Chapter 4721: Bottom of Demon Abyss

However, this is also normal.

Back in the halo world, Ye Qiuxian already knew that Lu Ming was next to the master of the Bone Demon, and one person was comparable to several heavenly monarchs.

Therefore, in order to be able to kill Lu Ming, there are naturally many powerhouses ambushing.

Among them is a top heavenly monarch.

"Lu Ming, it seems that your cultivation level has broken through again. Sure enough, you can't stay and kill such a scourge!"

The silver armored Tianjun coldly drank, holding a silver spear, and slammed towards Lu Ming.

The long spear pierced the void and pierced Lu Ming's eyebrows at an astonishing speed.

"I come!"

The sound of the ball sounded, and he squirmed quickly, turning into a mirror on Lu Ming's chest, shooting out a beam of light, and suddenly enveloping Tianjun Yinjiao.

The ball has now reached the eighth level of the gods, the combat power has skyrocketed, and the illusion transformed by the beam of light is also much stronger.

Although Silver Armor Tianjun was powerful, he was still affected a little. His movements were stiff for a moment, and his eyes were absent for a moment.

"good chance!"

Lu Ming's eyes lit up and he displayed the sky-breaking style. The man and the spear merged into a spear light and pierced the Yinjia Tianjun.

"Break it for me!"

The Silver Armor Tianjun shouted, struggled frantically, broke free of the influence of the illusion, and waved his gun to resist Lu Ming's attack.

However, he was still affected by the illusion after all. In a rush, he couldn't burst out all his power, only a part of it.

Part of the power is Lu Ming's opponent.

With a loud sound, the two spears collided, and the silver spear of the other party was directly opened by Lu Ming's spear. Lu Ming's spear kept piercing the other's brow.

The opponent's pupils shrank sharply, and his body quickly retreated, trying to avoid Lu Ming's attack.

However, it was too late, and Lu Ming was even faster.

Seeing that it was about to stab the opponent's vitals, two weapons were suddenly shot out from both sides, blocking Lu Ming's long spear.

Hum!

The spear shook, and Lu Ming was staggered. He stepped back and the attack was blocked.

It is the other two heavenly monarchs.

"unfortunately!"

Lu Ming sighed lightly.

Just now, he cooperated with the ball and really hoped to kill this top-level Tianjun. Unfortunately, the opponent had more than one person and companions, and the other two Tianjuns took action and blocked Lu Ming's kill. I will look for something like this later. Opportunity is difficult.

"Lu Ming, you are looking for death!"

The silver armored heavenly monarch escaped from death, becoming angry from embarrassment, roaring, his figure flashed, and suddenly turned into a dozen figures, rushing towards Lu Ming from all directions.

There are more than a dozen figures, each of which looks like real, and it is difficult to distinguish true from false.

At the same time, the other two heavenly monarchs also killed Lu Ming.

The ball turned into armor again, covering Lu Ming's body, and Lu Ming wielded the God of War spear to fight the opponent.

But as soon as he fought, Lu Ming was completely at a disadvantage.

With Lu Ming's current combat power, it was more than enough to deal with an ordinary heavenly monarch, with all the means available, and it was not difficult to kill.

Even if you deal with two people, you can do it, but if you deal with three people, it is very reluctant.

And this silver armored heavenly monarch is very powerful, far surpassing the combined efforts of three ordinary heavenly monarchs.

In a head-to-head confrontation, Lu Ming is not his opponent, but fortunately he can join hands with the ball to get entangled with the opponent.

The two sides quickly confronted a dozen moves.

"Bone Demon, let's go, don't entangle the other party."

Lu Ming transmitted the sound to the bone demon, and then suddenly aroused the power of the original source, igniting a trace of the power of the God of War Spear, and repelled the Silver Armor Tianjun several tens of meters.

Lu Ming seized the opportunity, rushed out of the encirclement, rushed to the bone demon, the God of War spear swept, and flew out a heavenly monarch who fought against the bone demon.

The Bone Demon seized the opportunity, turned into a magic light, and rushed into Lu Ming's brow. Lu Ming used the Great Aurora Spell, quickly rushed through the hall, and flew towards the north.

"chase!"

Silver Armor Tianjun shouted, his face was rather gloomy.

The six heavenly monarchs of them, as well as a top-level heavenly monarch like him, didn't even take Lu Ming, and it was a shame to pass it out.

Lu Ming flew over the hall, and what caught his eyes was a dark abyss.

This abyss is very long and wide, and the devilish energy is permeated, and it is hard to see how deep it is.

Infinite Demon Abyss!

Lu Ming affirmed that this was Boundless Demon Abyss, and Xie Nianqing was right below.

Lu Ming didn't hesitate at all, rushed into the abyss, and quickly fell down.

The six heavenly monarchs also chased towards the abyss, following Lu Ming.

"Great Move!"

Lu Ming's thoughts moved, and the power of the taboo revolved, and he used the great movement technique. The figure that had fallen rapidly disappeared, and he moved forward.

Boundless Demon Abyss was originally filled with a strong demon energy, which seriously affected the line of sight. Lu Ming suddenly moved out, and the six heavenly monarchs suddenly lost Lu Ming's trace.

They stopped in the air and scanned the surroundings carefully, but they didn't find Lu Ming.

"Damn it, to send news to the people under the Boundless Demon Abyss. Lu Ming has broken through the blockade and entered the Boundless Demon Abyss. Let them take action together. Be sure to kill Lu Ming under the Boundless Demon Abyss."

Silver Armor Tianjun said with a cold face.

Immediately, a heavenly monarch took out the sound transmission jade talisman, and the news came out.

"Don't worry, Extinction Tianjun will hunt down Xie Nianqing. Once Lu Ming meets Extinction Tianjun, there is only one dead end."

Another Heavenly Jundao.

The Extinct Heavenly Monarch is one of the four strongest Heavenly Monarchs in the Heavenly Palace. The strength is too strong, standing at the limit of the Divine Lord Realm, and far surpassing other Heavenly Monarchs.

In front of the extinct heavenly monarch, other heavenly monarchs can't stop a move, they will be killed in seconds.

After the news, the six Yinjia Tianjun continued to fall downward and participated in the hunt for Lu Ming.

Lu Ming moved a thousand miles away, still in the midair of Boundless Demon Abyss.

He didn't dare to move too far at once, after all, this Boundless Demon Abyss was not familiar to him, and he didn't dare to move it randomly. If it moved into an irresistible place, he would vomit blood.

As long as you can avoid Yinjia Tianjun and others.

Fortunately, nothing!

Lu Ming continued to fall rapidly downward.

The Boundless Demon Abyss was very deep, and Lu Ming had been descending a distance of a million miles before finally reaching the bottom of the Demon Abyss.

The bottom of the Immeasurable Demon Abyss is actually not much different from the top. It is dead and silent, without any creatures or plants, and full of demonic energy.

It's just that the concentration of devilish energy is much stronger than above.

"Lu Ming, in that direction, there must be a lot of mysterious and powerful fluctuations in that direction, there must be something abnormal, Xie Nianqing's little girl, maybe in that direction."

The Bone Demon flew out and pointed in a direction.

"go!"

Lu Ming flew directly over there.

After a certain distance, the bone demon suddenly shouted: "Be careful!"

Then the Bone Demon slapped it out, hitting a black shadow, and directly smashed the black shadow away.

However, there were still two black shadows, and they pounced on Lu Ming at an astonishing speed.

With the reminder of the Bone Demon, Lu Ming had already reacted, and the God of War Spear appeared, stabbing two shots in a row, stabbing two shadows.

Chapter 4722: The signal left by Xie Nianqing

The God of War spear pierced the two black shadows, but the black shadow was like a phantom. The spear stabbed through without any sensation.

The two black shadows continued to rush towards Lu Ming, but actually rushed directly into Lu Ming's body.

Suddenly, there was a tyrannical mood in Lu Ming's heart, and the murderous intent was extremely strong. During this period of time, the negative emotions accumulated during the siege of Tiangong seemed to have all exploded.

"kill!"

Lu Ming roared, his eyes were blood red, and his facial features were a little distorted.

But the next moment, Lu Ming showed struggling, his eyes regained a trace of clarity, and he roared, "Get away!"

His soul trembles, the power of taboo works, and his body glows brightly.

In his body, there was a scream, and at the same time a black mist was emitted.

These black mists, like alive ones, looked like a few small snakes, trying to drill towards the ground.

"Where to go!"

The Bone Demon roared, opened his mouth and inhaled, a few strands of black mist were sucked into the mouth by the Bone Demon, and the soul fire in the Bone Demon's eyes throbbed, revealing an intoxicated color.

"Huh, so awesome, it can actually arouse and strengthen my demons..."

Lu Ming took a long breath.

