Chapter 1971: Only An Idiot Would Believe

The final tabulation came out. Adding Hillier, An Si, and the others who had left earlier to this calculation, a total of seventeen archbishops and two hundred and thirteen bishops had sought allegiance with Dun Ei.

Elan was infuriated by this result, and her killing intent almost solidified the air around her.

“These traitors!” Terrifying blue flames danced in Elan’s pupils. “Your Majesty, please give me the order. I will deal with them one by one, personally!”

Huang Xiaolong nonchalantly waved his hand while saying, “Now is still not the time for you to act in person. Wait until I return from the Reverence Moon Academy. We’ll flatten the Radiance Divine City once and for all and eliminate Dun Ei. It’s not too late to deal with these traitors after that.”

Seeing that Huang Xiaolong did not put the matter to heart, Elan couldn’t help but speak, “Your Majesty, our Radiance Knight Corp’s strength was originally at par with the Radiance Divine City, but now, with Hillier, An Si, and the others’ betrayal and joining the Radiance Divine City, our overall strength is now weaker by one-tenth! This has also affected our knights’ morale!”

Huang Xiaolong listened to Elan’s anxious and ‘concerned’ reminder. He smiled and said, “How about this, make an announcement, just say our Radiance Knight Corp is currently looking for eighteen people to fill the positions of archbishops. Anyone who can successfully get the position, and is willing to serve within the corp, will get ten million low-grade chaos spirit stones!”

“W-what?! Ten-ten million low-grade chaos spirit stones? Each person?!!” Elan’s heart skipped a beat from shock.

Eighteen people, that meant one hundred and eighty million!

She really could not figure out how Huang Xiaolong has so many low-grade chaos spirit stones?!

Even if Huang Xiaolong was the Hell's Nether King, how the hell did he get his hands on so many low-grade chaos spirit stones?

Watching Elan's expression, Huang Xiaolong chuckled softly, "I believe a lot of people would come for an interview because of the ten million chaos spirit stones, wouldn't they?"

Elan responded with a wry sentence, "That is for certain."

No doubt people would be swarming to their door once the news got out.

Ten million low-grade chaos spirit stones, ah. Even for the super church forces' pontiffs, this was an exorbitant sum.

"But we will only accept Tenth Order Emperors. These eighteen archbishops positions can be filled by Tenth Order Emperor Realm and above." Huang Xiaolong went on, "Additionally, make another announcement. I will provide each super church force with two hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones if their pontiffs join Radiance Knight Corp!"

"What, two hundred million!" Elan shrieked sharply. Her voluptuous bosom shook from excitement, and Huang Xiaolong saw white skin flashing before his eyes.

It wasn't strange that Elan lost her composure to this extent. Even a Sovereign Realm expert would be hard-pressed to take out two hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones.

Two hundred million, ah!

Even if the super church forces were to slaughter their entire domesticated herd of hog beasts, they still wouldn't be able to gather two hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones.

Two hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones was certainly an amount that could send the super church forces into a frenzy.

It took Elan quite a while to calm down, but she still looked at Huang Xiaolong with doubt, “Your Majesty, is that for real? Two hundred million? You...” She really wanted to ask if Huang Xiaolong had that many low-grade chaos spirit stones.

This was not something to joke about. Once the news was released, it couldn’t be taken back. If the Radiance Knight Corp failed to take out the said amount of low-grade chaos spirit stones, wouldn’t they become the butt of everyone’s jokes? It would certainly anger the super church forces that had the intention of joining them.

Huang Xiaolong laughed as he asked, “Do you think I’m joking?”

Huang Xiaolong took out a spatial ring and threw it at Elan. Elan caught it by reflex. When she opened the spatial ring’s restriction, the mountains of low-grade chaos spirit stones left her agape with astonishment.

Elan could only look at Huang Xiaolong with wide-eyed astonishment.

Ten, ten billion! She, she was holding ten billion low-grade chaos spirit stones in her hand!

At this time, Huang Xiaolong took out another spatial ring, and threw it at Elan again, “This ring has one billion low-grade chaos spirit stones. It’s for you.”

Elan had commanded the Radiance Knight Corp for hundreds of millions of years. She had put in a lot of effort and hard work. Huang Xiaolong naturally would not treat her badly for her loyalty and accomplishments.

Elan grasped the spatial ring with one billion low-grade chaos spirit stones in her hand. She was filled with such a blissful feeling from head to toe that she got an impulse to ‘offer’ herself to Huang Xiaolong in gratitude.

Being stared at by Elan's burning gaze, Huang Xiaolong shifted uncomfortably, "These two matters will be handed to you. You can just report the results to me later. Add another condition to the announcement that we will only accept archbishops and bishops who come within the next four months. We won't accept anyone after that!"

Elan was stupefied. Then, she took a deep breath and nodded, "Understood, Your Majesty."

Half an hour later, Elan stepped out from the hall and made the necessary preparations as she released these two astounding pieces of news.

As she had expected, when the announcement spread, it shook the whole Radiance World and other great worlds.

"What! They are recruiting eighteen archbishops. Only Tenth Order Emperor Realm experts and above will be accepted. And each person would get ten million low-grade chaos spirit stones?!"

"No matter which super church joins them, they would be given two hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones!"

"This, this, won't be true, right?! Has Huang Xiaolong gone insane? Maybe we've gone insane, have we?!"

"It seems like we're the ones who have gone mad!"

The Flat River World surface was one of the bigger world surfaces of Radiance World. The super church Peaceful Origin Church's headquarters was located here.

The Peaceful Origin Church's strength ranked within the top five among so many churches.

"Everyone, what are your opinions regarding the two announcements the Radiance Knight Corp Commander Elan has released?"

The Peaceful Origin Pontiff looked at the archbishops in the hall.

"I think this matter is ludicrous. Even if Huang Xiaolong is the King of Hell, and has obtained both the Lord of Hell and our Radiance Ancestor's treasures, he can't possibly take out so many low-grade chaos spirit stones!" Archbishop Colds snorted, shaking his head.

"That's right! He is going to give two hundred million to each super church?! Only an idiot would believe that."

Another archbishop sneered, "I don't believe Huang Xiaolong can take out several hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones. There is no power in the entire universe that can take out that much chaos spirit stones. Even if the Heavenly Court's Emperor Di Jun sells his underwear, it's impossible!"

Everyone laughed mockingly.

But the Peaceful Origin Pontiff's eyes glimmered as he fell into contemplation.

In the Radiance Divine City, Dun Ei held a big banquet to welcome Hillier, An Si, and others who came to seek allegiance with him. The hall was in a festive atmosphere until a bishop suddenly ran into the hall in a fluster to report Elan's announcements to Dun Ei.

"What?!"

Dun Ei's smile froze on his face.

Suddenly, the rowdy hall quieted.

Brightness Emperor Lan Zhi burst out laughing all of a sudden and commented, "I think Huang Xiaolong has spun himself into a cocoon. If he fails to take out that many low-grade chaos spirit stones, he will light up the several super church's wrath. Once they gang up on Huang Xiaolong, it will be enough to entangle Huang Xiaolong for a good while!"

Chapter 1972: Empty Promises

"That's right! When Huang Xiaolong fails to take out that many low-grade chaos spirit stones, we just need to fan the fire behind those super churches. It would be strange if they don't hate Huang Xiaolong to the bone." Hillier snickered and added, "Maybe, under their rage, these super churches will join our side instead. If that's the case, then Huang Xiaolong has helped us big time!"

"That's right! This time around, Huang Xiaolong's running down a dead end on his own!" An Si snorted and laughed loudly.

A little over a month later...

Although many people did not believe that Huang Xiaolong could take out such a large sum of low-grade chaos spirit stones, there were some super churches that were willing to bet on it.

Soon, there was news of the Bright Sun Pontiff's church joining the Radiance Knight Corp. They had received two hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones on the spot!

When this piece of news traveled, it stirred the masses.

"Hmph, it's just two hundred million. Our Radiance Divine City can also take out that much amount." Brightness Emperor Lan Zhi sneered, "What's so shocking about this? moreover, The Bright Sun Church merely ranks in the twenties among so many super churches in the Radiance World."

However, a few days after the news of Bright Sun Church spread, another news soon followed.

"Frozen Sea Church has joined the Radiance Knight Corp, and they also received two hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones!"

The Frozen Sea Church's power ranked seventh among the top super churches of the radiance world!

Another two days passed.

"Crossing Flame Church also joined the Radiance Knight Corp and got two hundred low-grade chaos spirit stones!"

Almost every two days or so, there was news of another super church joining the Radiance Knight Corp. All these super churches had also received two hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones on the spot.

In a short two months, nine super church forces had officially joined the Radiance Knight Corp!

Nine super church forces, that was equivalent to 1.8 billion low-grade chaos spirit stones!

When Huang Xiaolong actually took out these 1.8 billion low-grade chaos spirit stones, it sent the whole Radiance World into a frenzy, like boiling magma.

"What?! This...? How could Huang Xiaolong take out so many low-grade chaos spirit stones!" Inside the Radiance Divine City, Dun Ei roared with rage as his face distorted with hatred.

Among the nine super churches, one ranked within the top ten super church forces!

Although nine super churches joining the Radiance Knight Corp was far from sending the Radiance Divine City into a panic, the addition of these nine super churches' power to the Radiance Knight Corp couldn't be underestimated.

