The Domestic Hero - Chapter 1761

“Wait, there is ...”

Wang Yan quickly pulled the spacecraft’s joystick to reduce the speed of the spacecraft.

The spacecraft slowly slowed down, and then stuck to the side of the asteroid with a diameter of more than 100 kilometers, which was cleverly hidden.

In front of the observation window, Wang Yan, Berika, and the Bliss Devil Ji Trilith all stared together.

In the far-off cosmos, which is still far away, four thick and huge crystal pillars broke the space out of thin air and opened a “door”!

This is not unusual.

“Pharaoh, in front, that ... is it, the four-phase matrix of the extraterrestrial demon? That is, the one we see in the dark demon domain.”

Belika stared dumbfounded into the distance, covered with asteroid debris, and wondered, “No wonder, this priest’s prophecy was so difficult to perform this time. It turned out that there was an extraterrestrial demon blocking the road in front of us. But here Why are there extraterrestrial demon? “

In the Dark Demon Realm, the battle of the Devil Scorpion Temple, let everyone present see the power of the four-phase matrix used by the Heavenly Demon outside the realm.

It is a large space law matrix composed of four phase crystals. It can form a very powerful junction, and it can tear and isolate together with the space.

At this time, in front of Berika, Wang Yan and others, the four crystal giant columns erected in the universe, including the powerful enchantment formed by these four crystal giant columns, there is no doubt that it is the powerful extraterrestrial demon. The four-phase matrix is undoubtedly.

But there is one difference. At this time, the phase matrix formed by these four giant pillars is not to seal anything, but to use the power of the enchantment to stick out a “door” from this cosmic space.

Because of the distance, neither Wang Yan nor Berika could see clearly. Let’s call the space crack of that black hole a “gate”.

In this entrance, or door, in addition to the deep black, there are various energy brilliance flowing. At this time, Wang Yan and Belika could barely perceive that the internal space was huge, but full of chaotic and violent energy.

I am afraid that behind the “gate” is the destination they are searching for, and it seems to be a secondary subspace engulfed by the main space.

“Cui Lisi, come over. Is that the four-phase matrix of your heavenly demon? Can you see which force this four-phase matrix comes from?”

Wang Yan summoned the Cui Lisi behind him. The Bliss Demon Ji Cui Lisi was originally a pure-blooded demon, and was a general of the extraterrestrial demon  Ackerman. Among the three people present, she undoubtedly knows the racial system of the extraterrestrial demon.

“This ... is indeed a four-phase matrix, but it is not from which Celestial Apostle that the concubine comes from.”

The Bliss Magic Ji Trilis shook her head, indicating that the four-phase matrix, a top-level array method, is basically produced uniformly in the local area. If there is no special mark, it cannot be seen from the Celestial Apostle.

“In addition, our innate true demon is located in the cosmic area, which is very far away from here, and cannot easily reach the plane of the solar system.”

Looking at the phase matrix in the distance, the Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi frowned, then pointed to the sub-space doorway, wondering, “The reason why they will appear here, must have experienced a long trek ... Is it because That secondary space? Lord, Miss Berika, the destination you are looking for, shouldn’t it be there? “

Wang Yan and Belika glanced at each other and nodded in agreement.

Among them, Belika turned around and asked, “It seems that there is nothing wrong, but it seems that there is already an extraterrestrial demon, first we stepped inside. Pharaoh, what should we do next?”

“The extraterrestrial demon can’t deal with it well, first stop the boat here, let’s observe and observe.”

Wang Yan approached the observation window and took a closer look. He began to control the spacecraft and quickly docked the spacecraft on the side asteroid.

It is far away from the four-phase matrix of the extraterrestrial demon. As long as the small spaceship is hidden and no excessive movement is made, it will not be discovered.

In addition, no extraterrestrial demon flying vehicles were seen at the entrance. Obviously, the extraterrestrial demon forces had entered the subspace from the entrance.

Wang Yan has seen the strength of the extraterrestrial demon. In addition, he came here lightly and did not lead a large army, so just relying on the three of them, it is very dangerous to approach suddenly.

Rather than rush into it, it is better to sneak in and observe the most secure.

at the same time.

The apostle Nagham, who was commanding his battleship, dared into the subspace with great vigor.

Nagham belongs to the devil Lord Luo Sui, the new god-level apostle, the overall power and the number of fleets in a single round, compared to the old-style * apostles such as the star swallowing apostle Ackerman, it may be less than a core fleet. Awesome.

In this fleet, each battleship has the most advanced technology and equipment of Demon, which shows how much the devil Lord Luo Sui valued the new apostle Nagham.

Right now, the high-speed battleship commanded and controlled by the apostle Nagham is the large battleship with outstanding combat power and rapid maneuverability in this fleet.

Because of the long journey to the solar system plane and the need to keep things secret, the Ash Apostle Nagm only quietly drove a high-speed battleship and spent hundreds of years on a long-distance raid. Pianzhouyu.

It may not be as good as the destructive power and carrying capacity of the Nether Carrier, but the heavy artillery, heavy protection, high mobility and long-range endurance of this high-speed battleship are enough to adapt it to war in most cosmic plane .

With this battleship in existence, the apostle Nagham did not put this secondary space in front of him at all. It seems to enter the adventure and seek secrets, but it is just to search for things.

However, after really digging into it, the ashes apostle Nagham discovered that the degree of confusion in this subspace has far exceeded his imagination.

“What is this ... a chaotic space?”

After the battleship entered the subspace, everything that caught his eye made the ashen apostle Nagham stand up directly from his seat.

A group of demon heads led by Draytu and his men also widened their eyes and looked out of the observation window in surprise.

This is not only a violent void storm, and a chaotic flow of chaotic energy, but a well-ordered, yet extremely dangerous space of different degrees.

Through the observation window, the apostle Nagham could see his left hand side, actually a huge fiery sea like a star.

This fire sponge stretches endlessly, and I don't know how many miles it spans. It is like a huge vortex that rotates slowly, huge and mighty, swallowing the sky and the earth.

At the border of this turbulent vortex, the huge battleship of the apostle Nagham was as small as a trivial dust.

Under the ray of flame like a star shining, as if any scorching wave, it can be swallowed and dissolved.

The ashen apostle Nagm was terrified, and his eyes turned to the right.

Just to the right of this battleship, opposite to the flame cyclone, is actually a dark energy cyclone full of cold, violent, and rich destruction.

It is as large as the sea of fire, endless and endless. From a distance, it looks like a large black hole formed after the destruction of a planet. The extremely rich dark magic energy, like fog and water, slowly rotates and surges, constantly pulling everything around it, and then crushing and swallowing, leaving no trace.

Under the hands of the Ash Apostle, the devil stunned Draytu, and it took a while to recover.

His eyes kept looking back and forth, and he sighed again and again in his mouth: “Wonderful! Wonderful!”

“In this secondary space, it is as if a star and a black hole are loaded at the same time, but these two very different giant powers are in the middle of the world, forming a delicate balance. Who Can’t really destroy each other. “

As the horn demon Dr. Draytu said, these two huge cyclones are not just rotating slowly, but blending with each other and rotating each other.

They are like two spheres that are constantly rotating and squeezing each other, but because of some delicate balance of tradeoffs, they can’t beat each other and destroy each other.

At the center of the two vast powers, which constantly blended and collided, a large amount of energy turbulently flowed, just like the open black eyes, tearing the surrounding space.

The apostle Nagham saw with his own eyes that an asteroid with a diameter of more than 100 kilometers was pulled by gravity and slowly hit a void crack.

In just a moment, the asteroid with a diameter of 100 kilometers was cut into two halves, silent and silent.

That’s right, there are countless asteroids of varying sizes here, and the number is probably dozens of times larger than the outside!

These asteroids are constantly being pulled back and forth by the gravitational force formed by the two large vortices, colliding with each other, or the space fissures torn apart by the huge power, easily shattered.

It is also such an understatement of destruction, which deeply shocked the soul of the apostle Nagham and everyone present.

In the face of the most absolute destructive force in this universe, even the ash apostle Nagham, the large battleship under his control, will be easily shredded and destroyed.

“Ha ha ha ha ha!”

Looking at the dangerous surroundings and the immense energy cyclone, the apostle Nagm laughed out loud, “Yes, this is the ancient battlefield, yes!”

“It seems that these two great cyclones are the corpses of the gods left by those two powerful ones!”

On the young and handsome face of the apostle Nagham, with a color of unbearable excitement, “Gods will also die, and the power of the gods remaining after the gods die is infinite, not to mention the great gods beyond the gods!”

In response, his men were puzzled and looked up. But the more so his men were, the more his expression became more disturbed.

“After the death of the Divine Lord, the infinite divine power contained in their god’s body is still there. Even if it is broken into countless powders, the divine power will still remain in the world, and it will decompose and condense around the divine personality.”

“The two groups of vast cyclones in front of me are definitely the two divine masters of that year, and the remaining divine power is undoubtedly.”

The apostle Nagham pointed to the two cyclones, analyzing and explaining, “The left should be the powerful flame god, the right is my demon lord, Luo Sui’s demon body.”

“These two god-level powers have fallen behind, and the huge divine power left will be re-decomposed and condensed around their gods and magic cores, and the space here is closed, so in a subtle way, these two giant cyclones came into being. . “

The apostle Nagham said that his eyes were glowing and he smiled excitedly: “Oh, if this seat is correct, there are definitely two gods in the core of this place!”

“One is the powerful * of flames, the powerful deity left, and the other is the core of the demon body left by the demon Lord Luo Sui!”

As soon as these words came out, the presence of the demon, suddenly exclaimed.

That’s the Godhead of the Supreme God who surpasses the gods and reaches the level of the Lord God, and this kind of looking at the entire universe may not necessarily have one Godhead Godhead, there are actually two more here!

It is important to know that if a * dies, the will will completely dissipate, but the divine form of condensed power will remain in the world.

This is like a nuclear energy furnace full of huge energy. Whoever can inherit the divine personality can inherit this nuclear energy furnace with huge energy.

When the nuclear furnace is restarted, it is the day when a new * is born!

At present, there are two more god-level gods that are much stronger than ordinary gods, and as long as they are found and absorbed by the ashes apostle Nagum, what will this new * Nagm be strong? To the point, every demon under the scene could not imagine.

“Congratulations, Your Majesty, Your Majesty, Hexi!”

The horned devil drove Dereto in his heart and knelt down to the ground quickly. He begged the ashes apostle Nagmba, “It ’s a real help from your majesty. When your majesty finds and absorbs these two treasures of the world, your majesty will surely stand in the world, nobody Enemy! “

“Oh, all future cosmic planes will belong to my great Nagham!”

Ash Apostle was equally excited, looked at both sides, and then ordered, “The engine starts, let’s first ...”

however.

He hadn’t finished his words yet, a violent collision suddenly came from the side of the battleship.

“Boom!”

“Oh!”

The sound of collision, and the roaring noise of the ear, began to roar and spread in the ship’s cabin, and the entire hull began to shake strongly.

“Cut the picture to the home screen.”

At the command of Nagham, the main screen of the command module immediately retransmitted the pictures that occurred below and to the side of the battleship.

I saw that under the side of the battleship, a fire elemental monster resembling a dragon seemed to be crazy, and it hit the energy shield of the battleship desperately.

It continued to bite and collide until it detonated itself, crushing its bones, and then stopped.

“What is this?”

“Elemental life?”

“Is it the elemental life generated naturally in it?”

Seeing this scene of the ashes of the apostles, they were all suspicious.

It stands to reason that in a vast vortex of flames full of flame elements, like a star, it is normal to have some fire elemental life in the universe.

It’s just that the fire element monster that just crashed to death is full of chaos and violent eyes. It doesn’t even have the basic reason as a life. It seems that the reason why they will be born is only one purpose, that is, kill!

“No, no!”

Suddenly, the Claw Demon exclaimed Draytu, “Your Majesty Nagham, all of them are fire monsters!”

The Apostle Nagham turned his eyes, and a pair of sharp eyes could not help but shrink slightly.

Just in the direction where the fire elemental monster just flew, densely packed, countless, all kinds of fire elemental monsters, all like crazy, roaring all the way, rushing towards the battleship where they are, crazy .

For the first time, the Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi, who has always been proud of her heart and never put anything in her eyes, showed a panic look, which attracted Wang Yan's attention.

"Why? Do you know the origin of this warship?" Wang Yan turned around and asked, with a little more vigilance in his heart.

"Yes, the concubine recognized the mark."

At this time, Bliss Magic Ji Trilis, a pair of soft and watery eyes, is full of scruples and fears, "If the concubine is not wrong, the owner of the battleship should be the red man next to the demon Lord Luo Sui Nagas, the apostle of the ashes! "

"Demon Lord Luo Sui? Is he a deity-level apostle beside him?"

When he heard the word Lord Luo Sui, Wang Yan could not help but sink a little. He cursed that it had nothing to do with the old demon who could not be killed by the Fire God Zhurong.

After the rebirth, the demon Lord Luo Sui, how terrible is it? Wang Yan could not imagine.

At least in his eyes, the extraordinarily powerful extraterrestrial demon deity, Ackerman who swallowed the stars, if placed in front of the demon Lord Luo Sui, I am afraid he would behave like a grandson.

Moreover, according to the bliss magic Ji Cui Lisi, the intelligence information previously given to Wang Yan, almost all the magic skills of the extra-terrestrial demon practice come from the demon master Luo Sui.

It can be said that the reason why the extraterrestrial demon can be as strong as it is today is entirely due to the merits of the Lord of the Devil Luo Su.

The power of the Demon Lord is unparalleled.

Now the owner of the battleship is actually the red man next to the demon Lord Luo Sui, a newly-increased demon god.

Obviously, it can make the Bliss Demon Ji Trilis so fearful, and can also become a red man next to the devil Lord Luo Sui. This new deity, the ash apostle Nagum, is definitely not to be underestimated.

"Yes, Lord."

Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi, anxiously said, "Nashm, the apostle of ashes, but among our pure-blooded demon, a top genius that is rare in a million years, it has been deeply valued by the deity Lord Luo Sui from the moment of birth. Now, in his more than 30,000 years, he has developed his own divine personality and has become a new god. Now he is even the youngest apostle of the * level under the devil Lord Luo Sui. "

“He is very popular in our homeland, and even once was rumored, his future achievements will surely surpass the concubine’s former governor, the star apostle Ackerman! Even, he is expected to become the next devil.”

Mentioning the gods, Wang Yan couldn’t help but look a little more dignified. He glanced at Berika next to him, and they both felt a little bit deep.

Regardless of the age and talents of that ash apostle Nagham, whether he is under the weight of the devil Lord Luo Sui said nothing, just a little, so that the two of them can not be ignored.

To know that this ash apostle Nagham, but a god!

The powerful of the gods, each of the three people present had seen it with their own eyes. That vast expanse, unparalleled divinity, has been deeply imprinted in the hearts of each of them.

Take Wang Yan personally, he is a leader among a group of young talents, but if compared with a god, I am afraid that seven or eight of them are not opponents of a god.

Moreover, the asteroid belt is so close to the earth right now. If the god-level apostle Nagum discovers the position of the earth, then based on the present defensive capabilities of the earth, isn’t it all over?

In addition to that magnificent battleship, let alone Wang Yan and Berika, anyone who has n’t tried it can foresee that the earth at this moment is simply unable to resist.

“Lord, please listen to the concubine.”

Bliss Maggie Trey looked at the distant battleship from afar, with a somewhat eager analysis of the tone, “Although I don’t know why the battleship of the Apostle Nagham appeared here, but since his battleship is coming, it is very likely Nagham himself has already come. And his purpose is likely to be the same as that of the Lord, that is, to the ancient battlefield. “

“So, Lord, let’s run away, we can’t compete with them!”

