man met a strange relative today. She was a little upset, so she ranted to Xu Mingzhi.

Xu Mingzhi told her a few ways to get rid of this kind of relative.

Wen Man was suddenly enlightened and asked why she had not thought of it before.

When Xu Mingzhi hung up the phone, she still had a doting smile on her face that she didn't even notice.

"Baby." Xu Mingzhi looked at Su Ji and nodded in approval. "You didn't drink too much. Aunt Wu, please heat up the hangover soup I asked you to make."

"Thanks, mom." Su Ji was chatting with Dong Xiyou.

The smile on her face was exactly the same as her mother when she was on the phone with Wen Man.

Wei Wei's eyes darted back and forth between the mother and daughter for a few seconds before she continued to type quickly on the keyboard.

In the past, CEO Xu was a lady killer in Continent M. Now that she had returned to China, together with her daughter, the ladies in City A would not be able to escape!

Su Ji put down her backpack, took off her coat, washed her hands, and sat down in the dining area.

Aunt Wu brought out the warm hangover soup. She chuckled. "I specially made it according to your taste. Try it."

Su Ji tried it. At the same time, she sent the plan that Dong Xiyou sent her to Pei Xi.

Aunt Wu went to take Su Ji's jacket. Before she sent it to the laundry room, she searched her pocket and found a card.

She took it out. It was black and shiny. Aunt Wu had never seen it before and couldn't tell what it was.

However, Xu Mingzhi recognized it at a glance. She took it and said, "baby, why do you have a black diamond card in your pocket?"

Su Ji turned around and glanced at it casually. Then, she told her about the challenge.

Xu Mingzhi knew how rare this card was. She only got hers last year. "Then, you must remember to return it as soon as possible."

Su Ji would definitely return it, but she said, "he said I don't have to."

Xu Mingzhi frowned. "No way, you're only dating now. You're not married yet. How can you take such an expensive thing from him?" As she spoke, she placed the card on the table in front of Su Ji and touched her face. "If you want to buy anything, tell me."

Su Ji reassured her. Then, she seemed to have thought of something and asked, "so, if we get married, I can take his card?"

"If you're married..." Xu Mingzhi thought about it seriously for a few seconds. She then became flustered and frowned, "think about this ten years later! I won't let you leave my side before you're thirty!"

**

The next day, the crew was very efficient.

In the morning, Han Junlei had given Su Ji a reply and agreed to let her participate in the special episode of "Hello, Sunday".

"The Billion Stars" was halfway through filming, and the plot had become more intense and more exciting. They also had a steady stream of viewers.

It's good to appear on a show for publicity at this time.

Si Jingchuan was the happiest when he heard that.

At that moment, it was Su Ji and Zhou Xuefang's scene. Si Jingchuan was sitting in the distance, watching the set. His lips curled into an evil smile. "Boss has only acted in this show. I will definitely be her partner. I'm feeling a little nervous!"

Beside him, Xu Ni had an indifferent expression. "Not necessarily. Maybe it's me."

"You're crazy." Si Jingchuan straightened his back. "You're acting as her step-brother! Don't be weird!"

Xu Ni saw his reaction and sneered emotionlessly. "You can't even take a joke. It's just a stupid variety show. I can't believe you're someone who won Best Actor."

Although Si Jingchuan had won Best Actor before and participated in many variety shows, this was definitely his first time participating in one with his boss.

"You don't understand even if I tell you. Just don't fight with me for it."

Xu Ni glanced at him and said, "I don't want to fight with you, but the male guest will be voted by the netizens. If they insist on voting for me, I can't do anything about it."

Si Jingchuan was furious. "Impossible!"

While they were arguing, little did they know that Dong Xiyu's poll on Weibo had only been open for two hours, but Nicha Sonpashan was already in the lead!

Chapter 268 Slapped in the Face

Twenty minutes later, Su Ji and Zhou Xuefang's part was over.

It was winter now, but the scene was set in the summer, so they were wearing short-sleeved clothes from the set to a coffee shop.

...

This was a very common sight in the crew.

As soon as the director shouted "cut", Zhou Xuefang's entire body shivered. Chen Jing had also come with her today, so she quickly put on a thick down jacket for her.

Zhou Xuefang tried to warm up.

She really couldn't understand why so many people didn't like her even though she had put in so much effort to act.

However, to Su Ji, it was normal to suffer a little to get paid.

How could she earn money if she just wanted to enjoy life?

Seeing that Su Ji was still wearing a short-sleeved shirt, Chen Jing smiled and took out a thick coat for her. "Su Ji, put this on. You might catch a cold."

