

Dan God 871

Chapter 871

The reason why they were staying here, was so that they could wait for the appearance of the "Li Renshan". The Heaven Earth Killing Method was too important to them, it would make it easier for them to enter the Ten Heavens Supreme Lord's tomb.

This group of ancient powers all inherited from the Tenth Heaven, and their strength was deep and unfathomable. They also had a very solid foundation in the Heaven Realm, and the Feng Clan and the White Sea Imperial Land, these two families were also very powerful among these ancient powers. But now, the Son of Heaven and the Heavenly Lady died one after another, and they were all killed by the same person.

This time, not only did Chen Xiang infuriate Feng Clan and White Sea Imperial Land, he had also offended a Peach Blossom Imperial Land, and the head of the Sky Child of Peach Blossom Prince was actually smashed by the combined forces of Xiao Chou and Chen Xiang.

Of course, these were all the grudges of the younger generation. Chen Xiang's blade had indeed caught the attention of many of the ancient powers' young generation, and anyone who had seen it would want to snatch it away. If they met Chen Xiang in the wilderness, it would be unavoidable for them to fight each other.

What shocked those old fellows the most was that the two Dan King s were indeed killed by Chen Xiang. Their heads were still being preserved by Chen Xiang.

Right now, these two clans were ridiculed by many ancient powers. They clearly had grudges between the younger generation, yet they repeatedly sent out some old people. Moreover, they were even killed by a little brat.

White Sea Imperial Land and Feng Clan couldn't sit still anymore. Even if their people started to talk about this matter, with the death of the two Dan King s, the Son of Heaven and the Heavenly Girl were also killed. They had to find Chen Xiang for an explanation no matter what.

Peach Blossom Imperial Land clearly knew that Jing Xingliang himself had angered Chen Xiang and the others, but they had to go and find Chen Xiang now, otherwise they would be laughed at by others.

Chen Xiang and Ji Meixian were resting at the foot of the mountain. The outcome of this battle was extremely important to them, especially to Ji Meixian.

"Someone is coming, it's all because of the terrifying killing intent you just released!" Ji Meixian glared at Chen Xiang: The people who have come are all some old fellows. Leader's Leader and Great Elder, the leaders of Feng Clan and Peach Blossom Imperial Land, and even a large group of people who came to watch the show.

"Why aren't you leaving?" Ji Meixian floated into the air and shouted to Chen Xiang.

Chen Xiang took out the Luotian Gate and a spatial origin orb. He planned to go to a relatively safe place.

"Come down here. Come with me to a place to fight. That place is safe!" Chen Xiang began to infuse the energy of the spatial bead into the Luotian Gate.

Pill City was in the Continent of the King, and the place Chen Xiang wanted to go to was also in the Continent of the King.

The last time Chen Xiang had used the Luotian Gate, the distance that he traveled was too far, causing the Luotian Gate to be injured.

"We can't outrun these old guys!" Slowly, a spatial door appeared in front of Chen Xiang.

Seeing that Chen Xiang had the ability, Ji Meixian could not help but snort. Now, she understood why Chen Xiang dared to provoke everyone, even if she had the means to escape.

"Where are you going?" Ji Meixian was a little vigilant.

"What are you afraid of? "We have already signed the Heavenly Blood Contract, and if I use trickery on you, it would go against the contract. It will do me no good." Chen Xiang said snappily.

Just as Ji Meixian arrived at his side, he was grabbed by the arm, and then, he jumped through the spatial door.

After entering the spatial gate, they arrived at a place filled with ruins. Ji Meixian suddenly sensed something, causing his expression to change greatly, and anxiously soared into the sky, but he was stopped by Chen Xiang.

"That dragon is fine." Chen Xiang called out to the forest far away from the ruins, "Big Brother Lan, I want to borrow a place."

The blue dragon's name was Lan Cang and although he had only spoken a few words with this dragon the last time Chen Xiang had come in, he had told them his name.

"You little bastard, I won't change your name. I already told you last time, come to my place and don't bring any women in!" Lan Cang's voice came out from the forest, causing a large group of people to jump out: "You can use this crappy place as you like, but just don't destroy my forest, you can't be thinking of doing business here, right?"

"Where are you thinking? I have some history with this woman, and I'm going to have a fight with her here right now. " Chen Xiang curled his lips and said.

From her conversation with Chen Xiang, she could see that the dragon in the forest had a good relationship with Chen Xiang. Her spiritual sense was extremely sharp, and she was very clear about the dragon's strength. It made her very afraid, she never thought that Chen Xiang's support was actually this strong.

"What is this place?" Ji Meixian looked around and asked coldly.

"Other than this crappy place, everything else is very dangerous. If you want to fight, then hurry up. Remember, don't come to my forest and fight." Lan Cang warned.

The group of old fellows who came to find Chen Xiang missed their target, causing them to be even more furious. A large group of experts was actually thrown away by a little kid, and they didn't know where Chen Xiang was right now.

"Can we call now? I'm ready!" Chen Xiang could not wait any longer. When he thought about how the White Sea Imperial Land and the Feng Clan had sent a bunch of old fellows to find him, and knew that they would definitely capture him, relying on the strength that they had gained from cultivating to bully a little brat, he felt extremely dissatisfied.

"Come on. The grudge between us will be resolved through this battle! Don't worry, even if you lose to me, I won't kill you in the future!" Ji Meixian's voice was cold, her snow-white dress overflowed with a faint golden sacred radiance, and with one glance, one could tell that this was not the White Sea Imperial Land's *.

Chen Xiang did not use a Green dragon demon-slain broadsword, nor did he intend to use a profoundwu diamond armour and a Slaughter God's Hand. He needed to rely on what he had learned to defeat Ji Meixian, and on one hand, it would help him comprehend the Ground killing.

The two of them were very serious. Lan Cang who was inside the forest turned into a blue light and flew out, appearing beside Chen Xiang and the others in his human form.

Seeing this blue clothed middle aged man appear, Ji Meixian's jade face was filled with vigilance. She took a few steps back with her palms glowing golden, because the person in front of her was too dangerous.

"I'm just watching from the side. I won't interfere." Lan Cang smiled and retreated out of the ruins. He stood outside the ruins and let out a long sigh of relief.

"Kid, this woman is very powerful. There is some kind of powerful bloodline in her body that does not belong to a human! The energy that she's using right now is something that even I am a little afraid of. If she had the same cultivation level as me, I would only be able to escape." Lan Cang warned Chen Xiang.

Chapter 872

Chen Xiang had already known that Ji Meixian had many secrets, especially when he saw her pure golden blood.

Originally, there were many towering stone buildings constructed here, but for some reason, all of them were destroyed. At this moment, all of the large and small ice-cold stones actually leaked out a golden multicolored light, and the multicolored light was the same as the one emitted by Ji Meixian.

"Yi!" A strange sound came out, causing the ground to tremble, Ji Meixian waved his hands, and many different sized stones started to float.

Ji Meixian took action, her eyes brimming with golden splendor, her entire body surrounded by golden clouds, as though she was a goddess!

"What power is this? These stones are making me uneasy!" Chen Xiang looked at the mountain-like boulders floating in front of him and secretly operated the Dragon Power.

"Whoosh!" Dozens of boulders that were like small mountains flew towards Chen Xiang.

When these ten or so huge rocks that were covered in golden splendor flew towards Chen Xiang, they suddenly fused together and transformed into a gigantic mountain. With a speed that was like light, Chen Xiang was unable to dodge at all and he did not even have time to block.

"Boom!"

The gigantic mountain crashed into Chen Xiang's strong body, and as if it had collided with divine iron, the entire mountain trembled, and let out a clanging sound.

Chen Xiang was knocked flying by the huge impact. His body was stuck to a huge boulder, and that boulder also had Ji Meixian's bizarre golden power.

The gigantic mountain once again activated, suddenly flying into the air and fiercely crashing down, the gigantic rock, under Ji Meixian's control, felt like it was weightless, especially that terrifying speed, it did not give Chen Xiang the chance to catch his breath.

Chen Xiang had just been sent flying, but before he could even react, that enormous mountain had already smashed down ruthlessly. The rock that was stuck behind Chen Xiang's back had shattered, and Chen Xiang was also pressed down by that enormous mountain, whether he was dead or alive was unknown.

