

Daddy CEO 296

Chapter 296 Dauntless

"Are you really going to go outside? What will you do if those people swarm around you?" Adelle was already worried enough about the rumors spread in We*bo and now, Ran Xueyi wanted to attend the booting ceremony as if nothing happened.

No matter how brave and calm a person was, nobody could possibly take countless people surrounding you and ask you questions that don't make any sense.

Ran Xueyi yawned and pushed her hair back before looking at Adelle through the mirror. "Nothing good will happen if I stay cooped up in this room. Besides, Director Xiao already told me that as soon as the ceremony is done, we will start filming immediately. I don't think it's right for me to not come there only because a rumor is spread around me, right?"

"But still, we should have prepared several bodyguards to protect you. Having me alone while these reporters surround you, I'm afraid, I'd be kicked to the side!"

The two hadn't expected that somebody would start a rumor about Ran Xueyi and so, they were caught unprepared. Ran Xueyi was more surprised having returned to the country and already being scolded because of an untrue rumor. This makes her reminisce to those times when people tried to cause trouble around her three years ago.

"Then, why don't you call the assistant manager you hired to help you?" Ran Xueyi narrowed her eyes on her.

Adelle dodgingly moved her eyes away and found it hard to look at Ran Xueyi again. She felt suffocated as she replied, "Forgive me, Empress! This lowly servant did something wrong but I couldn't refuse His Majesty's orders. I was also surprised when he told me he wanted to try being someone working beside you so I had to give him the assistant manager position!"

Ran Xueyi chuckled at her acting and waved her hand to interrupt her before the dam would open, "Alright, that's enough. Don't cry."

"But... but..."

"It's alright. Yu Han already told me that he wanted to watch me work, that's why he decided to do this. Anyway, let's not bother him right now because he has some other things to do as well."

A few days ago, Song Yu Han came to pick her up from the party while telling everyone he was her assistant manager. When they returned home, he explained to her that he was worried that more and more people will try to get into Ran Xueyi personal space due to her popularity and so, he wanted to act as her assistant manager to protect her private space and also herself from other people.

Unfortunately, being a CEO of a multi-company has a lot of things to do so today, he couldn't come with her and act as her assistant manager and bodyguard.

"Fortunately, Big Boss still hasn't heard about this matter," Adelle suddenly said as she sighed in relief. "I wonder what he would do if he did find out about it..."

Ran Xueyi didn't respond to that.

At the end of their conversation, the door to Ran Xueyi's hotel room was suddenly knocked from outside. Adelle glanced at Ran Xueyi questioningly whether she asked for someone to come, but she saw Ran Xueyi's expression having the same questioning eyes.

"Should I open it?"

"You should check it first."

After getting Ran Xueyi's affirmation, Adelle walked towards the door and made sure to hang the chain lock to the door before pulling it open slightly. Since there was no peephole to look outside, she could only pull it open.

In front of the door was a handsome, tall man in a business suit. He looked charmingly cute with his lips naturally upturned on the right side, seemingly smirking. The charming man adjusted the silver specs of his eyeglasses on his nose bridge and when he saw the door open, a bright smile was on his lips.

"Good morning! Is the young madam in?" the charming man asked.

Adelle stared at him in silence for a second before she returned the question, "And who are you?"

"I'm Special Assistant Guo. Mr. Song's head assistant and chief of staff." Guo Yun was still smiling as he introduced himself before raising his hand with the box of food that he had just bought. He quickly added, "I came under Mr. Song's orders."

"Oh! Come in! Come in!" Adelle finally unlatched the lock on the door and let him in.

Guo Yun thanked her and stepped across the room and finally saw Ran Xueyi sitting in front of the mirror, dressed in what looks like a traditional attire.

"Mr. Guo? What are you doing here?" Ran Xueyi slowly stood up from her chair and looked straight at him.

Guo Yun replied with a smile, "I came under the boss's orders. I will be acting as his proxy while he's gone and will take care of your meals and security."

Ran Xueyi paused a bit before she asked, "There's no need to bother you to do that, Mr. Guo."

