Chapter 91: CEO Pei, You're So Handsome!

#Dr. Su# was trending on the internet for a few days.

Even Pei Song had hung a signboard in Huichun Hall that said "Dr. Su's Exclusive Supplier".

Kyokushin's forum also blew up.

...

["Su Ji's great counterattack!!"]

["The underdog won the finals!"]

["Vote if you think Su Ji will successfully graduate after obtaining the 100 credits. Voting closes in..."]

Similar headlines emerged one after another. There were even talented netizens who speculated about Su Ji's background.

They said that Su Ji was the 49th generation great-grandchild of a certain great physician.

Pan Lian read everything with great interest.

In the dormitory, the internet-addicted girl's eyes were dry from reading for too long. "Su Ji, I didn't expect you to really make the medicine I was joking about."

Su Ji's beautiful long legs were placed on her table, "so, the victims should thank you."

"I wonder how they're recovering in the hospital. there's no news about them." Pan Lian's face was red, "they should have come and thank you."

Su Ji laughed. When she was rummaging through the original owner's wardrobe, something fell out.

It was a pair of VR glasses, and there were horror games inside that were too scary for the original owner. So after trying them on once, she never took them out again.

Su Ji was very interested in the high-tech products of modern people.

She wanted to see how scary it was.

Half an hour later, she was expressionless and very calm as she completed the 360° roller coaster and cleared another haunted house and zombie fights with 10 stars.

Even when she was facing a ghost, she was still smiling.

If the npc was conscious, they would probably collapse in frustration.

Su Ji thought that it was interesting to be able to see the world without going out.

Meng Na came back from the studio with a bass on her back. She pushed the door open with one hand in her pocket.

Seeing that Su Ji was still in the dormitory, she asked, “didn’t you say you were going to meet Sonya today? There’s only half an hour left. You can’t let her wait for you!”

Su Ji was the best at dawdling, but every time, it was others who were anxious.

It was sunny outside, so Su Ji did not want to go out. She looked at the time lazily and frowned, “alright, I’ll go now.”

Since the event was organized by the school, Su Ji and Sonya’s first meeting was also held in the school’s conference room.

Pan Lian wanted to send Su Ji off.

The two of them were halfway there when someone blocked their way.

The surrounding students immediately started talking.

“It’s Zhou Xuefang. Why is she looking for Su Ji?”

“She couldn’t win against Su Ji even after she cheated. It can’t be good.”

“I didn’t expect Zhou Xuefang to be that kind of person. She’s such a good student.”

Zhou Xuefang had been receiving a lot of such comments for the past two days. Fortunately, she had a strong fan base, and her fans did not know the rules of the competition.

Those who accused her of cheating were all attacked by her fans.

“Su Ji.” Zhou Xuefang pinched the hem of her skirt as she spoke nicely, “can we have a word?”

It wasn’t an exaggeration to say that ever since Su Ji joined the group, she had never spoken to her so nicely.

“Let’s talk here,” Su Ji lifted her chin slightly.

She was not up to negotiate.

Zhou Xuefang’s became even more embarrassed.

She looked at the people around her who were pointing at her. She pursed her lips, “okay...then I’ll say it here.”

“I know what you want to say. You want to apologize to Su Ji, right?” Pan Lian asked. “Don’t waste your breath, who are you trying to fool?”

“No, I just heard that...you don’t want to shoot a music video with Sonya,” Zhou Xuefang lowered her head and said in a pleading tone. “In that case, can you give me this opportunity? I don’t want the credits, I just want this!”

Pan Lian could not believe that Zhou Xuefang could be so shameless.

Not only did she not apologize, she even asked for a favor?

The surrounding students were also surprised.

“What? She can’t just give it to you, it’s the rule.”

Zhou Xuefang ignored her and walked over to Su Ji. She tugged at Su Ji’s sleeve and said, “I’m begging you. As long as you tell them that you want to give it to me, I’m sure they won’t force you!”

“Why should she do that?”

However, Zhou Xuefang acted as if she had not heard anything. Didn’t Su Ji like people like Pan Lian who knew how to act coquettishly?

She could do it too!

She was indeed a very strong-minded person, and also very prideful.

However, if her goal conflicted with her reputation, she could choose to be shameless.

Su Ji went along, “it’s true that I’m not really interested in shooting a music video...”

“No!” Pan Lian stomped her feet in anxiety, “don’t be soft-hearted!”

Zhou Xuefang was overjoyed, “I will definitely not go against you in the future! I’ll repay you...”

Before she could finish, Su Ji suddenly curled her lips, “but when I saw how much you wanted this opportunity...I was interested again~”

1

“...”

“...”

“.....”

Pan Lian burst out laughing, and the crowd laughed along with her.

Zhou Xuefang stood rooted to the ground. Even after Su Ji and Pan Lian had left, she still hadn’t recovered from her shock...

They’re all in the same team, why was Su Ji so stingy!

It had always been her dream to shoot an MV with Sonya!

Why couldn’t Su Ji put herself in her shoes?

**

As it turned out, Su Ji was still early. She waited in the meeting room for a full three minutes before Sonya arrived.

Behind her was her manager.

There were also two assistants who looked very experienced.

Since they were going to work together, they had to sign a contract.

Of course, they would not sign the contract immediately today. They would first meet up first to discuss.

Sonya sat on the main seat, her long legs crossed. She had a strong celebrity aura, and her black stocking was revealed under her dress, looking sexy and elegant.

No man could refuse this pair of legs.

Sonya was looking at Su Ji's face, and Su Ji was looking at Sonya's legs.

The two of them looked at each other, and neither of them had the intention of lowering their heads.

In the end, it was the school representative who resolved the awkwardness. He looked at Su Ji and said, "introduce yourself to Ms. Sonya."

Su Ji obediently gave a brief self-introduction.

"I heard you're from Sky Entertainment?" Sonya smiled.

If one listened carefully, one could hear a hint of mockery.

After all, Sky Entertainment was a small company with a bad reputation.

Su Ji was about to reply when her phone beeped.

Pei Huai's message was rare, so Su Ji decided to see what he had to say first.

She stopped talking and opened her WeChat.

[Pei Huai: "Do you want to switch to a different agency?"]

1

Chapter 92: No, I'm with Blue Whale Entertainment

At the same time, Su Qianrou was also sending a message to Song Heng.

The competition was over, but she had not even found an agency yet.

Everyone in her dormitory had already found one.

...

The first few days of school were the peak period for all agencies to recruit new students.

However, Su Qianrou had been completely focused on Blue Whale Entertainment at that time and had already missed the peak period. If no agency came to recruit her, it would be bad.

She thought about it and decided to ask Song Heng for help. Since he was willing to change the script to add a role for her, he would definitely be willing to help her with such a small matter.

After a while, she received a reply from Song Heng.

"I'm familiar with Sky Entertainment. It should be fine."

He knew Chen Jing because of his breakup with Su Ji.

Chen Jing really wanted to win him over. After all, he was a famous director.

When Su Qianrou read "Sky Entertainment", she immediately thought of Su Ji.

Out of all agencies, Sky Entertainment was not the ideal choice.

"Are there any others?"

"Sky Entertainment is not bad. A diamond can shine in any company. Because of the competition in your school, it has been very popular recently."

"Oh right, didn't you also enter the semi-finals? Why didn't I see you in the later matches?"

He wasn't a student there, so of course he didn't know the reason why Su Qianrou was disqualified.

Su Qianrou felt guilty too.

"I'm too busy with the courses, so I had to withdraw from the competition."