Lan Cang was also dumbstruck. This was the first time he had seen such a mysterious power!

Even if the entire huge mountain was smashed down ruthlessly, the ground would not be damaged at all. This way, the power Chen Xiang could endure would be even stronger.

Ji Meixian's expression was calm and refined, as though all of this was within her expectations. However, the huge mountain that was suppressing Chen Xiang suddenly trembled, and following that, Chen Xiang roared out, and Chen Xiang actually lifted the entire mountain up.

"Humph!" Ji Meixian shouted coldly, the golden light of the huge mountain shook, and transformed into two gigantic stone fists that were like giant fists. Under her control, they smashed onto Chen Xiang's body at a terrifying speed, the strength of each fist was enough to smash a true huge mountain to pieces, and on a person's body, it was even able to turn a person into meat paste.

But now that it had struck Chen Xiang's body, it was as if it had struck a piece of divine iron that had the properties of bullets, and could not be beaten flat by Chen Xiang no matter how hard it was struck.

"Pah!"

A burst of white light flashed out, and the palm formed from Dragon Power swept out towards a falling stone fist!

"Boom!"

The terrifying power that erupted caused the ground to shake. The violent Heaven Blasting Palm power was like a tidal wave that spread in all directions and shook all of the surrounding rocks into powder.

"Pah!"

Another Heaven Blasting Palm was released. The snow-white Dragon Power along with the transparent Devil-suppressing holy power instantly transformed into a giant energy palm. It struck onto that huge stone fist and the shaking force shattered it into pieces.

The shock wave turned all of the shattered stones into white powder. The Heaven Shaking Palm was still unstoppable even after smashing into the rocks, and with a mighty force, it smashed towards Ji Meixian.

Ji Meixian gently bit her jade teeth as her white dress and long hair danced frantically in the air due to the force of the Heaven Blasting Palm. The mysterious golden light around her body became even more dazzling, and when the huge Heaven Blasting Palm slammed down, she roared, and a burst of violent golden wind sprayed out from her cherry lips.

The enormous Golden Radiance Phoenix spread its wings for a distance of three hundred meters and flapped its wings. It emitted a deafening cry that pierced the clouds as it flew towards the heaven shaking palm that was approaching.

"tenth layer of Devil-suppressing power!" Chen Xiang could feel that the phoenix's power was incomparably strong, so he channeled his Dragon Power and activated it.

"Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa ... .." Ten consecutive explosions resounded, and the giant golden phoenix was struck until it dissipated. In that instant, a sharp phoenix cry resounded throughout the nine heavens, and a violent thunderclap shook the earth!

The two forces collided. It was as if two waves of ocean that were hundreds of thousands of feet high had collided into each other, as though it was as if it was a dried twig that could be torn apart. The brutal energy generated by the collision all shot up into the sky. The ruins were like the mighty sweep of the sea as they were completely razed to the ground.

Lan Cang was no longer there. He had turned into a blue dragon, like a tall mountain wall blocking the forest around him.

"Damn brat, you almost destroyed my forest! [If humans are like these two bastards, why would us ordinary dragons be able to survive!] Especially that little demon, whose flesh is too terrifying!" Lan Cang muttered in his heart.

Chen Xiang's body was indeed very strong, to the point that even Ji Meixian was shocked. She had already estimated that Chen Xiang's body was very strong, but it had still far exceeded her expectations.

At this moment, the two of them had a new understanding of each other's strength! Although they had fought a big battle before, Chen Xiang had not made a breakthrough at that time and had borrowed Long Xueyi's power, so Ji Meixian did not wake up.

"Earth is for me to use!" Ji Meixian stamped with her foot, and the powder and small stones suddenly floated up, instantly transforming into a gigantic golden palm. The surrounding ground emitted a golden light that could be seen with the naked eye, which condensed on top of the palm.

Chen Xiang punched the palm that was condensing into a fist. The fist that was formed from Dragon Power, surged forward like the roar of ten thousand dragons, bringing about a great momentum as it charged forward.

Ji Meixian had just finished using her mysterious power to form a palm, and it had instantly become as tall as a mountain. Under her control, it was like hitting a bug, hitting Chen Xiang's Dragon Fist down, causing the power to dissipate.

"Time to end it!" Ji Meixian's cold voice was filled with confidence, as he controlled his mountain-like palm to strike towards Chen Xiang.

Chen Xiang knew that the method Ji Meixian used was related to the Ground killing, but it wasn't a complete Ground killing.

Seeing the giant palm coming at them, the surroundings suddenly became extremely slow. The giant palm that was originally as fast as lightning also became very slow.

In Chen Xiang's mind, a scene of lofty mountains and flowing water suddenly appeared. He suddenly raised his hands and released all the five elements in his body.

A mirage suddenly appeared in the sky. Several tall mountains towered as large rivers surged and surged. The majestic atmosphere engulfed the entire mountain and river as if it was real.

Chen Xiang had already figured out the key to Ground killing at this point of time, which was the "Force" of the Earth! This was one of the powers that made people sigh in admiration!

"It's not over yet!" Chen Xiang bellowed, and the few large mountains in the air smashed down fiercely. The aura that was created when they landed on the ground felt extremely real!

Chapter 873

Ji Meixian and Lan Cang were both shocked. This move of Chen Xiang's seemed to dominate the earth, creating such a powerful force that would attack!

The sound of the river jumping on top of a few mountains was extremely real. The surging momentum made it impossible for anyone to doubt that this was just an illusion.

This was indeed not true. There was only 'potential'! This was the most shocking power of the Great River Mountain and River. As long as he could simulate this 'Force', it would be enough!

Chen Xiang's Killing heart was violently jumping, killing intent crazily gushed out, transforming into a shocking imposing manner that merged with the flowing water of the mountains!

Several mountains fell down with unstoppable force, shaking the earth and shaking the mountains!

"Boom!"

The few large mountains smashed down and the ground was pressed down by the aura. The powerful golden palm that Ji Meixian had condensed immediately dispersed and split apart again, the energy soaring to the sky and floating in the air, causing the clouds in the sky to churn, making sounds of whirring.

Ji Meixian was submerged within, but what surprised Lan Cang was that those illusory figures did not dissipate, but continued to firmly press down on him.

Just as Chen Xiang was about to prepare the Heavenly dragon seal, he saw a gigantic golden bird claw suddenly grabbing out, ripping apart the Mountain River Diagram.

A long whistle split the air, Ji Meixian transformed into a golden ray and shot out. She was covered in golden feathers and had a pair of extremely beautiful golden wings on her back, looking like it was cast out of gold.

Her eyes suddenly flashed with two gold lights, shooting towards Chen Xiang!

Chen Xiang immediately dodged, and the place he was at earlier became a deep crater. It could be seen how terrifying the golden light that shot out from her eyes was.

"This woman ..." I know what kind of background she has, no wonder she's so powerful, and even reincarnated! " Long Xueyi suddenly said in surprise.

"What kind of background?" Chen Xiang frowned, because suddenly, Ji Meixian's pair of golden wings flapped, exploding out with countless terrifying golden lights that shot out like rain from the sky.

Chen Xiang immediately used the profoundwu cover hood to protect himself and at the same time, released a wild roar.

Using a sonic wave like the Dragon Roar to attack this light ray was still effective, the power was scattered by the waves of the dragon's roar.

"She belongs to the Imperial Avian Race, she's just a different type of being, because she has the blood of a human! Just like how a member of the Imperial Dragon Race has human blood. " Long Xueyi said.

"What Imperial Avian Race?" At this time, Chen Xiang was simply unable to get close to Ji Meixian, and the attack he released, was very easily torn apart by Ji Meixian's huge golden claw.

The current Ji Meixian was several times stronger than before, the mysterious power she had was even more dense, especially her golden wings. Every time they flapped, countless gold lights would burst out, as if they could pierce through everything!

The ground was pierced by the light rays like a beehive, and each hole was very deep!

"It means that the Imperial Feather Race is a race formed by the powerful bird-type beasts with powerful bloodlines. For example, the phoenix, the Golden-winged Great Peng, and the Vermillion Bird were all powerful birds with feathers! As long as their bloodline can allow them to reach the peak of Heaven Realm in the future, they will be enemies with our Imperial Dragon Race! " Long Xueyi said.

