

D Emperor 3641

Chapter 3641: Want to break the Wanlong Seal

"The Wanlong Seal, I don't believe it. The Wanlong Seal with dozens of stellar years can stop me. Today, I need to open a gap and kill the little beast!"

The winged human race roared with great power, the eruption of divine power, the continuous explosion of the starry sky in the universe, and there appeared a scene of nothingness.

These scenes are really terrifying. If there are planets around, all planets will explode.

Fortunately, there is no planet around the dragon clan star, and the star is associated with the dragon clan star.

Outside the Dragon Mother Star, there were originally countless figures from all ethnic groups. They were cultivated as princes above the quartet, and they were ready to find a chance to enter the Dragon Mother Star next time.

However, after the Yiren clan came, they retreated long ago, withdrawing to an infinite distance, so as not to be affected.

boom!

The Wing Terran can stretch out a pair of wings and slam the fan.

Suddenly, countless golden feathers flew out, turned into a golden war sword, and blasted towards the dragon clan star.

The sound of Longyin sounded again, more intense.

Countless dragon figures emerged, blocking these golden sword lights.

"Give me!"

The winged human race roared with great power, with both hands held, countless golden sword lights, gathered into a huge war sword, and cut towards the dragon clan star.

He wanted to break Wanlong Seal into a gap.

As long as a gap is opened, it is enough to break a gap, he has a hundred kinds as if to kill Lu Ming.

However, he obviously underestimated Wanlongyin.

Roar!

A fierce dragon chant sounded, and a huge figure of the nine-clawed dragon was condensed out, as if the whole body was solid, like a real nine-clawed dragon, lifelike.

The dragon claws of the Nine Claw Divine Dragon grabbed and grabbed on the golden war sword, grabbed the golden war sword directly, and then squeezed hard, the golden war sword shattered and turned into energy.

Yiren Clan's body was shocked, and he couldn't help but retreat.

"hateful!"

The winged humans roared in their hearts.

He had almost exerted his full strength just now, but he still couldn't break the Wanlong Seal, and he didn't even break a crack.

"Brother Wing, let the old man help you!"

At this moment, a hoarse and harsh voice sounded, and then, beside the wing human clan, there was another figure.

This figure is also very huge, with a huge body, squeezing the starry sky, covering the sky and casting a large shadow.

From a distance, it can be seen that this is an old man, dressed in a black robe, covered with black mist all over his body.

"The Wu people are the power of the Wu people!"

Someone shouted.

Obviously, this huge figure is a great power of the Wu people, the same level of power as that of the wing people.

"You are here, too. You and I have worked together to break the Wanlong Seal, as long as you break a trace!"

Wing human race is powerful.

"Okay, let's do it together!"

The hoarse voice of the Matriarch of Great Power sounded, and the next moment, he went straight to work.

I saw the Matriarch's powerful body glow, and then a figure crawled out of his body.

This figure looks like a demon, this is a soul puppet made out of soul.

The soul puppet screamed at Wanlongyin, and at the same time, the Winged Human Power, once again shot, the golden war sword condensed out again, wanting to break Wanlongyin a crack.

Roar!

The sound of Longyin sounded again, and the nine-clawed dragon roared, radiating a dazzling radiance, and rushed towards the soul puppet and the golden war sword.

The soul puppet directly wrestled with the Nine Claws Dragon, and it burst into nowhere.

Then, the golden war sword was cut on the head of the Nine Claw Dragon.

boom!

The head of the Nine Claw Dragon was directly cut open, and a deep sword wound appeared, bursting the small half.

"To win!"

On the dragon clan star, the winged human clan Tianjiao who had escaped before saw this scene and became ecstatic.

"Hahaha, the ancestor is about to break the seal of Wanlong. Lu Ming's boy is dead!"

Tianjiao Tianjiao laughed.

The wing human tribe is one of the ancestors of the wing human tribe.

"After all, Wanlongyin has been so weak for so long that it has been unable to withstand the ancestor's attack!"

"Look how arrogant that kid is!"

The arrogance of the winged human race is ecstasy, not only that, but also the arrogance of those races that have hatred against Lu Ming.

Lu Ming's face changed slightly.

"Can't it really break through?"

In Lu Ming's heart, there was a little bit of bottom.

"Relax, with the strength of these two guys, you can't break the current Wanlong Seal!"

In the sea, the bone demon spoke.

"You also know?"

Lu Ming did not believe it.

"Why can't I know that although the strength of these two guys is not bad, but in my heyday, I can shoot them with a slap!"

Bone demon disdain sounded.

"You are so strong? What is your identity?"

Lu Ming asked, he was really curious about Bone Demon's identity. He had asked before, but Bone Demon didn't answer every time.

This time too.

"What is my identity, you are not qualified to know now, your strength is too good, understand!"

Bone demon disdain sounded.

Lu Ming: "..."

But listening to Gumo said this, Lu Ming finally let down.

Along the way, what the bone demon said was really true.

Beyond the planet, the war was extremely fierce, and the Wings and Wu people joined forces to finally defeat the Nine Claw Dragon.

Many people exclaimed that Wanlongyin was really about to be broken.

However, at the moment when the Nine Claw Dragon disappeared, a dragon claw suddenly darted out.

This dragon claw, huge and endless, caught the power of the Wing and Clan.

"This dragon claw..."

Lu Ming's eyes narrowed.

This dragon claw is exactly the same as the dragon claw he encountered last when he entered the dragon clan.

However, this one is now countless times more powerful and countless stronger.

boom!

The dragon claw grabbed it, and the soul puppet was caught directly.

Quack...

The soul puppet made a harsh cry and struggled frantically.

That soul puppet, how powerful it is, everyone has seen it just now, but now, it can't break free.

"No, help me quickly!"

The Wu people roared with great power, their faces were ugly, and they constantly urged the divine power to struggle with the soul puppets.

At the same time, the winged human power also shot, the golden war sword, cut towards the dragon claw.

However, before the golden war sword was cut, the dragon claw squeezed hard, and with a bang, the soul puppet burst directly.

puff!

Wu Clan Power seems to have been repulsed, his body shakes, and he coughs up blood.

After the dragon claw squeezed the soul puppet, it turned around and continued to grab the golden war sword.

Chapter 3642: A condition of power

The dragon claws grabbed the golden war sword, and the golden war sword collapsed as soon as they caught it. Then, the dragon claw kept on moving towards the Matriarch and Wingman tribes.

The dragon claws are getting bigger and bigger. In the end, it seems that they completely envelop the powers of the Wu people and the power of the wing people, and they want to catch them to death.

"Block it!"

The two men were frightened, roared, and shot together, bursting out all their strength and slamming towards the dragon claw.

boom!

A tremendous roar sounded, the gorgeous light filled all directions, and finally, two huge figures retreated backwards.

They are the two great powers of the Wings and Wu people. Their bodies are retreating, staggering, and blood is constantly spouting from their mouths, their faces are ugly and shocked.

Roar!

The sound of Longyin shook the world, and that dragon claw continued to rush towards the two powerful men of Wing and Clan.

"go!"

The two great powers of the Wings and Wu people did not dare to stay at all. Their bodies moved and disappeared into the air.

Actually retreated directly, not daring to stay.

"This..."

The Tianjiao of the dragon clan stared at this scene, dumbfounded.

The situation has become really fast.

Before, they thought that the two great powers of Wings and Wu people could succeed. Unexpectedly, in the next moment, the two great powers were directly injured and did not dare to stay and fled.

Especially the arrogance of those winged human races, as well as the arrogance of Lu Ming who had hatred against Lu Ming, were extremely disappointed.

call!

Lu Ming let out a long breath, and the big rock in his heart dropped.

Just now, it's fake to say no tension and no pressure.

That is the ancestor-level characters of the Wu people and the Wings, and the top masters, even in the entire wilderness universe, are well-known, and they are definitely above the Divine Emperor.

This strong man, even if blocked by Wanlong Seal, still puts a lot of pressure on him.