Bliss Magic Ji opened a pair of water spirit eyes, looked at Wang Yan, and suggested, “We are still within time, and as far as I know, the Ash Apostle Nagum is a flame god, he can devour all kinds of Flame, transforming it into his own energy. Speaking of it, he seems to be able to restrain the power of the Lord, which is bad for you! “

A flame is a demon god, and is still a  who can devour the flame.

In contrast, Wang Yan not only lost a great level of strength, but also encountered a  who could suppress him for the first time.

In addition, the other side also has a battleship and an ominous army.

Once this kind of world-wide difference is discovered, I am afraid that it will be as feared as the Bliss Magic Ji. In the end, there will be no way to escape, only a dead end.

“Lao Wang, I’m afraid it’s not easy to do next ... Or, we ...”

Belika, who had always been confident and confident, finally showed a difficult look on her face. She looked at Wang Yan, and she stopped talking.

After all, she can interfere with the trajectory of destiny to a certain extent, but she cannot change this absolute gap.

It was just finally here that the roots she and Wang Yan were searching for were in the subspace in front of her. If they left like this, she was somewhat reluctant.

Besides, she is the earth behind her. Even if she escapes now, where can she finally escape?

Wang Yan understands the meaning of Belika, in fact he understands all the dangers hidden in it.

He now wants no soldiers, no helpers, no helpers, across so many planes, he just uses the demon order to barely summon Satan's big devil-like avatar, which is useless.

Nowadays, escape is perhaps the most sensible way.

But you can escape the monk, not the temple. The earth is behind them. Once discovered by the * Demon Nagum, the defense circle of the earth and the power of his Wang Yan cannot withstand the attack of a * and this giant ship.

And looking at the posture in front of him, Nagham the Ash Apostle may well have come to a treasure that cannot be ignored even by gods.

If the ashen apostle Nagham gets this treasure, it is likely to become even more unmanageable.

At the thought of this, Wang Yan couldn't help but be ruthless, this risk must be taken.

"Cui Lisi, like this level of warship, usually how many troops? And I would like to confirm, did you say that the apostle Nagham, really came."

If you can understand how much combat power the opponent has, especially if you have confirmed that the Apostle Nagham has really arrived here, it is very important for how to deal with this crisis.

"Our Sky Devil warships are powerful, but there are not many Sky Demon soldiers. We usually use other races as cannon fodder to fight for us."

The Bliss Magic Ji Trilis thought a little, and replied, "The concubine was in the Devil's homeland, and he never heard of the Ash Apostle Nagum, going out for a mission. So ... it is likely that he came here privately.

"If you come in secret, you will definitely not carry a lot of troops, so as not to be eye-catching. So the concubine believes that the actual strength of this battleship may not exceed 2,000."

But just after the Bliss Maggie finished speaking, she realized something was wrong and hurriedly stopped, "Lord, you, you shouldn't ..."

"No, no, I won't do anything, but I just want to confirm how many people are there in that battleship, and whether the apostle Nagham is there."

Wang Yan waved his hand and did not intend to explain anything. Instead, he took off his wrist, the sub-artifact bracer with sub-space, and put it on the wrist of Bliss Mo Ji, and then the corner of his mouth raised. please.”

Seeing this, Cui Lisi suddenly fell: “Lord, Lord, you, shouldn’t you ...”

...

The deep and immense universe is quiet and silent, with only an occasional fragment of an asteroid flying far away, striking the outer shield of the battleship, sending out a long trembling sound, which is slowly passed through the ship.

“Brother, there are really two ancient powers there, what remains of the divine personality?”

On the side of the battleship, on the edge of the third exit of the carrier aircraft, two celestial warriors were on strict guard, but now they were quiet all around, they were idle and idle, so they chatted and talked to each other.

“That’s still wrong? Didn’t you just see it? The environment and monsters inside, hiss ... it’s terrible.”

The Demon Warrior on the left repeatedly sighed that they had just entered the terrible ancient battlefield with the battleship. They spent a total of more than ten minutes before and after, but the violent attack that followed was like a violent storm. The Demon Warriors are all afraid.

If he is not in this battleship, I am afraid that under the crazy attack of the fire element monsters, he can’t hold ten breaths.

“Yes, too. I don’t want to go in anyway.”

The Heavenly Demon Warrior on the right said with a lingering fear, “If there were no relics of ancient mighty power, how could there be two such powerful forces fighting today?”

“Anyway, our Majesty Nagham is really wise. He can take the lead and find the ruins of this ancient battlefield.”

“That is, if you wait for Your Majesty Nagham, find a powerful relic, and then fully absorb it ... Gee, what kind of state will your Majesty reach, I can’t imagine it.”

“Ah, yes. It would be nice if Lao Tzu could have such an opportunity, as long as I touched the relics of the ancient mighty power, maybe I could be caught with a little insight, then Lao Tzu will no longer be a general Ordinary celestial warrior, but a demigod warrior from above! “

“Pouting, just because of your grandson, you also want to run into the relics of ancient mighty powers? Haha, dream! Is that something you can touch?”

“How can I not touch? You are the grandson ...”

Two Heavenly Demon Warriors guarding the entrance and exit, you talk to me one by one, casually chatting, relaxed expression.

In their view, the plane of the solar system is extremely safe, even the wandering galaxy.

The only living planet is the distant earth.

However, I heard that the intelligent creatures living there are very weak. A legendary Celestial Warrior as elite as they are is enough to be king in the earth world. What's more, they also have a battleship and an elite warrior, so they don't worry about anyone at this time who can threaten them.

And the life star of the earth is already within the scope of their plan.

Waiting for their master, the Ash Apostle Nagham successfully obtained two powerful relics, it is estimated that turning around will save the earth in the bag.

Of course, their group of pro-guards will inevitably have a lot of benefits on the earth, which is what they expect.

however.

Just when the two of them were chatting relaxedly and comfortably, a sly smirk suddenly came from the outside of the exit.

"Cough, the relics of the ancient power? It's really interesting."

As the sound came, there was a little subtle energy fluctuation.

Soon a circle of water ripples like space ripples began to spread in front of the two Demon Warriors.

"who?!"

"Who, who's there ?!"

As the two Heavenly Demon Warriors shouted, dozens of fully armed Heavenly Demon Warriors inside the battleship immediately rushed over.

At this moment, the fluctuation of space gradually expanded, and the dark energy magic mist emerged out of thin air. In the magic mist, a very charming Tianmo woman took a light step and stepped out of the magic mist.

I have to say that this demon woman is so beautiful, even in the pure-blooded demon like a beautiful woman, she is a peerless peculiar thing.

Her lilac skin, soft and delicate, her long hair vertical to the waist, a pair of small angles on the forehead, under the lights in the warship cabin, shining like a beautiful obsidian luster.

Her facial features are exquisite and perfect, her eyebrows are slender and picturesque, her eyes are warm and watery, and her slightly raised corners of the mouth give her an extraordinarily elegant and dignified temperament that does not eat fireworks.

At this time, she had replaced the casual T-shirt from the earth, and put on the special armor of the extraterrestrial demon female general again.

This kind of armor is soft and close-fitting, like gelatin, which just happens to make her almost perfect and graceful figure, and the outline of the bumps is very attractive.

The dozens of Demon Warriors at the scene all looked a bit dull.

Compared with this beautiful female demon, the stars in the distant universe have become a little dull. Even the ship's cabin filled with cold air seemed to be hot and sweet.

Obviously, the Heavenly Demon girl who suddenly came to the entrance of the battleship at this time is the bliss demon Ji Cui Lisi who now returns to Wang Yan.

Cui Lisi glanced at the reactions of the dozens of Demon Warriors in front of her, and at the moment the warm and beautiful eyes suddenly glared, and the cold spirit of a powerful semi-god-level peak suddenly erupted.

“Huh, you group of things with no eyes, dare to block this Mo Ji? Call your sir!”

The extraterrestrial demon is a very powerful innate race. Although these dozens of demon warriors are legendary elites, once a team battle occurs, even if it is a demigod-level peak demon king, they can be surrounded by them alive.

But now the dozens of Demon Warriors smelt at the Bliss Mo Ji and suddenly lost their previous bravery. All of them bowed their heads, humility and humility.

Respect for the strong is the most basic rule of existence in the universe. The Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi, showing the strong breath at the moment, is the pure blood innate true demon, and is still a royal spirit that is strong enough to reach the peak of the demigod level.

This made the Heavenly Demon Warriors with very strict hierarchical concepts immediately respect and respect.

In addition, it has reached the peak of the demigod level, and can still have such a charming beauty, and noble temperament pure blood Tianmu woman, the number of the entire Tianmu native is very rare.

One of them is very in line with the woman in front of her.

That is the demon god, the general who swallowed the apostle Ackerman, the bliss devil Ji Cui Lisi!

“It turned out that Miss Cui Lisi was here, and she was far away, and forgive and guilty. Under the messenger Aiden, she was just offended. Please forgive me.”

On the left side of the battleship, inside the brightly illuminated third entrance and exit, a majestic male voice came from behind everyone.

Soon the crowd separated, and a rather burly middle-aged man of heavenly demon walked over with great strides.

This middle-aged man of heavenly demon, dressed in red and white armor of heavenly demon, is magnificent. His face was cold and rugged, his forehead was sturdy and powerful, and a pair of sharp eyes showed a forceful murder.

The most important thing is that the momentum of his big demon, who is strong enough to reach the peak of the demigod level, is invisible, making the air around him seem to become thin.

He was Nagham, the apostle of ashes, and Aiden, the messenger of melting chains under his command.

It is also a demigod of the fire department, and his strength as strong as the demigod peak, the level of the big demon king, makes him deeply valued by the ash apostle Nagum. Under Nagm's power in recent years, his power and rank have become more and more like the sky.

This time, because of Nagham's trust, he became a left-behind general, with two demigod-level magic generals, to guard this magnificent battleship.

Right now he heard the commotion and received reports from his subordinates. This was the first time he quickly rushed over with two lieutenants.

Guarding the battleship is a big task, he dare not have any slack.

At this moment, he was striding through the crowd and walking in front of the Bliss Demon Ji Trilis, his attitude seemed very polite.

Although he and the Bliss Maggie are also demigod-level peak demon kings, in the heavenly demons, the star-swapping apostle Ackerman and the Bliss Maggie Jiri Reese are, after all, famous old powerhouses, the Ash Apostle Gom belongs to the new gods, regardless of the overall strength, or the strength accumulated for a long time, it should be next level.

Therefore, in the strict hierarchical Demon Society, the ashes apostle Nagum and his subordinates are all juniors. When facing the star-swapping apostle Ackerman and the bliss devil Ji Trilith, his attitude will be polite.

"A man who knew Ben Moji finally arrived."

Bliss Maggie Treyliis glanced at her, and stepped into the battleship cabin.

This is a Novotel's shipboard hangar, with beautifully shaped shipboard aircraft docked on both sides and neatly arranged ammunition accessories.

There are a total of two hangars like this. The battleship's early warning, escort, and transport aircraft are parked in these two hangars. The access and repair of various types of carrier-based aircraft usually take place here.

Right now, the location of Bliss Maggie is at the left hangar, the third entrance.

"Alton, the melting chain messenger? The concubine has heard of you. You are a close friend of His Majesty Nagham. He has been following the ninth star of Majesty Nagham for more than 1,500 years. Neighbors, did the concubine say anything wrong? "

The bliss magic Ji Cui Lisi once again softened her attitude, she looked at the melting chain messenger Ayton, and the two demi-level magic generals behind him, slowly spoke.

She followed Ackerman, the apostle who swallowed the stars, and has been in the universe for a long time, and she is also a well-known character in the land of Devil. Therefore, I know the power and relationship of the celestial ambassadors in the local area very well.

Attendant, the melting chain messenger, and the many demon around her, did indeed respect her a lot. However, Aiden, the melt-link messenger, still asked routinely, “It’s just that this place is too far away from our homeland, and I don’t know how Miss Cui Lisi appears here?”

This sentence also made the atmosphere on the scene a bit colder.

Although the identity of the Bliss Maggie Trilithe has been confirmed, there are many god-level apostles inside the Celestial Demon outside the realm. Most of them have a cooperative or competitive relationship with each other. Now that the Bliss Maggie suddenly appears, who knows what her purpose is?

“Oh, when it comes to this matter, the concubine is resentful!”

Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi’s eyes are slightly cold, and the eyebrows are full of grudges, “Not long ago, the concubine was accompanied by His Majesty Ackerman and attacked the dark demon world of the world of hell. Demon God’s son Mo Yan defeated and fled all the way. “

“Unfortunately, through a door of space, I slipped into the world of the earth, and then stole a spaceship and flew all the way here. Well, the broken spaceship that the concubine dropped was still on the asteroid, It ’s useless to anchor. But when I saw you, the concubine flew over by herself. “

Speaking of which, the Bliss Devil Ji Meiyu is full of melancholy, and it looks like a girl who has eaten up the bitterness, causing pity.

Aiden, the melting chain messenger, and the many demon warriors around him, seeing this scene in their eyes, his heart can not help but a wave of rippling.

Even if the extraterrestrial demon is a near-perfect innate race, there are countless handsome men and beautiful women, but it still can’t withstand the charming and seductive nature of the blissful magic Ji.

However, Aiden, the melting chain messenger, is a semi-godly peak powerhouse. Despite the imposing appearance of Ji Le Chu, who is in front of him, making his heart rippling, he still made some relevant confirmations.

Soon, his deputy will be contacted through the inner communication of the Heavenly Demon, and learned that the apostle Ackerman who swallowed the star a few days ago and attacked the Dark Demon Realm of Hell.

Ackerman’s three major battles will participate in the ground war, one death and one fall, of which the bliss magic Ji Trilis is missing so far.

In addition, Aiden's lieutenant, using the battleship's detection equipment, did find a small spaceship in the distance, anchored above an asteroid.

After confirming everything, Aiden, the melt-link messenger, finally believed that the Bliss Maggie's words were true, and quickly stepped forward with a little apology to please: "Miss Cui Lisi, you also understand that we are now in the enemy-occupied area, which is just a routine matter. , Just routine. "

"Huh! It's nice to say, you just think that Mo Ji will pass through the enemy! Do you think Ben Mo Ji, as a pure-blooded demon, will bow down to those despicable inferior races?"

Bliss Mo Ji sneered, and arrogantly skimmed his face.

In fact, she has rolled countless eyes at herself. The heart said that she not only bowed down to a human, but also became his favorite slave girl. Can she tell such a thing?

"Oh, Miss Cui Lisi, misunderstanding, all misunderstanding!"

Looking at the beautiful appearance of the Bliss Magic Ji, Aiden, the melt-link messenger, was excited again, and he quickly smiled all over the face, graciously courting, "Miss Cui Lisi, look at your route, you would not want to fly to the nearest one Space node? But with the power of your little spaceship, I am afraid it will take hundreds of years to fly? "

"Huh, concubine does not need to leave the stolen spaceship to leave, is it to stay in the country like the earth, waiting for death in vain?" Bliss Mo Ji Ji Lisi glanced coldly, a voluptuous gesture, can make men's minds all Go for it.

"Oh, yes, is this a small place on the earth, is it the place where Miss Trilis lives? Now that you have met us, you don't have to worry anymore in the future."

Meltchain messenger Ayton said here, patting his chest to ensure, "Next, as long as His Majesty Nagham comes back, we will take you to annex the earth world! After that, you only need to open the plane channel connecting the abyss world. In less than three to five years, you can return to His Majesty Ackerman. Or you can stay and join us to follow the future of His Majesty Nagham! "

"Humph, it sounds good."

Bliss Mo Ji Jiao softly hummed, showing her charm, "Not only the earth, but the  world, Ben Mo Ji will destroy them all by hand!"

"Oh, what about your Majesty Nagham? Your Majesty Nagham doesn't seem to be here?"

Speaking of which, Bliss Mo Ji's words suddenly changed, and his attitude was also a little more courteous. "Since the concubine is here, he will naturally go to see His Majesty. After all, for a long time, the concubine will disturb you and His Majesty."

