

Dark Ages 551

Chapter 551 - Half a year later, the big fight is coming

Half a year has passed, the world has fallen into a dark age, and the sun is completely dormant.

The whole world was dark, the sun on the sky became dim, as if the light had been lost, the dim void, and various huge birds roared past.

In the past six months, humans have fallen into panic, and various mutant species have also fallen into chaos, and many plants have gradually withered.

However, due to the strong dark energy pervading the earth, various living things are extremely viable, and the evolved creatures have no sense in the dark.

Even those plants that lost sunlight, although some died, were more adapted to the current environment, and evolved more weird and powerful.

The snow is flying, the temperature of the earth is rapidly decreasing, and the entire earth is covered by ice and snow. The cold air can't stand it.

Fortunately, this is an era of evolution. The genes of various mutant species have been strengthened to adapt to such a mutated environment.

boom!

In the snow-covered mountains and rivers, a huge mutant was beaten flying inexplicably, smashed into the snow, motionless, his head cracked and died instantly.

“Last six months?”

A figure emerged quietly, standing in front of the dead beast, looking around, looking up at the dim void.

He is Qin Tiange, who just came out of the space mezzanine. Unexpectedly, the world has undergone tremendous changes, and the time has passed a full six months.

One practice, even in the past six months, this has to be said to make him somewhat uncomfortable. However, Qin Tiange didn't pay much attention. Instead, he paid attention to the outer space of the earth, where there are faintly visible flares, and he is approaching the earth quickly.

It was a meteorite rain and it was finally close to the earth. It didn't take long for this meteorite rain to pour into the earth's world.

“The battle is here, and so are the powerful alien races.”

Qin Tiange murmured, the figure turned into a black particle quietly disappeared, leaving only the dead seven-star mutant creature, it can be seen that it is a variant of the leopard before the end.

After distinguishing the direction, Qin Tiange hurried on his way. Finally, he saw the huge and bright sun rising in Huaxia.

It was an artificial sun. From the height of the sky, nine huge suns had risen in the entire land of China, emitting a scorching atmosphere and bright sunlight.

“Is the artificial sun completely made?”

Qin Tiange was at a high altitude, looking down at the situation below. I saw that there was a huge ten-meter light ball floating above the base of Shanghai, and that was the artificial sun.

This is the latest artificial sun that was sent from the base of Shencheng, and it hung high above the void in Beijing, lighting up the darkness and emitting sunlight.

Not only is Shanghai, Guangcheng, Jingnan, Haishi, Shencheng, Qicheng, Lancheng, Anxi City, Shencheng, an artificial sun floating above the nine bases.

Qin Tiange knows that in addition to the three major bases in Shanghai, Guangcheng and Jingnan, the other bases have artificial suns and must be purchased from the Shenzhen base.

He has already explained that other bases must buy the artificial sun if they want artificial sun, because the production cost is very high, and they must pay to get it.

Rumble ...

Suddenly, in the largest desert area of Huaxia, a dark sky filled the sky, and it fell into darkness completely within a hundred kilometers.

Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes and stared at the area, secretly: "The restricted area has appeared, and there should be the terrible soul-stealing restricted area in the rumor."

Looking down at the restricted area, Qin Tiange's face gradually condensed. With his current strength, he can still feel the crisis of horror from the soul-eating restricted area.

In the middle of the restricted area, a terrible breath was revealed. It was fierce and monstrous, with a cold atmosphere, and there were countless grudges and evil spirits wandering and mourning.

Qin Tiange has seen that breath, and was almost shot to death across the secret space, and once again felt this terrible fluctuation, naturally extra cautious.

"How strong is that fierce soul?" Qin Tiange frowned secretly.

In the previous life, the three first-ranking emperors stepped inside and had terrible fierce battles. As a result, the three first-ranking emperors returned home with serious injuries and never mentioned what they encountered.

This made Qin Tiange have many speculations. It should be the terrible fierce soul locked in the secret place by the town, turning the desert into a restricted area.

"Well, the earth has become bigger ..."

At this time, Qin Tiange discovered different places, and the entire earth seemed to have become larger. The land of Huaxia alone had changed a lot.

In short, he feels that China's area has expanded a lot. This is plate movement, the core of the earth is expanding, and the mass of the entire earth is rapidly increasing.

"It seems that the continental plates are colliding, and a brand new continent is about to appear." Qin Tiange sighed secretly, and several major events of this life came one after another, making people unresponsive.

After checking for a long time, Qin Tiange turned around and rushed back to the Shenzhen city base. He didn't stay. He didn't go back for six months. He had to go back and take a look.

It didn't take long for him to return to the Shenshi base, and he was relieved looking at the larger and majestic base below.

In half a year, the development of the base has been more rapid, and various technologies have emerged endlessly. In the half year, Shenzhen City has successively integrated with several large bases such as Guangcheng and Jingnan, and opened several safe air routes.

Various suspended aircraft shuttled back and forth between several cities, which strengthened the communication and development between several major bases.

In particular, people from other bases want to come to Shenzhen City Base to take a look, because the development here is too rapid.

“Hurry up, a new round of competition will start again.”

At this time, many people in the Shenzhen city base were excited and enthusiastic, as if something good had happened.

Qin Tiange looked in surprise, and saw that in the middle of the outer base, not far before the assessment stone, a huge ice crystal battle tower stood.

The entire battlefield has a radius of 1,000 meters and is made of super ice crystals. The ruggedness of the nine-star powerhouse requires three full bombardments to break it.

Of course, the battlefield is not only these super ice crystals, but also various rare metals, which can effectively prevent energy bombardment.

This is a battle platform built in Shenzhen City for the base intensifiers.

There are already two powerful figures on the battlefield, and they are fighting fiercely. One person holds the battle and the other holds the battle knife, and the two of you come and go.

These two people are both seven-star and strong, but they can only be regarded as middle and upper class in the entire Shenzhen city base.

Among the crowd watching here, there are many eight-star masters, and even nine-star ones can see it.

In half a year, it is enough to make the evolution of the entire human world horrible, especially some huge bases, the forces are getting stronger and stronger.

After looking at it for a while, Qin Tiange stopped paying attention, but stepped forward and returned to the central suspension platform.

At this time, the suspension platform has been expanded dozens of times. On the whole, it is a super base suspended in the air.

This is the restricted area of the base. Outsiders cannot enter it. They will be caught as soon as they approach. No matter who you are, you cannot enter without permission.

As soon as Qin Tiange came here, he saw three ten-meter-high fighter armors coming out of the air and surrounding him.

“Uh ... General?”

Three mechas came up, and after seeing Qin Tiange’s look clearly, he stunned and suddenly realized that this was Qin Tiange who had disappeared for half a year.

Suddenly, the entire high-level base received a letter from their own, and immediately knew that the general who had disappeared for six months returned.

“General!”

Sure enough, not long after, powerful figures came out of the air, all of them were looking at Qin Tiange with excitement, finally at ease.

I haven’t seen them for half a year. I really worry this group of seniors. Now that I see people, I finally relax.

“Very good, everyone didn’t let me down.” Qin Tiange looked surprised. Looking at this group of senior management and generals, the weakest were all nine stars, and ten stars were even more.

This made him feel ashamed. He had just broken through the nine-star rating, and when he came out, he saw such a scene. He felt a little weird.

However, Qin Tiange’s nine-star star, which is full of ninety-nine star cores, can easily be crushed and killed in the face of many nine-star masters.

This is the self-confidence that comes from his strong background. Qin Tiange has this ability and self-confidence enough to crush all the nine-star and even ten-star powerhouses.

“You follow me.”

Qin Tiange didn’t talk a lot of nonsense. He took a group of high-level executives directly into the conference room and held the first meeting six months later to discuss and understand the current situation of the base and Huaxia.

He hasn’t come out for half a year. He needs to know the current form in order to judge what to do next and how to do it.

A meeting was held for a full day and night. No one felt tired, but was energetic, even if they continued to hold a five-day, five-night meeting.

However, this is not necessary, Qin Tiange has initially learned the current development status of the base, as well as the current situation of the whole China.

In general, with the orthodoxy of Shanghai, the major bases within Huaxia did not have much movement and could not be confused for the time being.

