

D Emperor 3691

Chapter 3691: Are not there

Feihuang nodded and said, "I am her master, and of course I know him. Her life is called Xie Nianqing, and the previous life is called Tang Qing. Well, I am a master of her previous life!"

"Master Xiaoqing!"

Lu Ming's eyes lit up.

No wonder the other party will look at him with that kind of vision, it turned out to be Master Xie Nianqing.

"It turned out to be Xiaoqing's Master, Lu Ming, to meet seniors!"

Lu Ming performed a more respectful ceremony and then asked: "Senior, Xiaoqing left a map at the time, the target is the Dragon clan star, but don't know where Xiaoqing is now?"

"Xiaoqing, not on the Dragon Mother Star!"

Flying Phoenix Road.

"Not here?"

Lu Ming showed disappointment.

At the same time, I was puzzled. Since Xie Nianqing was not in the Dragon Mother Star, why did he leave a map and instruct him to come?

Did Xie Nianqing leave early before he came?

Seemingly seeing Lu Ming's doubts, Feihuang said: "Xiaoqing has never been to the Dragon Clan Star, she is practicing in another place that is more suitable for her, and guiding you to the Dragon Clan Star is what I mean!"

"Predecessor's meaning?"

Lu Ming was even more puzzled.

"Yes, I mean, at that time, I passed the news with Xiaoqing. I want to guide you to try to integrate the power of taboo. Xiaoqing also agreed. This is after all a great opportunity, and she treats you , Very confident!"

Flying Phoenix Road.

"It turns out so!"

Lu Ming nodded, depressed his disappointment, and said: "How can the senior know in advance that I can integrate successfully?"

"I do not know!"

Feihuang shook his head and said, "This is a long story. In fact, in Xiaoqian World, when you were with Xiaoqing, I paid attention to you. At the same time, I calculated your fate!"

"Your fate is different, I can't figure it out at all!"

"Ordinary people, predicting their fate, can vaguely see each other's long fate and future direction, but you, I can't see it!"

"Fortune-telling, can you spy on the future destiny of others?"

Lu Ming's eyes widened. This method was incredible.

In the stingy world, the heavens of Xiaoqian world gave birth to the law of destiny.

But that was just a special method of attack. It was impossible to spy on the fate of the victim.

In the Great Thousand World, Flying Phoenix can do it, Lu Ming has to be shocked.

"Just barely snooping, every creature, the future destiny, there are countless changes, every step, every sentence said, will produce a different destiny!"

"But you are completely unable to spy on, the future is blurred. Such people are extremely rare. In many cases, they can create miracles, so I will guide you to the Dragon Mother Star!"

Flying Phoenix explained.

Lu Ming little bit.

The doubt in my heart finally understood.

It turned out that Xie Nianqing was not here, but was practicing in another place.

But she knew that the dragon clan had a forbidden power.

Feihuang wanted Lu Ming to give it a try, and Xie Nianqing naturally agreed, so he left a map for Lu Ming.

The reason why Lu Mingxiu came to be above the God King is because if the cultivation level is too low, it is useless to come. I am afraid that it will not be able to enter the dragon clan star, and it will be very dangerous in the face of the arrogance of various clan.

"Senior, can you take me to see Xiaoqing?"

Lu Ming said.

"Not for now!"

Feihuang said: "Now, Xiaoqing is practicing in an extremely secret place. When it's critical, you can't bother!"

Lu Ming sighed sadly.

I originally thought that I could see Xie Nianqing on the Dragon Star's mother star, but I never saw it.

After thinking of Xie Nianqing, Lu Ming thought of Qiuyue again, and his heart moved.

Qiuyue, it is also possible to come to the dragon clan star.

Earlier, I heard Yale Tianjun shouting, saying that Ao Qian and the will of the Dragon clan had merged. The other party was so powerful. As long as Qiuyue was on the Dragon clan, should the other party know?

Thinking of this, Lu Ming immediately clenched fists to Ao Qian and said, "Senior, Lu Ming wants to inquire about someone to the senior!"

"Please speak!"

Ao Qian smiled.

Lu Ming merged the power of taboo, with a powerful talent that is unbelievable and destined to be extraordinary.

In the future, if he grows up, it is normal to match him or even surpass him.

Therefore, he was very kind to Lu Ming.

Faintly treated as a character of the same level.

Immediately, Lu Ming took out a jade charm and input divine power, and Qiuyue's portrait appeared in the air.

"Ok?"

When Ao Qian watched, he gave a soft hum, and seemed to be thinking.

Lu Ming looked nervously.

"I've seen this girl!"

After a while, Ao Qing nodded.

Lu Ming's eyes lit up, and he was overjoyed.

"Senior, where is she?"

Lu Ming asked quickly.

"Not in the Dragon Mother Star!"

Ao Qing shook his head again.

"Not in the Dragon Mother Star?"

Lu Ming wondered.

Not in the dragon clan, how did Ao Qian see him?

"I'm afraid you want to see this girl, it's hard!"

Then Ao Qian sighed again.

Lu Ming's heart tightened, it was difficult to see, what does it mean?

Lu Ming was anxious and asked, "Senior, what do you mean?"

Ao Qian didn't answer Lu Ming's question positively, and continued: "I am a remnant of souls, blending with the will of the parent star, I am equivalent to the parent star, I can feel anywhere on the parent star!"

"Especially some branches of the original Dragon family, the transmission channel to the parent star, I can clearly feel it!"

"Some time ago, the girl you mentioned took a teleport from a branch of the dragon family, and would have reached the parent star, but was intercepted by someone halfway!"

Ao Qiandao.

"Someone intercepted?"

Lu Ming was shocked.

Was intercepted? What means?

"Moreover, the person who intercepted the girl should be a big man in the Dream Palace!"

Ao Qiandao.

"What? The big man in Fantasy Tiangong, how could Dream Tiangong intercept Qiuyue?"

Lu Ming was even more shocked.

Honghuang Universe, there are more than one Tiangong, and Dream Tiangong is one of them.

However, why did the big guys in the fantasy palace intercept Qiuyue?

"Lu Ming, you can rest assured that the big guys like Tiangong generally don't shoot at the younger generation. If the other person intercepts the girl, it may be because of her talent and wants to be recruited into Tiangong!"

"Tian Gong, secretly will receive some talented arrogant cultivation, this is normal!"

Ao Qiandao.

Listening to the other party saying this, Lu Ming put a little bit of snacks, but still very anxious.

At the same time, Lu Ming was quite depressed. This time he came to the dragon clan's parent star, originally looking for Xie Nianqing and Qiuyue, but the result was not found by anyone.

Lu Ming took a deep breath and calmed himself slowly.

At least, he knew that Xie Nianqing was safe to practice in one place.

And Qiuyue, most likely, was taken by Tiangong and secretly cultivated, without danger to life, which is enough.

See you sooner or later as long as you are alive.

Chapter 3692: The training method of taboo power

After restoring calm, Lu Ming thought of the 'Forbidden Power' again.

"Senior, you said that the power of the forbidden land is so powerful, but how do you practice? I am now incorporating the power of the taboo, and suppress all other divine powers, and other divine powers are difficult to improve!"

Lu Ming asked, somewhat depressed.

Other divine powers cannot be improved, and the taboo power, he does not know how to practice.

Both Feihuang and Ao Qian smiled at each other.

"You have incorporated the power of taboo, and other divine powers cannot be cultivated, which is normal!"

"The power of taboo is the most powerful force derived from the vast universe. The other divine power and the power of taboo must be suppressed and difficult to improve!"

Flying Phoenix Road.

"Then... how do I practice in the future?"

Lu Ming asked silently.

"Relax, I will guide you to merge the power of taboo, there is naturally a way for you to practice!"

Flying Phoenix Road.

"She was also a blend of taboos!"

Ao Qian smiled, very envious.

"It also incorporates the power of taboos?"

Lu Ming's eyes lit up.

Flying Phoenix has also incorporated the power of taboos, and cultivation has reached an unpredictable state.

