

D Emperor 4381

Chapter 4381: Take control of the two powers

Bubble is not an opponent, his body recedes, and his face is white.

Obviously, it is also the eleven-star combat power, and there are also strengths and weaknesses. Although Ye Chuqian Yue and Bubble are both eleven-star combat power, the bubble is just reaching the eleven-star combat power, which is obviously not Ye Chuqian. Yue's opponent.

"Different time and space spirit rats, can actually have this combat power, I am the first time to see, now give you a chance, surrender to me, to do things for me in the future, I can spare your life!"

Ye Chu Qian Yue said, his eyes were bright, staring at the bubble.

Obviously, he was fond of Bubble's talent.

Although the space-time spirit rat controls time and space, its talent is powerful, and it is the top race in the universe. The powerful one can open wormholes.

But such a powerful space-time spirit rat is the first time I see it, let alone see it, even if I haven't heard of it.

If you can earn income, it is definitely a big help.

There are now nine Heavenly Sons in the Four Heavenly Palaces.

Not to mention the Four Heavenly Palaces, only the Heavenly Palace where he is located, there are two Sons of Heaven, and each other is the biggest competitor.

In addition, there are some latecomers who are also eyeing.

He needs more and stronger power to support him.

With the gift of bubbles, over time, the achievements will be very amazing, and he can become his right arm. He is really very emotional.

"Succumb to you, wake up, it's daylight..."

Bubble pouting, obviously satire Ye Chuqian Yue daydreaming.

On the side, Lu Ming laughed out very well.

Ye Chuqian Yue looked gloomy and said, "You better think clearly, follow me, you want power and power, resources and resources. You can get anything from this universe."

"I'm not afraid of flashing my tongue when I talk big, I want a head of Tianjun now, can you give it to me?"

The bubble continued to pouting.

"You... this is self-defeating!"

Ye Chuqian Yue was completely angry, and his eyes were extremely cold. His right hand was held empty, and the power of heaven's punishment exploded, and countless lightnings began to condense into a war sword.

At the same time, his left hand has also changed a lot, and a layer of gray power has spread out.

Lu Ming's pupil shrank and his heart shook.

This is the power of heaven.

Ye Chuqian Yue actually controlled two kinds of powers.

A force of heaven punishment, a force of heavenly destruction

Although the power of heaven's destruction seems to be inferior to the power of heaven's punishment, it is absolutely terrifying for one person to control the power of two kinds of superpowers.

Lu Ming only saw two kinds of powers in the Tiangong Tianzun.

"kill!"

Ye Chuqian Yue shouted, his body was like an arrow, and he was slain towards the bubble, his palms waved, and the two supernatural powers were entangled, and he slammed toward the bubble.

Powerful, and stronger than before.

Lu Ming's face changed, his breath burst out, and he wanted to help the bubble.

At the same time, the bubble also tried its best to turn the power of time and space to the extreme. The infinite power of time and space formed a cage of time and space and pressed it against Ye Chuqian Yue.

Under the attack of Ye Chu Qian Yue, the force of time and space constantly collapsed.

Uh!

Lu Ming turned into a spear, and pierced Ye Chu Qian Yue.

"roll!"

Ye Chu Qianyue blasted out, hit Lu Ming, and flew Lu Ming out.

Lu Ming felt his body full of blood and blood, and a spit of blood spewed out, his face pale.

But at this time, Qiuyue also shot, a machete composed of nine colors, cut down at Ye Chu Qian Yue.

The scream of anger and terror made Ye Chuqianyue's face change, because he felt a deadly threat.

At a critical moment, he banged out with his right palm and blasted with the nine-color scimitar.

With a bang, a violent roar swept across all directions.

Ye Chu Qianyue's offensive was finally blocked, and he stepped back several steps in a row.

Qiuyue and the bubble also retreated, and then stood side by side.

"You actually reached the eleven-star power!"

Ye Chu Qianyue looked at Qiuyue, showing a deep shock.

He was really shocked. When was the eleven-star combat power so worthless, and one after another appeared?

You know, most of the Son of Heaven or Daughter of Heaven is only eleven-star combat power.

And the four heavenly palaces add up to only nine sons or daughters of heaven.

How scarce?

But now, there are two in a row, how can he not be shocked?

Not only Ye Chu Qian Yue, other Tianren tribes, but also the Tianjiao of the few cosmic Tianjiao lists, were also extremely shocked.

In their eyes, the almost invincible Son of Heaven was actually blocked by others.

"Sky punishment, sky annihilation, two days of slaughter!"

Ye Chuqian Yue roared, and two kinds of supernatural powers surrounded his body. He raised his breath to the top, and continued to kill Bubble and others.

"Master, don't shoot first, let us do it!"

Qiuyue said, covered with the nine-color radiance, driving the nine-color scimitar, and killed Ye Chuqian Yue, and the bubble was assisted by the power of time and space.

Lu Ming is quite depressed, but his strength is still a bit worse, and there is indeed a big gap with Ye Chuqian Yue. Even if he shot, his role is very limited.

Now, only rely on Qiuyue and Bubble.

boom! boom! ...

The two sides confronted each other again, and there was continuous roar at the scene. There were more than ten moves in a row, and there was no victory or defeat.

"This guy, the fighting strength has reached the limit of eleven stars!"

Lu Ming thought, his face was dignified.

The arrogance of the Celestial Clan can actually control the power of a variety of Xeon Celestials, greatly increasing the combat power.

Ye Chuqian Yue, just controlling the power of two kinds of supreme heavens, is so powerful.

So, among the younger generation of the Celestial Clan, does anyone have control over the power of three types of supernatural power, or even the power of four types of superpower...

If there is, it is terrifying.

Lu Ming thinks that he still underestimated the Celestial Clan before.

Maybe among the Celestial Clan, there can be a rivalry with him at the same level.

No, it may not be, it is very possible.

After all, there are more than one taboo powers in history, but in the end they did not overthrow the Tiangong. The Tiangong is still the ruler of the colossal universe, which explains the problem.

Boom!

The confrontation between the two sides continued, and in a blink of an eye there were more than two dozen moves, and there was still no victory.

Ye Chuqian Yue, his face became more and more gloomy and anxious.

Because he found that he couldn't help Qiuyue and Bubble at all, let alone kill Lu Ming.

"You guys, go together!"

Ye Chu Qian Yue shouted at the others.

"Shoot!"

"kill!"

Others, have been waiting for this moment.

Before, Ye Chu Qian Yue told everyone not to shoot, everyone had some scruples, but now Ye Chu Qian Yue let them shoot, how could they justify it?

Suddenly killed out.

Of course, their goal is Lu Ming.

A dozen attacks attacked Lu Ming, and a few attacked Qiuyue and Bubble.

"Want to win more, here is unrealistic!"

Bubbles sipped softly, and the range covered by the power of space and time spread rapidly, and all the people across the Tiangong were enveloped.

Chapter 4382: Golden light wall

The power of space and time spreads, and everyone in the sky palace is enveloped. These people are pressed by the power of space and time, the speed becomes slower, the power is also suppressed, and their strength is greatly reduced.

Qiuyue and the bubble escaped easily, with no effect on them.

Uh!

Lu Ming also moved, and his figure was like a phantom, rushing towards the people in Tiangong.

In the power of time and space, Lu Ming's speed has not been affected, but has become faster.

After a few flashes, the attacks were avoided.

Then, he rushed to Tianjiao, a Celestial Clan with an eight-star fighting power, and shot him with a shot.

This man was frightened and wanted to dodge, but the power of time and space around him kept squeezing towards him. As if he was stuck in a quagmire, his speed was greatly affected, and he couldn't avoid it for a while.

Only hardwired.

He roared, bursting into the power of the strongest sky, and turned into a battle axe, splitting towards Lu Ming.

With a bang, the two attacked and collided together. At the moment of the collision, the battle axe formed by the Tianren Clan's Tianjiao broke up, and the gun was like a long rainbow, and the long drive went straight into the person's eyebrows.

The head of the Tianjiao Tianjiao burst like a watermelon and fell directly.

Lu Ming passed by, and the Tianjiao Tianjiao's storage ring fell into Lu Ming's hands.

