Chapter 3251: Can You Afford It?

“Oh, Roaring Dragon Jade!” Chen Yu’s eyes lit up brightly.

The Roaring Dragon Jade contained fierce beast flood dragon’s dragon qi, even though the amount of dragon qi wasn’t much, it was crucial to Golden Core Realm cultivators. One piece of Roaring Dragon Jade was worth one thousand low-grade spirit stones.

Chen Yu opened the box and indeed saw a palm-sized jade with a faint red glow, rippling within the jade. It was indeed the Roaring Dragon Jade.

“You want me to deal with who?” Chen Yu calmed himself, he did not pick up the box nor did he push the box away. He smiled amiably as he asked Huang Bo, “I’m afraid that the person Young Master Huang Bo wants to deal with is not simple, right?” He deliberately glanced at Huang Bo’s swollen pig-head.

Huang Bo inwardly scolded ‘old fox’ and then briefly recounted what had happened the day before. He did not conceal anything, telling everything truthfully.

“Oh, releasing true qi out of the body as far as one thousand meters?” Chen Yu was genuinely shocked.

“Yes!” Huang Bo confirmed, “Although that person’s true qi could extend as far as one thousand meters outward, to Honorary Elder Chen that level of strength is nothing at all to Honorary Elder Chen. With Honorary Elder Chen’s Golden Core strength, releasing true qi as far as two thousand meters is not an issue, and defeating that brat is only a matter of a second!”

Chen Yu nodded smilingly. “No need to flatter me. Since that person could release his true qi as far as one thousand meters, it means he’s at least a high-level Foundation Building expert, so it’s not so easy to deal with such a person.”

“Does Young Master Huang Bo have any idea as to how to deal with that kid?” Chen Yu asked, keeping the box of Roaring Dragon Jade on the table.

Huang Bo almost could not refrain himself from gritting his teeth. "I want you to break his arms and legs, the kind that is impossible to heal!"

Chen Yu let out a soft chuckle hearing that, "Since that person is Huang Datou's eldest uncle, he's considered as part of your Huang Family, but now, you want me to break a Huang Family disciple's arms and legs. If someone from the Huang Family Enforcement Hall comes questioning me, I don't dare to bear the consequences!"

There were faint flames of anger in Huang Bo's eyes, as he thought angrily that old man Chen Yu was being greedy!

After hesitating for a while, Huang Bo took out another piece of Roaring Dragon Jade and pushed it towards Chen Yu. "Two pieces of Roaring Dragon Jade, that should do it, right?"

Chen Yu accepted the two pieces of Roaring Dragon Jade with a big smile, "Alright, since Young Master Huang Bo is so generous, I shall avenge this grudge on behalf of Young Master Huang Bo!"

"However, I want to add one more requirement. Dig out that kid's eyes!" Huang Bo added.

Huang Xiaolong had caused him to lose two pieces of Roaring Dragon Jade, which had increased Huang Bo's hatred towards Huang Xiaolong.

Chen Yu hesitated then nodded. "Sure, break his arms and legs, and dig out his eyes, is that right? You can't interfere with my method!"

"Sure!" Huang Bo nodded. He knew Chen Yu would handle it carefully and leave no evidence. This way, the Huang Family Enforcement Hall won't be able to find any clues.

Huang Bo couldn't be happier about this. This would save him from any future troubles. If the matter were to get exposed, and Chen Yu was investigated, he would be brought in for questioning.

"But you have to act as soon as possible, best if you can do it within three days," Huang Bo stressed. "I don't want to wait too long!"

“Sure!”

.....

Half an hour later, Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou stood at the edge of a large forest.

“This is the Xing’an Mountain Range?” Huang Xiaolong asked Huang Datou.

Huang Datou replied, “It is, Uncle, we should make a detour. The distance is slightly longer, but it’s merely an hour’s journey. It’s better than the risk of crossing the Xing’an Mountain Range. There are peak late-Ninth Leven Golden Core Realm fierce beasts inside, but their strengths are comparable to First Level Nascent Soul Realm experts! Moreover, these fierce beasts stay in groups!”

Huang Xiaolong smirked at his nephew. “No need, we’ll just fly over this Xing’an Mountain Range!”

Before Huang Datou could utter a word of protest, he was brought up into the air by Huang Xiaolong and flown into the mountain’s forest.

Huang Datou nearly jumped out of his skin in fright. “Uncle, we better go back out quickly. There might be Nascent Soul Realm fierce beasts inside this Xing’an Mountain Range. It is said that a few decades ago, a Nascent Soul Realm fierce beast once appeared in these mountains, and it came from the East Sea and stayed here to cultivate! I wonder if it’s true!”

Huang Xiaolong laughed. “All the better if it’s true!”

A Nascent Soul Realm fierce beast’s nascent soul fetches a price ten times higher than a high-level Golden Core Realm fierce beast’s golden core!

Maybe higher than that!

“Uncle, even if we’re going to cross the Xing’an Mountain Range, we don’t need to fly over it. It’s too dangerous. We’re literally targets for fierce beasts to attack!” Huang Datou said everything in one breath, looking extremely anxious, and there were beads of sweat on his forehead.

Flying right across the Xing’an Mountain Range was no different from banging on death’s door.

Even a high-level Nascent Soul Realm wouldn’t dare to fly across the Xing’an Mountain Range and attract the attention of fierce beasts’ living below. Once one was targeted, even a Nascent Soul Realm expert won’t be able to escape.

As to prove Huang Datou’s words, several enormous shadows from below soared to the sky, and pounced on the two of them.

These enormous fierce beasts spat out golden cores from their mouths, and clearly all of them were Golden Core Realm fierce beasts.

Huang Datou watched several Golden Core Realm fierce beasts pounce towards them with jaws wide open. When had Huang Datou ever faced this kind of situation? His legs went soft with fear, but just as these fierce beasts entered a ten-meter radius from them, he didn’t even see what Huang Xiaolong did, but those fierce beasts all exploded to their deaths.

With one hand, Huang Xiaolong collected several golden cores.

Huang Datou was utterly dumbfounded.

Huang Xiaolong continued flying forward with Huang Datou in tow.

Almost every few minutes, they would be attacked by a group of Golden Core Realm fierce beasts. As time passed, Huang Datou found it strange that only Golden Core Realm fierce beasts attacked them? And all of them were high-level Golden Core Realm?

When they flew out from the Xing’an Mountain Range, there were another twelve high-level Golden Core Realm beasts’ golden cores in Huang Xiaolong’s hand.

Looking at them, Huang Datou was shocked and speechless, that's worth several million low-grade spirit stones!

Looking at Huang Datou's sparkling eyes, Huang Xiaolong chuckled. "Pity that Nascent Soul Realm fierce beast is not in this mountain range, and it looks like it left."

Huang Datou too thought it was a pity.

Not long after they flew across the Xing'an Mountain Range, the two reached Laixin City.

Laixin City was a first-tier city in Donglin Province, hence it went without saying that it was a big and bustling city. Flying ships and electric vehicles could be seen everywhere. In the hundred years of development, all vehicles now ran on electric power. Huang Xiaolong saw many familiar car makers' names like BMW, Mercedes, and Toyota amongst others.

Huang Datou was extremely envious looking at the flying ships and high-speed electric vehicles.

High-speed electric vehicles cost a bomb, and the cheapest price tag started from several thousand low-grade spirit stones, and flying ships were even more expensive. Huang Datou had always wanted one, but he had never been able to afford one.

Huang Datou's eyes couldn't move away when he saw a yellow colored off-road BMW.

"You like this off-road BMW? Wait till after I exchange spirit stones from the Swiss Bank, I'll buy one for you, one for each of us!" Huang Xiaolong teased.

Huang Datou was ecstatic, "Really? Thanks, Uncle!"

"Where did these two bumpkins crawl out from? Do you know the price of an off-road BMW? Can you afford it?"

Right at this time, a tall young man walked over from the other end of the street with an arm around a glamorous young woman.

The first thing Huang Datou noticed was the emblem on the young man's chest, and his face changed slightly. "It's the Zou Family!"

The Zou Family was one of Huaxia Alliance's top ten cultivation families, but the Zou Family was stronger than Huang Family, ranking in the top five. The Huang Family was far from entering that rank.

Chapter 3252: All of Them Are High-Level Golden Cores!

The Zou Family disciple's face was extremely smug when he heard Huang Datou recognize his identity, and he said, "Let me tell you, this off-road BMW is the latest model, high-powered, and has a top speed of three thousand kilometers an hour! The price tag is sixty-three thousand and five hundred low-grade spirit stones!"

"Listen carefully, it's sixty-three thousand and five hundred low-grade spirit stones! Not six thousand low-grade spirit stones!"

"Country bumpkins like you two won't be able to save up so many spirit stones in your entire life. Not to mention a BMW off-road vehicle like this, you can't even afford one of the tires!"

Huang Datou was angry at being shamed.

The Zou Family's disciple stopped in front of Huang Datou and Huang Xiaolong with the glamorous woman in his embrace. "Stand further away from me, and don't dirty my car!" He then opened the car door with a proud face.

However, the glamorous woman was bedazzled by Huang Xiaolong's good looks.

