Chapter 481 - Dream Team reaction

Persuading Yao Ming, Wei Yunyue simply checked all the men's basketball team members. The team doctors in the team had a slight word, but after Wei Yunyue quickly reported his examination results, he suddenly turned to admiration and followed. Since then, he has been pestering Wei Yunyue and asking various professional questions.

No surprise to Lu Qiuqian, but they are famous, and they have extraordinary accomplishments in the field of Chinese and Western medicine, otherwise they will not be sent to take charge of Xi and planned medical work.

"The problem is serious but not serious, but he is too tall and too heavy, and he is overwhelmed by physical exercise for a long time. My suggestion is to rest for a while. I help him do physical therapy and acupuncture. It can be restored by the end of the group stage!" Wei Yunyue told Lu Qiuqian after the inspection.

"To the end of the group stage!" Yao Ming frowned, "Not so serious? I think I can play a group stage!"

"Brother Yao, don't you worry about me?" Lu Qiuqian pretended to be angry. "Or should I just say, after finishing these warm-up games, do you decide whether to rest? When will the rest end? ?"

After a moment of silence, Yao Ming nodded and agreed. Lu Qiuqian then went to do the work of the basketball center and coach Yunas, and agreed with them that Yao Ming would not participate in the warm-up match temporarily. When will come back.

After two days of running-in, Lu Qiuqian kicked off the first game on behalf of the Chinese men's basketball team. They will play against the African powerhouse Angola. Sat on the bench and seemed to have no intention of playing.

Is he injured again? The fans immediately raised their hearts in their throats. If he was injured, the Chinese men's basketball team would be hard to beat this Olympics!

However, although Yao Ming didn't play, the performance of the Hua Guo Men's Basketball Team did not disappoint them. Under the series of Lu Qiuqian, the Hua Guo Men's Basketball Offense played very well. Although Yao Ming's inner gate was not defensive, Lu Qiu Jian nearly collapsed Angola's point guard and was replaced by the head coach in just five minutes.

The game lost its suspense five minutes before the end. Lv Qiu Jian brought a hearty victory for the Chinese men's basketball team. He also handed over 23 points, 11 assists, 8 rebounds, 5 steals and 3 blocks of luxury data. In one game, he conquered all Chinese fans.

"Stop, let's watch the video of a game!" Mike Shashevsky, head coach of the Mengba team, hurried to the sidelines to stop the training.

"Whose game? Argentina? Greece or Spain?" James, one of the three captains of the Dream Eight team, reported several team names that left a deep memory for the Dream Team.

"It is the game between the Chinese men's basketball team and Angola. LeBron, Cameron, Dwyane, a player who has left a deep memory for you joined them!" Coach K old smiled barely, and Lu Qiu Jian left How good is his memory?

"I have watched many games of Yao ... Damn it! It would not be him!" James's smile froze, and he remembered the name he saw on the Internet yesterday, "The Prince Lu ? He has already played? "

Do n't mention the name of Princeton and Lu! Anthony and Wade also remembered the bitter defeat in the NCAA five years ago.

"He has not participated in any competition for five years! Would it still pose a threat to us?" Anthony and Wade exchanged glances.

"Look at you and you know. He played 31 minutes in this game and scored 23 points, 11 assists, 8 rebounds, 5 steals and 3 blocks. In addition, there was no mistake!" Coach K went to the video studio without looking back. .

"Hey, Jason, it's a bit like your data!" Howard said, snatching Jason Kidd's shoulder.

"I will never make a mistake!" The active three-pointer replied with a shrug.

"What did this player named Lu do? Why did LeBron look so embarrassed?" Junior Chris Paul asked curiously.

“Just the year before you entered Wake Forest University, the player named Lu led Princeton to defeat Anthony ’s Syracuse University and Wade ’s Marquette University to win the NCAA championship! Do n’t you know? Then he defeated LeBron again in the one-on-one heads-up!” Bosh, who is also part of the 03 Golden Generation, explained.

“Remembered! It turned out to be him! His three-pointer left a deep impression on me, but why didn’t such a player participate in the NBA?” Paul was awakened to distant memories.

“Well, he said that he made too little money to play in the NBA and couldn’t meet his ideals at all!” I remembered those words that Lu Qiuqian told reporters. Bosh shrugged and smiled.

After watching the game, the faces of these emperor superstars of the Mengba team lost their smiles, and the accuracy of the outside shooting is just fine. The key Chinese men ’s basketball team also has a big center Yao Ming. If the two form an interaction, this game is really not Fight!

At the end of the training, at the regular press conference, those olfactory reporters really asked questions about Lu Qiuqian, “Coach K, when Lu was in Princeton. He gave you a bitter defeat, Do you think this tragedy will repeat itself at this Olympics? “

“Mengba team is the most powerful team in the world, we will not lose to anyone!” Coach K replied toughly.

“But you just lost to the Greek team two years ago!” Two years ago, the head coach of the Mengqi team was also him, this time the reporter came to expose the scar. Old K held back his anger.

“LeBron, do you remember that one-on-one? That video has become a popular video on YouTube today, what do you want to say about this?” The reporter turned to James.

“At that time, I was not at the same level as I am today. I experienced five years of high-level competition training, but he did not participate in a competition during this period. If we meet in the Olympic Games. I will beat him!” James said with a black face.

“Cameron ...”

A sharp question was thrown at the players who had been defeated by Lu Qiujuan. The next day, there were photos of Lu Qiujuan wearing the No. 6 shirt of the Chinese men's basketball team in the major media, and like European media, they posted pictures of coach K, James, Wade, and Anthony who had lost to him five years ago around Lu Qiujuan. The media commentary was, "He is back Now, are you ready for revenge?"

For a time, men's basketball became the most anticipated item in the entire Olympics!

Chapter 482 - Olympic opening

"Do you know, when I heard that you didn't participate in the NBA draft, Greg was disappointed and regrettable!" Lu Qiujuan easily led the Chinese men's basketball team to the first team to reach the final of the Diamond Cup. Before the game started, the final Ginobili, the soul of the opponent's Argentine men's basketball team, came up to say hello,

"Greg thinks that you are the type of player the Spurs need most. They are smart and willing to share the ball. If it was n't that year, the admiral would retire, maybe he would really  to win a better draft pick. You were taken down!" Ginobili explained that he was afraid that he did not understand.

"Look at him then he avoided a huge loss!" Lu Qiujuan smiled and responded with blessings, "I hope you can achieve good results in the Olympics!"

"We are ready!" Ginobili looked at his teammates, Oberto, Delfino, Scola and Nocioni, who have been in the NBA for many years, although they have no dreams of personal ability. The team is so strong, but the team's cooperation is more familiar, "Yes, what happened to Yao? Is he injured?"

"Thank you for your concern. His injury has not fully recovered. It is not easy to say whether he can play in this Olympic Games." Lu Qiujuan made a melancholy expression. He had already released smoke bombs in the previous games. Now, Yao Ming's prospects are underlined again.

"Wish him good luck, I will say hello to him!" Ginobili nodded and walked in the direction of Yao Ming, where the teammate of the Yao Ming Rockets Scola was talking to Yao Ming.

The game started in a friendly atmosphere, both sides of the game have retained a certain strength, one does not want to be injured when the Olympics are about to start, on the other hand, it does not want to show all the cards prematurely, so the defense The intensity is not great, which makes Lu Qiujuan and Ginobili two good hands who are good at breaking through.

The whole game has almost become a personal confrontation between the two of them, constantly breaking through layups, breaking points, snake-shaped breakthroughs, crossovers, cross-dribbling and other quizzies in the endless stream. The fans watching the scene shouted.

