Chapter 5061: Isolate Man King Broken Sword

In this way, Lu Ming and Ge Qian joined forces, and it took a full eight months to finally cut off the eight seal chains.

When all the eight seal chains were cut off, the sound from the blood coffin became even stronger, as if the sky drum was beating, the trembling void and the earth were roaring.

This time, not only Lu Ming and the others could hear it, but other masters of various races trapped in the seal formation could also hear it.

Even masters from all walks of life in other directions have heard it.

"This is... the sound of a beating heart?"

"The King's Heart is born, and someone has found the King's Heart."

Many people exclaimed.

The masters of all races trapped in the seal formation are extremely anxious.

The masters of all races in other directions rushed toward the direction of the heartbeat.

However, they are all destined to be in vain. They are destined to be blocked by the great seal formation.

"There is one last seal..."

Ge Qiandao.

The last seal is the rune chains between the broken sword and the blood coffin.

But at this time, Lu Ming frowned.

"I can't see the weakness, I can't see the weakness of this last seal..."

Lu Ming said.

He stretched the Demon King Monarch Pattern to the extreme, his pupils contracted, and on his eyeballs, there were two Demon King Monarch Patterns, gleaming with a strange light.

However, he could not see the weakness of the sealed chains between the broken sword and the blood coffin.

This broken sword is absolutely no trivial thing, as if it contains terrifying energy. That energy is endlessly flowing from the broken sword and poured into the seal chain, so that the seal chain is always at its peak. , There is no weakness at all.

"The legend says that this broken sword is the sword of Ren Wang Xuanyuan, with infinite power. It seems that this last seal is not easy to break."

Ge Qian whispered.

Lu Ming's heart jumped wildly.

This book is organized and produced by the public account. Follow VX [Book Friends Base Camp], read the book and receive cash red envelopes!

This broken sword had such a background, it was actually the sword of Ren Wang Xuanyuan.

It can be seen that the battle that Wang Xuanyuan went through was so tragic that even his sword was broken.

If you look closely, you can see a faint fingerprint on the fifth of the sword.

Lu Ming's heart beat wildly, his eyes widened in shock.

Could it be that Ren Wang Xuanyuan's sabre was pinched off with his fingers?

"impossible..."

Lu Ming shook his head. This idea was too crazy, too illusory, and unrealistic.

What kind of character is Wang Xuanyuan, the king of the prehistoric continent, the supreme pinnacle master, how could his sword be smashed with bare hands?

Fantastic Nights.

Lu Ming shook his head and threw this unrealistic idea out of his mind, but immediately, another doubt emerged in his heart.

According to legend, the King of Humanity was suppressed by others, and his body was divided into seven parts and sealed in seven places.

Why do people who are suppressed use the sword of the King of People as a seal?

Shouldn't the King of Human Sabre be sealed together?

Could it be that the King of Human Sabre betrayed the King of Human?

Can't figure it out!

Lu Ming had more doubts in his heart.

"If the King's sword can be sealed or isolated in a short time, the King's heart can be born. Once the King's heart is born, the chain of sealing will be broken!"

"However, our strength is too weak to be possible at all. If I were at the peak, it would be almost the same."

Ge Qianyi sighed.

Lu Ming also shook his head, sealed or isolated King Sabre?

With them, is it possible?

That's the King of Human Sabre, even if it's just a broken sword or a broken sword.

"Perhaps, I can try!"

At this moment, a voice sounded from Lu Ming's wrist.

It's a ball.

Ge Qian's gaze also looked over, looking at Lu Ming's wrist.

"The ball, don't be careless, that's King Sabre, you might be blown up..."

Lu Ming said, don't want to take risks with the ball.

He naturally knows what the ball wants to do.

The ball is talented, and any metal or magic weapon can swallow refining and transform it into its own strength.

The King's Sabre is also made of precious metals, and it is also in the swallowing range of the ball.

However, no matter how talented the ball is, there are limits.

This is King Sabre, how can the ball be swallowed?

"I want to try. If I can swallow it and refine it, the benefits are endless for me. I might be able to directly break through the origin, or even stronger, without fear of the origin of the disaster..."

The ball flew out of Lu Ming's wrist, his eyes filled with fire.

He looked at Ren Wang Duanjian, his eyes full of desire and greed.

Renwang Broken Sword, the rank is too high, it is the highest rank among the weapons he has seen in history, and it is definitely a treasure of immortality.

Once these treasures are refined, the benefits will be endless, and the talent potential will increase to an astonishing level, with invincible combat power, soaring cultivation base, and rampaging the world.

However, Lu Ming was still worried.

"The ball, do what you can, and once you find that it's not working, give up immediately..."

Lu Ming urged.

"Don't worry, I know how to measure, try it first..."

After saying that, the ball flew forward, his body expanded and turned into a huge ball. In the ball, a big mouth, wide-mouthed fangs, and dense teeth appeared in the middle of the ball, like two rows of teeth. Sharp sword.

Then, the mouth of the ball suddenly grew, like a snake swallowing an elephant, breaking the sword of the king with one mouth and swallowing it in the mouth.

Lu Ming was very nervous, staring at the ball tightly, fearing that the ball would have an accident.

When the ball swallowed Renwang Broken Sword, his mouth suddenly closed, suspended in the air, motionless, and his whole body exuded bright brilliance, as if he was trying his best to refine Renwang Broken Sword.

"Is it really successful? Even the King of Broken Sword can be refined?"

Even Lu Ming was very surprised. If that was the case, the talent of the ball would be too terrifying. He simply ignored the level difference.

Even Ge Qian was stunned, with an unbelievable appearance.

"What kind of race is this, it's only the realm of the gods. It can even swallow the human king's broken sword. It's unbelievable. After I get the human king's heart, I must seize it and study it carefully..."

Ge Qian thought, then, his gaze turned to the blood coffin again, his eyes fiery.

咚咚咚...

When the ball swallowed Renwang's Broken Sword, the connection between Renwang's Broken Sword and Blood Coffin seemed to be lost, and the energy radiated in Renwang's Broken Sword seemed to be isolated.

The broken sword of the human king was isolated, and the sealed chain between the broken sword of the human king and the blood coffin lost the source of energy, and it collapsed and disappeared without a trace.

Suddenly, there was a terrifying vibration in the blood coffin.

With every vibration, the void is shaking, and the earth is roaring.

Lu Ming also paled, and backed back, as if he had been hit hard.

Click!

Suddenly, a crack appeared on the blood coffin, and a trace of blood gushed from the blood coffin, just a trace, but it seemed to turn into a wave of blood, rushing in all directions.

At this moment, a horrible atmosphere suddenly diffused somewhere in the garrison of the Heaven Extinguishing Army.

Chapter 5062: Sky Soul Race

Somewhere in the garrison of the Heaven Extinguishing Army, a breath of horror permeated.

"what happened?"

"what's happening?"

There was a great chaos in the garrison of the Heaven Extinguishing Army, and everyone was shocked by this breath.

Because this breath is too strong, it seems to be in charge of everything, supreme, radiant as the mighty sky, and everyone under pressure can't breathe.

The next moment, a ray of light flew out from that place, pierced the void, and flew out of the Sky Extinguishing Army's garrison, flying towards the depths of the universe, at an incredible speed.

In the blink of an eye, it disappeared without a trace, and it was almost countless times faster than the speed of the source realm powerhouse.

However, someone still caught sight of what that light was.

"The human body, that is the human body!"

"I've also seen it, the human king's flesh body, isn't it in the collection of Senior Feihuang, how did it fly away?"

"What happened, even Senior Feihuang couldn't suppress it?"

Many people exclaimed, including Lion, Tang Jian and others.

Their faces are very ugly.

It took a lot of hard work to get the human body, but now, the human body flies away like this.

All efforts turned into flowing water.

The most important thing is the human body, this is where to fly, if it falls into the hands of the enemy, it will be a catastrophe.

At the same time, in the depths of the universe, there is a mysterious and mysterious place that is eternally unknown. It seems that even the origin of the catastrophe can hardly affect this place.

Inside, there are two figures sitting cross-legged. If the people who destroy the Heavenly Army are here, they will definitely recognize them. These two figures are the Immeasurable Sky Demon Flying Phoenix and the taboo sword ancestor Tang Feng.

Suddenly, Feihuang's eyes opened, and there seemed to be two lightning strikes in the void, penetrating the boundless void.