Soon, the vehicle roared to life and sped off, and the Zou Family's disciple probably deliberately caused a burst of energy that swept toward Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou.

Infuriated, Huang Datou flipped his middle finger at the car.

But the car had already driven out of sight, and its speed was indeed great.

“Let’s go to the bank,” Huang Xiaolong reminded, completely unaffected.

Huang Datou led Huang Xiaolong towards the Swiss Bank branch.

When they reached the Swiss Bank’s branch a while later, they saw a yellow off-road BMW parked in front of the branch, and the car plate was the same as the one they had seen not long ago.

“It’s that same car. What a coincidence?” Huang Xiaolong commented as the corners of his lips slightly curved upward.

As expected, when Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou stepped into the Swiss Bank branch’s expensive and tastefully decorated lobby that was five to six hundred square meters wide, they spotted the owner of the yellow off-road BMW amongst a group of youngsters.

The Zou Family disciple had his arm around the same glamorous woman’s shoulders as he stood in front of the bank’s VIP Counter. He seemed to be withdrawing money, and judging from the smug look on his face, the amount should be quite substantial.

The Swiss Bank was the biggest banking institution on Earth, and there was a list of strict conditions to be met to qualify as a VIP of the bank. At the very least, one had to have deposited one million low-grade spirit stones. According to Earth’s old monetary system, that would be approximately one billion.

In conclusion, this Zou Family’s disciple could be considered as a rich man.

Huang Xiaolong merely glanced at the Zou Family’s disciple, then walked towards the lobby’s reception counter.

“Mister, how can I help you today?” Although Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou were dressed in plain clothes, the receptionist greeted them courteously.

She had pale blond hair, sky blue eyes, and she was over five foot five. She had a bright friendly smile, and her eyes seemed to sparkle as they fell on Huang Xiaolong as if this was her first time seeing such a good-looking Asian man.

“I want to exchange something, and would like to see your branch manager!” Huang Xiaolong stated.

Generally speaking, transactions worth one million low-grade spirit stones were enough to alert the branch manager. Not to mention, Huang Xiaolong’s transaction was definitely worth much more than that.

The receptionist was stunned that Huang Xiaolong requested to see the branch manager the moment he spoke, but her reaction was quick. She smiled and answered, “May I know what items is Mister planning to exchange? You can go through the procedure at our exchange counter.”

It wasn’t that the receptionist looked down on Huang Xiaolong, but most of Huaxia Alliance cultivation families’ core disciples couldn’t take out any items that were worth a million low-grade spirit stones.

Therefore, in her opinion, it was unnecessary to alert the branch manager at all.

“Are you certain the counter can process what I want to exchange?” Huang Xiaolong looked at the receptionist with a meaningful smile.

The receptionist smiled and nodded, “Yes, however, our bank only accepts Golden Core Realm beast cores, pills that benefit Golden Core Realm cultivators, and spiritual herbs above one thousand years and above!”

“Hey, aren’t these the two country bumpkins?” A harsh voice rang in the lobby. The Zou Family’s disciple walked over with an arm over the glamorous woman, and seemingly he had finished withdrawing his money.

There was a bag that resembled an ancient embroidered pouch in his hand, that was a spatial storage bag that was popular nowadays. A bigger spatial storage with large capacity had about a hundred cubic meters space and a small one had about ten meters cubic space of storage.

The Zou Family threw the spatial bag up and down repeatedly and there was a low but clear bumping noise of spirit stones as if he was afraid no one knew he had a lot of spirit stones inside.

Judging from the noise, there were at least several hundred pieces of spirit stones inside, probably freshly taken out from the bank's vault.

The Zou Family disciple stopped in front of Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou with undisguised mockery. "People at your level also come to the Swiss Bank for transactions? Are you even aware of the minimum requirement to perform any transactions here? The minimum is an item worth at least one hundred low-grade spirit stones. Only then would the Swiss Bank be willing to proceed with a transaction. Can you take out anything worth one hundred low-grade spirit stones?"

Huang Datou couldn't stop himself and said, "Judging others from a dog's view!"

Dog?

The Zou Family disciple's face sank as he caught sight of the guards out of the corner of his eye. An idea came to him, and he called the guard over, "I'm a platinum cardholder of Swiss Bank. I don't know where these troublemaker country bumpkins came from, so get them out of my face!"

The two guards hesitated.

"I'm a disciple of Zou Family, a friend of manager Xu Kaiqiang!" The Zou Family disciple threw out his identity.

Hearing that, one of the guards stepped forward and made a polite gesture at Huang Xiaolong. "Mister, if you're not performing any transactions, please..."

Before the guard could finish his sentence, Huang Xiaolong walked towards the counter and said to the staff in charge of the item exchange counter, "I want to exchange one batch of beasts' golden cores. Change all of them into low-grade spirit stones for me."

He then took out the palm-sized Sun Moon Furnace and tilted it as if he was pouring water out. One shiny golden core fell out one after another—one, two, three, four, five, six...!

The Zou Family disciple was astounded.

The two guards that were inviting Huang Xiaolong out of the branch were watching with agape expressions, rooted on the spot.

The receptionist, who had informed Huang Xiaolong that he could perform any transactions at the counter, stared dazedly at the golden 'pebbles' on the counter.

"High-level golden cores! All of them are high-level golden cores!" A customer in the lobby exclaimed out loud.

There were quite a number of customers at the lobby, some were withdrawing money, some exchanging items, some waiting, but all of them were not staring at the golden cores being poured out from the mini Sun Moon Furnace!

There were twelve on the counter now!

When a golden core fell onto the counter, the clear crisp sound echoed through the lobby.

"Six-sixteen!" Someone could be heard gulping audibly.

"Six-sixteen high-level golden cores, how-how many low-grade spirits stones is that?!" A family's elder present at the lobby asked no one in particular.

Huang Xiaolong continued to pour out from high-level golden cores as if the furnace in his hand contained endless golden cores within.

Inside the Swiss Bank branch manager's office, the branch manager was talking to a Tan Family's grand elder when a manager suddenly abruptly ran into his office in a fluster.

"What is it?!" the branch manager questioned with a dignified expression. He had told the people outside that he's entertaining the Tan Family's grand elder, no one should disturb him.

Judging others (human) from a dog's view lit. i.e, belittling, acting like a snob. (used lit meaning to match the line continuation)

Chapter 3253: One Batch!

Manager Xu Kaiqiang's heart sank facing the branch manager's sullen face. Still, he quickly explained, "Branch Manager, there's a young man outside who wants to exchange high-level golden core!"

"Oh, exchange high-level golden cores?" Branch Manager Ellis wasn't surprised nor was the Tan Family's grand elder, Tan Jian, but it was merely a little unexpected for them. It wasn't rare to see someone coming to the bank to exchange golden cores, but high-level golden cores were rare. After all, high-level Golden Core Realm beasts had extraordinarily tough defenses with extreme agility, and not to mention their innate ability to escape. It took a lot of effort even for a Nascent Soul Realm expert to kill a high-level Golden Core Realm beast.

Some human race Nascent Soul Realm experts had thought of hunting high-level Golden Core Realm fierce beasts as a source of income, but nine out of ten times, they returned without success.

Thus, there weren't many high-level golden cores available in the market, and even rarer was Ninth Level Golden Core beasts' golden core.

Then again, even though someone came to exchange high-level golden core, branch manager Ellis still pulled his face in displeasure and said, "Merely exchanging high-level golden core, what's the fuss about? You can handle such matters. Didn't you see I'm talking with Grand Elder Tan Jian?!"

Although the Tan Family's status was not as high as Huang Family, the Tan Family was still one of the few more powerful cultivation families in Donglin Province, and the sole hegemon in Laixin City.

As one of Tan Family's grand elders, Tan Jian was also the second most powerful expert in Tan Family! Such an existence could only be treated courteously, not to be slighted at all.

But Manager Xu Kaiqiang blurted out anxiously, "Branch Manager, that young man, he wants to exchange one batch of high-level golden cores!"

Branch Manager Ellis finally showed shock, "What? O-one batch?! All high-level golden cores!"

Tan Jian was just as astonished.

"How many are there?" Branch Manager Ellis couldn't help asking.

"Yes, Branch Manager!" Xu Kaiqiang hurriedly replied, "Before I left to come inside, he had already poured out sixteen, and he was still pouring out golden cores when I came in to call you!"

"Six-sixteen!" There was finally a crack in Ellis' calm facade, and he jumped to his feet and stared fixedly at Xu Kaiqiang, "You are certain all of them are high-level golden cores?!"

Tan Jian was just as shocked.

Even one level-seventh golden core was worth two hundred thousand low-grade spirit stones, and a level-ninth golden core was worth much more. With sixteen golden cores, there were at least three to four million low-grade spirit stones!

"Yes, I am certain!" Xu Kaiqiang nodded his head and added, "Many experts present saw it. I am absolutely certain all of them are high-level golden cores." With that said, he recounted the scene where Huang Xiaolong had poured out the high-level golden cores from the Sun Moon Furnace.

“Grand Elder Tan Jian, you see, this...?” Ellis sounded urgent and turned to look at Tan Jian with a troubled expression.

Tan Jian smiled, “I too am interested to take a look, Branch Manager Ellis. How about we go together?”