"It's not a bother, Mrs. Song. It's my honor to work under you." If he hadn't come, his boss would surely fly here. Unfortunately, the big boss had a lot of things to do since he pushed back most of his duties to spend time with his family. Now, those presidential duties have piled up too much and needed taking care of.

Hence, why Guo Yun was there instead of Song Yu Han.

As soon as Guo Yun was done speaking, Ran Xueyi heard her phone ringing.

It was Song Yu Han who had called her.

"I sent Guo Yun there in my stead. Is that alright with you?" Song Yu Han said as soon as the call was connected.

Ran Xueyi quickly answered it, slightly blushing after his deep, husky voice, "Yeah, thanks for sending him to my side."

"No need for thanks..." Song Yu Han slightly paused his hand where he was holding a pen and quickly added, "Instead, when we meet, prepare something for me."

"What do you want? Do you want me to cook something for you?" Ran Xueyi was slightly worried about her cooking skills.

Song Yu Han was also surprised to hear her words and asked, "You know how to cook?"

He suddenly remembered that time in the past where she almost burned the kitchen and couldn't help but smile. She was so adorable when she panicked and ran to him in tears.

"And no, I didn't mean food." Before Ran Xueyi could get angry, Song Yu Han decided to change the topic. "I'm craving for something else... Something more delicious than food."

Ran Xueyi would be a fool not to understand the deep meaning in his words and blushed furiously. She was really thankful she decided against putting their call to speaker mode or else, Guo Yun and Adelle would have heard of what they were talking about.

Of course, if they ignored the fact that she looked like a ripe tomato right now, maybe they would never notice her embarrassment.

"Xueyi, do you want me to call the management of that platform to take down all the topics that have your name in it?" Song Yu Han said in a serious tone.

Ran Xueyi, of course, didn't want that. "We already talked about this. I will take care of my matters myself. If I ever need your help, I will surely seek you out. So don't worry too much."

Certain things need to be taken care of by herself. Ran Xueyi cannot only and always depend on Song Yu Han. Of course, she wouldn't limit him from doing what he wanted.

Still, she was thankful that Song Yu Han called her to ask before doing anything. That only shows his appreciation in her opinion and what she wanted.

After their call was disconnected, Ran Xueyi registered a new We*bo side account and clicked into the hot topic list.

As expected, Steffanie's unruly and accusatory words made it into the top hot list. Coincidentally, there were also other new artists, probably in the same group as Steffanie, who came to support her words and said they believed her story. Their fans also went along with their idols' words and followed along with abusing Ran Xueyi in her own We*bo page.

Ran Xueyi first clicked on Steffanie's post and quickly scanned the comments below.

[Sister Jingjing is so pitiful. My heart is crying for her.]

[I feel sorry for what happened to her. How could somebody be so shameless and steal our Sister Jingjing's role she worked hard to audition for?]

[Ran Xueyi is so thick-skinned. I wonder if she has enough face to show in today's booting ceremony.]

[I'm at the booting ceremony. She's not here yet. I bet she's too scared to come out!]

[Haha the little tramp is too afraid!]

There were too many such hateful comments.

Ran Xueyi took a sip of water as she sat back down and looking as lazy and indifferent as if she was just looking at a comic magazine.

Things never really change. If she was an ordinary and rookie actress, who has not experienced the calm before the storm or the fire before the inferno, Ran Xueyi might have been too depressed to come out of her house.

Ran Xueyi continued to scroll down the hot topic list with her name in the hashtag and suddenly paused when she saw a very peculiar image of herself getting inside a very familiar looking car.

The post was posted only a minute ago and when she clicked on it, the picture as well as the post was quickly deleted, making it strangely mysterious and suspicious.

Chapter 297 Heart Of Steel And Gold

There was nothing wrong with Ran Xueyi being photographed outside. But the image was recognized by some eagle-eyed passersby who deduced that she came out of a hotel and got in a car parked outside of it. They also quickly investigated the area she was located and sent out evidence that the area that she was in was really close to a 5-star hotel.

