Chapter 1786 Her Ultimate Fantasy

We are a married couple of six years. I am 5'4", 34C pert breasts and wear a bikini well. My husband is 5'10" with a well toned build. We have always been pretty open and honest with each other when it came to sex.

One night, while making love, my husband expressed his desire to watch me fuck another man, one with a large cock. I told him that I indeed was intrigued with the idea and that it turned me on. As I wondered why he wanted this man to have a big cock, I asked him if he was more than interested in the man's cock than just to watch him fuck me. This made David very hard and he admitted that he might like to check out his equipment himself being that he was average size and intrigued by a larger penis. I told David that I thought that was very erotic and was hoping that we could make this fantasy come true. We began to fuck and I started whispering about how hot it would be to have another man with a big cock to play with us. I told him I would enjoy watching him stroke the man's cock until it was really hard. Maybe, that David would even suck the man's cock to get it ready to fuck me. This sent David over the edge and I had a very hot climax of my own.