Lu Ming's figure kept on, and he continued to kill Tianjiao, the next human race.

This Tianjiao has nine-star combat power.

When he saw Lu Ming killing, he was shocked and quickly backed away.

However, in the power of time and space, how could his speed be comparable to that of Lu Ming? He was also overtaken by Lu Ming's terrible attack.

Although he has a nine-star combat power and is powerful, it is a pity that he met Lu Ming.

Lu Ming now has the power of ten Samsungs. Even if the Tianren Clan Tianjiao was in its heyday, it was not Lu Ming's opponent. What's more, at this time, it was suppressed by the force of time and space, and the gap with Lu Ming was even greater.

puff!

Blood was splattering, and screams rang through the world.

Spike, still spike!

This Divine Emperor Jiu Zhong, with the extreme power of nine stars, was still killed by Lu Ming in one shot, and the storage ring also fell into Lu Ming's hands.

"court death..."

Ye Chuqian Yue roared, and the killing in his eyes almost turned into substance.

In his right palm, hundreds of white lightnings flashed constantly, and a crackling sound sounded.

Dozens of pure white lightning bolts slammed towards the landing.

When approaching Lu Ming, the lightning was getting bigger and bigger, and each one was thicker than the human waist, filled with a terrifying breath.

Lu Ming originally wanted to kill the next person, but in the face of these dozens of lightnings, he had to concentrate on responding.

Lu Ming cast his body, dodge nonstop, and at the same time shot out to resist.

After all, this is only a part of Ye Chuqian Yue's strength, not full strength. Lu Ming can still block it. The spear pierced and crushed the lightning that was converted by these days of punishment.

"Everyone, back away!"

Ye Chuqian Yue shouted, the thunder of the sky was mixed with the power of the sky, and he continued to slash towards Qiuyue and the bubble, and some of them also killed Lu Ming.

The purpose of this large-scale attack is to win back time for other people in the Temple.

He was not kind-hearted, he wanted to save the others in Tiangong.

But if all the people in these palaces are dead, he will also be implicated.

After all, here is headed by him, only he is a son of heaven.

Equal to these people are under his leadership.

If he led Lu Ming to kill them under his leadership and suffered heavy losses, his reputation and his reputation would be a huge blow to him.

His competitors will certainly use this to attack him, which is very detrimental to him.

Therefore, after Lu Ming killed two Tianren Clan Tianjiao in succession, he could only use his best efforts to cover the others' retreat.

Under the cover of Ye Chu Qian Yue, the others in the Tiangong quickly retreated and gathered together.

Ye Chuqianyue, who was not attacking Qiuyue and Bubble, also quickly retreated and got together with others.

In this way, it is difficult for Lu Ming and others to get started.

Ye Chuqianyue and others continued to retreat, and finally broke away from the envelope of the power of time and space. They stared at the three men with a gloomy glance.

"Muyun...No, I should call you Lu Ming!"

Ye Chu Qianyue stared at the landing and cried.

The nine daughters of Tian Tian, the daughter of Tian Tian, knew Lu Ming's true body, knew that Mu Yun was Lu Ming, and Lu Ming was Mu Yun.

The two are the same person.

Lu Ming smiled faintly and did not deny it.

However, some others in Tiangong's eyes widened in shock.

"What? Muyun, is Lu Ming?"

"Are they the same person?"

"How is this possible? How did his life breath change?"

Some people exclaimed, some were hard to believe.

But this was said by Ye Chuqian Yue, and looking at Lu Ming's expression, it was obviously a default, and they could not be tolerated.

This is really breaking news.

"Lu Ming, you can only hide behind two women, and you can only breathe. If there are no two women, I can cut you with one hand!"

Ye Chu Qian Yue sneered, with a strong sarcasm in his voice.

"You are just a little bit older than me, and cultivated a little higher than me. You have the ability to fight at the same level?"

Lu Ming satirized and clashed.

"Cultivation is also a kind of capital, cultivation is high, and it is also a talent. Do you want to call a * master, deliberately suppress Xiuwei to compete with a * king, or god, is it not ridiculous?"

"Some people have this kind of talent. Give him more time, and cultivation is difficult to improve. Do I have to lower Xiuwei to deal with each other every time I meet Xiuwei who is weaker than me. has no meaning?"

Ye Chu Qian Yue sneered and continued to sarcasm.

This time, Lu Ming said nothing.

He really has nothing to say, and the best counterattack is only to take actual actions and step on his feet in the future.

"You have a lot of nonsense, is it true of the Celestial Clan, and the strength is not enough, just rely on one mouth?"

Seeing Lu Ming being said, Qiuyue didn't say anything, he responded.

Ye Chu Qian Yue glanced at Qiuyue with a gloomy face and secretly vowed that Qiuyue would have to pay the price in the future.

"Master Tianzi, what shall we do next?"

Behind Ye Chu Qian Yue, a Tianren clan Tianjiao whispered.

"Continue to understand the ancient characters of Honghuang, Lu Ming, and then find a chance to solve..."

Ye Chu Qian Yue said.

When he had finished speaking, he turned and walked back to the golden light wall in front of the valley.

At this time, Lu Ming and three people had time to look at that golden light wall. At first glance, all three were shocked.

I saw that there were fonts on the golden light wall.

However, none of the three people knew this word.

This font looks very old and very strange.

It looks like a painting, but it looks like a character.

For example, there is a word, like a flame, but the three can judge that this is not a painting, but a word.

Chapter 4383: Awareness pictograph

"Is this a pictograph?"

Qiuyue whispered.

"What is a pictograph?"

Lu Ming asked.

"Master Zun once said that pictographs were the characters of the last era. At that time, the popular characters on the mainland were like patterns and fonts, so they are called pictographs, but they are the oldest fonts. , Call it the ancient characters of Honghuang..."

Qiuyue explained quietly.

"It turns out that the pictograph is appropriate."

Lu Ming nodded.

The three stepped out and came under the golden light wall.

The golden light wall is very large, completely separating the valley, and is tens of thousands of miles wide. They are far away from the people of the Celestial Clan.

The three carefully looked at the golden light wall.

On the golden light wall, those hieroglyphs radiate a strange brilliance. What is wonderful is that they continue to walk on the light wall, and after a while they travel to the distance, and then back again, like flowing in a small river. .

"Curious feeling..."

Lu Ming whispered, staring closely at these pictographs.

These hieroglyphs give people a sense of immense ancientness and endless mystery. It seems that every pictograph contains infinite mystery.

But this kind of mystery has obscure and incomprehensible content, which is completely different from the current cultivation system.

"These hieroglyphs are extremely peculiar. Do they contain the cultivation methods or secret techniques of the last era?"

Qiuyue guessed.

"According to the information left by Dandan, only by comprehending some of the mysteries of the fonts on this wall can we enter the true core of Wuxing Xianshan through this golden light wall and obtain Wuxing fairy tears!"

At this time, the bubble said.

"It seems that these fonts are extraordinary, so let's get started!"

Lu Ming said.

The three chose a place to sit down, then stared at the pictographs on the golden wall seriously and began to understand.

The golden walls, in Lu Ming's eyes, seemed to be continuously enlarged, font by font, flowing in Lu Ming's eyes.

Lu Ming fell into the ethereal realm and interpreted these pictographs as much as possible, hoping to understand some mysteries.

Of course, part of his mind is also concerned about the surrounding environment, if there is danger, he can respond in time.

In a flash, three days passed.

However, Lu Ming did not realize anything.

However, although he didn't realize anything, he saw a little bit of eyebrows.

"These hieroglyphs seem to imply not the practice of cultivation, but the existence of a mystery..."

Lu Ming thought.

However, because the cultivation method of the last era is very different from the present, although these pictographs contain the existence of similar occult techniques, they are not actually occult techniques. They are very mysterious, and Lu Ming hasn't yet figured out the clue.

In fact, think about it too. These pictographs will certainly not be so enlightening. Ye Chu Qian Yue and others have estimated that they have been here for several years. They are still stuck outside and have not passed through the golden wall of light.

