

Dark Ages 351

Chapter 351 - 0 Corpse

A week later, Xuancheng, a broken base wall, stood quietly, looking at this completely ruined large base.

“Xuancheng fell, it’s still late.”

Qin Tiange murmured to himself, looking at the run-down base, scattered with all kinds of things, and many houses collapsed, as if something had been knocked down.

Xuancheng has fallen. Except for the corpses wandering, there are no survivors. Perhaps there are survivors in some corners of Xuancheng. Unfortunately, it is almost impossible to get out of the corpses.

In seven days, Qin Tiange rushed from Xuancheng base to Xuancheng all the way to see if he had been slaughtered like the one in the past.

Yes, there should be more than 200,000 survivors in the Xuancheng base, but they have been slaughtered, and no one is left.

Who would do such a heinous thing and slaughter 200,000 people? What a horror?

There were no silhouettes in the run-down base, and occasionally a few zombies passed by, screaming low.

On the ground, there are marks scratched by the claws, and some buildings are scratched inexplicably, and the scratches are very clear.

Roar...!

In the middle of the ruined base, an extremely weird and terrifying roar suddenly sounded, as if many zombies were screaming.

Hearing this weird roar, Qin Tiange’s eyes flickered into two cold mansions, his body jumped, and he walked away.

Soon, he came to the center of the base, stood at the top of a building, and looked at the countless corpses piled up into the mountains below, all human corpses.

The smell of blood is strong, and there is a foul smell, and there is a strong resentment all around, extremely cold and terrifying.

In the center of the base, there are corpses, with a pile of mountains, at least tens of thousands, and even more.

Click, click ...

Above the corpse mountain, a terrible monster was biting the corpses, and swallowed three or four corpses in one go.

The giant monster, 300 meters long, has thousands of huge paws densely packed, muscles turned out, and looked like paws of zombies.

The most terrible thing is that huge body, fluffy, turquoise and black, exuding a dark dark blue light, like a huge cricket.

On the back of this giant monster, grows one after another's head, grows his mouth, growls, and constantly eats the fragments of human corpses on the side.

Thousands of heads with their mouths open and biting the body?

“Thousands of dead corpses, it really is like this.” Qin Tiange looked cold, his eyes staring at the giant shrew, called Qianshen cricket.

What is a Thousand Dead? It is a giant corpse monster stitched together by a thousand zombies, like a cricket, called a corpse cricket.

Huge pouting mouths opened and closed, with piercing heads open, wide mouths, frantically gnawing at human bodies that were swallowed.

When ordinary people see this scene, the Jedi will be frightened to death. The thousands of corpses mobbed together with the sewing of a thousand zombies are absolutely terrifying things.

Moreover, as far as Qin Tiange is concerned, this thousand dead corpse has evolved to the sixth level, and a special crystal nucleus has grown in the body.

hiss!

Suddenly, Qian Qiang, who was eating the corpse, found Qin Tiange's trace, immediately raised his huge body, two unknown eyeballs protruded, and a ray of bloodthirsty bloomed.

It opened his mouth and snarled, and a thousand heads on his body opened his mouth and made a horrifying roar, making his ears deafening.

boom!

I was surprised that thousands of corpses throbbed and flew into the air like lightning, as if it could fly. In fact, otherwise, it would not fly, but it was amazing in its jumping ability.

Qin Tiange looked colder and colder as he watched the 300-meter-long huge thousand corpses sewn from the newly evolved artificial monster.

At the entire Xuancheng base, more than 200,000 people were slaughtered by the puppet. This is not the cause of Qin Tiange's anger.

The reason is that the man behind this monster is the real demon.

Qin Tiange snorted violently, and Euphorbia slammed hard, banging loudly, and a huge moan was smashed on the spot.

Huge power, full of horrible destruction, directly smashed the flesh of the head of this corpse, and gushed a black-green blood.

Hiss ... Thousands of dead bodies roared, a thousand heads opened their mouths together, Sen Bai's eyes glared at Qin Tiange, and another terrible attack was launched.

But this time, it crawled around the floor continuously, with its huge body rising, opened its mouth and swallowed towards the roof.

Just listening to the bang, the building collapsed, the huge smoke billowed into the sky, and the body of the dead body rolled and vibrated slightly, opening the collapsed building.

It stood on the ruins, coiled up, and made an extremely angry roar at a figure in front of it, and the corpses roared.

“dead!”

Suddenly, I saw Qin Tiange holding up his halberd, and the black gas rolled and condensed, turning it into a huge virtual shadow and shooting down, right in the middle of this thousand dead corpse.

I saw the black blood disintegrated, the flesh flew across, and the corpse’s half of his head was beaten up. The six-star artificial synthetic monster was so vulnerable in front of Qin Tiange.

Thousands of dead corpses screamed screaming, the huge body of 300 meters long suddenly turned, thousands of feet ran frantically, and fled away.

Half of his head was smashed, he suffered severe wounds, and the blood flow was endless. He naturally realized the fear and danger of the man and ran away immediately.

“Run away, I’ll wait for you to come to your master.”

In the back, Qin Tiange sneered, and followed the corpse stubbornly. He could have bombarded this artificial corpse monster easily.

But instead of rushing to kill the monster, he forced the other to run away. This is the result he wanted. Following this thousand corpse monster, he can definitely find its master behind the scenes.

Yes, this thousand corpse monster thinks that the product made by sewing has killed the entire Xuancheng base, and it has been killed by a total of 200,000 people.

hiss...

On the street, a huge 300-meter-long corpse monster sent out sorrowful sorrows, and from time to time, Qin Tiange, who was chased by him, broke one or two scorpion’s heads on his back.

While chasing, Qin Tiange collected the crystal nuclei that fell after breaking his head, just the ordinary zombies crystal nucleus in the back of the corpse monster, just like the ordinary zombies crystal nucleus.

“Think about it. The pure and strange crystal nucleus must have been born in the body of this thousand corpses. It is rumored that it was a talented crystal nucleus in the past life.” Qin Tiange looked a little still, squinting his eyes to think about the problem.

Talented crystal nuclei have inexplicable mysterious effects. The most important thing is to enhance one’s soul strength and develop talented abilities, called talented crystal nuclei. He knew there should be some other hidden effects, the two-headed King Kong killed last time, the crystal nucleus in the smallest head, it was this talented crystal nucleus.

He suddenly remembered that the behind-the-scenes maker of the corpse monster was born to awaken with some terrible talent. It was rumored that he was awakening, but it does not seem to be the case now.

Qin Tiange speculates that it should be that person who took the unique talents of the nucleus of a thousand corpses, which is incredible.

In addition, the thousand corpses in that man's hand can continue to grow this talented nucleus, so he took the corpses all the way through, and the survivor bases of all sizes were ruthlessly destroyed.

The shocking news from previous lives a set of shocking data made everyone in China Xia chill, this man with a thousand corpses, killed a million people in total.

As soon as the news of the massacre of one million people spread, it immediately caused a huge shock among the various forces in China at the time.

In the end, the man was dispatched by all the forces in Huaxia to block him by the Yellow River and beheaded there. The five horses were divided into corpses, and even the corpse fragments were cleaned up neatly.

However, that battle caused great losses for the masters of all major forces in China, especially the thousand dead monsters at that time were extremely powerful and approached the king level.

Rumble ...

Thousands of monsters fled madly, their heads were blasted more than a hundred, and the ordinary crystal nuclei inside were stowed by Qin Tiange.

Finally, the thousand corpses fled into a previous hospital in a panic, this is the Xuancheng Central Hospital.

“Originally hiding here ...” Looking at the thousands of corpses that had penetrated into the hospital in front of him, Qin Tiange showed a trace of murderousness and grunted coldly, knowing that the person behind the scene was hiding in the hospital.

Chapter 352 - Evil doctor

“Who dare hurt my pet?”

In the hospital, in the lobby, a young man in a white medical uniform, looking vulgar and looking at the corpse that crawled in, was seriously injured.

The corpse's head almost collapsed for more than half, and more than a hundred heads on the back were shattered. The blood was stagnant, and the black-green blood flowed, and it smelled bad.

This young man is the maker of the Qianshi Qiang, who made the sewing of the Qianshi Qiang.

The young doctor with a somber face hummed, “No matter who it hurts my baby, it will cost me.”

“Baby, wait, I'll get some corpses and stitch the wounds for you.” The young man comforted the thousand corpses in harmony.

He was about to turn around and go back to the morgue of the hospital to fetch a few corpses and stitch the wounds to the Qian Zhe, but at this moment, the Qian Zou growled violently.

Roar ... Roar! !!

Thousands of dead corpses were very irritable, and the huge body curled up, surrounded the youth group, staring at the outside of the hospital with their heads brushed.

The young man also found out, a coldness flashed in his eyes, and hummed, "I was trying to find your account. Didn't expect you to come to your door?"

There was a man walking outside the hospital gate, carrying a halberd, wearing a battle armor, and looking calmly at the corpse curled up in front of him.

The person who came was Qin Tiange, who looked up and down the young man who made the corpse, a super-anti-human element of previous lives.

He, carrying thousands of dead pets, slaughtered survivors along the way, raising his pets, and slaughtered millions of survivors.

Now, finally meeting his people, Qin Tiange couldn't help but feel a horror of murder.

In particular, I saw the tragic scene at the Xuancheng base just now. The corpses piled up in the mountains were all slaughtered and cleaned by him under the control of the thousand dead creatures.

The cruelty of the means is to raise this corpse cricket.

"More than 200,000 survivors in Xuancheng, did you take this one thousand dead corpses to slaughter?" Qin Tiange said indifferently, revealing his murderous power.

His eyes flashed coldly, staring at the young man who was protected in the middle by the corpse, and the other side was looking at him.

Humph!

Hearing this, the young man sneered, disdainfully said, "What good are those people alive? In this world, it's a waste of air. It's better to feed my little baby."

As he said, he grinned a few times and gently stroked a head on the back of Qian Zhe, as if this was his darling baby, looking scalp mad.

"You grab the zombie and sew it into a powerful monster, and you can even control this monster. Why not let it devour mutant creatures, but slaughter fellow people?" Qin Tiange Han asked, asking questions he had been puzzled for years.

In principle, this guy is also a personal talent, who can sew a zombie into a monster and evolve into a strange creature.

But why not take the monster to kill the mutant creatures, and even kill the zombies to get the crystal nuclei to let this thousand corpse crickets evolve, but slaughter humans instead?