"I see. You have to make a decision about your agency as soon as possible. I've already edited the script for 'The Billion Stars'. Once the higher-ups have gone through it and confirmed, the contract will probably be signed very soon. If you don't have an agency by then, the role will have to be given to someone else."

Su Qianrou became anxious when she heard this.

Moreover, after thinking about it carefully, all companies started small. Recently, Sky Entertainment was indeed popular..

Besides, Su Ji also did not do any better, so she was not losing to her.

The scene cut back to the meeting room, and Su Ji said politely, "sorry, let me reply to a message first."

Sonya's expression froze.

She had just asked Su Ji which agency she was from.

And Su Ji wanted to reply to a message first?

What was this?

"I'll change it when the contract expires next year."

[Pei Huai: "Why wait?"]

As expected, the rich didn't understand the suffering of the human world!

Why wait?

Of course, it was to avoid the penalty!

who knew that after Su Ji replied, Pei Huai replied within seconds, "you cannot afford the penalty?"

It was a surprise.

Su Ji narrowed her eyes. Had her black market trading been exposed?

He seemed to know something.

“Yes.”

Pei Huai was silent for a long time.

A man who knew how to make money and a woman who was stingy.

A perfect match.

Pei Huai rubbed the space between his eyebrows and his slender fingers quickly pressed a few times on the screen.

[Pei Huai: “Come to Blue Whale Entertainment. I’ll pay the penalty fee for you.”

Oh, so her sugar daddy was going to pay.

Su Ji smiled obediently.

She was already eyeing Blue Whale Entertainment.

Now that her sugar daddy had taken the initiative, of course she would take it.

Moreover, she thought of something. Her contract with Sky Entertainment stated that Sky Entertainment had the right to continue the contract when it expired.

In other words, if they didn’t want to let them go, they would have to renew their contract unconditionally.

Previously, Su Ji was so unpopular that they couldn’t wait for her to leave.

However, the current Su Ji...

[“Daddy, can you poach two more people from Sky Entertainment?”]

1

To Pei Huai, poaching two more people was the same as poaching Su Ji at three times the price.

It was worth it.

[“Deal.”]

The rest of the trivial matters were left to Shen Mu to deal with. When Shen Mu received the imperial decree, he was surprised.

However, when he saw the other two people apart from Su Ji...

“Boss, the penalty fee isn’t a small sum. We definitely want Ms. Su. As for the other two, we can still take Ms. Pan because of her family, but Ms. Meng...”

He started to calculate.

Pei Huai looked at him coldly, "keep talking and I'll send you to Sky Entertainment."

Shen Mu secretly bit on his handkerchief and cried in his heart.

He absolutely believed that.

"Yes, I'll do it now!"

Meanwhile, Su Ji said to Sonya, "no, I'm with Blue Whale Entertainment."

She didn't want to make her wait, but she only knew how to answer Sonya's question after she replied to the message.

Sonya would never have thought that Su Ji would find her a new agency so quickly.

Sonya looked at her manager, who looked at the school representative, who looked at Su Ji. "Su Ji, there's no need to lie about this. you've already won the competition. Ms. Sonya won't discriminate against you because of your agency."

It would be great if it's Blue Whale Entertainment, but it could not be...

"I'm not lying, I just changed it," Su Ji replied indifferently.

Sonya was puzzled for a moment before she reacted. She had already seen Pei Xingxing and Pei Huai in the video yesterday, so it was believable.

He acted so fast. It seemed that Master Pei was serious about her.

Unfortunately, she had been through this before. She knew that no artist could manage both their career and family well at the same time.

Therefore, this happiness was fleeting.

Sonya's slender fingers tapped on the armrest. "Alright, you must be talented to win the competition. Let's just sign the contract tomorrow."

She used to work with Blue Whale Entertainment, which was the largest and most resourceful agency.

For artists, that was the perfect place to go to. However, she had an awkward relationship with the Pei Family and had no choice but to terminate her contract and set up her own agency.

The school representative was really happy for Su Ji. "That's great. Su Ji, quickly thank Ms. Sonya."

"Thank you, Ms. Sonya," Su Ji replied.

**

Chen Jing's days had been too difficult.

She didn't know who the driver had hit, but she couldn't get any useful information.

But one thing was for sure, they were definitely not ordinary.

Not only was the driver still in the police station, but he couldn't be released on bail. It was said that even his family's work was affected.

Fortunately, she did not leave any written evidence.

She was so scared that she immediately put the blame on the driver and was cursed by him.

However, just as she was done dealing with this mess, she received a call.

She had saved this number as the big sponsor from the last event.

"Hello, Mr. Shen, are you looking for Su Ji..." she suddenly changed her expression. "What? terminate the contract?"

Chapter 93: Complete Win

Recently, Sky Entertainment was popular because of Su Ji, but the previously unpopular girl wanted to terminate the contract?

How could they let her go?

After the live competition, other than Zhou Xuefang, everyone else's attitude towards her had changed significantly.

...

She only picked up the phone after a long time, and her attitude was also very cold.

They thought that she was just throwing a tantrum, but they never thought that she would want to terminate her contract.

She didn't dare to offend CEO Pei, so she tried to beat around the bush, "um...Mr. Shen, the contract will expire next year. Why don't we talk about it after it expires?"

"Ms. Chen, our CEO wants to terminate the contract now. Please prepare the documents as soon as possible. "

"Mr. Shen, I'm doing this for your CEO's own good. The penalty for terminating the contract is very high. Moreover, Su Ji has just become popular, and you're already snatching her away. isn't this... "

"The CEO knows what he's doing, you just have to follow the procedure, but don't try to take advantage of this. Otherwise, things won't end well for you."

Shen Mu emphasized the last sentence.

As the CEO's personal assistant, although he liked to joke around at times, he was serious during negotiations.

The contrast was adorable.

A chill ran down Chen Jing's spine, and she froze on the spot.

Later, she reported Shen Mu's words to the boss of Sky Entertainment

When he heard that it was CEO Pei's idea, he gritted his teeth and weighed the pros and cons for a long time. In the end, he decided to let Su Ji go.

The script for "The Billion Stars" was almost complete, and a press conference would be held next month.

Zhou Xuefang had lost the chance to star in the MV, so she could only put her heart and soul into the show.

Since there was a newly added role, she had to go to Sky Entertainment again to discuss the script.

She had just come out of the meeting room when she heard several staff members discussing.

"Is it true? Su Ji was going to Blue Whale Entertainment? Can she afford to pay the penalty?"

"She definitely can't afford it. I heard they are paying for her."

"Will they earn it back? If Su Ji is really popular then good for them, but if it's just a one-time thing, they are making a loss!"

"Blue Whale Entertainment has a lot of capital and they must have seen Su Ji's potential."

What?

She's going solo?

And under Blue Whale Entertainment?

When Zhou Xuefang first entered the entertainment industry, she was tricked by Sky Entertainment and later wanted to leave, but the moment she saw the penalty fee...

She noticed Chen Jing, who had just come out of the elevator, and ran up to her.

"Ms. Jing, I heard that Su Ji is going to jump ship to Blue Whale? Is that true?"

Chen Jing's expression was unreadable. She nodded, "yes. they've already paid the penalty fee."

Zhou Xuefang's face was frighteningly pale. She said fiercely, "she's going solo? Ha, for someone like her who leaves her team behind to make a name for herself, she'll be scolded by the netizens once she becomes popular. It has happened before in the past that someone who went solo had to leave the industry."

Chen Jing looked at her and sighed, "she didn't abandon her team."

Zhou Xuefang: "???"

