Chapter 42 - Coach fight

The locker room of the Princeton Tigers was full of joy, but Duke was silent. There was no other than the heavy and tired breathing of the players. Coach K finally entered the locker room. He closed the door and scanned the group. Confused child, he knew that the first thing to do now was to reawaken their fighting spirit.

“At the last moment of the game, from 18:39 to 24:48, if it was not the opponent’s last three-point buzzer, our two teams scored 6: 6. Do you know what this means?” Said slowly.

“We can’t stop Lv from scoring, but his teammates can’t stop us from scoring too!” As the team’s brain, Du Hong quickly understood what Coach K meant.

“Yes! So it’s not that we didn’t have a chance in the second half!” Coach K looked at the core of the team with regrets. Du Hong was praised as the best point guard in the high school and was awarded as a member of Duke University. NCAA championship, various data records are filled with his name. It’s a pity that the limelight of the good old age was snatched by Jay Williams. He was slowly worn away, and the more simple and mediocre, the more predictable this year’s draft fell into the second round.

“Let’s get up and take a look at the tactics in the second half!” Seeing that the player’s fighting spirit has recovered a bit, Coach K started to write on the tactical board.

At the same time, coach Thompson also stopped the cheers of the players, “Do you think Duke has lost like this? That is Duke! The history of their team is full of reversal records of success, if you don’t want to be a joke. Collapse your smile and listen carefully to what to do next! “

In the second half, Lu Qiuqian just got the ball and ushered in the double attack of Du Hong and Deng Tai-Jones. Lv Qiuqian protected the ball and glanced at the position of his teammates. The fake motion shook Du Hong to pass the ball to Lei’s hand beyond the three-point line. Williams rushed past and Lei hurriedly missed the shot, Lando The husband grabbed a rebound and launched a fast break. Du Hong blocked the footsteps of Lu Qiuqian’s defense. Duke quickly passed the ball from JJ Redick. Duke pulled back a goal as soon as he opened.

Oh? Is this betting on my teammate’s shooting percentage? Lv Qiuqian patted Lei on the shoulder. “It doesn’t matter. The next shot is more decisive. I will still pass for you!”

Lei smiled gratefully, and the tension was slightly relaxed, but then either Lu Qiuqian's teammate missed a shot, or Duke decisively fouled and sent Princeton to the free throw line. The score was reduced to 32:51 in the past few rounds. Coach K continued to applaud excitedly, and Thompson immediately called a timeout.

"Spencer, you replaced Gardson in a while. Will you rest? Will rest instead of Ray!" Coach Thompson replaced Ray and Gardson in poor condition with two pitchers. To crack Coach K's tactics is not difficult. Either Lv Qiuqian is capable of breaking through the defense of the two or improve the hit rate of other players. Thompson chose the second path. "Like a normal training, relax and aim. Then shot! Can it be done! "

"Can!", Spencer and Will shouted at the same time.

The game restarted, although Spencer and Will had better shooting percentages than Gardson and Ray, but they still did not reach the training level under Duke's active defense; plus Duke used frequent foul interrupts Princeton's offensive rhythm and pitcher's feel.

Duke's fouls quickly accumulate to six times. By the seventh, NCAA's unique 1 + 1 free throw rules will be enforced. The fouled player will only make a second free throw after the first free throw is scored. If the first goal is missed, the free throw is declared over.

Duke successfully used this rule, neither Patrice nor Spencer grasped the opportunity of free throws, 34:51, 36:51, 38:53, 42:53 ... The score approached slowly.

Is still not enough, or put on Ed, let him help Lu Qiuqian control the ball, and then Lu Qiuqian main attack? This thought flashed in Thompson's mind, and was immediately rejected by him. Under this level of confrontation, I'm afraid I can't insist on urinating pants in two rounds?

It seems that the combat effectiveness of these partners is not enough! Lv Qiuqian secretly sighed, he glanced at the coach K who was so relieved, do you think it would be ok? If I play a center, this trick may still work, but I play a defender! The biggest difference between O'Neal and Jordan is that O'Neill needs someone to pass him to solve the problem, and Jordan can do everything by himself!

This time I have to come by myself! Lu Qiuqian smiled slightly after receiving the ball, "It seems that you two are not enough!"

“Don’t just say, come here!”, Dengtai-Jones saw that Lu Qiu Jian had chosen the pass just a few times, so he started to talk again.

Using the width of the backcourt, a horizontal dribble broke through Duhon’s defense and quickly entered the frontcourt. Dribbling the ball with a left hand beyond the three-point line and slamming down the ball, two consecutive fast-paced dribble changes the ball to the left and fly away . . . Control the ball with your left hand and use the rotation force of the ball to make the ball stay on the hand for a while. At the same time, the body and head swayed to the left, and Dengtai-Jones’ conditioned reflex seemed to shift the center of gravity to the left. Lv Qiu Jian quickly bounced the ball from the left to the right, and instantly changed hands to start dribbling to accelerate Like the wind drifting past Dengtai-Jones, Dengtai-Jones wanted to forcefully reverse the center of gravity On his pace, unfortunately, the result of adjusting the center of gravity between hastily caused him to fall to the ground, only to watch Lu Qiu Jian layup and score.

“Crossover!”, Huo Fei returned to the stands to put down the camera and yelled, “I didn’t expect anyone other than Allen to be able to make this trick fascinating!”

Wo There was an exclamation in the stands. After a moment of silence, even Duke fans applauded for Lu Qiu Jian’s performance! The morale that Duke just mentioned was beaten mercilessly by Lv Qiu Jian!

Duke, who suffered a great shot, then had another fatal pass error. Lv Qiu Jian blocked the ball passed by Redick to Deng Tai-Jones, and once again made Crossover shake the Williams slam dunk; again on the defensive end Block Deng Tai-Jones behind and take the rebound.

Dengtai-Jones, who has served as the background for three performances in succession, is getting hotter and hotter, and watching Lu Qiu Jian’s back reveals a vicious look. Since you humiliate me so much, don’t blame me for being too cruel!

In front of the penalty area, he deliberately pretended to be Lv Qiu Jian’s center of gravity and gave way to a breakthrough. When Lv Qiu Jian hit the basket, he immediately followed up and watched Lv Qiu Jian pull a lever to avoid Williams’s. The cover sent the ball into the basket, slightly estimated the landing point of Xia Qiu Jian, and quietly extended his right foot to the foothold of Lu Qiu Jian!

Thank Z Taoist and the incompetent power for 588 reward, thank the dragonfly wings and the sun and moon Xi Tongguang for reward. Deng Tai Jones had black feet under the volute! Revenge here is all right.