Her smile was so radiant that Su Ji would have been touched by her if she had not known her before.

Ever since Su Qianrou's incident, she had not seen Chen Jing. She must have just finished dealing with Su Qianrou's mess.

During this period of time, Su Ji's popularity soared like a rocket.

When they met again, she was completely different.

Chen Jing knew how to follow the tides. Now that Su Ji was popular, she kept licking her boots, as if all the tension in the past had never happened.

Zhou Xuefang, who was watching from the side, felt a surge of jealousy.

Su Ji glanced at Zhou Xuefang, took the coat from Chen Jing's hands, and put it on.

Zhou Xuefang was so infuriated by her actions that she immediately left.

Su Ji waited for her to leave before turning to Chen Jing. "I find you quite interesting."

Chen Jing laughed, "that's right, I'm interesting!"

Su Ji squinted her eyes as she recalled how she had been mistreated by Chen Jing in the original owner's memory. "When I was working under you, you treated me like air. Now that I'm no longer working for you, you treat me so well. Do you only like to serve others, or you only serve whoever is popular?"

Chen Jing was used to being slick, so the stiffness of her face was not obvious. "Aiya, Su Ji, you're now a person who has a stable position in the entertainment industry, so I'm sure you can understand. People strive to go higher..."

"I understand," Su Ji replied.

Chen Jing smiled.

"But I despise you," Su Ji continued.

The flawless mask on Chen Jing's face split open.

Su Ji took off her coat and draped it over Chen Jing's body. She patted her shoulder and said, "I'm sorry, I'm a vengeful person."

Chen Jing's heart sank to the bottom.

At noon, they were sent lunch.

The staff member who was the first to open the lunchbox opened his mouth wide and his eyes lit up.
“Damn, the food today is so good? The soup is expensive!”

Very quickly, the other staff members also noticed.

Huang Huayu said, “the last time CEO Pei came to inspect, he said that our lunch was too plain and upgraded it!”

The crew cheered.

“No way? The food was already very good, right?”

“Aiya, we think it’s good, but CEO Pei thinks it’s ordinary!”

“Long live CEO Pei! I will forever be loyal to the Pei Corporation!”

“The food is indeed good, but it’s also really spicy!”

At the small dining table in the distance, Si Jingchuan and Xu Ni were eating until their lips were red and their foreheads were covered in sweat, but they couldn’t stop.

It was simply too good.

However, the spiciness was just right for Su Ji. It was very flavorful.

Xu Ni was a smart person. He said, “Su Ji, ask your boyfriend to provide less spicy food next time. My lips are swollen and I won’t be able to film in the afternoon.”

Si Jingchuan gulped down half a bottle of ice water and said, “boss, I’m also on Xu Ni’s side this time. When we film in the afternoon, everyone will have sausage mouths. How much editing must be done later on?”

Su Ji looked up. “Alright, I’ll tell them not to make it so spicy next time.”

Zhou Xuefang was listening to their conversation from afar.

She looked at them in disbelief.

Su Ji could even decide how spicy the food should be?

They must be crazy!

After dinner, Han Junlei told Su Ji about the scene that they were going to shoot in the afternoon.

Some netizens had already noticed the bracelet on her wrist, so they planned to add a few close-up shots of the bracelet in this episode and treat the bracelet as a family heirloom that Bai Yueguang’s father had left for her.

The Bai family had an accident, and Bai Yueguang’s father had mysteriously disappeared. Was it to hide from debt, or was there an accident? The police made no progress after so many years and it had become an unsolved case.

However, Bai Yueguang always felt that her father was not hiding.

Every time she missed her father, she would look at the bracelet in her hand.

She didn't know that this would become an important clue to her father's disappearance in the future!

Therefore, the close-up shot of the bracelet in this episode was also a foreshadowing.

There would be special effects that were added later on.

In the afternoon, filming officially started.

Su Ji raised her hand toward the sun, and the bracelet shone under the sunlight.

In the camera, Su Ji's hand was fair and beautiful. It was so fair that it reflected light, and there was not a single flaw or scar on it.

Si Jingchuan and Xu Ni were dumbfounded and swallowed in shame.

In front of the screen, Huang Huayu glanced at his arm. He could imagine the audience's reaction when this episode was broadcast.

This pair of hands was definitely a work of art, worthy of being held up, kissed, and worshiped.

The camera moved up Su Ji's wrist, past her exquisite face, and finally focused on the bracelet.

In the next second, Han Junlei and Huang Huayu leaned over at the same time and glued their eyes on the monitor screen.