With his current strength, in front of this kind of character, if there is no Wanlong Seal, the other party can blow him to death ten times a hundred times in one breath.

The gap is too big.

He is now very small and weak in the entire wilderness universe.

But Lu Ming is confident that as long as he is given time, he will grow up quickly. Eventually, he will step on these feet that he cannot match now.

"Every tribe in the Dragon Clan's parent star listens, if anyone can kill Lu Ming, the old man promises him a condition, as long as I can do it, I will help him!"

Suddenly, a voice came from the vast universe and spread to the Dragon Mother Star.

It is the powerful voice of Yiren.

Everyone judged at once.

Then, in the eyes of many people, it started to get hot.

Everyone's eyes looked at Lu Ming, full of blazing glory.

As long as Lu Ming is killed, the powerful person of the Wing Human Race will agree to that person's condition, as long as the powerful person can do it.

This condition is too tempting.

What is the power of the Wings? What is the cultivation base?

One of his conditions is unimaginable with high value.

When many people looked at Lu Ming, they were full of murderous opportunities.

"If you want to kill me, you must be conscious of being killed by me!"

Lu Ming, holding a Ba Shen gun, rushed into the night with a war of intent, glanced around like electricity.

Those who were swept by him, their heartbeats accelerated, and they couldn't help but retreat.

Only then did they remember Lu Ming's horror.

Those who wanted to kill Lu Ming before are now dead.

Even Rey was killed. Can they deal with Lu Ming?

Of course, there are a lot of them on the scene, and there are some top-notch monsters. They have already broken through the four levels of the Divine Monarch, and even the Fivefold of the Divine Monarch. They used so many people together, and they could kill Lu Ming with the tactics of the sea.

But who will go first?

There is no doubt that the person who comes first is most dangerous and will most likely be killed by Lu Ming.

Everyone wants to let others go first, so for a time, no one at all.

"It seems that I dare not do it!"

Lu Ming said coldly, with a slight sarcasm in his voice, then turned and strode away.

Wherever he walked, the Tianjiao of all ethnic groups did not dare to block it, and they all dispersed, giving Lu Ming a way.

Soon, Lu Ming disappeared here.

"A condition for the great power of the Wings, just watching him slip away?"

Some people are not reconciled.

"Is there any way? This person Lu Ming is really too evil, but the Divine King is triple, it will become like this. If you dare to go to you, I will never stop you!"

"Let's go, I won't stop you!"

Everyone hit the mouth gun, and naturally no one dared to chase away.

"We are not Lu Ming's opponents. It does not mean that no one can kill Lu Ming. Don't forget that Lei Yi was not the only one who entered the Dragon Mother Star more than 30 years ago!"

Suddenly, someone spoke coldly and quietly.

Everyone was shocked.

It's true that the Tianjiao, who came in alive more than thirty years ago, is not the only one.

Some of the top clan have come in alive.

"Go, we will tell this news to spread, there will naturally be someone to ask Lu Ming's head!"

"go!"

Many people opened their mouths and left.

After Lu Ming left Canglang Lake, he did not return to Black Dragon Valley.

The Wing Terran has the power to grant Tianda and let people kill him. No one has done it before, and no one will be allowed to do it.

There are also those arrogances that entered the dragon clan star thirty years ago.

Through the battle with Lei, Lu Ming clearly realized that these days were terrible.

These people have been entering for decades, and one by one is unimaginable.

Rey, not counted as a top demon, is so powerful, if you come to a few top demon, Lu Ming is really not an opponent.

Or, with the presence of a seven-level god, Lu Ming just had to run obediently.

Therefore, if he returns to Heilonggu, he may affect the people of Heilonggu.

It would be better if someone else was not there.

Soon after, Lu Ming found a secret place.

A rather remote place, with a ground gap, entered the place and found a rather wide underground space below.

Sitting cross-legged, dozens of storage rings appeared in Lu Ming's hands, all of which were obtained from the Tianjiao of the Wing human race.

Lu Ming first took out Lei's storage ring and watched it.

At first glance, Lu Ming's eyes lit up.

Sure enough, there are gains.

Some common refining materials, elixir, artifact crystals, etc., were directly ignored by Lu Ming.

His eyes fell on some magic medicine.

There are dozens of magic medicines, and one strain of life energy is extremely rich.

Most of them are actually magic medicines that are useful for God Emperor Realm.

This kind of magic medicine has amazing effects, and it is difficult to refine the Divine Monarch Realm.

In addition, there are Shengyuan grass and Tianyuan fruit.

There are seven plants in Shengyuan Grass!

There are fifteen fruit in total.

Put them in two crystal clear boxes respectively.

Great harvest, absolute great harvest.

Lu Ming's eyes burst into a hot light.

Chapter 3643: Underwater Dragon Palace

Those magic medicines, Lu Ming can't be refined temporarily, but Shengyuan Grass and Tianyuan Fruit can be refined, which can improve Lu Ming's combat power.

Lu Ming speculates that the reason why Lei left these raw grass and Tianyuan fruit is because he has reached a bottleneck.

Rey's original divine power factor has been awakened six times. In the previous step, it was seven awakenings.

From six to seven times, the difficulty is too great, and it is far from being able to do with five strains of grass.

In addition, Rey's mystery of the original source cut off two chains, but to cut off three chains, it was by no means the fifteen Tianyuan can do it, so Rei stayed.

Of course, this is just Lu Ming's guess, there may be other reasons.

But for whatever reason, Lu Ming now owns it.

"Refinery!"

Lu Ming adjusted his breath for a while, adjusted his state to the best, then took out a plant of raw grass and swallowed it to refine it.

After all five plants were refined, there was no accident. Lu Ming's last divine power also achieved five awakenings.

In this way, Lu Ming's eleven divine awakenings were all awakened five times, very balanced.

After refining Shengyuan Grass, Lu Ming took out Tianyuan Fruit and refined it.

The time flickered and two months passed.

In two months, Lu Ming has refined all of Shengyuan Grass and Tianyuan Fruit. Eventually, the door of the original source of mystery also successfully cut off the third yoke.

In this way, Lu Ming has the Ba Shen Gun, the Bell of Heavenly Evil, the Boots of the Wind Destruction, and the Four Primal Mysteries of the Gate of Domination to cut off the second shackle.

"Underwater Dragon Palace, it seems to be going!"

Lu Ming took out the fantasy Shenyu and looked at it, then fell into contemplation.

During this time, Lu Ming will take out the fantasy * jade every three to five minutes, watch other people's movements, and see if someone finds him to kill him.

At the beginning, there were indeed Tianjiao who had been moving forward for more than 30 years and wanted to find Lu Ming, but unfortunately no trace of Lu Ming was found.

Later, the Dragon Mother Star had a major event that affected everyone's attention.

That is the Dragon Palace!

Someone found the trace of the Dragon Palace on the bottom of the sea.

What is the Dragon Palace?

According to legend, during the heyday of the Dragon Clan, the Dragon Palace was the largest force on the Dragon Clan's parent star, and there was no one.

It is the true holy land of the dragon clan, commanding the dragon clan in the world.

As soon as this news came out, it suddenly burst into a pot.

Compared with the Dragon Palace, other relics and holy places are very far away, and there is no way to compare them.

When I think of other ruins, there are such great opportunities, so what about the Dragon Palace?

All Tianjiao is boiling.

The arrogance of the three continents of the Dragon Mother Star converged on the sea and wanted to go to the Dragon Palace.

However, in front of the Dragon Palace, there are powerful sea beasts guarding, and the number is very large. During this time, all the arrogances of various ethnic groups gathered. It is said that even those arrogances that entered in 30 years ago appeared. To enter the Dragon Palace.

Recently, they have been fighting and killing many sea beasts, leaving only the last few sea beasts.

At this time, Lu Ming decided to leave.

He will not miss places like the Dragon Palace.

He is cultivating now, and he needs too many resources. Any chance should not be missed.

Lu Ming went directly to the sea.