"No, my incarnation can't suppress the human king's physical body, and was flew away by it. It seems that the human king's heart is born."

Feihuang Zhen said softly, a worrisome color flashed in his eyes.

"The world is unpredictable. It's a pity that the king's heart was born hundreds of years earlier, and it is difficult for you and I to interfere. It can only be based on their own destiny."

Tang Feng opened his eyes and whispered.

"How is your cultivation? I'm still a little worse, and it's hard to succeed."

Feihuang sighed.

"In a hurry for thousands of years, after a thousand catastrophes, and survived, I will succeed in the end."

Tang Feng said.

"You are going to succeed."

Feihuang showed a pleasant surprise.

"When the tribulation of the origin is over, it should be almost done, I hope they can hold it."

Tang Feng sighed slightly, Gu Jing Wubo's face rarely showed a trace of worry.

It is difficult for them to make a move for a period of time after this, but the period after this is also the most difficult, I hope Heaven Exterminating Army can hold it.

.....

In the west of the universe, the Nine Elements Forbidden Land, under the cracks, is the sealed land of the human body.

Blood energy is like a wave, sweeping across the square, making the whole world a blood red.

This scene shocked everyone, whether it was the people in the Sealed Array or those outside the Sealed Array, they all saw it.

"The blood is soaring, the heart is beating like thunder, and the human king's heart is really born."

"Who the * is going to get the king's heart?"

"Damn, we are trapped by this seal formation!"

There was a roar.

Especially the three tribes of the Forbidden Land in the eastern universe, as well as Ye Immortal, are the most angry.

They worked so hard to find the place where the king's heart was sealed, but they didn't get it, and instead fell into the hands of others?

They hate and crazily.

Click...

At this time, there were more and more cracks on the blood coffin, one, two, three...

Soon, the cracks on the blood coffin were densely packed, covering the entire blood coffin.

"Hahaha, the human king's heart is finally born. After waiting for endless years, there is no waste of time. When I absorb the refined human king's heart, I will be detached and the world is invincible..."

Ge Qian laughed, his face full of ecstasy.

boom!

At this moment, Lu Ming made a move, and his two big hands, like grinding discs, moved towards the suppression of Ge Qian, to completely wipe out Ge Qian.

"Boy, what are you doing?"

Ge Qian was furious.

"I always feel that leaving you behind is a big disaster, so let's send you on the road."

Lu Ming drank coldly, and the power of the taboo origin continued to erupt. Ge Qian's body shook wildly and was constantly being wiped out, turning into ray of light and dissipating between the heaven and the earth.

However, Ge Qian didn't panic at all, instead he showed a cold smile.

"Boy, you really thought you could kill me. It's ridiculous. Tell you, this is just one of my many clones. What if you kill them? My many clones are one, and it's your death date..."

Ge Qian laughed.

"what?"

Lu Ming was taken aback for a moment.

"Hahaha..."

At this moment, Ge Qian's wild laughter came from all directions, and then blood-red figures rushed out.

All are Ge Qian.

There were hundreds of them, they looked exactly the same, all of them looked at Lu Ming with gloomy eyes.

"what happened?"

Lu Ming was a little confused.

These Ge Qian have different breaths.

Some auras resemble human races, some auras are similar to the Nine Yin Demon Spiders, and some resemble extremely evil races...

"Hahaha, are you dumbfounded? I tell you, I can clone thousands of people, while devouring souls of different physiology, and strengthening myself. You people come in and you are simply sending me supplements, hahaha..."

The Ge Qian who was about to be wiped out by Lu Ming laughed.

"It seems that what you told me before was all false."

Lu Ming said coldly.

"It's not all fake, kid, just let you die. After all, the human king's heart can be born, and you have done a great job. I am not a human being at all, I am a person of the heavenly soul race."

Ge Qiandao.

At this moment, he was holding Zhizhu, with a confident look, just waiting for the king's heart to be born.

As for Lu Ming, he didn't pay attention to it at all, and didn't mind letting Lu Ming know more.

"Heaven Soul Clan? The Heaven Soul Clan of the Heavenly Soul Forbidden Land, the forbidden land that was rumored to be flattened by Wang Xuanyuan?"

Lu Ming subconsciously said.

In the Cangqing Divine Realm, he knew a lot about the Primordial Continent, and also knew a lot of legends about the King of Man.

According to legend, Wang Xuanyuan, who was alone, stepped down two terrible forbidden grounds.

One is the Nine Elements Forbidden Land, and the other is the Heavenly Soul Forbidden Land.

The Heavenly Soul Forbidden Land, inhabited by the Heavenly Soul Race, is extremely powerful, similar to the current forbidden land, and even more terrifying in strength.

"To shut up!"

Ge Qian roared as if he had been poked into the pain.

"That guy Xuanyuan, dare to destroy my Heavenly Soul Forbidden Land. Now I want to swallow his heart. This is called a reward for a reward. When I absorb his heart, I will kill all the remaining human races in this universe. Take revenge for that year."

Ge Qian said coldly.

"You said that your companion betrayed you back then. In my opinion, it was you who betrayed your companion."

Lu Ming said.

"So what? Does that guy have the right to share the King's Heart with me? Only by refining the King's Heart can I be invincible in the world."

"That nasty guy was always on guard for me, preventing me from sneaking up. In the end, he could only fight. In the end he wanted to die with the same. Fortunately, I was dead. Although severely injured and dying, I managed to survive. This time, fortunately you are here. With so many people, I can devour your souls and strengthen myself."

Ge Qian explained at will.

Chapter 5063: Fight against Ge Qian avatar

Lu Ming probably already understood what was going on.

Endless years ago, Ge Qian and his companions found this place. They worked so hard to finally find the king's heart and cracked the seal formation.

However, Ge Qian wanted to swallow the king's heart alone, so he attacked his companions. He didn't expect that he would be on guard against him, and the sneak attack would fail, and finally turned into a big battle.

As a result, his companion lost, but under desperate death, Ge Qian also suffered unimaginable trauma, and has not recovered for so many years.

Then, not long ago, the masters of the major forces entered here.

Ge Qian focused on the masters of the major forces, wanting to swallow the souls of these masters and strengthen himself.

He was able to clone tens of thousands, but unfortunately the damage was too heavy, his strength was limited, and the strength lower than him was directly killed by him, swallowing his soul.

It is estimated that before meeting Lu Ming, Human Race died in Ge Qian's hands, so Ge Qian's soul aura looks the same as Human Race.

When encountering those who couldn't deal with it, Ge Qian would cooperate with others on the condition of being able to find the human body.

Lu Ming also understood why he always met other people before. It wasn't a monitoring formation at all, but Ge Qian's clones guided each other.

The purpose is to make them kill with confidence, so that he secretly absorbs the energy of refining soul and strengthens himself.

Finally, the Ge Qian who was with Lu Ming discovered that Lu Ming possessed the Demon King Emperor's pattern, so he could easily use Lu Ming to break the chain of the seal of the King's heart and make the King's heart born.

Lu Ming smiled bitterly, he had already raised his guard, but he didn't expect that he would still be used by Ge Qian.

However, Ge Qian's previous soul aura belonged to the human race, which made Lu Ming lower his guard.

At the same time, Lu Ming would not have thought that Ge Qian would be able to clone ten million.

He knows too little information, so he will be used.

This old monster like Ge Qian has lived for endless years. He is old and cunning, and his mind is secretive. It is really hard to deal with.

Click, click...

When they talked, the cracks in the blood coffin grew more and more, the beating of the heart became louder and louder, and the blood qi that permeated became more and more intense.

Ge Qian took a deep breath, and a trace of blood was absorbed by his soul, making his soul glow and brighter.

Lu Ming had to marvel that the Heavenly Soul Race was truly terrifying. It could not only devour the souls of creatures, but also devour the blood and energy of creatures for his own use.

This kind of talent is too terrible and too domineering. According to legend, during the period of the Primordial Continent, this race caused immeasurable disasters for cultivation, and countless creatures died in their hands.

Therefore, Wang Xuanyuan would make a move to flatten it.

"It's almost time, Lu Ming, let's take you on the road now."

Hundreds of Geqian roared at the same time, and then charged towards Lu Ming.

Hundreds of Geqian, shot together, the power is amazing.