As for the development of the Shenzhen City Base, it attracted a lot of jealousy of the great forces. Many people have a great peep on this place and covet the development achievements here.

“General, there are two ten-star masters out there said that they want to challenge our base.”

Immediately after the meeting, a soldier ran quickly and reported the news.

“Ten stars, challenge us?”

A group of generals were surprised and looked at each other. I did not expect to encounter this on the first day of Qin Tiange’s return.

How long has no one dared to jump out of the Shenzhen City Base, and has also vowed to challenge the high level of the base?

“Interesting!” Qin Tiange smiled calmly: “It seems that some people can’t sit still and want to test the depth of our base.”

“I won’t show up. You must solve it yourself. You must do it beautifully, and give a strong warning to those who are hiding.”

Qin Tiange got up, left a sentence and turned to leave. He wasn’t interested in paying attention to these things, because he had just got back and had a lot of things to deal with.

Ten stars, isn’t there in the base?

Chapter 552 - Master, is n’t beauty beautiful?

Lianhua Mountain, the entrance to the underground base city, Qin Tiange just walked into it, and saw a shadow of Qian Ying rushing up.

Feeling that there was no danger, Qin Tiange did not evade, let the figure flutter, his arms wrapped around his neck, and hung on him.

“Master, I miss you so much!”

The comer turned out to be self-confidence, and it was the real body, not an illusory image.

Qin Tiange was surprised, looking at the pretty woman in his arms, and the little face tenderly, full of excitement and joy, clasping his neck tightly and not letting go.

The two eyes were opposite each other, and there was a hint of flattery in his own eyes, while Qin Tiange was full of surprise.

“Yiji, your physical body is finished?” Qin Tiange asked with a hint of surprise.

Sure enough, Jiji smiled and said, “Hehe, master, isn’t it beautiful to see Jiji?”

Qin Tiange had to nod, and his self-imposed appearance was almost immaculate, and he had even reached the state of charm.

The present self-confidence, having a perfect and real body, has initially embarked on the stage of a real life body, and it is the transformation of the soul consciousness.

“Beauty, you are no longer beautiful, but you are fascinated by nature. In the future, you cannot go out and show people the true face, lest all men in the world be fascinated by you.” Qin Tiange smiled and patted his own back.

Flawless skin, weak and boneless, hatefully, a hairy tail grew behind him.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange grabbed the fox's tail that was babbling on his face, dissatisfied: "You do a good job of making a tail out, do you really want to be a fox essence?"

"The host doesn't like it, that's why I cut it off, why are you so fierce?" Xi Jiqiao looked pitiful and looked at him with watery eyes.

In particular, Ji Ji's charming eyes, as if they can catch people's minds, made Qin Tiange unbearable, went directly into the flawless Bing Xin, frozen and shattered all thoughts.

"Okay, let's hurry down and see what kind of system you are like, people will see the joke." Qin Tiange could not laugh or cry.

Xunji shook his head, refusing to say, "No, Xunji likes to rest on his master. The master's breath and taste make him very comfortable."

Listening to this, Qin Tiange's eyebrows flickered, the corners of his mouth twitched, and he almost rolled his eyes.

After finally taking the * off of his body, Qin Tiange took a hard look at the * who successfully completed the physical production, and now his body is perfect to the level of jealousy.

What surprised him even more was that there was a majestic energy hidden in his own body, which could burst out at any time, and the grade turned out to be ten stars.

"Yanji, tell me some basic information about your body." Qin Tiange asked with a serious look.

I have a playful smile, and snuggle up again, Jiao Didi said, "Master, my own body can be made from immortal bone, and the flesh and blood body is derived from the clone of the undead gene. As for the core energy ..."

She said here, carefully squinting at Qin Tiange before whispering in his ear: "Master, I have used that star nucleus as a source of energy for my body, and I will not be angry with myself ?"

"Unbreakable bones, immortality, star core ... 姐 ji, how do I find out that you have such a prodigal fan." Qin Tiange said, staring at jiji with his eyes narrowed.

Xunji had a blushing face, bowed his head shyly, and tugged, "The host should not praise people like this. Xunji will be shy, and there will be no more prodigals. He will only use half of his bones, and his immortality will be completely melted away.

puff!

Qin Tiange did n't spray blood, and his heart was speechless. He used half of the immortal bone as his own body structure, and used the cloned gene to make flesh and blood, and finally consumed a star core to complete the energy core preparation. .

It has to be said that Jiji is really a prodigal, he is a prodigal mother.

"Okay, tell me about the current progress of various scientific research programs."

Qin Tiange cleared his mood and did not care about this, but asked his wife about the progress of some scientific research plans.

After hearing Qin Tiange not to blame her, he felt relieved and smiled even more. He took Qin Tiange's arm and went to the underground main room.

“Master, in the past six months, the plan originally set by the owner has basically been realized. You see that this is the completed construction of the air carrier, and there are two air carriers under construction in the air dock.” Wu Ji said with an excited expression stand up.

Qin Tiange looked at the information on the screen. A huge air-to-air mothership had already completed acceptance, and all the data performances were up to standard.

“Also, master, we have now completed the formation of the first air and space carrier battle formation here.”

The First Aircraft Carrier Battle Group is composed of one Aircraft Carrier, nine air warships, three hundred unmanned warplanes, and one hundred fighter armors.

Qin Tiange nodded as he watched, feeling satisfied, and finally took the first step to complete the formation of the first air-to-air mothership battle group.

In the future, more space carrier battle groups will appear. Of course, this number will not be too much, because Qin Tiange's next plan is in space.

Air and space motherships can only be used as air power under the atmosphere, while forces outside space need to be planned next.

“Master, we have delivered five air battleships to Shangjing ...”

“Look at the master, this is a military factory that I have expanded. It can produce twenty air and space warships at the same time.”

“This is the doomsday mech production line. It is currently in energy production and can produce one hundred first-generation doomsday fighters in half a year.”

“Master, this is the first generation spaceship design ...”

“This is the design drawing of the first space fort ...”

“This is the latest extracted antimatter energy data ...”

Qin Tiange nodded from time to time, listening to his own introduction to the current state of the base.

The entire underground base has already been expanded to the same level as the ground base, that is, as large as the ground base is, how large is the underground base.

There are many super-new technologies hidden here, and more than 100,000 scientific researchers are busy here day and night, calculating, discussing technology and researching new technology.

The talents received from the Beijing General Academy include all aspects, and the total number of people is as high as 80,000. With the addition of talents from Guangcheng and Jingnan, the number of scientific and technological talents here has already exceeded ten. Ten thousand people.

It is precisely because of these people that within six months, the various scientific research plans and projects of the base can be fruitful.

“Master, the biology department has now completed the second generation of super gene production and extraction, and is currently studying the brain field ...” Xi Ji said cautiously.

Qin Tiange listened a little thoughtful, nodded his head and asked, “You look at biological research, there are many hidden dangers in genetic engineering, and one carelessness can have terrible consequences.”

“Understand, my master!” Jiji Qiaosheng answered bluntly.

Then, she continued: “Master, the pharmacy department is progressing very fast at present. Under the leadership of Du Jing, various new pharmaceuticals have been developed and produced.”

“However, the master has something to tell you ...” Su Ji suddenly looked serious.

Qin Tiange frowned slightly, thinking to himself what trouble was encountered?

Sure enough, as the self-confidence said, “Master, that kind of brain-domain development medicine is very dangerous. So far, three scientific and technological personnel have caused brain death by taking too much brain-domain development medicine.”

“Brain death?” Qin Tiange looked sullen, and asked, “What’s wrong, haven’t I told one person to take only one serving?”

Sang Ji explained seriously: “Masters, this is the case. Some people’s brains simply cannot bear the powerful drug properties of developing drugs in the brain domain. The brain collapses, the consciousness is scattered, and the brain dies.”

Qin Tiange warned in a serious tone: “It is commanded that all people who have ever taken brain-domain development drugs should not continue to take this contraindication.”

“Anything else?”

Looking at Jiji, Qin Tiange didn’t know what he was thinking, but Jiji’s face was flushed, his eyes were staring at him with a charming charm.

“Master, can Jiji be with you in the future?” Xiji asked this carefully, looking at him with a cheeky expression.

