

D Emperor 4751

Chapter 4751: Kill thousands of emperors

Two thousand demon masters rushed into the dream palace, those heavenly soldiers and gods, fled in panic.

"Split apart, a few people, and search me all over the temple. If you can take it away, take it all. If you encounter the temple, kill without mercy!"

Zixuan gave the order.

"The same is true for my orders!"

Yin Kong also followed.

"Yes!"

The Two Thousand Demon Lord roared, his eyes hot, full of excitement.

They actually broke into the palace, this is what they dream of.

The devil and the Tiangong have fought for endless years. Countless demons dreamed that one day they could invade the Tiangong, and the pieces of the Tiangong won't be left. Now, it has really come true.

How can they not be excited?

Immediately, two thousand demon masters, three or four people, four or five people in groups, scattered and killed in all directions.

The dream palace is huge, comparable to a planet, extending in all directions, with countless passages, and countless palaces. Two thousand demon masters quickly disappeared in all directions.

Yinkong and Zixuan also led a group of people to set off.

Lu Ming, Xie Nianqing, Dan Dan, Bone Demon, and All Gods formed a team and moved forward quickly along a passage.

"Our goal is the treasure house of the Dream Palace!"

Lu Ming communicated to Xie Nianqing, Dan Dan and others.

"Treasure Vault, I like it!"

Dandan's eyes gleamed.

"However, the treasure house of the Dream Palace must be very deep hidden, I am afraid it is not so easy to find."

Xie Nianqing said.

"And since it is a treasure house, it must be full of arrays."

The bone demon also spoke.

"So, it's up to you!"

Lu Ming said.

"Don't worry, leave it to me, but after you find the treasure house, let me pick it first."

The light in Dandan's eyes became even brighter and dazzling.

They walked all the way, there was a hall at the end of the passage, but they didn't see a person from the heaven.

They continued to move forward, passing through several long passages in succession, and came to a huge courtyard.

This is a medicine garden.

There are hundreds of thousands of miles in the radius, huge, and planted with all kinds of magical medicine.

In the sky above the pharmacy, there are seven brilliant gems, exuding a great light.

star!

Lu Ming and others' eyes flashed.

These seven gems are actually stars.

To be precise, the seven stars were sealed into seven crystals, forming seven dazzling gems, which provided the light source for the magic medicine here.

It's really generous.

"Hahaha, these magic medicines are ours."

Dandan grinned.

No one rushed into the medicine garden, ready to raid.

Suddenly, in the distant surroundings, radiant brilliance was permeated, endless runes appeared, forming a large formation.

Then, a group of figures appeared, there were tens of thousands of figures.

All of them are powerhouses in the Heavenly Palace, and all of them are the cultivation bases of the Divine Emperor Realm.

"Nine-day battle formation, start, punish them!"

A loud roar came out.

Then, in the bright light, a huge figure condensed out.

Tens of thousands of Celestial Races in the Divine Emperor Realm, in conjunction with the formations that have long been inscribed in the Medicine Garden, set up a nine-day battle formation, which is very powerful, condensing a huge Celestial Race figure, holding a war sword, and blasting to Lu Ming and others Down.

Huh!

The Bone Demon took the lead, flew up, waved his palm, and confronted the huge war sword.

boom!

With a earth-shattering roar, dense cracks appeared on the huge war sword, and then it collapsed with a touch, and even the huge figure showed dense cracks.

"How is it possible that his combat power is so strong?"

Many celestial races roared in horror.

They are tens of thousands of people working together, and they all exist in the Divine Emperor Realm. In addition, they have the advantage of terrain.

This medicine garden originally engraved the runes of the nine-day battle formation. They will be more powerful than the nine-day battle formation in other places.

But this kind of strength is still not as good as the bone demon, which shocked them extremely.

"kill!"

The bone demon roared, his body was like electricity, and he killed it again, hitting out with a palm, and hitting the huge figure, this time directly defeating the huge figure.

Then, Lu Ming went to kill those celestial races.

"Defensive, full defense!"

The horrified roar of those celestial races fully urged the nine-day battle formation and turned into a defensive posture, condensing blocks of huge shields.

However, it is also difficult to resist the Bone Demon.

The frontal attack power of the Bone Demon is almost the same as that of the strongest Heavenly Monarch in the Heavenly Palace. Under the origin, there are not many opponents in the entire universe. With such power, there are too many divine masters beyond the average, and it is not at all that tens of thousands of divine emperors will fight for nine days What the array can fight against.

After a few roars, the shield was pierced, and the nine-day battlefield was also torn apart. There was a scream. In an instant, at least hundreds of the * emperor's body exploded, and it was taken as a fall.

The nine-day battle formation was broken.

"Bone Demon, don't give me a chance to shoot at all!"

Dan Dan grinned.

Even if there is no bone demon, Dan Dan has full confidence, relying on the formation to break the opponent's nine-day battle formation.

"Go ahead and destroy these celestial races."

Lu Ming said, his figure turned into an aurora, and he rushed out. The God of War spear appeared in his palm, and the spear shook. Hundreds of sharp spear lights came out through the hole.

Puff puff...

The nine-day battle formation was broken, and these celestial races were lambs to be slaughtered in front of Lu Ming, completely vulnerable.

Regardless of whether it is the first layer of the * emperor or the nine layer of the * emperor, it is the same.

As soon as the spear light rushed past, hundreds of * emperors were pierced between their eyebrows.

At the same time, the ball also flew out, turned into a halberd, rammed and slashed horizontally and horizontally, and a large tract of Celestial God Emperor was killed.

For the Celestial Race, Lu Ming did not have the slightest compassion, nor the slightest softness.

They are mortal enemies. Either you die or I die. Now that he has weak hands and let go of the Celestial Race, maybe in the future there will be his relatives and friends who will die in the hands of the opponent.

When Lu Ming started, Xie Nianqing, Dan Dan and the Bone Demon also took action.

It is completely one-sided, large tracts of the Celestial Race, like wheat, are harvested.

"Flee!"

"They are the gods, we are not opponents at all, and even if we escape, you adults will not blame it."

"Leave the green hills without worrying about the firewood, and escape from the heavenly palace to look for the adults."

The remaining celestial races dispersed in a rush and fled in all directions.

There are many passages in this distant area.

Lu Ming and others pursued and killed thousands of Celestial God Emperors, but all other Celestial God Emperors escaped.

However, Lu Ming and others were also very satisfied.

Thousands of * emperors, this is definitely a huge number, and it can make the Celestial Race painful.

According to the fact that more than one hundred * emperors may give birth to a * lord, and ten thousand * emperors may be born in the future, there will be a hundred * lord. This is not a small loss for Tiangong.

Later, Lu Ming and the others began to search for the magic medicine.

Chapter 4752: Found a treasure house

The crowd began to search for the magical medicine, and while waving their hands, large swaths of the magical medicine rose from the ground, and they were put away by Lu Ming.

Lu Ming took all the magic medicine into the prey.

Most of these magical medicines are king-level magical medicines, imperial-level magical medicines, or emperor-level magical medicines. Lu Ming and the others don't use them now. When they are free, they plan to plant them on the mainland fragments of the prehistoric ring.

"Hey, this is... the master magic medicine."

Suddenly, Lu Ming's eyes lit up.

He saw a miraculous medicine with a tangy fragrance, strong potency, and extremely strong vitality.

"Haha, master-level magic medicine, I found a master-level magic medicine."

On the other side, Dan Dan also laughed.

The next moment, the Bone Demon also spoke, and he also found a master-level magical medicine.

"In the past, it was impossible for the Primordial Universe to give birth to a master-level magical medicine. It seems that the great changes in the universe have really had a great impact. The Primal-level magical medicine has begun to appear in the Primordial universe.

"Is it really like what others said, the universe will return to the glory of the prehistoric continent of the last era?"

Lu Ming thought, his heart ups and downs, and it was difficult to calm down.

It is very possible.

Since the desolate continents shattered in the last epoch, this universe has almost dried up.

Most of the territory has become ruins, the rules are chaotic, and there is silence.

And the new primordial universe, the cosmic starry sky, only occupies a small part of the territory, and it can't breed treasures above the main level.

The entire universe is simply the Age of Doom, and the number of powerful people is completely incomparable to the Primordial Continent.

Now, there is an opportunity to return to the glory of the previous era, and it is not impossible.

"When the great world comes, the Celestial Extinguishing Army cannot be destroyed even more, otherwise, then this universe will really belong to the Celestial Race."