Ellis laughed in delight at Tan Jian’s words. “My pleasure, Grand Elder Tan Jian. After you!”

Ellis made a gesture of invitation.

Tan Jina chuckled and did not feign politeness as he stepped out from the room.

The group of three, Ellis, Tan Jian, and Xu Kaiqiang headed to the lobby.

When the three arrived at the lobby, there was a big crowd gathered at the lobby, and many of them had astounded expressions on their faces as they stared at the exchange counter.

The three looked towards the counter and saw a young man who appeared to be in his twenties, pouring out golden cores onto the counter from a pill furnace just like Xu Kaiqiang had described!

Bright golden high-level golden cores!

On the counter, there were already thirty-eight high-level golden cores!

Thirty-eight high-level golden cores were piled on the counter, exuding a robust fierce beasts’ true energy, flowing around the spacious lobby.

How robust was this energy to fill the entire lobby to this degree?!

Looking at the pile of thirty-eight high-level golden cores, Ellis and Tan Jian felt their hearts jerk. Xu Kaiqiang was already shaking from head to toe.

Thirty-eight high-level golden cores, dazzling brightly, eclipsed the expensive lighting in the lobby.

Huang Datou screamed inwardly when he realized that there were thirty-eight high-level golden cores on the counter. Did uncle kill so many beasts on the way here?

How come there are as many as thirty-eight high-level golden cores?!

Could it be...? He finally understood what his uncle meant when he said he wanted to exchange something at the bank!

Huang Datou felt his head spin looking at the pile of 'golden marbles' on the counter. The first thoughts that came to his mind were actually about many, many spiritual hog beasts, and countless Golden Flame Spiritual Fruits!

The Golden Flame Spiritual Fruit that he liked the most, the spiritual fruit that he had only eaten once... After this day, he would be able to eat it every day. Anytime!

Spiritual hog beast, and many other kinds of spiritual beasts! Fragrant and delicious meat!

Then, Huang Datou remembered Huang Xiaolong had mentioned he would prepare the dowry required to marry Tan Wei. His vision was suddenly blurred by tears.

Huang Xiaolong ignored the reactions around him as he continued to pour golden cores out. A few moments later, he stopped and put away the Sun Moon Furnace.

Sixty-six high-level golden cores!

Previously, Huang Xiaolong had hunted over fifty fierce beasts, and as they had flown over the Xing'an Mountain Range, he had killed another twelve. Hence, all in all, there were sixty-six golden cores!

Huang Xiaolong looked at the employee on the other side of the counter who was too shocked to do his job, and he reminded, "Help me assess these golden cores' value and tabulate how many low-grade spirit stones in exchange."

High-level golden cores were divided into seventh-level, eighth-level, ninth-level, as well as late-ninth level, peak late-ninth level, and so on. Each category was a different price, hence the requirement for assessment.

Of course, those in Huang Xiaolong's hands were all ninth-level and above.

Huang Xiaolong had not killed fierce beasts below ninth-level.

The several employees behind the counters finally reacted, and it was at this time that Ellis approached, politely and respectfully as he spoke, "Sir, I am the branch manager of this Swiss Bank branch, Ellis. How may I address you?"

Huang Xiaolong looked at Ellis, and Tan Jian, standing beside him, as well as Xu Kaiqiang at the back, and replied casually, "Huang Xiaolong."

Huang Xiaolong? Everyone was baffled.

"Sir, are you a member of Donglin Province's Huang Family?" Ellis asked cautiously.

Huang Xiaolong replied tepidly, "You can consider me so."

Huang Xiaolong did not elaborate further.

Consider so? Others' thoughts ran wild.

"Pardon me, Sir. If I may ask, were you the one who hunted these high-level Golden Core Realm fierce beasts?" Ellis hesitated before asking.

Huang Xiaolong looked at Ellis, smiling whilst not smiling as he responded, "Is this a Swiss Bank's rule that you need to inquire the sources of your clients' items?"

Ellis waved his hands and shook his head, smiling awkwardly, "No, no. I'm just curious. Please do not take offense. I will have people evaluate this batch of golden cores immediately!"

The Zou Family's disciple stared at the sixty-sixty golden cores in shock, but as his shock receded, his eyes glimmered, and no one knew what he was thinking.

However, the glamorous woman in his embrace was looking at Huang Xiaolong with sparkling eyes, feeling 'an itch' all over.

Shortly, two of the bank's valuers started going through the sixty-six golden cores.

"What, all, all of them are ninth-level and above? Five peak late-ninth level? Ten late-ninth level?!" Ellis was stupefied when he heard the results.

Chapter 3254: Are You Afraid I'll Dirty Your Car?

Tan Jian, Xu Kaiqiang, and everyone in the lobby was astonished.

Those golden cores were all ninth-level and above!

Moreover, five of them were at peak late-ninth level! Ten of them were late-ninth level!

There was literally no supply of Nascent Soul Realm beast cores in the market. The highest grade available was peak late-Ninth Level Golden Core beasts' golden cores, and even so, one could hardly get his hands on a peak late-Ninth Level Golden Core beast's golden core. But there were five such golden cores in front of them!

Tan Jin's gaze turned slightly complicated.

He was a Seventh Level Nascent Soul expert, but until now, he had never killed a peak late-Ninth Level Golden Core beast. It was mainly because Golden Core Realm beasts were intelligent and extremely cunning, and they generally lived deep in primordial forests. The environment made it easy for them to escape and it was almost impossible for a Nascent Soul expert to hunt these beasts.

Huang Xiaolong looked at Ellis. "Since you've verified the items, then calculated how many low-grade spirit stones these are worth. I want to exchange all of them."

Ellis quickly reacted and flashed a brilliant smile. "Mr. Huang, please wait for a moment. I will have people calculate it immediately, and give you a number, and also a price list."

The result came out shortly, and it came up to 26.53 million low-grade spirit stones!

Huang Xiaolong took the calculation sheet from Ellis's hands and took a casual look at it, and then nodded. "Fine, we'll go with this amount."

This price was considered fair.

In truth, a little more or a little less did not matter to Huang Xiaolong.

Ellis was delighted and smiled, "Mr. Huang, please wait a while. I'll have them pack and send the spirit stones."

It took more than a dozen spatial bags to fit all 26.53 million worth of low-grade spirit stones.

"Mr. Huang, please check it." After everything was packed, Ellis placed more than a dozen spatial bags in front of Huang Xiaolong, but Huang Xiaolong didn't bother to check them at all. He threw them into the Sun Moon Furnace and left with Huang Datou.

When Huang Xiaolong was passing by the Zou Family's disciple, the Zou Family disciple spat at Huang Xiaolong. "Punk, don't get c*cky and think you're so great just because you have some money!"

Everyone could hear the jealousy seeping out from this Zou Family's disciple.

Huang Xiaolong looked at him and retorted, "Do you mean to say that a mere Third Level Foundation Building Realm like you is great?"

The Zou Family's disciple was stunned that Huang Xiaolong could see his cultivation realm, but he soon sneered, "Listening to your tone, it's as if you got those golden cores yourself? Punk, even the Huang Family's Patriarch Huang Houde can't possibly kill so many fierce beasts, much less you. These golden cores of unknown sources probably came from robbing other families? I will request the alliance's police department to investigate this matter clearly!"

"Just wait, as you'll be squatting in prison for a long time!"

The Zou Family had many disciples in the alliance police department.

"Is that so?" Huang Xiaolong was unconcerned as he left with Huang Datou.

Complicated gazes were directed at Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou.

Ellis and Tan Jian both returned to the office with complicated expressions on their faces.

"Grand Elder Tan Jian, what is your opinion of that young man? What is his background?" Ellis couldn't help asking.

Tan Jian's brows subconsciously furrowed as he answered seriously, "There is no energy fluctuation whatsoever on that young man's body, and he looks no different than any mortal. I guess this batch of golden cores is not obtained by him. Moreover, I recognise all of Huaxia's Nascent Soul Realm experts, and he's not one of them, and it's even more impossible for him to be an Enlightenment Realm expert."

Ellis nodded in agreement "I think so too, but he could be related to Donglin Province's Huang Family." She recalled Huang Xiaolong had mentioned that he was someone from the Donglin Province's Huang Family.

“Donglin’s Huang Family.” But that only made Tan Jian more baffled.

Even Donglin’s Huang Family Patriarch, Huang Houde, couldn’t take out so many ninth-level golden cores. If that young man is really a member of Huang Family, where did his golden cores come from?

After coming out from the bank, Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou inquired about the city’s BMW dealership and headed to the address.

As they headed to the dealership, Huang Xiaolong looked at his excited nephew and suddenly asked, “Datou, where’s your mother?”

The big grin on Huang Datou’s face froze as if someone had poured cold water over his head, there was anger, resentment, and sadness. He answered Huang Xiaolong’s question in a low voice, “My mother remarried when I was thirteen!”

Remarried? Huang Xiaolong had not expected that.

“Because of Huang Houde’s deliberate suppression, our line’s living gets worse by the day. Sometime later, she hooked up with an elder from the Sun Family, and became that Sun Family’s elder’s concubine!”

