I watched as Diana slipped a short black, wrap-around dress over her head and pulled the belt tight. She was only wearing a tiny pair of wispy black lace panties and sheer thigh-high stockings under the dress.

She sat down next to me and pulled on her matching high heel shoes.

She turned to me and lightly kissed me with her full lips.

"I'm ready to go." she said and stood up.

I took her hand and we walked out to the car. We drove to the restaurant, parked the car, and went in. We had made reservations and had arrived early. We were both nervous and I ordered drinks.

As we sipped our drinks, we talked about the plans we had made for this evening. We had called Steve after exchanging erotic messages with him on an adult chat line and decided to meet him. The idea and the mental pictures of watching her with Steve intrigued me. Diana is a very sensual lover and always willing to try just about anything.

I had been watching the entry into the bar and spotted Steve looking around. I slipped out of the booth and walked over to him. We shook hands and smiled nervously at each other.

"Follow me." I said walking to the booth.

I watched as his slimy cum and juicy coated cock slid from her pussy. It was getting soft and looked like a wet pink snake.

Diana sighed as Steve moved his body off her. He lay down next to her on his back and closed his eyes.

She rolled over on her side looking at me.

"Lay down. I want you to suck my pussy." she said.

I lay down on the bed and she raised her legs, straddling my head. I looked up and her cunt hairs were matted with their juices.

Steve moaned as he realized what was about, maybe, to happen. He turned his head and sucked on her fingers. I lay down next to Steve and my skin tingled where our bodies touched. I looked down at his cock. It was long and hard and his balls were hanging down between his legs.

"Beautiful. Isn't it." she said.

I nodded. And it was. Long and hard with a gentle curve. Pink with a defined head.

"Touch it." she told me.

I reached out and touched the head of his cock. I jumped as his cock twitched at my touch.

"Its okay. Run your fingers up and down his prick." she said.

I ran my fingers down the length of his cock. It was hard and the skin was smooth. I could feel the veins in his prick as I ran my fingertips up and down his hard length.

"Feel his balls." Diana said.

I moved my fingers down and touched his scrotum. I pushed and felt a testicle slide to one side. I pushed on the other testicle and felt it move inside his hairy sack.

I heard my wife moan and looked over. She had moved so that Steve could tongue her pussy and she could still watch me.

"Kiss and suck on his balls." she gasped.

I admit it. I always wondered. Even before my first experience I thought about it more than once. Even though I thought about it I still tried to deny my desires, especially publicly. All guys have thought about it at one point or another. Many guys desire it but won't admit it. Only a few are strong enough to admit it and pursue it.

I had no idea how much my life would change when I came home from work that day. My wife and I had talked about expanding our horizons many times. We had talked about all the normal things open minded couples discuss. Threesomes with men and women and swapping with other couples. We agreed that if the opportunity came up that we would go for it.

As I walked through the door that night I knew something was up. There were clothes strewn all across the living room. I recognized some as my wife's, but others I hadn't seen before. I had a feeling I knew what was going on, and I sure hoped I was right. As I walked towards our bedroom my suspicions were confirmed when I heard the unmistakable sound of Kristy, my wife, having a huge orgasm.

He didn't waste any time complying with her wish, no man in his right mind would. I propped myself up on one elbow so I could get a better look. I had always wanted to see what she looked like with another mans cock in her cute little mouth. I was not disappointed at all, it was one of the sexiest things I have ever seen.

I continued to slowly fuck

Jane continued to tease me and I had no resistance to her. Whenever my cock was hard and my ass was turned on, I would do anything for Jane.

Jane handed the dildo to me and started to stroke my cock again. "Put it in your mouth and suck on it," she said. "This time next week, I'm going to strap it on and give you the fucking you need so bad."

I went to that special place I always went to when she had me by my ass. I was putty in her hands and moaned loudly around the cock in my mouth as she jacked me off into the sink.

Jane insisted I refrain from all sex for the next week. She made it plain to me that the day of my birthday, I was to take a shower and give myself an extra good enema.

The day of my birthday came fast and I was very horny and excited. We shared a very nice meal that Jane had prepared and a good bottle of wine. After dinner, Jane handed me a nicely wrapped birthday present and suggested that I open it. I tore the paper off the box and looked inside. I found Jane's new cock and harness inside.

"Bring my cock and follow me into the bedroom," Jane said.

Once in the bedroom, we took off all our clothes. Jane sat at the edge of the bed and told me to crawl over and carry the present over in my mouth. I held the lifelike cock sideways in my mouth like a pirate holds his knife and crawled over to her. Jane let me eat her pussy and my cock stiffened. After I brought Jane to an orgasm, she had me help her strap on her cock. The sight of Jane with a big cock was strange and exciting at the same time.

Chapter 1818 Soft First Date: 1

My last boyfriend broke up with me because I was "too aggressive." Our society expects women to be passive during sex. I have never wanted to be a woman who just lies there, passive and moaning, spread-legged like a frog on a dinner plate. I love to be on top. I always straddled him and put my hands on his forearms so I could pin him down, and then I pounded my pussy into his crotch. When he got close, I'd slow down and go up and down in long, teasing strokes to finish him off. I loved to watch his face as he came. Once, he even moaned a little, and I was over the moon. Sadly, he broke up with me soon after.

In my post-break up horniness, I browsed the Internet for porn. I searched for "women in charge," and I soon was looking at bondage and dominatrix sites. This isn't what I like. Who would want to cause her lover pain? I want to cause him pleasure. There is an amazing power in that, gently forcing him to rapturous pleasure, gently making his body respond to my commands. There is plenty of porn where the man does this to his lover. I just wanted to see a normal, loving relationship... where it was the woman who did her man.

"Steve." He raked the balls. As we played, I found out a little about him. Steve was a graduate student in computer science. "Theoretical work only; nothing practical about it at all," he joked. He was a year younger than me, and he had also recently ended a serious relationship. "I chose this graduate program to stay with her, but it just wasn't

"No," she said, shaking her head. "I want to fuck you." As she spoke, she wiggled her fingers for emphasis. "I want to put on my strap-on dildo, and fuck you up your ass." She let the words just hang there. They snapped me awake from the dizzying sexual feelings instantly. Instantly, everything had flipped 180 degrees. I realized I was lying down,