This Ji Meixian was actually the same as Long Xueyi, both were from a mysterious and powerful race like the Heaven Realm, but Ji Meixian was half human and half bird.

"Her blood should contain the blood of the Undead Bird and the Golden-winged Great Peng. I think that one of her parents is a descendant of the Undead Bird and the Golden-winged Great Peng combined. After that, he combined with a human and allowed her to have this kind of blood!" Long Xueyi continued to speak, "According to the Imperial Avian Race's bird nest rules, this woman cannot have the bird nest that she left behind in the Imperial Avian Race. Once she reaches a certain point in her growth, she will be expelled, and she cannot tell anyone about her origins and identity.

This was probably the reason why Ji Meixian was so mysterious in the Heaven Realm. Now, both Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou understood why Ji Meixian was so strong now.

"If you want to defeat her, you better use the Hundred Dragon Beast among the Heavenly dragon seal, otherwise it will be very difficult for you to defeat her. One must know that she is someone with a much higher cultivation than you, if it was someone with the same cultivation as you, she would have already lost long ago. If this goes on, you will definitely lose." Long Xueyi said.

When he used it, all of his power and mana would be drained, and at that time, even a child would be able to kill him. Furthermore, when he used it, he would also need time to prepare.

"Use all that you can for close combat!" Bai Youyou said.

Chen Xiang had thought of it long ago, but it would be difficult to get close to Ji Meixian now!

"Black Tortoise Body Splitting Technique!" Chen Xiang's body suddenly released some water vapor, and nine illusions that were the same as him appeared.

Furthermore, these illusions could not be dispersed. He used some of the techniques on the Seventy-two changes to make his clone look more real and imitate some of his Qi.

Ji Meixian's spiritual sense was extremely strong, so she was able to distinguish the clones. Therefore, she only locked onto Chen Xiang to attack him, but the clones were only air in her eyes, she did not care about them at all.

Two more clones appeared behind her. Although she could feel them, she did not believe them. Chen Xiang, who had locked onto the ground, threw himself into the golden pond and endlessly released that terrifying golden light. She must not lose, otherwise she would become a slave!

"Shadow Shift!" Chen Xiang used the move inside the Black Tortoise Divine Technique to exchange with the clones. He rarely used this move, but it was very useful now, able to let him get closer to Ji Meixian.

Ji Meixian suddenly realised that Chen Xiang's original body had disappeared, and his expression changed because Chen Xiang had appeared behind her back!

Chen Xiang's eyes flashed, and countless of needle-like red lights shot out, and in the blink of an eye, they had penetrated Ji Meixian's body, and every single red light had broken her meridians, making her unable to circulate her energy!

"Heart Piercing Demon Eye!"

yelled in a daze, his face was filled with shock. At this time, Chen Xiang's eyes shot out two more beams of devilish light the size of thumbs, piercing through her heart.

At that moment, Ji Meixian was sure that Chen Xiang had obtained the inheritance of Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou. The Heart Permeable Demon Eye was a devil art that the overlords of the Heaven Demon Realm didn't have. If she had known that Chen Xiang was this strong, she would not have been so careless!

Chapter 874

All of the meridians in Ji Meixian's body had been penetrated by the countless rays of light that the Demon Eye of Perception had released, and all of them were broken, causing her to be unable to circulate her powers. However, she possessed the bloodline of the Undying Bird, so she was able to quickly repair it.

Chen Xiang knew that she had the bloodline of the Undying Bird, so he definitely would not help her recover. With a sneer on his face, he struck out with his palms, causing a large shadow of his palms to envelop Ji Meixian.

Feeling that bizarre power, Ji Meixian's expression changed again. This was the Bone-melting magic palm, even if her bloodline was not ordinary, her bones would still be melted.

The Bone-melting magic palm struck onto Ji Meixian's body soundlessly, the dense palm force poured into Ji Meixian's body and melted away her bones.

The pair of golden wings on Ji Meixian's back disappeared. Her meridians were completely shattered, and her bones had melted. Like a leaf, she slowly fell to the ground.

She suddenly felt that the situation at this time was extremely familiar. Many years ago, when she was fighting with Bai Youyou, she had already suffered such a loss.

But it was not over yet. Chen Xiang once again used her Piercing Heart Demon Eye, and shot out countless threads of tiny red light at the falling Ji Meixian, penetrating her slowly recovering meridians. Then, with a continuous movement of his palms, the Bone-melting magic palm released waves of waves that struck Ji Meixian's body. It even contained the Hail magic wind, which froze Ji Meixian's soul.

"Evil little devil!" Lan Cang, who had turned into a giant dragon, was watching on the side, secretly clicking his tongue. That kind of devilish technique also made him baffled, why did Ji Meixian, who was just so powerful, suddenly get knocked down on the ground?

The reason why Chen Xiang did not use his devil arts before, was because he was afraid that Ji Meixian would see through his relationship with Bai Youyou and the two girls. Even if he wanted to use his devil arts, he had to use them when Ji Meixian was the most confident to catch her off guard.

Facing ordinary people, she might be able to easily win against them, but Ji Meixian was a Ranker from the Heaven Realm. It would be best if he could take care of someone with her strength when she was at her most alert, and catch her by surprise!

This was all thanks to Bai Youyou's experience in using these devilish arts, she had been through trials and tribulations.

Ji Meixian was very surprised, she never thought that Chen Xiang could actually learn Bai Youyou's devil arts to such an extent. Furthermore, when they were used against people, they were all used to the same degree as Bai Youyou. She never thought that Bai Youyou would spread these devil arts to others, she had heard that some of the powerful devils of the Heavenly Demon Realm, who used all their wealth, could not even exchange them for one of her devil arts.

But this little brat Chen Xiang actually released three at once! Relying on the immortal bird's bloodline in her body, her body could quickly recover. At most, she would be able to endure a little more pain, and after a long time, Chen Xiang's energy would be completely depleted. At that time, it would still be her who won.

Ji Meixian dropped to the ground. There were no bones in his body, and all of his meridians were broken. His body was covered with needle-sized holes, and he felt extremely cold. Lying on the ground, she looked at Chen Xiang who was in the air and sneered coldly in her heart. She had the Divine Bird's bloodline in her body, so it would be difficult for humans to kill her.

She was originally proud in her heart, but her expression suddenly changed, because Chen Xiang did not continue attacking her. Instead, he was making hand seals and chanting an incantation!

It's the Heavenly dragon seal! Before, Chen Xiang had already used it on her, causing her to suffer. She had muddled along in the Heaven Realm for so long, but she had never experienced this Imperial Dragon Race's ultimate technique. Yet, she was beaten up by a human in the Mortal Realm twice!

She did not know much about the Heavenly dragon seal, she only knew that it was a very strong technique in the Imperial Dragon Race, and it was very varied. It was said that there were 981 types of seals, and only a small number of the members in the Imperial Dragon Race had the qualifications to learn them. So she had always been curious as to why Chen Xiang, this human, was able to learn such a supreme secret method of the Imperial Dragon Race.

After Chen Xiang formed the hand seal, the Innate Qi and mana from his entire body was sucked out, causing his entire being to fall from the sky, causing both Ji Meixian and Lan Cang to become shocked. They could see that Chen Xiang used all his strength just now, and they could feel the immense power from his body, but right now, he had instantly been sucked out, so they could tell that Chen Xiang had used a very powerful finishing move.

"Bang!" Chen Xiang's body was powerless, his head knocking onto the ground, but his body was strong, so it was nothing to him, he was slowly recovering his strength.

Suddenly, a circular array formation appeared in the sky. The circle was actually formed by a golden dragon, and many Spirit grain in the array formation were also drawn by different colored dragons. At this moment, this Dragon Mark Royal-cloak Formation was madly devouring the surrounding spiritual energy. There were a lot of rocks floating in the air, all of which were absorbed into the formation. Even some of the mountains nearby were pulled out one by one and flew into the formation!

If it were not for Lan Cang protecting the forest, all the trees inside would have been pulled out!

Several mountains of various sizes were uprooted like grass, entering the massive Dragon Mark Great Formation from all directions. The surrounding spiritual energy turned into a large white river, all surging over!

The spirit energy had actually turned into liquid and was completely gathered within the formation!