The picture alone could arouse everybody's imagination to go wild. However, when that post and picture was suddenly taken down after only a few minutes of it being posted in real-time, people couldn't help but think that maybe somebody powerful noticed it and took it down before anyone could see it.

And preferably, that someone could be the gold master keeping Ran Xueyi.

Ran Xueyi tapped her phone screen and paused a bit. She knew this manipulative method of pushing and pulling where one would tease people to want to know more.

Ran Xueyi was really surprised.

She hadn't expected that a simple party could end with her being targeted and called as the sugar baby of a gold master.

It turned out the person who spread this rumor around really wanted to destroy her. But who could have done this? And why did they do this to her?

Ran Xueyi took her time to scroll down the comments section under the breaking news and hot topic lists linked to her name.

The comment area was very harmonious and united. Everyone was cursing, scolding, making speculations, and spreading the rumor even further to the edge of the world. Among them, Steffanie's and Bai Jingjing's fans were collectively responsible for scolding her. Water army from several media companies was responsible for collecting fake evidence but also believable ones. As for the passersby, they were there to eat melons and share the discussions to their own groups, furthering the rumor to spread around the world.

Among all the rumors about her, there were other past scandals involving her that were taken out from years ago. One of them was that Ran Xueyi had a long history of being a bully in the entertainment industry, scolding other rookie actors and actresses until they were in tears. This somehow fortified that Ran Xueyi was too used to bullying and stealing resources from other actresses. The other was that they suspected that she also slept with another gold master to receive the Best Actress of the Century award which she received much earlier during her peak in being an actress.

Ran Xueyi laughed coldly when she saw this, but calmly went over to read the comments on her own Weibo to take a look.

Steffanie's and Bai Jingjing's fans quickly took over her comments sections on every recent post she posted before. Of course, her fans was also there to support her and debunk all their scoldings and try to defend her. However, with two idol's fans as well as their water army and passersby who came to eat melon, they were in for a losing battle.

Adelle worriedly went over to her side and saw Ran Xueyi reading the ridiculous words of these evil people. Her heart lurched and wanted to take her phone away from her hand, but Ran Xueyi easily avoided her and continued reading as if nothing happened.

Adelle could only huff annoyed by her failed attempt to protect her artist's eyes and said, "Don't look! Don't look at them anymore! What are you going to do by looking at these boorish people saying boorish and ill-mannered words? Ran Xueyi, listen to me and quit using your phone!"

Even though Adelle knew that Ran Xueyi has the heart of steel and gold, that didn't mean that anyone should undergo such verbal abuse from anybody. At the very least, as her manager, Adelle wanted to protect Ran Xueyi's eyes and not let her learn from them.

Ran Xueyi looked away from her phone to give her adorable manager a glance before saying, "It's not boorish. They're quite creative actually."

Hearing her say this, Adelle was completely stumped out of words and could only stare at her.

Guo Yun was the opposite and stared at Ran Xueyi in amusement and agreement. These people really knew how to bring out their best to scold people. One might also learn a word or two from them!

The Big Boss's wife is really amazing!

Time quickly passed and the time to go to the booting ceremony venue finally arrived.

People were heatedly discussing the rumors outside the waiting and reporter's area, waiting for the star of today to come.

Several nanny cars belonging to other actors and actresses from the film also arrived in succession. Not wanting to get burned while the pot was hot, they avoided walking through the front entrance and used the private door to avoid coming face to face with reporters and fans.

Finally, it was Ran Xueyi's turn to enter the picture.

The black nanny van shone as the bright sun hit its black painted body. The car door was pushed and a young man at the age range between 28-30 stepped out of the front passenger seat. He wore a business attire that fitted his lean but muscular body.

The mere sight of Guo Yun made the reporters and fans become overwhelmed. It was mainly because he was so tall and his mannerism felt like he had just come out of the military, that made them think that he was a high-ranking soldier.

But what they didn't know was that Guo Yun really did come from the military and was part of the Special Force and a Class A Lieutenant.

