

D Emperor 2111

Chapter 2111: Bubble strength

Many people were even more curious when they heard the words of the elder emperors.

"Senior, what is her body?"

Someone asked.

"Looking at it, I know that in this matchup, she will probably reveal her body!"

The old great emperor smiled.

Bubble's opponent is a very burly man with a height of three meters and muscles like a dragon. Bubbles in front of him is really a small thing.

"Little guy, reveal your body, otherwise, you are so small, I really can't do it!"

The burly young man's voice was loud and angry.

"Big guy, don't think that big guy can defeat me, if you want me to show the body, it depends on your ability, tweeted!"

Bubble to mouth, disdain.

"Small, then I think how great you are!"

The burly young man grinned, and at the next moment, he rushed toward the bubble like a mountain.

boom!

He punched out, and the void was shaking.

This is a son of Hongmeng, who controls the laws of Hongmeng.

"I spray!"

The bubble cried and exhaled with a small mouth, a transparent bubble directly enveloped the other party.

At the same time, the body of the bubble flashed and disappeared, but the void appeared waves, and the space shattered like a mirror, turning into a terrible sword and slashing towards the burly youth.

"The Law of Space and Time!"

The burly young man growled, his fists continued to blast out, the transparent bubbles shattered, and then slammed into those space swords.

However, when his fist burst, the speed of the fist changed very slowly, like the speed of a turtle.

Everyone knows that the burly young man was affected by the power of time, and that piece of void, the time slowed down, so he made his fist speed extremely slow.

"Break me!"

The burly youth shouted, and the Hongmeng law broke out.

The law of Hongmeng is very similar to the law of chaos. It is heavy like a mountain, and every move contains infinite power.

The other party must break the shackles of bubble time and space with absolute power.

Sure enough, the opponent exploded with all his strength, and his fist speed suddenly increased, exploding all the swords of space.

Fisting nonstop, blasting towards the bubble.

However, the law of time and space, unpredictable, the bubble body flashed, and disappeared directly, traveling through the void, appeared behind the burly young man, and continued to kill each other.

After the bubble broke through Emperor Wu, the law of time and space was more mysterious, and all kinds of unpredictable means were stronger than before.

Space-time spirit rats, naturally control the law of time and space, the more back, the more terrible the control of time and space.

Otherwise, how can the space-time spirit rat be called one of the top ten war beasts.

boom!

The burly young man turned around quickly and slammed toward the rear.

But the figure of the bubble disappeared again.

In this way, the two played dozens of tricks, and the burly young man gradually lost his patience.

"Small, if you consume me like this, we can't help anyone else!"

The burly youth shouted.

"Who said, tweeted!"

The bubble screamed and suddenly appeared above the burly man. His hands were constantly dancing. With the burly young man as the center, the void shook like a wave of water, and turned into a force of killing.

Moreover, under the acceleration of the power of time, the power of space killing is amazingly fast, and in a blink of an eye, it killed the burly young man.

The burly young man was shocked and laid heavy defenses around his body to resist the attack of the bubble, where there was a burst of roar.

At this time, the bubble opened its small mouth, and the toot continuously spit out the bubble.

Hundreds of transparent bubbles appeared in a row, and then disappeared again. The next moment, all covered the burly young man.

The big bubbles are covered with small bubbles, which cover the burly youths layer by layer.

"Broken, broken, broken!"

The continuous bombardment of the burly youth will break these bubbles.

When he shattered all these transparent bubbles, the bubbles stopped working and looked at him with a smile, saying: "Big guy, you lost, tweeted!"

What?

The burly young man was stunned, and then looked around, his face bitter.

It turned out that unconsciously, he was out of the scope of Shitai.

When you leave Shitai, even if you lose.

"Senior, didn't you say she would reveal her body?"

Someone asked about the previous senior.

"This... this little guy is very clever. Under the care of the other party, he moved the other person's figure out of the battle platform according to the law of time and space. The old man thought that she could only win by exposing her body!"

The old man had an awkward explanation.

"Bubble is stronger. Sure enough, she is following me, instead she is restrained, and she can't unearth the potential of the space-time spirit rat!"

Lu Ming smiled.

When the bubble wins, Shitai flies back, and Shitai, who is a burly young man, turns to fly ash and dissipates. He can only resign helplessly. This time, he will come to an end.

Next, every match is very exciting, it can be described as a strong duel.

There is even a fierce battle between the sons of God with the same laws.

Lu Ming saw Yuhe and confronted another son of the reincarnation. The two of them fought thousands of moves. Yuhe struggled to win, but he also suffered serious injuries. After the victory, he quickly healed.

There are dead blades, and he has fought hundreds of moves with his opponents, and it is also difficult to win.

However, there are a few people who win easily.

Like an unscrupulous monk, he is stronger now, almost defeating a son of God who stepped into Emperor Wu in a crushing posture.

Yuan Xin is also the same, strong and overbearing, less than ten moves, the battle is solved.

However, the one who made Lu Ming look most solemn was the son of fate.

This time, Tianjiao gathered, and there were dozens of children of God, but there was only one who controlled the law of fate.

The only one who controls the law of chaos is Lu Ming and Yuan Xin. Among the children of God, the number is the smallest.

The son of fate is too strong and unfathomable to measure his combat power.

Because, his way of fighting is too peculiar and shocking.

He fought with the other party and only said one sentence, the other party was defeated.

He said, your destiny is destined to defeat, and then the other party was inexplicably injured and was shot out of the stone platform.

This way of fighting is simply unbelievable and shocked countless people.

"Controlling the laws of destiny can control the destiny of all things in the world!"

An older emperor spoke.

Countless people are horrified.

Controlling the laws of destiny can really control the destiny of all things in the world.

Doesn't it mean that he said who will die, who will die?

If so, wouldn't it be too scary, like a god, dominating everything.

However, there was another emperor who said that he wanted to develop the mystery of the law of fate, still relying on his own strength.

For example, the son of destiny is now a virtual emperor realm. He said that it is impossible for a true emperor to die. The strength of the other party can fully resist the attack of the law of destiny.

Everyone nodded, this is reasonable, otherwise the law of destiny is too scary.

But even so, the law of fate is extremely alarming. Many people think that this time, the son of fate won the championship, there should be no suspense.

Chapter 2112: Another battle

The competition continued, with only dozens of stone platforms left, moving in the sky, and the number of them decreased over time.

After that, there were a few more people, which attracted everyone's attention.

A true dragon is extremely powerful and unmatched in its ability to attack, but there are no laws that fluctuate in him.

An emperor spoke, inferring that he practiced Taiko demon road!

Swire Demon Road is also a kind of Swire system.

There is another person, completely dark, like an iron tower, with immense power. He seems to have no energy fluctuations, only relying on the power of the flesh, he spit out a son of God who entered the Emperor Wu Realm, spitting blood out Battle platform.

Everyone was shocked. Some emperors speculated that this should also be a kind of Taiko cultivation system, Taikoo style training.

Specializing in the physical body, the power of the physical body has reached the earth-shattering point.

An emperor explained that it is said that during the ancient times of heaven, there were strong men with physical training who could shoot down the stars in the sky with their flesh alone, breaking through all methods and terrifying to the extreme.

There was a lot of discussion at the scene.

Ten battles, really unexpected, too many masters.

Even the geniuses of the Taikoo cultivation system appeared continuously.

Taikoo Demon Road, Taikoo Demon Road, Taikoo Body Repair, appeared one after another, and pressed the Son of God.

Many people speculate that these three people are likely to enter the final ten.

Then, Lu Ming saw that Stellar River also defeated his opponent.

After coming out of the lotus world, the stellar river disappeared and never appeared, but there is no doubt that this person who used to occupy the first day of the Yuanshan land is stronger.

His opponent is also the Son of God, but he still defeated his opponent with a strong eye-catcher.

After the stellar river defeated the opponent, the stone platform at the foot of Lu Ming moved towards the front.

"Is it finally my turn? Hey, Muiyang!"

Lu Ming whispered, then his face brightened.

Because, on the other stone platform that moved, it was actually Muiyang.

What a coincidence!

In Lu Ming's eyes, a flash of murderous opportunity flashed through.

And Mu Yang himself was shocked, and then came the cold killing opportunity.

bump!

Two stone platforms collided together.