Ye Chuqian Yue, who can become a son of heaven, has extremely high talents and absolutely top-notch perception. He spent so long without understanding, and it can be seen that these pictographs are definitely not that simple.

At the same time, Lu Ming and the three of them all have a sense of urgency, and want to understand as soon as possible, through the golden light wall, to get five elements of fairy tears.

In case it is taken a step ahead by the Celestials, it will be troublesome.

After all, they came a few years late.

"Try the ancient ancient stone!"

Lu Ming moved.

The ancient ancient stone is extremely mysterious. The legend is a treasure of the last era. The master of the ancient ancient court relied on the ancient ancient stone to learn from the three thousand ancient mysteries.

Lu Ming is reliable with the ancient ancient stone, and based on other ancient ancient secret techniques, he successfully realized the "ground breaking type".

Can the ancient ancient stone help him to understand these pictographs?

The same thing from the previous era, should it help?

Lu Ming was not very sure in his heart and could only try it.

Lu Ming's mind sank into the ancient ancient stone and merged with the ancient ancient stone.

Buzz!

In the knowledge of the sea, a strange pattern suddenly appeared on the ancient ancient stone.

"this is..."

Looking at these lines, Lu Ming was shocked.

These lines look similar to the pictographs on the golden light wall.

This has never happened before.

When Lu Ming used to enlighten the ancient secrets of the ancients, or when he realized the "Broken Sky", some patterns appeared on the ancient ancient stone.

But those lines are very different from the current lines.

"Look at the effect..."

Lu Ming suppressed the fluctuations in his heart and continued to watch the pictographs on the golden light wall.

This time, there has clearly been a change.

The hieroglyphs on the golden light wall seemed to have some wonderful things in his eyes.

It was a feeling, a wonderful feeling.

That is, the hieroglyphs on the golden light wall are not so obscure, and Lu Ming has a strange understanding in his heart.

"Big Ancient God Stone, it's really useful, it can help me understand, so good..."

Lu Ming was overjoyed.

Originally, people from the Celestial Clan came in a few years earlier than them, and they had more years of enlightenment, which made him very bottomless, afraid that the other party would suddenly succeed in enlightenment.

Now, he finally had some confidence.

Immediately, Lu Ming concentrated his energy and gave full insight.

These pictographs, slowly appearing in Lu Ming's eyes, seemed to come alive, as if they were transformed into flames, and into mountains, and even into different creatures, deducing their mysteries.

"It's really a mystery-like existence, it's a means to attack or assist..."

Lu Ming whispered, more and more enlightenment in his heart, and the understanding of these pictographs became deeper and deeper.

However, Lu Ming is after all contacting with this pictograph for the first time. The first time he was in contact with the 'secret technique' of the previous era. It is still very difficult to succeed in understanding.

Even with the help of the ancient stone, it is not so easy.

Time has passed day by day.

In a flash, a year has passed.

People of the Celestial Clan still have no insight.

At this time, Lu Ming's understanding of pictographs has been greatly improved.

His hands sometimes danced unconsciously, and his fingertips crossed the space, drawing a mysterious pattern.

"Master is worthy of being a master, always so powerful!"

On the side, Qiuyue's beautiful eyes flickered, her face full of admiration.

"Brother Lu Ming is awesome. The guy from Dan Dan is right. Only Brother Lu Ming can save him!"

Bubble's face was also full of smiles.

The two of them had been enlightened for a year, only to feel that their heads were swollen and their fur was not enlightened.

And Lu Ming has obviously taken a big step, making them convinced.

"Let's continue to enlighten, don't you believe in the young master, but also to prevent accidents..."

Qiuyue said to the bubble.

"Ok!"

Bubble nodded and continued to understand.

In a flash, another two years passed.

Chapter 4384: Break through the golden light wall

Another two years have passed.

In the past two years, Lu Ming's understanding of pictographs has been increasing every day. Over the past two years, Lu Ming has made great progress.

Not to mention complete understanding, but it's already a model.

Under the golden wall of light, Lu Ming's figure flickered, his hands danced in a mysterious trajectory, between his hands, there might be high mountains emerging, or flames burning, or turned into a magic soldier...

Unpredictable, and huge and powerful.

This seems to be a seal method. Although the surface looks very similar to today's occult, it works in a completely different way.

There seems to be a wonderful gathering of qi between the operation of this seal and between heaven and earth, which can burst out the power of terror.

At this time, Lu Ming had a kind of enlightenment. He felt that he could already use this seal to pass through the golden light wall.

"Qiuyue, Bubble, you are waiting for me here, I will try it!"

Lu Ming said.

"Come on, Brother Lu Ming, you definitely can."

Bubble waved his fist and cheered for Lu Ming.

Qiuyue also smiled. She didn't need to say anything. She must have believed Lu Ming 100%.

Lu Ming stepped out, appeared under the golden light wall, and then danced with both hands, running the seal from the pictograph.

His hands seemed to turn into flames and bombarded.

Buzz!

When the flames hit the golden light wall, the golden light wall shook violently, a circle of ripples, spreading out in all directions.

"Useful, continue!"

Lu Ming's eyes lit up, and it seemed that he did not guess wrong.

There is no need to fully comprehend those hieroglyphs, as long as you understand a part, you can pass through the golden light wall.

Immediately, Lu Ming continued to use the hieroglyphic printing method, his hands danced rapidly, and turned into a high mountain, bombarding on the golden light wall, making the golden light wall vibrate even more violently.

In the distance, about tens of thousands of miles away, Ye Chuqian Yue and others still enlighten the pictographs here.

Their cultivation practices have reached Divine Emperor Jiuzhong, and they are not in a hurry to refine Hong Huangdan, and they are here to learn from it.

They also understand that this pictograph must be a great opportunity. If they can understand it, they will have a great effect on themselves in the future.

So even after so many years, they have little understanding, but they still don't want to leave, and they still understand here.

At this moment, the golden wall of light shook, and a trace of ripples appeared.

"what happened?"

"How could the light wall suddenly shake?"

The people of the Celestial World cried out.

"The vibration came from over there, and Lu Ming over there!"

Someone called.

"Don't Lu Ming understand the ancient characters of Honghuang and are breaking through the golden light wall?"

This voice made everyone's face very ugly.

Including Ye Chu Qian Yue.

"Go, go and see!"

Ye Chu Qian Yue said coldly, his figure flashed, and rushed towards the direction of landing Ming Ming.

The others followed Ye Chuqian Yue.

Thousands of miles away.

Soon, they saw Lu Ming and Lu Ming were bombarding the golden light wall.

Sure enough, Lu Ming succeeded.

"Damn..."

Ye Chu Qian Yue roared, a face twisted extremely, became extremely terrible.

It took him seven or eight years to understand the pictographs of success, and Lu Ming had succeeded only a few years later and began to bombard the golden light wall.

Jealous, very jealous!

At this moment, Ye Chuqianyue felt burned by the burning jealous fire.

"Kill, kill them, don't let them successfully pass through the golden light wall."

Ye Chu Qianyue burst into roar, his body was filled with cold killing opportunities, and they rushed towards the landing crazy.

Others, too, sang them to Landing.

"Stop them, don't let them disturb the young master!"

Qiuyue Jiao shouted, and at the chest, Jiuqiao Sacred Heart throbbed violently, and the nine-color glow filled, and rushed towards Yechu Qianyue and others.

"Hugh wants to disturb Brother Lu Ming!"

The bubble also rushed out, and the power of time and space was covered with the whole void, covering all the heavenly human races.

Qiuyue and Bubble do not seek to kill the enemy, but only to stop Ye Chuqian Yue and others. The cooperation between the two is seamless. For a time, Yechu Qian Yue and others are difficult to rush over.

And Lu Mingxin has no sideliness, running the pictographic printing method with all his heart, bombarding the golden light wall.

The golden light wall vibrated more and more. At the center of Lu Ming's attack, it sag and a pit slowly appeared.

Lu Ming's eyes lit up, seize the time, and shot continuously.

With a loud bang, the wall of light was blasted open, forming a hole for only one person to pass through.

"Qiuyue, bubble, I'm in!"

Lu Ming cried.