"Don't disturb, don't disturb, Miss Cui Lisi, you can come to our battleship, it is really an honor for me to wait."

Aiden, the melt-link messenger, smiled, and the whole person leaned beside the Bliss Maggie. "It's just that our majesty is not currently in the ship. I'm afraid we should let Miss Trelis wait a little longer."

Bliss Mo Ji is one of the best peerless beauties among the pure-blooded demon. Not only is she of pure blood, she is of noble origin, she is also unique. I heard that she has some opportunities to become a god.

If you have the opportunity to taste her taste, it is definitely a great thing in life. Although this idea is somewhat dangerous, he is willing to risk it.

“Oh?”

The Bliss Demon Ji Jiao frowned, “Listen to you, Nagm went down inside that?”

“There is the legend, the ancient battlefield where the demon Lord Luo Sui and the flame * had a decisive battle?”

Bliss Maggie pointed to the front, and the space door opened by the four-phase matrix seemed curious.

The messenger of the chain, Nagm, said nothing, but looking at the look of the ecstasy of Mo Ji Ji, he simply smiled, and talked about it deliberately.

Therefore, under the clever follow-up and temptation of Mokki, the messenger of the chain, Nagm, began to regard all the relevant information about the mysterious space in front of him as a chat, and he had a great conversation with Mokki.

In this way, the two walked side by side from left to right, talking all the way to the private residence of the smelting messenger Nagham.

This is a large and comfortable room, but the owner of this room may not be hygienic. Although the room is beautiful, it is full of a sour smell.

“Miss Trelis ... hehe, are we ...”

After the meltlink messenger Ayton walked into his room, he finally showed his vulgar and urgent side, reached out and wanted to hug the waist of the Bliss Maggie.

According to his previous experience, a woman is willing to return to his room with you, then the next action will naturally be logical.

“Wait, it’s really anxious.”

Bliss Moki Cui Lisi smiled and evaded, the look of all kinds of amorous feelings, the melting chain messenger Ayton looked drunk, and his heart became more itchy and unbearable.

“Listening to you, it is very dangerous. His Majesty Nagham really only had three hundred troops, so he can go deep into that secret space?”

Bliss Maggie Trilith, pretending to be curious, said in a humorous way, “And you, such a giant ship, only need five hundred soldiers and two hundred operators to be fully controlled? According to the concubine, like us Ackerman Your Majesty 's flagship requires at least thousands of people to complete the control and battle. “

“Haha, Miss Cui Lisi, you don't know, our majesty is young and brave, and our future achievements will not be worse than that of His Majesty Arman. As for whether we can conquer that ancient power and the secret space left over by it? “

Attendant, the meltlink messenger, smiled, and then boasted a little, “And you miss Miss Trilis, you know, our battleship belongs to the most outstanding new type of ocean-going ship of the Devil. Its strength is more than that.”

After talking about the melting chain messenger Ayton, he once again approached the Bliss Mo Ji with a chuckle.

But this time, Bliss Mo Ji finally stopped avoiding it, but instead raised her lips slightly, showing a cunning smile, “Cough, now, the concubine is at ease.”

“Relax? What reassurance?”

Aiden, the melt-link messenger, froze for a moment, and then laughed again, “Relax, Your Majesty Nagham went to the treasure hunt in person, and it is sure to be foolproof. No one here can disturb me, hey, Miss Mo Ji, I'm looking forward to you Admiration is ... “

“Wait! Wait, this, this is ...”

The melt chain messenger Ayton hadn't finished speaking, but was shocked by the scene before him.

It was a blooming space channel, and the surging energy wave was rapidly rotating into a vortex in front of the halo wrist lifted by Bliss Maggie.

In the center of this vortex, a crimson skin with a mighty horn, and a magnificent body of the purgatory, is slowly leaping out.

The blazing flames began to spread throughout the room.

The purgatory demon leaped out of the vortex channel, the wings expanded, and his eyes were like burning flames, staring coldly at the smelting messenger Ayton in front.

That look was like a dragon standing at the top of the food chain, looking at his prey.

This kind of cold sense of crisis made the melt chain messenger Ayton cool into his heart.

“Infernal Demon Race? What a strong momentum! You, who are you?”

Aiden, the melt-link messenger, was suddenly shocked and stunned, “Cui Lisi, you dare to collude with foreign enemies, so bold!”

“Giggle, colluding with foreign enemies? The word is too much.”

Bliss Mo Ji Cui Lisi smiled like a weaver, smiled disapprovingly, "This is the master of the concubine, His Royal Highness, the son of the demon god, and the wise surrendered, he quickly bowed his head and surrendered. . "

At this time, from the secondary space carried by the secondary artifact, the purgatory demon that flew out was the demon son of the demon * Mo Yan who was Wang Yan's incarnation.

The reason why I chose to use the incarnation of the Son of Demon God instead of Wang Yan's appearance is precisely to avoid the fish from the net and lead the disaster to the earth.

After all, there are still many enemies on this battleship.

"Son of the Devil God? You, you are the son of the Devil God who is in the world of hell, is against our Heavenly Devil, and defeats the Bliss Maggie!"

The meltlink messenger Ayton suddenly remembered that the information he had received previously showed that the person who defeated the Bliss Magi in the * world was this magic flame. It is said that this kid was still a dear god's son!

Their Celestial Devil family really thinks highly of themselves. Once it involves the gods and even the children of the gods, this opponent is no small matter. What's more, two to one right now, the situation is very unfavorable to him.

At this point of thought, the old hot chain messenger said nothing, turned around and fled outward.

...

"Boom!"

With a muffled sound, Aiden, the melting chain messenger who hurriedly fled, ran into a layer of near-transparent barrier.

The invisible barriers to the barriers, the ripples and tremors issued, just like his inner panic at the moment, stretched endlessly.

"What is this enchantment? When did it appear around the messenger?"

The Molten Chain messenger stared at the door in front but only a few meters away, but he couldn't reach it all the time, which made him terrified.

Since this enchantment appears, does it not mean that he is about to call Tian Tian should not be called, the ground is not spirited, and live here is trapped to death?

"Alton, the melting chain messenger, since you are stupid looking for death, then the Divine Son will fulfill you."

Wang Yan slowly raised the corner of his mouth, and the violent violent gas from the purgatory demon clan suddenly rushed out. At this time, the enchantment surrounding the surrounding is precisely the second artifact from him.

Bajijing is almost not offensive, but the enchantment unfolded by it is invisible, without leaving a little fluctuation, it is simply a must-have for murder.

“Haha, a joke! Just because of your inferior son, you want to leave the messenger?”

Molten Chain messenger Ayton sneered, and the next moment a chain of lava appeared in his hand.

This high-temperature melting chain is his signature weapon, and also his outstanding ability.

At this time, with a weapon in his hand, his enthusiasm also increased a lot, and now he attacked the Bajijing enchantment that was in front of him, attempting to smash the enchantment barrier and escaped.

However, he hasn't attacked this trick yet, and a beautiful lilac shadow has killed him.

“Giggle, the Lord wants your little life, then you have to keep your life!”

Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi held the soul-splitting claws, her extremely tenacious long hair quickly soared, and her body style was quickly ghostly, unable to capture.

For her, a pure-blooded demon in the universe, the death of a life is really a trivial matter in this universe. Even if they are pure-blooded demon, compared with the real universe reincarnation, it is nothing but a drop in the ocean.

“clang!”

The molten chain that was thrown out was blocked by the claws of Bliss Maggie, and the two started a fierce battle.

Aiden, the melt-link messenger, was riveting and roaring.

He is also a demigod-level big demon king-level strongman. If he is fighting alone, it will be difficult for him to surrender in a short time, but do n't forget that there is a more powerful flame son Wang Yan.

As the magic flame of Wang Yan's incarnation joined the battle, the meltlink messenger Ayton finally began to understand, how can the glow of fireflies compete with the sun?

His high temperature and ability to control lava are not worth mentioning in front of the pure fire of Wang Yang to the pure sun. The two are completely different in level, even the molten chain he is proud of. , All in front of Wang Yan's arrogant pheasant warhammer, was broken by a blow.

With the mumble of “Bang”, Wang Yan's warhammer shattered the chest of the meltlink messenger together with the armor.

The soul of the melting chain messenger who wants to escape is also split, absorbed by the split soul claw in the hands of Bliss Maggie in the first time.

“Lord, the mission of the concubine is completed.”

Solve the melt chain messenger Ayton, the bliss magic Ji Jiao drops down in front of Wang Yan, and at the same time removes the secondary artifact with the sub-god kingdom on his wrist, and respectfully returns it to Wang Yan, “There are only five in this battleship There are only one hundred soldiers and two hundred operators, and there are only two demigod-level demons left. With our current combat power, we can completely eat it. “

“This is the most advanced battleship from the Devil’s homeland. It can successfully capture this battleship, which is worth hundreds of thousands of troops!”

Bliss Devil Ji Meiyao is full of secret excitement, her face is full of expectation of praise. When the two were talking, she picked up and down the claws of the soul, and dug out the two eyes of the messenger.

“Lord, this is the key to unlock all the bans on this battleship. If we don’t want to let go of an enemy, we must occupy the bridge and completely cut off all entrances and exits of this battleship.”

Nowadays, Bliss Maggie is also out of the question. In her opinion, as long as you can live well, who has you lived with? What’s more, Wang Yan also assured her that as long as the Heavenly Demon family is willing to surrender, he will not kill indiscriminately, so she can also accept Mo Jiji. Of course, what can I do if I do n’t accept it? Her soul and body already belong to the people in front of her.

The defeat of the king is also an eternal law of survival among the extraterrestrial demons.

“You did a very good job, this God Son didn’t trust you in vain ...”

Wang Yan looked at Bliss Mo Ji as a big demon, his eyes full of strong confidence, “Now, what are we waiting for?”

After transforming into a purgatory demon, affected by hormones and other factors, Wang Yan’s character will gradually approach a real purgatory demon.

Bliss Mo Ji Qiao’s face is reddish, and Wang Yan’s appreciation will produce joy from the soul. This is the horror of the parasitic mother insect, which secretes a strange substance that makes her excited or painful.

And all this comes from helping the master to do things, whether the master is satisfied.

Over time, people who are parasitized by the mother parasite of the soul will often trust more and more and rely on the master.

“Yes, Lord! The concubine takes you to the bridge!”

Led by the Bliss Maggie, she and Wang Yan got acquainted all the way and broke into the bridge command module.

Because there were not many soldiers inside the battleship, the two of them encountered no obstruction along the way.

Therefore, when they broke into the bridge's command room, and instantly opened the eighth mirror enchantment, the moment the entire command cabin was sealed off, the entire battleship was basically completely under Wang Yan's control.

Soon, two beautiful female voices sounded in the bridge command room.

"Antalya, see Your Highness!"

"Mei Er meets the Lord!"

A heroic female angel with a breath of holiness and a high-level succubus with a hot figure and full of charm is kneeling in front of Wang Yan.

These two beautiful women with their own characteristics are Wang Yan's two powerful assistants, the archangel Antalya, and the succubus favorite Ji Meier.

Since Wang Yan once again gained huge wealth in the battle of the gods, he has also evolved the charmer into a demigod level through bloodline evolution. As a result, Ji Meier, the succubus pet, is already an extremely rare succubus queen, and her comprehensive strength is no less than that of Antalya.

The two of them usually lived in the secondary  kingdom worn by Wang Yan's wrist, and now they are leading their men to fly out of the space tunnel of the secondary  kingdom one after another.

Of course, this sub-godland space comes from the Bliss Magic Ji, and Wang Yan has changed it slightly to become his own property.

At this time, Wang Yan was like the new owner of this warship, standing proudly in the command room.

The entire command room has been completely blocked by the enchantment unfolded by Ba Jinjing. The two semi-god-level generals all died tragically. It can be said that this warship has no real senior general except Wang Yan.

In addition, there were more than a dozen operators manipulating the spacecraft on the scene, which had also been captured by Wang Yan.

The situation is now decided, so Wang Yan opens the secondary artifact on his wrist, and the space tunnel opens accordingly. Antalya and Meier leap out first. The rest of the angels and succubus followed.

It didn't take long for two hundred legendary war angels and more than three hundred legendary succubi to kneel down beside Wang Yan.

The war angels are beautiful and tall, wearing silver armor, their skin is delicate and flawless, and their white wings are full of holy light.

They are private soldiers secretly arranged for Wang Yan by God Bright, and they are also an important factor for future contact with God Bright. Therefore, Wang Yan has taken them as personal guards and has always been with him.

On the other side, those succubi are slim and pale, with tight skin and tight leather armor, which makes their plump and attractive figure outline the unevenness, which is wonderful. Even the pair of magic wings behind them all looked hot and moving.

These top-notch succubi are selected and tuned by Meier personally, and each one is one of the best in the succubus. Regardless of quality and talent, as well as specially trained combat capabilities, they are the most top-notch succubus. And like those war angels, they are all directly under the soul contract, and they are loyal to Wang Yan.

Under the leadership of Meier, they belong to Wang Yan's personal maid, who is mainly responsible for Wang Yan's daily life and related auxiliary work. Therefore, they also live in the secondary * kingdom space on Wang Yan's wrist.

The archangels Antalya and Meier are now leading two hundred war angels and more than three hundred succubi, kneeling in front of Wang Yan, waiting for their master's instructions.

"Cui Lisi, lead them to clear the entire ship. Any obstruction and resistance will be executed on the spot."

Wang Yan looked at the female soldiers, and then gave orders to the Bliss Maggie.

At present, these more than 500 female soldiers are the only troops Wang Yan currently has. However, under the leadership of the organizations of Bliss Maggie, Antalya, and Meier, it is not a problem to clear all the ships without a semi-god general.

"Lord, leave it to the concubine."

Aside, Bliss Maggie got up and answered, and turned to Antalya and Meier.

After the Bliss Magic Ji submitted to Wang Yan, he naturally had contact with Wang Yan's cronies and was familiar with each other.

Although Antalya, Meier, and Bliss Maggie all looked at each other unpleasantly, but the three women serving one master, under the premise of serving Wang Yan wholeheartedly, can naturally abandon the gap between races cooperation.

"Please rest assured, Your Highness / Lord, Antalya / Meier, guarantee to complete the mission!"

Antalya and Meier said the same, the three generals quickly led their men to the command room and quickly killed.

At the same time, under the pressure of Wang Yan, the warship operators began to be forced to serve Wang Yan. In the blink of an eye, the entire battleship was powered off, communications were closed, and under the armor, every entrance and exit, every window, and exhaust vents of the entire hull were all closed.

This ocean-going warship capable of crossing the universe has almost become an iron tank floating in the universe space almost instantaneously, even a trace of airflow will not be leaked out.

"Pharaoh, you're such a trick."

When Wang Yan's men began to invade the battleship from the inside, a beautiful woman wearing a white sacrificial robe, tall, and full of mystery was walking out of the channel of the Second Kingdom.

It was the Mayan survivor, the high priest Belika, who had temporarily entered the kingdom of the second god.

She is not keen on fighting, and now she is carrying her hands on her back and watching the development of the situation with Wang Yan through the monitor screen.

"Pharaoh, the priest has to say you, this time you really have to send it! Gee, voila, this is the most foreseeable ocean-going warship of the extraterrestrial demon, and it is also a god's car. Device, how much is it worth? "

Belika looked at the command room full of ultra-modern atmosphere, while standing beside Wang Yan, and repeatedly sighed, "This kind of big weapon, even if it collects all the aviation power of our planet, I am afraid that it cannot be controlled from the outside. Did it pry away? I didn't expect it to fall into your hands so easily now. "

"It's terrible, it's terrible ..." Berika was glaring at the side, her eyes greedy. She wanted to buy a stock, even if it was a small one, would she send it?