The dark shadow just now was really powerful. He attacked with the God of War spear, but he couldn't destroy the opponent. Instead, the opponent rushed into his body, detonating his negative emotions and creating a demon.

This is actually very dangerous. If you are not careful, Lu Ming will be completely occupied by the inner demon and become a puppet of the inner demon.

"If I'm not mistaken, this is Boundless Demon Soul..."

Bone Demon Road.

"Infinite Demon Soul?"

Lu Ming showed doubts.

"A kind of strange monster is very strange and powerful. It can detonate the negative emotions of any creature, and let the creatures be controlled by negative emotions, completely sinking, and becoming a puppet of immeasurable demons. Fortunately, your willpower is strong. It's dangerous."

Bone Demon explained.

"Why are you okay? Can you still absorb immeasurable demons?"

Lu Ming asked curiously.

"Because I have a way to deal with them, and the immeasurable demonic soul is a treasure for the demons. After breaking their bodies, they will leave behind a wisp of pure and incomparable demonic energy, which the demons can directly absorb and transform into Your own strength is much better than absorbing the refining and refining prehistoric crystals."

Bone Demon Road.

"So, it's no wonder that Senior Feihuang wants to send Xiaoqing to practice here. Here, Xiaoqing's cultivation level can be quickly improved, and there is no shortage of energy..."

Lu Ming thought.

"Bone Demon, how did you deal with them, teach me?"

Lu Ming said.

"This is simple, the shape of the Boundless Demon Soul is between the real and the imaginary, and ordinary attacks are ineffective against them, but your forbidden power can actually cause damage to the Boundless Demon Soul, as long as you attack a few more moves."

"But I tell you a more useful method. As long as you attack with a special shock of power, you can defeat the shape of the Immeasurable Demon Soul..."

Immediately, the bone demon passed a method to Lu Ming.

This method is actually very simple. Compared with the Great Ancient Secret Art, it is much less difficult. It is just a trick for the use of power, which Lu Ming can learn right away.

After learning, continue to set off.

In the next ten minutes, they didn't encounter the immeasurable demons, but after ten minutes, there were still immeasurable demons attacking them.

This time Lu Ming used the method of the Bone Demon Cult, and the spear swept out, hitting two immeasurable demon souls. The two immeasurable demon souls touched twice, exploded and turned into two pure demon energy. , Was absorbed by the Bone Demon.

The two went all the way, and from time to time immeasurable demons attacked them.

The immeasurable demon soul, there are strong and weak, powerful immeasurable demon soul, even if Lu Ming mastered the method, it would be difficult to deal with it.

Of course, Bone Demon is easy to solve.

To deal with this kind of monsters, bone demons are naturally good at it. According to his own words, he has at least ten ways to deal with these immeasurable demons. The one taught to Lu Ming is the simplest.

In a blink of an eye, more than two hours passed.

For more than two hours, Lu Ming did not meet Xie Nianqing, nor did he meet other masters in Tiangong.

The reason is that this Boundless Demon Abyss is too big.

Needless to say, it is wide, reaching tens of thousands of miles, let alone how long it is.

And the terrain is extremely complex, with huge rocks and peaks, full of boundless demon abyss.

And from time to time, immeasurable demonic souls appeared, causing Lu Ming and the others to be unable to get up quickly.

In a place where the terrain is so complicated, the area is so wide, and it is attacked from time to time, it is really not easy to find someone.

"this is..."

Suddenly, Lu Ming's eyes lit up and he looked at a huge rock.

There is a circle on this huge rock.

Obviously, this circle is not innate, but is carved on artificially.

"What's so special about this circle? Could it be that Xie Nianqing engraved it on?"

The Bone Demon seemed to see something and asked.

"Yes, this circle was indeed engraved by Xiaoqing. This is a signal for me and her to communicate with each other. It can indicate the direction where she is now. Xiaoqing must be still alive, maybe trapped somewhere, let me The sound transmission jade talisman cannot be transmitted..."

Lu Ming said.

This place did not suppress the sound transmission jade talisman. He wanted to use the sound transmission jade talisman to send news to Xie Nianqing, but found that he could not pass it.

"A circle can indicate the direction, wait, I can see..."

The Bone Demon watched carefully, and suddenly his eyes lit up, and said, "I can see that although this circle does not have any arrow to indicate the direction, the lines on one side of the circle are thinner than the lines in other directions. Although it is only a little thinner, It should be left deliberately."

"Senior Bone Demon really has eyes like torches."

Lu Ming smiled.

In a certain position of the circle, the lines are indeed thinner.

"Lu Ming, although this method is good, the flaws are also obvious. I can see it, and other people can also see it. It is easy to guess the meaning of this circle."

"That girl Xie Nianqing pointed out the direction to you, didn't she also pointed out the direction to the people in Tiangong and exposed herself?"

Bone Demon condensed said.

"Naturally it is not that simple."

Lu Ming smiled and said, "Look carefully, this circle actually has three tiny gaps."

"Yes, there are three gaps!"

The bone demon carefully observed the back road.

"I agreed with Xiaoqing that if it is a gap, it means the first circle she carved. Then, her position is the direction that the thinner side of the ball points."

"If there are two gaps, it means that she engraved the second circle. Then the view will change a little. The side with the thinner line on the circle, the opposite direction, will be the direction Xiaoqing is in."

Lu Ming explained.

"So, what about the three gaps?"

Bone Demon asked.

Chapter 4723: Immeasurable monument

"The three gaps mean that this is the third circle that Xiaoqing has carved. Then the view is different. The direction of the thin line of the sphere, moving up 45 degrees, is the direction Xiaoqing is in."

Lu Ming said.

"Wonderful, so unpredictable, even if they are seen by Tiangong, they can't guess where Xie Nianqing's girl is, so they can only search for it with their heads covered."

Bone Demon Road.

"go!"

Lu Ming didn't delay any longer, and together with the Bone Demon, he flew out according to Yuanqiu's instructions.

Sure enough, after a while, Lu Ming saw another circle.

This sphere has four tiny gaps, which is obviously the fourth circle carved by Xie Nianqing.

For the fourth circle, naturally there are different ways to distinguish them. According to the guidance of the circle, they continue to set off.

In this way, one after another round * were found by Lu Ming.

After finding the ninth circle, they came to a rugged land.

Shoo...

Suddenly, there were runes on the ground. These runes were intertwined to form a large formation, the formation condensed a series of sword lights, and they killed Lu Ming and the Bone Demon.

Lu Ming's eyes condensed, and he took out the God of War Spear to resist, but the sword light flew halfway, stopped, and then turned into wisps of magic energy and dissipated automatically.

"Lu Ming!"

A sweet drink rang, with a deep surprise in his voice.

Then, among the rocks, a figure floated out.

It's not Xie Nianqing, but who can it be?

"Xiaoqing!"

Lu Ming was overjoyed and greeted him. The two stood opposite each other, and then hugged each other.

For a long time, separate.

"Xiaoqing, it's great that you are fine, by the way, how do you know that I will be here and mark me to come now?"

Lu Ming asked.

"The people in Tiangong said, they said they would attract you, wanting to anger me and influence me."

Xie Nianqing said.

Lu Ming's face changed slightly, and he said, "Have you met someone from the Temple of Heaven? How did you escape?"

Lu Ming looked at it carefully and found that Xie Nianqing's cultivation base had improved a lot compared to the original level, and had reached the seventh level of the Divine Lord.

This speed of improvement can be said to be amazing.

In fact, this is also normal.

This place is definitely very suitable for Xie Nianqing to practice.

In addition, over the past eight hundred years, Lu Ming's cultivation level has hardly improved. He has only improved by one level. The rest of the time has been spent on comprehension of secret techniques and war characters.

And Xie Nianqing can continue to improve here, plus she has the memory of her previous life, as well as the original seed, and she will naturally improve soon.

However, even if Xie Nianqing was promoted to the seventh level of the Divine Lord, it was far from the opponent of the Heavenly Palace master.

The people sent by Tiangong this time are likely to be the existence of Divine Lord Ninth Layer or Divine Lord Peak. Xie Nianqing is definitely not their opponent. Once encountered, it is very dangerous.

That's why Lu Ming was extremely worried before.

"Senior Feihuang once left some decorations in Boundless Demon Abyss. It was because of the arrangements of Senior Feihuang that I escaped a catastrophe, and finally got rid of the masters of the Celestial Race. This place also has an arrangement of Senior Feihuang. With powerful killing formations and hidden formations, these days, I am hiding here, and I haven't found the people in the palace."

Xie Nianqing explained.

Lu Ming was stunned. It turned out that Feihuang had long since left behind.

"Lu Ming, did something happen outside? The people in the heavenly palace once yelled, saying that the Heavenly Destruction Army will soon be destroyed. What happened?"

Xie Nianqing asked again.

She has been here in retreat, knowing nothing about outside matters.