But maybe because of the natural charming upturn of one corner of his lips, it lessened the overwhelming aura around him, making him look more friendly than scary.

Next, Adelle got off the car with the help of Guo Yun, who opened the door for her. She created a calm and collected facade over her panicking and anxious heart to look like she was not intimidated by the countless stares she was getting from these people who came to attack her artist.

If anyone even dared to step forward, she will make them regret even using their feet!

And finally, the star that everybody was waiting for slowly came out of the car.

Guo Yun stepped forward to take her hand, helping her down and stood by her side with a protective stance he used when escorting powerful figureheads in the past when he was still in the military.

"Thank you." Ran Xueyi softly told him as she held her chin slightly up to gaze over the lines of people on the other side of the fence and straighten her back.

They really came prepared. She thought inwardly as she walked in the middle of the protective fortress namely Adelle and Guo Yun.

Wearing a dark blue spaghetti strap and backless camisole top tucked inside her white jeans and fashionable strapped shoes from a famous brand, Ran Xueyi didn't appear like she came to a battlefield where people will one-sidedly scold her and ask her ruthless questions.

Rather than that, it looked like she actually came there for an opening event of a famous flagship brand or gracing the red carpet with her presence.

Previously, Adelle thought that once Ran Xueyi appeared in front of everyone, they will hurl their questions at Ran Xueyi as well as scold her seeing how Steffanie's fans were already there. But even after a few seconds after their arrival and seeing Ran Xueyi, nobody actually said a word.

It was as if a white world was painted over the black painted wall where all noises were silenced.

But this was to be expected.

After all, instead of escaping and avoiding the press and fans who came here to scream verbal abuse at her, Ran Xueyi actually used the front entrance with no problem at all. It was as if she was never involved in a scandal or rumor.

This somehow made everyone speechless and also doubted the rumors.

Because if it were true, what kind of actress or person could actually come outside with a perfectly calm expression? Even those who prided themselves with their excellent acting couldn't achieve such a tranquil and undisturbed persona just to fake her calmness in front of everyone, right?

In short, Ran Xueyi's calm and collected appearance made them rethink and doubt the rumors.

Ran Xueyi reached the middle of the venue and stood in front of everyone. The cameras started to flash as soon as the quick-witted reporters adjusted their thoughts.

They came forward just behind the fence and heard Ran Xueyi speak.

Ran Xueyi smiled as she said to everyone, "Thank you everyone for coming here in support of the film. Director Xiao and Producer Long along with all the investors of the film will be very pleased and thankful to everyone's appearance today."

A reporter quickly said, "No need for thanks. We don't deserve it."

With Ran Xueyi's words, it reminded everyone not to ruin the peaceful booting ceremony of the film. This also made them acknowledge the fact that they cannot go over their boundaries and offend several people at once.

Chapter 298 Bai Jingjing Taking Advantage Of The Situation

Ran Xueyi's method of shutting up everyone's mouth while stopping them from making further ruckus shocked both Adelle and Guo Yun. They had never seen Ran Xueyi being so overbearingly pleasant that even though there was a waterfall of threats in her words, nobody was offended and was instead glad to hear the reminder.

After all, nobody really wanted to become enemies with some powerful people and end up getting blacklisted.

Some of the smart fans who were there also understood this and remained silent, very contrary to their previous plans of making Ran Xueyi feel embarrassed to even show her face tomorrow.

However, as many as those who understood Ran Xueyi's hidden and poisonous words, the same number did not necessarily correctly understand her and instead thought that Ran Xueyi was abusing her authority again as a veteran and A-list actress to bully everyone outside.

"Ran Xueyi..."

"Hey, isn't she being too shameless? Saying thank you to everyone. Is she blind?"

"We didn't come here to support you! Get out of the entertainment industry!"

Words after words of scolding came out from some people in the back.

The reporters were instantly furious, wanting nothing else but to put duct tape on these people's mouths to shut them up. What will happen if those powerful people inside hear them?

These fans might not care since they lead their own individual life in leisure and chasing after their idols, but reporters had a job to do and protect.

