

Daddy CEO 311

Chapter 311 Who Really Ruined Bai Jingjing?

Bai Jingjing did not know what happened, but it wasn't hard for her to find out because when she searched her own name in the search engine, her name was mixed in a strange hot topic with the title The Unknown Truth.

Scrolling down to see what exactly was happening, Bai Jingjing felt her heart taking a leap as she saw that her inside job of using her own water army to attack Ran Xueyi was completely exposed to the public! Even the receipts that some water army received from her manager was screenshotted and posted for the public to see!

How did this happen? Who exposed her? Why didn't her manager find out about this? Her questions were left unanswered as she stared with a heavy heart at the hot topic surging upwards as minutes passed by.

After a few minutes of calming herself down, Bai Jingjing swung her legs off the bed and hurriedly stood up to look for her manager who was sleeping next door. The hotel room they went in was a two-bedroom with a big living room so they could easily find each other when needed.

--'Bang,bang!'

Bai Jingjing banged her hands against the door and waited for a few seconds before she heard something from the inside of the room. Bai Jingjing's manager opened the door with a yawn and frowned when she saw Bai Jingjing standing in front of her room.

"What's going on?" her manager asked, scratching her head.

"What's going on? Didn't you check your phone?!" Bai Jingjing was in panic.

Her manager blinked. "My phone was out of battery when I entered my room to sleep. It's being charged right now."

"What the hell? Why did it have to be out of battery now!" Bai Jingjing pushed her manager away and unplugged the charging phone and turned it on. When the phone turned on, Bai Jingjing pushed the phone to the manager and ordered, "Input your password."

Bai Jingjing's manager did as she said and asked, "What's wrong? Did something really happen?"

Bai Jingjing, however, did not reply to her question and instead moved her fingers across the screen before shoving the phone back to her manager. The screen displayed the current top hot topic with her name involved in it.

"Why is this..." Bai Jingjing's manager was also shocked to see this. Then, she received a call from the company president.

She paused for a moment before she answered. "Pre...president?"

A voice familiar to Bai Jingjing and her manager came through the phone. The tone was demanding and loud as if he was doing his best to shout at them.

Bai Jingjing felt her back growing numb with a chill as the company president continued scolding them. This was the first time that the company president had scolded her so much that both she and her manager had to push away the phone from getting their eardrums ruptured.

After being scolded and telling them to fix this problem themselves, Bai Jingjing slumped down on the bed and looked up at her manager. "Just how did things get exposed? Did we have some white-eyed wolves in our team?"

"How could that be possible? All the people in our team were hand-picked by me! No one will dare to do anything if they still want to keep their life intact!" In order to combine a good team who will to their bones and stay loyal to them, Zhu Shu picked those employees who had one or two secrets that they dare not tell anyone.

In this way, she could control them however she wanted and if they dare not to be obedient to her, then Zhu Shu will also not feel sorry to them if she ended up airing their dirty laundry outside.

So, Zhu Shu was very confident in the people she picked herself and immediately shut down this idea.

Bai Jingjing still believed that someone betrayed her, but she also couldn't deny that Zhu Shu's method of keeping people as her obedient slave through various methods were indeed amazing. At the very least, she was the one who got all the benefits through Zhu Shu's underhanded ways.

But even though she trusted Zhu Shu and her team of obedient slaves, Bai Jingjing's reputation was slowly being trampled on and her number of fans decreased a lot. This was a completely unexpected situation.

Previously, she was still being showered with attention and a lot of people were praising her name as if she was a God who can bring everyone fortune and happiness. But now, she was being accused of being a green lotus, who was acting innocent but actually envious of other people's glory and fame and using another person's hand to teach someone a lesson.

This was really insulting and offensive that Bai Jingjing had to be held down by her manager to prevent her from responding to these internet soldiers!

The barrage continued an entire night until the next morning.

...

"It must be her! The person who did this should be Ran Xueyi!" Steffanie abruptly stood up. "I attacked her so why must she attack Sister Jingjing?"

It was really confusing why Ran Xueyi decided to go on the offense against Bai Jingjing when it was Steffanie who accused her of being kept by a gold master.