"Is such that..."

Immediately, Lu Ming briefly recounted the major events that had occurred in the universe during this period.

"What? Such a thing happened unexpectedly."

After Xie Nianqing heard it, her heart was ups and downs, and it was difficult to calm down.

At the same time, I was extremely worried that the Heaven Extinguishing Army's garrison would be able to support at most 300 years. What about 300 years later?

Xie Nianqing frowned and remained silent.

"What's in that direction, why do I feel that that direction has amazing demonic energy and strong fluctuations?"

The bone demon looked into the depths of the Boundless Demon Abyss.

Only then did Xie Nianqing come back to his senses and said, "There is the location of the Boundless Demon Monument, and the core of the Boundless Demon Abyss. The Boundless Demon Soul here is very likely to be related to the Blessed Demon Monument."

"Because, the closer you are to the Blessed Demon Monument, the stronger the Blessed Demon Soul, the purer and more concentrated the demon energy it contains, and the most helpful it is to absorb."

"Infinite Demon Monument!"

The Bone Demon's eyes flickered, revealing a deep curiosity, and said: "I feel that there is a great opportunity over there, maybe it will allow you and me to improve your cultivation."

Xie Nianqing looked at the bone demon curiously, he could feel the powerful magic power in the bone demon.

Knowing that this is a strong man of magic.

"Unfortunately, there are too many immeasurable demon souls around the immeasurable demon stele, I can't get close at all, and I will be overwhelmed by a large number of immeasurable demon souls far away."

Xie Nianqing sighed.

"Let's go and see, maybe I can get there."

Bone Demon Road.

Xie Nianqing's eyes flashed, then nodded.

"Then let's set off. Anyway, the place is full of immeasurable demon souls, and the people in the palace won't come close, but don't be afraid of being discovered by them."

Xie Nianqing said, after speaking, he took the lead and headed towards the depths of the Boundless Demon Abyss.

Xie Nianqing had been in Boundless Demon Abyss for so many years. He was already familiar with the terrain of Boundless Demon Abyss. He took Lu Ming and the others to turn east and west, not close to the people in the Heavenly Palace, or some of the Boundless Demon Soul.

They continued to penetrate the Boundless Demon Abyss, and in a blink of an eye, two days passed.

"What a strong volatility."

In the bone devil's eye sockets, two groups of flames were burning, a look that looked very much anticipated.

They were hiding on a high rock, looking into the distance.

The terrain in front is very flat, on the flat ground, there is a huge stone monument.

The stele is very huge, at least tens of thousands of feet high, looming in the devilish energy.

Around the stele, there are countless black shadows flying around.

These shadows are all immeasurable demons.

At a glance, I don't know how many, at least tens of thousands.

So many immeasurable demon souls are definitely a terrifying force. If they swarm them, Lu Ming will definitely be trapped in the demon forever, unable to extricate himself.

"Bone Demon, what can you do to get there?"

Lu Ming asked.

"It's very simple, disguise us as the immeasurable demon soul, and naturally we can easily pass through these immeasurable demon souls and approach the immeasurable demon monument."

"You have found that there is a certain distance around the Boundless Demon Monument, and there is no Boundless Demon Soul. I guess that the Boundless Demon Soul does not dare to approach the Boundless Demon Monument."

Bone Demon Road.

Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing nodded, and they also discovered this.

"What can you do to disguise us as immeasurable demons?"

Lu Ming said.

"Simple, let's kill a few immeasurable devil souls and control their devil qi. I have my own way."

Bone Demon Road.

Chapter 4724: Devilish Devilish Soul

Lu Ming, Xie Nianqing, and the Bone Demon temporarily stepped back and left here, and then found a few Immeasurable Demon Souls. The Bone Demon took action to resolve the Immeasurable Demon Souls and control the devilish energy left by the Immeasurable Demon Souls.

Then the bone demon began to arrange and inscribed a rune on a strand of immeasurable demon soul. After a while, the strand of immeasurable demon soul flew towards Lu Ming's body, turned into a burst of energy, and enveloped Lu Ming.

"With this power enveloped, those immeasurable demons will treat you as the same kind and won't attack."

Bone Demon Road.

Afterwards, he repeated the previous actions, and arranged the remaining two wisps of magic energy, covering Xie Nianqing and himself respectively.

"Go, rest assured, I promise, nothing will happen."

The Bone Demon was full of confidence and headed towards the Boundless Demon Monument first.

What else could Lu Ming say, only to keep up.

Soon, they were approaching a large number of immeasurable demons.

The hearts of Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing couldn't help but mention that they were not as confident as the Bone Demon.

If the bone demon's method fails, then it's over.

They were very energetic, and if they found something wrong, they could run away immediately.

However, the bone demon was very confident and swaggered towards the large group of immeasurable demon souls.

It turned out that Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing were worried. Those immeasurable demon souls really wished that they didn't find the bone demon and let the bone demon swagger through.

The two of them breathed a sigh of relief and followed the bone demon through a large number of immeasurable demon souls.

Soon, they passed the Boundless Demon Soul Group and approached the Boundless Demon Monument.

"That is..."

When approaching the Boundless Demon Monument, the three of them were shocked.

I haven't noticed before, under the Boundless Demon Monument, there is actually a figure sitting there.

This figure is a skeleton.

The bones are adult, but they are taller and burly bigger than human bones. They sit cross-legged and are more than three meters tall.

Moreover, the bones are not white, but pitch black, as black as ink, but with a little luster, like black jade.

Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing couldn't help but look at the Bone Demon.

Because the two are too similar, they are both skull-like, both are adult-shaped, and both are as dark as ink.

The pitch-black skeletons sat cross-legged there, there was no movement or a breath of life, but there was a strong coercion.

That is magic power.

Before a skeleton was alive, it was very possible that it was a powerful existence.

The soul fire in the bone devil's eyes was beating, it was greed, it was longing.

"I have made a fortune. I really have made a fortune. If I can integrate this skeleton, my cultivation base will skyrocket, and I may be able to return to my heyday cultivation base."

The Bone Demon cried, and even his voice revealed deep desire.

"Bone Demon, this skeleton, is it your kind?"

Lu Ming couldn't help asking.

He once heard the bone demon said that he was the first demon bone that was first opened in the prehistoric universe, the born spiritual wisdom.

The Bone Demon speculates that his predecessor is probably the bone left by a peerless strong man from the last era, and the spiritual wisdom born after the evolution of the universe.

And the skeleton in front of him was probably from the last era. Isn't it very similar to a bone demon?

"I don't know. Anyway, I'm sure. If I integrate this bone, it will be of great help to me. Please don't move here, I will try!"

After the Bone Demon finished speaking, he rushed towards the dark skeleton.

The pitch-black bones emit terrifying waves, and it is absolutely difficult for ordinary people to approach.

Even if the top heavenly monarch came, they would definitely not be able to approach, but the Bone Demon was not affected much, and kept approaching the pitch-black bones.

Huh!

Finally, the bone demon turned into a magic light, rushed into the pitch-black bones, and disappeared.

Immediately afterwards, the powerful magic power emanating from the pitch-black bones quickly converged until it disappeared completely.

The pressure on Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing was gone.

"This bone has already been controlled by me. Next, I will fuse this bone. Do it yourself."

The bone demon's voice came out, and then fell silent, leaving only the pitch-black skeleton, emitting a faint magic light.

"Bone Demon succeeded!"

Lu Ming was overjoyed.

The bone demon got this pitch-black skeleton, and his strength should be improved a lot. Although it is the origin disaster, it is most difficult for the bone demon to break through the origin state, but the combat power should also be improved a lot, which will definitely help him a lot.

Xie Nianqing's gaze was completely attracted by the Boundless Demon Monument.

The immeasurable demon stele looks very old, with shallow indentations on it, just like the oldest rune.

This is one side, the other side, but there are some pictures, some creatures on the paintings, strange shapes, different shapes, blue-faced fangs, like three-headed six-arms, etc., giving people a very strong magical power, exuding a sense of mystery Breath.

"This immeasurable devil monument is very peculiar and can emit mysterious fluctuations. I have only felt it from a distance before. It is of great benefit to me. It can help me understand some powerful secret arts and even make me understand the practice. , Have more understanding."

"Now that I have been in close contact, this feeling is more profound."

Xie Nianqing said.

"It seems that this is a magical treasure."

Lu Ming nodded and said.

He did not have the feeling Xie Nianqing said.

Suddenly, the Boundless Demon Monument flashed light, and a devilish energy flew out of the Boundless Demon Monument.

This demon energy flew far away, and the surrounding energy gathered towards the demon energy, and finally formed an immeasurable demon soul.

Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing were a little shocked.

It turned out that the Boundless Demon Soul was actually produced by the Boundless Demon Monument, which was beyond their expectations.

