"The new place over in Oaklawn. They've got some cool boutique shops." Karina smiled. God, I love her smile.

"Oaklawn's pretty far away. You girls have fun." I knew they were trying to tease me. I had to do my best not to show them any reaction.

The girls thanked me for breakfast and were soon out the door. I went back to my room and ended up falling

Not long after that, dad came home. We talked over dinner about the proposal I was working on for his office. He was glad I was making progress. I reasoned that with a week before school started back up, I could probably have the whole thing finalized before I went back to college.

"That'd be great. I can't make any promises, but I know that last t

They gathered their clothes and vanished behind the opposite door. In a trance, I managed to clean up and put some clothes on. Sure enough, it wasn't long before mom got home. She gave me a hug and asked if there was anything specific that I wanted to eat tonight. My mouth said nothing, but my mind went to the pair of pussies in my sister's room. I

Carly tensed up at her words and her moans went suddenly silent. I let out a grunt and shot cum on my sister's tits and belly. Karina smiled and put two fingers up for me to suck on. I tasted my sister's pussy off her fingers as Carly cooed below me.

"That's really fucking hot," Karina sighed as my tongue slithered between her fingers for the last

As we piled into my parent's SUV, Mom said we were going to a fancy new Greek restaurant that had opened up on the lakefront, which is about 10 miles away. I nodded and leaned back, not that I had much of a choice. I was behind mom, with Karina between Carly and I in the middle row. They were whispering back and forth, and I had a feeling there was

"What babe?" Karina's voice was concerned, and she turned to face Carly.

"Nothing ... yet. Just let me think for a while," she said, disappearing behind the glass.

Karina shrugged and joined my sister in the shower. I went back to bed.

I woke up to an empty house. I showered and changed. I picked up my dry cleaning. My meeting was at 2 that afterno

It was very early in the morning when I stopped and looked at a clock; 4:30 am. I debated grabbing a couple of sodas and pulling an all-nighter or getting a few hours of sleep. Either way, I wanted to be awake when the girls woke up, even if I had to nap before my appointment with the realtor. It was Saturday after all. I could sleep as much as I n

"I want your cock inside me, brother." Carly was straight to the point. Karina winked at me, and I pulled my pants and boxers down in one motion. I rubbed the head of my thickening dick up and down along her cunt lips a couple of times, gathering some wetness and letting it get fully hard. Satisfied, I grabbed her hips and thrust inside her.

The

It made sense at the time, although now as I relive those words, they sound odd. Karina and I joined her in the shower, and for the most part, we actually showered. I mean, yeah, I soaped up and lathered all four tits and we all spent a little extra time running loofahs and washcloths between each other's legs. There was some licking of erect nipple

Some of the excursions were a bit tamer than others. I needed a dining table and chairs. That one went fine. Then it was living room furniture. The manager kicked us out when he caught Carly with her hand in my pants, clearly stroking my cock, as the three of us sat on one of the leather couches.

And, predictably, I was spending 12 plus hours a day