Flying Phoenix must be able to practice, then he can also practice.

Lu Ming looked at Feihuang with burning eyes.

"Now, if you want to practice, there are only two ways!"

Sure enough, Feihuang began to speak.

"The first method is to abandon other divine powers, specialize in a taboo power, and abolish other divine powers!"

Flying Phoenix Road.

"Abolish other divine powers?"

The boss with Lu Ming's mouth open.

This may not be a solution, but he is not reconciled.

It has been hard work and practice for thousands of years, and only then has this practice.

And he controlled eleven kinds of divine powers, eleven kinds of original secret techniques, all cultivated to such a high level, just discarded like this, it was more painful than cutting meat.

"Senior, what about the second option?"

Lu Ming asked blabberingly.

"I know that you are not reconciled. The second way, you don't have to abandon your other divine powers. I will pass a secret technique that will allow you to separate the taboo power from other divine powers!"

"This mysterious technique, called the technique of cutting three corpses, can completely cut the past, present, and future into three different individuals!"

Introduction of Flying Phoenix.

Then, Lu Ming froze.

Was shocked by this secret technique.

What kind of mystery is it to split the past, present and future into different individuals? There is such a mystery between heaven and earth.

"You practice the technique of cutting three corpses, cut off the past, and form a complete individual, and then leave various bodies on that body. His present body can be specially trained in the power of taboo, so that nothing will be lost. !"

Feihuang finished speaking, took out a jade charm, and gave it to Lu Ming.

"You study the technique of slashing three corpses first. After successfully severing, I will teach you the cultivation method of the "Forbidden Power".

"If you don't understand anything, just ask me!"

Flying Phoenix Road.

"Thank you senior!"

Lu Ming took it, rejoicing, and said goodbye to Feihuang Aoqing, and found a place to practice.

This place, like a huge underground space, has a very large range. Lu Ming found a cave on one side and walked in.

Then sit cross-legged, take out the technique of chopping three corpses, and watch it quietly.

The more she looked, the more shocked Lu Ming was.

It's so mysterious.

The technique of chopping three corpses can completely cut the past, present and future into three different individuals.

Moreover, these three individuals are all independent, complete, and have independent thoughts.

Like, one Lu Ming suddenly became three.

These three, there is no difference between true and false, the difference between the primary and secondary, all are true Lu Ming.

Only one is the past body, one is the present body, and the other is the future body. With the development of the future, the things experienced will be different slowly.

Each one is independent cultivation, independent thinking, and unlimited future potential.

This is simply against the sky.

This is a huge difference from any avatar, incarnation technique.

When Lu Ming was in the world of Xiaoqian World, he once practiced the twin prohibition and cultivated two bodies, but that had a secondary body and a secondary body. Although they can both cultivate independently, their potential is very limited.

When Lu Ming wants to break through Wu Sheng, he must merge his main body and second body before he can break through.

Without integration, it is difficult to break through, which shows that the potential of that method has been exhausted.

But the technique of cutting three corpses is completely different.

After successful cultivation, each one is actually Lu Ming's own, and the potential has not changed at all. Like Lu Ming's before, they have infinite potential, and they can grow to a very high level in the future.

"Wonderful, it is really wonderful. Once I practice successfully, the past body I cut off mainly cultivated various divine powers, and now the body is the main power of taboo cultivation. In this way, there is no conflict between two pairs, Miaoza!"

Lu Ming was very excited, and then realized it seriously.

However, the difficulty of enlightenment is more than Lu Ming's imagination.

Two months later, Lu Ming didn't touch the door.

Lu Ming can only consult Feihuang.

After Feihuang's instructions, he barely touched a little doorway, but there was still a big gap in wanting to succeed.

During this time, the Dragon Mother Star finally entered a period of peace. The outside celestial arrogance no longer dared to enter the Dragon Mother Star. The Dragon Clan in the Dragon Mother Star no longer needs to be frightened and can practice as much as possible.

Some Dragon Clan Tianjiao, which was sealed in dozens of star years, can also practice with peace of mind.

The dragon clan star attracted a period of great development.

Lu Ming continued to understand the technique of cutting three corpses.

Time passes day by day, half a year, a year...

In a blink of an eye, Lu Ming had learned for six years.

After passing through many instructions from Flying Phoenix, he finally cut the three corpses, and his understanding was successful.

On this day, Lu Ming sat cross-legged and formally began to perform the technique of cutting off three corpses, to cut off his past.

Feihuang, Ao Qing, protect Lu Ming on the side.

Performing the technique of chopping three corpses is very dangerous. Once a problem arises, not only will the practice be unsuccessful, but you will be chopped off and you will fall on the spot.

Lu Ming responded carefully to the content, and then began to perform the technique of cutting three corpses.

After nine days!

"open!"

Lu Ming shouted, and endless divine lights appeared on his body. These divine lights, like a sharp blade, were constantly chopped on himself.

These divine lights were cut on himself, and there were no scars on him, but slowly, his body glowed as if there was a figure to split from his body.

This method is not to divide his body and soul into two halves, which is not the case.

In fact, his body and soul are still intact and not separated.

What he chopped out is his past body.

The past is called the past body.

In a blink of an eye, another three days passed.

Lu Ming's figure became clearer and clearer.

Chapter 3693: Past and present

Another figure appeared on Lu Ming. This figure looked exactly like Lu Ming, as if two Lu Ming overlapped.

At the beginning, the two Lu Ming overlapped very closely. Slowly, the two Lu Ming became more and more separated.

Time passed day by day, and it was another month in a flash.

Finally, the two Lu Ming were completely separated.

Two identical Lu Ming suddenly opened their eyes and looked at each other.

"Successful!"

Two Lu Ming flashed a thought at the same time, then at the same time a smile appeared.

The two Lu Ming, no major or secondary, are Lu Ming.

It's just that one is the past body and the other is the present body, but it's just split up now, so what they experienced is the same, so their thoughts, ways of thinking, and subjective consciousness are all the same.

Of course, as the two people experience different things in the future, some ideas will change.

Two Lu Ming, looking at the other one on the opposite side, felt very surprised.

Then, the two clenched their fists at the same time.

"Yes, Lu Ming, you succeeded!"

Feihuang said with a happy face.

Lu Mingneng succeeded in cutting off his past within ten years. This kind of talent is already very good, at least, not weaker than her.

"Lu Ming, you just succeeded in cultivation, your present body, you can now change the outside and breath, so that other people can't recognize you!"

Flying Phoenix Road.

"Can it still be?"

Lu Ming's eyes lit up.

"Of course, your current body is integrated with the power of taboo. It has just been cut out and can be shaped arbitrarily. If the time passes too long, once it is finalized, it will be difficult to change!"

"You change your breath now, even the source of life has changed. Even if the person closest to you stands in front of you, you won't know you, even the strong man of the Tianjun level will not recognize you!"

"And your destiny will also be fixed on the past body. Even if you are good at deduction, your destiny will not be derived. Your present body will be completely transformed into another person!"

Feihuang explained.

Lu Ming dumbfounded.

It's okay, it's amazing.

Even the source of life can be changed, and even the fate of the person can be changed. The powerful cannot be deduced.

This is equivalent to completely changing a person.

In this way, could Lu Ming's current body leave the Dragon Mother Star, roam through the vast universe, and even enter the Heavenly Palace to find Qiuyue.

Originally, Lu Ming was also worried, he was afraid that he could not leave the dragon clan star.

Because, Tiangong will not let him go, angel clan, soul clan, blood clan will not let him, as long as he leaves the dragon clan, he will be won.

But if you change to a new identity, how can others find out?

Moreover, as long as the past body is left in the dragon clan, other people will only think that he has been practicing in the dragon clan.

After all, in the past, it is most appropriate to control various divine powers and practice in the Dragon Mother Star.

Then, according to Feihuang's method, Lu Ming's thoughts changed and his body began to change. His appearance, skin, and height all changed significantly, and he became a tall and handsome young man.

A lot whiter than he used to be, like a good boy.