A thought came to Lu Ming's mind.

However, he didn't stop in his hand, and while waving his hands, he collected the master-level magical medicine into the prey.

Under their aggressive curbing, this medicine garden was quickly swept away, and almost all the magical medicine was swept away, not even the lowest-level magical medicine.

"Hahaha, great, we hurried to other places, I really look forward to the treasure house of the heavenly palace."

Dandan opened his eyes and smiled.

They quickly chose a direction and continued searching along a passage.

Soon after, they found a few masters of the Celestial Race, took them down, and asked about the location of the Tiangong treasure house.

However, it is a pity that these celestial races do not know at all. Their level is too low. The place where the treasure is hidden is not something ordinary people can know. Only the upper level of the sky can know where the treasure is.

Don't talk about them, even many celestial races in the Divine Realm do not know the location of the Tiangong treasure house.

Later, Lu Ming and the others successively took several batches of Celestial Race interrogation, and the results were all the same.

The level is too low to know at all.

"This is also a good thing. These people don't know. Then, those demons won't know. Later, it depends on whose luck is good."

Lu Ming said.

Needless to think about it, those demons must also be looking for the treasure house in Tiangong.

The treasure house of the Tiangong must contain a lot of treasures, who can't be moved?

They searched in the Tiangong constantly, and when they saw the high value, they took it away, and when they saw the human race, they also killed it.

In this way, they stayed in the Tiangong for seven days, but still did not find the treasure house of the Tiangong.

"If we haven't found it in a few days, we will leave."

Dan Dan said, it was really itchy.

They had an appointment with Zixuan, Yinkong and others in advance.

The time to enter the temple is ten days.

After ten days, we will retreat.

If you wait any longer, you are afraid that the strong of the heaven will be killed. If the heaven sends seven or eight thousand * masters to come back, they will definitely not be opponents.

"Go on, if we haven't found it in three days, we will retreat."

Lu Ming said.

One day later, there is still no gain.

Two days later, there was still no gain.

Seeing that ten days are approaching.

"I found out..."

At this moment, Dan Dan's surprise sound rang in the ears of Lu Ming and others.

Lu Ming and the others were overjoyed, and their figure flashed before they came to Dan Dan.

"There is a formation on this ground, an extremely secret formation, even if it is a formation that is not easy to detect by everyone."

Dan Dan stared at a place with fiery eyes.

They were in a yard at this time, the yard was full of flowers, and Dan Dan was staring at a place where the flowers were in full bloom.

"Here..."

Lu Ming, Xie Nianqing, Bone Demon, and All Gods all looked carefully, and even tried it out, but they didn't find any traces of the formation.

"Let's say it, it's very secretive, but it's a pity that I ran into me. I was in the ruins of Wanhua. I just got a formation engraved on my back. It can sense various formations. No matter how secret it is, Can't escape my induction."

Dan Dan said, after finishing speaking, he began to wave his hands, and runes spread out, sinking into the ground.

After a while, runes unexpectedly appeared on those flowers.

"There really is a formation!"

The eyes of Lu Ming and others brightened.

"Watch me break him."

Dandan proudly said.

"Dan, don't make too much movement, and keep it quiet. It's best not to leave a trace."

Lu Ming reminded.

He was afraid of making too much noise and attracting demons.

Tiangong treasure house, they just need to divide it.

"Don't worry, I am better at this than you."

Once he smiled, the movements on his hands were getting faster and faster, endless runes spread out.

After about ten minutes, the flowers disappeared, and a small whirlpool appeared on the ground.

"Let's go in. This is a small passage I opened. After we go in, this passage will automatically disappear. Those demons can't find it."

Dan Dan said.

"go!"

Without any hesitation, Lu Ming rushed into the whirlpool first, followed by Xie Nianqing, Bone Demon and Ten Thousand Gods, and finally Dan Dan.

After they all rushed into the whirlpool, the whirlpool disappeared automatically.

Lu Ming discovered that they came to a stone chamber, which was very small and there was nothing empty.

However, there is a stone gate on the side of the stone room, and the stone gate is also covered by a layer of formation.

"It seems that I haven't reached the treasure house yet, there are multiple levels, but it was all in vain when I met me."

Once he smiled, walked to Shimen and observed for a while, then he started to break the formation.

After ten minutes, Shimen made a sound of "kaka" and then opened automatically.

Behind the stone gate is an oblique downward passage. At the end of the passage, there is a stone gate, which is still covered by formations.

The formation of each stone gate is different, and the strong of the heavenly palace also needs a specific key to open these doors.

However, when encountering Dandan, these are useless.

During the period of Wanhua Ruins, Dandan's understanding of the formation together undoubtedly improved a lot.

Soon, this stone gate was opened by Dan Dan.

Chapter 4753: Billion Precious Crystals

Later, Lu Ming and others passed through several more consecutive levels, and finally reached the very end.

At the back, there is a huge stone chamber with a very wide range.

After arriving here, Lu Ming and others were stunned.

His mouth was dumbfounded, and his eyes burst into bright light.

Treasures, all treasures.

The first thing that catches the eye is piles of metal materials like hills.

All kinds of metal materials, hundreds of different kinds, piles of each kind, just pile on the ground at will.

Then there are many shelves on both sides of the stone room, and on the shelves, there are large boxes.

Don't even think about it, when it's in the box, it must be a treasure.

There are also a lot of magical soldiers on some shelves, filled with a powerful atmosphere.

Of course, the ranks of such randomly placed gods will not be too high, most of them are emperor-level gods, and there are some main-level gods.

But the number is huge, piled up like a mountain.

A treasure house, a real treasure house.

Lu Ming, Xie Nianqing, and once they knew that they had found the right place. This is definitely the treasure house of the Dream Palace.

"Shoot, move!"

Lu Ming screamed and waved his hand, and the metal material mountain that was piled up in front of him disappeared and was directly taken into the prey.

"Do it!"

Immediately afterwards, Dan Dan, Xie Nianqing, All Gods and Bone Demon all shot, took out the storage ring, and frantically began to collect these metal materials.

Most of these metal materials are only capable of refining imperial-level magical weapons, or main-level magical weapons, and there is no material for refining source-level magical weapons, but they can't stand the large number.

With so many materials, I don't know how many kilograms there are, and the value is immeasurable.

Soon, hundreds of piles of metal materials were evacuated, and then everyone looked at the large boxes on the shelves.

Lu Ming walked directly to the nearest shelf, opened the box, and found that there were jade bottles inside, neatly arranged.

There are twelve in total.

Lu Ming took out a jade bottle, opened the cap, and suddenly an extremely strong medicinal fragrance spread out.

Suddenly, the entire stone room was filled with a strong fragrance of medicine.

Inside, is the * pill.

Lu Ming poured it out and saw that there were twelve emerald green magic pills inside.

"This is the main level divine pill, refined from main level divine medicine, which can enhance the cultivation of the main realm."

Xie Nianqing recognized this kind of pill at a glance.

Can improve the cultivation of the * master.

This kind of divine pill can be said to be invaluable, and spreading out will make the existence of the divine master realm break its head.

In the past, the cosmic starry sky did not have any major level treasures. If the existence of the main realm of the gods wanted to improve their cultivation, they had to go to the ruins of the universe to find the primordial crystal or the major magical medicine.

However, in the past, the rules of the ruins of the universe were chaotic, and the main level magical medicine was also very rare, so the number of such main level magic pills was naturally extremely rare.

"This kind of sacred pill has very strong energy, one can be worth thousands of prehistoric crystals."

Lu Ming looked carefully and judged the efficacy of the Shen Dan.

"This box is also the main level * pill."

Dan Dan called at this time.

He couldn't stand it a long time ago and opened the second box.

In the second box, there was also a main level * pill, which, like Lu Ming, was also used to improve cultivation.

Then, Xie Nianqing, Ten Thousand Gods, and Bone Demon also opened other boxes.

It was discovered that most of them were main-level * pills.

It is the most to improve the cultivation base, and there are also some other uses, such as power recovery, detoxification, auxiliary divine pills and so on.

"The * pill for improving cultivation is useless to me, so you can use it for points."

Xie Nianqing said.

Xie Nianqing's cultivation has reached the ninth level of the Divine Lord, and the universe bridge penetrates the universe. Her next practice is to transform and strengthen the origin.

There is no need to upgrade the main level * pill of cultivation base, or Honghuangjing.

"I don't need a divine pill to enhance my cultivation. You three will be divided."

The Bone Demon also followed.