"Master, you can go in with confidence, here we are!"

"Brother Lu Ming, go in quickly, these people, why can't we!"

Qiuyue and Bubble responded quickly.

"Damn, kill, kill, kill!"

Ye Chu Qian Yue roared wildly and shot madly, but it was useless. He was taken care of and wrapped in the power of time and space. Then Qiuyue slayed at him, and he could not rush through in a short time.

At this time, Lu Ming stepped out, rushed into the hole, and disappeared.

Although leaving Qiuyue and Bubble outside, facing Ye Chuqian Yue and others, Lu Ming felt relieved.

The strength of Qiuyue and Bubble is enough to protect yourself.

In fact, of the three of them, Lu Ming has the weakest strength, and without him, Qiuyue and Bubble will move better.

This is why he rested confidently into the golden light wall.

As soon as Lu Ming entered the golden light wall, the hole in the light wall disappeared in an instant. The second person was not allowed to pass through at all. The golden light wall also returned to its original state.

"Lu Ming..."

Ye Chuqian Yue gritted her teeth, her eyes shone coldly, and the flames of anger had reached the zenith.

After a while, Ye Chuqian Yue calmed down.

"let's go!"

Ye Chu Qian Yue roared and turned away.

Lu Ming has entered the golden light wall, and they no longer have to stay here, staying, and meaningless.

In a blink of an eye, people of the Celestial Clan disappeared without a trace.

...

After passing through the golden light wall, Lu Ming appeared in a wide room.

The secret room was so empty that there was nothing.

I didn't see other passages or gates.

Lu Ming's complexion was a bit ugly.

How can there be five elements of fairy tears?

"After so many years, someone finally came here again."

A voice suddenly sounded.

Lu Ming was shocked and looked around, but did not see any figure.

"Who?"

Lu Ming took it lightly.

"I'm above your head."

The voice recalled, it sounded very young, like a little girl of seven or eight years old.

Lu Ming looked upwards, and suddenly there was light shining over the secret room, and then a figure appeared suddenly.

This figure is only a little more than a meter tall, with claw braids and a blushing face, and it turns out to be a little girl of seven or eight years old.

Chapter 4385: Jade Girl and Qi Refinery

The little girl is barefoot, her feet are white and tender, fat and chubby, and very cute.

She lifted her foot slightly and landed in front of Lu Ming, looking at Lu Ming curiously.

Lu Ming also looked at the little girl curiously.

"Not an entity, but a phantom..."

Lu Ming moved.

It can be clearly seen that the little girl is not an entity, not a flesh and blood life, but a phantom.

It looks like a light condensed, looks very illusory.

"What's your name?"

The little girl asked, staring at the landing.

"Lu Ming, how about you?"

Lu Ming answered truthfully and then asked back.

"You can call me Jade Girl, how about that name? Isn't it nice?"

After that, he looked at Landing Ming with hope.

"That... is pretty good."

Lu Ming said something against his heart.

"Hee hee, let me just say, my name is nice, hee hee, pretty..."

The little girl was immersed in joy alone.

Lu Ming: "..."

"That, Jade Girl, do you have five elements of fairy tears here?"

Lu Ming asked.

"Five Elements Fairy Tears, of course, but if you want, you must promise me a condition."

The lady also reacted, knowing that she was about to do something serious, and her small face put on a serious look.

It's just that it's so cute, even if it's serious, it looks so good.

"What conditions?"

Lu Ming resisted the urge to squeeze the chubby face of the girl and asked.

"It's very simple, is to practice the gas refining technique I passed to you?"

Jade Road.

"Qi Refinery? What is it? Cultivate True Qi?"

Lu Ming asked curiously.

"Of course not. In your words, Qi alchemy is the cultivation method of the last era. It absorbs the innate primitive qi and serves it for its own use. Alchemy alchemy, Hua Yuanying, and finally Feathering into Immortality, immortality..."

"The main continent of cultivation in the last continent was the practice of Qi, which is extremely mysterious and mysterious, but it is much stronger and more promising than your current cultivation way. How about, think about it?"

The maiden murmured a bunch of words, and finally looked like a lure to the landing.

"It was actually the way of cultivation in the last era."

Lu Ming whispered, his eyes bright, and he was very excited.

Judging from the evidence now available, the wilderness continent of the last era was extremely prosperous, and its overall strength was also much stronger than that of the present.

This can be seen from the exploration of the ruins of the universe from the current Tiangong and the people who destroy the heavenly army.

In addition, Taishang Xiancheng is just a city left by the last era, but it contains countless eras, so that the people in the main realm of God must break their heads.

From these evidences, in the last era, the cultivation civilization of the wasteland was much stronger than it is now.

How can Lu Ming be unwilling to practice the cultivation method of the last era.

"I am naturally willing to practice!"

Lu Ming nodded quickly.

"Okay, then you can abandon cultivation, and then I will pass on you to practice Qi technique. You will practice with peace of mind here, and wait for your cultivation to be successful, and then go out, and then carry forward Qi practice..."

The Jade Girl murmured again, but Lu Ming's face changed greatly.

"What, do you want me to self-cultivate and continue to practice here? No, I can't do this!"

Lu Ming refused immediately.

Just kidding, he spent all his hard work to cultivate to the present state, and let him abandon cultivation, how is it possible?

He is now a taboo body. He has the power to control taboos. His combat power is extremely powerful. He has reached ten stars. His future is limitless. Even if he practiced Qi, can he achieve this achievement now?

Also, let him stay here to practice all the time, he will not go out? He also has to take the Five Elements Fairy Tears to save Dandan and Ling Yuwei!

He could not agree to these two conditions.

Therefore, Lu Ming refused to be neat.

"Don't rush to decline, I tell you, although you are strong now, but practice Qi Qi to the high and deep realm, it will not be weaker than you now, even stronger than you now, and Qi Qi has infinite possibilities than you now. There is much more future, you have to look forward."

"Also, if you want to go out, you want to take Wu Xing Xian Tears out to save people. You can rest assured that I can send Wu Xing Xian Tears to you and send them to your friends. Are you waiting for you?"

The girl continued to speak bitterly but said Lu Ming, and at the same time praised the practice of Qi.

But Lu Ming just shook his head.

He hasn't practiced Qi training. Who knows whether it's good or not, who knows if the Jade Girl is bragging, and who knows the practice of Qi Qi taught by the Jade Girl, is it high or not?

Even the cultivation method of the last era certainly has high and low points. If the Jade Girl passed it to him, what about the low level?

"You guys, how come Elm's head, hum, if you don't agree, I won't give you five elements of fairy tears..."

Finally, the girl pouted and released a big move.

"You...you can't be so ridiculous!"

Lu Ming gaped.

"Huh, what did I do?"

The Jade Girl stared at Landing Ming with a straight and vigorous look.

Lu Ming: "..."

"Huh, I am finally looking forward to someone who can understand some Qi-Qi skills, and absolutely cannot let you go, you must try it..."

The girl continued.

Lu Ming knew that the Jade Girl said that he had realized some Qi-qi exercises, which should be the pictographs on the golden wall outside.

"Isn't anyone here before me, as far as I know, someone has been here before sixty star years?"

Lu Ming asked.

Since Dandan knows that there are five lines of fairy tears, someone must have come in.

"Yes, but those people are waste, and their talents are not enough, they are not suitable for cultivation, and you are not the same. Your talents are very high. Actually, it took only three years to enlighten some Qi training. You are more suitable than those people. , I will not let you go, I tell you, I will definitely not let you go, you have to agree if you don't agree..."

The nymph murmured again.

"Okay, I can promise you!"

At this moment, Lu Ming said suddenly.

"You really agreed?"

Suddenly, the Jade Girl didn't expect Lu Ming to change so fast. She was determined not to do so before, but now she has changed?

"Yes, I promised!"

Lu Ming nodded.

He had a flash of light just now and thought of an idea.

Slash three corpses!

That's right, it's the technique of cutting three corpses.

The technique of cutting three corpses can cut out the past, present and future.

Lu Ming now only cuts out the "past body" and "present body".

The "future body" has not been cut out.