"Haha, Tianyun, your luck is very bad, this time, I will make you die terribly!"

Mu Yang made a cold laugh.

He is so excited!

He had been expecting that he could meet Lu Ming. Unexpectedly, he did.

This time, he would be ashamed.

"How do I feel that I am lucky!"

Lu Ming smiled.

"Tianyun met MUYANG!"

"Two years ago, MUYANG was defeated by Tianyun and almost eliminated. However, in these two years, Tianyun did not seem to make much progress and did not break into Emperor Wu, and MUYANG has become an emperor, and his combat power must be above Tianyun!"

"Tianjiao fights, although the combat power is important, but the potential is also important. It seems that Tianyun's potential is not good, and the future achievements are estimated to be limited!"

Some people argue that some people think that although Lu Ming has strong combat power, his potential is not enough. Even if he can become an emperor in the future, I am afraid that it will be difficult to achieve too high achievements.

bump! bump!

MUYANG stepped towards Landing Ming, and the cultivation of a Wu Emperor Realm revealed undoubtedly that the breath was like a gust of wind, sweeping towards Lu Ming.

"In that environment, you haven't broken through the Emperor Wu. It's really a waste. In the future, you will never be my opponent. No, there is no future. Today, you are going to die!"

MUYANG sneered and his breath grew stronger and stronger.

"So much nonsense, kill!"

Lu Ming shouted suddenly, his figure was slain towards Muiyang, and the light of death filled his eyes, bursting into a fierce attack.

"you..."

Mu Yang also wanted to pretend to force it again. Unexpectedly, Lu Ming suddenly attacked and did not play cards according to the routine. He shouted, his body retreated, and his hands were pushed forward. When he was unable to destroy Lu Ming's attack.

"Even if you sneak attack, it's not my opponent...ah!"

Mu Yang just wanted to mock Lu Ming, but Lu Ming's attack power suddenly increased and his speed suddenly increased. He directly defeated Mu Yang's attack and slapped him on Mu Yang's face.

Mu Yang screamed, his body flew out like a sandbag, and almost flew out of Shitai.

He was so miserable that his face was **** and almost burst apart.

Many people took a breath. Is Lu Ming so strong that he can abuse Muiyang?

"Vile villain, it was just a sneak attack!"

The strong man of the screen house is hard-mouthed.

"Ah, I will kill you!"

Mu Yang yelled, rushed and went towards the landing.

He exploded all his strength, screaming toward Lu Ming, a sea condensed by the virtual power, and lingering toward the landing.

Originally, he thought that Lu Ming could be easily abused, but he didn't expect to be beaten by Lu Ming just as soon as he started to fight. He hated madness and wanted to dump Lu Ming for eight pieces.

Lu Ming stood still, leaving nothing in the ocean and enveloped him.

"Go die to me!"

Muyang roared, a crazy explosion, his small world was running, and the power of the world and the imagination could cooperate, and Lu Ming should be transformed into nothingness.

However, Lu Ming's body is surrounded by a river of laws, constantly blocking the invasion of the impossible.

"The law is just a river, can't stop me, kill!"

Muyang roared, there was no ocean, it evolved various forces of attack, and killed Lu Ming.

"Really? Then add another one?"

Lu Ming smiled lightly, and suddenly, a river of law emerged from him.

This is the river of formation of the law of formation.

The river of two laws surrounds.

"How can it be?"

Muyang burst into roar, it was hard to believe.

Lu Ming, did not break through the Emperor Wu? How can you control two laws.

"Two laws, how is it possible?"

"Without breaking through the Emperor Wu, you can actually control two laws, one of the strongest and one of the kingly rules!"

At the scene, there was a lot of noise and many people shouted in shock.

Without breaking Emperor Wu, he was able to control two laws, beyond their imagination.

Only the emperors, whose faces were calm, were not surprised. Lu Ming used it before, and many people saw it.

"Today, kill you!"

Lu Ming spoke coldly, his arms shook, the two laws merged, Lu Ming split out with a palm, the sea of nothingness in Muyang shook wildly, and then exploded.

Lu Ming, there are five rules before and after the completion, after five times of tempering, his physical body and holy power are too strong, far more than the same level of warriors.

He is very powerful by his physical body and divine power alone. At this moment, coupled with the integration of the law of death and the law of array, he burst out at once, and instantly broke the sea of nothingness in Muyang.

Muyang's body shook wildly, almost spitting out a bit of blood.

Uh!

Lu Ming's body, like a flash of lightning, approached Muyang and slammed out with a palm.

Muyang tried his best to resist it, but it was useless. His arm collided with Lu Ming's arm, almost breaking open, the tiger's mouth was cracked, and blood was flowing.

bump! bump! ...

Lu Ming split a hundred palms in an instant, and Mu Yang tried his best to resist, but with each palm down, his arm injury was more serious. After hundreds of palms, Mu Yang's hands exploded directly, flesh and blood flew.

Chapter 2113: The whole audience was shocked

what!

Mu Yang screamed, with horror on his face, he turned and fled, trying to escape from the area of Shitai.

But Lu Ming, how could he make him happy!

Muyang, he will kill!

bump!

Lu Ming stepped out and immediately caught up with Mu Yang, bombarded his back with a palm, Mu Yang screamed, his body was penetrated, and a big transparent hole appeared before and after.

At this time, his arms were scrapped, his body was penetrated, his combat power was greatly reduced, and he was even unable to contend with Lu Ming.

bump!

Lu Ming jumped up and kicked on Muiyang's face. Muiyang's body smashed heavily on the stone platform, causing the stone platform to roar, and there was a crackling sound in his body, and dozens of bones were broken.

Then, Lu Ming stepped on Mu Yang's face, making him unable to move.

This is similar to when Mu Yang challenged Lu Ming for the first time. He was stepped on Lu Ming's face and lost his face.

"Ah, Tianyun, I will kill you, I want you to die without burial!"

Muiyang shouted crazy, he was crazy.

Before the war, he had a high profile, and it was terrible to let Lu Ming die. He also satirized Lu Ming as waste, with no potential, and could not break Emperor Wu, and he would never be his opponent.

But how many moves are there now? He was like a wild dog, stepped on the foot by Lu Ming, this humiliation made him crazy.

"In this case, dare to threaten me!"

Lu Ming was indifferent, and between the waves of his hands, two rays of light bombarded on Muiyang's two legs, causing his two legs to burst apart.

what!

Muiyang screamed hysterically.

Although with his current cultivation practice, even if there is only one head left, he can be reborn and let the body recover.

But that kind of pain is real.

Now, his limbs have been abolished, his body has been penetrated, he has been hit hard, and the pain is extremely high.

"Tianyun, do you dare to kill me? My strong Mujia family is here. If you dare to kill me, you will face revenge from my Mujia family!"

Mu Yang shouted, making Lu Ming afraid to kill him.

He stared fiercely at Landing Ming, as long as he didn't die, Lu Ming must be killed in the future, no matter what means.

bump!

Lu Ming's face was cold, and he stepped directly on it. Mu Yang's head, like a watermelon, was stepped on. Then, a soul flew out, and Lu Ming was imprisoned in his hand.

This is the soul of Muiyang. At this moment, the face of Muiyang's soul is full of fear.

He did not expect that Lu Ming actually dared to kill him, not afraid of the Mujia's revenge?

"you wanna die!"

The strong man of the Mu Family was really angry. Someone shouted, and the momentum was shocking, as if the whole world was shaking.

There is no doubt that this is the emperor of the Mujia.

Muyang is considered to be playing, the body is completely destroyed, only the soul is left, even if the rebirth is reborn, there will be no previous achievements.

This made the strong of the Mu Family anger, and they immediately started to kill Lu Ming.

But at the next moment, at least there were ten cold eyes, sweeping towards the Emperor Mujia. The Emperor Mujia seemed to be poured on the body by a pot of cold water, and the flame was instantly turned off, and his breath converged.

This is a battle of ten places. The great emperors from all regions converge and cannot be destroyed by others. If he shoots, I am afraid that a group of emperors will attack him immediately and kill him.

"Tianyun, you better let go of Yang Yang!"

Emperor Mujia did not dare to start, he could only threaten.

Lu Ming sneered, too lazy to ignore.

"Tianyun, let me go, please, let me go!"

By this time, Mu Yang was really scared. He knew that when he met a lawless character, he was not afraid of him at all.