Moreover, many of these Ge Qian had swallowed the souls of other people before, and they were stronger, stronger than the one with Lu Ming before.

Lu Ming didn't dare to be careless, he directly displayed the Origin Technique, turning his body into a height of three feet, raising his combat power to the peak.

boom!

Lu Ming took a palm shot, and a continent formed, suppressing hundreds of thousands of Geqian.

This is prehistoric.

However, urging the prehistoric style in the state of the source technique makes the power of the prehistoric style even more terrifying.

Above the mainland, there are lines of profound meaning, full of emptiness, as if to be transformed into a real world.

The terrible power made hundreds of Geqian's faces solemn.

Among them, dozens of Ge Qian rushed towards the prehistoric continent, and dozens of others continued to rush towards Lu Ming.

boom! boom!

The predominantly condensed continent shook violently and was smashed away.

At the same time, Lu Ming's zhan spear swept out, head-to-head with dozens of other Ge Qian.

Afterwards, Lu Ming was stunned and retreated.

In the face of dozens of Ge Qian, Lu Ming was at a disadvantage, but he was unharmed, because most of these Ge Qian's attacks were aimed at the soul.

However, Lu Ming's soul was scattered in all the cells of his body, and it was difficult to be targeted. These Ge Qian's attacks did not cause much harm to Lu Ming.

"It's mainly to attack the soul, very good..."

Lu Ming's eyes flashed, and he stepped out one step at a time, instead of retreating, he rushed towards the group of Ge Qian, he stared at one of them, and launched a swift attack.

With so many Ge Qian, attacking all at the same time, the attack power is too scattered, it is difficult to cause huge damage to them, but it is different if you concentrate on attacking the same one.

"You are looking for death..."

Ge Qian saw Lu Ming's purpose, but he was not afraid of being obliterated by one or two clones, what does it matter?

He was hundreds of people, and died one or two, without any harm.

Instead, they could take the opportunity to kill Lu Ming.

The other Ge Qian burst out with all his strength and attacked Lu Ming.

Wearing a top-level source-level armor, Lu Ming ignored these attacks and concentrated on dealing with one of them, Ge Qian.

bump!

The God of War spear was pressed down, surrounded by Shen Xia, with infinite power. This Ge Qian's body was directly shattered. Although he was recovering quickly, his breath was greatly reduced, and his body was also illusory. It's hit hard.

At the same time, other Ge Qian's attacks also fell on Lu Ming.

Unfortunately, most of the attacks were aimed at souls. Although the souls in some cells were damaged, they could not cause fatal damage to Lu Ming.

You know, there are sixty trillion cells in Lu Ming's body.

The few attacks on the body were blocked by the top source-level battle armor and a thin film on the skin.

Lu Ming was fine and continued to attack, the God of War spear swept out.

bump!

The avatar of Ge Qian who was hit hard, his body exploded again, but he was still not dead, but this time, he became weaker, like a candle in the wind, which would go out at any time.

"kill!"

Lu Ming screamed and would not let go of such an opportunity to launch a fierce attack.

The God of War gun keeps attacking, and every shot contains the power of destruction.

Swish...

After several consecutive shots, this clone of Ge Qian was finally completely wiped out and dispersed in the void.

"What's the matter with your soul? Why is it invalid to attack your soul."

Ge Qian roared.

"kill!"

How could Lu Ming explain to the other party?

He continued to stare at a Ge Qian and attacked.

What if you have hundreds of avatars, then wipe them out one by one.

"kill!"

Ge Qian's clone also roared, and once again killed Lu Ming.

Unfortunately, the result was the same as before. Their attacks were ineffective against Lu Ming, and Lu Ming, ignoring other Ge Qian's attacks, specifically stared at one of the onslaughts.

After a while, there was another Ge Qian who was completely wiped out by Lu Ming.

"Damn, his soul seems to be scattered among the cells of his body. Unless all the cells of his body are wiped out, attacking his soul will be completely useless."

Ge Qian finally saw his eyebrows.

Chapter 5064: Desire to transform the king's heart

Ge Qian was a master of the Heavenly Soul Clan. At his peak, his cultivation base was unpredictable, his eyesight was unique, and he was particularly good at souls. It was easy to see the reality of Lu Ming.

After continuous testing, he had already figured out that Lu Ming's soul was not in the sea of consciousness, but was scattered in the cells of his body.

After figuring it out, Ge Qian was horrified. What kind of cultivation technique is this, and it can be so?

How many cells are there in a creature?

It's hard to imagine that this method of dispersing the soul into the cells of the whole body is simply against the sky. As long as the cells of the whole body are not obliterated, it is equivalent to immortality.

Chance, chance against the sky!

Ge Qian's eyes suddenly became extremely hot.

If he could obtain this kind of cultivation method, for him, it would be an opportunity against the sky, and his vitality would skyrocket and he would be immortal.

Perhaps this kind of opportunity is not worse than the King's Heart.

However, if you want to get this kind of cultivation method from Lu Ming, you must first suppress Lu Ming.

"Do you think that if you disperse the soul to the cells of the whole body, I can't help you? As long as you destroy your body with super power, you will definitely die."

Ge Qian said indifferently, and then, instead of continuing to attack Lu Ming, he quickly backed away. Then, hundreds of figures rushed towards each other.

He is fusing!

Swish...

Two, four, eight, ten...

With the fusion of Ge Qian's figures, Ge Qian's breath is constantly skyrocketing, rising very fast, and a terrible pressure is permeating Ge Qian's body.

Lu Ming's expression became serious.

He felt that Ge Qian's cultivation base was skyrocketing.

If it is said that the cultivation bases of the figures in the beginning were only in the early stage of the source, now, he quickly rushed to the middle stage of the source, and then rushed towards the late stage...

Obviously, if Ge Qian fuses all the clones, he will suppress Lu Ming with super power.

In the face of an enemy who is too strong, even if the cells in Lu Ming's body are useless to disperse his soul, the opponent can use super power to suppress the cells in his body at once, or destroy the cells in his body at once.

"How to do?"

Lu Ming thought quickly, thinking about the countermeasures.

In the end, the only way he thought of was to withdraw.

Yes, the strength gap is too great, and he has no way to resist.

At this moment, Ge Qian's breath has actually reached the late stage of the original source, and is still improving, because Ge Qian is only a half of the clone.

After all parts of the body are integrated, what step can Ge Qian achieve?

Does it exceed the source?

It was too strong. Ge Qian might be able to suppress Lu Ming with one hand.

But just when Lu Ming decided to retreat, something changed.

Ge Qian, who was fusing his avatar, suddenly trembled, as if experiencing terrible pressure.

"It's the origin disaster..."

Lu Ming's eyes lit up, and he felt that the pressure of the Great Tribulation of Origin was increasing sharply in the void.

Yes, for the time being, in the universe, only the early existence of Origin was allowed to move freely. Ge Qian's body merged, his cultivation was too strong, and he was suppressed by the Great Tribulation of Origin.

"Damn the origin of the catastrophe..."

Ge Qian roared.

He didn't expect that he is just a soul body, there is no source root in his body, and if the clone is merged, he will be suppressed by the source of the catastrophe.

Simply unreasonable.

bump! bump! bump! ...

Ge Qian, who had merged most of his avatar, continued to explode, and dozens of explosions sounded continuously. Ge Qian's body exploded, and dozens of figures flew out.

Ge Qian's fusion failed, and was traumatized. Because of these dozens of clones, his body was much more illusory than before, and the soul's power was lost.

"It seems that your plan has failed and cannot be integrated, so let me eliminate them one by one."

Lu Ming laughed, holding the God of War gun, and stepping forward to launch another attack.

No matter how many people there are, Lu Ming is not afraid of Ge Qian, who can't be merged. As long as he stares at a fight, he will be eliminated sooner or later.

"hateful!"

Ge Qian roared, his face uncertain.

Click!

Click!

The cracks on the blood coffin are still increasing. At this time, the cracks on the blood coffin are already densely packed, I don't know how many, are full of blood coffins.

bump!

Then, with a touch of the blood coffin, the whole exploded.

咚咚咚...

The thunderous sound became more violent, and the light of blood filled the sky.

Lu Ming saw that a heart appeared in the place where the blood coffin was originally located.

The heart is the size of an ordinary person, with blood flowing continuously on it, and the heart is still beating, as if it had just been dug out from the human body.

The king's heart is truly born.