Huang Datou continued in a pained and angry snarl, “Ever since she became the Sun Family elder’s concubine, her life has been going very well. She’s beautiful and a few years back, she gave birth to a talented son for that elder, so she’s doted on even more!”

Huang Datou smiled dismissively. “She never came back to see me or father, even though father had been bedridden for the last two years. Perhaps, in her heart, me and my father are the stains of her life!”

The Sun Family was one of the well-known immortal cultivating families in Donglin Province, not as influential as Huang Family, but comparable to the Tan Family.

“She would regret it soon enough,” Huang Xiaolong merely responded with one sentence.

A few minutes later, both of them stepped into the BMW dealership.

Noting their plain attire, the dealership sales staff's attitude wasn't very enthusiastic. They had seen too many disciples like Huang Xiaolong who only came in to look around.

A hundred years ago, BMW was a luxury brand, and now, a hundred years later, BMW remained at the top for luxury brand vehicles. Those who weren't at the top rungs of society couldn't afford it.

This was so clearly portrayed by the fact that none of the ten or so sales staff approached Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou.

At a single look, Huang Xiaolong's gaze was locked on the yellow-colored off-road BMW that was similar to the one driven by the Zou Family's disciple earlier that was right at the center of the dealership lobby. He walked straight up to the vehicle.

Just as Huang Xiaolong reached the yellow off-road vehicle, a female salesperson stepped up and reminded, “Mister, our dealership's cars can only be seen, not touched.”

In truth, there was no such rule in any car dealerships, and these so-called rules were made up by some salesperson targeting a certain category of customers.

For example, customers like Huang Xiaolong, who could only afford to window shop, were only allowed to see but not touch the vehicles.

Huang Xiaolong glanced at the saleswoman. “You're afraid I will dirty your car?”

The saleswoman had not expected Huang Xiaolong to actually talk back to her. Generally, these kinds of people who only looked around without any intention of purchasing anything would wisely withdraw after being 'kindly' reminded by them, and then leave in embarrassment shortly after.

A salesman approached them at this time with a haughty expression on his face. “You’re right, we’re really worried that you would dirty our car by touching it. Country bumpkins like you can only afford to look from the side for your entire life. Since you can’t afford to buy, don’t stand here and disturb us from attending to other customers and affecting their mood!”

Several small groups of impeccably dressed young men and young women looked over because of the commotion.

“Oh, this young man is so good-looking!” A young woman exclaimed with sparkles in her eyes.

“What’s the use of good looks as he’s still a pauper!” A young man beside her sneered mockingly.

Chapter 3255: Call Out the Person With the Highest Authority

Huang Datou looked at the salesman angrily and stressed, “We’re here to buy a car. Is this the attitude you use towards your customers?!”

The salesman scoffed as if he had heard a very funny joke. “You’re here to buy a car? Do you have any idea about how much the cheapest model of BMW in our dealership costs? The cheapest model is at least ten thousand low-grade spirit stones! You won’t be able to afford it even if you two sell yourselves!”

Other sales staff snickered at the side as they watched.

Right at this time, Huang Xiaolong took out a spatial bag and threw it onto the roof of a yellow off-road BMW. When the salesman saw this, he was enraged, but before he could reprimand Huang Xiaolong, Huang Xiaolong opened the spatial bag, and amazing spiritual energy rushed out.

Rich spiritual energy filled the dealership.

Everyone felt as if they were soaked in an ocean of spiritual energy.

The salesman froze on the spot, staring stupidly at the spatial bag. The saleswoman who had warned Huang Xiaolong earlier that he could only look but not touch was just as dazed in shock.

All the sales staff and customers who were looking at cars, whether or not they were planning to buy, were all staring dazedly at the opened spatial bag.

The space inside the spatial bag was stuffed to the brim with bright low-grade spirit stones!

“This is five hundred thousand low-grade spirit stones. Is it enough to buy a car from your dealership?” Huang Xiaolong’s cold gaze swept over the salesman and saleswoman.

The salesman made a hundred and twenty percent effort to squeeze a stiff smile on his face. “S-Sir, enough, it’s enough!”

“Call out the most authoritative person in your dealership!” Huang Xiaolong sneered. “I want to buy many cars!”

The dealership’s most authoritative person!

The salesman had a bad feeling when he heard that, as if he could guess what Huang Xiaolong wanted to do. The smile of his face grew stiffer. “Sir, Sir, I am the dealership’s supervisor. What model is Sir interested in? I can introduce it to Sir!”

He bowed and smiled flatteringly.

Huang Xiaolong took out another spatial bag and threw it onto the same yellow off-road BMW. Similarly, Huang Xiaolong opened the spatial bag, filling the entire dealership building with rich spiritual energy.

“This is five hundred thousand low-grade spirit stones, one million in total!” Huang Xiaolong sneered. “I want a BMW flying ship!”

“Are you authorized to take this order?”

“Call the person with the highest authority out!”

The transaction for a flying ship was handled by the dealership’s highest authority.

If this level of distinguished guests were neglected, the dealership’s top person would receive an earful of scolding if the headquarters learned about it.

The salesman broke out in a cold sweat, and in the end, he bowed low and said, “Sir, please wait here for a moment. I’ll go call our general manager over!”

The other sales staff hurried over to make sure Huang Xiaolong was comfortable, moving the beast skin sofa over to Huang Xiaolong, and then respectfully invited him to sit down. Someone went to take the dealership’s most expensive spiritual tea and brought two cups of freshly brewed spiritual tea for Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou.

One person seized the chance to introduce various top models of cars and flying ships in the dealership to Huang Xiaolong.

Although flying ships were expensive, the lower range only cost four hundred to five hundred thousand low-grade spirit stones.

Other customers each had their own thoughts watching the smartly dressed sales staff in a flurry around the plainly dressed Huang Xiaolong as if they were serving the Grand Emperor.

“This is unfair,” a disciple, who had mockingly called Huang Xiaolong a pauper, grumbled. “We’re also here to buy a car, so why is no one serving us spiritual tea?!”

The refreshing scent of spiritual tea permeated the dealership, and anyone could tell that this was a really good and high-quality spiritual tea.

The female disciple beside him looked at him in contempt. “You can afford to buy a light element car with a price tag of thousands of low-grade spirit stones. That’s the cheapest car in this dealership, so do you think people will serve you with spiritual tea?”

“If you can take out a million low-grade spirit stones to buy a flying ship, people will definitely serve you spiritual tea!”

The male disciple flushed with anger from her words, but he argued, “So what if he has one million low-grade spirit stones? You can tell it’s his father’s money. This kind of second-generation has a good life merely because they’re lucky.”

The female disciple couldn’t be bothered to continue talking with him.

The salesman soon returned with the general manager. Not only the dealership’s general manager came, but all managerial personnel arrived with flushing faces and a thin film of sweat on their forehead, it made one wonder if the weather was too hot or they had sprinted over.

All of them had their best behavior while greeting Huang Xiaolong with utmost courtesy, and they introduced themselves to Huang Xiaolong before inquiring what he was interested in purchasing.

Huang Xiaolong pointed at the yellow off-road vehicle and asked, “Is this the latest and most expensive model you have?”

“Yes, yes,” the general manager hurriedly replied, and proceeded to introduce the vehicle’s features to Huang Xiaolong enthusiastically.

Huang Xiaolong asked how many colors the vehicle came in. He subsequently inquired about flying ships, telling the general manager to introduce several most expensive models of flying ships to him.

The few most expensive models of flying ships’ starting price was above one million low-grade spirit stones. Although Huang Xiaolong had merely put out one million low-grade stones in the open, the general manager did not dare to slight Huang Xiaolong at all. He was still very helpful and enthusiastic as he introduced three of the most expensive models of flying ships to Huang Xiaolong.

Huang Xiaolong asked Huang Datou what color he liked.

“Uncle, I, I want this kind of yellow,” Huang Datou answered shyly.

The off-road vehicle’s yellow was brighter than other yellow, more to a neon yellow.

“This off-road model, I want five, and this flying ship, I want two of them!” Huang Xiaolong said to the general manager. The models Huang Xiaolong had chosen were the most expensive ones in the dealership. He then took out six more spatial bags. All in all, there were four million low-grade spirit stones.

“But I have one request,” Huang Xiaolong suddenly said at the end.

The general manager, who was inwardly whooping with laughter at Huang Xiaolong’s order, was stunned, he professionally put on a smile as he asked, “Please tell me what request you have, Sir. Our dealership will strive our best to satisfy your requirements!”

Huang Xiaolong looked at the bowing sales supervisor and said, “When I walked in earlier, they both said that the vehicles in your dealership can only be looked at, but I couldn’t touch. They were afraid I’d dirty the cars.”

Hearing Huang Xiaolong’s complain, the sales supervisor’s legs weakened, and he slumped to the floor with an ashen face. The saleswoman stood stiffly on the spot with her mind buzzing, and she did not hear what Huang Xiaolong said afterwards.

Huang Xiaolong bought five cars, one each for him, his father, mother, younger brother Huang Chenfei, and nephew Huang Datou!

The color Huang Xiaolong chose was blue.

His dragon soul used to be a blue dragon, so Huang Xiaolong has a soft spot for blue color.