The fantasy * jade is very lively, and countless people have talked about it.

Leaping across the boundless earth, after some trek, Lu Ming finally came to the sea.

The endless sea, I don't know how vast it is.

The waves roared, and a huge sea beast could be seen vaguely rolling over his body.

The ocean of the Dragon Mother Star is different from the ocean of ordinary planets.

The ocean of the general planet has no deterrent to Lu Ming.

However, the ocean of the Dragon Mother Star is different, still giving Lu Ming an unfathomable feeling and strong pressure, just like he was facing the ocean when he was in Yuanjie.

Taking a deep breath, Lu Ming rushed out and headed towards the destination.

A few days later, Lu Ming stopped.

"It should be around here!"

Lu Ming whispered, then plunged into the sea.

The sea is very deep, especially here is the location of the deep sea. Any place is tens of thousands of miles deep.

Lu Ming went straight down, deep in the seabed, it was already dark and there was no light at all.

But for Lu Ming, it is not a problem. The divine power gathers his eyes, and the dark seabed still looks like daylight.

In the ocean, huge sea beasts swam from time to time, but the coercion taken by Lu Ming did not dare to get close.

Soon, Lu Ming dived more than 20,000 miles.

"Someone!"

Suddenly, Lu Ming's eyes moved. Not far away, there were several figures heading in one direction, and Lu Ming was not found.

"Is it in that direction?"

Lu Ming's eyes moved.

Although he knew the approximate location, the specific address was not too clear. He had to look for it. Now that he saw other people, Lu Ming naturally followed him directly.

Lu Ming condensed his breath and followed behind a few people.

Underwater world, Lu Li is strange and dazzling, but Lu Ming has no mood to watch it.

After traveling about hundreds of thousands of miles, the number of people gradually increased.

All are the arrogance of all ethnic groups.

Group by group, distributed in the sea ahead.

Lu Ming did not come close, chose a secret rock, hid behind, and then took out the fantasy space to watch it.

Inside, there is the information he needs.

Sure enough, Tianjiao of all ethnic groups are discussing in the fantasy space.

It turned out that it is not far from the Dragon Palace, but there are still sea beasts blocking the road in front, but only a few sea beasts are left.

Some powerful races intend to unite with other races and fight together to destroy those sea beasts.

Start two hours later.

Lu Ming looked at it for a while and waited quietly.

Two hours passed by.

At this time, the Tianjiao of all ethnic groups really started to act, gathered together and headed forward.

Lu Ming was far behind.

Not far ahead is a trench, very wide and huge.

Tianjiao of all ethnic groups entered the trench and kept moving forward. Soon after, a giant appeared in front of them.

Creak...

The behemoths, red all over, made strange noises, and slayed towards the arrogance of all ethnic groups.

The lobsters, those behemoths, are actually lobsters, one hundred miles long.

Baili lobster!

"kill!"

Tianjiao of all ethnic groups also roared, their magical power burst out, and they rushed forward in the dark deep sea like big bulbs, killing them with those hundred-mile lobsters.

The combat power of those lobsters is very amazing, all of them are the cultivation of Divine Monarch Realm.

Their prawns must be swept across like sharp swords, breaking through the sea water, and if they are careless, they will be cut in two.

Their shrimp pliers are even more amazing, so sharp that they can even crush artifacts.

Chapter 3644: King Kong tribe

These lobsters are not only amazing in attack power, but also more powerful in defense. They are covered with a hard shell. Some weak people attack and fall on them, leaving only a shallow trace.

However, the arrogance of all ethnic groups adds up, the number is larger, and the number is dozens of times more than those of the lobster.

And many big clan set up battle front, the power is amazing.

Therefore, one person has a huge lobster that was broken through the defense and was beheaded here.

In particular, some of the arrogance attracted Lu Ming's attention.

These people, amazingly powerful, often kill a lobster group by one person, killing each powerful lobster.

"None of these people is weaker than Lei, some are even stronger. They should have entered the Dragon Mother Star more than thirty years ago!"

Lu Ming thought.

Fighting continued, Tianjiao of various races clearly prevailed, and those lobsters were removed one by one.

The war lasted for about an hour, and all the lobsters were killed.

Then, Tianjiao of all ethnic groups continued to move forward, but soon after, a large group of sea beasts blocked the road.

This is a group of huge crabs, which are bigger than those hundreds of miles of lobsters before, and are even more terrifying.

"This is the last batch of sea beasts. After killing these sea beasts, you can reach the Dragon Palace, rush!"

Someone shouted.

Indeed, from here, you can vaguely see the front, with the appearance of a palace, looming in the sea water.

In the eyes of many people, there was a blazing glow.

This is the Dragon Palace. Its status is the same as the highest holy place of the top clan such as angel clan and soul clan. How many treasures will there be?

If placed in the heyday of the Dragon tribe, they would not be able to enter.

If you can get some opportunities in it, you can fly into the sky.

Tianjiao of all ethnic groups is fiery in heart, with a strong fighting spirit, and rushes forward frantically, fighting with those crabs.

This fight is tragic.

The strength of these crabs is very amazing, and the speed is extremely fast, like the wind in the deep sea.

Tianjiao of all ethnic groups began to suffer a large number of casualties.

Although crabs are constantly being killed, Tianjiao of all ethnic groups have also been killed by crabs.

Deep in the sea, the * nose attracted many huge sea beasts and fish.

However, the strength of these sea beasts and fishes is a bit weak, and they feel the coercion of the vacancies here from afar. They dare not come close and run away.

This fight lasted for several hours.

Finally, Tianjiao of all ethnic groups had the upper hand completely, and each crab was hunted. Soon, the number of crabs was not much.

Tianjiao of all ethnic groups, after all, have an advantage in number and can also set up battle fronts.

"It's time to go out!"

Lu Ming whispered.

Seeing that the crabs are about to hunt out, in the future, it is the Dragon Palace. This is the time when it is dispatched, otherwise it may be late, you may miss the chance.

Uh!

Lu Ming rushed out and rushed into the crowd.

Many people's eyes turned to him, and they were startled.

"It's Lu Ming!"

"It's Lu Ming!"

Immediately, many people exclaimed and recognized Lu Ming.

Many eyes, looking at Lu Ming, there are fears, fiery, murderous...

There are all kinds of emotions.

Lu Ming was speechless.

He knew that as soon as he appeared, he would be recognized and attracted attention, so he rushed out at this time.

Because it is very difficult to cover up the identity of the Divine Monarch Realm.

He wanted to change his appearance and change his appearance. It was too easy. When his thoughts moved, his body would change.

However, the recognition of a person by the Divine Monarchy is not based on appearance, because any person can change his appearance at will.

Recognizing a person in a divine monarchy is based on the origin of life, and the origin of a person's life is difficult to change.

Therefore, even if Lu Ming is easy to be recognized, he is easily recognized by others, so he simply has no easy to be dressed and hides behind, only now appears.

call out!

At this moment, a huge crab rushed towards this side, a long foot, cut through the sea water, like a huge scimitar, and cut it towards everyone.

puff!

A weaker Tianjiao was careless about Lu Ming, and one was careless. He was crossed by the crab feet and cut directly into two.

The crab feet roared and slammed towards the landing.

Buzz!

Lu Ming appeared in his hand, waved it out, hit the crab legs, and a powerful force erupted. The crab legs burst directly, and the white crab meat flew.

Then, Lu Ming rushed out, very fast, a flash, and rushed to the top of the head of the crab, holding the gun in both hands, stabbed directly from the head of the crab.

The Cancer made a strange cry, and its huge body rolled violently, slowly losing its breath.

After easily killing a Cancer, Lu Ming stepped forward and greeted the second Cancer.

Although the fighting power of these giant crabs is very strong, they are still some distance away from Lu Ming. Soon, the second giant crab was also killed by Lu Ming.

At this time, there were fewer and fewer crabs, only a few dozen left.

The battle situation is doomed, and it won't take long for all the Cancers to be killed.

boom!