Moreover, his original breath of life has also changed, into a new, completely strange life breath.

Now, even placing him in front of Yale Tianjun, the other party could not recognize him as Lu Ming.

"Yes, Not Bad!"

Feihuang nodded, very satisfied, and then a jade symbol appeared in his hand.

"Lu Ming, inside, this is my experience of practicing taboo, you have a good understanding!"

"Cultivating the power of taboos is the only way for you to reach the end, break through shackles, achieve real detachment, and reach an incredible state!"

Flying Phoenix Road.

"Only by practicing the power of taboo can one truly be detached? Isn't it possible to cultivate other divine powers?"

Lu Ming's present body took Yuyu and asked with curiosity.

Lu Ming's past body also raised his ears and heard it. After all, he majored in divine power and controlled "Qiankun Wandao Jue". Now he has control of eleven kinds of divine power.

"Not necessarily!"

This time, Feihuang's eyes turned to Lu Ming's past.

"Also invite seniors to give pointers!"

Fists in the past.

Although Lu Ming's current body combines the power of taboos, his talents have greatly increased, and his potential is endless, but he does not want to give up his past body.

After all, the eleven kinds of divine practice cost him countless efforts.

"The practice of divine power is essentially constantly enlightening a certain divine power and awakening the original divine power factor. The more the divine power awakens, the closer the divine power is to the power of the corresponding original god!"

"Until the end, really reach the power of the original god!"

"The same is true for the mystery of the source, even if the nine yokes are cut off, it is only about the same as the control of the corresponding primitive god!"

"So, even if you cultivate a kind of divine power to the extreme, it is at most as strong as the primitive god, but primitive gods are also strong and weak, and the primitive gods are not detached and have not reached the true peak. ."

Feihuang explained.

Lu Ming understood that even if a kind of divine power was cultivated to the extreme, it would at most reach the realm of the original god, and then there was no way to go.

The potential is at an end.

Of course, for most people, it is too difficult to reach the realm of primitive gods, just like a fantasy.

Few people can cultivate a kind of divine power to the peak. Most people have a very poor life, and it is impossible to achieve it. Therefore, they naturally will not consider the issue of potential.

However, some peers are different.

These people will naturally not be reconciled.

You know, primitive gods are not invincible, they are all slaughtered by the heavenly palace, no matter how strong they are, where can they be strong?

Lu Ming's past body was not reconciled.

Cultivating divine power can't reach the true peak, even Tiangong can't fight it.

"Senior, practicing divine power, there should be a way to detach!"

Asked in the past.

"There is indeed a way, that is, to control more of the divine power, and all kinds of divine power are cultivated to the peak, promote each other, and maybe also take the last step!"

"So, in ancient times, many amazing talents created a lot of cultivation methods, which can cultivate a variety of divine powers. This is how ancient cultivation methods now come!"

"However, it is really too difficult to practice a variety of divine powers. Most people cannot complete it, so it gradually loses its way. Only the arrogant and proud Tianjiao will touch it!"

"And the "Qiankun Wandao Jue" you practiced is a fairly famous exercise in history. If you practice this exercise completely to the point of success, it is possible to surpass the success and take the last step. Of course, 11 This kind of divine power is not enough!"

Feihuang explained.

Chapter 3694: It's too bad

Through Feihuang's explanation, Lu Ming understood many problems and the origin of ancient cultivation methods.

The ancient cultivation method was originally a cultivation method created by the ancients who wanted to achieve detachment and stepped out of the highest realm. However, the conditions required for cultivation were too high and gradually declined. Today, only a few people practice.

According to Feihuang, "Qiankun Wandao Jue" is actually one of the ancient cultivation methods, and it is also a top-level method in ancient cultivation methods. It can also be detached to the extreme.

"Now, you are now practicing the power of taboos. In the past, you can practice "Qiankun Wandao Jue" with peace of mind.

"Okay, now you understand the power of taboo. If you have any questions, please come and ask me!"

Flying Phoenix Road.

"Lu Ming, if you have any questions about your divine practice, you can also come and ask me!"

Ao Qiandao said to Lu Ming's past.

After that, Ao Qian and Feihuang both left.

Two Lu Ming glanced at each other.

Today, Lu Ming's eleven kinds of divine power, in the past body, primitive divine blood, also in the past body, now in the body, only the taboo power.

"Old battle, you go!"

In the past, I thought about the movement of body and mind, and conveyed the sound of the war of words.

Then, the brows and hearts glowed in the past, and the word-measures emerged. They flew to the current body, rushed into Lu Ming's current brows and hearts, and disappeared.

Two ancient characters of ancient origin, the tactics of warfare follow the present body.

After all, if you are planning to go out now, it is best to follow the words. As for measuring the words, temporarily follow the past. After all, in the past, you need to practice multiple divine powers and need to measure the words to refine all kinds of energy.

With proper allocation, the figure flashed in the past and left here to find a place to enlighten various divine powers.

Lu Ming's body, sitting cross-legged, took out the jade symbol given by Feihuang and began to watch it.

One month later!

"Wonderful, really wonderful!"

Lu Ming lamented.

The cultivation of taboo power is completely different from the cultivation of divine power.

There is no need to condense the star nucleus at Dantian, and the taboo power is not scattered in the meridians.

Even, there is no need to absorb all kinds of divine energy and energy to transform.

The practice of taboo power is mainly to develop its own potential.

The power of taboo is scattered into countless strands and scattered into every cell in Lu Ming's body.

How many cells are there in the human body?

Forty to sixty trillion.

And Lu Ming, such a strong man, has reached a maximum of 60 trillion cells.

Sixty trillion, what a number this is, is simply an astronomical figure, like the sand of the Ganges.

Every cell contains a trace of taboo power.

When practicing taboo power, you also need to absorb energy. Unlike divine power cultivation, this energy will be absorbed by every cell.

As before, Lu Ming absorbed the magic medicine, and the energy of the magic medicine was absorbed by each cell.

However, absorbing these energies cannot directly improve Lu Ming's cultivation practice, only that he increased his potential.

The more energy absorbed, the stronger the potential improvement.

If you want to improve your cultivation behavior, you must constantly develop your own potential.

In addition, Lu Ming found that there is no soul in the body now.

Because the soul, like the power of taboo, is scattered into countless threads, and merged with the power of taboo, dispersed in each cell.

According to the above records of the jade rune, because every cell contains a soul, Lu Ming is considered to be crushed, but as long as one cell is still alive, he can live without dying.

Against the sky, true against the sky!

This is almost equivalent to immortality.

Cultivated to the spirit level, the resilience of the flesh is already amazing, even if it is broken into a rotten, it can be recovered, as long as the soul is not destroyed.

However, as soon as the soul is destroyed, it will die.

However, now, Lu Ming's soul is distributed in every cell, without the weakness of the soul, as long as there is one cell, he can survive.

It's too bad!

However, there are even more anti-natural!

There is no so-called source secret technique for the power of taboo.

However, the jade symbol given by the flying phoenix recorded a means of turning against the sky.

That is, practice ordinary secrets.

Every kind of mysticism, as long as you practice entry, you can form a mystic rune, fly into a cell, and the soul in that cell can enlighten yourself. Enlightenment will get deeper and deeper.

Each cell can be integrated into a different secret technique.

In other words, he can fuse six trillion trillion of secret art.

Sixty trillion species!

Lu Ming was dumbfounded.

There are not so many collections of all mysteries in the entire wilderness universe.

If there are thousands, tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands of secrets in his body...

Once it erupts, how terrible should it be?

Nothing can be better than the original secret technique.

No wonder it is called 'Forbidden Power', it's really 'taboo' and it's against the sky.

Once Lu Ming succeeds, the combat power will far exceed the previous.

This is the horror of taboo power.

"Start practicing!"

Lu Ming took a deep breath and began to practice according to a method recorded on the jade symbol.

Huh...

Lu Ming waved his fists, the sky thundered, and danced with a wonderful trajectory.

Click!

Rustle...