As for the two flying ships Huang Xiaolong bought, one was white and the other was black. He was going to keep the black-colored flying ship for his own use, and the white one for his family. Unfortunately, there wasn't a blue flying ship.

The sales supervisor and saleswoman were fired on the spot by the general manager, and he made a guarantee to Huang Xiaolong that no dealership would hire them in the future.

Chapter 3256: Earth's Number One Pill Refiner

After the car purchases, Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou did not stay longer than necessary at the dealership. They left with the respectful send-offs from the dealership's highest authority personnel.

Huang Xiaolong drove off in a blue off-road vehicle, and Huang Datou chose the yellow off-road vehicle, one in front and the other in the back as they circled around the city streets at high speed. They attracted attention from both men and women on the streets and drew sighs of admiration, even more than a few envious glances.

The remaining three off-road cars and two flying ships were collected into the Sun Moon Furnace.

This new model of off-road was really a stallion on the road, and Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou soon sped out of the city.

Once out of the city, they accelerated, increasing their speed to the max. The blue off-road was literally a streak of blue light on the highway. Huang Xiaolong felt he had returned to his youth on Earth as he sat behind the wheel.

He didn't have many hobbies in the past, but racing cars was one of them. He loved the feeling of exhilaration at extreme speed.

After coming back to Earth this time, Huang Xiaolong once again experienced the life of a mortal by taking a temporary break from cultivating. He forgot about killing and faced everything around him from the perspective of a mortal, living a somewhat normal and a happy life with his family. More importantly, he felt that there was nothing wrong with it.

Huang Xiaolong glanced at the empty passenger seat beside him. More of than not, Zhang Yuhan occupied this position in the past, clamoring for him to bring her along to experience the feeling of floating when the car reached extreme speed.

Zhang Yuhan seemed gentle and docile on the surface, just like a beautiful ancient woman, but in her blood was a thirst for extreme, and she was a daredevil who challenged head on!

“Zhang Yuhan!” Huang Xiaolong spoke the name like a spell, recalling that person was now a lecturer in the Eastern University, and he really found it funny.

He remembered that she had once said that she disliked being a lecturer the most because a lecturer stands on the podium every day, repeating the same thing every year. Not just that but a lecturer has to mark more than a dozen homeworks of the same thing.

Who would’ve thought that in the end, the very same person would have stayed in school.

Behind Huang Xiaolong’s car, Huang Datou got a fright when Huang Xiaolong’s car accelerated to the extreme, but he could only follow and increase his speed, following closely behind his blue off-road.

A while later, Huang Xiaolong began to slow down, and drove side by side with Huang Datou.

“Kid, your driving skills are not bad.” Huang Xiaolong lowered down the window and teased Huang Datou playfully.

Huang Datou smiled shyly, “Back at the university, I took first place in the driving assessment.”

Nowadays, driving assessment is one of the university’s compulsory subjects.

Huang Xiaolong nodded appreciatively after hearing that his nephew took first place in the university’s driving assessment. Huang attended the Eastern University and getting first place in such a place was proof of Huang Datou’s excellent driving skills.

Because their cars couldn't travel across the Xing'an Mountains, the two of them drove around to get to the other side. Even so, it took them less than an hour to reach Huazhou City.

Back in Huazhou City, Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou did not return to the house immediately but went to Huazhou City's property market street.

Because Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou both arrived in expensive cars despite their plain attire, they received an enthusiastic welcome from the property sales staffs.

Huang Xiaolong spent over a million low-grade spirit stones to purchase a big villa with more than a thousand square meters of land. It had one main entrance and was surrounded by four sturdy walls. The villa had a large garden, spacious private parking, a large swimming pool at the back, and it was magnificently furnished.

The villa consisted of three floors with more than twenty rooms, and it was fully equipped with modern facilities. Not a piece of furniture was missing, and every piece was a high quality item. All the Huang Family had to do was move in.

Huang Datou was beside himself with excitement looking at the villa in front of him.

After staying in that small house for so many years, it would be a lie to say he didn't want to live in a big villa.

Huang Xiaolong also purchased a large piece of barren land outside of Huazhou City which was located several hundred miles south from the city.

It was a piece of land over two thousand acres!

As it was barren land outside of the city, the price was not expensive, and the two thousand plus acres of land merely cost Huang Xiaolong less than a million low-grade spirit stones.

"Uncle, you want to buy such a large piece of land?" Huang Datou was surprised as he couldn't figure out why Huang Xiaolong would waste so much money to buy such a large piece of barren land.

Generally, there was little value in barren land, and the soil's low fertility barely produced any harvest no matter what was planted. Additionally, no one would want to buy any housing property built in this kind of land due to the frequent beast attacks outside of the city area.

Huang Xiaolong let out a low chuckle. "Big? I'm thinking it's a bit small."

One acre was approximately six hundred and sixty square meters. A little over two thousand acres, that was roughly one million and three hundred thousand square meters. To others, it was an enormous piece of land, but to Huang Xiaolong, who was used to seeing and living in super huge residences, he did not think this land was big at all. Originally, he had wanted a bigger land, but this was the biggest piece of land in the Huazhou City's vicinity for sale at the moment.

Huang Xiaolong had plans to construct a mega villa on this land!

Of course, it won't simply be a mega villa as he would gather and plant various spiritual trees, spiritual herbs, and spiritual tea plants available on Earth around this villa! Of course, there would also be various species of spiritual beasts!

Also, he needed to build a large flying ship dock for his flying ships.

Of course, Huang Xiaolong did not explain his plans as Huang Datou would know later.

A feeling of speechlessness washed over Huang Datou, listening to Huang Xiaolong cuckling.

After the various procedures were signed and completed, Huang Xiaolong threw the papers into the Sun Moon Furnace, and left the property market street with Huang Datou.

"Uncle, that furnace of yours, is it a pill furnace?" On the way back, Huang Datou asked. Actually, Huang Datou had wanted to ask this question when he had seen Huang Xiaolong take out the Sun Moon Furnace in the bank.

Huang Xiaolong nodded. "Yes, it's a pill furnace."

Huang Datou's eyes lit up immediately. "Uncle, you're a pill refiner?"

"Yes." Huang Xiaolong smiled as he could guess what was going around in Huang Datou's mind, and the most profitable career on Earth right now was none other than being a pill refiner!

"Then, what level are you?" Huang Datou asked urgently, looking at Huang Xiaolong with big, expectant eyes.

Currently, pill refiners and formation masters on Earth were divided into ten levels, grade-one was the starting point, and level ten was highest.

"I'm not sure what level is my skill." Huang Xiaolong smiled mysteriously. "But I am certain I am better than Earth's number one pill refiner."

Huang Datou stammered in shock, "The most amazing pill refiner on Earth now is the Purple Flames Sect's old ancestor, and it is said that he's an Enlightenment Realm expert!"

It was written all over his nephew's face that he didn't believe Huang Xiaolong's pill refining was better than the Purple Flames Sect's old ancestor.

The Purple Flames Sect, like the Six Swords Gate, was one of Earth's biggest sects, and the Purple Flames Sect was slightly stronger than the Six Swords Gate. On top of that, the Purple Flames Sect was acknowledged as one of Earth's six most powerful cultivators.

The Purple Flames Sect's old ancestor's pill refining abilities were claimed to have surpassed perfection, and he was recognized as the most authoritative person in pill refining on Earth.

Therefore, it was understandable that Huang Datou did not believe that Huang Xiaolong's pill refining skills were better than the Purple Flames Sect.

Chapter 3257: The Future Will Only Get Better

Huang Xiaolong merely smiled as he listened to his nephew's admiring tone as he told him about Earth's most amazing pill refiner, the Purple Flames Sect's old ancestor who had reached the Enlightenment Realm.

After getting no response from Huang Xiaolong Huang Datou quickly clarified as he didn't want Huang Xiaolong to misunderstand. "Uncle, I don't mean that!"

"I know," Huang Xiaolong responded nonchalantly, not taking it to heart.

Subsequently, Huang Xiaolong inquired about the Eastern University from Huang Datou.

Huang Datou's tensed nerves relaxed at Huang Xiaolong's nonchalance, and he started talking to Huang Xiaolong about the time he had spent at the Eastern University.

The two chatted as they drove home, and soon, they reached the small house.

In the open space in front of the house, Huang Jiyuan and Huang Chenfei were sparring, while Wang Meilan stood watching on the side.

Noticing there was one blue and one yellow expensive off-road vehicle driving towards their house, the two men stopped sparring, and all three people watched and waited with curiosity.

Although they had no idea these were the latest models, Huang Chenfei had a better understanding of modern cars compared to Huang Jiyuan and Wang Meilan. Thus, the other two could hear him exclaiming, "These are BMW off-roads. Just by looking at their appearance, one can tell that one car probably costs forty to fifty thousand low-grade spirit stones!"

"Forty to fifty thousand low-grade spirit stones?" Wang Meilan's beautiful eyes widened. "Just for one of these cars?"

Their previous main residence was sold for merely fifty thousand low-grade spirit stones, and a car like this cost as much as the main residence. This was something beyond her scope of understanding.

Huang Jiyuan was just as dumbfounded.