But what Steffanie didn't know was that this was really what Ran Xueyi planned. By attacking Bai Jingjing, the one who will be affected the most will be the same person who started everything in the name of boosting and defending their idol.

Steffanie accused Ran Xueyi out of revenge because she stole the role from Bai Jingjing. This resulted in Ran Xueyi being torn apart from all directions by every netizen warrior for a whole day while Bai Jingjing was boosted up.

But what would happen if the wheels turned and the one who was below was no longer Ran Xueyi, but the person whom Steffanie wanted to boost up?

Bai Jingjing's fate was over.

It was ruined by her own hands.

Steffanie ruined her idol with her own hands without even knowing she was being manipulated by someone else in the first place.

Shi Lian remained silent after seeing Steffanie's mood turning for the worst. In this kind of situation, she was smart enough to not draw any attention towards herself or else she will suffer greatly.

However, as if Lady Luck was mocking her, Steffanie saw her quivering next to the door and her eyes flashed slightly.

"Hey, you!" Steffanie glared. "What happened to the thing I told you to do? How can that woman still run around with that face of hers?!"

Shi Lian flinched and lowered her gaze to the ground, refusing to say anything since she really had nothing to say to Steffanie. Where would she actually get the courage to do what Steffanie told her to do?

It was a crime, okay! If she really did do it, wouldn't she be sent to prison if she was caught?

Shi Lian knew this and Steffanie should also know this. But the latter ignored this fact and just wanted to ruin Ran Xueyi's face and tore that smile on her lips away!

Seeing Shi Lian hesitate, Steffanie clicked her tongue and sharply said to her: "If you still don't do as I said... Don't even think your father can stay inside the hospital! I'll have the guards throw him outside!"

Hearing this, Shi Lian finally reacted and tears welled up in her eyes. "No... If you throw my father outside then how will he get better?"

Steffanie coldly laughed. "If he gets better or not, it doesn't concern me at all! It's all up to you, Shi Lian. Whatever happens to your father will only depend on your conscience to choose whether you want him to stay inside the hospital to get better or not!"

"But...if I did what you told me... Won't I be sent to prison?"

"Who said you're going to prison?" Steffanie raised her eyebrows. "I will make sure that nobody can find out that you went to Ran Xueyi to ruin her face! And even if someone saw you... don't worry, my father knows someone in the police department and have you released quickly!"

With that, Shi Lian really had nothing to say to refuse this. Choosing between her father and Ran Xueyi... Shi Lian only wished that Ran Xueyi could forgive her.

Seeing the helplessness and despair in Shi Lian's eyes, Steffanie knew that her manager had come to terms with her conscience and decided to do as she was told. This gave her great happiness.

p Steffanie held Shi Lian's shoulders and smiled. "I'll give you until midnight. I want to hear the good news that Ran Xueyi can no longer show her face in the news! Make sure that her face is all ruined and torn so that no man can ever look at her anymore!"

Shi Lian soullessly nodded her head before heading outside.

Chapter 312 Shi Lian's Apology

That night, Ran Xueyi was still running some scenes with Director Xiao in the monitor placed in front of the director's area. She was finished doing her scenes that night and was only checking if there was any error in some scenes and if the directors would like to change or add some details.

Director Xiao was very pleased upon seeing Ran Xueyi work so hard which was rarely seen amongst stars like her. Usually, actresses who have gained some popularity and value would begin to show some attitude and forget to show a bit of humbleness.

It was uncomfortable working with artists who started to show a bit of arrogance and that is why Director Xiao was so satisfied with working with Ran Xueyi that he even recommended her to other director friends he had in his group chat.

After discussing a few more points that needed to be changed and edited, Ran Xueyi finally left the set and stood in front of the building to wait for Adelle to drive the car there.

While waiting, Ran Xueyi opened her chat with Xiao Zhanzhan and almost melted when she saw his last message.

[Baby Zhan: Mommy, I want to see you!]

[Baby Zhan: A'Yu went out alone. Will he be alright? He won't get lost right?]

[Baby Zhan: A'Yu said that he'll buy me candies and toys when he comes home. Should I give him a kiss?]

[Baby Zhan: Mommy, Zhanzhan loves you!]

Ran Xueyi felt her heart being filled with sweetness just seeing her son's messages. Even the biting coldness of the air was no longer felt because of her son!