Lu Ming, Dandan and Wanshen were not polite. The * pill that strengthened cultivation was divided equally.

Other medicines were given to Xie Nianqing and Bone Demon.

In the end, everyone even divided hundreds of boxes of pill.

What other main-level magical soldiers and emperor-level magical soldiers were also divided by them.

"The tallest and main-level ones have no source-level treasures."

Dan Dan muttered, a little unhappy.

"The source-level treasures, the many source realms of the heavenly palace are not divided enough, and it is normal to have none."

Lu Ming smiled.

But there was some loss in my heart, the main level treasure, for them, was not particularly useful.

The ones that had been obtained before, which had the greatest effect on Lu Ming, were the treasures that enhanced his cultivation.

"Here, there is a stone gate!"

When they emptied this stone room, in the deepest part of the stone room, they found another division gate, shrouded in many rune formations.

Lu Ming and others are all happy.

Is there more than one treasure house, there are more important treasure houses?

Are there more precious treasures inside?

"give it to me!"

Dan Dan can't wait to go up and study.

This time the formation was obviously a lot more complicated. Even Dandan took several hours to penetrate the formation and crack it.

Opening the stone door and walking in, it turned out to be another stone room, but it was much smaller than the previous one.

The first thing that catches the eye is a storage ring.

This storage ring was suspended in mid-air, shrouded in a light cover.

Lu Ming directly reached out and grabbed it, his palm covered with taboo force.

Without being blocked, Lu Ming grabbed the storage ring in his hand.

Once the spiritual sense was swept away, the contents in the storage ring could be seen clearly.

The prehistoric crystals are a lot of prehistoric crystals, piled up into a mountain.

Lu Ming's eyes were very bright.

The number of this pile of prehistoric crystals is absolutely amazing. Lu Ming estimated that it was definitely more than 700 or 800 million.

Because Feihuang gave Lu Ming 200 million prehistoric crystals before, the volume of the pile was far less than the volume of this pile of prehistoric crystals.

"Lu Ming, what is it?"

Seeing the light in Lu Ming's eyes, Dan Dan asked curiously.

"Honghuangjing, and there are a lot of them."

Lu Ming said, and then handed the storage ring to Dan Dan to see.

Once she saw it, her eyes lit up, and then Xie Nianqing and others looked at it again.

"I estimate that this pile of prehistoric crystals is about one billion."

Bone Demon Road.

Billion!

Lu Ming and others were all excited.

Although for a heavenly palace, one billion prehistoric crystals is very small.

You know, this is the treasure house of the Dream Palace, a billion crystals, really nothing.

But Lu Ming and the others are already very satisfied.

You must know that things like Honghuangjing are completely consumables, and they are consumed at a very fast rate. One billion Honghuangjing is divided among the hands of the gods in the Tiangong, and it is not much for one person, and it will be refined soon.

This kind of extremely fast-consuming treasure, there are still about one billion in Tiangong, which is already very good.

It is estimated to be used to reward subordinates.

Chapter 4754: Divide the treasure

"Let's divide these prehistoric crystals equally."

Lu Ming looked at Dan Dan and Wan Shen, Hong Huang Jing was useless to Xie Nianqing and Bone Demon, wait for other treasures, let them both get more.

"Lu Ming, how many prehistoric crystals do you need to break through now?"

Bone Demon asked.

"From the Seventh Divine Emperor to the Eighth Divine Emperor, it takes about 500 million."

Lu Ming said.

After breaking through to the Seventh Layer of the God Emperor, Lu Ming has refined more than 100 million prehistoric crystals, so he estimated that at most 500 million would be enough.

"Well, let's see what other treasures are behind, how about sharing them together?"

Pantheon proposed.

Other people naturally have no opinion.

Everyone continued to look.

In addition to this storage ring suspended in the air, there are more than a dozen large boxes suspended in the air.

They opened the dozen or so large boxes one by one, and everyone's breathing became a little heavy.

Chongbao, the real treasure.

There are nine large boxes, each of which contains a magic weapon.

Source-level magic weapon!

There are nine large boxes, all of which are source-level magic soldiers, a total of seven pieces.

"I thought I wouldn't have active level magic soldiers, but I didn't expect that there were seven."

Dan Dan grinned, his eyes glowed, and he couldn't wait to swallow these nine source-level magic soldiers.

The meaning of Dandan is very simple, the source-level magic weapon is also an extremely lacking strategic resource for Tiangong.

About half of the origins of Tiangong do not have origin-level magic weapons.

Source-level magic weapons are far from enough, and there is no such thing in the treasure house, which is normal.

"This should be the backup source-level magic weapon of Tiangong, used to reward his men."

Xie Nianqing said.

The operation of a big power also requires some means, requiring clear rewards and punishments.

For example, a certain Origin Realm's existence has made great contributions to the Heavenly Palace, and then rewarded a Origin Level Divine Weapon, which will cause a sensation, stimulate other Origin Realm powerhouses, and make other Origin Realm work more conscientiously for the Heavenly Palace.

These seven source-level magic weapons are obviously for this purpose.

The one billion or so Honghuangjing before is obviously also used for this purpose.

In addition to the seven source-level divine weapons, they also discovered some divine pills, which were source-level divine pills, refined from a source-level divine medicine, and contained the imprint of origin.

The value of this kind of * pill is simply astonishingly high, and it is absolutely useful to the origin realm, and can improve and break through the existence of the origin realm.

"Posted, posted, really posted, haha!"

Every time he laughed.

This kind of * pill is very useful for the * master peak to break through the origin realm, and they will use it sooner or later.

It is a pity that the number of this kind of pill is not large, it can be said that it is very small.

This is also normal, the source-level magical medicine for refining the source-level * pill is too rare.

Especially before, it was hard to find even in the ruins of the universe.

Now that the universe has changed dramatically, it may gradually increase in the future.

In addition to these, there are some other treasures.

They are some very special treasures, such as some one-time attack treasures, or one-time life-saving treasures, etc. These treasures are often useful at critical moments.

In short, the treasures in this treasure house are all top treasures and their value is amazing.

However, there is no metal material for refining source-level magic weapons, and there are no other high-level magic drugs.

Think about it, once Tiangong gets these materials, they will use them to refine them.

Subsequently, they began to discuss how to allocate.

"In the first battle of the same level here, Lu Ming's combat power was the strongest. Every time he raised his re-cultivation base, his enhanced combat power was also the strongest. So I propose that all the prehistoric realms be allocated to Lu Ming. What do you think?"

Pantheon first said.

Naturally, Xie Nianqing and the Bone Demon had no objection, especially Xie Nianqing, not to mention that she couldn't use it anymore, even if she could use it, she would give it to Lu Ming without hesitation.

Only Dan Dan was very reluctant, a pair of eyes rolled steadily, and his cultivation base was the lowest among the people, and he was the 5th Divine Master, and he also wanted Honghuangjing very much.

"I can break through the Eighth Layer of the Divine Master, and I only need 500 million Precious Crystals at most, and I can't use more."

"Well, Hong Huangjing I will take 500 million, and other treasures, you can take more."

Lu Ming said.

It is enough for him to take 500 million, even if he takes one billion, it is of no use.

From the Divine Master Eightfold Breakthrough to the Divine Master Nine Layers, he needs at least five billion Magnificent Crystals, which is simply an astronomical figure.

Finally negotiated.

Lu Ming took 500 million prehistoric crystals, and the other 500 million prehistoric crystals were divided equally between Dandan and Wanshen.

As for the source-level magic weapon, Lu Ming didn't take it. Ten thousand gods took one, and Dandan, Xie Nianqing and Bone Demon took two.

This time, thanks to Dan Dan, he was able to find the treasure house of the Heavenly Palace. Dan Dan should get one more.

To this end, Dan Dan opened his mouth with a smile.

As for those source-level * pills, everyone was evenly divided.

For some other special treasures, everyone was equally divided according to their own needs.

This time, their harvest was huge, and it can be said that everyone is happy.

"It's cool, it's so cool, it's still comfortable to move the treasure house of Tiangong."

Every time he laughed.

This trip can be said to make them rich at once. Many of the treasures are invaluable.

Such as source-level magic weapons, source-level magic pills, and those special treasures.

"Let's go, it will be ten days soon."

Lu Ming said.

Everyone nodded, headed outside, and left the treasure house.

There is still a little time left, but everyone no longer wants to wander around, and after a trip to the treasure house, they are already indifferent to the other things in the palace.