Not to mention, it had only been two months so far. There was still another two months until the deadline Huang Xiaolong had stipulated. As time passed, there would only be more super church forces coming to seek allegiance under Huang Xiaolong's banner!

Brightness Emperor Lan Zhi forced a smile on his face. “Huang Xiaolong obtained the Lord of Hell and Radiance Ancestor’s treasures. Additionally, he also got the Fiend God Emperor Palace’s treasures after destroying it. He probably sold off a lot of his acquired precious to accumulate so many low-grade chaos spirit stones. However, it is for certain he won’t be able to take out more than 1.8 billion. He’s destined to be shamed!”

But the very next day, another piece of news circulated.

“The Horizon Church joined the Radiance Knight Corp and got two hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones on the spot!”

When this news spread, the furor intensified.

This triggered a series of chain reactions. The top three super church forces could no longer sit still.

As the news of the Horizon Church joining the Radiance Knight Corp’s ranks spread, the Peaceful Origin Church’s headquarters’ main hall was enshrouded in heavy silence.

Not long ago, the Peaceful Origin Archbishop Cilda and others had mocked Huang Xiaolong, stating that he wouldn’t manage to take out such a large sum of low-grade chaos spirit stones. Now, they were sitting in embarrassment and looked extremely uncomfortable as if there were needles in their seats.

“Everyone, make preparations. Tomorrow, we will set off to the Myriad Spirits City.” Peaceful Origin Pontiff ordered.

“Your Highness Pontiff.” Archbishop Cilda stood up anxiously and persuaded, “Should we wait a bit and see how the things unfold?”

“Even though several super church forces have chosen to serve Huang Xiaolong, it does not mean he can fight against Radiance Divine City. I have heard that the Radiance Divine City has gained the support from the several Reverence Moon Academy’s Deputy Deans!”

Cilda nodded with certainty, “Absolutely reliable!”

“If the Radiance Divine City really has the support of several Reverence Moon Academy’s Deputy Deans, the winning side would only be the Radiance Divine City in the clash!” Archbishop Wei Bai analyzed coldly.

Cilda turned to the Peaceful Origin Pontiff again and said, “Thus, Your Highness, we cannot join the Radiance Knight Corp, we cannot serve Huang Xiaolong. Although two hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones are very tempting, we might not live long enough to spend them!”

Peaceful Origin Pontiff’s eyes flickered with hesitation. Originally, he had decided to join the Radiance Knight Corp, but he hadn’t expected the Reverence Moon Academy’s Deputy Deans to support the Radiance Divine City.

“Then, what do you all think? Should we remain neutral, or join the Radiance Divine City?”

Peaceful Origin Pontiff was swayed.

Cilda nodded, “That’s right! The Senior Reverence Moon has not appeared for an unknown number of years. Now, the Reverence Moon Academy is basically managed by several Deputy Deans. Now that the Radiance Divine City has obtained their support, it means that the Radiance Divine City has obtained the entire Reverence Moon Academy’s support. Even if we join a side, it should be the Radiance Divine City!”

As the number of super churches joining the Radiance Knight Corp increased another news took the Radiance World by storm—'the Radiance Divine City has received the unanimous support from the Reverence Moon Academy's Deputy Deans.'

In an instant, the super churches that were rushing to the Myriad Spirits City to join the Radiance Knight Corpse halted their plans and swayed indecisively like the Peaceful Origin Church.

Subsequently, Radiance Divine City's Dun Ei released an announcement, "Any super churches that come to ally with his Radiance Divine City would receive an equal share of the Radiance Knight Corp and Huang Xiaolong's treasures after he annihilates them!"

As expected, the news stirred and shook the Radiance World, and other super churches that were on their way to the Radiance Knight Corp turned around and headed in the Radiance Divine City's direction.

When Elan reported this matter to Huang Xiaolong, Huang Xiaolong sneered, "Dun Ei is merely speaking empty promises, I can't believe there are people who believe it."

Elan shook her head, "It is mainly because of the Reverence Moon Academy's Deputy Deans supporting Dun Ei. This is the only reason that swayed them to turn to Dun Ei's side. If this continues, the situation would be detrimental to us."

Huang Xiaolong sneered, "Merely empty promises from someone who doesn't know how to speak them. Go, release the word, just say after we annihilate the Radiance Divine City, the Radiance Divine City's treasury would be equally divided among the super churches that joined our ranks. On top of that, within three years, the super churches, siding with me, will get another two hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones after I annihilate the Radiance Divine City!"

Elan sucked in a breath of cold air then said, "Give, give another two hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones...?!"

Huang Xiaolong chuckled, "What, are you reluctant? Don't worry. It's just low-grade chaos spirit stones."

Now that he had broken through to the Emperor Realm, he could already condense chaos spirit stones. Thus the thing he didn't lack the most was low-grade chaos spirit stones.

"The identity I had you arranged for me to enter the Reverence Moon Academy, is it done?" Huang Xiaolong asked.

Elan answered respectfully, "It is done. Does your Highness plan to go to the Reverence Moon Academy today?"

Huang Xiaolong nodded his head.

Chapter 1973: Reverence Moon Divine City

Huang Xiaolong indeed planned to head to the Reverence Moon Academy in a day or two. As the situation grew increasingly tense and urgent, he needed to get the item left behind by the Radiance Ancestor as soon as possible.

Huang Xiaolong subsequently summoned the two fourteen-winged Radiance Angels and asked Elan if she knew any method to let them break through to the Sovereign Realm.

Elan pondered momentarily before saying solemnly, "There is a place that might give them an opportunity to break through to the Sovereign Realm!"

"Oh, what place is that?!" Huang Xiaolong's eyes lit up immediately. Originally, he was just trying his chance by asking Elan that question without harboring much hope. Who would've thought such a place existed.

Elan went on, "I've heard that the Reverence Moon Academy has a Radiance Flame Volcano that was obtained by Senior Reverence Moon. It's an amazing treasure. If a peak late-Tenth Order Emperor Realm expert enters to cultivate inside the Radiance Flame Volcano, it can significantly increase the chances of advancing to the Sovereign Realm!"

Huang Xiaolong was surprised. He knew that the Three Lives Flower had this effect, but the Radiance Flame Volcano did the same too?!

But only one Three Lives Flower existed in the whole universe. Thus only one person could be lucky enough to consume it. However, from analyzing Elan's words, was there no usage limit to the Radiance Flame Volcano?

“As long as you’re a peak late-Tenth Order Emperor, if you cultivate inside the Radiance Flame Volcano, you can increase the chances of breaking through to the Sovereign Realm?” Huang Xiaolong asked in astonishment.

Elan nodded and said, “That is so, but there is another condition to this. The person who wishes to cultivate inside this Volcano must possess a radiance or light element godhead. For other elements’ godheads, there are limited benefits cultivating inside the Radiance Flame Volcano. Moreover, even though the Radiance Flame Volcano can increase the chances of a person breaking through to Sovereign Realm, the percentage of this chance depends on each person’s talent.”

“Based on their talents, if they cultivate inside the Radiance Flame Volcano, what do you think their chances are?” Huang Xiaolong pointed at the two fourteen-winged Radiance Angels behind him as he asked.

“Twelve-winged Radiance Angel is twenty percent,” Elan went on seriously, “I am not certain about fourteen-wings. Moreover, both of them have already reached the limit of peak late-Tenth Order Emperor Realm. So, my guess is at least forty percent!”

Although it was only forty percent, which was less than half, it was still shocking.

“The thing is that although the Radiance Flame Volcano is at the Reverence Moon Academy, it’s deep inside the academy’s forbidden land. No one can go in there.” Elan shook her head, “Even the several Reverence Moon Academy’s Deputy Deans are not qualified to enter the grounds. If Your Majesty wants to go there, you must obtain Senior Reverence Moon’s permission!”

The problem was that Reverence Moon Old Man had not appeared in public for countless years. Thus it was impossible for Huang Xiaolong to enter the Reverence Moon Academy’s forbidden land.

Even if Huang Xiaolong met the Reverence Moon Old Man by chance, it didn’t mean that Reverence Moon Old Man would allow Huang Xiaolong to enter the Radiance Flame Volcano.

Watching the furrows between Huang Xiaolong’s brows deepening, Elan quickly said, “ Senior Reverence Moon has laid restrictions in the depths of the forbidden land. Even I won’t be able to trespass into the grounds forcefully.”

Huang Xiaolong was depressed suddenly. He indeed had thought of breaking into the forbidden land by force if there was really no other choice.

Huang Xiaolong already knew Elan’s cultivation realm. She was at the peak early Second Order Sovereign Realm. If Elan also couldn’t enter the forbidden land by force, he could only extinguish this idea in his mind.

Two days went by in a blink.

Before leaving, Huang Xiaolong gave Elan a list of tasks and had her standby for war. After his return, they would attack the Radiance Divine City.

When the two halves of the Heavenly Hall had integrated successfully, its flying speed had superseded the Netherking Flying Ship.

As only Elan knew about Huang Xiaolong’s trip to the Reverence Moon Academy, his departure did not alert anyone’s attention.

With the Heavenly Hall speeding across the air, Huang Xiaolong arrived at the Reverence Moon Divine City roughly two months later.