Hehe hehe ...

The young man smiled gloomily and scorned: “What do you mortals know? I am known as an evil doctor, and no evil is not a doctor. During my medical study, I dissected 3,988 corpses, two of which were still dead. With human beings. “

“Did you know that it is because of the two living beings that I have peeked into the mystery of God’s forbidden area and saw the genetic code of the human body. I am the messenger sent by God to destroy you ugly, crude, and filthy humans.”

He said that he was crazy and dancing, and the one who was full was a lunatic. He was completely mad, and his soul was completely twisted.

The self-proclaimed evil doctor even dissected thousands of human corpses and even two living bodies. Does that mean that he solved the living person?

“It seems that you are completely sick, and your mind and soul are completely distorted.” Qin Tiange murmured, determined to kill this guy.

Otherwise, the painful scene of the previous life will also happen, with more than a million people being slaughtered. What kind of scene is that?

The current number of survivors in Huaxia is not clear, but it can’t be consumed in this way. Today, this evil doctor slaughters one million, and tomorrow the demon kills ten million. Does the Chinese people need to continue to survive?

“Ordinary vision.” The young man looked at Qin Tiange with disdain, and said, “You ugly mortals should not live in this world, and should be recreated by God’s messengers like me to create a perfection. Flawless race. “

“Do you know what the pineal gland is?” The evil doctor grinned, looking at Qin Tiange sarcastically.

He suddenly pointed at the location of his eyebrow, and there was a shallow trace there, like a closed eye.

Ok?

As soon as Qin Tiange’s gaze was fixed, he finally noticed a shallow trace of the horizontal eyebrow, which really looked like a closed eye.

It is rumored that humans have a third eye, known as the sky eye, but they have gradually degraded for some reason and have become a pineal gland.

Someone can cultivate in some way, stimulate the pineal gland, reopen this third eye that originally belongs to humans, and gain incredible power.

That’s power, or talent, and that’s where the rumor comes from in the rumor.

“Human beings should have a third eye, that is called the heavenly eye, which is a powerful talent that God has given to humanity.”

The evil doctor said madly, “But human beings are so ugly that they displease God and directly close this heavenly eye, which was originally given to human beings, and even go to great destruction.”

“Everyone who opens the eyes of the sky is a messenger of God, and the innate mission is to destroy you filthy humans.”

After the evil doctor said, he grinned, the faint trace of the eyebrows suddenly slowly opened, a ray of evil light came out.

“Heavenly eyes, open!”

Suddenly, the evil doctor lightly drank, and saw the shallow trace of the eyebrows suddenly opened, blooming a strong light, showing endless evil intentions.

Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, and he secretly said, “Good evil eyes, this guy really opened the so-called sky eyes?”

No, that’s not the sky eye, but the evil eye!

An evil eye filled his eyebrows, showing endless evil and coldness, staring at Qin Tiange, making him unbearably cold.

“Come on, come on, I am your master, and I am your ever loyal master.”

Suddenly, a voice came out with endless charm, invading the mind, shaking the sea, as if through a strong temptation.

Ok?

Qin Tiange’s spirit shook, his mind trembled, and then he came to his senses, only to find out that the evil eyes of this guy had only flowed to deceive others.

No wonder, this guy can bewitched the sewing corpse, everything is an evil eye on his brows.

“A wicked eye, dare to wanton?” Qin Tiange’s face was as murderous, and Euphorbia stabbed suddenly.

With a hissing sound, Ji Feng penetrated a giant claw of Qian Zheyu, and stabbed the young man’s forehead fiercely.

puff!

“Ah ...” The evil doctor young screamed, the evil eyes were pierced, a large stream of evil blood poured out, and a horrible wailing sound was revealed, which was creepy.

“Kill, kill him!” The young evil doctor roared, looked extremely crazy, and his evil eye was punctured by Qin Tiange’s halberd, causing great trauma.

In fact, his own strength is not very strong, two-star rating, everything is because of that evil eye, as well as his pet corpse.

Hiss ... roar!

Thousands of corpses roared, opened their mouths and swallowed them, and most people must have finished such an attack.

But it was facing the monster Qin Tiange, and he was shocked to see that a large halberd pierced through the mouth of a thousand dead corpses and showed through the top of his forehead.

With a click, Euphorbia severely smashed the head connector of Qian Zheyu, and the whole head was smashed more than half, and finally cut off.

“No, it’s impossible. My corpse baby is the most powerful. How could you kill it?” The young evil doctor holds the evil eye with his forehead pierced, and is horrified, can’t believe that his powerful pet was caught Halberd died through the forehead.

This script is not right, it should not be the other party was swallowed up by thousands of corpses, and then evolved, and then he was invincible to the world, slaughter the living, and execute God’s will to destroy human beings.

“You should have amazing talents. Why not go on a journey and instead do such anger and grievances. The most unforgivable thing is that you have slaughtered people of the same race?”

Qin Tiange walked step by step, and there was a sense of serenity in his discourse. The murderous heart had long been out of patience.

Not to say how good he is, but to realize clearly that the existence of such a person will cause great damage to the Chinese nation.

A man whose soul and soul are completely distorted considers himself a messenger of God and only wants to kill human beings. This is absolutely impossible for him to continue to live.

“You who can’t kill me, I am the messenger of God, immortal, God is with me.”

The evil doctor youth laughed wildly, opened his hands, looked extremely crazy, as if he really thought that he would never die.

“Immortal?” Qin Tiange taunted and hummed. “Garbage is rubbish. I thought you had some talent. I didn’t expect it to be like this.”

“Dead!”

After speaking, Euphorbia whistled and slammed into the young man’s head with a bang, blasted to pieces on the spot, and the brain was sprayed with blood and water in all directions.

Lethal, he was laughing wildly. An extremely crazy guy, who is not a human at all, has become a lunatic mad monster.

Qin Tiange shook his head, raised his hand and waved a mass of Cang Yan covering the corpse and the cerebral blood scattered on the ground. He instantly stained his hands with blood, and the evil guy inside burned to ashes.

The so-called immortality is just a joke.

“Let me see, I even broke up your soul to see if you can be resurrected?”

Looking at Cang Yan burning, Qin Tiange suddenly waved a dark flame.

Then, a stream of black smoke suddenly appeared above the corpse that was burned to ashes, and gradually turned into a man of disgrace.

“No, you can’t ...” That was the soul of the evil doctor, who could even growl and scream.

Qin Tiange snorted, and raised a ball of Cang Yan, and burned the black figure on the spot into the air, completely dissipating in the air.

“What is immortal?”

He disdainfully snorted, turned around, and then carefully observed the body of the dead corpse cricket, wondering if there was such a strange talented nucleus?

Chapter 353 - Talent potion, startling 0 years

Talented crystal nuclei, known as rare and rare, have a mysterious effect.

This kind of thing is rumored to be able to open the ancient talents of living beings and acquire a certain magical ability. Many people in previous lives have acquired this kind of thing, thereby opening up some ancient human talents.

Click!

The ancient sword came out of the scabbard and cut off the huge head of the thousand dead corpse, which was cut off piece by piece and opened the brain that had evolved and mutated inside.

Qin Tiange looked expressionless, looking at the dead corpses who had died, and those zombies’ heads on the back were still screaming with their mouths open.

He snorted, and cut off these heads with a sword, and then slowly searched for the magical nucleus of talent born in the body of a thousand corpses.

Soon, Qin Tiange found a peculiar crystal, the size of a fist, transparent throughout the body, and a mysterious liquid flowing inside the huge skull of Qianshen.

“This is a talented nucleus?” Qin Tiange grasped the nucleus, and looked curiously, similar to the nucleus that grew out of the small head obtained by killing the two-headed King Kong the previous time.

He took out the crystal nuclei obtained from the two-headed King Kong’s small head, and compared them, and found that they were really similar, and they were all the same type of crystal nuclei.

This is a rare treasure, a gifted crystal!

“Talent crystals are the most extraordinary treasures for the preparation of talented medicines. They are rare and rare. I did not expect that I could get two.” Qin Tiange looked at the two magic crystal nuclei in his palm and couldn’t help showing a smile.

He guessed that the evil doctor could open the talented evil eyes, it should be taking the talented crystal nuclei generated in the body of the corpse.

No wonder he let the thousand dead corpses slaughter more than 200,000 people. The original purpose was to cultivate the thousands of dead corpses to continuously produce this magical crystal, and then remove the crystal nucleus through surgery and take the talents by himself.

“A little talent, but unfortunately went the wrong way.” Qin Tiange shook his head secretly, without regret, this kind of person can’t keep him alive, otherwise I don’t know how many people will kill him mercilessly.

For the sake of their own interests, at the expense of killing hundreds of thousands of people, such people can no longer be called people.

“When you find some subsidized things and spirits, you can formulate that talent potion.”

Qin Tiange carefully collected two talented crystals, thinking about preparing to find enough materials and spiritual materials to match the talented crystals to refine and formulate the talented medicine.

In fact, it is also possible to swallow the talent crystal directly, but the effect is not good. It is best to formulate a talent medicine to have better effect and safety.

boom!

Qin Tiange left the hospital. Before leaving, a group of Cang Yan burned the body of the thousand dead corpse into ashes. He did not stop and left Xuancheng area.

He walked all the way, chopped off mutant creatures to obtain some spiritual materials, entered the old forest in the mountains, and searched for possible medicinal materials.

It is not so easy to formulate a talent potion. It must be adequately prepared, even without any materials.

This walk was three days and three nights. Qin Tiange searched from Xuancheng and hacked down many powerful mutant creatures. Finally, he found the required materials near Huangshan City.

“Finally found.”

Qin Tiange stood in an orchard and looked at a fruit picked from the palm of his hand, which was passion fruit, and sighed in his heart, this road is not easy.

With all the materials and medicines, it’s time to start refining and formulating talented medicines.

However, if you want to refine the medicine, you must find a quiet place, otherwise you will lose more than you get when you are disturbed.

This is the boundary of Huangshan City. Qin Tiange didn’t enter the city. In fact, he didn’t need to go to know that it was already mostly fallen.

There were zombies and mutants out of the city, and there was nothing worthy of him to step into, so naturally he didn’t want to enter to waste time.

One day later, Qin Tiange came to the Lingyan Cave Scenic Area. The beautiful scenery, quiet and pleasant, is a good place for refining medicine.

Small bridges are flowing, ancient trees are planted into forests, and some trees are even 1,000 years old, especially the 17 ancient magnolias in the woods of the ancient city.

