Chapter 1161 Family Revelation:Ep25

Jen gasped into my ear as my penis pressed against her cunt, and pushed through her lips.

Time stopped and I eased my penis up into my sister's body.

My flesh became her flesh. Hers became mine.

She cried out into the storm and we were one.

I lowered my lips to hers and she greedily accepted them, hungrily kissing me as she reached her hands down a

It had been over two years now since Michelle and I were married. We had a really nice wedding, not too expensive, but well decorated and fun. Michelle agreed not to spend too much on the photos and videos and instead we put our money into great food at the reception, and a DJ who brought a great attitude and had a lot of good music. All our family

A few minutes later, the video was over and she asked me to help her up off the ball. After she gained her footing, I then helped her sit down on the floor where she could stretch out.

"Mark, would it bother you if I took off my bra?" she asked, stretching an arm over her head.

I laughed. "What do you think? But won't James mind just a little?"

"Oh

Standing totally naked in my sister and her husband's home, I walked up before her and knelt down in front of her. She didn't say a word, but just grinned excitedly as I reached out to her hips and slowly peeled her panties down from under her belly and over her hips. She held herself up and allowed me to strip the fabric from under her butt, then

The juices from her cunt that had mixed with mine now lubricated her anus. As my shaft coursed through her textured orifice, the walls of her rectum began secreting it's own lubricant than mixed with the juices I had introduced.

In and out I slid my penis through her anus. She squeezed her buttocks and giggled happily as I rammed myself against her

Chapter 1166 Breaking Addiction:Ep1

It was a late Friday night and I had just returned to my room after watching TV with my sister, Sara. I was pretty tired, but I had been looking forward to getting online to view some new porn and get myself off after a tough week at school. I was twenty and going to a two year school to get certified as an auto mechanic. With all the dirty jokes w

I left the bathroom and returned to my bedroom, mortified, but relieved she hadn't been angry. I was still really turned on and it was getting so hard not to return to my computer. But I thought of Sara, and how much this meant to her, and how much she meant to me, and I stayed clean for one more night.

Sunday was relaxing, and

I thought the next day was going to be really awkward around Sara, but it turned out I was wrong. While my parents were getting ready for work, Sara and I ate breakfast together; she was in the sweetest mood she'd been in for a while. We talked and laughed and last night's event wasn't mentioned except by little grins at each other. We both left fo

"That's fantastic." I gasped.

She swung her hips back and forth a little, like she was dancing to a slow melody. To my surprise, she lowered her panties even more until the entire length of her crack was exposed. I was completely mesmerized and drank in the perfect view my little sister was offering me. She kept moving her hips back and forth and I

"So, you like this, huh?" She said, starting to pull her shirt up an inch more. I nodded, concentrating my eyes where I could just barely start to see the skin of her breasts. She raised her shirt a little more and the curve of her breasts came into view. My hand was shaking as I started to rub my dick through my boxers.

"Sorry, I'm not giving you
