Chapter 851 The Need For Satisfaction::Ep40

"So, what do you want to do? Not what do you wish, but what do you think we can do?" She didn't sound angry or irritated; she was just discussing things honestly.

I lost myself for a couple of minutes in the sensation of my cock sliding in and out of her tight, nearly virginal pussy. "How often can you spend the night?"

"How often do you think?" Sh

"If Beth will let me, I'll share you with her. I just want to be with you. I can't sleep unless I can reach out and touch you. I must wake ten times a night and each time I have to know you're there. Please."

I turned back to Beth. "Turn out the light and come to bed." I then pulled Debbie back into the bed. She discarded her t-shirt, exposing her

"I will personally guarantee it. For that kind of money I'll write it myself in my garage if I have to. Did we get the training included in the price?" That would be pretty neat; it included taking the product to field sites on four continents, installing it and training the local staff.

"Yes, training and installation are budgeted, including travel

"I'm not sure what you want. Karen and Debbie have to sleep with you to live here."

"Beth, nobody HAS to sleep with me. I told Debbie that. Karen and I were somewhat involved even before we discussed moving in. It's not like that. I thought we'd discussed this."

"Does that mean you won't be sleeping with Karen anymore?"

She got me there. "Well, no,

Saturday morning I woke to the smell of bacon frying, and the sound of laughter. The sun was streaming in through the bay window and the sky was clear and blue as Debbie's eyes. I hopped into the shower for a quick rinse, passing on the shave, and Enough was enough. I stepped back, and pulled my shorts off in a flash. I was wearing loose, knit shorts and no underwear, and the whole act took about two seconds.

"Funny, sausage is the special of the day. No waiting." I told her, and reaching out with my hand behind her neck I pulled her down to her knees.

"What if Jim comes up here?" She said,

Jim thought about it a second, and then did as I'd suggested. He walked up until he was facing me from about four feet away. He placed his hands on her back, just behind her shoulders, and he rubbed his hands down her spine to her waist, across the top of her ass, across the swell of her hips, and back up her sides. I felt her shiver under his care

Jim was looking up at the ceiling, his hips thrusting forward, his hands gingerly holding the sides of her head.

"Damn, Karen. You look so hot gobbling his whole cock like that. I thought you didn't like to suck cock that much?"

She pulled away and stroked him while she responded. "I didn't like to suck Craig's cock. A sweet innocent cock like this

I walked to her with my hands outstretched, and she recognized my desire, and came into my arms. Laying back on the bed, I watched as she straddled me, taking my cock inside her and lowering herself onto my body.

I caressed her back, as I gently worked my way in and out of her warm, tight pussy.

We were quiet for a while, until I took up the tale a

"Ah, that's better, I've got you about as far inside me as you're going to get. Are you ready to get fucked, Jim? Ready to come inside my hot little pussy?" She was bent over her face inches from his.

"Yes, please, yes, please..." he gasped.

I watched as she rocked forward slowly and then eased her way back on his cock. She squeezed a long moan out
