

D Emperor 2011

Chapter 2011: Alone

The figure flashed, and many people joined Lu Ming's team, even there were Zhendi and Xudi.

Their breath bloomed, helping Lu Ming against them.

"A group of miscellaneous fish thought they could control the battle!"

Tianluo Emperor's eyes swept, and he spoke indifferently.

"No phase, you say so much, you just want to find a few more helpers, but what's the use of a bunch of miscellaneous fish? Shoot it, kill Lu Ming, the blocker, kill no amnesty!"

Emperor Hengjia spoke.

boom!

The breath of the Emperor Hengjia broke out, and the powerful breath locked the Emperor Wuxiang firmly.

At this moment, the breath of the powerful of the three forces will firmly lock everyone except Lu Ming.

"Which one of you will kill Lu Ming!"

The Emperor He Jia said coldly.

"I'll kill him!"

In the He family, a middle-aged man in his fifties stepped out with a terrible breath that swept toward the landing like a tide.

This man, called He Yao, was a virtual emperor with a small emperor, and soon after he broke through the small emperor, he became a star emperor.

With such a good opportunity, he just wanted to perform in front of Hejia Emperor, maybe Hejia Emperor could reward him.

"Wu Di!"

Huang Ling, Long Chen, Luo Tianyi and other people were shocked, and the teachers of Yuanshan Shengyuan, Phoenix Palace, Idol Sect, Ice Screen and other people all changed their face and wanted to shoot, but they found that they were all People locked.

The strong breath of the three major forces locks them in. As long as they move, they will be attacked by the Thunder, and they are very strong when they target them.

Keng!

The uncle moved, the sword screamed, and a terrifying sword light was about to be cut to He Yao.

"Old guy, your opponent is me!"

The emperor Tianluo shouted, and the Great Seal vibrated, bursting out a divine light, blocking the uncle's sword light, and then the Great Seal vibrated and killed towards the Uncle.

Sword anger roared, and the war between Kongbo and Tianluo Emperor broke out. The two fought a few moves and rushed into the dark void to fight.

boom!

At the same time, Emperor Wuxiang also confronted Emperor Hengjia, and the two confronted each other.

The Emperor Wuxiang couldn't make a rescue at all. His strength was originally slightly better than that of the Hengjia Emperor. The last time he played, he won the Hengjia Emperor.

But now he is seriously injured, facing the Heng family emperor, he may still be in the leeward and unable to rescue.

bump! bump! ...

He Yao stepped on the void, and every time it fell, the void shook, and his breath became stronger and stronger, like a storm, pressing towards the landing, like a giant, looking down at Lu Ming.

"Lu Ming, can die in my hands, it is your Rongxin, kill!"

He Yao's palm was like a knife, and the knife slammed down towards the landing.

A pale knife light, full of chill, caused the temperature on the scene to drop sharply.

"war!"

Lu Ming took a light drink and stepped out, the breath of his body violently rioted, the holy force of the whole body gathered towards the fingertips, and then pointed out.

The energy between heaven and earth condensed madly towards the landing fingertips, and then, a finger sticking to the extreme, burst out, colliding with He Yao's knife light.

Ding!

A sharp collision sounded, the strength of the four volumes, He Yao's knife light, actually shattered into nothingness.

Was blocked!

Many people couldn't help widening their eyes.

The attack of the Emperor Wudi was blocked by Lu Ming.

The most amazing thing is that Lu Ming blocked the opponent's blow without even taking a step back.

What a terrible combat power, many people marveled.

In He Yao's eyes, there was a look of anger.

Although he didn't use his full strength in the previous move, Lu Ming was unscathed, and he didn't even withdraw his figure, making him feel ashamed.

Moreover, he glanced his eyes, and found that the ancestor of the He family's face was a little gloomy, and he suddenly lost his heart.

Emperor He Family, you will not be badly impressed with him!

"Damn, it's all Lu Ming, I want to smash him to pieces!"

He Yao shouted in his heart, his eyes cold and murderous.

"kill!"

He Yao shouted, the world power of the Emperor Wudi was running wildly, his palms turned into a bright sword light, screaming out, shaking the world.

Lu Ming's eyes narrowed slightly, his figure moved, and instead of retreating, he rushed to He Yao.

boom! boom! ...

Lu Ming fists continuously, and ghost images of prison monuments emerge, colliding with He Yao's sword light.

The ghost image of the prison prison exploded, but Daoguang was also blocked.

"Four Seasons Song!"

Lu Ming did not win Lu Ming for a few consecutive moves. He Yao was a little anxious and used the magical skill of the He family to sing for four seasons!

His blade suddenly changed.

At first, it was like snow in the winter, and then, it turned into a thick spring, which was endless, and the next moment was like the sun in the sky, burning and unbearable.

The sword changed, and its power increased greatly. It shattered Lu Ming's condensed prison monument, and the sword light continued to kill Lu Ming.

Lu Ming backed off again and again!

"kill!"

When Lu Ming retreated, He Yao's sword was fiercer, and he swept away to the landing crazy.

嗤嗤...

At this moment, Lu Ming exhibited the Chaos Tribulation Finger, and several fingers in the right hand continuously hit, and the finger force collided with He Yao's knife light, while Lu Ming's left hand showed endless runes.

A real dragon roared and rushed towards He Yao.

"Trick and worm!"

He Yao shouted, and a knife burst out to destroy the real dragon, but the real dragon turned into an endless rune, and went away toward He Yao to seal him.

The three rolls of the nine rolls in one line are indeed very mysterious.

He Yao's face changed slightly, the power of the world burst out, and the endless runes shattered.

Next, the two confronted each other fiercely.

He Yao is indeed very powerful. Although he breaks through the Emperor Emperor soon, he is, after all, a Wu Emperor, with a combat power far greater than the Quasi-Emperor. In every move, the power of the world is immense.

With the application of two laws, Lu Ming barely blocked it.

But even so, everyone was shocked.

Lu Ming, the most holy, and has not yet reached the most holy consummation, but the most holy peak, but can confront a Wu Emperor, and can also block, which is amazing.

Many powerful men in the He family, Heng family, and Daluo Tianzong showed their horror.

With Lu Ming's combat power, if he breaks into the Emperor Xu, or even the True Emperor, what kind of combat power should he have?

What if it breaks into the emperor?

Thinking of this, their hearts filled with chill.

Even the Hejia Emperor, Hengjia Emperor, and Tianluo Emperor Tian's eyes were filled with cold light.

The stronger Lu Ming's talent, the more * it.

"Die to me!"

Until the war, He Yao did not win Lu Ming, and became more and more irritable.

Originally, with his mentality, this would never be the case, mainly because of his emperor Wudi's cultivation practice. Actually, so many tricks did not win Lu Ming. Under the eyes of everyone, it was really difficult for him to accept this.

His sword was getting fiercer, and he wished to unload Lu Ming.

"Break. Chaos Tribulation!"

At this moment, Lu Ming suddenly pointed a finger.

This finger is Lu Ming's strongest move, the initial fusion of the law of array and the law of chaos.

Chapter 2012: Sword Emperor

Lu Mingshi exhibited the strongest move, a huge chaotic finger was formed, and it was covered with runes.

Destruction Volume, and the initial fusion of Chaos Tribulation.

bump! bump!

Chaos Tribulation exploded, and He Yao's sword light shattered one after another, like a broken bamboo.

He Yao's face changed wildly, and he roared, as if a round of the world appeared in his body, he suddenly cut out a knife. In the knife light, it seemed to contain a round of the world.

boom!

Chaos Tribulation was finally defeated by He Yao, but He Yao's figure was backed by ten miles!

Emperor Wu, was repelled by Lu Ming!

Many people took a breath and were shocked to speak.

The most holy is the pinnacle, but it can repel a Wu Emperor. No one can believe such a record.

Such a record can scare the dead!

"Ah, * it!"

He Yao roared, he lost his face today, even if he could kill Lu Ming, it would become a stain of his life, and even become his heart demon.

"This is the Wu Emperor of the He Family? This is the fighting strength? Sure enough, the pigs and dogs are not as good as they are.

Lu Ming mocked.

"you..."

He Yao's chest fluctuated and almost vomited blood.

"Keep your breath, he is deliberately irritating you, take all your strength, kill him, wash away shame!"

A voice passed into He Yao's ear.

It was the voice of Hejia the Great.

In the voice of He Jia, there seemed to be a magic power that calmed He Yao's heart.

He understands that he was too anxious just now, and he has not fully exerted his fighting power.

Buzz!

A sword of war appeared in his hand.

