Chapter 451: Pick Money Over Their Life

"These shows..." Xu Mingzhi said after Du Meilan finished her call, "if Pei Huai didn't go to protect my daughter, he wouldn't have gotten hurt."

...

Du Meilan said, "don't say that, in-law. It's good that he went. He's a man, and it's only right for him to protect her."

"Where are you going, Su Ji?"

Sonya's voice came from the TV, and the two ladies looked over at the same time.

Xu Mingzhi narrowed her eyes slightly. "I never liked this person."

Du Meilan looked at her. "Do you still remember what I mentioned before? My eldest son's ex-wife?"

Xu Mingzhi vaguely remembered it. She heard Du Meilan mention it when she went to the Pei family on New Year's Eve. At that time, she did not say anything and only shook her head. It was obvious that she was not very satisfied with her ex-daughter-in-law.

Du Meilan pointed to the TV. "It's her." Xu Mingzhi was silent for a second.

Xingxing was so cute and he was her child?

"Do you suspect her?" Du Meilan shook her head. "I don't think so. Although I don't like her, I've met her once before. She's not that vicious."

"People change..."

In terms of judging a person's character, no one was more perceptive than Xu Mingzhi. Even Su Ji admired her.

Du Meilan's expression turned cold.

In less than half an hour, Li Fang came into Duan Shengquan's office again.

"Director Duan, phone..."

"Who is it? I'm not picking it up!" Duan Shengquan rebelled. Unexpectedly, Li Fang said with trepidation, "it's the chief!"

Duan Shengquan's expression changed drastically!

It actually alerted the chief?

The call lasted for twenty minutes. When it ended, Duan Shengquan's face was pale like a ghost.

In the past, he was only afraid of receiving calls from two people. One was his wife, and the other was the chief.

But now, there was another one. It was Su Ji's mother, CEO Xu.

Duan Shengquan sent Li Fang away, closed the door, and called Old Zhou, who was overseas.

This time, his tone was a little stern. "Old Zhou, I thought you knew the limits. Why didn't you go look for those who went missing last night? Now that the entire Internet knows that CEO Pei's arm is seriously injured, how am I supposed to explain it? The chief scolded me so badly just now!"

On the other end of the phone, Old Zhou asked curiously, "the viewership has broken records since last night. Why would he scold you?"

Duan Shengquan was extremely worried. "The Pei family is putting pressure on him! They don't care about viewership!"

"Ah..." Old Zhou sighed and apologized. "I didn't think it through...it's my fault."

Duan Shengquan could not say anything else when he heard how sincere he sounded. "There's no point in saying anything else. CEO Pei is different from ordinary guests. You have to take extra care of him. By the way, you have to pay attention to his injuries. If anything happens, send him to the hospital quickly.

Don't delay for even a moment!"

"Don't worry. I won't make any more mistakes," Old Zhou said.

"Wait!" Before hanging up, Duan Shengquan thought of something else. "The chief also mentioned an active volcano? There is a volcano on the island? Why didn't they do any research before? What if the volcano really erupted?"

Old Zhou smiled. "Director Duan, you can't completely believe what the guests say. Don't look at how professional they seem on screen. It is part of the show. No matter how good they are, are they geologists? It's true that there are volcanoes, but I've investigated them in advance. They haven't erupted in the past hundred years, so there shouldn't be any problems."

"Didn't you see how brutal those survival shows are? If we don't add something interesting, how can we attract the netizens?"

What he said made sense. Duan Shengquan gave a few more instructions before hanging up.

Li Fang looked at him and entered the room to bring him tea. Duan Shengquan asked, "how's the search for a new female guest?"

Li Fang put down her teacup and said awkwardly, "Director Duan... the show is so popular that many wanted to join, but after today's livestream..."

? Duan Shengquan was anxious.

Li Fang said, "when they heard that there is a volcano on the island and that a guest was injured, they regretted their decision and did not dare to come..."

Duan Shengquan: "..."

"It's already been a few days. We can't delay this any longer." He slammed the table. "Don't waste your time on the famous celebrities. You can always find a newcomer who wants to be famous, right? Go to an art school to find someone. College students who pick money over their life are the easiest to fool!"

Li Fang said, "alright..."

Duan Shengquan looked at her shrewdly. "It's okay if they are not famous, but they must have a memorable face!"

Li Fang said, "understood!"

At noon on the island, the two of them returned.

"How was it?" Nan Miaomiao was anxious to know the result. She stopped what she was doing and went over.

Pei Huai also walked over and noticed the big backpack in Wang Yi's hand.

It was heavy.

Xiao Ken said, "it's okay if you can't find it. We'll go with you guys after lunch!"

Casar also comforted them. "The shrubland is too big. It's not easy to find them. Don't be discouraged."

Lu Shang said, "actually, there's no need to go in just for that. We have to go to the shrubland every day to collect wood. We can look for them while doing that."

Nan Miaomiao said, "don't come up with nonsensical ideas. What if the traitor destroys the evidence when we're not paying attention?"

Xiao Ken said, "Lu Shang is so protective of that person. I think you're suspicious."

Casar narrowed his eyes. "Could it be that Miaomiao did it and you want to protect her.."

When the others heard this, they all looked at Lu Shang.

Nan Miaomiao quickly looked away from him. "Heaven is my witness. I'm absolutely innocent! Roommate, I've always been very active in finding evidence!"

Su Ji glanced at her. "Indeed, you don't have that kind of brain."

Nan Miaomiao was initially very happy that her roommate believed her. Three seconds later, she reacted.

Her roommate seemed to be calling her stupid?

Lu Shang looked away from Nan Miaomiao and raised his hands as if he had admitted defeat. "I'll go with you in the afternoon!"

Actually, he really did want to protect her.

It was not the first time Nan Miaomiao had gone against Su Ji, and she had done it right in front of him.

Therefore, he was also worried that it was Nan Miaomiao who did it.

However, judging from Nan Miaomiao's reaction just now, it did not seem to be her.

However, there were only a few of them on the island, if it's not her...who could it be?

Sonya stood in the crowd and pretended to be relaxed.

However, at this moment, Su Ji said calmly, "stop guessing blindly.. We've found the evidence...

Chapter 452: The New Guest is Confirmed!

Everyone fell silent at the same time.

...

Sonya glared at Su Ji.

Crackling sounds came from behind Su Ji. Wang Yi opened his backpack and showed everyone the pebbles inside.

"They were all found hidden in the grass, quite deeply."

Everyone looked at the pile of pebbles and was completely speechless. If there was no evidence, then there was still a possibility that it was not caused by one of them.

But now that there was evidence, they had no choice but to believe it.

A vicious person was hiding among them.

Among the shocked and innocent faces, there was one who was pretending!

Li Shuguo said with uncertainty, "Su Ji, are you sure these are the pebbles you used to mark? Could it be a coincidence...

"No," Su Ji was very certain. "I picked the pebbles specifically. Every one of them has a special shape. There's no mistake."

Li Shuguo looked at the stones carefully. Indeed...

["F * ck! There really is a traitor!"]

["If I know who did it, I will not let them go!"]

["If you do such a thing, you'll be kicked out of the entertainment industry, right? Disgusting!"]

["Could it be scripted?"]

["The production team will be responsible for their injuries. It shouldn't be scripted."]

Ji Xi said, "we have evidence, but how do we know who it is?"

Su Ji zipped up her backpack and locked the bag of stones into her suitcase. "There's no rush. Once we leave the deserted island, we'll be able to verify the fingerDrints."

If Pei Huai had not been injured, she would not bother. But now that Pei Huai was injured because of this person, she would not let it go.

Sonya held back the trembling in her voice. "But it seemed to have rained heavily on the island last night. Are there still fingerprints?"

Su Ji smiled. "Fortunately, that person hid them deep under the grass, so the rain didn't get to them."

Sonya was on the verge of collapsing.

["Su Ji is ruthless! She won't give that person a quick death!"]