"Do you think that I can't fuse, so I can't help you? My method is not what you can imagine. When I swallow the king's heart, it will be your death date."

Seeing the king's heart, Ge Qian was ecstatic, and then Ge Qian's clone actually rushed towards the king's heart together.

There was no other reaction from King Ren's heart, Ren Ge Qian rushed in.

Soon, Ge Qian, one by one, fell into the heart of the king.

However, there was another Ge Qian who stayed outside.

Ge Qian was not completely sure, so he left a clone outside just in case.

As long as one of the clones is not destroyed, Ge Qian will not die, and there will be a chance for a comeback.

"Boy, do you think that all existence above the origin will be suppressed by the origin disaster? I tell you, it is not strong enough to a certain extent, and the origin disaster is nothing more than that, not to mention, it is now Towards the end of the Great Tribulation of the Origin, when I absorb the human king's heart, the Great Tribulation of the Origin will not help me. At that time, it will be your death date."

Ge Qian, the only one left outside, sneered.

Lu Ming's eyes flashed with a cold light, then his killing intent flashed, and he shouted: "Then stop you before you succeed."

bump!

Lu Ming stepped out, and the God of War Spear skyrocketed, like a mountain range, down towards Ge Qian's suppression.

First destroy the avatar of Ge Qian, and then find a way to prevent Ge Qian from refining the King's Heart.

"you..."

This Ge Qian's face was ugly, and he retreated violently.

However, he has been enveloped by the God of War Spear, locked, and cannot be retreated.

boom!

Under the pressure of the God of War Spear, Ge Qian's clone exploded directly.

Then, terrible forces continued to suppress Xiang Ge Qian, and soon, this clone of Ge Qian was obliterated by Lu Ming.

Then, Lu Ming looked at the king's heart.

How to stop Ge Qian.

Is it attacking the human king's heart?

But this is the king's heart. Can his attack be effective?

"Lu Ming, do you think it is useful to kill me as a clone? Let me tell you, it's useless. Your ending is doomed. You will eventually die in my hands."

Ge Qian's roar came from the king's heart.

Chapter 5065: Complete human body

At the same time, Lu Ming felt that the blood qi that diffused outwards from the human king's heart was actually shrinking.

"Could it be that this guy can really refine the human king's heart?"

Lu Ming was shocked, feeling that Ge Qian's peak period was absolutely extraordinary.

Perhaps, he is the top master of the Heavenly Soul Forbidden Land, otherwise how could there be such a method?

You know, this is the human king's heart, even if you put it in front of your eyes, not many people can refine it.

Ge Qian actually had this method. In his heyday, it was absolutely extraordinary.

Think about it, too, the King of Human Heart is sealed in this continent, and it hasn't appeared in the world. Could Ge Qian actually be able to come in back then?

Lu Ming's heart was heavy. If Ge Qian really refines the human king's heart, it would really be a catastrophe. In today's universe, who else can stop him.

It will be a disaster for all creatures in the universe.

You must know that in the last epoch, the Heavenly Soul Race caused a tragic disaster on the prehistoric continent. They devoured the souls of creatures and refined the blood of creatures. I don't know how many creatures died.

In the end, if it weren't for being destroyed by Wang Xuanyuan, I don't know how much disaster it would cause.

But now, who can stop Ge Qian?

"That is..."

Lu Ming suddenly turned his head and looked in one direction. Lu Ming felt that there was a terrible breath coming from that direction.

Then, Lu Ming's pupils suddenly widened.

What did he see?

Human body!

Yes, it is actually the human body.

Didn't the human king's flesh body in the Heaven Extinguishing Army's garrison be put away by Feihuang?

[Reading red envelopes] Follow public.. public accounts [Book Friends Base Camp], reading books can draw up to 888 cash red envelopes!

How would it appear here?

Is it because the human king's heart is born, and they are in touch with each other?

Most likely.

Lu Ming couldn't help but think of the time when the human king's torso was born, the limbs and head of the human king also flew out by himself, breaking the seal, and fusing with the human king's torso.

The human king's heart, as the core of the human king's physical body, is very normal for the human king's physical body to fly away from a long distance.

boom!

The human king descended physically, suspended in the air, exuding a huge aura, just like the human king reappearing, dominating the world.

Then, the human king's heart flew towards the human king's body, directly into the human king's chest.

At this moment, the aura exuding from the human king's flesh became even more terrifying. The human king's physical body seemed to have revived, with repeated qi and blood flowing out, as if the human king was resurrected.

"Ah, what's going on? The human body, the complete human body?"

From the human body, Ge Qian's shocked roar came out.

Then, a powerful force broke out in the human king's body, and Ge Qian's clones flew out of the human king's heart one by one.

Hundreds of Ge Qian flew out, staring at the king's heart, furious.

"Soul, I feel the fluctuation of the soul, the king of humans is not dead, isn't the king of humans still dead..."

Ge Qian couldn't believe it, yelling constantly, his face was full of horror.

His fear of Wang Xuanyuan came from his heart.

Back then, if he didn't happen to be in the Heavenly Soul Forbidden Land, I'm afraid he would have died in the hands of Ren Wang Xuanyuan a long time ago.

Now, he actually felt a trace of soul fluctuation in the human body, how could this not make him afraid?

In Lu Ming's heart, there was also a violent shock, and there was a stormy sea.

In the human body, there are still soul fluctuations?

Is it true that the King of People is really not dead, after infinite years, is about to be revived, and is about to be resurrected?

This is definitely a big event that shocked the universe.

If this is the case, it would be a great blessing for the human race.

For the Exterminating Army, it is also a great thing.

You know, the Celestial Destruction Army is also the human race.

Tang Feng, the forbidden sword ancestor, came from the human race.

With the protection of a king, a human race, or an exterminating army, you can no longer have to worry about the forbidden lands.

In Lu Ming's heart, expectation arose involuntarily.

The human body's breath became stronger and stronger, and there seemed to be a terrifying force in his body that was resurrecting.

This time, even Lu Ming felt that it was the power of the soul.

In the human body, there is a terrifying soul power recovering.

Huh!

Suddenly, the eyes of the king who had closed for endless years opened again.

From the eyes of the King of Humans, two rainbow lights burst out, like two divine swords, cutting the void and the sky open.

Rumble!

The sky cracked.

This world was originally sealed under the Nine Lines Forbidden Land, and above it was the vast land of the Nine Lines Forbidden Land. At this moment, the land of the Nine Lines Forbidden Land was cut open by two rainbow rays in the eyes of the King of People.

Open your eyes, the world collapses, the mighty power is strong, beyond imagination.

"what happened?"

"It's terrible, the sky was cut open, what happened inside?"

At this moment, all the powerhouses of various races who entered the land of the heart seal of the King of Humanity were shocked, not knowing what happened.

The gaze of the 'King of Man' glanced around, and a low voice came out: "King of Man, you wanted to seal me with your physical body, you wanted to seal me forever, and to wipe out me with the power of time. Unexpectedly, one day, I Get out of trouble again, not only out of trouble, but also into your physical body. With your physical body, I will not only be able to recover to the peak, maybe I will be able to go to the next level, hahaha!"

"The formation you left, disappear for me!"

Then, the king's physical arm lifted and grabbed it in the air. The surrounding seal formation suddenly vibrated. The endless runes, like small snakes, flew away from the ground and flew towards the palm of the king's flesh. , Finally gathered into a ball, and was caught in the palm of the human body by the king.

These methods are simply unpredictable and unbelievable.

The people who had been trapped inside by the Great Seal Array were all out of their troubles, and they rose into the air one after another, seeing the flesh of the King of People.

Suddenly, all of them were shocked. They were all the same as Lu Ming before, thinking it was the resurrection of the King of Humanity.

The human race in the Cangqing Divine Realm was naturally ecstatic, while the faces of the creatures in the forbidden areas were extremely ugly.

Only Lu Ming's heart kept sinking.

Lu Ming could clearly hear what the human king said before.

The words of the human king's flesh made it very clear that this is not the human king himself at all, and the "human king" who is now resurrected has someone else.

This person was sealed by the human body.

But isn't it a legend that the human body was sealed by other strong men?

How is it different from what I learned before.

At this moment, Lu Ming's mind was in confusion.

"You...you are not a person, Wang Xuanyuan."

Ge Qian exclaimed.

"of course not!"