With the injection of Heyan's world power, the power of the War Sword is getting stronger and stronger, and the terrible sword continues to slam down towards the landing.

This is an imperial soldier!

The control of the Emperor Soldier by the Emperor Wudi, the power and the control of the Emperor Wudi are completely different things.

Emperor Wu could bring out all the might of the emperor soldiers.

boom!

On He Yao's body, there is a round of world suspension. This round of world has obviously not yet evolved and is full of chaos, but it still gives people a terrible pressure.

"kill!"

He Yao shouted and slammed down.

This knife, so much more powerful than before.

Lu Ming's eyes condensed, and he repaired the body to the extreme, pointing out.

Still broken. Chaos Tribulation!

But this time, when the knife was slashed, the chaotic finger broke up directly, and the terrible force rushed towards the landing sound, causing Lu Ming's body to retreat at a rapid speed.

"This is Emperor Wu, the real strength!"

Lu Ming pressed down the tumbling blood in his body and whispered in his heart.

His strength is still worse than Emperor Wu.

If he achieves the holiest consummation, he will have confidence and fight He He.

"It seems that Lu Ming is still invincible!"

"After all, Emperor Wu is Emperor Wu, Lu Ming is only the pinnacle of the Holy Spirit, and the difference is too far!"

"However, Lu Ming was able to fight against a Wu Emperor to this point, it was already terrifying enough."

Some people talked.

"Lu Ming, I will not let you die easily, I will let you die after suffering!"

He Yao approached the landing sound step by step, the voice sounded cold in Lu Ming's ear.

"Just to play with you just now, now I can send you on the road!"

At this moment, Lu Ming smiled faintly, burst of murderous opportunity burst into his eyes.

Just now, he went all out to fight, just want to verify his ultimate combat strength.

Many people are shocked!

Lu Ming, what does this mean? Do you still want to kill He Yao?

"Send me on the road? Hahaha, really talkative, you want to provoke me, but unfortunately, you can't do what you want, kill!"

He Yao shouted, and a brilliant light broke out on him. The whole person seemed to melt into one with the war knife in his hand, and turned into a terrible knife light, killing the landing.

The sword is broken, the space is roaring, the horror is amazing!

The hearts of many people are raised.

Perhaps, Lu Ming is about to fall under this knife!

In an instant, Daoguang approached Lu Ming.

"not good!"

At this moment, Huang Ling, Long Chen and others were shocked.

At this moment, the Phoenix Palace, the strong rule of the Idol Sect, and the ice curtain and others, want to help.

But the He family, the Heng family, and the strong Luo Tianzong's strong figure flickered, blocking their way.

"Master!"

Lu Xiangxiang shouted and wanted to rush over, but a strong person from the other party burst into strength, and Lu Xiangxiang's figure flew back.

When everyone thought that Lu Ming was going to be killed by this knife, they saw a sword light up.

Jianguang, illuminating from Lu Ming's hands, slashed toward He Yao's sword light.

Then, the incredible scene that made everyone appear.

The sword light was cut, and the knife light was cut directly into two in the middle.

bump!

Daoguang broke and shattered, and then everyone saw that He Yao was back in a frantic shape, withdrew hundreds of miles away, wide-eyed and staring at the land.

"Lu... Ming!"

He Yao spit out two words with difficulty, and then a line of blood appeared in his eyebrows, quickly spreading all over his body.

Hiss!

He Yao's body, divided into two halves, fell to the ground.

died!

He Yao is dead!

The scene fell into deathly silence.

Just now, He Yao clearly has an absolute advantage and wants to kill Lu Ming with a knife. Everyone thinks that Lu Ming is so fierce, but now, why is He Yao dead?

"Sword of Heavenly Emperor, you can actually control the sword of Heavenly Emperor!"

A true emperor of the Heng family shouted.

Everyone's eyes looked at Lu Ming's hands.

Lu Ming is holding a stone sword in his hand!

Heavenly Sword!

Many people shivered!

Lu Ming could actually control the sword of the Emperor of Heaven, exert the power of the sword of the Heavenly Emperor, and kill He Yao with one sword.

How can a most holy person control the sword of the heavenly emperor and exert the power of the sword of the heavenly emperor?

They naturally didn't know that Lu Ming had the power to control the body of the Heavenly Emperor. The sword of the Heavenly Emperor merged with the body of the Heavenly Emperor. Now, the energy stored in the body of the Heavenly Emperor has reached 12%. Lu Ming can control the body of the Heavenly Emperor. Can control the sword of the emperor.

Just now, Lu Ming was manipulating the sword of Heavenly Emperor, and easily killed He Yao.

"Who else is going to kill me?"

Holding a stone sword, Lu Ming glanced at the He Family, Heng Family and Daluo Tianzong.

"Huh, the most holy, I thought that I could barely exert the power of a sword of the heavenly emperor, I thought that the world was invincible. The sword of the heavenly emperor should be owned by my Heng family and handed over to me!"

A strong man of the Heng family stepped out with a terrible breath and madly pressed towards the landing.

Emperor Wu! This person is also a virtual emperor who is a little emperor!

But this person's breath, compared to He Yao, I do not know how many times stronger, I am afraid that among the Emperor Xu, they are masters.

"Want the sword of the Emperor, get it!"

Lu Ming holds a sword and confronts the strong man of the Heng family.

boom!

The strong man of the Heng family, a certain distance away, reached out his palm and grabbed the landing Ming Lingkong.

Chapter 2013: Jian Zhi He Gao

The strong of the Heng family was very cautious, and shot at a distance. A hand was detected, and volley caught the landing, and a huge claw formed, catching towards the landing.

"kill!"

Lu Ming shouted, holding his sword in two hands, and slammed down!

A sword light, like a crescent moon, slashed forward. The speed was astonishing. Where the sword light passed, the space cracked a dark crack.

puff!

The big hand condensed by the Hengjia strongman was directly split into two halves by Jianguang, and the swordlight kept on going, continuing to kill the Hengjia strongman.

Quick, too fast, so fast that the other party didn't respond.

"Rewind!"

The emperor of the Heng family burst into roar, but it was too late.

Boom!

With blood splashing, the strong of the Heng family was directly cut in half by a sword, and its soul naturally disappeared in the sword light.

Killed another Emperor Wu!

And this person is not comparable to He Yao, but the strongest among the Emperor Xu, but still can't stop Lu Ming's sword!

Many people looked at the stone sword in Ming Ming's hands, revealing deep awe, and of course, others showed deep greed.

Lu Ming is only the most holy. Controlling this sword can exert such terrifying power. So what about Emperor Wu?

"Damn!"

"Bold!"

The rest of the Heng family reacted and roared.

"Hahaha, kill well!"

Emperor Wuxiang laughed, making Emperor Heng's face rather ugly.

"Who else is going to kill me?"

The stone sword in Lu Ming's hand points to the Heng family.

The strong men of the Heng family have ugly faces, full of murderous anger, and anger, but they are also fearful.

They did not know to what extent Lu Ming could play the sword of the Emperor of Heaven, so for a time, no one dared to step forward.

"Don't you just come to kill me just now? Why? Now it's all ruined?"

Lu Ming pointed the stone sword at Daluo Tianzong again, so that the face of Daluo Tianzong became ugly.

But no one came out.

Finally, Lu Ming pointed the stone sword to the He family!

"He Gao old dog, come out and die!"

Lu Ming shouted, and the opportunity burst out.

Today, he will take the head of He Gao to pay tribute to the owner of Ice Dragon Valley.

He Gao's face was gloomy.

Many people are shocked.

Lu Ming, challenge He Gao!

He Gao is a true emperor, but even among the true emperors, He Gao is not weak and can be considered a strong man.

With the cultivation of the most holy realm, Lu Ming can control the sword of Heavenly Emperor, can he really fight against an old emperor like He Gao?

"He Gao, I challenge you. If you dare not fight, just say so!"

Lu Ming shouted, his voice full of sarcasm.

"Little beast, * it!"

He Gao roared in his heart, he wished to slap Lu Ming to death, but now, facing Lu Ming holding the sword of the Emperor of Heaven, he was at a loss and even hairy.

He didn't want to fall, he wanted to survive the catastrophe, and once again escape hundreds of thousands of years.

But now, Lu Ming is challenged by a younger generation. If he dares not fight, he will definitely lose face, not only him, but also the He family.

Now, he rides a tiger!

"It seems that the He family is really a scumbag, and it will only bully people. It will use its absolute advantage to suppress people. Once others show a trace of threat, they will immediately ruin and be ashamed!"

Lu Ming continued, the sarcasm was stronger.

The people of the He family blushed one after another, and they were extremely humiliated.