Even the person who was performing, Chen Xiang, was stunned by this scene. He was a bit worried for Ji Meixian, if Ji Meixian was killed, he would lose a beautiful female slave.

In the future, when he goes to the Heaven Realm, Ji Meixian would be of great use to him.

"Don't worry, she has that divine clothing, she won't die!" Long Xueyi said indifferently. Seeing her Imperial Dragon Race's secret killing technique being so shocking, she felt proud in her heart.

"Damn brat!" Ji Meixian was at the bottom of the Dragon Mark Great Formation and saw countless mountains being sucked away with her own eyes.

"Hurry up and recover!" Ji Meixian shouted anxiously in her heart. If she lost, she would be Chen Xiang's female slave.

Ji Meixian was barely able to stand up. Just as he was about to escape from the area covered by the Dragon Mark Great Formation, a golden dragon suddenly appeared.

The Dragon Mark Great Formation could accommodate a huge mountain, which meant that the Dragon Mark Great Formation was very big, and the golden dragon that came out from the formation was as big as a huge mountain.

Now, Chen Xiang finally understood the power of the Hundred Dragon Holy seal. One after another, golden dragons descended from the Dragon Mark Great Formation with a thunder-like power and lightning like speed. Furthermore, every golden dragon had two times the power of the previous one.

Ji Meixian was submerged within the energy that exploded after the golden dragon smashed down. Lightning and flames interweaved together and became extremely violent. This kind of power was actually very similar to Chen Xiang's Fire and Thunder Dragon Soul!

Chapter 875

Golden dragons came one after another, their roars shaking the entire sky. Golden light flashed in all directions, and at the same time, golden lightning danced around. It was like a gigantic electric net that enveloped the entire world.

Although he was a dragon who had evolved step by step, he still knew that the secret method Chen Xiang used was from the Imperial Dragon Race.

Hundred Dragon Holy seal, Hundred Dragon Strike, each dragon's strength is two times that of the previous ones. By the 100th time, it might even be able to destroy the heavens and the earth!

However, Chen Xiang's strength was still unable to reach the level of a hundred dragons, it was only ten dragons, but they had created an additional unfathomable sky ditch on the ground!

"Did I win?" Chen Xiang muttered as he stood by the side of the large hole that was several hundred meters wide, looking at the bottomless pit.

"That woman wouldn't have turned to dust, right?" Chen Xiang was extremely worried, in his eyes, Ji Meixian was worth a lot, much more than any immortal medicine.

He took out the Heavenly Blood Contract, but what made him feel at ease was that Ji Meixian's Master-servant Contract had already merged with him, and at this moment, he could feel that Ji Meixian's weak life force was gradually becoming stronger.

In the deep pit, a weak gold light suddenly appeared. Upon closer inspection, it was Ji Meixian floating up slowly, and the protective divine clothes appeared outside her body. She had already fainted.

"Haha, elder sister You You, in the future, this woman can help you wash your feet!" Chen Xiang couldn't help but laugh, then ate a few pills to recover his Innate Qi and at the same time, strengthen his exhausted soul.

Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou heaved a sigh of relief, as long as Ji Meixian was alive, she was not at ease. She had many enemies in the Heaven Realm previously, but only Ji Meixian could find them easily and place them in constant danger.

Now, this woman had already become Chen Xiang's female slave, and was no longer a threat to them. With the relationship between Chen Xiang and them, Ji Meixian still had to listen to their orders, it was better than killing Ji Meixian!

Yu Yi Immortal Fairy, who was originally a high and mighty Yu Yi Immortal Fairy, would have to serve the two of them in the future. When they thought about this scene, a beautiful smile appeared on both of their faces.

"Brat, look. I borrowed a place to fight and now you're causing this. You've caused me to die." Lan Cang ran over and shouted at Chen Xiang with a miserable look on his face, as if he was worried about something.

"Killed you? This place has always been a ruin, so what's the big deal?" Chen Xiang placed the unconscious Ji Meixian on the ground and fed her a Relive Dan, allowing her to recover even faster.

"God damn, I also know this place is no big deal. I also wanted to destroy this place a long time ago, but I promised someone that I would help him look after this place. I don't want this place to be destroyed, because this is the place he was born in." Lan Cang glared at Chen Xiang, and started pacing back and forth by the side of the pit.

"Just fill it in. You're a dragon, so this matter won't trouble you." Chen Xiang laughed, he did not know the seriousness of the situation.

"Is the person you are talking about Wu Canghong? I know him. If he blames me for it, you can just say I did it. "

This place was the Super Old Sacred Land, the birthplace of the human royal family, so Chen Xiang thought so.

"Bullshit, can Wu Canghong, this brat, control me? His grandfather's grandfather's grandfather even has to kowtow to me when he sees me!" Lan Cang's words scared Chen Xiang silly.

Wu Canghong's strength was not weak at all. He had already went to the Heaven Realm a hundred thousand years ago, so the strength he had now could be imagined. Furthermore, he had cultivated the same divine way as, so he definitely had a certain position in the Heaven Realm.

"Then... Then, who can order you around, Big Brother?" Chen Xiang had already planned to slip away. This Super Old Sacred Land had many secrets in the first place, and only this place was safe. Moreover, this place was like a great world.

"Wu Canghong's ancestor!" Lan Cang's face darkened, a blue light flickered in her eyes as she looked at Chen Xiang sinisterly.

Chen Xiang quickly thought of something. According to what Lan Cang had said, the Royal Family of that person must be an ancient power, like the Tong Tian Aristocratic Family! Previously, he was curious as to why there were no ancient powers in the Mortal Martial Realm. So there were actually those, the Mortal King Clan of the Continent of the King.

"Then can big brother apologize to him for me?" Chen Xiang forced out a smile.

"Then what should I do?" Lan Cang said snappily.

"If he's still alive, then his strength must be very strong. Naturally, he wouldn't care about such a small thing. He definitely won't chase you down." Chen Xiang said.

"Bullsh * t. That old fellow likes to fuss over nothing. What else do I have to be afraid of?" Lan Cang felt a headache coming on. If he had known earlier, he would not have lent this place to beat Chen Xiang up or drive him to other places.

Chen Xiang's eyes turned as he suddenly thought of a good idea. He giggled and said: "Brother Lan, looking at your Dragon Power, you should be cultivating the Thunder power, right? You're really amazing, there are very few lightning attributed dragons."

"Don't try to get close with me. This trick is useless. You have to be responsible for this trap, you have to fill it in!" No .... It's not you, it's you and this human girl. " Lan Cang rolled his eyes at Chen Xiang, and said while hugging his chest.

Chen Xiang never thought that the Hundred Dragon Holy seal would actually be able to create such a big pit. If they were to fill it up, it would definitely take a long time, and they would also have to move some huge mountains to fill it. For and him, that would be extremely dangerous.

He took out a Leihun fruit, and these kinds of fruits contained Thunder soul. He had used a Fire Dragon Blood Lotus Seed last time to exchange for a gold mountain, and it could be said that he had used a grain of sand to exchange for a gold mountain.

The Leihun fruit looked like a transparent pearl, inside it flickered a flame with electric wire coiling around it, and when the electric wire was activated, one could clearly feel the terrifying Thunder power inside.

The Leihun fruit quickly attracted Lan Cang's attention, staring at him intently, as if it wanted to swallow the Leihun fruit whole.

"This is ..." Thunder soul, where did you get this from? " Lan Cang was very unhappy. Why would such a good thing appear in front of a human brat like Chen Xiang? This was simply a waste of heaven's treasure!

"I picked it up, and gave you a chance to exchange with me for this Leihun fruit, but you need to have something good." Chen Xiang laughed, he knew that Lan Cang would definitely not let go of this chance, Thunder soul s were extremely important to him, he had evolved from a snake to a monster, he wanted to one day suppress Imperial Dragon Race, so he thirsted for power!

"You have to fill this hole before I'm willing to exchange." Chen Xiang smiled craftily. He was not lacking in Leihun fruit s, if he could get some good stuff, it would be worth a lot.

She was actually very calm. At this moment, she could feel the power of the Master-servant Contract, and if Chen Xiang was willing, she could be tortured to death at any time. She was currently trying her best to accept this cruel reality.