At this moment, Lu Ming felt the side, came a violent roar, a terrible air wave, surged towards the landing, the seawater was pressed together, and roared towards the landing.

Sneak attack!

Lu Ming's eyes were cold, and without hesitation, the Ba Shen Gun stabbed out sideways.

boom!

The Ba Shen Gun pierced the compressed seawater and pierced a golden fist. The power of terror erupted, and the force swept across the sea. The seawater of dozens of kilometers was blasted away, forming a vacuum.

You know, here is the sea floor tens of thousands of miles deep, and the sea water on the Dragon Mother Star is very amazing and contains terrible energy, which is not comparable to ordinary sea water.

Therefore, in the depths of tens of thousands of miles, the pressure of the sea water is quite small, but this is the case, the two collided and still bombarded the sea water for tens of kilometers.

This can be seen!

Lu Ming felt a mountain-like power surge, and his body shook and retreated backward.

"Good strength, even above Rey!"

Lu Ming moved.

Just now, he didn't use all his strength in his haste, so he was kicked back by the opponent.

But from that punch, Lu Ming can still feel that this person who attacks him is very powerful, because the opponent is just an ordinary punch.

Lu Ming looked forward.

I saw a young man with an extremely burly figure, about three meters tall, with a golden body and muscles like diamonds.

"Is this... King Kong?"

Lu Ming turned a thought in his head.

The King Kong tribe, which he had encountered before, was in the Qin Tianxing territory of the Taixu Holy Dynasty.

But the Vajra family there is just a branch, and the bloodline is not pure, which is very different from the real Vajra family.

The real Vajrasana people have amazing strength, and they can be ranked in the top two hundred in the Honghuang Wanzu list.

The Vajra family in front of him is obviously a pure Vajra family, with a flesh like Vajra.

Chapter 3645: sea snake

"It is the Golden Yan of the Vajrasana!"

"I heard that he also entered the Dragon Clan mother star more than thirty years ago, and is a top demon, with a stronger combat power than Rey!"

"It seems that he is staring at Lu Ming!"

"Normal, the Yiren Clan has created a condition, who doesn't want to be excited? It is estimated that the other people who have moved forward in the past 30 years are also excited!"

Four weeks, there was a lot of discussion.

"You are Lu Ming. It is said how powerful you are, but that's it!"

Jin Yan sneered, staring at Landing with a terrible gaze.

"You and I have no grievances and hatred. If you want to fight against my opponent, you must be prepared to be killed!"

Lu Ming spoke indifferently.

"Hahaha, you think you can kill Lei, you can kill me, tell you, I can kill Lei too!"

Jin Yan laughed, looking at the land and his eyes were fiery, like seeing a peerless treasure.

boom!

He stepped out, his muscles trembling like diamonds, and the surrounding seawater was drained directly.

With Jin Yan's steps, his breath became stronger and stronger, and soon rose to the top.

At the same time, a thin suit appeared on his body, covering him all over.

This is his original secret technique.

Although he despised Lu Ming in his mouth, he did not dare to despise it at all in his actions.

boom!

With a punch, the seawater in front of the fist kept exploding and compressing, turning into a terrifying attack, slamming toward Lu Ming.

"war!"

Lu Ming Changxiao, without fear, at this moment, he also broke out with full force, the war word tactics triggered five times the combat power, 18 drops of primordial blood, excited!

Ba Shen Gun cut off the energy of the second shackle and excite!

Buzz!

The Ba Shen Gun shook slightly, the surrounding seawater exploded, forming a vacuum, and then swept forward.

Boom~!

The Ba Shen Gun collided with Jin Yan's fist for the second time. The roar this time was ten times stronger than the previous one.

The seawater was evaporated, and the terrible force came out, forming a huge wave under the sea.

The arrogance of the other ethnic groups around them didn't dare to stay at all, and all backed away to a far place.

After the two made a match, they didn't step back and attacked the second move.

Boom!

The speed of both of them was amazing, and in a flash, they fought a dozen tricks. In this area, a big explosion occurred and became chaotic.

Jingle Bell!

After dozens of confrontations, Lu Ming used the Bell of Heavenly Evil. Then, the Gate of Domination also flew out, and suppressed toward Jin Yan.

"Soul attack, invalid for me, break me!"

Jin Yan Changxiao, the magical power burst, like the body of King Kong, actually radiating a radiant brilliance.

Undoubtedly, Jin Yan also practiced the physique mystery technique, and the fire has reached an alarming level. With his talents and power, Lu Ming has to pay attention.

To be honest, Jin Yan's combat strength is indeed better than Rey.

Rey, in fact, is just an ordinary arrogance, but good luck. He entered the dragon clan a few decades earlier. With the help of a large number of resources, he will cultivate into the deep realm, the source divine factor, and the source secret.

But other things are very common, such as the use of divine power, such as physical secrets, or other auxiliary secrets, etc., are very general.

Jin Yan is different. He was originally a top-notch demon. He not only cultivated his roots, his original divine power factor, his original secrets were powerful and profound, his physique secrets, auxiliary secrets, etc. were also incomparable.

Although his cultivation base is also the sixfold of Divine Monarch, his combat power is definitely above Rey.

Before switching to the battle with Lei, Lu Ming is probably not Jin Yan's opponent.

But now, all of his eleven kinds of divine power are huge five times, plus the door to dominate the second chain of shackles, this is not necessarily the case.

boom! boom!

The two sides' attacks, continuous collisions, and constant explosions, but in the end, the two are still inseparable.

In a blink of an eye, dozens of clashes again.

By this time, dozens of huge crabs had been hunted.

Tianjiao's eyes of all ethnic groups looked at the battlefield of Lu Ming and Jin Yan.

Some terrifying existence, eyes open and closed, seems to be considering whether to take down Lu Ming.

But at this moment, someone suddenly rushed towards the direction of the Dragon Palace.

"Oh, Dragon Palace..."

"Go, don't get preempted!"

"set off!"

Suddenly, the arrogance of all ethnic groups rushed towards the Dragon Palace.

Contrasting with the condition of the wing human power, it is obvious that the Dragon Palace is more attractive.

Some people originally wanted to shoot Lu Ming, but when they saw others rushing to the Dragon Palace, they could only give up and rush to the Dragon Palace.

boom!

Lu Ming and Jin Yan had a match, and both retreated.

"Boy, there is some strength. If something happens now, I will cut you off in another day!"

Jin Yan said something, and quickly rushed towards the direction of the Dragon Palace.

Lu Ming's eyes flashed, and eventually he didn't continue to do so.

It is difficult to defeat Jin Yan. The only way is to fight with Lei before, which takes time and consumes the other party's divine power.

And Jin Yan's defensive power is obviously stronger than Rey, and it will be more difficult to kill him.

Therefore, Lu Ming did not continue his hands, but also rushed towards the direction of the Dragon Palace.

Everyone used their full strength and hurriedly rushed, trying to rush into the Dragon Palace before others to gain a chance.

Roar!

At this moment, there was a roar, and then a giant appeared suddenly in front.

This is a sea snake, but it's too huge, and its huge body is meandering and undulating.

It opened its mouth, a terrible engulfing force exploded, flew at the forefront of some arrogance, screamed in horror, and wanted to retreat, but they found that they could not retreat at all, their bodies flew into the sea snake's mouth In the past.

"not good!"

"Do it, kill this sea snake!"

These people roared, and various attacks broke out.

Jian Guang, Dao Mang, etc., all cut towards the black snake.

However, after their attack flew out, they were affected by the engulfing force and became powerless. They landed on the sea snake's mouth and could not break through the other party's defense.

These days the arrogance shouted in despair, struggling frantically, but useless, one by one, swallowed into the mouth by the sea snake.

"Damn, damn..."

Among them is a young man, extremely powerful, screaming madly, struggling crazy.

Like a bright sun, he broke free from the engulfing force of the sea snake's mouth and was about to rush out.