After listening to the thoughts, Qin Tiange looked at his own expression, and felt in his heart that his intelligence had a touch of soul.

“Okay, you will follow me later.” Qin Tiange thought about it, and finally agreed.

Qi Ji, after all, is a transformation of artificial intelligence to the level of life. Qin Tiange himself is very strange. He has to watch at all times to be relieved.

Although his worry may be redundant, vigilance is still necessary, otherwise regret will not be useful once something goes wrong.

“Oh yeah, master, I love you to death.”

As soon as I heard that, Ji Ji jumped up with excitement directly blocked Qin Tiange’s neck, his lip was printed fiercely, and a lip mark was left.

“Don’t be mischievous, go to your favor, I still have work to do. I will call you when I go out. Now, you will stay honestly in the underground base city.”

Qin Tiange wiped his face with lip prints, looked at his proud self, and was speechless in his heart. He rolled his eyes and turned to leave.

“Master, I want to follow you. You promised just now.” Jiji held his arm and looked at him pitifully.

In the end, Qin Tiange had no choice but to let her follow. The two walked out of the underground base city and came to Lianhua Mountain.

Just after coming out, Qin Tiange moved his face and looked in horror at the location of the God Mountain of Lianhua Mountain, where a sense of peace filled the air.

“That’s the spirit of a goblin. Is it finally the little guy who is about to be born?”

Qin Tiange guessed with a hint of surprise, and hurried directly towards the place where the gods were, followed by a playful and charming self-confidence, and Qiao’s face was filled with a kind of excitement never before.

Chapter 553 - Means of self-confidence and goblin

“Little Master was born ...”

Around the sacred soil, the little peaches, peony, roses, lilies, and willow monsters were all inspiring. Looking at the center of the sacred soil, a strange lotus rooted there.

Red, orange, yellow, green, cyan, blue, purple, black, pink, nine lotus flowers of different colors, arching a giant lotus flower.

This largest lotus bud is full of light, exuding a faint scent, and it is piercing.

Wow ...

I saw that nine lotuses of different colors were spitting clouds and mists, interspersed with rays of light, and turned into a cloud of colorful clouds condensing in the sky.

Within a radius of 100 meters, there is a holy atmosphere, as if a fairy lotus is out of the mud and not stained.

Uh ...

Suddenly, the ten lotus flowers trembled together, and the lotus leaves swayed, seemingly excited. It turned out that the little fairy saw Qin Tiange coming.

Sure enough, as soon as Qin Tiange arrived, the goblin fell into excitement, lotus leaves swayed, lotus trembled, and drops of water dropped down.

I saw that blossoming lotuses rushed to open, each emitting a variety of light, colorful, constantly intertwined on the largest lotus.

“Are you finally going to be born?” Qin Tiange looked with a hint of expectation.

Judging from the current atmosphere of the goblin, it is definitely a nine-star limit. It may even break the barrier at the moment when she transforms into a ten-star.

Once born, it is a ten-star star. The potential of the little fairy has reached an amazing level. I have to say that it is really right to use the * earth to cultivate it.

Huh!

A slight sound came, the petals were open, and the fragrance was ten miles away, which attracted the attention of many people who came to inherit the stele to exchange things.

Suddenly they smelled an scent, they felt their spirits trembled, and looked at the source of the scent in surprise, which is an area where Lotus Mountain has never opened.

“It’s so fragrant. What kind of aroma is this?”

Someone was surprised, standing here, looking out over this area, and faintly seeing a treasure light soaring into the sky, as if a treasure was born.

This time, immediately attracted the attention of many powerful people, and even some people came to find out.

“Go and see, maybe the treasure was born.” A seven-star powerhouse immediately set off and went to check.

But he was dragged by an eight-star companion, and his face warned solemnly: “There is a military restricted area at the base, we cannot break into it, otherwise it will cause trouble.”

“Military restricted area?”

Beside, the two young men looked disdainfully, and looked at these people with some contempt.

One of the youths was full of strong breath, exuding a strong breath that was only found in ten stars, and looking proud.

“What military restricted area, as long as the strength is strong enough, where can’t go, who can stop us even if they go?” Said the young man proudly.

His companion, who is also a ten-star intensifier, is all raised with drugs to improve the level and pile up into ten-stars.

These two people are ordinary ten-star intensifiers, and they look very strong, but it depends on who they meet.

“Let’s go, our brothers will take a look, break into this so-called military restricted area, and see who can stop us?”

Two ten-star youths had a high degree of manual control, soared into the air, and rushed directly into the area of Lianhua Mountain where outsiders were not allowed to enter.

At this time, over the * earth, the little fairy came to the most critical moment, and the nine lotus flowers were fully opened, exhaling a cloud of different colors and converging on the largest ten-color lotus flower in the center.

Suddenly, the largest lotus flower trembled, as if a young girl with a dim dream was about to wake up slowly.

Uh ...

One petal opened, followed by another, and gradually, when all the petals were fully opened, a holy light inside the lotus was exposed.

The holy light is permeating, hazy and indistinguishable, and there is a petite figure asleep in the ten-color holy light.

This figure gradually awakened, slowly sat up, stretched out a lazy waist, opened his mouth and swallowed the boiling clouds of various colors into his stomach.

When all the light was gone, there was a petite figure, wearing a colorful dress, stepping on five-colored crystal boots, delicate face, a pair of big eyes blinking and blinking, watching the people around, and then locked Qin Tiange.

“Yeah ...” the little fairy was excited, and suddenly turned into a colorful light, and flew directly into Qin Tiange’s arms, giggling.

The little demon is transformed, completes the birth, and truly becomes a talented creature. Once born, it is ten stars.

The goblin was hanging around Qin Tiange’s neck. The half-meter-high body looked petite and cute, and the pink face was full of excitement.

However, the first words she spoke next made Qin Tiange Lei’s inside and outside.

“Dad, hug ... Daddy, hug ...”

The goblin clasped Qin Tiange’s neck tightly, swinging on a swing here, with big watery eyes, staring at Qin Tiange blinking, holding his mouth to hold.

Qin Tiange Lei arrived, covered with black lines, and secretly grinned, “Why did you suddenly have another cheap daughter?”

However, he still gently lifted up the goblin and smiled, “You guys, you’re dead.”

“Daddy ...” the little devil’s immature voice screamed, giggling with joy, very happy.

“Meet your son!”

“Congratulations on your birth.”

Beside, fairies such as Peony, Little Peach, Lily came forward immediately, saluting all together, respectfully, without any slightness.

Qin Tiange nodded with a smile, and said hello. Then he looked at the goblin seriously, and couldn't help feeling emotional.

The talent of a small lotus at the time was very ordinary. It was an ornamental potted lotus.

However, I did not expect to re-form into a seed in the Divine Land, transforming myself from the source, thus improving the evolutionary talent, and eventually growing into what it is now.

As soon as the little fairy was born, it was a ten-star star. It was no surprise that the future king would fall on the plate.

Whizzing!

Just as Qin Tiange was about to ask questions, two sounds of breaking air came and caught his attention. Looking at the sound, he saw two powerful figures breaking through quickly.

Qin Tiange frowned slightly, looking at the two people who came, not the high-level members of the base, who actually broke into this area that was explicitly forbidden.

“This is a restricted area. It is not open to the outside world. The two are leaving now. I never happened.” Qin Tiange looked at the person and said something lightly.

It is a pity that the two young people who came did not take him seriously, but stared at the five beautiful and charming fairies such as Peony, Lily, Little Peach, Rose, and Sakura.

“Transforming fairies?” The two youths were surprised, startled in their hearts, and looked at each other, both seeing the thoughts inside each other.

I saw that one of the ten-star young masters laughed and said, “These fairies are yours? We fancy these flower fairies, and you have a price, we bought them.”

“Yes, you can make a price, we bought it.” Another young man said with a proud look.

These words can anger the peony and other demon monsters, glaring at the two youths. If Qin Tiange were not here, he could not have rushed up to teach them a lesson.

“Say it again, leave, I don't care about your sins.” Qin Tiange looked cold, his voice cold.

The two men didn't know what to do. He was in a good mood and didn't want to care about it, but he didn't know how to move forward and backward, and saying such words was a great insult to him.

One of them sneered, scorning: “This is not your place. Why did you let us leave, and what you count, even the senior members of this base dare not be rude to us.”