They didn't notice it with the naked eye, but when the camera zoomed in, the bracelet seemed to give off a wonderful luster, as if it was alive.

Han Junlei looked at the monitor screen for a while, then looked up at Su Ji's bracelet in the distance and blinked.

He was so shocked by this magical feeling that he couldn't speak for a long time.

After a long while, he pointed at the screen and asked Huang Huayu, "did you see that?"

Huang Huayu was also stunned. "Yes."

It seemed that he was not hallucinating.

Han Junlei asked, "what's that? Is it the Tyndall effect? This light seems too magical..."

"I don't know." Huang Huayu was also very confused. He half-opened his mouth and said with a smile, "it seems that even Su Ji's bracelet could act on its own. This way, we don't even need to add any special effects."

Chapter 269 A Confession

Under the director and assistant director's fascinated gaze, Su Ji's scenes for the day ended.

Si Jingchuan said, "boss, you're really resistant to the cold. You didn't even shake when your arm was exposed for so long. Just by looking at the camera, I thought it was really a hot summer day with bright sunshine."

...

Su Ji smiled in a relaxed manner.

She could indeed withstand the cold, but she was afraid of the heat.

Therefore, in comparison, it was not difficult to film a scene in the summer in the winter. However, she hoped that there would never be a time where a scene in the summer would be filmed in the winter.

When Su Ji returned home from the set, Wang Zhicheng's car happened to turn at the same time as Pei Huai's car.

Su Ji lowered the window of the passenger seat and could see Pei Huai in the driver's seat next to hers.

She said, "I have something to discuss with you."

Pei Huai glanced at her. "I'll park the car and wait for you."

Immediately after, he accelerated and put some distance between them.

When Su Ji got out of the car, Xu Mingzhi was not home.

Pei Huai was already waiting for her in the garage next door.

Su Ji walked past the barrier between her house and the next door. Suddenly, she thought of something and turned back to look at Wang Zhicheng, "Uncle Wang."

Wang Zhicheng jogged over and smiled kindly. "What can I do for you, miss?"

Su Ji asked mysteriously, "did you...see anything? "

Wang Zhicheng's gaze fell on Pei Huai, who was standing in front of the garage next door. He immediately understood and covered his eyes. "I didn't see who the next-door neighbor is!"

Su Ji finally understood why Xu Mingzhi liked him so much. "Thank you, uncle Wang."

Su Ji strode into the neighboring courtyard, and Pei Huai brought her to the narrow passageway between the garage and the house.

This location was hidden. Su Cunyi wouldn't be able to see it when he came back, and Xu Mingzhi wouldn't be able to see it if she came back.

He wanted to be intimate with her, but as soon as the two of them got there, Su Ji took out something and gave it to him.

It was the credit card that he had given her!

Pei Huai raised his eyebrows slightly, his voice low and bewitching. "I said you don't have to return it."

"I have money," Su Ji replied.

Pei Huai lowered his eyes and looked at her. "I want you to spend my money."

Su Ji felt that he was an interesting person. Luckily, she was his only girlfriend. If he had had a few more in the past, the Pei family would not have been as glorious as they were now.

Su Ji was not sensitive to matters of the heart, but Pei Huai's behavior was clear.

She took a step forward and leaned close to him, sliding the black card in her hand into his pocket.

She stared at him and asked, "Pei Huai, do you really like me....?"

"I don't like you." Pei Huai grabbed her by the waist and pinched her chin. "Su Ji, I love you."

Thousands of years ago, he was already her most devout follower.

He was already hers.

And in this life, he wanted to make her his.

**

On Friday, Dong Xiyou's Weibo's poll ended.

The results of the vote were out. Nicha Sonpashan was selected!

This time, Dong Xiyou was anxious.

She had promised Su Ji that she would get another celebrity to appear with her.

However, 90% of the netizens had voted for CEO Pei.

Dong Xiyou and Su Ji were classmates, but she was so nervous that she couldn't sleep a few nights before telling her the result.

Now, she had to contact CEO Pei, whom she had never met before, to discuss this matter.

Standing in front of the Pei Corporation, Dong Xiyou glanced at Su Ji's photo that she had clipped to her phone case.

Other people would put the God of Fortune, Guanyin Bodhisattva, and fox deity in the phone case.

She took a photo of Su Ji.

It was really effective.

Yesterday, she bought a bottle of milk and won three bottles for free.

When she opened the fourth bottle, she realized that she'd won a washing machine!

She heard that the other two interns who were competing with her had also invited heavyweight on-screen couples.

Besides, for Su Ji, she couldn't back down!

Half an hour later, Shen Mu knocked on the door of the CEO's office.

