Chapter 1781 Red Lotus Valkyrie Lotus Sun (1/92)

The blood lotus slaughterer had extraordinary strength and was indeed not on par with ordinary trash. Seeing that his ship's anchor had been cut into pieces, layman siren's expression was slightly unsightly, but he did not show the slightest fear.

He had long expected the strength of the "Blood Lotus Slaughterer" in front of him, but he had not expected that the other party would be able to cut up the magical artifact that he had refined from his organs so cleanly.

However, cutting up only one of his organs was useless, because his organs had a regenerative mechanism. Unless all of them were destroyed at the same time, they would continuously grow back.

"The anchor that is connected to the chains is formed from his intestines and stomach?" Grillo city's fenlei frowned and asked.

"I missed one." Wang Muyu could tell. He had been worried that Lotus Sun would be able to defeat scholar Siren, but seeing her so effortlessly, he immediately relaxed.

"Missed one?" Grillo city's fenlei revealed a puzzled expression.

"It's a stomach stone," Wang Muyu replied seriously.

Stomach stone..

The stunned expression on Grillo city's fenlei's face didn't diminish. He found it hard to believe that cultivators from the immemorial era would be so insane that they wouldn't even let go of a stomach stone and refine it into their own magic treasure.

However, after thinking about it carefully, he felt that it wasn't strange for the immemorial cultivators to have such thoughts.

Because they could basically stand in the ranks of the immemorial cultivators and become one of them. As the earliest batch of cultivators in the universe, almost all of the immemorial cultivators had reached the stage where their physical bodies became saints. Since it was under the situation where their physical bodies became saints., the stomach stones that grew out weren't called stomach stones.

They were a type of holy stone..

It was a very special substance that grew in the stomach.

In fact, Wang Ling had heard Li Xian and Zhang Zicao say before that many cultivators in the eternal era wished they had more holy stones growing out of their bodies because the formation of holy stones was very complicated, and they were one of the rare materials used in refining artifacts, they could be taken out for their own use or sold, and they had a certain market value in the ancient times.

It was just that it was rare for a person like recluse siren to directly refine his holy stones, together with his internal organs, into a magic treasure.

The surface of the sea, which was shrouded in purple spirit light, was filled with a murderous aura.

Lotus Sun was seriously waiting to finish the first round, but her opponent was an immemorial, even if she was lucky enough to use the sword Qi that lingered outside her body to cut the opponent's anchor into tofu grains in the first round... she still couldn't let her guard down.

Her lack of combat experience had once made Lotus Sun a little unsure, which was also why she didn't dare to be careless.

There was nothing wrong with being a little cautious.

A wave of sponges surged out from around the purple tide, as if it was a power that originated from the deep sea, and turned into Phantoms in all directions along with the steam.

Boom!

Not long after, the core world began to shake, and Lotus Sun saw huge purple tails slapping the surface of the sea in all directions.

They were the huge tails of whales, as big as small mountains, and when they hit the surface of the sea, they created thousands of waves. They were definitely not phantoms, but purple whales summoned by recluse sea demon.

It seemed to have nothing to do with recluse sea demon's method of refining magic artifacts with organs, but Wang Ling could tell that recluse sea demon had been raising these purple whales in his kidneys all this time.

As the saying went, kidneys were water. If an immemorial being like recluse sea demon made use of them, they could form a vast ocean and turn it into his own golden fishing ground, they could be used to raise some special creatures.

“Boom!”

Large areas of lightning exploded, and huge pillars of lightning shot up from the surface of the sea, spreading in all directions along with fine, spider-web-like electric patterns.

This was a blue sea mudblood whale, a divine beast born from the chaos. It was just that the number of divine beasts it had summoned at the same time was so large that Wang Ling, who was watching the battle, was a little surprised.

It seemed that recluse siren was an out-and-out professional fish farmer who had actually been able to raise so many divine beasts of the chaos in his kidneys and summon them at the same time in the space of a breath.

In terms of overall combat strength, Wang Ling felt that recluse siren's strength was even above Li Xian and Zhang Zitao's.

“Roar...”the blue sea mixed Thunderwhale was too ferocious. It waved its huge tail and swept up waves and lightning on the surface of the sea. Then, it suddenly jumped out of the sea and soared into the air, its cysticercus dozens of feet tall, a large area of lightning covered Lotus Sun.

Wherever it passed, everything was shattered into scorched earth.

The murderous aura was fierce. It couldn't be described as not fierce.

Lotus Sun didn't say a word. She just used her mind to urge the Ao Hai.

At that moment, the disguised Red Sword Qi of the Ao Hai covered every part of Lotus Sun's body. It bloomed on her body like the rising of the Sun. A huge red lotus rose under her feet, it slowly lifted her up to the sky.

At this moment, the Red Lotus armor covered her body, and the girl was reborn. She had completely changed into a new person.

"Martial god Red Lotus..."recluse sea monster had a troubled expression on his face. Although he had long expected that the blood lotus butcher in front of him would be a very troublesome eternal warrior, he didn't think that his battle strength was no match for her.

It wasn't until this moment that he seemed to realize the seriousness of the problem.

This was a new form of skin that Lotus Sun had obtained under the red camouflage sword energy of the Sea of Olympus. Even Lotus Sun herself hadn't expected that she would actually obtain a brand new skin..

Previously, when she had fused with the Sea of Olympus Sword, she had already obtained the "Skin form of the blue sea tide immortal dress"and the "Skin form of the nine-core powered locomotive"under the blessing of the nine-core Olympus Sword Energy.

Lotus Sun didn't expect that she would change again today.

At this time, she was hovering in the air, and the red lotus beneath her feet was emitting an infinite amount of magical energy.

With a hum, Lotus Sun slashed out with her sword. Wherever the Red Sword Qi passed, the entire space in the core world started to collapse! While it was on the verge of collapse, countless cracks appeared.

At the same time, a large amount of blood splattered, and these terrifying beasts that were rolling in the sea were all split into two, turning into minced fish heads.

“This Daddy’s Blue Sea mudblood whale...”it was hard for recluse the sea demon to imagine that the blood lotus slaughterer was actually so powerful.

With just one sword strike, the twelve blue sea mudblood whales he had kept in captivity were all cut in half.

Lotus Sun didn’t directly attack recluse the sea demon; she could feel the power surging in her hand, so she was very careful in controlling it, not wanting to directly kill recluse the sea demon.

This person must know a lot of secrets, and if she could help Wang Ling capture him alive, she might be able to learn a lot of information.

So she controlled the sword Qi to attack this core world.

The moment the sword Qi infiltrated the blue sea chaotic thunderwhale and created a large number of cracks in the core world, the damage caused by the backlash immediately made recluse sea demon’s face turn pale as he knelt on the ground.

His expression changed on the spot.

The power of Lotus Sun’s Arcane Sea Red Lotus Sword Qi had shaken his core world into pieces..

Chapter 1782 1,778, Shield Of The Liver Emperor (1/92)

The Red Lotus shocked the world, and who was the master of the ups and downs!

Lotus Sun slashed through the core world with her sword, and boundless flames appeared around her, bringing with it a kind of blazing light and heat that was dazzling and intimidating.

Recluse the sea monster’s expression changed on the spot. He would never have thought that this was the “Sword Qi of nothingness”, which was formed by the combination of the passive ability of the ao hai and “Man and sword as one”. It was constructed with an illusion, but gave off an extremely realistic feeling.

Therefore, the sword Qi of nothingness was also known as the real and illusory sword.

Unable to see through this, recluse confirmed in his heart that Lotus Sun was the legendary Blood Lotus Butcher. The Blood Lotus Butcher was originally a fire-type master, and she herself was a sword-type master with a fire spiritual root.

Among the ancients, apart from the Blood Lotus Butcher, which other female sword-type master could reach such a level..

At the same time, the sea demon recluse was frightened and thought of many things. Back then, the Blood Lotus Slaughterer wasn't his match. But now, not only did she join the war sect, but she also changed her identity as "Beautiful Wang".., she also successfully established a foothold on earth as an ordinary cultivator.

How could the war sect not sense the existence of such a powerful person in the war sect?

Recluse sea demon kept pondering in his heart.

After thinking it over, he suddenly came up with an extremely terrifying answer.

It was possible that the war sect... wasn't made up of regular Earth cultivators at all! Perhaps the core members were all immemorial cultivators!

Grenade-throwing senior immortal, the famous "Great death-courting senior"on Earth, was just using this identity as a cover. As the sect master, recluse sea demon thought that his identity as an immemorial cultivator had already been completely confirmed.

