

Dark Ages 30

Chapter 30 - Terrible man

Huang Feilong stared at his eyes and stared at Qin Tiange, who knew who had fired.

“That’s right, it’s my gun.” Qin Tiange’s expression was blank, and there was an indescribable coldness in his eyes.

He hummed softly: “Originally, I still wanted to use you, but you just ran to death by yourself, then you lost the value of use.”

“Everyone who undermines my plan will be ruthlessly removed by me.”

After he finished speaking, Qin Tiange stood up straight, raised his foot and stepped on it severely. Listening only to the sound of “click”, Huang Feilong’s neck was instantly broken, and his eyeballs were raised, and his eyes were dead.

Seeing this, everyone in the room was cold with hands and feet, cold on the back, and a creepy feeling in his heart. Qin Tiange’s eyes were different, a little more awe.

This is a terrible man!

Behind him, Chen Xi flashed such a thought in her heart, and her heart was very shaken. Although he knew Qin Tiange’s ruthlessness, he still underestimated his unreliable wickedness.

Even those who hindered his plan were eliminated ruthlessly, such as Huang Mao and others. He should have wanted to use it, but now he does not hesitate to clear it.

Whatever happened, it was because of the gunshot that just now, that the tight nerves of Liu Ye and others were suddenly interrupted, and the trigger was triggered by the instinctual self-reflection to shoot these people.

Without that gunshot, Huang Mao and others would never die, at least not suddenly being shot here by the teacher Liu Ye and a group of women.

Everything is because of this man.

Tamarix was crying, his eyes stood there indifferently, the steel crossbow fell to the ground and he ignored it, and the whole person lost his soul.

Her heart collapsed, her belief in life completely collapsed, and she killed someone before she shot and killed a group of students in front of her.

Hate? She didn’t hate Qin Tiange in her heart, but she was a bit lost, and her whole body collapsed as if she had lost her faith.

Moda is nothing, but very excited, watching Huang Mao and others who were shot as a hedgehog, let alone how happy.

“Muda, hold them up, and in addition you take someone to bring all the people in the dance classroom over there, the rebels ...” Then, Qin Tiange made a movement to wipe his neck.

Upon hearing this, Moda responded aloud: “Brother Qin, rest assured, I will do well.”

“follow me!”

He left with a group of people, and went there to bring all the survivors back there. If it was a rebel, Moda grinned in his heart, exposing the bloodthirsty light.

For other boys, the steel arrows were pulled from the bodies of those who died, and then these bodies were cleaned up, leaving no blood, so as not to cause trouble.

As for the girls, the six gods have no one, one by one, sitting down there, watching them look pale and panic, they know that their hearts have been impacted.

After all, a group of students from the same school were shot and killed, and even some girls were in a class with the boys who died.

“When you die, you die, what’s the big deal?” Qin Tiange came up and said something flatly.

He reached out and gently raised Liu Huan’s chin, staring at each other’s pupils, and reprimanded word by sentence: “Liu Yao, listen to me. Those who kill will be killed. If they Immortal, then your end will not be very good. “ “Dry your tears and pick up your weakness. If you want to live in this end time, you must go through these cruel baptisms, and you will get used to it.” Qin Tiange slowly explained, like an experienced senior Encouraging newcomers.

Yes, Qin Tiange was right, that Huangmao was not a good thing, and he was only outside. Qin Tiange heard it very clearly. The other party wanted Liu Ye, including all girls, to be slaves to play.

If they were not able to protect themselves, it would be difficult to say now. If they did not have enough power, Liu Ye would not even know that they would end, it would be absolutely miserable.

Her face turned pale, and her eyes gradually recovered a touch of clarity. She looked at the handsome and cruel Qin Tiange in front of her, and suddenly wow and burst into tears.

“Uh ...” Qin Tiange was dumbfounded, why did n’t he follow the script, and enlighten the beautiful teacher herself, then she wiped away the tears, revived herself, then thanked her, and then became a strong woman. He plans to add bricks and tiles.

