Chapter 2421 Fuckaholic: It Get's Crazy>>12

I leaned against the tile and struggled to catch my breath. As I did, I watched Carly and Karina continue to make out, hands roaming free around their bodies. Nipples being teased, pussies getting rubbed. The moans and groans got louder and louder. I watched intently, my deflated cock trying to return to action. At her words, Carly tensed up, and her groans abruptly stopped. I grunted before shooting cum on my sister's belly and tits. Karina grinned and offered me her two fingers to sucking on. As Carly cooed below me, I bit my sister's pussy off her fingers.

Mom announced that we were going to a posh new Greek restaurant that had opened up on the lakefront, which is about 10 miles away, as we all crammed into my parents' SUV.

I nodded and leaned back, not that I had much of a choice. I was behind mom, with Karina between Carly and I in the middle row. They were whispering back and forth, and I had a fe

"What babe?" Karina's voice was concerned, and she turned to face Carly.

"Nothing ... yet. Just let me think for a while," she said, disappearing behind the glass.

Karina shrugged and joined my sister in the shower. I went back to bed.

I woke up to an empty house. I showered and changed. I picked up my dry cleaning. My meeting was at 2 that after

I spoke out loud, "You're up late." I couldn't tell if it was Carly or Karina rubbing up against me from behind. After finishing, I turned around and shook my dick dry.

I spun and, in the little bit of light that was visible, saw glimmers of blonde hair.

"I was asleep until someone turned a light on in the middle of the night," Karina said, scolding

"I want your cock inside of me, brother." Carly was direct in her message. I quickly pulled down my boxers and pants after Karina gave me a wink. I collected some moisture and allowed it to fully harden as I repeatedly rubbed the head of my thickening dick along her cunt lips. I grabbed her hips and pushed inside of her after feeling satisfied.

I awoke early the next morning, or so I thought. The bathroom door was closed once more, indicating that my parents were still in the house and awake, and I was alone in bed.

I got up while still being naked to use the restroom. Karina was there, just out of the shower. She was toweling herself off while completely naked.

"Hey sleepy boy," she teas

Some of the excursions were more gentle than others. I was in need of a dining table and chairs. That one went swimmingly. Then there was the living room furniture. As the three of us sat on one of the leather couches, the manager caught Carly with her hand in my pants, clearly stroking my cock.

And, predictably, I was spending 12 plus hours a day

I took a few minutes alone after she left to walk through the house. The paint had been updated and some small items touched up per the agreements. I walked the staircase and to the second-floor landing. There I stopped to check the guest bathroom to see if fixtures were replaced properly.

Then I entered the master bedroom and saw the door to the

"I'll be busy setting up the house. Time will fly by, I'm sure," I said, taping another box down.

Carly piped up "We could help. You know, taking loads to the new house for you." She grinned like the Cheshire Cat. "Taking them to the new house, taking them at the new house, same thing, really."

"But there's no power, no lights, no Wi-Fi, no running