Lu Ming's eyes were cold, he had no intention of letting go of Yang Yang at all.

It may be more dangerous to let him go with Mu Yang's heart, and he will definitely retaliate and will not stop.

What's the difference between putting Yang and Yang?

"Let you go, and then find the killer of the kingdom of death to assassinate me?"

Lu Ming spoke indifferently.

Mu Yang froze, then a face twisted together, revealing an incredible look, and finally shouted hysterically: "You are Lu Ming, you are Lu Ming, you are not dead..."

Muyang's screams spread all over the world, making everyone hear them.

Many people were shocked.

"What? He is Lu Ming, that son of Chaos?"

"Don't the people of the kingdom of death say that they have killed Lu Ming? Is he not dead!"

Many people were shocked by the remarks.

At this moment, Yuanchao, the son of Chaos, had a magnificent look, like two stars, looking at Lu Ming.

The breath of the stellar river erupted, bathed in white divine light, staring at Lu Ming.

"He is Lu Ming..."

Qiuyue, Huangling, Longchen and others showed ecstasy in their eyes.

"Master, it must be Master!"

Lu Xiangxiang and Ouyang Moli are also ecstatic!

They thought, why Lu Ming helped them before, they didn't know it at all, but Lu Ming shot out to help them, they had been puzzled before, now they finally understand.

At this moment, everyone's eyes gathered on Lu Ming.

"It turns out that he is Lu Ming!"

Some emperors whispered that they had seen through Lu Ming's true appearance, but they hadn't seen Lu Ming before, so they didn't even know that he was Lu Ming.

At this time, Lu Ming did not hide, his body began to change, revealing the true appearance.

"Really Lu Ming!"

Some of Lu Ming's people have exclaimed, unbelievable.

"Hahaha, I said, how could Lu Ming die?"

Liao Li laughed.

"The kingdom of Bleach, will really put gold on his face!"

Ouyang Wushuang also laughed.

"Master..."

Qiuyue was delighted.

Some people familiar with Lu Ming were overjoyed.

Before, although they did not believe that Lu Ming was dead, they were still worried.

The killer organization of the kingdom of death is too terrible, they are afraid that in case it is true.

Seeing Lu Ming at the moment, they finally rest assured.

"Why doesn't he die?"

Some people who had hatred against Lu Ming also changed their complexion and became ugly.

Masters such as Hengjia, Hejia, Daluotianzong, Wanjia, Jinwu Clan, and Sirius Tower stand in the crowd and are very upset. It is a pity.

They all wish Lu Ming was killed.

Especially the forces of the ancient moon holy land, Lu Ming is getting stronger and stronger, and the pressure on them is too great, which makes them worry.

"Really you!"

Yuan Son, the son of Chaos, was shrouded in the light of Chaos, like a **** of war, staring at Lu Ming.

He has been invincible all his life and rarely suffers.

But when he was evaluated in the Hunyuanzong, he suffered a big loss, was defeated by Lu Ming, and lost his last heritage.

Moreover, there is also the inheritance of Chaos Emperor, also in Lu Ming's hands, he and Lu Ming must have a battle.

"No, how could he be Lu Ming, he is not a son of death, is he in control of the law of death?"

Someone calmed down and finally found the problem.

Before Lu Ming, the law of death was clearly used, but Lu Ming was the son of Chaos.

The scene was originally very lively, and many people talked about it. Now, it suddenly became quiet and there was no sound at all.

Everyone stared at Ming Ming, and his eyes were rounded, wishing to see through Lu Ming.

This is true even for those great emperors, as well as people like Huang Ling who are close to Lu Ming, with an incredible expression.

Everyone, except Qiuyue, already knew that Lu Ming had control of the law of death, and no one else had seen it.

Chapter 2114: Fried pan

One person actually controls the two strongest laws?

Everyone was dumbfounded and hard to believe.

Some people even suspected that someone was disguised and pretended to be Lu Ming.

But the emperor spoke, proving that this is Lu Ming's true appearance, and it was not easy to accommodate.

Wow!

It was fried at the scene, completely fried.

One person can actually control the two strongest rules at the same time, and it is still under the Emperor Wu. With the previous line rule, did Lu Ming control the three rules.

The fryer is deep fried.

This is unprecedented.

"God, it's against the sky, Lu Ming is going against the sky!"

"One person controls two strongest laws at the same time, how is it possible? Emperor Wu can't do it!"

"The strongest incompatibility, this is the truth since ancient times, now the truth is broken!"

There was a lot of noise, and many people shouted, even if it was the case with many older people, mainly because the impact was too great.

It is like truth that has always been firmly believed, and it collapses in an instant. It is difficult to calm my heart.

Even the Great Emperor can't calm down, like looking at monsters, looking at Lu Ming.

"How is it possible?"

Those forces that have hatred against Lu Ming, such as the Heng Family, are as big as a fight, which is unbelievable.

boom!

At this moment, the strongest arrogance, such as Yuan Xin and the Son of Destiny, were hard to calm down, and a terrible breath broke out on him.

"Invincible, Brother Lu Ming is invincible!"

Bubble is yelling.

"Master Invincible!"

Lu Xiangxiang and Ouyang Moli also coaxed.

Lu Ming touched his nose, he knew that once he revealed his true identity, he would definitely blow up the pan and shock the world.

However, he still did not conceal.

Because, if he confronts Shangyuanxin, the son of destiny, etc., he must be unable to hide it, and he must show his full strength.

Early exposure and late exposure are all exposures.

In addition, now that the energy of Tiandi's flesh has been stored to 36%, he has the confidence to lose a lot of scruples.

If after the ten-place battle is over, the Mu Family would have to deal with him, or Xiang Xiang, Qiuyue they did, he would just take them to run.

Anyway, Heavenly Emperor's physical defense is amazing. What's more, there are also Emperor Wuxiang, Kongbo and others.

At this moment, Kong Bo, Emperor Wuxiang, and others, were unable to calm down, struggling with their beards.

They lived the endless years, but this kind of thing was also seen for the first time.

"Ah, ah, let me go!"

At this moment, Mu Yang was almost scared to death, screaming wildly.

A person can actually control the two strongest laws. No wonder the combat power is so terrifying, he is going to be scared to death.

"Muyang, did you call the people of the kingdom of death to assassinate me?"

Lu Ming spoke coldly.

"Lu Ming, Rao Ming..."

Mu Yang shouted in horror.

Many people moved in their hearts, it seems that it was really the act of Muyang. He called the people of the kingdom of death to assassinate Lu Ming, and did not know what method Lu Ming used, actually avoided the death robbery, and also let the people of the kingdom of death. , Mistakenly thought that Lu Ming had been killed.

"Despicable, I can't beat my master, but secretly called a killer to kill my master, **** it!"

"Master, kill him!"

Lu Xiangxiang and Ouyang Moli were filled with indignation, and wished to personally shoot and kill Muyang.

"Muyang, go all the way!"

Lu Ming opened his mouth and said nothing. In Mu Yang's frightened eyes, he squeezed hard, terrifying power, directly smashing Mu Yang's soul and let him fly away.

"Damn!"

The Great Emperor of the Mu Family growled, and his eyes were extremely gloomy.

A Son of God was just killed, their hearts were bleeding.

The king's body claimed to have the potential of the emperor, and the Son of God is undoubtedly stronger, breaking through the grasp of the emperor. It is very large, and can even take a step closer and touch the realm of the supreme emperor.

This kind of arrogance, any force must be treated as a treasure, but now, it is dead, publicly killed by Lu Ming, the soul is scattered.

After killing Muyang, the stone platform representing Muyang turned into a burst of smoke, and Lu Ming returned to the stone platform and floated back.

A pair of eyes fell on Lu Ming, some were full of dignity, and some contained a strong fighting intention.

Before, everyone did not take Lu Ming to heart. A prospective emperor, even if he was strong, would not pose a threat to them.

But now, it's different.

Lu Ming killed Muyang, and he also took control of the two strongest laws.

The most important thing is that Lu Ming just killed MUYANG and did not use the law of chaos.

If the chaos rule and the death rule are used, how powerful is the two fusions?

Everyone reassessed Lu Ming's combat power.

Of course, some people are not optimistic about Lu Ming, who believes that it is unprecedented to control the two strongest laws at the same time. It is impossible to combine the two strongest laws to make the power soar.