Lu Ming felt that his skeletal muscle blood, and even every cell, vibrated in a wonderful way, and then, each cell permeated a wonderful force.

These forces penetrated the whole body and filled Lu Ming with strength.

Lu Ming entered the ecstasy field and continued to practice.

In the process of cultivation, the potential in his body was gradually developed.

This practice is seven days.

Seven days later, Lu Ming stopped practicing.

call!

Lu Ming took a long breath and felt himself carefully. He felt that the strength in his body seemed to be stronger than before.

"As long as you continue to practice according to this method, you can continue to develop your potential and improve your cultivation. My current cultivation behavior is equivalent to the triple of God!"

Lu Ming judged.

There is no specific boundary for the cultivation of taboo power, Lu Ming only judges based on experience.

Of course, the strength of the fighting force is far more than the triple.

"But how do you practice mystery? How can you turn it into a mystic rune?"

Lu Ming frowned, completely puzzled.

Finally, Lu Ming can only go to Feihuang and ask Feihuang for advice.

"The power of taboo is very necessary at the beginning of the practice of mystery. This is an accumulation that should enhance the combat power, but in the later period, you must walk out of your own way!"

Flying Phoenix Road.

"Get out of your way?"

Lu Ming was puzzled and continued to consult.

"Yes, every taboo, if you want to reach a very high level, in the later period, you need to walk out of your own way, just like me, now the road is 'magic'."

Flying Phoenix Road.

Chapter 3695: Battle with yourself

Lu Ming thought of the magic light before Feihuang's war.

Logically, Flying Phoenix is also a 'taboo'. There are countless mysteries in the body. Many secrets should be performed, but the magic is performed.

In other words, Feihuang has walked his own way.

"In the beginning, a variety of different secret techniques were fused into the cells. These secret techniques can later serve as a reference for you and allow you to better walk your own way!"

"In the beginning, I was also in the cell, fusing countless mysteries, but later successfully walked out of my own way and forgot all those mysteries."

Flying Phoenix Road.

"Forgot?"

Lu Ming dumbfounded.

Originally, he was still a little careful to let Feihuang pass him the common secrets she mastered. In that case, he had countless secrets directly, and he could practice as much as he wanted.

Unexpectedly, Feihuang actually forgot all the previous mysteries.

"Yes, if you want to get out of your own way, you must forget all the secrets you have practiced before, but your own way is the real strongest way. No amount of secrets can match it!"

"Like your old man, he also walked out of his own way, the sword way he took!"

Flying Phoenix Road.

"Lao Zhang Ren..."

Lu Ming touched his nose, he knew that Feihuang was talking about Xie Nianqing's father in the past life.

"Okay, without further ado, let me tell you how to practice your mystical runes!"

Feihuang Dao, and then the cultivation method of the mysterious rune was passed to Lu Ming.

After Lu Ming got it, he hurried back to understand.

According to Feihuang's seemingly, every secret technique, as long as you practice entry, you don't need to practice too deep.

The first thing Lu Ming practiced was the magic formula of the dragon.

Shen Ming's Fa tactics, Lu Ming has already practiced to the point of perfect fire, so Lu Ming hardly wastes any effort, he condensed the Dragon's Fa tactics into a rune.

When the thoughts moved, the rune flew into a cell in Lu Ming's right palm.

In the future, the soul in that cell will naturally realize it moment by moment.

Against the sky, true against the sky!

This method has surpassed Lu Ming's imagination. In the past, he could not imagine that there was such a method, which is simply mysterious and unexplainable.

boom!

Lu Ming burst out with a punch, and a cell glowed in his palm, and then one by one, the nine-clawed Shenlong rushed out of his fist.

"Wonderful, if there are hundreds of mysteries in my palm and a punch, does it mean that there are hundreds of mysteries blasted out, although they are all ordinary secrets, but the power is also amazing!"

Lu Ming's eyes brightened.

Then he continued to experiment.

After a few strokes, Lu Ming took control even more easily. One punch came out, and no nine-clawed Shenlong flew out, but this punch also contained the power of Shenlong's law.

Secret technique, hidden but not obvious!

wonderful!

Lu Ming is more happy!

In this way, he can be more low-key!

After all, if he blasts out, hundreds of thousands of secret techniques burst out, it is too publicity, and insightful people, it is not difficult to guess that he is a taboo body.

However, the mystery is invisible, but the power is equally powerful, so it is more convenient to display, and others cannot see it.

"Try other..."

Then, Lu Ming began to practice other secret techniques.

Frost Chain!

Lu Ming has been deserted for a long time. With Lu Ming's current strength, the ice chain is no longer needed.

However, Lu Ming can practice sixty trillion kinds of occult techniques, no matter what occult technique he has, and then practice.

Soon, the ice chain also turned into a rune and flew into a cell in the left hand.

In the next moment, Lu Ming cultivated all kinds of secret techniques he had practiced before, such as Heavenly Demon Golden Body, Yin Yang God Eyes, into secret spell runes.

The magical rune of the demon golden body is integrated into a cell in Lu Ming's spine.

The rune secret technique of Yin Yang Shen Tong is integrated into a cell in Lu Ming's eyes.

These mysteries were mastered by Lu Ming before, so they are the fastest to practice.

After practicing these, Lu Ming began to practice other common secret techniques.

Over the years, Lu Ming has beheaded countless opponents, and a total of 103 kinds of ordinary secret techniques have been collected.

However, in the past he put all his thoughts on the original secret techniques. These secret techniques, he did not practice at all.

After all, the original secret technique has great potential and is more powerful than these ordinary secret techniques.

Collected all the time in a storage ring without moving.

Now, you can take it out for cultivation.

Lu Ming took out a secret technique called Zhenxingquan and began to understand.

It is naturally not so easy to practice a secret technique, but as long as you practice entry, it is not difficult.

And cultivation is higher, and the horizon is higher, and cultivation is relatively easy.

Three days later, Lu Ming introduced this mystery practice into a mysterious rune and integrated it into a cell in Lu Ming's palm.

Then, he took out a * secret technique, cultivated it into a mysterious rune, and integrated it into the cells of the finger.

In this way, Lu Ming spent more than a year cultivating all 103 secrets into secret runes and integrating them into cells.

"Go for power!"

Lu Ming showed his expectation.

Boom!

The two figures, in a fierce confrontation, flashed in shape, full of energy.

These two figures are Lu Ming's past and present.

In the past, the power of primitive * blood was stimulated, and the tyrant weapon was held in hand, and the other ten original secret techniques also appeared.

Without the restriction of the taboo power, the body's cultivation practice in the past has finally skyrocketed, and has reached the peak of the fourfold of the Divine Monarch, not far from the fivefold of the Divine Monarch.

Jingle Bell!

The celestial bell vibrated, and the soul attacked the law to the present body.

However, it is invalid for the present body.

After all, the cells in his body are all souls, and soul attacks can only attack part of it.

boom!

Now the whole body is vibrating, and a powerful force bursts out, punching out, directly breaking the attack of the Heavenly Evil Bell, as well as the day of the sun, the glow of the lunar moon is also broken, and the Ba Shen Gun Bombard together.

There was a violent roar, a violent shock from the Overlord Gun, and his body and body were violently shaken in the past.

"Awesome, the power of taboo is really amazing!"

There was a shock in the past, followed by ecstasy.

After all, the present body and the past body are all Lu Ming.

Whichever one is strong, Lu Ming rejoices.

"It's my turn!"

Now drinking lightly, glowing all over, and then suddenly hundreds of secret techniques rushed out and rushed to the past.

"Tianxuan Shield, Sword of Breaking Sky..."

Drinking lightly in the past, the eleven kinds of mysterious secret techniques exploded in amazing power, and the power after cutting off and locking was all excited.

Two Lu Ming, fierce battle together.

However, the power of taboos is really amazing.

Although the body now only has the triple cultivation of the Divine Monarch, it puts the past under pressure.

Chapter 3696: Leaving the Dragon Mother Star

Two Lu Ming fought hundreds of tricks, and ended up losing in the past.