The immemorial had always been proud and aloof, so how could he agree to let someone weaker than him become the sect master and work under him?

This Blood Lotus Butcher was so strong, but in the war sect, she was only an elder called "Pretty Wang..".

Then..

Who among the immemorial were the other core members of the war sect?

At this thought, cold sweat kept trickling down recluse sea demon's face.

He thought of this frightening possibility and instantly felt as if everything had been explained.

No wonder the war sect was able to become the only super sect that surpassed all the heaven-grade sects on Earth in a short period of time..

No wonder the war sect was able to take the lead in communicating with Divine Dao Star, establishing normal diplomatic relations with those extraterrestrials.

It turned out that the root of the matter..

It was very likely that a group of eternal beings was operating among the core members of the war sect!

“Are you still thinking about other things during the battle?” Lotus Sun's voice was cold as she stared at the crumbling core world and recluse sea monster, who had vomited blood due to the collapse of the core world.

She was neither too slow nor too fast. She was confirming recluse sea monster's current injuries to ensure that her next attack wouldn't kill him in one hit.

It was necessary to keep him alive.

Lotus Sun thought that recluse sea demon must know a lot of things. Perhaps there was someone even more powerful behind recluse sea demon.

Buzz!

The Red Lotus Sword Qi swept across, piercing through the void and illuminating the sky. Staring at his pale face, recluse sea demon took out a glass metal shield from his body. The Sword Qi directly hit the metal shield, exploding with a dazzling beam of light.

Cracks immediately appeared on the shield.

This was recluses the sea demon's liver. As a liver emperor among the self-cultivators in the past, he had stayed up all night to cultivate and temper his liver, which had been refined into the indestructible metal shield.

Over the past ten thousand years, he had withstood countless fatal attacks without suffering any damage. He didn't expect that the battle with the 'Blood Lotus Butcher' had shattered his liver!

PFFT!

Recluse spat out a mouthful of blood. His hands, which were holding the shield, were spasming in excruciating pain. Lotus Sun's sword Qi was too strong, and had been transmitted through the shield. Even though most of it had been blocked by the shield of the liver emperor., however, the residual power was enough to make recluse suffer.

If it hadn't been for the shield of the liver emperor, recluse felt that the attack just now was enough to take his life. He would have been chopped into pieces by the sword Qi!

In the next second, he stepped back and retreated at high speed, leaving the scene decisively.

The core world shattered on the spot, like a broken mirror.

The purple seawater returned to its original blue color. Commander Li Weiwei's garrison troops and the Tengu Army reappeared. Recluse the sea monster threw away his armor and transformed into a fish that slithered through the seabed. By the time Lotus Sun reacted., her aura was already far away.

"Commander Li, I'm King Zhanzong, Pretty. I'm here to lend you a hand." After leaving the core world, Lotus Sun immediately revealed her identity to Li Weiwei.

She didn't say much and immediately controlled the seawater to stabilize the tengu in front of her. She transformed into a stream of light and jumped into the seabed to chase after recluse.

Recluse was truly frightened.

He had already slipped far away, but he had never expected that a female slaughterer of the blood lotus, who specialized in fire magic, would be able to move faster than him underwater..

Were they so unconventional these days?

“You’re a fire magic cultivator, why are you swimming faster than me? !”When Lotus Sun’s figure gradually approached him, recluse’s face turned pale with fear, and his heart trembled.

The Blood Lotus Butcher was too powerful... far beyond his imagination.

What kind of resources did those eternal warriors in the war sect consume to reach such a level?

He found it unbelievable. He wagged his fish tail crazily with all his might, and Lotus Sun chased after him relentlessly. For a moment, two long waterlines were drawn on the surface of the sea, one at the front and one at the back, like two water dragons.

This woman was too terrifying.

Recluse the sea monster couldn’t believe it at all.

Back then, he had clearly been the one who had been firmly suppressed by him. Not only had she come up to him and destroyed his core world, but she had also chased after him and beaten him into such a sorry state.

He gritted his teeth and secretly swore that he would take revenge on this battle, and that he would make the Blood Lotus Butcher and the people from the war sect pay back twice as much.

And the prerequisite was that he had to avoid this disaster and bring back the information alive. He couldn’t let himself be caught.

To Lotus Sun’s surprise, the recluse gave up resisting in the end, and didn’t take another step forward.

The recluse cut open her stomach and took out her heart, pinching it in her hand. “I won’t Let You Catch Me! I’m more ruthless than you, and you’re still too young.”

As soon as she said this, recluse sea demon immediately pinched her hand and crushed her heart like a balloon right in front of Lotus Sun.

“Dead... dead...”

Looking at the blood-soaked seawater, Lotus Sun was stunned. She had wanted to capture him alive, but hadn’t expected to force recluse sea demon to his death, and for a moment, she couldn’t help blaming herself.

..

On the other side, after seeing the heroic scene of recluse sea demon committing suicide, Wang Ling also looked away.

Seeing this, Fenlei of Greo city was stupefied. “He died just like that? That can’t be, right?”

Wang Ying’s voice came from the side as he materialized, crossed his arms, and leaned against the wall as he sneered. “How can it be so easy for the immemorial to die?”

Fenlei of greo city: “That’s true... most of these mighty figures have the means to resurrect.”

Wang Ying: “It’s not really a means, it’s just a privilege left behind by Dao ancestor Wang. Have you forgotten about the green tong cat in the abandoned land of the gods and the abandoned land of the gods?”

Hearing that, Fenlei of Greo city suddenly understood and instantly understood what Wang Ying meant. “I understand! Director Ying means that the other party deliberately committed suicide to enter the abandoned land of the gods and escape the pursuit?”

“That’s right. That’s a place with special privileges for Dao Gods and above. It can use one’s own cultivation to choose a place to revive. It can be considered a method of self-protection for a gecko that has lost its tail.”

After saying this, Wang Ying couldn't help but smile. "However, he probably didn't expect that the bronze cat in the Forsaken Land of the gods was also on our side."

"Hahaha. Isn't that walking into a trap?" Fenlei of Greo city laughed loudly.

"That's why I went to the Forsaken Land of the gods just now and greeted that bronze cat." Wang Ying said, "I want it. According to the rules, resurrect this sea monster recluse and see where he will choose to resurrect himself."

Grio city's fenlei asked, "Is this fishing?"

Wang Ying nodded. "Of course it's fishing. Moreover, this is also what your master wants."

Chapter 1783 1,779, Servant From The Origin Of The Universe (1/92)

After successfully completing the transaction with the bronze cat, recluse the siren randomly reincarnated in a corner of Earth and quickly escaped from Earth towards the direction of the outer galaxy.

He calculated that his reincarnation point might be captured, so he chose this more roundabout way.

Originally, he had come here to split the war sect and Huaxiu Alliance. As long as he destroyed the hundreds of troops stationed on the island and created the illusion that there was a mole inside the war sect., making the other side suspicious of each other might create a split situation.

However, he had never expected that his plan would be defeated by the "Blood Lotus Butcher". Moreover, he had discovered something even more important than splitting the war sect!

It was very likely that the core members of the entire war sect were all hidden ancients!

After flying in space for a long time, a speck of light came from a long distance and finally transformed into a mysterious person wearing a golden robe in front of the siren recluse. His face could not be seen clearly.

His face was a golden vortex that was as deep as the galaxy in the universe. One would feel as if they were in a trance when they looked at each other.

When he came from the universe, he took a step forward, and a terrifying fluctuation came from the nearby deep starry sky. It shook the stars around the universe and shook the space in all directions, it gave off an oppressive feeling.

The sea monster recluse quickly moved his eyes away, not daring to look directly at the other party. He respectfully bowed to the other party, looked at the tiptoes of the person, and said, "Lord Holy Senior, I have really let down his highness the sacred king in this battle..."

After saying this, he was about to kneel and kowtow when he was stopped by a force.

Soon after, a hollow and ethereal voice rang out in the sea monster recluse's mind, "Mister Sea Monster, you don't have to do this. His Highness the Sacred King did not blame you. In addition, you did a good job in probing this time."

Without a sound, the sea monster recluse felt a warm power surge from between his brows. It was this mysterious person called the sacred Lord who stretched out his index finger and gently tapped his forehead.

"This is..."recluse sea monster couldn't believe it. A brand new power surged out from his body, continuously forming in an instant, it instantly restored the cultivation base he had lost in the abandoned land of the gods and the bronze cat exchange.

Not only that, he felt that he was even stronger than before!