This view has been endorsed by many people.

In the difficult mood for everyone to calm down, the contest continues.

After the battle between Lu Ming and MUYANG, there were only a dozen or so people left on the field. It can be said that those who stay in the present are the strong among the strong, and every battle attracts everyone's attention.

The children of destiny, Yuan Xin, Wuliang, and others, still defeated their opponents.

Death Blade finally came to an end.

He met the real dragon, suspected of practicing Taiko demon Tao, extremely powerful. Although the Blade of Death tried his best, he was still not an opponent. After dozens of battles, he was defeated.

Stellar River also encountered powerful opponents, but he was indeed very strong himself, fighting hundreds of moves with his opponents, winning the opponent.

Bubble also defeated the opponent.

When it was Lu Ming's turn again, his opponent was not strong, slightly weaker than Mu Yang, and was defeated by Lu Ming.

Slowly, there were only 13 people on the scene.

Thirteen stone platforms, suspended in the air, looked at each other.

It can be said that each of these 13 people is very powerful.

Among them, the son of destiny, Yuan Xin, and unscrupulous, the real dragon who practiced the ancient demon Taoism, and the ancient archaeological cultivation, and there is also a child of time and space, which is the most concerned.

Because these people entered the Emperor Wu Dynasty two years ago.

Two years later, it is undoubtedly more powerful and unfathomable.

However, these people have not met each other until now.

"Is it also related to Shitai?"

Lu Ming thought about it, maybe Shitai can also roughly distinguish the strength, so some of the strongest people will automatically avoid it.

This is very possible. If some of the strongest people meet in advance, it will be unfair.

The stone platform turned, and then the two stone platforms flew out and touched together.

One of them is the son of fate.

The face of the man who collided with the son of fate was ugly.

He actually met the son of fate.

The name of Destiny's Son is Destiny. In the name of Destiny City, it can be seen that its heart is higher than Heaven.

And he deserves the name.

Destiny has a white dress, long hair and waist, handsome and nonsensical, like the legendary son of a god.

There was always a smile on his face, and he stood there, but on the surface of his body, there seemed to be a hazy glow that made him look as if he were not in this world.

Chapter 2115: Horrible law of fate

Destiny's destiny is the most optimistic candidate this time and thinks that he wins the championship.

Prior to the competition, Yuanxin was the only person believed to be able to compete with fate.

Of course, many black horses are now emerging, such as unscrupulous, such as the real dragon, and that archaic body repair, are unfathomable.

But most people still think that there should be no problem in winning the fate.

The son of destiny, controlling the destiny, has not been out of a few since the endless years, and each of them has almost stood at the peak and become the peak powerhouse.

"Do you want to admit defeat?"

Destiny always had a smile on his face, calm and peaceful, and asked his opponent.

"The top ten laws, the law of destiny is overwhelming the other laws, I just want to learn!"

The young man spoke, he was also a very powerful son of God. Two years ago, he was about to become an emperor. After these two years of cultivation, the cultivation base has reached the peak of the one-star Emperor Emperor. How could he fall without a fight.

Destiny shook his head: "Since you said this sentence, your destiny is doomed to defeat!"

"What the fate of bullshit, I'm destined to die, no one can control my destiny!"

The young man shouted and killed his destiny.

"You are destined to be struck by lightning!"

Destiny opened his mouth and smiled.

Rumble!

When his voice fell, the endless thunder and lightning appeared out of thin air and slashed towards the other party.

Every thunderbolt is actually colored, with five colors, arms so thick and amazingly powerful.

The dense thunder and lightning directly flooded the young man.

The young man screamed and exploded madly, using magical powers to counter those thunder and lightning.

"Your destiny is destined to be burned!"

Destiny spoke again.

Then the endless flames appeared, all terrible flames, drowning the young man.

"Your destiny is destined to be cut by a knife!"

"Your destiny is destined to be hammered!"

...

Destiny continued to speak, and every word he said was fulfilled. Various attacks and constant attacks on opponents were endless.

The young man finally couldn't resist, he vomited blood and was shot off the battle platform.

And destiny, from beginning to end, with a smile, a white dress, standing on the stone platform, did not move in one step, extraordinary dust.

Everyone gasped in shock, terrified.

The law of fate is too scary, can it really determine the fate of people.

He said that if the other party is struck by lightning, it will be struck by lightning, if it is cut by a knife, it will be cut by a knife.

As if he was in control of the fate of others.

Even Lu Ming's eyes were dignified.

Destiny's stone platform flew back home, and there were twelve others on the scene.

After another 20% competition, the top ten will be decided.

Soon, two more stone platforms flew out and collided together.

Everyone was shocked again.

This time, the one who appeared was Yuan Xin.

His opponent's face also darkened.

Yuan Xin, seen by others, is a character capable of fighting against the fate of Heaven, and encountering him can only be considered unfortunate.

boom!

Yuan Xin shot directly and was overbearing.

His Chaos fist, attacking Wushuang, crushed his opponent frantically as soon as he shot.

Although his opponent is powerful, he still has the disadvantage and is completely outnumbered.

"Yuanxin's cultivation base is not a one-star Emperor, I am afraid it is already a two-star Emperor!"

Someone guessed.

Many people nodded. This is normal. Two years ago, Yuanxin had become an emperor. In these two years, the chances are not small. How could there be no progress?

Soon after, Yuan Xin's opponents lost and coughed up blood and withdrew from the battle.

After Yuan Xin returned, there were eleven others.

Then, two more stone platforms collided together.

"It's him, archaic bodybuilding!"

Lu Ming's eyes moved, revealing his interest.

One of them is the archaic body repair, named Virtue.

This man is three meters tall, bald, black, like a piece of black charcoal, and like a piece of black steel. It seems to be full of endless power.

Archaic physical training, specializing in physical body, unparalleled physique, endless strength, breaking all methods.

Lu Ming is very interested. His fleshy forest has been tempered five times in a row and contains three chaotic atmospheres. It is already very powerful.

But there is still a big gap compared to the tyranny.

The opponents of Virtue are also very unsightly.

Because of the virtue, it is also considered one of the strongest people.

Why are the last three people, the opponents they met, the strongest ones?

"Haha, don't be small, let's go!"

Virtue grinned and walked towards the other side like a giant.

boom!

Violent shot, simple and direct, directly punched out.

This punch directly penetrated the space. His dark fist, like an ancient ancient mountain, pressed towards the other party.

The opponent is not weak, can be said to be strong, broke out with all his strength, and confronted the violence.

Unfortunately, after all, it is difficult to match the virtue.

The frustration of the violent virtue fell directly through the strongest rules. His opponent's face changed wildly, and he quickly receded. He almost flew out of the stone platform.

"Little, you can't, hahaha!"

Violent laughter, the three-meter-high body, directly rushed towards the other party, the speed is amazing.

boom!

The other party tried his best to make a magical move, but it fell on the body of the virtue and was useless, without breaking through the defense of the virtue.

Virtue's body seemed to be a magic soldier, broke through the other party's attack, and then hit the other party hard.

The other party groaned, a crackling sound sounded from his body, and then he vomited blood, his body flew out directly, and flew out of the battle platform.

Many people took a breath. This violent virtue was really terrifying. It was infinitely powerful. It only took a few strokes to defeat its opponent.

"What a terrifying power, pure physical power!"

In the crowd, Huang Chen's face was very dignified.

They practiced the law of extreme strength, known as the ultimate strength, but compared with the violent virtue, they did not know how far apart.

Violent defeated his opponent, leaving ten people on the scene.

The top ten is born.

They are Destiny, Yuanxin, Wuliang, Virtue, the True Dragon Cricket, Yun Haojie, the Son of Time and Space, Bubble, Stellar River, Ancient Demon, and Lu Ming.

Everyone's eyes fell on ten people.

The land of Yuanshan, the infinite arrogance, the ten strongest arrogances, attracted much attention.

"Okay, now the top ten has been born, give you three days to adjust interest rates, three days later, the final showdown!"

The white-haired old man stepped out and announced.

"Master is too powerful!"

"And bubbles!"

Lu Xiangxiang, Ouyang Moli and others cheered, excited.

However, most people have a bad complexion because they are optimistic about Tianjiao and have failed to enter the top ten.

"Senior, I'm not convinced!"