In the past, after all, the tactics of warfare were lost, and the combat power was weakened.

At the end of the fight, the two Lu Ming left separately, carefully understanding the gains from the fight.

One year later...

"How do I leave?"

Lu Ming whispered now.

He plans to leave the Dragon Mother Star to see if he can find Qiuyue.

After all, the power of cultivation taboo stays in the role of the dragon clan's parent star, and does not have the power to cultivate divine power.

Although the training of taboo power also requires all kinds of energy, it only stores energy in each cell to enhance its potential.

If you want to improve your cultivation behavior, you still need constant cultivation and development potential to be able to do it.

Therefore, the difference between the presence of the dragon family star and the present body is not particularly great.

There is also a need to develop their own potential, pressure, and war.

Only under pressure, in the war, in life and death training, his potential can be quickly developed.

In the dragon clan star, lacking this condition, he progressed slowly.

Now, his cultivation is still equivalent to the triple of the prince, and in the past, he is almost breaking through the five of the prince.

Moreover, the past body has now practiced several other divine powers.

Only when the divine power has more control, along this path, can we go further in the future, and it is possible to be detached.

But Lu Ming was a little worried, how to go out?

Of course, he can fly directly, but there must be strong guards of all races in the wilderness universe outside the dragon star, and he may fly out in such a hurry, I am afraid that he will be suspected.

"Are you worried about going out?"

Feihuang stepped forward and heard Lu Ming whispering just now.

"Senior can have a good strategy?"

Lu Ming asked.

"Of course!"

The answer to Lu Ming's question was not Aohuang, but Ao Qian.

Ao Qian appeared quietly beside Lu Ming.

"There are secret passages on the parent star, even if Tiangong does not know, you can leave quietly from that secret passage, no one will find!"

Ao Qiandao.

"That's great!"

Lu Ming was overjoyed, and then asked again: "Senior and junior want to ask, can we approach Tiangong now!"

"Are you going to find your little lover!"

Ao Qian smiled.

Aside, the corner of Feihuang's mouth slightly raised, and said in his heart: "This guy, like his old man, is also a passionate..."

"Cough!"

Lu Ming coughed a little embarrassedly, and said this question in front of Master Xie Nianqing. With his old face, he could not help but slightly red.

"If you want to get close to the Tiangong, there is only one way, that is to become a heavenly soldier!"

Ao Qiandao.

"Heavenly soldier?"

Lu Ming wondered.

He didn't know much about Tiangong, he only knew how many there were, and how many there were, he didn't know.

I don't even know what the specific name is. I only know a fantasy heavenly palace.

"There are five heavenly palaces between heaven and earth, namely the fantasy heavenly palace, the crape myrtle palace, the magic machine heavenly palace, and the Hongmeng heavenly palace. These four heavenly palaces respectively guard the four directions of the Honghuang universe!"

Ao Qiandao.

"Isn't there still the last heavenly palace?"

Lu Ming asked curiously, didn't there have five in Tiangong, Ao Qian just said four.

"The Fifth Heaven Palace, very mysterious..."

With that, Ao Qing shook his head, and he seemed unwilling to say more, and Feihuang didn't say anything.

"The ruler of the Tiangong is the Celestial Clan. This race is also very mysterious. It is not on the list of the Hungry Ten Thousand Clan, but it is extremely powerful. It is more than any other race. However, the number of the Celestial Clan is not large after all, and it cannot control the entire Universe. So, sometimes, some people will be recruited, such as the top-level Tianjiao of all ethnic groups. Become a Heavenly Soldier and cultivate them vigorously. Only by becoming a Heavenly Soldier can you be close to the Heavenly Palace!"

"You are now a taboo body and changed the source of life. Even if you enter the Tiangong, the people in the Tiangong will not recognize you unless you encounter an unimaginable existence, but the probability is not great, but it is carefree!"

Ao Qiandao.

"Then how can I become a heaven soldier?"

Lu Ming asked again.

"Every time, Tiangong will recruit a group of people from the Honghuang Universe. The time and the number are uncertain. You can only wait!"

Ao Qiandao.

"Thank you senior!"

Lu Ming thanks.

In this case, he had to leave the dragon clan's parent star first, and wandered through the wilderness universe. By the way, he asked for news. If the Tiangong recruited people, he pretended to be a heavenly soldier and searched for Qiuyue's news.

"Senior, where is that passage? Can you send me out?"

Lu Ming asked.

"No hurry, I will give you something first!"

Ao Qing smiled slightly, then waved his hand, a set of positions, flew out.

This is a set of arrays, with a total of 36 pieces.

"This set is made many years ago. I invited a powerful player of the space-time spirit rat to secretly refine it. Once excited, a wormhole can be opened directly to the dragon mother star. Take it with you!"

Ao Qiandao.

"This..."

Lu Ming was shocked that there was such a treasure.

Once excited, you can open a wormhole and return to the Dragon Mother Star. These functions are really against the sky.

"Senior, this treasure is so precious..."

Lu Ming said, a little embarrassed to accept.

"Don't be embarrassed, I'm giving you this set of orders, there are requirements. The Shenlong tribe was at its peak in the past, and there are Shenlong tribes distributed throughout the universe, but now, these dragons scattered all over the place are miserable and reduced to Mounts or war beasts, even worse, are reduced to food for all races, so I would like to ask you to help you with this set of platoons. Once you find a dragon, you will send the other party back to the dragon clan."

"In this way, the power of the Shenlong Race will be more concentrated, and more power will be added in the future!

Ao Qian sighed.

"Seniors are assured that as long as I meet the Shenlong family, I will do my best to send it back to the dragon clan!"

Lu Ming said firmly.

"Okay, I believe you!"

Ao Qing nodded with satisfaction, and said, "But this set will take some time to open. If you are in danger, or in a war, remember not to inspire, unless you can rely on it when there is enough time. Get out of danger!"

"Younger people understand!"

Lu Ming nodded and closed the position.

"Go!"

Then, Ao Qian waved his hand, and a force enveloped Lu Ming. The next moment, they came to another place of the Dragon Mother Star.

Ao Qian reached out and pressed in the air, the void immediately fluctuated, and a channel appeared.

"Go!"

Ao Qiandao.

"Senior, leave!"

Lu Ming clenched his fists.

"Practice well, I look forward to the day when you grow up and suppress the universe!"

Ao Qian smiled, full of anticipation.

Lu Ming Zheng focused his head, and then stepped out, his body rushed into the passage, disappeared.

"I hope to grow up. In the long years and long rivers, the roads of the taboo body are all disasters and disasters.

Ao Qing whispered.

Chapter 3697: Xiongtai of the Wings, courteous

Lu Ming seemed to travel through the endless void, and soon after, he appeared in a starry sky.

"Out!"

Lu Ming looked around, and what was in sight was the vast expanse of stars, and the stars were dotted in the dark stars.

"Here, where is it?"

Lu Ming thought, and then came up with a star map.

This kind of star map was obtained from Lu Ming who killed Tianjiao of all ethnic groups and obtained it from the other party. It is very convenient to use.

Divine power was input into the star chart, and suddenly, a vast star chart emerged.

Above is a piece of bright starlight, each starlight represents a star field.

Endless star field, dotted on it.

This star map is quite vast, and I don't know how many star fields are included.

Above, there is a place with a red dot.

This red dot represents the area where Lu Ming is located.

"expand!"

Lu Ming stared at the red dot. Immediately, the area around the red dot expanded rapidly, and the star fields became clear.

And the surrounding star fields are blurring.

Soon, Lu Ming figured out where he was.

"The Dragon Mother Star is over there, only one star field away from the starry sky where I am now, the distance is not very far, go and see!"

Lu Ming moved.

He wanted to return to the outer periphery of the Dragon Mother Star to see what is happening now.

Moreover, he also wanted to test whether others could recognize him.

Although Ao Qian and Feihuang both said that Tianjun couldn't recognize him, but he didn't try it by himself, and he still felt a little bit confused.