["That person must be so scared knowing that they will be exposed soon! This is the real punishment!"]

During lunch, Wang Yi observed everyone except Su Ji and Pei Huai, but he did not find anything unusual.

Well, most of them were actors. No matter how tormented their hearts were, they could hide it very well on the surface.

However, the truth would come out sooner or later.

Su Ji asked Pei Huai how his arm was, and he said that everything was fine and that he did not feel any pain. Su Ji did not believe him at all. In the end, she still checked his wound worriedly and bandaged it.

Pei Huai lowered his eyes and stared at her as she wrapped the bandages. ["Look at CEO Pei's eyes! I don't care! I am shipping them!"]

["This is clearly the gaze of a boss after discovering the potential of an employee. CEO Pei must be thinking, 'woman, treat me and get a raise!'"]

["Are you allergic to love?"]

When she was almost done treating her wound, Su Ji looked up and met Pei Huai's gaze.

There was a smile on his face.

"You seem to be quite happy that you're injured?"

Pei Huai lowered his voice. "If I didn't get hurt once, how would I know that you cared so much about me?" su Ji:

In the end, she applied more force when she tied the gauze.

Pei Huai hissed.

It just so happened that Nan Miaomiao was cleaning the dining area today, and Lu Shang offered to help her.

Nan Miaomiao liked to laze around, so she would not refuse anyone who wanted to help.

As she cleaned, she sized up Su Ji and Pei Huai until Lu Shang's body blocked her line of sight. At the same time, he also blocked the drone behind her.

Nan Miaomiao was shrouded in his shadow.

"What?" She asked with a frown.

Lu Shang wanted to confirm one thing with her. "You really didn't do it?"

"???" Nan Miaomiao said, "am I that kind of person in your heart?"

Lu Shang said, "I don't care who you are..."

Nan Miaomiao was stunned by his sudden confession. Her face was a little red and she was huffing. "I have a bottom line too, okay? This is a matter of life and death!"

Lu Shang also felt that it was not her, so he just wanted to confirm.

If she really did it, then he would have to protect her even if it was against his moral principles.

"That's good." Lu Shang heaved a sigh of relief. "Then have you ever thought who could it be?"

Nan Miaomiao had never thought about this question. She knew it wasn't her, and she had a clear conscience.

Now that Lu Shang mentioned it, she began to think.

No one seemed like they could do something like that.

Thinking about it...she was the biggest suspect!

Sonya did a lot of work in the afternoon to distract herself.

If not for that, she would have been unable to stop herself from looking at Su Ji's suitcase.

Later, Su Ji threw the suitcase back into Pei Huai's tent and asked him to take care of it.

Li Shuguo saw that Sonya was so tired that she was covered in sweat. He felt sorry for her. "This is all a man's work. Go and rest for a while."

The others agreed, so Sonya didn't insist. She wiped the sweat off her forehead and returned to the camp.

Her mind was in a mess. Perhaps out of guilt, she sent a message.

The message was sent to Pei Song.

["Do you know that your brother is injured? We suspect that someone on the island is targeting him. Do you want to take him out of the island for treatment?"]

After sending the message, she pressed her phone against her chest and waited for a reply.

After waiting for a long time, her phone suddenly vibrated. She quickly picked it up to take a look.

Pei Song ignored her question.

[“What do you need?”]

Sonya scanned the camp.

[“We need blankets and medical supplies now.”]

[“Got it.”]

Sonya followed up with a message.

[“Why are you asking this?”]

But there was no reply.

Sonya stared at the conversation between the two of them and was a little uncertain.

Pei Song was...concerned about her?

Meanwhile, on the Pei family's side, Pei Song glanced at the last message from Sonya. He put away his phone and put on his white coat.

“I asked.”

“Wait.” Pei Qingshen used his walking stick to block his way. “Since you know what's missing, why don't you go help prepare?”

“Me?” Pei Song casually buttoned his white coat. “Stop messing around. I still have to go to Huichun Hall to work.”

“How can you talk like that?” Pei Qingshen glared at him. “I'm messing around? You know what supplies to get. Zhuzhu will be going to the island. The young lady is studying alone in A City without anyone to look out for her. Hurry up and accompany her to get some supplies.. Pei Huai and Su Ji would need them too!”

Chapter 453: Embarrassed

Under the old man's coercion and threats, Pei Song changed out of his white coat and took his car key.

...

Pei Qingshen said, “I'll get Zhuzhu to wait at the entrance of her school. It's Kyokushin, the school your ex-wife used to go to. You can just go pick her up.

Pei Song: “...”

“The matter involving Pei Huai hasn't been settled yet and you're sending another one there.” Pei Song opened the car door and got in.

Pei Qingshen stood outside the car with his walking stick and lied through his teeth. “Zhuzhu was chosen by the production team. What does it have to do with me?”

Pei Song smiled evilly. “There are so many students in Kyokushin. Why would they pick her?”

“Zhuzhu is pretty.”

“Right now, the team is most afraid of you. You can send whoever you want in with just a word.”

Pei Qingshen knew that he could not hide it from him. He looked at him earnestly. “Anyway, they are looking for a new guest. What if they send someone with ill intentions? I don’t worry about Zhuzhu. She’s smart and hardworking, and she has a good relationship with me.”

Pei Song’s car lit up. “You’re really shrewd.”

“Of course...” Pei Qingshen chased after the car, “brat, what did you say?”

Forty minutes later, Cao Zhuzhu saw Pei Song in the car surrounded by students at the school gate.

The weather in A City was getting warmer. Cao Zhuzhu had changed out of her winter clothes. Today, she was wearing a loose knitted sweater and slim fit light-colored jeans.

The row of rings on her ear was still shining.

She bought this at a low price from Rainbow Mall, a shopping paradise at the entrance of the school. However, when she wore them, they looked luxurious.

Pei Song was not having an easy time. There were many luxury cars in Kyokushin, but even so, Pei Song’s sports car still attracted the students.

It was break time, and the students were too enthusiastic. Pei Song’s car was surrounded, and he was in a predicament.

Although he was wearing sunglasses, one could tell that he was gradually losing patience.

Cao Zhuzhu was introduced by Old Master Pei to a good opportunity to earn money today.

Cao Zhuzhu was the only girl in that school who cared about money more than her life.

Pei Qingshen said that he would send someone to bring her to buy some supplies, but he did not say who he would send.

She saw Pei Song, Cao Zhuzhu did not immediately go forward.

“Ah? Zhuzhu? Are you going to buy some stuff before joining Cohabitation?”

“Zhuzhu is really lucky to have the chance to go on the show. Don’t forget us when you become popular in the future.”

Cao Zhuzhu glanced sideways. It was her three roommates.

She was usually not the type to get along with her roommates in the dormitory.

Firstly, she did not like to make friends. It was a waste of time and money. Secondly, her three roommates were all the daughters of CEOs. The three of them formed a small group on the first day they were assigned to the same dormitory. Cao Zhuzhu was not their kind of person.

It was rare for them to take the initiative to greet Cao Zhuzhu.

It was because she was chosen to join “Cohabitation”.

Cao Zhuzhu withdrew her gaze indifferently, not intending to reply to them.

The three of them became even more interested.

“Aiyo, actually, I also received the news yesterday that the team from Cohabitation was going to choose a new guest. I originally wanted my dad to help me get in, but did you see what happened today?”

“I’ve seen it! There was actually a volcano on the island! Seeing CEO Pei get hurt makes my heart clench!”

“Let’s not talk about it anymore. If we scare Zhuzhu any further, she wouldn’t go. Actually, if she can come back alive, this is indeed the best opportunity to become famous.”

Cao Zhuzhu dug her ears. “It’s so noisy.”

There were too many people at the school gate and it was noisy. Her three roommates did not hear what she said clearly.

“Where are you going shopping?” “It must be the Rainbow Mall again.” The few of them laughed.

At this moment, the car honked twice.

The students in front of her made way for her, and Cao Zhuzhu’s roommates also noticed it.