Ah! Xiao Zhanzhan is truly an angel sent to her by God.

After waiting for a bit, Ran Xueyi looked for a place to sit. Just as she lifted her foot to take a step forward, she smelled a strange scent floating over, making her frown.

Where did this smell come from?

Just then, Shi Lian, who saw Ran Xueyi walking to a bench, stopped in her tracks and glanced at her for a few seconds before stepping forward.

Her face was pale and one did not know it was due to the cold weather or perhaps for another reason. But Ran Xueyi, who noticed Steffanie's manager walking towards her, only deepened her frown.

Thinking about it, Steffanie must be agitated by the news of Bai Jingjing's exposure. Ran Xueyi wondered how she would respond to this, but it seems that her response was a bit too early.

Did Steffanie send her manager to beg her?

Ran Xueyi had no idea on what Steffanie was planning to do and could only guess that she sent her manager in her way. Perhaps, her friendly warning at that time made Steffanie think that Ran Xueyi pitied her manager and so, she sent her over instead of personally coming to confront her.

Although Ran Xueyi did feel some pity towards Steffanie's manager seeing how she was treated by the latter, it didn't mean she would lower her guard towards her.

"Ran... Ran Xueyi." Shi Lian stepped forward and greeted her. "Are you going back now?"

Ran Xueyi silently observed her and nodded.

Shi Lian felt even more nervous seeing that Ran Xueyi was on guard against her.

"Um... I'm sorry about what Steffanie did last time to your manager." Shi Lian approached Ran Xueyi and looked down. "She was just too angry about what happened and being spoiled by her father, she's used to getting what she wanted."

Ran Xueyi raised her eyebrows. "Why are you saying this? You're not Steffanie's babysitter. And even if you are, it doesn't make sense for you to apologize while the real wrongdoer does nothing."

She was still annoyed by what Steffanie did to Adelle. Though the slap didn't hit its mark, that doesn't mean that Ran Xueyi was a saint who will forget about it.

Shi Lian felt her heart being pried open with her words. She wasn't happy with how Steffanie treated her coldly and like a slave, but after some thought, she quickly got over it. Her father was still inside the hospital. That's what matters.

Thinking of the task and time limit given to her by Steffanie, Shi Lian's hand couldn't help but sweat all over.

Can she do this? Will she really commit a crime for the sake of her father?

On another note, she really didn't have the time to worry about these things. Ran Xueyi is the complete opposite of the life she lives. Ran Xueyi is a free bird who uses her wings to fly far and wide, never turning her head to look back.

Shi Lian heard a rumor that Ran Xueyi came from a wealthy background and has never experienced any hardships in her life. Will she even understand the pain and suffering of the poor?

Shi Lian doubted that Ran Xueyi was any different from Steffanie. She must be just another spoiled rich lady born in a wealthy environment, laughing at the people from the middle and lower class like her.

Thinking like this, Shi Lian's guilt that was restraining her from doing anything bad slowly slipped away in the deep recesses inside her mind, no longer bothering and shouting at her to stop.

"I know that Steffanie is in the wrong," Shi Lian finally said. "But I can't be separated from her mistakes since I'm her manager. I couldn't stop her from humiliating you and doing that to you manager. That's why I apologized."

Her words and tone seemed sincere. Save for the hands that trembled as she held the cups of coffee in her hand.

"As an apology, please take this!" Shi Lian said as she raised the cup of coffee. "If you accept this, that means you accept my apology!"

Ran Xueyi frowned even more when she heard this. However, seeing how sincere Shi Lian was, she could only reach her hand out to take the cup from her. The store name was printed on the plastic cup which she recognized.

Even though Ran Xueyi had some guesses that Steffanie planned all of this and should have refused it, in order to find out what they had put in the drink, she had to accept it.

Ran Xueyi had just lifted her hand to take the plastic cup from Shi Lian when Adelle pulled up in front of them.

"Xueyi..." Adelle pulled the window down and glanced at the two with curiosity. Isn't this Steffanie's manager?

Startled by her sudden appearance, Shi Lian's entire body shook and the plastic cup she was about to be handed over to Ran Xueyi almost spilled over on her body. Her face paled even more at the chances that 'it' would be spilt on her body and being found out!

