Chapter 1041 Sis-in-law Incentives: Ch 01

Jenny and Alex find ways to incentivize each other.

with a little teasing play. The entire beginning of the series is a slow buildup.

"What kind of incentive are you talking about?" my sister-in-law Jenny asked me, suddenly intrigued.

"I'd like to tell you, but then I'd have t

My eyebrows climbed a short ways up my forehead as I considered her first really interesting offer.

"That would be nice," I told her. "You know I think you're beautiful. You have a great body. I'd love to see more of it." She smiled, until I took another sip of my Guinness.

"And you do have nice tits, at least what I've seen," I kidded her, swirlin

She was wearing an oversized tee, and not much else from what I could see. When I was perched up on the machine and she leaned in to adjust the speed setting, I had a nice view right down her open neck. Jenny had small breasts, no bigger than a 'B' I'd guess, but nice for her lean figure. Her nipples were very responsive and I often found them erec

"On your stomach." She told me, putting some cream in her hand.

I did as she said, and she tugged my towel loose, spreading it loosely across my rear. "Now relax," she commanded as she straddled my body, rubbing the ointment into my shoulders, arms and back. She followed the rubbing with a pretty good massage, and the warmth of the ointment was sta

"Handy" sis-in-law

Progress pays in many ways.

And the rules change just a little.

As part of our deal for getting me to lose 5 pounds, Jenny had just spent several minutes naked in front of me, teasing me, while I whacked my way to my second ejaculation in less than 10 minutes

"Show me." I told her, reaching forward and grasping her hands, pulling them down to her own bare pussy.

She rubbed her fingers across the top of her mound, caressing it softly, her fingers spreading into a small 'V', bracketing her opening, spreading the lips a hint exposing the pink treasure beneath.

"I'm stopping unless I see some movement on yo

That evening she was true to her word, and she worked me hard. I was dreading how I was going to feel. I went home and had dinner alone. She'd already had plans to go out with her friends, and never made it home, spending the night at her girl friend's place.

The next morning I got up late, after 9:00, and hit the elliptical again, an easy 30 minut

"I can't believe that for six months this incredible cock has been so close, while I was upstairs, going to sleep frustrated, rubbing myself off." She closed her eyes and leaned her face against my hard-on. Her cheek pressed against it, she rubbed up and down, like a kitten, begging to be stroked.

"Can I, just for a second, hold it in my mouth?" Sh

After a light cardio workout the next morning, I went with Jenny to the local mall, where I let her roam the stores. I had a $250 gift certificate left over from a project bonus, and I was going to make up the difference in cash. She asked if she could split the shopping between Macy's and Victoria's Secret, so I gave her the certificate and fifty

The nasty little stranger sucked me deep again, setting me off. I came for her, not nearly as much as earlier, and I was super-sensitive as I finished, but she cleaned me up, sat up, and gave me a kiss on the cheek, while her boyfriend put up his hand for a high-five. They then got up and walked out.

"Now you owe me again." Jenny told me, while I s