They found a place and waited slowly.

Lu Ming is hurrying to refine the prehistoric crystal.

It is conceivable that the next battle will definitely be endless, the stronger the better.

Wanshen and Dandan also seized the time to refine the prehistoric crystal.

And Xie Nianqing is to comprehend the origin and strengthen the power of the origin.

Only the bone demon is doing nothing.

His cultivation base has reached its limit. The next step is the Origin Realm, but now it is the Origin Great Tribulation, and he can no longer improve.

If you want to break through the origin, you can only wait until the origin is over, otherwise, when he just breaks through, the origin will be sucked away.

He has now reached the peak and cannot continue to improve in all aspects.

Soon, the ten-day period came.

Lu Ming and others left the Dream Palace and returned to the Yin Ruins Demon Fort.

Other demons also came out one after another.

After a while, all the demons who entered the Dream Palace came out and returned to the Yin Ruins Demon Fort.

"Lu Ming, do you have any gains, but have you found the treasure house of the Dream Palace?"

Zi Xuan came over and asked tentatively.

"No, did you find it?"

Lu Ming asked back, naturally they would not admit that they found the treasure house.

"I have inquired about other people, but have not found it. It seems that the treasure house of the Heavenly Palace is hidden too deeply. What a pity!"

Zi Xuan sighed.

Chapter 4755: Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal?

After searching for so many days, they couldn't find the treasure house of Dream Palace, which made Zixuan and others very upset.

If it is not that there is not enough time, they all want to keep searching.

But they have to leave, so many days have passed, I believe Tiangong has long received the news, it is estimated that they have sent a master to attack them.

If you don't leave quickly, it is estimated that you will be besieged by the master of Tiangong.

In fact, a few days after they entered the Dream Palace, Ye Immortal and others received the news.

Most of the powerhouses in the Heavenly Palace were all around the extermination army station, besieging the extermination army station, and immediately exploded upon hearing the news.

"What? The criminals in the jail, all escaped, why is this?"

"What happened? More than nine hundred * masters have all escaped and are attacking the key points of my heavenly palace everywhere. Damn it, * it?"

"What happened in the jail?"

Many Tianjun roared.

Even a person like Ye Immortal, his face was a little gloomy.

"My lord, it is said that someone broke into the sky jail and released the criminals from the sky jail."

A big man from the Celestial Race who came to spread the news said.

"Whoever broke into the prison is a crime worthy of death."

A heavenly monarch roared.

"According to the picture feedback from the monitoring formation in the prison, these people..."

The great man of the Celestial Race took out a piece of jade talisman and urged the jade talisman, several figures immediately appeared.

"It's Lu Ming, it's that little bit of Lu Ming!"

"Damn it, no, there are demons!"

The scene was noisy.

Naturally, there are surveillance formations in many places in the prison, and it is natural that Lu Ming can hardly avoid all surveillance formations.

"Why did Lu Ming's little mess get mixed up with the devil?"

Some people are puzzled.

"No, could it be that Lu Ming entered the dark universe and cooperated with the devil?"

Someone's expression changed.

"Cooperate with the devil? How is it possible? Now that the devil is invaded by the Demon Ancestor Insect, it is difficult to protect himself and will soon become a puppet of our clan. How can Lu Ming cooperate with the devil?"

"The devil left the dark universe?"

"This..."

The masters of the Celestial Race at the scene are not allowed to argue.

"Report!"

At this moment, another celestial race flew in quickly. At this moment, an old celestial race was full of fear and panic.

"What's the matter?" A Tianjun asked with a darkened face.

"My lords, something bad happened. I just got the news that the Dream Palace was breached."

The old man of the Celestial Race answered with a trembling voice.

what?

Boom boom boom...

A series of terrifying auras burst out, and countless masters of the Celestial Race burst into endless anger.

Their eyes are wide, and they are full of murderous intent and incredible.

Dream Palace, was actually breached?

Who did it?

In today's prehistoric universe, the Celestial Exterminator is besieged here, the demons are eroded by the Demon Ancestor Insects, and their heavenly palaces have no opponents. Who else can break through the dreamy heavenly palace?

Is it Yaxian?

"Who did it?"

Ye Immortal asked indifferently, and everyone could hear the cold murderous intent in the voice.

"It's Lu Ming, there are demons, a lot of demons."

The old man of the Celestial Race answered with a trembling voice.

"Lu Ming again."

"There are demons, where are a lot of demons?"

Many Tianjun level existence roars.

"It's true, everyone, please see."

The old man of the Celestial Race also took out a jade talisman to inspire the jade talisman, and a picture immediately appeared.

In the picture, it is exactly the scene where Lu Ming and others have thousands of demons attacking the Great Array of Fantasy Heavenly Palace.

The people of the Celestial Race were stunned.

It took a long time to react.

"It is the silver-winged demon and the purple-eyed demon of the four demon kings, why can they appear in the prehistoric universe?"

"They were also eroded by the Demon Ancestor Insect. They just rely on a little Demon Ancestor blood crystal powder to survive and survive. They can't support them for much time. They don't dare to leave the dark universe. How can they attack the Dream Palace?"

Many Tianjun roared, it was hard to believe what they saw before them.

"Quiet!"

Suddenly, Ye Immortal's voice sounded, and everyone was quiet.

"It's useless to complain now. Now it seems that the Demon Ancestor Worms of the Purple Eye and Silver Wing races have been suppressed, or eliminated, so they can leave the dark universe."

Ye immortal road.

"The Devil's Ancestor Worm is eliminated? How is this possible?"

Many celestial races are still unbelievable.

"No matter how incredible it is, but now that it is the case, we have to estimate it like this."

Ye immortal road.

"Ancestor, what shall we do now?"

"What else can I do, Patriarch, I propose to send a master immediately to wipe out those demons and Lu Ming completely."

"Yes, there are still people who have escaped from the jail. You can't ignore them, you have to send someone to kill them."

Some heavenly monarchs rushed.

"It seems that Lu Ming wants to use this method to relieve the pressure on the Extinguishing Army's garrison and disperse our strength. Fortunately, Lu Ming, I underestimate you."

Ye Immortal whispered, his voice was extremely cold, murderous as cold as a knife.

However, he couldn't ignore Lu Ming.

The people who escaped from the Heaven Prison destroyed everywhere, attacked the important places of the Heavenly Palace, and killed the Celestial Race. They absolutely couldn't ignore it.

And Lu Ming and those demons had already entered the Dream Palace, and they couldn't leave it alone.

Even if he knew Lu Ming's purpose, he still had to send someone there.

"Old Ancestor, I propose to send an army immediately to wipe out Lu Ming and those demons in one fell swoop."

A Tianjun proposed.

"Then how many people are sent, we don't know how many demon master-level characters the demon has."

Another Tianjundao.

"Silver Wing and Purple Eyes are all combined, and about five thousand demon masters can be dispatched. We must prepare for them all to set off. Therefore, I decided to send about five thousand divine masters to Dream Palace first. Don't fight with the opponent first, test the opponent's strength, if the opponent is really a * of about five thousand, send the news back, and then make other countermeasures."

"In addition, two thousand * masters were sent to siege and kill those who escaped from the sky prison."

"The others are still going all out to attack and destroy the garrison of the heavenly army, no matter what, the human body is the most important thing."

Ye Immortal began to give orders.

"Yes!"

Others take orders.

Soon after, two thousand * masters set off to encircle and kill the masters who escaped from the prison.

And the five thousand gods are killing the dream palace.

As a result, the number of masters who besieged and destroyed the garrison of the heavenly army was seven thousand fewer.

Originally, Tiangong dispatched a total of about 16,000 divine lords, plus nearly 7,000 divine lords, and a total of nearly 23,000 divine lords.

Now that he left seven thousand at once, there are still about 16,000 divine masters left.

This eased the pressure on the Heaven Extinguishing Army a little bit, and the time that it could support became longer.

"Devil, how did you suppress or get rid of the Demon Ancestor Insect?"

"Could it be... Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal?"

Ye Immortal's eyes suddenly brightened.

Chapter 4756: Heavenly Palace

Ye Immortal suddenly thought of the Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal.

Because he knew that the only one who could restrain the Demon Ancestor Insect was the Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal.

Moreover, it was his design that used the blood crystal of the Demon Ancestor to lead the demons to the dark universe, and to block the demons in the dark universe forever.

But he also knew very well that on the blood crystal of the Demon Ancestor, there was an enchantment laid down by a king, and it was impossible for the Demon Clan to get close. How did the blood crystal of the Demon Ancestor be obtained?