Ran Xueyi pretended to not see how Shi Lian reacted when Adelle arrived and she still reached to take the cups from her.

But then, to everyone's surprise, it was Shi Lian, who couldn't control how sweaty her hands had become and how nervous she was that the plastic cup shook and threatened to really tip over towards herself.

Intense fear flooded over her entire body and she couldn't help but shove everything towards Ran Xueyi.

At the same time, Shi Lian's frantic and fearful words came out of her mouth.

"I'm sorry! I'm really sorry!"

Before anyone could stop her, Shi Lian turned around and left with her eyes closed. She dared not even look at Ran Xueyi to see if the content of the cup really fell on her. She just wanted to leave and escape before anyone could capture her.

--Sssss.

Accompanied by the hurried footsteps of Shi Lian who left was a burning and sizzling sound.

"Xueyi!"

Upon seeing what had just happened, Adelle rushed to Ran Xueyi's side with her heart inside her mouth.

From Shi Lian's behavior when she left, the liquid inside the plastic cup shouldn't be just an ordinary drink!

"I'm alright..." Ran Xueyi quickly stopped her from getting near her. "You should stand there just in case."

"But!" Adelle panicked and stared at Ran Xueyi.

"Don't worry. I'm fine, nothing happened." Ran Xueyi looked at the ground where the burning chemical scent was floating over.

"How can it be nothing! What is that liquid even?"

"Hydrochloric acid," Ran Xueyi said.

No wonder she smelled a strange scent earlier before Shi Lian appeared. It was actually hydrochloric acid!

It was also no wonder why Shi Lian ran away and was acting strangely when she was standing in front of her. It was because she was not afraid that something happened to Ran Xueyi but she was worried that she'll be implicated by it.

The moment Shi Lian made a move, Ran Xueyi narrowed her eyes and quickly stepped to the side. If she was even a second later, the acid would have been spilled on her and things could have been really bad.

Thankfully, Ran Xueyi acted quickly based on her instinct.

"I'll call the police and have them take her! How could she do this?" Adelle took out her phone and planned to call the police so they could apprehend Shi Lian together with Steffanie.

If the acid really touched Ran Xueyi... Adelle didn't even want to think about it.

But just as she was about to press the call button, Ran Xueyi stopped her hand. "Don't call the police. But call an ambulance."

Adelle was surprised. "Why?"

Ran Xueyi looked at the direction where Shi Lian ran and coldly said, "They wanted a show. Shouldn't I accordingly play to their script?"

Adelle looked at her and felt a sudden chill climbing from her back.

Chapter 313 That Actress Is... Ran Xueyi

In the middle of the night, an ambulance pierced through the road where only a few private cars and public buses were rushing to their destination.

--Weewoo, weewoo.

The sirens continued to ring as they rushed towards a nearby hospital.

Meanwhile, Shi Lian was trembling as she hurried over to where Steffanie was parked. Steffanie glanced over at her with disdain but couldn't stop asking, "Did you do it?"

Tears flowed in Shi Lian's eyes as she was reminded of what she had just done. She... she really poured acid on Ran Xueyi! Shi Lian couldn't believe this and couldn't accept it. She wanted to deny her own poisoned heart and didn't want to admit that she was the same type as Steffanie, an evil person.

But the facts proved that she was not any different.

No... she's different. That's right. She's only purging the evil and spoiled rich people on Earth. She was doing it for the sake of her father, nobody would blame her for it, right? Besides, Ran Xueyi came from a wealthy background, she could just request for a plastic surgery to recover her face. But if she doesn't do that, Steffanie will target her and her father!

Shi Lian continued to convince herself with justified reasons. And seeing her being like this only annoyed Steffanie.

"I'm asking you a question!" Steffanie shouted inside the car. "Did you or did you not do it!"

Anything else can happen. But Steffanie didn't want to let Ran Xueyi off easily!

"I... I... I did it." Shi Lian stammered. "I poured it on her."

"Are you sure?" Steffanie asked with her eyebrow raised. "Did you see it? Did you make sure that she'll be disfigured?"

Shi Lian nodded.