"Boss." Shen Mu walked around the desk and stood in front of Pei Huai. "A lady with the surname Dong is looking for you."

Pei Huai didn't look away from his document. "Tell her that I only see Ms. Su."

Shen Mu: "..."

His CEO had labeled himself as "Su Ji's private property".

Shen Mu said mysteriously, "Ms. Dong is working on 'Hello, Sunday'. She wants to invite you to participate in their best on-screen couple project this weekend."

Pei Huai had completely forgotten that he had once starred as a guest.

She looked at Shen Mu with a look that said, "are you crazy or am I crazy?"

"Reject it."

"Boss, don't you want to ask who your partner is first?" Shen Mu deliberately beat around the bush.

Pei Huai continued to focus on the contract and did not reply to him.

Shen Mu could only answer his own question. He leaned in front of the boss and said, word by word, "it's Miss. Su!"

As expected, Pei Huai paused.

Shen Mu immediately revealed a triumphant smile. He waited until the end, just to see his face when he heard the words "Ms. Su!"

However, he was only smug for a second when Pei Huai's cold gaze turned to him. "You think it's funny?"

Shen Mu immediately stood at attention, his fingers sticking to the seams of his pants. "Sorry!"

He connected the front desk to the CEO's landline and Pei Huai picked up the call.

Dong Xiyou heard CEO Pei's voice over the phone and felt an unbelievable sense of surprise.

However, the pretty and cute receptionist was not surprised at all. "Ms. Dong, we've already told you that you don't have to be nervous. The CEO will definitely agree to meet you!"

After all, it was related to Ms. Su!

Dong Xiyou was concise and comprehensive. She then professionally introduced the plan for the episode to CEO Pei. "...it was voted on by netizens. If you can participate, the audience will definitely respond very well. It will definitely have a positive effect on your business and the publicity of The Billions Stars!"

Pei Huai said, "that sounds good."

Dong Xiyou clutched her chest in excitement. Her plan had worked!

"But we'll be recording the program on Sunday night, which might take up to three to five hours of your time. I wonder if you're busy on Sunday?"

Pei Huai slowly looked at Shen Mu. "Am I busy on Sunday?"

Shen Mu immediately took out his phone and opened his planner. "You have a business meeting in the morning, a contract signing with CEO Wu in the afternoon, an international call in the evening, and two video meetings. That's all for now."

Pei Huai nodded slightly and said, "okay, I'm not busy. I'll be there."

Chapter 270 It's More Exciting to Come Secretly

Shen Mu: "..."

Just as he was about to leave to clear the boss' schedule, he remembered something. "Boss, your psychiatrist, Lin Shen, called this morning and said that you haven't contacted him for a long time. He doesn't know how you've been doing recently. If you have time, he would like to call you..."

...

"No need," Pei Huai said. "I've found the cause of the illness..."

**

On Saturday, the main cast of "The Billion Stars" went to Blue Whale for a script discussion.

Si Jingchuan had been waiting for news from the production team of "Hello, Sunday" for the past few days. However, he still did not get any answers after asking Fu Xiaofeng several times.

When he arrived at Blue Whale, he asked Han Junlei, "Director Han, why is there no news? Has the male guest who will be participating in the show been decided?"

"I think it's out..." Han Junlei was stunned for a while, then looked at Huang Huayu. "Did you say it was out yesterday?"

Although Huang Huayu was smiling, his words were as sharp as knives. "You didn't receive the news because you were not selected."

Xu Ni, who came in just in time, couldn't help but burst into laughter.

Si Jingchuan was stunned.

???

"No way," Si Jingchuan couldn't believe his ears. "I'm the male lead, but I'm not selected?"

Huang Huayu laughed again. "I was surprised at first too, but I heard it was true. You're not as popular as Sonpanshan."

"Sonpan..." Si Jingchuan exclaimed, "CEO Pei is selected??"

He paused for a moment. "But they can't really get CEO Pei to attend, right? Wouldn't they come to me instead?"

He didn't ask for a glorious win, he could be the backup!

Unfortunately, Huang Huayu spread his hands and said, "perhaps it's because CEO Pei had seen "Hello, Sunday" live before. They asked him and he agreed to it!"

Xu Ni patted Si Jingchuan's shoulder. With one hand in his pocket, he tilted his head and looked at Si Jingchuan in a carefree manner. "Stay at home this weekend and wait to see your boss on TV."

Si Jingchuan's mouth formed a wavy line. "..."

At the entrance of the meeting room, Fu Xiaofeng had just returned.

Fu Xiaofeng had come with him today to help him ask about the results.