The pure magic energy in the Boundless Demon Soul flew out of the Boundless Demon Stele.

Xie Nianqing looked around the Boundless Demon Monument for a while.

Huh!

Suddenly, another demonic energy flew out of the Boundless Demon Monument.

This time, Xie Nianqing was prepared. At the moment when the devilish energy flew out, she also flew out, grabbed the palm of her hand, forming a huge palm, and grabbed it towards the devilish energy. In the end, the devilish energy was caught by Xie Nianqing.

The devil qi seemed to be alive, constantly twisting and struggling, trying to fly away, but could not get out of Xie Nianqing's palm, she sat cross-legged, running the exercises, and slowly absorbed the devil qi.

After absorbing this devilish energy, the aura on Xie Nianqing's body was obviously stronger.

"So rich and pure demon energy, it is many times more pure and rich than the demon energy previously obtained from Boundless Demon Soul."

Xie Nianqing exclaimed.

"Xiaoqing, you can practice with peace of mind, anyway, the bone demon is also fusing bones, I will protect the law for you."

Lu Ming said.

Xie Nianqing nodded and continued to wait.

The immeasurable demon monument does not always have demon energy flying out.

In the next few days, I didn't wait for the magical energy to fly out.

It has been three days until the immeasurable devil monument flew out two more devilish energy and was caught by Xie Nianqing.

Chapter 4725: Deadlock

After Xie Nianqing grasped the two wisps of devil qi, he slowly refined it and absorbed it into his body.

After the refining, continue to wait, a few days later, in the immeasurable devil monument, demon energy flew out again.

In this way, every few days, there will be magic energy flying out of the Immeasurable Demon Monument.

Refining this devilish energy, Xie Nianqing's cultivation base has made rapid progress.

Originally, Xie Nianqing's cultivation was only in the early stage of the Divine Lord's Seventh Layer. With the continuous refining of this devilish energy, her cultivation quickly improved.

In just one month, Xie Nianqing's cultivation level reached the middle stage of the seventh stage of the Divine Lord.

This speed is amazing.

If this goes on, it will not take long, as long as the devil energy is sufficient, Xie Nianqing will soon be able to cultivate to the eighth layer of the * master.

The bone demons are still fusing. This pitch-black skeleton is obviously extraordinary, and I don't know how strong it is during his lifetime, so the bone demons are fusing together very slowly.

One month seems to be not enough.

The Boundless Demon Souls around the Boundless Demon Monument wandered wildly and were not close to the Boundless Demon Monument. This made Lu Ming relieved, and he took a part of his mind to observe the surroundings while comprehending the Zhanzi Secret Art and the secret technique.

He didn't want to waste any time.

Time is hurried, and another two months have passed.

Ok?

Suddenly, Lu Ming's heart moved, opened his eyes and looked into the distance.

In the distance, several figures appeared.

Is a master of the Celestial Race.

Several masters of the Celestial Race, standing in the distance, looking at the Immeasurable Demon Stele, obviously saw Lu Ming and others.

Then the three whispered, one of them quickly left, and the other two guarded here.

"It seems to be looking for a helper."

Lu Ming thought.

Do you want to take the opportunity to leave?

Lu Ming hesitated.

In the end, Lu Ming decided to stay here.

The Boundless Demon Stele is surrounded by Boundless Demon Souls. According to Xie Nianqing, the closer the Boundless Demon Spirit is, the stronger the strength will be.

The immeasurable demon souls around here are all powerful existences.

Even if people from the Celestial Race came, it was impossible to rush in.

Sure enough, a few days later, many masters of the Celestial Race arrived.

There are more than twenty people in total.

Among them, those with the lowest cultivation level all have the nine-fold divine master, with more than a dozen, and a dozen others, all of which are at the peak of the divine master.

The silver armored Heavenly Sovereign who had fought Lu Ming before was also among them.

"Exterminate Heavenly Monarch!"

Lu Ming's face changed slightly.

He saw an acquaintance, one of the four strongest heavenly monarchs in Tiangong, exterminating heavenly monarchs.

When he was fighting for the body of the human king, this person left a deep impression on Lu Ming. He was very powerful and rare in the universe.

The Extinction Heavenly Monarch is definitely the existence that stands at the peak of the Divine Lord Realm, and is definitely stronger than the silver armored Heavenly Monarch, and ordinary Heavenly Monarchs are vulnerable in front of him.

This time, Tiangong actually dispatched one of the strongest heavenly monarchs, this is to carry out the killing of Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing.

"Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing are all inside, but there are too many immeasurable demons around here, what should I do?"

Someone asked Extinction Heavenly King.

Exterminating Tianjun stood in the middle, looking at Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing, his expression a little gloomy.

"There are too many immeasurable demon souls here, the number is tens of thousands, and the closer to this demon monument, the stronger the strength. With our strength, if we are strong, there is only a dead end."

Extinct Heavenly Jundao.

In order to deal with the immeasurable demon soul, they also brought some treasures from the heavenly palace, which had the effect of restraining the immeasurable demon soul.

However, there are too many Boundless Demon Souls here, even if there are treasures that restrain the Boundless Demon Souls, it is not good.

"Then what to do?"

The previous humanity.

"They will come out sooner or later. We will stay here. Just come and wait for the rabbit. When they come out, we won't be too late."

Extinct Heavenly Jundao.

The others nodded, and then scattered around, hiding their figures, blocking the exit.

"Sure enough, don't you dare to do it?"

Lu Ming whispered.

All the actions of the masters of the Heavenly Palace fell in Lu Ming's eyes. This did not exceed Lu Ming's expectations. He had long expected that these celestial human races would not dare to act easily and would guard outside.

"Now I'm waiting for the Bone Demon. I hope that after the Bone Demon is fused with the pitch-black bones, its combat power can skyrocket, and then join forces to kill it."

Lu Ming thought.

Time passed day by day.

In a blink of an eye, it was a few years.

The bone demon is still fusing that black bone.

However, after a few years, the bone demon seemed to have reached the final juncture. The black skeleton had shrunk several times, reducing the size of an ordinary Taoist person.

It's just that the bones seem to be more condensed, and the bones seem to contain an incomparable magical energy.

The breath radiating from the bones is almost always the breath of the bone demon.

It seems that it won't be long before the Bone Demon can merge successfully.

And after several years of cultivation, Xie Nianqing's cultivation level has also been greatly improved, and has reached the peak of the Seventh Layer of the Divine Lord.

It's not far from the God Master Eightfold.

boom!

Suddenly, Xie Nianqing's body was filled with a powerful aura, her body was full of demons, and then, a phantom appeared from Xie Nianqing's body.

"What a strong aura, that woman, it seems that she has been absorbing that devilish energy in her cultivation for several years, improving her cultivation."

A master of the Celestial Race called out, showing envy, jealousy and hatred.

"Hmph, even if he is promoted to the peak of God Lord, he is not my opponent."

Extinction Tianjun drank coldly, murderously cold.

"Also, the nine-fold divine lord reaches the peak of the divine lord, but it can't be improved by absorbing energy. You need to slowly condense the power of the source. When she reaches the peak of the divine lord, the Celestial Destruction Army will be destroyed long ago. At that time, there are a few of them left. It's hard to escape in the end."

Extinction Tianjun sneered.

At this time, Lu Ming completely ignored the people in Tiangong, his gaze fell completely on the phantom shadow on Xie Nianqing's body.

Lu Ming had also seen this phantom.

In the past, when Xie Nianqing urged her combat power to the extreme, this phantom would also appear on her body.

This phantom was obviously a woman with a slim figure and moving heart. It was a pity that her face was enveloped by a layer of demonic energy and she couldn't really see it.

In the past, Lu Ming had this phantom, possibly from Xie Nianqing's previous life. Later, Lu Ming thought that this phantom might be related to Feihuang, after all, Feihuang was Xie Nianqing's master.

But now it seems that neither is.

Not at all like it!

Hum!

At this moment, an amazing scene happened.

The immeasurable devil monument trembles violently. On the devil monument, those nicks and images exude a dazzling brilliance, as if it had come alive.

Buzzing...

The immeasurable demon stele vibrated more and more severely, and on it, a strong demon energy was diffused, which gathered into a pillar of demon energy and rushed into the sky.

In this scene, not only Lu Ming was stunned, but the Heavenly Palace master in the distance was also stunned, not knowing what happened.

At this moment, Xie Nianqing also stopped practicing, looking at the Boundless Demon Monument with some shock.

Chapter 4726: Xie Nianqing's chance

"Could it be that this magic monument is abnormal and has something to do with Xiaoqing?"

Lu Ming thought.

As soon as the phantom shadow on Xie Nianqing's body appeared, the Immeasurable Devil Monument began to tremble. The time was too coincidental, it seemed to be caused by the phantom shadow.