“Yes, let alone the high-level of this base, even if the founder of this base sees us two ten-stars, they must give three points of face.”

Listening to the words of the two, Qin Tiange was amused, and looked at the two stupid guys in front of him, speechless, and went out without a brain.

In front of Qin Tiange himself, he said that he would give three points of face when he saw them both, which made him hate the most.

“Since you don’t listen to advice, don’t leave.”

Qin Tiange said expressionlessly and waved his hand gently: “Say yourselves, solve them. If you don’t know how to move forward and backward, the unpretentious and arrogant guy will be useless.

“Yes, master!”

Xi Jiqiao was so happy that he said nothing, he stepped up and stood in front of the two young masters, leaving the two dull and staring at Jiji.

They suddenly realized that the self-confidence was even more charming than those fairies, and the charm of charm was not for fun.

Just standing there, let these two ten-star young masters directly look silly, consciously met with a strong charm, the soul does not keep.

“(* ^ __ ^ *) Hehe ..., the master wants your life, you say, what should you do?” Jiji laughed with a charming smile.

The result was a scary scene. The two young strongmen were dumbfounded, and one of them smirked.

“Beauty wants my life, just take it ...” said the young man, reaching out a hand to pierce his heart, and dug out his heart.

The severe pain stimulated his brain consciousness, and he woke up suddenly, horrified, looking at his hand in horror, grasping a beating heart.

“Ah ...” The young man threw the beating heart back into his heart in horror, and then squirted blood, and fell straight to the ground.

As soon as this man died, he immediately awakened another young man who was also a ten-star master. At this moment, he saw that his companion had died of his own heart.

“What’s the matter?” The man looked in horror, and looked at his own heart and couldn’t help horrifying. He kept back, and turned away to escape.

“Want to leave and watch ...”

A loud drink came to and I saw a gray lotus slamming and banging, the ten-star master exploded and died on the spot.

The goblin was the one who shot it, holding his face up, angrily: “Dad said you don’t have to go, then you don’t have to go.”

“Daddy, am I terrific?” Said the little fairy, raising her head, and blinking big eyes at Qin Tiange, as if a child was looking forward to the appreciation and recognition of her parents.

Qin Tiange froze for a moment, gently touched the head of the goblin, and smiled: “Our goblin is naturally the best, eh, dad is proud of you.”

Ashamed!

Around, peony and other flower demon turned around and turned their heads, blushing, don't look away.

Huh?

“Why is she here?”

At this moment, Qin Tiange looked, looked up into the distance, sensed a strong and familiar atmosphere, and recognized who he was a moment.

Chapter 554 - Miaoshan visit, the place where the Buddha originated

Huh!

Outside the base, a graceful figure appeared quietly and slowly dropped.

Once in white, the skirt was swaying, the ribbon fluttered, and there was a holy breath on and around the body, and the buddha swayed, setting off a sense of compassion and compassion.

The comer turned out to be wonderful and good, and this goddess of goddess of mercy Guanyin came.

Holding the jade bottle in her hand, she walked towards the city gate step by step. At each step, an illusive lotus flower will be born, and the lotus will be born step by step.

“Look, then, isn't it Guanyin Bodhisattva?”

“I'm going. Someone is playing Guanyin?”

In front of the city gate, the crowd came and found Miaoshan at once, watching her with holy breath all over her body.

This caused a lot of sensation, many people were inexplicably surprised that this was someone who deliberately dressed up as Guanyin.

However, Miaoshan exudes a hazy buddha, showing compassion, and wherever he goes, there is no one who is blasphemy.

Miaoshan is flawless in both appearance and gesture. It is rare in the world, but no one in the heart of the city is blasphemy.

Moreover, some people unconsciously gave birth to a sense of shame, and could not help raising a respect in their hearts.

This is not deliberately by Miao Shan, but this kind of peacefulness inherent in her own, holy, pure, compassionate, no one profane.

She stepped into the city step by step, attracting a lot of people's attention, but no one came to bother, but consciously let go of a passage.

Such a scene just made Qin Tiange see it, he was surprised, and had to say that Miaoshan really has some means, even if it is not intentional, he has the ability that others can't compare.

“You came...”

A faint utterance passed into Miao Shan’s ears, making her suddenly startled, her face changed slightly, and she looked up, and the two saw each other across the air.

Miaoshan shook her heart. When she heard Qin Tiange’s words, she immediately felt the immense and imposing atmosphere. The feeling of powerless confrontation made her respect.

“So strong!”

Miaoshan said secretly in his heart, the figure quietly turned into the city and disappeared into the city in a blink of an eye, appeared on the Lotus Hill, appeared in front of Qin Tiange.

She first saw the goblin at first glance, her eyes flashed in surprise, and then she glanced at the willow demon, peony and other fairies without much attention.

Instead, her gaze stayed on Jiji for a while, her heart was stunned, and finally Qin Tiange was locked in her eyes, watching him quietly.

“Miaoshan, I’ve seen Zunzhang.” Miaoshan gave a gentle gift, his tone was flat and empty, without a trace of firework.

Qin Tiange nodded slightly, and said strangely, “What’s the matter when you come to me suddenly?”

He didn’t believe that Miao Shan came here to play, and a strange creature like her could not come here to play idle.

Sure enough, Miaoshan glanced at the demon around him, the meaning was obvious, it was not convenient to speak here, and Qin Tiange didn’t care about it.

“What’s the matter, but it’s okay to say that there are no outsiders here.” Qin Tiange’s tone was very calm, but moved the scene to transform the flower demon heart.

Miaoshan’s eyes flickered slightly and he said, “My dear, Miaoshan is here to ask his help.”

“Please help me?” Qin Tiange was surprised, and then smiled: “You are a ten-star powerhouse, come to ask me for help, and tell me, what is the matter that you can’t solve?”

Miao Shan’s face was complex and his eyes flashed before he said, “The other day, when I was born, I wanted to take back my other idol avatars, but found that one avatar was taken away.”

“Now that you have taken it away, you can recover it.” Qin Tiange said indifferently, but Miaoshan’s next sentence attracted his attention.

Only after listening to Miaoshan’s bitter laughter, he explained, “It’s not that simple. It’s the place where the Buddha was born that took away my god’s clone.”

“Where did the Buddha originate?”

Qin Tiange's expression moved, his face was a little serious, and he thought carefully about the meaning of this sentence.

What is the origin of the Buddha? This means that the place where the Buddha was born, the place where it was born, is the place where the Buddha originated.

What surprised him was that Miaoshan's idol was taken away, and he was taken to the place of origin of the Buddha, which surprised him.

"Where do you say the place of origin?" Qin Tiange was curious, because he had never heard of the place of origin of the Buddha.

Miaoshan's expression changed, and he gritted his teeth and said, "This is a strange line of inheritance from the origin of my idol. The origin of the Buddha has come here."

"Oh, you are talking about a mystery?" Qin Tiange understood, and his heart was stunned.

The place where the Buddha originated has already landed on the earth, and one of Miaoshan's clones has been brought into this place. What made him wonder is who took the clone?

Perhaps he saw his doubts, Miaoshan shook his head and frowned, "In fact, I don't know who took my idol clone, but I can feel that the clone is blocked by the town."

"Is that so?" Qin Tiange thought quietly and asked for a long time: "Then you can find out where is the place where the Buddha originated and how to enter?"

This wonderful kind has been found out, and she has entered once, but did not return to her seriously after a long time. After recovering her injuries, she hurriedly came here to find Qin Tiange and asked for help.

"Have you been hurt?" Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and looked up and down Miaoshan.

He was surprised by this message in his heart. The ten-star beauty, profound talents, and boundless vitality, even with a huge amount of faith in his body, was hurt?

Faced with such information, Qin Tiange is interested and wants to see, who can hurt a ten-star super alien creature like Miaoshan?

"You live here for two days. After I deal with some things, I will go with you and see who can hurt you?" Qin Tiange gave a sneer and agreed directly.

Upon hearing his consent, Miaoshan was relieved, and a smile appeared on Qiao's face. Originally, she had no hope at all before coming.

Because she felt that Qin Tiange would not easily promise to help her, but Miaoshan looked away, and Qin Tiange would certainly not refuse her.