He naturally thought of Lu Ming and others, but he knew more about the human king enchantment than the devil.

Because the Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal was inadvertently obtained by Ye Immortal, when he got the Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal, the Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal also had a volume of introduction, which mentioned the human king enchantment.

Although the human king enchantment is mainly aimed at the demons, it also has a strong restraint effect on the servants of the human race.

Not only that, any creature, including the human race itself, can hardly pass through the barrier, and it will form extremely strong pressure.

If you want to go through the enchantment and get the blood crystal of the demon ancestor, you can only do it unless you are detached.

However, in today's prehistoric universe, are there still detachments?

Obviously impossible.

"Even if Lu Ming is a forbidden body, it is absolutely impossible to cross the human king barrier and obtain the Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal, but without the Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal, how did the demon suppress or get rid of the Demon Ancestor Worm in the body? ?"

Ye Immortal fell into deep contemplation.

He didn't think that Lu Ming and others could get the Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal, because that was almost impossible.

No matter how talented Lu Ming is, it is impossible for Lu Ming to pass through the human king barrier.

This idea was denied by him, but it made him even more puzzled.

"Send someone to find out!"

Ye Immortal whispered, and then sent people to the dark universe to check whether the human king barrier was still there.

The people he sent there soon responded.

The human king barrier is still there, safe and sound.

As for the blood crystals of the Demon Ancestor, they were hidden in the box. They could not pass through the barrier, and naturally they could not see whether the blood crystal of the Demon Ancestor was taken away.

This makes Ye Immortal even more puzzled.

...

After Lu Ming and others left the Dream Palace, they took the Yinxu Demon Fort and planned to leave.

The Yin Ruins Demon Fort shattered the void and moved forward in the dark space.

However, it didn't take long before it shook violently.

"Enemy attack, enemy attack!"

A demon roared, alarming everyone.

"The people from Tiangong came so fast."

Lu Ming's eyes flashed.

Obviously, they must have been attacked by a strong Tiangong.

Lu Ming, Zixuan, Yin Kong and others gathered in a hall. There was a huge bronze mirror on the hall. This bronze mirror could reflect the scene outside.

Outside the Yin Ruins Demon Fort, the void was shattered, and the violent aura swept all directions.

In front of the Yin Ruins Demon Fort, there are a large number of figures standing in the void.

All of them are powerhouses in the Heavenly Palace, and all of them exist in the Divine Realm.

There are five thousand people.

"Sure enough, it is the Celestial Race, and now the rules of the ruins of the universe have changed smoothly. It seems that the people in the Celestial Palace can also arrange wormholes."

Lu Ming thought.

In the past, there was no way to open a wormhole in the ruins of the universe, because the rules were chaotic.

But now, the situation has changed.

Just like the last time in the Halo World of the Qianqiu Battlefield, they competed for the body of the King of Humans, and the Space-Time Spirit Rats opened up a wormhole there. The powerhouse who destroyed the heavenly army relied on the wormhole and returned to the garrison of the heavenly destruction army.

Nowadays, the divine lord of the heavenly palace exists, and can rush here in just a few days, without a wormhole.

"Heaven and human race, very good, go out and fight with them, kill all these heaven and human races."

"Kill, kill all these bits and pieces."

Many demons roared.

The devil and the Celestial race are originally feuds. In addition to the Demon Ancestor Insect incident, the demons have a deeper hatred of the Celestial race. Most demons hate the Celestial race. Now seeing the Celestial race, many demons want to rush out. Fight with the Celestial Race.

"Wait a minute, now I don't know how many masters the Celestial Clan has sent, and maybe there are still ambushes in secret. Let's retreat for a while and test the strength of the opponent."

Zi Xuan said.

"Zixuan is right, let's test how many people the Celestial Race has sent, and if there is an ambush, it won't be too late."

Yin Kong also followed.

The demon did not immediately go out to fight with the master of the Celestial Race, but controlled the Yin Ruins Demon Fort and retreated violently.

"Don't let the devil go, chase it!"

"Exterminate the devil!"

Many masters in the Heavenly Palace shouted, rushing towards the Yin Ruins Demon Fort, and various attacks continued to blast toward the Yin Ruins Demon Fort.

However, under the blessings of many demons, the defensive power of the Yin Ruin Demon Fort is amazing, and it is not so easy for the masters of Tiangong to break the Yin Ruin Demon Fort.

The two sides chased and fled, crossing a long distance in a blink of an eye.

After such a long distance, no other masters were ambushing in the Tiangong. From beginning to end, there were only 5,000 people.

Obviously, there is no master in ambush.

At this time, Zixuan, Yinkong and others planned to rush out and fight with the Celestial Race.

"Lu Ming, if you don't stop them, go out and fight against the Celestial Clan. The devil's masters are not enough. The strength is lost, and the restraint on the Celestial Palace will be weakened."

The bone demon transmitted to Lu Ming.

"No, I just want them to fight."

Lu Ming responded with a voice transmission.

"Do you already have any strategy?"

The soul fire in the bone devil's eyes throbbed.

He knew Lu Ming very well, and Lu Ming must have had a plan to say so.

"Yes, I just don't know if I can succeed."

Then, Lu Ming talked about his strategy with the bone demon, Xie Nianqing, Dan Dan, and the gods.

The eyes of the four people lit up.

"Don't worry, your plan can only be successful. Here, I promise that there is no problem, hehe."

Dan Dan laughed, very proud.

Because of Lu Ming's strategy, Dandan will play a vital role.

"That's good, I hope to succeed. Once successful, the battle will be completely overturned."

Lu Ming whispered, and then said: "Let's go, let's kill with the devil, and try to kill as many celestial races as possible."

"Go, kill it, kill it, I can't hold it anymore."

Wan Shen grinned, his eyes were full of cold murderous intent.

Afterwards, they followed the demon's master and killed them.

"kill!"

"Kill all the offspring of the Celestial Race!"

About five thousand demon masters roared, their devilish energy rushed to the sky, and they rushed out from the Yin Ruins Demon Fort, and killed the master of the Celestial Race.

There were five thousand gods on the two sides, and the terrible attacks collided, and the void in this area was in chaos.

A terrible wave of vigor swept all directions, and the entire galaxy beyond the void was instantly blown up.

Countless stars burst, the stars extinguished, and the endless void was torn into terrible cracks.

Countless creatures fell in the battle between the two sides.

This is the horror of the great battle between the Lords of Gods, which takes place in the starry sky of the universe and will destroy the world.

Chapter 4657: You Dou

After several rounds of long-range collisions, the strong from both sides fought together, catching and fighting each other.

Huh!

A golden spear pointed directly at Lu Ming's brow.

This is a celestial race with nine levels of divine masters, with cold eyes, launching a strong blow, wanting to kill Lu Ming with one blow.

"court death!"

Lu Ming's eyes were cold, and the God of War spear stabbed out.

However, Lu Ming's spear light was faster and more powerful than the opponent's, and came first.

puff!

Lu Ming's eyebrows were directly pierced by Lu Ming, and he fell on the spot.

With Lu Ming's current combat power, it was too easy to kill a divine master Nine Layers.

The general peaks of the gods are not Lu Ming's opponents. Only the top gods can suppress Lu Ming.

Such as the silver armor Tianjun encountered in Boundless Demon Abyss.

"kill!"

After killing the opponent's meeting, the God of War spear swept away and killed a god-master eightfold Celestial Race.

Other people are also in battle.

The Bone Demon and Dan Dan have all met their opponents, and the fight is inextricable.

And Xie Nianqing and Bone Demon were incomparably strong, and even after killing a few masters of the other side, they were naturally targeted by the opponent's strong.

Several powerhouses at the pinnacle of God Lord rushed to Xie Nianqing and Bone Demon.

"give it to me!"

The Bone Demon yelled and turned into a black lightning bolt, rushing out, his palms were like magic knives, and he split them continuously.

Puff!

The two masters at the pinnacle of the gods could not have the slightest resistance, the main level gods were crushed, and their bodies were torn apart under the palm of the bone demon.

The other one is a strong man at the peak of the god, who retreats in fright.

"This person, leave it to me, you go to deal with other people."

An indifferent voice sounded, and a burly figure killed the bone demon.

With a bang, the bone demon confronted each other, and both of them backed back again and again.

"Hundred Battles Heavenly Lord!"

Lu Ming's eyes flashed.