"This power... Thank you, Sir Holy King!"He was extremely excited and cupped his hands in salute. "Sir Holy King! If I were to go there again, I would definitely be able to take down the Blood Lotus Butcher!"

"This is a gift from Sir Sacred King. You Don't have to worry about it and are in a hurry to make a contribution. Everything is within His Highness's plan."

The mysterious man said.

He was standing in front of recluse sea monster. The power of one person seemed to be able to destroy the nine heavens and ten lands.

Such power seemed to represent the power of the origin of the universe..

However, such a person was only a servant of the sacred king.

Then how strong was the sage king?

The sea monster recluse was astonished. He had been looking for an opportunity to see the sage king's true appearance, but unfortunately... he had never had the opportunity.

He had lost three hundred generations of cultivation in the abandoned land of gods, and the other party was able to restore him in a breath's time.

It was really hard to imagine how strong he was.

After a moment of silence, the sea monster recluse asked, "Then, does the sage king have any new arrangements?"

"His Highness the Saint King has already thought of a way."

The Servant of the saint king said, "Since these people have incarnated into the eternal ones and are hibernating on earth, they are naturally bound by the laws of earth... and the operation of a sect can not be separated from money."

"I understand, everything will be done according to His Highness the Saint King's wishes..."

At the same time, Wang Ling and the others in the hotel saw everything.

They had to admit that recluse sea demon was a smart person. He had guessed that he might be tracked, so he had chosen a random rebirth point before taking action.

Unfortunately, halfway through, the other party was blocked by a golden vortex on his face, which was called the servant of the Holy Senior.

When Wang Ling withdrew his gaze, Wang Ying was in a particularly bad mood.

“Where did this group of people come from?” Wang Ying frowned.

He didn’t have Wang Ling’s eye, and with his combat strength, he couldn’t see through the face blocked by the golden vortex.

“It’s a pity that we were so close to finding the other party’s Nest,” Greo City’s Fenlei added. “But fortunately, we didn’t completely lose anything; at least we know what their next move is.”

“From the current situation, the biggest mastermind behind the heavenly dog is this sacred king. He’s far away in the universe, but he’s controlling the internal affairs of Earth.”

“Now that they mention money, the next step is probably that they want to control the heavenly dog’s side and try to fight a money war with us.”

“But hasn’t uncle grenade always relied on the Heavenly Dao Broccoli to earn money! Don’t tell me they still want to resist the broccoli!” Wang Muyu muttered at the side, acting like a small adult.

“Silly child, if you want to form a huge asset attack in the short term, it’s probably not enough to target the specialty industries.” Grio city’s fanlei patted Wang Muyu’s little head. “My main concern now is that they will attack the Spirit Stones.”

As the main raw material for immortal gold production, the spirit stones resources had always been the focus of the competition between the major cultivation countries.

Of course, as one of the largest natural resources on Earth, each country had a certain amount of natural spirit stones in reserve. In fact, in order to promote environmental protection, the spirit stones used by the major cultivation countries for the production of Immortal Gold., were all artificially developed.

The method of development was very simple. As long as spirit energy was injected into a specific machine, artificial spirit stones could be produced.

Of course, to produce a one kilogram artificial spirit stone, at least 1,000 golden core stage cultivators and above needed to continuously inject spiritual energy for an hour, and then repeatedly purify it to reach the standard.

If Sky Dog's side achieved the goal of monopolizing the spirit stones by purchasing external spirit stones, then the cost of producing immortal gold from the outside would rise, the value would instead be lower than before... and as one of the major currencies in the cultivation world, once the value of immortal gold dropped, it would mean that many sects that relied on immortal gold to build up industries would be greatly threatened, all of them would be greatly threatened.

And the battle sect would be within range.

"Of course, Ling Zhenren, director Ying, these are just my personal guesses. As for how to operate it, we don't know yet. It's just that I think we should be on guard as soon as possible."

"It's not easy to be on guard. Although it's not easy to produce artificial spirit stones, it's mainly because it's very difficult for cultivators to produce them on a large scale by injecting spirit energy." Wang Ying smiled and said, "But it would be different if there was a humanoid money-printing machine."

"Director Ying, are you saying..."

At this moment, everyone's eyes were focused on Wang Ling.

Wang Ling: "..."

Wang Ying: "Let the Ling Lord make artificial spirit stones. We'll produce as many as they buy. Look at what happens next. Are they losing or are we losing?"

Chapter 1784 1,780. I Crossed The Mountains And The Sea For... (1/92)

After helping Li Weiwei out of the siege, Lotus Sun quickly returned to the immortal boat she was on. Butler Lin was completely dumbfounded..

Although he didn't see the exact process of the battle clearly, he roughly knew that Lotus Sun and the sea monster recluse seemed to have been sucked into an alternate dimension at the beginning of the battle.

After a few minutes, Lotus Sun and the sea demon recluse reappeared.

After that, there was no after..

Butler Lin watched as Lotus Sun dove into the sea and began to give the sea demon recluse a fierce chase.

What did he see?

A foundation establishment cultivator chasing after an expert of an unknown realm with superior battle prowess..

And he had even directly forced her to commit suicide..

Even if she had to kill someone of a higher realm, she had to do it according to the Basic Law!

“Miss... you...”

“Haha, I Hope Uncle Lin will keep what happened today a secret for me.” Lotus sun stuck out her tongue, she tried to muddle through. “It’s not that I’m strong, but my master’s Spirit Sword is. “Basically, after I grasped the spirit sword, I was possessed by my master’s divine power. Basically, my master’s spirit sword was the one controlling the subsequent battles.”

“So that’s how it is!” Butler Lin nodded. He firmly believed Lotus Sun’s words.

He had watched lotus sun grow up and knew that lying wasn’t in her character. And indeed, only such an explanation could reasonably explain why a foundation establishment stage expert could chase after so many experts who were above her level.

As for the sword spirit possession that Lotus Sun had mentioned, although Butler Lin had never experienced it before, it wasn’t difficult to understand.

To put it bluntly, this was the legendary “Substitute attack”!

“Miss, it’s our Sun family’s great fortune to be able to take such a powerful person as your master this time!” Butler Lin bowed and said respectfully, “But miss, I have one last question...”

“Uncle Lin, feel free to say it.”

“Why didn’t miss tell Master about this?”

“Because... Master has always been used to keeping a low profile...”

Lotus Sun tried her best to smile and said, “When she accepted me as her disciple this time, she was also a closed-door disciple. It’s just that she didn’t intend to announce it to the public.”

“Besides, my master is most afraid of other people being polite. If Grandpa finds out about this and sends someone to deliver a bunch of gifts later, I’m afraid it’ll cause trouble for Master.”. “Besides, master is a woman who treats worldly things like floating clouds and money like dirt...”

“Oh, I understand.”

Housekeeper Lin also laughed. “As expected of miss, the people she likes are all low-key people.”

Lotus Sun immediately turned her head away and turned her face out of the window. “I went to Greo city this time... to see Mu Yu, not for him...”

Housekeeper Lin still smiled and said nothing in response to this obvious quibble. “I found a problem.”

“What?”

“I’ve discovered that good friends also seem to infect each other. I don’t know why, but ever since young miss became good friends with the good son of the nine temples family, young miss nine temples. I’ve always felt that what young miss said also had a bit of a hidden meaning.”

” ... ”

Lotus Sun realized that she couldn't continue the conversation that day. She could only blame old Lin for knowing her too well.

But it didn't matter. As long as Old Lin didn't tell anyone about pretty Wang, everything would be fine.

She wasn't sure how long she could keep it a secret.

She even wondered if she should erase old Lin's memory directly.

However, after careful consideration, she felt that it would be better to have a trustworthy person in the Sun family who was only half-in-the-know.

And Butler Lin was actually a very good person.

The immortal boat passed through the layers of clouds in the sky. Just before it reached Greo City, Lotus Sun heard old Lin suddenly say something to her, as if he was deliberately giving her a piece of reassurance, he said, "Thank you, Miss, for telling me these things. Please rest assured, miss. I will definitely not tell anyone about Miss Pretty Wang."

"Miss, you must have a lot of trust in me for telling me this. But I also need to remind you that not everyone in our group is trustworthy..."

"I understand."

Lotus sun nodded and said, "Uncle Lin, don't keep me in suspense. This is no different from directly naming names... You Mean Jiang Xiaoche, right?"

"Yes."

Butler Lin nodded and said bluntly, "This time, the master has already found out about the leak of young master Muyu's matter, and it has something to do with him. But... for old times'sake, he didn't directly punish him."