Until five minutes before the end of the game, the two sides played a little more officially. Unfortunately, because Lu Qiuqian's hit rate was higher than Ginobili in the previous game, the difference between the two sides was not low, so the Argentina team replaced all the main forces after trying several times without reducing the score. The men's basketball team won the Diamond Cup before the Olympics.

"I will show you the data analysis of this game. Compared with the previous game, our key success rate, shooting percentage and other key data have not shown a significant decline, considering that the strength of the Argentina team is much stronger than Last opponent, this has to be a big improvement ... "At the post-match summary meeting, Ye Chuliang showed up a lot of tables and graphs and started to explain. The players below listened carefully.

Ye Chu was picked up by Lu Qiuqian from the men's football team. He cooperated well with Gao Mentor in the team. Using his data analysis as a reference, Gao Mentor adjusted the men's football tactics and achieved good results; now The work on the men 's football side is on track, so he finds Ye Chu from there to help the men 's basketball team improve their skills.

Ye Chu did not disappoint him, he quickly won the trust of the men's basketball coaching staff and all members, and became an indispensable member of the coaching staff; he not only provided various tactics and training for the coaching staff from a mathematical perspective The recommendations above will also give improved methods for each player's technical characteristics.

He focused on the technical actions of the players who made the most mistakes, although the time is tight and it is impossible to comprehensively improve. But if it can be improved by one more point, the Chinese men's basketball team will have one more chance of winning.

The news of the men 's basketball victory was quickly published in the media. At this time, the fans remembered that Lu Qiuqian was not only the best football star in the world. He was the man who won the MOP in the Final Four!

"Hey, how good would you say if he went to play in the NBA? It would be wonderful if he could win the NBA championship with Yao Ming!" A fan said regretfully with the newly published newspaper.

“You can’t get the Champions League and the Nobel Prize when you go to the NBA! The European Champions Cup and not to mention him, I think the weight of the Nobel Prize can be much heavier than the championship!” His friends couldn’t help refuting.

“Yeah! Now it seems that Professor Lu is probably not likely to go abroad, I hope to see the performance that surprises us at the Olympics!” Said he took out his mobile phone.

“Why are you doing this?”

“Book a ticket to go to Beijing! I’m going to watch the men’s basketball game on the spot!”

“Everyone, let me take a step first, and then we will see you in Beijing!” After the last game. The men’s basketball team will have another day off in Jinling, and Lu Qiuqian still has the men’s football game over there, so leave first.

“Okay, we will cheer for you when we get to the capital!” Yao Ming said. During this period, Wei Yunyue’s physical therapy and acupuncture made him feel that his injuries gradually recovered, and he became optimistic about the prospects of the Olympics.

“Xiao Wei and Xiaoye I will leave it to you first. Brother Yao, you have to control your own training volume. Xiao Chen remembers to adjust the training according to the statistics of Xiaoye. Ambition ...” Carefully finished the instructions one by one, Lu Qiu Jiancai boarded the car.

I still took my own train for more than ten hours of journey Lv Qiuqian came to the capital, Huang Ziwei had been waiting at the station for a long time; this year’s Olympic team and Brazil, New Zealand and Belgium teams were divided A group, like the World Cup that year, fans’ expectations of the Olympic team are to defeat New Zealand, draw Belgium, and lose to Brazil, and finally qualify through the advantage of the goal difference.

But Lu Qiuqian and Gao Guizhi’s strategy was not like this. They wanted two wins against New Zealand and Belgium.

The first game was on August 7th. In the cheering of tens of thousands of fans and all the Olympic men’s basketball players, Lv Qiuqian led the Olympic team to beat Belgium 3-0 easily and won the start.

Then came the opening ceremony of the Olympic Games. Lu Qiu Jian followed other athletes to enter the stadium under the leadership of flag bearer Yao Ming. Everyone originally wanted Lu Qiu Jian to be the flag bearer, but he politely refused.

After the opening ceremony, the next day was the match between the Chinese men's basketball team and the American men's basketball team. LeBron James stood on the court and watched for a long time. He did not find Lu Qiu Jian's figure. He could n't help but walk to the suit. In front of Yao Ming, "Where did Yao go?"

"Oh, there are other things he cannot participate in this competition today!"

"What's the matter?" James, who had been preparing for this game for several days, was a little discouraged.

"He is going to participate in the Olympic men's football match!" Yao Ming looked at him with a smile!

Chapter 483 - 1 way high song

"Hey, is he afraid?!" James is extremely dissatisfied. In his view, this is the only chance to compete with Lu Qiu Jian in this Olympic Games. It is unlikely that the Chinese men's basketball team will continue to meet the Dream Team in the knockout. Yes, he had suffocated himself and planned to play well with Lu Qiu Jian, but he did not expect the other party not to appear.

"No way, who asked him to sign up for the men's basketball and men's football game at the same time, just tonight there is another men's football game, he can not take care of both games at the same time!" Yao Ming said with a smile.

In fact, the men's football game against Belgium started at 19:45 in the evening, and it is now over. The Olympic team made a free kick with Lu Qiu Jian himself and scored a valuable three points. Six points in two rounds have been obtained in advance. Qualification for qualifying; now men's football fans are celebrating the biggest breakthrough in the history of the Chinese men's football team.

Lu Qiu Jian would have had time if he wanted to rush over, but he just played a whole game, and now I am afraid he has no physical strength to play another high-intensity basketball game. This is Yao Ming's idea. In fact, Lu Qiu Jian is fully capable of playing another game, but the win or loss of this group match is completely meaningless. Losing this game will not affect their form of qualifying, but they must be exposed in advance. Lu Qiu Jian's strength.

In order for the Chinese men's basketball team to go further, Lu Qiujiang deliberately chose to give up. In addition to him and Yao Ming, the personal abilities of the Chinese men's basketball team are several levels away from the dream team. To win, you have to take advantage of every opportunity that you can use.

'S tactics are clouded, and they are exhausted again and again, and now James, Wade, Anthony and the old K coach are holding their breath! Now Lu Qiujiang chose to let their fists hit the cotton bales,

Without Lu Qiujiang and Yao Ming, the young Yi Jianlian and the aging Wang Zhizhi can only watch the stars James, Wade, Anthony and Kobe flying around in their own restricted area.

However, at the end of the game, the winning side did not have much joy, and the losing side was not frustrated; James did not have the pleasure of revenge, and the Chinese men's basketball team was still full of confidence in the next game.

"We are missing two absolute main players in this game, so it is no surprise that we lost to the Dream Team. I think the situation will be better after Lu comes back in the next game!" Head coach Yunus quipped at the post-match press conference and talk.

"Yes, there is nothing to celebrate in this victory. Dwight wants to play against Yao. Me and Kelong and Dwyane want to try to see how much strength Lu has left five years after disappearing from basketball. Unfortunately, our wishes have not been fulfilled! I think it will be difficult for us to meet them again at this Olympics! "James has no energy despite the fact that this game is almost thirty," I want to wait for all the games to end, am I want him one-on-one again? "

"LeBron, do you think Lu did not participate in this game because of fear of losing to you?" The reporter from Migu dug a pit in disgust.

Is a new generation of commercial players. James has seen more of these tricks, and he can talk to Barkley, but how can he get this way? He shook his head and said, "No, no, I don't think so; who let Lu participate in the two events at the same time, I watched the schedule of the Chinese men's football team, and they faced Ronaldinho in the last game. Brazil's team has little hope of winning, so it's the right strategy to seize today's game; on the basketball side, there are many opportunities in the late stage of the group stage. His decision is entirely reasonable! "

After dealing with the reporter and returning to the locker room, James' expression was different. He punched * the closet. "Damn, he must be scared!"

“LeBron, you can go find him one-on-one! I will record every second of your game and post it on YouTube! What do you think?” Howard joked aside.