When she was in the Heaven Realm, although she was chased out of the Imperial Feather Race, she made a name for herself with her own strength, being called Yu Yi Immortal Fairy by others, many of the big shots of the Heaven Realm had to curry favor with her, but after being heavily injured and almost dying, she had no choice but to rebirth and come to the Mortal Realm.

She wanted to commit suicide now and undergo rebirth again. However, Chen Xiang would never let her die, the Master-servant Contract had a lot of power, if she wanted to die, Chen Xiang would feel that it was possible to stop her even from a hundred and eight thousand miles away.

Lan Cang looked at the Leihun fruit in Chen Xiang's hands, and wanted to snatch it away using a barbaric method. However, he was a good dragon, even though Chen Xiang was a black-hearted little bastard in his eyes, but he still had a good impression of Chen Xiang.

"Honestly speaking, my strength has been sealed by an old man. If I were to fuse with this Thunder soul, I would definitely be able to unseal it. I really need it!" Lan Cang said. He had lived for a long time, his strength was definitely not weak, it was just that he was helplessly sealed, which caused his strength to be equivalent to the peak of the human Nirvana Stage.

"If I had unsealed it, it would have been much easier to fill the pit." Lan Cang said again.

Chen Xiang laughed: "This is for the best, big brother, have you thought of something to exchange with me?"

Brother? He's already called big brother, and he still wants to trade? Lan Cang secretly despised Chen Xiang. Although he stayed here all day, he had interacted with many humans before, so he was very clear on the value of this Thunder soul. He had always wanted to find something like this.

However, the reason why Chen Xiang was willing to trade with him now, was all because of the good relationship between them. Otherwise, who would be so stupid as to trade the Leihun fruit for something else? Lan Cang thought so.

Lan Cang walked back and forth, obviously thinking about what he wanted to exchange with Chen Xiang.

Chen Xiang laughed: "Are you hesitating about what to trade with me? Brother Lan, it looks like you're quite wealthy? "Why don't you take out some of the best items for me so that I don't have to worry about it!"

"I'm not going to do anything stupid like that. Don't you know you don't want to show it? If I get targeted by a black-hearted little bastard like you, I won't be able to sleep well. " Lan Cang immediately shook his head.

Ji Meixian slowly stood up, the gold divine robe was kept inside her body, her current expression was a little haggard, her arrogance had weakened by quite a bit, and she currently had a different kind of charm, causing Chen Xiang to repeatedly nod his head. He had gained another beautiful female slave, but this female slave was something that he used his strength to conquer.

"Smile for me!" Chen Xiang laughed and shouted.

Ji Meixian turned his head, grunted, and did not do as she said.

Chen Xiang knew that this female slave would only listen to him after she had been taught a good lesson. For things like this, he would leave it to Su Meiyao and the others.

Ji Meixian was also captivated by the Leihun fruit in Chen Xiang's hands. She realized that the things that Chen Xiang possessed were definitely things that neither Su Meiyao nor Bai Youyou could give him.

Chen Xiang touched her beautiful and mature face, but there was a trace of coldness on her jade face, and laughed: "As long as you are obedient and follow me, I will make you drink spicy wine, I guarantee that you will be better than me in White Sea Imperial Land!"

What he said was the truth. For a rich pill user like him, eating high level pills was like eating sugar beans, and Long Xueyi, this little white dragon, was made into a big breast by him.

"I will give you some of my more precious items to choose from. You can only choose one of them!" Lan Cang said with a heavy tone: "I can't choose too many!"

After Lan Cang finished speaking, he took out four things. One of them was a pearl that emitted a dense amount of vitality, and with one look, one could tell that it was the beast core of a strong beast, even more so than the Dragon Pearl that he had obtained previously.

The second item was a horn. This horn was ten feet long and looked very sturdy. It should be something from a beast's body.

"This is the Sacred Horned Dragon's horn!" Ji Meixian cried out in alarm, and the three women inside the ring also recognized the item at the same time.

"That's right. This horn can become very large. Being able to grow it to the size of a mountain is a very good thing." Lan Cang said.

Chen Xiang felt that Lan Cang's origins were not small. If he wasn't sealed, he would definitely be strong, and the beast core and dragon horn was definitely something he had obtained himself.

Seeing this, Ji Meixian frowned and said: "It's a deity spirit, a type of spirit body with a very strong spirit power. If you tame it, you can control this spirit body, and can go up to heaven and hell, and go into the ocean to inspect some things for yourself!"

"You human girl, you know quite a lot of things! You guys were fighting to the death before, how are you going to reconcile now? "Could it be that you two are husband and wife, having a fight at the head of the bed?" Lan Cang was suddenly curious.

"She lost, she's going to be my slave!" Chen Xiang laughed, causing Ji Meixian to wave her jade palm, wanting to slap her, but thinking that she was Chen Xiang's female slave, in order to avoid being tortured by her soul, she had no choice but to put her hand down.

Lan Cang smiled and gave Chen Xiang a big thumbs up.

The last item was a large, square jade box. When Chen Xiang opened it, a blood-red light flashed and a dense blood Qi leaked out from the box. There was a small blood dragon inside, half of it buried in the blood soil!

"This is ..." Blood ginseng, Holy level Dragon medicine! " Ji Meixian was so shocked that her beautiful face paled. The Holy level dragon medicine, even in the Heaven Realm s, could make many big shots go bankrupt in exchange.

Furthermore, it was the rarest Blood ginseng!

Without waiting for Su Meiyao to speak, Chen Xiang threw the Leihun fruit over to Lan Cang.

"I want this." Chen Xiang was the Alchemist, so as long as the Blood ginseng was in his hands, he could copy it and enlarge its value infinitely.

"This is truly out of my expectations. You actually want this broken root?" I thought you might want that Celestial Spirit or the horn of a Holy Horned Dragon. " Lan Cang was also very happy that he had obtained the Leihun fruit.

"To be honest, I think I'll take them all." Chen Xiang was also very happy at the same time, because Su Meiyao had told him just now that this Blood ginseng was the main ingredient to recover their strength, and it was much more precious than the Jade Dragon Flower.

Lan Cang quickly kept the things. He felt that he had earned a lot from this exchange, the Blood ginseng was useless to him.

However, it was extremely useful to humans. Blood ginseng could only grow from absorbing the dragon's blood essence from the blood dragon, and later on, it could absorb the spirit energy of heaven and earth to produce the most powerful dragon blood.

"Could it be that this guy has evolved into a Blood Dragon?" But it doesn't look like a blood dragon! " Long Xueyi mumbled. When she saw the Blood ginseng, she also found it hard to believe, because this kind of thing had not appeared in the Imperial Dragon Race for a long time.

Chapter 877

Although the Jade Dragon Flower was rare, its value was not as good as the Blood ginseng. On one hand, the success rate of refining pellets was not high in the Jade Dragon Flower, so if it was consumed directly, the usage would not be as great as the Blood ginseng.

Once a Ranker directly eats a Blood ginseng, their body would become extremely strong, and would produce a strong blood. They would possess a strong power, and if they had a very serious injury, eating them would help.

"Blood Dragons are dragons with powerful bodies. These types of dragons can only appear through evolution, and normally only the Imperial Dragon Race's dragons can evolve into Blood Dragons, but that's a once in a million year experience. This Blue Dragon is a snake, it's not easy to evolve into a Blood Dragon!" Long Xueyi was extremely suspicious.

Chen Xiang saw that Lan Cang was full of smiles, and asked: "Brother Lan, where did the person you asked to guard here go?"

Lan Cang pointed in a direction and said: "Over there, this place is definitely not a normal place. Even if I broke the seal to recover my strength, I wouldn't dare to barge inside. Over the years, there have been many powerful old bastards who have entered this place. There is even one that hates people so much that he actually sealed my strength. In the future, I must find him and give him a few fierce slaps. "

"I'm going to fuse with this Thunder soul, I'll take my time to see you out. Next time I come, don't come fighting around here." Lan Cang warned her as she turned into a blue light, entering the forest.

Chen Xiang took out the Luotian Gate and spatial orbs, opened the spatial door, and left with Ji Meixian, the beautiful slave that he had just obtained.

They arrived at the forest in the middle of the Bloody Thunder Mountain Sea. The trees here were all very huge, and the last time a Space Warcraft appeared here, it specially lured a few Rankers to be their food. However, they were killed later on, and Chen Xiang also obtained the spatial bead at that time.