The gaze of the human king's flesh looked at Ge Qian, and he said indifferently: "People of the Sky Soul Race, you also want to refine the human king's heart, it is ridiculous, turn it into my nourishment!"

After saying this, the human king body opened his mouth, and a terrifying attraction broke out, instantly covering all the avatars of Ge Qian.

All the avatars of Ge Qian could not help flying towards the mouth of the human king's flesh.

"Ah, forgive me..."

Ge Qian yelled in horror, struggling frantically, but it was useless. The next moment, all Ge Qian was swallowed by the human body, silently, like falling into a bottomless abyss.

Chapter 5066: Enemy of the King of Humans

Ge Qian, who was swallowed by King Ren's flesh in one mouthful, fell into the mouth of King Ren's flesh and disappeared completely without a sound.

"Unfortunately, it's just a remnant soul, which has limited effect on me. If it's in its heyday, it's okay..."

A voice came from the human king's body.

This voice is not the human king's flesh body speaking, but the soul in the human king's flesh, which is undergoing soul fluctuations.

This scene was not only seen by Lu Ming, but also by the masters of the surrounding races.

Because, without the seal formation, these masters rose into the air, nothing could hinder their sight, they could see the situation on Lu Ming's side clearly.

Lu Ming's face was extremely solemn, and the others also took a cold breath.

They knew that something extraordinary had happened, perhaps, a terrifying old monster had recovered.

Hearing what this person said, he was sealed by the King of Humans, so what a terrible existence would it be that the King of Humans could do it himself?

At this time, the gaze of the human king's body turned to Lu Ming.

The eyes of the king of human flesh were empty and indifferent, no different from the eyes of a corpse, but Lu Ming had a feeling of being seen through, and his body was tightening involuntarily. This was instinct.

"How can there be that kind of blood in this kid, weird, weird..."

The soul in the human body muttered to himself, of course, Lu Ming couldn't hear it, it was the soul in the human body that was thinking.

Afterwards, the soul in the human body spoke: "Little guy, I am very grateful to you for the reason why I was able to get out of trouble."

Lu Ming understood what the other party meant.

At least, the human body can be born entirely, and there are two things that are closely related to Lu Ming.

One is the King's Heart. The previous seal was broken by Lu Ming and Ge Qian together.

Another is the right hand of Renwang, brought out by Lu Ming.

"Who are you?" Lu Ming shouted.

"Looking at how helpful you are to me, I can answer some questions. My name is true and I am the enemy of Wang Xuanyuan."

Fluctuations spread from the human body.

Around, everyone felt chills.

Ren Wang Xuanyuan's great enemy, isn't it a powerhouse at the same level as Ren Wang Xuanyuan?

Now such a strong man is born...

"The human body is divided into seven parts, and the town is divided into seven areas to seal you? Why is it said that the human body is divided into seven parts and sealed in seven different places?"

Lu Ming continued to ask.

Since the other party would answer him a few questions, he simply asked all his psychological doubts.

In the past, the universe has been rumored that someone divided the human body into seven and sealed them in seven different places.

However, it seems that this is not the case now. Lu Ming wondered why there were such rumors.

"Because, those rumors were deliberately released by me. If you don't say this, will you desperately want to gather the human body? Then how can I get out of trouble?"

A voice came from the human body.

Lu Ming's face was ugly, and the others were silent.

Indeed, if everyone knows that in the body of the King of Humans, an old monster has been sealed off, who else would go to gather the body of the King of Humans, who would dare?

But on the other hand, it's different.

The human body is sealed by humans. As long as the human body is assembled and the human body is born, it can sweep the universe, so that everyone will be active.

"That bronze box, the reason why the words appear is because of you?"

Lu Ming continued to ask.

"Yes, it's me."

Dique answered very simply.

Everything is clear.

From the information he has learned now, Lu Ming can already infer a general idea.

At that time, Renwang Xuanyuan fought with Dique, and it is estimated that both were lost. Renwang died frequently, and Dique was also hit hard, leaving only the soul.

However, the human king Xuanyuan did not have the power to wipe out Dique's soul. In the end, in desperation, he divided the body into seven and Dique's soul into seven. The flesh was used to seal Dique's soul and sealed in seven different ones. The place.

Those sealing formations were previously thought to be laid by the person who sealed the human body, but in fact, it was completely reversed, and it was clearly laid by the human king himself.

At this time, Lu Ming's mouth was a little bitter, everyone was led by Dique's nose, helping Dique free himself.

The unity of the human body is equivalent to the unity of the dutiful soul.

"I'm born again, and I'm destined to rule the world, Lu Ming, you have a good talent, and you will have a lot of achievements in the future. I can give you a chance to take refuge in me, and I can spare your life."

Truth is missing.

"I reject!"

Lu Ming shook his head directly.

This truth is the great enemy of Human King Xuanyuan. It must be the great enemy of Human Race, or even the great enemy of the Primordial Continent. Maybe, when the Primordial Continent was broken, it was all related to this person. How could Lu Ming take refuge in the other side?

A masculine man does something and does not do something.

Even if you lose your life.

"Very good, spine, but unfortunately, whether you refuse or not, there will be only one end. Don't worry, you have something I am interested in. I will not kill you for the time being. I will kill you after the research is thorough. ."

Die was silent, stretched out a palm, and grabbed it to Lu Ming.

boom!

This palm was the palm of the King of Humans, so terrible, the void burst directly into chaos.

The chaotic air encircled the king's palm and was extremely huge, and clawed towards Lu Ming.

what!

Lu Ming roared, he couldn't catch it with his hands, even if the opponent was an invincible strong, he still had to resist.

He urged taboo madly, but the next moment, he felt chills in his heart.

He found that his body couldn't move even if he didn't move, and even the power of the forbidden origin in his body had stopped, as if it had been frozen by ice.

The big hand has not caught him yet, and has completely banned him.

The gap was too big, it was so big that it was boundless, it was so big that it was beyond his imagination.

It was like a mortal ant facing the dragon of the gods.

Powerless, at this moment, Lu Ming felt deeply powerless.

He has worked hard enough to cultivate and grows fast enough, but when faced with such existence, there is still an infinite gap.

The big hand suppressed Lu Ming.

But at this moment, the palm of the king suddenly stopped.

The king of human body raised his head and looked up at the sky.

boom!

The sky burst, countless boulders smashed down, and then an ancient warship rushed in.

The warship looked very old, it was covered with marks of swords, guns and swords, its hull was in tatters, and there was a black air permeating its body, which looked terrifying.

This looks like a ghost ship.

On the deck of the ship, there is a white bone sitting cross-legged.

this is...

Lu Ming's eyes widened involuntarily, shocked.

Because he had seen this old warship.

That was the first time he ventured into the ruins of the universe. He was chased and killed by a young Void Behemoth. He encountered a battleship halfway through. Fortunately, that battleship blocked the Void Behemoth, and Lu Ming escaped by chance.

Lu Ming was too impressed with this warship.

Because of this warship, Lu Ming escaped from the Void Giant Beast's mouth, but also because of this warship, Lu Ming was intruded into his body by a black mist from the warship.

This black mist almost killed Lu Ming.

Lu Ming tried every means to dissolve it. In the end, he relied on the yellow mud road in his body to expel the black mist.

Lu Ming never expected that he would see this black warship here.

The black warship exudes a terrifying aura, which is many times more terrifying than when Lu Ming encountered it.

In addition, the white bone on the deck suddenly stood up, and there were two fires in the bone's eye sockets, which blazed ablaze.

"Die Que, get out of my father's body!"

The bones on the battleship actually made a sound, like thunder exploding and trembling in the void.

The next moment, the white bone rushed out of the battleship, his white bone body seemed to be transformed into a snow-white war sword, emitting a dazzling light, and a huge sword light cut towards the human king's flesh, to be precise, towards the truth. Missing cut off.

Di Que could only retract the palm of Lu Ming's grasp, turned his direction, and blasted towards the sword light turned into white bones.

boom!

When the two collided, a beam of light rushed upward.

Above it was the continent of the Nine Lines Forbidden Land, but at this moment, the land of the Nine Lines Forbidden Land was completely torn, exploded, and bounced out.

The vast land exploded into small pieces, constantly smashing downwards.

Fortunately, the two seemed to control it intentionally, and didn't let the power rush downwards, otherwise, Lu Ming would definitely turn to ashes.