The Reverence Moon Divine City was located in the center region of the Radiance World. It was built in the air among the vast space of Radiance World as if it was a world surface on its own.

It was constructed using Moonlight Tide Rocks that were unique to the Radiance World. These rocks' sparkles seemed to last an eternity, and its light could be seen from billions of li away. From afar, the Reverence Moon Divine City was an eye-catching sight, yet from a close distance, its glow was soft and gentle to the eyes as if one was bathed within comfortable moonlight.

The Reverence Moon Divine City was more shocking than Huang Xiaolong had imagined. It was not a visual shock, but amazement that reached deep into the soul. Before this Reverence Moon Divine City, even a peak late-Ten Order Emperor Realm expert would feel small and insignificant.

A powerful late-Tenth Order Emperor Realm expert could shatter a supersized mainland with one punch and reduce a megapolis into dust. However, this Reverence Moon Divine City gave a feeling of immemorial indestructibility, and no power could shake it even for a fraction.

The Reverence Moon Divine City was a prosperous bustling city. Various church forces' disciples and experts could be seen at every corner of the streets. Huang Xiaolong also saw many disciples of the top one hundred Emperor Palaces, as well as disciples from the Buddha World. There were even disciples from Hell's powerful forces.

"I've heard that the Fire World's Son of Fire arrived at the city a few days ago, but he too lost to our Son of Light. Moreover, he was subdued by our Son of Light's talent, and now worships the Son of Light as an elder brother!"

"The Son of Fire is not the only one, there is also the Dragon Lord's young lord, and the Buddha World's Yelu. On top of that, Hell Ghost World's Fengdu City's Young Lord Qin Huangzhong, Asura World's Misty Palace's Young Miss He Jingyi have also arrived."

Conversations of others on the streets flowed into Huang Xiaolong's ears.

Huang Xiaolong was inwardly surprised. He was amazed that Qin Huangzhong and He Jingyi were visiting the city. It seems like the Son of Light's battle stage had truly impelled various world's geniuses over.

Because Huang Xiaolong's mount was a ten-winged pegasus, he attracted a lot of eyes on the street.

"He's actually riding on a ten-winged pegasus. Who's this kid?!"

"I recognize him! A few years ago, he killed the Indestructible Pontiff with one punch through the chest at the Sea of Radiance. He even sent Bishop Lu Zhaoming flying with one slap. After that incident, Bishop Lu Zhaoming offered a twenty thousand low-grade chaos spirit stones' bounty for his capture! If I remember correctly, didn't he go to the Myriad Spirits City some time back? He actually fled the Myriad Spirits City in one piece!"

"It's that kid!"

Because what took place subsequently was barred by Elan, the news of Huang Xiaolong killing Lu Zhaoming and Abra did not spread out.

Still, the sight of Huang Xiaolong killing Indestructible Pontiff with one punch at the Sea of Radiance was too shocking, garnering him a mild notorious reputation.

"This kid actually dared to show up here in the Reverence Moon Divine City after killing Indestructible Pontiff?! I've heard that a group of Indestructible Church's experts are in the city right now!"

Huang Xiaolong did not pay these conversations and gazes any attention, and he continued towards the Reverence Moon Academy on the ten-winged pegasus.

However, not long after Huang Xiaolong entered the city, a group of people was approaching with ferocious air from the other side.

Judging from the emblem on these people's battle robes, most of these people belonged to the Indestructible Church, while others were the experts invited by them.

“What’s up?” Huang Xiaolong asked calmly.

Chapter 1974: Offer to the Son of Light for Free?

A middle-aged man walked out from the opposite group with his icy stare fixed on Huang Xiaolong. “Punk, don’t act like the fool here. You killed His Highness, Indestructible Pontiff. Do you choose to commit suicide or die on your knees?!”

“What the h*ll?!” The faces of the Indestructible Church’s experts and the experts they had invited were all purple with rage.

“Punk, you’re ready to die?!”

“Get down here to die! I’m going to chop you into pieces!” The Indestructible Church’s experts’ furious yells rang through the street.

The middle-aged man raised his hand, quieting the screaming Indestructible Church’s experts and the others. His gaze was icier than before as he directed his words at Huang Xiaolong, “I have taken over the Indestructible Church’s pontiff’s position. My first task is to let your head roll off your neck and extract your soul as offerings to appease our Lord Indestructible Pontiff! I don’t believe you can hide inside this Reverence Moon Divine City forever. Let’s go!”

The Reverence Moon Divine City had rules that everyone needed to follow. Not even the Indestructible Church dared to violate the city’s rules and kill Huang Xiaolong on the streets. But it would be different once Huang Xiaolong stepped out of the city’s perimeter.

“This kid could still keep his calm. Had it been me, I would be in a panic thinking about how to escape. There are Indestructible Church’s disciples in the Reverence Moon Academy. Moreover, the Indestructible Church is very close to Teacher Xi Bolai of the inner courtyard. If the Indestructible Church uses this connection, this kid would be kicked out from the Reverence Moon Divine City in no time!”

“Once he’s kicked out from the city, the Indestructible Church’s people would make him wish he was dead instead!”

Other surrounding experts shook their heads as they watched Huang Xiaolong continue onwards leisurely on the ten-winged pegasus.

The corners of Huang Xiaolong’s mouth curved up slightly in a cold sneer. The inner courtyard’s teacher, Xi Bolai?

The Reverence Moon Academy was divided into the outer courtyard, inner courtyard, and also the imperial courtyard.

Naturally, the students of imperial courtyard were among the academy’s strongest, and could give him some small troubles.

Since the Reverence Moon Academy was located on the southside, and Huang Xiaolong had entered the Reverence Moon Divine City through the northern side city gates, it took him a day to reach the academy. Hence, close to dusk, he entered an inn and rented an independent yard to himself. Huang Xiaolong decided to rest there for the night and report to the Reverence Moon Academy the next day.

The identity Elan had prepared for him was of a new student recruited into the imperial courtyard.

Initially, Huang Xiaolong had wanted Elan to arrange an inner courtyard teacher’s identity for him. However, to become an inner courtyard teacher required passing through several layers of assessments, and lastly, it required a deputy dean’s approval. Even with the Radiance Knight Corp’s influence, their hands could not reach so deep as to arrange the identity of an inner courtyard teacher.

However, shortly after Huang Xiaolong entered his independent courtyard, an uninvited guest came knocking at his door, "The Son of Fire wants to visit me?" Huang Xiaolong looked at the inn's staff who had come to report to him.

"Yes, m'lord, do you want to...?" The staff inquired, testing if Huang Xiaolong wanted to go out and welcome the Son of Fire personally.

But Huang Xiaolong's answer stupefied the staff, "Then you go bring him in."

The staff suggested carefully, "M'lord, that person is His Highness the Son of Fire, Lin Tianrui. Erm, you see, do you want to go out to welcome him?"

It was the Son of Fire Lin Tianrui they were talking about! Even the City Mayor of their Reverence Moon Divine City would greet Lin Tianrui personally.

"There is no need. Since he wants to pay me a visit, you can lead him in." Huang Xiaolong responded nonchalantly.

Not to mention Lin Tianrui, even if the ruler of Fire World was here himself, it was not necessary for Huang Xiaolong to go out and greet personally.

The staff did not notice the flicker of doubt in Huang Xiaolong's eyes. What was Lin Tianrui's goal behind paying him a visit? He had no connection with any forces in the Fire World.

On the other hand, after coming out from Huang Xiaolong's courtyard, the staff braced himself as he approached Lin Tianrui and said, "Your Highness Lin Tianrui, that lord ordered me to lead you in."

Lin Tianrui was obviously surprised, "He really only ordered you to lead us in?"

"Yes, Your Highness Lin Tianrui!" The staff nodded honestly and dared not look at Lin Tianrui.

This angered the Fire World's experts behind Lin Tianrui.

"That punk! Who does he think he is? Our Son of Fire Lin Tianrui came personally. How dare he not come out to welcome him! Truly ridiculous! At any other time, with his identity, he's not even qualified to carry His Highness' shoes!" One of the guards snorted angrily.

"Your Highness, I will go grab that punk out and have him welcome Your Highness on his knees!" Another guard clamored.

Lin Tianrui raised a hand, quieting everyone. But a cold light glinted in his eyes as he said, "There is no rush. He is putting himself on a pedestal. So let me see if his pedestal is strong enough." With that, he stepped into Huang Xiaolong's courtyard.

Seeing that, the inn's staff hurriedly sped up to lead the way while Lin Tianrui's guards followed.

When they entered the main hall, Lin Tianrui and the others saw Huang Xiaolong seating on the master's seat.

Despite their arrival, Huang Xiaolong continued sitting leisurely and acting haughty. This was like pouring oil over the guards' anger.

On the other hand, Lin Tianrui merely looked calmly at Huang Xiaolong.

"So, you are Ao Li?" Lin Tianrui spoke first.

Ao Li was the identity Huang Xiaolong was going to use as the newly recruited student of Reverence Moon Academy's imperial courtyard.

It seemed like Lin Tianrui's information network in the Radiance World was not bad since he was able to find out Ao Li's identity in such a short time.

"Just state your purpose for today's visit. I have always been a person who dislikes beating around the bush."

Huang Xiaolong did not respond to Lin Tianrui's question and stated in a straightforward manner.