He found a huge tree and poked his finger into a small hole in the trunk. A door opened.

"What is this place?" Ji Meixian could not help but ask.

"I left his medicine garden there. It's safer there, your injuries have not recovered yet, I have to help you heal them."

The last time Chen Xiang came was when he was with Hua Xiangyue, and at that time, he had even met Li Tianjun's disciple, Li Baojun.

"Are you really Li Tianjun's successor?" Ji Meixian had suspected it before, but now, he actually knew about the medicine garden that Li Tianjun had left behind.

Chen Xiang laughed, "Not entirely."

Then, he used the key to open the stone door, and entered a medicinal garden that was filled with dense spirit energy. Many of the medicinal herbs were taken by Chen Xiang, and only a few supplementary herbs remained.

Seeing the cave from underground, Ji Meixian could not help but exclaim at Li Tianjun's methods.

"Let me tell you, although I'm your woman ... Slave, but this does not mean that you can violate me as you wish. If you have any feelings for me, I will not let you succeed no matter what. " Ji Meixian's voice was ice-cold, this was what she was most worried about. She had already been violated by Chen Xiang once before, and even though he had only touched her body once, he had caused her to harbor such hatred until now.

"Also, if you have the ability in the future, you must help me find my apron!" Chen Xiang said. Only now did Chen Xiang realize that the undergarment was actually so precious to Ji Meixian. It seems like she did not do this just to make that divine robe complete.

"That's what my mother left me." Ji Meixian sighed softly, his tone sounded somewhat sorrowful.

Chen Xiang took out the undergarment and threw it over: "Take it!"

When Ji Meixian received it, she was stunned. It had actually been in Chen Xiang's hands the entire time, but why couldn't she feel it? Furthermore, she was actually played by Chen Xiang for a long time, which angered her to the point that she stomped her foot.

"Didn't you say that you lost it in the Rough and Random profound Land?" Ji Meixian carefully examined the snow-white undergarment, it was not damaged in the slightest. Thinking back then when Chen Xiang had said that it was lost, he spoke as if he was speaking the truth.

"I lied to you." Chen Xiang laughed: "But I really went deep into the Rough and Random profound Land and saw countless of them. In the end, I touched a formation and was teleported out."

Ji Meixian bullied her in her chest and breathed deeply for a long time, only then was she able to calm down. If Chen Xiang wasn't her master, she would have already fought with her life on the line with Chen Xiang, and actually made her worry for such a long time!

"This apron is extremely important to me. I worry about not being able to find it at all times. I've cried many times in the night, you little bastard ..." As Ji Meixian spoke, he started crying.

Chen Xiang rubbed his nose, then used his hands to wipe her tears away, "Don't cry anymore, didn't you find me now?"

"So what? Didn't you become your slave?" Ji Meixian felt extremely helpless at the moment. The feeling of being wronged and sorrowful filled her heart, making her unable to control it and causing her to start crying loudly.

Chen Xiang took out the Image Crystal and gave it back to Ji Meixian. When she saw it, she cried even more.

At this moment, Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou came out. The two of them wore the same purple dress, Su Meiyao was charming and alluring, carried a threatening aura, Bai Youyou's cold and elegant temperament allowed her to travel thousands of miles, but when she looked at Chen Xiang, her eyes carried a hint of gentleness, causing her beautiful eyes to look like two pearls within an iceberg that emitted warmth.

Ji Meixian stopped crying because she felt a very familiar aura. She turned around and saw the two familiar faces from back then!

"You all..." Ji Meixian hurriedly wiped away her tears. She did not want Ji Meixian and Bai Youyou to see her weak side.

"Yu Yi Immortal Fairy, long time no see. Back then, you chased after us many times, but who would have thought that today you would end up like this. Retribution!" Bai Youyou was beautiful and cold, her voice cold and filled with incomparable killing intent. She hated Ji Meixian to the core.

Ji Meixian took a small breath and regained his calm demeanor. "You guys are seriously injured, I'm afraid this kind of injury is not something that can be cured with normal immortal pills!"

At this moment, Ji Meixian had thought of many things, she had already guessed that Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou would have to depend on Chen Xiang to recover their strength, although Chen Xiang still had some time before he reached that stage, it would just be a matter of time.

"Little scoundrel, it must be difficult to subdue this woman. You must have worked hard!" Su Meiyao smiled coquettishly as she walked over to Chen Xiang's side. She pinched Chen Xiang's handsome face and held him in an extremely dubious manner, her face actually full of coquettish and sweet smiles, like a girl in love.

This made Ji Meixian dumbstruck, she never thought that the relationship between Su Meiyao and himself would actually reach such a level.

Chapter 878

Ji Meixian looked at Bai Youyou carefully. Bai Youyou was no longer the one she was familiar with, especially when she was looking at Chen Xiang. Her eyes were filled with tenderness, and this made her wonder if Chen Xiang had grasped some powerful soul reaping technique that could actually change these two women so much.

Especially for Bai Youyou, she no longer had that heartless smell, and could tell that she no longer trained in the Ruthless magic.

"You gave up the Ruthless magic? This really surprises me! " Ji Meixian didn't seem to have any hostility towards Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou, as if he was talking to an old acquaintance.

and Bai Youyou, on the other hand, were different. Although Su Meiyao and Chen Xiang were stuck together, their eyes were filled with hatred when they looked at Ji Meixian.

"You heal first!" Chen Xiang tossed a pellet of Relive Dan to Ji Meixian and Ji Meixian received it with one hand before he digested the medicinal power.

Now that she knew who taught Chen Xiang the pill refining skills, she could guess that Chen Xiang had a powerful treasure that could make Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou stay inside. From the very beginning, her identity as a Yu Yi Immortal Fairy was known to Chen Xiang.

She was currently feeling very unhappy, because she felt that she had been tricked by Chen Xiang and the two women from the very beginning.

"Why have you been looking for our master?" Bai Youyou coldly asked. The reason Ji Meixian chased them was to force the Old Devil Wuqing out.

"If I told you, you might not believe me. There is a misunderstanding between us, but now I am this brat's female slave. I don't think there is any hatred between us anymore." Ji Meixian closed his eyes to refine the pill, and said indifferently.

"Speak!" Su Meiyao really wanted to know the reason behind all of this, and even more so, wanted to know the misunderstanding between the two of them.

"The heartless old devil was my uncle, but because he cultivated the Ruthless magic, he became bloodthirsty. Later on, I heard that he died, but I don't believe that with that kind of strength, he won't die! "

Ji Meixian's words truly made Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou unable to believe it. They were the disciples of the heartless old devil and didn't know that the heartless old devil had a niece.

"He once took care of me for a period of time and my relationship with him is extremely good. It's just that I never thought that the Ruthless magic would actually make him into a devil!" Ji Meixian sighed, judging from her sorrowful expression, she did not seem to be lying.

"I've chased you all around the Heaven Realm for so long, but I've never succeeded in killing you all. Do you really think that I'm the one who can't defeat you all?" Ji Meixian asked with a cold smile.

"Hey, have a better attitude, you're my slave now!" Chen Xiang scolded: "Also, you have to wash their feet in the future!"

Ji Meixian trembled in anger, her entire body trembling, she actually wanted to help the two girls wash their feet!

"That's right. You have been chasing us for so many years. There have been many times where you have succeeded!" Bai Youyou thought back to everything that had happened that year and truthfully replied.

"I am quite famous in Heaven Realm. As long as others know that I was the one who was chasing and killing you, your enemies would not dare to compete with me. Do you think with your two girls' abilities, you can take care of those guys your master provoked?" Ji Meixian asked.

This caused Chen Xiang to be shocked, the heartless old demon actually brought two delicate female disciples to cause trouble everywhere, making enemies everywhere in the family.

Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou looked at each other, they had become silent. When Ji Meixian was chasing them, their other enemies did not dare to interfere, as they had to give way to Ji Meixian.

This made it difficult for them to accept it. The reason Ji Meixian was chasing them was to protect them, and even though it looked like he was going after them, they couldn't catch him. And Ji Meixian did not dare to accept them, because that would only cause Ji Meixian to be implicated as well.

Chen Xiang really wanted to know what kind of enemies these two women had gotten into, to actually sound so scary.