At this moment, a sound rang out, calming everyone down.

A young man stepped out and gave a fist to the white-haired old man.

"I'm not convinced!"

"me too!"

Several young people came out in a row and clenched fists at the white-haired old man.

Chapter 2116: Top ten

Everyone recognized that three of them were the last three youths, who were defeated by Destiny, Yuanxin and Virtue.

There are two other people, everyone recognized, and also the two who met the destiny and Yuanxin before.

A total of five people.

"What do you disagree with?"

The white-haired old man asked.

"Some of them are not strong enough to enter the top ten!"

"Yes, they are just lucky, they did not meet too strong opponents, so they refused to accept!"

Several young people spoke one after another.

Everybody got it!

These young people felt that they had met Destiny, and Yuanxin was too bad, because they were too strong, so they failed.

In the current top ten, many people have not met their destiny. Therefore, these young people think that they are only losing luck, not strength.

Many people think the same, and their eyes are particularly glancing at Lu Ming, Bubble, and the Stellar River.

"It turns out so!"

The white-haired old man nodded and said, "Before, the stone platform under your feet has a special magical effect, so some people will not meet in advance, but you will not be convinced if you want to come and fight, so I will give you a chance, You are free to challenge one of them, and if you can win, you can replace it!"

As soon as this remark came out, the young men's eyes rose.

At the same time, their eyes fell on Lu Ming, Bubble, and the Three Star Rivers, showing strong fighting intentions.

What they refused to accept was actually Lu Ming, who thought they were stronger than Lu Ming, Bubble, and Stellar River.

Lu Ming, although the two most powerful laws govern the world, but Xiuwei is only a quasi-empire after all. Although he defeated Muyang before, which of them is not stronger than Muyang?

There are also bubbles, a three- or four-year-old doll, who is also a star emperor, they are not afraid.

The same is true of the Stellar River, just a star emperor.

As for the ancient demon, although it is also equivalent to the one-star virtual emperor, but the practice is the ancient demon road, the combat power is extremely powerful, they are not sure.

As for the destiny, Yuanxin, unscrupulous, violent virtue, cheek, Yun Haoge, they don't think about it. These six people, already two years ago, have become emperors, and are now unfathomable.

"I will challenge first!"

A young redhead stepped out.

"Why do you challenge first, I'll come first!"

"I'll come first!"

A total of five young people were screaming and wanted to challenge first.

The first challenge is definitely the advantage, the weakest option.

Finally, the white-haired old man asked them to draw lots and decide who would come first.

In the end, a tall, thin young man was the first to play.

Before this person, he was strongly defeated by Virtue. Now, his first challenge is to look at Lu Ming, Bubble, and the Stellar River, and finally fall on the Stellar River.

"You also cultivate the eternal law and come out to fight!"

The tall and thin youth spoke because he also practiced the eternal law.

"I want to fight you!"

Stellar River's eyes were shining, stepping out, and a strong breath filled his body.

Both of them are practicing eternal laws.

This time, Tianjiao, who is practicing eternal law, is not only the two of them, but undoubtedly, the two of them are the strongest.

bump! bump!

Suddenly, both of them moved, and the battles were together, the eternal laws collided constantly, and the battles were extremely fierce.

At the beginning, the two were evenly matched, and more than one hundred moves in a row, it was difficult to distinguish the outcome.

But after more than a hundred moves, the stellar river began to gain the upper hand and suppress the other side.

Roar!

The stellar river is roaring, the momentum is mad, the hair is flying, and the eyes are as bright as the stars.

At that time, he was defeated in Lu Ming's hands, and he has been dormant, practicing hard, and eventually transformed, he is stronger than before.

"Okay, haha!"

Emperor Hengjia laughed, very cheerfully.

After dozens of strokes, the stellar river flew the opponent out of the stone platform and won.

The first challenge ended in failure. The remaining few challenged the youth with a dignified face.

Originally, Stellar River was the weakest person in their eyes, but the challenge still failed.

"Now, it's my turn!"

The young man who was defeated by destiny and had fiery red hair stepped out, and finally his eyes fell on Lu Ming.

"Lu Ming, come out to fight!"

The fiery red-haired youth stared at Lu Ming.

"I thought I was a soft persimmon!"

Lu Ming pouted, and his thoughts moved. The stone platform under his feet flew forward, and the young man with long hair fell on the stone platform.

A stone platform is equivalent to a battle platform.

"Lu Ming, you are not an emperor. Although you can control the two strongest rules, I can beat you..."

The fiery red-haired young man shouted and wanted to stimulate Lu Ming.

"Scratch!"

The long-haired young man's words hadn't fallen yet, and Lu Ming rushed towards him, directly using the law of chaos, and the law of array, the two laws were blended, and the palm of the chaotic **** was cast to the young man with long red hair.

The fiery red-haired youth broke out and exerted his full strength to confront Lu Ming.

Lu Ming's fusion of the Chaos Law and the Array Rule is stronger than the previous fusion of the Death Rule and the Array Rule, because the Chaos Palm is, after all, a magical skill of the Chaos Rule.

Lu Ming's attack, like a storm, continued to attack the fiery red-haired young man.

In an instant, he burst into hundreds.

bump! bump! ...

After hundreds of consecutive collisions, the arms of the fiery red-haired young man finally felt numb, and they were almost shocked.

His body kept shaking, and he kept going backwards.

Since the beginning of the fight, he was suppressed by Lu Ming, completely in the downwind, difficult to resist, and finally withdrew from Shitai.

"Dare you dare to challenge me, isn't it?"

Lu Ming pouted and flew back with Shitai.

"Lu Ming didn't use the law of chaos to merge with the law of death, did he really not merge the two laws together?"

"The two strongest laws are naturally not so easy to merge, but even so, his strength is still very strong, slightly better than the Stellar River!"

Some people talked.

The remaining challengers are even more ugly.

A few think that the weakest have such strength, do they challenge and will not succeed.

Then, there was a youth who challenged the bubble.

The bubble still hasn't turned into a body. With the mysterious and unpredictable rules of time and space, he 'played' with his opponent for a hundred or two hundred moves. Finally, he baffled his opponent out of Shitai and won.

Two other challengers looked at each other, and finally sighed, shaking their heads and giving up the challenge.

Even Lu Ming, Bubbles, and the Stellar River are so strong, that the rest of the challenge is even more uncertain, and can only be abused, it is better not to challenge.

At this point, the top ten was officially born.

After a round of challenges, no one doubted any more, Lu Ming's combat power, they are veritable, Yuan Lu younger generation, the strongest ten people.

Ten of them looked at each other and collided with each other with a brilliant fire.

Especially Yuan Xin, his eyes glanced at Lu Ming, revealing a cold sharp edge.

Chapter 2117: Top ten showdown

Especially the Stellar River, which has the most eyes, is also looking towards Lu Ming.

"Lu Ming, this time, I will beat you!"

The stellar river opens, and its eyes are compelling.

"Waiting for your shot!"

Lu Ming answered only two words, very simple.

To be honest, until now, he has not put the stellar river in his eyes.

Lu Ming's current opponent is destiny and Yuan Xin.

Yun Haoge looked at the bubble, flashing with greed.

"Little fellow, you should be a kind of beast. You can actually master the law of time and space. So, be my beast and accompany me to the world!"

Yun Haoge spoke, and he was really hot.

If a beast that controls the laws of time and space follows him and cultivates with him, it will be of great help to him.

"You're almost my pet!"

Bubble skimmers, disdain.

"I will convince you to take it orally!"

Yun Haoge spoke coldly.

"Brother Lu Ming, is that man stupid? Actually want me to be his beast!"

When the bubble shape flashed, it appeared on Lu Ming, and the small body was like an octopus, hanging on Lu Ming.

"It's really stupid!"

Lu Ming smiled and touched the little head of the bubble.

Everyone was stunned. It turned out that Lu Ming and Bubble had such a good relationship.

Is Bubble, Lu Ming's beast? Was Lu Mingyang?

This was terrifying, and the two entered the top ten respectively.

Yun Haoge's face was gloomy and his eyes glanced at Lu Ming indifferently.

On the other side, the three violent virtues, cheeks, and ancient demons also stared at each other, and their fighting power burst out.

The three of them are all cultivators of the Taikoo system. They are all geniuses and naturally want to differentiate themselves.