“Well, there is an ancient magnolia plant that has grown for more than a thousand years, and it has definitely become a powerful tree demon.” From a distance, Qin Tiange looked out into the woods of the ancient city, where there were 17 huge ancient magnolia trees.

Sixteen white jade-colored ancient magnolias are full of dense jade flowers, and the fragrance is ten miles away. The trunk is tall and thick, and can be 100 meters high.

Surrounded by clusters of trees in the middle is a 300-meter-tall ancient magnolia. The tree is full of dense pink jade flowers.

That is a mutant tree demon with a thousand years of age. The branches are filled with strange clouds and mists, as if swallowing and vomiting.

“This tree demon is very strong. Now I don’t have time to wait until I have prepared the talent potion before I can solve you. I want to come, there should be a more powerful liquid of life in the Millennium Tree Heart.”

Qin Tiange murmured to himself, a slight smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, turned to the direction of Lingyan Cave, and temporarily ignored the millennium ancient magnolia tree demon.

Soon after he left, in the woods of the ancient city, the millennium ancient magnolia plant suddenly shook, and a human face appeared on the trunk.

“Surprisingly, when the human man looks at me, he always feels scared. There must be disaster. No, he must leave immediately.”

On the trunk, a face opened and murmured to herself, a woman’s voice, extremely crisp and sweet.

It is the consciousness generated by the millennium ancient magnolia, turned into a tree demon, has a certain climate, is no less than a six-star ability, and is absolutely terrifying.

However, such a powerful millennium tree demon was surprised by Qin Tiange’s glance, which was derived from the biological instinct.

Bang ...

Suddenly, the sixteen ancient magnolia trees stood up side by side, and the roots of the trees were entangled rapidly on the millennium ancient magnolia. With two huge tree feet, he took away all the ancient magnolia trees quickly.

From a distance, it seems as if a small piece of ancient magnolia forest is moving autonomously, but it looks like a huge ancient magnolia is running when taken close.

Qin Tiange didn't know at all. With a look and thought, he accidentally made the millennium ancient magnolia tree demon feel danger and immediately ran away.

Ok?

In the ancient cave, Qin Tiange, who was preparing to refining medicine, suddenly moved, and suddenly felt a strong demon, but it was getting farther and farther.

“Is that the millennium ancient magnolia tree demon, did you run away?”

Qin Tiange was surprised, feeling the far more and more demon soon disappeared, which left him speechless.

He also thought that after finishing the potion, he would directly kill the millennium tree demon. As a result, people would feel it and immediately ran away.

“I'm going, why is this tree demon so timid?” Qin Tiange was dumbfounded, a little speechless, feeling that the millennium tree demon was timid.

He shook his head secretly, no longer paying attention to the escaped millennium tree demon, and began to make that strange and mysterious talent potion.

In the cave, the cold air suddenly sent a heat wave, billowing, radiating the entire ancient cave.

I saw that the fire was shining in front, where a huge furnace stood, and the whole body was burning red.

Qin Tiange looked serious, and began to put a little bit of refined medicinal materials and spirits, and the essence was refined to be used to configure talent potions.

This is an extremely complicated and long process, and even requires strong mental strength and will.

Time passed by little by little ...

Chapter 354 - Left eye mutation, unpredictable

After a day and a night, there was a trace of movement in the cave, and the fire was shining, illuminating the entire ancient cave space.

I saw that Qin Tiange was standing quietly in front of the huge furnace, with a somber expression on his face, staring at a magic potion in the furnace.

“That's the last step.” As he said, he took out two strange crystal nuclei, and lightly next to the furnace, knocked the appearance of the crystal nuclei like beating eggs.

With a click, the crystal nucleus shattered, and a mysterious liquid flowed into it, quickly pouring into the furnace.

Immediately after, Qin Tiange shattered another crystal nucleus and poured all the mysterious liquids into the furnace.

Huh!

A stream of green smoke rose from the furnace and was continuously coiled in the three-foot-high air, intertwined into a blossoming cloud.

Strange sights, mysterious lights and mists, lush clouds, set off the extraordinary contents of the furnace.

Talent potion is done!

Qin Tiange held back his excitement and looked at the complete fusion of the liquid in the furnace, which was the successful preparation of the natural medicine.

This thing is very precious, the effect is powerful, it is not like a human product. It is rumored that talent potions can develop a person's ancient sleepy genetic abilities and talent awaken.

Taking a potion of medicaments is like a natural awakening of a person's gifted abilities, without any sequelae.

"It's finally done, hey, don't know what kind of talents I can awaken?"

Qin Tiange smiled a few times, rubbed his hands, and excitedly took out the natural medicine in the furnace and was ready to take it.

Instead of taking it on the spot, he closed the furnace and stopped in front of a natural pool in the cave.

This is a cold spring pool, with huge stalactites hanging from the top, ticking off a little bit of water droplets, crystal clear, with a touch of aura.

Qin Tiange first took out a green test tube and dripped two drops of turquoise liquid into a three-meter-wide pond.

Suddenly, the entire pond boiled and turned into a pale green liquid, full of powerful and powerful life force.

"Okay!"

Qin Tiange nodded with satisfaction, quickly took off his body armor and clothes, placed the halberd by the pool, and the ancient sword stood in the pool in case of accident.

Barely in the body, Qin Tiange slowly stepped into the cold spring pool and sat quietly to adjust his body and mind, recovering a trace of exhaustion.

Five minutes later, Jingqi Shen was adjusted. Qin Tiange picked up the container full of natural medicine and drank his head.

After a few grunts, all the talented medicinal solution was drunk by him, leaving nothing left.

The entrance of the talent medicinal solution instantly turned into a mysterious energy, part of which was scattered among the limbs, and integrated into the gene chain of each part of the body.

The biggest part flooded into the brain. There was a mysterious pineal gland, which is the degenerated pineal gland of human beings. It is rumored to belong to the human forbidden area, and the third eye.

boom!

Through inward consciousness, Qin Tiange saw the mysterious and immense energy rushing up and about to pour into the mysterious pineal cone.

He couldn't help but be excited, as long as the mysterious energy poured into the pineal gland, it would inevitably inspire the ancient talents inside and awaken the powerful talents.

Qin Tiange looked forward to wondering what kind of ability he could awaken. This is what everyone wants to know.

Huh!

But at this moment, an accident happened, and before the mysterious energy poured into the pineal gland, it was swallowed up by a mysterious silver mang.

Sudden changes caused Qin Tiange's consciousness to tremble, dumbfounded, and confused.

"What's going on?" Qin Tiange was surprised, seeing in his consciousness, a mysterious silver light suddenly flowed out, caught the energy and ran away.

His consciousness shook, and he quickly chased along this Yinmang, only to see that it was a silver light from his left eye, extremely mysterious, showing an endless force of vastness.

Mysterious, great, unpredictable, untouchable!

At this time, Qin Tiange's left eye suddenly bloomed a faint silver awn, and the strangeness originally hidden was completely exposed.

It was a whole body of silver eyeballs, without any trace of variegated, only eternal silver and white, revealing the ancient and vast, eternal mysterious atmosphere.

The left eye suddenly awakened by itself, and a gush of Yinmang rolled up the talent medicinal solution directly into the left eye, and then disappeared.

All the talented medicinal liquids were completely swallowed up by the left eye, leaving nothing left.

"Woo, what do you want?"

In his consciousness, Qin Tiange's ideas roared wildly. Unfortunately, the left eye did not move at all, and directly swallowed the mysterious energy of those natural medicines.

Just as he was furious, he suddenly felt a severe pain coming from his left eye, which instantly drowned his consciousness, and his consciousness showed some signs of collapse.

"Ah ..." Outside, Qin Tiange screamed and fell suddenly into the spring pond, lying quietly motionless.

His consciousness was blurred, as if he was in the endless and terrible silver tide, constantly floating up and down, purposeless and endless.

Sudden changes, the left eye mutated, and after swallowing that talent medicinal solution, there was an inexplicable mysterious transformation.

I saw that Qin Tiange, who had been in a coma, opened his left eye autonomously, his right eye was still closed, but his left eye opened.

In the left eye, the endless silver is raging, as if there is a silver endless ocean in the eyes, roaring and shouting constantly.

The terrible coercion slowly emerged, and the air around stopped inexplicably, but soon returned to normal, coming and going as fast as possible.

As the eyes no longer sent out that terrible coercion, Yinmang gradually converged, and there seemed to be a more vague and ancient breath in the eyes, with unique charm and eternity.

Just as Qin Tiange was in a coma, an underground current surged suddenly in the underground dark river in the cave next to it, and the water spray gradually rolled.

Wow ...

A behemoth quietly emerged from the water, and emerged from the cold and dark underground river, revealing that huge and sloppy head.

The two eyes are like a washbasin. The green eyes are very sultry, and they are staring at the unconscious Qin Tiange through a cold bloodthirsty and brutal light.

This is a scary creature. It is an ancient species called rong (yuan). It is pink and fluffy, and the skin has a thin pink dragon scale.

It slowly climbed up. Its body was twelve meters long and very large. It was slowly approaching Qin Tiange himself who was sleeping.

I was surprised that the mutant overlord suddenly opened his mouth, and his tongue flashed toward Qin Tiange like lightning, and he was about to be taken into the mouth.

Huh!

At this moment, the left eye 芒 issued a bright silver awn, instantly covering the body of that Overlord 蝾 螈, and suddenly, Overlord 蝾 螈 paused there strangely.

The huge tongue is only three centimeters away from Qin Tiange. The sticky liquid cannot escape if it is caught in the mouth.

Strangely, this overlord cricket stopped there, as if stiff, surprising.

Zitz ...

A more weird scene appeared, with a ray of silver light blooming in the left eye, mysterious, and gradually, the tyrant's body began to age, gradually decayed and dried up, and finally turned into a touch of powder and gently float Fall apart.

Died, the twelve-meter-long mutant overlord tadpole died inexplicably, and the death was strange, and I didn't know why.

The weird left eye, the inexplicable power, completely destroyed an overlord like this, and the mysterious power was daunting.

The eyeball gradually returned to normal, the silvery white light was hidden, and no abnormalities could be seen anymore, followed by Qin Tiange slowly waking up.

“Well ... what happened to me?”

Not long after, Qin Tiange woke up and found that he was lying in a spring pond with a swollen head. Fortunately, he was a super brain, and soon returned to normal, completely awake.