“Sigh.”

Lotus sun sighed. “Jiang Xiaoche is actually just a little silly... he’s too easy to fall into a trap and be used. If you want to say that he’s particularly bad, it doesn’t seem to be the case. He underestimated the danger of those people from the heavenly dog group.”

Butler Lin nodded. “This time, Miss’s whereabouts were leaked, and a few employees within the group reported it. It was him who leaked the information.”

Lotus sun: “Acting against the wind isn’t Jiang Xiaoche’s personality, but after all, he was the one who planned my trip abroad. He definitely had something to do with the ambush by Heavenly Dog on the way.”

“Miss, you’re right. There are quite a few people within the group who are coveting his position as secretary-general. According to the original plan, the secretary-general should have followed me on this trip abroad.”

Butler Lin said, “But in the end, master chose me to protect miss. This is actually a hint. I only hope that he won’t continue to be so muddle-headed in the future.”

Lotus Sun didn’t think too much about this exchange of heart.

Speaking of which, Jiang Xiaoche was also a playmate who had grown up with her, and it wasn’t that she wasn’t aware of Jiang Xiaoche’s feelings for her... but sometimes, feelings were a very complicated thing. There was no feeling.., just no feeling.

She knew very well that she would never fall in love with Jiang Xiaoche in her lifetime. At most, she would just treat him as a big brother.

But in recent days, Jiang Xiaoche had repeatedly acted arrogantly. In the end, she thought it was because of jealousy..

She had to think of a way as soon as possible.

From the perspective of a childhood playmate, she really didn't want Jiang Xiaoche to make another mistake.

"Uncle Lin, don't you think it's better for him to find a wife as soon as possible and settle down..." Lotus Sun said, "You should have a lot of connections in this area, right?"

"I can give it a try." Housekeeper Lin nodded.

In Huaguo Water Curtain Group's derivative industries, such as entertainment variety shows, housekeeper Lin was actually the one who organized them. He had a lot of resources for cultivation reality shows.

Lotus Sun's idea was exactly the same as Butler Lin's. He really felt that he could find a dating reality show or love-seeking variety show as soon as possible after he returned home and arrange it for Jiang Xiaoche.

On the other side, Super Chen, Hero Guo, Li Youyue, and Fang Xing had officially arrived in Greo City. Under the arrangement of Huaguo Water Curtain Group, they stayed in a chain hotel.

"When will boss Sun arrive? I didn't cross the mountains and the sea just to do my homework here..."

In the next room, when Super Chen's familiar voice rang out, Wang Ling's body immediately trembled.

What a guy..

This group of people had directly surrounded him.

Chapter 1785 1,781: The Little Dragon Man Who Acted Cute For A Living (1/92)

In the past, Wang Ling's antisocial personality coupled with a slight social phobia made him extremely resistant to the feeling of being surrounded.

But now, he found that his personality seemed to have been toned down a little.

At least when he faced Super Chen, hero Guo, and these classmates whom he could be considered familiar with day and night, he no longer felt that sense of unfamiliarity that came from the bottom of his heart.

In the end, Wang Ling felt that in his heart, he actually longed to have a few friends..

They didn't have to be too strong or very rich, as long as they were kind people who lived a positive life and were full of love.

With this group of people around him, it seemed quite interesting to just listen to them kiss and kiss on the side.

After sensing the commotion next door, Wang Ling was hesitating whether he should go and say hello.

At that moment, Wang Muyu took the initiative to stretch out his little hand and hold the corner of his shirt. "Brother Ling, do you want to go and take a look?"

The Little Guy was obviously encouraging him, and very cleverly changed the way he addressed him.

Wang Ling realized that he couldn't resist Wang Muyu's star-eye attack, so in the end, he still held the little guy's little hand and walked out of the suite.

"I won't Be Going, Ling Zhenren. Please take note of the message regarding dinner, and I'll make arrangements for you."Grillo city's fanlei was a very perceptive clone, and when he saw that Wang Ling was going to look for his classmate, he immediately decided to leave some space for Wang Ling, he immediately decided to leave some space for Wang Ling.

He had been given the task of being responsible for Wang Ling's food and living in Grillo city during this period of time, as well as assisting in investigating matters related to the heavenly dog lair.

Now that Wang Ling was meeting his classmates, he had the chance to team up with Wang Ying and investigate everything that could be investigated.

Doppelganger + shadow -- this combination was perfect for a task.

It was just like sending a teammate to mine in an RPG game while he went to the side to stew stew, and doing it on the chat channel in the water world.

With Lotus Sun's rich and imposing personality, she had prepared a suite for each of the four people who had come to Greo City, the suite was piled with all kinds of snacks, desserts, iced drinks, and even a self-service miniature spirit gathering array to aid in cultivation.

Wang Ling came to Super Chen's room, where they were currently laughing and chatting animatedly.

As soon as he reached the door, he heard Super Chen's silver-bell-like laughter. "Hahahaha, do you think boss Sun will arrange for us to stay in the same hotel as Wang Ling? Who knows, Wang Ling might be right next door and surrounded by us."

The first person to fall silent was Fang Xing.

As one of Wang Ling's number one fans, he had already smelled Wang Ling the moment he entered the hotel.

"..."

Standing at the door, Wang Ling had clearly fallen silent at that moment.

Moreover, for the 10086th time, he had resisted the urge to kill Super Chen..

"Do you think this is a game of go..."

Hero Guo shrugged in disbelief.

“In any case, no matter where student Wang Ling is, we can’t forget our operation this time,” Li You Yue said with a mysterious smile.

The few of them were exchanging glances in the room. It was obvious that they had already thought of a plan to assist them.

Moreover, they had already prepared it long ago on the way to Greo City on the immortal boat.

They were just waiting for the plan to go into effect.

But it wasn’t easy to ensure that the plan would go into effect.

Wang Ling remembered that whenever he went out with Lotus Sun, as long as there was someone following them, something would definitely go wrong.

This might be the legendary butterfly effect.

“Bang, Bang, Bang!”

At that moment, there was a polite knock on Super Chen’s door.

But it wasn’t Wang Ling who had knocked.

He had wanted to observe from the door.

In the end, this little guy next to him couldn’t wait any longer. After knocking on the door, he quickly used star eyes on Wang Ling, which instantly dispelled most of the ridicule in Wang Ling’s heart.

Wang Ling realized that this little guy Wang Muyu seemed to have found a shortcut to deal with him.

“Who is it?”

At that moment, hero Guo took the initiative to get up and open the door. He was still wearing that short-sleeved shirt that said “There’s a mine in the house.” As soon as he opened the door, he was pleasantly surprised to see Wang Ling and Wang Muyu, one big and one small, standing neatly at the door, they were incomparably obedient.

“Damn... Super Chen hit the nail on the head again! It really is Wang Ling!” Hero Guo was pleasantly surprised as he hurriedly welcomed Wang Ling and Wang Muyu into the door.

The moment everyone saw the little guy, they all looked like they had been flipped over by Wang Muyu’s cuteness.

It was really rare for Wang Ling to see Super Chen and hero Guo, these two straight men of steel, look at a six-year-old child whose face was flushed red from cuteness like two idiots.

In this room, only Fang Xing, as a core member of the war sect, knew Wang Muyu’s true identity.

“Hello, Big Brothers and sisters,” Wang Muyu greeted politely.

With that face that was exactly the same as Wang Ling’s, using that completely different personality to cater to Super Chen and the others gave everyone present a surreal feeling.

They were clearly very similar to Wang Ling, but they knew that he was indeed a different individual.

“Ah, this is what Rong Rong said, classmate Wang Ling’s younger cousin, Wang Muyu’s younger brother, right? He’s really too cute! !” Li Youyue couldn’t help it, stretching out her arms, she wanted to hug Wang Muyu, but the little guy didn’t stand on ceremony. With a thud, his body went limp, and he fell into the arms of this female high school student. He even rubbed his head against Li You Yue’s shoulder, Li You Yue’s face and ears turned red.

This kind of initiative was really too illegal, and Li You Yue directly broke down. “I... I can do it!”

“What can?” Super Chen and hero Guo were confused.

“Little wooden fish! Do you want to think about it... big sister can wait for you to grow up...”

Everyone,” ...”

Hero Guo tried his best to persuade her, “Cough cough... Student Li You Yue, as the only female high school student here, you have to know how to be reserved. Wooden fish are still young, and they still need to be cared for. You will scare the children.”