But in this campaign, she fought a soy sauce and entered and exited the country from the second god, and the battle was basically over.

She didn't make any effort, so she was embarrassed to speak to Wang Yan.

And as she said, if you are fighting head-to-head, not to mention the aviation power of the earth, the forces of the three devil gods of hell, I am afraid that you cannot pry apart the hard shell of this battleship.

Unless it is sunk, it is impossible to capture this big killer.

But the embankment of thousands of miles collapsed in the ant den, and no matter how strong the defense was, the inside was always a weak point. As long as a small point can be broken inside, then this defense can be broken without attack.

This is also the main reason why Wang Yan used the identity of Trilith's pure-blooded demon and the bracers of sub-artifacts that housed the sub-god kingdom to venture into this warship.

If the enemies in this battleship are too powerful and the number is too large, then they can just wait for the opportunity to slip out. If the enemy is weak and the number is not large, then they can just act on the plane and swallow the battleship in one go.

"Belica, anyway, you are idle and idle. It is better to bless the Antalya with great prophecy. As long as none of those Heavenly Demon soldiers can run, I will count on you for the benefits of this battleship. Copies. "

Wang Yan was sitting at the moment, on the main seat of the ashes apostle Nagham, and proposed to Belika.

The warship was swallowed by him at once, and the wealth he could hold was really rich enough to support it. It seems reasonable to him to divide his partner.

The most important thing is that every Demon Soldier is a great threat. The Demon Soldiers on this warship are all middle elites. They must be captured or beheaded, and no one can let go.

“Really, really? Hee hee, Pharaoh, won’t you blame me? Do you really want to share this priest? The things in this warship are not cheap!”

The high priest, Berika, was beautiful and rubbed her hands in excitement.

After getting an affirmative answer, I immediately took a breast pledge to ensure that such a small matter was wrapped in her, and it was safe and sound.

Soon, Belika’s auxiliary predictions came into play.

With the cooperation of Bliss Maggie, Antalya and Meier, the leaders of these three powerful generals, the battle began to become smoother.

It didn’t take long for the entire battleship to search and fight, and it began to come to an end.

About half an hour later, the Bliss Maggie, Antalya and Meier escorted all the captives to Wang Yan.

The extraterrestrial demon is indeed a very proud race. There are a total of 500 demon soldiers. There are more than 300 dead battles in the end. Only more than one hundred demon soldiers were seriously injured or captured with hatred.

More than 200 other operators, except for a dozen or so who were in fierce resistance, do not practice the law on the spot, the rest were captured by Wang Yan’s special instructions.

As for Wang Yan’s war angels and succubus, with proper tactics and Berika’s prophecy, there were no casualties.

But even so, there are still dozens of angels and succubi who were injured in varying degrees in the desperation of the other party.

Fortunately, the secondary gods on Wang Yan’s wrist are equipped with a lot of potent healing remedies provided by Zoe, plus these angels and succubus themselves have high levels of life, and the physical damage will not recover after a long time. Worry more.

Now, these Heavenly Demon soldiers and controllers are basically all controlled by chains and concentrated in the hall of the bridge.

But the extraterrestrial demon is too powerful. Wang Yan simply left Meier and the more than 300 succubus led by her here.

So many elite succubus, basically can be done by one person, strict supervision. And from time to time, there is a charm spell, enough to make these devastated extraterrestrial demon, seven meat and eight elements, long indulge in dreams.

As a result, Wang Yan’s worries can finally be put aside.

Only next, the one he is facing is the real threat. If he fails, I am afraid that the entire earth will be severely affected.

...

...

The endless quiet asteroid belt, a steel ship, resembles a mountain with metallic luster, lying among countless asteroids.

In front of it, a giant crystal pillar with four purple rays forcibly opened a space door.

The lilac energy enchantment is both stable and mysterious, but within the doorway formed by the enchantment, the strange and chaotic violent energy is extremely surging, as if anything close to it will be swallowed by ruthless tears, and even the powder is not Will stay.

“Wow!”

At this moment, the giant warship parked in front of the door suddenly opened the side cabin, and a small, light and flexible carrier aircraft flew out of the cabin.

At the tail of the carrier aircraft, the purple flames sprayed out in the quiet and silent universe, drawn a beautiful arc, and then flew straight towards the door of space.

“According to the information provided by those demons, the inside is very dangerous, and we are very likely to directly encounter the gang of ashes apostles, so we have to be careful, we must not be careless.”

A gentle male voice was heard slowly in this flying small carrier aircraft.

The person who spoke at this time was Wang Yan, the son of the flame who had recovered the human body.

The reason for reverting to a more dexterous human body is because all possible demons have been subdued, and he does not need to be careful to cover up. The next method of action will also be based on clever evasion. In addition, the cockpit of this carrier-based aircraft is too small.

“Lao Wang, now that we have reached this point, no matter how dangerous it is, we have to go in and break out.”

The person who spoke was Belika in a white priest's robe. At this time, she was sitting behind Wang Yan, and a pair of beautiful eyes were looking at the door of space that was getting closer and closer. “Not to mention the presence of the old king, you are a person who is destined to be destined. As long as you follow you, this priest must It can be used for evil. “

Belika said it seemed like a fortune-teller who was nagging, and Wang Yan was already surprised.

However, she and Wang Yan do have the purpose they have to come. She needs to find the root of their race and the complete foundation of civilization. Wang Yan also needs to find the source of his strength and the truth of that history.

But aside from this, the * of the extraterrestrial demon, the apostle Nagham, has actually reached the solar system and is away from the outer circle of the earth, but only one Mars apart.

Now regardless of whether the apostle Nagham can find the legendary treasure, a single demon god, the earth world cannot stop.

If he is allowed to find the treasure again, his strength will increase again. I am afraid that taking over the whole earth is really an easy and casual move.

In this case, she and Wang Yan had to take the risk.

Even if the ashen apostle Nagham suffers a little and suffers a little loss, by the way, he can buy more time for the earth world.

Of course, all of this must first search for the whereabouts of the apostle Nagam. Then only to what extent can it be done, it can only act by chance.

“Cough, I didn’t expect that after the concubine followed the Lord, he actually needed to fight against a * of heavenly spirits, ah ... the fate is really varied ...”

Compared to Belika’s secret tension, she was full of flirtatious charm, and the bliss devil Ji Cui Lisi, who was sitting next to her, laughed openly.

Since she escaped defeated in Wang Yan’s hands, and then was captured by Wang Yan, she was quite open.

Anyway, her present destiny has been * with Wang Yan. Since Wang Yan, who is the master, is going to try to kill a god, then she has to follow along.

This is called, since you can’t resist, then obey your destiny.

Although this practice is very crazy, from her countless experiences in the past, even if you think about it, it will undoubtedly find yourself dead.

But her master wants to do this, then what can she do as a soul slave? Serving the host wholeheartedly is the biggest guarantee for her and her host to survive.

“We are going in.”

Wang Yan spoke out faintly, and then firmly grasped the joystick of the carrier aircraft to prevent the violent fluctuations generated when he entered the new space.

At this time, this small carrier-based aircraft, only him and Berika, and three Bliss Mo Ji.

Meier led all the succubus, stationed in the newly captured battleship, the powerful Antalya, and the war angel led by her returned to the bracers of the secondary kingdom.

Archangel Antalya, and the two hundred legendary war angels she led, are already the only fighting power around Wang Yan.

This power alone is not worth mentioning compared to a god.

But it matters. Wang Yan must go in and try it.

“Buzz!”

“Ka La La!”

As soon as he flew into the door of space, a tremor came from the fuselage of the carrier aircraft, and then gradually calmed down.

But after really entering this heterosexual space, the majesty and magnificence displayed in front of them immediately made the three of them, their eyes widened, and they took a deep breath.

This is not so much a secondary space, but rather a small universe.

At this time, on the left side of the carrier aircraft, Wang Yan was shocked to see that a blazing flame cyclone, just like a huge star, lay in a quiet dark space.

The flame cyclone is as big as it stretches endlessly, and the diameter does not know how many miles it spans. It rotates slowly like this, and the vast power released from it is enough to swallow the world, making Wang Yan and others amazed.

At this time, the carrier aircraft of Wang Yan and others were standing at the edge of this sea of fire. Compared with this sea of fire like stars, the carrier aircraft of Wang Yan and others were so small that they were not even as good as a particle of dust.

Looking up at this group of flame cyclones, Wang Yan and other people's hearts are very surging. The feeling is like tiny plankton, looking up at the vast sky. The infinite power contained therein is far from being understood and compared by the three of them at this stage.

Especially Wang Yan, his eyes flickered with flames, and at the moment when he felt the flame cyclone, the light and heat emanating from it, a sense of familiarity and entanglement in the underworld touched his heartstrings.

The vast flame-like cyclones of flames seemed to be closely connected with his soul. The surging flame power was the source of the surging power flowing in his blood, and it was the most critical part of his life.

This seemingly innate, unchanging sense of hunger made him unable to resist the turbulence, close to it, and completely integrated into one.

In a trance, Wang Yan's heart twitched slightly, and the whole person entered a state of mysterious and mysterious void.

“Child, come here!”

“The child of flames!”

“Come, come here!”

A call from the heart made Wang Yan excited, and there was even a touch and warmth to see his loved ones.

However, at the moment when Wang Yan was about to make a decision, a cold and violent, extremely dark and aura of terror suddenly broke into Wang Yan’s soul, interrupting Wang Yan for a short time.

That kind of dark to dark horror energy is more terrible than the three devil gods of the * world. Wang Yan, who has regained clarity, can’t help but feel a little nervous.

It was at this moment that Bellika’s exclamation came in his ear: “Pharaoh, we still have a cyclone on the right!”

Wang Yan turned his eyes and suddenly saw that on the right side of the small carrier aircraft, opposite to the flame cyclone, there was actually a dark energy cyclone full of cold darkness and a strong atmosphere of destruction.

The volume of this dark energy cyclone is equivalent to that of a flame cyclone, lying in the void, as if it were infinite and vast.

It is also slowly rotating, but the dark atmosphere it exudes is terrifying and extremely intense.

It is like a black hole that seems to be able to swallow everything. The vast immense power continues to pull all the surroundings into it. Eventually, it will be crushed and swallowed, and no trace will be left.

And unlike the flame cyclones full of warmth and fiery flames, Wang Yan believes that if the ordinary race with low life level, even just glancing at this dark energy cyclone, the cold and gloomy desperate breath is enough to make their minds collapse .

Obviously, the dark breath that just interrupted Wang Yan’s perception comes from this.

“This this.....”

A pair of beautiful eyes with the open eyes of the bliss magic Ji Trilis, constantly turning back and forth between the Cyclone of Flame and the Cyclone of Dark Energy. It took a while to recover, and his face could not be channeled. Is it true ... really the legendary ancient battlefield? The two groups of cyclones are the wreckage field formed by the divine power that collapsed for the flame * and the demon Lord Luo Sui? “

The scene in front of me was so shocking that even the bliss deity Ji Cui Lisi, born of the pure-blooded demon, was also in awe and dare to be surprised in front of the two vast expanses of mighty cyclones.

“I’m afraid that’s it!”

Belika looked at the magnificent scene outside the cabin and could n’t help but analyze and explain, “The planet where our ancestors used to live should be broken here, and the surrounding space has formed a huge wound. However, space has the characteristics of self-healing, The restored space has re-wrapped this area and it has not been opened by anyone to this day. “

Her analysis is not without reason.

First of all, there are ten times more asteroids and debris scattered here than there are outside asteroid belts.

These fragments and asteroids float around and move around the two atmospheric spirals, just like ocean currents spreading on the sea. The trajectory can be found, but it is difficult to count.

Between these two large cyclones and countless fragments, there are even more violent turbulent energy turbulences, which makes this heterogeneous space in front of it look orderly, but in fact hide the danger.

Apart from the strong gravitational force of the two atmospheric cyclones and the collision of numerous meteorite fragments, Berika witnessed the gravitational force generated by the two atmospheric cyclones, causing a series of void cracks to be pulled out.

Around these void cracks enough to tear space, from time to time there is an asteroid or large fragment, which is silently cut in half.

This terrifying and vast space power, I am afraid that even a * can't eat it, let alone mention them.

In addition, the two atmospheric cyclones of flame and dark energy are not only slowly rotating, but also constantly revolving around the other party, constantly trying to squeeze and annex each other.

But the strength of the two seems to be equal. Even in the process of squeezing each other and attacking each other, they have reached a delicate balance in a certain amount of consumption of each other, so that the two cannot always be truly defeated and eliminated. other side.

If you can look down on it, this complicated state is really a bit similar to Tai Chi in the traditional Chinese theory.

“Attention, there seems to be something coming.”

Just when the two women were surprised by the spectacular sight, Wang Yan frowned slightly, and at the same time pulled up the joystick of the carrier aircraft, allowing the body to climb up quickly.

His keen sense of perception clearly felt a danger.

Sure enough, the carrier-based aircraft had just climbed upwards, and there was a horrible roar in the ears of the three.

The three of them glanced around, not knowing when, under the carrier plane, all kinds of crazy monsters had gathered.

There are as many monsters as there are countless, and they all come from both sides of the cyclone.

The monsters that emerged from the flame cyclone on the left are all formed by the element of fire, with different shapes, but no reason, all like crazy, only pure anger.

On the right, there are energetic monsters composed of negative dark energy, which are often called void evil spirits.

They also have different forms, some are in the form of humanoids wearing armor, and some are like beasts or insects, just like the various creatures that died in this area, the grudges left behind seem to converge.

These Void Evil spirits are also terrible, with no trace of intelligence at all. As soon as the Cyclone of Dark Energy gushes out, they meet with the flame monsters surging from the Cyclone of the opposite flame, and start a fierce fight.

These flame monsters and void evil spirits will not only fight each other, but also a part of them will be separated from the big troops, and they will rush to the carrier aircraft where Wang Yan and others are located.

It seems that any creature entering their area is their enemy.

“Are they formed by the congregation of the two ancient powers and their obsessions? This is too much!”

Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi looked at the large number of monsters chasing behind her.

The number of such crazy monsters has almost reached a terrible level. If they fall into the ocean of these monsters, even her beautiful divine devil will be torn apart miserably.

“Pharaoh, think of a way, we will be caught up.”

High priest Berika, a little pale at the moment, she didn't want to die before she could die, even before the face of the Ash Apostle Nagum, she died in the hands of these countless monsters.

“The way is thinking, you hurry.”

Wang Yan was also cold sweat. Now he yanked the operating lever again, which made the carrier aircraft have a difficult turn. At the same time, the magic light cannon on both sides of the carrier aircraft began to pour out a fierce flame.

A fierce battle followed.

At the same time, in the dark energy cyclone far away on the other side, the ash apostle Nagum finally led people to explore to reach the deepest part of this cyclone.

The apostle Nagham was tall, with a red armor and a gray cloak, and he was majestic and unrestrained.

At this moment he was standing on a floating debris of an asteroid, his gaze looking forward.

Behind him, the three demon generals and the three hundred demon soldiers led by them all lined up neatly awaiting his dispatch.

“Hehehe, I found it, and finally let this seat be found!” The ashes apostle Nagm looked at the front, his heart surging, and his expression became more and more excited.

Because right in front of his eyes, a broken giant ship traversing hundreds of thousands of miles is like an island floating in the void, quietly suspended in the center of this dark energy cyclone.

And at the top of this vast and ruined majestic ship, a phantom that exudes vast divine power, enough to gaze at the world, is proudly standing directly above a broken shrine.

“Your Majesty, Your Majesty, then, that ... Is it the remnant of the great devil Majesty that year?”

Beside the ash apostle Nagham, the horned demon general Dreto jumped in his heart and asked about his trembling birth.

Since this mysterious space of different degrees can form so many monsters that attack each other and endlessly because of the obsessions left by the two ancient powers, it is not surprising that there is now a residual image.