This arrogance was definitely entered into the dragon clan star thirty years ago, and its combat power is not even weaker than that of Jin Yan.

And good at speed, just flew to the front.

Seeing that this young man was about to break free, but the next moment, a red light flashed out of the sea snake's mouth.

Everyone could see clearly that it was clearly the tongue of the sea snake.

The sea snake's tongue flashed and rolled towards the young man.

The young man roared and used all his strength. His hands chopped a bright divine light, which was extremely sharp. Unfortunately, he cut it on the tongue of the sea snake, but did not cut it off.

Chapter 3646: Compound poison

The sea snake's tongue swept out like a soft whip, and its speed was like lightning. Although the young man was strong, he could not escape at all and was directly entangled by his tongue.

The sound of broken bones sounded when the boy slammed hard, and the young man vomited blood, revealing a desperate look.

"Save me, save me..."

The youth screamed sternly.

However, it is impossible for someone to save him, because other Tianjiao have already backed away crazy, not to mention saved, and no one dares to stay even when staying.

Lu Ming retreated faster, stepped on the boots of the wind, and ran far away.

Just kidding, that sea snake is too scary.

Lu Ming has felt this kind of breath many times, no doubt, this is exactly the breath of the prospective emperor.

That one, Sea Snake, is a quasi-imperial existence.

Although the Tianjiao here is powerful, I am afraid that there are seven monsters of the gods in it, but don't forget, this is the deep sea, the sea snake's territory.

Sisi...

The sea snake roared, and his tongue rolled, and the young man was drawn into the end, disappeared, and then stared at the huge eyes, chasing toward the crowd.

"Run away!"

Everyone flies away furiously, how much power is used out of how much power.

Of course, some who are high are faster and run faster, while those who are lower are behind.

"No, help, help!"

"Don't you run, so many of us join forces, it may not be impossible to fight!"

Those who ran behind shouted sternly.

But who cares about them?

The sea snake that may not be able to deal with the joint battle, even if it can kill the other party, do not know how many people are going to fall, who wants to fall?

Therefore, nobody cares.

call out!

At this time, the scarlet tongue of the sea snake stretched out again, sweeping out like lightning.

Several Tianjiao were directly entangled, and let out a desperate roar.

But useless, the sea snake's tongue swallowed them into the mouth.

Those who ran behind, their hairs exploded, almost scared, and crying and crying.

"Give me the back!"

Suddenly, someone shot, and shot one person beside him, kicking the other person back with one foot.

"Ah, you mean..."

The man roared.

But this way, it also reminded others.

These people can't run faster than the previous ones, and they can't run sea snakes, but as long as they run past some other people, the chance of survival is great.

Therefore, those in the back have shot one by one, and started to the people next to them, or to the people in the front.

"you dare..."

"Broken dogs, you die..."

There was a roar, and there was a squabble, and the area behind it was a mess.

And some people who were slammed into the back were swallowed into the mouth by the sea snake.

"Damn, damn, run away!"

Those behind him, all the souls of the dead, the speed of the explosion.

In this way, they quickly flew out of the trench.

Fortunately, when all of them flew out of the trench, the sea snake was no longer chasing, and the indifferent eyes swept the crowd, and then slowly backed down, back into the trench, and disappeared.

Huh...

The group of Tianjiao behind them took a long breath and found that they were covered in cold sweat, and they were really scared to death just now.

During the escape just now, at least hundreds of Tianjiao were swallowed by the sea snake.

Seeing the sea snake retreating, the crowd ran for a while before stopping.

Lu Ming did not stay, and ran ahead. When he saw nobody, he found a secret place to hide.

"what should I do now?"

"That sea snake is too strong, the cultivation of the quasi-imperial realm, and it is still in the deep sea, but we can't deal with it!"

"Did the Dragon Palace just give up?"

It was very unwilling for everyone to discuss, and it was really unwilling for them to give up the Dragon Palace.

Unexpectedly, through the layers of sea beasts, finally there is a powerful sea snake blocking the road.

"Let's send it to Dream Space and ask the seniors of all races, is there a way?"

Someone suggested that it was affirmed by others.

Then, they sent the things just now to the fantasy space.

Sure enough, I got a reply soon.

Some people say that this kind of sea snake, called dragon-biting snake, likes to devour the dragon.

In the era of the prosperity of the Shenlong tribe, this sea snake was almost annihilated and hunted by the Shenlong tribe.

Unexpectedly, the guardian of the Dragon Palace was actually a dragon-biting snake.

At the same time, some senior figures have given suggestions. It is difficult to defeat a quasi-emperor dragon-biting snake with the strength of the dragon family star. The only way is to use poison.

Let the poisonous people refine the poison, and then grab some dragons, or real dragons, and put the poison on the other party.

The Dragon Eater likes to devour the Dragon Race. The Dragon Race has the blood of the Dragon Race on it. The Dragon Eater feels that it will definitely devour it. In this way, this Dragon Eater can be poisoned.

This is the advice given by the elders, and many people's eyes brightened.

"You thousands of poisonous tribes, can all be able to poison the dragon-snake?"

Some people looked at some races wearing colorful robes.

The Wandu tribe is also a big clan on the list of the Honghuang Wanzu. They are good at using poison. Their poison is very terrible and makes people frightened.

"Dragon Snake is very peculiar. It was okay to devour so many Tianjiao just now. I want to poison the other party with poison. It is not that simple. There is no such poison in our body!"

A ten thousand poisonous race proudly said.

"What? No poison like that?"

Everyone else showed disappointment.

"Although we don't have that kind of poison on our body, we can match it. I have more than 300 people here. If we work together, we can definitely configure it, but it will take some time!"

A ten thousand poisonous race proudly said.

"how long will it take?"

Many people's eyes lit up again.

"One month is enough!"

The pride of the Wandu tribe.

"Okay, then we will act separately, you configure poison, we go to catch the Dragon Clan, it is best to catch two real dragons!"

"Okay, go!"

Subsequently, Tianjiao of all ethnic groups split up.

Some people help the people of the poisonous tribe to find materials for disposing of poison, and some people go out to catch dragons or dragons.

Everyone's plan, Lu Ming used dream magic jade, all in his eyes.

"I'm going to catch the dragon and the dragon!"

Lu Ming shook his head.

However, there was no move.

Although he is very fond of the Dragon Clan and the Shenlong, he has limited abilities and cannot be saved.

Time passed quickly, and about half a month later, many people who had captured the dragons and the dragons returned.

"Haha, I caught an eight-claw dragon!"

A young man laughed, but it was Jin Yan of the Vajra clan.

Chapter 3647: Poisonous Dragon Snake

At this moment, Jin Yan was tens of thousands of meters high, walking on the seabed, covered with Jin Cancan, holding a divine dragon in one of his palms.

Octopus Dragon!

This eight-clawed dragon was constantly twisting and struggling, roaring constantly, but could not break free.

The difference between his and Jin Yan's cultivation practices is too great.

"An eight-clawed dragon, ha ha ha, that's great, the dragon-biting snake will definitely swallow him when he sees it!"

"This time the success rate is greatly improved!"

Many people laughed.

The blood veins of the eight-clawed dragon are more intense and naturally attract the dragon-biting snake. I believe that the dragon-biter snake will not miss the eight-clawed dragon.

Over the next half month, people kept returning.

But no one caught the Shenlong.

Today, the dragons appearing on the dragon clan's parent star are all the dragon clan Tianjiao that was sealed by the dragon clan strongman. At least they are all eight-claw * dragons, and there are not many.

They are hidden, but not so easy to find.

However, the Dragon Clan actually got back a lot.

When a month arrived, the people of the Wandu tribe also returned here.

"How is it? How is the poison made?"

Someone quickly asked.

"Rest assured, it's already refined, and just in case, we refined 36 at a stretch. Wait a few more dragons to enter, and put one on each body, just in case!"

A ten thousand poisonous race proudly said.

Afterwards, everyone began to prepare to place poison on the Dragon Clan and the Octopus Dragon.