Seeing her nod, Steffanie felt smug as she leaned back with a smile. She glanced at the clueless driver and instructed, "Go back to my father's penthouse. I want to see him."

...

The next day, a flash news took over the entire country. A famous actress had an accident outside the film set of the TV drama she was shooting. The identity of the actress was kept a secret and nobody knew where she was hospitalized nor how she was doing after the accident.

Moreover, what kind of accident she met in the set was kept unknown.

However, in the White City, the set was enveloped with gloom as Director Xiao gathered everyone else to tell them an important announcement.

Director Xiao stood in front of everyone with a frown. As soon as everyone hushed, he said, "I am here to announce one good news and one bad news. Which one do you want to hear?"

His eyes fleeted over everyone's face and briefly fell on Steffanie's smiling face before he looked away.

"Director Xiao, are we getting censored by the Radio and Film Administration?" As the main lead actor, Shen Yi's worries were completely understandable.

When everybody heard him, they couldn't help but start to worry as well and talk amongst themselves.

"The administration is still reviewing us and will finish their monitoring when everyone is finished shooting their scenes. Anyway, you guys don't have to worry about being censored since we didn't do anything wrong." Director Xiao dispelled their worries with just these words but no one forgot that there was still bad news and good news.

"We don't have enough time so I will start with the bad news." He paused for two seconds, waiting for anyone to object but no one did. So, Director Xiao continued speaking, "Everybody must have already heard of the news that took over the country. That actress is... Ran Xueyi."

"What?"

"Are you serious?"

"Hey, now that I notice, Ran Xueyi didn't come today. Could it be that..."

"No way! How can something happen to her when she's almost done with all of her scenes?"

The production crew grew anxious and their expressions were not good. Ran Xueyi was liked by everyone else because of how serious she was towards her acting and never had any mistakes when other actresses had to be called out for NGs countless of times, tiring and wasting the time of everyone. More than that, she was very generous and humble, never showing an air of arrogance that a popular and wealthy actress should possess when she's standing in front of the production crew.

Shen Yi also frowned upon hearing this, even Ran Yue was shocked.

Did something really happen to Ran Xueyi?

Although she hated her older sister, Ran Yue didn't think she'd be easily taken down like this.

Ran Yue hesitated for a moment and finally couldn't help asking, "Director Xiao, can you tell us what happened? Where is she being hospitalized right now?"

Director Xiao looked at her from where he stood and replied, "For the sake of privacy and for Ran Xueyi's fast recovery, I decided not to disclose where she's being hospitalized. But the good news is that she can be discharged from the hospital next week."

"How can this be?" One production crew reacted. "She helped us a lot during the filming, we should at least come and visit her!"

Others nodded and agreed with her.

"I know everyone wants to see her but even I can't come to visit her. What happened seemed to traumatize Ran Xueyi a lot."

Shen Yi understood that Ran Xueyi didn't want to disclose her accident to anyone to avoid being crowded by paparazzis and the media. If Director Xiao really told them where she was hospitalized, they might have had some bad intentions and sold the information to some media reporters.

However, Shen Yi still felt that something was off and asked Director Xiao when the meeting was concluded. "Director Xiao, may I speak with you?"

Director Xiao stopped in his tracks and led Shen Yi to one corner where nobody was around. "What is it?"

Shen Yi still felt it wasn't safe to talk outside but since Director Xiao led him here, he could only ask, "Ran Xueyi's accident... Did Steffanie do it?"

Director Xiao's eyes widened and quickly grabbed his arm. "Are you crazy?"

Even though they were in a corner where there was nobody around, that doesn't mean Shen Yi could just say this. What would happen to him if someone heard it and reported it to Steffanie's father?

"I'm not afraid of her or her father. Director Xiao must have already know that someone is backing me too." Shen Yi looked in his eyes fearlessly. "My backer is much stronger than Steffanie's father so even if Steffanie complains, she can't do anything to me. However... I didn't expect for her to really do something to Ran Xueyi."

"What do you mean?"

Shen Yi frowned and whispered, "Last night, I came back to the set because I forgot my phone in the dressing room. That's when I saw Steffanie's manager with Ran Xueyi. Even though I saw them talking, I didn't see what Steffanie's manager did to Ran Xueyi and only saw her running towards the parking lot."

