Chapter 84 - Men and women

“Yangyang, I’m going to buy something, you two wait for me!”, Xu Si quickly walked two steps away from the small supermarket not far in front of them without waiting for their response!

Lu Qiuqian originally wanted to follow along to see if he could help, but Yang Yang gently pulled the sleeve of her sleeve. “The little girl sells things, what are you going to do with her? She can sell things slowly. Let’s go Sit on the chair in front and wait! “

Ok? Why can’t you follow up? Did she buy something to entertain relatives? Lu Qiuqian wanted to be crooked for a while, but seeing Yang Yang’s obviously nervous expression, he understood a little bit. Xu Si left probably to make room for both of them!

Pretending to be ignorant, he followed Yangyang and sat down on the bench. The winter sun shining on him made people feel lazy. Lu Qiuqian put his comfortable handle on the back of the chair, guessing that Yangyang would come next What to say.

“It’s so fast time! It has been half a year since I met you from the plane!” Yang Yang said with emotion, looking at the tower in the distance with his eyes, and he didn’t dare to make eye contact with Lu Qiuqian.

Lu Qiuqian could obviously feel her heartbeat accelerating, and in her heart, she used a pretentious and dull tone to say, “Yeah, the kung fu time passed in a blink of an eye, and I should return to China in three or four months!”

“Return to the country?”, Yang Yang turned back suddenly, his teeth biting his lower lip, his eyes stared at Lu Qiuqian for a long time, and he continued to ask for a long time, “Are you going away so soon?”

“Am I an exchange student? The time to exchange to Princeton is only one year! It’s time to go back to Beijing Normal University to finish my graduation thesis after this semester!” Well, I should almost go back, and I may not have the opportunity to see you again in the future, everyone Do n’t even think about it, it ’s good to keep this relationship not only not far away!

“Then what do you plan to do after graduation?” Yang Yang was still a little unwilling and summoned the courage to ask, “Will you continue to study or find a job?”

After finishing his speech, Lu Qiuqian replied and said, "It's a pity that you study so well and don't continue studying! It's a pity to go back to Princeton after finishing your last year at Beijing Normal University! Professor Nan likes you so much, so it is very easy to apply of!"

"Yangyang ... Yangyang!", Seeing her slowly falling into illusion, Lv Qiuqian quickly interrupted, "I guess I will continue to study, but it is unlikely to return to Princeton, the probability of coming to the United States. Not too big! "

"Ah? Why? Isn't it good here?" Yang Yang's eyes widened in loss. In her view, what she just described was undoubtedly a bright avenue. "I have read all the news about you, and I have someone to ask. After asking Poincaré's conjecture, she said that she can get a teaching position at any university in the United States. Is it not good for you to get a degree in Princeton and continue to teach at the school? The environment here is so good and the professor's treatment is not bad, Social status is also high, if you go to other places, you may not find such a good opportunity? "

Stay in Princeton at a young age as a professor, gain countless appreciation, and then make one breakthrough after another in his own profession? Oh, by the way, it is better to have her by her side. This is probably Yangyang's fantasy and her future? I have to say that this is indeed an easy and pleasant road.

But this is not what I want at all! Not to mention the question of the task that you want to complete, even if there is no persecution of that task, probably you will not stay in the country?

"After I graduated, I plan to go to Europe to continue my studies, and I feel the academic atmosphere of the United States. I have to go to Europe again to see if it is appropriate!", Lu Qiuqian pretended to answer with ease.

"Europe? Which country? Even the mathematics departments of Cambridge and Oxford are not better than Princeton?" It can be seen that Yangyang is indeed very attentive to him, even the ranking of the world university mathematics department is clear.

"I don't plan to continue reading mathematics, I will consider reading a Ph.D. in other majors after graduation!" Hey, in another year and a half, the knowledge of mathematics should be accumulated, and it is time to change the major!

"You are so talented in mathematics, isn't it a pity not to continue studying?" Yang Yang looked at Lu Qiuqian, revealing a puzzled look.

“But math is too basic? It’s a little too far from the application!”, Lu Qiuqian explained, “I want to learn more practical subjects, such as physics or something!”

“It’s hard to switch to a major? Why do you have to do so? Isn’t it safe to continue studying mathematics?” Yang Yang looked at Lu Qiuqian with a gentle look, as if he wanted to use this to soften his stubbornness.

But I still have tasks to complete! I can’t help it! Of course he could n’t say that directly, so she changed the way she could understand, “Now for our country, mathematics is certainly important, but physics is more important. I want to make a little contribution after your studies.”

Keyangyang still does n’t understand, “The conditions in the US are so good, you can stay in the same position as fame and fortune, and you will have a lofty status, but you do n’t have to go back Why do you have to work so hard?”

This is probably the difference between men and women, right? The road that Yang Yang said is undoubtedly a very easy road, there are no working environment, rich income, respectable positions ... Oh, yes, and a good family, these are probably each Girls want what their lovers can have!

This is not bad, but the pattern seems to be smaller; for women, love is the world, and for men, there are dreams and responsibilities! Even if there is no such task, Lu Qiuqian will probably choose to return to his country? To make my own contribution to my dream of a big country with rabbits, stars, and sea.

“Some things have to be done by someone!”, Lu Qiuqian looked to the sky, “I want not only to live a good life myself, but also to think of my family and my compatriots can live a good life!” It doesn’t seem to conflict with your own tasks. Your plan needs the power of the state to support it, and the completion of the plan will leave the country with wealth.

“Don’t you think this burden is too heavy?” If she is not particularly confident in Lu Qiuqian, I’m afraid he thought he was acting just now?

“A man! There is always some responsibility!” Lu Qiuqian said in a plain but firm tone. His current status is still not comparable to that of Mr. Qian. The domestic conditions are much better than then. Mr. Qian There is no reason not to try what you can do!

Yangyang finally stopped talking, and in her eyes the familiar man suddenly became a little bit unreadable to her! Perhaps this is the difference between men and women!