The one who dealt with the Bone Demon just now was the Heavenly Lord of Hundred Battles, one of the four strongest Heavenly Lords in the Heavenly Palace.

This time, the Celestial Race was led by the two strongest Celestial Monarchs.

A heavenly monarch with hundreds of battles and an extinct heavenly monarch.

Just now Bai Zhan Tianjun was nearby, and seeing that the Bone Demon's combat power was so powerful, he slew towards the Bone Demon.

"What is the strongest heavenly monarch, I will kill it."

The bone demon shouted, slayed towards the opponent, and confronted the Hundred Wars Heavenly King.

Xie Nianqing and Tianjun, who was thought to be powerful, stared at each other, and the two confronted each other.

Lu Ming didn't leave too far, staying beside Ten Thousand Gods and Dandan, fighting with the Celestial Race.

Wan Shen and Dan Dan, after all, their cultivation bases are lower. If they encounter a strong opponent, they may be in danger. He may stay nearby so that he can take care of them.

Fighting is very tragic, and the strong are falling all the time.

This is all the existence of the God Realm, the top figure in the universe.

Any one is usually a superior figure, and one person can make a race prosper and become the top race in the universe.

On the face of it, only the top 100 races in the universe have divine masters, but of course there are more than that. Some powerful races also have divine masters secretly.

However, there are definitely no more than three hundred races in the universe with gods.

Such a character, at this time, is completely worthless, is constantly being killed, and is constantly falling.

"Retreat, retreat!"

Suddenly, there was a roar behind the Tiangong.

Immediately, the strong man in Tiangong began to retreat in an orderly manner.

They didn't panic, they retreated tightly and kept converging with each other, and the offensive became mainly defensive.

The number of demons and the heavenly palace are almost the same, and the strength is not much different. The other party wants to retreat, and the demons can't stop them.

After a while, all the masters of Tiangong gathered together, defending and retreating.

The devil chased him for a while, but could only give up because he was ambushed by the opponent because he was afraid of getting caught.

In this battle, the devil's side lost almost two hundred demon masters.

However, the Tiangong side should not be much better, and the loss is also not small.

After a while, the people in the Heavenly Palace were not attacking. The devil wanted to counterattack and rushed past the Demon Fort of Yin Ruins. The people in the Heavenly Palace retreated to avoid the demon.

"Hmph, these celestial scumbags, really brave enough to dare not fight us."

Some demons sneered.

"The people in Tiangong didn't dare to fight us, but they didn't retreat. They felt that their purpose was to hold us back. I guess their reinforcements will arrive soon."

Lu Ming said.

"Brother Lu makes sense, what should we do later?"

Zi Xuan asked.

After getting along for this period of time, he knew that Lu Ming was resourceful, and if he had any questions, he asked Lu Ming first.

"If we continue to stay here, we may fall into double-teaming in the Tiangong, which is not good for us. I suggest that we leave here and attack some important places in the Tiangong, even other heavenly palaces..."

Lu Ming said.

"This is a good idea, so do it."

Zi Xuan and Yin Kong nodded one after another.

Afterwards, the Yin Ruins Demon Fort urged and left here.

"The devil is gone."

"Damn it, chase, can't let them out of our sight."

"When our reinforcements arrive, it will be their death date!"

The strong men of the Celestial Race gave orders one after another, and the masters of four or five thousand gods chased after the Yin Ruins Demon Fort.

The devil controlled the Yin Ruins Demon Fort, and soon appeared beyond a huge star.

This star is a resource planet in Tiangong, which is more important. There were many masters guarding it before.

Even now, although there is no existence of the Divine Master Realm, there are still many masters in the Divine Emperor Realm.

boom!

After the Yin Xu Demon Fort appeared, it rushed directly towards the planet, and many demons from the Demon Lord realm rushed out, attacking one after another, blasting toward the stars in a dense crowd.

boom! boom! boom!

The planet roars, bursts constantly, and magma soars into the sky.

Above it, the Heavenly Palace master guarding here disappeared in a flash.

In less than a minute, this resource planet was ruined.

The void in the distance split open, and the gods of the heavenly palace also rushed to it. Seeing this scene, they were furious, their eyes were red, and they rushed to the resource planet.

However, the demons who did their work have already returned to the Yin Ruin Demon Fort, and then the Yin Ruin Demon Fort was activated, broke through the air, and rushed towards the next important place in the Heavenly Palace.

In the next few days, the devil controlled the Yin Ruins Demon Fort and successively destroyed seven important places in the Heavenly Palace.

Then, Yin Ruins Demon Fort rushed in one direction.

"No, they want to go to the Ziwei Temple, and they can't let them succeed."

"There is news that all the reinforcements will defend the Ziwei Temple and come forward and backwards."

The strong man in the palace shouted.

Lu Ming and the others really wanted to rush to the Ziwei Temple, here, not far from the Ziwei Temple.

However, when they approached the Ziwei Tiangong, they found something was wrong. In front of the Ziwei Tiangong, thousands of Divine Master Realm existed.

Obviously, the reinforcements from Tiangong have arrived.

Chapter 4758: The four clans quit the temple

Before the Ziwei Tiangong, at least three thousand gods of the Tiangong gathered.

Three thousand gods, the devil is naturally fearless, but the opponent is backed by the Ziwei Temple and can enter the Ziwei Temple at any time. With the help of the formation of the Ziwei Temple, it is not so easy to deal with.

The other one, the four thousand seven hundred and eight hundred gods behind, will be chasing them, and will form a double-sided attack on them. So when they see this situation, the demons resist the urge to go out and fight with the gods of the heavens and control the Yin Xu Demon Fort. Turned the direction and rushed in the other direction.

"Kill, don't let them run away."

"Stop them!"

The * masters behind the Heavenly Palace immediately slew them, roaring towards the Yin Ruins Demon Fort, and the three thousand * masters in front of the Ziwei Heavenly Palace also slew to the Yin Ruins Demon Fort.

The two divine master armies of the Tiangong add up to nearly 8,000 divine masters, and their strength is far above the devil's side. The devil will naturally not be so stupid. Stop and fight with each other and fly forward. If you see the planet occupied by the Tiangong, And attacked by the way.

"We chase separately, otherwise, the demons won't stop at all."

Bai Zhan Tianjun proposed.

"Yes, a group of people pursued, another group took a detour."

Another powerful Tianjun also nodded.

Immediately, the two groups of gods separated, a group of 3,000 people, detouring in other directions, planning to double-team the devil.

The remaining batch continued to pursue.

With the demon's warlike nature and hatred of the Celestial Race, as long as they see that the opponent is not flanking, they will fight with each other.

Sure enough, a fight broke out shortly afterwards, and the two sides lost hundreds of * masters respectively, and finally found another group of * masters chasing after them, and the demons entered the Yin Ruins Demon Fort and escaped.

The people of Tiangong continued to chase.

Just going around in this way, a few months passed.

During the period, several fights broke out from above, and the losses on both sides were not small, but the Heavenly Palace army was always difficult to double-team the devil.

In the past few months, earth-shaking chaos has occurred in the universe.

The source is naturally the strong ones who escaped from the prison.

Especially the 918 powerhouses of the Divine Master Realm, entrained the hatred of the heavens, and launched crazy revenge.

The various places of the heavenly palace in the universe, the resource planet, the holy place for cultivation, and even the important place of the heavenly palace, such as the City of Dreams, have all been attacked.

The Tiangong suffered heavy losses, and a large number of * emperors or the existence of * emperors were killed, causing a sensation in the universe.

Soon after, Tiangong sent strong men to hunt and kill those who escaped from the prison.

From time to time in the universe, wars between gods and lords broke out, the starry sky shook, the planet was destroyed, and all races were anxious.

Especially the creatures with low cultivation bases are even more frightened, because the fluctuations caused by the battle between the gods and masters are too great, they can easily destroy the planet and destroy the living creatures. In this series of wars, I don't know how many creatures have been involved.

But soon after, an even more explosive news spread throughout the universe and caused a sensation.

The fighting saints, one of the top ten races, released the news. The Celestials are despicable and shameless. For the treasure, they will freely shoot against the fighting saints, kill and fight against the saints, and will also fight against the genius of the saints. Wuji was detained in a jail for several star years, conservatively tortured.

Therefore, the fighting saints decided to withdraw from the temple.

Before this news was released, those fighting saints who had participated in the besieging and destroying the garrison of the heavenly army had quietly retreated.

Afterwards, all the powerhouses of the fighting saints entered their home planet, and the entire fighting mother star moved towards the ruins of the universe and entered the ruins of the universe.