It's not that Lu Ming can't do it, but that he has never had a suitable opportunity to cut his future.

In the past, you practiced divine power, but now you control the power of taboo. So, what is your future body?

Now, there is!

Cut out the future body, you can practice Qi art here.

Chapter 4386: Cut out the future

Feihuang once said that the technique of slashing three corpses is endless and mysterious, and cultivation to great success will greatly help break through a crucial state in the future.

However, the past, present, and future integration will burst out with endless potential.

Lu Ming always wanted to cut out the "future body", but he never found a way to cultivate the "future body".

Qi training is the most suitable.

Similarly, the future body can also stay here for a long time to practice.

"Okay, then you should quickly repair it yourself."

Jade Road.

"Self-repairing, no need, no need to self-repairing."

Lu Ming shook his head.

"No self-cultivation practice? That's not possible. Qi training and the strength of your current practice will conflict with each other and cannot coexist."

The lady shook her head.

"I don't need to coexist, let me tell you the truth. I practiced a secret technique that can cut out the past, the present and the future. As long as I cut out the future body, let the future body and you practice Qiqi here! "

Lu Ming said.

"What? You...you..."

The Jade Girl jumped up suddenly, her eyes rounded, her little red face stunned with shock.

"Have you mastered the technique of cutting three corpses?"

The Jade Girl held back for a long time, and finally held out this sentence.

"You also know the technique of cutting three corpses?"

Lu Ming asked back.

"Nonsense, of course I know, nobody in the Honghuang Continent doesn't know. I tell you that the technique of chopping three corpses is a top-notch Qiqi practice in Honghuang Continent. , I thought it was lost, but I didn't expect it to be mastered by you..."

The lady whispered again.

"Wait!"

Lu Ming interrupted the whispering of the Jade Girl, and said, "Just tell me, I cut out my future body, can I practice Qi Qi, does it meet your requirements?"

"of course can!"

The lady nodded again and again.

"That's good, I will start cultivating now, and cut out my future body. Then you will have to give me five elements of fairy tears, and I want two drops."

Lu Ming said.

"No problem, I still have three drops here, I can give you together. By the way, five elements of fairy tears, you can bring Taishang fairy city."

Jade Road.

"it is good!"

Lu Ming was overjoyed, no longer delaying time, sitting cross-legged. In his mind, he carefully thought about the method of slashing three corpses, and then began to practice.

It is not so easy to practice the technique of cutting three corpses.

It took Lu Ming several months to formally start to cut his future.

His body trembled violently, and both his body and soul came with severe pain.

His body began to sway violently, as if to split up, and another figure appeared.

In a flash, a few days passed.

This time, with the previous experience of cutting out the past body, the process is much smoother. After a few days, Lu Ming has successfully cut out the "future body".

Opposite Lu Ming's "present body", sitting in a figure exactly like Lu Ming's, is the "future body".

It's just that the present 'future body' has no cultivation at all, no strength, and purity.

"Okay, okay, okay!"

The Jade Girl danced around the 'future body' constantly, looked around, and was very satisfied.

In her view, the "future body" is a good way to practice Qi.

It is more suitable than Lu Ming's self-destructive repair.

The future body, because it has not been cultivated, is very pure, such as a piece of raw jade that has not been carved, as long as it is slightly carved, it can become a piece of treasure.

"I will pass on the practice method of Qi Qiu to you now..."

Immediately, the Jade Girl dictated a practice method of Qi Qi, Lu Ming kept in mind.

Later, Lu Ming's "future body" began to understand.

Lu Ming's 'Now Body' sat on the sidelines without disturbing.

The "future body" is purely incomparable, and has the talent and understanding of the "present body". The practice of Qi art has no obstacles and is very smooth.

In just three months, the 'future body' started to practice Qi-qi practice. At Dantian, a ray of 'Qi' condensed.

This kind of qi is completely different from true qi and divine qi. It seems to be more advanced and pure.

"Awesome, awesome, really awesome, you are just getting started in just three months, you are simply a wizard who is practicing Qishu..."

Yu Nuwei's "Future Body", which rang around, continued to wander, with a look of awe.

"What I cultivate is a genius!"

Lu Ming whispered in his heart, of course, did not say it, for fear that the Jade Girl was unhappy, after all, the Wuxing Xian Tears hadn't got it yet.

"Jade Girl, now you can give me the Five Elements Fairy Tears!"

Lu Ming's "present body" said.

"Of course, but your "future body" will stay here to continue to practice. You know, Qi practice is all-encompassing and unfathomable. You are just mastering the fur now, and there are countless things to learn, which will take a long time. "

Jade Road.

"No problem, "future body" will stay here to learn from you."

Lu Ming nodded at his "present body". As for the "future body", he naturally would not object. His original intention was to practice Qi.

"That's good, the Five Elements Fairy Tears, to you!"

The Jade Girl stretched her hand a little in the air, and there was a trace of waves in the air, then a Jade Bottle appeared out of thin air.

"Without storage rings, what is this means?"

Lu Ming moved.

The Jade Girl is just a phantom, not an entity, nor a treasure of any storage. The Jade Bottle seems to appear out of thin air. Is it hidden in the void?

As soon as the Jade Girl waved her hand, the Jade Bottle flew towards the landing. Lu Ming reached out and took it. When she opened it, she saw three drops of liquid, like drops of water, crystal clear.

But when Lu Ming looked closely, the color of the water droplets changed again, emitting a colorless light, which was gorgeous and dazzling.

Wu Xing Xian Tears, Lu Ming overjoyed, Ball and Ling Yuwei, they were saved.

"Thank you!"

Lu Ming's "Now Body" clenched his fists.

"Let's go, let's go!"

The Jade Girl waved her hands again and again, and she looked so disgusted that her current thoughts were all placed on the "future body".

A force emerged out of thin air, covering Lu Ming's 'now body'. Under a volume, Lu Ming's body disappeared directly from the original place. At the next moment, Lu Ming found that he had left the chamber and reappeared in the golden light wall outer.

"Master!"

"Brother Lu Ming!"

Qiuyue and Bubble saw Lu Ming and flew over quickly.

"Brother Lu Ming, how is it? Did the Five Elements Fairy Tears reach you?"

Asked Bubble.

"Get it!"

Lu Ming nodded.

Qiuyue and Bubble are ecstatic.

"Dan Dan, this guy's life is so great, I'm saved now."

Bubble smiled cheerfully.

Although she and Dandan often quarrel, they actually have a very strong relationship. Dandan's life and death are unknown, and she is also anxious.

"Go, we leave here and find a place to restore Dandan and Ling Yuwei."

Lu Ming said.

Chapter 4387: resurrection

The three Lu Ming returned along the same road. Soon, they left Wuxingxian Mountain and flew towards the distance. Soon, they came to a relatively remote place.

After they plan to save Dandan and Ling Yuwei, they will return to Tianwei Star Palace.

"Bubble, take out the souls of Dandan and Ling Yuwei..."

Lu Ming said to the bubble.

Bubble nodded and waved his hand, Dan Dan and Ling Yuwei's soul flew out.

The souls of the two were surrounded by the force of time and space, and the body was covered with runes.

Even so, after this period of time, their souls have dimmed and become weaker.

In their bodies, the restraining power contained in the Tiangong Tianbing battle armor still destroys their souls all the time. Without the double protection of the formation and the power of time and space, the souls of the two would have completely dissipated.

Even so, the souls of the two will not last long.

Fortunately, the Five Elements Fairy Tears came.

According to Dandan, as long as the Five Elements Immortal Tears are melted into their souls, not only can they banish the forbidden power in their souls, but they can also strengthen their souls, and even help them reunite their bodies and completely restore them.

"let's start!"

Lu Ming whispered, took out the jade bottle, opened it out of thin air, and pulled it with taboo power. Two drops of five-element fairy tears flew out and flew to the souls of Dan Dan and Ling Yuwei respectively.

Under the control of the bubble, the power of time and space did not hinder Wu Xianxian Tears, and passed through the power of time and space and flew to the souls of the two.

As soon as they touched the souls of the two, the Five Elements Xian Tears merged into their souls and disappeared.