It's just that this afterimage, exuding the majesty, is too compelling. Especially the body of Baizhang is like a precipitous peak, standing proudly in front of everyone.

So that Draytu, the great demon who had reached the peak of the demigod, looked from a distance, his heartbeat seemed to be stagnant in this heavy depression.

“Oh, it's the afterimage of His Majesty the Lord. Although the breath is slightly different from that of His Majesty after the rebirth, under that afterimage, it must be the Supreme Demon Core left by His Majesty's body!”

The apostle Nagham said that the longing in his eyes couldn't help but get even hotter.

...

...

“So what is we waiting for, Your Majesty?”

The Claw Demon, Drey Tu, excitedly followed his heart and said, “When your majesty gets the Supreme Devil's Core, it is the day when your majesty shows great plans!”

“It's not just this Supreme Demon Core, the divine personality that the flame can leave, this seat should also be won together!”

The ash apostle Nagham was ambitious and pointed forward with one arm at the moment, “Explore the Abandoned Ship with this one, search for the Supreme Demon Core!”

“Oh!”

Behind the Ash Apostle, the three demons and 300 elite elite soldiers all responded with excitement.

In the next moment, these demons and soldiers would be transformed into a stream of light and flew towards the completely abandoned giant ship.

Everyone knows the truth of rising and rising, if their master Nagum can take this one step closer, they are as good as the master, and the future will be worse?

In the social system of the extraterrestrial demon, everyone wants to climb up.

How to climb up? Only get more powerful.

Even if it has become a new god, the Ash Apostle Nagm still wants to gain more power.

Only in this way can he surpass those old apostles, even the demon Lord Luo Sui, and the more distant universe becomes.

For this reason, even if Luo Shou, the demon master who cultivated him into one hand, would annex all the forces, he would not hesitate!

“Luo Ai Luo Ai, your  body and devil core, I have received it by Nagham!”

A pair of British eyes of the apostle Nagham shrank slowly, with a hot ambition, struggling under his feet, the whole person turned into a red streamer, followed the exploration team, and drove away to the abandoned abandoned ship .

This abandoned giant ship that looks like an island in the void, now only has wreckage. The hull is full of ruins and walls. Large and small pits and incomplete explosions are too difficult to count.

But even so, the size of this remnant ship is still huge and majestic. Even the Void Eye Ship that swallowed the Star Apostle was like a little witch in front of this remnant ship, and even the majestic spirit alone could hardly be compared with this ruined remnant ship.

At this time, a large number of destroyed metal debris and scattered fragments are slowly rotating around the huge residual ship along with the dark energy cyclone along with the uncountable asteroids around.

Silent and silent all around, but full of strange and eerie oppression.

Of course, such a gloomy and depressing atmosphere is nothing to those elite soldiers.

however.

When the first row of dozens of pathfinder demon soldiers is about to approach the moment that the devil master remnants.

It was originally a shadow of black nothingness, and suddenly opened a pair of purple eyes.

“what!”

The Demon soldiers rushing in the first row suddenly shook their hearts, and they were frightened and exclaimed.

Just in front of them, the pair of open magic eyes, like the endless dark abyss, behind the cold pupils, seemed to contain the ultimate indifference and cruelty in the universe.

Especially the kind of mighty supernatural power that penetrated into the bone marrow, as if the devil Lord Luo Sui had come in person, even the ashes apostle Nagham who was behind was startled.

If it was not for him to be sure, it was absolutely impossible for the deity Lord Luo Sui to appear here, he would even think that the afterimage was the real deity! The demon Luo Luo really came here!

“Afraid, what are you afraid of?”

One of the leaders of the Demon Soldiers, the Claw Devil screamed Dreytu, and shouted loudly, “Your Majesty Nagam said, this, this thing is just a residual image, not His Majesty the Lord! General Ben goes down and search! “

As an alien race, the horned devil will be able to become a close believer in the ashes of the Ash Apostle, demonstrating his skill in clapping and doing things.

At this time, despite being frightened by the ghost image of the demon who suddenly opened his eyes, he still gave the order in the first time and revived the army.

According to his master, the apostle Nagham, the afterimage is only derived from the supreme magic core’s divine power, just like a mirage. It is more a symbolic image and does not have any threats.

So as long as you find the Supreme Demon Core on the remnant ship, the residual image will naturally dissipate.

But in the front row of Demon soldiers, the moment they moved forward again, a sudden change occurred.

“boom!”

A burst of energy triggered a residual image of the devil standing on the spot, and a circle of purple magic energy burst suddenly around.

The purple brilliance instantly passed through the bodies of a dozen Demon soldiers in the front row.

In a blink of an eye, the bodies of dozens of Demon soldiers were all decaying and disintegrating into a piece of powder.

Seeing this scene, all the scalp on the scene exploded and stopped in a panic.

For a time, the entire scene became quiet.

The Claw Demon, who had previously given a command loudly, Dretu, was dumbfounded at the moment, his mouth widened with terror, enough to shove a fist.

He doesn’t know how to describe it. The scene that just happened is terrible.

Those Heavenly Demon soldiers rushing in the front row didn't even have a chance to make an extra sound, they were still in the position of flying forward under the eyes of everyone, but they were all alive in the blink of an eye. Turned into a powder!

What a terrible power is this?

Could it be that the afterimage is really, the real body of the deity Lord Luo Sui, or rather the avatar?

Unintelligible panic and panic began to spread like wild grass in Draytu, and the hearts of all the demonic warriors present.

Even the ash apostle Nagm, who was a new god, changed his face and was surprised.

"Heaven, Heavenly Demon has immeasurable power ?!" Ash Apostle Nagm secretly panicked, murmured the name of a kung fu in his mouth.

Heavenly Demon's Infinite Work is the devil Lord Luo Sui, which combines the racial characteristics of the Heavenly Demon family and thus creates an original counter-natural power. The strength of this exercise is unmatched in the world, and it is unparalleled in the world. It can be said that the entire Demon family has benefited immensely.

Basically, most of the magical skills of pure-blood heavenly demons are originated from the demon master Luo Sui. Even the ashes of the Ash Apostle himself are actually derived from this immense magic power.

He remembers the devil Lord Luo Sui, in the complete innumerable magic skill, there is such a fierce move of such a rotten body.

This trick is extremely poisonous, and the middleman is completely destroyed, even a trace of dust will not remain.

What is happening in front of him now is the deed Luo Luo himself? Or is it that the afterimage is the avatar of the demon Lord Luo Sui?

and many more!

No, it's not right, that residual image can't be the devil Lord Luo Sui at all!

After the ashes apostle Nagum calmed down, he immediately noticed the clue and quickly reminded: "Listen to this seat, the residual image is not His Majesty the Lord, it is just a Void Evil Spirit! Because His Majesty left behind Remnant thoughts, condensed on the Supreme Devil's Core, form the void evil spirit! "

"Void Evil Spirit?"

After the Claw Demon listened to Draytu, his horizontal pupils could not help shrinking, "Is this Void Evil Spirit, I am afraid it has the power comparable to the gods? This, this is too terrible!"

In fact, everyone on the scene knows that the terrible thing is not this Void Evil Spirit, but Luo Shou, the Lord of the Heavenly Demons!

At that time, the deity Lord Luo Sui fell to the real body of the  body here. The supreme demon core condensed by the divine power, the powerful magic energy and obsession radiated from it, and the void evil spirit formed by it had such terrifying power.

So how terrible is the deity of this power, the Lord of Heavenly Devil Luo Sui?

At the thought of this, the devil horn deer and all the demon warriors around not only shivered.

“Oh, the reason why this evil spirit can perform the magic trick of His Majesty the Lord Lord is probably because of the Supreme Devil Core, which provides it with the power of the Lord Lord. However, it can only do so.”

The apostle Nagham was irritated and sneered with disdain. Then he shook one arm with a hot white smoke and a hot red spear that was hot like lava, and then appeared in his hand.

“Destroy this evil spirit with this seat!”

The ashes of the Ash Apostle’s whole body of fighting increased sharply at this moment. The powerful lava spear in his hand also slowly pointed to the demon evil spirit in front, awe-inspiringly, “If you destroy it, the Supreme Devil Core will definitely appear!”

“Oh!”

A powerful battle roar, shocked and raised among the demon soldiers.

In a blink of an eye, the celestial warrior who responded quickly immediately opened the distance and opened the attack formation. Then the pedestrian, led by the Ash Apostle Nagham himself, launched an attack on the god-level void evil spirit.

At the same time, the god-level Void Evil spirit also forcibly attacked the Ash Apostle Nagham.

Although it is just a void evil spirit formed by the remnant obsession of the Devil Lord, there is no spiritual wisdom, no thinking, and no more hurt and pain, but precisely because of this, only the obsession of cruelty and killing, etc., He is not afraid of death, he does not understand what fear is.

One shot was a terrible crazy offensive, which also made the ashes apostle Nagham and others feel tricky, and the battle also reached a climax in an instant.

...

At the same time, the intersection of the two atmospheric cyclones.

Wang Yan ’s dexterous and maneuverable carrier-based aircraft was still inevitably exploded in the sea of monsters, but this completely liberated Wang Yan and others.

The carrier-based aircraft was exploded, and Wang Yan had to pull Belika, who was slightly weaker in close combat, and jumped out of the plane to escape.

But he just fell into the range of the flame cyclone on the left, and he was surprised to find that those fire elemental monsters actually stopped attacking him, and that familiarity that seemed to come from the depths of the soul, once again poured into his heart, as if that The vast expanse of star-like flame cyclone seems to be one with him.

In addition, the other side of the Bliss magic Ji Trilis, and his current state is basically the same.

At the same time when the fighter plane was exploded, she jumped into the dark energy cyclone on the right, and also found that the void evil spirits born of the dark energy cyclone would not attack her at all, and she could finally take a breath.

After the three of them calmed down, they found that the fire elemental monster on the left and the void evil spirits on the right, as if they didn't see them, continued to fight each other, and the three of them were left aside.

"Pharaoh, those fire elements are not attacked, are we trapped?"

Belika's pretty face paled, looking a little shocked.

She never imagined that entering this heterogeneous space, she would be chased by so many monsters, that feeling would be like being torn apart by monsters like ants.

"Lord, the concubine seems to be having trouble."

As the senior general of the extraterrestrial demon once, the powerful demigod peak ecstasy Ji Cui Lisi, the quality of his mind is obviously much better.

However, she found that as a pure-blooded demon, as long as she stayed in the dark energy cyclone, she would not be attacked by the void evil spirits, but as soon as she approached the border, she would be madly killed by the fire elemental monster on the opposite side.

She tried it a few times, but finally retreated helplessly.

Because at present it is basically certain that the monsters of these two sides are not afraid of death, it should be said that basically only the obsession of killing all foreign enemies is left. And after they die, they will return to their respective cyclones in the form of elements, and they will regenerate after a while.

Such a cycle goes back and forth as if it is endless.

"I probably understand."

Wang Yan led Belika and looked at the complicated and subtle surroundings, roughly speculating, "Here is formed by the obsession that the two ancient powers have died together. These fire elemental monsters and the void evil spirits should be It is the figurative representation of the two ancient powers, so they always want to completely eliminate each other, and they will also attack any outsiders with different attributes. "

"I think if covered with a certain breath, we should be able to come and go freely in it."

Wang Yan speculated so, and did a small experiment.

He tried to release the pure Yang true fire outside, and gradually withdrew it. Sure enough, he lost the cover of the pure Yang true fire and immediately attracted the attention of the surrounding fire elements.

So Wang Yan had to release the pure Yang true fire again to protect Belika.

The result of this is obvious. Wang Yan, who possesses a pure yang true fire, is like a fish in this flame cyclone and can come and go freely.

Born a pure-blood heavenly demon, practicing the bliss magic power, and having a pure magic energy, the bliss magic Ji, in the dark energy cyclone opposite, is also unobstructed.

On the contrary, like High Priest Berika, outsiders without both attributes will be madly attacked by two monsters at the same time, falling into this, I am afraid that they will be torn apart in minutes.

“It seems that only the priest is the most unlucky ... well, let’s get back to business, where should we go next? Is it the flame cyclone over here, or the dark energy cyclone opposite?”

Belika looked around and speculated and asked, “I personally think that the * of demon should go to the dark energy cyclone first, so we should go to the side of the flame cyclone first. After all, Pharaoh, you go deep into the flame cyclone and it is easy to wait for you. After finding and absorbing the flame-powerful deity, and meeting the * of heaven and spirit again, our chances of winning will be greater. “

Having said that, Berika has not forgotten to add: “Of course, the premise is that we can find the flame power, and the divine personality left behind.”

“That’s right, but I think we should find the ashen apostle first.”

Wang Yan thought for a while and then replied, “Is it possible to find the deity left by the ancient Vulcan? For the time being, I won’t say it for the time being. Even if it is found, it may not be immediately absorbed. At that time, if something happens, then we will definitely suffer. When the ashen apostle Nagham blew up. “

“Don’t forget, we are not too far away from the Ash Apostle Nagham.”

Wang Yan looked at the distance, and then looked at Belika next to him, and then continued, “Now that the initiative is still in our hands, we might as well take advantage of the movement of the Ash Apostle Nagham at this moment, and then wait for the opportunity. Action, maybe we can find the key that can turn us around, at least not to make Nagham stronger. “

“The concubine believes that the Lord is right.”

Ji Cui Lisi, who has always been cunning, said across the border, “There should be a * of flame and a * core of Luo Shou. So even if the Lord has the power of fire, Divine personality, then another magical core of Divine Body, will inevitably be acquired by Nagum. By that time, the Lord and we may not be Nagm’s opponents. “

“Instead of that, we might as well ...” said Bliss Mogul Tris, slowly squinting her soft eyes, and the fierce murderous opportunity hidden beneath the beauty immediately burst out.

Bliss Maggie is worthy of being Bliss Maggie. Her cunning wisdom and fierce heart are indeed unmatched by ordinary women.

In her view, now that she is determined to fight back against the devil, then back to the end. Even if the other party is a supreme god, she dares to go to the killer.

Hearing this, the high priest Belika's dangling heart simply sank, turning to nod to Wang Yan.

Anyway, all are full of danger, it might as well be a ray of life.

"Now that everything is decided, let's go."

Wang Yanyan lifted Belika and leaped in the direction of Bliss Maggie.

...

...

"Lord, be careful."

Seeing Wang Yan leap over with Belika, Bliss Maggie immediately stepped forward to answer. At the same time, her magical energy expanded, and Wang Yan and Berika were accommodated.

At this time, because of the intrusion of Wang Yan and Belika, the vicious evil spirits that had just started some commotion immediately calmed down.

With the protection of Elysian Mo Ji, the three immediately explored the past all the way to the depth of the dark energy cyclone.

Next, as the progress progresses, the deeper the dark energy cyclone, the more the number of void evil spirits inside will be reduced, but the strength of the evil spirits is increasing.

After reaching the middle of the dark energy cyclone, you will find that the number of void evil spirits has dropped to 10% or 20% of the total amount of the outer layer, but the strength can reach about A level.

Obviously, the monsters born in the inner layer are stronger, and the gestation will take longer.

The outer fire elemental monsters and void evil spirits are only about C to B.

However, these seemingly unsophisticated outer monsters, although they do not seem to have a high level of strength, but they are born very quickly, and the number is as large as the hairs. Even with Wang Yan's strength, when encountering a large group of outer monsters, they must be a lot bigger.

Now there are fewer and fewer obsessive monsters appearing around, and the pressure of Wang Yan and others is also reduced.

It's just that the deeper it is inside the dark energy cyclone, the more complicated and difficult the surrounding environment becomes.

For example, the magic energy of dark energy that permeated around Wang Yan and others has now become so dense as water and fog, and the scope of visibility and mental power perception has also begun to be greatly reduced.