After Qin Tiange was awake, his face was iron blue and extremely ugly. He remembered that after taking the talent potion, he was looking forward to what talent ability could be awakened, and was robbed by a robber.

Yes, in his opinion, the weird left eye was a robber, who robbed him of the potion he had hardly formulated.

“Oh, you robbed me of my talent medicinal solution and destroyed my awakening talent?” Qin Tiange looked grim, took out a mirror, and stared at his left eye.

It was this weird eyeball that suddenly swept away all the talented medicinal solutions, causing Qin Tiange’s awakening talent to fail. There was no talented medicinal solution left at all.

This made him want to cry without tears, and how he encountered such a bad thing is simply terrible.

“唉 Forget it, sometimes life must be there. Maybe, this eye will make me more powerful?” Qin Tiange soon wanted to open it.

He mumbled to his feet, not knowing at all, only then had a twelve-meter-long mutant overlord dying to swallow him, and he died inexplicably.

Qin Tiange cleared his mood, walked out of the fountain, dressed his clothes and armor, and took the ancient sword and halberd out of this ancient cave.

This time, the refining of the medicine was a failure, because something changed during the taking, and the talent medicine was swallowed up by the weird left eye.

With a hint of depression, Qin Tiange was about to leave the cave, but at this moment, an extremely amazing cry came from the depths of the cave, coming from a distance, like a howl.

The weird cry came from a long time ago!

“What’s this?”

Qin Tiange was surprised, looking at the depth of the cave, thinking about turning immediately, and walking into the depth of the cave along the fence created by artificial excavation.

Chapter 355 - Blue tiger tiger salamander

In the depths of the cave, a loud tweet came, echoing with the sound of flapping water.

In the darkness, Qin Tiange climbed a rock staircase and reached the deepest level of the cave along the stone wall.

In the dark river, the water waves are wavy, and there is a huge thing swimming there, and it is cheerful to sprinkle, it looks very happy.

Through the darkness, Qin Tiange quietly looked down. There was a creature in the water playing with water.

Eighteen meters long, the largest part of the body can be three meters thick, with fish heads and snake tails, thick limbs, and sharp claws. Rocks that are caught are broken like tofu.

This giant creature's body is very smooth, without scales. Instead, it has strange cyan markings. It looks extremely mysterious, with a tinge of blue light, which is extremely dazzling.

“Blue-stripe tiger owl?” When seeing this creature, Qin Tiange flashed a message in his heart and recognized the origin of the creature.

It is exactly the murderous thing once recorded in the Shan Hai Jing, the tiger owl, whose body is smooth and has cyan shining streaks.

The tiger's head has a fish's head, full of fangs, and two beards swaying constantly in the water, but its tail is a snake's tail, which is extremely slender and sharp.

The blue-striped tiger salamander is an ancient creature, non-fish and snake, extremely ferocious. The meat of tiger salamander has great medicinal value. People who eat it can live without disease, prolong their life, strengthen their muscles and bones, and have many effects.

Qin Tiange felt secretly pleased. I didn't expect to encounter a blue-striped tiger owl here. Look at the blue stripes on his body, each of which represents the age of the tiger owl.

There are more than five hundred dense green patches on this tiger owl, which proves that it has lived for more than five hundred years.

The tiger salamander who has lived for more than 500 years is definitely the best in the world. Its flesh and blood contains extremely powerful medicinal properties.

With the advent of the end, these ancient creatures, which were originally degenerating, have quietly emerged from all corners, and the genes have once again recovered, becoming those powerful and ancient creatures.

“There is an entrance to the dark river below. How can you kill yourself in a single blow and prevent this blue-striped tiger owl from having a chance to escape?”

On the rock wall, Qin Tiange quietly concealed his breath, and secretly thought about  this blue-stripe tiger cricket with a single blow.

The blue-striped tiger owl who has lived for five hundred years is full of treasures, and Qin Tiange naturally does not want to let go. If he knows that there is another overlord  who originally wanted to eat him, and then somehow turned into ashes, I do n't know how bad it would be.

啾 ... 啾!

In the water, the blue-striped tiger owl suddenly made a vigilant cry, as if something had been sensed, and immediately became aware that two lantern-like eyes swept through the cave.

Finally, when its eyes moved to Qin Tiange's location, a dark shadow moved, and it struck instantly, and Euphorbia slammed heavily on the head of the blue-striped tiger.

boom!

With a loud noise, the waves were soaring, and the dark river was lifted into a large splash, and turned into a water curtain.

The blue-crested tiger owl screamed, wailed, and was snored by sudden changes.

It shouted sharply, and the sharp thorns at the tail swept fiercely, banging, hitting the rock of the stone wall, and it was torn apart on the spot.

“Dead!”

Qin Tiange drank, twirled his body, stepped on a stalactite, and rushed to the blue-stripe tiger owl with his strength.

The halberd buzzed, and a crescent of crescent bloomed, killing and killing, and stabbed into the underarm of that blue-stripe tiger's neck like lightning.

Hiss ... oh!

The blue-striped tiger wailed, screaming again and again, and its huge body rolled wildly in the water, overturning the dark river.

Qin Tiange succeeded in a single blow and had no time to think about it. The ancient sword was scabbard out of the waist and turned into a li mang into the Tianling cover of the blue-striped tiger.

Hearing only a click, the blue-striped tiger owl finally suffered a fatal blow, and wailed and fell into the dark river, motionless.

“Huh ... it's finally done.” Qin Tiange sighed with relief.

This blue-striped tiger owl is extremely powerful. At least it already has the power of six stars, and because it has awakened the originally degenerate ancient genes, it has obtained incredible changes.

If it wasn't for Qin Tiange's sudden attack and his own arrogance, then this blue-striped tiger owl was killed in several onslaughts.

It is extremely rare for the blue-striped tiger salamander that has lived for five hundred years to live. If it were to live for a thousand years, it would evolve into a more terrible beast.

Hehe!

Qin Tiange laughed twice and jumped ashore, dragging the tail of the blue-striped tiger salamander to drag the huge tiger salamander body directly to the shore.

The giant tiger salamander is strong and has a head and body like fish, but its tail is a snake's tail with sharp spikes.

Especially the limbs, sharp claws, and rocks are easily broken, and I have to say that the tiger salamander is an extremely scary creature.

It is a pity that after living for five hundred years, he has awakened the ancient genes and restored some abilities as a tiger salamander. In the end, he could not escape Qin Tiange's slaughter.

After collecting the corpse of the tiger with blue stripes, Qin Tiange walked back contentedly and left the cave.

The harvest was good this time. I encountered a tiger salamander that lived for five hundred years. It was an ancient creature living in a dark river under the ground, but ran up and lost his life.

Five hundred-year-old tiger meat, which is a big tonic, contains huge medicinal power, Qin Tiange thought about preparing some herbs and boil a big tonic soup.

“Tiger’s blood is used in medicine, tiger’s gall is brewing wine, tiger’s bones are boiled in a pot, and the world is superb and delicious.”

Qin Tiange whispered in his heart as he walked, thinking about how to deal with the body of this blue-striped tiger owl, thinking about how to eat the best.

In addition, there is a strange bead in the tiger’s chest. It looks like a dragon ball, but it is not a dragon ball, but a bead.

The so-called bead is a magical bead born in the ancient organism of the genus Pterosaur. It contains a huge amount of dark energy and is a rare treasure.

“What are you going to do?” Qin Tiange held a basketball-sized bead in his palm. The whole body was dark red, and there was a burning atmosphere inside.

This is the blue-striped tiger’s bead, which is very hot and hot, like a burning bead, very magical.

Even more amazing is the hidden shadow of a tiger owl hovering in this bead. The crazy growl growled and looked very angry.

“Leave it for the White Tiger to eat, just to make it enter the five-star, maybe he can enter the six-star. Maybe Qin Tiange quickly thought of how to deal with it.

He decided to give the tiger’s bead to White Tiger and eat it, which might bring unexpected effects to White Tiger.

After leaving Lingyan Cave, Qin Tiangema kept running and ran all the way, constantly rushing through the mountains and forests.

He was going to a place where there was an opportunity, and that was the news of someone heard in previous lives.

After working for a long time, Qin Tiange had to stop and was ready to find a place to rest one night before going on the road.

Soon, he found a small village that had been ruined, and found an unspoiled house to live in.

“Boil a pot of tiger meat before eating.”

In the room, after Qin Tiange checked that there was no danger, he felt his belly I felt a little hungry, and started directly. He had to boil a pot of tiger meat to eat.

Qin Tiange first cut off a tiger claw's front paw. The whole was cut into dozens of pieces, all thrown into the prepared iron pot and boiled.

During this time, he kept adding various kinds of Dabu Lingcai, medicinal materials, ingredients, and so on. After one hour, a pot of fragrant tiger soup Dabu soup was completed.

“Xiang, the real world is superb, it is delicious.”

Qin Tiange ate and ate special food, admired while eating, never eat such a good food, five hundred years of tiger meat, really bite when they bite.

A large pot of tiger meat was quickly simmered by him. He was about to drink some soup and stopped suddenly.

Ok?

Qin Tiange put down the chopsticks, stood up directly, leaned on the edge of the window and quietly looked out. Through the deep night, he saw a trace of movement in the distance.

Under the night, a huge figure stood on top of the mountain. Through the hazy moonlight, it was seen that it was roaring at the moon.

Chapter 356 - Absorb the Essence of the Moon

A mountain in the distance, above a peak, is a figure standing proudly, roaring at the moon.

Uh ...!

The roar was long and long, showing a fierce, terrifying wildness, shaking the sky.

Vaguely visible, the figure was extremely burly, the three-meter-high body stood proudly on the top of the mountain, and after snarling for a while, suddenly vomited to the moon.

What's even more amazing is that the dim moonlight on the sky has gradually condensed, a little bit of moonlight flickers and converges, and drifts into the figure's mouth.

A hazy moonlight was falling, shining on the three-meter-high figure, set off a hazy mysterious breath, it was absorbing the essence of the moon.

“Absorb the essence of the moon?”

surprise! surprise!

Qin Tiange was taken aback. The figure on the top of the mountain was absorbing the essence of the moon. It was incredible and incredible!

What creature can absorb the essence of the moon, draw a misty moonlight from the sky, and a bit of the cold moonlight is swallowed by it.