Not to mention others, it is said that Miaoshan has signed a contract and promised to join the heterogeneous biological management bureau formed by him. In this regard, we must help.

Qin Tiange then turned his head and instructed Jiji: "Jiji, you take Miaoshan to rest and arrange it, and you will leave with me two days later."

“Dad, I’ll go too, I’ll go too!”

At this point, the goblin quit, and lay directly on his back and refused to come down.

Listening to her screaming, Qin Tiange faced a bit of bitterness, and many cheap daughters were troublesome, but still agreed.

In this way, Miaoshan lived in the base, and Qin Tiange contacted the Monkey King who was inside the 100,000 Mountains.

“General, what are you looking for?”

In the light and shadow, the Monkey King is wearing a purple armor, shining brightly, and his strong breath almost makes many demon monkeys dare not approach.

It has been promoted to ten stars, powerful and unmatched, and has a powerful combat effectiveness. It walks sideways in the 100,000 mountains. Even some tyrannical monsters dare not confront it.

No way, the Monkey King now has huge monkeys and terrifying powers. He has conquered one powerful monster after another. In the entire 100,000 mountains, there are only two or three who can compete with him.

“Where’s the Phoenix?” Qin Tiange didn’t see the Phoenix, and could not be contacted, so he asked where the Monkey King had gone.

The Monkey King looked embarrassed and scratched his head. “Three months ago, Phoenix had already left, saying it was to prepare for Nirvana transformation.”

“Oh?” Qin Tiange nodded, and after careful induction, learned from Phoenix’s unique sensory instinct that Fire Phoenix is now relieved.

As for the colorful parrot and Suzaku, I haven’t seen it for a long time. This makes Qin Tiange somewhat worried, because it can’t be contacted and can’t be sensed.

“Sun Wutian, don’t bother with Shiwandashan, you immediately take all your men back to the base.” Qin Tiange said this directly.

“Okay, I’ll go back right away.” The Monkey King nodded after listening, but still nodded, indicating that the team would immediately sort out and go straight back.

Regarding Qin Tiange’s order, the Monkey King was a little unambiguous. After severing the contact, he immediately summoned all the monster monkeys and the monsters who had been conquered in various ways, and went straight to the house.

During this expedition to the 100,000 Mountains, not only did the Monkey King reap huge harvests, he also brought countless various kinds of medicinal herbs and spirits brought back by him, so that Qin Tiange’s pharmacy department had sufficient information.

After disconnecting the call, Qin Tiange left Lianhua Mountain and returned to the base office. He still has a lot of things to deal with.

After finishing the work of the base, he will follow Miaoshan to the place where the so-called Buddha originated.

Soon, the busy two days passed, and the events in the base basically did not require Qin Tiange to personally ask.

After finishing his business, Qin Tiange found Miaoshan and was ready to go.

“Miaoshan, tell me the truth What did you encounter and was injured in the place where the Buddha originated?”

Seeing Miaoshan, Qin Tiange asked directly, this question is very important, he needs some information.

Miao Shan’e frowned slightly, her heart bitter, and admitted with a sigh: “Actually, I didn’t see what it was, but it was just a short time after I entered it that I was seriously wounded by a mysterious force.”

“You didn’t even see it?” Qin Tiange was shocked.

After thinking about it, in the end, he didn’t continue to ask again, Miaoshan didn’t seem to understand, and somehow he was injured and fled back, which was disgraceful.

“Let’s go and show me.”

Qin Tiange immediately set off, and his followers, Jiji and Leprechaun, left the base under the leadership of Miaoshan, and went to the so-called place of origin of the Buddha.

Leaving the base, Miaoshan led Qin Tiange, his self-confidence, and the little fairy all the way to the northwest and flew away quickly.

It didn’t take long before they came to the northwest desert.

Chapter 555 - Martian, West Tianling Mountain

In the northwest desert, four powerful figures appear here.

“The entrance is here?”

In the desert, Qin Tiange looked at the yellow sand flying in the sky, the storm whistled, and the sand was scattered in the sky.

Beside him, Miaoshan solemnly pointed to a storm center in front of him and said, “The entrance is at the center of the storm, and there is a space crack there.”

In fact, without her reminding, Qin Tiange had already captured the frequent space fluctuations there, the surrounding space was abnormal, and there were inexplicable cracks in it.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange was surprised because he felt that it was not the entrance to the space of the mystery, it felt strange.

“go!”

Without hesitation, the four quickly flew into the sandstorm center, came to the crack, and watched quietly.

This crack can accommodate two people. Qin Tiange carefully sensed that the surrounding space particles were particularly active and extremely unstable.

He sensed according to the power of space he realized, and soon obtained a message that the crack was not fixed, and the place and time of its occurrence were unlimited.

“Miaoshan, wouldn’t you fool me?”

Qin Tiange suddenly turned his head, looking to Miaoshan, a kind of scrutiny in his eyes. He pointed to the space crack and said, “This is not the entrance to the mystery. As for where this space crack leads to, it is not known whether it is the place where the Buddha originated.”

“His respect, Miaoshan has never lied to you.” Seeing Qin Tiange doubting, Miaoshan was calm, his eyes were facing Qin Tiange, he did not flinch.

She was telling the truth. Naturally, she wouldn’t be half timid and flustered. Qin Tiangelai asked her to help her.

Qin Tiange nodded slightly, looked away, and stared at the crack, always feeling as if he was leading to an unknown place.

“This crack will disappear in three days. Let’s go in and see.” Qin Tiange finished and took the lead directly.

Miaoshan took the lead. When one stepped into the crack, Qin Tiange stepped into the crack in the space with his self-confidence and goblins and disappeared.

...

Qin Tiange only felt that he had passed through the space mezzanine, forming a kind of space leapfrog, passing through a passage at a rapid speed.

Soon, a faint light appeared before them, and several people brushed out of the unstable tunnel in the space crack.

As soon as he appeared, Qin Tiange could not help but change his face. He looked towards the Quartet, and looked at the vast desert. The temperature was extremely low, bringing it to 65 degrees.

Moreover, the air here is thin, and it is almost impossible for ordinary people to survive here. There are red yellow sand flying everywhere, and the sky is covered with a thick cloud of dust.

On the ground, Sha Shuo appeared red, as if rusted.

These were not surprised by Qin Tiange. What surprised him was that when he looked into the sky from here, the stars were faintly visible, especially the sun.

“This is not the earth.” Qin Tiange instantly concluded that he and others had left the earth and arrived on a strange planet.

“It’s Mars!” Qin Tiange and Li Ji both looked at each other, and they could see the light in each other’s eyes.

Mars, but the two witnessed a nanosatellite flying to Mars with their own eyes, crushed by inexplicable force.

Unexpectedly, she is now on Mars, which makes Qin Tiange's heart dark and alert.

He looked at Miaoshan beside him and asked, "Did you know that this is not the earth, why didn't you say it just now?"

Miaoshan said with a strange look: "My Excellency, I don't know?"

She said, holding out a finger and pointing it into the distance, and said, "Look, there is Xitian Lingshan, and there is where the Buddha originated."

As Miao Shan pointed out, Qin Tiange looked up and saw an extremely huge mountain range. The peak was inserted directly into the atmosphere of the planet, and he couldn't believe it.

Compared to here, the highest peak on earth is really a little witch seeing a big witch. It is incredible. This is the legendary Xitian Mountain?

"The highest peak of Mars?"

Soon, Qin Tiange learned a surprising answer based on his star map, and it turned out to be Mars.

Yes, they came to Mars, the place where the so-called Buddha originated, even above Mars.

Moreover, the highest peak of Mars is the legendary West Tianling Mountain, which is a huge mountain straight into the atmosphere. The base of the mountain is 600 kilometers wide.

"Miaoshan, Miaoshan, I really doubt your words." Qin Tiange moved, looking at Miaoshan's calm face and said, "Are you sure someone came to Mars with your idol?"

"Yes, I was attacked inexplicably at the foot of Lingshan in front, and I almost couldn't go back." Miaoshan said solemnly.

When Qin Tiange looked back, he saw the crack behind him, and the fluctuation became more and more fierce, as if it would disappear at any time.

His eyes twinkled, and he secretly guessed that the crack in the space was artificially made, which made him wary.