The three of them seemed to be trapped in a thick black and dark ocean at the moment, and each time they traveled a distance, they all followed a difficult journey. Even the Bliss Demon Ji, who is a pure-blooded demon, started to have a kind of illusion that even the group of people who hit the ashes apostle head-on might not find it.

In addition to the greatly reduced perception, in this rich dark energy devil qi, a large number of asteroids and fragments are countless, and I do n't know how much more than the outer layer.

During this period, Wang Yan and the three of them also saw many metal fragments similar to warships and mechas floating among them.

The pieces of parts look very old, but they all imply the terrible war that this area has experienced in that year.

If it is simply a large number of debris, it is not a big problem.

It's just that in this area, countless asteroids and metal fragments are all pulled by the cyclone's gravity, just like cannonballs flying in the void, if Wang Yan and others are flying here with a fighter plane, I am afraid As early as midway, it was already sunk by meteorite and debris.

"Lord, we may have lost our direction, and we can't do this aimless search anymore."

Wang Yan and his party had flown to the hinterland of the dark energy cyclone, but with the passage of time, the Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi gradually felt a little helpless.

Wang Yan frowned, and it was indeed a little difficult right now.

Now even the pure-blooded Demon Bliss Mo Ji is a bit difficult to perceive and is difficult to advance, then he, an earth man who is not at all suitable for magic energy, is even more difficult to advance to search.

In fact, Wang Yan and others originally thought that when they entered this dark energy demon realm, they would soon find the trace of the Ash Apostle. But when they think of the interior of the dark energy cyclone, it would be so vast and the environment would be so complicated and unexpected.

The most important thing is that their perception ability is severely restricted, and there is really a sense of powerlessness that is not powerful.

"Or ... do you count for us?" In desperation, Wang Yan couldn't help but fall to Belika next to him.

Belika was stunned for a moment, and then her gloomy white eyes continued: "Isn't it? Let me count again? This priest can't tell fortunes. The high-level laws mastered by this priest are great prophecies that can move the string of fate! "

“Uh ... it’s almost the same anyway, then you will give us another prediction.” Both Wang Yan and Bliss Maggie are looking forward to Belika, but for the moment Belika herself is going to smoke.

“Pharaoh, do you know that the subtleties of prophecy are not comparable to fortune-telling? Fortune-telling is just ...”

But just after explaining the way of fortune telling, Berika felt more and more like a * stick, and she waved her hands helplessly, “Forget it, anyway, you do n’t understand, because we are all partners. The priest will prophesy again for you. “

Belika sighed. Once the goal was too difficult, the spirit of energy she consumed was even greater, but the anti-bite effect of the prediction once was enough for her to suffer.

This is why the great prophecy is delicate, but usually, it will only occasionally predict one or two small things, rather than abusing the prophecy randomly.

But now she also understands that the situation is urgent and can’t be dragged on any longer, and she really has to rely on her for this plan.

“We ... are about to find the whereabouts of the apostle Nagam!”

With the end of a brief sacrifice, Belika opened her eyes, and her hands spewed out a wave of unspeakable mysterious energy.

Gradually, this mysterious energy wave disappeared into the invisible void.

After doing all this, Berika’s face became a little pale, and her spirit became very poor. It seemed to consume more power than the last time she prophesied.

It’s just that Wang Yan and Bliss Magic Ji are a little unclear, turning around and looking around, as if to find some hard-to-catch traces around.

Belika looked at the two of them and was too lazy to speak. She took out a potent healing potion and poured it on her head.

Only then did Wang Yan and Bliss Magic Ji withdraw their gaze and looked back at Belika.

It seems that the prophecy is over.

“That ...” The Bliss Maggie, who was in charge of the way, asked some doubts at this time, “Miss Belika, can we continue to go?”

The law of fate is one of the most mysterious and powerful forces in the universe, even if it is a pure-blood demon, it is poorly understood.

“Come on, just walk as you feel. The priest has moved the string of fate, and we will be able to find the trail of the Ash Apostle.”

Belika’s arrogant look at the moment seems to have just done a remarkable event.

It’s just that her mysterious expression, combined with her profoundly mysterious voice, has made people feel that she is engaged in the magical stick career of some metaphysical masters.

When the letter will be doubted, the Bliss Demon Ji Trilis once again leads Wang Yan and Belika to explore forward.

But they hadn't moved far, and a violent blast suddenly passed from afar.

The incomparable roar almost trembles the space around Wang Yan and others.

After that, the strong fluctuations and the power overwhelmed the domineering, like a wave, and it suddenly surged over.

Wang Yan, Belika, and Bliss Magic Ji were immediately shocked in place.

This burst of violent energy, based on the experience experienced by the three Wang Yan, can be determined on the spot, absolutely from a god.

However, instead of having a little fear at the moment, the Bliss Maggie Trilith looked at the high priest Berika with excitement: "Miss Belika, you are a god!"

Even Wang Yan cast his admiring gaze to Belika, and his heart was repeatedly sighed with emotion.

Isn't this magical prophecy that moves the chord of destiny so magical?

If you can find it, can you really find it?

Although I have been teaching Belika's great prophecy many times, but every time I see a new scene, Wang Yan always feels in a trance and feels full of incredible.

Belika twitched her mouth secretly, and said that the art of destiny really came as soon as she could, even she was a little caught off guard.

In fact, she could perceive that this group of people must have hit the gang of Ash-Apostles this time, but not so fast.

She has just played the role of prophecy, only to speed up the process, so that the future will happen soon.

However, this is really fast.

"Pharaoh, it's not too late. Let's hurry up!"

"Okay, Trilith, let's go."

Belika and Wang Yan exchanged glances, and the Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi also increased the output of the magic energy, completely covering them with magic energy. The evil spirits around them treat them as nothing.

Then a group of three people quickly began to approach the source of the explosion and quickly moved closer.

...

The center of the whirlwind of magic gas, a huge remnant like a large island, is quietly suspended in the void.

This giant ship is dilapidated, but its magnificent hull still shows its prestige and glory.

At this time, at the upper end of the residual ship, a battle was fiercely staged.

“Wow!”

“Boom!”

Firelight, magic light, and violent explosions, like fireworks, landslides, and tsunamis, erupted one after another over the residual ship.

At the very center of this battle, there is a void evil spirit as high as a hundred feet, with a body like a mountain.

It has a body composed entirely of magical energy, like a residual image, and can't see the features of the five senses, but a pair of purple pupils that look like the devil Lord Luo Sui are full of intimidating deterrent force.

In other words, it is like the incarnation of the devil Lord Luo Sui, cold and shady, divine and powerful.

The opponent who fought against this god-level evil spirit is no different.

This is a small army composed of more than two hundred soldiers. It can be seen from the purple skin, sharp short corners, and cutting-edge equipment of these soldiers that they all come from extraterrestrial demon.

The leader of this small army is a handsome young man with a wicked spirit in his eyebrows.

He was wearing a set of red magic armor, and a gray cloak behind him, which set his shapely shape against the chic and majestic style.

At this time he was holding a white spear with a white smoke and a red spear that was hot like lava. The whole body was full of fiery fire and the temperature was extremely high.

As the spear in his hand moved, the extreme heat caused the space around the spear to twist and shake. The fragments of asteroids that are blocked on the trajectory of the spear will be vaporized in an instant, and there will be no ashes left to be directly melted.

This is the terrible place of a demon god!

There is no doubt that this young and extremely strong man is the newly-incarnated Demon God, the Ash Apostle Nagham.

Nagm saw the supreme demon core that he was thinking about was in front, but was blocked by this god-level evil spirit who had no clever wisdom and only knew about killing.

Behind him, more than two hundred demonic soldiers led by the three demons are cooperating with each other and launching feint attacks.

The reason why the three hundred demon soldiers from the beginning became more than two hundred now is because the power of this god-level evil spirit is really too strong.

This void evil spirit with god-level power, but before the demon Lord Luo Sui died, the remnants and remaining divine power condensed into a certain amount of demon master's prestige.

You have to know that the demon Lord Luo Sui, but an ancient power beyond the gods, is also the pioneer of the huge empire outside the territory today.

The power of the demon Lord Luo Sui is far beyond everyone's imagination, and the divine power created by him is even more unpredictable, destroying the world.

This god-level evil spirit, although only condensed a little bit of the power of the demon master, but every trick and every type of display is far beyond common sense, even the ashes apostle Nagham of the gods and devil gods is quite tricky.

No, the god-level evil spirits who had been rushed to siege were greatly increased, and once again launched a large-scale attack.

"Fuck thing! It's a demon corpse, retreat with this seat!"

The apostle Nagham was annoyed and grabbed before the god-level evil spirits shot. The spear in his hand first cut a slash, then greeted his men and retreated to the rear.

It is not easy to be a god, but if you want to continuously expand your own power and occupy a place in the upper layers of the heavenly demons, you must cultivate a large number of excellent men.

At present, the three demons he brought with the remaining two hundred Demon soldiers are all elite among the elite. Whichever one you die now means that it is very likely that one will be lost, and you will be able to fight for the battlefield in the future. , A senior general who rules the party.

However, from the beginning of the war to the present, there have been more than thirty Heavenly Demon soldiers killed in battle.

To know that he is close to elite, all of them are pure blood demon! This unprecedented loss really hurt him.

So that when he is now fighting with God-level evil spirits, he has to take care of his surroundings to reduce additional losses.

"Oh!"

Suddenly, the god-level undead suddenly shouted, and at the moment when the ashes apostle Nagham hacked, about to hit it, the god-level undead erupted suddenly after a long charge.

It implied the claws of the faint purple magic light, and suddenly swept forward, and two purple magic lights that crossed and flew immediately.

Just listening to the loud noise of "Bang", the explosion that just deterred the world just roared and staged again.

The fierce magic energy spread like a wave in a ring-shaped manner, and a large number of celestial warriors all around were trying to avoid them.

However, there were two Heavenly Demon soldiers. Due to the close distance, asteroid fragments and meteorites were blocking it. One step slowed down, and was immediately caught up by the god-level undead and the crushed rotten body.

In an instant, a weird and dark purple magic light passed through the bodies of two Demon soldiers.

The two Demon soldiers didn't even have time to hum, and they turned into a fly ash on the spot.

The aftermath also crashed into a crumb-sized planet fragment floating in front of him. As a result, the fragment of the asteroid was decayed into a powder on the spot.

The powerful destructive power, so horrible, greatly reduced the morale of the Ash-Apostle.

In addition, the shocking scene just now happened to be completely witnessed by Wang Yan and others who had just lurked nearby.

At this time, Wang Yan and Belika, who were secretly looking out, were lying behind a small planet. They were all dumbfounded and shocked on the spot.

joke! What a weird monster is that? How could it be so terrible!

...

...

"Old, Pharaoh ... this, is this too exaggerated?"

Belika, whose face had recovered somewhat, opened her eyes wide and tongue-tied at the moment, "Just a move, and a broken one, let two legendary Demon soldiers and a small piece Planet debris, all decaying into ashes, this ... really, it's too exaggerated! "

Based on Berika's experience in the world of hell, she can conclude that the powerful and terrifying moves can only be released by the highest spirits of the * level.

And it is no exaggeration to say that the powerful moves are stronger than her own, and even more powerful Elysian Magic Ji or Wang Yan. If you do not defend with all your strength, you will avoid it with all your strength. Once you are hit, I am afraid that it will also be turned into a fly. gray.

Even if there is no luck, the kind of decay power that almost reaches the ultimate in the universe will make them peel off.

"That kind of move ... should originate from the demon Lord Luo Sui's Tianmo Infinite Work."

As a pure-blooded demon, Bliss Mo Ji explained to her, beside Belika and Wang Yan, that the infinite amount of magical power created by the deity Lord Luo Sui is enough to open the earth and be omnipotent. It can be said that this infinite amount of magical power is The origin of the power of all our heavenly demons is very powerful, among which there are vicious killing tactics such as corpse erosion. “

“From the point of view of the concubine, the god-level evil spirit just cast a vicious celestial demon rot body.” Bliss Mo Ji frowned, and then continued to hear the voice, “Although the concubine has never seen the devil Luo Luo personally, but The level of divine power exerted by the evil spirit is very high. I am afraid that it is also transformed by the remnant and divine power of the devil Lord Luo Sui. “

“The remnant and divine power of the devil Lord Luo Sui?”

A pair of beautiful eyes of Belika looked around, and then looked at the god-level evil spirit. The startled voice said, “After the real body of Luo Sui fell, it turned into this dark energy cyclone and formed again. This god-level evil spirit ... My God, if Luo Hei was in its heyday, how powerful would it be? “

“If it is not strong, it won’t make the entire galaxy tremble, and hug the group to fight against it.” Wang Yan’s answering answer seemed to be relaxed and casual, but his inner tide was surging.

That Demon Lord Luo Shou is more than terrible? It’s terrible!

His divine body and divine power at that time could form such a large-scale dark energy cyclone and a god-level evil spirit. This power of terror is far beyond the understanding of all living beings in the world.

His power has long been beyond the scope of the gods. I am afraid that only the reincarnation of the universe and the fire * who has fallen down can be compared with it.

However, the devil Lord Luo Sui was too far from the threat to Wang Yan and the earth.

Although it is now heard that the devil Lord Luo Sui has been reborn, whether he can return to the leading aggression as in the past remains to be said.

Now Wang Yan and the plane of the earth are facing the most important threats, it is the abyssal world that is about to collide with the plane of the earth’s world, and the powerful gods of the heavenly demons one after another.

Yes, it is a god.

To deal with one god, one must rely on another god.

Otherwise, once the planes collide, the earth’s world will inevitably be destroyed, and all human beings can’t resist the end of the day.

How to become a god? In addition to understanding the laws of the universe and exceeding the limit of life, Zhu Rong’s personality hidden in the flame cyclone may be Wang Yan’s greatest strength and dependence.

When thinking of the relics of Vulcan Zhurong, Wang Yan’s heart longed, but could not help but a little bit thicker.

However, the immediate task now is to think about how to solve the big problem of the apostle Nagham.

“Although the Apostle Nagham, the enemies we are about to face, but I have to say that he actually helped us a lot.”

Wang Yan looked at the Ash Apostle and God-level evil spirits who once again fought together and said slowly, “Without him, we may not be able to pass the level of God-level evil spirits.”

“Yeah, fortunately, the Apostle of Ashes thundered for us, otherwise we would stray into the center of this dark energy cyclone, and we must be hit hard by the evil spirit monster.”

Belika smiled at the ashes of the ashen apostles and god-level evil spirits, and the cunning voice of beautiful eyes, “Fight, fight, it is best to fight both defeats and hurt, we just happened to take the head and collect treasure!”

“Even if you lose both sides, it’s not easy to deal with, but what you said is really a good idea.”

Wang Yan nodded and applauded, then greeted the two people around him, thought for a while, and said, “Although the god-level evil spirit is strong, I guess she will be wiped out soon. So, I have a bold idea ...”

Wang Yan quietly talked about this bold idea before and after. The two teammates of Belika and Bliss Maggie were shocked inexplicably and stunned.

“Lord, are you sure you want to do this?”

Bliss Maggie Trieste frowned slightly and seemed to feel a little stressed.

“Again to perform prophecy again?” On the other side, the high priest Berika’s reaction was more exaggerated. Now she gave Wang Yan a white eye and couldn’t help telling the voice. It ’s not a magician ’s fireball, so it ’s easy to use? And how difficult is that for me, do you know? ”

Belika can be seen, this time the pharaoh took her to explore the asteroid belt, what is it for? Obviously, I want to use her magic stick constantly, no, it is a big prophecy.

“I know, I know, but only then can we be foolproof.”

Wang Yan made a haha, then pulled Belika and the Bliss Maggie, and discussed again in detail.

A plan has gradually been formed.

...

At the same time, above the remnants still a certain distance away from them, the battle of the ashes apostle Nagum and the god-level evil spirits has reached a stage of fiery heat.