These dragon-human races and eight-claw divine dragons were controlled, unable to move, and difficult to resist.

The poison was put away, and then began to arrange people who poisoned.

Those who are weak are naturally afraid to go.

In the end, a group of people with advanced skills and speed were selected.

These people, fully prepared and carrying various treasures, all have a bonus to speed.

For example, the sign that can speed up, the artifact that speeds up, etc.

Ready to prepare, these people carried the Dragon Clan and the Eight-claw Divine Dragon again into the trench, and the others waited quietly.

Success or failure is here.

Soon after, I saw the people who had just entered and rushed out in a hurry.

"how about it?"

Someone quickly asked.

"I planted a set of flags in it, observable!"

A young man finished, took out a jade symbol, the jade symbol glowed, and then a picture appeared.

In the deep and dark trench, eight eight-clawed dragons and dragons were thrown on the ground. The location is probably the location where they hunted those giant crabs, or some more inside.

Everyone's eyes are gathered on this picture, can you attract the dragon-biting snake?

They did not notice that Lu Ming appeared silently not far away, and looked at all this in his eyes.

Time flies quietly in a tense atmosphere.

Suddenly, in the darkness, a giant appeared.

"Appeared!"

Many people jumped in their hearts.

That behemoth was the dragon-eater.

The eyes of the dragon-snake were all greedy, staring at the eight-clawed dragon, as well as the dragon human races, swimming towards it.

Then, a scarlet snake letter swept out, entwined the eight-claw dragon, and swallowed the eight-claw dragon.

After swallowing the mouth, the Dragon Snake was not satisfied, opened his mouth, and a strong attraction broke out, swallowing the remaining Dragon Clan one by one.

"it is good!"

Everyone applauded loudly, and then continued to wait nervously.

Can those poisons solve the Dragon Snake?

Soon, the answer was given.

The dragon-biting snake swallowed the eight-clawed dragon and the dragon human race. It took less than a minute before the dragon-biting snake snarled, then twisted wildly on the ground and rolled.

Stirring muddy water, sea water shaking, ground shaking, even if they are so far away, they can clearly feel it.

Many people looked pale, but fortunately they were so far away, the dragon-eater was stronger than they thought.

The Dragon Snake rolled over and over for half an hour before the movement slowly slowed down. In the end, he slumped weakly on the ground, motionless.

"do you died?"

Someone whispered, revealing doubts.

"It must be dead. This dragon-biting snake has a big appetite and swallowed all the poison. Even if he is strong, there is only one way to die!"

A young man of ten thousand poisonous people sneered and was very confident.

"Go, let's go in!"

Seeing that the Dragon Snake had been poisoned, some people couldn't help but flew into the trench.

The same is true of others, flying towards the trench, fearing that they will slow down others.

Lu Ming also followed behind.

Soon, everyone entered the depths of the trench and saw the dragon-eater snake.

The Dragon Eater is so huge, I don't know how long it is, and it is paralyzed on the ground. It seems to have no breath.

On the ground, pits and pits appeared, one after another long pits.

"What a terrible power!"

Someone whispered.

You know, everything on the Dragon Mother Star is very solid, not comparable to other planets, this is a planet that was bred from the beginning of heaven and earth.

In this trench, under the strong water pressure all year round, the rocks became harder, like * iron. Before the battle between the people and the sea beasts, the energy fell on these rocks, leaving only slight traces.

The dragon-eater, however, messed up the trench, showing the power of this dragon-eater.

"Hey, no matter how strong it is, it is a dead end under the poison of my thousand poisonous races!"

The Tiantian of the Wandu tribe was very proud and came to the Dragon Snake, looking at it with a sneer.

Others also flew by the dragon snake's head.

At this moment, the dragon-biting snake that was paralyzed there motionlessly, suddenly opened his eyes, and then, the huge body twisted, and the huge head, like a hill, bumped towards a group of young people on the side.

bump!

A huge roar sounded, and the youths were directly burst apart by the collision and fell to the spot.

In a flash, at least dozens of arrogances of all ethnic groups died.

In particular, the people of the Wandu tribe are the most miserable. Recently, the one who was just killed was at least half of them.

Suddenly, the other people died.

"Ah, no, the Dragon Snake is not dead!"

"It just pretended to die, escape!"

All ethnic groups roared with arrogance.

Sisi...

The dragon-biting snake roared, its huge body twisted and rammed, and at the same time, the snake's tail waved and pumped towards some arrogance.

The sound of bursting kept coming, and there was a constant fall of arrogance.

"Block it!"

"kill!"

Someone shouted, radiating a dazzling divine light, slamming towards the dragon-biting snake. In this area, a big explosion occurred, and the seawater stirred.

In the end, it was blocked.

Many people's eyes shine!

"Don't panic, everyone, this dragon-biting snake is very poisoned, there is not much power, it is the end of the strong crossbow, we join forces and will be able to kill it!"

Someone shouted, a creature with two wolf heads.

Chapter 3648: Tortoise Pack Hall

Two-headed wolf tribe, an extremely powerful race in the Honghuang Wanzu list.

This man also entered the dragon clan star thirty years ago. His strength is extremely powerful, and his cultivation is called horror.

He roared with two wolf heads, and a divine light erupted from his mouth, blocking the attack of the Dragon Snake.

Many people see their eyes when they see this.

Yes, this dragon-eater snake is indeed much weaker, and its combat power is much worse than before. If before, the two-headed wolf tribe Tianjiao can't stop it.

But now, it can be blocked.

"Join together and kill him!"

Jin Yan, the Vajra clan, also stopped.

"Holy King Kong!"

Jin Yan shouted, his body became bigger, his dazzling light, his fists blasted out continuously, the sea burst, and his terrifying fist slammed towards the Dragon Snake.

"Fei Xue Jian Jue!"

"Aohan Daoguang!"

...

In an instant, all kinds of terrifying attacks rushed towards the Dragon Eater.

All Tianjiao have joined forces. Various attacks have formed an attack torrent. The power is incredibly amazing.

At last, the Dragon Snake couldn't resist it, and it rolled out, the scales on his body were knocked open, and there were scars.

"Attack its head and key!"

The Tianjiao of the double-headed wolf clan shouted. He turned into a giant wolf with two heads. It was very fast. It jumped in the air and rushed to the head of the dragon bite snake. In his eyes, he directly blasted one of the eyes of the Dragon Snake.

The Dragon Eater roared, spit out the snake letter, and wanted to win the double-headed wolf clan, but he easily flashed away.

The strength of the Dragon Eater did indeed decline very badly, the attack speed was a lot slower, and it could not keep up with the speed of the double-headed wolf clan.

The Dragon Eater snarled unwillingly, but the result was already doomed.

The poison of the Wandu tribe is indeed very powerful, causing it to be hit hard, and it has little strength when the drug continues to attack.

The result has been destined that under the siege of so many days of arrogance, the dragon-biting snake was full of wounds. After a few minutes, the dragon-biting snake was paralyzed on the ground, and there was no breath at all. This time, it was really dead.

"Damn beast!"

The people of the Wandu tribe were very angry, waving their hands continuously, and constantly poisonous gas rushed into the mouth and nose of the dragon snake.

The Dragon Eater was just amazing. At least dozens of tens of thousands of poisonous tribes fell down, making them extremely angry.

However, other people are too lazy to control. In their view, the more the Wandu tribe falls, the smaller their competition will be.

At this moment, someone was already rushing towards the Dragon Palace.

"go!"

Others also reacted and flew in one after another.

Of course, this time, everyone was a lot more careful and put a lot of defense in front of them. Who knows, is there any danger?

If another dragon-biting snake ran out, wouldn't he vomit blood?

However, they thought about it. Next, there was no crisis.

Soon, they came deep into the trench.

However, when they got here, they stopped.

"This is the Dragon Palace?"

Some people are puzzled.

Before, they were in the distance and could see the corner of the palace.

When they walked in, they could only see the corner of the palace.