Uh!

Lu Ming thought, every cell in his body trembles slightly, and a force erupts from each cell.

Uh!

Lu Ming directly broke through the void and flew towards the Dragon Mother Star at an amazing speed. This speed was far above the speed of light, and even exceeded the speed of the Divine Monarch to send a large array of roads.

The space broke open, and Lu Ming hurried forward. It didn't take long for him to traverse a star field and came near the Dragon Star.

"There are still many masters!"

As soon as Lu Ming arrived near the Dragon Clan's parent star, he felt many powerful breaths in the surrounding stars.

These breaths are very convergent and secret, but still captured by Lu Ming.

At the same time, there were several strong breaths sweeping towards Lu Ming.

Lu Ming remained calm and quiet.

Those breaths swept over Lu Ming, found nothing strange, and then disappeared again.

"Sure enough, I didn't find it!"

Lu Ming's eyes lit up.

Compared with before, he has completely changed into a person. The source of life has changed, and the other party cannot naturally find out.

Lu Ming remained quiet, approaching the Dragon Mother Star.

Far away, a huge planet suspended in the air.

The whole planet was shrouded in a layer of mist, and it was impossible to see through the inside.

There are still a lot of figures staying on some meteorite around.

It is the arrogant figure of some races.

"Huh? That's the Wing Human Race..."

Suddenly, Lu Ming glanced and found that some young wing human races gathered on a meteorite not far away.

These young Yi people seem to be discussing something.

"Tian Er Tong!"

As soon as Lu Ming's heart moved, a secret technique came out.

Tian Er Tong is also one of Lu Ming's more than one hundred secret techniques he has practiced before. After successful practice, he can make his hearing soar.

Lu Ming cultivated it into a mystic rune and integrated it into his ears.

His ears trembled slightly, and then a sound came through.

"Then Lu Ming, it's so abominable, it's a sin to die!"

"Yes, there are the remaining sins of the dragon clan, too. Now Lu Ming and the dragon clan colluded with each other, which is really abominable!"

"My winged human race has been arrogantly dead in it for so many days, will this hatred not be reported?"

"But Lu Ming and the Dragon Clan's remnants are hiding in the Dragon Clan's parent star. The Dragon Clan's parent star not only has the terrifying large array of Wanlong Seal, but also the terrible strong men. We can't get in at all, let alone revenge! "

These winged human races gritted and gritted their teeth while discussing, but wished to unload Lu Ming into eight pieces.

"Hey, if you want to take revenge, you don't have to enter the Dragon Mother Star!"

At this time, a young wingman sneered.

"You have a way?"

People from other wing peoples looked at this person one after another.

"Now, there are many other dragons in the universe. As long as we find these dragons, kill them, and send them to the fantasy * jade, will Lu Ming and the dragon clan see it, will they vomit blood?"

The youth of the wing people.

The eyes of other young Yi people are bright.

The power of their wing human race, didn't they just do it?

In doing so, they can not only irritate Lu Ming and the Dragon Clan, but also please the powerful favor of the Wing Clan.

"Unfortunately, the ancestors had killed a batch before, and now I want to find more Shenlong, which is a bit difficult at once!"

A young wing man sighed.

"Relax, I happen to have clues to the dragon, and there are a lot of them!"

The young wingman before smiled with pride.

"What clue?"

Others quickly asked.

"I know there is a medium-sized world in which there are a large number of divine dragons, but that medium-sized world is too fragile and can only accommodate a quasi-emperor at most. When the emperor enters, it will destroy that world!"

"In that medium-sized world, it is a small world of dragons. If we go in and capture a large number of dragons to kill, will Lu Ming and the Dragon Clan rush out and fight with us desperately? Hahaha!"

The young man laughed.

"There is such a world, good!"

"What are you waiting for? Let's go!"

The other wing races said one after another.

"Don't worry, that medium-sized world, there may be a quasi-imperial realm dragon, enter with our strength, I am afraid it is not enough, this matter, we have to report it to let some masters in the clan!"

The youth said before.

"It can only be so!"

"unfortunately!"

Some young people lamented that if they could do it, the credit would be greater, and if they reported it, the credit would be much less.

They did not know that Lu Ming heard the conversation they had just made.

"Really dead!"

In Lu Ming's eyes, a cold light flashed.

"Actually, there is a medium-sized world with a large number of dragons living. If you send these dragons back to the dragon clan's parent star, the number of dragons will skyrocket. After the training of Ao Qian's predecessors, a group of masters might be born!

Lu Mingsi thought, and then decided that this trip must go.

As soon as his eyes turned, Lu Ming noticed, and then flew towards the meteorite where the young wing people were.

Seeing Lu Mingfei coming, the young people of the Yiren clan immediately stopped the conversation.

"Xitai of the Wings, reasonable!"

Lu Ming clenched his fists.

"who are you?"

The winged youth looked coldly at the landing.

Chapter 3698: You are not my opponent

The youth of the Yiren clan watched Lu Ming coldly.

"Under Muyun!"

Lu Ming clenched his fists and continued: "Many of the tribes below, who had entered the Dragon clan's parent star before, were killed by the Lu Ming and the Dragon Clan's remnants. I always wanted to avenge them, and I wish I could defeat Lu Ming's dog thief gray!"

Speaking of which, Lu Ming's face was murderous, and he looked like he was gritting his teeth.

Seeing Lu Ming say this, the young people of the Yiren clan looked pretty.

This is the so-called homophobia.

"Then why do you come to us?"

A young wing man asked.

"Because I know that many of your Wing Human Races have died in the hands of Lu Ming and the Dragon Clan. You also want to avenge them. I have an idea here. We can find many outside Dragon Clan to kill and use the magical jade It was shot and sent to the fantasy space. You said that Lu Ming and the Dragon Clan saw it, would they be angry?"

"Although you can't kill Lu Ming and the Dragon Clan's remnants by yourself, can you relieve your hatred?"

Lu Ming said.

A few wing human races Tianjiao glanced at each other, and Lu Ming's thought coincided with them.

"We are going to hunt the dragon clan, we will go by ourselves, why cooperate with you, what is the qualification of a prince's triple cultivation, what is the qualification to cooperate with us?"

A pro-young man with a pair of black wings whispered coldly, disdainfully.

Lu Mingzhan's breath reveals that the Divine King is triple.

"My cultivation base, although it is only the triple triple, but my combat power is far more than the triple triple. It's not good to say. Everyone present, no one is my opponent in terror!"

Lu Ming said lightly.

Sometimes, when it is time to be strong, you need to be strong to let the other party know his strength.

"None of us is your opponent?"

The young people of the winged people at the scene looked at each other, and then laughed aloud, all laughter in the laughter.

Lu Ming, actually said that no one was his opponent at the scene?

joke!

Great joke!

The wing human race Tianjiao on the scene are the top tianjiao in the wing human race.

There are a few princes and seven princes, and a prince and quaternary, and the rest are princes, four, five, and six. They did not grab the opportunity to enter the dragon clan, but it does not mean that they are weak.

A prince triple is actually saying that no one is his opponent at the scene. Can he use the prince triple to fight the prince eight? And is it a arrogant person?

moron!

This is the evaluation of Lu Ming by many Yiren tribes.

"A frog at the bottom of the well is really ridiculous!"

The black-winged young wingman even made a direct mockery and said, "Boy, go away, we have no effort to deal with you!"

"Afraid? Straight!"

Lu Ming said lightly, an extremely arrogant look.

"What are you saying? I'm scared? Haha..."

The black-winged young man laughed wildly, and almost burst into tears.

"Boy, I'm going to try how many pounds you have!"

The eyes of the young black-winged winged man froze coldly, and the murderous opportunity flourished.

Since Lu Ming wants to provoke him, he will give Lu Ming an unforgettable lesson.

Uh!

The young black-winged wingman shot directly. His palm was like an eagle claw, and he screamed toward the landing.

In an instant, Lu Ming was approaching.

At this time, Lu Ming shot, he shot is very simple, pointing out, pointing to the palm of the other party.