However, at this time Xie Nianqing finished her cultivation, and the phantom on her body had disappeared, but the Immeasurable Demon Monument was still shaking.

"What's the matter? Why did the Immeasurable Devil Monument tremble after I practiced for a while."

The Bone Demon was also alarmed, ended the fusion, and cried out in surprise.

In his eye sockets, the soul fire was beating, which was obviously unknown.

The immeasurable devil monument vibrated more and more severely, and finally rose off the ground and flew into the sky.

Around, those Boundless Demon Souls uttered harsh screams and wandered anxiously, but they did not dare to approach the Boundless Demon Monument.

At this time, the Boundless Demon Monument shrank quickly.

It was originally as high as tens of thousands of feet, but it quickly shrunk to the size of a palm, and then turned into a ray of light, rushing to Xie Nianqing, the speed was too fast, Xie Nianqing wanted to dodge, but found that it was impossible to dodge.

The immeasurable devil monument rushed directly into the center of Xie Nianqing's forehead and disappeared.

Xie Nianqing seemed to feel something and sat cross-legged.

boom!

The aura on Xie Nianqing's body skyrocketed in an instant, and the phantom figure on his body appeared again.

Xie Nianqing was hitting the realm of the Eightfold God Lord.

In almost just a few breaths, Xie Nianqing successfully broke through the bottleneck, and his cultivation reached the eighth layer of the Divine Master.

This has not stopped, her breath is still rising rapidly.

The early stage of the eightfold master, the middle stage of the eightfold master...

Lu Ming, the Bone Demon, and the master of Tiangong were a little dumbfounded.

But those immeasurable demons screamed, and then rushed towards Lu Ming, Bone Demon, and Xie Nianqing from all directions.

"not good!"

Lu Ming's face changed drastically.

With so many immeasurable demonic souls rushing, they have only one dead end.

"Bone Demon, is there a way?"

Lu Ming yelled.

"No, run away!"

The bone demon roared.

"I..."

Lu Ming was helpless, just about to take Xie Nianqing into the prey, and then desperately, but at this time, Xie Nianqing suddenly burst out of a powerful aura.

This breath, like water waves, permeated in all directions.

This was the breath of the Boundless Demon Monument, and being charged by this breath, those Boundless Demon Souls stopped and did not dare to continue charging.

Then, tens of thousands of immeasurable demonic souls screamed and wandered in place, seeming to be anxious.

After a while, tens of thousands of immeasurable demon souls scattered in a rush, rushing in all directions.

They used to gather here because of the immeasurable devil monument, but now that the immeasurable devil monument disappeared, they rushed everywhere.

"Not good, retire!"

"Hurry up!"

At this time, the masters of the Tiangong were scared to death.

Because a large number of immeasurable demons rushed towards them, and they had already been discovered.

The immeasurable demon soul screamed, and a large number of immeasurable demon soul rushed to the master of the heavenly palace.

"go!"

Extinction Tianjun roared and retreated violently to the rear.

Twenty-odd celestial and human masters disappeared here in a blink of an eye, daring not to stay at all.

Lu Ming was a little stunned. He didn't expect that the crisis would be resolved in this way.

Xie Nianqing's breath is still rising.

In the late stage of the eightfold, the peak of the eightfold...

boom!

In less than a minute, Xie Nianqing's breath reached the Ninth Level of Divine Lord.

When the * master nine layers arrived, Xie Nianqing's breath finally calmed down.

The strong breath also converges.

Xie Nianqing opened his eyes.

"Xiaoqing, how are you?"

Lu Ming asked concerned.

"I'm very good!"

Xie Nianqing smiled, and suddenly broke through the two levels of cultivation, and it felt good naturally.

"Xiaoqing, what's the matter with that Immeasurable Demon Monument?"

Lu Ming asked.

"I don't know why the Boundless Demon Tablet suddenly flew into my body, but I feel that the Boundless Demon Tablet has already recognized me as the master. I can now control it, and can always be on top of it, and feel a little The magic way..."

Xie Nianqing explained.

"Opportunity, it's a great opportunity. This Boundless Demon Monument is definitely a treasure of the last era. It was actually obtained by you girl. I really envy and hate the old demon."

The Bone Demon screamed, and the soul fire in his eyes kept beating, showing a deep envy and jealousy.

He is a great demon, and he can naturally clearly sense the extraordinaryness of the immeasurable demon monument, which is absolutely the supreme treasure for people who practice demon way.

"Bone Demon, don't you also get a great opportunity, how is the bone fusion?"

Lu Ming changed the subject.

"The fusion has almost succeeded, but unfortunately, it's the origin disaster. I don't dare to break through at all, otherwise, I can use this to hit the origin realm in one fell swoop."

Bone Demon sighed.

"Although you haven't made a breakthrough, your combat power should have improved a lot?"

Lu Ming asked.

"That's natural, boy, now I can suppress you with a single finger, see if I can't see my body now, even the source-level magical soldier can't hurt me, hahaha, in the realm of God, I am invincible."

The bone demon laughed.

"God Lord is invincible? Just blow it, if Ye Immortal and Ye Qiu Xian reach the Divine Lord, can you deal with it?"

Lu Ming asked tentatively.

"Ahem, that kind of perversion is another matter, but the so-called Tiangong is the strongest Tianjun, I don't care about it anymore."

Bone Demon confidently said.

"Really, that's fine, let's go and leave here."

Lu Ming said, he was also quite happy.

If the Bone Demon did not brag, then the Bone Demon is at least equivalent to the strongest Heavenly Monarch.

Under the influence of the Great Tribulation of the Origin, the Divine Lord is the pinnacle without the Origin Realm.

The strongest heavenly monarch sometimes has a great influence on the battle.

In addition, Xie Nianqing also reached the nine-fold divine master.

Xie Nianqing's combat power was already extremely strong. Xie Nianqing of the Ninth Divine Lord, an ordinary Tianjun, is definitely not her opponent, even if it is not as good as the strongest Tianjun, it should not be weaker than a top-level Tianjun.

With Lu Ming's current combat power, he is definitely not Xie Nianqing's opponent.

Now even if you encounter Extinction Tianjun and others, you can still be fearless. Even if the number of people is small, it shouldn't be a problem to rush out.

The three of them flashed and moved towards the path.

Xie Nianqing took control of the Boundless Demon Monument, and they didn't need to be afraid of the Boundless Demon Soul at all, so the speed was very fast, and the figure was like lightning, and they flew a long distance in ten minutes.

boom! boom! boom!

Suddenly, they heard a violent roar and a long howling from ahead.

"It's the people of Tiangong. It seems that the people of Tiangong are at war with the Boundless Demon Soul."

Bone Demon Road.

"Let's go and see if there is a chance..."

Lu Ming said, a cold light gleamed in his eyes.

This is a good opportunity. If there is a chance, Lu Ming doesn't mind making a move and takes the opportunity to get rid of the masters of the heavenly palace.

More than a dozen divine masters at the peak and a dozen divine masters with nine layers are also a big loss for Tiangong.

Chapter 4727: Take advantage of the fire

Now, the Heavenly Palace and the Heaven Extinguishing Army have gone into full-scale war, and the Heavenly Extinguishing Army's garrison is even more precarious. The ability to remove part of the Heavenly Palace is no small help to the Heavenly Extinguishing Army.

"It's just what I want, I just want to try my strength."

The Bone Demon grinned, of course, only showing a row of black teeth.

"kill!"

Xie Nianqing was even more straightforward, rushing directly in the direction of the sound.

Soon, they came to the place of the war.

Sure enough, it was the people of the heavenly palace and the Boundless Demon Soul fighting.

At this time, more than twenty Celestial Masters were already surrounded by a large group of immeasurable demons.

However, in the hands of some masters in Tiangong, a few round beads were sacrificed.

There are a total of seven round beads, these few beads exude dazzling brilliance, and there is constantly peculiar energy permeating out, these energies become special vibrations, once immeasurable demonic soul rushes over, they will be knocked out.

Come to think of it, these seven round beads can specifically restrain the immeasurable demonic soul.

However, there are too many Boundless Demon Souls, and these Boundless Demon Souls were all close to the Boundless Demon Monument before. They were very powerful. Although they were knocked into the air by that special energy fluctuation, they were not dissipated.

The people in Tiangong wanted to break out of the siege, but they couldn't do it for a while.

"As long as the seven round beads are smashed, people like Tiangong will have a dead end."

Lu Ming said.

"It's easy to handle, wait for me here."

Bone Demon said, after speaking, he disappeared behind him like a black lightning, and after a while, the bone demon returned, the difference is that he was enveloped by a layer of devilish energy.

Obviously, the Bone Demon was going to kill an immeasurable demon soul, covering the whole body with the opponent's demon energy, posing as the immeasurable demon soul.

"Look at me."

