That moan shocked me back into reality. I eased the door closed. I stood there in my room, facing the closed door in awe, unable to move. What was really only a momentary glimpse, lasting barely a second, maybe two, seemed like an eternity. A glorious, wondrous, fantastic eternity. That sight would be burned in my memory banks forever. Easily the m

I let the warmth stream over me. I focused the spray on the back of my neck and let it give me a mini massage, relaxing me to the point I lost some awareness of where I was or how long I was in there. Between that and the post-ejaculation wave of calm, I was feeling very relaxed at the moment.

And then I heard the little click of the glass door opened

"I wonder why mom and dad called," I mused out loud.

"No idea. Can we just not tell them about this?" she pleaded.

"Of course," I said slowly. I didn't need a lecture from my mother or father about modesty and such. Carly ran out of my room fast.

I grabbed some clean shorts and a t-shirt and sat at the desk. That was weird. Carly was really concern

Karina took the lead. "Well, after I moved in, I cried a lot at night. Carly would put her arms around me and hold me tightly until I cried myself to sleep. It got to be the only way I could go to sleep after a while, having your sister holding me. And it was still summer and pretty warm at night, so we didn't wear much in the way of clothing to sl

Karina laughed a little, "It's fine. I'm heading out. Wish me luck!" It took all the willpower I had to not watch her ass in that skirt as she headed to the front door. I knew Carly would be watching me watching her. I scurried to the kitchen. I leaned against the pantry door and put my hand on my cock. Damn, it was throbbing already.

I heard foots

For some reason, that made her laugh. "I think I'm pretty, but I'm nowhere near as beautiful as Karina is."

"Bullshit. You're extremely attractive," I told her, probably a tad more emphatically than necessary.

"You're just saying that to be nice," she snapped back.

"Like hell I am. Do you know how often I had to hear your name in the locker rooms a

I went into the living room and was going to watch some TV to clear my head, except Carly was already there in dad's recliner. She had it leaned all the way back and had one leg kicked up on the arm, staring at some chick flick on the screen. Her smooth, toned legs jutted out tantalizingly from under her t-shirt. I couldn't tell for sure, but I did

I thought about doing some work but decided against it. It was late, and I knew I'd need some sleep. I stripped down and climbed into bed. No surprise, I had another very sexually charged dream. I saw both girls naked, licking each other's wet pussies in a sixty-nine position while I jerked off and came on their faces.

I woke up with a throbbing er

I tucked him away and went out to the kitchen. Carly didn't even look up as I passed her and Karina. They were tightly cuddled up together on the couch. In a vacuum, they looked cute lying together like that. They exuded an innocence that was both sexy and perfectly normal all at once.

I took a plate of leftovers to the kitchen table to eat. It was Damn that was hot, I thought to myself. And this whole situation is insane. Both girls were worried about the other wanting more from their relationship. Both insisted they weren't into girls, yet both wanted to keep their relationship with each other. This was so odd, and hot all at the same time. I didn't think my cock was ever going to go soft.