After all, your master is my uncle, and you are his disciples. Naturally, I have to take care of you.

Ji Meixian was still fuming inside. To think that she was so wise, to think that she had actually been tricked by a little kid and became his female slave. He still did not know what would happen in the future that she could not bear.

"Forget it, let bygones be bygones." Chen Xiang laughed, Ji Meixian was truly capable, if not he would not be able to get so familiar with the Heaven Realm.

"Wait until we go to the Sacred Dan Realm and obtain the Truth Stone. If we confirm that what you have said is true, we will kowtow to you in apology before breaking the contract!" Bai Youyou said. At the moment, she no longer held so much hatred towards Ji Meixian, as what had happened in the past was already in the past. Moreover, Ji Meixian had now become Chen Xiang's female slave.

Chen Xiang muttered: "How can that be? I had a hard time accepting her as a slave! "

Su Meiyao scoffed, "You don't lack female slaves, if what she says is the truth, then let her go!"

"No need, that's a death contract. It can't be broken!" Ji Meixian's face turned cold. If she had thought that the current situation would happen, she would not have signed the death contract, because she only knew of Master-servant Contract.

Chen Xiang was secretly happy, but his face was full of regret. He said righteously: "Don't worry, if what you said is the truth, I will think of all the ways and means to remove Master-servant Contract from your side!"

"But she is still my slave. Hehe, don't worry, I won't violate you, but you have to listen to me. "

"Master's background is very mysterious. We never knew that he had a sister, much less a niece like you." Su Meiyao frowned, and thought back to what her master had told them.

"Of course, she came from Imperial Feather Race, her identity must be kept a secret." Chen Xiang's words caused Ji Meixian to open his eyes abruptly and wait for him in shock.

"How did you know I was from the Imperial Feather Race? Other than the few old fellows from Imperial Feather Race and my parents, no one else knows about it. Even my uncle doesn't. " Ji Meixian was very surprised, because even in the Heaven Realm, those who knew of her were very few in number, let alone those who knew that she was from there.

Ji Meixian quickly thought of the other secrets that Chen Xiang had, such as the Heavenly dragon seal and the Green dragon demon-slain broadsword.

"Enough, hurry up and treat her injuries. With that Relive Dan, it will be difficult for her to recover." Long Xueyi's voice sounded, and purposely carried a profound tone, as though he was a master who lived beyond this world.

Seeing that Little Naughty Dragon was putting on an act again, Chen Xiang really wanted to drag her out and knead her fiercely.

"Who are you!" Ji Meixian was shocked again. It was indeed difficult for the Relive Dan to let her recover, and that Heavenly dragon seal had heavily injured her.

"Who am I? Remember this well, I am the first Dragon Emperor of the Primordial Era, the one who established the Emperor Dragon Sacred Domain in the Tenth Heaven, the one who ruled over the Ninth Heaven for three hundred thousand years. I am an Ancestral Dragon and I have already half a foot into the Dragon God Realm. Long Xueyi said a long string of smelly words. If someone who was not familiar with her was not there, they would really be tricked.

"The dragon race's bragging emperor is more or less the same!" Chen Xiang muttered in his heart.

Chapter 879

"Everyone calls me Heavenly Dragon Supreme Lord, Heavenly dragon seal is my entertainment, but it's more than enough to deal with a feathered bird like you." Long Xueyi continued to brag. In any case, bragging didn't require a sum of money, not to mention that she, Imperial Dragon Race, was born with a feud with Imperial Feather Race.

Su Meiyao could not help but chuckle. When he was in the Serene Jade Ring, Long Xueyi often played around like this, although this little girl was a pure white dragon from the Imperial Dragon Race, she did not respect their ancestor in the slightest. She spent her days fantasizing about trampling all of the old dragons from the Imperial Dragon Race beneath her feet, unifying the dragon race, and then becoming the next generation of Dragon Emperor.

This place was extremely safe, and Long Xueyi herself was not weak either. She also left the Serene Jade Ring and appeared before Ji Meixian's eyes.

She wore a snow-white dress, and her exquisite oval face was filled with mischievous expressions. She looked extremely cute, but if she were to get serious, she would be very beautiful and had an alluring charm to her.

Of course, the most attractive part of her body was not only her pretty little face, there was also her towering chest. There was a sharp contrast to her delicate body, yet it was extremely harmonious.

"Bai Long!" Ji Meixian immediately frowned and retreated a few steps, full of hostility.

"That's right, I am a sacred white dragon. Back then, I fought fiercely with the Ten Heavens Supreme Lord for three days and three nights, and in the end, he coincidentally won half a move and took the throne away, and his soul was even almost shattered into pieces. When I woke up, countless years had already passed, and the Ten Heavens Supreme Lord had already fallen. Long Xueyi sighed softly.

Chen Xiang knocked on her head fiercely, "Stop pretending, even little kids don't believe you!"

"Little Scoundrel, if it wasn't for this dragon, would you have been able to subdue her?" Long Xueyi scratched his head and muttered.

"I still underestimated you. With Imperial Dragon Race's Bai Long by your side, it's no wonder you know so many things, and also understand Heavenly dragon seal. I'm afraid you have already grasped many of Imperial Dragon Race's secret techniques." Ji Meixian looked at Long Xueyi. She had stayed in the Heaven Realm for a long time, but this was the first time she saw a member of the Imperial Dragon Race.

"Of course, your Imperial Avian Race is way worse than my Imperial Dragon Race." Long Xueyi said in high spirits.

"Hmph, I'm not from Imperial Feather Race. Don't associate me with him!" Ji Meixian said.

"You are Scoundrel's female slave now. If Imperial Avian Race knew, he would definitely come and snatch you away." Long Xueyi laughed.

"Wrong. If they knew, they would definitely kill me. They definitely cannot let their bloodline suffer such humiliation." Ji Meixian's voice became cold, and his eyes filled with resentment.

Long Xueyi was not the least bit worried, "If you have the guts, then let them come. In the future, I will join hands with Little Scoundrel, and not just Imperial Avian Race, even Imperial Dragon Race and those old fellows will be beaten until the ground falls, right Scoundrel Emperor!"

"When did you give me this bullshit name?" Chen Xiang pinched the tender flesh of Long Xueyi's face.

Long Xueyi slapped Chen Xiang's hands away, and said to Ji Meixian in a serious tone: "Now you have a chance to work with me, the future unparalleled Dragon Emperor, as long as you are willing to work hard, I will definitely help you unravel the Imperial Avian Race's bird nest in the future, bestowing you the title of undying golden peng's slave as the chief of the Undying Golden Roc!"

In the beginning, it was even more interesting, but later on, she started to ramble on again. Chen Xiang directly gave her a fruit, letting her, the Greedy Emperor, nibble on it.

The small craving dragon did not change its surname. Seeing such a good fruit, it could not help but take big bites of it. As it chewed on it, it blew on its skin, unable to speak clearly.

"I finished eating. Quickly tell me how to treat her wounds." Chen Xiang rubbed Long Xueyi's face and asked.

"Use your blood or a Eternal Dan. Which do you choose?" Long Xueyi said as he struggled out of Chen Xiang's grasp and walked to Ji Meixian's side. He then turned to Ji Meixian's side in interest and pulled at Ji Meixian's clothes, wanting to see that set of Divine Robe.

Ji Meixian had indeed been intimidated by Long Xueyi in the beginning, but now, in her eyes, Long Xueyi was just a mischievous little girl.

However, what Long Xueyi had said was that she had always wanted to tear off Imperial Feather Race's bird nest, but that was extremely difficult to do. However, with Chen Xiang and his help, it was still possible for her to do that in the near future.

"Why are you in Mortal Realm?" Su Meiyao placed a hand on Ji Meixian's chest, inspecting her injuries, causing her expression to become grave. Ji Meixian was indeed heavily injured.

"They were beaten up by the experts of the Imperial Feather Race. They wanted to kill me at first because I threatened them with my power. At that time, there were more than ten of your enemies." When Ji Meixian mentioned about this, his face was full of anger.

She looked at Long Xueyi and asked: "Your White Dragon's status isn't low in the Imperial Dragon Race, and why are you here in the Mortal Realm?"