The bone demon rushed directly towards the battlefield of the heavenly master and the immeasurable demon soul.

Those immeasurable demon souls regarded the bone demon as the same kind, and did not attack the bone demon.

The speed of the bone demon was very fast, it rushed past the immeasurable demon soul in an instant, and then rushed towards a ball.

"It's him, it's the skeleton next to Lu Ming, stop him!"

The people in Tiangong naturally recognized the bone demon.

Several Heavenly Monarchs directly attacked the Bone Demon, and several terrible attacks attacked the Bone Demon.

However, the Bone Demon didn't care about these attacks, and didn't have any intention of resisting them, allowing them to attack him.

when! when! when!

Three golden and iron strikes sounded, the bone demon had nothing to do, and none of the three attacks left a mark on him.

As soon as he rushed past, he kept his body shape, rushing to a ball, and the pitch-black palm bones were cut on the ball like a magic knife.

bump!

The ball burst directly.

Of the seven beads, there are six left.

After smashing the bead, the bone demon quickly rushed to the next bead and split it out with another palm. The second bead burst into pieces.

The speed of the bone demon was too fast. In an instant, it smashed two round beads, and many celestial races reacted.

"Damn, * skeleton, smash him to me!"

"kill!"

More than 20 celestial races, all furious, broke out with all their strength, and killed the bone demon.

These round beads are now their life-saving objects. If they are all shattered, without the treasures that can restrain the immeasurable demonic soul, they have only a dead end.

Therefore, their attack was almost desperate.

"Break it for me!"

The bone demon soul waved, and his hands were like magic knives, constantly cutting out, breaking these attacks one by one.

Even if some attacks bombarded the bone demon, the bone demon just staggered, as if it were all right.

He broke through these attacks, came to the third ball, and smashed it with a palm.

There are four beads left.

The Bone Demon rushed to the fourth ball again.

"court death!"

With a roar, a sharp sword light slashed towards the bone demon.

The sword aura whistled, filled with terrifying fluctuations, causing the soul fire in the bone demon's eye sockets to jump. This sword made him feel a hint of crisis.

"Source-level magic weapon!"

The bone demon flashed a thought, and he knew that this blow was a blow from a source-level magic weapon.

He volleyed his palm, and a golden spear appeared in the hands of the bone demon.

The spear swept out.

when!

The spear collided with the sword light, and a terrifying roar was emitted, which filled all directions.

Puff!

The two heavenly masters of the ninefold divine master shunned them, and were hit by the scattered energy and fell directly on the spot.

Then, both figures drifted back.

It is the bone demon, and the other is the extinct heavenly monarch.

The one shot just now was Exterminating Heavenly Monarch, and the war sword in his hand was a source-level divine weapon.

"My * soldier of the heavenly palace!"

Exterminating Tianjun looked at the golden war spear in the bone demon's hand with cold eyes, and spoke indifferently.

"Soon, the war sword in your hand will also belong to me."

The bone demon soul fluctuates and produces a sound.

The golden war spear in his hand was indeed obtained from the power of the Celestial Race, in the halo world.

"Hmph, today, let you pay for your life, not everyone can use the magic weapon of my Celestial Race."

Exterminating Tianjun spoke indifferently, a powerful aura permeated his body, urging his combat power to the extreme, stepping out, and killing the bone demon.

Bone Demon Silk was not afraid, waved the spear, and went up.

Dangdang...

The speed of the two is astonishing, and they blasted dozens of strokes in a row, without a victory or defeat.

"Bone Demon's strength is indeed much stronger than before. Before, it was absolutely impossible to match Exterminating Heavenly Monarch, but in terms of strength, the two seem to be similar."

Lu Ming whispered.

"After a long battle, the bone demon will win!"

Xie Nianqing said.

Lu Ming nodded, indeed.

The Bone Demon merged into a pitch-black skeleton, his body was indestructible, and his demon energy was extremely strong.

Although the attack power of the two outbreaks is similar, but in other respects, the bone demon is huge. The two may tie in a short time, but the bone demon will win over time.

After the two sides fought dozens of moves, the Bone Devil ignored the defenses and forced the opponent's move. Then, the spear shot out and swept the Extinction Heavenly Monarch.

Extinction Tianjun coughed up blood and retreated, his body almost burst open, his face pale.

bump! bump!

Taking this opportunity, the Bone Demon's spear stabbed twice and smashed two more round beads.

At this time, there were only two beads left in the Tiangong.

Those immeasurable demonic souls screamed, rushing towards the master of the heavenly palace frantically.

There are only two round beads left, which cannot protect all directions at all. There will always be flaws. Many immeasurable demonic souls rushed in and killed the masters of the heavenly palace.

The master of Tiangong can only fight back.

However, ordinary attacks are not effective on these immeasurable demons, and the strength of these immeasurable demons can be very powerful.

Ahhhhh!

Suddenly, many celestial races of the Divine Master Nine Layers screamed, their faces became hideous, their eyes became blood red, and they were completely filled with negative emotions.

"Kill, kill, kill!"

Several celestial races roared and actually killed their own people.

Chapter 4728: Full siege

Puff...

Blood was splattered, and several celestial races were beheaded by their own people.

"They have been controlled by the inner demons, completely sinking, and killing them!"

Extinct Heavenly King shouted.

Several Heavenly Monarchs took action to kill these crazy Celestial Races.

However, there are more immeasurable demonic souls rushing, and it is impossible to kill.

Some Tianjun-level characters were also affected by the Boundless Demon Soul, and the negative emotions in their hearts continued to erupt.

The Bone Demon stared at the remaining two beads again, and slammed into the remaining two beads.

"Join together and block him!"

The Extinction Heavenly Monarch shouted, swung the source-level magic weapon war sword, and killed the bone demon.

At the same time, several other heavenly monarchs also attacked the bone demon.

Among them, the silver armored heavenly monarch is also very powerful. He is a top-level heavenly monarch. Among the heavenly monarchs, he is second only to the four strongest heavenly monarchs.

He also controlled a source-level magic weapon, a silver spear.

The Bone Demon waved his war spear to block the attacks of several Heavenly Monarchs, staggering himself, and backed away.

But as soon as the bone demon retreated, he slew towards the opponent again.

However, although the Bone Demon's defense is strong, its explosive attack power is about the same as Extinction Heavenly Monarch. Several masters on the other side joined forces and abruptly blocked the Bone Demon.

And they also understood the weakness of the bone demon, that is, the bone demon's eye sockets.

There is the soul of the bone demon.

The body of the bone demon is indestructible, but the soul is a weakness.

In this way, the Bone Demon must focus on defense and cannot break through the opponent's block for a while.

However, after all, the opponent only had two round beads left, the defense power was insufficient, and immeasurable demonic souls rushed in constantly, and many celestial races were recruited.

Ahhh...

There is also the Celestial Race completely sinking and being controlled by the Heart Demon. Other Celestial Races can only take action and kill them.

Being controlled by the heart demon, he has completely become a murder puppet, and he can only kill it, otherwise the opponent will kill his own people in turn.

"Lu Ming, let's do it too!"

Xie Nianqing whispered.

"Shoot, detour behind the people of Exterminate Tianjun."

Lu Ming said.

The two detoured silently, the people of the Celestial Clan fought with all their strength, nowhere else could they notice Lu Ming.

When they walked around behind Extinction Tianjun and the others, the two rushed out and rushed towards the battlefield.

Those immeasurable demon souls discovered the two and were about to rush towards them, but Xie Nianqing controlled the immeasurable demon monument and filled with a trace of breath. Those immeasurable demon souls did not dare to approach.

The two passed the Boundless Demon Soul smoothly and came to the rear of Exterminate Tianjun and others.

"Lu Ming, go to death!"

The people in the Tiangong naturally found Lu Ming and the other two. The silver armored Tianjun yelled, and the silver spear pierced Lu Ming with amazing power.

However, Xie Nianqing took the shot and sacrificed a source-level magic weapon, collided with the silver spear, a violent roar sounded, and the opponent's attack was blocked.

"you..."

Silver Armor Tianjun was shocked and looked at Xie Nianqing in shock.

Just now, he felt that Xie Nianqing's strength was surprisingly strong, and it seemed not weaker than him.

"Devil Realm!"

When Xie Nianqing pressed her palm, the celestial demon realm enveloped the audience, and black lotus flowers emerged, turning into a sky full of sword energy, killing the people in the heavenly palace.

At the same time, Lu Ming moved and rushed towards the master of the Celestial Race. In the process of rushing out, the ball turned into a mirror and a light mask, covering the Celestial Race people in it.

Those who were weak were immediately affected by the illusion, and their movements stopped for a while.

How could the bone demon miss this opportunity, the war spear pierced out, and the two heavenly monarchs were killed directly.