“Following this, the flanks will contain the bastard!”

The horned demon general Dretu, commanding the remaining two demi-generals, and more than two hundred demon soldiers, with high maneuverability, continued to fly in mid-air and launched an attack on the god-level evil spirit.

Because the evil spirits of the void are all energy bodies, at this time, the deer king of the horned demon, holding a long whip across the sky, continually whipped on the body of the god-level evil spirit with a trend of overturning the river.

Straight hit the god-level evil spirit, the whole body demon can boil, and howl.

Undoubtedly, at this moment, the power of the great demon king, who has reached the peak of the demigod, has been fully shown.

In addition to him, the other two Demon Warriors will also have high combat power and extraordinary shots, even in the demigod-level realm, they will still fight the god-level evil spirits in one move and one after another.

Behind and around these three demons, more than two hundred demonic soldiers were flying at high speed in a battle formation.

If you look closely, you can see that the special armor like rubber and metal on their body actually has mechanical wings and auxiliary thrusters on the back, legs and feet.

In this way, the mobility of the more than two hundred Demon soldiers has been greatly enhanced, and the speed is as fast as the same high-speed flying space fighter, continuously flying around the god-level evil spirits.

They continuously fired at the god-level evil spirits through the palm magic light cannon driven by magic energy. The attack power is probably not worth mentioning to a god-level powerhouse, but the number and frequency are high, which still makes the god-level evil spirits miserable.

It's like being constantly bitten by ants and mosquitoes, so that no one can settle down. What's more, there is another  on the front, the powerful attack of the Ash Apostle Nagham, so that this god-level void evil spirit can only be exhausted to cope with it.

The battle on the residual ship began to intensify.

Above an asteroid far away from the war zone, Wang Yan and Belika, as well as the Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi are watching with relish.

Especially the powerful armor of the Heavenly Demon soldiers has already attracted the attention of Wang Yan and Belika.

“Pharaoh, this armor is absolutely valuable, and the function is definitely more than that!”

Belika saw her eyes bright, rubbed her hands straight, and said, “If we can get a few sets, let alone research and analysis, just sell it, that is, hehe ...”

In her eyes, those high-speed mobile Demon soldiers, as if they saw a large roll of banknotes, were flying at high speed in the universe.

Wang Yan has long been blamed for the appearance of Belika's frequent money loss, but this kind of Heavenly Demon Warframe really attracted his attention.

Obviously, the armor used by the Guards of the Ash Apostle Nagham was significantly more advanced and powerful than the armor of those Demon soldiers when Ackerman invaded hell.

Fortunately, these battle armor and weapons, the battleship he captured, seem to have a large inventory. Next, as long as the warship is driven back to Earth, whether it is used for trading, or provided to the National African Bureau for research and analysis, its value will not be estimated.

Of course, he wouldn't tell Belika about this surprise, otherwise the high priest in the eyes of money might be over-excited and his blood pressure increased.

“Oh!”

Just when Wang Yan and the three people were looking wonderfully, a tremendous roar came suddenly from above the residual ship.

It turned out that after the horned demon general Drey Tu, led the rest of the demon generals, and continued to harass and attack the god-level evil spirits, the god-level evil spirits completely ran away.

This behemoth, like a mad beast, ran rampage above the majestic and huge remnant, chasing the horned demon Deretu and others, roaring repeatedly, and attacking constantly.

At this point, there were several Demon soldiers sacrificed under the strong attack of the god-level evil spirits.

The horned demon general Drey Tu and the other celestial demon warriors personally endangered themselves with sweat. But their tactics of tempting the enemy to pretend to attack have played a decisive role.

“Fuck things, die for this seat!”

At this moment, the ash apostle Nagham had been charging for a long time, and burst into vain. The spear of lava that had been burning red in his hand, protruded strongly, pointing directly at the god-level evil spirit in front.

Just listen to the “wow” sound.

The strong wind crackled, a little solid and incandescent light, and immediately fired from the spear tip, just like a flaming arrow blasted from the surface of the star, with the world's most extreme high temperature, instantaneously will God level The body of the evil spirit penetrates.

The forward movement of the god-level evil spirit suddenly stopped. It was like a machine with the power turned off, and it was stunned for a while.

Perhaps the ash apostle Nagham, with a strong blow, the small wound formed, for the god-level undead up to a hundred feet, but like a small point of acupuncture. If you switch to ordinary humans, you won't even treat this acupuncture point as a harm.

But just a breathing kung fu, a zealous flame, suddenly burst out of the body of the god-level evil spirit!

“Oh!”

The god-level evil spirits suddenly wailed with heartbreaking lungs, and the huge body couldn't be twisted, but the nearly incandescent high-temperature flame flew out of the body of the god-level evil spirits in a blink of an eye, and completely wrapped it.

No matter how struggling it is, this flame will never be reduced by half.

The thick black smoke kept pouring out. And it has been burned alive, it is already an inevitable thing.

“Oh, a mean evil barrier, dare to block this road.”

The dazzling fire light illuminates the world around it. Under the fire light, the face of the ash apostle Nagham is full of enjoyment and cruelty.

Along with the stern roar, his men also stopped around the fire.

They gasped, but they were full of awe in their expressions.

Because this is the terrible place of their new * Nagam. The reason why Nagham is called the Ash Apostle is for this reason.

The roar of the god-level undead tremor space was promoted at the scene, and the hunting fire flickered.

Wang Yan and the three who secretly observed in the distance were all shocked on the spot.

Not to mention, the apostle Nagham had just made a sudden blow, which was really amazing.

They originally thought that the ash apostle Nagham would have to spend a little effort to defeat the void evil spirits with the same divine power, and this battle would take some time to end.

However, Wang Yan and the three did not expect that the Ash Apostle Nagm, with only one charge, completely wiped out the god-level evil spirits. This tyrannical power is really shocking.

“Then, that Nagum, really, is a flame deity.”

High Priest Belika looked at the fire in the distance, and some horrified voices asked, “Pharaoh, who is stronger than this Nagum, who is stronger?”

“It's not easy to say ...” Wang Yan was quite intractable and answered with a voice. “The flames he controls are very strange and not part of the orthodox fire system. But as far as I can see, there is no doubt that his level is higher than mine A lot higher. “

Wang Yan 's current answer is not modest. He is indeed famous for the pure fire that has just arrived, but this time he met a flame deity, and the other party 's control of the flame is clearly above him.

And the other party seems to have some restraint on his ability, so in this way, the problem will be greater.

At least for a short time, he really didn't know how to deal with such an enemy.

“Ah? No, isn’t it?”

Hearing Wang Yan ’s answer, the little heart of the high priest, Berika, was almost cooling off, and now the voice of his eyelids jumped straight, “Old, old king, Ben, Ben priest felt that we can withdraw ... “

“Lord, the concubine personally agrees with Miss Belika’s opinion. The other party is a god, and the strength is too strong, our plan is difficult to succeed.”

At this time, Bliss Magic Ji Trilis, a pair of beautiful eyes like water, is full of worries, “Lord, our power is limited, it is better to go back now and notify your fellow earthmen. We can help. , If you ca n’t help, take your family and friends and leave here. “

...

...

The meaning of Bliss Mo Ji is very simple, very sensible, and very indifferent.

In her view, the destruction of a planet or the demise of a species are all natural laws, and she does not care.

And she thinks that she and her master Wang Yan are no longer among these mortal beings. Rather than perishing with these mortal beings, it is better to go elsewhere and live happily. Anyway, there is no place for them?

But she saw Wang Yan being silent, she couldn’t help but voiced the suggestion again, “Lord, we can escape now, it’s too late. If it’s too late ...”

“Enough is enough. If you say such remarks, don’t blame me for being rude.” Wang Yan stopped suddenly, his eyes filled with determination.

He is different from a pure-blooded devil who was born high above the earth and indifferent to other lives. Although he is now powerful and his life level has almost reached the limit of all living beings, he is after all a native of earth.

He couldn’t wait to watch the earth occupied by others, and his compatriots went to extinction in pain and despair, which he could not do anyway.

People are called people precisely because of the indelible things flowing in their blood.

“Escape? Where can I escape?”

Wang Yan frowned slightly, and the voice replied, “Behind us is the earth. If we lose it, we humans will lose the root. Without the root, no matter where we flee, there will be no belonging.”

“The other things hidden here are very important to me and my compatriots, and in no case can it be allowed to fall into the hands of the Ash Apostle Nagham!”

Seeing Wang Yan's determination, Belika also exhaled, and replied, "Pharaoh is right, I will find the roots of our survivors here, otherwise there will be no place to belong. And the earth is also the priest. The hometown of the priest will not give it away."

"Lord, the concubine understood."

Upon seeing this, Bliss Magic Ji could not help but bow to Wang Yan and said, "As long as the Lord wants to do it, the concubine should do her best and spare no effort."

At this point, Wang Yan and his party couldn't help but secretly concentrate on their own work.

...

From the other end of Wang Yan's hiding place, above the huge remnant ship, the fire began to extinguish gradually, and the wail of the god-level evil spirits also gradually stopped.

The ash apostle Nagham is hovering in front of the god-level evil spirit out of thin air, and his men have regrouped behind him.

After counting the interest, the fire finally dissipated, and the god-level evil spirit, which had just been rampaging, was finally completely burnt away by the smoke.

suddenly.

A mysterious object shining with purple magic light, like a one-eyed one, is standing out from the ashes of the god-level evil spirits and slowly falling towards the ground.

Seeing this mysterious object, the apostle Nagm's eyes opened wide, and the desire to look through the eyes seemed to stare out of the eyes.

The magic energy breath from that mysterious object is unparalleled. As soon as it appeared, the dark energy magic energy scattered around it had multiplied in vain, and even the entire dark energy cyclone, like a black hole, increased in speed. A few points.

The ash apostle Nagham can no longer look away from him.

This mysterious object is not the supreme supreme magic core, what else can it be?

The Supreme Demon Core fell to a height of more than one meter from the ground and slowly stopped. At this time, the dazzling magic light it emits, warm and pure, is like the most beautiful star in the universe. It seems that no matter who it is, just one glance, even the soul will fall into it.

Not only was the Ash Apostle Nagm dumbfounded, all his men were attracted by this magical light, his eyes wide open, his expression silly, completely indulging to the extreme.

It is no exaggeration to say that if this supreme demon nucleus is conscious, then it needs only a few thoughts, and besides the ash apostle Nagham, all the demon warriors will scramble to dedicate their souls to the great devil.

The Lord of Heavenly Demon is so terrible. His strength is not only due to the unparalleled supreme divine power, manipulating the soul, polluting the souls, all of them are his special abilities.

Although this supreme demon core is just the devil core left after the deity Lord Luo Sui's body fell, the powerful characteristics of the deity's divine power are still undoubtedly manifested at this moment.

Even Wang Yan and the three people who were secretly observing in the distance were also seeing this magic light, and the whole person was in a state of turmoil, obsessed with it, and almost exposed it, breaking something serious.

Fortunately, the pure yang real fire in Wang Yan's body seemed to be very repulsive of this magic energy light, and immediately boiled quickly in Wang Yan's body, which made Wang Yan wake up quickly.

With his assistance, High Priest Berika, and Bliss Maggie Trilith, respectively recovered from the demented state.

At this point, the three of them were all in cold sweat, and they secretly said that the Lord of Heavenly Devil Luo Sui was so terrified.

A * body magic core, has such terrible power, if the deity comes, it is really unimaginable.

"wake up!"

Far from Wang Yan on the other side, the Ash Apostle Nagum recovered first. With his soft drink and the intentional and unintentional energy leakage, his group of men just woke up like a big dream.

"Really, it's terrible!"

"Just a glance, I can't even control my soul and consciousness."

"No wonder in this sub-space, such a vast dark energy cyclone will be formed, which is really the incredible power of Wei An!"

"Your Majesty the Lord is worthy of being His Majesty, and even his relics can possess such divine power, which is great!"

After the awakening, the demon soldiers were all terrified, and they quickly secretly transported the magic energy to stabilize their minds. At the same time, there was a lot of discussion, and even more respect and awe for this supreme magic core.

"Congratulations, Your Majesty! Your Majesty, Hexi!"

Seeing that the surrounding conditions stabilized, the devil horn quickly moved Draytu to please him, "This supreme demon core is infinitely magnificent and unparalleled in the world. Your Majesty took it down, and the definition of strength can go further!"

"If you can find the legacy of the ancient flame power on the other side, with the genius of your majesty, you might become my second supreme demon in the history of Heavenly Demon!"

I have to say that the horned thief's horned devil, Derritu, is very flattered. His excited voice, even with more than two hundred Demon soldiers behind him, boils with emotion.

So, under the leadership of the horned demon general Draytu, more than two hundred demonic warriors all followed him to the ground, shouting in succession: “See the Ash Demon Lord! Please also my Lord to inherit the Supreme Demon Core! “

The ashes apostle Nagham has not yet absorbed the Supreme Demon Core, and his group of men has begun to yell at the Demon Lord.

And they obviously robbed the demon Lord Luo Sui, and before stealing their lost power, stole the relic of Luo Shou Luo Shou, but now they have become inherited, which shows that flattery, no matter what race, is not uncommon.

Although these are false flattery words, the ashes apostle Nagham is very useful to listen to. Looking at him with a spring breeze, it seems as if he really wants to become a new generation of supreme demon, dominating the universe, and subverting samsara.

“Very good, get up.”

The Apostle Nagham is really like a king at this moment, slightly raised with one hand, with a magnificent manner, “In this case, this Supreme Demon Core, this seat will be accepted!”

Then he flew out and approached the Supreme Demon Core a little bit.

As the distance got closer and closer, the sense of vastness brought by the power of Pang’s power continued to stir in his heart.

He looked at the Supreme Demon Core in close proximity, as if to see the future surging and conquering the world.

The sense of control, control of the universe, and even the grand sense of control of reincarnation made his blood boil, and even his outstretched hand was agitated slightly, so he shivered slightly.

“Stop, put the Supreme Demon Core to Ben Moji!”

Suddenly, a whisper came from behind the ashes of the ashes and the crowd.

The Ash Apostle and his men immediately threw themselves up, then turned their eyes together and looked behind them.

This is a beautiful and seductive woman.

Her skin is light purple, delicate and tender, and her facial features are exquisite and perfect. The corners of her mouth are slightly raised, with a noble and rounded arc. The pair of small angles on the forehead are shining with the color of obsidian ink.

If these traits alone, it is not enough for the many demon warriors on the scene to recognize who she is.

However, as his eyes moved down, many celestial warriors at the scene discovered that this stunning celestial woman was wearing a special armor for the female generals outside the region.

This set of armor looks like a mix of colloid and metal. It is soft and close-fitting, and her delicate and perfect figure is contoured and graceful.

Of course, the most important point is that the gray-white-black lines and the broken star logo on the chest that seems to swallow the stars show that she is coming from the extraterrestrial demon, the famous old god, the swallowing apostle Ackerman Of the camp.

Since it is a female general under the star apostle Ackerman, and also possesses the realm of the great demon who is as strong as the peak of the demigod.

Then who else can be besides the same-known ecstasy Devil Ji Trilis?

The comer is the Bliss Maggie Treilis!

The apostle Nagham, also recognized the coming person, is the love general of Ackerman who swallowed the star.

Ackerman Arkman swallowed the star, but the famous old * among the extraterrestrial demon, and even when the ancestors of the ash apostle Nagham were still alive, Ackerman was already a powerful * who followed the demon Lord Luo Sui and fought against the star domain.

Even today, his Nagham has worked hard to condense his personality and become a new god, but compared with Ackerman who does not know how many years he is, he is still a little witch, and the overall power can not be compared with him. .

Now that the star-swallowing apostle Ackerman loves the general, the Bliss Devil Ji Trilis suddenly appears, does that mean Ackerman himself has arrived nearby?