At a moment like this, when the situation was divided into two groups, Ran Xueyi finally walked away and got inside the building where everyone in the film crew was waiting.

Once they got inside and nobody could hear them, Adelle let out the breath she has been holding and held on Ran Xueyi's arm with tears in her eyes, "Ran Xueyi, next time, please tell me your plan before you do it. You're slowly but surely shortening my life by not telling me!"

Earlier, they left the hotel to head to the booting ceremony venue without Ran Xueyi telling them anything what she had in mind. She only told them that she will attend the ceremony as per their arrangement. However, her spectacular entrance just now was definitely out of Adelle's expectation.

Adelle's heart almost took a hundred meter leapt out of her body and did a cartwheel on the ground before melting under the sun.

"Thankfully, you handled the matter quickly. I don't know what I'll do if some of these fans actually threw something at you because you angered them to death with your words!"

Ran Xueyi lowered her head to take a glance at her silly manager, who clung on her arm like a koala. She laughed for a bit before saying, "If it was the case, I wouldn't be so brave as to stand in front of everyone. I saw when we stopped the car that no one carried anything suitable for throwing so I ended up doing that."

Adelle stilled at once and shakily raised her head to look at Ran Xueyi, who was smiling down at her. This... How brave can you be? Are you not afraid they might use their shoes and slippers to throw them at you?

Of course, her thoughts were left unheard and she dared not say it outwardly, fearing that this brave young miss of hers might do something even braver than earlier.

"Ran Xueyi."

As they rounded a corner, Director Xiao came running towards them. He was slightly out of breath as his gaze moved around Ran Xueyi's figure before sighing in relief. Behind him were six strong men with stoic expression on their faces.

"You should have notified me first before you guys came to the venue. I was so scared when I heard you were already outside and confronted those reporters." The color on his face returned and Director Xiao waved his hand to disperse the men he brought with him to aid in blocking the fans and reporters for Ran Xueyi. "I came to get you with these men. But since you're here and seeing you're not hurt, I can now feel relieved."

Ran Xueyi smiled. "Director Xiao doesn't need to worry about me. Rather, is everything alright in the film? Because of the rumors surrounding me, I'm sure everyone is worried whether things will be delayed."

"No... Actually, everyone's worried about that. But more than that, they are worried whether we will change the female lead from you to Bai Jingjing." Director Xiao came out to the open with his words, not intending to keep what everyone was thinking about from her. "Of course, they're only worried because they think you're more suitable to play as Linlin than Bai Jingjing. Her acting skills aside, which is already good enough, she already has an event to do before this so a delay will be inevitable if we really change."

"Not like we're really planning to change!" Director Xiao immediately said after.

Ran Xueyi pretended to feel regret as she said, "That's too bad, I really want to meet Sister Jingjing that everyone is talking about."

Bai Jingjing... Although she might not be the one who started the rumors, she gained a lot of benefits from it too.

As Ran Xueyi had expected, inside a small studio, a beautiful woman sat in front of a laptop as two other people sat beside her.

"Jingjing, this might be a miracle! Can you see all the rise in your followers?"

Bai Jingjing clasped a handful of hair between her fingers and twirled them as she smugly said, "What are you saying? Isn't it because of Sister Steffanie's help that I am able to get this high following number today?"

Bai Jingjing's manager smiled. "Of course, the young lady is the best. But she's still slaving herself under you so you're more amazing than her!"

Bai Jingjing smiled. "Come on, don't say that. What if someone hears you?"

The two couldn't help but smile widely at each other, feeling the glee and joy filling their eyes.

Suddenly, the last person who was handling the laptop looked over towards them and said, "I've already notified the public relations in our company. They said they will handle everything and also get more water army to sway the crowds. By tonight, Bai Jingjing will surely become everyone's favorite!"

Chapter 299 Ran Xueyi's Gold Master. Are You Jealous?

30 minutes later, the booting ceremony finally started.