“Sigh, I’m sorry, I’m sorry. I actually really want a younger sister or younger brother... but my parents have always said that it’s already difficult enough to take care of me, and I don’t want a second child.”

Li You Yue hugged Wang Mu Yu and sighed. “But now that I see Mu Yu, I think I can do it again. When I go back, I’ll definitely persuade my parents to have another one!”

Everyone in the small room sighed.

“Ai, I didn’t expect Ling Zi’s little brother to be so bold. I’m even a little suspicious if Muyu is classmate Wang Ling’s cousin... why does it feel so surreal?”Super Chen laughed.

Wang Muyu was a living social butterfly. In terms of acting cute to increase his favorability, Wang Ling felt that no one could resist Wang Muyu’s attack.

“Alright, since everyone has already seen Muyu, should we go to the hotel’s restaurant to eat something first? Boss Sun ran into something on the way, and she just told me that she would be right there.”At this moment, fang Xing suggested.

He was the only person here who knew, so he would naturally try his best to control the situation and prevent the topic from being brought into a dangerous situation.

Otherwise, with Super Chen’s broken mouth, any big truth could jump out..

Chapter 1786 1,782. The Battle Sect Had Sent Out Wang Mei (Third Watch, 1/91)

Inside the wisdom tree, the news of the siren layman’s defeat was quickly released. The eight-star heavenly dog, nicknamed Master Eight, relayed the order from his superior to everyone present.

For a moment, everyone appeared somewhat disheartened. They had thought that the plan to split the battle sect would go smoothly, but who would have thought that such a mysterious and unheard of expert would appear outside.

It could be said that Wang Mei's appearance was an accident. It was Cheng Yaojin who had suddenly appeared and blocked the way, destroying all the plans that Sky Dog had tried to carry out.

"Senior Sea Demon Recluse was defeated by that Wang Mei."

"It's her again..."

"Where exactly did this woman come from? Where did she come from?"

"According to the reliable information provided by the Supreme Emperor and the battle records of the Sea Demon Recluse, the information we have is... "This battle sect elder named Wang Liangliang is most likely an eternal warrior like the Supreme Emperor and Senior Sea Demon Recluse. "During the eternal era, she was known as the Blood Lotus Slaughterer," said Grandpa Eight.

"Blood Lotus Slaughterer? !" The heavenly dogs were in an uproar. No one had expected Wang Liangliang to be an eternal warrior.

However, thinking about it carefully, it seemed that only this explanation could explain why pretty Wang had the ability to defeat layman siren, who was also an immemorial.

The real combat strength of these immemorial was far beyond the concept of Earth's self-cultivators. They could easily use a planet as a bowling ball.

The reason why the heavenly dogs could develop and grow unscrupulously these years was because they were confident that there was a big boss, an immemorial, behind them, who had a combat strength far beyond the true level of Earth's self-cultivators.

And the Sea Demon Recluse was an eternal ruler that they were familiar with.

A five-star sky dog said, "It seems that everything can be explained now. I was wondering how the war sect was able to develop so much in such a short time. It turns out that there is an eternal ruler behind it..."

Master eight crossed his fingers and rested his chin on them. "You're wrong. The foundation behind the war sect is probably deeper than we thought."

"What does that mean?"

"According to senior layman sea monster, unless there are great benefits, it's impossible for the prideful ancient ones to work under the hands of others. "Layman sea monster and the Supreme Emperor are very good friends, which is why he has this reason to help us... then, what right does this blood lotus butcher have to be an elder in the war sect?"

"Perhaps she is also a friend, such as a guest elder?"

"Since they are friends, then we can help them in the name of friends.". "Wearing the skin of a beautiful cultivator from earth and concealing her identity as the blood lotus slaughterer and willingly concealing her identity as an elder in the war sect, don't you find it strange?" Master eight said.

"This..."

At this point, everyone came to a sudden realization.

"What master eight said makes sense." Soon after, many people began to nod.

They thought of the Colossus that was hidden behind the war sect, for a moment, they all became a little flustered. "If that's the case... then doesn't that mean that there are many eternal masters hidden behind the war sect, including the sect master of the war sect, grenade-throwing senior immortal, and the elders of the core group? !"

"So, this is also what senior sea demon recluse is most worried about."

Under the mask, master eight's expression was particularly grave, and his tone was low, as he spoke, everyone could feel a hidden sense of nervousness. "Although Senior Sea Demon Recluse's operation failed this time, we at least probed the war sect's foundation and avoided direct losses from a head-on clash."

"The other party might have no less than ten ancients guarding it. Can We really resist?"

"Ha, are you looking down on the Supreme Emperor?"

Lord eight laughed. "The Supreme Emperor never said that his only friend is senior sea demon recluse... Moreover, I've already received news that the Supreme Emperor will continue to send over twenty ancients to support us, both in the open and in the dark."

"Moreover, the Supreme Emperor thought that he would first crush the war sect and destroy its economic network. Therefore, the eternal being he sent to us in the light is also an expert in this area..."

"What kind of senior is he?"

"The eternal name of this senior is called 'Stone Setter'. As the name implies, he has a method to turn the wasteland into spirit stones. This is much faster than pouring spirit energy into the spirit stone machine."

The eighth master said, "With the help of this stone setter senior, we can use the spirit stones created by the stone setter senior to cash in. Then, without any losses, we can continuously increase our capital. In the end, we can monopolize the entire Earth's spirit stones and lower the value of immortal gold."

"So that's how it is. Are we going to short the war sect?" A six-star heavenly dog said in surprise, "But the war sect still has the eternal warriors. If they send the eternal warriors to inject spirit energy and use the spirit stone machine to create spirit stones... will it be a conflict with us?"

"It's impossible to form a conflict." Master eight shook his head. "The steps of the spirit stone machine on Earth are complicated. After the spirit energy is poured in, it needs to be repeatedly purified to form spirit stones. "Although the spirit energy in the eternal ones' bodies is like an ocean, they are after all people from the eternal era. The energy composition in their bodies is not just one type of spirit energy..."

“It’s impossible to analyze such a complicated energy composition with the spirit stone machine on Earth. “Unless there is someone who can continuously produce pure spiritual energy, and can also continuously output it at any cost.”

The eighth master smiled and said, “Everyone here should be very clear that such a person does not exist at all. Using the spiritual stone manufacturing machine to continuously produce spiritual stones and continuously input spiritual energy without rest will consume one’s lifespan.”

“Even the existing spirit stone manufacturing plant must follow a reasonable rotation mechanism.”

“There is absolutely no way that someone would be stupid enough to squeeze themselves dry in such a place.”

“What the eighth master said makes a lot of sense. Squeezing oneself dry is not good for the kidneys.”

In the arena, all the heavenly dogs roared with laughter, and the originally tense atmosphere gradually began to ease up.

“Don’t worry, everyone. The Supreme Emperor and I have promised that the senior eternal warrior who came to our aid this time will definitely bring down the war sect. “There are many other senior eternal warriors in the open besides the stone setter that I just introduced. Allow me to introduce them to you later.”

“Where are these seniors?”

“As far as I know, they are already well-hidden among the cultivators on Earth. Like the Blood Lotus Butcher who disguised herself as a beautiful king, they have an excellent identity as a disguise.”

“They may be the male stars, female idols, delivery boys, brand-name sneakers who refuse to apologize, or the authors who should never be punished..

Chapter 1787 1,783: The Overbearing Boss Sun (1/91)

The hotel's dining facilities were all Chinese food buffets, and there were all kinds of delicacies from the eight major cuisines. In addition to this, there was also a special creative cuisine section.

The people accompanying them realized that the ingredients for creative cuisine seemed to be crispy noodle snacks... for example, after crushing the crispy noodle snacks and wrapping them around the lobster, they would be fried and turned into a new type of tempura.

"Is, is there such a way to eat it..."this type of flattery was too obvious, and Super Chen, hero Guo, and the others were all stunned. At the same time, they felt a little jealous and respect for Wang Ling.

Under normal circumstances, no one would be able to withstand such a powerful sugar-coated bullet from the eldest daughter of a financial group, and it wasn't just sugar-coated bullets, they could even sense Lotus Sun's fondness for Wang Ling from these trivial details..

Unfortunately, this iron tree didn't bloom, and the wood didn't understand. The innocent face that was staring at the dead fish eyes seemed as if it would never receive any emotional signals, making people anxious.

Old Pan had always opposed high school love and thought that learning would always be the number one priority, so naturally, he could understand the class teacher's good intentions.

