Chapter 2491 Fuck Brains Out:>>8

Tara was going down on me. I admit that in the bedroom we were fairly vanilla - content between the sheets but never wild, never overwhelmed with passion - but my girlfriend did give good head.

I've thought about it a lot (obviously, I'm that kind of guy) and I've never been sure if it's because it's the one thing she's really comfortable doing, or

Reflexively, I had my hands up. The towel was wrapped loosely around my waist, but other than that I was naked to the world - at least the house. Courtney, under the light of the old-fashioned bathroom, was still in her funeral attire, minus the sport coat. The tight black blouse strained to contain the girl's ripe breasts, the color of which were

Then, her knees hugging the carpet and my hips (I heard the toes of her heels clatter on the tile), she rose up; she positioned my cock straight up, and wiggled it between the lips of her pussy (she gasped; it made her stomach jiggle; her breasts, too) and sank down.

We both groaned as my shaft plunged in, in to her naked flesh. "Ah," she said, as

"Cum," she said. "Ah!" She said it as I shifted my weight. She said it as I pulled at her thick buttock and pushed up into her pussy with my hips. She said it as I grabbed her back and torqued her to the ground. The knife at my neck was there, but suddenly wasn't. It clattered to the floor as we tumbled. We seemed to be a ball of wet limbs and tang

I needed a date.

My company was having a big end of the year bash at a downtown hotel and they were providing the rooms, the food, everything. All we needed to do was show up and have fun. There was business involved as well, some late afternoon seminars to attend, but the important thing, the major thing, was that I needed a date. Because afterwar

But it was decent enough. I introduced her to my co-workers as Courtney, which she was, my girlfriend, which she definitely was not. They all wanted to know what she did and where she came from and she smiled and nodded whenever possible, laughing when she absolutely had to, and only tensed and flinched when I slid my hand down her backside. After

"No," she said.

"Take them off, Courtney."

Without taking her eyes off me, she fiddled with her heel beneath her. I didn't break the stare. I watched her descend, heard the clop of her heel hit the ground, then the other. Her toes slid the shoes from her feet, and slid them behind her. The heels must have been several inches, because now her nose

"You were going to tell your dad I raped you?" I said. "The knife at my throat. Your pussy on my cock? I didn't think that was very funny." I brought down my palm on her firm cheek. Its jiggle gave me a deep satisfaction.

Courtney growled again, but she laughed. It was a forced laugh, but still high, higher than the growls she made when my fingers

I made her spread her legs. Then I kneeled down behind her.

My cock was hard and red, slick with her spit and the cum from her pussy. She was so wet it took little more than an insistent push for me to enter her. And when I did I got to watch Courtney's face as it filled her up. It made her mouth tilt down, in not quite a frown but a stiff little m

I pushed and pushed, filling her again, taking my time, letting my blood course through my cock and widen me to my full girth again, straightening my penis and getting it tight and hard as I led it, slow inch by soaking inch, to the top of her uterus.

"Ah. Ahh."

"Since it's just a little prick, you shouldn't have a problem fitting inside your big a