However, what excites Qin Tiange's heart is that from the moment when he just stepped into the cracks in space, he gained a deeper understanding of space.

Even he faintly felt that he could communicate with the space mezzanine on the earth, and could open the space and go back directly. This is his biggest discovery and comprehension at present.

"Master, be careful, don't forget the mysterious force that once destroyed our satellite." Jiji quietly reminded.

As for the leprechaun, he held Qin Tiange's arm, and looked at the surroundings with curiosity, strange and desolate, showing dead silence.

"Let's go and see the so-called Xitian Lingshan."

Qin Tiange looked weird, took the lead in flying, and quickly flew towards the highest mountain in front of Mars.

The base of this mountain range is more than 600 kilometers long, and there are endless stretches of towering peaks wrapped in inexplicable clouds.

Outside, the environment on the surface of Mars is extremely harsh, and ordinary people will die on the spot when they come here, but Qin Tiange and others are not ordinary people.

When Qin Tiange stepped into the mountain range, he immediately sensed a hazy energy, which isolated the wind and sandstorm outside.

Even with the inexplicable energy barrier, the mountains still can't see the vitality. Looking out, it's all desolate, showing a kind of death.

“Be careful, I feel unusual.”

Qin Tiange looked cautiously. When he stepped in here, he caught an abnormal breath, which was very secretive.

If he had not realized the power of space and the power of time, he might not have been able to capture this mysterious wave.

Since stepping into Miaoshan, Miaoshan's complexion has been extremely serious. She has a vigilant look and radiates a peaceful Buddha light, which resonates with the barren mountains here.

The origin of the Buddha, the West Tianling Mountain, is the highest mountain of Mars in front of Qin Tiange, with the highest peak straight into the atmosphere.

In the barren mountains, there is a deep silence, not like the legendary Xitian Bliss Pure Land, but more like a dead land.

“Master, if that satellite can successfully enter Mars orbit, we may all be able to monitor it all now.” Fu Ji said with regret.

Qin Tiange did not care, but fell on a huge mountain and looked at some rubble and building ruins left in amazement.

“There used to be glorious and huge buildings here ...” Qin Tiange picked up a piece of rubble to view, as hard as iron.

There are many collapsed buildings here, faintly visible, that are temples. According to Miaoyin, there have been countless Buddhas here. Lingshan is the place where the Buddha originated and it is also the sacred place of the Buddha.

Along the way, Qin Tiange felt that here was full of an inexplicable power, very depressed, like Buddha power, but not like it.

The closer to the central vein of the mountain range, the more inexplicable the power became, making Qin Tiange unable to help but be surprised.

“Daddy, what's that?” The little fairy suddenly shook Qin Tiange's arm, her little finger on a distant mountain.

There is a large area of ruins floating in the air, a little bit golden, and from here you can see that it is a huge sky temple, a holy temple.

Several people speeded up, and soon came to this floating ruins, watching the ruined scene.

The ruins, the rubble and bricks flying in the sky, and the huge temple silhouette floating quietly here, telling the prosperity and strength of the year.

Qin Tiange looked cautiously, walked into this floating ruins, and saw a lot of Jin Cancan's bones in the rubble.

These bones exude strong Buddha light and are extremely strong Buddha bones. Miaoshan, with compassion, waved his hands and put away these golden Buddha bones, and seemed to want to take them away.

Qin Tiange didn't care, and he took very fast golden broken bones. After a close observation, it was shocking to find that the flow of Buddha's power remained in these remains.

Piece by piece of floating ruins, the golden temple was ruined, and the temple collapsed, it was a world of ruins.

Not only these floating palace ruins, but also the mountains, there are various architectural ruins on the peaks.

It's a pity that it's already dilapidated here, and it's almost impossible to see what it looked like before.

“Be careful, I was attacked in front.”

At this moment, Miaoshan looked dignified, and looked at the surrounding situation with great nervousness and vigilance.

This is already the central main vein of the mountain range. The largest main peak is directly inserted into the atmosphere and is not seen at the top.

“Be careful!”

Qin Tiange carefully reminded that UU reading www.uukanshu.com then emptied, stepping on the ruins of the void, stepping on the innumerable rubble and gravel, the four of them shook straight up and rushed to the highest peak of Mars, the top of the west Tianling Mountain .

From here, into the clouds, you still don't see the top of the main peak, and continue up to the Martian atmosphere.

There were thunders and lightnings, dark clouds rolling, and a black and yellow storm whistling, as if entering the doomsday world.

Through the atmosphere, Qin Tiange finally reached the highest peak of Mars, the rumored peak of the West Tianling Mountain.

“Lingshan, Daleiyin Temple!”

The top of the mountain is huge, and a huge monument stands here, which depicts the Sanskrit language of Gula, which is the word Lingshan and Daleiyin Temple.

On top of everyone's heads, a huge area of huge palaces floated there, emitting countless Buddha lights, but the golden Buddha lights were full of evil.

“We're in trouble.” Qin Tiange stared at the huge palace group, murmured solemnly.

Chapter 556 - Polluted buddha

“Aura of evil, the Holy Land of Buddha is polluted ...”

Miaoshan's expression was extremely dignified, and he looked at the floating Daleiyin Temple with shocked eyes. The whole body of Buddha light had already lost its pure and immaculate holiness, and it was replaced by a kind of deep twilight and extremely evil.

What made her even more frightened was that Miaoshan felt the breath of her incarnation and was completely polluted.

“My dear, my avatar has been infected by evil spirits. Let's go. This place should not be left for a long time.” Miao Shan looked cautiously and directly offered to leave to return to the earth.

She sensed an unknown breath, her avatar was contaminated, and bad things might happen if she stayed there.

“We can't walk for a while.” Qin Tiange said blankly, speaking lightly.

Immediately after this remark, I saw a dark buddha bell ringing in front of Daleiyin Temple.

Boom...

The Buddha's bell is faint, as if oscillating through time and space, showing a deep twilight, making people desperate.

Qin Tiange raised his hand and pointed it out. The black particles swept through, turning into a black curtain to block the twilight bell.

The powerful sound waves swept one after another, constantly impacting the black curtain of space, sending out waves of tsunami-like sweeping sound, shaking the earth.

boom!

With a loud noise, the bells stopped, and the sound gradually subsided. Qin Tiange dispersed the black particle barrier in front of him, staring brightly and staring at Da Leiyin Temple.

I saw the sky full of buddha energy, which was a kind of dark Buddha light, no longer pure, but full of evil.

“Amitabha, why come again?”

A sound came from Daleiyin Temple, long and long, as if an ancient Buddha was born, and the sound was shocked with a strong soul.

Those who are weak-willed must be defeated by this shock and directly polluted, but Qin Tiange is not an ordinary person.

Xu Ji looked curious, and looked at the inexplicable impact of consciousness, without even feeling the slightest, as if it was useless to her.

It was a little goblin, her eyebrows were brilliant, and she turned into a ten-color light curtain that enveloped her, blocking the impact.

Miaoshan's eyebrows trembled, the Buddha's light pervaded, a chakra rose from behind, exuding a mighty Buddha power and suppressing all evil.

Only Qin Tiange remained motionless, and even those thoughts rushed into the sea of knowledge, but could not lift a bit of wind and waves, and were crushed and devoured by two taboo forces.

“Fool it out and get out!”

Qin Tiange faced a killer, sang a cold drink, raised his hand and pointed at the void in front of him, and a black particle swept away as a torrent.

Just listening to the loud noise, the space shattered like a mirror, and turned into sharp blades to cut past it, causing waves of ripples.

“Namo Amitabha!”

In front, a black light permeated, and a black lotus emerged slowly, with a figure sitting on it, holding a black jade bottle, and a black Buddha wheel behind, like a round of black sun, exuding a deep twilight.

“This is your avatar?” Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and looked at the person who came out of the Leiyin Temple on the opposite side, sitting on a black lotus, with the same appearance as Miaoshan.

However, the breath of the two was completely opposite, Miao Shan exuded a peaceful Buddha light all over him, and the other was exuding a strong evil spirit.

“You are so willing to fall?” Miao Shan's face was cold and her eyes were angry, apparently annoyed by the change of her avatar.