Thinking of this, the ashes apostle Nagham could not help but tighten in vain, even stretched out the hand of the Supreme Demon Core, could not help but stand still.

“Big, bold!”

Seeing that Nagham’s face was a bit ugly, a very good flat-footed claw demon general Drey Tu quickly yelled at the Bliss Maggie, “A demon will also dare to speak to His Majesty Nagham, daring! “

The apostle Nagham did have some scruples in his heart to swallow the star apostle Ackerman. Although his face was extremely gloomy, he still stretched out his hand towards the Supreme Devil’s Core and slowly retracted it back.

At the same time he turned to look at the Bliss Maggie, his eyes were extremely bad.

In any case, as a demon general under the gods, Bliss Maggie dared to commit the following crimes and did not speak badly to him. It was proud that he could not bear it.

Could it be that he really thought he was an apostle Nagham, afraid that Ackerman would not succeed?

“Cough, to be brave? Your Majesty Nagham is really brave!”

The Bliss Devil Ji Mei narrowed her eyes slightly and smirked casually.

Faced with the heavy pressure of the * Nagam and more than two hundred Demon soldiers, instead of being timid, her eyes were cold and she once again sneered at the past: “Your Majesty Nagam, do you know who the Supreme Demon Core is? Relics? You dare to steal the relics of His Majesty the Lord, where are you the courage! “

This sipping, like a thunder, instantly rumbling in the hearts of the ashen apostle Nagham, and all the heavenly warriors on the scene.

The Supreme Demon Core is the deity Lord Luo Sui. After the body fell, the essence of the divine power left behind. Once the devil Lord Luo Sui is completely reborn, he will surely come here in person to retrieve the power he once lost.

Now the Ash Apostle Nagam is better, and sneaked in to get here first. If it is placed in the eyes of other heavenly demons, this kind of behavior is stealing, and it is the lifelong treasure of the Luoshou, the Lord of Heavenly Demons.

If it is more serious, the practice of the ashes apostle Nagham and his men is intended to rebel!

In the demonic society ruled by the devil Lord Luo Sui, rebellion is a major crime, and it will be subjected to the most brutal capital punishment, and it will not be free from eternal life.

This is also an important reason why there are many gods in the demon system, but none of them dared to betray the demon Lord Luo Sui.

Now, the gang of ashes apostle Nagham was directly hit by the ecstasy demon Ji Trilis, and it is very likely that he will rule the army and sit in the vicinity of the star-swapping apostle Ackerman, who has countless powerful players.

How can such a tragedy of stolen and acquired money not make him a person fearful of panic?

In an instant, the scene was silent.

The ashen apostle Nagham and his men were all pale, their hearts were anxious, and they couldn't speak at all.

At the same time, Bliss Maggie Terry did not change her face, but exhaled in her heart. Unconsciously, there was a layer of cold sweat on her back.

Facing a * alone with more than two hundred powerful demon soldiers under his command, such pressure can be imagined.

“Me, my God ...”

Also at the same time, the high priest Berika, who was secretly watching behind the asteroid in the distance, was so nervous that she could hardly breathe. .

She and Wang Yan on the other side have a magical energy enchantment under the magic cloth of the Bliss Magic Ji to shield the breath. As long as the enchantment is not attacked and is not damaged, they will not attract the attention of the wandering void evil spirits, nor will they be discovered by the Ash Apostle and others.

But this is not important. The first step that worries them most now is whether or not the Bliss Devil Ji Trilis can shock the scene.

Otherwise, once there is an accident with Bliss Mo Ji, she and Wang Yan will inevitably finish playing, and even this magic energy cyclone will not escape.

Fortunately, the first step was finally successful, and the high priest Berika couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

At the same time, she took out two potent restorers and drank them directly.

Now that the first step has been completed, it is up to her. Bless the goddess of destiny, you must become the Bliss Maggie.

...

...

"Goo, goo."

The two powerful recovery agents formulated by Zoe personally are all free.

The bitter and cold taste of the liquid, and the ensuing sense of surging power, filled the limbs of the high priest Berika.

She felt that her mental strength and physical strength were constantly rising, reaching the peak of Shengsheng all the way, even the slightest tension and worry in her heart gradually subsided at this moment.

No way, the big prophecy is used too often, and you have to stop nibbling ~~ medicine.

"Pharaoh, Pharaoh, this priest will bet on fate, believe you once!" High Priest Berika adjusted her breath and made the final preparations.

As the master of the most mysterious law of fate in the universe, the high priest Belika vaguely peeped before going to hell. The son of flame Wang Yan is a person who can bring change to this world.

Based on Berika's understanding of Wang Yan as a person, it is natural that Wang Yan can bring about changes to this world. At least for now, Wang Yan has brought a lot of positive changes for every world he has traveled.

Of course, how long this change will last, and whether Wang Yan can overcome the immediate difficulty, is not what she can predict now.

But she still chooses to believe this Wang Yan, who always brings miracles. After all, her destiny is always changing. Only the present can really change the future.

At this point in thought, the high priest Berika began to hold her breath and fully exerted this extremely difficult big prophecy.

...

“I think Miss Trelis, there may be some misunderstanding.”

Far from the other side of the high priest Berika, above the huge remnant, the ash apostle Nagham, who was a * of heavenly spirits, actually called the “Miss” of Bliss.

And his cold face, at this time also eased, stretched out his hand to the Supreme Demon Core, and slowly retracted it, looking humble and polite, harmless to humans and animals.

But this very different contrast, but like a cold chill, made the opposite Bliss Mo Ji always cold into the bone.

“This block explores the remains of ancient battlefields, not for myself.”

The corner of the apostle Nagm’s mouth slightly raised, his eyes fixed on the Bliss Magi, while turning slowly, blocking the quietly suspended Supreme Demon Core with his body.

At this moment, his more than two hundred demon warriors seemed to be scattered inadvertently, and the thus formed circumstance of secret enveloping increased the pressure of Bliss Magic Ji.

“You also know that this is an enemy-occupied area. It is not enough to leave the relics of His Majesty the Lord Lord. If it is captured by some people who are willing to speculate, the consequences will be unimaginable.”

The apostle Nagham, with sharp eyes, continued to say casually, “So the original intention of this seat to solve the worries for His Majesty the Lord, came here in secret, to get back the relics of the year for his majesty. Your Majesty returned to the summit in the morning, swept the world, and once again led us to the glory and glory!

It must be said that the face of the Ash Apostle Nagum really means that it will change.

Last second, he was still thinking of taking away the devil’s body and core, Luo Suo. But in a blink of an eye, he became loyal, dedicated to the devil.

Bliss Mo Ji was cruelly despised in her heart, but at this moment she did not dare to have a little carelessness, a firm look, and even did not dare to loosen a bit.

“Cough, Your Majesty Nagham, it’s really hard work.”

Bliss Mo Ji covered her lips and smiled, and her posture was a little more modest. Submit it personally to His Majesty the Devil Lord, and by this time this credit, I believe all will be attributed to Your Majesty Nagham. “

“Cui Lisi!”

As soon as the voice of the Bliss Magic Ji fell, the Claw Devil drove Dretu, and immediately glared and yelled. Man, clearly want to take advantage of the fire! “

“Bold Draytu, do you dare to question the loyalty of my Lord, Ackerman?” The Bliss Devil Ji Trilis gave her a cold look and gave her a strong look back.

Seeing her fearless posture, it was a posture of going to war without a word.

Although at this moment, the only person who appeared was the Bliss Mo Ji, but her awe-inspiring spirit that really did not fear, really shocked more than two hundred demon soldiers in front of her.

It was as if the Apostle Ackerman, and the army he led were nearby, but this side of the Apostle Nagham was not afraid to touch it easily.

And what they are doing now is the death penalty that angered the demon Lord Luo Sui, which is the main reason why they dare not act lightly.

“Miss Cui Lisi, you are so worried about this seat, how can we question the loyalty of Senior Ackerman?”

The Ash Apostle Nagham stepped forward and reached down to press down the red-faced Dreytu, and said slowly, “How precious is this Supreme Demon Core, since I want to hand it over, this seat will naturally be handed To Senior Ackerman. I just do n’t know, where is Senior Ackerman now? “

Now the ashes apostle Nagum, and his more than two hundred men, have just gradually recovered from the disembarkation of the beginning of the Bliss Maggie.

You know, Ackerman, who swallowed the stars, is really big, but they are not soft persimmons. Everyone knows how powerful this Supreme Demon Lord possesses, no matter which side can obtain this magic core, as long as it can be fully absorbed, it can definitely make its own strength go further.

Perhaps the degree of promotion is still not up to the realm of the deity Lord Luo Sui, but at most it is only that line.

Therefore, how can he easily give up this ashes of the universe?

It’s just that they are currently under-staffed, and when it’s unclear how many people Ackerman brought over, they were really a little embarrassed by the bliss of Bliss Maggie.

Otherwise, with Ackerman’s fierce heart, in order to supreme magic core, kill all of them in this subspace, it may not be impossible.

Therefore, his ash apostle Nagham must understand Ackerman’s forces before he can be sure to lead people to deal with this Ackerman thief.

“Cough, your Majesty Nagham, don’t worry. Your Majesty Ackerman is nearby.”

Bliss Moki Cui Lisi was as charming as a weave, and after a smirk, the tone was quite proud, “When we came, we just met your battleship, Your Majesty, but your battleship seems to have blocked this space. Exit, so His Majesty Ackerman ’s fleet is helping your battleship move elsewhere. “

“What do you mean?” The ash apostle Nagm’s face instantly froze.

“Your Majesty, you understand the concubine’s meaning.” The Bliss Maggie also gradually lowered his gaze, “Your Majesty Ackerman, I will be there in a moment.”

Bliss Maggie is very clear that one of the pedestrians of the Ash Apostle Nagham is really afraid of Ackerman and the demon Lord Luo Sui. This is the only weapon she can use to temporarily suppress Nagham and others.

The scene fell into silence again.

Opposite the ash apostle Nagham, his face was erratic, and his more than two hundred men, all of them gloomy, seemed to be secretly brewing something.

Bliss Devil Ji Trilis even saw that the Claw Deer, Dreytu, and several men, seemed to be secretly contacting their battleship, but there was no response, which made them all anxious.

To know that battleship, it can be said that they are the biggest shackles. Without battleships, the ash apostle Nagam and his men will have nowhere to escape in this universe.

“Miss Belika, and Lord, are you all right? The concubine will not be delayed ...”

The Bliss Magic Ji Trilis silently meditation in her heart, she is like an ant on the hot pot, already anxious.

To put it bluntly, everything she said is false, as long as it can confuse the ashes apostle Nagum, how long can they shock these people? That really depends on God’s will.

“Cui Lisi, your master Ackerman, dare to buckle this battleship, do you really fear him?”

The ashen apostle Nagm was awe-inspiring and began to overflow gradually, even the surrounding temperature seemed to rise a few points.

The so-called dog hurry will jump the wall, not to mention that Nagham is still a powerful god, at this time he is really a little angry.

“Your Majesty Nagham, my Lord Ackerman just helped His Majesty and re-berthed the ship.”

The Bliss Devil Ji Cui Lisi, still indifferent, continued to deal with it.

But as the peak of the demigod, she has gradually become somewhat unsupportive. Because regardless of personal strength or power, compared with the ashen apostle Nagham and others, it is really not worth mentioning.

“Just berthing the ship again? Ha ha, can he also touch this battleship at will?”

The ashes apostle Nagum was indeed a little angry, and now stared at the Bliss Mo Ji coldly shouted, “Connect Ackerman to this seat immediately, this seat will talk to him directly!”

This made the Bliss Maggie a little embarrassed. She had already turned to Wang Yan, the son of flames, and there was really no way to contact Ackerman who swallowed the star.

Seeing that the Bliss Magi had no action, the anger of the Ash Apostle Nagm immediately rose up, and the pressure on the Bliss Magi suddenly increased, and it also surged: "How? A little Magi, even this seat Dare you defy orders? "

In the highly hierarchical system of heavenly demons, a little magician dared to disobey the will of a  of heavenly demons, but it was a great sin. At this time, Bliss Maggie's reaction undoubtedly completely annoyed the Ash Apostle.

At this time, the natural cunning claw demon general Draytu came to the ash apostle Nagm and whispered a few words.

After listening to the ash apostle Nagham, his face changed in vain, and his entire face became turquoise because of his anger: "Cui Lisi, you better pray that you have not deceived this seat, otherwise ..."

Speaking of which, the spooky color in the eyes of the Ash Apostle Nagham jumped out. The kind of extreme anger and extreme emotions, just like the eve of the storm, may burst out at any time.

Finished ...

The bliss magic Ji Trilis suddenly tightened her heart, secretly flawed her acting skills, it seems that the other party discovered.

After all, she was the only one from beginning to end. She could last for a while, but could not last for a lifetime. If he could not be called to swallow the star apostle Ackerman at this time, then she would definitely die.

"Oh, why, there is no sound?"

The apostle Nagm sneered scornfully, and his face was ugly to the extreme, "Where is Ackerman? Call him out for this seat!"

Under the overwhelming pressure of a god, Bliss Mo Ji became more and more difficult to support. The hands of the Apostle Ash also began to be surrounded, gradually approaching her.

Among them, the big devil's horned devil, Dreytu, even closed people and grinned: "Is your Majesty Ackerman not available? Can't it matter, it is the same to hand over your party!"

The situation is getting more and more crisis, and the bliss magic Ji Jiao frowns slightly, so he can't help but sigh secretly in his heart, and secretly said: "Lord, Cui Lisi has done her best."

By now, she had no choice but to devote herself to at least one shot, at least to earn more time for her master Wang Yan, the son of flame.

"Humph! Heavenly Devil Bliss!"

At this point of thought, it is useless to pretend again. The Bliss Mo Ji spins back, and the magic energy around him immediately explodes. A deceptive bliss magic power has been cast on such a large scale.

The celestial celestial power mastered by the bliss moji is derived from the secondary skill of the demon master Luo Sui's immeasurable power. Once the show is successful, the souls of the recruits will fall into a blissful illusion, and long-term obsession will not break free.

And the most powerful part of Bliss Magic is that it will be transmitted through smells, eyes, speech actions, and even spiritual fluctuations, truly reaching the soul and controlling the enemy invisible.

Only in this situation, the soul control of the Bliss Magic Ji is greatly reduced. Only more than two hundred legendary Tianmo soldiers are slightly affected, and the spirit is slightly paused.

As for the Ash Apostle Nagham, and the three demon heads led by the horn demon Deretu, they were not affected, and no response appeared at all.

On the contrary, let the Ash Apostle be completely sure that the Bliss Maggie was cheating.

"Cui Lisi, how dare you!" The horned demon general Draytu led many celestial warriors and shouted loudly.

"Oh, I didn't expect it, I really didn't expect that a little Mo Ji would dare to tease even this seat!" The ashen apostle Nagham, who had just been teased, found his face was already black, and his eyes were full of cruelty. "Conscientiously confess to your party, otherwise this seat personally searched your soul!"

In their view, Bliss Mo Ji alone dare not offend a * of heaven and spirit, even if he is so bold. Therefore, there must be a companion behind him, trying to obtain the supreme magic core they have worked hard to find!

As for who is behind this, they are still not sure, but as long as they capture the Bliss Maggie, they will naturally be able to torture all relevant information from her soul, and will give the most brutal revenge to those who dare to offend them .

As for what kind of suffering the Bliss Maggie would suffer, they did not care.

"Lord! Concubine take a step first!"

Bliss Mo Ji Bei bites his teeth, instead of falling into the opponent's hands, suffering from life to death, it is better to die with loyalty, detonate his own soul and body, perhaps not hurt a few people, but always can delay the time.

Deathmatches on both sides were triggered at once.

however.

At this moment, a mysterious energy wave suddenly passed through the surrounding space.