The entire fighting saints left the starry sky of the universe and moved to the ruins of the universe.

And only one day after the fighting saints released the news, the Buddhas, demons, and spirits released news one after another. Because the Heavenly Palace detained their people at will, and even secretly killed their people, they planned to leave the Heavenly Palace and fight against each other. Like the war saints, they took the home stars of all races into the ruins of the universe.

As soon as the news came out, the universe was in an uproar.

Among the top ten races, four races have left the palace and entered the ruins of the universe. This is an unprecedented event.

Calculated like this, plus the Yaxian tribe, the top ten races are still under the orders of the Celestial race, only five races.

At the same time, the various races are also heartbroken. The Celestial Race actually does such a thing to each race secretly, and even sacrifices their lives for the Celestial Race.

Are the various races in the universe really ants that can be deprived of at will in the eyes of the Celestial Race?

Many powerful races have different minds, and want to learn from the four races and enter the ruins of the universe to develop.

Now that the universe has changed drastically, the ruins of the universe are no longer dead and silent, and the rules are no longer chaotic. On the contrary, they have become a sacred place for cultivation, which is many times better than the previous cosmic starry sky.

Now if it can occupy a place and get a head start, it will probably rise.

...

Outside of the Extinguishing Army's garrison, it was enveloped by a cloud of anger.

"Damn it, humble ants, dare to betray us."

"It's a dead end."

Many Heavenly Monarchs of the Celestial Race roared and furious.

"Huh, fighting against the saints, Buddhas, demons, and spirits is nothing more than feeling that we are not capable of dealing with them, so we dare to be so arrogant. I propose to send an army immediately to destroy these four clans."

A relatively strong and calm Heavenly Jundao.

"I also propose to do so, otherwise, these ants will all think that my Celestial Race is so deceiving."

Ye Qiuxian also spoke indifferently.

In the end, everyone's eyes turned to Ye Immortal.

The final decision is still to be made by Ye Immortal.

Ye Immortal frowned slightly, if he sent a master to encircle and kill the four clans, then the strength of the Heaven Extinguishing Army garrison would be weakened again.

They have already sent 10,000 * masters one after another. If they want to deal with the four clans, they need to send at least two thousand * masters.

The four clans have been in business for many years, and they still have multiple formations on their respective home planets. It is not that easy to break through. It requires several times more combat power.

That's how it was when it broke the dragon home star.

If thousands of divine masters were sent out, the force on the station of the Heaven Extinguishing Army would be weaker, and only about 10,000 divine masters would be left, which would delay the time.

Chi Zesheng changed, this is what Ye Immortal didn't want to see.

How long have they attacked the extermination army station? With so many changes, who knows what changes will happen if it continues to drag on?

The most important thing is to capture the human body first. For example, the fighting saints and other tribes, as long as they defeat the heavenly army, they can be destroyed.

"Report..."

At this moment, someone came to report and his face was ugly.

"what's up?"

Ye Immortal asked.

"Enlighten the ancestors, the big thing is not good, just got the news that a force appeared in the depths of the ruins of the universe, and the continent fragments occupying a large number of the ruins of the universe have already invaded a large area."

The person who spread the news reports.

Chapter 4759: Yaxian spoiler

As soon as this news came out, there was another uproar at the scene.

The anger of the great powers of the Celestial Race had not yet subsided. At this time, it was undoubtedly adding fuel to the fire, and the anger was more intense.

"A force? What force is so bold, don't you know the ruins of the universe, are they now part of our heavenly palace?"

A Tianjun angered and questioned.

"According to the news, it is the Yaxian!"

The sender replied.

"What? Yaxian? Damn ants, so brave!"

"I want to fish in troubled waters again, are you not afraid of being destroyed?"

The celestial and human tribesmen froze for a moment, and then yelled, looking very surprised.

Only Ye Immortal's face was calm, as if he had known it a long time ago.

"Yaxian, it really did!"

Ye immortal whispers.

"Old ancestor, take action, send out a large army to destroy the Asian immortal clan in one fell swoop, and solve the fighting saint clan, Buddhist clan etc. by the way."

Someone suggested.

Ye Immortal raised his hand and everyone calmed down.

"Don't worry about these races. The human body is the key. Continue to concentrate on attacking and destroying the garrison of the heavenly army. As long as you get the human body and find the human king's heart, you can push the eternally. These small races are not worrying. When you turn your hands you can kill."

Ye Immortal ordered.

"This..."

Many people hesitate.

They were unwilling to do this, and felt it was too shameful.

If you are betrayed by your subordinates and do not send anyone to suppress it, don't you want to be laughed at? Are the creatures of other races more courageous?

"This is an order!"

Ye immortal said indifferently.

Everyone had no choice but to take their orders.

"Also, order to go down, the four heavenly palaces, and some other important places, all urge them to go toward the ruins of the universe. From now on, the ruins of the universe will be the root. The stars of the universe are just a place of bullets.

Ye Immortal continued to command.

"Yes!"

The crowd took their orders, and then quickly began to act to pass on the news.

After a while, the heavenly palace began to move, and the four major heavenly palaces, as well as important places such as the Dreamy Heavenly City, all began to move towards the ruins of the universe.

The news broke out, and all races in the universe were even more shocked.

Soon after, news reached Lu Ming's ears.

Lu Ming smiled. This news is undoubtedly good news for him.

Fighting against the saints, Buddhas, demon ancestors, and spirits to withdraw will undoubtedly weaken the strength of the heavenly palace.

Among the top ten races, each tribe has at least one hundred * masters, and most of them are close to two hundred. They withdraw all of a sudden, and the * masters of the heavenly palace are suddenly reduced.

One goes down and the other goes up, and the time that the Celestial Extinguishing Army station can last is undoubtedly a lot longer.

The Yaxian clan's shots will also bring strong pressure to Tiangong.

The Yaxian clan's move was naturally not to support the Heaven Destruction Army, but only for their own benefit.

The ruins of the universe today are about to become a holy place for cultivation, and all kinds of magical medicines and treasures of heaven and earth are nurtured, and they are about to become holy places for cultivation.

It is a battleground for all major forces in the future, occupying the ruins of the universe. Only in the future can we use the massive resources here to continuously give birth to masters and rise rapidly.

The Yaxian clan must have taken this point too.

However, it is also a good thing for the Exterminating Army.

In today's universe, the more chaotic the better, and the more chaotic, the more chances the Celestial Destruction Army has.

Without the intervention of other forces, the Heavenly Palace could attack and destroy the Heavenly Army with peace of mind, and it would be a matter of time before the Heavenly Army was destroyed.

The Yin Ruins Demon Fort continued to struggle with the Heavenly Palace army.

Deep in the ruins of the universe, there is a huge group of continental debris.

There are a total of fifty continental fragments in this area.

Among them, forty-nine continental fragments surround the largest continental fragment.

These continent fragments are covered with formations, the formations are activated, and there is a cloud of mist around them, hiding the fragments of this continent in the void, making it difficult to find.

Here is the resident of the Yaxian tribe, the headquarters of the Yaxian tribe.

The Yaxian tribe has always been hidden in the ruins of the universe, and the fragments of the continent they occupy are not dead and full of vitality.

Moreover, the surrounding formations have been transformed by the ancestors of the Yaxian tribe to isolate them from the outside world. Even in the past, the rules were not confused.

For endless years, the Yaxian tribe has prospered here. They rarely appear in the starry sky of the universe, so in the starry sky of the universe, their numbers are extremely small and extremely mysterious.

At this time, the largest mainland fragment in the middle, in a hall, was full of people.

These are all powerhouses of the Yaxian clan, and most of them are the existence of the peak of gods.

The peerless Tianjiao of the Yaxian clan sits high on the main seat, overlooking the crowd.

In the era of the great calamity of the origin, the strong of the origin realm have proclaimed themselves, and the * master is the peak.

And Cangqiang, as the most talented person of the Asian clan today, and the son of the patriarch, naturally became the temporary leader of the Asian clan.

"My son, now that we have occupied 20% of the area we have explored, do we continue to send troops?"

An old man of the Celestial Race at the pinnacle of God Lord asked the sky.

The ruins of the universe are vast and vast, much larger than the starry sky of the universe. Even if countless years have passed, the area that has been explored is only one third.

Twenty percent of one-third is also an unimaginable huge territory, much larger than the starry sky of the universe, and there are countless fragments of continents.

Enough for the Yaxian tribe to multiply.