"Meng Na and Pan Lian are leaving, too," Chen Jing said.

"W-what?" Zhou Xuefang's eyes were about to pop out of her head, "she took them with her?"

She was the only one left?

Wouldn't that mean she was going solo?

Zhou Xuefang could already hear the netizens laughing at her...

"Then they have to pay the penalty for three people..." she said as she chased after Chen Jing.

However, Chen Jing was no longer patient with her and waved her hand impatiently. "do i need you to tell me that? Go back and study the script, you don't have to worry about anything else!"

Chen Jing entered her office and closed the door in front of Zhou Xuefang.

Penalty for three people was a lot!

Unless the boss of Blue Whale Entertainment had gone crazy, she really couldn't think of a reason!

She was still in a daze when Chen Jing, who had just slammed the door, opened the door and came out.

She seemed to be in a slightly better mood.

"You're still here? Good, come with me to the guest room to meet your future junior. It's fine that they are leaving, Director Song is bringing a new one in."

Everyone knew that the agents relied on their artists to survive..

She must be angry that so many of hers left at the same time. Additionally, she would not get a single cent of the penalty fee.

At the moment, she felt a little better when she heard that someone new was coming.

She immediately printed the contract, in case the new one regretted her choice.

An hour later. In the guest room.

Su Qianrou sat upright, showing a sense of superiority.

That was because Song Heng was there to support her.

"This company has better benefits compared to the others. After signing the contract, you and Xiaoxue will be my babies. I will definitely give you the best resources."

When Su Ji first entered the company, she had said the same thing.

Su Qianrou was very satisfied with Chen Jing's attitude. She had not received such treatment in a long time.

After signing her name, Chen Jing quickly kept the contract.

Song Heng looked at Zhou Xuefang and revealed a smile that only a successful person had. "You must be Zhou Xuefang, right? We met when you came to apply for the role of the female lead for 'The Billion Stars'."

Zhou Xuefang extended her hand to shake Song Heng's.

"Qianrou will be in this drama too, please take care of her from now on," Song Heng said.

"Of course," Zhou Xuefang forced a smile.

Su Qianrou was like a proud swan, her neck stretched so hard that it almost reached the sky.

“Song Heng, you’re so good to me...” she did not forget to thank Song Heng softly.

It felt good to have someone to rely on.

Did her sister have that?

Looking at the two of them flirt, Zhou Xuefang sneered in her heart. The sisters of the Su family were quite interesting. The elder sister had already jumped ship to Blue Whale, but the younger sister was still so smug.

After all the procedures were completed, Su Qianrou finally remembered to ask Chen Jing, “by the way, aren’t you already managing The Fallen Notes? Now that I’m working for you, will you have enough time for them?”

Su Qianrou thought that she was very smart. When Chen Jing made her promise, she only mentioned that she and Zhou Xuefang were her precious babies and not the other three.

This meant that the other three were not worth much to Chen Jing.

She thought to herself proudly. Then, she heard Chen Jing say, “don’t mention them anymore. They jumped ship to Blue Whale the moment they became popular. Don’t you learn from them...”

“Don’t worry, I’m loyal...” she said.

Then, she suddenly realized.

???

What did she just say?

Su Ji went to Blue Whale Entertainment?

Chapter 94: The Start of Su Ji’s Pampered Life

Song Heng could not believe the news.

He talked to Manager Ren about the script today. Why didn’t he tell him?

Su Qianrou was dumbfounded. The sense of superiority that she had just felt was instantly shattered.

...

Su Ji had gone to Blue Whale, so why did she come to a company that she didn’t even look up to!

Was she picking up her leftovers?

Su Qianrou wanted to go back on her word, but when she turned around, she saw that Chen Jing had already made two copies of the contract she had signed. One was locked in the drawer, and the other was filed.

Pan Lian and Meng Na did not know how to thank Su Ji when they found out that they were free from their suffering.

Pan Lian's family was rich, so she didn't care about Sky Entertainment. However, after the incident with Su Ji, she was disgusted by Chen Jing.

She had been thinking about terminating her contract for the past few days, but she couldn't bear to leave her baby.

Now, not only were the three of them together, but they were also in Blue Whale!

Su Ji was their Buddha!

Meng Na's reaction was even more exaggerated. When she heard that she could get out of the sea of suffering, she wanted to marry her.

With her parents' monthly salary of 2500 yuan, she would be bound to Sky Entertainment for the rest of her life.

She wanted to take a smaller share of profit to pay back Blue Whale Entertainment

She thought that the boss would be very touched, but Ren Guanghua did not react much.

That's because they didn't need the money.

After the three girls signed the contract, Ren Ganghua generously paid to get them trending on the Internet.

He also made an official announcement that the three of them had joined them.

Since the announcement involved a popular person at the moment and was posted by Blue Whale Entertainment's official account, it quickly made the headlines.

#Three people from The Fallen Notes jumped ship#

#Zhou Xuefang is the only Fallen Note#

#How rich is the Su family#

["Vote: do you think this is because Su Ji and the others are protesting, or Zhou Xuefang is difficult to get along with?"]

Meng Na said, "Manager Ren, the three of us will definitely do well in the future. We won't let the company down!"

Ren Guanghua agreed with a smile.

However, in his heart, he thought, "you two have to perform well. As for Ms. Su...he will know what to do!"

"Su Ji,, let's go back to school?"

Su Ji agreed but was stopped by Ren Guanghua halfway.

Ren Guanghua served her the tea he had personally poured for her. "Ms. Su, CEO Pei said that he'll be here after his meeting. He asked you to wait for him "

"Oh," Su Ji replied. She then turned to Meng Na and the rest, "you guys go ahead."

Meng looked at her worriedly, "you must speak nicely to the boss!"

Su Ji assured them.

She was the only one left in the office. Ren Guanghua came over with fruits and nuts and walked around a few times, as if thinking about what else he could bring to his future boss.

In fact, he had already known that she would come to Blue Whale sooner or later.

Used to having people serving her in the palace, Su Ji truly felt at home.

However, she still politely refused, "Manager Ren, please rest, this is enough."

"That's enough?" Manager Ren was shocked.

You're the first girl that our cold CEO had taken a fancy to in 30 years of being single!

How could she be so easily pleased?

While she was waiting for Pei Huai, Su Ji received a call from Su Cunyi.

He had obviously seen the news headlines.

"Su Ji, you're going to Blue Whale?" Since his daughter had made a decision, he wanted to support her.

"Alright, I support you, I'll pay the penalty fee!"

"No, Blue Whale already did," Su Ji replied.

Su Cunyi paused for a few seconds.

He finally said, "a diamond will shine no matter where she goes!"

"Bye," Su Ji said.

Su Cunyi looked at the phone. His daughter still didn't seem to like him!

**

Pei Huai had asked Ren Guanghua to ask Su Ji to wait for him for a while. Su Ji had thought that it was something important, but Pei Huai only came to ask her to have dinner with him.

Su Ji furrowed her eyebrows.

"I'll be your boss in the future. Accompanying your boss for a meal is one of your responsibilities," Pei Huai replied.

Su Ji tilted her head to look at him and mumbled.

“Who does that? Why doesn’t he just get an escort?”

Pei Huai’s body stiffened.

It was difficult to understand the look in his eyes.

He seemed to have received some kind of inspiration.

Su Ji got into the car and waited for him. Pei Huai then checked Su Ji’s contract.

It just so happened that Ren Guanghua had something to ask him about Su Ji, “boss, who do you think should be Ms. Su’s manager?”

The manager was very important to an artist’s future.

