

Dark Ages 102

Chapter 102 - Scramble

On the street, a group of people ran their heads and ran forward. Knife Shield held the shield in front of them and ran out of the zombies blocking the road. They did not dare to stop, and rushed through the gap.

“Boys, come on!”

Behind the crowd, a huge colorful parrot howled, a proud, blue wings flapping, and quickly chased them towards Qin Tiange.

Behind it, a dense swarm of sparrows and other mutant birds gathered and flew up like a dark cloud, the scene was extremely spectacular.

On the ground, a huge number of zombies were surging, led by a five-meter-tall four-star giant, and they were hunting wildly, and the distance was getting closer.

“Dammitary hairy bird, don’t let me catch you, otherwise I’ll pluck out your whole body feathers.” Qin Tiange scolded while running.

He watched the zombie swarm behind him. There were a large number of mutant birds hovering above the sky, and each bird was a one-star mutant bird.

Dense and dense, it is even more terrible than the zombies on the ground. These mutated birds are full of aggression, and they are thrown at everyone under the leadership of the colorful parrot.

boom!

He turned back with a shot, and the sky exploded a pile of feathers. A half meter of huge sparrows were directly blasted by a shot and turned into a blood rain.

As a sparrow was blasted by a shot, the birds in the sky produced a moment of chaos, but soon calmed down, driven by the colorful parrot, and dived again to attack the fleeing people.

“Dead parrot, you silly bird, you have no ability. If you really have the ability to kill the zombie behind, you are the true king of the sky.”

Squinting to see the dense birds culling down, Qin Tiange was furious, but suddenly he growled, as if he was stimulating the silly bird on purpose.

Sure enough, the colorful parrot suddenly became furious when he heard these words. Even Qin Tiange dared to shame that he was a silly bird?

“I am the king of the sky, dare you look down on me? Young people, the boss I am very angry, the consequences are serious.” The colorful parrot was furious, hissing and screaming.

Roar!

But it just finished, a domineering roar came from behind, shaking the ground, the sound of thunder rolling, and the birds fumbled in a panic.

The four-star giant exploded, and suddenly it jumped up, his claws waved fiercely, and a slamming sound, the sky exploded a large mist of blood, feathers fell in the sky, and a little blood stained.

The four-star giant killed five mutant birds in one fell swoop, grabbed one in one hand and shoved it directly into the mouth, swallowing it with two clicks.

The flocks of starlings are in chaos, and many birds are frightened. They quickly rise and fly, and make a sound of screams, which looks very chaotic.

I saw the younger brother messing up, and the colorful parrot was so angry that all the colorful feathers were blowing up.

“Big man, do you dare to eat my little brother?” The colorful parrot screamed, extremely angry.

It said nothing, turned around and gave up killing Qin Tiange, turned around, and quickly flew around with a bunch of chaotic brothers, hovering over the head of the four-star giant.

The colorful parrot opened her mouth and screamed, “Little men, big men bully us, hit it!”

Uh ...

As soon as the words of the crickets fell, a colorful light flashed. At the moment, the body of the four-star giant burst open a blood hole, and a large piece of flesh was ripped off.

At this time, the colorful parrot had returned to the sky, with a large piece of meat in his mouth, which was a piece of meat on the body of the four-star giant, dripping with black blood, and swallowing it in one bite.

He was proud of himself, flapping his beautiful wings, and proudly said, “Big man, dare to bully my little brother, let me see how powerful I am today.”

“Little ones, come on!” The colorful parrot is indeed a refined parrot, dives directly with a group of mutant birds.

The roaring birds roared and dived down from the sky, as if a small fighter whistled down.

Roar!

The giant corpse was roaring, and its two claws kept waving. It clicked and killed one mutant bird that swooped down, and the fighting power burst.

Except that the colorful parrot can threaten it, other birds are vulnerable, and one will die when one comes. Soon it will be piled with a large number of bird carcasses.

“Let’s go now!” Seeing this, Qin Tiange looked slightly happy, drank a little, and took the lead in running.

He didn’t want to stop at all. Since that silly bird attacked the zombies with mutant flocks, that was the best chance to escape. What time is it to not run at this moment?

Tamarix and others showed joy, followed one after another, three hundred people burst at speed, completely crushed the past, and finally rushed out of the group of zombies blocked in front.

When they disappeared here, the colorful parrot was awakened, as if deceived.

“Ah ... I'm mad, I'm mad!”

The colorful parrot screamed in anger and spit fire in his eyes, realizing that he was deceived by Qin Tiange. As clever as it is, it was deceived by humans, and it stupidly helped people block the four-star giants and zombies.

Looking at the ground at this time, the corpses of birds on the ground are being bitten and eaten by a large group of zombies, especially the four-star giant, whose lethality is really terrifying.

boom!

The maggot burst into blood, and three mutant birds were smashed into flesh, and their feathers were scattered all over the place. Seeing this, the colorful parrot was frightened and furious.

The colorful macaw, known as the Hercules, has a terrible bite in its mouth. In addition, it has an inexplicable evolution after mutation, which is naturally more powerful and terrifying.

Hissing, another piece of meat was torn from the steel-like body of the four-star giant, and its powerful defenses could not stop the bite of the colorful parrot, which was terrible.

Roar!

The giant corpse roared, and a huge claw suddenly slammed at a tricky angle, whistling, and the air made a terrible sound of friction.

He only heard a muffled sound of “bang”, colorful feathers splashed, followed by a painful scream.

“Ah ... abominable big man.” The colorful parrot screamed in pain, and flew up in a panic, half of the wings were discounted.

The blood drops slipped, it crookedly fluttered, it flapped its wings hard, and fled quickly. Before leaving, it tore open its throat and made a terrifying bird sound. “As soon as the colorful parrot's voice fell, the birds gathered from the sky hurled and dispersed.

That speed is called a fast, come fast, go fast, and disappeared in no time, leaving only the colorful parrots solitary one crooked flying in the air.

Pricking his mouth grows up, as if he was dumbfounded, not only muttering to himself: “Grandma, this group of unscrupulous guys is unreliable and dare to abandon the wise master?”

Roar!

Suddenly, a terrible roar came from the ground, and the colorful parrot screamed, and saw a huge figure come up into the air, jumping up to twenty meters high.

It was a four-star giant, leaping, his two claws slammed towards the colorful parrot.

“Wow wow ... frightened the baby, frightened the baby ...” The colorful parrot screamed in fright, his wings struggling to beat the wolf howling, and the feathers dropped.

The half of the wing was broken, and it flew crookedly, then patted the wings in fear, and looked at the four-star giant that fell on the ground. It looked funny after a while.

“Asshole, don’t be proud of being a big man, you wait for me, and I will come back for revenge.” The colorful parrot hated a sentence, turned and slapped his wings and flew away.

He flew all the way, he scolded all the way, the pain of his wings made him have to stop, rest on the roof of a building, comb his feathers.

“It’s all those idiots who are harmed, it’s all that abominable person. Without him, the baby would not be hurt.”

The colorful parrot scolded and combed its feathers, arranging one of its broken wings, and pulled it down in half.

The colorful parrot that I was scolding, did not find at all, a figure quietly approached from behind.