Everyone who was part of the film went outside. In order to keep the ceremony's peace and harmony, Producer Long decided to close off the area from anyone outside of the venue. Only the reporters who were selected by them were allowed access to the area.

The booting ceremony consisted of everyone in the film crew to gather around and pray for a peaceful and successful filming. Everyone received a red envelope filled with money and cut a huge rectangular cake as a sign that the ceremony was done.

Then, everyone rushed inside the building to start the preparation for the first day of filming.

As Ran Xueyi made her way to her dressing room, Ran Yue stopped in front of her.

"Ran Xueyi, how does it feel being in the middle of a scandal? Are you embarrassed yet?"

Ran Xueyi sneered. "You think too beautifully."

Ran Yue narrowed her eyes into a glare. "Everyone is waiting for you to fall from your high throne. You may have stayed overseas for three years and ruled over it for a while, but don't think you can do the same in this country. There are other monsters and big shots that are scarier than you."

"Are you scared of me?" Ran Xueyi's questions stunned Ran Yue to stop talking. "I'm right, right?"

Ran Xueyi continued to walk forward until she was just a few steps away from Ran Yue. Then, Ran Xueyi said, "You don't have to worry about me, dear sister. I can protect myself. Actually, if you want, I can also help you get what you want."

"W-what are you talking about?" Ran Yue asked breathlessly, "What I want? What do you even know?"

Ran Xueyi stared at Ran Yue in silence for a few seconds and laughed. "We're sisters. Though ill-fated, I know what you really want and what you truly hide behind that beautifully made face..."

After saying this, Ran Xueyi turned to the side and continued walking. In front of her dressing room, Adelle waited patiently as she watched the siblings face off each other.

"What did you guys talk about? Did she come for you to bully you again?" Adelle was already given notes of what transpired in Ran Xueyi's family and ex-fiance three years ago. She felt tremendous disgust and hatred towards them for what they did to Ran Xueyi.

Ran Xueyi got inside the room and looked back at her. With a frown, she asked her, "Do you think she can bully me?"

Remembering how Ran Xueyi single-handedly shut those people outside from bullying her, Adelle shook her head.

"Of course not. But I'm just worried you might become too soft-hearted because she's your blood related sister."

"Even blood related sisters can be ruthless to each other. My sister... I mean, my entire family can be more than that."

They're cold-hearted beasts. How can they be just ruthless?

Ran Xueyi rummaged through her bag and took out her phone to read comments from We*bo again. This time, however, she no longer only looked at them.

[Snowrabbit Xueyi: <JPGf.file> Just got to the filming location. Now, I'm waiting for my makeup and dress style to be done.]

[Snowrabbit Xueyi: I woke up earlier and saw that a party actually started without my knowledge. Steffanie, you don't have to be so subtle, you can tag me in your post. In response to what you wrote in your post, are you sure you can take responsibility for your words?]

[Snowrabbit Xueyi: I am not going to stop everyone from joining the discussion. Everyone can scold me and curse at me all you want. I've been away in the country for a while and didn't know much about how people now swear at someone. At least, let me learn a thing and two to use it against someone too. You can also do your research and help the FBI and National Police from uncovering the truths and crimes.]

[Snowrabbit Xueyi: There is also the matter about my gold master. Yes, I have one. My gold master is very tall, handsome, and rich. I receive 100 million every month. Are you jealous?]

It took less than ten minutes for Ran Xueyi to finish writing all her posts.

Adelle walked to stand beside her and looked down. "What are you doing?"

Ran Xueyi locked her phone screen and happily said, "Fun. Oh, right. Tell Wu Qi to make sure that this thing will blow up."

Adelle could only do as Ran Xueyi instructed. After making a call, she returned to hear Guo Yun asking Ran Xueyi a question that she was also curious to know the answer to.

Guo Yun: "Young madam. Why are you helping those people? I can't seem to understand why you want to blow this matter out of proportion?"

Ran Xueyi let the stylist do their thing and when they weren't working on her face, she answered, "It's a matter of pushing and pulling to get the advantage. The more things blow up, the bigger the benefit I will get."