Under the illumination of Yuehua, the three-meter-high figure seemed hazy and mysterious, and the fine scale armor was a little silvery.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange picked up the good stuff, immediately jumped out of the window, and ran directly into the mountains in the distance.

He was going to see what it was that was able to absorb the essence of the moon, and it was definitely a rare creature.

Qin Tiange thought that who could absorb the essence of the moon might be a wolf demon or another powerful and refined creature.

Taking advantage of the cover of the night, Qin Tiange's figure quickly shuttled between the mountains, and soon approached that peak, stopped on the top of a mountain not far away, and quietly hidden.

He looked up and saw a three-meter-high figure through the night, covered with dense silver dragon scales, and his hands were thick, like two dragon claws.

The most amazing thing is that behind the figure, there are a pair of silver wings, a little golden streaks spread and twinkled, and a bright golden light.

“Silver-winged flying corpse?” Qin Tiange looked dignified, looking at the creature that was absorbing the essence of the moon.

It is a zombie, a special zombie after evolution and mutation. It can fly, known as the silver-winged flying corpse, also known as the silver-winged yak.

The silver-winged flying corpse is extremely powerful, with a minimum of six stars, and the silver-winged flying corpse in front of him is exactly six-stars, ready to be promoted to seven-stars.

Unexpectedly, I would encounter a silver-winged flying corpse here, and actually absorbed the essence of the moon to evolve and improve myself, it was hard to believe.

“How can there be a silver-winged flying corpse here?” Qin Tiange frowned, thinking secretly.

Generally speaking, after a zombie evolves into a five-star super zombie, the evolution rate will slow down, and it will not even be promoted for life.

Qin Tiange suspected that this silver-winged flying corpse must have eaten something so much that it would transform into this, and even absorb the essence of the moon to evolve and transform itself.

Some powerful zombies inadvertently devour some timeless treasures or peerless spirits, and they will produce wonderful transformations, such as the silver-winged flying corpses in front of them.

This kind of zombies can fly, known as flying yaksha, is extremely powerful, and has incredible abilities, scarce in number and extremely difficult to kill.

From the memory of previous lives, I only heard of a silver-winged flying corpse, but I don't know if it was hunted or killed. I never heard of it.

Unexpectedly, when a silver-winged flying corpse was encountered here, Qin Tiange was surprised at first, and then gradually showed a touch of joy.

The silver-winged flying corpse can absorb the essence of the moon and evolve itself. If the silver-winged wing behind becomes the golden-winged wing completely, it is the powerful ten-star golden-winged yaksha.

At that time, this golden-winged yak can absorb the essence of the sun, the sun and the moon are shining together, the yin and yang are in harmony, and the corpse king becomes horror.

“The nucleus in the body of the silver-winged yak has transformed into the crystal of the moon, and there is an endless essence of the moonlight, which can be absorbed.” Qin Tiange flashed this thought in his heart.

This is the reason for his excitement. If this silver-winged flying corpse can be killed, then the metamorphic crystal nucleus in it can be obtained, which is the crystal of the moon, which has a strong connotation of the essence of Yuehua.

If the essence of Yuehua is absorbed, it will have ineffable benefits for the evolution and strength of the body, and even in the future, it will have the opportunity to absorb the essence of Day.

Despite his excitement, Qin Tiange tried his best to hide his body and even his breath, and did not want to alarm the six-star silver-winged flying corpse.

Once you start, you must make the silver-winged flying corpse unable to escape, otherwise it will be difficult to kill it once it flew away.

Qin Tiange couldn't fly, so he couldn't catch up with it naturally, so be careful, you must hit a pair of silver wings with a single blow, or even cut down one silver wing.

His face was quiet, and he quietly put away the halberd, holding the ancient sword, and approached the mountain over there quietly.

call...

Above the mountain, the silver-winged flying corpse closed its eyes to the sky, opened its mouth to vomit, and a mist of moonlight fell down, condensed into a little essence and sucked into its mouth.

The essence of the sun and the moon is a legendary scene. I didn't expect to encounter it now, or it is a mutated and evolved silver-winged flying corpse.

It is rumored that once the zombie can absorb the essence of the moon, it can no longer be regarded as a zombie, but another form, rigid!

Zombies, flying zombies, and silver-winged yaksha, with the wisdom of human beings, are already a brand new life form, not comparable to those of zombies.

Quietly approaching, silently, Qin Tiange came to this silver-winged flying corpse less than ten meters away.

His face was deep and condensed, and his breath condensed to the apex. He slowly held the sword handle and launched a surprise attack.

Huh!

A whisper came out, the killings skyrocketed, awakened the silver-winged flying corpse that was absorbing Yuehua, and the instinctual flapping wings were flying high.

But the back of the sword was too fast, and it passed a silver wing to its left, cut off a piece of hard flesh, and a little silver blood splattered out.

A sword raided the silver-winged flying corpse, but unfortunately, the flying corpse was not slow, the alertness was not bad, and the response was rapid, almost fluttering into the sky at the moment of his sword, avoiding a disaster.

Huh!

In the sky, the silver-winged flying corpse opened his mouth and roared, and a pair of silver pupils stared at the figure appearing on the top of the mountain. It was Qin Tiange.

It was so angry that it absorbed the essence of the moon well, and was even interrupted, and even raided it, slashing one of its silver wings.

Fortunately, I had to hide quickly, or the silver wings had been cut off just now, so don't even think about flying high.

“Human, you are looking for death!”

Silver-winged corpse opened his mouth and growled, roaring out of this sentence, and looked strangely angry. It is naturally very angry. It was interrupted to absorb Yuehua cultivation, and a large piece of flesh on the left silver wing was cut off by the opponent with a sword. How can it not be angry?

“Trouble!” Qin Tiange scolded, and had to lament the vigilance and reaction speed of this silver-winged flying corpse. It is indeed a six-star silver-winged flying corpse.

At this time, the silver-winged flying corpse constantly flapped its wings and floated in the air, overlooking Qin Tiange from the top, and a moonlight sprinkled on the sky, making it even more mysterious.

“Roar ... I ate you!”

Suddenly, the silver-winged flying corpse moved, the silver-winged quake, and the body disappeared into the air.

Qin Tiange looked cold. Suddenly he pulled his sword across the void on the left and snored. The ancient sword hit a sharp dragon claw.

It was a silver-winged flying corpse. It suddenly came to the left, and a dragon claw probed over it, but was blocked by Qin Tiange.

“kill!”

The two exploded almost at the same time. The speed was as fast as lightning.

The speed of Silver Wing Yasha is extremely terrifying Pulling out a residual image staying in the air, and finally turning into a large silver light, completely covering Qin Tiange.

In the light curtain, Qin Tiange responded calmly, and the ancient sword swelled, constantly turning out a series of horrible sword awns and striking bursts of sparks.

He is also not slow, but with a static brake, the ancient sword in his hands is transformed into a series of sword awns intertwined around the body, constantly colliding with two dragon claws and fighting.

Uh ...

On the top of the mountain, there were endless ears, sparks splattered, and silhouettes flickered by, and saw huge mountain stones cut in half inexplicably, and even some of them suddenly disintegrated into pieces and fell down the mountain.

Roar!

“Human, you die!”

At first glance, a silver figure appeared in the sky, a roar of mouth opened, and a whole group of silver radiance rose up, like a boiling flame.

Surprisingly, the silver-winged flying corpse was wrapped in endless silver flames, swooping down with a mighty potential, as if a meteor meteorite hit it.

Chapter 357 - Powerful and scary!

With a bang, the mountain peak collapsed in half, set off a billowing smoke and dust, the rubble penetrated, and was burned to a ash by a silver flame.

Qin Tiange rushed out, his figure was a little embarrassed, and his eyes were dignified.

He stood on the edge of the mountain, looking at the silver-winged flying corpse floating in the air in front of him, his sword-shaking hand was slightly trembling, and the ancient sword was soft.

The fierce battle of the just made him understand the strength of the silver-winged flying corpse in front of him, which was extremely scary.

“The power of one hundred and eighty-eight people is powerful, terrifying, and worthy of being a silver-winged flying corpse.” Qin Tiange looked serious and muttered to himself.

During the fierce battle, he felt the terrible strength of Silver Wing Flying Corpse, which was full of 1,898 people, which was quite terrible.

The six-star silver-winged flying corpse has far more power than Qin Tiange, who is 800 people at the moment.

Moreover, the most terrible thing was the silver-winged flying corpse, capable of spitting silver flames, with horrible corrosive power and blazing high temperature, and its lethality was terrifying.

Had it not been for the mysterious flames of Cang Yan and Black Flame, he might have been hit by the blow just now.

Qin Tiange was fortunate. Fortunately, he had previously cooked the flesh with divine medicine, and only barely supported it with the strength of the flesh.

“It seems that you can’t really fight this scary silver-winged flying corpse without Kirin changing his cards.” He thought in his mind.

Qin Tiange knows that if he doesn’t use Qilin to change his hole cards, he can’t compete with this silver-winged flying corpse, and he really looked down on the other side.

“Roar, human, you have this strength, even came to attack me, it seems that you will be my dinner today.” The silver-winged flying corpse growled, showing a wry smile.

It can understand Qin Tiange's strength. The strength of only 800 people is more than doubled compared to him, which makes him completely relieved.

"Huh, are you so confident?" Qin Tiange's mouth sneered, his eyes were blooming with two bunches of cold mans, and his body was clear.

"Kirin changes!" I heard a low drink, and was surprised to see that Qin Tiange's body burst into black flames, burning with flames, covering the body.

Suddenly, he became different, old and vast, showing a fierce atmosphere, which belongs to Kirin.

The unicorn change is currently Qin Tiange's biggest hole card. In the face of the powerful silver-winged flying corpse, he has to use this hole card.

Roar!

With a roar, shaking the sky, Qin Tiange's eyes flickered with a little black light, and a dark black scale on his forehead flickered endlessly, and the unicorn became complete.

At this moment, the power of eight hundred people suddenly skyrocketed, more than doubling directly, and a force of more than 1,600 people burst out.

Although it is a little worse than the silver-winged flying corpse, Qin Tiange's fighting power is not necessarily weak, so the strength of the two is actually half a catty.

"kill!"

The silver-winged flying corpse was furious and looked at Qin Tiange, who suddenly changed his momentum. He immediately swooped down and continued to kill.

On the edge of the cliff, Qin Tiange was as calm as an ancient mountain, holding the handle of the sword and snoring, the ancient sword continued to attack.