Huang Chenfei grinned. “Mom, if this is the latest model, it would cost more than that.” At the same time, he was baffled. “They seem to be coming to our house, but we don’t seem to have such rich relatives, right?”

Even when his elder sister Huang Wen came back to visit, she did not drive such a luxurious car.

As the three waited in confusion, one blue and one yellow off-road BMW stopped a few meters from them. Then, the car doors opened, and Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou stepped out from their respective cars.

Upon seeing that it was Huang Xiaolong and Huang Datou who stepped out of the two latest models of BMW off-roads, the three people were caught off guard, and their eyes widened in disbelief.

“Xiaolong!”

“Datou!”

Just a moment ago, they were still wondering which rich family’s kid had taken a wrong turn somewhere.

“Dad, Mom,” Huang Xiaolong greeted as he approached.

“Xiaolong, these cars, who did you borrow them from?” Huang Jiyuan finally reacted and blurted a question without having to think.

Wang Meilan and Huang Chenfei too stared at Huang Xiaolong, waiting for him to answer.

Huang Xiaolong blanked for a second, and then smiled, "What do you mean borrowed? I bought them. Five of them actually, one for each of us." With a wave of his hand, the remaining three majestic off-roads appeared on the empty space.

Staring dumbly at the three cars that appeared out of nowhere, Huang Jiyuan, Huang Chenfei, and Wang Meilan were agape in shock.

"Brother, you, these cars, you bought them? All of them??" Huang Chenfei was shaking, and only he knew whether he was shaking from excitement or fright.

Huang Xiaolong grinned and nodded, "All of them. I heard from Datou that you like the color red, so I chose a red one for you!"

Under the sunlight, the red BMW off-road stood out like fire.

Huang Xiaolong had chosen black color for the remaining cars he had bought for his parents.

Huang Chenfei looked at the red car in disbelief. "It's, it's for me?!"

He cautiously reached out to caress the red BMW off-road, and his hand trembled as if he was afraid to hurt his beloved woman.

Huang Xiaolong smiled watching his action, and then he turned to Huang Jiyuan and Wang Meilan. "Dad, Mom, these two cars are yours. Someone said both of you like black color."

Huang Jiyuan was as obsessed as Huang Chenfei, touching the car's body.

It was Wang Meilan who reacted, "Xiaolong, didn't you say you were going out to buy a house? You kid, why did you throw all your money into buying cars?! What about your house? I really don't know what to say to you. Hurry up, and return all these cars! These five cars probably cost two hundred thousand low-grade spirit stones. That's enough for us to buy several lots of sea view bungalows!"

"Grandma, Uncle has already bought a house in the city center!" Huang Datou couldn't help interjecting.

Wang Meilan lit up immediately, "Really?"

Huang Jiyuan and Huang Chenfei stopped caressing their cars after hearing that and turned around.

"Brother, you bought a house? Which area?" Huang Chenfei asked happily.

Before Huang Xiaolong could speak, Huang Datou chimed in excitedly, "Dad, it's in the Golden River Residence!"

"What? The Golden River Residence?!" Huang Jiyuan's reaction was bigger than expected. "Is it the newly built area close to our Huazhou City's Golden River?"

Even though he hadn't gone out much in recent years, he had heard of the Golden River's residential area, so imagine how famous it was.

Huang Datou nodded with a big grin, "Yes, it's that Golden River Residence!"

Huang Chenfei was thrilled, "I've heard that a hundred meters square feet lot in the Golden River Residence needs at least one hundred thousand low-grade spirit stones!"

Wang Meilan also asked happily, "Xiaolong, how big is the house you bought? How many square feet? How many rooms? Which floor?"

Huang Xiaolong chuckled, "Over a thousand square meters. It's not an apartment, but a villa!"

“Over, over one thousand square meters?!” Huang Jiyuan nearly tumbled.

Wang Meilan and Huang Chenfei were dazed in shock.

“Xiaolong, you, really?” Wang Meilan didn’t dare to believe Huang Xiaolong’s words, and her eyes suddenly became red-rimmed.

“Mom, it’s true, everything’s ready inside the villa, even the furniture. You just need to pack up your things, and we’ll move in today. We’ll live there from now on.” Huang Xiaolong reassured her.

Wang Meilan suddenly sobbed.

“Mom!” Huang Xiaolong called out softly.

Huang Jiyuan quickly said, “It’s alright, your Mom’s crying tears of joy!” A melancholic sigh sounded as he said, “We’ve been poor for too long and felt insecure. The days have been bitter for a long time, but now, it has finally come to an end!”

Finally come to an end!

Huang Chenfei’s eyes were also a little red.

He had already given up, and the despair that had dragged him down like a quagmire had made him give up on living. And now, thinking about those dark times, his heart palpitated.

“Xiaolong, all these things you mentioned are true, right?” a while later, Wang Meilan wiped the tears off her face and asked Huang Xiaolong. Until now, she was afraid she would wake up from a dream and everything would return to what it used to be.

“Mom, it’s all true.” Huang Xiaolong held his mother’s hand, and said sincerely, “The future will only get better.”

Wang Meilan nodded heavily with her tear-streaked face.

A while later, Wang Meilan, Huang Jiyuan, and Huang Chenfei packed up some of their things, and the five of them moved on the same day itself, driving the five brand new BMW off-road vehicles to the Golden River Residence.

Although Earth had entered a cultivation era, almost everyone knew how to drive. Huang Jiyuan, Wang Meilan, and Huang Chenfei, each of them drove one car, and the sight of five majestic off-road vehicles in a line became an attraction on Huazhou City's streets.

Eyes were glued on them wherever they passed.

Everyone went wild trying to guess which Huazhou City's rich man had bought these cars.

Reaching the Golden River Residence, the five drove directly to villa number one. The villa Huang Xiaolong had bought had the biggest land surface in this residential area, and it was also the most expensive unit.

Wang Meilan, Huang Jiyuan, and Huang Chenfei parked their cars and received another wave of astonishment when they got down and saw the place.

Chapter 3258: Transform Barren Land

Huang Jiyuan, Wang Meilan, and Huang Chenfei couldn't wait to tour their new place from inside out, every room on every floor had their footsteps!

The more they saw the more they liked the place.

On top of that, they could see the sea from the third floor.

“Xiaolong, this villa must have cost a lot of money, right?” Wang Meilan suppressed her own feelings and asked Huang Xiaolong.

Huang Xiaolong nodded and did not conceal the amount from his mother. “Counting the furniture and everything, it’s a little over a million low-grade spirit stones.”

“Wh-What! More than one million!” Huang Chenfei trembled slightly.

Huang Jiyuan’s and Wang Meilan’s hearts nearly jumped out of their chests.

“Xiaolong, this!” Wang Meilan was about to say something but Huang Xiaolong stepped ahead. “Mom, this is only a small amount of money, so you don’t need to worry about it.” With that said, he took out the purchase contract and said, “The name of this villa is in your father’s name, so keep these documents well.”

While Wang Meilan and Huang Jiyuan were still dazed in surprise as Huang Xiaolong took out ten spatial bags. “Each spatial bag contains five hundred thousand low-grade spirit stones for you to use, buy whatever you want, whatever you need, and tell me if you need more.”

Huang Xiaolong also gave Huang Chenfei and Huang Datou a spatial bag each.

Huang Jiyuan, Wang Meilan, and Huang Chenfei were beyond dumbstruck at this moment.

There were ten spatial bags, and each bag contained five hundred thousand low-grade spirit stones. That summed up the total to five million!

And counting Huang Chenfei and Huang Datou’s spatial bag, it was a total of six million! Don’t forget, there were also the five cars and the villa, so the amount had already exceeded eight million!

“This, this, Xiaolong, you, all these low-grade spirit stones, you exchanged them from the bank?” Huang Jiyuan looked at his son, who had just returned two days ago, in disbelief.

Huang Xiaolong smiled and nodded. “Yes, I killed some Golden Core beasts in the past and took their golden cores to exchange for spirit stones from the bank. There are more than twenty-three million low-grade spirit stones!”

“More than twenty-three million!” Wang Meilan’s head was buzzing from hearing the amount.

Even for a Tan Family’s grand elder, twenty-three million low-grade spirit stones was a huge amount, then what was more to people who had been accustomed to being poor in recent years like Wang Meilan and Huang Jiyuan?

“You hunted these many Golden Core Realm fierce beasts?!” Huang Jiyuan’s eyes widened in disbelief. Otherwise, how would Huang Xiaolong have gotten more than twenty-three million low-grade spirit stones?

“Yes ah, Grandfather, Uncle killed sixty-six high-level Golden Core Realm fierce beasts. Moreover, all of them were Ninth Level Golden Core Realm and above!” Huang Datou interjected with a flushed face and went on to recount what had happened from the time they had entered the ban, and his saliva flew everywhere. Huang Datou did not forget to tell about what had happened at the BMW dealership.

After hearing Huang Xiaolong had not only bought five cars, but also two flying ships, and a big piece of barren land measuring over two thousand acres, Huang Jiyuan and the others were already at a loss for words.

“So, Mom, you don’t need to worry about money anymore. Buy whatever you want, and if needed, I’ll go kill a few fierce beasts,” Huang Xiaolong joked.