However, it was hard to say who was in love, and there were still some who suddenly had a spark that couldn't be stopped..

Of course, Super Chen, hero Guo, Li Youyue, and Fang Xing.

These people weren't worried at all that Lotus Sun and Wang Ling would be notified and criticized by the school because of their relationship problems in high school, because from the current results, Wang Ling, this blockhead.., he was like a machine that could make love.

It might take a very long time for this relationship to truly blossom and bear fruit.

"When do you think the two of them will have a result?"Hero Guo asked curiously as he put food on his plate.

“I don’t think they’ll be able to get it done in high school. Maybe in college?” Super Chen guessed casually.

He had only said it casually, but no one had expected that Super Chen’s casual remark would actually turn out to be a prophecy.

The few of them chatted and laughed as they kept putting food on their plates. Only Fang Xing’s expression was calm, and it wasn’t hard to see that there was a hint of solemnity on his face.

He was the only one among them who knew Wang Muyu’s true identity. At the same time, as one of the core members of the war sect, he had naturally come with a mission.

On this trip abroad, Super Chen, hero Guo, and Li You Yue had been invited by Lotus Sun, but Fang Xing still had to pay attention to the topic of controlling the field at all times and the safety of the three of them during their regular trips.

After all, heavenly dog had already tried to make a move on Lotus Sun. If they were to go crazy, they might also make a move on the students around Lotus Sun.

As someone who had been personally invited by Lotus Sun to go on a trip abroad, Super Chen and the others were obviously dangerous.

Thus, Fang Xing was extremely cautious throughout the meal, keeping a close eye on whether there were any suspicious people around.

In short, Fang Xing was really too nervous.

He was so nervous that Wang Ling could even feel it.

He didn’t know when it had started, but Wang Ling realized that Fang Xing was carrying a kind of pressure.

In his memory, Fang Xing didn’t seem like this in the past, and there was a calmness in his sunny smile. This seemed to be the Fang Xing in Wang Ling’s memory.

He glanced at Fang Xing from the corner of his eye, then walked from the cooking area to the private room. He also used a primer spell to throw a piece of chocolate filled with crispy noodle snacks onto Fang Xing's plate.

Sweet food could help ease the tense atmosphere.

Fang Xing stared blankly at the special chocolate on his plate for a long time.

He seemed to have sensed Wang Ling's intentions, and after adjusting his breathing, he let out a sigh of relief and followed Wang Ling into the private room.

Just as he took his first step, the crisp sound of a plate breaking rang out behind him.

Someone smashed the porcelain plate in his hand onto the ground and even knocked down the dessert rack on the dining table.

"Rubbish! It's all rubbish! What kind of creative cuisine is this? Putting junk food flour into noble desserts... is this how your hotel fools its customers? !" A muscular blond foreign man cursed loudly in a foreign language.

Super Chen and hero Guo's English was second to none, and the man spoke so fast that they didn't know what he meant, but they could roughly guess that he was complaining about the desserts on the buffet table

This was like a listening test, and it was a hell-grade one at that!

At that moment, Wang Ling was trembling slightly as he held his fork.

"Brother... forget it, forget it. We're not going to stoop to this man's level; we're just here to pick a fight." Wang Muyu stood on a chair on the side and patted Wang Ling's shoulder lightly.

He had to comfort him because he felt that if he didn't find a way to comfort him, not only would this man die a horrible death, even Earth would die a horrible death.

The few of them sat motionlessly in the private room. As Wang Ling ate, he used his king's eye to gaze at the back of the foreign man outside.

Perhaps it was because he felt a hidden bitterness coming from behind him, but the man instinctively felt a chill run down his spine.

But as the person who had received the money to do the job, since he had received the money, he had to do the job even if it was extremely difficult.

"It's because my big brother ate the food here! He's still lying in the hospital! The kitchen in this hotel isn't clean at all!" He was still hooting and making things up without any evidence.

Wang Ling realized that this seemed to be the ancestral ability of some foreigners who were good at lying, distorting the truth and making it sound like the truth.

To them, this might not be a lie, because these people had done it in the past.

In recent times, there were many examples to illustrate this, and Wang Ling was too lazy to prove it. He sat in the private room and calmed down, intending to see what would happen next.

Soon, the hotel's restaurant manager rushed over. He was a kind-looking black-haired Asian young man, and after seeing the situation in front of him, he patiently explained to the man in front of him, "Sir, please show me your meal ticket."

The man had all the props he needed, and hurriedly took out a ticket from his pocket. "It's right here! Why? Do you think I'm eating for free?"

The manager looked at it, he smiled. "I'm sorry, sir. The creative cuisine area you're currently in is not covered by your meal ticket. In other words, you don't have the right to taste the food in the creative cuisine area."

"We will compensate you for these ruined delicacies at the original price. At the same time, please leave this place as soon as possible. The restaurant will refund all your expenses for this trip. In the future, we will no longer receive rude customers."

“What do you mean by this? !”The man couldn’t contain his anger as he grabbed the hotel manager by the collar.

The hotel manager looked calm and didn’t panic in the slightest. “As you have heard, Mr. Melly, you have already been blacklisted by our hotel. This is also an order from boss Sun, who is new to our hotel.”

“If you are still unreasonable, boss Sun said that the hotel’s security and self-defense mechanism might be adopted depending on the situation. In order to protect the safety of the other guests, we have the right to break your legs and drag you out.”

With that, the manager looked at the private room where Wang Ling was. “Do you see that, Mr. Melly? The guests in the private room are our hotel’s distinguished guests. They’re enjoying delicious food, and they’re pitiful, weak, and helpless...”

Chapter 1788 1,784 “If A Strong Dragon Doesn’t Suppress A Local Snake, So What If It Does...”(1/91)

This was clearly someone who had been arranged to come here. Even if Wang Ling didn’t read the other party’s mind, he knew that they were deliberately looking for trouble. The force they belonged to could be heavenly dog, or it could be another organization.

After all, Greo City was a foreign country, and the internal structure of the city was very complicated. Heavenly Dog was just one of the forces, the rest of the organizations were mercenaries, news organizations, local tyrants in the region, and cultivation research institutions that were stationed in Greo City all year round.

These organizations were usually not on good terms with each other, but there was a common feature that they were all very xenophobic, they even did not hesitate to fabricate news and fabricate lies to whitewash some of the bad deeds they had done.

Take a small number of news organizations as an example. The fake news they broadcast was basically a filter from the netherworld. There was no sense of dissonance when it was accompanied by suona music. It was as if they were about to send someone away.

“This person is deliberately looking for trouble, right?”At this moment, Li You Yue asked, breaking the silence in the private room.

“There’s clearly a problem. Right now, Boss Sun’s flower and fruit water curtain group has a partnership with battle ancestor, which is already very eye-catching. In addition, they have now bought many chain hotels in Greo City. This kind of behavior probably touches the interests of some people here.”Hero Guo calmly analyzed, “In the future, there will definitely be a lot of people who come to cause trouble.”

Li You Yue: “I heard that many people in Greo city are very xenophobic, especially Asian people. Even an old granny who is walking along the road might suddenly meet one or two good-for-nothings and kick them down with flying legs.”

Hearing this, fang Xing sighed helplessly. “This is the world’s chain of discrimination, and it will always exist. It’s hard to change it in a short period of time, and the only way is to become stronger. And to become stronger and stronger until one day they follow their hearts.”

“Follow their hearts?”

“It means to be a coward.”

“So that’s how it is...”

Wang Ling listened to the debate in the private room, and at the same time, he noticed that the man outside had finally left the restaurant while swearing under the hotel manager’s kind and tough eviction.

He had left, but this commotion still affected the surrounding customers. The hotel manager couldn’t help sighing in the face of the mess in front of him, shaking his head as he ordered people to clean up the mess. He was very helpless.

“I wonder if that person had any equipment to secretly take pictures.”At this moment., li You Yue suddenly said, “Nowadays, there are a lot of such villains who complain first. If that man took pictures of something just now and then added oil to the fire to post it online, I’m afraid it would have a very serious impact on boss Sun.”

“This is too cheap...”Super Chen was astonished.

“But you can’t stop people from believing this. Whether it’s in China or abroad, people will only believe what they believe.”. When rumors started, the truth was no longer that important to some people; they just wanted to vent their anger at that moment. When they finished saying what they wanted to say, they didn’t care what the truth was.”

“Do you want me to take care of it?”Fang Xing looked into Wang Ling’s eyes and transmitted his voice.

Wang Ling secretly shook his head.