Between him and Dun Ei, one side was bound to die. Since this Lin Tianrui worshipped Dun Ei's son, the Son of Light as his elder brother, Huang Xiaolong didn't see the need to show courtesy.

"Insolent!" One of Lin Tianrui's guardians, a Second Order Emperor Realm Ancestor, snapped at Huang Xiaolong for his disrespectful attitude towards Lin Tianrui.

Lin Tianrui raised his hand and stopped his guards. "Alright! In that case, I won't waste time with nonsense. I've heard that you have a ten-winged pegasus?"

Bull's eye! Huang Xiaolong snorted inwardly. Before meeting Lin Tianrui, he had been guessing Lin Tianrui's purpose. Lin Tianrui was really targeting the ten-winged pegasus.

"You want to buy my ten-winged pegasus?" Huang Xiaolong looked at Lin Tianrui with a hint of playfulness.

Lin Tianrui let out a contemptuous sneer, "Buy? I think you have misunderstood something here. You have offended the Indestructible Church, and I come here today is to give you a suggestion. I know that my elder brother requires the horn of a ten-winged pegasus, or higher, to forge an item. If you voluntarily offer the ten-winged pegasus to my elder brother, perhaps, he could take a little bit care of you. With his care, the Indestructible Church naturally won't come looking for trouble with you."

"You want me to give me ten-winged pegasus to the Son of Light for free, and then seek for his protection?" Huang Xiaolong couldn't contain the laughter bubbling up his chest and laughed loudly.

Chapter 1975: No Need For Us To Act

"What's so funny? I understand a ten-winged pegasus is very valuable. But no matter how valuable it is, it cannot be compared to one's life. You've offended the Indestructible Church. Surely you understand that you alone have insufficient strength to fight with them, whereas my elder brother can save your life!"

"Then again, if you want to become my elder brother's follower, merely a ten-winged pegasus is still a far cry from sealing the deal. If you can take out enough treasures, I can recommend you to my elder brother to become his subordinate." Lin Tianrui went on, "After all, there are countless Emperor Realm experts serving under my elder brother in the entire Radiance World, and not everyone has this kind of opportunity."

Huang Xiaolong was speechless as he 'listened' to Lin Tianrui's rubbish. Lin Tianrui actually wanted him to follow the Son of Light? On top of that, he had to take out enough treasures to 'win' this opportunity since merely a ten-winged pegasus was not enough...?

Huang Xiaolong raised his hand to cut off Lin Tianrui from babbling further and said, "Alright, I already know your purpose in coming here; you can leave now."

After seeing Huang Xiaolong brushed them off without even considering his suggestion, Lin Tianrui's face darkened, and his voice hardened, "I advise you to consider my proposal. A creature like the ten-winged pegasus is not someone with your identity can possess. It doesn't mean that you are completely safe within the boundary of Reverence Moon Divine City!"

Huang Xiaolong smiled coldly. "Are you threatening me?"

Lin Tianrui nonchalantly shrugged his shoulders and said, "You can assume that I am. Even if the Indestructible Church does not kill you, many people will take action against you because of the ten-winged pegasus. Not to mention, if others learn that my elder brother wants a ten-winged pegasus to refine something, and whoever offers it to him would be accepted as his follower, I believe, many mid-level to high-level Emperor Realm experts, would not hesitate to kill you and offer the ten-winged pegasus to my elder brother!" This time, Lin Tianrui's voice was flat. According to him, he had merely stated the obvious facts.

Huang Xiaolong slowly got up from his seat and looked tauntingly at Lin Tianrui, "To tell you the truth, I do have a lot of good things. Some are even more valuable than the ten-winged pegasus, and for a fact, you can try snatching these things from my hand right now."

Lin Tianrui dazed for a second.

"What, you don't believe me?"

Huang Xiaolong casually extended his hand to the void. A spiritual vein resembling a heavenly dragon appeared from the void, exuding robust spiritual energy. Lin Tianrui and his guards were flabbergasted by the rich spiritual energy, and their shocked gazes locked onto the spiritual vein.

"This, this is a high-grade chaos spiritual vein!" Lin Tianrui stammered foolishly.

The experts behind Lin Tianrui were already dumbstruck.

They were looking at a high-grade chaos spirit vein!!

How many years had it been since such a spiritual vein was discovered?!

After destroying the Fiend God Emperor Palace, Huang Xiaolong had also collected the treasures within the Fiend God Emperor Palace's treasury, and within these treasures, there was only one high-grade chaos spiritual vein!

The Fiend God Emperor Palace had gripped most of the Divine World in terror for several hundred years. With that, they had accumulated huge wealth through ransacking other forces, yet they only possessed one high-grade chaos spiritual vein.

One could not begin to estimate the value of this high-grade chaos spiritual vein.

High-grade chaos spiritual vein was not something that could be bought with spirit stones. For one thing, no auction house in the myriad of worlds had ever auctioned anything of this magnitude.

"Correct, a high-grade chaos spiritual vein!" With a wave of Huang Xiaolong's hand, the high-grade chaos spiritual vein vanished in the void. He looked at Lin Tianrui meaningfully and asked, "How about it? If you kill me now, not only that ten-winged pegasus is yours, but you can even get that high-grade chaos spiritual vein."

Lin Tianrui stared fixedly at Huang Xiaolong.

For a split second, killing intent nearly dominated Lin Tianrui's reasoning. He almost gave in to the overwhelming impulse of killing Huang Xiaolong on the spot to snatch the ten-winged pegasus and that high-grade chaos spiritual vein.

Even though doing so would violate the Reverence Moon Divine City's rules, the high-grade chaos spiritual vein was worth it.

With his identity, the Reverence Moon Divine City would give him a small penalty at most, but they won't want his life.

Still, Lin Tianrui suppressed his impulse to kill Huang Xiaolong.

It was because when he was about to attack, he strongly felt danger, the danger with the taste of death.

Moreover, Huang Xiaolong's was unsettlingly calm as he had even dared to display a high-grade chaos spiritual vein without any scrupulous, 'encouraging' him to snatch it!

"Your Highness, we...?" A Tenth Order Emperor Realm Ancestor behind Lin Tianrui took a step forward and inquired. His underlying meaning of having Huang Xiaolong killed was obvious.

Lin Tianrui had brought twenty-plus people with him. One amongst them was a Seventh Order Emperor, three mid-level Emperors, five high-level Emperors, and the rest were Heavenly Monarch Realm guards.

More importantly, on the surface, Huang Xiaolong was merely a Second Order Emperor Realm. In these Ancestors' eyes, it was only a matter of a split second if they wanted Huang Xiaolong's life.

Lin Tianrui raised his hand, stopping everyone from taking further actions.

“Let’s go!” Lin Tianrui took another glance at Huang Xiaolong as he commanded his group. Then, he simply turned and left. Others had no choice but to follow after him.

After stepping out from Huang Xiaolong’s courtyard, the Seventh Order Emperor Realm Ancestor was still unwilling to give up. He approached and spoke in a lowered tone, “Your Highness. We could’ve dealt with him just now. If we can get a complete high-grade chaos spiritual vein, we can cultivate numerous Emperor Realm experts.”

He was telling the truth. With high-grade chaos spiritual vein, it would be easier for peak late-Tenth Order Heavenly Monarch Realm to break through to Emperor Realm if they could cultivate with high-grade chaos spirit stones.

“I agree, Your Highness! Once the word about that punk possessing a high-grade chaos spiritual vein spreads, it would be much more troublesome for us to act.” A Sixth Order Emperor Realm Ancestor chimed in.

Lin Tianrui shook his head and stressed, “He dared to expose that he has a high-grade chaos spiritual vein to us. It means that he is not afraid of us making a move. Although I don’t know where his confidence stems from, we cannot act recklessly.”

A while later, Lin Tianrui and his group entered a luxurious mansion. A young man of an extraordinary bearing and a pretty face stood with his hands clasped at his back inside the hall.

This young man with extraordinary bearing was none other than the Son of Light, Dun Hao. The person hailed as the most talented genius of the Radiance World’s younger generation. On top of that, due to the long streak of victories on the battle stage over various worlds’ experts, his reputation had risen to Huang Xiaolong and the Heavenly Prince Di Jing’s heights.

“Elder Brother!” Lin Tianrui walked into the hall and stopped a few steps from Dun Hao, “Ao Li refused.”

Dun Hao turned around, and his eyebrows rose slightly in surprise.

In truth, Lin Tianrui had sought to meet Huang Xiaolong under Dun Hao's exhortation.

"That punk is extremely brazen," Lin Tianrui went on, a cold light glimmered in his eyes as he recounted the details to Dun Hao.

Dun Hao reacted strongly, hearing that, "High-grade chaos spiritual vein?"

"Yes, that kid is likely not so simple," Lin Tianrui added.

Dun Hao smiled. It was a little alluring and a little mesmerizing. "Brother, with your identity as the Son of Fire and me as the Son of Light, why would we need to be afraid of a mere Second Order Emperor? So what if he's not simple. In the whole wide universe, there are many, not so simple characters."

"Then, the elder brother intends to...?" Lin Tianrui asked.

Dun Hao solemnly said, "We don't need to take action. Just release the word that I need a ten-winged pegasus to refine something."

"There would be people that help us do the work."