She didn't expect that her avatar had fallen into arrogance and turned into this picture, which is just another evil goodness.

“Whose avatar between you and me has not yet been known, since you are here, then stay and don't have to leave.” Hei Miaoshan said indifferently.

This made Qin Tiange frown, and looked at the blackened wonderfulness. The black lotus under him emits strong energy fluctuations. From the breath point of view, the blackened wonderfulness is more powerful.

“Can you solve it?” Qin Tiange asked softly, a hint of solemnity in his tone.

It is not that he is afraid of this darkened beauty. Even if she is stronger, Qin Tiange does not look at it. The only thing that makes him look vigilant is that there is a lot of terrible breath in Daleiyin Temple.

“Sir, I will solve this fallen incarnation by myself.” Miao Shan's face was firm, and her eyes were filled with strong anger.

She whispered, "It turned out that you swallowed all the incarnations. No wonder this seat can't sense any outsider's breath. It turned out to be this way."

Miaoshan knew at this moment that the avatars she had lost were swallowed by the blackened evil avatar herself.

She even suspected that it was probably her that was hit by an unknown attack when she stepped in here the previous time. Of course, this was no longer important.

"Buddha is universal!"

Suddenly, two figures rose into the sky, two extreme forces of one gold and one black collided with each other, making a rumbling sound of vibration.

Miaoshan held the golden Buddha wheel in his hand and slammed the evil incarnation on the opposite side. However, the other side was not weak, even stronger than Miaoshanlai.

boom!

The black chakra came, Miaoshan took a step back, and the chakra trembled, emitting a bright Buddha light.

The two stared at each other. The two were exactly the same. Except for the difference in strength and nature, everything else was the same.

"Master, something."

At this moment, his own look was faint, his eyes shone through a ray of data, and he stared at the closed gate of Daleiyin Temple, and saw a black gas pouring out, sweeping towards him.

Seeing this situation, Xunji said nothing and flashed forward, and waved a powder fist to slam it up.

咚 隆!

As soon as the boxing came out, the black gas collapsed and could not stop the horrible light lingering on his fist, which was pure thermal energy.

Yes, my own body is like a dormant sun. In the moment of the battle, a tremendous amount of heat burst out, and the black gas was blown with a punch.

"Amitabha, convert to my Buddha and enjoy eternal life!"

As soon as the Buddha's trumpet came, a huge Buddha shadow emerged from the black light. It was a dark King Kong Lohan with three heads and six arms, extremely powerful.

When Xunji saw the other person, a smile of excitement appeared on Qiao's face, and said, "Master, give this to Xunji to practice your hands."

"Okay, you be careful." Qin Tiange nodded, not minding.

Jiji has a powerful ten-star fighting power, and, as an artificial intelligence, the calculation and understanding of battle far exceeds countless humans.

Qin Tiange was not worried about this, but stared at Da Leiyin Temple, his face became more dignified.

“The sacred place of the Buddha turned into such a filthy place polluted by evil spirits. It seems that the inside is completely changed.” Qin Tiange muttered to himself.

From the thousands of breaths emanating from the Da Leiyin Temple, he captured the most powerful evil breath. He is very familiar and has seen it before.

That was the breath of Buddha Shakyamuni. I had seen it when I faced Dustless, and I felt it with dignity.

“Every mortal, when you come to Da Lei Yin, sincerely bow down to convert to my Buddha, you can enter into bliss and enjoy eternal life.”

A faint utterance came from inside Daleiyin Temple, shaking the void, and causing some airflow in the atmosphere to be chaotic.

Listening to this voice, Qin Tiange sneered, and hummed, “Pretending to be a  and making a ghost, the real Buddha had fallen away in the last era.”

As soon as this word came out, Daleiyin Temple fell into silence, as if what he said was correct, and silenced many evil Buddhas inside.

In fact, what Qin Tiange said was the fact. He learned many secrets from a long memory obtained from Zhenyuan, one of which is the legend of the Buddha.

In the last era, not only the gods and immortals became extinct, but the Buddha also fell.

“I, Nirvana has returned, mortal, enter my thunder, you can see my true face, listen to my true scriptures, and gain the fruit.”

With a faint word coming, I saw the gate of Da Lei Yin Temple slowly open, revealing a dark scene inside.

Before waiting for Qin Tiange to enter, he saw a Buddha shadow flying inside, riding a black dragon, and roaring with anger.

“The Buddha said that only the donor can enter the temple. This demon cannot enter.” The Luo Han riding the black dragon said coldly.

Qin Tiange was nothing, but the words angered the little fairies, and the little face said that it would change, and a sense of killing would arise.

“Dead niggas, you fight!”

The little demon sang softly, exuding all kinds of colors, and lotus flowers of various colors around him emerged, swirling around her, exuding horror.

In particular, a ten-color lotus stepped on by the little fairy’s feet, even the Luohan riding the black dragon on the opposite side, showed a hint of shock.

“It turns out to be a ten-colored fairy lotus, you are the seat.” The Luo Han sneered, riding a black dragon to kill him instantly.

He was strange at first, but when he saw the various lotus flowers released by the little fairy, he immediately had an urge to devour her.

“Little guy, be careful and kill this evil buddha.” Qin Tiange smiled lightly and ordered the little fairies aside.

The little guy raised his cheeky face and assured him, “Daddy, rest assured, I’ll kill him and catch the black dragon for Dad.”

The little fairy said, rolling away the lotus flower flying away, the petals fluttered, turned into a sharp blade and whistled to The black dragon roared, snarled at the evil Luo Han, and the two collided, strong The showdown is a powerful force of ten stars, extremely terrifying.

Qin Tiange looked at it and stopped paying attention, but turned around and walked towards the Da Leiyin Temple, which was wide open.

He wanted to see what the other Buddha in Daleiyin Temple looked like, or how strong was it?

Boom...

As soon as I walked to the gate of Daleiyin Temple, the black Buddha bell immediately sounded a sound of Buddhism. It was heavy and twilight, revealing death, as if the sound of five faint sounds from Hell.

Qin Tiange’s face did not change color, and he kept walking, stepping into the gate of Daleiyin Temple in front and stepping into it.

The moment it entered, an extremely terrifying atmosphere was oppressed, boundless and boundless, as if facing a true Buddha of ancient horror.

Qin Tiange slowly raised his head, horrible black particles permeated all over his body, ignored this coercion, and faced the huge shadow above the hall of Daleiyin Temple.

Chapter 557 - Evil

“Well, well, what, pit, mi, oh!”

On the main hall, a six-character mantra was spit out, and six simple black characters slammed into it, penetrating the heavens, suppressing the breath of all realms, and pressing heavily on Qin Tiange’s head.

The Buddha spoke the truth, and the six-character Sanskrit text was pressed down.

“Space confinement!”

Qin Tiange’s face was dull, he raised a finger, black particles poured out, and the space in front of him was immediately confined.

Six dark Sanskrit words were immediately imprisoned on the spot, unable to advance or retreat, and soon smashed by a space particle.

“Amitabha, the sea of bitterness is endless ...”

The black words collapsed, the giant Buddha raised his hand, the giant palms held the sky, and it was rumbling down, as if to suppress this world.

Qin Tiange was in the palm of his hand, without fear, his eyes spit out two silver awns, streaks of black particles staggered, and spiraled around the body.

I saw that the palm of the Great Buddha turned into a black Dead Sea, like a sea of bitterness, with endless meaning of death, boundless.

“Mortal, you can get out of the body and you can come to the other side and listen to this Buddhist scripture.”

On the other side of the bitter sea, a giant Buddha stands tall, high above him, dark in the whole body, exuding a strong breath of death, extremely evil.

He even let Qin Tiange give up the body and go to the other side with the body of the soul, which is equivalent to surrendering the soul and converting to the Buddha.

“Rulai, don't you feel ashamed that you, as one of the Buddhas, turned into a demon?”

Qin Tiange yelled, his voice through the endless bitter sea, set off a turbulent sea, shaking the whole dark bitter sea of death.

I saw that the great black buddha had a hazy body and a strong evil spirit to the point of terrifying soul and terrifying soul.

He is Rulai, but it is a wicked Rulai, and there is no peaceful Buddha light permeating all over him, but an evil spirit full of death.