As for Lu Ming, the man and the spear were united, and he displayed the Heaven-Breaking Style, and he rushed out and stabbed the silver-clad Tianjun.

It is a pity that Exterminate Tianjun reacted too quickly, almost unaffected by the illusion of the ball, slashed out with one sword and slashed towards Lu Ming.

Lu Ming was startled, and could only retreat quickly, avoiding this sword.

There is still a big gap between his current strength and Extinction Heavenly Monarch.

"Your opponent is me!"

The Bone Demon yelled coldly, and the spear stabbed at the Extinction Heavenly Monarch like golden lightning.

Extinction Tianjun had no choice but to fight with the bone demon with all his strength.

And Xie Nianqing entangled the silver armor Tianjun.

Huh!

Lu Ming changed direction and rushed towards one of the balls.

"Go away!"

Several Tianjun shouted and attacked Lu Ming together.

However, Lu Ming was not afraid, swinging the God of War spear, facing up, blocking two attacks, and the other two attacks, Lu Ming did not care about it, let him bombard him, because the ball had turned into armor and covered his whole body.

Relying on the defense of the ball, Lu Ming abruptly blocked the two attacks. As soon as he rushed past, the God of War shot two consecutive shots.

This time, Lu Ming aroused the power of the origin.

The power of the original source exploded in the God of War Spear, igniting the power of the God of War Spear, which greatly increased Lu Ming's offensive power.

Two of the Heavenly Monarch-level powerhouses, although they desperately resisted, still did not stop them, their bodies shook wildly, retreated violently, and coughed up blood in their mouths.

One of them had a hole in his body and was almost killed.

After wounding the two heavenly monarchs, Lu Ming kept moving, and the God of War spear swept out.

bump!

One of the beads was directly exploded.

There was only the last one of the July round beads, and the scope of defense was even smaller. A large number of immeasurable demonic souls poured in and rushed towards the master of the heavenly palace.

Xie Nianqing inflicted a force on Lu Ming, containing the breath of immeasurable devil monuments, and those immeasurable devil souls deliberately avoided him.

More celestial races were attacked by immeasurable demon souls. Those immeasurable demon souls rushed through their bodies, and the terrifying and strange energy exploded, arousing the negative emotions in their hearts.

"Kill, kill, kill, I am number one in the world!"

"You are the best in the world, I am invincible in the world, and anyone who violates me will die!"

"Kill! I want to be the source, I want to live forever!"

Those celestial races erupted in negative emotions, fell into the demons, roared in their mouths, their eyes were blood red, and their expressions were hideous.

As the immeasurable demons continued to attack, their demons became more and more serious.

At this moment, the existence of the ninefold divine masters had long since died.

The remaining Tianjun-level figures could not stand the influence of the demons, and slowly fell into madness.

No matter who it is, there are negative emotions and demons in their hearts. Even the top powerhouses of the Buddhist clan can't do all the four. Once they fall into their own demons, it will be very scary.

In these days, the human races actually started to kill each other and fight each other.

Lu Ming stepped back in time to avoid being implicated in it.

"rush out!"

The extinct heavenly monarch roared.

He confronted the Bone Demon, both backed up, and then controlled the last ball, brought the silver armor Tianjun, and two two Tianjun, madly rushing in one direction.

"Stay!"

The Bone Demon wouldn't let the opponent go easily and kill him.

"You die for me!"

One of the heavenly monarchs showed a crazy color and rushed directly to the bone demon. In the process of rushing out, his body was filled with dazzling light.

This is going to blow up!

Chapter 4729: The only one to escape

"Be careful!"

Lu Ming shouted, reminding the bone demon, and at the same time, he quickly backed away to Xie Nianqing's side, trying to take Xie Nianqing into the prey.

"I want to blow myself up in front of me, dreaming!"

The Bone Demon yelled coldly, and instead of retreating, he rushed directly to the opponent, completely ignoring the opponent's attack, and rushed into the opponent's arms in an instant, with a palm like a knife, inserted into the opponent's dantian, and directly thrust the opponent. The universe bridge was squeezed.

Then the other hand smashed down, splitting the heavenly monarch in half, and completely killed him.

However, this Tianjun also blocked the Bone Demon a little bit, which allowed Exterminating Tianjun to seize the opportunity.

He was very decisive and hit the last ball in one direction directly.

"burst!"

Extinction Tianjun gave a soft drink, and the ball exploded with a bang.

The bead exploded, forming a wave of energy shock waves, wherever it passed, a large number of immeasurable demonic souls were defeated, and the immeasurable demonic soul group was forced to open a passage.

Huh! Huh!

Extinct Heavenly Monarch, Silver Armored Heavenly Monarch, and another Tianjun trio, quickly rushed toward this passage.

"Stay!"

Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing shot.

Xie Nianqing displayed the realm of heavenly demons, covering the three heavenly monarchs.

However, Lu Ming displayed the prehistoric style, condensing a piece of land, and pressed down towards the trio.

The attack of the two was mainly procrastination, trying to hold the three of them, waiting for the bone demon or immeasurable demon soul to rush over.

"broken!"

The three heavenly monarchs roared and shot together.

Among them, the Extinction Heavenly Monarch and Silver Armor Heavenly Monarch were too strong, both of them controlled the source-level gods, and they blasted out with one move, directly tearing apart the prehistoric continent and the domain of the demon, and continued to flee.

However, at the critical moment, the ball shot a beam of light, covering the three of them.

The ball is now eightfold, and the illusion power contained in the beam of light is already very powerful. Among the three, only Extinction Heavenly Monarch is completely unaffected and can break free instantly.

The other two would be affected, and the Silver Armored Heavenly Sovereign, although it was only slightly affected, could quickly break free.

However, such a slight influence is enough.

Because the bone demon has arrived.

boom!

Lu Ming urged the golden war spear, making the golden war spear extremely huge, and pressed against the silver armored Tianjun and another Tianjun, but the extinction Tianjun was too fast, and it was out of the attack range.

"what!"

The Silver Armor Tianjun roared, breaking free from the influence of the illusion, and mobilizing the source-level magic weapon silver spear with all his strength, leaning in front of him, trying to block the attack of the bone demon.

when!

The two source-level gods collided together, arousing bursts of strong energy. The silver spear was bent directly, and the silver armor Tianjun, body shook, retreated violently, vomiting blood in his mouth.

Silver Armor Tianjun was obviously not the opponent of the Bone Demon, he was hit hard with one move.

The Bone Demon inflicted heavy damage on the opponent with one move, attacking continuously, sweeping towards the opponent like a storm.

And Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing are killing another heavenly monarch.

Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing joined forces to deal with an ordinary heavenly monarch, it was too easy, just one move, the other party was seriously injured.

what!

The heavenly monarch roared, his face was stubborn, and his body burst into dazzling radiance.

He wanted to blew himself up again.

However, it takes some time to blew up. How would Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing give him time?

Xie Nianqing used the realm of the heavenly demon to seal it tightly, while Lu Ming used the sky-breaking style with a shot through the center of his eyebrows and completely killed it.

On the other side, Silver Armor Tianjun was not the opponent of the Bone Demon at all. He was completely crushed and beaten, his arm bones were all broken, and the spear was almost unable to hold.

"Extinct, come and help me!"

Silver Armor Tianjun roared, wanting to call Exterminate Tianjun to help him.

However, Exterminating Heavenly Monarch did not look back, and quickly went away.

He finally rushed out of the encirclement of Boundless Demon Soul, how could he put himself in danger again?

Moreover, the strength of the Bone Demon is too strong, if he returns to save the Silver Armor Heavenly Monarch, he is likely to take himself in.

"You will not sacrifice in vain, and the tribe will avenge you."

Extinction Tianjun heard a voice, and went away without looking back.

Silver Armor Tianjun let out a desperate roar and could only do his best.

However, there is a big gap between his strength and the Bone Demon. In addition, Xie Nianqing and Lu Ming immediately helped the Bone Demon. The silver armor Tianjun's fate was already destined, and he couldn't do it with his death. After a few moves, he was killed by the Bone Demon. The golden war spear penetrated the head.

After killing Silver Armor Tianjun, the Bone Demon reached out and grabbed the silver spear in his hand.

"Unfortunately, that guy ran away."

The Bone Demon sighed and looked in the direction where Extinction Tianjun was fleeing.

The opponent had already rushed out of the encirclement of the immeasurable demons, and it was impossible to catch up with the opponent.

Lu Ming was also a bit pity, that was the strongest heavenly monarch, if he could keep the opponent, it would be a huge loss for Tiangong.

"Lu Ming, this silver spear..."

The bone demon stared at the silver spear in his hand and stretched his voice.

How could Lu Ming not know what the bone demon meant, and said with a smile: "This time, thanks to you, Xiaoqing was able to obtain the Immeasurable Demon Monument, and we were able to kill so many Heavenly Palace masters. This source-level divine weapon naturally belongs to you. "

"Haha, then I'm not welcome."