Chapter 1976: Reverence Moon Academy

"What about that high-grade chaos spiritual vein?" Lin Tianrui asked.

"Don't leak any word about that for now." Dun Hao decided after some thought.

Lin Tianrui nodded his head.

“Rest assured, brother, with your Fire World joining us in eradicating the Radiance Knight Corp and unifying the Radiance World, what is one high-grade chaos spiritual vein? We will think of a way to deliver two high-grade chaos spiritual veins to your hands.” Dun Hao said confidently. “Moreover, we would also help you flatten some of the Fire World’s thorns so you can unify the Fire World!”

The solemnity between Lin Tianrui’s brows disappeared as he smiled, “I thank elder brother here in advance.”

Dun Hao then changed the subject, “How are things progressing with the Dragon World’s Ao Ping?”

Lin Tianrui shook his head, “Ao Ping is a hundred times more arrogant than Ao Li. I have visited him three times, and he has refused me all three times! His tone was so brazen. If I wasn’t the Son of Fire, I think I might have been thrown out of the residence by his people.”

But his words drew a long laugh from Dun Hao. “It is almost granted that his identity comes with arrogance. We are people that do big things. Don’t put these small characters to heart too much. How about this? You can make arrangements for him to come over here. I want to see him.”

Lin Tianrui was shocked and hesitated, “I ‘m afraid he won’t come to see elder brother.”

Dun Hao let out another laugh as he said, “Don’t worry about that. Pass this item to him, and he will come to see me.” He took out a piece of tree bark and gave it to Lin Tianrui.

This tree bark’s surface resembled a dragon’s scales, with faint dragon qi curling playfully around it.

“...This, is this a piece of the Ancestral Dragon Tree’s tree bark?!” Lin Tianrui was genuinely amazed.

Dun Hao confirmed, “Correct! This is a tree bark from the Ancestral Dragon Tree. I have a complete tree branch in my hand. Therefore, he will come to see me.”

Lin Tianrui was elated looking at the piece of tree bark and said, “If Ao Ping agrees to our alliance, with the Dragon World supporting us, vanquishing the Radiance Knight Corp is a certainty!”

Dun Hao shook his head, "Merely Ao Ping agreeing is not enough. We need the Dragon World ruler's agreement. That is the most crucial thing. However, with his son Ao Ping leading the persuasion, making that happen is much easier."

He then put the Ancestral Dragon Tree's tree bark into Lin Tianrui's hand and sent him off, "Go now."

Watching Lin Tianrui hurrying away, Dun Hao muttered under his breath, "Wait until we annihilate the Radiance Knight Corp and unify the Radiance World. It's time to deploy the army to the Fire World, and after we conquer the Fire World, the Radiance World will rise to the ranks of the six big worlds again!"

Unfortunately, Lin Tianrui, who was in a hurry to carry out Dun Hao's order, did not hear Dun Hao's soft mutterings.

As the night's darkness dissipated, dawn arrived.

Stepping onto the streets once again, Huang Xiaolong distinctively felt the restrained ill-intentions from various individuals. It was akin to a group of wolves preying on a little lost lamb.

"The Son of Light Dun Hao requires a ten-winged pegasus to refine something! Whoever offers it to him can become his subordinate, which means unlimited cultivation resources in the future!"

Under Huang Xiaolong's divine sense coverage, some low whispers entered his ears from different corners.

Huang Xiaolong sneered. As expected, that Son of Light really had the word 'leaked out.'

"I heard that Hell Ghost World's Fengdu City's Young Master Qin Huangzhong would challenge the Son of Light Dun Hao on the battle stage today!"

“Qin Huangzhong is the number one genius of Ghost World. There are rumors that Qin Huangzhong passed through the Ghost World’s Ghost Path, going all the way to the end, and got a shocking inheritance, which increased his strength exponentially! Some say that he killed a late-Third Order Emperor Realm hell beast a while ago. I wonder if he could last ten moves from the Son of Light?!”

One of the conversations from a nearby restaurant caught Huang Xiaolong’s interest.

Qin Huangzhong actually passed the Ghost World’s Ghost Path?!

The Ghost World’s Ghost Path was equivalent to the Devil World’s Devil Tower. After the Heavenless Archdevil Lord, there had not been anyone who could reach the top of the ninth floor. The Ghost World’s Ghost Path was similar.

The Ghost Path was the most perilous place in the Ghost World. Ever since the Ghost Path had come into existence, only one person had ever successfully passed through it, and that person was Huang Xiaolong’s Master, the Lord of Hell.

Who would have thought that Qin Huangzhong had the ability to pass through the Ghost Path as well?

It looks like Qin Huangzhong was more talented than he had estimated previously. ?It was sure that Qin Huangzhong was better than Song Litao, whom Huang Xiaolong had swallowed.

Under the ‘coveting’ gazes of many, Huang Xiaolong continued onwards to the Reverence Moon Academy at a leisurely pace.

Though many were extremely tempted to take action, most of them were hesitant to violate the Reverence Moon Divine City’s laws. Hence, none of them dared to attack Huang Xiaolong in broad daylight.

The entire Reverence Moon Academy’s gates were built with rare giant Radiance Meteorite Rock that had been uniformly carved.

This Radiance Meteorite Rock was three thousand meters high and several kilometers wide. This Radiance Meteorite Rock was probably the oldest and biggest meteorite rock with the light element.

On the topmost part of the city gates, someone had inscribed the words, "Reverence Moon Academy with supreme power. These words emitted a pearl-like iridescent glow that reached the sky.

At the same time, everything outside of this iridescent glow seemed to have lost its color.

The Reverence Moon Old Man had written these four characters. It was said that these characters contained the esoterics of great daos. Still, in the years since the academy's establishment, no one had been able to comprehend the great daos within these four characters.

Even the number one person amongst the Radiance World's younger generation merely comprehended the daos contained in the first three characters.

Huang Xiaolong stood in front of the academy's gates. Unbeknownst to others, threads of white light danced in his pupils.

"What are you doing?" Right when Huang Xiaolong was comprehending the great daos within the four characters, the students standing guard at the Reverence Moon Academy barked at Huang Xiaolong, "No one is allowed to stop for a long period in front of the main gates!"

Huang Xiaolong took a quick glance at the student and exuded pressure from his body. The several students retreated a few steps in a fluster.

Just when the several students wanted to reprimand Huang Xiaolong again, Huang Xiaolong threw a token towards them. This token was common-looking. Its surface was carved with the shape of a moon, and under the moon was the word 'imperial.'

The students' faces tightened when they saw this token.

“Looks like it’s the Senior Brother who was newly recruited into our Reverence Moon Academy. We did not know this earlier. I hope Senior Brother can overlook this matter!” One of the students braced himself and said as he returned the token to Huang Xiaolong in a cautious manner.

Students that were recruited by the Reverence Moon Academy were all highly talented. These students fell into the group of people that the inner courtyard students couldn’t afford to offend.

Huang Xiaolong collected his token and did not pursue the matter with these students. He walked straight into the academy.

Soon after entering the Reverence Moon Academy, a student responsible for welcoming Huang Xiaolong arrived. The student respectfully led Huang Xiaolong to the Crescent Moon Hall’s main hall.

The Crescent Moon Hall was where all new outer courtyard and inner courtyard students reported, and had their identities verified. They also obtained their students’ tokens and respective courtyards’ robes here.

Upon entering the Crescent Moon Hall’s main hall, Huang Xiaolong scanned the surroundings. Many new students were waiting in line to verify their identities and obtain their student tokens. However, these all were students of the outer courtyard and inner courtyard. The student led Huang Xiaolong deeper into the inner hall. An imperial courtyard student like Huang Xiaolong did not need to line up.

The student led Huang Xiaolong into the inner hall. He had him wait for a moment for the teacher who was going to go through the procedures with him. The student left after that.

Chapter 1977: Defeat Dun Hao Within Ten Moves

Huang Xiaolong didn’t wait for long before an old man entered with three other people.

It looked like this old man was the person in charge of verifying his identity. One of the three people following behind the old man was clad in dragon patterned battle armor, with a conspicuous red dragon in front of the armor. Among the remaining two people, one was a human, and the other was a singled-winged angel.

In the Radiance World, other than the angel race, there were humans, beasts, and a myriad of ancient races. The single-winged angel belonged to the angel race.

There were more than a dozen kinds of angels. For example, the battle angel was one of them. There were also seraphines, holy angels, night angels, and so on. Naturally, there were also strong and weak distinctions between angels, and the single-winged angel's strength could be graded as middle-lower with average talent in the whole angel race.

The old man smiled at Huang Xiaolong as soon as he entered and greeted, "You are Ao Li, right? Finally, everyone is here. The four of you are the newly recruited students of the academy's imperial courtyard."

"Let me quickly introduce you to others, Ao Li, of the Mad Angel Race." The old man pointed at Huang Xiaolong and then introduced others to Huang Xiaolong in return.

Huang Xiaolong was surprised to see that the person wearing the dragon battle armor was actually the son of Dragon World's ruler, Ao Ping! The human, called Ba De, was the Stoneman Race's young lord, and the single-winged angel Xia Li, she was the Single-winged Angel Race's princess.

Huang Xiaolong smiled wryly inwardly. It seems, amongst the four of them, his 'surface' identity as a member of the Mad Angel Race, Ao Li, seemed ordinary.