,m "But won't this tarnish your reputation?" Guo Yun was honestly worried that this rumor will be taken to the future and used by someone else again.

Ran Xueyi, however, only smiled.

All of Ran Xueyi's fans were in support of her and did not actively go after all of her attackers nor did they try to fight with other idol fans. Instead, they only posted their sincere love and support towards Ran Xueyi, making all the other idol fans feel like they were beating up slimes.

Soon after Ran Xueyi posted those words in her own page, We*bo seemed quiet for a few seconds. Then, as Ran Xueyi had predicted, things got more heated up than that morning.

Ran Xueyi's post once again awoke the warriors and gladiators inside her fans. Regardless of her fans, Bai Jingjing's fans, Steffanie's fans, other fans, and passersby, they all went crazy as soon as they saw the posts.

Ran Xueyi actually fought back!!!

Chapter 300 Ran Xueyi's Gold Master, Please Adopt Me.

The moment people saw Ran Xueyi actually posted an answer to the commotion and questions that everybody was curious about, they weren't really thrilled to see it nor were they interested. It was always like this.

But Ran Xueyi just admitted that she had a gold master who was very tall, handsome, and rich. This statement alone was enough to suffocate people until they choke!

p Ran Xueyi's line 'Are you jealous?' was sensational. As soon as her fans saw this, they followed suit and also commented on it.

[To be honest, I'm also being kept by a wild young master. He's very handsome, princely, and also has the ability to fly.]

[Me too. My gold master is tall. He's over 2 meters and a half. By the way, I'm only 158 cm (5'2ft) . Can you believe it?]

[I don't have a gold master. But I keep a darling by my side. Ran Xueyi is so very brave today so I should also be honest to everyone I know in this account.]

[Hey, upstairs. Are you looking for another darling? This one here is applying to be your darling. Is the monthly allowance 100 million?]

[Upstairs, don't be shameless. Who has 100 million to spend on a darling? Even 100 million cannot be spent in just a month! I just went to look at your profile picture and I cannot help but recommend you to a beauty surgeon instead.]

[My sister is a beauty on her campus. <attached jpg.file>. She needs a gold master ASAP. Just call and text this number XXX-XXXX-XXXX. Her monthly allowance can only be 10 million.]

[Upstairs, are you lying to us? Who has 10 million to spend on your sister? Why don't I just steal the national bank and make a run for it?]

This continued on and on. Even those passersby who came to eat melons and watch as the matter blew up started to join in the comments section.

[Ran Xueyi is surely blessed. She can even get 100 million as pocket money for a month. Where can I get a sugar daddy like that?]

[I don't know about you guys. I'm not jealous. But don't you think her standards for a gold master are too high? TALL, HANDSOME, RICH? What planet is she on right now? Where can we find that living treasure? Are we still living in the same universe?]

[I'm jealous! I'm jealous! I'm jealous! I'm gonna repeat this until I find my own gold master!]

In less than an hour, things blew up even more than how it was earlier this morning. Ran Xueyi no longer glanced at her phone and as soon as her hair and makeup as well as her dress was done for the shoot, she ran to the first scene filming set.

The filming crew set up all the preparations and cameras, waiting for the actors and actresses to get on their spots.

As soon as the extras were also instructed to stand by, Director Xiao called for the clapboard to start filming.

"ACTION!"

The Untamed was based on a fictional eastern fantasy world. Linlin, an immortal fairy was punished due to her master's sins and her immortal roots were taken from her. All things would have been better if that was all they took from her, but the heavenly immortals actually decided to scatter her souls to the mortal world.

Linlin, who had absolutely nothing to do with her master's past actions, were targetted and unjustly punished. She was sent to the mortal realm without a penny to carry with her. For ten years, she lived as a beggar without a memory, struggling and suffering in the midst of nowhere.

Seven immortal warlords ended up coming to the mortal realm for her, seeking revenge due to her master's past deeds. These Warlords hated her so much that they wanted nothing but to make her suffer even more. But eventually, these seven men will end up falling for her instead.