Amount, haven't played in five years! His strength should have fallen? In James's mind, Lu Qiu Jian's ten three-pointers ended the game and the previous precise shots of the Diamond Cup in turn flashed in his mind. What he said at the press conference just now will be Wouldn't it be another mistake?

Today's game, the men's football fans were happily unable to add, but the men's basketball fans were not satisfied. I bought the ox tickets for several times, but I did not expect that Yao Ming and Lu Qiu Jian did not play! Isn't this a waste of money?

Fortunately, Lu Qiu Jian did not make them wait. Two days later, in the second game of the men's basketball group game against Spain, Lu Qiu Jian came under the limelight and began his debut in the Olympic basketball court.

In this competition. Although Spain finally reached the finals, they entered the state slowly, and in the game against the Chinese men's basketball team, they still dragged to overtime to win; now Yao Ming can't play, lacking a stable scoring point and inside the defensive gate, but there is a better scorer and offensive organizer.

Spain's starting lineup is led by Lakers star Gasol, who just lost to the Celtics in the finals, with Fernandez, Lopez, Jimenez, Reyes; Lu Qiu Jian played in the Chinese men's basketball team. Jian, Sun Yue, Zhu Fangyu, Wang Zhizhi and Yi Jianlian. Lu Qiu Jian's direct opponent is Raúl Lopez who plays for Real Madrid.

This player who has played for the Jazz and Grizzlies has not taken Lu Qiu Jian seriously in his mind. In his opinion, although Lu Qiu Jian defeated Real Madrid's football team, it does not mean that he can also win on the basketball court. Yourself.

But not long after the game started, Lu Qiu Jian taught him to be a man. A beautiful steal snatched the basketball from his hand, and then went all the way to the Spanish basket to dunk successfully, quickly bringing the atmosphere of the scene brought to.

In the next game, the Spanish team's style seemed to have been unsatisfactory. It fell behind by 16 points in the first three quarters. Although the Spanish team's style increased in the last quarter, Lu Qiu Jian's two three-pointers quickly stabilized the situation. , The game ended with a six-point victory over the Chinese men's basketball team

Lv Qiuqian led two teams in the double lane at the same time singing all the way.

The day after the men's basketball game ended, it was the men's football game again. After shaking hands with the China Olympic team, Ronaldinho looked at the other team's lineup as depressed as James. Hold a player and ask in stuttering English, "Where did Lu go?"

"Well, you are asking Brother Lu! He ... he was too tired of the men's basketball game yesterday, and he took a rest today!" Lin Xiao also replied in stammered English.

So Ronaldinho also realized the mood of James yesterday.

Chapter 484 - Knockout

I rely, last time I lost in the Champions League, I wanted to get revenge and you withdrew from the European football. Ronaldinho, like James, thinks he is unlikely to meet Lu Qiuqian in the knockout and is therefore particularly depressed.

Before this game, the two teams have determined the qualifications for the qualifying. Now they are competing for the first seat in the group, so after scoring two goals, the Brazil team and the Chinese men's football team tacitly reduced the confrontation and waited with confidence. At the end of the game, the Chinese men's football team won the second place in Group C with three wins, two wins, one loss and six points.

They will face the first Italian team in Group D three days later. This match will be played at the Workers Stadium in Beijing, and Lu Qiuqian of the province is heading to other regions.

This year's Italian Olympic team did not have many stars in the future. The most famous players in the team are Villarreal's Golden Boy Rossi, Juventus's Giovenko and AC. Milan's Abate, although the strength of the national Olympic team is first-class, but it is not impossible to find a chance to win, so the fans of the men's football team look forward to it again. Further?

However, Lv Qiuqian didn't think much about it. On the second day after the end of the game, he led the Chinese men's basketball team to start the game against Angola. The Angola team is probably the weakest opponent in the group stage. In addition, they have won the Diamond Cup once before, so the men's basketball players are extra confident. After the fourth quarter, the Chinese men's basketball team defeated their opponents by 95 to 66 and close to 30 points. A clear picture.

On the 16th, there should have been the quarter-finals of the men 's football team against Italy at 6 pm and the group match of the men 's basketball team against Germany at 8 pm.

In this way, it is impossible for Lu Qiuqian to participate in these two games at the same time. Since it is the quarter-finals against Italy, this is a fixed game, so Lu Qiuqian must give up this relatively unimportant group. Match.

This makes the head of the basketball management center  which dog of his football association's peer is scolding. If he loses the opportunity to qualify for the group because of the loss to the German game at night, this black pot will be on his own. .

"Professor Lu has no problems at all, and his condition is maintained very well. I don't feel tired at all! I feel a good rest at noon, and I can do it if I play again at night!" The team medical officer reported to him in surprise, Completely unscientific, Lu Qiuqian has the most games among these players. They also ran on both ends of football and basketball, which turned out to be better than Yi Jianlian 's.

Such a person in charge was relieved, but he was still not at ease, so he turned his attention to Yao Ming, with a few hopes in his eyes.

"Since Xiao Lu is going to play at night. Otherwise, he will take a break off the court first. I will try it first. If the game goes well, he can stop playing!" Yao Ming is more honest, "Dr. Wei recently The treatment is very good, I feel I have almost recovered! "

The words are like this, but now that the German team has Nowitzki, and a group of outstanding cadres, can it be easily defeated? Yao Ming is planning to fight despite the injury!

"What's almost the same? You have at least another week to fully recover!" Wei Yunyue is not a person in the basketball management center. Naturally, he doesn't have to face the head of the team and interrupt Yao Ming without any words. If you play tomorrow, the previous treatment will be in vain! "

"Yeah, you have a good rest!" Lu Qiuqian glared at the head of the basketball management center with impoliteness. Are you planning to completely destroy him? If you catch a thigh like this, you will die! "We have won two games now, so it should be no problem to qualify for the group! You can just wait for the knockout!"

The leader shrank under Lu Qiu Jian's eyes. In the morning match, Yao Ming still wore a suit to watch on the sidelines. Lu Qiu Jian did not appear on the sidelines at all, but went to the men's football team early in the morning. Bian and Coach Gao, Ye Chu, and the coaching staff from Bayern Munich discussed the strategy for this evening game.

Two core Chinese men's basketball teams played very tenaciously on the court, limiting the German team's offense again and again, but unfortunately lost in the last quarter. Nowitzki scored consecutively and eventually lost the game; but still because of the victory in the first two games in the top four in the group, still qualified to qualify.

In the evening, the men's football match officially started. If it is Brazil, Argentina and other offensive teams, the fragile defense of the Chinese men's football team is not easy to deal with, but the Italian team that insists on defensive counterattack meets Lu Qiu Jian and encounters the nemesis. The Chinese football team is attacking. He did not invest a lot of troops in the battle. Lu Qiu Jian and Lin Xiao, who had excellent dribbling skills, took turns to attack the opponent's defense line, trying to obtain opportunities by making free kicks.

This strategy is particularly effective when the Chinese Olympic team uses Lu Qiu Jian, the world's first free kick master and home advantage. Although it will not be as excessive as the Koreans did, but as long as it is a foul by the Italian team, the referee will be aware of it.

When the game entered more than thirty minutes, Lu Qiu Jian was knocked down by Abat at the front of the penalty area and got a free kick. Lu Qiu Jian did not waste. A beautiful arc bypassed Viviano's Defensive, dead ends; the Olympic team also won the semifinals with this thrilling goal.

In another game that followed, Nigeria and Côte d'Ivoire, the same two teams from Africa, caught a fight. Finally, the African Eagles won the game with a high skill; the opponent of the Chinese men's football team was decided. They will play against the Nigerian team on the 19th; the other pair of semi-final opponents are Argentina and Brazil, this time Messi and Ronaldinho will be opponents.