Among the ten people, only destiny, standing there, had a calm face, always smiling, as if staying out of the matter.

At the scene, everyone was looking forward to it.

Before the battle, it will be a crossfire, and the final ten will compete for hegemony, which will definitely be very exciting and can be called an epic showdown.

In the history of the Yuan Dynasty, there have never been so many days of pride and never held a battle of ten places. This battle is unprecedented.

Many of the Sons of God have become foils. If they were said decades ago, they would be laughed at.

In the past, a son of God, that is a legend, was a character who suppressed an era.

But in this era, it has become a foil, which makes countless people excited.

This battle, destined to be written in the annals of history, spreads throughout the ages.

"You adjust your interest rate, three days later, one battle!"

The white-haired old man once again announced.

Everyone found a place to rest, Lu Ming walked towards Qiuyue.

"Master, I know you are fine!"

Qiuyue was very pleased and threw herself directly into Lu Ming's arms, also not paying attention to the strange eyes of others.

"Lu Ming!"

Huang Ling came, her eyes were a little complicated, but she flew away and was hidden by her.

Then other people came over and greeted Lu Ming.

"Master!"

Lu Xiangxiang and Ouyang Moli salute to Lu Ming.

On the side, many people did not know that Lu Xiangxiang and Ouyang Moli, Lu Ming's disciples, saw at this moment, dumbfounded.

Lu Ming's young age is extraordinary in itself. There are still two disciples of God's Son, which is really shocking. Even the great emperors are very envious.

"You two, practice well and strive to become an emperor as soon as possible!"

Lu Ming looked at Lu Xiangxiang and Ouyang Moli.

At the same time, he thought of himself again. It seems difficult for him to become an emperor. Looking at this trend, it is estimated that he will be surpassed by two disciples, which makes his old face slightly faint.

Then, Lu Ming saluted the Wuxiang Great Emperor and Kongbo.

"Lu Ming, this time, make every effort, after the ten battles, there is still a great opportunity waiting for you!"

Emperor Wuxiang smiled and sent a message to Lu Ming.

Lu Ming was surprised, and there were great opportunities waiting for them.

But think about it too. Before it was just screening, it was possible to enter the world left by the beginning of the Yuan Dynasty. The cultivation base was rapidly improved. Now, in the final battle, will there be no chance.

"I will go all out!"

Lu Ming nodded.

Later, Lu Ming chose a place, sat in the air, exercised power and adjusted interest rates, and adjusted the state to the best.

In a flash, three days passed.

The final pinnacle is about to begin.

The white-haired old man stood at the top of Destiny Mountain, waved his hand, and on the top of Destiny Mountain, a huge battle platform appeared.

Obviously, later battles will take place on this battle platform.

"In the final ten qualifying battles, in a round-robin battle, everyone must fight against the other nine players, ranking according to the winning rate!"

The white-haired old man said.

Lu Ming nodded, as expected, as he did.

This way of ranking is the most fair. It is entirely based on strength, and there will be no luck.

This method is also the most used method. Lu Ming walked all the way. It was not once or twice that he encountered this method.

"Also, the war between you is not allowed to hurt people's lives!"

The old man with white hair added another one.

Many people nodded. Each of the last ten people is talented. If it falls as a result, it will be a huge loss, so there are such regulations.

Unfortunately, Lu Ming secretly wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to solve the stellar river.

"Okay, now the order of the duel is arranged by the old man. In the first battle, the stellar river against Lu Ming!"

The white-haired old man announced.

Lu Ming's eyes lit up, but he didn't expect that the first battle was him, and the opponent, or the Stellar River, wouldn't the white-haired old man intentionally?

Lu Ming's mouth twitched, so that's fine. Let's start with the stellar river.

Uh!

Lu Ming stepped in and landed on the battle platform.

The stellar river's figure also fell on the battle platform. His eyes were filled with powerful fighting intent, like flames, burning.

"Lu Ming, this time, you will lose!"

The stellar river shouted, and the fighting spirit was Lingyun.

"You were defeated that year, and now, you are not even my opponent!"

Lu Ming shook his head, his voice silent.

Many people were stunned for a moment, and it seemed that Lu Ming and the Stellar River had already fought.

"The Stellar River and Lu Ming, both from the Yuanshan land, have naturally confronted each other long ago!"

"It seems that the Stellar River is not Lu Ming's opponent, it has been defeated before!"

Many people talk about it.

"Huh, that time, Lu Ming made a coincidence!"

The Heng family were not angry, explained.

The powerful of the big and small forces in the land of Yuanshan watched more attentively.

Lu Ming and the Stellar River all came from the land of Yuanshan. In the past, the stellar river has been called the first day of the land of Yuanshan. Since Lu Ming's rise, this phenomenon has been able to change.

In this battle, whoever wins is the first arrogant of Yuanshan.

"Hengxinghe, then I will crush you, let you understand, the gap between us before!"

Lu Ming spoke lightly.

bump! bump!

Then he stepped out, and every step stepped out of him, there would be an extra river of law.

Chapter 2118: Stellar River defeated again

Lu Ming stepped forward, every step stepped out, there would be an extra river of law in Lu Ming's body.

The first step was taken out, and the law of chaos became a river, surrounding Lu Ming's body.

In the second step, another river of law emerged, the river of death.

Chaos and death, the two strongest rivers of law, surround Lu Ming's body and attract everyone's attention.

Because this is a scene that has never appeared in Yuanjie since ancient times. It is a miracle.

Many people even took out the Silence Stone to record all this.

Then, a shocking scene appeared.

The rivers of two laws actually merged into a river of two colors.

"Fusion, the two strongest rules, fuse together!"

Someone shouted excitedly.

"God, it's against the sky, the two strongest rules are really fused together!"

"A miracle!"

Countless people shouted, and even many emperors couldn't calm down and opened their eyes.

The combination of the two strongest laws is a myth.

At this moment, Yuan Xin, Virtue, and others were all shaking.

"My hair, why is this guy so perverted!"

Wuliang monk pronounced the Buddha's number, and his face was bitter.

Even the fate of Gu Jingwu, the smile on his face disappeared at the moment, revealing a trace of surprise.

The Stellar River also shakes its mind, revealing incredible colors.

"Defeat you!"

Lu Ming walked step by step like a flash of lightning, killing the stellar river.

"Eternal Clock!"

The stellar river shouted, he did not want to give up, he still had to fight.

On him, there emerged a divine bell with simple patterns on it.

when!

The eternal God Bell vibrated and a terrifying sound of killing broke out.

Compared to those days, the power of the eternal God Clock in the Stellar River is not known how many times stronger.

However, now that Lu Ming's law of chaos and the law of death have merged, coupled with his condensed holy power and physical power, the outbreak of combat power is too strong.

Lu Ming directly ignored the stellar river's attack, his body kept on, and continued to shock.

Those sounds of slaughter fell on Lu Ming and were directly blocked by the river of two-color law, which could not break through Lu Ming's defense.

In an instant, Lu Ming was near the Stellar River.

boom!

Lu Ming used the Chaos Divine Palm, the fusion of the two strongest laws, and bombarded the Eternal God Clock on the Stellar River.

Boom!

The tremendous sound of the eternal God Bell erupted, sweeping all directions.

Some real emperors, great emperors, have a layer of light on their bodies, blocking the front and blocking the sound waves. Otherwise, many people will be injured, repaired to be weak, and even killed by the sound waves.

Click!

On the Eternal Clock, there was a clicking sound, and a crack appeared. The crack was like a cobweb, covered with the Eternal Clock.

bump!

In the end, the Eternal Clock exploded directly, dissipated into light spots.

Lu Ming's palms kept bombarding the stellar river. The body of the stellar river was like a scarecrow, flew out, fell heavily on the ground, and vomited blood.

Defeated!

The stellar river is defeated, just a trick.

Many people were stunned.

"The two strongest laws merge, is the power so scary?"

Someone's voice is dry and unbelievable.

Stellar River, how to say it is also the top ten peerless arrogance, facing Lu Ming, but defeated by one move, this gap is shocking and terrifying.

"Since Yuanjie, no one has control of the two strongest laws since ancient times, and no one has merged into the two strongest laws. No one knows what power the two strongest laws will merge!"

Someone solemnly spoke.

Everyone took a deep breath, indeed.