It seems that Dique still doesn't want Lu Ming to die.

This also allowed the masters of all races around to get their lives back.

Because the collision between the two and the power that erupted was so terrifying, they were swept in, and there was only one dead end.

The two got the right move, and they separated quickly, and the bones also backed back.

"Hahaha, who am I? It turned out to be the villain Wang Xuanyuan. It turns out that you are not dead yet, but you are almost there. You are like this, and you want to do something with me?"

Di Que laughed.

Lu Ming and others were shocked.

This bone is the son of Wang Xuanyuan?

It's beginning to be amazing.

"Die Que, you despicable villain, get out of my father's body, I don't allow you to defile my father's body."

The white bone, that is, the villain Wang Xuanyuan yelled.

He landed on the battleship, his bones glowed, and he merged with the battleship, driving the battleship towards Dique.

"Defiled? Haha ridiculous, Wang Xuanyuan is just my defeated man. He can do nothing to me until he dies. In the end, he can only split his body to seal me off. Unfortunately, I was still born, and I will never die. , Immortal."

Dique's indifferent voice sounded.

"Back then, if it hadn't been for my father to have gone through a tragic battle, the sword was broken, and his vitality was damaged, how could he hurt you both and would have wiped you out."

Xuanyuanyi growled lowly.

Lu Ming's heart shook wildly.

He thought of the broken sword, but the King of Human Sabre.

Only one-fifth of the sword was left with a fingerprint on it.

Before, he thought it was Diqian staying on it, but now it doesn't seem to be, there is someone else.

Ren Wang Xuanyuan had already fought against other terrifying powerhouses before the battle with Dique, and even the sword was broken.

It can be seen how tragic the battle was.

"Humph!"

Dique snorted coldly, obviously tacitly acquiescing, he controlled the human king's body, stepped out, rushed to the battleship, and blasted out with a punch.

boom!

The two sides confronted again and completely penetrated the sky.

Afterwards, the two soared into the sky, killed off from here, and launched a decisive battle in the void.

Lu Ming and the others, feeling the pressure on their bodies relieved, took a long breath.

In the previous battle between the two, although they did not rush the power below, the pressure was still very terrifying. Lu Ming felt that under that pressure, his body was about to burst.

Boom boom boom!

In the depths of the void, a decisive battle erupted, which was too terrifying. The endless void was torn into large horrible cracks, which continued to spread far away.

Nearby, pieces of continental fragments were blown up and turned into cosmic dust.

This kind of scene is simply ruining the world.

Lu Ming has also seen the power of the pinnacle of origin clash, such as the four palace masters of the heavenly palace, but compared with this, it is like a child playing house, the difference is too far.

The power of immortality!

Lu Ming dared to conclude that this absolutely belonged to the power of Immortal Dao.

However, Lu Ming was very strange, now it is the origin of the catastrophe.

It does not mean that under the Great Calamity of Origin, as long as the existence above the Origin Realm will be suppressed by the Great Calamity of Origin, the higher the cultivation base, the greater the impact.

Why did Dique and Xuanyuanyi not seem to be affected?

Perhaps, when the strength of a creature reaches a certain level, it can ignore the great calamity of its origin.

Or perhaps, now is the end of the Great Tribulation of the Origin, and the power of the Great Tribulation of the Origin has been greatly weakened, so it will not have much impact on the creatures of this level.

Lu Ming guessed in his heart.

In an instant, the two have already fought dozens of moves.

After all, Xuanyuanyi was not an opponent. The battleship under him was blown to pieces by Dique's move and turned into smash. Only some wreckage was swallowed by a big gap in space.

what!

Xuanyuanyi roared with his soul, and his whole body exuded a dazzling glow, rushed to Dique, and launched a fierce battle again.

puff!

At this moment, Lu Ming opened his mouth and spit out the broken sword.

"Ball, how are you?"

Lu Ming was shocked.

"This Broken Sword is too advanced, I can't refine it, I need to rest..."

The ball turned into a bracelet and put it on Lu Ming's wrist.

Just for a while, Xuanyuanyi and Dique fought another dozen moves.

Xuanyuanyi was not an opponent. He was blown away by a palm, killing several pieces of mainland debris.

Lu Ming twirled the Demon King Emperor Mark, and he could see that there were cracks on Xuanyuanyi's white bones.

If this continued, Xuanyuanyi couldn't bear it and burst into pieces.

"Father, have you really fallen? You are invincible and immortal. You wake up."

Xuanyuanyi roared.

"You don't have to work in vain. His soul has completely dissipated. Only the physical body will live forever. Don't worry, I will let his physical body continue to shock the world."

Dique spoke indifferently, and continued to kill Xuanyuanyi, to completely wipe out Xuanyuanyi.

Xuanyuanyi, who was known as Wang Xuanyuan's most amazing son at the time, was known as the villain king, and his talent was unimaginable.

Many people think that as long as there is enough time, Xuanyuanyi's achievements can be directly followed by his father.

This kind of existence is a major hazard and must be completely eliminated.

The two confronted a few more moves, Xuanyuanyi's boneless body had more cracks.

Chapter 5068: Sacrifice oneself

Xuanyuanyi's white bones were full of cracks, as if it would break apart at any time.

If this goes on, it won't take long before Xuanyuanyi's boneless body will definitely break apart. Without the support of the boneless body, Xuanyuanyi is not even a true opponent.

Lu Ming's face was heavy, he couldn't wait to help Xuanyuanyi, but unfortunately, with his strength, he was probably torn to ashes by the violent power before he even got close.

The difference is too big, and there is powerlessness.

In front of Di Que's existence, his strength was too insignificant.

boom! boom!

The war continued, but Xuanyuanyi's state was getting worse and worse, and there were more and more cracks on the bones.

"Xuanyuanyi, in the last epoch, you deserved to die, leaving this remnant soul and bones, wandering in this world, but also suffering. Today, I will completely send you on the road and use your father's body to send you on the road. I don't know if it is Xuanyuan is still alive, will he be * off, hahaha..."

Di Que laughed.

Di Que now controls Wang Xuanyuan's physical body. If he kills Xuanyuan Yi, from a certain point of view, wouldn't it be equivalent to killing his own son by his own hands, it would be absolutely cruel.

"My father is immortal. I don't believe that he has completely fallen. Father, today, I will wake you up in my body."

Xuanyuanyi roared, the soul fire in his eyes suddenly lit up, emitting a dazzling light.

Not only that, his boneless body also exudes a brilliant light, as if burning.

Then, a layer of light rain rushed out, rushed towards the human king's body at an astonishing speed, and sank into the human king's body.

Xuanyuanyi, this is burning his body and soul, which is tantamount to offering sacrifices.

He was sacrificing himself, trying to awaken Wang Xuanyuan with his body and soul.

The two are father and son, they are related by blood, and resonate with blood. This kind of sacrifice, even if it is true, cannot be stopped.

The wisps of light rain continued to sink into the flesh of Ren Wang Xuanyuan.

"Xuanyuan has completely fallen, and his soul is dead. There is not even a trace of the brand left behind. It is impossible to regain. You will die this heart, or, if you sacrifice yourself, it will save me a lot of effort, die. !"

Dique sneered, manipulating the human king's body, and stepping forward, he was about to attack Xuanyuanyi, wanting to completely solve Xuanyuanyi.

[Reading benefits] Give you a cash red envelope! Follow the vx public [Book Friends Base Camp] to receive it!

But this time, he just stopped halfway out of his figure.

"what happened?"

Di Que's shocked voice came from the human body.

"boom!"

Suddenly, the human king's flesh exploded with a terrifying aura, a golden light overflowing from the human king's flesh, from a distance, the human king's flesh seemed to be enveloped by a layer of golden flames.

At the same time, a supreme breath radiated from the human body.

Even with an infinite distance, Lu Ming felt a strong pressure.

This kind of pressure is not a pressure of strength, but of blood.

The pressure of the king of human race.

The human body is actually recovering.

"How is it possible? The human king's body has recovered. How is it possible that the human king has completely fallen, I have not sensed a trace of remnant soul or mark in his flesh..."

From the body of the King of Humanity, there was a shocked and incredible voice from Di Que.

boom!

Then, within the human king's body, an even more astonishing breath erupted.

This breath, from the inside out, madly impacted outwards.

"Impossible, damn..."