"Her face was so pale and it was as if she was being chased by a ghost so it remained in my memory. Initially, I thought that nothing was wrong, but when I saw that Ran Xueyi wasn't here, I had a hunch that something must have happened."

And adding Director Xiao's announcement earlier, Shen Yi believed that this matter can't be that simple.

Shen Yi knew Steffanie's character better than anyone since they graduated from the same class back in high school. Several girls who went against Steffanie suffered a lot but because of Steffanie's father paying them and their family hush money, no one dared to stand up against Steffanie.

Director Xiao sighed. "This matter... I can't say too much but don't get yourself involved in it. You're still young and rising in popularity. It is better if you remain clueless than be implicated by this matter."

Before Shen Yi could say anything else, Director Xiao patted his shoulder before leaving.

Director Xiao didn't expect that Shen Yi would notice that something was wrong in this incident. And surprisingly, he even saw something last night and talked to him about it rather than keep it a secret.

This... He should probably tell this to Ran Xueyi just in case she needed an additional weapon to use against Steffanie.

At this moment, Ran Xueyi's phone rang. It was from Song Yu Han.

Inside the hospital room, Ran Xueyi quickly picked up the call, "Hello, hubby, did you see the news?"

"I saw it. Which hospital are you in?" Song Yu Han asked.

Ran Xueyi didn't want to waste his precious time and said, "No need to come here. I'm alright, nothing happened to me at all! It's just a publicity stunt."

"Alright, I got it. So where is it?" Song Yu Han's tone was slightly colder.

"It's the hospital near the filming location. Room 215." Song Yu Han's tone was too scary, Ran Xueyi didn't want to anger him by refusing to answer.

Adelle raised her head from looking down on her phone and asked, "Who is it?"

"My husband, he said he's coming over."

Chapter 314 Silent Treatment

An hour later, the door to Ran Xueyi's hospital room was pushed open and Song Yu Han walked in in his three-piece suit, looking as handsome as she remembered. However, his hair that was usually combed back into a sleek and elegant style to expose his beautiful forehead was slightly disheveled and only gave him a rough image.

Not only that, the next city should have been a two hours drive but after the call, Song Yu Han arrived in just an hour. It was evident just how fast he must have driven back to White City to see Ran Xueyi.

Adelle, who was sleeping on the couch against the wall, was momentarily confused and yawned while staring at the newcomer. However, her yawn stopped mid-action and her mouth made an 'O' shape as soon as she saw the big boss standing in front of her.

Quickly, the sleepiness that accumulated flew out of the window and Adelle hastened to shake the sleeping Ran Xueyi awake.

Just as her hand reached out to shake Ran Xueyi, the man, however, stopped her with a glance.

Adelle understood it in just one look. The Big boss wants to wake Ran Xueyi himself!

"The, then I'll leave you guys alone." Adelle guessed that between a couple, no one could interfere in their matters and so, she smartly left the room. "Ah--" But then, a scream was about to come out of her mouth when she saw three bodyguards in black suits standing in the corridor just before the door.

Looking like a fool who was startled to death, Adelle was about to cry. She thought that three Grim Reapers had arrived to take her soul away. Thankfully, Guo Yun had come around a corner and started to walk towards her in the hallway.

Guo Yun smiled at her. "You've worked hard, Miss Adelle."

Adelle shook her head. "Haha, I don't think I did anything."

It was the truth, everything was done by Ran Xueyi. All the planning and actions taken previously was done by Ran Xueyi. Adelle only did the follow-ups and did what Ran Xueyi ordered her to do.

Of course, she also did her job as Ran Xueyi's manager and handled everything that was expected of her to do. But Adelle didn't think it was enough and she wanted nothing but to improve in the future!

However, Guo Yun didn't think that Adelle didn't do anything at all. Ran Xueyi seemed to not trust anyone lately but this new manager she acquired earned a bit of her trust. It was already an amazing feat to have Ran Xueyi trust her and also work with her.

Inside the hospital room, Ran Xueyi did not know that someone had been standing next to the bed, looking down at her sleeping face and her chest going up and down rhythmically.