"He Gao, let's go, kill him!"

The Emperor He Jia stood up and gave He Gao a glance.

He Gao's face turned white immediately.

Obviously, Emperor He's family was already angry.

Emperor He Jia said, he had to follow!

"Little beast, I will make you die ugly!"

He Gao's face was gloomy, and he stepped out in one step. The world was filled with light, covering him, and at the same time, several imperial soldiers were suspended in his body.

Among them, there are several defensive imperial soldiers around him.

"Hahaha, really greedy for life and fear of death. Facing a junior in the most holy realm, before wrapping up, he wrapped himself into a turtle shell!"

Huang Li laughed.

"If you see it, this is a kind of cowardly, cowardly!"

Huang Ling also spoke.

"A bunch of * little groats!"

He Gao roared in his heart and was ridiculed in public by several juniors. Even if he had a thick skin, he could not help but blush.

"kill!"

He turned his anger into a murderous opportunity, sacrificed an imperial soldier, and the imperial soldier flew out of the air, killing Lu Ming.

He still did not dare to be too close to Lu Ming, but just manipulated the imperial soldiers and killed Lu Ming, intending to test it first.

call out!

This is a silver knife that cuts through the void, at an astonishing speed and even more terrifying power.

But with this knife, you can easily kill any strong in the emperor.

Buzz!

The sword of Heaven Emperor in Lu Ming's hand shook, Lu Ming followed the trend, and a sword was cut out.

when!

The stone sword, cut with the silver knife, made a horrible buzz.

The silver knife shook and was blown out.

"But nothing more!"

He Gao's eyes lit up.

He felt that although the power of the Sword of Heavenly Emperor was strong, but it was not too exaggerated, he could resist it.

However, he was still uneasy, and he controlled the silver knife, turned into a silver lightning, and slammed towards the landing.

when! when! ...

The sword of Heavenly Emperor in Lu Ming's hand chopped out constantly, colliding with the silver knife.

More than ten consecutive collisions, each time, the silver knife will be blown out, but Lu Ming's figure also took a few steps back.

"But, let me die!"

He Gao finally felt relieved, his figure moved, and drove towards the landing.

The terrible knife light erupted from He Gao's hand and cut towards Lu Ming.

"Retreat!"

Many real emperors, emperor emperors and strong men, protecting those who are weak, quickly retreat.

He Gao's combat strength is really strong, and he exploded with all his strength. The range of the large square will be enveloped by him, and it is difficult to gain a foothold.

"Good to come!"

In Lu Ming's eyes, flashing through the cold edge, he operated the exercises to control the body of the Heavenly Emperor. Within the sword of the Heavenly Emperor, more energy burst out.

Buzz! Buzz!

The sword of Heaven Emperor kept shaking, and there was a terrible fluorescent layer on the sword.

Then, Lu Ming cut out with a sword, and a shocking sword light burst out!

A sword of cold light in nineteen states!

Jianguang cut down and collided with He Gao's sword light.

boom!

The dazzling light burst out, the endless sword and sword gas, sweeping all directions, the whole sky, shaking madly.

bump!

Then, the sword light shattered, and the terrible sword light bombarded the defensive imperial soldiers around He Gao. The violent force made He Gao's body fly out like a shell and his face was pale.

"You didn't use your full strength just now!"

He Gao shouted in horror.

"Old dog, die!"

Lu Ming held the stone sword as if it had become one with the stone sword. The power of the stone sword poured into his body. When he stepped on the foot, he caught up with He Gao, and another sword fell.

He Gao shouted, bursting out all his strength, and the power of the world was surging wildly, confronting Lu Ming.

But when Lu Ming's battle sword fell, He Gao was blasted out again.

Chapter 2014: Stone Man Appears

bump!

He Gao was hit and flew, Lu Ming kept up with the speed of his body, and the sword of the Emperor continued to fall.

At this moment, the energy of the Emperor's Sword has exceeded He Gao.

Many people were horrified that the power of the Sword of Heavenly Emperor was too horrible. It didn't explode at all just now, but now it exploded and actually put He Gao downwind.

The stone sword buzzed, the sword was frightening, and he continued to cut towards He Gao.

He Gao gritted his teeth and controlled the imperial soldiers. The silver knives quickly became larger and he was held by him in his hand and cut with a knife.

when!

The stone sword and the silver war sword were cut together, and Mars was shining. The silver war sword actually made a gap, and there was no trace on the stone sword.

He Gao was shocked back and forth, Lu Ming followed, and the war sword was cut off again.

He Gao can only use the sword to resist!

when! when! when! ...

The two collided constantly, the sky roared, and the two figures slammed into dozens of moves in an instant. The speed was amazing.

Some people who are weak can only see two phantoms.

bump!

After a dozen strokes, the silver war knife in He Gao's hands shattered directly, turning into fragments and flying around.

A true emperor soldier, so broken.

Uh!

Lu Ming cut off again with a sword, and He Gao couldn't take care of his heartache, and controlled a shield of the imperial soldiers to resist.

Boom!

There was another roar. The shield of the imperial soldier was hit by a terrible force and hit him heavily. He Gao screamed and vomited blood.

"Die to me!"

Lu Ming roared and madly urged the energy in the stone sword.

On the stone sword, the light is stronger and more powerful.

He Gao's face changed wildly, as if feeling a fatal crisis, his figure flashed madly, and he rushed towards the Hejia emperor.

"Emperor, save me!"

He Gao shouted.

But at the next moment, Lu Ming turned into a sword light, killing He Gao at an alarming speed.

Shi Jian, after leaving Tiandi's flesh, under the control of Lu Ming, although the power is amazing, but also limited, this time has been urged to the extreme by Lu Ming, this sword is enough to threaten He Gao.

But at this moment, Emperor He's brow furrowed, and suddenly stepped out.

boom!

Between heaven and earth, because of this step, the situation changed, and a giant foot stepped from the sky and slammed toward the landing.

"mean!"

Huang Ling, Long Chen and others shouted.

The great emperor not only shot Lu Ming as a holy one, but also when Lu Ming and other people fought, it was too mean.

Rumble!

The giant foot is completely composed of energy, just like the foot of a god. When stepping down from a height, Lu Ming feels that the space around him is frozen.

The terrible pressure made Lu Ming's breathing difficult.

"cut!"

Lu Ming shouted, holding the sword in both hands, and slashed it against the giant foot.

boom!

The earth-shattering roar sounded, Lu Ming's sword light, just insisted for a while, just collapsed under the giant foot, the giant foot continued to step down, the speed was amazing.

Lu Ming's Hengjian stood in front of him, bang, giant feet stepped on the stone sword, Lu Ming's whole person, like a meteorite, hit the ground.

boom!

Thousands of miles away from the ground, there were cracks like spider webs. Where Lu Ming smashed them, a dark pit appeared, unfathomable.

"Lu Ming!"

Huang Ling, Long Chen and others shuddered, Lu Ming, how is it?

Lu Ming, but he did a trick with the emperor!

That was the emperor, the emperor could not come out, the emperor was the pinnacle.

I would like to ask the whole land of Yuanshan, how many people can block the great emperor's move, even if it is the peak of the true emperor, it will die.

"Master!"

Lu Xiangxiang was already in tears and was about to cry.

boom!

There is riot in the endless dark void, and sword roar is more than that, it is empty.

Uncle Kong is still fighting with Tian Luo the Great.

Countless eyes looked at the dark cave.

Lu Ming, are you dead?

I had a hard fight with the emperor, even if the emperor didn't use much power, I am afraid it is too fierce.

Uh!

He Gao came over the cave, his face showing a greasy smile.

"Little beast, even if there is the sword of the Emperor of Heaven? How can it be? After all, it is just a ants in the most holy realm, and I want to fight with my family, I can't control it!"

He Gao sneered again and again.

"The ants in the most holy land? Who was just hit by the ants in the sacred land just now?"

Huang Ling spoke ironically.

"Little girl, the advantage of your tongue, wait a minute, let you regret what you say now!"

He Gao coldly glanced at Huang Ling, and then the power of the world converged to form a spear and threw it towards the dark cave.

call out!

The spear flew into the dark cave like a rock sinking into the sea.

Ok?

He Gao's expression moved, his body landed again, his eyes filled with radiance, as if he wanted to look down clearly.

Rumble!

At this moment, the earth suddenly vibrated and made a dull roar, as if deep in the ground, a peerless beast woke up.

"Rewind!"

Emperor He's face suddenly changed, and he roared.

He Gao was so shocked that he was about to rise to the sky.

boom!

The ground exploded, the smoke filled, and a huge, huge hand came out of the depths of the ground and grabbed He Gao.