Di Que's angry voice sounded, and then he saw a dark shadow in the human body, slowly being lined out.

This black shadow, adult type, came out of its head at the beginning.

This is an old man with dark and shriveled skin, of course, not a flesh and blood body, but a soul.

At this time, the old man's face was full of surprise.

"Father..."

Xuanyuanyi shouted, excited.

Wang Xuanyuan was resurrected.

At this moment, everyone's hearts are shaking wildly.

Among them, the people of the human race are the most excited.

Is Wang Xuanyuan really not dead?

This is definitely a big event that shocked the universe. If it is true, the pattern of the universe will be completely rewritten in the future.

Even if there is only one Cangqing Divine Realm left, the Human Race can develop crazily under the protection of the King of Humans. In the future, even if it cannot restore the glory of the previous era, it will definitely prosper countless times than it is now.

Excited, extremely excited.

The creatures in the forbidden area were pale.

The name Ren Wang Xuanyuan is definitely a big mountain that rests on the heads of all the creatures in the forbidden area.

"It may not really be resurrected, maybe it's just a ray of imprint, awakened by Xuanyuanyi."

There are forbidden creatures whispering.

After such a short time, Dique had already exposed half of his body. Obviously, the human body had to completely expel Dique's soul from the body.

Dique is unwilling, struggling with all his strength.

His body had been completely destroyed in the battle with Wang Xuanyuan, leaving only his soul.

Although his soul is almost immortal, but only the soul remains, it is still difficult to recover to the heyday, besides, without a physical body, how to cultivate in the future.

The body of Human King Xuanyuan is undoubtedly the best body. As long as he merges with the human body, in the future, he will not only be able to recover to his peak period, but even rise to a higher level.

Therefore, he did not want to give up the human body, he was unwilling to give up like this.

Unfortunately, no matter how hard he struggles, it is useless.

Behind, the palm of the King of Humanity grabbed Di Que's head directly.

Di Lai was horrified, if the human body really recovered, his soul would be captured, and there would be a Xuan Yuan Yi, which would be a very dangerous thing.

Regardless of continuing to control the human king's body, Di lacked his soul to shine, and took the initiative to fly out of the human king's body.

"kill!"

When Xuanyuanyi hit it, he attacked with all his strength and slammed Dique backwards.

"kill!"

Xuanyuanyi continued to kill Dique, trying to wipe out Dique completely.

"Don't think that I only have my soul left, so you can help me, heaven and earth all souls, give me condensate!"

Diqi cold drink, hand squeeze the method.

Suddenly, the vast emptiness of the universe, infinite energy, surged toward Dique, covering the soul of Dique.

These energies are condensed together, as if turned into a physical body, and the soul is hidden in it.

The truth of an entity appeared.

It seemed to be indistinguishable from the flesh and blood life, and the whole body exuded vigorous vitality, and the blood was boiling.

With this method, Lu Ming and others were stunned.

In an instant, recreate the physical body.

"It's just a temporary physical body, what's the use, kill!"

Xuanyuanyi drank coldly, the white bones exuding dazzling brilliance, turning into an eternal sword light, slashing towards Dique.

boom!

Di Que continued to pinch the technique, and a huge beast was formed, as big as a star, with three heads.

This is a three-headed * dog, exuding a strong evil spirit.

Roar! The three-headed hellhound roared, shaking the cosmic void, and several fragments of the mainland that were relatively close, burst directly into pieces.

Chapter 5069: War of terror

The three-headed Hellhound, as big as a star, roared into the void of the universe, shattered several fragments of the continent, and culled Xiang Xuanyuanyi.

Of course, these three Hellhounds are not real creatures, but they are condensed by Dharma tactics.

boom!

Jian Guang collided with the three Hellhounds and burst into a thunderous roar, boiling energy, sweeping across the universe.

The battle between the two sides was far enough from Lu Ming and the others, otherwise, they would all be involved, and there would be no bones left.

Amid the roar, Xuanyuanyi retreated violently.

Obviously, Xuanyuanyi was no match.

Xuanyuanyi had been hit hard in the first place, and with the sacrifices later, his strength was not as good as before.

Although Dique was sealed for countless years, and only had his soul, his strength was far from comparable to that of the peak period, but don't forget that even in the peak period, Xuanyuanyi was not as good as Dique, it was a bit short of it.

Therefore, Xuanyuanyi is not an opponent at all.

"Send you on the road completely."

Dique leaped forward and quickly approached Xuanyuanyi. With a black palm, he was surrounded by a thick gloom and extremely cold, and the void of the universe would be frozen by ice wherever he passed.

bump!

Xuanyuanyi retreated violently, and there were more cracks on his body, even some bones were broken, and he flew out.

Even the soul fire in his eyes was dim.

Roar!

The three hellhounds continued to kill, and the three heads sprayed out three kinds of beams of light, killing Xuanyuanyi.

Obviously, after the sacrifice, Xuanyuan Yi was much weaker and was not a true opponent at all.

At this moment, a tall and burly figure appeared in front of Xuanyuan Yi, covering the void with his big hands, and slapped three hellhounds.

boom!

The body of the three hellhounds was blasted out and retreated violently.

"Father..."

Xuanyuanyi yelled, the fire of the soul beating violently, obviously excited.

"The King of People is really resurrected..."

Everyone was shocked.

Because it was the human body that shot the three Hellhounds just now.

The human body took the initiative to take the initiative, and he was blocking Xuanyuanyi's body. This was obviously protecting Xuanyuanyi, which was conscious.

Is it true that the King of Humans is resurrected?

Di Que's gloomy gaze, looking at the human body, as if he wanted to see through the human body, then sneered: "I'm sure you don't have a trace of remnant soul or brand left, but Xuanyuanyi's sacrifice. Because of your instincts, Xuanyuan, after all, you have completely fallen, and there is no possibility of resurrection."

"how so?"

Xuanyuanyi's body trembled, and the fire of soul filled with sadness.

He also saw that in the human body, there was no trace of the remnant soul left by the human king, not even a trace of branding.

Perhaps as Di Que said, the reason why Human King's physical body shot was really because of Xuanyuanyi's sacrifice, which aroused the instinct of Human King's physical body.

"boom!"

The human king's flesh boiled with blood and blood, and a radiant light filled his body, which was a fairy light.

The king of humans is obviously a figure of immortality, and in immortality, they are all top masters.

The palm of the hand covered the sky, and the human king's flesh body slew towards Dique.

With the palm of his hand, the void exploded and turned into chaos, and everything was wiped out.

"Even if you only have instinct and want to kill me, let me completely seal your physical body and slowly refine it."

Dique's indifferent voice sounded, his breath was violent, and his cold breath plunged hundreds of millions of miles into ice.

He squeezed his hands firmly, and a three-headed Hellhound condensed out, and together with the previous one, slaughtered the flesh.

At the same time, Di lacked his palm and held it in the air, and a black spear condensed out, killing the king's body.

The human king's body, waved to meet the enemy, and started a battle with Dique.

The sky and the earth broke apart when the two of them fought, and the void was continuously torn apart and turned into chaos, and then the chaos continued to evolve into the void of the universe, birth and death, endless reincarnation.

The fragments of the continent near this area continue to explode.

At first burst into small pieces, then small pieces burst into powder.

Destroy heaven and earth, truly destroy heaven and earth.

This kind of scene is terrible.

Under the Nine Elements Forbidden Land, everyone watching the battle was trembling, and it was difficult to calm down.

Is this the combat power of the top masters of the Primordial Continent? It's too strong.

What kind of origin realm, in front of such an existence, even the ants are not, any overflowing energy can make the existence of the peak of origin disappear.

"The power of Immortal Dao, is this the strength of Immortal Dao? It's too strong, incomparable. Back then, the Primordial Continent was broken by such a master."

Lu Ming sighed inwardly.

Di Que and the human king's flesh bodies are obviously far from their peak state, but the power that they showed has already shocked the world. One can imagine how terrifying their peak state is.

Moreover, during the period of the Primordial Continent, there were more than one master such as Ren Wang Xuanyuan, and it was normal for the Primordial Continent to be blown up once they fought wildly.

The speed of the two was too fast, and Lu Ming and others could barely see a few phantoms fighting frantically.

Within a few minutes, the two had no idea how many tricks they had fought.

boom!

Suddenly, the big bang of the universe caused a figure to retreat sharply.