After seeing that she was really fine, Song Yu Han slightly calmed down, but the madness that threatened to pour out when he heard from Guo Yun that the news about an actress having an accident was still swirling around his body like tendrils of black smoke.

He had just left for a day and after that, what he ended up hearing was Ran Xueyi getting into an accident. Who wouldn't be mad if you hear that the most important person in your life had an accident?

And even though Song Yu Han had some confidence that nothing serious happened to her since Ran Xueyi was very careful, three years ago's incident still traumatized him a lot and he dared not delay more and left everything else just to see Ran Xueyi.

Thankfully, nothing really happened.

Song Yu Han reached his hand out to caress her face when Ran Xueyi's eyes fluttered open.

Ran Xueyi blinked her eyes a few times before she uttered softly, "You... You've come?"

Song Yu Han stared at her for two seconds before he nodded.

"What time is it? Did I sleep a bit too long?" Ran Xueyi asked while wanting to sit up but her shoulder was held down by Song Yu Han. In the end, she had to lie down again.

Seeing no shadow of Adelle inside the room, Ran Xueyi asked him again, "Did you send Adelle outside?"

Adelle usually never leaves her side unless Ran Xueyi asked her to so it was surprising to see her not on the couch where she was sleeping earlier.

Song Yu Han finally answered, "Yes. Is there a problem?"

Uh... what's wrong with his tone? Ran Xueyi felt that Song Yu Han was a bit strange right now but seeing him looking slightly a bit different from his usual pristine self struck her naughty side again.

"Nothing. Adelle can stay outside then."

If her manager hears this, she might have tears in her eyes for a week. Sis, you're already abandoning me for a man!

Ran Xueyi opened her arms and asked for a hug from him. Usually, Song Yu Han wouldn't waste this opportunity to let her hug him, but today was slightly different.

Song Yu Han stood just half a meter away from Ran Xueyi and stared at her outstretched arms indifferently, making her feel curious why he was acting coldly around her.

"What's wrong?" Ran Xueyi couldn't help asking when he still didn't hug her, feeling slightly wronged.

Song Yu Han, however, didn't say anything and poured a glass of water before handing it to her.

Ran Xueyi received it with both of her hands before taking a sip to wet her lips after sleeping a bit. After taking two small sips, she put the glass down on the bedside table and stared blinking at him.

Ran Xueyi couldn't understand why Song Yu Han still didn't say anything after several minutes. When it was close to twenty minutes after this silent treatment, Ran Xueyi finally couldn't take it and acted pitiful in front of him.

"Hubby, are you really not going to talk to me?" She placed her chin on her hands and blinked at him adorably. Hearing no response from him, Ran Xueyi aggrievedly said, "Hubby doesn't love me anymore. He became a mute!"

"Don't talk nonsense." Song Yu Han's tone was cold and he used one look to silence her.

Normally, this icy glance would render his employees and everyone else to keep their mouth shut and avoid him, but who told Ran Xueyi to become his wife and be so fearless that she acted as if she didn't sense the danger around him and even placed the back of her hand in front of her forehead and entered a dramatic phase.

"Ah, heaven still has pity on me. My husband's voice has returned finally."

Chapter 315 Teasing Song Yu Han With Dog-Bloodiness

Song Yu Han only glared intensely at her.

However, Ran Xueyi wasn't done yet!

When Song Yu Han stepped back to sit on the couch, she followed him with a smile. Song Yu Han treated her as if he hadn't sensed her intentions. He was still angry at her for pulling that stunt without informing her.

--Poke

--poke

Ran Xueyi used a finger to gently jab it on his strong biceps, reeling in the feeling of his muscles twitching a little bit; it was almost unnoticeable at her touch. Aiya, his body can't lie to her.

"Hubby, don't be like this. If you're angry, why don't you do what the male gods in films usually do?" Ran Xueyi suddenly suggested meaningfully.

Song Yu Han finally showed a bit of a reaction though it was just a slight movement of his eyebrows.

Thinking he didn't understand what she meant, Ran Xueyi told him in detail: "Do you know that there was a film recently released about a girl being in a dog-blooded relationship with a male god? When the male god is angry at her, he would drag her to the bedroom and not let her outside for two days!"