Pei Huai was silent. In fact, he had been thinking about this problem for the past few days.

The young lady’s manager had to be experienced, capable, and... a female.

After much thought, he could only think of one person...

At the same time, a luxurious beach party was being held in M State.

There were many handsome men and beautiful women with blonde hair and blue eyes, and even the air was filled with the smell of money.

A woman with an excellent figure and extremely fair skin was lying comfortably on a recliner, her slightly curled shoulder-length hair spreading out like a waterfall.

Four handsome men beside her helped her put on sunblock.

The phone rang. The woman lazily picked it up and glanced at it. There was no fat on her long and slender arms.

She didn’t want to answer it at first, but when she saw who it was, not only did she answer it, but she also sat up straight and waved the four handsome men away.

The woman revealed her face, and her intricate facial features actually bore some resemblance to Pei Huai’s.

Pei Huai was the third master of the Pei family, Pei Song was the second master, and they had an elder sister.

She was the pearl of the Pei family, Pei Xi.

With her status, she should be pampered to the heavens by her two little brothers.

However, Pei Song and Pei Huai treated her...normally. They would only think of her when they could use her.

“Come back to Blue Whale and be a manager, and you’ll get ten times the salary.”

But Pei Xi almost choked. “No thanks. Your brother-in-law sends me money every day, and I can’t finish spending it no matter how much I spend. I feel disgusted at the thought of making money.”

M State was known to have the highest living cost and the most wealthy people in the world.

She had been here for half a year.

She didn't buy a house, she just stayed in a hotel with a view of the ocean that cost hundreds of

It was much cheaper to buy a house.

"Then please come back and help me for free," Pei Huai said.

Pei Xi had not received a call from this rascal for more than a year, so she cut it off and said in a lazy tone, "give up you brat. I've said it before, unless your future wife wants to enter the entertainment industry, no one can hire me. if you want your sister to come out of retirement, hurry up and find a wife. Otherwise, I'm hanging up..."

"I did."

Pei Xi immediately clutched her phone when she heard this.

"But whether she said yes depends on you," Pei Huai said.

Chapter 95: Am I Good?

"???"

Pei Xi was still in shock. She hung up the phone and tried to digest what her third brother had just said.

First of all, that was his voice, and not someone else's.

...

Pei Xi took off her sunglasses and quickly looked at the news channel.

She flipped through the financial and entertainment headlines.

Her brother was getting married? Why didn't he invite her to the wedding?

No way...

Was there a woman in this world that he wanted but couldn't have?

Back then, there were so many beautiful girls who wanted her to help introduce them to her brother. In order to please her, they had done all they could, but he did not even look at them.

Later, under the pressure of their grandfather, she had no choice but to bring back an 18-year-old boy who looked like a girl...

At that time, she was the manager of Blue Whale Entertainment, and she had all kinds of artists working under her.

After that, they were both chased out by her brother!

Now that she thought about it, it did feel like she was committing a crime.

Since he asked her to return, Pei Xi knew that he must have fallen for a newbie in the entertainment industry.

She clicked on the photos of the three new artists.

From left to right, Meng Na, Pan Lian, and Su Ji.

When she saw Su Ji, who was on the far right, she revealed an infatuated expression.

She looked at the phone.

After that, she took the phone from the handsome man beside her and called her third brother again.

Since it was an unfamiliar number, he hung up several times. He only picked up after she sent a text message.

“I’ve seen the three newcomers in Blue Whale,” Pei Xi probed, “tell me, which one do you like?”

She wanted to respect her third brother’s preference. After all, this was the first time he said he liked someone.

However, before he answered, she couldn’t help but threaten him, “if you dare to say it’s the short-haired one on the far left, I’ll kill you!” (Meng Na: what did I do wrong T^T)

“The one on the far right,” Pei Huai chuckled.

“Ahhhhhh!” Pei Xi then screamed, “I like that one the most too!!!”

Pei Huai frowned and pulled his phone away.

He slightly regretted his decision, but Pei Xi had already made a decision. “Done, I’ll definitely help you get that little beauty!”

Pei Huai was speechless.

With his big sister back, the days became more and more unpredictable.

**

In the private dining room at Godear, Pei Huai was peeling prawns for Su Jji opposite her. He looked at her and asked, “how’s your acting skills?”

“I only attended one class, and I amazed everyone,” Su Ji said humbly.

Pei Huai chuckled. “That’s good. the company has arranged a role for you, it’s a character in ‘The Billions Stars’.”

This movie sounded familiar, the roles should have been decided long ago. She raised her beautiful eyebrows and looked at him, “this is what you meant by unspoken rules?”

Pei Huai looked at her. “In the past, it would have been, but now you’re under our agency, it’s normal to have a role for you.”

Actually, Pei Huai didn't care how good her acting was. He was just afraid that she would be attacked by netizens if her acting skills were bad.

In fact, he didn't want to give her a role so early. It was Ren Guanghua and the others who made the decision.

Since it was already decided, it was good to take advantage of her current popularity and let her establish her status in the industry.

He placed a plate of peeled prawns in front of her and took off his disposable gloves. "I'll hire an acting coach for you later."

It was certainly not a problem for her to play the role of a beauty who brought disaster to a kingdom, but it was hard to say for a modern drama.

Su Ji took the plate. She didn't know what she was thanking him for, but she said, "thanks."

Pei Huai looked at her and suddenly asked, "am I good?"

Su Ji could not meet his gaze. She looked to the side and whispered, "not bad..."

In fact, Su Ji was a person who found it hard to open up to others. Even with Pan Lian, she just wanted to spoil her.

However, when she was with Pei Huai, she felt comfortable.

It was also very nice to eat with him.

There were only three people in her current and previous life who could make her feel this way.

Her caring big sister, the fan known as ".", and him!

In Sonya's new song "Midsummer" there was a male lead in the MV besides Su Ji.

The agency did not reveal who the male lead was. If it was announced, the number of people who would do anything to become the female lead would be terrifying.

This was because this person was the youngest movie star who was popular all over the country, Si Jingchuan.

Unlike TV series, music videos didn't have a proper plot. The audience would first be presented with some daily warm interactions between a couple.

In a scene in a cinema, the female lead suddenly had a nosebleed. Then, the scene changed to the hospital. The female lead was lying on the hospital bed, and the male lead was holding the medical report, crying sadly...

Yeap, it was the typical melodramatic plot!

However, with Sonya's voice, which was the most suitable for a sorrowful love song, it would definitely be the top song in the next half of the year.

The first day of the MV's shooting was by the sea near A City.

Since Su Ji had switched agencies, the MV's contract was now under Blue Whale Entertainment.

Yang Xiaotao was also under Blue Whale Entertainment. There were no classes today, so she came with Su Ji.

Su Ji, the person who saved her idol!

By the beach, Su Ji and the others got out of the luxurious car. Coincidentally, another car was driving over from the opposite side. It was the male lead.

When the car stopped, an assistant jogged to the back and opened the umbrella in his hand before opening the door.

The beach was basking in the sun. Their precious movie star's skin was delicate and could not be exposed to the sun.

Su Ji casually leaned against her car and dawdled for a few minutes before the legendary movie star slowly got out of the car.

The orange light of the setting sun shone on the man's side profile.

He had an impressive height, a high nose, perfect facial features that were a little too exquisite, and the fatigue between his eyebrows added a sense of broken beauty.

His skin was very fair, and it was very attractive under the sun.

Yang Xiaotao was so excited that she almost passed out, "ooooo! He is so beautiful!"