He had already sent Wang Ming a text message to check that person’s coordinates and make sure that nothing strange had been secretly recorded.

Moreover, given Wang Ming’s personality, while he hacked into the other party’s equipment, he would also publish some of the strange things stored in the other party’s equipment... he would forward them to the Internet for public display, when he turned around, it was a social death.

Super Chen picked up a mouthful of food, which tasted like wax in his mouth. Sure enough, after being stirred up by someone, it didn’t even taste good to eat. He couldn’t help complaining, “People like this don’t even know how to work alive...”

Everyone:”...”

That night at eight o’clock, when Lotus Sun had just arrived in Greo City.

On the way to the hotel, Lotus Sun saw the news broadcast on the local news channel.

The news claimed that a man named Melly had left the hotel cursing and didn’t notice the road conditions, and had been directly hit by a truck..

He had fallen into a sewer that was under repair in front of him in Thomas’full spin, and had finally fallen into a deep septic tank. Due to the gravitational acceleration, he had sunk too deep, and had finally died after thrashing a few times, he suffocated.

Lotus sun asked, “Uncle Lin, is this melly the person who came to our hotel to cause trouble before...”

“Why do you say it’s broken?” Lotus Sun didn’t understand.

“Miss, you don’t know. The power of Greo city is complicated. We just took over the hotel, and this person came to cause trouble. Clearly, it was arranged by a small group of forces behind the scenes.”

Housekeeper Lin said, “Although this person didn’t die directly in our hotel, and from the surveillance footage, this was a 100% accident. “However, the forces behind this must have thought that because this man was causing trouble, we secretly sent people to get rid of him.”

“That works too...” Lotus Sun was shocked. She hadn’t expected to be involved in such a thing as soon as she arrived in Greo City.

She had only wanted to come here to play with everyone, travel, and help Wang Ling use up the world snack coupons... she hadn’t expected to be directly involved in a power struggle the moment she landed.

“Miss, I’m afraid the road ahead won’t be easy. As the saying goes, a strong dragon can not suppress a local snake. The hotel has just been acquired, so we must be very careful from now on.”

Butler Lin said worriedly, “These people can take revenge on us at any time, or on the people around us. “Miss has her own master to oversee things. I can relax a little when it comes to safety. “But miss, those classmates of yours...”

“You Yue will be staying with me these two days. It Won’t be a problem. I can protect her.” Lotus Sun said.

“But what about that hero Guo...”

“He has a lot of uncles. Perhaps his uncles are also in those organizations...”

“Fang Xing?”

“Uncle Lin should know, right? He’s actually true immortal she pi’s son. It’s definitely not a problem for him to protect himself.”

“What about Super Chen?”

”...”Lotus Sun was instantly silent when she heard this.

Because it wasn’t easy for her to say anything about Super Chen.

Although she could faintly sense that Super Chen might also have had something to do with Mei Li’s death.

“You see, Miss, there are always places we can’t take care of.”Butler Lin frowned. “What I’m most worried about is still Mr. Wang Ling and Little Young Master Mu Yu. Look at them, they’re all so weak... they could be hit at any moment!”

Lotus Sun:”...”

In fact, these two were the most dangerous.

One was a little dragon man formed from the excellent genes of the Dragon Clan, and the other was an immortal king whose strength was unknown..

Then the problem came.

Lotus Sun herself knew that a strong dragon couldn’t suppress a local snake.

But there were two of them.

She was actually quite curious; even if they did, what could this group of people do to them..

Chapter 1789 1,785: The Death Of Melly (1/91)

The Crimson Orchid Society, the largest mafia organization in the city of Rio de Janeiro, engaged in a variety of illegal activities and had under its control several extremely mature mercenary groups that had signed contracts year-round.

Melly, who had fallen into a septic tank and died, was one of the members of the Crimson Orchid Society.

Just before Huaguo water curtain group bought the snail shell hotel chain, the former owner of the snail shell had submitted a safety management fund to the Crimson Orchid Association on a regular basis in order to maintain the stability of the hotel.

In layman's terms, it was a protection fee.

But now, with Huaguo Water Curtain Group taking over, the Crimson Orchid Association had cut off a channel that could collect a large amount of funds without taking any risks.

Of course, the Crimson Orchid Association wouldn't let this go. They decided to send a group leader of the Crimson Orchid Association, Melly, to look for trouble first before making a scene, as a warning in advance.

And the president of the Crimson Orchid Association was also gambling.

He was gambling that if he made a scene like this, if Lotus Sun got scared, she would continue to pay protection fees like the previous owner of snail shell, and he could continue to enjoy this bonus with no effort at all.

However, what Li Weisi didn't expect was that Melly was dead..

And his death had nothing to do with the snail shell.

At least not on the surface.

The surveillance camera clearly captured Melly cursing as he walked out of the hotel. Because he didn't look at the road, he was directly loaded into the sewer by a truck and fell into the septic tank..

When the president of the Crimson Orchid Association, Li Weisi, saw this scene, his whole body was trembling.

“President... is team leader Melly Really Hopeless? He is in the late stage of the Golden Core Stage...” a female secretary next to Li Weisi asked in fear.

“Golden core stage is useless. The average realm of cultivators in our Greo city is already in the early stage of the Golden Core Stage. The quality of cultivators is very high. “And the filth in the septic tank is also the toxins expelled by cultivators at or above the golden core stage. With so many mixed toxins surrounding melly, it will be very difficult for him to hold on...” as he said this, even Li Weisi felt a little nauseous.

Such a death was unprecedented and couldn't be described as not tragic.

This group of people was too daring..

They had only just taken over and had only just arrived in Greo city, yet they dared to plan such a sophisticated murder!

Levis was somewhat puzzled.

Who the F * ck was the evil force..

“President, could this be just a simple coincidence?”

“It definitely can't be a coincidence!”

Levis shook his head. “It's very obvious... This is a provocation. Huaguo Water Curtain Group + warlord, their intelligence gathering ability definitely won't be weak. “They must have already known that Melly is a member of our Crimson Orchid Association. “Even though they already knew his identity, they still planned this incomparably precise murder... this courage is truly extraordinary.”

As he spoke, Levis' brows were tightly knitted. Lotus Sun had just arrived in Greo City and had already given him a show of force. This forced Levis to reconsider his countermeasures.

He knew very well that his current opponents were different from his previous opponents.

Half a year ago, the Shadow Stream Assassin Group, which had been in its heyday, had been targeted and wiped out in one go after provoking Huaguo water curtain group... Thus, he had to be extra cautious and careful.

At that moment, the female secretary saw Li Weisi flipping through the files on shadow stream and couldn't help asking, "President, what are you worried about?"

"Of course I'm worried that we might make the same mistake as shadow stream," Li Weisi said. "Although the official statement regarding shadow stream says that the person who destroyed this organization is Odd Zhuo, who recently rose to fame in Huaxiu Nation."

"The person who stopped the demon king from landing six years ago?"

"That's him." Li Weisi frowned. "But I have a feeling that he's blocking this matter for someone. Of course, these are all my guesses..."

Just as he was talking to his secretary, there was an urgent knock on the door.

"Come in," Leves said.

A security guard in a black suit pushed the door open and entered. "President, a nun named Eli is looking for you. She says she has something important to discuss with you."

"Nun? Which Church?"

"St. Peter."

"Invite her in."

"Yes..."

The security guard replied and quietly left. After less than two minutes, a woman with a veil over her face, dressed in a black church robe, and a graceful figure entered from the door.

This nun named Ali did not look very old. She was about the same age as a high school student. She had a very iconic tear mole at the corner of her eye.

However, her every move revealed a sense of steadiness and mystery, as if there was a huge difference between her appearance and her age.

“Hello, President Leves. I’m sister Ali from St. Peter’s Cathedral. I’m here to discuss something with you,” Ali said.

“I remember that our crimson orchid association has never interacted with your St. Peter’s.”

Leves stared at Ali and said, “And my current position is considered one of the secrets of the Crimson Orchid Association. How did you know I Was Here?”

With that, Leves stood up and lit the cigar in his hand. After taking a deep breath, he looked at the nun in front of him and said, “There’s only one possibility. You Didn’t come here to represent St. Peter.”

“Oh? President Leves’ words have some meaning.”

Leves waved his hand and said with a smile, “You’re a tengu. Am I right? I’m afraid no one else has such intelligence ability except for Tengu. St. Peter is just your coat. You’re working for Tengu.”

“As expected of the president of the Crimson Orchid Association.”

Sister Ali Said with a smile.