This big hand is stone, huge and boundless, covering the sky and the sun, exuding a breath of terror, and in a fishing, he sealed all the escape routes of He Gao.

He Gao was frightened and wanted to escape, but he found that he had no way to escape.

He is like a reptile, to be caught.

"boom!"

At this moment, Emperor He's shot, a palm photograph, a huge palm print, bombarded towards the stone hand, to rescue He Gao.

However, the ground roared again, and another huge stone hand extended and punched at Hejia Emperor.

boom!

The stone hand, Shengsheng, defeated the palm of the Hejia Emperor.

Uh!

Before the big hand closed, He Gao broke out frantically, but it was useless, and was directly caught by the big stone hand.

Rumble!

The ground roared, and then collapsed, a huge incomparable stone man rushed out of the ground.

"This is... Tiandi flesh!"

Someone shouted in shock.

Here, many people have entered the lotus world, entered the ninth world, and seen the body of the emperor.

At first, the Emperor's flesh was controlled by the Stellar River, but behind it, the Void Channel appeared. The Emperor's flesh and the Sword of the Emperor flew away to suppress the Void Channel, and they disappeared behind.

Unexpectedly, it will appear here.

Could it be that Tiandi's flesh was obtained by Lu Ming?

But why is Lu Ming, not the Stellar River, at first, the Emperor's flesh was not controlled by the Stellar River?

The strong of the Heng family, especially the emperor of the Heng family, burst out with brilliant brilliance in their eyes.

"This..."

The people on Lu Ming were stunned.

They couldn't figure it out, Lu Ming was bombarded into the depths of the earth, how to turn into a stone man rushed out.

"He Gao, I said, you will die today!"

The huge stone man spoke, his voice buzzing, but listening to the tone, it was clearly Lu Ming.

Many people are dumbfounded!

Lu Ming and Heavenly Emperor's flesh merge into one.

Chapter 2015: Kill He Gao, fight the emperor

He Gao was pinched in Lu Ming's hands, terrified. He struggled frantically and wanted to break free, but this was the emperor's flesh, and no matter how he struggled, it didn't help.

"Let him go!"

Emperor He Jia looked at Landing Ming, accurately looking at Tiandi's flesh, with greedy eyes flashing in his eyes.

Heavenly Emperor's flesh and war swords are supreme treasures.

"ridiculous!"

Lu Ming spoke lightly, and the stone man's indifferent eyes swept toward the Hejia Emperor, and then squeezed hard, terrifying power, almost pinched He Gao, making He Gao scream.

boom!

The Emperor He Jia shot, and he was shrouded in endless radiance, a ray of radiance, like a sword, slamming towards the landing.

That is the light of the world, terrible!

Keng!

Shi Jian had just been inserted behind the body of Heavenly Emperor. At the moment, Lu Ming thought, Shi Jian buzzed, flew out, and quickly became larger and swept out.

After the sword merged with the emperor's flesh, the power soared, slashing out, taking over all the attacks of the Hejia emperor.

"He Gao, take you on the road!"

Lu Ming's indifferent voice sounded.

"Don't...no..."

He Gao shouted in horror. He didn't want to die. He tried everything he could to survive the catastrophe.

But now, before the catastrophe, he was about to die, he was terrified.

boom!

Lu Ming squeezed hard, and the terrible power rushed toward He Gao in a frenzy. This force, He Gao couldn't resist it. On Lu Ming's palm, his body exploded. Finally, only one head remained.

He was not dead, his soul was still there, and he kept yelling at the moment: "Forgive life, forgive life!"

call out!

A piece of energy rushed into He Gao's consciousness and destroyed his soul.

Then, Lu Ming threw it, He Gao's head flew out, and finally landed on a tomb in a mountain.

That is the tomb of the Lord of Ice Dragon Valley.

At the beginning, Lu Ming vowed to take He Gao's head to pay tribute to the owner of Binglong Valley. Now, it is done.

In all directions, many people were shocked. A true emperor was just killed.

In front of the emperor, Lu Ming was mercilessly beheaded.

"kill!"

At this moment, Emperor He Jia was furious, his hair fluttered and his breath was shocking.

bump!

He stepped out, a terrible breath, rushing towards the landing.

"You want to fight, I will fight with you, go up!"

Lu Ming spoke, his figure rose into the sky, and rushed into the vast sky.

Emperor He's family followed him and rushed into the sky. At the same time, in his hands, a brilliant sword light burst out, and the whole world seemed to be cut by this knife.

Uh!

Lu Ming melted into the body of the Emperor Tian at the moment, controlled the body of the Emperor, and held the stone sword in his hand.

when!

There was a trembling roar, as if the world had exploded, and the world was shaking.

The people below only feel the endless high altitude, a bright light erupts, like a sun burst.

The two slammed at each other, both of them were swaying, and took a few steps back.

Emperor He Jia's face was gloomy and his figure moved, and his body also became larger. Finally, he turned into a giant, as big as the emperor's flesh.

The emperor, the master of the avenue, the small world in the body, has become perfect, can conceive the birth spirit, they have the power of the world, can make the body free to enlarge and shrink.

The Emperor He Jia held the palm of his hand in vain, as if a avenue was held in his hand and turned into a war sword.

The avenue turned into a sword of warfare, exuding a dazzling light, chopped out with a knife, endless power gathered, and slashed towards the landing.

Lu Ming's thoughts moved, and the energy in the body of the Emperor Emperor flew wildly, so that the Emperor Emperor's flesh was covered with a layer of ray of light, and on the stone sword, the ray of light was more prosperous.

when!

Lu Ming cut out another sword and collided with the Hejia Emperor.

This time, the two still shook their bodies, stepped back, and the trampled void shook endlessly.

But the next moment, the two continued to collide together.

when! when! when!

The attack of the two was simple, but every move carried a force of terror. One move went on, and the sky shook. If it fell on the ground, I did not know what the consequences would be.

After reaching the emperor, take control of the avenue, return to the original, and fight, it looks simple, but more dangerous.

In a blink of an eye, the two played dozens of tricks, making it difficult to tell the difference.

"It must be quick and quick. My energy cannot last for so long!"

Lu Ming turned his thoughts in his heart.

bump! bump! ...

Lu Ming trampled on the void and rushed towards Hejia Great Emperor, and Hejia Great Emperor made another cut.

But this time, Lu Ming did not resist!

He is betting that he bets on the body of Heavenly Emperor and can block the opponent's attack.

boom!

Emperor He Jia's knife was severely slashed on Lu Ming's body. Lu Ming's body was shocked, but after all, it was blocked. There was no trace on his body.

Lu Ming was overjoyed. This is after all the emperor's flesh. How powerful is the emperor, and he doesn't know how much stronger than the emperor.

Their flesh is naturally sturdy and immortal. General emperors, even Heavenly Emperor, cannot be broken.

"kill!"

Lu Ming shouted, and the stone sword slashed toward the Hejia Emperor.

"not good!"

Emperor He's family was shocked and his body retreated.

But still a step late, his body was swept by Shi Jianfeng, a blood stain appeared.

"Kill, kill, kill!"

Lu Ming shouted, the offensive was like a storm, and he hurled towards the Hejia Emperor.

The Emperor He Jia also launched a counterattack, but Lu Ming completely ignored his defense. The attack of the Emperor Ren He Jiao bombarded him, as long as he attacked frantically.

For a time, Emperor He Jia was completely passive and was beaten by Lu Ming.

Below, many emperor-level powerhouses can see the war in the depths of the sky through the vast void.

At this moment, one dumbfounded.

Emperor He's family actually fell in the wind and was suppressed by Lu Ming.

"What a powerful force, the power of Heavenly Emperor's flesh is so powerful that it is completely wasted by Lu Ming. If it is controlled by our emperor, wouldn't it be able to sweep the world!"

The strong men of the Heng family are greedy in their eyes, and they wish to take the emperor's flesh as their own.

The emperor realm on Yuanshan Shengyuan is ecstatic.

"How is it, the battle above, how is it?"

Huang Ling asked anxiously.

Below the emperor level, there is no strength to see the war above.

"Lu Ming has the upper hand!"

The Emperor Wuxiang opened his mouth. He has been confronting the Hengjia Emperor without any hands. At this time, a wave of his hand appeared, and a picture appeared in the air.

At this moment, the Hejia Emperor had been completely suppressed and could only passively defend.

bump!

One accidentally, Emperor He's family was hit by Lu Ming's other hand in the face, and he drove him out.

"Cool, cool!"

"Beating his bitch!"

Huangli, as well as other young people from the Huangs, saw that they screamed in excitement and screamed.