Moreover, they thought that Lu Ming could control several laws, and several laws became a river. Every time he would refine the Holy Power and the flesh. No wonder Lu Ming was so powerful, they finally understood.

"You lost!"

Lu Ming spoke indifferently, and looked at the Stellar River indifferently.

The Stellar River spouted another blood, and as a result, he was really unacceptable.

At the beginning, he was the first day of pride in Yuanshan, standing high above him, overlooking others.

When Lu Ming first met, he simply dismissed Lu Ming, even if he knew that Lu Ming was the son of Chaos, he did not care, thinking that he was strong enough to suppress all enemies and would not lose.

But later, in the Lotus World, he lost and was defeated by Lu Ming.

However, at that time, Lu Ming performed some kind of secret technique. He always believed that Lu Ming borrowed external power, and with his own strength, he would not lose.

Over the years, he has been retreating and practicing hard, especially when he knows that there will be ten battles in the ten places, and he is even harder to practice, that is, to fight with a blockbuster in the ten places, but also to completely suppress Lu Ming and step on his feet.

Even this time, the genius is like a cloud, beyond his imagination, but he still broke into the top ten.

Unfortunately, his opponent, Lu Ming, was even more stunning.

Although he has not become an emperor, he has control over the two strongest laws.

And now, he is defeated by one trick, the combat strength is strong enough to overlook him.

At this moment, his self-confidence and his conviction were greatly hit, and he coughed up blood constantly.

"Damn!"

Emperor Hengjia roared and Lu Ming was simply the nemesis of Hengjia.

"Master Zun mighty!"

"Master Invincible!"

Lu Xiangxiang and Ouyang Moli yelled there, happy than they won.

"Do you want to fight again?"

Lu Ming continued to step forward, surrounded by a long river of two-color law, just like a **** under the heavens.

The stellar river has not conceded defeat. If he wants to fight again, it is exactly what Lu Ming intended, and he can brutally abuse the stellar river.

Unfortunately, Stellar River did not give him a chance.

"I lost!"

The stellar river is very unwilling, but can only admit defeat, otherwise, it is just abused.

"I said that if you can lose you once, you can lose you twice, and you will never be my opponent in the future!"

Lu Ming left a word very stupid, and then flew out of the battle platform.

Stellar River looked ugly, and withdrew from the battle platform.

This is just his first battle, and there will be a big battle waiting for him.

"The first battle, Lu Mingsheng, the second battle, the bubble against Yun Haoge!"

The white-haired old man then announced.

Many people's eyes lit up immediately.

They found that every next matchup was very attractive.

Both Bubble and Yun Haoge have control over the laws of time and space.

Moreover, according to the great emperor's words, the body of the bubble is a kind of beast. It is very big and makes people feel itchy. They all want to know what the body of the bubble is.

"Bubble, come on!"

Lu Ming touched the little head of the bubble.

"Relax, this guy is yin and yang, I must beat him! Chirp!"

Cried the bubble.

Not far away, Yun Haoge covered his face with black lines.

What makes him yin and yang strange, where is he yin and yang strange?

With a cold face on his face, he stepped on the battle platform, and Bubble also stepped on the battle platform.

Chapter 2119: The collision between the laws of space and time

"Take me a beast pet, we also practice the law of time and space, which is good for you and me!"

Yun Haoge spoke again.

"It's the same way upside down, you can't be a pet for me!"

Bubble grumbled.

Yun Haoge's face was gloomy and he said, "If you don't agree, you will get your agreement!"

Uh!

Yun Haoge moved, his body moved, and the surrounding space rippled like a wave of water. His body seemed to travel through space, and it was incredible.

Many people had just seen him move, and the next moment, Yun Haojie's body had reached the front of the bubble, and he grabbed it with his big hand and grabbed it toward the bubble.

Seeing that the bubble was too late to avoid, it was caught by the other party's big hand.

But with a bang, Yun Haoge grabbed a void, and the figure of the bubble shattered like a phantom.

It's just a mirror image, Bubble has already left here.

Just when Yun Haoge caught the bubble mirror image, the figure of Bubble suddenly appeared behind Yun Haoge, his small hand reached out, and his palm slammed into Yun Haoge.

But Yun Haoge's figure also shattered at the same time. This is also a mirror image. Yun Haoge's figure has also left.

Uh! Uh! ...

In an instant, behind the bubble, Yun Haoge's figure appeared. Not only that, there were more than a dozen Yun Haoge's figures elsewhere on the battle platform.

"It's fun, tweeting!"

The bubble screamed, and the small figure also disappeared. At the next moment, there were more than a dozen figures appearing, rushing to Yun Haoge's figure respectively.

In an instant, on the battle platform, the figure flickered, and the figures continued to flash, but they were continuously destroyed, but eventually found that they were all mirror images, and none of them hit the real body.

Many people are weak, and dazzled.

I can't see the real body and the mirror image at all. I can only see that on the battle platform, the space is rippling like a wave of water, and there are dozens of body shapes flashing between attacks and instants.

And with the passage of time, the speed has reached the extreme, and in the end, the two of them are completely out of sight.

Lu Ming turned Shengli into his eyes to capture the figure of the two.

"It's awesome. Both of them have applied the law of time and space to an extremely high level!"

The characters of the true emperor spoke in awe.

The law of space-time is inherently very mysterious. Most people face the person who controls the law of space-time, but they cannot touch each other.

This is the use of space and time, and time and space collide with each other.

It's only a minute, and the two don't know how many moves they have met.

"Let me break your laws of time and space!"

Yun Haoge was a little impatient, and all his figures disappeared, leaving only one figure.

boom!

The breath on his body looked even more violent, and the power of the surging world rushed out along with the law of time and space. With him as the center, the space continued to collapse and explode.

Even the time was disturbed.

Two-star Emperor!

This is the current state of Yun Hao Ge!

He wants to crush bubbles with a powerful state.

bump! bump! ...

With him as the center, it was like setting off a twelve level wind, sweeping towards the bubble, where it passed, the space burst, the time was chaotic, and the mirror image of the bubble collapsed one by one.

The real body of the bubble appears and rises and falls in the chaos of time and space.

"Defeat me!"

Yun Haoge spoke indifferently, stepped in, and appeared in front of the bubble, with a sword in his palm.

This is the war sword condensed by the power of time and space, extremely sharp, slashing towards the bubble.

When Bubble's little hand waved, a sword of time and space also condensed in his hand, colliding with the opponent.

bump!

The Void vibrates, and the bubble repair is still a little worse. There is only one star Emperor, which is not hostile and anti-powerful, and is blown away by the other party.

After Yun Haojie hit the flying bubble, he pursued it, and once again killed him.

After several consecutive moves, the bubble was suppressed and fell into the disadvantage.

Yun Haoge's stronger cultivation practice, constantly breaking up the surrounding space, disturbing the power of time, forcing Bubble to confront him head-on.

"Bubble!"

Lu Xiangxiang, Ouyang Moli and others yelled to cheer for the bubbles.

"Be my pet!"

Yun Hao's eyes were cold and he looked at the bubbles.

Tweet...

Bubble yelled, her eyes became angry, her body was filled with white brilliance, the bubble turned into the body directly at the next moment.

A small spirit rat with white and shiny hair and a little bit of luster, very cute.

"This... is it a space-time spirit rat?"

"One of the top ten war beasts of space-time spirit rats!"

Someone exclaimed, and the scene was in an uproar again.

"It's actually a time and space spirit rat!"

Yun Haojie's eyes were even hotter, full of greedy light, and he wished to take the bubble as his own.

In Yuanlu, there are some arrogances that can awaken the bloodline of the top ten war beasts, and the vastness of Yuan Realm is vast. There are many such arrogances.

But the arrogance of the awakening of the blood of the top ten war beasts, after all, is only human, but only a trace of blood awakening, which is very different from the top ten war beasts themselves.

There are countless beasts in the world, but there are only ten of the top ten beasts!

Each of the top ten war beasts is unique. Between heaven and earth, there cannot be two of the same top ten war beasts.

Each one is unique.

Only when one of the top ten war beasts falls behind can new ones be born.

In ancient times, each of the top ten war beasts was the pinnacle of the world. It is conceivable that the top ten war beasts are powerful and talented.

And now, it is a young space-time spirit rat, which is too rare.

"Time and space rat, it's mine, mine!"