Their eyes immediately sparkled.

“Wow, Koenigseg’s latest model this year, right? This is the first time I’ve seen a live one. No wonder my brother sleeps with the magazine of this car every day.”

“The guy in the car is so handsome! One look and you can tell that he’s not a student of our school. He’s so mature and charming!”

The three of them immediately stopped taunting Cao Zhuzhu and focused on the handsome guy in the sports car. A rich and sophisticated man like him was definitely a heavenly dish for the daughters of CEOs.

They watched as the car slowly cut through the crowd of students, drove toward them, and stopped beside them.

The students’ gazes followed it, and the three of them stomped their feet excitedly.

“Get in the car.” The man’s deep and magnetic voice sounded. The three of them squeezed each other. The next second, a battle to take the front passenger seat was about to break out, but Pei Song looked at Cao Zhuzhu. “Get in the car, Ms. Cao.”

The three people blocking the front passenger seat paused in an extremely awkward position at the same time. After three seconds, they turned back to look at Cao Zhuzhu at the same time.

Their eyes were filled with disbelief.

Cao Zhuzhu, that poor student, actually knew such a handsome rich man?

The surrounding students were all envious.

Everyone's burning gazes were on Cao Zhuzhu. She felt embarrassed as she was used to keeping a low-profile.

Pei Song, on the other hand, was used to being high-profile. He did not think much of it. He stretched his arm out of the car and knocked on the door with his knuckles. "You are blocking the door."

He sounded like a playboy.

Only then did the three of them come back to their senses and move away with blushing faces. Cao Zhuzhu was not wearing a hat today, so she covered her face with her hands and got into the car.

Pei Song glanced at her and waited for her to fasten her seatbelt. He stepped on the accelerator and the car sped away.

The two of them didn't speak much in the car, not even exchanging pleasantries. Cao Zhuzhu also didn't ask why he came.

But the atmosphere was not awkward.

Pei Song had already asked the manager of Huichun Hall to prepare the medical supplies. He was here to complete his grandfather's request and send Cao Zhuzhu to buy supplies.

Pei Song asked her where she wanted to go. Cao Zhuzhu said, "Rainbow Mall."

Pei Song was silent for a long time. He had never heard of such a shopping mall in A City and thought it was newly opened.

Cao Zhuzhu directed the way while Pei Song drove.

The place was near the school, only a five-minute drive away. Cao Zhuzhu pointed ahead. "The parking lot is over there."

Pei Song looked over. It was an old five-story building.

Although it was old, there were many people.

The crowd dragged their suitcases in and out. The hard plastic curtain at the gate had turned yellow due to aging. Most of the laughing students went to the top floor to buy the popular hot and sour noodles. Outside the building, there were a few large, colorful words.

"Rainbow Mall"

"A shopping paradise for students!" Pei Song:

Chapter 454: Treat Me to a Meal, Ms. Cao

The second master of the Pei family had his eyes opened today.

...

When he first got together with Sonya, he often came to pick her up from school.

Sonya grew up in an ordinary family, but she would never come to such a place to buy things.

She was the type who would rather save up for a few months' living expenses to buy her favorite brand.

Pei Song could not bear to see her scrimp and save, so he was the one who bought everything for her.

He was very generous to his woman, and at that time, he really liked Sonya. He would buy her a new bag or a set of cosmetics as soon as they came out.

When Sonya couldn't use them all, she would give them to her roommates.

Therefore, Sonya was very popular in school over the past few years, especially among her classmates.

In Pei Song's mind, girls should buy whatever they want and be pampered. He had never seen someone like Cao Zhuzhu.

"Are you sure you want to come here?" Pei Song looked at her.

Cao Zhuzhu glanced at the LCD screen in the distance. "The parking lot is full. Please stop by the roadside. The traffic police here usually don't give a fine."

Pei Song: '

There were already many cars parked by the roadside, leaving only a small empty space in the middle. The man was skilled in driving and reversed the car into it.

The people passing by basically had to stretch their heads out to take a few glances at Pei Song's luxury car.

They had never seen such a car parked near Rainbow Mall.

Under normal circumstances, the traffic police did not care, so there were many people parking by the roadside. However, as soon as Pei Song and Cao Zhuzhu entered, the traffic police came on a motorcycle.

The young man, who was passionate about his work, looked at the row of illegal cars by the roadside and gave out fines.

The young officer's eyes were filled with hearts as he stuck the fine to Pei Song's car.

What a beautiful car!

He took off the strip that he had just pasted, adjusted the position and pasted it again!

He must paste it straight on such a beautiful car!

There were many people in the Rainbow Mall. The merchants were all in a hurry. When they walked past them, Pei Song pulled Cao Zhuzhu to his side.

Later, when he saw that there were too many people, he switched sides with Cao Zhuzhu.

It's not that he liked her, but he was a gentleman.

Cao Zhuzhu glanced at him, then looked away before Pei Song looked at her, “the blankets and whatnot are on the fourth floor. Let’s take the elevator.” With that, she led him to the escalator.

Seven or eight people instantly rushed into the small space in the elevator. The incandescent light above their heads flashed twice. Pei Song pulled Cao Zhuzhu to the wall and stood beside her, separating her from the others.

Others were here to shop, but Pei Song felt like he was in an escape room.

As the elevator went up, the people started chatting. They talked about what they wanted to buy later or which shops had a discount today.

CEO Pei felt that he should say something.

“I wonder if you know that Old Master Pei sent you to the island because he wants you to take care of his future granddaughter-in-law...”

“Yes.”

Pei Song said, “I hope you don’t mind. I’ll pay for everything today. The conditions on the island are harsh, so please be careful, Ms. Cao.”

“Why would I mind?” Cao Zhuzhu really did not understand. Old Master Pei had introduced her to such a lucrative job. Besides, she liked that girl.

Moreover, although the island was dangerous, there were still many newcomers who were fighting for this new opportunity. If she had not repaired Old Master Pei’s lute several times, she believed that he would not have given her such a good opportunity.

“Please tell Old Master Pei that I will give him a 20% discount when I repair the lute for him next time.”

Pei Song raised his eyebrows slightly. He could not see any pretense on her face, which made him relax.

However, if it was Sonya, even if she said she didn’t care, she would have other thoughts.

She was very sensitive.

“Pa! ”

At this moment, a sound suddenly rang out from above.

The lights, which were flickering since they entered, were completely out, and the elevator went dark.

The passengers were not surprised by this and were still chatting. However, because the surroundings had turned dark, they subconsciously lowered their voices.

Pei Song looked at Cao Zhuzhu. She was not afraid at all. Her eyes were calm as she looked at the elevator button in front of her that was emitting a faint blue light.

From the side, her eyelashes were curled and long, like a black butterfly that occasionally flapped its wings.

She was tall, with a small face and very fair skin.

The dark environment enhances other senses, and Pei Song could not hear the noise of the passengers behind him at that moment.

He looked at Cao Zhuzhu. When the elevator reached the fourth floor, the door opened and the light from outside shone in again. Cao Zhuzhu got off the elevator. However, at this moment, Pei Song, for some unknown reason, reached out and grabbed her wrist to pull her back inside.

He closed the elevator door and pressed the button for the first floor again. Cao Zhuzhu turned around to look at him.

“I’ll take you somewhere else.”

The environment here was too bad.

Cao Zhuzhu saw a neat sticker on the windshield when they got back to the car. She cursed her luck. “I’ll pay for that.”

Pei Song removed the ticket and placed it in the storage box next to the center console. “Just treat me to a meal, Ms. Cao.”

Cao Zhuzhu paused for a few seconds and her eyes flashed. “Sure.”

At the deserted island, another day passed in the blink of an eye.

This morning, when the guests were having breakfast, the drone that was suddenly made a sound.

It was a mechanical female voice. Her voice was beautiful, but it was emotionless.

The team had left them to their own devices for a few days. When the guests gradually adapted to the environment, the team reappeared.

