

Dark Ages 104

Chapter 104 - Subway Horror

“Why not come back?”

Near the subway station, a group of three hundred people gathered and hid on the street corner, waiting one by one nervously, as if waiting for someone.

Qiu Liuxuan looked anxious, walked back and forth anxiously, looking at the street from time to time, her eyes worried and anxious.

“Nothing will happen to Brother Qin, isn’t it?” Moda raised her knife and walked anxiously, looking a little irritable.

They killed here all the way, and they were close to the subway station, but Qin Tiange left for a while and warned them to wait here and not know what to do.

Everyone has been waiting for more than ten minutes, but now he hasn’t seen Qin Tiange coming back, so he can’t help but feel a little worried and anxious.

“Look at everyone, he’s back!”

Suddenly, Long Xiaoya looked surprised and raised her finger to the street in front.

Everyone looked up, and just saw a figure flying fast, it was Qin Tiange who had left, and had returned.

When I saw him coming back, everyone was relieved, but then their hearts were tight, because they saw Qin Tiange not far behind, and a huge zombie was quickly catching up.

“Hurry up, get into the subway!”

Far away, Qin Tiange shouted at him, looking a little anxious, looking back from time to time, the four-star giant had already caught up.

I heard him screaming anxiously, Liu Yan and others turned wild, and almost ran away without any hesitation.

Nie Teng was even more direct. He picked up his sword and took the lead, leading more than a hundred dead men to the entrance of the subway station to open the way for the team.

With his sword and shield hand, Moda opened the road with the deceased, slashed all the zombies blocked in front, and killed them in a subway station surrounded by zombies.

At this time, Qin Tiange, carrying a mutant colorful parrot with his wings and feathers out, rushed at a fast speed, followed a few breaths, followed the crowd and rushed into the subway station.

“Fast, hurry, hurry, master, hurry up, that big guy is coming.”

The colorful parrot looked at the four-star giant who was chasing after him, looking terrified, screaming, and had to speak to make Qin Tiange faster.

It ran all the way, looking terrified, afraid of being overtaken, and even afraid of Qin Tiange throwing it out, but it was really over.

“Stupid bird, shut up!” Qin Tiange heard an irritable, impatiently scolded, threatened: “No more chaos I will throw you over to block the four-star zombies.”

After listening to the colorful parrot, he shut up without a word, the feathered wings were holding Qin Tiange’s arm tightly, and his claws clenched his armor tightly.

Roar!

Thirty meters behind him, the four-star giant roared continuously, deafening, terrifying and terrifying, and the colorful parrot closed his eyes.

When Qin Tiange rushed into the subway station, before he had time to check the situation inside the subway station, he saw a black-grey thing pounced on his face.

“Ga ...” Looking at a group of black things, the colorful parrot instinctively screamed. It turned out that Qin Tiange lifted it up in front of him at a critical moment and blocked it.

I only heard a bang, the black shadow was shaken back, the colorful parrot was hit with pain and cracks, the bones were broken, the feathers were scattered and scattered, it was called miserable.

“Wow ... baby is bitter, baby is bitter in heart!” The colorful parrot was despairing, looking at the bruises on his body, and was almost hating Qin Tiange, the cruel master.

Qin Tiange ignored the miserable, but stared at the thing that was shaken away, and looked carefully, only to find that it was a cowboy-sized mouse.

Uh ...

That is a mutant mouse, with trembling hair and ***** eyes, gray and black eyes, giving a very evil feeling, the mutant mouse is very disgusting and scary.

“Two-star mutant mouse?” Qin Tiange frowned slightly, watching the two-star mutant mouse who stood up and continued to pounce on it.

The guillotine slashed and clicked, and the mutant mouse moved to the head. The blood sprayed to the ground, and the corpse rolled back and forth on the ground for a few times.

“Brother Qin, here ...” At this moment, there was a quick drink from the subway station, and he looked up, just to see that Moda and others were standing in front of the platform entrance, and the mutant mice were densely surrounded by the resist.

When I saw this, Qin Tiange’s face changed slightly, and he secretly said with a dark tone. He didn’t expect that there were no zombies in this subway station. Instead, there were a huge number of mutant mice, a giant mutant mouse that was only one meter long and two meters long, and slappingly killed Moda and others.

Roar...

I was at this stall. There was a horror roar outside the subway station, full of anger. Looking back, Qin Tiange’s face changed unconsciously.

Outside the entrance of the subway station, there is a huge zombie with a five-meter-high body standing at the entrance. Looking down at Qin Tiange below the subway station stairs, the two looked at each other distantly.

Humph! Qin Tiange snorted secretly, turned and accelerated, and rushed towards Moda and others carrying the colorful parrot. In the back, when the four-star giant saw him run away, he suddenly roared, and then the large body rushed in.

Roar! The roar was soaring, and then, countless zombies rushed out of the subway station, and the unknown zombies rushed into the subway station with the four-star giant.

The four-star zombies are the leader of a zombie in an area. It is a higher-level zombies that was born after many Samsung zombies fighting and devouring each other.

Among these surviving zombies, except for the four-star zombies, there was no three-star zombies because they were all swallowed up by it.

“Brother Qin is fast, we can’t stop it.”

On the platform, Moda yelled anxiously, and everyone retreated while facing the crowded mutant giant rat impact. The team was in danger and would collapse at any time.

Qin Tiange ran all the way, started with a knife and slaughtered, killing a mutant mouse blocking the road, no matter whether it was a one-star or two-star, he could not stop his way.

Suddenly, he killed a blood path and came to Moda and others.

“Leave, the four-star giant came.” Qin Tiange said this amazing news as soon as he returned. The four-star giant rushed into the subway station with the corpse.

Hearing this, Moda, Liu Ye, and others all changed their colors, and they were too late to be polite. They rushed across the platform and came to a line of parked subway cars.

“Kiki, take ten people to the cab with the captain to ensure the safety of the captain.”

When I got here, Qin Tiange immediately ordered Qi Qi, the girl, to take the ten-person protector captain to the cab to start the train.

“Others, get in the car!”

Time was running out, the huge mutant mice behind them rushed, and a large number of zombies came in. The situation was critical. Everyone opened the car door and rushed straight up.

Uh ...

Seeing Qin Tiange and others rushing on the train, the mutant mouse group suddenly caused a great commotion, and then an extremely high and sharp scream came, echoing throughout the subway station.

Qi Qin Tiange turned around and looked at the side of the subway station, where a horrible mouse appeared in front of everyone under the crowd of rats.

“That’s ...” Seeing this scene, Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, and his heart couldn’t help jumping.

Roar!

Over there, the four-star giant rushed in, just hitting a face with the giant mutant rat that came from the cluster, staring at each other with each other.

The five-meter-high giant stared directly at the giant mouse that appeared on the opposite side, with blue hair dancing, and a five-meter-long super-giant mouse with its tail full, and two blue pupils stared at the giant. Face each other.

“Four-star giant, four-star mutant giant rat, this is troublesome ...” Qin Tiange felt hairy, looking at the pair of giant corpse and giant rat, both of which were four-star, infinitely close to five-star .

Uh ... roar!

The giant rat screamed, and the four-star corpse on the other side also made a terrifying roar, and the entire subway station was shaken.

I was shocked to see that the mutated mice suddenly turned around and rushed towards the zombie rushing into the subway station, killing them in a ball, and flew flesh for a while, just like Sen Luo hell.

The Zombie Swarm and the Mutant Rat Squad fought directly. The battle came very suddenly, and Qin Tiange was bothered for a moment.