Yun Haoge shouted.

Time and space spirit rat, born to control time and space, if he can get it, the help for him will be amazing.

"Give me surrender!"

Yun Haoge continued to kill bubbles.

"Person, it is you who surrender!"

Cried the bubble, her body glowing, a white ray of light diffused out, the void once again rippled like a wave of water.

Uh!

The shape of the bubble disappeared, traveling through time and space without traces.

At the same time, in all directions, the infinite space is shrinking, squeezing towards Yun Haoge.

"Break me!"

Yun Haoge shouted, and the cultivation of a two-star virtual emperor broke out in an all-round way. With his time-space law, he wanted to explode the space of the four sides.

But at the next moment, his face changed.

He felt that his law of space-time was suppressed, and even more terrifying, his law of space-time was reversed.

The law of time and space that he broke out, oppressed himself.

bump!

Yun Haoge's body was violently shaken, and the power of infinite time and space pressed on him, and his world power was penetrated. His body flew out and spit blood.

"This... what's going on?"

Many people are ignorant.

Just now, it was obviously Yun Haoge prevailing. How did it happen in a flash, Yun Haoge was injured by a bubble.

This reversal is too fast.

Chapter 2120: Bubble body

"Yun Hao Ge was restrained!"

There was an explanation from the figure of the emperor.

"restraint?"

Some people are puzzled, some are thoughtful.

"The space-time spirit rat, one of the top ten war beasts, is born to control time and space. Although Yun Haojie is a child of time and space, and is also born to control time and space, there are still some gaps compared with the space-time spirit rat. Therefore, above the law of space-time, he Was restrained!"

The great emperor, explain again.

Everyone suddenly realized that the time and space spirit rat, after showing the body, can truly show its strength, fully exert the law of time and space, and even control Yun Haoge's law of time and space.

It can be said that this is a trade-off, and Yun Haoge is no longer a bubble opponent.

Uh!

Bubble travels through time and space, her body is small, but wherever she passes, time and space accompany, space wraps her like water, and the endless power of time and space kills Yunhaoge.

Yun Haoge shouted, he was a little unwilling and wanted to turn over.

It is a pity that it is useless after all. At this moment, he has no control over the law of time and space, and it is extremely difficult to control.

Without the law of time and space, how can he be the opponent of the bubble, once again blasted, coughing up blood.

"With your strength, I still want to accept me as a beast pet. I can't control myself. I said, when my pet is almost the same, hurry down and call the master, tweeting!

Bubbles were so excited that they walked through the void, and the small paws photographed Yunhao Ge.

Yun Haoge roared, his anger burst into the sky, and he exploded with all his strength, but it was useless, he couldn't resist the sky. He was completely suppressed by the bubble, and finally his face was scratched by the bubble, leaving a paw mark.

"You have my mark on your face, you are my favorite now, tweeted, tweeted..."

Bubble yelled excitedly, Yun Hao spit blood screaming.

Many people are speechless, they can see it, compared to the space-time spirit rat, the bubble is still in its infancy, not intentionally humiliating Yun Haoge, but the intention.

But in Yun Haoge's opinion, it was Chi Guoguo's humiliation. He shouted and hated, but in the end he humiliated and rushed down the battle platform, confessing directly.

He understood that he could only insult himself if he continued to fight.

"That guy, yeah, that guy has a good relationship with the Time and Space Rat, wait a minute and get back from him!"

Yun Haoge was furious, and his eyes turned to Lu Ming.

He couldn't beat the bubble, and he could only get back the scene from Lu Ming.

Lu Ming found Yun Haoge's gaze, and could not help being speechless.

Why is this guy staring at him, and his grievance?

Lu Ming curled his lips and didn't care about it. If this guy didn't know what to do and he met him at that time, he wouldn't mind flattening each other.

In this competition, Bubble won.

Uh!

The bubble turned into a human shape again and hung on Lu Ming's neck.

"Brother Lu Ming, I am awesome! Tweet!"

Bubble grunts.

"Great, great, the bubble is the most powerful!"

Lu Ming laughed.

"Bubble is the most powerful, come, let my sister hug!"

Lu Xiangxiang walked over and looked at the bubbles, his eyes shining.

I have seen the body of the bubble, it is so cute, Lu Xiangxiang just blinked the small stars in his eyes.

"Little guy, not big or small, you want to call me aunt! Tweet!"

Bubble pouted, looking at Lu Xiangxiang scornfully.

Lu Xiangxiang immediately retreated with a bit of a face, causing Qiuyue, Huang Ling and others to smile.

All around, others looked at Lu Ming's eyes, full of envy.

Lu Ming, not only two disciples of the gods are disciples, it seems that the relationship with the space-time spirit rat is also very good.

Especially Yun Haoge, the flame of jealousy in his eyes.

"The third game, Yuanxin vs. Ancient Demon!"

The white-haired old man announced again.

The scene was quiet, and everyone's attention was pulled back.

Two figures stepped into the field, it was Yuan Xin and Gu Mo.

boom!

Without much words, I started directly and had a terrible collision.

Yuan Son, the son of Chaos, with his fist breaking through the air, is extremely astonishing, like a mountain, pressing against the ancient demon.

The ancient demon is covered with magic light, but the practice is the archaic demon road, the power of attack is amazing, and the fierce confrontation with Yuanxin.

At the beginning of the ten strokes, the two are difficult to win.

After ten strokes, Yuan Xin did not retain, and his strength exploded.

Two-star Emperor!

This is the strength of Yuanxin, and has reached the peak of the two-star Emperor.

Two years ago, Yuan Xin had just broken through Emperor Wu. After two years of cultivation, he had reached the peak of the two-star Xu Emperor. This speed was already amazing.

Every breakthrough of the Emperor Wu Realm is very difficult and requires a lot of time.

Some Emperor Wu, trapped in a realm for hundreds of thousands of years, could not break through, and eventually died under thunder.

This is also because entering the space, Yuanxin can break through so quickly.

The Yuan Xin with its full strength is extremely terrifying, completely suppressing the ancient demon.

It is not that the ancient demon is not strong. He is very strong. In the same battle of the same level, there are not many opponents. Unfortunately, his cultivation base is still weaker. Only one star Emperor is difficult to fight against Yuanxin.

After a few strokes, the ancient demon coughed up blood and was defeated by Yuan Xin.

"Unfortunately, the cultivation behavior of the ancient demon is still weaker. If you reach the two-star Emperor, you may not be able to compete with Yuanxin!"

"The power of Archaic Demon Road is really amazing!"

Some people talked about the potential of the ancient magic.

But the next moment, everyone looked forward to it even more.

There are four people left, destiny, unscrupulous, violent virtue, cheek.

These four people are all terrible arrogances. Two years ago, they broke through Emperor Wu.

Next, these four people are going to fight, and it will definitely be the real peak battle.

"Unscrupulous, Cherk!"

The old man with white hair announced that everyone's heart was immediately raised.

The unscrupulous monk is the arrogance of Buddhism's sudden rise in recent years, showing the unparalleled talent.

Every day he brags to the outside world, saying that he is the reincarnation of the Buddha and God.

Although the character is sometimes criticized, but the talent and combat power, but it is solid, standing at the peak of Yuan Lu.

Cheek, a real dragon, cultivated into an ancient demon road, unparalleled demon body, equally powerful, who can win the two?

Everyone looked forward to it.

The two figures entered the battle platform.

"My hair, donor, you and I have a destiny, how about being my magical beast?"

The unscrupulous monk said with a straight face.

"Monk, are you insulting me, I will unscrew your head!"

Cheek's cheeks appeared on his face.

Chek, from the land of the beast.

The land of mythical beasts, inhabiting various powerful mythical beasts, such as true dragons, phoenixes, unicorns, etc., can be seen in the land of mythical beasts, and he is the first arrogance of the land of mythical beasts. Now, the unscrupulous monk speaks, He will be accepted as a dharma protector, how can he not be angry?

"My hair, donor, you will unscrew my head as soon as you open your mouth. The killing heart is too heavy, and you have to unite my buddha and practice to kill the heart!"

The unscrupulous monk looked right.

Lu Ming, Long Chen despised, this monk, certainly did not hold back fart.

"Refine your head, kill!"

Cheek shouted, Long Yin shook the sky, he directly transformed into the body, but it was a purple dragon.