"How should I know? I guessed that my parents were probably persecuted by the old undead of the Imperial Dragon Race, which was why they opened an opening and threw me out of the Mortal Realm. Anyway, the old dragons of the Imperial Dragon Race are not good people, sooner or later I will exterminate them. " Long Xueyi also really wanted to know his own life, but there wasn't any in his inherited memories.

"Little Scoundrel, if you think about your new female slave so that you can hurry, you can either bleed or take out that Eternal Dan." Long Xueyi was also checking on Ji Meixian's injuries.

The Eternal Dan could not be handed over. He did not have many pellets now, so he could only let out some blood.

His blood recovered very quickly, it didn't matter how much he put away. He took out a jade bottle, used the Green dragon demon-slain broadsword to cut open his wrist and started to release the powerful blood.

This was because there was the blood of the Jade Dragon inside it. If it mixed with the blood of the Undead Bird, Ji Meixian's recovery would be even faster.

"After your injuries have healed, you will let you return to the White Sea Imperial Land and continue to stay there. Then, you will help me swindle the fifty bounty rewards. Now, they are probably going to increase the bounty." Chen Xiang said while letting out blood. He smiled and said, "And we can't let go of the Feng Clan's Relive Dan as well."

Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou were originally sophisticated masters, coupled with the knowledge provided by Long Xueyi, many old fellows had already fallen into his hands. However, Ji Meixian still found it hard to understand what method Chen Xiang used to kill hundreds of experts overnight in Pill City, and there were also many experts whose strength far surpassed his. All of them had died in Chen Xiang's hands.

However, she believed that she would find out the secret very soon. Right now, she was completely under Chen Xiang's control, so even if she found out some secrets, it wouldn't be a big deal.

"Drink it. Since you hate me so much, you should be able to vent your hatred by drinking my blood, right?" Chen Xiang laughed.

Ji Meixian borrowed it and took a big gulp without hesitation. She didn't know why Long Xueyi had caused her and Chen Xiang to lose so much blood previously, but she immediately understood now.

She drank the whole bottle of blood in one gulp. Her recovery speed was so fast that it was hard for her to understand.

Chapter 880

The Undead Bird bloodline and Chen Xiang's Yulong blood had the same unique property. When the two combined, it produced a strange effect.

However, she still could not understand how Chen Xiang could recover so quickly after drinking his blood. She looked at Chen Xiang with a face full of suspicion.

The wound on Chen Xiang's wrist that was bleeding had already healed. Seeing Ji Meixian's expression, he felt very uncomfortable in his heart. He had just personally seen this woman, who hated him to the core, drink his blood.

"You've almost recovered. Don't think about my blood anymore!" Chen Xiang said. Actually, he also wanted to try and see what effect the fusion had on Ji Meixian.

The speed at which she recovered from her injuries could be said to be her own god's speed. If she could fuse with the kind of bloodline in Chen Xiang's body, then she might be invincible under the heavens. Her bloodline would be even stronger than the Undying Bird.

If it was in the past, she would probably think of ways to fuse Chen Xiang's bloodline with it. But she was only a female slave of Chen Xiang now, and there was simply no chance at all.

"You should know how formidable the powerful bloodline is!" I'll tell you what kind of bloodline it is, that's the Yulong blood that I helped this little scoundrel find. As long as you follow me, you'll benefit a lot in the future. " Long Xueyi said with an arrogant face.

"Go to the side, the Yulong blood that I obtained doesn't seem to have much to do with you." Chen Xiang looked at her in disdain.

"It was my, the supreme Heavenly Dragon Supreme Lord's, luck that brought you such a powerful object." Long Xueyi said proudly, as if that was the truth.

Ji Meixian let out a long sigh. She never thought that Chen Xiang would actually have a Yulong blood.

If he fused the two, it would be much better.

"Little maid, if you want to obtain Yulong blood, there is a very good way, which is to dual cultivate with this little scoundrel. Many female dragons of Imperial Dragon Race would want to use this way to obtain Yulong blood, however, jade dragons generally do not fancy it." Long Xueyi's beautiful face carried an evil smile.

"Humph!" Ji Meixian looked at Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou, and couldn't help but let her imagination run wild. She had heard the legends of the Jade Dragon before, if she could really get a Yulong blood, then she would become even stronger. At least in battle, when she was injured, she could quickly repair herself.

"Hey, this is something that's good for both of you, through that method, your undead bird bloodline can also be transmitted to him, but it seems like this can only be accomplished after a few times of dual cultivation. At that time, Little Scoundrel also will have the undead bird bloodline, so this Emperor can directly obtain the strongest bloodline from him, and adding my white dragon blood, haha ..." I will definitely become a supreme Heavenly Dragon Supreme Lord in the future. " Long Xueyi laughed.

"Little pervert, stop dreaming!" Chen Xiang pinched her cheek.

"This is not a dream. This can indeed be achieved. If you don't believe me, you can start right away." Long Xueyi was not the least bit afraid of this matter as she felt that it was as normal as if she was eating.

Ji Meixian's cold jade face slightly flushed. Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou seemed to have long gotten used to this crazy little dragon girl, as they only let out a light sigh.

"Alright, let's return to Pill City now. We'll think about it after we swindle White Sea Imperial Land and the Relive Dan away." Chen Xiang looked at Ji Meixian and said: "Once everything is done, I'll see if the situation allows you to continue staying in White Sea Imperial Land."

"Whatever. My life is not on my side right now. You have the final say." Although Ji Meixian said that, in her heart, she was extremely unwilling to listen to Chen Xiang's arrangements, but she could only accept it.

"I don't have any feelings for the White Sea Imperial Land. If I wasn't more outstanding inside, I would have already been squeezed to death inside. You can do whatever you want with them."

Chen Xiang laughed: "How can that work? You better stay in White Sea Imperial Land, and when you become stronger and the White Sea Imperial Land is under your control, I will be able to do whatever I want. "

"That's right, as long as you dare to force the position of the Leader with her, kill them all and let your little maid become the Leader, the White Sea Imperial Land would be under your control." Long Xueyi said.

Ji Meixian had that thought right now. Ji Meixian was already his female slave, and this was a matter of getting nailed to a board. Moreover, Ji Meixian didn't dare to betray his master, as she was completely under Chen Xiang's control.

Although Hua Xiangyue and Dongfang Xinyue were both his female slaves, Chen Xiang didn't control them. There weren't any restrictions on the Master-servant Contract, which was different from Ji Meixian's personality.

"I had this thought from the start. If I had you secretly assisting me, I would be able to live a better life in the White Sea Imperial Land in the future." In order to make herself feel better in the future, Ji Meixian could only do this, but Chen Xiang truly had a lot of power and grasped a lot of resources.

I know that your ultimate goal is to recover your strength. As long as this kid reaches that level and refines those pills, the three of us will be able to recover our true strength. If you want to cultivate to your original strength, not only will it take a long time, you will also encounter many obstacles. Su Meiyao said.

"We'll head to Pill City first. As for the scam of the White Sea Imperial Land and the Feng Clan's Relive Dan, I'll come find you after I've thought of a fooled plan." Chen Xiang said. In order for Ji Meixian to be able to control the White Sea Imperial Land in the future, he could not let Ji Meixian take the risk.

Su Meiyao, Bai Youyou and Long Xueyi entered the ring, Chen Xiang brought Ji Meixian up there, opened a dimensional door, and went into the mountain forest outside of Pill City.

Ji Meixian returned to the Pill City alone and set up a formation outside the city. In order to fool the Relive Dan, he had to show himself first. For safety's sake, he had to set up a formation so that he wouldn't be able to escape when surrounded and attacked.

First, I will create a cave abode, and then I will send people from the White Sea Imperial Land or the Feng Clan to bring it here. The person who provides the clues can obtain fifty Relive Dan, and as long as the clues are real, I can get them. Chen Xiang decided to use the first method, which was to bring the person into this cave. He wanted to see how reliable Feng Clan and the others could be when they told him how much the bounty was.

In order to make people believe that Chen Xiang had set up many arrays within the cave, these arrays were already a piece of cake for him. Furthermore, he had even placed some clothes that he had washed, as well as some aura of the Dragon Power.

"Alright, let's trap Feng Clan first! If it's White Sea Imperial Land, then let's cooperate with him." Chen Xiang left the cave. He planned to wait for a few days before heading back, because this cave looked too new.