Lu Ming's heart sank.

Because this figure is actually the human body.

The flesh body of the King of Humans fell under the wind and was no match for Dique.

It's no wonder that Dique has a soul after all, his own consciousness is intact, and he can use all kinds of big kills, but the human king only has the flesh. Everything is just instinct. Some powerful kills cannot be used at all. Yes, it is the human body itself.

"Just by instinct, I still want to fight and kill with me!"

Di Que coldly drank, squeezing the magic formula to kill, and the three Hellhounds roared into the void of the universe. Together with Di Que, they slaughtered the human body, and the two sides killed another piece.

After fighting dozens of moves, the human king's body became extremely huge, even bigger than the stars, grabbing a three-headed Hellhound and tearing it apart, tearing the three-headed territorial dog apart, turning it into energy and returning to the universe.

But the human body himself was hit, and he was caught by the sharp claws of another three-headed hellhound. Several deep wounds appeared on the solid and immortal flesh.

At the same time, Di Que's spear pierced through the shoulders of the human body.

bump!

The human king's body shook, he shook his spear, fisted to fight back, and was blocked by Di Que. Two sword lights burst into his eyes, which slashed on the human king's body, causing the king's flesh to retreat violently.

The human body was completely suppressed.

"Father, I will help you."

Xuanyuanyi shouted loudly, turned into a sword light, and killed him, helping the king's body, fighting against the truth.

The two sides launched an even more tragic fight.

However, even the human king's flesh body and Xuan Yi were invincible, and they were suppressed. After a hundred moves, Xuan Yuan Yi's boned body was completely blown.

The white bone body turned into powder, floating in the void, Xuanyuanyi's soul retreated violently, almost torn apart by Dili.

"Your ending is doomed. Xuanyuan's physical body will be used by me, and Xuanyuanyi's soul will be completely wiped out."

Dique spoke coldly, his eyes were extremely cold.

Chapter 5070: Unfinished war

With a black spear in his hand, Dique shook the universe with his aura, and was extremely powerful, killing Xuanyuanyi towards Xuanyuanyi, completely obliterating Xuanyuanyi's soul.

Xuanyuanyi's cultivation base was far inferior to the truth. Without the bones, only the soul is left, and it is not the opponent of the truth. The black spear of the truth is swept across, and Xuanyuanyi's soul is shattered, almost completely wiped out, and it is difficult. Fortunately, the human body was killed in time, otherwise Xuanyuanyi would be in danger.

However, the human king was physically invincible, and he was undermined.

"Father, I don't believe that you have fallen. With my life, I will wake you up."

Xuanyuanyi roared, his soul radiated a brilliant glow.

Sacrifice!

Xuanyuanyi continued to sacrifice, this time to sacrifice his soul.

His soul was burning and turned into a ray of light, submerged in the human body.

boom!

When the light rain of Xuanyuanyi's soul entered the human king's body, the human king's body seemed to be ignited, and a thick layer of flame rose up from his body, like a volcanic eruption, with a more terrifying aura permeating out.

The human body and Xuanyuanyi seemed to form a bridge. Xuanyuanyi's soul continuously turned into a rain of light, submerged into the human body, and the power of the human body became stronger and stronger.

Dique's face sank and he quickened his attack.

The human body took the initiative to step forward and fight with him.

This piece of void, just recovered, was blown up again and turned into chaos.

Just a few breaths, Xuanyuanyi's soul, all turned into light rain, submerged into the human body.

At this moment, the aura of the human king's flesh was extremely strong.

In his originally hollow eyes, there seemed to be some regained brilliance, like two rounds of the sun.

"kill!"

The human king's flesh actually opened his mouth with a loud roar, shaking the universe and forming a big collapse. Then, the human king's flesh slashed out with a palm, his palm was like a divine sword, and a brilliant sword light illuminated the dark universe. To the truth.

when!

Jianguang and Black Spear collided greatly, and then the figures of the two retreated at the same time.

"The King, is it really resurrected."

This sentence came out of everyone's heart, and they were extremely shocked.

The eyes of the human king's flesh clearly recovered, and he was able to speak.

If it was instinct before, now it is conscious.

"Huh, Xuanyuanyi, it turns out that you took control of your father's physical body. As I said, Xuanyuan is impossible to recover."

Dique spoke indifferently, with a taunting meaning, but his figure did not stop at all. He pinched his seal to re-condense two three-headed hellhounds, and slaughtered the flesh of King Xiangren.

And he himself, holding a spear, continued to kill.

"The sword is coming!"

The King of Humanity drank softly, his palm volleyed, and the broken sword that was swallowed by the ball before, suddenly vibrated, as if revived, turned into a sword light, broke through the air, and was caught by the human body. in.

Hum!

The sound of swords rang through the void of the universe. At this moment, the broken sword exuded extremely dazzling sword light and terrible sword aura, tearing the void of the universe into hundreds of millions of miles of sword marks.

The remaining one-fifth of the sword had a ray of light extending forward, forming a complete war sword.

Of course, what stretched out was not an entity, it was composed entirely of countless tiny sword auras.

The human king's body, holding a war sword, his breath reached its apex, a sword cut out, and a three-headed Hellhound was decapitated with one head.

At the same time, countless sword lights burst out, blocking Di Que's attack.

Afterwards, the human king's body launched a counterattack. The sword light was too dazzling, and everyone who stabbed could not open their eyes. When everyone could barely see, they saw two three-headed hellhounds, torn apart, and disappeared into energy. .

Moreover, Di Que was also recruited, with a sword wound on his chest, and his figure retreated violently.

The human body has the upper hand.

At this time, everyone knew that it was not the resurrection of the human king, but that Xuanyuanyi had settled in the human king's body and was manipulating the human king's body.

Xuanyuan Yi was originally the son of the King of Humans, and he fits perfectly with the human body, and he can use it freely, which is much better than Dique.

The human body, or Xuanyuanyi, took the upper hand and launched a stormy attack.

His sword light is too terrifying, peerlessly sharp, capable of cutting through everything, suppressing the lack of truth, and steadily retreating.

"Xuanyuanyi, your father's body is burning, and the essence is constantly being lost. If this continues, Xuanyuan's only body that remains in the world will not be preserved. This is a great dishonor of yours."

Di Que shouted, wanting to stop Xuan Yuan Yi with this.

However, Xuanyuanyi remained unmoved and responded indifferently: "Leaving you alive in the world is not what my father wants. If you leave it alone, he will really blame it, you will die!"

Xuanyuanyi attacked like crazy, the current situation was completely reversed from before, Xuanyuanyi completely suppressed Dique's fight.

puff!

After a dozen moves, Dique's arm was chopped off.

After more than a dozen moves, Di Que's body was torn apart by the peerless sharp sword light.

However, this body is just condensed with energy.

Dique abandoned his body and his soul retreated violently. However, it can be seen that Dique's soul was also injured. There was a sword mark on it, and Dique could not repair it for a long time.

Dique was wounded, Xuanyuanyi attacked more fiercely, and wanted to wipe out Dique completely in one fell swoop.

"Xuanyuanyi, do you really think you can kill me? Dreaming, my soul is immortal, even your father Xuanyuan can't kill me, let alone you."

Dique roared, resisted with all his might, and played all kinds of terrifying killer moves, but he was still invincible.

Soon after, he was hit by the sword again, and another terrible wound appeared on his soul, which was difficult to recover.

Dique's face was particularly gloomy, because the situation was not good.

Although his roar is indelible, he knows the real situation better than anyone else.

If he was at his peak, he was really fearless, but he was suppressed by Renwa for too long without his physical body.

The soul is divided into seven, and the body of the king is sealed in seven different places. This is not only a seal, but also a process of obliteration.

Ren Wang Xuanyuan originally wanted to rely on this to completely obliterate Dique's soul. Although it did not succeed, it did very much damage to Dique.

Di Que's soul is the weakest time in history, and now, he is really likely to be wiped out.

In the end, a fierce color flashed in his eyes, and his soul, like the human body, also radiated bright brilliance.

Burn the soul!

Di Que is also burning the soul.

Although burning his soul would cause him great damage, it was better than being completely wiped out.

Burning his soul, making Di Que's combat power soar, and re-launching a fierce battle with Xuanyuanyi.

This battle was very tragic, as if it was continuing the unfinished war in the last years of the great famine.