Actually, it was only a night. She lied, but she doubted that Song Yu Han could see through her lie.

p Song Yu Han's frown deepened a little bit but Ran Xueyi still continued to aimlessly say, "There's also this TV drama where the male god forced to kiss the girl because he was jealous! Then, he took her to bed again and never let her outside for a week!"

Gah, if that is true, that girl must have died from exhaustion and starvation then. Ran Xueyi thought inwardly, never exposing her lies.

The frown on Song Yu Han deepened a bit more this time.

"I also read this book in the past where the male god tore the girl's shirt because he was angry at her because she hurt herself. The book sold a lot of copies and many fans around the world demanded a second season from the author! I even bought ten copies of the same genre back then." Ran Xueyi looked away as if she was reminiscing her precious memories of the past.

Her eyes slowly twinkled into a daze, showing a dreamy look.

Song Yu Han: "...Men shouldn't force their women."

Ran Xueyi laughed. "It's only a book. If it really happened in our world, that man might have been reported to the police and sent to jail already. Besides, women read these types of genres for fun only."

Song Yu Han was slightly curious. "Why?"

"Who knows?" Ran Xueyi shrugged with her hands. "As a woman, sometimes I even wonder what is inside our minds."

"Then, are you also like those girls in the film and book?" Song Yu Han suddenly asked.

Ran Xueyi paused a bit, feeling a bit better seeing him finally talking to her. She replied, "Of course not! Even though I like you being a bit rough to me, I also like how gentle you are in bed."

"You never force me to do anything without asking and even when I'm at the point where I was about to lose my mind..." She suddenly narrowed her eyes seductively and reached out to lightly caress his ear. "I enjoy every bit of it and want every second of it."

Song Yu Han: "I see."

"Hm?" Ran Xueyi blinked in surprise. "I see? That's all?"

Song Yu Han nodded.

Ran Xueyi was speechless. After expending a lot of effort to use the strategy of distraction and making him talk to her again, that's the reaction he was giving to her. I see?...

Ran Xueyi was dejected, getting no reaction from him and looked down.

What she didn't see was that the corner of Song Yu Han's lips was twitching from holding back his laugh.

When Ran Xueyi thought that the silent treatment was going to go on a bit longer, she heard Song Yu Han's voice again: "Do you know what wrong you did?"

Ran Xueyi was silent for a second before nodding. She was not stupid, how could she not realize what she did wrong?

Song Yu Han's expression turned serious: "I don't care about other people. I only care about you. Yesterday, I made it clear for you to be careful, but not even 24 hours has passed and you made me worry about you. I really thought something had happened to you."

"Xueyi, you're my woman. If I don't worry and care about you, who should I care and worry about?"

"It's enough that I let you do whatever you want and I won't interfere with it, but please don't make me tie you up to my side twenty-four hours seven so I can make sure that nobody can hurt you."

"Don't do anything that will end up with you being hurt. Because you have me and Xiao Zhanzhan to worry about you now."

Ran Xueyi bit her lips and nodded. "I was wrong."

Song Yu Han: "I don't want you to say that."

He finally turned to her and held her face affectionately. "Just promise me that in the future, you will take care of yourself better and never get yourself hurt again. I still want to build a big family with you."

Ran Xueyi couldn't help but tear up when she heard him. This time, she really acted recklessly. She thought that doing things a bit too far would let her get the best result she wanted, but it ended with the most important man in her life worrying about herself instead.

If Song Yu Han hadn't come and reminded her, Ran Xueyi might do something much more reckless than this and hurt the people she loves.

Just thinking about Song Yu Han and Xiao Zhanzhan's face when they saw her hurting, Ran Xueyi felt like she was being stabbed with a thorny stake over and over again. She really didn't want that to happen.

Ran Xueyi threw herself to his arm and hugged him tightly.

"I promise not to do anything dangerous anymore. I won't make you and our son sad because of me!" she said in a muffled voice.

Song Yu Han carried her to let her sit on his lap and tightened his hold around her waist. It was a warming and harmonious scene between a couple who understood each other a lot.

Song Yu Han suddenly thought of something and said, "...There's one more thing."

Ran Xueyi didn't raise her head which was resting on his shoulder. "What is it?"

Song Yu Han: "Don't watch those films and read that kind of book again."