Ding Dong's crisp sound came, Jianming bursts, and the sparks continued to splash down, appearing particularly dazzling in the night.

The two powerful players did their best, and Silverwing Flying Corpse was shocked, and finally realized that Qin Tiange had the strength that was not weaker than it.

Huh!

Roar!

The two roared, shaking in all directions, and the whole mountain collapsed under the collision of the two, forming a landslide.

Qin Tiange's body emptied, a cloud of clouds supported his body, and people flew across the air quickly.

His ancient sword swept across the sky, drawing a icy arc, and violently collided with a terrible dragon claw, colliding with each other's strength, and constantly interweaving.

The silver-winged flying corpse whistled in the sky, leading to bursts of moonlight, and turned into a silver flame, which swept in all directions and corrupted everything.

Yin Yan swept through, Cang Yan rumbled, two terrible flames collided with each other, and they both disappeared into the air.

“Sword of the Overlord!”

Suddenly, in the fierce battle, the figures of Qin Tiange staggered, stepped on the void, stepped on a black auspicious cloud, turned back and held up the ancient sword, and utterly fell off.

The invisible strength gathered, the overbearing breath opened up, and the overbearing sword belonged to him took the body of the silver-winged flying corpse straight.

Huh!

I was shocked to see the silver-winged flying corpse lifted its two claws and slammed hard, a slap, and a swordsman in front was broken.

However, its two claws broke off two sharp claws, the blood splattered, a little silver ray penetrated, and was injured.

The silver-winged flying corpse quickly flinched and backed, looking at its hands that turned into dragon claws, and it was incredible that it had cut off a quarter of its fingers.

“Ah ... hypocrite!” It growled, snarled, and lifted the surrounding rocks and trees.

That terrible power shook the Quartet, causing a great mountain tremor. Unfortunately, Qin Tiange, who was unable to shake the other side, could not move like a mountain and stepped on the auspicious cloud. He could stand up in the air for a short time, which is very magical.

This is the unicorn change, stepping on the clouds, flying soaring, of course, Qin Tiange can't do so now.

You can only step on the void with the help of Xiangyun, and it's not easy to walk on the void for a long time.

Hum!

Suddenly, Qin Tiange took out a battle bow and turned it into a full moon. The sharp arrows screamed away and turned into an arrow and straightened out the brows of the silver-winged flying corpse.

That is a weakness of it. There is a pale golden scale on the center of the brows of the silver-winged flying corpse, which is a counter-growth scale, like a dragon's counter-scale, to defend the weak points.

Roar!

The silver-winged flying corpse roared, and the dragon claws were placed on the center of the eyebrows, and it clanged and grasped the arrow that came through the air, crushing it and throwing it away.

But at this moment, three gurgling whistling sounds came, and three sharp arrows continued to penetrate the air, killing them immediately.

Hearing only a whistle, the silver-winged flying corpse waved its two claws and broke two sharp arrows, but it couldn't stop the third arrow.

The arrow screamed, pierced through its left shoulder, and pierced through the body. The strong impact force tore its silver scale armor, pierced the flesh, and pierced through the body from behind.

“Yeah ... roar!” The silver-winged flying corpse roared and was severely wounded. Seeing Qin Tiange once again pull his bow and build it, three sturdy burrows came through, and he had to flutter his wings so high that he avoided the sharp arrows.

“Human beings, you wait for me.”

The silver-winged flying corpse finally retreated, and the opponent could compete with it, and the sword was so good that it hurt his body, was broken, and immediately repelled.

Seeing it flapping its wings and flying high, Qin Tiange's complexion changed slightly, and his battle bow collapsed, and three blazes quickly passed through, pointing directly at the back of the silver-winged corpse and the back of the brain.

Ding Dingding made three crisp sounds, the silver wings blocked the three arrows, and the golden golden streaks exuded a mysterious golden light, which blocked it.

However, the silver-winged flying corpse suffered a huge impact, the corners of his mouth were bleeding, and a few silver awns flickered. He turned and glared at Qin Tiange.

Huh!

After making an extremely angry roar, the silver-winged flying corpse fluttered, disappeared in a blink of an eye, and left directly.

“Want to run?” Qin Tiange drank, how could he let go of the silver-winged flying corpse, step out of the air, and step on Xiangyun to quickly chase him down.

After all, I encountered a silver-winged flying corpse, and it was comparable to myself. Whether it was fierce fighting or beheading, it had a huge effect on myself.

When you meet an opponent with a good fanfare, you can continuously improve your combat skills and abilities in fierce battles, and you are familiar with the use of your own abilities. How can you miss it?

Moreover, the silver-winged flying corpse is extremely rare, and it is no longer a zombie. The crystal nucleus in his head has transformed into a treasure that allows him to peep, and naturally cannot be missed.

These two are enough for Qin Tiange to keep up with his perseverance, explode the maximum speed, and chase the silver-winged flying corpse flying in front of him.

call out!

Far away, an arrow mang roared, and the silver-winged flying corpse exploded with scales. When he turned around, he discovered that Qin Tiange had caught up.

“Well ... you humans, you die!”

It smashed the arrow mang angrily, and then opened his mouth, spouting an endless silver flame, and a blast of blast.

Silver flames passed by, the earth roared, the trees collapsed into fly ash, and the rocks were corroded into a dark green liquid, emitting white smoke.

The silver-winged flying corpse is powerful, its mouth is open, and everything it passes is turned into scorched earth, which is extremely scary. Qin Tiange quickly dodged, and the ancient sword was stubbornly chopping out swords and smashing the tumbling silver flame.

There, the silver-winged flying corpse roared, turned and fluttered, the speed became faster, and turned into a silver awn across the sky.

“Hum, when do you think you can run?”

In the back, Qin Tiange snorted softly, his face was somber, his body turned black, and he turned into a cloud that continued to support him to step on the void and continue to run away.

boom!

However, Qin Tiange’s feet shattered and couldn’t keep it. He had to fall and step on the top of the treetop to continue to catch up.

Chapter 358 - Hunting Silver Winged Corpse

In the night, two figures flashed across the night sky like lightning. A silver awn on the sky was extremely fast, letting the shooting star cross the darkness.

On the ground and above the treetops, Qin Tiange continued to take off and leap into the air, speeding at full speed, and the power burst out of control.

boom!

The two strong men fled and chased each other, stopping from time to time and colliding fiercely. After a fierce battle, the silver-winged flying corpse fled again.

It can fly, and it’s fast. Although Qin Tiange can’t fly, it’s a little faster than it is, and it’s hard to get rid of.

call out!

I was surprised to see that a fierce blast broke through the back of the fleeing silver-winged flying corpse, with a sharp edge and a powerful killer.

“Roar ...” The Silver-winged Flying Corpse turned back and roared, slamming its claws fiercely, and smashing and breaking the arrows.

Although the arrow was blocked, it was chased up by Qin Tiange, his body emptied, and Xiangyun stepped on it.

Gu Jian swept across his neck with a touch of silver blood, and a shallow mark was cut across the neck of the silver-winged flying corpse.

“Miscellaneous account, I have no injustice with you, why can't I chase after death?” The silver-winged flying corpse was furious, his eyes silvery and bright, almost spitting fire.

In fact, it has no hatred and holiday with Qin Tiange, but it seems to forget that it is a zombie, Qin Tiange is a human, it is difficult to become friends between them, and 99% are deadly enemies.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange was expressionless, sighed coldly, the ancient sword cut through the night sky, sharp edge, revealing the murderous power.

However, the silver-winged flying corpse was not covered, it was extremely fast, the wings flew into the air, and the higher it flew, the higher it even rushed directly above the clouds.

Under the hazy moonlight, this silver-winged Yasha did not dare to land, but instead escaped quickly hiding in the clouds.

“Thinking that you can run away by hiding in the clouds?” Qin Tiange snorted, landed with his sword, and blasted away at full speed.

One constantly fluttered and fluttered in the sky and clouds, rolling endless clouds and mists, sliding out a huge cloud of smoke and mist.

With Qin Tiange's eyesight, the trace of the silver-winged flying corpse was captured naturally and clearly, and it flew in any direction and was chased by him.

collapse!

Suddenly, Qin Tiange leapt to a mountain peak, drew his bow and shot the moon, with a blast, three sharp arrows whistled through the sky, and pierced the body of the silver-winged flying corpse through the clouds.

Dingding twice, two sharp arrows were broken, but the last one pierced into one of its wings fiercely, taking up a bit of blood.

Alas ... Above the clouds, the fierce roar of the silver-winged flying corpse came, shaking the sky, and the clouds scattered.

It hung high in the void like this, with a big moon over its head, the hazy moonlight dripping down, covering its body a little, and the injury was quickly repairing.

“Human, I remember you.” The silver-winged corpse snarled coldly, looking extremely angry, and was chased and killed by this guy all the way, and it was naturally angry when it hurt several times.

On the ground, Qin Tiange's face was cold, his battle bow turned into a full moon, and three sharp arrows roared through the air, straight into the clouds.

Roar!

The silver-winged flying corpse screamed, flickered, and continued to pass through the clouds, quickly escaping to the distance, and behind it, Qin Tiange pursued.

He wanted to get rid of the silver-winged flying corpse and obtain the moon crystal in it, which was of great benefit to him.

You can even use this moon crystal to absorb the essence of the sun and the moon. This is an incredible good thing. How can you miss it?

“Don’t run, come down and fight with me for three hundred rounds.”

On the ground, Qin Tiange screamed and shouted a unicorn roar, shaking all directions, shocking a large mountain forest, causing panic of countless mutant creatures.

The power of the unicorn, born with coercion, the coercion of higher species, has caused great psychological pressure on many mutant organisms.

“Damn, why is this human so strong?” The silver wings of the flying corpse desperately reached the extreme speed, but still could not escape Qin Tiange’s tracking.

Even if it is hiding in the clouds, it is locked and chasing it firmly, it is impossible to get rid of this human.

Moreover, as Qin Tiange chased him, he occasionally drew his bow and fired an arrow, and several times injured the body of the silver-winged flying corpse. Although it was not heavy, it was definitely not a good thing.

Now when I hear it, this guy actually made it stop to kill, it was just delusion, and it was not stupid. How could he be willing to work hard with Qin Tiange?

“Humans are stupid, so are you stupid.”

The silver-winged corpse roared, and his voice dropped from a high altitude. Qin Tiange heard it naturally, but didn’t care.