The script is wrong!

Qi Qin Tiange sighed secretly, looking at the beautiful teacher who fluttered in her arms, neither hug nor hug, and her hands froze there, looking weird.

When he didn’t wait for him to think whether he would hold it, Liu Yan pulled back, lowering his head, blushing, and his tiny hands wiping tears from time to time.

“Thank you, thank you!” Liu Ye blushed and said, and turned and ran into the dining room.

At the scene, a group of boys looked at each other, while the girls stared at each other, looked at Qin Tiange, and looked at Liu Yan hiding in the dining room, as if they understood something.

“What to see, work quickly!” Qin Tiange sighed angrily, and secretly regretted that he was regretfully hugged, and lost a chance to hug a beautiful woman to take advantage.

Behind him, Chen Xi looked weird, with a strange weird light in his eyes. Qin Tiange was uncomfortable, but fortunately, he was thick-skinned.

“Brother Qin, people are brought back, one less.”

At this time, a large group of people walked in outside the canteen. The boys led by Moda and others took the lead and brought back a large group of people, men and women, one after another in panic.

It was definitely not smooth to bring people in the past. A group of younger brothers with yellow hairs looked there. When they saw Moda and others coming menacingly, a man with a gun in his hand immediately shot.

As a result, before the gun had time to open the insurance, Moda followed a girl with a steel arrow and died.

It was Wu Xiaoyu, who somehow followed him, and, without hesitation, shot a steel arrow and killed the little Huang Mao brother on the spot.

Wu Xiaoyu, is the first of all girls to wake up, and is the only one who has the same past, and has to make Qin Tiange treat her differently. She is a heroine among women.

Such a person can survive in the last days. If other girls cannot adapt, it will likely be difficult to survive in the future.

“You did a good job!” He waved his hand and let Moda wait for someone to rest.

Qi Qin Tiange then glanced at the group of people in front of him. There were more than fifty people. There were only thirty-three boys, and girls accounted for less than half, twenty-one, plus three female teachers.

As for the male teacher, when Huang Mao and others bought a gun and went back, they immediately disposed of it, but before they enjoyed the wonderful taste of the beautiful music and dance teacher, they saw a girl running away and met Qin when they caught up Tian Ge’s group of people have no chance to enjoy it.

“Ten Ge, this girl is still alive, can she survive?”

At this moment, Chen Xi came up and asked in his ear. He turned his head and looked at a girl who was lying on the floor, covered with blood, and was in a coma.

This is the girl who escaped. She looked at the other person and seemed to be dead, but she was not far from death.

“Put this on her, and tell her that she owed me the nucleus to hunt down the zombies and earn it back, otherwise she would be worthless.” Qin Tiange threw a one-star hardening potion and said words.

On the opposite side, the group of people brought over looked shocked and looked at the severely injured coma girl who drank a dark red potion. The gunshot wound on her chest was healing quickly. Then, Chen Xi picked out a bullet inside with a dagger.

Soon, the girl gradually woke up and shocked everyone's complexion. Isn't this a resurrection?

In fact, Qin Tiange knows that this is the first time to use the effect of the one-star quenching agent, and by the way, he will recover the injury. After the physical fitness gradually strengthens, he wants to use these evolutionary agents to recover that it is simply a dream. The only way is to exchange those Is the remedy for the injury really expensive?

"Now, you have two choices. One is to listen to me, help me to do things, have food, and even get strong power. After four days, you will be free."

Qin Tiange's face was expressionless, and his eyes swept across the crowd sharply, saying: "The second is that I left you on campus without food or drink, but also facing countless terrible zombies and mutants. You There is only one end, that is to be eaten or turned into a zombie and finally killed by me, dig out the brain crystals that grow from your head. "

"I'll listen to you!"

I took the lead in responding, and it turned out to be a female teacher. It was the music and dance teacher with a beautiful figure and a tall figure. She first agreed, which was quite surprising.