“Since Big Brother does not lack money, then Datou and I will accept these spatial bags.” Huang Chenfei laughed generously.

Huang Xiaolong grinned. “Not far outside the Golden River Residence is the market, so we’ll go there to get something later. We’ll have a good celebration today as our personal housewarming!”

“Right, right, I want to buy Golden Flame Spiritual Fruit!” Huang Datou cheered happily.

Wang Meilan chided him good-naturedly, "The Golden Flame Spiritual Fruit is all you know!"

Others laughed happily.

Thus, the family got into the car and went to the local market.

Because parking was inconvenient in that area, they only took Huang Xiaolong's blue off-road.

At the market, Wang Meilan chose an exceptionally big spiritual hog beast, whereas Huang Datou grabbed a lot of Golden Flame Spiritual Fruits. Huang Xiaolong casually picked some spiritual fruits and spiritual meat with high energy, and specifically went to shops selling seeds of spiritual fruits and spiritual herbs.

There were more than twenty kinds of spiritual fruit trees' seeds, one hundred seeds for each kind.

There were even more spiritual herbs' seeds, almost sixty kinds and Huang Xiaolong got several hundred seeds for each kind.

Naturally, these seeds did not come cheap, setting back Huang Xiaolong by several hundred thousand low-grade spirit stones.

"Xiaolong, what are you doing buying so many seeds?" Wang Meilan asked curiously when she saw that Huang Xiaolong had spent so many spirit stones to buy these spiritual herbs and spiritual fruit trees' seeds.

Huang Jiyuan and Huang Chenfei also looked over in curiosity.

Huang Xiaolong chuckled. "Didn't I buy two thousand acres of barren land?"

“You plan to plant these seeds on that barren land?” Huang Jiyuan began to persuade his son urgently, “Xiaolong, spiritual fruit trees are hard to grow even on fertile lands and require spiritual water. You also need to hire a herb specialist to take care of them!”

“Spiritual plants are hard to grow. So, if you’re going to grow them on your barren land, it won’t work at all!” As if afraid Huang Xiaolong didn’t believe him, Huang Jiyuan gave a long list of examples.

In the beginning, many families had thought of earning spirit stones by growing and selling spiritual herbs and spiritual fruits, but they had ended up losing everything, and many of them had ended their lives after they couldn’t face the bank and other debt collectors.

Huang Xiaolong listened patiently, as he neither interrupted or stopped his father. His parents didn’t believe in it now, but they would see it with their own eyes in two days.

If he, the Son of Creation, couldn’t grow these seeds well, then he could really go and knock his head on Earth.

Inside the Sun Moon Furnace, Huang Xiaolong had many genesis level pills. However, these things were too high in grade for his parents. Merely a whiff of a genesis level pills could cause his family to explode to their deaths. Therefore, Huang Xiaolong could only plant these herbs himself to refine pills that could improve his family’s cultivation.

After the spiritual trees bore fruits, they could be sold for a million low-grade spirit stones on a daily basis, and that would be over three hundred million in a year. With this income, even after he left Earth, his family wouldn’t live the way they were before.

Of course, these spiritual herbs and spiritual trees were not the best variety available on Earth, so he planned to purchase better ones after arriving at the Huaxia Alliance.

Back at the Golden River Residence villa, Wang Meilan personally cooked a lavish meal while Huang Xiaolong grilled meat, and tantalizing scents and laughter soon filled the air.

The celebration at home went on until eleven something into the night.

After Huang Jiyuan and Wang Meilan went to rest in their bedroom on the second floor, Huang Xiaolong drove to the barren land several hundred miles outside Huazhou City.

He was going to transform this piece of barren land completely in the night and plant all the seeds he had bought during the day. Generally, it would take two to three decades for the spiritual trees to bear fruits, and most spiritual herbs took as much time to grow. However, Huang Xiaolong was going to let them grow overnight!

Huang Xiaolong took out the Sun Moon Furnace, and let it fly high into the air, lighting up half of the barren land. Immediately, the rubbish, weeds, poisonous insects and everything were reduced to ashes, leaving a completely clean land.

Far away behind Huang Xiaolong, hidden in the darkness, someone's eyes bulged in shock at everything that transpired.

Chapter 3259: Are You Human Or God?

In truth, the figure watching behind Huang Xiaolong had been tailing him ever since he had driven out from the Golden River Residence. Huang Xiaolong had long discovered the person but he continued transforming the barren land.

After the flames spewing out from the Sun Moon Furnace cleared up the barren land, it then spewed out rays of golden light!

This flowing golden light was indescribably radiant and resplendent, giving the peeping person an incredible visual impact that was unforgettable in a lifetime.

A moment after the golden rays seeped into the barren land, wisps of black smoke curled out from the ground, then it became gray smoke, and finally golden light!

Golden light circulated within the ground and gradually rose to the surface, condensing into some kind of elf-like golden spirit. At that moment, the whole land seemed to come alive, brimming with vitality.

In fact, land and humans are similar as both hold impurities in their bodies. Huang Xiaolong used the Sun Moon Furnace's fire essence to improve the soil's properties!

The Sun Moon Furnace was a demi-genesis artifact, and it was the Sun and Moon Creed's ultimate treasure. Countless batches of medicinal pills had been refined inside the furnace, so one can't even begin to imagine how startling the fire essence contained within it. Merely a fraction of fire essence could transform this barren land into fertile immortal soil!

In short, after Huang Xiaolong planted seeds in this land, the trees and herbs could bear immortal fruits upon reaching a certain number of years! Immortal herbs!

Immortal fruits and immortal herbs were extremely rare in the Milky Way's mortal world, and even Void Immortals would fight till blood flowed into a river for them.

In a dozen breaths, Huang Xiaolong had fully transformed the barren land's ground into fertile immortal soil.

Huang Xiaolong retrieved the Sun Moon Furnace, and as an afterthought, he took out the lowest grade spiritual vein he had, and cut off a one-ten thousandth of the spiritual vein and sent it deep underground.

Even though it was merely a one-ten thousandth of the lowest-grade spiritual vein from inside the Sun Moon Furnace, it had rich spiritual energy spewing out from the land the moment it was buried underground, like an erupting volcano of spiritual energy. A hurricane of spiritual energy formed on the barren land.

The person peeking from the dark trembled, and his eyes were filled with disbelief and feverish greed.

Watching the spiritual energy hurricane expand and dissipate towards Huazhou City several hundred miles away, Huang Xiaolong raised his hand and gathered the dissipating spiritual energy once again. Seemingly, the rich spiritual energy was contained within the space of this barren land, unable to float further out!

Huang Xiaolong simply tapped his finger in the air, and a rune flew out, and fell into the land, locking the spiritual energy in this land.

Huang Xiaolong subsequently laid out a spiritual energy gathering array and a defensive formation, as well as an attack formation. There were three array formations in one, turning the barren land into an ethereal paradise with a faint golden dome encompassing it.

Then, Huang Xiaolong divided the seeds he had bought during the day and scattered them onto the land systematically.

The spiritual trees' seeds germinated and sprouted in just a few breaths! Several breaths later, the tender green sprouts had grown as tall as a finger! The same thing happened with the spiritual herbs' seeds!

The originally barren land turned into a luscious green oasis.

Another dozen breaths later, the spiritual trees' sprouts had doubled in height, growing as tall as an adult's forearm!

The person watching all this from the dark had forgotten to breathe, engrossed in the miracle before his eyes.

Miraculous!

This was the only word he could think of to describe this situation.

When all was done, Huang Xiaolong clasped his hands behind him, still with his back towards the person as he said, "Come out."

The person hesitated but came out a moment later in the end. He looked at Huang Xiaolong warily, still trying to digest what he had seen. "You, you, are you a human or God?!"

Huang Xiaolong looked at him and asked, "Speak, who sent you?"

"I, I!" The person suddenly plopped down on his knees, terrified to the extreme. "Lord, have mercy. I have no ill-will towards you!"

He was the Huang Family's Honorary Elder Chen Yu, who had accepted the task from Huang Bo to deal with Huang Xiaolong for two pieces of dragon-roaring jade!

Before coming here, Huang Bo's order was to break Huang Xiaolong's hands and feet, and lastly, he had added another condition to dig out Huang Xiaolong's eyes!

In truth, he had been trailing Huang Xiaolong, Huang Jiyuan, and the others early in the day. He was already shocked after seeing that each person in Huang Jiyuan's family had the latest model of BMW off-road vehicle. Then, he was in for more surprises after seeing Huang Jiyuan's family move into the Golden River Residence. He was delighted when he noticed Huang Xiaolong had driven out from Huazhou City to this barren land, as it was the chance for him to act. But what had happened later had terrified him half to death.

Slow as he might be, Chen Yu realized that Huang Xiaolong was not someone he could afford to provoke.

So Chen Yu did not hesitate to kneel.

Looking at the Huang Family's Honorary Elder Chen Yu kneeling to him, Huang Xiaolong sneered. "You bear no ill-will towards me? Then, is the killing intent from your body when you followed me here an illusion?"

Just as they were out of Huazhou City's boundary, this person's killing intent had seeped out. Others would not notice it, but how could it escape Huang Xiaolong's detection?