Su Ji did not have much of a reaction. She thought that this person was pretty, as pretty as a young girl...

She seemed to have said the same thing a few days ago?

About who again?

Chapter 96: Su Ji's First Scene by the Beach

The warm sunlight, the golden beach, and the relaxing waves.

Si Jingchuan had also noticed Su Ji and the others. He had to work with Blue Whale for a drama soon, so when he heard from his manager Fu Xiaofeng that the newcomer he was about to work with was also an artist from Blue Whale, he waved at them quite amiably. His beautiful facial features and smile were brilliant under the sun.

He was not arrogant at all.

...

Yang Xiaotao shot hearts at him madly, “look! He is waving at us!”

“What’s the big deal? He’ll be shaking hands with you later,” Su Ji replied.

A few seconds later, Si Jingchuan walked up to them and took the initiative to shake hands with Yang Xiaotao and Su Ji.

Yang Xiaotao looked at her idol’s hand, “!!!”

She would not wash her hand in this lifetime!

Si Jingchuan released Yang Xiaotao and shook hands with Su Ji. He said weakly, “ahem, let’s help each other in the shooting.”

Su Ji thought that he was just being polite with her, but she soon realized that he not only looked like a little girl, but he was also a real sissy.

Compared to him, Su Ji suddenly felt that Pei Huai was probably not...

Even Su Ji, the demon concubine, was not as girly as him.

She had to wear light clothes for the beach shooting, but Si Jingchuan was afraid of the sun and was putting on sunblock for more than half an hour.

Later on, they were filming a scene where the two of them were chasing each other by the sea. Su Ji was running in front while Si Jingchuan was chasing after her.

However, as she ran, Su Ji turned around and realized that Si Jingchuan’s figure was getting smaller and smaller until he became a small black dot.

Behind her, Si Jingchuan was panting heavily with his hands on his legs. He was so tired that he was about to faint.

However, he couldn’t be blamed for this. Not only was he unable to catch up, but even the camera crew was unable to catch up to Su Ji.

The director shouted into the loudspeaker, “Su Ji! Do you have to run like you’re in a race? You’re a couple messing around on the beach!”

Sonya was left speechless.

How should she put it? She was indeed not a soft girl.

Sonya didn’t have any scenes today, but it was the first day of shooting, and she wasn’t sure how Su Ji looked in front of the camera. She was really worried and decided to come and take a look.

The song was the blood, sweat, and tears of her team. She couldn’t let anyone ruin it.

In the afternoon, Si Jingchuan was still badly sunburnt even though he had applied several layers of sunblock. He looked in the mirror unhappily, and Su Ji threw him a bottle of sunblock that she had made herself.

Si Jingchuan looked at it in surprise, “wow! What a cute bottle. Is this good?”

“Do you think I’m fair?” Su Ji curled her lips.

Si Jingchuan immediately covered his face with the ointment.

Su Ji pinched the space between her eyebrows. He was even more delicate than this demon concubine.

Ren Guanghua sent his men to have a few meetings with Sonya’s team in advance.

They gave Sonya’s team complete freedom and only made minor adjustments.

In the original script, it was supposed to be an intimate scene between the male and female leads, but after some editing, it became a wholesome interaction.

Usually, in order to catch people’s attention, there would be some very erotic scenes.

But it didn’t matter. Sonya didn’t need those scenes to help her new song gain momentum.

During the morning shoot, Sonya’s eyes were often focused on Su Ji, and she would subconsciously be attracted to her.

Although Su Ji’s acting skills were a little underdeveloped, she was very photogenic.

Some actors were good at crying scenes or emotional scenes, but they were clueless when it came to physical coordination.

However, Su Ji’s limbs were very coordinated, and her performance was very intense.

It seemed that being from a girl group was helpful.

In the afternoon, Si Jingchuan’s only job was to film a long shot of surfing by the beach.

However, when he saw the surging waves, he immediately gave up.

The surfboard was tied to a speedboat at the back and was traveling at a high speed. It was so fast that if no one was standing on the surfboard, it would fly off.

They didn’t even have any protective measures!

And he didn’t know how to surf.

A few minutes later, Fu Xiaofeng arrived in front of Sonya’s team. He rubbed his hands and said embarrassedly, “I’ll have to trouble you to find a substitute for this scene. I don’t remember there being such a scene, right?”

The team members looked at each other. To be honest, they also wanted to find a substitute, but the people surfing at the beach were all tall and strong men. Their figures were too different from Si Jingchuan’s, or their skin was too dark. There were very few men who were as fair as him.

“Can you tell him to do this one? We’ll increase the payment.”

“I’m really sorry. To tell you the truth, he doesn’t know how to surf...” Fu Xiaofeng laughed.

“I saw him surfing pretty well in a variety show before,” Sonya said.

“Heh, that’s a double too...”

Jingshen was panting heavily with every step he took. Although he had a good figure, he was actually sickly and had not done any sports.

Sonya was speechless, but she couldn't do anything.

Although Si Jingchuan was a newbie, he was no less popular than her.

It was rumored that his family background was special, the kind that could not be provoked.

He was popular, had good acting skills, and was involved in a big production recently.

That was why Sonya's team had him in her MV.

The beach here was named Gold Coast, and the price for a day's booking was astonishingly expensive.

However, if they could not find a suitable substitute today, they had to come back tomorrow.

As she was thinking, she saw a slender figure studying the skateboard on the shore, and then watching the others surfing in the sea for a while. Su Ji sighed, "why don't I go?"

Sonya turned around in shock.

Su Ji?

The team immediately looked at the screen.

Jingshen was tall and thin, unlike Pei Huai who had broad shoulders. Su Ji's figure was also well-proportioned, just like a smaller Si Jingchuan. One really couldn't tell from the distance.

Besides, she was wearing a proper surfing suit.

Si Jingchuan looked at Su Ji, who was standing there with the skateboard under her arm. There seemed to be a light shining behind her. "My God, working with her gives me such a sense of security!"

Fu Xiaofeng thought, "a girl is giving you a sense of security? Shouldn't it be the other way round?"

Even Yang Xiaotao smiled. CEO Pei might not be closeted, but this one was definitely!

Sonya looked at Su Ji for a moment, "okay, you can be his double today. You will be paid more than a double, don't worry."

"Sure," Su Ji nodded.

"Great. When do we start filming?" the director asked.

Who knew that Su Ji would snap her fingers at the tanned and muscular surfing coach behind her, "give me 10 minutes. I'll learn it now."

10 minutes?

She would learn it now?

Ten minutes was fine, but she didn't even know how to surf? Then what was the point of joining in the fun?

While the crowd was still in a daze, Su Ji had already been taken away by a surfing coach who was paid 120 yuan an hour.

The group looked at each other. In the end, Si Jingchuan smiled and said, "it's not like we can't wait 10 minutes. Maybe she'll really learn it in time..."

The team didn't have any better ideas, so they could only follow along.

In the beginning, Su Ji had to lie on the surfboard. Someone in front drove the speedboat, and the speed gradually increased.

Su Ji had to maintain her balance during this process and stand up on the surfboard.

It was definitely a steep learning curve.

When she stood up for the first time, Su Ji fell into the water. Si Jingchuan and Yang Xiaotao were extremely nervous. However, before they could walk forward, Su Ji jumped out of the water. She placed her hand on the surfboard and said without any hesitation, "again!"

After falling into the water twice, Su Ji actually managed to stand up on the third try!

She stood with her legs apart, her arms outstretched to maintain her balance, and she was half-squatting.

After a few more minutes, Su Ji became more and more skilled at controlling the surfboard.