Lastly, the old man introduced himself to the four people. He was one of the teachers of the imperial courtyard, a peak late-Tenth Order Emperor Realm expert, called Claude.

Claude subsequently went on to verify Huang Xiaolong and the others' identities, as well as assess every person's godhead.

Huang Xiaolong's godhead was a light element king of supreme godhead. Ao Ping's godhead was also a king of supreme godhead rank, whereas the Stoneman Race's Young Lord Ba De, and Single-Winged Angel Race's Princess Xia Li, both had supreme rank godhead of high ranking; the former was in the top fifty, and the latter was in the top sixty.

The Reverence Moon Academy had very high demands on students they recruited into the imperial courtyard. Apart from the absolute requirement of being an Emperor Realm expert, their godhead had to be of supreme rank godhead and above. They also needed to have a bone-age below one hundred thousand years, or they were required to be students with unique godhead and talents. For example, students with any of the top three emperor rank godheads could also enter the academy if they passed the imperial courtyard's assessment.

After everyone got to know each other, Claude led Huang Xiaolong and the rest out of the Crescent Moon Hall's inner hall and flew towards the imperial courtyard.

On the way, Claude briefly explained the Reverence Moon Academy's regulations. In short, students of the imperial courtyard had quite a level of authority and enjoyed many resources that students of the outer courtyard and inner courtyard did not.

Then again, these resources were negligible in Huang Xiaolong's eyes. He had entered the academy for one reason only—the item the Radiance Ancestor had left there. He was planning to leave the academy after acquiring that item.

Of course, during this time, he was also planning to try and find a way to enter the Radiance Flame Volcano. If the two fourteen-winged Radiance Angels could breakthrough to Sovereign Realm, then both would help him greatly, whether it was for attacking the Radiance Divine City or fighting against the Nine Yin Giant Corpse Tribe.

Half an hour later.

Claude led Huang Xiaolong and the rest into another space where the imperial courtyard was located.

A natural chaos grade space and the Radiance Flame Volcano was located in the very depths of this space. This natural chaos space was extremely vast that it would take a peak late-Tenth Order Emperor Realm expert more than a month to fly a complete circumference.

Huang Xiaolong looked around. In this natural chaos space, mountains stretched towards the horizon, majestic waterfalls and winding rivers ran across the land, and streams of rich chaos qi flowed ceaselessly upwards from the earth.

During this time, Huang Xiaolong even spotted a few rare spiritual beasts that were hard to find outside. He even saw several qilins!

Although these qilins were incomparable to his Scarlet Flame Dark Qilin, it was shocking enough for Huang Xiaolong. There were also two eight-winged pegasus.

This was only the tip of the iceberg of Reverence Moon Academy's foundation.

There had to be undeniable reasons the Reverence Moon Academy could exist for so long and still attracted the younger generations' geniuses to cultivate there. For instance, someone like Ao Ping. With Ao Ping's identity and status, what couldn't he get if he wanted a good cultivation place?

However, Ao Ping had still enrolled in the Reverence Moon Academy's imperial courtyard to cultivate.

In truth, Ao Ping was not the only example. Many experts were once students of the Reverence Moon Academy, namely the Fengdu City's Castellan Qin Fan, who was hailed as the strongest person in the Ghost World. To name a few more examples, the Devil World's current Dragon Bear Race's Patriarch Cang Yuanzong, Heavenly Punishment Archdevil, and even Chiyu Archdevil were once students of Reverence Moon Academy.

Claude brought the four students to the highest peak at the center of the imperial courtyard space. After all four had received their identity tokens, robes, and some cultivation resources, Claude arranged each of their accommodations and cultivation peaks.

As a student of the imperial courtyard, each of them was allocated an individual mountain peak as their residence and cultivation place.

Huang Xiaolong and Ao Ping, as the two new students with the king of supreme godheads, were given peaks closer to the main mountain peak, where spiritual energy was richer and abundant. Coincidentally or not, they became neighbors.

After Claude left, Ao Ping suddenly turned to Huang Xiaolong and said, "Although you are an imperial courtyard student with the king of supreme godhead, you still need to be careful of the Son of Light."

Huang Xiaolong was slightly taken aback.

So, this was the case. Huang Xiaolong nodded, “I will.”

When Ao Ping turned to leave for his own cultivation peak, he heard Huang Xiaolong’s voice, “A mere Dun Hao is not worthy for me to put to heart.”

Ao Ping’s footsteps stopped, and he turned back towards Huang Xiaolong, scrutinizing him from head to toe. A moment later, he shook his head and laughed, “It’s not that I look down on you, but you are far from being Dun Hao’s opponent. Whether it is the Radiance Divine City backing Dun Hao or Dun Hao’s own strength, he far surpasses you in these two aspects.”

Huang Xiaolong grinned as he suggested, “What about a bet between the two of us?”

“What are the stakes?” Ao Ping asked curiously.

“Dun Hao has set up a battle stage challenge. If I can defeat him within ten moves, you will be my follower!” said Huang Xiaolong.

Light exploded in Ao Ping’s eyes, like the rays were solid entities, as his gaze locked onto Huang Xiaolong. It looked like he was trying to see through Huang Xiaolong. In these years, how many geniuses of the myriad worlds had lost to Dun Hao. Until now, no one had been able to last ten moves from Dun Hao, yet Huang Xiaolong actually claimed he would defeat Dun Hao!

On top of that, defeat Dun Hao within ten moves!

Realizing that Huang Xiaolong was not joking, Ao Ping responded slowly, “What if you lose?”

Huang Xiaolong took out the high-grade chaos spiritual vein with a turn of his wrist. Before Ao Ping’s astonished expression, he said, “If I lose or fail to defeat Dun Hao, this high-grade chaos spiritual vein and the ten-winged pegasus are yours. On top of these, I will give you one hundred million low-grade chaos spirit stones!”

One hundred million!

Ao Ping watched Huang Xiaolong take out a spatial ring and saw mountains of low-grade chaos spirit stones inside it. He couldn’t speak for a long time from being awestruck.

Chapter 1978: Don’t Kill Or Cripple Him

Huang Xiaolong couldn’t help grinning when he did not receive Ao Ping’s answer after waiting for quite a while. He said, “What’s the matter? Don’t have the guts to bet?”

Ao Ping’s gaze burned with curiosity as he continued to stare at Huang Xiaolong, and he asked, “Who are you really?”

Huang Xiaolong responded, “Who I am is not important. How about it, as the Young Lord of Dragon World, you don’t even dare to bet?”

Ao Ping inhaled deeply and breathed out, “You don’t have to stimulate me.”

A brief pause later, an overwhelming power burst forth from Ao Ping’s body. The dragon might spread in the four directions of the peak and onwards to the surrounding mountain peaks.

His momentum immediately alerted other students of the imperial courtyard.

“This is...? Dragon World’s Ao Ping? Our imperial courtyard’s new recruit! What a strong pressure. This Ao Ping has already cultivated to mid-Third Order Emperor Realm!”

Standing closest to Ao Ping, under his overwhelming pressure, Huang Xiaolong remained unaffected; the corner of his robe didn't even flutter.

Seeing Huang Xiaolong was unaffected in the slightest, Ao Ping's eyes narrowed, but he nodded appreciatively and said, "I have to admit, you are stronger than my earlier estimation. Perhaps, you would last ten moves against the Son of Light."

"What?! Ao Ping said that kid could last ten moves against the Son of Light? Who's that kid?"

"He is also a new student of our imperial courtyard. It seems he too has a king of supreme godhead like Ao Ping, but I think Ao Ping's words are too exaggerated. That kid's cultivation is merely at the early Second Order Emperor Realm. How can he last ten moves against the Son of Light?"

Some of the old students voiced contrary opinions.

Ao Ping spoke again, "However, I don't think you can win against Dun Hao, much less defeat him within ten moves. So, I will make this bet with you!"

"What, win against Dun Hao? On top of that, defeat him within ten moves?"

Ao Ping's words caused a stir among the old students.

Although they did not know the ins and outs of Ao Ping and Huang Xiaolong's conversation, they understood the gist of it! Ao Ping and Huang Xiaolong were making a bet, betting whether Huang Xiaolong could defeat Dun Hao!

Strictly speaking, it was defeating Dun Hao within ten moves!

“Say, is there something wrong with that kid’s head? In the entire universe, no one among the younger generation has been able to reach ten moves against the Dun Hao so far, yet he has the guts to bet he would defeat Dun Hao within ten moves!”

“Awesome, also naive!”

“Who does he think he is? He merely has a king of supreme godhead. There have been enough king of supreme godhead cultivators challenging Dun Hao in the last few years, but all of them were defeated. Hell’s Fengdu City’s Young Lord Qin Huangzhong didn’t last either. Dun Hao defeated him in six moves!” An old student’s voice reverberated in the air.

Huang Xiaolong remained calm despite the endless jeers from all around and contracted the bet with Ao Ping.

Watching Huang Xiaolong and Ao Ping make a contractual bet, all the imperial courtyard’s old students shook their heads.

After that, Ao Ping looked at Huang Xiaolong and said, “I believe the news about this bet would soon reach Dun Hao’s ears. He has many dogs in the imperial courtyard, and these dogs will definitely come looking for your trouble and even pummel you badly. So, I think you better hide for a while.”