Can the Chinese men's football team enter the semi-finals of the Olympic Games? In the past few days, the fans of the Chinese men's football team are happy to suspect that they are dreaming. The forum is full of "quick tell me, I am not dreaming!", "Who give me a slap, let me see Are you awake! "

Tickets for the semi-finals were immediately fired into sky-high prices, and then fans and oxen were hesitating. Should I buy tickets for the finals or tickets for the three or four finals next?

In the final game of the men's basketball group match, Lu Qiu Jian and Yao Ming still watched the game. The Chinese men's basketball team lost to the Greek team again, but two wins and three losses were enough for them to qualify. The opponent they will face is European powerhouse Lithuania.

Chapter 485 - Advance to the final

On the 19th at 18 o'clock in the evening, they will play the semi-finals with Nigeria. At 16:45 on the 20th, they will play the Lithuanian quarterfinals with Lithuania. The double-line battle is really busy! Now the Olympic Committee is also depressed, they did not expect Lu Qiu Jian to lead the two teams into the knockout at the same time, already knew that they had to think of a way to make the schedule.

Bid farewell to the men's basketball team, Lu Qiu Jian returned to the men's football training center, where Ye Chu was holding his laptop and using his own software to analyze the Nigerian team's previous games.

This Nigeria maintains the tradition of African eagles. They have excellent physical fitness, exquisite skills, and sufficient physical fitness. Especially in the Olympic games, the physical and technical advantages of African teams have allowed them to achieve good results. Nigeria and Cameroon have successively Having won the Atlanta Olympics and the Sydney Olympics, Nigeria entered the semi-finals this time and faced a weak team like the Chinese men's football team. They were confident that they would make it to the finals again.

However, African teams are not without shortcomings. Their tactical qualities are always a headache, and they lack patience. If they can't afford to attack for a long time, they will appear irritable. The chance of winning the Chinese football team is here.

In the direction of high guidance, Lu Qiu Jian's decision to play the midfield is extremely wise. For the Chinese men's football team, there is one more Messi and one more Makelele, Pirlo and Alonso complex on the field. One more Messi will not necessarily score, but such an all-around midfielder can double the difficulty of scoring opponents.

"We are still playing 451 in this game, defensively looking for opportunities, and waiting until Nigeria loses patience in the second half before adjusting strategies based on the situation on the field!" Lu Qiu Jian discussed with the coaching staff and finally set the book The tone of the game.

At 18 o'clock in the evening, the Workers' Stadium in Beijing became a red sea. Fans from all over the country filled the stadium that can accommodate 64,000 people. The Chinese Olympic team will compete with the Nigera team for an entry. In the finals, Argentina and Brazil will compete for another seat at the Modu Stadium later; the Chinese Olympic team saves them the trouble of running long distances. This is the benefit of being a host!

The entire first half of the Olympic team shrank in their own half. Trying to resist Nigeria's offensive, Lu Qiujian not only blocked the opponent's breakthroughs in the middle, but also used loud shouts to maintain his own defensive formation, thanks to the team's concerted efforts and the excellent performance of the goalkeeper. Forty-five minutes later, the Nigerian team still failed to break the goal of the Olympic team; this gave all fans present a glimmer of hope.

Twenty minutes into the second half of the game, the Nigerian team became more irritable, and even the central defender overwhelmed the vicinity of the middle circle, and Gao Gui saw the opportunity. Lin Xiao, who held back most of the field, was sent out to try to use his excellent speed and dribbling skills to find opportunities.

Nigerian midfielder Ogburk once again broke along the sidewalk and was blocked by Zhao Yi's foot. He had to turn to the middle. Unexpectedly, Lv Qiujian saw the opportunity long ago. , And then immediately passed to Zheng Zhi, and at the same time shouted, "pass back!"

Zheng Zhi had no time to think about it, and instinctively kicked the ball to the middle according to Lu Qiujian's instructions. Lu Qiujian hurriedly rushed to the opponent's midfield before a Marseille maneuver escaped his tackle and began a long-distance attack.

Lv Qiujian quickly struck near the middle circle like a lightning. Nigeria's back line suddenly panicked, watching the football's most threatening player with the ball break through, how could he not be vigilant, so two people near the middle circle The central defender and a full-back defended him quickly, and they planned to stop Lu Qiujian even if it was a foul.

"Lv Qiujian's breakthrough with the ball attracted three Nigerian defensive players to chase and intercept. Nigeria's defense line was stirred up by him alone! We saw Lin Xiaozheng reading along the sidewalk to advance!" Huang Daxian was on the live broadcast seat. Shang stood up excitedly, "Beautiful pass! This reminds me of the game of Argentina against Brazil in the 1990 World Cup. Maradona gave the wonderful pass to Cangia! Lin Xiao caught it. Ball, only the Nigerian goalkeeper is left in front of him. Let 's see if he can seize this opportunity! "

"Lin Xiao tricked Nigeria's goalkeeper with a fake move! He is now facing an empty goal! The left foot is pushing! The ball is in! Long live the Chinese men's football team! Long live Lv Qiujian! Long live Lin Xiao! The ball leads, as long as you continue for another 20 minutes. The Chinese Olympic team will be the first Asian men 's football team to break into the Olympic finals! "Huang Daxian shouted incoherently, his voice drowned in the cries of more than 60,000 people In the voice.

The Nigerian team failed to reverse the game after all. They restarted the kick and immediately launched a fierce attack on the Chinese men 's football team. Unfortunately, their passion had been wiped out by Lin Xiao 's goal. Not only did he fail to score a goal, but also by Lu Qiu Jian seized the loophole in front of the goalkeeper. A midfielder shot locked the victory.

The Chinese men 's football team entered the final The whole body suddenly boiled; after the game, the fans surrounded the team bus, and finally Lv Qiujian stood out and said that he will participate in the men 's basketball tomorrow The game, and the players are already very tired, they have to go back to rest early, so they are reluctant to disperse.

The next day, almost all the headlines of the newspaper media were replaced by the news of the Chinese men 's football team entering the finals, and all the gold medal winners decided today became the support of these players.

However, the high director was not blinded by joy. He closed the base and refused to be interviewed by reporters and watched the fans. Since they all entered the finals, can they think farther? The football is round, the Argentina team has Messi, we also have Lu Qiujian, although even the fans of China are not optimistic about them, but high guidance still wants to find the slightest chance of victory.

The next day, Lu Qiujian led the Chinese men's basketball team to beat Lithuania in the absence of Yao Ming, and reached the semi-finals of the Olympic Games, also achieved a historic breakthrough.

Then, on the day before the Olympic men's football finals, they ushered in the challenge of their opponents in the group stage, the Spanish team. This time the Spanish team has adjusted the state and is not comparable in the group stage.

"Xiao Lu, I'm fully recovered now. Let me play next game!" Yao Ming, who showed great power on the training ground, looked at Lu Qiujian and said.

Only relying on these current players, I am afraid that it is difficult to beat Spain again. Should he play?

Chapter 486 - Meet the Dream Team

“Wait any more! Is the secret weapon always used in the most critical place!” Lv Qiujiang thought about it. Although it was difficult to play Spain, it was not invincible. The final dream team was the big boss. The dream team of this year has learned the lessons of the previous few cracks and summoned the top stars in the league. The players’ desire to win and the will of the game are by no means comparable before. If you do not take some strategies, the Chinese men’s basketball team will have few wins machine.

For the final, Lu Qiujiang already had some ideas. Basketball is a five-person sport. Even Jordan cannot win on his own. The hope of the final victory is pinned on Yao Ming and other teammates.