The mechanical female voice recounted what happened to them from the moment they arrived on the island. She said that the plan malfunctioned and they had to do an emergency landing. She also confirmed that an active volcano was detected on the island reminding the guests to escape as soon as possible, and also listed out all the supplies they had so far.

The audience was immersed in the storytelling, but the guests who were in danger did not buy it at all.

Casar said, “they sent us here even though they knew. That’s too much.”

Xiao Ken said, “this reality show is so hardcore.”

Nan Miaomiao said, “when we leave, we must get Director Duan to give us an explanation!”

Su Ji did not participate in the discussion. She had already finished eating and was now changing Pei Huai’s dressing.

The drones did not transmit audio. The guests said that the netizens could not hear them and thought that they were discussing ways to escape from the deserted island.

After counting all the supplies, the drone made an announcement.

“At noon today, there will be a new guest joining everyone.. We hope that this person will help you escape from the deserted island!”

Chapter 455: The New Guest

“The new guest will also bring a suitcase sponsored by XXX. What kind of supplies would they bring?”

...

“The team has prepared a night of celebration for everyone after escaping the deserted island. It’s the most luxurious place with bedrooms that you haven’t seen in a long time, and a gourmet feast. Please don’t be discouraged and continue to work hard!”

After the announcement, the drone stopped making any noise and continued to act as a camera, hovering around them.

“As expected,” Lu Shang said. “CEO Pei is here, so it’ll definitely be a female guest.”

Nan Miaomiao opened her eyes and looked at him. “I hope it’s a pretty girl-” Lu Shang: .

Jiang Cuiqin smiled bitterly. “I just hope that her culinary skills are good.”

Wang Yi said, “one more person means more labor force.”

“Yes,” Xiao Ken said. “It doesn’t matter what she looks like. It is more important that she is willing to work.”

“Sonya, what kind of guest do you want to see?”

“Sonya?”

It was only when Nan Miaomiao called out to Sonya for the second time that Sonya snapped back to reality.

“I...” Sonya said, “...don’t really have an opinion.”

Nan Miaomiao felt that she was acting a little weird. She wondered if it was because she had been neglecting her recently.

Su Ji put away the toolbox unhurriedly. Her tone was relaxed but piercing. “Were you looking at CEO Pei’s tent just now?” Pei Huai also looked at Sonya.

Sonya’s palms sweated almost instantly. “Tent?”

She put on her best acting skills and looked in the direction of the tent. “I’m looking at the wood that you’ve collected. I thought that you’ve saved a lot these days. We should be able to start building ships, right?”

Su Ji’s lips curled up. “That’s what I thought. We are planning to build a ship today. There’s a volcano on the island, so we have to speed up and get out as soon as possible.”

Sonya pursed her lips. “Yeah...”

After breakfast, everyone started working.

They did not want to stay in this place for another day.

The men began to shape the wood while Su Ji drew the hull design on the beach.

It was her improved version.

The wood collected so far could be used to make the frame at the bottom of the ship, so they could already start work. However, Su Ji still wanted to confirm if there was a better design. Her current blueprint could accommodate 12 people, including the new guest who was arriving at noon.

However, she needed a lot of wood. The amount they had collected so far was only about one-eighth of the total amount needed.

It was a large project, and the time required would also be longer.

Pei Huai stood next to Su Ji and looked at the huge drawing on the ground.

The drone hovered above them.

["Su Ji: I'm being monitored by the boss."]

["Su Ji: The boss is spying on me. I need to hurry!"]

In the end, perhaps it was the power of the chat or Pei Huai's burning gaze, Su Ji finally realized it. She squatted on the ground and looked at him with a frown. "You think there's a problem?"

"No," Pei Huai replied almost instantly.

["Why do I feel like CEO Pei sounds a little scared when he answers?"]

Hahahaha!"]

["Don't be a coward, CEO Pei. You're the boss!"]

Su Ji retracted her gaze and continued to look at her blueprint.

Pei Huai had already discovered the problem. His girlfriend's blueprint was perfect, but the reason why it required a large amount of wood was mainly because of the way the wood was laid out.

However, he glanced at the drone that was haunting him. He was afraid that his girlfriend would feel embarrassed if he pointed it out to her face, but he really wanted to help her.

He coughed lightly and reminded her tactfully, "the pattern on the deck is very beautiful." "Oh, as long as you like it."

Pei Huai: '

After a few seconds of silence, he spoke again, "it's...a little too neat...it might be more beautiful if it could be interlaced..."

"Don't you have OCD? You don't like it neat?"

"Sometimes, there's beauty in interlacing too..."

“Interlace...”

The dots in Su Ji’s mind suddenly connected, and a lightbulb lit up!

She snapped her fingers. “I know!”

So this was the problem!

If the wood was spread out and staggered, it could make full use of different lengths of wood and avoid cutting, so the total amount of wood needed to be used would be greatly reduced.

Su Ji quickly modified the design.

Wang Yi came over to take a look and asked Su Ji why she changed it like this. Su Ji explained the secret behind it. Wang Yi touched his eyebrows. “A very clever method.”

[“Wow! Su Ji is too awesome!”]

[“So professional! Awesome!”]

Pei Huai put one hand into his trousers pocket and turned to leave.. The corners of his lips curled up into a smile, hiding his achievement.

After the final design was confirmed, the next step was to work hard! Jiang Cuiqin led the women to process the vine fibers and hemp rope.

It was used to tie up the wood.

She gave all the women a pair of gloves. While pursuing efficiency, she also had to protect her delicate hands. She was indeed exquisite.

The men’s job was to tie up the wood and build it under Su Ji’s command. Casar seemed to have thought of something. He asked Su Ji, “girl, Pei Huai, he...”

“He hasn’t recovered yet. He can’t do it.”

However, before Casar could finish his sentence, Su Ji already refused.

Casar was speechless.

He just wanted to ask how the kid was recovering...

Why did she have to shut him up like that?

With teamwork, the progress was very fast.

In just one morning, the basic structure could be seen.

Sonya rubbed the hemp rope and became more and more nervous.

The faster they left the island, the faster the evidence would be sent to the police.

She had to think of a way...

Nan Miaomiao couldn't help but send a long message to Director Duan on WeChat in the morning.

Now that she finally received a reply, she placed her phone on her lap and looked at it while rubbing the hemp rope.

Duan Shengquan replied with a long comforting message. After Nan Miaomiao finished reading it, her angry expression gradually eased. She turned to Sonya and said, "Sonya, Director Duan said that Second Master Pei also talked to him. He even suggested that the production team pay special attention to the women's needs."

After saying that, she raised her eyebrows at Sonya. "Seeing that you've suffered so much on the island, someone is anxious..."

Sonya recalled the short exchange in the text message and her heart beat faster. "It might not be for me. I think it's more likely for Su Ji..."

"How is that possible?" Nan Miaomiao was very sure. "CEO Pei is taking care of my roommate. It must be for you."

Sonya didn't say anything else because she couldn't think of a second reason.

Then, at this moment, a helicopter landed not far away, causing a gust of wind. The new guest had arrived..

Chapter 456: Brutally Killed

The guests stopped what they were doing and surrounded the open space below the helicopter.

...

With the previous experience of the yacht, the helicopter was especially careful this time. It took less than five minutes from the time the new guest was put down to the time it took off again. It was swift and efficient.

In order to match the story line narrated by the drone, the new guest wore clothes specially prepared by Li Fang.

She was wearing a pair of military pants with camouflage patterns and a tight military green vest. Her long hair was tied into a ponytail. When she bent down to tie her shoelaces with her back facing the other guests, the ponytail fell in front of her, revealing her long and slim neck.

She was hot. Xiao Ken whistled.

Su Ji could recognize who the new guest was just by looking at her small waist.

Then, the second minute she was starting, a large hand covered her eyes.

"If you keep looking, I'll ask the director to send her back," Pei Huai warned as he leaned closer to her ear.