Yes, it is really a corner of the palace. The other parts are buried in the rock, only one corner is exposed.

"Don't the Dragon Palace be buried underground?"

"It seems, very likely, it seems that we have to dig our own!"

"The rocks here are extremely hard, and I don't know how long it will take!"

There was a lot of discussion, and obviously, this scene was beyond everyone's expectations.

The gate of the Dragon Palace is really not easy to enter.

"Do it!"

Humane, don't want to wait, start digging rocks.

"Wait!"

Suddenly, someone called.

"what happened?"

Someone asked.

"I don't feel right. Have you felt that the ground is shaking?"

A youth with a particularly big ear.

This is a pride of the big ear tribe.

"The ground is shaking?"

Many people show their doubts, but more dignified.

They know that people with big ears are very talented, have amazing hearing ability, and can hear very subtle movements that ordinary people cannot hear.

"Rewind!"

Some people were scared and stepped back.

Others followed, and stepped back a distance.

Rumble~

At this time, a dull voice came.

This time, everyone heard.

"Retreat!"

The crowd retreated because they felt the roar coming from under their feet.

At the next moment, the roar became louder and louder, and then, on the ground, a series of cracks appeared.

There were more and more cracks, and soon the ground was covered.

Rumble!

Bang Bang Bang!

The loud noise kept coming.

The ground exploded, the rocks splashed, and then a huge palace rose from the ground.

"Dragon Palace has risen!"

"Dragon Palace is coming!"

Many people exclaimed, revealing surprise.

Unexpectedly, without them digging by themselves, the Dragon Palace appeared on its own.

This is great.

But immediately, everyone's voice stopped abruptly.

Everyone, including Lu Ming, couldn't help but stare at the front, to be precise, at the bottom of the palace.

Under the huge palace, a huge creature appeared.

This is a turtle.

A giant tortoise, I don't know how big it is. On the back of the turtle is the Dragon Palace.

The legendary Dragon Palace actually sits on the back of a turtle.

The most important thing is that this turtle is still alive, opened his eyes and looked at Lu Ming and others.

Everyone's muscles could not help tightening together, as if the heartbeat was about to stop.

The legendary dragon palace was actually built on the back of a huge turtle, so how powerful is this turtle?

At this moment, all ethnic groups are arrogant and their faces look ugly.

Needless to say, this tortoise is absolutely unimaginable, and I am afraid that with a sigh of breath, all the people present can be wiped out.

Everyone tensed their bodies, dared not move, and the atmosphere dared not breathe.

As for escape, there is no such thing.

Escape in front of such existence, it is undoubtedly to find death, and it is impossible to escape.

However, the giant turtle seems to have no interest in the crowd.

He was carrying the Dragon Palace, and after appearing, he continued to lie on the ground, closing his eyes, without any movement, as if it had turned into a huge rock.

Everyone looked at each other.

But he was relieved.

"What's going on? Is this turtle, regardless of us?"

"Maybe, he deliberately came out to let the Dragon Palace appear, just to let us in!"

"Is there such a thing?"

Everyone was puzzled, but for a time, no one dared to step forward.

Just kidding, it's too dangerous to go up now.

The crowd looked at the Dragon Palace ahead, and the scene froze.

Everyone waits for others to come forward and try it out, but who is so stupid?

Chapter 3649: Empty dragon palace

In this way, after a stalemate for several hours, no one moved.

"Well, I control poisonous insects, go up and experiment!"

Finally, some people couldn't help it, and they were still the people of the poisonous race.

People of the ten thousand poisonous tribes usually keep some poisonous insects on their bodies and can use the poisonous insects to fight against the enemy.

"Okay, give it a try!"

Others' eyes brightened.

Then, a young man of ten thousand poisonous clan waved a dozen poisonous insects, including centipedes, scorpion spiders, dozens of poisonous insects, and flew towards the dragon palace.

Uh, uh...

Others, drove back neatly.

Thousands of poisonous people: ...

In the eyes of everyone's nervous expectation, a dozen kinds of poisonous insects entered the scope of the Dragon Palace.

Nothing!

The turtle didn't move at all, as if it really turned into a stone.

It can be seen that the gate of the Dragon Palace is open. A dozen poisonous insects climbed into the gate of the Dragon Palace and disappeared.

The turtle still hasn't moved.

"Really, we can go in!"

Some people's eyes shine, but they still dare not step forward.

"Try two beasts!"

Someone reminded.

Poisonous insects, after all, are just bugs, and although they can get in, they are still uneasy.

In the end, several people released the beast.

Some people will take their beasts with them and fight together at critical moments.

Several huge beasts, full of blood, rushed into the gate of the Dragon Palace, and it was still fine.

"It seems really fine!"

"Go, seek wealth and wealth, how to practice if you are afraid of that?"

Finally, the courageous can't help but converge, and rushed towards the gate of the Dragon Palace, and soon rushed into the gate, still nothing.

"It's really okay, go!"

At this time, everyone could not sit still and rushed to the gate of the Dragon Palace.

Lu Minghe followed the crowd and rushed to the gate of the Dragon Palace.

The Dragon Palace is huge. I don't know how much it covers. Even if it's just a gate, they are all amazing.

Nothing unusual, they successfully rushed into the door.

Behind the gate, there are huge corridors leading to different directions.

Uh, uh...

The figure flashed, and the arrogance of all ethnic groups rushed towards different corridors.

At this moment, it was not that no one found Lu Ming, but they were more interested in the treasures of the Dragon Palace than Lu Ming.

Tianjiao of all ethnic groups soon disappeared into the huge dragon palace.

Lu Ming also chose a corridor to run away.

The house of the Dragon Palace is very huge. This should be related to the body shape of the Dragon tribe, so it was built very large.

One after another, the main hall, one set after another...

Lu Ming rushed through several sets of palaces in succession, but was disappointed and got nothing.

Where is there any treasure?

There is nothing in the huge dragon palace.

"What happened, there was nothing?"

"This is the Dragon Palace? It's deceiving, I am grass!"

Many people scolded, and it was estimated that the result was the same as Lu Ming, and they got nothing.

It wasn't that someone was the first to get in, because there were a few palaces, and absolutely no one went in. After Lu Ming went in, he found nothing.

Everyone was unwilling.

After a lot of hard work, it is difficult to come to the Dragon Palace. Do you want to go back empty-handed?

The crowd continued to go deep into the Dragon Palace.

Perhaps there is a treasure house in the Dragon Palace, and all the treasures are collected in the treasure house?

The crowd continued to search, but after a few hours, the crowd was disappointed.

There was nothing, and it was found everywhere.

This is an empty dragon palace.

"There was a discovery behind the Dragon Palace!"

"Go, hurry up and see!"

Many people rushed towards the back of the Dragon Palace.

Because someone just sent a message in Dream Space, saying that behind the Dragon Palace, there was a major discovery.

Lu Ming naturally saw it, too, and left towards the back of the Dragon Palace.

Bending around, I don't know how many palaces were spared, and my vision suddenly widened.

An empty space appeared in front of Lu Ming's eyes.

This open space is very large and can't be seen at a glance.

At this time, a large number of people have gathered in this open space.

Tianjiao of all ethnic groups have come.

Everyone carefully examined the open space under their feet.

Lu Ming also found something wrong.

This open space is very peculiar. On the ground, there is a striped road. These lines are irregularly curved, but intertwined with each other, forming a strange pattern.

It's like a pattern on a turtle's back.

"This should be a formation!"

Someone made a conclusion.

"What kind of formation?"

Someone asked.

"An array like a portal, as long as you open this array, you can go to a place!"

Before that humane.

"A portal-like formation?"

Many people's eyes light up.

They all thought of a place to go.

Dragon Palace Treasure! !

That's right!

In the Dragon Palace, there is nothing. Will all the treasures be transferred to one place, and the gate is the formation in front of you?

"Can this big battle be broken?"

Someone asked.

"It takes a while, it should not be difficult!"