Of course, the premise of all this is to defeat the Spanish team led by Gasol. At 8 pm on August 22, Wukesong Stadium, Yi Jianlian and Gasol stood in the middle circle to prepare to jump the ball, the referee raised the basketball high Tossed, the game officially started.

In addition to the ordinary fans, the head of the Football Association and Huang Ziwei also sat among the fans. If they put them in the past, they will not be brave! You know, many fans like basketball and football. If they are recognized by the fans, they may not be able to go straight out. However, the disconnection of this Olympic team has surprised all fans. They dare to show up now. People are piled up!

God bless this game early, let Professor Lu reserve a little more energy! Although the team doctors did not find any signs of fatigue in Lu Qiujiang’s body, they were still not at ease. The other members of the Olympic team were tired enough just to participate in football games. Now Lu Qiujiang can maintain such physical strength on both sides. , I’m afraid it’s going to be the limit already? If he can’t play in the final, he will lose a lot.

However, the Spanish team will not estimate their thoughts. In this game, they adopted a double point guard tactic. Fernandes and Golden Boy Rubio played together. Their strategy is that Lu Qiujiang defends the ball to another player. In order to avoid the strongest point of the Chinese men’s basketball team, to attack their defense.

“Sun Yue, pay attention to his pass, he wants to shoot and let him shoot! Be careful not to foul!” Lu Qiujiang stopped Fernandes himself and handed Rubio to Sun Yue to defend.

With his foresight, Lu Qiujiang knew that Rubio would be a popular candidate next year. He has excellent organization and stealing ability, but the lack of the ability to end the game has become his biggest shortcoming. In the NBA for several years, his protagonist has been ranked in the forefront of the league, but his average score has been hovering around 10 . The shooting percentage has never exceeded 40%, and the three-point percentage is pitifully just 30%, but the free throw percentage has reached 80%; for such players, let him shoot is the best choice.

Rubio took the ball outside the three-point line. Seeing Sun Yue still one meter away from him, he did not hesitate to take a shot; the ball was short and the rebound should fall to the left of the free throw line! With a lightning judgment in his head, Lv Qiuqian let Fernandes rush to the inside, and the basketball fell into his hand as soon as he arrived.

Drove the ball to the frontcourt and slammed into the penalty area, evading Gasol's cover, passing the ball from his armpit to Yi Jianlian's hand, Yi Jianlian severely scored two points with a split.

The Spanish team continued to attack, Rubio still chose to shoot, "Dazhi. Three steps to the left to prepare for the rebound!" The ball fell out of his control range, Lu Qiuqian quickly reminded.

After this period of competition and training, the team has formed an unreserved trust in Lv Qiuqian. Wang Zhizhi did n't have time to think about it and followed the instructions of Lv Qiuqian to run, raised his hands at the position, and the basketball fell to himself lightly. In the hand; no wonder what I just said is to pick up the rebound instead of grabbing the rebound. Is this rebound too easy?

Can't take it with emotion, Wang Zhizhi protected the basketball, and handed it to Lu Qiuqian after Gasol left; there is an existing Yi Jianlian and Gasol entangled, although his strength is not as good as Gasol. But today his defensive strategy is in place, making Gasol very uncomfortable; Fernandes on the outside is blocked by Lu Qiuqian, and others are blocked by defensive players. Only Rubio has a good chance. Unfortunately, his shooting is too low, basically three shots to score a goal.

In this way, the score in the first quarter was slowly pulled away. In the second quarter, the Spanish team adjusted their strategy, but Lu Qiuqian, who took a break for a while, still maintained a high percentage of hits.

At the end of the game, due to Rubio's many iron hits, the Spanish team eventually lost by a three-point disadvantage. After the game, his ranking on the draft prediction website quickly declined, and the prospect of entering the NBA became dim.

However, in order to win the game, Lu Qiuqian hardly rested the whole game, which made Huang Ziwei and the leaders of the Football Association full of worry.

The next day, at the Workers Stadium, Qin Feng walked into the locker room before the game to cheer for the players; the passion of these boys was immediately mobilized.

“Lionel, I haven’t seen you for a long time!” Lu Qiu Jian greeted the old acquaintances of the Argentina team Messi, Mascherano and Sosa before the game. “This is probably my last game. You will have many opportunities in the future, or let me win this championship! “

“You have snatched me a championship! This time I will not let you!” Messi remembered the Champions League final that year. Then let us wait and see! Lv Qiu Jian smiled and retreated to the front of the back line. The game was in a fierce battle from the first minute. Messi, Aguero, Di Maria, Gago and other talented players repeatedly attacked the Chinese football team. Zeng Cheng The guarded goal has stood the test again and again.

At the end of ninety minutes, with Messi’s superb performance of breaking through five players and Lü Qiu Jian’s free kick, the two teams were tied, and if it was not for their bad luck today, they played a total of four goal posts, The Chinese national team lost long ago.

Overtime, the Argentina team had two more chances, but unfortunately it was blocked by the goal post again; another time, Lu Qiu Jian got back from the goal line and the two teams entered a penalty shootout.

“Come on, give me the gloves!” Lu Qiu Jian patted Zeng Cheng’s shoulder, Gao Guizhu froze for a while, nodded and agreed with his decision, Lu Qiu Jian stood in front of the goal.

Ten minutes later, Messi, the fourth player, looked seriously at Lu Qiu Jian. The first three players of the entire penalty shootout in Argentina had no hits. If Ustari played a brave shot, he scored a goal. Ball, the Argentina team has lost!

Looking at the goal closely, approaching, starting, Lu Qiu Jian jumped up and blocked the ball flying to the lower left corner, Messi kneeled weakly on the lawn!

Lv Qiu Jian raised his hands to greet the cheers of 60,000 fans, and only the last game was left!

Chapter 487 - Cool appearance

Celebrating the fireworks before they were gone, Lv Qiu Jian dropped his excited teammates and brought Ye Chu and Wei Yunyue to the station of the Chinese men’s basketball team. Yao Ming and others naturally congratulated him. .

“How can we fight tomorrow? I can’t hold back anymore after so many games!” Yao Ming broke Wang Zhizhi and Yi Jianlian’s envelope again during training at noon today.

“I’m afraid you won’t be able to start tomorrow!” Lv Qiujuan smiled slightly and said his plan, Yunas and Yao Ming and others fell into contemplation.

At 14 o’clock on the afternoon of August 23, it was still Wukesong Stadium. Numerous fans outside the venue waved thick cash to pray for a ticket even in the corner, but even if they increased the price by ten or twenty times No one took it for granted, and no fan was willing to miss this Mars-to-Earth battle.

Qin Feng appeared on the sidelines of the Olympic Games for the second day in a row, and this time he was not the only elder; due to the tradition of the Chinese Revolution, many leaders liked basketball. The current prime minister inspected the work before the Olympics In front of the men’s basketball players, he showed a great skill in the layup. According to Yunas’ evaluation, his movements are quite professional; together with Qin Feng and Lv Kunqi who was shortlisted with him in the elders team, although his skills are average, but It’s very brave to play.

The three of them took their wives to the scene to watch the game. While waiting for the players to play, they talked excitedly, unlike the serious look at work; together with them was Xia Xiao. At this time, Teacher Yuan was pulling What she said.

The Mengba team took the lead in the game, and the appearance of each star caused a huge cheer on the spot, especially when Kobe Bryant came out, the cheer reached its peak; the charm of the NBA made them have countless fans in China. The finals are not faced with the Chinese men’s basketball team, I am afraid they will become their home here, right?

Then the players of the Chinese men’s basketball team also came out. What made the fans extremely depressed was that Yao Ming was still wearing a formal suit and did not warm up after entering the court. He went straight to the bench and sat down.