The violent waves crashed toward them, and the people on the shore gasped.

However, Su Ji did not panic at all. She took advantage of the opportunity and lowered her body. Her whole body was carried by the surfboard, and she emerged from the wave!

Although Su Ji did not know how to surf, she had once drifted on the sea for ten days with her mother before she became a demon concubine!

The people by the beach became so excited! The cameraman couldn't help but record a part of it in advance.

In just 10 minutes, they witnessed the birth of a surfing God?

Si Jingchuan bit his thumb. Was surfing that simple?

Su Ji's excellence would make him, a seven-foot man, look incompetent!

With Su Ji's help, the shooting went very smoothly.

Si Jingchuan was engrossed in the video when Fu Xiaofeng jogged over with his phone in his hand.

"Jingshen, you have a call!"

Normally, he wouldn't pick up a phone call during filming, but he didn't dare to ignore this call.

The other end of the line said something and Si Jingchuan furrowed his brows. "I know, dad. I don't think you've got a son at an old age. You've given me a son... Okay, okay, okay, why are you shouting? I'm sick. Alright, I'm done here. I'll go and see that poor boy now."

After hanging up the phone, Si Jingchuan asked Fu Xiaofeng to inform the staff.

He took one last look at the calm girl in the waves, smiled, got into the car, and left.

**

In the parking lot to a private plane in M State, ten muscular bodyguards carefully carried more than 20 boxes of Pei Xi's stuff onto the plane.

These were all the stuff that Pei Xi had bought when she came here for a vacation.

She was going to bring all of them back to...her future sister-in-law!

On the plane, Pei Xi gave her husband, who was a Hollywood star, a call.

Bill, a Hollywood superstar, was voted by the netizens as the most charming man for ten consecutive years.

Initially, Pei Xi had chosen this husband because he was good-looking, but she had forgotten that he was also very rich!

The Pei family was already rich enough, and so was her husband!

What a tragedy!

1

On the other end of the phone, the man's voice was deep and magnetic, and he spoke in a foreign language fluently, "baby, have you finally thought of me and are coming home?"

"I do miss you, but...I have to go back to my country first..." Pei Xi smiled.

Bill was so anxious that he started speaking Chinese, "ah? Why so sudden?"

Pei Xi replied, "who else could it be? It's for my third brother. He's almost 30 years old and there's finally something going on. I have to go back and check on him."

"Pei Huai? Is it a boy or a girl?" Bill asked immediately.

Pei Xi was speechless.

She was about to answer, but she wasn't entirely sure.

"She looks like a woman in the photo," she said.

"I'm not sure," Bill said.

When he received the news that Pei Xi had already boarded the plane, Pei Huai was driving to the seaside in the suburbs of A City.

It was Su Ji's first day of outdoor shooting.

He came right after a meeting.

When he arrived, Su Ji had just finished filming.

Pei Huai nodded at Sonya when he saw her.

Sonya also nodded to him. At this moment, she was not as arrogant as usual. However, just as she was about to ask something, he was already walking away.

Pei Huai saw that she was wearing a sweatshirt, her whole body was wet, and a towel was wrapped around her. His thick eyebrows furrowed slightly.

Yang Xiaotao said, "Su Ji, look! It's the boss!"

Su Ji dried her hair and walked forward when she saw Pei Huai.

Pei Huai looked at her for a long time before his gaze fell on her hand that was holding the towel.

Sonya came over. "Although it's her first day of shooting, she did a good job."

"Ms. Sonya, is this how your crew ensures the safety of the artists?" Pei Huai said coldly.

Sonya immediately became nervous, "what happened? I'll send her to the hospital if she's injured."

The next second, Pei Huai pulled Su Ji's hand and extended it in front of Sonya.

Sonya's face was about to touch Su Ji's skin when she saw a...shallow, bloodless "big" wound about 4mm long.

Su Ji was speechless.

Yang Xiaotao was speechless.

Chapter 97: Double Standard

Si Jingchuan was speechless.

Sonya was speechless.

How did he see such a small cut?

If this wound was not bandaged, it would...heal by itself.

However, Pei Huai actually went to the trunk to get the medicine box.

Sonya, who had witnessed all of this, was shocked.

It was as if she had been struck by lightning.

The Pei family were all hopeless romantics. A certain someone had once praised her to the heavens, but he was definitely not as attentive as Pei Huai!

The divorce was the right decision!

Meanwhile, Yang Xiaotao kept her head still and only moved her eyes. She looked at Su Ji and then at the boss.

What's going on?

When she saw Pei Huai covering the mouth of her idol's savior during the live broadcast last time, she had told her roommates that Pei Huai was jealous and did not want Su Ji to give the little boy CPR.

However, her roommates laughed at her for thinking too much!

Seeing Yang Xiaotao's expression, Su Ji said very naturally, "he's just worried about his employees."

Yang Xiaotao did not believe her. When the boss returned, she asked carefully, "boss, my hand is injured too."

"So?" Pei Huai asked without even looking at her.

1

The double standard! Her guess was absolutely correct!

Chapter 98: He is Also Left-handed?

Pei Huai's medicine box was well-equipped.

It didn't look big, but everything was there.

Su Ji noticed that there was a small bottle inside. It looked similar to the bottles and jars that she had, and they all had a mysterious aura.

...

However, Pei Huai's bottles were properly inspected and had a mark of approval.

Pei Huai was a neat freak. Everything inside was arranged very neatly. At this moment, he was taking out the things he needed to disinfect and bandage Su Ji.

In fact, it wasn't just that wound. When she was surfing, she got several small cuts.

The sea water was very dirty, and the wounds had been soaked in it for a long time, so they needed to be disinfected.

Su Ji's gaze fell on the small bottle. The name of the medicine was "all-purpose medicine."

Seeing that, Su Ji paused. She asked, "can you give me one of those pills?"

Pei Huai glanced at them indifferently, "take them all. I still have more."

After he finished speaking, he opened the bottle of disinfectant and said, "your hand."

"Oh, thanks." Su Ji extended one hand to him and picked up the all-purpose medicine with the other. She spun the bottle and looked at it.

There was no ingredient list.

Su Ji rarely looked so serious. After looking at it for a while, she put the medicine bottle into her pocket.

This was the first time Yang Xiaotao and Sonya felt uncomfortable watching someone disinfect a wound.

Pei Huai's right hand held Su Ji's hand in place, while his left hand, which held a cotton swab that was dipped in disinfectant, slowly slid from the joint of her ring finger to the tip of her finger, and rubbed on her fingertip...

Su Ji felt ticklish, and her delicate jawline unconsciously tightened.

Even when he held her hand, he would tighten his grip from time to time and his slightly rough fingers would rub against her delicate palm.

At this moment, Yang Xiaotao and Sonya had already left. The other staff members were ready to pack up, leaving only the two of them here. They looked serene.

The cameraman carried the camera and scanned the beach. When the camera caught sight of Pei Huai and Su Ji, he couldn't help but be stunned by the scene.

"Sonya, why do I feel like they are a couple at this moment? If this scene were to be in your MV, it would definitely be awesome."

"Try taking a shot. Just the appearance fee of that man alone is enough to bankrupt us."

The cameraman quickly deleted the footage and turned off the camera.

Su Ji looked at Pei Huai's hand movements and suddenly asked, "you're left-handed?"

Pei Huai glanced at her.

"..."

So?

"I used to know someone who was also left-handed," Su Ji said.

Since being left-handed wasn't that unusual, Pei Huai didn't ask further.

After the disinfection, a band-aid was put on the wound.

