Chapter 1211 Fucking One Brother Is Crazy:2

On Sunday lunchtime we were all sitting around the table having lunch. Brian was at the opposite end to me. Occasionally our eyes met and he would smile at me. But in truth the main focus of my attention, as it always was on these occasions, was my elder brother, Jack. For ages I'd had a massive crush on him. Try as I might, it would never go away.

So we kissed again, and this time I guided his hands onto my denim clad ass and held them there. We stayed like that for a few moments and I let go of his hands. To my pleasure he didn't move them. I placed my hands on his ass and as we kissed I pulled him towards me. I was momentarily shocked to feel his erect cock pressing against me. Eventually

"Mmmm...little brother, you've got a nice cock."

As I stroked him I let my sheet fall down, exposing my nudity to my little brother.

"Oh shit....." he exclaimed.

I continued to jerk him as he reached to touch my breasts. Then I moved down to take him in my mouth.

"OH FUCK.....OH YES.....OH HAYLEY....."

To my surprise he got up and moved to the couch. He sat by my head end rather than ass end, although my ass was clearly visible. After a while he put his hand across and onto my back, stroking me gently. I was silently praying that his hand would move to my ass. It didn't.

After a while I got up.

"More beer?" I asked him, hurrying past him.

"Come on Lucy! Please!!"

"Oh I don't know. I'll think about it. Ok?"

"Please!"

"Just stop bugging me. Ok?" I said to my brother Ben, hoping he would leave me alone at last.

We left our house. By the time I reached the bus stop I was already complaining. It was hot and sunny and I was sweating.

"It's going to get hotter, they say," said Luke helpfully.

We got the bus to the train station, had a two hour train journey then a one hour bus journey, followed by a five mile hike to the edge of the national park, where we ca

After I went in the tent and changed into panties and a plain black tee shirt. No bra. I climbed into my sleeping bag. The boys came in a while later in boxers and we settled down for the night. Like last night I was on the far left, then Luke in the middle then Ben on the far side.

I slept surprisingly well again. When I awoke I was surprised to f

I walked back to the tent. It took about ninety minutes again. I got back about two in the afternoon. Four or five hours to myself I thought. Great!

As I walked I thought about Ben's 'performance' this morning. I realized I felt quite horny thinking about it. I tried to remind myself he was my brother and so I shouldn't think such thoughts.

I found

They told us about a beautiful walk we could do. It took us to an amazing viewpoint with views over most of the national park.

"A whole day's hike but well worth it," explained Ed, showing Luke the route on a map.

"Thanks. We might do that on Thursday. We've been here a few times but didn't know that path existed," replied Ben.

We said our goodnigh

I lay on my stomach and removed my top. I would put it back on when Ben came back. He was gone for a while and I started to worry about him. I stood up to look for him and saw him swimming slowly back.

I lay back down and he sat near to me. For whatever reason I had forgotten that I was still topless but I was still on my front so I didn't worry to