It was usually the girlfriends who prevented their boyfriends from looking at other girls. But it was the opposite for them.

Nan Miaomiao glanced at them. It was the first time she and Pei Huai were on the same side.

What was there to see?

Wasn't it just a waist?

She had to be thinner!

By the time Su Ji pushed the man's hand away, Cao Zhuzhu had already tied her shoelaces and turned around.

Su Ji mouthed to Pei Huai, "now you have to compensate me."

Pei Huai said, "I'll show you when we get back to the tent." Su Ji :

When Pei Huai said this, his expression was very gentlemanly.

"My name is Cao Zhuzhu, a third-year graduate from Kyukushin Art School."

When Cao Zhuzhu introduced herself, the audience was all staring at her face.

["Wow wow wow! She is so beautiful! Her piercings gave her personality."]

["Not only is she beautiful, but her figure is amazing! I suddenly understand why all scumbags liked hot women!"]

["I'm really impressed by Kyokushin's quality!"]

["Can I get in if I get in?"]

As expected, Cao Zhuzhu gained a large number of fans the first time she appeared in public.

Nan Miaomiao looked at Cao Zhuzhu's face for a long time. "Sonya, why do I feel that this little vixen looks a little familiar?" Sonya's eyes never left Cao Zhuzhu since she saw her.

How could it be her...

Why was it her?

Nan Miaomiao only had some impression of Cao Zhuzhu's devilish face after what happened at the Lute Association last time. As for Sonya, Cao Zhuzhu's face had long been firmly imprinted in her heart!

Cao Zhuzhu, the woman who tried to get close to her son in order to please Pei Song!

Sonya's long eyelashes fluttered a few times quickly. She recalled the WeChat message Pei Song sent her yesterday and the matter of Director Duan taking special care of the female guest.

It couldn't be for Cao Zhuzhu!

However, Cao Zhuzhu, as a newcomer who hadn't even debuted, was actually able to join such a popular top-rated variety show. It seemed even more unbelievable.

“Ms. Jiang, Mr. Li, CEO Pei, Su Ji, Mr. Casar...” Cao Zhuzhu greeted them one by one.

The guests also responded enthusiastically.

“Hello Zhuzhu,” Jiang Cuiqin had gone to the Lute Association to listen to Cao Zhuzhu play a few times. She liked it very much. “Old Li, I know her. When we get out of the island, you must listen to her play the lute.”

Li Shuguo had always liked folk music. When he heard this, he immediately went forward. “In that case, then I must!”

Most of them already knew her, so the atmosphere gradually became warm.

Cao Zhuzhu was beautiful enough that even Casar and Xiao Ken, who were usually merciless, took care of her.

Su Ji curled her index finger slightly and flicked the little ring on Cao Zhuzhu’s ear bone. Cao Zhuzhu smiled seductively.

The two beauties stood there and teased each other. The netizens were pleased to see them!

[“When they smile, I smile along for some reason. What kind of illness is this?”

[“Director Wang of City B Mental Hospital: How long has this situation been going on?”]

[“So Zhuzhu is Su Ji’s woman. Who do you like more?”]

[“Two hundred-dollar bills fell to the ground. Which one do you want me to pick up?”]

Nan Miaomiao squatted on the ground and drew circles, cursing the vixen.

Cao Zhuzhu was hungry. She didn’t even open her suitcase when she arrived and had lunch first.

She ate two big bowls of the island’s specialty grains, but her stomach still remained flat.

Ji Xi was envious.

It was good to be young. One was not afraid of getting fat even if they ate too much.

Sonya gave Cao Zhuzhu two skewers of roasted rabbit head.

“Do you dare to eat rabbit heads?” she asked.

She and Nan Miaomiao had never eaten rabbit meat before, let alone rabbit heads. But after coming to the island, they had eaten too many strange things. In comparison, rabbits were nothing.

[“New Guest: The rabbit is so cute, how can you eat it!”]

[“If you don’t want to eat the rabbit, you have to eat the python. Choose one, hahahaha!”]

The chat was teasing her, but Cao Zhuzhu raised her hand to take it and took a bite.

The rabbit’s head split in half from the middle of its skull.

The guests: ‘

Cao Zhuzhu finished chewing on the rabbit's head and spat out a clean rabbit skull..

"I ate sixteen rabbit heads last night, and now I'm craving them. I didn't expect there to be so much delicious food on your island."

The guests looked at her, and the corners of their mouths twitched.

They wanted to say "eat more if it's delicious" but they couldn't speak.

["News Flash: Last night, sixteen rabbits were brutally killed near Kyokushin Art School in City A. The rabbit's head was bitten off completely!"]

Su Ji chewed on the rabbit leg and slowly looked at Cao Zhuzhu.

This woman was so charming.

"However..." After Cao Zhuzhu finished eating the two rabbit heads, she had a small opinion. "The rabbit is a little thin. After we catch it, we should keep it for a few days before killing it."

["Bunny: That's too much!"]

["There will be a livestock industry on the island!"]

Jiang Cuiqin nodded. "It seems like you have done some research on food." Su Ji was enlightened. She punched her left palm with her right fist. "Good idea!"

During lunch, everyone's conversation revolved around Cao Zhuzhu.

Sonya didn't know what she was feeling.

After that, she left early and walked to Cao Zhuzhu's luggage. "Zhuzhu, what supplies did you bring? Can you show us?"

Cao Zhuzhu took two big mouthfuls of rice. "Oh, open it. There's no password."

Sonya smiled faintly. "Alright."

With a bang, the suitcase bounced open.

Sonya's pupils constricted when she saw the supplies inside.

It was exactly what she told Pei Song back then.

Medical supplies, blankets, and other daily necessities!

Chapter 457: Reunion of Old Friends

"Zhuzhu, how do you know that we need these?"

...

"Are those blankets for us?"

Cao Zhuzhu said yes. She only had a few personal belongings.

The soft blankets were compressed and didn't take up much space, so she brought a lot of them.

Su Ji also saw the medical gauze she needed.

The guests were all very happy to receive new supplies. Only Sonya could not smile at all.

So, Pei Song asked her for Cao Zhuzhu.

He asked Director Duan to take special care of the women because of Cao Zhuzhu..

At this moment, Su Ji, who was casually scrolling through her Moments, noticed a rather interesting update. It was posted last night in City A.

Pei Song sent it.

There were no words, only a photo.

The camera focused on a table at a food stall outside the school. There were dozens of skewers and two bottles of beer. In the center of the camera was a long silver metal plate with about a dozen rabbit heads that were gnawed on. In the opposite corner, two long and fair legs were resting under the table. Only a shadow could be seen.

As the owner of Huichun Hall, he had never posted photos of cancer-causing junk food.

Even if Pei Xingxing threw a tantrum and rolled on the ground, his father would not bring him there.

Su Ji counted the rabbit heads on the plate and asked Cao Zhuzhu, "did you just say that you ate more than ten rabbit heads last night?"

Cao Zhuzhu replied, "sixteen."

Su Ji smiled.

Cao Zhuzhu didn't have Pei Song's WeChat, so she couldn't see his post.

However, she remembered how many she ate because there was a promotion at the food stall yesterday. There were four rabbit heads per serving. It was a buy one get one free promotion. She asked for two servings, and together with the free ones, there were exactly sixteen.

Last night, she had promised to treat Pei Song to a meal to compensate for the 200 yuan fine for illegal parking.

She didn't go back on her word.

After she finished shopping, Pei Song sent her back to school and she brought him to the food stall that she often went to.

She ordered her favorite rabbit head, skewers, and two bottles of beer. After the bottles were opened, Pei Song remembered that he was driving. Cao Zhuzhu finished them alone, so it was not a waste.

In the beginning, Pei Song watched her eat. From time to time, he would take out his phone as if he was busy with work. Later, she forced him to try one and he realized that it was good. However, when he wanted to ask for more, Cao Zhuzhu asked for the bill.