Today's shooting was the scene where Linlin was first captured by the Heavenly Guards before being taken to stand in front of the hundreds of immortals.

Ran Xueyi let the extras dressed as the guards dragged her into the middle of the white hall. There were tens of cameras moving recording this moment and every movement of everybody inside the set was being monitored by the directors, assistant directors, producer, and picture directors, ready to call out to stop the filming if there were anyone who wasn't acting accordingly to the script.

Thankfully, the first shoot was done meticulously and it was a success. This morning was tensed due to the attention they were getting and felt pressured, but as soon as the cameras rolled, they no longer felt like they were really inside a fantasy world.

Another director butted in and added, "More like too enchanting. Look at those actors and extras, they look like they already forgot about us and the cameras around them."

Director Xiao was made to look around the set and was stunned to witness that the other director was correct to say this.

Once again, he was filled with gratitude that he found Ran Xueyi to act in the film. With all the pressure that was on him after 4 years of preparation for this film, he could finally relax a lot!

After the first scene was shot, Ran Xueyi walked over to the director's area where the monitor was placed. Director Xiao did not stop her and even invited her in to take a seat and have an assistant pour her tea while the scene just now played on the monitor.

"What do you think?" Director Xiao was already satisfied with the scene, but as the biggest investor and also the main female lead, he still had to listen to her opinion.

Ran Xueyi quietly watched the scene. After it ended, she finally replied, "It's great... We can use this."

Ran Xueyi also thinks that the scene was done amazingly by everyone. Nobody at least made a mistake.

After the first scene was filmed, the second, third, until the fifth scene was also filmed that day. They wrapped up the shooting when it was almost midnight. By the time that everyone left the filming set, the reporters and fans had already returned to their homes.

Ran Xueyi hugged the jacket to herself as they walked back to their car and noticed something. She looked around them and asked, "Where's Mr. Guo?"

Adelle placed their things inside the car and looked over at her. "He just left, saying he had to go somewhere very important."

Ran Xueyi wondered if Guo Yun was suddenly called back by Song Yu Han to their office. Thinking of Song Yu Han, Ran Xueyi wanted to call him as soon as she returned to her hotel room.

But Ran Xueyi ended up sleeping the rest of the night until tomorrow morning.

When she woke up, Adelle was already staring down at her with her hands on her waist, looking like a mother ready to beat her child with a slipper for being late for school.

Ran Xueyi lazily opened her eyes and yawned. "What time is it?"

"Past eight in the morning." Glancing down to her wristwatch, her manager added, "You have 30 minutes to wash yourself, get change, and eat."

Ran Xueyi rubbed her eyes and slowly stood up from the bed. The strap of her sleepwear fell, exposing her porcelain shoulder as she walked to the bathroom.

30 minutes later, Ran Xueyi and Adelle drove quickly to the filming set.

But as soon as they parked the car, they were in for a surprising scene.

Yesterday was a booting ceremony so it was understandable for people to gather in front of the set. Then, can somebody tell them why are there more people outside today?

Adelle was struck stupid by the sight in front of them and nervously said, "Uh... Ran Xueyi. Was there a concert being held in White City today?"

Ran Xueyi: "No."

Adelle: "An accident?"

Sparing her a strange glance, Ran Xueyi repeated her answer: "No."

"Then, why are there more people today! Ah! Mr. Guo didn't come today so how am I supposed to guard you? Are you still planning to get in the building through the front entrance?"

The front entrance? Ran Xueyi looked at the crowd and said, "Do you think I can still get inside the building alive after passing through that crowd?"

Adelle thought about it for a few seconds before shaking her head. "Nope. I see piranhas, I bet not even your bones will be left if you use the front entrance."

Upon hearing this, Ran Xueyi giggled.

Calling the people in front of filming set piranhas weren't wrong but also not quite right. Amongst the other fans who came to scold Ran Xueyi, her fans, who came that day, overwhelmed them in numbers. Some even carried cardboards in their hands with a line of sentence, 'Ran Xueyi's Gold Master, Please Adopt Me.'