With a sneer on his face, twinkles of silver in his eyes flashed through the darkness and clouds, firmly locking the silver-winged flying corpse.

In this way, after chasing and escaping, Qin Tiange hunted from late at night to Tianming, and the sun rose from the east.

After chasing and killing for a whole night, the silver-winged flying corpses felt exhausted, and the * chased all night.

“Ah ... abominable human ...”

In the sky, among the golden clouds, the silver-winged flying corpse roared wildly, dispersing the surrounding clouds, galloping all the way, rolling in all directions.

It flees desperately, ignores it at all, and doesn’t even have any idea of staying, it just wants to get rid of this * human as soon as possible.

“Grandma, it can fly!”

On the ground, Qin Tiange chased a little panting, watching the silver-winged flying corpse fluttering in the sky, and couldn’t help scolding.

They had been chasing and killing for a night, and they even ran, and shot each other several times, but they were all absorbed by Silverwing Flying Corpse and Yuehua recovered.

But now it's different. As the moon goes down and the morning glow emerges, a big red sun rises in the east. The glowing light makes the silver-winged corpses a little uncomfortable.

Why not? That's because it absorbs the essence of the moon, the moonlight belongs to yin, and the light of the big sun belongs to Zhigang Zhiyang.

If it does not absorb the essence of the moon, it is definitely not affected by the sun. Unfortunately, it has not absorbed the essence of the moon, and it is still not affected to the extent that it can absorb the essence of the great sun. It is still much slower.

“good chance!”

Qin Tiange looked ecstatic, and caught the silver-winged flying corpse at a much slower speed. He immediately pulled his bow and set an arrow, and three sharp arrows shot directly into the sky.

Huh!

The three arrows soared into the sky, penetrating the clouds, and approached the silver-winged flying corpse that fluttered wildly, showing a triple shape, locking its hind heart, hind brain, and neck.

Feeling the threat from the ground behind, the wings of the silver winged corpse trembled, and the silver awns turned around and wrapped around the body.

Ding Dong made three crisp sounds, the arrow mang was blocked, the steel arrow broke apart, and the silver-winged flying corpse opened its wings, and the speed was as fast as lightning, and it fled again.

While flying, while looking at the ground behind him, Qin Tiange was still chasing, and he could not help raising a violent gas.

“Hoo ... I fight with you!”

The silver-winged flying corpses were violent, and Qin Tiange stepped forward to stimulate the violent anger and fierce suffocation. He turned and fluttered his wings and dived down from high altitude.

“Good job!”

Qin Tiange gave a loud sigh, not frightened, retiring his bow, and the ancient sword in his waist turned into a sword and cut straight into the sky.

With a click, a crisp sound, the air was split into a vacuum, and the silver-winged flying corpse that swooped down opened his mouth and sprayed endless silver flames, sweeping across the ground.

The trees collapsed, the rocks collapsed, and the ground was burnt and eroded by silver flames into a piece of scorched soil, and everywhere was a blackened piece, and everything was extinct.

The silver flame of Silver Wing Flying Corpse is extremely horrible. It would be really difficult for Qin Tiange to have strong Cangyan resistance.

Groan!

Among the silver flames sweeping across the sky, an extremely crisp sword groan came out suddenly, and then Jianmang soared into the sky, suddenly splitting down the silver flame that swept down, sharp and unparalleled, pointing directly at the silver-winged flying corpse in the air.

“Ah ...” The silver-winged flying corpse tried to dodge, but was still cut by Jianmang’s arm. Half of his arm was almost cut off. Fortunately, the flesh and blood body adhered, and soon healed himself.

He was hit with a severe blow, and he was soberly scared, his anger was extinguished, his wings flew high, and he got into the clouds and staged another escape.

“Damn!”

On the ground, Qin Tiange rushed out of the scorched land with a blue complexion and looked at the silver-winged flying corpse that continued to run away. He was annoyed that he failed to cut off the opponent’s head just now.

He didn’t hesitate, catching up again and catching up, firmly locked the flying corpse through the clouds.

Even when encountering the zombies, he ignored them, stepping on the head of the corpses and flying away, only the silver-winged flying corpse was identified in his eyes.

In this way, the two chased and fled, the time passed a little, from the morning to the night, after three days and nights of continuous chasing, Qin Tiange finally appeared a little tired.

“Follow me?”

In the sky, the silver-winged flying corpse was scared. Looking at Qin Tiange who was still chasing after him, he almost passed out.

It didn’t expect that this human actually hunted it for three days and three nights, its wings were almost broken, and they were already a little numb. Flying for three days and three nights in a row, the powerful six-star silver-winged flying corpse had some top Not smooth.

“No, I must find a way to get rid of this human, he is terrible.” Yin Yi Fei Zhe thought anxiously.

It galloped through the clouds, staring down at the earth with its eyes high, and in the mountains and mountains, hiding many dangers.

“Here!”

Soon Silver-winged corpse found a way to get rid of Qin Tiange, with a smirk on his face, and watched Qin Tiange catching up from time to time.

It suddenly turned around and rushed in towards a deep mountain. Qin Tiange, seeing the spirit tremor here, flashed through at high speed and rushed into the deep mountain ahead.

Uh ...

As soon as I rushed into it, I heard an extremely fierce roar, and then there was a huge radiating radiation, and the trees around were shaking.

Before Qin Tiange could clearly see the situation in the mountains, he felt that the behemoth had been rushing head-on and madly. The speed was lightning fast and the impact was extremely horrible.

“Ha ha ha ha ... stupid human, enjoy it slowly, I'll go first.”

There was a burst of cheerful laughter in the sky. It was the silver-winged flying corpse. It looked down at Qin Tiange, sneered, flew his wings and flew into the clouds, and disappeared in a blink.

Qin Tiange looked at the cursing, but at this moment he didn't feel the mind about the silver-winged flying corpse, because the huge thing rushed in front of him slammed with horror.

Chapter 359 - Red Eyed Pig Fairy

Bang!

A loud noise shook through the mountain forest, the ancient trees collapsed, and the mountain rocks collapsed. The scene was extremely horrible, and the billowing smoke spread away.

Qin Tiange only felt hit by a huge impact, like a train, and even more horrible, hitting a large rock directly by tens of meters.

Click ...

He climbed out of the rock, looking somber, looking up at a giant creature in front of him.

Four meters high and eight meters long, the dark mane is like a thick steel needle with a huge head, two sharp and slender cavities, showing a little blood.

Those red eyes were like two lanterns, staring at Qin Tiange.

“Red-eyed pig demon?” Qin Tiange snorted, cursing a jerk.

It turned out that he was hit by a red-eyed pig demon with a huge body and a mutant boar demon who had developed consciousness.

This red-eyed pig demon has a five-star rating, is extremely powerful, and the impact is very horrible. A thousand people can erupt under the impact of that huge body.

“Humans, dare to break into the king's territory and scatter, and look for death.” The red-eyed pig demon opened his mouth and uttered this sentence, two green smoke from his nostrils.

It looked irritable and extremely angry, as if disturbed by good things. It turned out that the silver-winged flying corpse found the red-eyed pig demon and was mating with a group of sows. As a result, it killed the red-eyed pig demon with lightning.

When they were mating, they were disturbed by the silver-winged flying corpse, and immediately rushed in anger. As a result, they saw Qin Tiange and thought that it was because he had disturbed his good deeds and killed him in anger.

“Unlucky!” Qin Tiange cursed, watching a group of wild boars rushing out of the mountain, all of which were sows, following behind the red-eyed pig demon.

A mutant wild boar stared at red eyes and angrily stared at Qin Tiange. The intruding humans disturbed their love with the pig monster king.

Uh ...

“kill him!”

The red-eyed pig demon screamed in rage and rage. At the moment, dozens of mutant wild boars rushed in and frantically. The scene was spectacular and the mountain shook.

Watching dozens of mutant wild boars up to three or four meters long, Qin Tiange's face was somber to drip water, and he cursed inwardly.

With such a hindrance, he would not be able to chase down the silver-winged flying corpse. The flying corpse had run away for a long time, but he could not catch up.

“A group of fat pigs, stop me from doing good things, you * it!” Thinking of running away a silver-winged flying corpse, Qin Tiange couldn't help anger rising, roared, took out the halberds and greeted him directly.

He rose into the air, and the halberd slammed it down, beating his head on the head of a mutant wild boar.

With a bang, his head collapsed, plasma mixed with white brain fluid, and a mutant wild boar was instantly killed on the spot.

Under the fury of Qin Tiange, the power of the limit erupted, and the strength of 1,600 people gathered on the halberd, smashing fiercely, and in an instant, dozens of mutant wild boars screamed and howled.

Uh ...

Screams and wailing kept coming, and the thirty-nine variant of the wild boar was slaughtered cleanly, and only five seconds had passed.

The ground was covered with corpses, wild boars were lying there, and some were still convulsing, their heads were smashed to death.

“Oh ...” The Red-Eyed Pig Fairy was stunned, watching the group of mutant female wild boars killed, all their concubines, who had all died.

The tragic death in front of it suddenly angered this violent red-eyed pig demon, dancing with black hair all over his body, and a handful of blue mane on his head stood up.

With a loud bang, the red-eyed pig demon exploded, speed and power combined, and two big * fangs slammed hard to penetrate Qin Tiange's body.

Huh!

Qin Tiange's halberd waved and snorted, two forces collided, and both of them exploded a dozen meters before stopping.

The red-eyed pig demon blows blue air, his eyes are flushed with red, the cruel bloodthirsty light flashes, the murderous horror is terrifying.

“Human, do you dare to kill my concubine?”

Opposite, Qin Tiange looked at the dozens of mutated wild boars, his mouth twitched, and he felt a kind of shame in his heart.

The wild boar is a wild boar, can't it sense the terrifying breath emanating from him, that is a kind of murder after anger.

“Kill!” Qin Tiange drank, his body emptied, and he took the lead in launching an attack.

He didn't have any hesitation. He even issued a slay order to this red-eyed pig demon to prevent him from hunting down the silver-winged flying corpse, and only vented his anger on it.

The silver-winged flying corpse was hunted and killed for three days and nights, and he was about to beheaded to kill the other side to get the chance, but he did not expect to run out of a red-eyed pig demon bad thing, naturally angry.

boom!

One person, one pig collided, and fiercely fought, breaking everything apart within hundreds of meters.

The trees collapsed, the rocks cracked, and the smoke billowed.

Uh ...