At this moment, Fu Xiaofeng also received the news. When he saw Si Jingchuan's expression, he knew that he knew about it too!

He stopped the car and slowly moved closer to Si Jingchuan. He glanced at Zhou Xuefang in the distance and whispered, "to be honest, your popularity is dragged down by Shen Qianqian. In the plot, you were hesitating between her and Bai Yueguang. Now, the netizens are calling you a playboy..."

Si Jingchuan: "..."

Zhou Xuefang only found out about this matter after listening to the discussion with Assistant Director Huang.

It had only been a few months, and Su Ji was on "Hello, Sunday" again.

And this time, she was the main guest!

And with CEO Pei at that!

She felt that it was very strange and asked Han Junlei, "uncle, why did they only vote for the male guest? Why are they so sure about Su Ji?"

"Ah," Han Junlei said, "they didn't have a discussion with our crew. It seems like they went to Su Ji first..."

After that, the door of the meeting room was pushed open, and Su Ji arrived.

"Su Ji is here. You'll know better if you ask her directly."

As soon as she finished speaking, Su Ji's gaze fell on them.

Zhou Xuefang felt a little awkward. She was used to asking around behind people's backs and never liked to ask in person.

However, Su Ji had already heard her uncle's words. It would seem even more deliberate if she did not ask. So, she asked Su Ji the same thing.

Su Ji rubbed her chin. "The other day at our class gathering, Dong Xiyong told me that she was planning the weekend special of 'Hello, Sunday'. We had a talk and..."

Halfway through her sentence, she seemed to have suddenly thought of something. "Did you go that day?"

Zhou Xuefang's face turned green. "..."

It had already been a few days, and she only realized that she didn't attend the party?

However, this wasn't what made her even more worried.

Dong Xiyou was involved in "Hello, Sunday"?

Su Ji went to a party, and she actually got such a good opportunity.

So, if she had gone that day, Dong Xiyou might have asked her!

In the evening, the sixth episode of "The Billions Stars" was broadcast as scheduled.

This time, Su Ji was not trending, but her bracelet did.

#An antique bracelet from the sixth episode of "The Billions Stars" at the auction!#

#"The Billions Stars" 60 million antique bracelet, the crew is going all out!#

Xu Mingzhi didn't see the trending topic, but just by looking at the enlarged details of the bracelet on TV, she felt that it really looked like the one she saw at the auction.

However, there was a special effect added to the scene of the bracelet, so it was hard to tell.

"Baby, human technology is really amazing these days. The special effects are so real."

Su Ji turned the bracelet on her hand and looked at it under the sun. No one knew what she was thinking and she did not answer Xu Mingzhi.

In fact, it was not only Xu Mingzhi who thought so. Even Pei Xi, who watched this episode, also believed that the luster on the bracelet was created by technology.

At the auction, the big screen had also shown a close-up shot of the bracelet, which was even clearer than the one on TV. At that time, they had looked at it very carefully, but there was no strange luster on the bracelet.

At the end of the sixth episode, the marketing team added a special announcement.

It was the announcement of Su Ji and the mysterious male guest appearing on the variety show tomorrow.

The netizens were bursting with anticipation!

"I've just finished watching the exciting plot today, and the excitement will continue tomorrow!"

"Oh wait, it was even more exciting!"

The fan base for the other two groups of guests tomorrow was also super strong!

This time, the three interns had surpassed each other.

It was said that one of the interns had to wait for a full day each at the agencies of the on-screen couple in order to send them the invitation.

Their sincerity had touched the two artists.

The fans of “Hello, Sunday” almost blew up when they heard the news.

The growth of Su Ji’s fans was almost phenomenal, but she had only been popular for a few months.

In addition, even though Nicha Spnpashan had won the voting round, Dong Xiyong had not clearly told everyone whether he agreed.

Therefore, Su Ji’s power was weak at the moment. There were many fans who supported her on the official Weibo. However, compared to the other two groups of guests, she didn’t have much of an advantage.

It was still unknown who would win the most popular on-screen couple award in the livestream.

In the blink of an eye, the day arrived.

In the afternoon, Pei Huai drove Su Ji to the broadcasting station.

This was the second time the two of them had participated in “Hello, Sunday”, but their relationship had been upgraded from that of an employer and employee to that of a couple.

Although it was not made public.

But it was also exciting to come secretly.

In the evening primetime, in the broadcasting studio of the TV station, the staff were busy going back and forth.

All the guests were ready backstage. The entrance music sounded, and the anticipated “Hello, Sunday” special pre-New Year livestream was about to begin.