"No, it's not enough, continue to send troops and occupy more territory."

Sky Road.

"My son, if you continue, I'm afraid it will cause the Celestial Race to counterattack."

Another strong man of the Asian Immortal Clan at the pinnacle of the * master said with a worried expression.

"Don't be afraid. In the eyes of the Celestial Race, the human body is the most important thing. They will definitely concentrate on attacking and destroying the constituency of the Celestial Army, and they have no thoughts to attack us again."

"Also, if we want to save the supreme existence of our clan, the strongest of our clan needs more resources. Therefore, we must occupy more territory and obtain more resources."

"When the strongest person of our clan is resurrected, what kind of heaven and human clan can easily be destroyed."

The sky opened his mouth, full of determination and confidence.

"Of course, you don't need to overdo it, just occupy 50% of the current exploration area."

The sky continued to command.

"Yes!"

The Yaxian tribe took the lead, and then continued to send troops to occupy more areas.

This makes the masters of the Celestial Race even more angry.

"Insatiable, Yaxian, really insatiable, it should be destroyed."

"Kill, it's time to kill, when the rebels are eliminated, it will be the time when the Yaxian clan is destroyed."

Many celestial masters roared.

However, it was the demons of Lu Ming, Ziyang, and Silver Wing that made them more headache.

During this period of time, Tiangong had lost about five hundred divine masters due to rounding up Lu Ming and others.

This makes them heartache.

This is five hundred * masters, but not * emperors. To cultivate a * master requires a lot of resources.

Although the loss of the devil is not small, can the life of the devil be compared with their Celestial race?

Chapter 4760: Turn defeat into victory?

In the eyes of the Celestial Race, no matter how many demons die, they are no match for the Celestial Race.

However, Lu Ming and this group of demons will continue to harass them and attack them if they are not eliminated. Even if the four heavenly palaces are all transferred to the ruins of the universe, it is useless, and they will still attack.

Only a dream palace was breached, and the losses were heavy. All the treasures in it, but those with a little value, were swept away.

Those masters in Dream Palace almost vomited blood.

But if the fight continues, the loss is too great.

Is it necessary to exchange five thousand * masters for five thousand demon masters?

They can't bear it, how many gods do they have in total?

Therefore, all the Celestial Races proposed to Ye Immortal to withdraw the Celestial Race's masters and let the demons go.

Use demons to deal with demons.

The masters of the Celestial Race withdrew back to attack and destroy the resident of the Celestial Army. Only a few Celestial Race masters were required to control the Demon Lord to attack the demons of the Silver Wing and Purple Eye races.

This is a change of life, and the one who died is also a demon, and there is no loss to their Celestial Race.

Anyway, there are nearly seven thousand demon masters outside of the garrison of the Heaven Extinguishing Army.

Also in the Dark Universe, there are still some demon masters remaining, and together, it is more than enough to deal with Lu Ming and those people.

In this way, even if Lu Ming and others cannot be completely wiped out, it is enough to hold them, and the Celestial Clan himself, also wholeheartedly attack and destroy the garrison of the Celestial Army. It's very simple.

"Okay, then follow your method, withdraw the strong from our clan, and lead the demons to encircle and kill Lu Ming and others. In addition, gather all the demon masters that can be brought out of the dark universe to encircle and kill Lu Ming. And Silver Wing and Purple Eyes."

Ye Immortal ordered.

The order was passed down and the action was immediately started. Five thousand demon masters of the seven thousand demon masters immediately set off to contain Lu Ming and others.

Outside the station of the Exterminating Army, the * masters left in the palace plus the demon masters left only about five thousand.

The intensity of the attack was greatly weakened.

However, the Heaven Extinguishing Army didn't know what it thought was the tactics of the Celestial Race, so naturally they didn't dare to send people out to attack.

The Celestial Clan searched the dark universe again, and then summoned about two thousand demon masters to fight out, and merged with the previous five thousand demon masters, a total of seven thousand demon masters, and killed Lu Ming and others.

With the addition of the Purple Eye and Silver Wing races, the total of all the masters of the Dark Universe Demon is about 14,000.

This is a huge force, not much weaker than the power of Heavenly Palace.

If it hadn't been for the civil war between the four great royal clans of the demons, the constant fighting and uniting might not be able to break out of the siege of the Celestial Race.

When the seven thousand demon masters caught up in the footsteps of the Yinxiu Demon Fort, the celestial tribe nearly seven thousand and five hundred divine masters, all retreated, returned to the station of the Exterminating Heaven Army, and continued to attack the station of the Exterminating Heavenly Army.

Only seven thousand demon masters remained, chasing and killing Lu Ming and others.

"Damn, despicable celestial race, wants us to kill each other!"

Some demons roared.

After seeing that their opponent was a demon, the two demons of the Purple Eye and Silver Wing race hesitated.

They kill off and fight with other demons, which will only weaken the power of the demons and make the Celestial race cheaper.

It is a pity that those demons were completely eroded by the Demon Ancestor Insect and became the puppets of the Celestial Race. Under the orders of the Celestial Race, they only knew how to attack wildly, even without fear of life and death.

But seeing this scene, Lu Ming's eyes lit up.

"The plan is half done."

Lu Ming smiled.

This is exactly what Lu Ming wants to see.

His purpose is to let the Celestial Race send demons to attack them.

Therefore, before the demon and the Celestial race, he did not stop, but supported the demon and the Celestial race.

Because only the constant fighting and the loss of the Celestial Race will increase, the Celestial Race will feel heartache and will send demons to attack them.

Lu Ming immediately called Zixuan, Yinkong and others to discuss together.

"Everyone, our chance to turn defeat into victory has finally come."

Lu Ming smiled.

"Turning defeat into victory?"

"Now this situation? How do we turn defeat into victory?"

Zi Xuan and Yin Kong couldn't help but spoke, full of doubts.

"It's the demons who are fighting us now. As long as we get rid of the Devil Ancestor Insect in their bodies, the victory will belong to us?"

Lu Ming asked with a smile.

"If they can get rid of the Demon Ancestor Insect in their bodies, they will be treated like this, and they will definitely hate the Celestial Race, and they will definitely attack the Celestial Race frantically. That is indeed a victory."

"However, it is not so easy to get rid of the Demon Ancestor Insects in their bodies. It must be soaked in water containing Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal energy for more than half an hour to be effective. We will sprinkle the water containing Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal energy. To them, the Celestial Race will order them to leave instantly, which has no effect at all."

Zi Xuan said.

"Yes, unless you can fix them in one place, then pour out a large amount of water containing the energy of the blood crystals of the demon ancestors, let them soak for more than half an hour, no, they are completely corroded, at least an hour, how can this be done? To?"

"You have to understand that the opponents are all divine masters, temporarily deploying an array, but there is no such powerful formation that can trap seven thousand divine masters."

Yinkong followed.

Lu Ming nodded, and both Zixuan and Yinkong were reasonable.

In today's universe, there is a lack of formations aimed at the gods and above, and the formations that can defend against the gods are all through years of years and endless years of reinforcement, combining various residual formations together to achieve that effect.

Such as the home planets of the various races, such as the heavenly palace, such as the resident of the Heaven Extinguishing Army.

It is not easy to set up a formation that traps the Divine Lord in a short time, because it lacks such a high-level formation, not to mention the formation of seven thousand demon Lords.

"Don't worry about this, we have a way..."

Immediately, Lu Ming talked about the place of Wanhua Ruins.

And said that Dan Dan can control the formation of Wanhua Ruins.

In the ruins of Wanhua, it was left by a great force of formation in the last epoch, with various formations remaining, and there are various types of formations, and naturally there is no shortage of trapping enemies.

As long as the seven thousand demon masters are led to the ruins of Wanhua, they can be trapped in a certain range, and then poured into the water containing the energy of the blood crystal of the demon ancestor, to get rid of the demon ancestor insect for the opponent.

"There is such a place..."

Both Zixuan and Yinkong's eyes lit up.

"Now, as long as you tell me that the Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal is borrowed from me, it will be fine!"

Lu Ming said.

As for the water used, he has no shortage.

Inside the Honghuang Ring, there is a complete fragment of the continent, all kinds of large lakes, everything.

Some lakes are boundless with a radius of tens of millions of miles.

In addition, the Heavenly Star Continent has also been taken into the prey, and there are also various large lakes on it, which are not short of water.

"This is simple."

Zi Xuan nodded and waved, the Demon Ancestor Blood Crystal flew towards Lu Ming.