When she ordered, it was exactly 200 yuan. She did not let Pei Song order any more.

Sonya watched the exchange of glances between Su Ji and Cao Zhuzhu, and her tightly clenched hands could not help but tremble. A strong sourness surged up her throat, bringing with it the smell of blood.

In the afternoon, Cao Zhuzhu joined the group on the deserted island. She did not need to adapt at all.

Because there were more people, the division of labor became more detailed.

Su Ji was still building the ship. Pei Huai used his uninjured arm to clean.

He mainly cleaned the tent and dining area. These were the two areas that Su Ji had been staying in the most recently.

He cleaned very carefully. First, he sprayed alcohol, then wiped it with a wet tissue. He did not miss any corner. On the dusty island, he actually produced two squeaky clean areas.

Orphie said that she wanted to help, but he said that he didn't need it, mainly because he didn't trust her.

["If CEO Pei goes bankrupt one day, he could definitely become a top-notch housekeeper!"]

["Paradise for a person with OCD!"]

["It's okay if he's a germaphobe, as long as he's willing to do the housework himself!!"]

A gust of wind blew across the island, and the tent that had just been cleaned was covered with a layer of soil.

Pei Huai was calm.

If it's dirty, wipe it again!

The women's work was divided into two groups.

They made a lot of hemp ropes in the morning, so only Sonya and Nan Miaomiao were left to continue in the afternoon.

Jiang Cuiqin, Ji Xi, and Cao Zhuzhu were responsible for collecting food.

There were now a total of twelve guests, and the food that needed to be prepared was even more.

Wang Yi's beast traps were placed at several points in the bushes. When they collected food, they would also check them. If they caught any small animals, they would take them back.

In the past, Jiang Cuiqin and Ji Xi did not dare to do this job, but it was great that Cao Zhuzhu was here today. She was not afraid at all.

"Ah! Ms. Ji Xi, give me the stick!" "Zhuzhu, be careful!"

“It’s about to break free!”

The calm jungle suddenly burst into a commotion.

Su Ji and the others put down their work and rushed over.

The sound came from the trap on the west side.

Cao Zhuzhu did not even blink.

The trap had caught the furry tail of a big brown bear!!

The big brown bear was taller than a person. It was the small bear of the two bears that Su Ji and Pei Huai had chased away from the cave last time.

That night when they escaped from the cave, the small bear and its big brother got separated.

Small Bear was useless. Without his big brother’s protection, he couldn’t even find food. His injuries from last time hadn’t recovered yet. Today, he wanted to dig out a bee nest on the treeh, but he found that it was an abandoned nest with only a little expired honey in it.

Small Bear was so angry that he sat on the ground. However, he was sitting right in front of the trap, Its’ ball-shaped tail was caught by the trap, and he was crying in pain!

At this moment, it was baring its teeth at Cao Zhuzhu and the others as a warning. It clumsily turned to the back and used its two big claws to reach for the animal trap on its tail.

In fact, with its strength, it could easily pull open any animal trap, but its arms were short, so it could not reach it.

This was also Cao Zhuzhu’s first time seeing a wild bear with her own eyes. It was indeed different from the ones in the zoo.

She protected Jiang Cuiqin and Ji Xi behind her and held the stick in front of her. She didn’t dare to act rashly, but she didn’t want to retreat either.

After all, this bear looked...delicious.

If they were frugal, they could eat it for a few days!

Small Bear used his strength, and it was sweating. Finally, with a strong push, his sharp claws hooked onto the trap.

Victory was in its grasp. In the next second, it turned around and wagged its tongue at the three women in front of it, revealing a sinister expression.

The first thing it would do after it broke free was to eat them!

The muscles of the small bear’s arms bulged, and a steady stream of strength was transmitted to its claws that grabbed the beast trap.

The bear’s expression gradually became ferocious, and the mouth of the trap slowly parted.

“It’s breaking free. Let’s go!”

“Although bear meat is delicious, we can’t risk our lives!”

Although Cao Zhuzhu didn’t want to, there was no choice. She turned around and prepared to leave.

“What happened?”

At this moment, Su Ji’s cold voice came from the forest.

The small bear, who was about to break free, paused.

As it turned around, it saw Su Ji’s face appear not far away. It loosened its paws, and the mouth of the trap closed onto its tail again.

“Roar-

Chapter 458: CEO Pei Took Her to Into the Woods

Seeing Su Ji, the small bear instantly gave up.

Half an hour later, he was taken to the camp.

r

Two hours later, the men used the remaining wood to erect a fence around Small Bear.

He sat in the middle, staring at the humans busy around him. He scratched his swollen belly caused by Su Ji’s kick.

Pei Huai pointed at Casar. “Make a door here.”

Casar wanted to curse at him, but he thought about the project he had his eyes on and endured it.

The door was fixed and he patted it. “Are you satisfied, master?”

Pei Huai glanced at Su Ji. “If she’s satisfied, then I’m satisfied.”

[“Master, something’s wrong with you!”]

[“Focus! Why is there a bear?”]

[“It is obviously not a human wearing a bear suit!”]

Su Ji looked over. “I’m satisfied. Thank you.”

Inspired by Cao Zhuzhu, they decided to keep the bear in captivity.

They shouldn’t kill it immediately. They should fatten it first.

Ji Xi put the leftover broth in a small bowl and sent it in through the small door.

Small Bear sniffed at it, and his eyes instantly widened.

They didn’t kill him, but even fed him?

He was starving. What food was that?

Ji Xi couldn't help but laugh as she watched the small bear drink the soup. She thought it was cute.

She even stroked his head. "Little darling, eat more."

Su Ji teased him, "where's your big brother?"

His big brother injured Pei Huai, and Su Ji had made him her enemy.

Small Bear didn't understand what she was saying and quickly finished the bowl of soup. He looked at her blankly and scratched his belly.

Jiang Cuiqin said, "at first, I couldn't believe that you really fought a dangerous bear."

Li Shuguo said, "there are two of them too! Tsk tsk, I was scared to death!"

Lu Shang asked, "how did you beat them?"

A group of people stood outside the fence and sized up the small bear.

Su Ji threw a peanut at him, and the bear jumped up to catch it.

She sounded relaxed. "Survival of the fittest."

["I don't understand. May I ask what they mean? Su Ji had fought this black bear before?"]

["As long as it's Su Ji, I don't think anything is impossible..."]

The drone gave them a wide-angle view.

Now, it was spectacular!

There was a bed, a tent, a pipe, a dining area...and a beast!

The guests would never have imagined that they would come this far.

At the end of the livestream at night, Sonya cleaned up the dishes and gave the leftovers to Small Bear.

nuvvevel, bile Leacneu Lile leuce, mecuu surneune • UH Lile other side.

It was Ji Xi and Wang Yi.

They had also come to give him food.

Sonya stopped and eavesdropped.

"Dr. Wang, can we still find fingerprints in the evidence? Although the person hid it well, it was raining the entire night."

"To be honest...I'm not sure," Dr. Wang said hesitantly as he adjusted his glasses.

Ji Xi paused, as if she suddenly understood something. "You guys are so smart. When you came back that day, you were so sure that you could find the fingerprints and even hid the evidence in the tent in front of everyone. In fact, you were just baiting the culprit?"

Sonya pinched the bowl of food in her hand.

If she hadn't heard this, she might have taken the risk to steal the evidence soon.

Sonya was about to return to the camp to think of a strategy when she heard Wang Yi ask, "is there anyone you suspect?"

After a while, Sonya heard Ji Xi say, "actually, I don't have any evidence, but I think....be careful of Sonya..."

Wang Yi said, "she..."

Ji Xi wasn't sure either. "I don't know if I'm overthinking it, but I think she's a little hostile towards me. Anyway, it's better to be more careful."

Wang Yi said, "you are right."

Sonya didn't know how she got back to the camp. Her mind was blank the whole way back.

Professor Wang said that he was not sure if he could find the fingerprints, which meant that it was still possible.