“You Tengu are also interesting. In the past, you were only a wolf hiding behind the back. Why are you playing cards openly now? Aren’t you afraid of the Prophet’s investigation?”

“The enemy is different. Naturally, we will change our strategy.”

Ali said with a smile, "I'm here on behalf of the Tengu side to offer advice to president Li Weisi. We just received information that President Li Weisi lost a subordinate named Meli."

"There is such a thing." Li Weisi nodded.

"To be honest with President Li Weisi, our heavenly dog is currently looking for an opportunity to target Huaguo Water Curtain Group and the war sect. "We are deeply regretful that your subordinate has died, but in fact, your subordinate has already created value for this matter," ai Li said.

"Continue." Li Weisi became somewhat interested.

"It's very simple, Mr. Levi. The most urgent matter now is to restrict the departure of these few people from the Huaguo Water Curtain Group."

Sister Ali said, "According to the mixiu country's entry and exit regulations, anyone who is accused within the borders of the country is not allowed to leave the territory of mixiu. "Of course, the other party may be able to use a teleportation array to escape, but if they escape, it will prove that they have a guilty conscience. Therefore, they had no choice but to stay behind to clarify the truth."

"You mean to restrict them all to Greo City?"

Leves smiled and nodded. "That's interesting. Greo city is our territory. As long as we can keep them here, what we do next is our business. If we let them go just like that, it would be difficult to deal with them."

"That's what I mean." Ali nodded.

"But I heard that you want to charge them with murder. But the Huaguo Water Curtain Group's legal team is not to be trifled with."

"President Li, you don't have to worry about this. We have already found the information of the truck driver."

Ali said, "As long as it is confirmed that the truck driver was hired by Huaguo Water Curtain Group, the murder charge can be established. "And Miss Sun will be detained in the city of Rio and become our bargaining chip with the war grandmaster..."

Chapter 1790 1,786: The Death Of Melly (2)(1/97)

In the luxury suite of the snail shell hotel in Greo city, along with the latest news from the Greo City Cultivation General Police Department, Wang Ling, Lotus Sun, and all the other people from No. 60 high school were restricted from appearing on camera and weren't allowed to leave mixiu nation.

This matter was mainly aimed at Lotus Sun, and the others were mainly implicated as a disguised threat against her.

"I'm sorry, everyone, they're here for me... I wanted to bring everyone out to have some fun, but I didn't expect everyone to be implicated together..." Lotus Sun blamed herself, if she had known this would happen, she wouldn't have come all the way here. She hadn't expected to cause trouble for everyone.

Most importantly, she had caused trouble for Wang Ling.

Recently, she had felt that her relationship with Wang Ling had finally improved a little. Now that something like this had happened, wouldn't it lower her favorability in his heart?

"It's okay, Boss Sun. Don't mind it too much. Even if you can't go out, it's still good to enjoy the delicious food in the hotel." Super Chen and hero Guo expressed their positions one after another.

"That's right, it's alright, Rong Rong. These people are just jealous because your family is developing too well. We have plenty of time, I believe that you can handle it well." Li You Yue also echoed.

If they could go out, then they could go out and play. If they couldn't go out, then they could go into the otaku mode and stay at home. As for Li You Yue, as long as she could learn new cuisines, it didn't matter. The mentality of these people was much better than what Lotus Sun had imagined.

"Thank you for trusting me, everyone. I will solve this problem as soon as possible." Lotus Sun revealed a gratified smile, immediately after, she turned her gaze to Butler Lin, who was at the side. "Uncle Lin, what's the situation like now? Can we meet that truck driver?"

"Currently, we're still in the process of communicating." Greo city's cultivation main police station said that they were still in the process of launching an investigation... They had already arranged for a lawyer to meet with that truck driver, but the situation wasn't too good. It's possible that they won't be able to meet him at all,"housekeeper Lin said with a frown.

It was very clear that these people had come prepared and had deliberately arranged for this to happen, using the method of forceful detention.

Furthermore, this was a very serious accusation. If they didn't think of a way to clarify the truth and use other methods to sneak out of mixiu nation, it would probably lead to a deeper misunderstanding, furthermore, it would have an extremely negative impact on Huaguo Water Curtain Group and the war sect in international public opinion.

Of course, Wang Ling also knew what was at stake.

He didn't blame Lotus Sun in his heart, because this was just a general trend.

Back then, he had strongly pushed grenade-throwing senior immortal to establish the war sect and had supported the cooperation between grenade-throwing senior immortal and Huaguo Water Curtain Group, all because he wanted to use the war sect to provide him with greater cover.

Now that the war sect was growing stronger and stronger, when the attention of cultivators all over the world was focused on the war sect, the backlash in Greo City was within Wang Ling's expectations.

It was just that Wang Ling hadn't expected that the other party would actually use such a method to forcibly detain them.

He thought about it carefully for a moment. Western cultivators seemed to be very popular in using this hostage diplomacy method... no matter what, he would first label them and then leave them behind. As for other matters, they could slowly negotiate, until one side completely gave in.

And there was clearly no evidence of any of this.

It was the same with the case of the general cultivation police station in Greo city accusing Lotus Sun of murder. From the beginning to the end, there had only been one false statement from the truck driver.

“The worst-case scenario now is that truck driver. He’s the only witness. If we can’t prove that he’s the witness, it’ll be difficult for us to prove our innocence. “And if something happened to this truck driver, we wouldn’t be able to say anything.”Fang Xing rubbed his chin, he analyzed calmly.

“What student Fang said makes sense.”Housekeeper Lin nodded. “That’s why Huaguo Water Curtain Group has also applied for a witness protection order, but it’s hard to say whether the cultivation central police station in Greo City will enforce it.”

“This group of people is originally xenophobic, so they shouldn’t listen to us, right?”

Hero Guo sighed and said, “I just asked my uncle who works in the cultivation central police station in Greo City. He clearly had a good relationship with me before, but this time, he didn’t tell me anything. “He told me to stay obediently and said that he would think of a way to get rid of my relationship and return to China.”

“You actually have a foreign uncle?”Everyone was shocked when they heard this.

“My grandmother gave birth to more than 30 children back then, and my father is the 15th oldest in the family. Now that the Guo family is flourishing, my uncles are naturally spread all over the world.”

” ... ”

Hearing this, Butler Lin was also stunned for a long time, then, he continued, “Student Guo’s family... is really amazing... However, your uncle doesn’t want to talk to you about it because he has his own concerns. This is because the power structure of this matter is too complicated.”

“According to the information I’ve received so far, this matter is led by the local Crimson Orchid Association in Greo City. This is the biggest mafia in the city, and it has several mercenary groups of high quality.”

“The president of the Crimson Orchid Association, Li Weisi, used to be a famous captain. However, because he once sailed a ship and blocked a huge ship on the canal, it caused a huge blockage, causing huge economic losses all over the world.”

“Later on, Li Weisi was fired, and his family property was confiscated as punishment. His wife and family were separated, and he was locked up in the Grio City Jail. “Unexpectedly, he made a name for himself in prison, and now he’s the president of the Crimson Orchid Association...”

“So this is where things get troublesome.”

Housekeeper Lin said, “It’s very likely that the church of Greo city is involved in this matter. In Greo City, the church is the true symbol of power. “If the church appears and forces the Cultivation Central Police Department to punish us, even if it’s unreasonable, there’s nothing we can do. “But what I can’t figure out right now is why our Huaguo Water Curtain Group, which has never had any grudges with the church, would be targeted by the church.”

“Could it have something to do with Tengu?”At that moment, Wang Muyu raised his hand obediently.

“Muyu’s judgment is correct.”

And this answer was exactly what Fang Xing wanted to say: “Without any grudges, it’s illogical for the church to choose to intervene.”

“The only possibility is that there might be people from Tengu in the church. Previously, Tengu’s attempt to kidnap Student Lotus Sun failed, and they tried to shoot down the immortal boat with a missile on the way to Greo City

“Now that student Lotus Sun has come to Greo city, it’s like putting a bird in a cage. They naturally won’t miss this opportunity.”

“We’ll naturally handle Miss Rong Rong’s matter. Compared to Miss Rong Rong’s, I’m more worried about your safety.”

Butler Lin said, then, he looked at Wang Ling and Wang Muyu. “Before the results come out, classmate Wang Ling and Young Master Muyu, please wait in the hotel and don’t wander around... These mafiosi are very excessive. Classmate Wang Ling and young master Muyu are so cute. If they fall into the hands of these mafiosi, they might lose something and sell it.”