The strong man of the He family, with a complex face, swept fiercely towards the barren forces.

Chapter 2016: Beat the Emperor

"Look, what a pleasure, wait for the Hejia emperor to be beaten into a pig's head!"

"I'm going to record all this with Shiyang Shi. An emperor was beaten into a pig's head. It is definitely worth collecting. Maybe it can be sold to others, and it can be sold for a large price!"

Huang Li and others stared back, and then really took out the Shadow Stone, and printed the picture down.

"You...find to death!"

The strong man of the He family was furious.

But what made them vomit blood was that many people at the scene took out the shadow stone and printed it down.

Among them are the people of the Heng family and the people of Da Luo Tianzong.

Indeed, a picture of an emperor being beaten into a pig's head is a rare sight, and I believe that many people will spend a lot of money to buy it.

This made the He family's face become pig liver color.

In the high sky, after Lu Ming beat the Hejia Emperor, he chased it and continued the stormy offensive.

Emperor He Jia Chang Xiao, on his body, a world floated out.

In this world, we can even see that some strange creatures have been bred and live and reproduce in it.

The endless power of the world was controlled by the Hejia Emperor, merged with the Heaven and Earth Avenue, and turned into a terrible killing technique, killing Lu Ming.

However, Lu Ming, regardless of his own defense, rushed out arbitrarily, the stone sword slashed down, broke through the power of the world, and killed the Hejia Emperor.

The two men fought for more than ten consecutive moves, and the Emperor He was completely at a disadvantage, and Lu Ming caught another flaw and cut it with a sword.

This sword was directly cut in the face of Hejia Emperor.

Emperor He's family, the avenue surrounds the whole body, the power of the world is pervasive, and a lot of defense is laid all over the body.

But after the sword was cut, the Emperor He still seemed to be hit by a big mountain, his body was blasted out, and he turned thousands of times in the sky.

He felt his brain buzzing and his soul was almost exploded.

Uh!

At the next moment, Lu Ming rushed to Hejia Emperor again, and another sword was cut.

bump!

Emperor He Jia was once again blasted out.

However, Lu Ming did not penetrate the defense of the Hejia Emperor, only turned the other party's dizzy.

"The energy stored in the Emperor's flesh is still too little, and the attack power is insufficient!"

Lu Ming sighed sadly.

In the body of Heavenly Emperor, only 12% of the energy was stored. Although he relied on the invincible defense and ignored his own defense, he suppressed the Hejia Emperor, but it was difficult to break through the other party's defense.

If the energy stored in the Emperor's flesh reaches 20%, Lu Ming has confidence to defeat the opponent's defense and even kill the right.

However, even if the opponent's defense cannot be broken now, the opponent can be brutally abused once.

Uh!

Lu Ming rushed towards Hejia Emperor again, and then kicked fiercely on the other party's face. Hejia Emperor grunted and flew out again.

Then, Lu Ming caught up again, and once again flew the Hejia Emperor.

Emperor He Jia, like a ball, flew everywhere by Lu Ming.

"Emperor..."

Below, many of the strong families of the He family are pale.

Some onlookers were stunned.

As for many people with Lu Ming, one by one ecstatic.

"Hahaha, cool, cool, beat his face, yes, yes, beat hard!"

Huang Li shouted and laughed as if he was beating the Hejia Emperor, and at the same time did not forget to record the picture with the Shiyong Stone.

Aside, Emperor Heng's face was a little ugly.

Lu Ming was able to beat the Hejia Emperor badly, wouldn't he be able to beat him too?

what!

From high altitude, the Emperor He's family was beaten many times, and finally his mind was awake a little, and he roared wildly, and the small world in his body seemed to be burning.

boom! boom! ...

He started desperately, launched several terrible attacks on Lu Ming, bombarded Lu Ming, and finally forced Lu Ming to retreat. At the same time, his figure rushed towards the distance frantically, and disappeared in a blink of an eye.

"Retreat!"

Then, the voice of the Hejia Emperor came.

Many powerful members of the He family looked ugly, but the emperor of the He family was gone, and they could only retreat. Suddenly, the people of the He family turned into rainbow lights and fled in embarrassment.

In the blink of an eye, the one who walked carelessly.

In the high sky, Lu Ming looked at the Hengjia Emperor, revealing a trace of excitement.

Emperor Heng's face changed.

He knew that it would be impossible to kill Lu Ming today and get back the sword of Heavenly Emperor, even the body of Heavenly Emperor.

The Emperor Hengjia shouted and shook his figure, and left here.

The masters of the Heng family quickly fled towards the Yuanshan Holy Courtyard.

"go!"

When the sky shook, Emperor Tianluo's figure appeared, and he glanced at Lu Ming unwillingly, and walked with the people of Da Luo Tianzong completely.

The three great emperor-level forces came fiercely when they came, but they were quite embarrassed when they left.

All of this is because of Lu Ming.

When it came, because Lu Ming!

When retreating, it is because of Lu Ming!

It can be said that the three major forces, this time is extremely embarrassed, especially the He family, the Emperor Xu and the Real Emperor were killed by Lu Ming, and even the Emperor was beaten by Lu Ming, destined to be reduced to laughing stock.

The Heng family was also slashed by Lu Ming to a strong little emperor.

"It's terrible, Lu Ming controls the Emperor's flesh and has the ability to overwhelm the Emperor. Since then, no one is his opponent in the Land of Yuanshan!"

"Yes, with the emperor's body protection, Lu Ming will be able to grow up smoothly. A son of chaos, I don't know how terrible it will be when I grow up!"

Many people whispered, and even some forces began to consider whether to make good Lu Ming.

After all, Lu Ming's character needs no doubt.

Regardless of their own safety, together with the Emperor, the Void Channel of the Evil God Clan was sealed, which made people feel very good.

And now, Lu Ming has a body protector of Heaven Emperor. In the future, it is possible that a person can grow into a terrible strong man. Even if he breaks into the emperor, it is not impossible. It is naturally the best to make friends with Lu Ming now.

"Unfortunately, the stored energy is too little, and now it is running out!"

Lu Ming thought, Lu Ming walked out of the eyebrows of the Emperor's flesh, then the Emperor's flesh shrank rapidly, and Lu Ming put it away.

In the battle with Hejia Emperor just now, the energy stored in Tiandi's flesh was almost exhausted. Otherwise, he wouldn't mind the abuse of Hengjia Emperor and Tianluo Emperor.

It was because the energy was exhausted that Lu Ming didn't chase it, otherwise the filling would be over.

In fact, Emperor He Jia was afraid of being beaten by Lu Ming. If he insisted for a while, Lu Ming would reveal the stuffing. Then Emperor Heng Jia and Tian Luo Emperor joined forces and Lu Ming was in danger.

However, they did not know that Heavenly Emperor's flesh needed to store energy to control it.

Lu Ming stepped down into the air and walked towards them.

"Hahaha, Lu Ming, it's cool to beat, it's so cool, I just printed it down, I have time to enjoy it together!"

Huang Li laughed, his eyes shining.

Huang Ling, Long Chen and others also smiled.

"Unfortunately, he did not kill an emperor!"

Lu Ming shook his head and sighed.

Chapter 2017: Treasure of Qiuyue

Lu Ming shook his head and sighed, leaving many people speechless, dare to lu Ming and want to kill the emperor.

"The little guy's ambition is quite big, but the emperor is not so easy to kill, unless it has an overwhelming strength advantage!"

Emperor Wuxiang also came over and smiled.

Then, with a flash of light, Kong Bo appeared.

"Uncle Kong, are you okay!"

Lu Ming asked with concern.

Uncle Kong was seriously injured, but before he fought with Tianluo Emperor again, Lu Ming was quite worried.

"Relax, nothing!"

Kong Bo showed a gentle smile, and returned to the state of a twilight old man. If everyone hadn't seen Kong Bo's hands, it would never be expected that Kong Bo would be a terrible emperor.

Uncle Kong didn't stay long, said a few words, and left.

Subsequently, the Emperor Wuxiang also left. They were all injured and needed to hurry to recover.

And Huang Li, Huang Ling, Long Chen, and others, pulled down the land, put the feast, nicknamed 'Celebrate', and while drinking, took out the shadow stone and watched Lu Ming beat the Hejia emperor. Screen.

In the next few days, people continued to come to Yuanshan Shengyuan to visit Lu Ming.

Obviously, these forces want to make friends with Lu Ming.

Like Ziyang Mountain Villa in the Holy Land of Guyang, there is also the only strong man in the temple.

Lu Ming has the flesh of the Emperor of Heaven, and has the power of an emperor. He does not have to fear Da Luo Tianzong at all. Of course, they are willing to make friends with Lu Ming.