“Yao, is your injury still okay?” Howard Howard, who had been looking forward to playing against him, asked with regret.

“I also want to fight the whole game with you. But my physical condition doesn’t allow me to do this!” Yao Ming vaguely replied. Although Howard is fierce, he is not afraid at all. I didn’t get much cheaper in my hands.

“Yao. Where did Lu go? Didn’t he take part in this game?” James looked at the eleventh place for the Chinese player, but Lu Qiujian still didn’t appear; could it be that the football final was too tired yesterday Okay, do n’t have the strength to play today? This is too disappointing.

“He will come out right away!” The three people’s eyes turned to the player’s channel at the same time, because they all heard the sound of playing basketball there.

A basketball flew out of the player channel. Crossed a beautiful arc and flew to the basket; it is unlikely to score so far? Before waiting for James to say what he was thinking, the basketball brush fell into the hoop and set off a white spray.

“This must be Mongolian!” Needless to know that this was Lv Qiu’s investment. Cameron Anthony, who came over, said with a lip, which reminded him of the unpleasant defeat of the NCAA.

The voice just fell, and the second basketball flew, once again hollowed into the net, and then the third dropped into the basket like a cruise missile! This time Anthony stopped talking.

When Lu Qiujian raised his right hand and walked out of the player channel, the fans on the scene reacted from the shock, and the cheers more than several times when Kobe played just now. The dome of Wukesong Gymnasium is about to be blown away by their sound.

When I saw Lu Qiujian come out, the dream team stars also greeted him. Lu Qiujian came over and patted James on the shoulder. “LeBron, they all said that Kobe is the best scorer in the NBA. I am not I agree with this point of view, I think you are the most threatening player to all the teams in the league! “

Hearing this, James’s mouth curled up with a smile, but the smile on Kobe’s face froze, and Lu Qiujian explained. “Why do I say this? Because Kobe can score 40 points on 29 NBA teams, but I always think you will score 40 points on all 30 teams in the league one day. From this point, Kobe can compare Not up to you! “

This time, James turned black, and Kobe smiled again. There are a total of 30 teams in the league. Kobe can’t get 40 points on the Lakers anyway. Isn’t his statement praising his loyalty?

And because of the team’s record recently, James did indeed have a plan to go far away, but it was only a matter of thinking. It was really depressing to be said by Lu Qiujian.

“Dwyane. Long time no see!” Lv Qiuqian left him and met his second old opponent. “Your performance in the Finals was just amazing! Others have to rely on O’Neal to win, but you can lead O’Neal to win. This achievement really envied countless people! “

Humph! Bryant left the crowd straight and went back to his own half. The argument of holding O’Neill’s thigh was a pain in his heart forever. It was annoyed by Lu Qiuqian’s words. He had made up his mind to give Lu Qiuqian a while. A little color will not work.

“Aha! Cameron, you have to work hard in this game!” Lu Qiuqian’s poisonous tongue has found a third goal, “because I feel this is probably the only final in your career!”

With a snap, Anthony ’s glass broke his heart and was defeated by Lu Qiuqian in the NCAA, and after joining the Nuggets in the NBA Although five consecutive seasons led the team to the playoffs However, every year is a round tour, not to mention the finals, even the floor of the Western Conference finals Anthony has not touched; Lu Qiuqian’s words made him particularly disturbed.

Aside, Bosh, Howard, Paul and others also intend to know and know this super star who gave up the NBA, but seeing the encounter of the three, have dispelled this idea and shook their heads and dispersed.

Seeing them reacting like this, Lu Qiuqian conceded in his heart that if it is the normal state of the Dream Eight team, it is too difficult for the Chinese men ’s basketball team to win. Now they use words to make them psychologically fluctuate, which affects the tactics. Implementation, so that you can find a chance to win; but don’t blame me, my little means are far from Gan Guoyang!

The time slowly came to Beijing time at 14:30, Yi Jianlian and Howard stood in the middle circle to prepare to jump the ball, the game was triggered in the thick smell of gunpowder!

Chapter 488 - Singles mode

The starting lineup of the Dream Eight team in this game is center Howard, striker James and Anthony, the guards Jason Kidd and shooting guard Kobe Bryant; the Chinese men’s basketball team is Wang Zhizhi and Yi Jianlian. Tower, with Lu Qiuqian, Sun Yue and Zhu Fangyu.

Howard’s physical fitness is a pervert, and he easily took the basketball from Yi Jianlian’s head with a half-hand advantage; unfortunately, he worked hard to do useless work, and Lu Qiuqian judged the landing point when he reached out. He snatched the basketball in front of Kidd and took the ball into the half of the Dream Eight team.

Kidd is 35 years old this year. When he retired, he could not keep up with the speed of Lu Qiujuan. Fortunately, Kobe did not lose his vigilance. He quickly blocked Lu Qiujuan and placed a standard three-threat defensive station outside the three-point line. Bit, staring at Lu Qiujuan one meter away from the three-point line without blinking.

“Since I’m so far apart, I’m welcome!” As soon as the words fell, Lv Qiujuan shot a mile away from the three-point line and shot, and didn’t look back to his half without waiting for the basketball to enter the net. Go.

When Bryant turned around, he just saw the splash of the Nets. Lu Qiujuan scored easily in front of this defensive fighter who was selected for the best defensive lineup many times.

“Give me the ball!” Just after halftime, Kobe asked Kidd for the ball. It has been a long time since no one dared to provoke him like this. He has to return one now!

Kidd knew his temper and passed the ball without saying a word, but what made Kobe depressed was that Lu Qiujuan played against Kidd, and defending him was Sun Yue, who was selected by the Lakers last year. In the face of such opponents, he has no passion, a simple roll-over jumper and scored two points.

“Arab League!” Once again attacking the opponent’s half, Lv Qiujuan did not take advantage of Kobe Bryant, but greeted Yi Jianlian to help himself to avoid the Kobe, and then James stood in front of him again, “This time you Hugh wants to make another three! “

A retreat step made a desire to throw, James quickly rushed forward, but Lu Qiujuan used his body to change his direction and passed James into a three-point shot. After turning around, he did not forget to say a word in James’ ear. “Who said I would only come in three points? Would you remember that one-on-one scene until now?”

“Give me the ball!” This time James and Kobe asked Kidd for the ball at the same time. Kidd looked at their running position. No one took any reason and threw the ball to Wade, who is in a better position!

Is just such an emotion! Lu Qiujuan didn’t feel depressed for Wade’s score. Now that the game has just begun, it is not important to lose two or three points. What is important is to make them lose their normal heart.

In the next two rounds, Lu Qiu Jian found Anthony and Wade singles successfully, and successfully mobilized their emotions. The Mengba team did not pay attention to the tactical position when attacking. These stars are more inclined to use their singles ability to win.

“Alliance! Two steps on the left!” Lu Qiu Jian was defending Kidd while still paying attention to the rebounding point. This time Anthony’s shot was a bit off.

After the offensive and defensive transition, Lu Qiu Jian once again used Yi Jianlian’s high pick-and-roll to avoid Kobe’s defense and entered the penalty area. This time he went directly to the basket to meet Howard’s high jump, Howard also jumped up, two meters one by one His height, combined with an extra-long arm span, covers the basket tightly.

Waiting for you to take off, Lu Qiu Jian took the basketball back and avoided his cover and changed to the left hand. Then he threw the ball towards the hoop against his arm. The basketball rolled into the net twice and the referee’s whistle sounded at the same time. Howard hit the foul and Lu Qiu Jian reached 2 plus 1!