"court death!"

Seeing Lu Ming as such a triple waste of gods, he dared to confront him hard and hardly know how to live or die.

He is the sevenfold cultivation practice of the Divine Monarch, which is threefold stronger than the Divine Monarch.

Not to mention Divine King Triple, even if Divine King Sixfold, he still kills.

Everywhere the * is triple, he really didn't put it in his eyes.

bump!

The next moment, the two attacked and collided together.

At the moment of collision, the face of the black-winged winged man changed, and it became incredible.

Blood flew, flesh and blood flew away.

His palm was directly penetrated by Lu Ming, and a blood hole appeared.

Uh!

The youth of the Black Wings retreated.

"This is your strength?"

Lu Ming spoke lightly, lightly, but full of ridicule.

Every cell in him is full of taboo power, and a random blow can't imagine power.

In addition, several types of * secrets have been incorporated into the cells of his fingers. At the previous blow, the * secrets have exploded, and the power is very scary.

"This..."

The young people from other wing people around, widened their eyes one by one, very surprised.

A prince is triple, and one tactic hurts a prince sevenfold. This is not normal. It is too shocking and terrifying.

It's incredible!

"Damn, boy, I didn't use a little bit of power just now, and I didn't even use one-tenth. Come again!"

Winged man with black wings roared.

Just now, he really just used a trace of strength.

In his view, a prince is a triple, and it is not overturnable to suppress it. How much power is required?

Now he knew that he was careless.

boom!

The young black winged man burst out with a thick black light, and the seven-fold cultivation of a prince completely exploded.

A dazzling war sword was held in his hand.

"kill!"

Jianguang shook the sky and cut to Lu Ming, illuminating the starry sky.

Even in the face of the young black winged man who broke out all his strength, Lu Ming still looked calm.

He also pointed like a sword, stroking out.

A terrifying sword light burst out of Lu Ming's fingers.

boom!

The two sword lights collided, the sword gas overflowed, sweeping all directions, the meteorite under their feet exploded directly, and then was cut into ashes by the slight sword gas.

The other Wings were arrogant and quickly retreated, away from this area.

At the next moment, a figure backed up again and again, still black youth.

"This is this strength, it's too bad. Suppress me!"

Lu Ming shouted and rushed towards the other party. His fists were continuously waved, and the void was vibrated. The terrible fist pressure, like a storm, hit the black winged youth.

"How is it possible, * it!"

The youth of the Black Wings could not be more shocked, but at the same time they were so angry that they broke out with Lu Ming.

But it is doomed.

Boom!

The two men fought a few tricks in a row, and the young Black Wings were completely suppressed, not opponents at all.

bump!

He was hit by Lu Ming with a boxing, his wings were broken, and black feathers flew.

Then, Lu Ming was punched in the chest. A big hole was blown out in his chest, his bones were broken, and his flesh flew.

He collapsed, smashed several meteorite, vomited blood, and was hit hard.

Of course, this is the result of Ru Ming's mercy, otherwise he has been killed.

Sisisi...

A sound of inhaled breath sounded, and the other wing human races were arrogant, full of deep shock.

Chapter 3699: Mixed with wing people

All the wing human races are proud of each other, and all are shocked to see the landing song.

Lu Ming, can actually defeat the Black Wing Terran, which is incredible.

This talent is simply against the sky.

What is the origin of this? Why haven't I heard it before?

This kind of talent is even more terrible than Lu Ming in the dragon clan's parent star.

"Damn miscellaneous, take action, let's take action together, kill this person!"

The black winged youth stabilized the injury and shouted like crazy.

He was actually defeated by a trio of princes, and it seemed to be easy to defeat. This was a shame and humiliation. He was so angry that he wished Lu Ming could be defeated.

"enough!"

At this moment, a majestic cold voice sounded, and a young man with silver hair stepped out.

This is another young wingman. This person has a very high level of cultivation, and he has reached the eighth level of the god.

"Yinyi, kill this man for me!"

The young black wing yelled.

"Enough, stop here!"

The silver-winged young man Yinyi coldly scolded, and the black-winged young man immediately dared not speak, and seemed to be a little afraid of Yinwing.

"The strength of the shepherd brother is really admirable. Divine King Triple has such a fighting power. Even Lu Ming can't compare it. I'm afraid that the demon among the top ten races, and few people can compare with the shepherd brother!"

Silver Wing Road.

"Brother Silver has won the prize. How dare you compare with the Tianjiao of the top ten races?"

Lu Ming said modestly.

"The shepherd brother wants to kill the * dragon to stimulate the remnants of Lu Ming and the dragon clan. My wing man clan also has this intention, and we just know a place where the * dragon gathers, can the shepherd brother be willing to go together?"

Silver Wing Road.

"Just what I want!"

Lu Ming readily agreed.

The young black winged man swallowed a healing pill to heal, and looked at Landing with hate, his eyes gleaming coldly.

Lu Ming is too lazy to ignore each other.

Afterwards, Lu Ming followed Silver Wing and others, leaving the area of the Dragon Mother Star and heading towards the territory controlled by the Wing Human Race.

A few days later, they came to a planet in the hands of a wingman.

On this planet, the people living are all Wings.

All kinds of winged people.

There are Thunder Wings, Storm Wings, Ice Wings, Shadowless Wings, Golden Wings, etc.

Lu Ming was arranged in a separate courtyard.

Another hall, Silver Wings, Black Wings, etc. gathered.

"Yinyi, why do you take that Muyun, why don't we join forces to kill him!"

The black-winged youth said that he was still full of resentment and murderous opportunity towards Lu Ming.

"There is no need to kill him for the time being. This man is very powerful and can be used by us!"

Silver Wing Road, eyes gleaming with wisdom.

"We are going to the place where the dragons gather, but there are many powerful dragons in the medium-sized world, and our emperor cannot enter, so it is still dangerous to take the dragon world, let this person Wouldn't it be better to take the lead and be a cannon fodder?"

Yinyi continued.

"Miao, Miao!"

Other young wingmen praised it.

The eyes of the black winged youth are also bright.

"Not only that Muyun, we also have to gather a group of masters of other races to enter the medium-sized world together and let them be cannon fodder!"

"Okay, now I'm going to find Master Feng Qu and let him arrange this round of siege of the dragon!"

Yinyi Road, after he finished, he left here.

He said that the lord Feng Feng was the commander of the Wing human race in this star field, a very powerful * emperor realm.

Yinyi talked about this matter, Feng Fei commanded, and immediately agreed, and promised to send the strong to help them.

And the meaning of Feng Qu is to convene a group of people of other races to be cannon fodder.

Yinyi naturally agreed.

The area controlled by the Yiren is the border of the Yiren, close to several other ethnic groups.

It is also a prosperous commercial area. People of other races often come to do business, and there are many different races.

This time the Wings gave a generous reward, so as soon as the news came out, applicants gathered.

Finally, after two screenings, the strongest one hundred people were selected.

Of course Lu Ming does not need a handsome candidate, he has already proven himself before.

In this way, after everything is done, it is already a month later.

At this time, the talents of the Yiren clan began to set off,

This time, the presence of several Divine Emperor Realms personally led the team, Wings, and other race masters. Together, more than 500 people came together to a barren galaxy.

In front, there are nine stars, arranged in a strange way, connected in a line.

"The entrance to the medium-sized world where the Shenlong tribe is located is here!"

Silver Wing Road.

"I'll open it!"

A strong Wing-Man clan in the Divine Realm flew forward, the body of light bloomed, and the breath of terror spread out.

The wings behind him fluttered, and a powerful force burst out, entwining the nine stars, and then the nine stars were pushed up and moved slowly.

Rumble!

The starry sky vibrates. Eventually, the nine stars are arranged in a dragon shape, and then the void undulates like a wave of water, and a gap appears in the starry sky.

"The gap has been opened, you go in. After success, spread the message with the fantasy * jade, I will open the channel again!"

The Divine Emperor said.