There are other powerful forces as well.

They naturally did not know that the Emperor Tiandi's flesh could be used if he wanted to use it. He needed to store energy, not to mention that the energy of the Heavenly Emperor's flesh was exhausted.

Lu Ming also refused to come, and met with the powerful of many forces.

Make more forces, and you will always use them in the future.

More than half a month passed in the blink of an eye.

Heavenly Emperor City is also under rapid repair.

Since the last World War I, the Heng and He families have converged a lot and have not continued to occupy the territory of other forces. Many forces have been rebuilt.

At this time, Lu Ming also left Yuanshan Shengyuan.

He had just heard that Vientiane Tower had reopened, and he rushed over immediately.

Entering the Vientiane Tower, there was still someone whispering and came to a room.

"What news do you want to ask?"

The old man with white hair asked.

"I want to ask, is there any way to condense the soul, I have a friend who is hurt, the soul is hurt!"

At the moment, Lu Ming described Qiuyue's symptoms in detail.

"The soul is hurt when it encounters the law of deprivation!"

The white-haired old man frowned.

Lu Ming's heart was also mentioned. If Vientiane Tower didn't know what to do, it was really troublesome.

After a while, the white-haired old man said: "The soul is hurt, and it is extremely difficult to recover. Will your friend let the old man take a look?"

"it is good!"

Lu Ming nodded, waved his hand, and the Dayan Pill appeared.

"This is... the Dayandan furnace of Dayandan Temple, little fellow, you are Lu Ming, the son of chaos who came in the land of the famous Zhenyuan Mountain!"

The old man with white hair deserves to be a master of the Vientiane Tower, and he recognized the Dayan Dan furnace at a glance.

"Just the junior!"

Lu Ming said, and then opened the Dayan Pill, Qiuyue's body suspended.

Lu Ming will smelt a batch of holy medicine into Qiuyue's body every once in a while. Although after so long, Qiuyue's complexion is still rosy, as normal, even, Qiuyue's body has a strong medicinal fragrance.

The white-haired old man waved his hand, and a force poured into Qiuyue's body to observe carefully.

A moment later, the white-haired old man withdrew his strength.

"There is a serious loss of soul, this kind of injury, as far as the old man knows, there is only one place and only one kind of treasure in the whole Yuanjie, which can make her soul condense and recover again!"

The white-haired old man said.

"Where? What treasure?"

Lu Ming was overjoyed.

As long as he can cure Qiuyue, no matter what treasure he has, he will have to find a way to get it.

"Little fellow, it is not easy to use this treasure to cure this little girl. That treasure is the treasure of the town of the super demon in the land of all demons, the ancient demon coffin!"

"Ancient coffin?"

Lu Ming's eyes lit up.

"Yes, the ancient coffin of the ancient demon kingdom is a rare rare treasure in the world, especially for the magical magic of the soul. As long as this little girl is put in the ancient coffin, her soul will be able to be in a month. Cohesion!"

"However, the ancient devil's coffin is the treasure of the ancient demon country. It is very difficult to borrow for a month!"

The white-haired old man said.

"Thank you senior!"

Lu Ming thanked the old man with white hair, and then paid the consultation fee, so Qiuyue was re-entered into the Dayan Dan furnace.

For the ancient demon country, he must take a trip, and the faster the better, the sooner the better, the longer the delay, the more unfavorable to Qiuyue.

No matter how difficult it is, he will let Qiuyue recover.

After leaving the Vientiane Tower, Lu Ming returned to Yuanshan Shengyuan, intending to say goodbye to everyone, and set off as soon as possible to the place of Ten Thousand Demons.

However, when he returned to Yuanshan Shengyuan, he heard the news that the Emperor Wuxiang was convening the Tianjiao of Yuanshan Shengyuan before, and there seemed to be something important to announce.

Therefore, Lu Ming stayed for a while and waited until the Emperor Wuxiang announced that he would leave.

In the following days, Tianjiao continued to return to Yuanshan Shengyuan.

However, the Tianjiao of the He Family, Heng Family, and Daluo Tianzong did not come here.

On the fifth day, the Emperor Wuxiang summoned everyone to gather at the place where he preached.

Lu Ming they also came here.

Found that a total of hundreds of people came here, much worse than it was at the beginning.

Uh!

There was a shock in the void, and the figure of the unrelated emperor appeared.

"Meet the emperor!"

Everyone salutes.

"This time I have called you together, there is one important thing I want to announce. I believe everyone is very curious. At first, I and Tianhuo, the three people in the sky, why did you create Yuanshan Shengyuan!"

The phaseless emperor spoke.

Everyone nodded. This is indeed a question in everyone's mind.

"There are several main reasons, one of which is related to the Evil God Clan!"

"The previous battle was only a partial battle. The Evil God Clan has never given up on attacking Heaven and Yuan Realm. Now, the Celestial Battle is very unfavorable. The Evil God Clan attacking Yuan Realm is a matter of time. So, the decisive battle will also erupt sooner or later. !"

The Emperor Wuxiang spoke, and his voice was heavy.

Everyone's heart also sank, his face very dignified.

After the previous battle with the Evil God Clan, everyone understood the horror of the Evil God Clan, but that was only a partial battle.

If it is a decisive battle, a large number of other emperors and even the emperor will come, how can they fight?

At that time, I am afraid that it is not just the land of Yuanshan. Nobody in the entire Yuanjie can stay out of it. I am afraid that they will all fall into a fierce fight.

Click!

Lu Ming clenched his fists, he must become stronger, strong enough to protect his relatives and friends, he has a sense of urgency.

Chapter 2018: Ten Battles

"However, when a world faces a crisis, the world itself will also make a defensive state!"

The Emperor Wuxiang continued to explain.

"The world itself will also defend?"

Everyone is confused. Does the world itself have consciousness?

"Yes, there was a strong existence speculation that the world itself is actually conscious. For example, if the Heaven Realm or the Meta Realm is invaded by the Evil God Clan, it will make a defensive state, and the space will become relatively solid and not easy to penetrate. !"

"The most important point is that when the world encounters a crisis, the world will be born in droves, and many terrible physiques will appear in groups!"

"Like now, Heaven Realm, Yuan Realm, Heavenly Pride are like clouds, constantly emerging, all kinds of royal bodies, and even the Son of God, are constantly appearing. In the past, it was simply impossible!"

"Actually, this is the defense of the world, and many arrogances have been born. These arrogances can grow up to resist foreign enemies, and now there is the golden age of gold!"

The Emperor Wuxiang continued to explain that everyone's heart was ups and downs.

Actually still have this kind of argument, they are the first time they heard it.

Such as today's arrogance, kings fighting for hegemony, and sons fighting for heroes, it turned out to be a defensive state of the world itself.

"So, you are the hope of the future, and the hope of defending against the evil * clan. Therefore, the three of us only created Yuanshan Shengyuan to bring you together and do our best to cultivate you, hoping that you will grow faster!"

Everyone suddenly realized that it was for this reason that the three great emperors held the Yuanshan Shengyuan.

"The emperor is really selfless!"

Some people sighed, especially thinking that Emperor Tianhuo and Emperor Hundian are now unclear about life and death, and some people are quite sad.

Compared with Emperor Wuxiang, Emperor Tianhuo, Emperor Huntian, Emperor Hengjia, Emperor Hejia, and Emperor Tianluo, they seemed extremely mean and selfish.

"Of course, this is only the first point, and the second point is that the ten-place battle will be held soon. This time, it is said to be a great opportunity, so we want you to grow faster and take this time. Chance!"

Emperor Wuxiang continued.

"Ten places will fight?"

Everyone showed a look of doubt, they had never heard of it.

"The battle of the ten places is the ten places of the Yuan Realm. Many emperors discussed and convened it, which will gather all the arrogance of the ten lands, and the arrogance of the ten arrogance will reach the time. Tianjiao, let this group of Tianjiao grow faster!"

Emperor Wuxiang said.

Everyone's heart shook and it was difficult to calm down.

Ten battles will gather all the arrogances of the ten lands. How many arrogances will there be when the ten lands are added together?

How intense will Tianjiao fight.

There has never been such a thing in history.

This is the first time!

"This battle is going on in the land of God's fate, and there will be countless powerful people participating. With the great opportunity, it will be of great help to your cultivation. I want to rise before the war with the evil * clan. If you want to be able to protect yourself in the future, you must not miss this battle!"

The voice of Emperor Wuxiang made everyone feel up and down.

"Emperor, how long will the battle begin?"

Lu Ming asked.