The Bone Demon smiled, and then said: "Lu Ming, um, um, can I use these two source-level magic weapons to exchange you for a fate-soul heavenly palace town magic soldier?"

When the bone demon said, the soul fire was beating, obviously embarrassed.

His two source-level magic weapons were just ordinary source-level magic weapons, and they were not as good as the town hall magic weapons in Lu Ming's life soul heaven. They were top magic weapons.

However, he was really greedy for the * soldier in Lu Ming's hand.

Can only speak cheeky.

"of course can!"

Lu Ming agreed without hesitation.

Of course he is not stupid, and he also knows that the value of a * soldier in the town hall is far higher than two ordinary source-level * soldiers, but he doesn't suffer when he trades with a bone demon.

The Bone Demon is mixed with him, and the Bone Demon will have a stronger strength with the Hall of God Warriors. Wouldn't it be greater for him.

In fact, even if the Bone Demon didn't say anything, he wanted to give it to the Bone Demon to use a genius of the town hall, so that he could use his combat power to the extreme.

The bone demon said this, exactly what Lu Ming meant.

Hearing Lu Ming's promise so simply, the Bone Demon was ecstatic, his soul beating, and said, "Hahaha, Lu Ming, I didn't misunderstand you, it was loyal."

"Bone Demon, which one of the town hall gods you want, except the * of war spear, you can choose the others."

Lu Ming said.

"I want that Zijin war yue, the battle is straightforward and simple, and it is infinitely powerful."

Bone Demon Road.

Lu Ming thought, Zijin Zhanyue appeared in his hands, and without hesitation, he handed it over to the Bone Demon.

The Bone Demon took it and couldn't put it down, then handed the golden war spear and silver spear to Lu Ming.

"Lu Ming, I will enter your prehistoric ring first to refine the Zijin Zhanyue. You also leave here quickly. The Extinct Heavenly Monarch has fled, and it is estimated that Tiangong will know soon."

Bone Demon Road.

Chapter 4730: Everywhere can be a holy place for cultivation

The Bone Demon entered the prehistoric ring and began to refine Zijin Zhanyue.

The Bone Demon is only at the pinnacle of the Divine Lord, and the power of the original source is limited. After obtaining the source-level divine weapon, it must be refined before it can be used.

This is different from the strong in the original realm.

The powerhouses of the Origin Realm, after obtaining the Origin Level Divine Weapon, can exert their powerful power almost without refining.

This is also the reason why Lu Ming used to lend the gods of the town hall to the strong people of the Origin Realm of the Extinguishing Army, instead of lending them to the existence of the peak of the gods.

Because, they can't use it immediately if they lend the * soldiers of the town hall to the existence of the * master realm. They need time to refine them before they can exert some power, so it's useless to borrow them.

Of course, if the powerhouse of the Origin Realm takes the time to refine it, it will be easier to use, and its power will be stronger.

Lu Ming and Xie Nianqing left Boundless Demon Abyss and left this continent.

"Lu Ming, where are you going next."

Xie Nianqing asked.

"Qiuyue, Dandan, and Paobao are all practicing in retreat everywhere. Since the people in the temple can find you, I'm afraid they can also find other people. I want to get them all out."

Lu Ming said.

"Yes, it would be very dangerous if found by the people of the Heavenly Palace. This time, I am also thanks to the arrangement left by Master Feihuang. However, do you know their location?"

Xie Nianqing said.

"When the origin of the catastrophe came, Feihuang once mapped the location of all of you to retreat and gave it to me. I am probably afraid of encountering such a situation."

Lu Ming said, and then took out a jade card that Feihuang gave him and watched it.

In the jade card, the specific addresses of Qiuyue, Dandan and others were recorded.

"The closest to this place is the Sea of Yuanxin where Qiuyue is. Let's go to the Sea of Yuanxin first and pick up Qiuyue to leave."

Lu Ming said.

Then the two turned into two rays of light, left here, and headed towards the sea of origin.

The emptiness of the ruins of the universe will also be filled with dangers.

But now both of them are more experienced and lucky, and they didn't encounter any danger along the way.

However, some of the continents that they passed along the way surprised the two of them.

Especially Xie Nianqing, Lu Ming had seen a lot before.

Most of the continents in the ruins of the universe were dead and silent, except for some terrible bugs, no plants, and no other creatures.

But now, plants have emerged on many continents, flowers are blooming, plants are luxuriant, and huge trees are distributed on the continent, lush and full of vitality.

The mainland is full of vigorous energy and vitality.

This place is still dead, and it has clearly become a holy place for cultivation.

Although these mainland fragments have not yet conceived the birth spirit, it can be speculated that it is only a matter of time before they are conceived.

"It's really a huge change in the heavens and the earth, the rules of the ruins of the universe have become orderly, full of vitality, everywhere can be a holy place for cultivation."

Xie Nianqing sighed.

"Yes, there are many places in the ruins of the universe. Although it is not very helpful to the divine master realm or above, it is of great benefit to the cultivation of existence below the divine master. The lower the cultivation level, the greater the effect."

"It is conceivable that when the time is long, it is not impossible to give birth to some major magic medicine."

Lu Ming said.

"Could it be that the entire universe will usher in the prosperity of cultivation and return to the grandeur of the prehistoric continent of the last era?"

Xie Nianqing exclaimed.

According to current trends, it is very possible.

"So, let's not allow the Celestial Race to monopolize this infinite resource."

Lu Ming said.

Xie Nianqing nodded solemnly.

Indeed, the great changes in the universe will usher in an unprecedented era in this era.

If the Heaven Extinguishing Army can survive this catastrophe, and then occupy a part of the ruins of the universe, and cultivate the younger generations, it will become stronger and stronger in the future, and it may not be unable to compete with the Heavenly Palace.

"The Sea of Yuanxin is here!"

Suddenly, Lu Ming whispered with a hint of joy.

I'm about to see Qiuyue.

"I'm so happy to see Qiuyue soon? Are you unhappy to see me?"

Xie Nianqing cast a glance at Lu Ming.

Lu Ming chuckles in his heart, and quickly smiled, and said, "Why? I don't know how happy I am to see you, Xiaoqing. When I know you may be in danger, I think of you first."

Lu Ming said affectionately, and took Xie Nianqing's little hand.

"Fool, I'm joking with you."

Xie Nianqing chuckles and laughs. There are so many styles that make Lu Ming bewildered.

"Xiaoqing, you are so beautiful, even if I watch it for a lifetime, I can't see enough."

Lu Ming said.

"Greasy mouth, Ling Yuwei, Huang Ling, Mulan and others, is this how you captured your heart?"

Xie Nianqing said coldly.

Lu Ming couldn't wait to slap himself and make you cheat.

"Xiaoqing, go, let's pick up Qiuyue."

Lu Ming quickly turned off the topic and flew forward.

In the void ahead, there is an ocean floating.

This ocean is very huge, even larger than a piece of continental debris. The sea is not ordinary sea water, it actually presents nine colors, filled with dazzling glow.

It is not strange that there is an ocean floating out of thin air in the ruins of the universe. It is found in many places, and it is not the first time Lu Ming has seen it.

But the sea has nine colors, which is definitely the first time I have seen it.

"Qiuyue's Nine Apertures Sacred Heart also contains nine colors. Does this sea of primordial heart have anything to do with the Nine Apertures Sacred Heart?"

Lu Ming thought to himself.

Maybe it's really possible, otherwise Feihuang wouldn't send Qiuyue here.

Xie Nianqing followed Lu Ming, and the two flew into the sea of Yuanxin.

After flying into the sea of primordial heart, I discovered that the sea of primordial heart is really big and vast, and the entry of people is too small.

Lu Ming took out the sound transmission jade talisman to pass the news to Qiu Yue, but found that he could not pass it out.

"With such a big sea of primordial heart, how can I find Qiuyue if the news can't get out?"

Lu Ming frowned.

"Lu Ming, the people in Tiangong shouldn't find this place yet. Let's find it separately."

Xie Nianqing proposed.

"Okay, look for it separately. Whenever there is news, it will be transmitted immediately."

Lu Ming nodded.

The two flew out in two directions respectively, and their spiritual consciousness spread out, looking for the trail of Qiuyue.

However, after searching for hours, nothing was found.

"If Qiuyue is cultivating on the bottom of the sea, it would be useless for me to look for it like this. Go into the sea and have a look."

Lu Ming thought, then with a plop, he got into the sea.

Suddenly, Lu Ming felt a powerful force in the sea impacting him. This force was really similar to Qiuyue's Nine Orifice Sacred Heart power.

However, although this force is strong, it is not difficult to block with Lu Ming's current cultivation base.

He was looking in one direction in the sea.