Hearing that, Chen Yu kowtowed in panic, pleading incessantly, "Lord, Lord, I really have no malicious intention!"

Chen Yu wanted to say more, but a force from Huang Xiaolong's hand dragged him up, and then, soul searching began.

Although Huang Xiaolong had suppressed his cultivation realm to peak late-Ninth Void Immortal Realm, it was easy to search the soul of a Golden Core expert.

The soul searching soon ended.

When Huang Xiaolong learned that Huang Bo wanted Chen Yu to break his hands and feet, and dig out his eyes, Huang Xiaolong's expression was extremely frosty, and a small flame slowly burned through the Honorary Elder Chen Yu's body, until nothing but ashes were left.

It was a pity that Chen Yu lost his life for mere two pieces of dragon-roaring jade because even his golden core was reduced to ashes.

Huang Xiaolong turned back around, and with a twirl of his finger, the spiritual fruit tree seedlings on the ground grew another half a meter in height. At this rate, they would grow into proper trees in an hour and bear fruits overnight!

It won't be a problem to ripen these fruits before the break of dawn.

The spiritual herbs planted were swaying in the night, reflecting faint dark green glow as they began to store spiritual energy.

With Huang Xiaolong's effort of transforming the land and burying a fraction of spiritual vein underground, the growth of these spiritual trees and spiritual herbs had gone beyond anyone's wildest imagination.

Naturally, the spiritual energy gathering array Huang Xiaolong had laid out played a big role.

That spiritual vein was condensed from millions of years of spiritual energy, and even a fraction of it was enough to support this barren land for several hundred thousand years, thus Huang Xiaolong didn't need to worry about insufficient spiritual energy to support the plants here.

Chapter 3260: What're the Origins of Huang Datou's Uncle?

After watching the spiritual trees and spiritual herbs grow as per his expectations, Huang Xiaolong turned his attention to something else. The force from his hand pulled a big chunk of ore from underground a far distance away.

Huang Xiaolong had a quick look earlier, and nearby underground, there were rich reserves of iron and ore. Although the reserves were a little scattered and difficult to mine, it posed no problem to Huang Xiaolong.

Coincidentally, Huang Xiaolong could use this iron ore to refine a residence.

The spiritual trees and spiritual herbs' seeds he had planted merely took up three hundred acres or so, and he had decided to build the residence right in the center of the land.

The residence wouldn't be too big, and it would be about a hundred acres. After all, the residence would be left to Huang Family's future descendants as Huang Xiaolong didn't plan to spend much time on Earth.

As Huang Xiaolong grabbed pieces of colorful irons and ores from underground, soon there were tens of thousands of big and small chunks of materials suspended in midair.

“Go!”

With a wave of his hand, he released the Sun Moon Furnace.

The Sun Moon Furnace rose into the air and swallowed all the irons and ores into its belly. The grand array within came to life, and fire essence burned brightly, melting the iron and ore inside. At the same time, all the impurities were burned away.

Soon, all the irons and ore were melted into a liquid. The Sun Moon Furnace tilted to one side, pouring these liquids down the center of the barren land.

Huang Xiaolong waved his right hand, and every time he did so, the burning liquid that was poured to the ground, shaped itself as per Huang Xiaolong's thoughts.

After a dozen times, the melted iron and ore had turned into a dozen majestic buildings!

Huang Xiaolong then tapped his finger in the air, condensing runes that he placed within each building's main pillar. When all runes were in place, the entire palace emitted dazzling rays of light, as if the place was a blessed land.

The runes Huang Xiaolong planted inside each building's main pillar were links that connected all the runes and the overall buildings as one entity, as well as forming a simplified version of Complete Heaven Formation.

With the formation activated, it would continuously absorb the power of stars from space, and those who cultivate inside this palace could temper their physical bodies with the power of stars.

The power of stars was no longer useful to him, but it was extremely beneficial for the Huang Family members.

This place was merely several hundred miles outside of Huazhou City, it takes less than twenty minutes for Huang Jiyuan, Wang Meilan, and the others to drive over, they can over to cultivate anytime.

Pity the iron ores around here aren't enough, or I could build three hundred sixty-five palace buildings, forming a Grand Complete Heaven Formation, Huang Xiaolong thought to himself.

The result of cultivating inside the Grand Complete Heaven Formation was naturally more effective; unfortunately, Huang Xiaolong had exhausted the iron and ore reserves in the vicinity.

Thus Huang Xiaolong planned to check out the surrounding mountains to see if he could find more iron ore to build a Grand Complete Heaven Formation.

Then again, the amount of energy inside the runes Huang Xiaolong had branded into each of the palace buildings' main pillars could easily defend against and kill even a Void Immortal.

The dozen of buildings Huang Xiaolong had forged merely took up ten acres or so, therefore, the one hundred acres of land he allocated was enough for him to build more buildings to form a Grand Complete Heaven Formation.

Huang Xiaolong glanced at the spiritual fruit trees and spiritual herbs' seedlings, the spiritual fruits trees had reached the height of an adult. He looked around again, then stomped his foot on the ground. Following the stomp of his foot, loess soil emerged from the ground.

The loess soil compacted into rock-like bricks along the perimeter of the land like the Great Wall, fencing up the land Huang Xiaolong bought.

The walls were well over ten meters high and half a meter thick.

Of course Huang Xiaolong did not forget to leave a ten-meter wide gap as the main entrance.

With a casual wave of his hand, several towering trees in the distance were uprooted, and flew towards Huang Xiaolong. His palm was akin to a sharp blade, with a few slashes across the air, he had cut off the excess branches from the tree trunks which were then split into uniform planks. Huang Xiaolong inscribed a rune on these wooden planks, fixing them together to become two halves of a wooden gate.

The two sides of the wooden gates fitted nicely in the gap.

When all these were done, Huang Xiaolong pressed his palm on the wooden gates across the air. The wooden gates flashed brightly, then golden light flowed to the sides, along the walls Huang Xiaolong had erected. As the golden light flowed passed, the walls became stronger, and consolidated into one entity.

Before long, the wooden gates and walls were fully connected as one entity.

With that golden light Huang Xiaolong embedded into the wooden gates, no one could come close to this piece of land, except for Huang Xiaolong.

Huang Xiaolong pushed open the doors, and walked into the newly built palace at the center. The ground under Huang Xiaolong's feet turned into stone as he walked past, forming a ten-meter wide walkway.

By the time Huang Xiaolong reached the main palace building, there was a meters-wide stone walkway from the wooden gates leading to the main palace.

The stone walkway was naturally flat, even if a car drove over the stone walkway, it won't feel bumpy at all.

Looking around the residence, the spiritual fruit trees and spiritual herbs growing outside, Huang Xiaolong nodded with satisfaction at the result of his hard work for the night.

Nine days later, he and his parents would be paying the Lin Family in Ha Province a visit, to see his younger sister, Huang Wen. He could seize these nine days' time to further transform this land.

Huang Xiaolong put his car into the Sun Moon Furnace, and in one step, he had left the land. However, Huang Xiaolong did not return to the Huang Family's villa in the Golden River Residence, but went to Datong City.

The Huang Family's main residence was not located in Huazhou City, but in Datong City. The two cities were separated by a thousand miles and more. Huang Bo and other direct descendents of Huang Family resided in Datong City.

“Huang Bo!” Huang Xiaolong's pupils needed.

Huang Xiaolong had originally planned to wait for Huang Houde to come back from the capital a month later before taking action so he could deal with Huang Houde and his entire line of descendent, but Huang Bo, this flea, had been jumping too much, so he was going to squash this flea to death first!

At this time, inside a luxurious villa in Datong City, Huang Bo was flatteringly pouring spiritual tea for a middle-aged man, and he offered it to him with both hands. “Third Uncle, this is Fangde Tea Trader's Dragon Well Spiritual Tea. Have a taste.”

The Fangde Tea Trader was a famous tea supplier on Earth, and the Dragon Well Spiritual Tea was one of its top-notch products with a small pack costing approximately ten low-grade spirit stones.

Ten low-grade spirit stones, that was the annual salary of the average person.

This middle-aged man, Huang Baogui, was the same person who had deliberately sent Huang Chenfei to do a dangerous task, resulting in Huang Chenfei's crippling injuries.

Huang Baogui accepted the tea and took a leisurely sip. The tea's light and refreshing fragrance filled his mouth. He glanced at Huang Bo and said, "Speak, what matter you have to come looking for me?"

He knew this nephew of his very well. Flattering him meant that there was something he needed help with, and it wouldn't be anything good.

Huang Bo smiled sheepishly as he said, "Third Uncle, I want to inquire about something from you."

"What is it?" Huang Baogui asked casually. Although he had paid Honorary Elder Chen Yu to deal with Huang Xiaolong, he still didn't feel at ease, hence he came to Huang Baogui, to see if he could get some information.

Huang Bo recounted how he was 'bullied' by Huang Xiaolong, and then he added, "Later on, I sent people to follow Huang Datou, and only then did I learn that person is Huang Datou's eldest uncle. Third Uncle, do you know what's the origin of Huang Datou's uncle?"

"Huang Datou's eldest uncle?!" Huang Baogui was a little baffled in the beginning, but as he thought of someone, his body trembled. Could it be?! That person's back?!