Lu Ming wants to make a breakthrough, and wants to set foot on the peak, he can't miss this opportunity, but now, he still needs to go to the land of magic and save Qiuyue.

"Three years later!"

Emperor Wuxiang said.

"Three years later, come in a hurry!"

Lu Ming took a long breath.

"Three years later, the Divine Land will converge. At that time, you will face the arrogance of the whole Yuan Realm. Therefore, if you want to stand out in the battle of the ten places and seize the opportunity, in these three years, you must continuously improve. , Otherwise, it may only become a foil, you understand?"

Emperor Wuxiang said.

"understand!"

Everyone shouted.

"Okay, now Lu Ming, Lu Xiangxiang...you stay, others will leave!"

Then, Emperor Wuxiang ordered the names of a group of people.

Later, some people left, and dozens of them stayed. Lu Ming glanced and found that these people left were almost all royal bodies, only a few, not royal bodies.

Bubble, Phoenix Spirit, Longchen, Ouyang Wushuang and others are all there.

At this time, there were waves in the space, and several figures appeared.

Uncle Kong, and the Holy Emperor, the emperor like an emperor.

Several great emperors appeared at the same time.

"You are the most talented people in the land of Yuanshan. In the past three years, we will send you to some strange places. Every place is related to the laws you have learned. It can greatly help you practice! "

The Emperor Wuxiang then spoke.

Many people's eyes lit up, and the place chosen by the emperor was definitely extraordinary, and it definitely helped them greatly in their cultivation.

"Emperor, I'm afraid I can't go!"

Lu Ming took a step and clenched his fists.

"I know, you are going to the land of all demons!"

Emperor Wuxiang nodded.

"Go, it's important to save people, but if you want to borrow the ancient coffin, you still have to rely on yourself. Those guys in the Devil's Land, even if we come forward, there will be no effect, and even the opposite!"

Kongbodao.

"Those who repair the devil, have everything in sight, hum!"

Holy Emperor sneered.

"Yes!"

Lu Ming nodded.

"I'm going to follow Brother Ming Landing, too!"

Bubbles hang and land on Naruto's neck.

"Little guy, we take you to a place, which is very helpful to your cultivation. Are you really not going?"

Emperor Wuxiang looked at the bubble.

"Don't go!"

Bubble shook his head hard.

Lu Ming smiled bitterly and said, "Bubble, you go to practice with the emperors, we will see you soon!"

Bubble is a time and space spirit rat, and its talent is unique. The talent is even stronger than the ordinary son of the gods. Following him all the time will limit his talent.

All along, the bubble followed him, and cultivation was not progressing too fast. This time, Lu Ming planned to let the bubble follow the emperor to practice, so as to improve faster.

Lu Ming has a sense of urgency. The Evil God Clan does not know when it will be called. All of them must seize the time and improve their strength.

If she had to save Qiuyue, Lu Ming would follow the emperor to practice.

"But, the bubble is reluctant to brother Lu Ming, tweeted!"

The bubble hung on Lu Ming's neck, his small head rubbing hard.

"Bubble, go to improve your strength, otherwise you will not be able to help Brother Lu Ming in the future!"

Lu Ming touched the little head of the bubble.

"No, Bubble must help Brother Lu Ming..."

Bubble's big blinking eyes finally agreed to practice with the emperor.

"Okay, give you three days to prepare. After three days, we will take you away!"

Emperor Wuxiang said, then, the emperors left here one after another.

"Lu Ming, let's have a drink..."

Huang Li waited for someone to come.

After that, the people swallowed hard, and then met in the place of God's life to contend with the arrogance of other regions.

Three days passed, and after three days, Lu Ming left Qi Tianyue alone with Qiuyue.

Chapter 2019: Set off

The Land of Ten Thousand Demons, one of the Ten Lands of Yuan Realm, is close to the Land of Yuan Mountain, and the territory is vast and boundless.

Lu Ming set foot on the teleportation array, first came to the teleportation area outside the ancient holy land, and then flew towards the land of all demons.

Guyang Holy Land is the most holy place among the nine great holy places in Yuanshan, which is closest to the land of all demons.

After flying for more than ten days, the magic energy slowly became thicker. Later, Lu Ming saw a big river in front of him, traversing the earth.

This is the Wangu Mo River, separating the land of Yuanshan and the land of Wan Mo. I don't know how long it is, and it is eight thousand miles wide. What is strange is that the water of the Wangu Mo River is black.

Only when you cross the river of eternal magic can you reach the land of eternal demons.

Lu Ming did not stay, rose into the air, and flew towards the opposite bank of the Magic River.

The ancient demon river is full of magical energy and breeds some strange monsters, some very powerful.

These demon beasts, full of rich magic energy, are called Warcraft in the land of all demons!

In the process of crossing the river, Lu Ming encountered some troubles and encountered some Warcraft attacks, but they were all rushed over by Lu Ming. The most dangerous last time, he even encountered a huge shark in the state of Wu Emperor. Fortunately, Lu Ming showed his breath. Technique, convergence breath, fortunately spared the past.

At a distance of eight thousand miles, Lu Ming spent three days before crossing, and truly came to the territory of the Devil's Land.

"So rich and magical!"

Lu Ming found that the magical energy of the Devil's Land was extremely rich.

Devil qi is actually a kind of energy of heaven and earth. The warrior can absorb refining, but if it is not practicing magic skills, it will be very difficult to absorb refining and refining. It is much slower than absorbing the original energy of heaven and earth.

However, if you practice magic power, absorbing the magic energy is like getting water from a fish, and practicing it will be faster.

Therefore, the Devil's Land is a paradise-cultivator's paradise. Most of the warriors here are demonic-cultivators. No matter what laws are comprehended, the magic power of the true element of the holy power.

"The Land of Ten Thousand Demons is known as the Thousand Thousand Demons. Among them, there are two of the most powerful demons. The Ancient Demons are one of them."

Lu Ming thought, and began to plan the next trip.

There are countless demons in the land of demons, divided into inferior demons, medium demons, superior demons, and super demons.

The ancient demon country is a super devil country, and it is extremely powerful. It is stronger than the great powers like the He family and the Heng family, and it has inherited endless years.

If you want to borrow the treasures of the ancient demon kingdom, it is definitely not so easy. First of all, you must go to the ancient demon kingdom and get to know the seniors of the ancient demon kingdom. Then you can find a way to borrow the ancient demon coffin.

Lu Ming took out a jade card, and his consciousness sank into it, and a map automatically appeared in his mind.

This is the map of the Devil's Land.

This is a map given to Lu Ming by the Emperor Wuxiang. As the great emperor, it is not surprising that he has a map of the Devil's Land.

On the map, the territories of thousands of demons have emerged.

Lu Ming watched it for a while, then rose into the air and flew towards the distance.

boom! boom!

Soon after flying, Lu Ming heard the roar from the front, and there was a figure fighting.

There are more than a dozen figures fighting, the magic energy is rolling, and the knife is light and long.

The fighting people are divided into two sides, but obviously one side is stronger, and the knife flashes, and some people are killed.

After a while, all the people on one side were beheaded.

The remaining party, all dressed in black robes and carrying magic swords, had fierce eyes, full of fierce colors.

Demon-cultivators, because of being influenced by demonic energy, have very strange personalities.

Some people are fierce and some are tyrannical, but they have one thing in common. The demon-cultivator will not be soft-hearted and decisive.

"Put up these guys' storage rings, hurry up!"

A leader shouted, and put away the storage rings of those killed.

"Master, there is a kid there!"

Someone saw Lu Ming, cold eyes, swept towards the landing Ming.

"Hey, just an extra income, kill him!"

The headed person sneered.

Uh! Uh! ...

Suddenly, the figure flashed, seven or eight black men, surrounded Lu Ming Tuan group.

"Boy, hand over the storage ring on your body to keep you whole!"

A black robe said coldly.

Lu Ming shook his head slightly, but unexpectedly encountered robbery when he first arrived in the Devil's Land.

Before he came, he heard that the land of all demons was very chaotic, and most of the demons were aggressive, and it was commonplace to kill each other.

However, these people, the strongest one, only knew the holy realm. The others were half-holy. It was too uncontrollable to rob him.

"roll!"

Lu Ming shouted, and the breath of the Most Holy Land burst out.

The terrible breath made seven or eight black-robed men look wild.

"The most holy, the most holy!"

"Seniors have spared their lives, I will get away immediately when I don't know Taishan!"

Seven or eight big men, with terrified expression on their faces, were almost not scared to death.

Here, it is just the edge of the land of magic. Generally, there are no masters. How can they be so unlucky. When they encounter a young person, they are the most holy.