But at the next moment, the soul of the two of them suddenly shined brightly, a ray of radiant rays of light burst out from the souls of the two of them, and in the ray of light, there was a trace of black mist.

"Really effective!"

Lu Ming, Qiuyue, and the three people of Bubble all showed a happy look, because it is clear that this black mist is the prohibitive force on the armor of the Heavenly Soldiers. At this time, this prohibitive force is being wiped out by the Five Elements Immortal Tears.

After about three minutes, there was no black mist again, which means that the restraining power has been completely wiped out.

After the power of the prohibition was wiped out, the souls of the two quickly changed color and solidified, and there was a strong fluctuation, which was the fluctuation of the soul.

Originally, there was little fluctuation in the souls of the two, but now, there is a strong fluctuation, and the fluctuation of the soul is getting more and more intense.

The three Lu Ming felt that Dan Dan and Ling Yuwei's soul seemed to contain a force of terrifying terror, which was changing now.

"Close!"

Bubbles sip lightly, with a small hand, the power of time and space wrapped in the souls of the two, disappeared without a trace.

At the same time, the runes covering the souls of the two also disappeared without a trace.

The restraining power has been wiped out, and now no longer needs protection. The formation and time and space forces continue to hang over, but it will affect the effect of the Five Elements Immortal Tears.

Sure enough, after the removal of the formation and the power of time and space, the glow of the two people's souls became even more radiant, making the two's souls look like two glazes, as if turned into substance.

Then, based on the souls of the two, there will be continuous flesh and blood.

This is reuniting the body.

It can be clearly seen that a trace of muscle and a drop of blood are constantly produced.

This process lasted about three hours.

Dan Dan and Ling Yuwei's bodies reappeared in front of the three people, but they were enveloped by a layer of glow.

boom!

Then, in the body of the two, a strong breath burst out.

This breath is getting older and stronger, the Divine King, Divine Emperor, Divine Emperor...

Soon, it rushed to Divine Emperor Yae.

This is the original state of the egg and Ling Yuwei, but this is not over yet, the two people's breath continues to improve, and soon soared again, reaching the Divine Emperor Jiuzhong.

When the Divine Emperor Jiuzhong, their breath did not continue to improve.

However, the changes between the two are not over yet.

First of all, in the eyebrows of Dan Dan, a word was punched out.

This is an ancient Chinese character. This word is the word 'array'.

The original ancient word 'Zhen' was previously hidden in the soul of Dandan.

At the same time, around the body of Dan Dan, there are constantly running out of runes, these runes are interwoven into a different formation.

These formations collapsed as soon as they appeared, and then turned into another formation.

In this way, between the formations, there is no alternation of dots, and in a moment, there are hundreds of formations alternating, which is extremely mysterious.

On the other side, Ling Yuwei seems to turn into a seed, and then the seed quickly roots and leaves, and eventually a towering tree is formed.

This big tree is a holy tree of elves.

The holy tree of elves exudes endless vitality, like the tree of the world.

"Every aspect is evolving, and the Five Elements Xian Tears are truly magical!"

Lu Ming, Qiuyue, and Bubble are all sighing.

Obviously, the role of the Five Elements Immortal Tears is not only to expel the forbidden forces of the Sky Armor, not only to help them consolidate their flesh, but also to help them break through the cultivation base and let them evolve in other ways.

For example, physique mystery, source divine power factor, source mystery, etc. are all improving.

It is conceivable that after the two men recover, the combat power will definitely soar, and it is not yet possible to determine which step can be achieved.

This process will last longer, and it lasted for three days. The vision around Dan Dan and Ling Yuwei's body disappeared, and the glow disappeared, and the breath of the two calmed down.

Then, the two opened their eyes one after another.

"Hahaha, Laozi is resurrected, hahaha, those guys from the Celestial Clan want to harm me, there is no door, who is Laozi? How can they handle it?"

When he saw the three Lu Ming, he burst into laughter, and then came a big wave of boast.

Lu Ming's eyelids jumped straight, kicking directly, kicking in the air a seventy-two degree spin in the air.

"Your boy, if you don't have me, you can be resurrected, and you can boast..."

Lu Mingdao, very direct contempt.

"Lu Ming, you dare to kick me, I..."

Dan Dan covered her butt, jumped three feet tall, stared at the landing clan with wide eyes, and looked like she was clenching her teeth, but she didn't dare to do it.

"Lu Ming, you are also a part of my calculation. I have known for a long time that you can get five elements of fairy tears, so I made such a strategy. To put it bluntly, you are also my pawn. Do you understand?"

"Hahaha, I'm so genius, I can come up with such a perfect strategy..."

The more excited and the more happy, and the more happy, the more I have to dance.

"Mu...Mu Yun...You lied to me?"

At this moment, a voice sounded, causing Dan Dan's voice to stop abruptly.

Because this voice comes from Ling Yuwei.

Chapter 4388: Yelvdi's shock

"No, I just said the leak."

Dandan whispered in his heart.

He was excited for a while and called Lu Ming's original name. He forgot Ling Yuwei and didn't know Lu Ming's true identity.

At this time, Ling Yuwei's beautiful eyes stared at Ming Ming tightly, and seemed to want Lu Ming to tell her the answer.

Lu Ming was a little silent. For a time, she didn't know how to open her teeth.

"Are you... Lu Ming or Mu Yun?"

Ling Yuwei stared at Landing Ming and asked again.

"Girl Yuwei, I'm really sorry, my true identity is Lu Ming, the name of Muyun, I replaced others, the real Muyun of Fengdu Jianpai, which is your real fiancée, may have fallen. !"

Lu Ming said the truth directly.

"why why?"

Ling Yuwei's body trembled, tears twirled in his eyes, his eyes flashed with confusion, and there was a deep sorrow.

She has always regarded Lu Ming as her true fiancé, and has long sincerely promised to treat Lu Ming as her lifelong trustee.

But now?

Now she suddenly discovered that Lu Ming's true identity was not Mu Yun or her fiancé. Her true fiancé might have died long ago.

The news hit her so much that her heart was completely messed up.

"Girl Yuwei, I'm sorry, I didn't mean to hide you. At first, I needed to borrow this identity to enter the Tiangong..."

Lu Ming explained.

"You don't need to explain!"

Ling Yuwei said, her eyes were on Lu Ming, Qiuyue turned around a few times, and she seemed to understand something.

"Mu...No, Lu Ming, you shouldn't lie to me, you should tell me early."

Ling Yuwei said.

"Sorry..."

Lu Ming wanted to say more.

"It's useless to say more, since then, you and I have nothing to do with each other, and when we meet later, we will be passers-by!"

After talking, Ling Yuwei turned around directly, and Lingkong stepped away, very decisively and directly.

But, at the moment Ling Yuwei turned around, a teardrop scattered, drifting with the wind, and drifting towards Lu Ming.

Lu Ming reached out his hand, and the tears fell on his palm, cold, as if it were Ling Yuwei's heart.

By this time, Ling Yuwei had left and disappeared in front of everyone.

'Hey! "

Lu Ming sighed for a long time.

He originally borrowed the identity of 'Muyun', but he just wanted to enter the Heavenly Palace and become a Heavenly Soldier.

I never imagined that this identity would lead to so many things and cause so many entanglements with Ling Yuwei.

Having been with each other for so long, saying that there is no trace of Ling Yuwei's heart, it is fake, but what can he do now?

How can it be explained?

"Master, don't you chase?"

Qiuyue came over and pulled Da Ming's big hand gently.

"What can I do to catch up? What can I explain?"

Lu Ming whispered, shaking his head slightly.

"Lu Ming, look, you are squeezing flowers everywhere, and another girl was hurt by you."

Dan Dan pouted.

"Yes, it is!"

The bubble head is like a chicken peck at rice.

"There is so much nonsense, let's go back to Tianwei Star Palace."

Lu Ming said, and then stepped towards the direction of Tianwei Star Palace.

Dan Dan licked his lips, even behind Lu Ming.

A group of four people, no, to be precise, two people, one turtle and one mouse, headed towards the Tianwei Star Palace.

After continuously crossing several star palaces, they returned to the Tianwei Star Palace.