The first five offensives of the Chinese national team were all completed by Lu Qiu Jian. The starting of the Chinese national team was beaten one by one, which also caused a foul in the opponent’s inside! This surprised the fans of the United States. Isn’t this characteristic of relying on personal ability to beat the opponent’s entire team is the dream team’s usual? Why did the dream team become the one to be defeated today?

The old K coach had to call the first time-out. He had already seen Lu Qiu Jian’s plan. The strength of the Mi Guo team is that every position has the best player in the world-well. Except that guy; if it is reduced to this singles mode but can not take advantage of them, they must be calm and calm.

Very good. Now that the plan is working, it’s time to enter the second link! Lu Qiu Jian is also arranging the next tactics. “After restarting the game in a while, I will pass you the ball. Let’s give them two three-pointers first!” Zhu Fangyu and Du Feng, who will be replaced, nodded and said they understood.

In the next two minutes, Lu Qiu Jian sent many wonderful passes, Du Feng and Zhu Fangyu hit two three-pointers in succession, and then they were associated with Lu Qiu Jian’s performance before the game. The Mengba team’s defense didn’t feel like it had expanded outward.

I want this effect! Another attack, when Paul, who was replaced on the field, thought that Lu Qiu Jian would pass again or make a long shot, Lu Qiu Jian once again entered the penalty area and caused Howard’s second foul.

The first quarter was not over yet, Howard had to end the game, the backup center Bosh of the Dream Eight team came on stage; Lu Qiuqian hooked Yi Jianlian's shoulder and said, "In a while I will pass you the ball, you directly find the wave What's more, don't be afraid of being blocked, don't be afraid of not scoring, and try your best to make a foul! "

Then he looked at Wang Zhizhi under the field again Would you like to replace Dazhi? His experience is much stronger than that of Yi Jianlian. If it is fouled, it might be more effective than Yi Jianlian?

Sure enough, Yi Jianlian's psychological quality is still not enough. He was hesitant to receive the ball the first two times, and took the best chance. At present, he is still immature. He is still unable to confront Bosh directly and is easily blocked by his opponent. Yunas then made adjustments and replaced Zhu Fangyu with Wang Zhizhi.

"Don't worry, I will still pass you the next ball!" Lu Qiuqian encouraged again.

This time Yi Jianlian's offensive is much more decisive. After receiving the ball, Bosh directly shoots. Bosh has guessed something, and he can't move with his hands raised!

The basketball slammed on the hoop and jumped to the other side. Wang Zhizhi, who was reminded by Lu Qiuqian, had locked his position and grabbed the rebound to meet Bosh and dunked! Bosh didn't react this time, slapped Wang Zhizhi on the arm and got his first foul.

Yay! Lu Qiu established and ran to celebrate with Wang Zhizhi high-five. Although the strength of the Dream Eight team is strong, it is not without weaknesses. Their first weakness is the lack of inside players; except for the two centers of Howard and Bosh. , Only power forward Boozer is left, this person is not enough!

Yao Ming at the side of the field flashed a gleam, and only he knew Lu Qiuqian's plan best.

Chapter 489 - Dream 8's weaknesses

This dream team is composed of players such as center Howard and Bosh, power forward Boozer and Anthony, small forwards James and Prince, shooting guards Kobe, Wade and Reed. Germany, Paul and Deron Williams, look at this list and you will find that this team has the defects of external strength and internal weakness.

I have to say that since the Sharks grew old, the NBA has entered an era without centers. Howard can't compare with the four centers. Bosh is called a center. In fact, he is more like a power forward in the NBA. Position, the orthodox center is Howard!

As for the power forward position, there are not many people. This time the Dream Eight team did not recruit super power forwards like Duncan and Garnett. Boozer obviously could not bear the responsibility of guarding the inside; the other Anthony actually played a small forward.

In other words, this time, the interior of the Dream Eight team is actually only Howard, Bosh and Boozer! Centers and power forwards account for only a quarter of the total number of players.

The continuous attack on the inside line of the Hua Guo men's basketball caused the old K coach to be vigilant. He turned his attention to Yao Ming on the sidelines, but Yao Ming in a suit could not see the meaning of going on the court; and the Hua Guo men's basketball hit this time The rate dropped sharply, and the score was gradually caught up by the Mengba team, which made him a little hesitant.

Since we are now dominant, then continue the current lineup and tactics! We now have three insiders, which is enough! Coach K old sat back again.

"Hey, Chris, turn your wrist carefully!" Wang Zhizhi made two free throws. Paul took the dribble forward from Bosh and Lu Qiuqian whispered in his ear.

Lying trough, Chris Paul was extremely awkward by his sound; the rules of FIBA and NBA are many different, for example, the former does not have three seconds, and some rules such as walking and turning wrist are also different. The main reason is that the NBA pays more attention to the game's viewing. Some rules are set for the good looks of the game. For example, Paul's iconic wrist roll looks very handsome, but it is illegal in the rules of FIBA.

These players don't feel anything in the NBA long-term game. There will be various kinds of incompatibility on the FIBA court. Paul has had a wrist blow in the previous game; Lu Qiuqian knows that in this case, the more you remind him, the more likely he is to make mistakes.

Sure enough, because of the need to pay attention to turning his wrist, Paul's dribbling movement became more and more awkward, and was quickly seized by Lu Qiuqian to steal the opportunity and successfully dribble the ball. At this time, only the Boss of the eighth team had left the sideline and hadn't come to the half.

Lv Qiujian then let this opportunity pass. Although he made a three-point shot from the outside to ensure the score, he rushed directly to the Bosh. His foul level was much higher than that of Yi Jianlian and Wang Zhizhi. Although Bosh repeatedly pay attention to his movements. Lv Qiujian still found a foul!

“This ball is a bit unreasonable. We see that the Yi Jianlian behind has already kept up. As long as Bosh is led away and the ball is passed, the United League can directly attack the basket! Xiao Lu does this a bit. Fortunately, fortunately, the referee gave a foul, otherwise the attack will fail! “On the broadcast table, Teacher Zhang reasonable talked.

“It sounds reasonable! Xiao Qin, what do you think?” The Prime Minister turned his head to look at Qin Feng.

“I also feel that there are some problems. I have seen Xiao Lu’s training. He is in the middle of the three-point line. But he is going to go to the basket this time. I’m afraid there is any idea?” Qin Feng replied.

It’s hard to find a chance to get together with the head of the basket management center in front of the three elders. Now this is a tangle! He knew Lu Qiujian’s plan, but what should I say now, or should I wait for the elders to find out? After hesitating for a long time, he said carefully, “Coach Yunas is not unhappy, I think this is probably a strategy made in advance!”

Dream eight team replaced again, their last insider Boozer came off the bench; Boozer can be regarded as Yao Ming’s hard hand, in the playoffs, the Rockets were defeated by his Jazz many times. This player’s technical characteristics are excellent mid-range shooting, good at pick-and-roll, and has good back singles and rebounding ability. But his defensive consciousness is average, making it easier to foul.

When he played, the first quarter was nearing completion, but nevertheless. The Hua Guo men’s basketball team still seized the opportunity to make him carry a foul.

The score in the first quarter was 36 to 29, and the Chinese men ’s basketball team was seven points behind; the three insiders of the Dream Team had five fouls in total, including Howard twice, Bosh twice, and Boozer once. Not very serious in the NBA. There are still many opportunities before six full violations; but the Olympics rules are enforced by the FIBA, and five fouls are about to get out, so although the Chinese men ’s basketball team is behind in the score, it has been achieved strategically Not a small advantage.

“It’s so big! Don’t care about the backwardness of the score, continue to hit the inside in the second quarter! Strive to increase their fouls to more than ten before the end of the halftime!” The three men only have a chance of 15 fouls. It was still the case that Yao Ming, the insider, did not play.

If their inside line is subject to fouls since the third quarter After Yao Ming comes on stage, he can completely rag out inside!