In the dust, an extremely screaming roar came, and I was surprised to see that the red-eyed pig demon's head was sunken in a large piece, and the blood and water flowed, looking extremely miserable.

Opposite it, Qin Tiange was holding a halberd, standing still, his face was calm, but an infinite flame burst out in his heart.

“kill!”

With a swift drink, accompanied by Qin Tiange's flight, Euphorbia wielded, wrapped in endless Cang Yan, and hit the forehead of the red-eyed pig demon fiercely.

A heavy bang came, and I was surprised to see that the red-eyed pig demon had endured the force of the blow, and opened his mouth to bite Qin Tiange's halberd.

“Look to death!” When seeing the red-eyed pig demon biting his halberd, Qin Tiange sneered, his body flickered, he retreated, and suddenly pulled out the ancient sword at his waist.

With a short whistle, Jian Mang scratched across the body of the red-eyed pig demon, and the hard fur was cut by the ancient sword's edge, bringing a touch of bright red blood.

Alas ... Finally, the red-eyed pig demon loosened his mouth and mourned sorrowfully. The huge body leaned back and fell to the ground.

It was dressed in rough gas, bleeding in the nose and mouth, and shocked and scared in the red eyes, only to wake up before his death, this human is not easy to mess with.

“You ...” The red-eyed pig demon opened his mouth and wanted to say something, but a sudden burst of blood burst from the neck where his head was connected to the body, and his head bone rolled down.

This five-star red-eyed pig demon was killed by a sword from Qin Tiange in this way. The ancient sword's sharp edge was not what it could stop.

“This ancient sword ...” Qin Tiange himself was shocked and inexplicable, looking at the ancient sword in his hand, the simple and elegant atmosphere of the sword body, showing the vicissitudes of history.

The sword was not contaminated with any drop of blood. It was really a killer without blood, which was a shocking sword.

“You're cheap.” Qin Tiange looked at the dead red-eyed pig demon and couldn't help cursing.

This is the pig monster that was suddenly killed, which has broken his good deeds, otherwise the silver-winged flying corpse was chopped and the moon nucleus was obtained. Unfortunately, this red-eyed pig monster Destroyed, let Silverwing Flying Corpse escape.

Qin Tiange dug out the five-star mutant nuclei in the head of the red-eyed pig demon and collected all the dead wild boar carcasses. Then he jumped on a mountain and looked around.

“Where is this?” He looked around and couldn't help frowning, not knowing where it was.

Pursue the silver-winged flying corpses for three days and nights in a row, and don't know where they went, and where they are now.

“It's a pity to run a silver-winged flying corpse.” Qin Tiange looked at it for a while, then suddenly shook his head with some regret.

That silver-winged flying corpse is the most precious. Killing is definitely his big opportunity. Unfortunately, it was run away by him.

After running away from these thoughts and clearing up his mood, Qin Tiange carried the halberd down the mountain and rushed out of the mountain.

He didn't know where he had come, and he wanted to go out and find a town to hunt down the silver-winged flying corpse for three days and three nights. Where did he go?

Chapter 360 - Miao Jiang, Witchcraft

Qin Tiange finally knew where he was, and he even ran to the Miaojiang region of Lake Province, and was right next to the wall of the Miaojiang city. He just saw this ancient and majestic Great Wall of the South.

The Miao Xinjiang Great Wall, also known as the Miao Xinjiang Mile Wall, is 190 kilometers long. Although it is much smaller than the Great Wall in the north, it is also an iconic landmark.

“I didn’t expect that I came to Miaojiang ...” Looking at the mountains and rivers of the Quartet, the ancient woods were lush, and the huge Great Wall meandering past.

He was amazed, and did not expect to hunt down the silver-winged flying corpse. He kept coming to Miao Jiang for three days and three nights without stopping.

Immediately, Qin Tiange frowned, remembering some rumors of Miao Jiang, and what he had seen and heard in previous lives, which caused his attention.

He is most interested in Miao Jiang’s two witchcrafts, cadaver surgery, and yangyangshu.

Corpse expulsion, but this Miao Xinjiang witchcraft in the western Hunan region is extremely mysterious and weird, with many legends and legends.

The secretive technique of raising the crickets and the horror color reminded Qin Tiange of some things, such as the poisonous insects and beasts in Miao Xinjiang.

These poisonous insects are all mutated poisonous insects. They are very fierce and terrible, that is, his strength now meets some super powerful mutant poisonous insects, and he must avoid it.

“There seems to be a large area within this Great Wall where survivors gather, and there was a huge Miao City here in previous lives.” After thinking about it, Qin Tiange walked along the Great Wall.

He was thinking that there was a huge Miaocheng here in the previous life. It was a Miaocheng base built on the Great Wall of Miaojiang.

Most of them are people of the Miao nationality. This ancient Chinese minority has been active on the land of China since the Chi You era. It has an ancient and mysterious atmosphere passed down to the present day.

“The two major witchcrafts of Miaojiang, the corpse expulsion technique should have been lost, which is a pity.” Qin Tiange walked, unable to help but sighed.

This ancient mystery has been lost, and no one has heard of this ancient mystery in previous lives, but the unscrupulous Taoist seems to be a little bit.

In addition, he is good at keeping corpses and controlling corpses, and I think it should be some secret inheritance that knows a little bit about corpses.

Miao Jiang, there is still a mysterious and terrible mystery technique, that is, nourishing urn.

The technique of raising lotus roots is a secret technique that can only be practiced by Miao Xinjiang women. It is extremely scary and has many terrible legends.

Tadpoles, to say the least, are poisonous worms, and all kinds of highly toxic substances will be refined into Tadpoles and used for diarrhea.

Xunshu is actually a type of witchcraft. It is called terrifying witchcraft, descent, and descent.

Of course, no matter whether it 's black magic or witchcraft, it 's all manipulative and manipulative. It is evil to use evil, and it is good to use it for good.

Zizi ...

Walking and walking, suddenly a sound of gurgling came from the forest in front, as if something was crawling in the bushes.

Qin Tiange stopped and stood on the edge of the Great Wall, looking at the forest in front, and saw the bushes swaying.

hiss...

Suddenly, a red shadow rushed out of the bushes and crashed up the Great Wall, a huge blood-red scorpion.

"The red fire scorpion is violently poisonous. If you bite it, it will die." Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes and looked at the scorpion, which was three meters long, and the huge tail hook was extremely sharp.

This is a red fire scorpion, with a reddish body, like a flame. Its toxicity is extremely fierce, and any creature and person will be killed by being stabbed by it.

Of course, it depends on the level and strength of the creature, such as Qin Tiange now, and he is not afraid of this red fire scorpion at all.

hiss!

The Red Fire Scorpion climbed up the city wall, opened his mouth and hissed, and continued to rush towards Qin Tiange. He used Qin Tiange as food and went directly to hunt.

The long, huge barb lifted suddenly, and stabbed lightningly, with its endless sharpness, pierced by rocks.

Huh!

Qin Tiange's face was calm, the ancient sword suddenly came out of the sheath, snorted, and the edging edge crossed the front, only to hear a crisp sound, the rushing red fire scorpion tail was cut off on the spot.

Immediately afterwards, without waiting for the Red Fire Scorpion to scream, Gu Jian struck his head instantly, splitting his head with his body in half.

After killing this red fire scorpion, Qin Tiange squatted down and dug out a crystal nucleus in the body of the red fire scorpion with an ancient sword, as well as a fiery red poison sac.

The venom in this poison sac is extremely violent. Once eaten or injured by something contaminated by this venom, it will immediately paralyze the whole body, damage the nervous system, and soon die.

This red fire scorpion is nothing but a two-star mutant worm. A two-star mutant crystal nucleus is considered good. After receiving these things, Qin Tiange continued on the road.

He walked along the Miaojiang Great Wall, looking for the former Miao Cheng base that might exist within the Miaojiang Great Wall.

Soon, he saw the base. Relying on the original Great Wall, he built three reinforced concrete city walls and trained them into a single area, surrounding a valley and a plain to form a large gathering place.

“There should be Miaojiang Village.” Standing on the Great Wall, Qin Tiange looked at a huge gathering place in the distance, where Miao Cheng gathered.

Throughout the base, villages of all sizes stand on the Great Wall. They are all wooden houses, layer upon layer, looking extremely spectacular.

The Hmong, old and mysterious, reveals many legendary colors.

The previous section of the city wall has been overthrown and rebuilt, and a new city wall constructed with reinforced concrete fortifications is even taller and more majestic.

When he came to the broken place, Qin Tiange looked at the city wall that was more than 20 meters away from his side. He jumped violently with his feet and jumped up into the air. He directly crossed the distance of more than 20 meters and stably fell on the opposite city wall. Above.

“Hey, little brother, why are you still hanging around here? It’s getting dark. It’s dangerous after night. Go back!”

As soon as I landed, I heard a word from there, only to find a group of men in leather armor approaching, all holding seedling knives, some holding steel guns, iron spears and other weapons.

They were a patrol team. The man of the Miao family headed by Qin Tiange could not help reminding him that it was now evening and was ready to go to night.

In the land of Miaojiang, it is extremely dangerous after nightfall. Numerous poisonous insects are infested. If you accidentally step on the poisonous insects and be bitten to death, it will be funny.

“Hurry back, you can’t come here after night.”

The head of the Miao family man warned enthusiastically and took ten young Miao family members to continue patrolling.

Watching these people passing by, Qin Tiange was surprised and could clearly feel that the Miao man headed by that man was a two-star soldier.

As for the other Miao youth, three are one-stars, and the others are ordinary people.

“There should be a heritage stele here ...” This is Qin Tiange’s guess, He had never been to Miaojiang in his previous life, so naturally he did not understand.

Looking at the sky, the setting sun has gradually fallen to the ground, and night is about to fall.

He shook his head, turned helplessly, came down the city wall, and entered this mysterious and strange Miaojiang base city.

Walking in the Miao City, Qin Tiange saw many men and women wearing Miao costumes, old and young, all of them.

Fortunately, it 's not just the Miaos here. Qin Tiange walks on the street and does n't look out of the way. Some people look at him strangely, as if he were born.

Huh? As he walked, Qin Tiange's face moved, and he suddenly saw a familiar figure flashing in the crowd in front. Although he passed by, it was easy to think that it was an illusion, but he rejected it at the next moment.

“Who will it be?”

Qin Tiange took a three-point question, speeded up his pace, crossed the street in front, followed a figure far away, and looked from behind, the more familiar he became.