After returning to the Tianwei Star Palace, they headed towards the hidden area.

Now, Dan Dan and Ling Yuwei have both been rescued, and they have lifted the prohibition of the body armor in their body. Now, Lu Ming wants to consolidate Hong Huang Dan with all his strength, and hit Divine Emperor Jiuzhong.

Although his current combat strength is strong, reaching ten tristar, but cultivation base is only Divine Emperor Eightfold, and it is weaker. Only by raising the cultivation base to Divine Emperor Ninefold, he is not afraid of anyone.

Soon, they were close to the biggest ground.

From a distance, you can already see the four towering trees on the ground.

Lu Ming breathed a sigh of relief, and the four big trees were still there, indicating that the earth's veins had not been broken.

If it is attacked, the four big trees cannot exist intact.

But at this moment, Lu Ming suddenly felt a sense of crisis.

"Wait, there is danger ahead!"

Lu Ming screamed.

In fact, without Lu Ming, Qiuyue, Bubble, and the spiritual consciousness of Dandan and Dandan were extremely keen, and they felt it. They stopped involuntarily and glanced around.

Uh, uh, uh!

At this time, on the ground and in the sky, there were constant figures rushing out to surround Lu Ming and the others.

There are at least thousands of people.

They are all Celestials, and most of them are strong men, and there are a few younger generations, each with a strong breath.

The terrifying breath gathered together, like mountains, pressed against their heads.

The faces of the four Lu Ming suddenly dimmed.

These thousands of human races are actually the existence of Divine Emperor Jiuzhong.

Obviously, the people of the Celestial Clan knew that Lu Ming had left this land, so he did not attack this land, but ambushed all around, waiting for Lu Ming to return.

"not good!"

At the moment, above the earth's veins, Ye Ling was making alchemy and was also alarmed, his face changed greatly.

As soon as he saw so many human races appearing, he knew that Lu Ming had returned and was surrounded.

However, there is still a lot of distance between this place and the four big trees, which can't help at all.

With his fighting strength, after all, he is weak and can't help when he goes, so he can only worry.

The four Lu Ming, but with a dignified complexion, felt calm in their hearts.

"Muyun, you are finally back. This time, how do you die?"

A cold and arrogant voice sounded, and a young Celestial Clan stepped out of the crowd.

This person is Yelvdi.

Yeludi glanced at the four people Lu Ming, when he saw Dandan, his eyes suddenly rolled round, revealing an incredible color, and shouted: "This is your world turtle, how is it possible How can you be alive, how can you be intact?"

Yelvdi was really shocked.

Last time, he clearly urged the power of the prohibition, so that Dandan was extinguished, and at most there was only one soul left, but he could not survive for long.

But now, Dandan is actually resurrected, and looking at the breath, his strength seems to be stronger than before.

how can that be?

Not only Yeludi, but there are some people who acted together with Yeludi last time, but also saw the end of Dandan with their own eyes. At this time, their hearts are also overturned.

"Huh, it's just because you want to harm this seat, it's a delusion."

Said proudly.

"Well, what if you're saved, this time, I will let you die completely."

Yelu Disen said coldly, he said, a position appeared in his hand.

This position was the last position to control the prohibition force.

Immediately after taking out the position, Yelvdi urged the position to stimulate the prohibition.

Chapter 4389: Break the nine days battle

The array in Yeludi's hands glowed, urging the power of restraint.

During this process, Dandan kept his mouth closed and looked at Yelvdi with a mocking look.

Buzz!

The tremor shook slightly, and the light was diffused.

However, nothing happened at all, just looking at Yelvdi's eyes, the sarcasm was stronger.

"What's going on? Why is there no movement in the restraining force? I won't believe it, come again!"

Yeludi roared in his heart, and the power was continuously injected into the array, and the array was more violent.

However, Dandan still has nothing.

"Don't work hard, your forbidden power will not work for me!"

A sneering voice sounded.

"Impossible, how does the forbidden power not work for you? Have you already wiped out the forbidden power? This is impossible. The forbidden power can penetrate the sixty trillion cells of the whole body. You cannot be wiped out, even if there is a shepherd It is impossible for the cloud to help you."

Yelvdi shouted incredulously.

"In front of me, anything is possible!"

He carried his hands on his shoulders and put on a very stinky look.

"Impossible, impossible!"

"how can that be?"

At the scene, all human races are hard to believe.

It seems that the truth they have always recognized is broken.

However, there is no way to believe it, and the facts are in front of us.

"What if he broke the restraining power? Kill them, why not restrain the power, the nine-day battle array started and bombarded them in one fell swoop."

At this time, another Tianren clan Tianjiao coldly said.

"Yes, start the nine-day battle and bombard them in one fell swoop!"

Tianjiao, other Tianren races, also spoke one after another, killing them cold.

This time, there are a lot of arrogance of the Celestial Clan, and many of them are of the same level as Yelvdi.

Of course, not only the Celestial Clan in the Tianwei Star Palace, but many other Celestial Clan in the Celestial Palace, they brought people here, the purpose is to kill Lu Ming.

"Nine days of battle, start!"

Finally, the Thousand Masters of the Celestial Clan flashed their bodies and set up a nine-day battle.

A huge king of heaven and man condensed out, exuding terrible fluctuations.

This is the result of the formation of the Nine Heavens Battle Array under the Heavenly Clan of the Thousand Divine Emperors. The strength has reached a terrifying point.

Lu Ming and the four of them can't stop it.

"Huh, play the formation in front of me, the class gets axe!"

As soon as he drank coldly, his body moved slightly, and endless runes rushed out of his body.

Every pore in his body had runes rushing out, then he disappeared into the void and disappeared.

For a breathing time, I don't know how many runes were played.

"Shoot, kill them!"

Yelvdi shouted, calling on everyone to take action immediately, so as not to cause trouble.

"kill!"

All the Celestial Clan shouted at the same time and urged the Nine Heavens Battle Formation. The giant Celestial Clan King waved the War Sword to cut them to the landing.

It's terrifying, the sword of war is wielding, and the void is constantly bursting. This kind of power, even the ordinary * master, should avoid its sharp edge.

This is definitely not what Lu Ming can resist. Under such an attack, even the power of time and space of the bubble, it is difficult to escape.

The difference is too great.

Lu Ming, Qiuyue, and the three people of Bubble look dignified. Now, they can only rely on Dandan.

At this moment, among the thousands of human races in formation, a rune suddenly appeared. These runes seemed to cut off the connection between these human races.

The giant King of Heaven and Humans, the breath weakened quickly, and then the touch turned into a wave of energy dissipated.

Nine days of battle, it was so broken.

Let all the Celestials be a little incredible.

However, Lu Ming was not too surprised.

The world's turtle family was born for rune formations, and naturally controls a variety of rune formations.

And once in a while, it is the arrogance of the world's tortoise family, and it has obtained the original ancient word'array', and has control of the rune formation method, which has reached an incredible level.

Moreover, Lu Ming dared to conclude that Dandan had absolutely studied the nine-day battle array, so it was not difficult to find the flaws of the nine-day battle array and break it in one fell swoop.

Moreover, these Celestial Clan, from different factions, even if the nine-day battle array is laid out, they will definitely not be very mellow between each other, and they are not seamless, and will be simpler when they are broken up.

"kill!"

"kill!"

As soon as the nine-day battle broke, Lu Ming, Qiuyue, and the bubble three shot.

Bubbles waved their hands, and the power of time and space exploded in an all-round way, with bubbles as the center, spreading out in all directions, covering all the Celestial beings.

"Ah, why is my skin shrivelling, how is my hair turning white?"

Someone shouted in horror, because he found that his skin was drying up quickly, his blond hair was turning white, and his body was aging rapidly.

Finally, it was completely decaying and turned into ashes.

This is because of the influence of time, time accelerates, allowing these people to grow old quickly until they decay.

In others, a crack appeared on the surface of the body, and then split into pieces.

This was killed by the power of space.

Of course, these people are all weaker and stronger, and they have all blocked the erosion of time and space.

However, even if it was blocked, it was greatly affected, and the strength and speed were suppressed.