This is a medium-sized world, very similar to the Xiaoqian world, dependent on the vast universe.

However, the medium-sized world is much more stable than the Xiaoqian world, and the cultivation environment will be much better, and it can accommodate more powerful people.

Like Lu Ming's Celestial Yuan Realm, the False God Triple is the limit. No matter how strong it is, it is easy to collapse the Xiaoqian World.

And the medium-sized world in front of him, which can accommodate up to the quasi-imperial realm, God Emperor, would easily destroy the whole world.

Therefore, the strongest person they entered this time was the prospective emperor.

"go!"

Yinyi took the lead and flew forward.

Later, other people set off and flew towards the channel, Lu Ming followed them and entered the channel together.

At the next moment, Lu Ming stood on top of a peak.

In the sky, there is a huge channel, which slowly rotates, and when they all come in, the channel slowly disappears.

"Let's go forward in batches, divided into five batches, each batch of about 100 people, see the Shenlong, try not to kill, take it down and put it into the Qiankun bag, and then go to the periphery of the Dragon Mother Star, do you understand?"

Yinyi urged.

The others nodded.

Among these people, Silver Wings has the highest status, he is the ultimate arrogance.

Although there are many quasi-imperial realms on the scene, they are all senior figures. Although their combat power is now stronger than that of Silver Wings, their talent is far from that of Silver Wings, and their status is naturally not as good as Silver Wings.

Subsequently, they were divided into five groups.

I don't know if it's intentional or unintentional. Lu Ming, Silver Wings, and the young black wing man were divided into a group.

When the young black winged man looked at Lu Ming, his eyes shone coldly.

Chapter 3700: cannon fodder

More than 500 people, divided into five batches, set out in five different directions.

Lu Ming, along with Yinyi and others, also had nearly a hundred people flying towards the left front.

Wow!

When they flew by, the space was broken like a wave of water, making them amazingly fast, as if breaking through the space.

"What a fragile space!"

Lu Ming thought.

The stability of the space here is one hundred and eighty miles away from the Honghuang Universe. Lu Ming felt that with a little movement, he could break through the space.

There was a feeling in the world of Xiaoqian that Lu Mingxiu could break the void at will in order to reach the peak of that world.

After a while, they came to a castle.

This castle is where the dragons gather.

"Liu Zhan, explore what is the highest dragon in this castle?"

Yinyi instructed an old man with a crooked nose.

Although this old wing man has the realm of a quasi-emperor, he is very old, he has little life, and his potential is exhausted. It is impossible to break through the God Emperor's realm in his whole life.

"Yes!"

The old wing man Liu Zhan led his life, and then exuded his spiritual consciousness, covering the entire castle.

After a while, Liu Zhandao said: "Son, the highest is no more than four levels of Divine King!"

"Talent God is fourfold? Then go!"

Silver Wing told him to step out into the air.

Others also flew forward one after another, the most talented prince is fourfold, they have no slightest pressure.

"Arrange!"

The dragon clan in the castle apparently also found the Silver Wings and others. The castle glowed, the dragon chanted bursts, and a large burst emerged, covering the castle.

"Every small group wants to stop it, it's a fool's dream!"

Silver Wing sneered, the silver wings behind him glowed, turned into a blade of light, and came out.

boom!

Knife light cut on the formation of the castle, the formation burst directly, can not be a blow of the silver wings.

Then Silver Wing reached out a big hand and grabbed it.

"Fight with them!"

"Roar!"

In the castle, there were roars and dragons flying out.

Most of these dragons are five-clawed dragons, and there are only a few six-clawed dragons.

The highest cultivation level is fourfold, but the difference is so great that there is no comparability.

Silver Wing's claws grabbed the Divine Monarch's quadruple six-claw dragon, directly defeating the opponent's attack defense, and holding the opponent in his hand, like grabbing a small bug.

Then, Yinyi took out a golden bag.

The bag suddenly grew larger, and then Silver Wing grabbed the Shenlong and stuffed it into the bag.

They will not kill here. They will be taken outside the dragon clan's parent star, hunt these dragon clan, drink dragon blood, eat dragon meat, and then send them to the fantasy space, show them to Lu Ming, stimulate Lu Ming and Ao Yan and others.

"Haha, little reptile, just hang on the sling!"

"Unbearable!"

The people of the Wings and the people of other races laughed and used their means to capture all the dragons and put them into the golden bag.

The golden bag, called the Qiankun bag, can hold living things in it.

Soon, all the dragons in this castle were taken down.

This castle was also razed to the ground.

Then they went on.

Whenever they encountered a castle or a city, they shot directly, crushed and captured the Shenlong, and stuffed it into the Qiankun bag.

Within a day, they had captured thousands of dragons.

The next day, they came to a strange place.

In front, a huge peak, on the side of the peak, there is a huge cave, over a hundred miles in diameter, unfathomable!

This is a dragon cave!

Wherever there is a dragon's den, there must be a large number of divine dragons, and an extremely powerful existence may appear.

"This Dragon's Cave is not simple, there may be the Divine King Jiuzhong, and even the Quasi-Imperial Realm Dragon!"

The old wing man Liu Zhan whispered to Yinyi.

Silver Wing nodded silently, turned his eyes, and then transmitted sounds to other Wing people.

"There should be a lot of dragons in this dragon's cave, so I will hand them over to you. Go and take the dragon in this dragon's cave!"

The young black winged man stepped out, sharp and cold eyes, sweeping towards people of other races such as Lu Ming.

People of other races add up to about 100 people, divided into five batches. There are about 20 people here.

Swept by the eyes of the young black wing man, many people's faces changed.

"Let us go? Are you going?"

Asked an old man who looked like an orangutan.

"It's just a dragon's cave. Why don't we go, you just go, you come here, you need to work!"

The youth of the Black Wings.

"I think you want us to be cannon fodder. There is absolutely a terrible existence in this dragon's cave, even there is a quasi-imperial dragon. We are twenty people, I am afraid that there will be more fierce!"

At this moment, Lu Ming spoke.

In his knowledge of the sea, bone demon dwelled.

The bone demon did not follow the past body, but as the body came out now, he did not want to be trapped in the dragon clan star.

There is a bone demon, he knows clearly that there is a quasi-imperial dragon in this dragon cave.

Of these twenty people, there is no prospective emperor, so let them take the lead and completely die.

The Wings are clearly letting them go as cannon fodder.

As soon as this remark came out, the face of the twenty non-winged masters all changed, which was very ugly.

"Boy, what nonsense are you talking about?"

The black-winged youth looked coldly at the landing.

"Am I talking nonsense? Haha, this Dragon Cave is extraordinary at first glance. Do you think we are fools?"

Lu Ming sneered.

"Yes, going to go together, let us go alone, what does that mean?"

"Yeah, we came in to assist your wing human race, let us go to die, I can't do it, I can't quit, this money, I won't make any money!"

Others shouted.

"All come here, you can't help it!"

Yinyi said coldly.

Wow, wow!

One person at the scene flashed into a semi-circle, blocking the retreat of Lu Ming and others.

"What are you doing? Your wing human race will offend our race by doing this!"

"My Skywalker is not afraid of you!"

Some people shouted.

"Huh, if you are not obedient, even if you are killed, no one knows, you will only think that you are dead in the hands of the dragon clan, and your clan will only find the dragon clan!"

Yinyi coldly said.

Let the people of all ethnic groups look extremely ugly.

Obviously, they were successful, and the people who followed the clan came here, unable to help themselves, and could only listen to each other's orders.

"Also, this kid, disturbing the military's heart, sin is very evil, now, you give me the lead, the first to kill in the Dragon's Cave, I can spare your life!"

The young black wing man looked at Lu Ming and sneered.

"I'm going to go to you, I'm not interested!"

Lu Ming answered lightly.

"Boy, you are looking for death!"

In the eyes of the young black winged man, the cold light flashed and the killing coldness was like a knife. On him, the divine light permeated him. If Lu Ming had nothing to do with it, he had already beheaded and killed Lu Ming.