A young man answered.

The arrogance here comes from the major races of the Honghuang Universe, each of which is different.

Some races are very good at formation.

"Okay, let's get started!"

Everyone said, some can't wait.

Then, some who are good at formation, began to study formation.

Uh...

Suddenly, the figure flashed, and several figures surrounded Lu Ming Tuan.

"Lu Ming, you really dare to come. I didn't take care of you before. Now, let me die!"

Jin Yan spoke indifferently.

In the voice, there is a rich murder.

The other few people are also the top evils of the Vajra family.

Others' eyes also looked at this side.

Then, the figure flashed, and several people rushed over, a strong breath, enveloped Lu Ming.

"This kid is mine!"

One of the young men with eight arms sneered.

This is also a top-notch Tianjiao, who entered the Dragon Mother Star more than 30 years ago, and now has reached the sixfold realm of Divine King, and its strength is not weaker than that of Jin Yan.

This person also took several powerful tribes to surround Lu Ming.

"Alright, this kid is not weak. You and I join forces to get a bigger one!"

Jin Yandao.

"Count me!"

Another indifferent voice sounded, and a young man with green skin came over. The person knew at a glance that it was a vine, and his hair was vines, like snakes dancing.

Lu Ming once killed the arrogance of a vine clan. This person wanted to avenge the vine clan.

This is also a top powerhouse.

The three top powerhouses, as well as more than ten other evil masters, will stabilize Lu Ming.

Around, there are other top experts, such as the two-headed wolf family, did not participate.

I am afraid that these people do not want to participate, but rather sit on the hill to watch the tigers and take advantage of the fishermen.

After all, no one does not want to be a condition for the power of the Wings.

Chapter 3650: The Breaking Method

Lu Ming's face froze.

These people, as if he is a soft persimmon, do you knead at will?

"kill!"

Suddenly, Lu Ming shot, stepped on the boots of the wind, and rushed away in one direction, and the dazzling spear pierced in that direction.

Get started first!

However, Jin Yan and others were already prepared.

As soon as Lu Ming shot, Jin Yan and others also shot.

Boom!

A powerful breath broke out, and Jin Yan and others were all radiant.

"This kid is going to run away!"

"Stop him, don't let him run away!"

The roar sounded, Jin Yan, and the master of the vine clan, rushed towards the landing.

The terrifying punches, and the emerald green vines, lingered toward the landing.

"boom!"

Lu Ming sacrificed directly out of the door of the ruler and stopped in front of him.

The attack of the Jinyan and the Vine Clan's Tianjiao fell on the Gate of the Dominance, and the Gate of the Juggernaut kept shaking, but now the Gate of the Judgement was anyway to cut off the two shackles, successfully blocking the Jinyan and the Vine Clan's Tianjiao attack.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Lu Ming turned around and rushed in another direction.

Jingle Bell!

In the process of rushing out, the bell of heavenly evil sounded.

The soul attack of Bell of Heavenly Evil, pervading the three strongest masters such as Bafang and Jin Yan, is nothing, but the actions of others are stiff.

Such a rigidity determines their destiny.

call out! call out!

The Ba Shen Gun was transformed into two dazzling lances that pierced the arrogance of the two Dobbys.

Multi-armed, some have four arms, and some have six arms. The more arms, the higher the talent.

Lu Ming's two multi-armed tribes have six arms, are very talented, and have four levels of cultivation skills. They are the top demon who recently entered the dragon clan star.

However, in the face of Lu Ming now, he was vulnerable.

Puff!

Two roars sounded, blood was splattered, and the two arrogant tribes were directly killed and fell on the spot.

"Damn!"

The Doubi tribe with eight arms, roared, and his eight palms all shone with light, and each hand burst out a terrible attack, killing Lu Ming, with amazing power.

Lu Ming shook the Ba Shen Gun and continued to confront.

This person is really strong, Lu Ming broke out with all his strength, and could only barely block the other party's attack.

At this time, the Tianjiao of Jin Yan and Vine Clan also killed up.

"Other people back away, the auxiliary attack is enough!"

Jin Yan shouted.

On the scene, only three top masters could fight Lu Ming. The others came up and were likely to be killed by Lu Ming, so Jin Yan threw the others to hide away, as long as he tried to interfere with Lu Ming.

Several youths of the Jinyan and Doubian tribes quickly retreated, to distance themselves from Lu Ming.

The three men, Jin Yan, launched a stormy offensive.

"kill!"

Lu Ming urged the door of the ruler with all his strength. A vortex appeared on the door of the ruler, and there was a roar of roar inside. Then a scaly arm protruded out and grabbed toward Jin Yan.

boom!

Jin Yan banged out with a punch, and made a move with the arm in the Gate of Domination. Immediately afterwards, Lu Ming waved the Ba Shen Gun and stab him at Jin Yan.

Two consecutive attacks pushed Jin Yan back backwards.

Lu Ming took the opportunity to pass by.

"Not playing with you anymore!"

Lu Ming's faint voice sounded, and quickly distanced himself from Jin Yan and others.

Faced with three such masters, Lu Ming is indeed not an opponent, but he wants to go, and with the speed of the wind extinguishing boots, the other party can't stop him.

"Damn, don't go if you have a species!"

Jin Yan roared.

"Are you stupid or am I stupid? You three princes and six heavy men, besieged one of me, and asked me not to leave. Are you really arrogant?"

Lu Ming used the word "Tianjiao" in his special bite, which was full of deep taunt.

This made Jin Yan a little ugly.

"Look, what is this?"

Suddenly, a cry rang out.

Everyone looked at it, and then they were all stunned.

I saw that the two dooby tribes Tianjiao killed by Lu Ming just fell to the ground. Their blood bleed out and were absorbed by the ground. On the ground, those lines gleamed with blood red light, as if they were alive.

"I know, this method of cracking is very simple, as long as the blood is poured!"

A young man who cracked the array before shouted.

Everyone was shocked.

As long as the blood is poured, this method is very simple!

Ah~!

Suddenly a scream came.

It turned out that someone suddenly started to kill someone around him.

"Damn, you are so bold!"

"Flying fish people, die!"

"You attack, you mean!"

The chaos broke out at once.

The arrogance of the various races on the scene came from different races. Many races were hostile to each other. In the past, for the common goal, and other races were eyeing on the side, they did not start.

But at this time, knowing that the way to break the formation is to pour blood, some people can't help but directly start to kill those who have hatred.

"Use your blood to start the big battle!"

"Use your mother, you are about the same, kill!"

"Go to die!"

At the scene, caught in a mixed round, the people fought fiercely together.

Jin Yan, a few people from the multi-arm tribe Tianjiao, also stopped themselves against Lu Ming and stayed with their tribe to avoid being killed by others.

Because some terrible evildoers also shot.

In addition, some terrible existence originally wanted to take the opportunity to shoot Lu Ming, and now it has to stop.

In a dogfight, a large number of people of all ethnic groups were killed, and in a while, hundreds of people died.

These people fell to the ground, and blood flowed out and were absorbed by the ground.

The blood circulated along the lines on the ground, emitting a dazzling light.

When all the lines are flowing with blood, when all the lines are running through, suddenly, a beam of light rises into the sky, and the whole ground is glowing, even with a slight vibration.

"The big battle is about to start!"

Someone yelled, and many people quickly went on strike and retreated towards the surroundings.

However, some people have red eyes, and since they are fighting, they look like they will kill their opponents.

Click!

The ground made a clicking sound, and those lines seemed to be cracked, and at the same time, a hot breath filled out.

This scorching breath is very hot and the temperature is amazing, many people feel that their whole body is going to burn.

This time, those who were still fighting, dared not to continue fighting, and stopped one after another, rushed towards the surroundings, and came to a place without lines.

It's strange that the places without lines are not hot at all.

At this time, the ground had become fiery red, as if the flame was burning.

After a moment...

With a bang, the ground exploded directly, and then a dark channel with fiery red glow appeared in front of everyone.