At the same time, Lu Ming and Qiuyue joined forces to kill the past, killing the Celestial Crowd, attacking them, and slaying them towards the Celestial Clan.

Although the strong men of these human races all have the cultivation of Divine Emperor Jiuzhong, most of them are only five-star combat power, and six-star combat power are not opponents of Lu Ming and Qiuyue at all.

Coupled with the suppression of space-time combat power, they simply couldn't resist the attacks of Lu Ming and Qiu Yue.

Every attack flashed, and a strong man of the Celestial Clan was killed.

The blood was permeated, and the screams bullied each other. In a moment, Lu Ming and three people killed dozens of people.

"Damn you guys!"

Yeludi roared, his eyes were red, and they rushed towards Landing Ming.

At the same time, other extreme arrogance with nine-star combat power and ten-star combat power also rushed to the landing Ming four.

Their combat power is strong, and they are less suppressed by the force of time and space.

"Avoid them!"

Lu Ming snorted, cast his body, and retreated from his body, avoiding the arrogance of these evil spirits.

Qiuyue, a few people who made bubbles, too, did not get entangled with these strongest arrogances, and killed those strong men of the Celestial Clan.

Under the blessing of the power of time and space, their speed is extremely fast, and in a flash, they caught up with the strong men of the Celestial Clan. The powerful killings broke out, and the strong men of the Celestial Clan were killed.

Of course, all of their storage rings also fell into Lu Ming's hands.

"Damn it, * it!"

Yelvdi roared with arrogance these days, but they could not catch up with Lu Ming, and in the power of time and space, their strength could not be fully exerted.

Chapter 4390: Heavenly Daughters

The Celestial Clan's nine-day battle array was broken, and it was suppressed by the power of time and space. Lu Ming and them, specifically avoiding the top-level arrogance of the Celestial Clan, to kill those strong men and kill them, it would not be too difficult.

After a while, the Celestial Clan who died in their hands was more than sixty people.

The other strong men of the Celestial Clan were shocked in their hearts and backed off again and again, daring not to approach Lu Ming and others.

Without the blessings of the Nine Heavens Battle Array and the World War One, these Heavenly Clan strong men, and Qiuyue and others, are too far apart.

"Leave me all!"

Bubbles shouted, two ancient ancient characters flew out, the power of time and space continued to erupt, and flocked to the people of the Celestial Race.

And Dandan is also extremely powerful. In his body, there are constant rays of light rushing out, and as soon as these rays of light rush out, they transform into a formation.

Hundreds of formations appeared between heaven and earth in one breath. The speed of the formation was so incredible that even Lu Ming was stunned.

Obviously, after being resurrected by the Five Elements Immortal Tears, the combat power has also been greatly improved. The specific number can reach several stars, and it is difficult to judge for a while.

Because Dandan is in control of the rune formation, various types of rune formations are combined, which is extremely mysterious and extremely difficult.

The coordination of various formations is not impossible even if there is a battle with a higher combat strength.

These formations are of various types, trapped by the enemy, attacked, deceived, illusory, and so on.

It can be said that with the cooperation of Dandan and Bubble, Lu Ming and Qiuyue killing those people of the human race are as simple as chopping melons and vegetables.

But this time, Lu Ming was shocked.

Because the two figures suddenly rushed out of the crowd and rushed to Lu Ming and others, the speed was extremely amazing, and the four quickly approached the landing Ming.

Once a sip, the formations turned around and rushed towards this person, but this figure was too horrible. The whole person was like a peerless sharp sword, passing by, passing by, one by one. A formation was penetrated.

Hundreds of formations were instantly broken down.

As soon as his face changed, he shouted angrily, his hands danced swiftly, and under his feet, a splendid glow of light, a huge formation emerged.

This time, there is only one formation, but it is much larger and many times more complicated than the previous formations.

Roar!

In the formation, a giant beast rushed out.

This giant beast, extremely long and terrible, the body of the tiger, but with the head of the dragon, covered with scales, rushed towards this figure.

boom!

The two collided together and broke into a roar, and then both sides quickly retreated.

However, he retreated more and more, and the light of his formation was dim.

"It's him, Ye Chu Qian Yue!"

Lu Ming's eyes flashed.

This figure is really one of the Sons of Heaven in the Celestial Race, Ye Chu Qian Yue.

No wonder the power is so terrible, and the combat power is better than ever.

Ye Chuqian Yue retreated, and his eyes were cold and cold. His right-handed power of punishment, his left-handed power of annihilation, and the two strongest forces were intertwined, killing once again.

On the other side, a figure rushed.

This is a Celestial Clan woman, who looks like a heavenly fragrance, but her power is extremely horrible. The power of the time and space of the bubble continues to burst in front of it.

She constantly broke through the power of time and space and rushed to Lu Ming several people.

"The blade of time and space, cut!"

Bubbles sip, and a huge arc-shaped weapon appears on the palm of the hand. This is completely condensed by the power of time and space, and contains a terrible attack power.

The blade of time and space was chopped towards the woman of the Celestial Clan.

An axe appeared in the hands of the Celestial women.

The petite body, holding a huge axe, chopped towards the bubble, collided with the blade of space and time, when the sound of destruction, the strength of destruction, swept all directions, the bubble and the Celestial woman, the body tremble , Fly backwards.

have equal shares.

"Good strength, is this woman of the Celestial Clan, is it a daughter of heaven?"

Lu Ming moved.

Bubble is now the Nine Heavy of Divine Emperor, and its combat power reaches eleven stars.

And this Celestial woman, who can share the same color with the bubble, apparently also has an eleven-star combat power, and is very likely to be a daughter of heaven.

This time Lu Ming ambushed them, not at all led by Yeludi and others, but by a number of emperors.

Ye Chu Qian Sheng's eyes were cold, and when he swept to Lu Ming, he was full of murderous opportunities.

Among the five-elements fairy mountains, Lu Ming was first passed through the golden light wall, which was a shame and shame for him.

So he came out early, and after hearing about Lu Ming's star palace, he immediately contacted other emperors and celestial servants, and led people to ambush here, just to kill Lu Ming.

Now, how can he let Lu Ming pass.

"kill!"

Ye Chuqianyue screamed, her long golden hair flying, and she was wrapped in two super powers, and she madly drove towards the landing.

Would Dandan allow the other party to approach Lu Ming, the rune flashed in front of him, appeared in front of Ye Chu Qian Yue, the formation started, and another giant beast came out and rushed to Ye Chu Qian Yue.

Dandan and Yechu Qianyue fought fiercely.

Although in the head-to-head confrontation, Dandan is weaker than Ye Chuqianyue, but Dandan has too many methods, various formations, countless, various types of formations are constantly used, fighting with each other for a time, Ye Chuqianyue, but no matter what.

But in this way, Dan Dan and Bubble are entangled by each other.

"Muyun, your life is mine."

"Muyun's life, I want it!"

Those inferior arrogances, such as Yeludi and others, rushed to Lu Ming frantically.

"bring it on!"

Lu Ming's eyes are bright, and there are guns bursting out of his pores. The whole person has a tendency to turn into a spear.

At the heart of Qiuyue, Jiuqiao Sacred Heart was beating violently. The whole person was shrouded in the nine-color glow, ready to launch a strong blow at any time.

But at this time, a figure suddenly rushed out from behind Yeludi and others. The speed was much faster than that of Yeludi and others, and rushed to Lu Ming and Qiuyue at a more amazing speed.

This is a man of heaven and humanity, very young and handsome, with a peculiar temperament.

He was holding a long gun in his hand.

Uh!

A spear, slammed toward the landing suddenly.

Fast, the speed was so amazing that it was almost instant, not far from Lu Ming.

"Master, be careful!"

Qiuyue exclaimed that she had always been on guard, and now she shot it for the first time. Jiusai Xianguang turned into a machete, chopping towards the gun, wanting to block it.

when!

The nine-color scimitar was accurately cut on the lance, and then the nine-color scimitar shook violently, and then crashed with a bang.

And the gun never stopped and continued to pierce Qiuyue.

Qiuyue just shot with all her strength, and it is too late to dodge at this moment.