Therefore, even if she knew their plan now, she could not just do nothing.

Otherwise, she would be finished once her fingerprints were detected.

Moreover, even Ji Xi was starting to suspect her.

What should she do...

Sonya was devastated. She didn't know why other people's lives were so easy, but hers was so difficult!

Her family was not rich. When she first came to A City to study, she met Pei Song and thought that he was her salvation. In the end, she fell too deep into it, causing her to not even get her graduation certificate from Kyokushin. As a result, she encountered the first hardship in her life.

Later on, they divorced and she returned to the entertainment industry.

Although she had been in the limelight all these years, no one knew how afraid she was that others might find out that she was married and even gave birth to a child. She had spent a lot of money to shut the reporters up. Now, things had finally passed, but she was involved in another mess!

It was only when she took her phone out of her bag that Sonya noticed that her hands were very cold.

She opened it up and saw a very thick bruise on her palm after making the hemp rope for a day.

"Sonya, why is your hand injured?" Nan Miaomiao came over at some point.

Sonya retracted her palm. "It's fine."

Nan Miaomiao leaned over and took her hand. "It's fine? We are not actually survival experts. When we return to A City, we still have to continue filming!" Sonya's mind was elsewhere and she could not speak.

Nan Miaomiao said, "by the way, my roommate has medicine in her suitcase. Where is she?"

At the mention of Su Ji's suitcase with the evidence locked in it, Sonya froze. She looked up at Nan Miaomiao. "Her suitcase..."

"Yeah, there are all kinds of medicine in there. I remember that she took a bottle of purple medicine from there last time to treat this kind of injury.

Anyway, we'll have to spend some money, she's sleazy," Nan Miaomiao smiled.

Sonya's eyes looked a little crazy now, but her tone was surprisingly calm. "Her suitcase should be in the tent..."

"I know, but we can't open it ourselves. "Nan Miaomiao stood up and stopped

Xiao Ken, who was passing by, to ask him if he had seen where Su Ji had gone.

Xiao Ken's face was dark, and he did not seem to want to answer. "CEO Pei took her into the woods. She won't be back for an hour."

Nan Miaomiao: '

Her cheeks puffed up like a pufferfish!

She turned around to look at Sonya, but Sonya covered her hand and looked like she was in a lot of pain.

Nan Miaomiao was shocked. "Why does it hurt so much all of a sudden?"

Sonya's voice was weak and intermittent. "I don't know if it's....it's infected..."

"Ah?"

Su Ji said that getting an infection here was the most dangerous thing.

However, she would not be back for a while. What should she do?

Nan Miaomiao seemed to have thought of something and looked at the tent awkwardly.

"How about...I help you get the medicine? We'll give her the money later?"

Everyone's default password for the suitcase was the same. Most people didn't change it, so anyone could open it.

Sonya looked like she was in so much pain that she couldn't speak.

Nan Miaomiao saw how upset she was and steeled her heart. She walked towards CEO Pei's tent..

Chapter 459: I'll Give You a Chance to Explain

She scanned her surroundings and confirmed that no one else was paying attention to her.

Nan Miaomiao sneaked in and opened the suitcase.

...

Why was she acting like a thief?

She was just helping her friend get a bottle of medicine!

After entering CEO Pei's tent, Nan Miaomiao first looked around. This was the first time she had seen the inside of their tent.

How magical! From the outside, it looked like an ordinary tent. She did not expect the space inside to be so big!

It wasn't luxurious, but it was very clean.

The items were arranged neatly and orderly. All the supplies were for two people. A white thermos was placed next to a simple coffee cup. Beside it was a slender eyebrow pencil. The beanbag sofa was for Su Ji, and the bed and blanket were not for two people.

Nan Miaomiao envied those who could sleep in a tent every day.

However, she soon noticed the suitcase beside her.

At the same time, in the woods.

The leaves rustled, and half of the moonlight was blocked by the dense leaves above their heads. The fluorescent eyes of wild beasts in the bushes were brighter than the moon.

Su Ji raised her phone and studied a cluster of white mushrooms growing on the tree trunk.

The island received a lot of rain all year round and the climate was humid, which was very suitable for mushrooms to grow.

However, the cluster in front of her had poison.

"Actually, you don't have to come with me. Your arm is broken, so you can't help me carry anything..."

Before Su Ji could finish, Pei Huai grabbed her wrist. She turned around and her back hit a tree trunk. It hurt a little.

He pressed his lips onto hers, and his dark eyes blended into the night.

The air in Su Ji's mouth was sucked out. Pei Huai used his healthy arm to push her lips up.

A pair of big fluorescent eyes popped out of the bush, and then another.

Spring had come, and the animals were learning.

"Did you eat the poisonous mushrooms? Someone might come..."

Su Ji finally pulled away, but before she could finish her sentence, Pei Huai kissed her again.

He had been controlling himself for many days.

The leaves of the tree Su Ji was leaning against rustled loudly. The night was cool but the atmosphere was hot and humid.

Su Ji relented, so she did not waste her energy on meaningless resistance.

After lingering for a while, Pei Huai pressed his palm against the tree trunk and lowered his face to look at her. Their foreheads touched.

His voice was low and hoarse. "Do you think I'm here to pick mushrooms with you?"

Su Ji seemed to have thought of something and lifted the bag in her hand. Inside were the edible mushrooms she picked along the way. The bag was placed between them and the mushrooms inside were crushed.

Seeing that his girlfriend was about to throw a tantrum, Pei Huai planted another kiss on her forehead as if he was comforting her. "We can make mushroom soup tomorrow morning."

"Beep beep"

"Beep beep"

At this moment, Pei Huai's phone rang.

Pei Huai calmly took out his phone from his trousers pocket. He glanced at it and narrowed his eyes slightly.

It was a sin to disturb a couple.

The alarm in the tent was also ringing loudly. The sound was much louder than Pei Huai's phone, immediately attracting the attention of the guests in the camp.

The guests surrounded the tent. Pei Huai, who rushed back, took a step forward and lifted the tent curtain.

What they saw at that moment was Nan Miaomiao clutching Su Ji's suitcase. She was panicking and her hands were quickly searching for a way to turn off the alarm, but she happened to be fiddling with the bag of pebbles!

Everyone:

Li Shuguo said, "Miaomiao, why are you in CEO Pei's tent?"

Jiang Cuiqin said, "you even opened Su Ji's luggage. What are you doing?"

Nan Miaomiao had yet to react. When she saw Su Ji coming over, she hurriedly called out to her, "roommate, quickly help me turn off the alarm!"

As soon as she found Su Ji's suitcase, she tried the password. Sure enough, it was the same as the initial password. It opened easily, but in the next second, an ear-piercing alarm rang, and the sound was getting louder and louder.

Su Ji walked to her side and squatted down. She opened the inner lining of the suitcase and pressed a button. The alarm turned off and the surroundings finally quieted down.

Nan Miaomiao patted her chest guiltily. "You scared me. Why did you put an alarm in the suitcase?"

This time, Su Ji did not speak. The tall man outside the tent said in a low voice, "to guard against thieves."

Nan Miaomiao's pupils constricted, and she quickly turned to look at Pei Huai.

Only then did she realize that not only Pei Huai, but all the guests outside the tent were staring at her with a very strange gaze.

Cao Zhuzhu did not watch the previous episodes, so she did not know what they were talking about, but she had an idea.

Lu Shang's expression was solemn.

Nan Miaomiao panicked. She sat down on the ground, her hand propped up on the side. She pressed on something hard. It was the bag of pebbles..

Casar narrowed his eyes, and Xiao Ken's expression was filled with disgust. He said, "Ms. Nan, so it's really you. I knew that Lu Shang was protecting you last time! I should have been more alert when you asked me where Su Ji went. Fortunately, there was an alarm. Otherwise, you would have destroyed the evidence!"

Hearing that, Nan Miaomiao seemed to have finally realized something. She threw the bag of evidence to the side. "Why are you looking at me like that? You don't think I'm here for this, do you?"