“Control the number of fouls! Cameron, LeBron, pay attention to protecting the inside!” Coach K had an ominous hunch in his heart. Why did the Chinese men’s basketball team do this? Neither Yi Jianlian nor Wang Zhizhi has the ability to play inside and outside. Why do they insist on playing inside?

At the beginning of the second quarter, Lu Qiuqian took a short break off the court. The young man Chen Jianghua replaced him. After he played, he was extremely excited. As soon as he received the ball, he ran to the inside with his own speed, and then Wade hit the ball. Off.

However, this defeat did not make the Chinese men’s basketball team change its strategy. Wang Shipeng and Liu Wei, like the soldiers who rushed to the bunker with the explosive bag, killed the ball as soon as they got the ball. Even the veteran Li Nan cast a three After slightly stabilizing the situation, he also started to attack. Zhu Fangyu tried his best to grab every frontcourt rebound.

Their efforts were not in vain. Just when the score was increased to double digits, Boozer also received a second foul, and then Lu Qiuqian played again.

At the end of the first half, the Chinese men’s basketball team fell behind by 15 points, the Howard of the Dream Eight team received three fouls, Boozer three times, Bosh was up to four times, the Chinese men’s basketball strategy has succeeded!

As the players walked back to the locker room, Yao Ming looked at Howard and Bosh on the other side, then took off his suit jacket and draped his shoulders and disappeared in the player channel!

Chapter 490 - The return of the superstar

“Mike, we have too many fouls inside! 70% of the fouls in the first half are concentrated on the inside! I think if they go on like this, they may not stick to the end of the third quarter!” Mengba team’s locker room, assistant coach Jim Boyham told head coach K that he, like K, had led the team in the NCAA and Lv Qiuqian’s games. At that time, he led Syracuse University to lose to Princeton.

“Why do they do this? Even if our insiders are down, and relying on their existing staffing, can’t easily score inside?” Another assistant coach D’Antoni also questioned.

“To be right, if only Wang Heyi, I can defend them in the second half!” James said easily.

“So well, Dwight, Chris and Carlos will rest off the court first in the second half!” Coach K made a decision. He also thought that it was enough for them to handle the inside of the Chinese men’s basketball team. “LeBron and Anthony partner! “

“Dayao, it’s up to you in the second half!” Wang Zhizhi said breathlessly. He is already 31 years old this year, and his physical strength has dropped dramatically. The high-intensity confrontation in the first half made him breathless.

“I have watched you playing on the court for most of the month, and I have already suffocated!” Yao Ming has changed his jersey at this time and is doing warm-up exercises in the locker room. “Now they are carrying so many fouls. I can’t turn their inside upside down, I don’t have to go back to the NBA! “

“So good! Let’s take a look at the tactics in the second half. Our strategy has been a huge success in the first half. It’s time for us to fight back in the second half!” Yunas took out the tactical board and began to explain.

At the end of the halftime, the players of the two teams walked out of the locker room. The teacher Zhang reasonable on the commentary was still summing up the first half, “The Chinese team played well in the first half, and the score was not pulled by the Mengba team. It’s too open! But what I want to say is that the strategy of the first half of the main line is very unreasonable! Now the most advantageous point of the Chinese men’s basketball team is Lu Qiu Jian from the outside! Lu Qiu Jian’s breakthrough and three-pointer is Kobe Still, James ca n’t resist it. Focusing on this point is the best choice; while the inside Yi Jianlian and Wang Zhizhi ca n’t compete with Howard and Bosh, I do n’t know why Yunus made such a decision, if If this game fails, I think the responsibility lies with ... “

When he saw that the Chinese men’s basketball team had one of the most players in the player channel, his criticism of Yunas came to an abrupt halt, and he instantly understood the big strategy of the Chinese men’s basketball team!

“Damn! I knew this guy had a problem!” The old K coach angrily threw the tactical board to the ground, and the second half of the Mengba team was hard to beat!

“Ahhhhhhhh!” The 18,000 fans on the scene were stunned. Then cheered in unison, the doubts in the first half were perfectly answered at this time, they shouted Yao Ming’s name in unison to greet the return of the superstar, “Yao Ming! Yao Ming! Yao Ming! “

“Haha. This game is good-looking! The men’s basketball team has won the skill of the game! You look at the face of the head coach of the US national team!” When the Prime Minister saw Yao Ming stepping onto the court, he also lost his previous restraint .

“This is the strategy proposed by Professor Lu. In fact, Yao Ming had fully recovered in the semi-finals, but for this game, Professor Leng didn’t let him play!” The head of the basketball management center stunned for a long time. Finally it can be said!

“Adjust the tactics in the second half, Dwight, you replaced Dwyane! Pay attention to the number of fouls you’d like! Let Yao score and don’t be beaten by him!” Old K coach seized the last time to adjust the tactics. Damn, we were all This guy is playing! He set his sights on Lu Qiuqian. He vaguely felt that this strategy of the Chinese men’s basketball team was inseparable from him.

“We saw that Yao Ming was already standing on the court! From this point of view. The strategy of the Chinese men’s basketball team in the first half is very reasonable. We can expect that Howard, who has three fouls on his back, will certainly not dare to go all out in defense. In this way, Yao Ming inside can fully exert his offensive strength! “Teacher Zhang reasonable words caused a boo by the fans on the scene.

“Brother Yao, I will pass you the first time when you are in a position to attack! You try to go down to the basket, don’t use hooks or mid-range shots, attack directly under the basket! Don’t care about two goals. The key to the success or failure of the ball is now to get Howard down in the shortest time! “Said Lu Qiuqian, tiptoe to Yao Ming’s shoulder.

“Well, don’t worry, I’ve never been afraid of him!” Yao Ming averaged 23.6 points against Howard in his career. 10.3 rebounds, 2.1 blocks, shooting 56%, Howard averaged 12.2 points per game against Yao Ming in his career. 9.8 rebounds, 1.7 blocks, 45% shooting rate; any one data is completely exploded, Yao Ming is particularly confident when playing Warcraft.

The game started, and the Mengba team first scored two points with a back jumper from Kobe, widening the point difference to 17 points. However, neither the coaches of the two sides nor the fans on the spot paid any attention to this goal. They knew that it would be the next attack of the Chinese team that decided the game’s victory or defeat!

Yao Ming went straight to the basket as soon as he got to the frontcourt. Howard's weakness in his bouncing leg strength was undoubtedly leaking at this time, Yao Ming was about to get to the position after two hits, Lu Qiu built a shot. The fake moves to shake James, and easily hangs the ball into Yao Ming's hand; Yao Ming deceives Howard's center of gravity after holding the ball, and then moves his two magical devil to walk around the basket in two steps.

It is almost possible to dunk directly now, but Yao Ming still waited and waited until Howard turned hurriedly before putting his arm on Howard's arm, and then threw the ball out, the basketball fell into the basket, The referee's whistle sounded.

Yay! The fans at the scene boiled again, and Yao Ming, who has always been shy and introverted, couldn't control her emotions, and directly came to celebrate the Yi Jianlian who celebrated!

Oh my God! This was bad. The coaching staff of the Mengba team wailed in unison. Coach K looked at the only two insiders on the bench. "Carlos, go up! Don't foul!"

What are you doing to tease me? Although I have repeatedly dominated in the confrontation with Yao Ming, it was Oku who was holding him back then, I just need to float outside to shoot! Now you make me fight this monster? Am I 20 cm shorter than him?

Boozer did not cause much trouble to Yao Ming after playing. Yao Ming began to wreak havoc on the inside of the Dream Eight team. With the comeback of this top center, the advantage of the game began to lean towards the Chinese men's basketball team.