They ran off their legs and disappeared in a blink of an eye.

Lu Ming smiled faintly, and these people's cultivation behavior, he was too lazy to start.

Such a thing, but a small episode of Lu Minglai's Land of Devil.

He continued to fly, but what made Lu Ming depressed was that after a period of time, he would encounter someone robbing, and some people did not know the life and death. They wanted to fight Lu Ming and was easily killed by Lu Ming.

Later, during Lu Ming's flight, the cultivation of the most holy land was undoubtedly revealed. Many of the robbers felt Lu Ming's cultivation behavior and fled in a hurry.

After flying for more than ten days in a row, Lu Ming passed through several inferior magic kingdoms, and found that these magic kingdoms were almost fighting, and they continued to conquer each other.

What makes Lu Ming even more depressed is that these inferior demons have no teleportation array, and all can only rely on flying.

After a few more days of flying, Lu Ming glanced over a vast demon mountain, and his eyes stopped, stopping.

He found that in a valley, the magic energy was amazing.

"This kind of rich magic energy just happens to allow Emperor Tian to absorb some energy!"

Lu Ming thought.

Today, the energy stored in the body of the Emperor is almost empty, and it needs a lot of energy to supplement it.

The danger is unknown. The stronger the strength, the better. If Heaven Emperor's physical energy can reach 10% again, his grasp will be much greater.

As the figure moved, Lu Ming went towards the valley.

Roar!

As soon as Lu Ming was near the valley, there was a roar of the beast, and a few giant black wolves came to the landing Ming to fight.

"There is cultivation for the Great Holy Realm!"

A move in Lu Ming's heart, these giant wolves have the strength of the Great Saint level.

boom!

Lu Ming banged out with a punch, and several giant wolves screamed. They were shot out and fell to the ground, making it difficult to move.

Roar! Roar! ...

At this moment, there was a riot in the valley, and a roar came out.

Chapter 2020: Magic Pool

In the valley, the roar is endless, as if there are hundreds of thousands of beasts, and at the same time the earth vibrates, like thousands of horses and horses, rushing out of the valley.

"The strongest is nothing but the Emperor!"

A smile appeared on the corner of Lu Ming's mouth, and he stepped out and entered the valley.

In front, a group of giant wolves rushed towards the landing, at least a few hundred, there were Ming Sheng Realm, Great Holy Realm, and Most Holy Realm.

The huge wolves were all dark and exuded a strong magical energy. The vicious air filled his eyes and rushed towards the landing.

"kill!"

Lu Ming waved his hand and Shengli condensed a spear.

call out! call out! call out! ...

The rifle broke through the air and made a sharp roar.

Suddenly, a giant wolf was nailed to the ground by a spear.

Regardless of whether it is the most holy realm or the great holy Mingsheng, it is the same, a trick to kill.

In a flash, dozens of giant wolves were killed.

The figure of the other giant wolves stopped, unable to help.

Reaching the holy realm, the giant wolf naturally has a very high intelligence, looking at Lu Ming at the moment, all showing a terrified look.

"If you don't want to die, leave me alone!"

Lu Ming drank coldly, and his eyes were like two rounds of dark vortex. Lu Ming exhibited soul illusion. At this moment, in the eyes of many giant wolves, he seemed to turn into a killing  and slaughter all his life.

Woo...

The remaining giant wolves cried out in horror, and their bodies slowly receded.

Roar!

At this moment, a roar came from the depths of the valley, and the entire valley was shaken violently.

Lu Ming saw that in the depths of the valley, there was a huge cave. At this moment, an extremely huge wolf came out of the valley.

This giant wolf is 100 meters tall, like a hill.

It is completely dark, like steel, and its magic energy is very rich.

Prospective Emperor!

This giant wolf has the realm of a quasi-emperor, and Lu Ming sensed it before.

Obviously, this giant wolf is the king of this group of wolves. It stepped out and swept the wolves with cold eyes, causing the bodies of other giant wolves to tremble slightly and prostrate.

"Human race, find death!"

The giant wolf king looked at Lu Ming and made a cold voice.

At the next moment, the giant wolf king kicked on his four legs, and his huge body slammed toward the landing, casting a large shadow.

In a blink of an eye, the giant wolf rushed to Lu Ming, claws like a knife, and grabbed the landing Ming.

Lu Ming smiled faintly, Shengli surged, his figure suddenly rushed out, like a beam of light, fast and incredible.

Uh!

At the next moment, Lu Ming reached the top of the giant wolf and smashed it with a punch.

boom!

This punch directly hit the head of the giant wolf, the giant wolf wailed, and the huge body fell towards the ground, hitting the ground heavily, the ground vibrated, the valley roared continuously, and a big pit appeared on the ground.

Roar!

In this punch, Lu Ming didn't use his full strength, so the giant wolf didn't die, he roared and struggled frantically.

Lu Ming stepped on the foot, the giant wolf wailed, and his head hit the ground again, hitting a big pit.

"If you continue to resist, you will be killed!"

Lu Ming said coldly, all over his body, filled with icy killing.

The giant wolf king shuddered, and he knew that it was far from Lu Ming's opponent. Lu Ming wanted to kill it, so easy.

"Human, what are you doing?"

Asked the giant wolf king.

"I want to practice here for a while. After a while, I will leave, and you will stay outside!"

"If you don't agree, I will kill you, and I can still practice here!"

Lu Ming said coldly.

"Do you really leave after a while?"

Asked the giant wolf king.

"Nonsense, who wants to stay in this broken place for a long time!"

Lu Ming pouted, stepped out, and walked towards the cave deep in the valley.

In that cave, the magic energy rolled, extremely rich.

The giant wolf king roared a few times, but in the end he was helpless and could only take the wolves and stay outside the valley.

"So rich and magical!"

Lu Ming walked into the cave and raised his eyebrows. The magic energy here was more intense than he had imagined, and almost turned into substance.

"Huh? That's the magic fruit!"

Suddenly, Lu Ming saw a small tree growing on a wall of the cave, and there were three black and black fruits on the small tree.

The Dayan Dan Palace is dominated by alchemy, and Lu Ming naturally has watched a large number of books of Dayan Dan Temple. For all kinds of precious medicinal herbs, all kinds of natural materials and treasures, it can be said to be familiar with the chest, and naturally recognized this kind at a glance. fruit.

Moyuan fruit, a very rare and cherished fruit, is of great use to those who repair the devil. Taking pure devil qi can improve its strength.

However, these three magical source fruits are obviously not fully mature yet, but it seems that they are not far from mature.

"According to the record, the magic source fruit can only grow in a place where the magic energy is extremely rich, and the magic source fruit can be bred here, which is extraordinary!"

Lu Ming thought secretly, and then looked up in the cave.

The cave is very large and leads all the way to it. Lu Ming walked in along the cave, and soon he discovered it.

A small pool, the pool water is as dark as ink, and bubbles keep coming out.

These waters are full of extreme magic energy.

"This is a magic pool. There is a magic pool here. No wonder the magic energy is so rich!"

Lu Ming showed a happy look.

The magic pool, the birthplace of magic energy, will have a constant flow of magic energy. Although this is just a small magic pool, the magic energy contained in it is already very rich. It is no wonder that the magic source fruit can be born.

No wonder there will be a group of giant wolves, guarding here.

When the thoughts moved, the Emperor's flesh appeared here.

At the moment, Lu Ming uses the exercises to control the Emperor's flesh and begins to absorb the magic energy here.

The magic energy here is extremely strong, and it is better than absorbing the original stone directly.

The magic energy around him madly converged towards the body of the Heavenly Emperor, and turned into the energy of the body of the Heavenly Emperor.

In this way, the time passed.

In an instant, more than ten days passed, and the energy of the Emperor's flesh reached about 3%.

This speed is already very fast. I thought it took Lu Ming more than half a year to store the energy of the Emperor's flesh to 12%.

On this day, a group of people came outside the valley.

These people, carrying magic swords, were filled with fierce air, and their eyes turned like blades.

"For the time being, the devil fruit here will soon be ripe, and it's time to pick!"

A big man led the opening.

This person has a strong atmosphere, and has the cultivation of the prospective emperor.

"However, a group of magic wolves inhabiting this valley is not easy to handle!"

Also humane.

"What is not easy to deal with, this group of wolves has only one quasi-emperor, and we, but we have three quasi-empires, are enough to wipe out this group of demon wolves!"

The big man, headed by that, said coldly.

"Not bad! Wait a little while, we will get in!"

Another prospective emperor spoke.

These people just waited outside the valley.

But I don't know, there are a group of people looking at them in a cloud in the distance.