At this moment, Nan Miaomiao thought to herself that it was over.

She had gone against Su Ji in public several times before, so when this incident happened, people immediately suspected her.

More importantly, even she could not think of anyone else who would do that.

"Ms. Nan," Casar looked down at her condescendingly. "What's your explanation?"

"I..." Nan Miaomiao turned around and met Su Ji's eyes.

Su Yi looked at her and said slowly, "I'll give you a chance to explain."

Nan Miaomiao shook her arm gratefully. "Roommate, believe me. I'm not here to destroy any evidence. I'm here to borrow your medicine! No, it wasn't borrowing, I was going to pay you back later!"

Ji Xi looked at her. "Are you hurt?"

Nan Miaomiao waved her hand. "It wasn't me. It was Sonya! She had a big bruise on her hand from making the hemp rope today!"

Wang Yi said, "it's just a bruise. It's not something that requires first aid. Why don't you wait for her to come back before asking her for it? Entering someone else's tent without permission and opening their suitcase was indeed too suspicious."

Nan Miaomiao explained, "Sonya's hand was hurt so badly that she couldn't even speak. I was afraid that her wound was infected, but Xiao Ken said that Su Ji wouldn't be back for another hour. I couldn't wait any longer, so..."

She thought it would be okay if she told the truth. After all, if it were anyone else, they would have done the same thing.

However, even though she spoke so sincerely, the guests did not have much of a reaction.

Nan Miaomiao was confused, but then she saw Sonya looking into the tent with concern. "Miaomiao? What's going on?"

Most importantly, Sonya's hand had already recovered.. Although she looked anxious, she looked very relaxed, completely different from the way she was sweating from the pain just now...

Chapter 460: Her True Colors!

Nan Miaomiao frowned in confusion.

In that case...her reason was not valid at all!!

...

Lu Shang was eager to help Nan Miaomiao clarify. When he saw Sonya, he quickly said, "show everyone if there are any bruises on your hands!"

? Sonya spread her hands in confusion. Everyone looked over and saw that there were indeed bruises on her palm, but...it was definitely not serious.

It sounded like Nan Miaomiao was trying to find an excuse to sneak into Pei Huai's tent.

Lu Shang's brows furrowed even more tightly. "Did your injury hurt a lot just now?"

Nan Miaomiao looked at Sonya expectantly. Although everyone knew that they were friends, and Sonya speaking up for her might not be completely taken as evidence, it was still better than nothing!

But Sonya didn't look at her. She just smiled and said, "Miaomiao said that because she was worried about me. It's not a big deal. It's not that serious. I can still work tomorrow."

Lu Shang:

Nan Miaomiao was about to cry. "You said it hurt a lot just now?!"

Xiao Ken said, "you still want to collude with your friend?"

Sonya looked as if she had just arrived and was completely clueless about the situation, but the others were convinced.

Jiang Cuiqin sighed. She was very disappointed to have such a person in the group.

The other guests also shook their heads.

However, it was up to CEO Pei and the others to decide how to deal with this matter. After all, they were the victims.

It was already very late, and the guests were leaving in twos and threes. Nan Miaomiao felt like she had been sentenced before she could explain herself.

Xiao Ken said, "although my friends and I often quarrel, we know that we have to focus on the outside world at critical moments. What did CEO Pei do that prompted you to do such a vicious thing? Now that CEO Pei is injured, you should think about how to explain this to the Pei family..."

“Shut up!” Nan Miaomiao was so angry that her face turned red, and her eyes were red. “I’ll sue you for slander!”

“I said I didn’t do it. If I did it, I would be struck to death by lightning right now! ”

As she said that, a bolt of lightning struck the island!

Nan Miaomiao looked up at the sky.

Pei Huai’s tone was cold. “Ms. Nan, please leave my tent as soon as possible.”

He didn’t mind if Nan Miaomiao was struck, but he did not want it to destroy his tent.

Su Ji didn’t say much until Nan Miaomiao left with her shoulders down. She looked at her back for a while, then moved to the side and looked at Cao Zhuzhu, who was the last to leave.

Cao Zhuzhu shrugged, and the two of them looked away at the same time.

Pei Huai put away his luggage and sprayed alcohol on the places that Nan Miaomiao had touched to disinfect them. “Rest first. We’ll talk about it tomorrow.”

Su Ji agreed.

It didn’t matter if Nan Miaomiao was the main culprit, or an accomplice, or if she was being used as a tool. But there was one good thing about being on this island now. She didn’t have to worry about anyone escaping.

When the other guests were almost asleep, Lu Shang couldn’t find Nan Miaomiao. He asked Sonya if she had seen her. Sonya pointed to the beach. “I think she went that way just now. Go check on her, I’m worried about her.”

Lu Shang pursed his lips, as if he had something to say, but in the end, he didn’t say it and went to the beach.

When Lu Shang found Nan Miaomiao, she had angrily dug a big hole in the beach. The clam and all eighteen generations after it were dug out.

“Miss, did its family offend you?” Lu Shang smiled faintly.

Nan Miaomiao knew that it was him. She didn’t turn around and stabbed the shovel into the sand. “I didn’t offend any of you! Aren’t you all accusing me?”

As soon as she finished speaking, there was air coming out from a hole. Nan Miaomiao stabbed it with the shovel.

Another clam died.

“I’ll eat all of them myself! I won’t give you a single one!”

Lu Shang shook his head and laughed.

“At the moment,” he squatted beside Nan Miaomiao, “even if you wanted to share, I’m afraid they wouldn’t dare to eat it.”

"You!" Nan Miaomiao pointed the shovel at Lu Shang. She was so angry that she was out of breath. "You want to be my boyfriend with this kind of attitude?"

Dream on!"

Lu Shang paused for a moment. "Then I won't joke around anymore. If I am good, can I be your boyfriend?" ""

"..." Nan Miaomiao wanted to kick him, but her ears turned red. "Get lost!" Lu Shang smiled but didn't leave.

There were a few seconds of silence. Lu Shang said seriously, "Miaomiao, calm down. Think about what happened tonight. Don't you think it's a little strange?"

Nan Miaomiao looked at him. "Strange?"

Lu Shang nodded. "Miaomiao, I believe you. I believe everything you said, but according to what you said, Sonya's hand was in a lot of pain at that time. You were worried that something bad would happen to her, so you entered their tent."

Nan Miaomiao said, "yes, that's right!"

Lu Shang said, "it's only been five or six minutes. When you're caught red-handed, she suddenly. Why was that?"

Nan Miaomiao said, "because...she could recover quickly?"

Lu Shang:

Nan Miaomiao paused for a few seconds and finally understood something from his expression.

She raised her hand to cover her mouth. "That's impossible..."

When Nan Miaomiao returned to the camp, Sonya was not asleep. She held her hand anxiously. There was genuine worry in her eyes, which stemmed from guilt. Sonya was very afraid that something would happen to Nan Miaomiao. "Miaomiao, how are you? I believe that you didn't do it. I'll definitely think of a way to help you clarify it tomorrow..."

Nan Miaomiao looked at her. They had drunk together countless times, and they were best friends who talked about their dreams all night long. At this moment, there was an unprecedented sense of unfamiliarity, which made her hair stand on end.

The corners of her lips moved slightly. "Thank you, Sonya."

After saying that, she quietly pulled her hand away from Sonya's.

Sonya:

Nan Miaomiao slept with her back facing her.

Sonya was very conflicted.

She knew that she was letting Nan Miaomiao down by doing this, but Nan Miaomiao was different from her. She did not have a past and no one had anything against her. Besides, everyone knew that she was spoiled and treated her like a child, so even if they were angry with her now, they could forgive her after a while.

As for the Pei family, Sonya would try her best to plead for Nan Miaomiao and minimize the impact of this matter on her.

Miaomiao, you must forgive me.

As long as you help me this time, I will definitely make it up to you in the future...