After he was done, he did not let go of Su Ji's hand immediately. Instead, he said, "come to the company tomorrow morning. I've found an acting coach for you."

Su Ji thought for a while. There was nothing important for her to do tomorrow morning other than school, so she agreed, "thank you for your help, boss."

**

The next day, Pei Xi's plane landed at 6a.m.

Shen Mu arranged a few cars to pick her up, mainly because she had a lot of luggage.

Pei Xingxing was still groggy from sleep when he saw an extremely beautiful woman lying in his bed.

Seeing that he was awake, Pei Xi cupped his warm and smooth little face and kissed it.

She had been married to her husband for ten years, but they still did not have any children.

The doctors couldn't find out what was wrong with them. Her second and third brother were skilled physicians, but they just didn't know much about fertility.

Seeing how cute his little nephew was, Pei Xi's heart was filled with affection.

Pei Xingxing was mesmerized by her kiss and instantly felt awake.

He glanced shyly at Pei Song, who was standing at the side, "dad, who is she?"

Pei Song crossed his arms and leaned against the door frame, a smirk on his lips, "see? I told you to come back often. My son doesn't even know who you are."

Pei Xingxing immediately figured out who she was, "aunty!"

He looked so cute.

Pei Xi kissed him a few more times and said, "of course he remembers me!"

Pei Qingshen leaned on his walking stick and grinned by the door. He was definitely happy that his granddaughter had returned from abroad.

However, looking at his three grandchildren, one had a husband but no children, one had a child but no wife, and the last had nothing.

He hoped that Pei Huai would catch up.

During breakfast, Pei Xingxing stopped eating after two bites and hugged his aunt, asking her all sorts of questions.

"Aunty, what's a 'manager'?"

Pei Xi replied, "they manage celebrities and help them earn money."

"Then, which celebrity do you manage?"

"Even if I tell you, you won't know her," Pei Xi laughed.

"Don't underestimate my son. He knows the celebrity you're managing." Pei Song laughed softly and looked at Pei Xingxing, "tell her who's your favorite female star."

Pei Xingxing instantly turned into a starry-eyed fan, "Ms. Su!"

Pei Xi was stunned. Even Pei Xingxing liked Su Ji so much?

She heard that it was their grandfather who first took a fancy to her and then introduced her to Pei Huai.

Su Ji must have satisfied all the aesthetic criteria of the Pei family members.

Now, she was even more looking forward to seeing the person!

"Pei Huai, when am I going to the office?"

Pei Huai ate slowly. "You've just returned to the country. Rest first. There'll be a meeting in a few days."

**

Su Ji took a taxi to the company at the agreed time. On the way, she received a call from Pan Lian, “you’re not going to class today?”

Their university wasn’t like an ordinary university. It was normal to take leave and skip classes if there were work-related matters.

“I’m going to Blue Whale,” Su Ji replied.

Pan Lian replied with an “oh.” At this moment, she was already in the hall. She sounded nervous, “but there’s Mr. Hao’s acting class today. He’s the type to hold grudges. If you skip class, he might give you enough credits to graduate.”

Su Ji massaged her temples, feeling a headache coming on, “alright, I got it.”

However, just as Pan Lian hung up the phone, she heard a student running over to announce, “Mr. Gong just called to say that he had something important to do at the last minute. This class has been moved to next week!”

“???”

At the same time, Hao Gou was frantically urging the taxi driver, “please hurry up! I can’t be late on my first day! Whether or not I become successful in the future depends on this!”

Chapter 99: Exposed!

Half an hour later, Hao Gou finally arrived.

Hao Gou had been in the industry for more than 20 years and was used to the cold and harsh nature of the entertainment industry.

Among all the big companies, Blue Whale Entertainment was the leading agency.

...

Hao Gou was lucky enough to be chosen by the CEO to coach one of their artists, so he had to perform well!

When he met Pei Huai at the door, Hao Gou smiled brightly, “CEO Pei!”

“She is already inside.” Pei Huai had just finished his meeting.

“Are you going to watch the class today?”

“Yes,” Pei Huai nodded slightly.

Hao Gou was instantly extremely nervous, “don’t worry, I won’t let you down.”

The two of them entered the room. Someone was doing a split on the ground and playing with her mobile phone.

Actually, she wasn't playing on her phone. She was dealing with the orders for medicinal herbs.

"Hello, I'm your acting coach, my name is Yan..."

"Mr. Hao Gou?"

Su Ji raised her head and met Hao Gou's gaze.

It seemed like her credits were saved.

Hao Gou was dumbfounded.

He might not recognize all the students in his class, but he definitely remembered Su Ji.

"Su Ji?" Hao Gou looked at Su Ji, then at Pei Huai. Is she the one you asked me to coach? "

"You two know each other?" Pei Huai asked with both hands in his pockets.

"I'm her teacher," Hao Gou said with an embarrassed smile, "we met in class before."

He was already teaching for free, but Pei Huai had spent a huge sum of money to hire him.

However, Pei Huai did not mind, "that's even better. You should be familiar with each other then."

Su Ji summarized Hao Gou's personality in one simple sentence, "he's particularly sharp-tongued."

Pei Huai was speechless.

His gaze shot towards Hao Gou.

Hao Gou: "um...it's so that they are motivated to improve themselves. Don't worry CEO Pei, I remember Su Ji. She's the most intelligent student in this batch! I won't be mean to her!"

"That's good then." Pei Huai nodded.

It was Mr. Hao Gou's first private lesson. He planned to find out Su Ji's strengths and weaknesses first.

He asked Su Ji to act out one of the few scenes he prepared..

Even with Pei Huai around, Su Ji did not hold back.

Hao Gou said to Pei Huai, "you should have seen the way she portrayed a demon concubine. She did it very well."

"Really?" Pei Huai chuckled affectionately.

Su Ji learnt fast. Soon, Hao Gou found that she was very good at tough and emotional scenes, but delicate micro-expressions were her shortcomings.

Su Ji was similar to Pei Huai. She usually had a stoic face, and even when she smiled, it was mostly a cold smile.

Hao Gou was definitely a professional when it came to acting.

He immediately decided to let Su Ji practice smiling.

Coincidentally, Su Ji had read the MV's script. She was going to shoot the scene in a few days. The last scene was in a hospital ward. Before Si Jingchuan would leave the room, Su Ji was supposed to smile at him.

This shot was particularly important as it would showcase her beauty and convey the emotion of a farewell scene.

If she mastered the smile, not only would it improve her acting skills, it would also be very helpful for the shoot.

“Action!”

Su Ji turned around and smiled.

The requirement was that the smile must be bright, warm, and of a person who had her first love.

Although Su Ji's smile was beautiful, Hao Gou's back was wet.

That gaze, that expression, looked like she was threatening him!

He instantly felt as if a great disaster was about to befall him.

Hao Gou thought that maybe he was the problem.

He rubbed his hands and asked Pei Huai, “CEO Pei, can you stand there and be the male lead? You don't have to do anything, just wait for her to turn around.”

This way, it was easier for him to observe Su Ji's micro-expression.

Pei Huai slowly raised his head, showing a strong interest in his proposal.

He stood up elegantly and slid his phone into his pocket.

Hao Gou arranged their positions.

He stood behind Su Ji, with his back to the French window.

Su Ji closed her eyes and remembered what Hao Gou said.

After a two second pause.

Su Ji turned around.

She seemed to turn her head casually, but Pei Huai saw a light in her eyes.

Su Ji first looked at him, and a second later, her lips curved into a smile.

When she smiled, her eyes naturally curved up.