Huang Xiaolong shook his head, “No need.” With that said, Huang Xiaolong turned and returned to his own peak.

Ao Ping looked at Huang Xiaolong’s back as he left, falling into contemplation, but he soon shook it off, muttering under this breath, “This brat is mad, madder than me.”

Although Ao Ping was confident that he could last ten moves against Dun Hao, he was not mad enough to think that he could actually defeat Dun Hao. As for defeating Dun Hao within ten moves was nothing but a fantasy.

Truthfully, even though Ao Ping thought that the Mad Battle Angel’s Ao Li wasn’t capable of defeating Dun Hao, anticipation grew in his chest.

As Ao Ping had estimated, the word about the bet between him and Huang Xiaolong traveled fast. It spread through the imperial courtyard, inner courtyard, and outer courtyard in less than half a day.

The first reaction of all the Reverence Moon Academy's students when they heard this news was that the Mad Battle Angel's Ao Li had gone insane. No one thought Huang Xiaolong could defeat Dun Hao, much less defeat Dun Hao within ten moves. That was simply a ludicrous thought.

At this time, in the core area of the imperial courtyard space, on a huge mountain peak stood a humongous palace. Inside the palace's hall sat four old men.

Each of these four old men exuded awe-inspiring auras. Especially, the two old men seated at the center were exuding undisguisable momentum of Sovereign Realm experts, despite converging their auras.

These four were none other than the Reverence Moon Academy's Deputy Deans, the four people with the highest authority after the Dean, Reverence Moon Old Man.

One of the old men with long eyebrows at the center, Bai Hui, shook his head, "This new student named Ao Li deserves an extra point for courage, ah! None of us dare to claim that we can defeat Dun Hao if we were to suppress our cultivation to the early Second Order Emperor Realm."

The old man seated next to Bai Hui, Bin Ge, harrumphed coldly, "Extra point for courage? I think ignorant of the immensity of the sky describes him better. He thinks he's because of a king of supreme godhead!"

The old man sitting on the furthest left, Ban Ke, laughed as he said, "Anyone with a king of supreme godhead would inevitably possess some defiant traits and unruliness. Honestly, there is nothing bad about this. Just let Dun Hao polish his rough edges, temper his temperament a little."

Bai Luo, sitting on the furthest right, grinned, "It probably won't come to Dun Hao's turn to grind him. His followers in the imperial courtyard like Brennus and Carey are more than enough to deal with Ao Li. Who knows, maybe Ao Li won't even have the guts to walk up the battle stage at the end of the day?!"

'Sparring' between students was a norm in the Reverence Moon Academy. As a matter of fact, competition among the imperial courtyard students was encouraged. As long as no one died or maimed, the academy generally did not interfere.

Inside a luxurious mansion in the Reverence Moon Divine City, when Dun Hao, Lin Tianrui, and a few others were enjoying some geocentric milk elixir offered by a church's pontiff, a subordinate came in and reported about Ao Li and Ao Ping's bet. It caused everyone to cough out the geocentric milk elixir in shock. Lin Tianrui was slightly red from choking on the elixir.

Defeat Dun Hao within ten moves? Lin Tianrui secretly stole a glance at Dun Hao's reaction.

A sinister sneer rose up the corners of Dun Hao's lips, "Defeat me within ten moves? This Ao Li, I think I'm beginning to like him a little!"

He looked at one of the young men present and asked, "You know what to do, right?"

This young man was also an imperial courtyard student of Reverence Moon Academy called Caley. He was one of Dun Hao's many followers who was highly talented,, and he was already a late-Third Order Emperor Realm expert.

Caley smiled, responding swiftly, "Rest assured, Senior Brother Dun Hao, I'll make sure that kid learns what's the difference between heaven and hell and that there are jokes he can't afford to make."

Dun Hao nodded his head in satisfaction, "Keep his life, and don't cripple him, or those four old men would come for us. It would be troublesome for me to explain. Don't be careless. It's said that even the Radiance Knight Corp's Lu Zhaoming lost to him."

Caley laughed unconcernedly, "Lu Zhaoming is just an average late-Third Order Emperor. He is nothing to shout about. Don't worry. I'll make sure that kid is still breathing when I'm done."

"I didn't expect Ao Li to be one of the imperial courtyard's new recruits! One with a king of supreme godhead."

Lin Tianrui snorted, "No wonder he was so fearless, and arrogant to boot!"

Imperial courtyard student Caley smiled, "Too bad. He didn't sort out the situation, assuming that he can step on everyone without repercussions relying on his king of supreme godhead!"

"Are you confident of defeating that kid within ten moves? I want you to defeat Ao Li within ten moves!" Dun Hao stated domineeringly.

Since Ao Li had the guts to make a bet that he could defeat Dun Hao within ten moves, he wanted Caley to defeat Ao Li in ten moves. Dun Hao wanted Ao Li to eat his own words and lose his reputation.

Caley was taken aback, then spoke solemnly, "Ao Li defeated Lu Zhaoming with one move, proving his battle strength is higher than an average Second Order Emperor Realm cultivator. However, if I resort to some ancient divine arts, I still have the confidence to defeat him within ten moves!"

A smile bloomed over Dun Hao's face. "Good, as long as you keep it within ten moves, my Radiance Divine Spear is yours."

Caley was delighted hearing that, "Really, truly, rest assured, Senior Brother Dun Hao, I will do my absolute best to defeat that kid within ten moves!"

Dun Hao's Radiance Divine Spear was a mid-grade grandmist spiritual weapon, and it was something Caley had been dreaming of for a long time.

"Then, I'll head back to the imperial courtyard immediately!" Caley stood up in a hurry.

Dun Hao waved his hand, laughing at Caley's urgency. "What's the hurry? It's getting dark. Moreover, today is the first day the new students report to the academy. It's the first day, and you're going to make him miserable? Wouldn't that be too rude? Let him simmer in pride for a day. You can meet him tomorrow."

“For sure! I’ll listen to Senior Brother Dun Hao!”

His palace residence was wide and spacious, consisting of ten to twelve buildings. It took over most of the land surface of the mountain peak. There were more than a dozen cultivation, alchemy, and study rooms. There was even a training hall. Though the palaces were spacious, they were basically empty on the inside. They lacked many furniture and other items. For instance, the cold jade bed for meditation, and plants and flowers needed to be planted.

Purchasing these things would eat up some of his time.

Huang Xiaolong decided not to buy them but rather spend his time strengthening the entire palace’s defensive array formations.

Since some years back, Huang Xiaolong had been studying formation arrays, his grasp of formation arrays had improved significantly. Although he had only casually strengthened the existing array formations, the palace’s defensive arrays’ power was twice as strong.

Compared to day time, everything was much quieter in the darkness of the night.

Standing on the mountain peak, Huang Xiaolong was looking in the southeast direction.

The items left behind by the Radiance Ancestor were supposedly inside a mountain on the southeast side called Boundary Ancestral Mountain. The Boundary Ancestral Mountain was the place the Radiance Ancestor had cultivated and resided in the Reverence Moon Academy. However, the Boundary Ancestral Mountain was also a forbidden land, guarded by experts. Even students of the imperial courtyard couldn’t enter.

How was Huang Xiaolong going to enter the Boundary Ancestral Mountain and get the items left behind by the Radiance Ancestor?

Huang Xiaolong frowned. But he understood that he couldn't rush this matter. He had just entered the imperial courtyard. It would ruin the big picture if he acted recklessly.

Huang Xiaolong only knew a little about the items the Radiance Ancestor had left behind. It included numerous radiance divine armors and radiance divine spears. The number of divine armors and divine spears could fill an entire world surface. Huang Xiaolong had no idea how many divine armors and divine spears there were precisely, but they were more than enough to re-equip the entire Radiance Knight Corp from head to toe.

Apart from the divine armors and divine spears, there were countless top-grade grandmist grade divine pills, and there was a possibility that these top-grade grandmist pills were better than the Brilliant Sun Divine Pills.

And there were also probably some low-grade, mid-grade, and even high-grade chaos spiritual vein.

Then again, these pills and spiritual veins were not what Huang Xiaolong desired the most. Huang Xiaolong deduced that the Radiance Ancestor had left behind more precious things among the trove of treasures, such as the origin treasure; maybe level two origin treasures like the purple grandmist aura and the Three Lives Flower.

Then again, this was merely Huang Xiaolong's deduction. Whether there was really any origin level treasure among them, it remained to be verified after Huang Xiaolon found the Radiance Ancestor's treasure.

The night receded peacefully, and the first ray of dawn soon peeked over the horizon.

Huang Xiaolong sat cross-legged on a protruded boulder on the mountain peak at an arm's length away from a cliff that was thousands of meters high.

Gentle sunlight over the mountain peak added a unique layer of glow to Huang Xiaolong's body.

Huang Xiaolong, who was still meditating, suddenly opened his eyes. The corner of his mouth curved up in a cold sneer. Here finally!

Four figures were flying towards his mountain peak at high speed, without converging the surging momentums from their bodies. Their strong momentums immediately alerted the students on nearby mountain peaks.

"It's Caley! And also, Brennus! George! Beers!"

"The four of them are followers of the Son of Light Dun Hao. It looks like they're looking for Ao Li's trouble! A good show's coming. Let us make a bet what's going to happen? I bet that Ao Li's arms and legs will be crippled, and his face would probably be beaten flat!"