Pei Huai's body stiffened. A few images flashed past his eyes, but they didn't seem to belong to his memory.

He didn't know if Su Ji was in character, but he was!

“You’re better than before, but your smile is still too seductive. What we want is the kind of smile that is pure, that makes others want to protect you...”

So she had to smile like a pretentious b*tch?

Su Ji clenched her fists, resisting the urge to punch Hao Gou.

This was all for the sake of art, and with it, her little wallet would also fatten up!

Then, she turned around and smiled as gently as she could.

Pei Huai’s palms, which were in his pockets, were sweating slightly.

“It’s still lacking something, try...”

Again.

And again.

Another hour passed.

Hao Gou was still striving for perfection.

Just as he mentioned that he wanted to try for the 20th time, Pei Huai, whose forehead was covered in sweat, finally couldn’t bear it anymore.

“Huh?”

Pei Huai’s jaw was tense as he pursed his dry lips without a change in expression, “I think it’s already very good.”

He was already seduced.

Su Ji’s mood was a little better after receiving the affirmation.

Hao Gou wanted to try again, but when he saw that the boss’ neck was red, he guessed that he was tired.

“Alright, Su Ji, you’ve actually improved a lot since the beginning. Let me just...”

Pei Huai received a call from Shen Mu.

He thought that he was calling about work, but when he picked up the phone, Shen Mu said, “boss! Someone is investigating Old Master Pei!”

Pei Qingshen had already retired from the business world for many years, so Pei Huai was confused, “what do you mean?”

“‘Sunset lover’ is about to be exposed!”

Chapter 100: Masochist

This was what happened.

After Su Ji and the other two went to Blue Whale, an online poll was created.

[“Do you think that this job-hopping incident is just Su Ji and the others protesting, or Zhou Xuefang is difficult to work with?]

...

Their fans had been arguing on the internet for several days.

There were many students from Kyokushin who participated in the war. Of course, they were on Su Ji’s side.

Zhou Xuefang’s fans saw that they were outnumbered and tried to come up with a plan.

They dug out the video of Su Ji during the finals. In their opinion, the top few people on the list were all suspicious.

However, “.”, who was in first place, was really mysterious and low-profile.

There was no information about the account.

Everyone’s eyes fell on “Sunset lover” who was ranked second.

Zhou Xuefang’s fans were speculating about this person’s identity.

Most of them said that he was a retired boss of some factory who provided for Su Ji.

Zhou Xuefang had already seen all of this in the forum. She did not stop them.

The more they speculated, the more curious they became. The entire internet was trying to find out who “Sunset lover” was!

Shen Mu called to ask for the boss’ opinion, “boss, if this goes on, Old Master Pei’s account will be hacked sooner or later. Should we help him secure it?”

Pei Huai was silent for a moment before he replied, “I’ll handle this, you don’t have to worry about it.”

**

In the next few days, Su Ji went back and forth between the school, Blue Whale, and the MV filming location.

She was very busy.

That day at the beach, Yang Xiaotao had witnessed her and Pei Hua’s public display of affection, but Yang Xiaotao was very tight-lipped and did not tell anyone what she had seen that day.

She didn’t even mention it to her idol.

Sometimes, Meng Na would ask, “I heard that CEO Pei rarely goes to the office. But why do I run into him every time I come here?”

Yang Xiaotao would smile knowingly.

Su Ji was at the amusement park and the cinema for the subsequent scenes.

After getting to know each other for the past few days, Sonya's team witnessed a unique "couple vibe" between Su Ji and Si Jingchuan.

At the amusement park, Si Jingchuan had fainted after one round of the Sledge Hammer Swing. Su Ji had given him three pills and asked him to hang on until the end of the day.

Si Jingchuan complained that they had gone too far. He was already in such a state, yet they still asked him to go to work while he was sick.

Then, Su Ji looked at him coldly, "don't waste my time."

Si Jingchuan strode toward the ride as if he was being controlled by someone else.

At the movie theater, Sonya's team had booked the entire theater for a horror movie. They wanted to show the typical heartwarming scene of a boy bringing a girl to watch a horror movie and then secretly peeking at the girl's expression.

Then, the zombie in the film appeared. The big screen in the cinema lit up. Si Jingchuan was so scared that he wouldn't open his eyes. No matter how the director coaxed and persuaded him, he wouldn't open them.

In his moment of despair, Su Ji "comforted" him patiently, "I'll count to three. If you don't open your eyes, you'll definitely see something scarier than zombies."

Si Jingchuan's eyes widened instantly.

Su Ji treated her male friends completely differently from her girl friends. If it was Pan Lian, she would definitely stroke her head flirtatiously, "don't be afraid, I'm here ~"

Fu Xiaofeng couldn't help but admire Su Ji.

He had been Mr. Jing's manager for a long time, and it was the first time he listened to someone so obediently.

Wasn't this just filming a music video? Was he here for military training?

Si Jingchuan must be a masochist.

After being threatened by Su Ji for a few days, he would sit next to Su Ji during their break. Even if they bumped into some gangsters on the street, as long as Su Ji was beside him, he would feel confident.

They got into the car with Fu Xiaofeng following behind Si Jingchuan.

Si Jingchuan looked at Su Ji in admiration, "it would be great if I could hire Su Ji as my bodyguard."

"Are you joking? Although she's a newcomer, she's quite popular recently. How can you ask her to be your bodyguard?"

"I'll pay her a very high salary," Si Jingchuan replied.

"Money isn't everything..." Fu Xiaofeng said.

Before he could finish his words, Su Ji, who was walking in front, stopped and waited for them to catch up.

Si Jingchuan had been trained by her to speak in a very gentle manner, “what’s the matter?”

“It’s not impossible,” Su Ji replied.

“Huh?” Si Jingchuan asked.

“If the salary is high enough, it’s not impossible,” Su Ji replied. (A certain CEO might offer a hundred times more than what SI Jingchuan is offering.)

Fu Xiaofeng was speechless.

**

The last scene was in the hospital.

Su Ji didn’t have any other scenes today except for her smile at the end.

Before the shoot started, Si Jingchuan cracked his knuckles and said, “it’s finally my turn. Today, I must show my true strength.”

Fu Xiaofeng: “Who would’ve thought that the newcomer would become the best actor’s boss after shooting a music video!”

In fact, acting was his strong suit, especially when it came to romantic scenes.

Previously, he had won Best Actor because of his role in “My First Love”.

At that time, he was even known as the nation’s most beautiful teenage boy.

The fans were going crazy for him.

“Action!” The director shouted.

When Si Jingchuan raised his head again, the look in his eyes changed instantly.

On the hospital bed opposite him, Su Ji had already fallen asleep because she had been lying there for too long.

The shock, powerlessness, despair, and heartache he felt when he found out that his girlfriend was terminally ill were vividly expressed.

Sonya, on the other hand, finally saw the true ability of the actor on whom she had spent a lot of money.

Su Ji woke up when the last scene was shot.

Si Jingchuan curled his lips, “go to sleep, boss. I’ll be in charge today!”

With the help of the makeup artist’s superb skills, Su Ji’s face looked pale as she half-leaned on the bed.

She didn’t need to act. She just had to sit there and look beautiful and sickly at the same time.

Before Si Jingchuan left the ward, all Su Ji had to do was smile at him, and the MV would have a perfect ending.

Before they started filming, he considerately told Su Ji, "I'll turn around to look at you so that the feelings are stronger. Don't be pressured"

"Sure," Su Ji replied.

Then, Si Jingchuan opened the door of the ward and turned around slowly.