"Arms and legs crippled? Son of Light Dun Hao has already released the word that Ao Li would be packed up until he cannot take care of his daily life! At least, he would be bedridden for several years, so having his arms and legs crippled are light injuries!"

Other students hurried out from their residences and stood high in the air to spectate from afar with anticipation.

Though sparrings were the norm in the imperial courtyard, it had been quite a while since something this interesting had happened.

Moments later, Caley, Brennus, and the other two stopped in the air above Huang Xiaolong's allocated mountain peak.

Caley peered condescendingly at Huang Xiaolong. Upon seeing that Huang Xiaolong had remained seated cross-legged without any intention of acknowledging their arrival, he sneered, "Are you Ao Li, who was bragging about defeating Senior Brother Dun Hao, that too within ten moves?"

Huang Xiaolong stood up and said, "If there are no other new students named Ao Li, then, it's probably me."

Caley sneered coldly, "Kid, why don't you go take a look in the mirror? See what kind of stuff you're made of. Are you qualified to utter those words and claim that you can defeat Senior Brother Dun Hao? You're not even qualified to carry Senior Brother Dun Hao's spear. I will defeat you within ten moves, and serve you up as the world's ugliest pig-head!"

The spectating students in the distance let out whoops of laughter.

"But Senior Brother Dun Hao said, if you offer up that ten-winged pegasus, and also that item you have, then we'll just break your legs!" Caley added, "Or, I'll break your middle-leg into eighteen sections and turn it into 18-section staff. Let's see how you're going to use it in the future!"

Another wave of laughter came from old students.

"One move!" Huang Xiaolong suddenly stated.

One move? Caley was baffled, unable to figure out what Huang Xiaolong was saying.

Then, Huang Xiaolong suddenly leapt into the air and appeared in front of Caley in a split second. He punched straight at Caley's head before Caley could realize what was happening.

Caley was shocked.

Ao Li's speed was too fast!

Watching Huang Xiaolong's fist enlarge in front of his eyes, Caley bellowed. Glaring light burst out from his body and soared skywards, resembling an ancient god of light, as he swung out his fist to meet Huang Xiaolong.

Chapter 1980: Who Were Making Bets Just Now?

Boom!

Their fists collided hard in midair as if two great chaos mountains had slammed into one another.

The surrounding space shook violently as destructive force swept out. There were bursts of bright lights from the surrounding mountain peaks as defensive formations were triggered.

Brennus and others saw what happened when Huang Xiaolong and Caley's fists collided. Caley's fist cracked then exploded into a mist of blood, whereas the speed of Huang Xiaolong's fist was unaffected, and it smacked straight on Caley's face.

Caley's head twisted to the side, as his entire body spun as he flew out towards one of the mountains in the distance. He just looked like a strayed rocket.

The mountain peak rumbled and shattered. Rocks and gravel shot to the sky, raising a cloud of dust as he crashed.

Caley was half-buried into the belly of the mountain. The impact had nearly split the mountain in half horizontally.

"What?!... This!?"

Some of the spectating imperial courtyard students were clearly shocked agape, looking at Caley's sorry state.

Even Brennus and others who had come with Caley were astounded, and their faces paled unnoticeably.

Ao Ping had just left his cultivation palace to watch how Huang Xiaolong was going to handle Caley's group's harassment. He was greeted by the sight of a half-buried Caley. For a second, his head went blank, unable to register what had happened.

While everyone was still astounded, Caley, who was half-buried in the mountain's belly, jerked slightly. Bright light enshrouded his body as he managed to struggle out from the rubble. All eyes were once again on Caley, and gasps sounded in the air. Caley's face looked like it had been hit by a high-grade grandmist spiritual weapon as one side of his head was sunken while the other side was swollen into a pig-head.

Huang Xiaolong watched Caley heal without launching another attack.

"Ao Li, you f*cking animal, shameless. You actually used an underhanded trick and sneak-attacked me!" Caley raged as his body expanded in size, turning into a thousand zhang giant. Glimmering radiant runes emerged around him, merging into a protective barrier. It was an ancient divine armor belonging to the ancient god of light.

"I'm going to kill you!" He roared as his eyes turned scarlet as a giant ax appeared in his hand, chopping down at Huang Xiaolong.

Looking at the thousand zhang giant Caley, Ao Ping was shocked and blurted out, "Spiritual Divine Art!"

Spiritual Divine Art was one of the most powerful divine arts of ancient Radiance World. Ao Ping had heard his father recount his experience after watching a Sovereign Realm expert executing the Spiritual Divine Art. That person had turned into a ten thousand zhang tall giant, and he had left a gaping hole through a large world surface with one palm strike.

The Spiritual Divine Art exponentially increased one's power and defenses simultaneously when executed.

With Caley's ability to transform into a thousand-zhang tall giant, his explosive and defensive powers were at least doubled.

Judging from the imperial courtyard students’ exclamations as they recognized Caley’s divine art, it showed how powerful this divine art was.

While everyone gasped in shock, Huang Xiaolong struck at Caley’s giant ax with his bare hand.

“What!! That Ao Li’s gone mad, has he? Does he want to directly collide with Caley’s giant ax?! That giant is a low-grade grandmist spiritual artifact. Its power is comparable to a mid-grade grandmist spiritual artifact with Caley’s godforce infused with it!”

“This Ao Li is getting ahead of himself, he must think that he’s really strong!? He merely succeeded just now because he sneak-attacked, catching Caley off guard. That is the only reason he sent Caley flying!”

Many of the spectating students snorted in contempt.

Dun Hao had a great deal of influence in the imperial courtyard, and as a matter of fact, in the Radiance World. Thus, these imperial courtyard students naturally wanted Caley, Brennus, and those representing Dun Hao to win. Better yet, they wanted to teach Ao Li an unforgettable, lifelong lesson.

Huang Xiaolong and Dragon World’s Ao Ping’s bet on whether Huang Xiaolong could defeat Dun Hao in ten moves had angered many imperial courtyard’s students. All of them had felt that Huang Xiaolong was simply too arrogant for his own good.

By this time, Huang Xiaolong’s palm had already collided with Caley’s giant ax. In the moment of collision, an obscured opulent light flickered across Huang Xiaolong’s palm.

Caley immediately felt an overwhelming surge of energy rushing up from his giant ax, and his flesh actually cracked from the impact, making him lose the strength to hold onto the ax. His grip loosened, and the giant ax fell to the ground.

Huang Xiaolong's palm continued to strike forth. Caley's sight darkened, and a thunderclap jolted his mind, threatening to split his head as he was sent flying a second time.

Caley smashed into the slope of the same mountain and fell upside down.

Once again, everyone's heads turned towards that particular mountain. Their gazes were fixed on the giant ax's jagged blade and the crack-lines running all over it. They sucked in a breath of cold air. That was a low-grade grandmist spiritual artifact, yet it could not withstand one strike from Huang Xiaolong's palm!

Even a low-grade grandmist spiritual artifact had cracked from the impact, and it looked like it could crumble to pieces at any second. Does that mean Huang Xiaolong's physical body was harder than a low-grade grandmist spiritual artifact?!

They had never ever heard of any low-level Emperor Realm experts' body achieving this degree of toughness. Probably, not even a Tenth Order Emperor's physique was this terrifying....?!

The corners of Ao Ping's mouth twitched in speechlessness at the quality of Huang Xiaolong's physique.

Now, he finally understood why 'Ao Li' dared to make such a bet with him. Ao Li was brazen, but he had the capital to be brazen!

Huang Xiaolong walked in the air until he reached Caley. More than half of Caley's body was buried in the mountain, and the lower half of his body was dangling in the air.

Huang Xiaolong raised his foot and mercilessly kicked at the intersection between Caley's inner thighs.

A sharp but muffled scream came from the depths of the mountain and reached everyone's ears.

Huang Xiaolong added another kick, then another, until the count reached eighteen.

“18-section staff.” Huang Xiaolong’s icy voice sounded, then another kick completely sent Caley’s entire body into the mountain hole.

19-section staff! Huang Xiaolong turned around, his hands clasped behind him as he walked towards Brennus.

Brennus and the other two, who accompanied Caley, paled slightly.

Although Brennus was a peak late-Third Order Emperor and was a little bit stronger than Caley, the difference in their strengths was not that significant.

“Ao Li, do you know what you’re doing?” Brennus suppressed his apprehension and shouted, “Both Caley and I are the right-hand and left-hand men of Senior Brother Dun Hao. Are you aware of the consequences of offending Senior Brother Dun Hao? There will never be a place for you in the entire Radiance World! Handover the ten-winged pegasus and that treasure on you to Senior Brother Dun Hai. I can plead for you in front of him!”

However, Brennus had just finished speaking when Huang Xiaolong sent him flying with a smack on the face. The force made his neck turn several times like a spiral.

“Noisy!” Huang Xiaolong sent Brennus staggering back with another kick. Lastly, he sent another kick at the remaining two imperial courtyard students and drove them into the ground.

Huang Xiaolong’s cold gaze swept over the spectating imperial courtyard students in the surroundings, “Who was making a bet just now that Caley is going to cripple my arms and legs?”

These students’ faces paled as they swiftly shook their heads and scattered in various directions as fast as they could.