“Amitabha, Buddha is the devil, and the devil is the Buddha.”

Xie Ru came to the sound of the Buddha, rolled black gas, raised his hand and slapped, suppress Qin Tiange.

That palm encompasses the heavens and the earth, there is a universe in the palm, there is a huge buddha country inside, but it looks like hell, countless ghosts sorrow, and magic barriers roar, very terrifying.

Looking at the * Buddha country in the palm of Xie Rulai, Qin Tiange looked cautiously, his hands crossed, and a black particle poured out from behind, turning into a dark sun.

“Black particles in space!”

With a low drink, accompanied by the black sun blooming an infinite amount of black light, endless black particles swept away in all directions, a crunching sound came, and the sea of death collapsed.

Immediately afterwards, the space particles turned into a black dragon, howling in anger, and the dragon thundered for nine days, crashing against the huge palm.

Suddenly, there was a sorrow in hell, and there was a roar of magic barriers in the dark kingdom of Buddha. The miserable screams penetrated the soul and shocked people.

The black dragon shattered, the palms of the Buddha broke apart, and both disappeared.

“If you come, what other means do you have?” Qin Tiange came out of the air with that confident style, as if nothing in the world could stop him.

Everything disappeared, Qin Tiange returned to the main hall, watching the huge black Buddha sitting on the top of the hall, it was exactly evil.

He slowly opened his eyes, two black mangs penetrated through the air, and came in, but they were crushed by the two silver mangs sent out by Qin Tiange's eyes, and both went out.

Xie Rulai opened his eyes and opened his eyes, and his hands were crossed: "Mortal man, you have crossed the sea of death in this seat, but can you be a big disciple, and not come to see you?"

"Take me as a disciple?" Qin Tiange said with a sneer, calmly: "Don't say that you are an evil as if you are here. I can't worship you as a teacher."

Xie Rulai said indifferently: "So bad, then suppress you for five hundred years and wear off your bad sex!"

"Suppress me for five hundred years? It depends on whether you have this ability!" Qin Tiange drank, his body turned into a black particle and disappeared.

Reappeared, already in front of Xie Rulai, waving his fist, the ninety-nine star cores in the body burst out instantly, and a monstrous force emerged.

That is the power of the stars. Once the power condenses into the nucleus of the star, it cannot be calculated by human power, but by the power of the stars.

For example, now, ninety-nine star cores in Qin Tiange's body burst out at the same time, and the strength emerging is like the terrible lethality generated when a super meteor hits the planet.

boom!

The dark air broke up, the sound of Buddha burst, the devil wailed, and Evil Rulai was beaten back with a punch.

Qin Tiange's punch contained the power of ninety-nine star cores, and it was difficult to resist even the evil ascendant. His face was shocked.

"Broken!"

Pointing out, the space was broken like a mirror. The body of Xie Rulai fell into a broken space fault, and countless sharp blades cut over it.

The terrible black particles, the terrifying blades of space, howling together, split the black light outside the body of the evil lord.

Just hearing a click, the body's black light shattered, revealing the true content of evil.

The evil came, his face was violent, his head was covered with evil bone relics, one after another was imprinted on his head, exuding terrible evil spirits.

"The power of space, mortal, you are surprised at this seat." Xie Rulai said lightly, with a hint of surprise in his tone.

Unexpectedly, Qin Tiange even realized the power of space, but he didn't know yet that there was actually another kind of power in the other party, which was time taboo.

“Aren’t you going to suppress me for five hundred years?” Qin Tiange stepped forward, waved his hand gently, snorted, and the ancient sword was in his hand, buzzing.

Ok? Xie Rulai issued a suspicion, stared at the ancient sword, his eyes flickered, as if he knew this ancient sword.

“You even have this sword, it seems you can’t keep it!”

Xie Rulai suddenly changed her face, and the binocular killing machine flashed directly into the tyranny. It seemed that when she saw the sword of the ancient sword, it produced an extremely strong killing machine.

I don’t know why, Qin Tiange always felt that this evil Rulai was not really Rulai, or that the true spirit was not Rulai.

“Sword of the King!”

Qin Tiangeti sword cut through the void, a sword cut into the neck of evil Rulai, sharp through the body, cut the body of the Buddha, seeping the blood of black evil delusion.

Looking at a ray of black blood on the tip of the sword, Qin Tiange revealed his eyes and secretly said, “Sure enough, Rulai was controlled by some evil force.”

“Very well, this one prefers hunting the strong ...” Xie Rulai showed a wicked smile, terrifying.

However, Qin Tiange’s eyes narrowed, and a sneer twitched at the corner of his mouth. He said, “You have finally exposed your feet. If you come, no matter whether evil or not, you will not mention the word hunting.”

“You’re not like here, you can roll away.”

As soon as Qin Tiange’s words fell, the whole person disappeared into black particles, and quietly emerged from the evil spirit’s forehead.

With a humming sound, Gu Jian inserted the Tianling Acupoint of Evil Rulai, pierced an evil bone relic, and directly pierced the brain.

boom!

I saw evil Rulai holding her palms high together, slamming  her head, the terrible wind swept out, raging in all directions.

Unfortunately, it was impossible to slap Qin Tiange’s body at all, and it had long since disappeared into black particles.

“Buddhas work together to suppress this trance!”

At this time, Evil Rulai was gloomy, with brutal murderous power in his eyes, and the wicked evil spirit was boiling, directly directing many Buddhas in the hall to take action.

Qin Tiange’s figure slowly emerged, standing in front of Xie Rulai, not far from the sky, his eyes gleaming, his tone cold: “Let me see how powerful you are, the polluted Buddha.”

Huh!

The ancient sword swept across the body of a black Buddha body, splitting it into two pieces on the spot.

Anxious for Qin Tiange to step in the void, a black particle rolled into the hundreds of evil Buddhas, killing the ring.

Killing one person in one step, the mourners mourn, the blood of evil delusion is constantly splashing, and no demonized evil Buddha is Qin Tiange's opponent.

Seeing that the buddhas were about to be killed, Xie Rulai couldn't sit still. He immediately got up and left the position for the first time, exuding an evil spirit.

"Broken eyes!"

Xie Rulai opened his eyes, two beams of horror Heiman came through the air, the speed is extremely fast, and most people can't catch it.

"Imperial Wrath!"

Qin Tiange Li Xiao, a whole body of fearful force fluctuations, gathered together into a huge virtual shadow, exuding the power of a king.

With the current sword of Xeon, Xie Rulai finally could not bear it, and his body was cut open with a huge mark and blood stains.

"kill!"

As soon as a long howl came, Qin Tiange's figure flew over, as if an invincible power was strolling under the siege of the Buddhas.

Xie Rulai's eyes glow, and the evil will is boiling. The strength and breath hidden in Xie Rulai's body is definitely not the breath and power of the Buddha.

"You know too much!" Xie Rulai was indifferent, slamming his hands.

The huge power contains a strange and evil power. It is not a power belonging to Rulai, but a certain mysterious power. It is very powerful.

boom!

The two punched each other, and the area was sunk in an instant. The black particles boiled and the space broke apart.

Qin Tiange held black particles in his hands and turned them into weapons. He continued to attack evil as he came, and beat him into doom.

Just hearing a click, the evil bones relic shattered above Xie Rulai's head, and then turned into a terrible evil force blooming.

The evil bone relics contain powerful and terrifying evil forces, which are swallowed by evil evil, and then the physical strength soars.

"dead!"

Evil Rulai is extremely indifferent The word is like gold, and immediately grab a black Buddha wheel behind it and bombard it directly.

“set!”

A stream of black particles came in, the space was confined, and even the time remained stationary for an instant, as if it had been instantly frozen.

The black Buddha wheel buzzed and kept trembling, trying to get rid of this restraining force. Although it soon broke out, the evil ruling came a step too late.

Click!

After hearing only a crisp sound from Houxin, the huge Buddha body was knocked out by Qin Tiange’s punch.

“Dead!” Qin Tiange’s body emerged quietly, and Gu Jian pierced the position of Xie Rulai’s eyebrow at an instant, piercing each other.

Xie Rulai looked stiff and wicked, but gradually weakened and soon disappeared.

“You ...” Xie Rulai opened his mouth to say something, and before he finished speaking, Qin Tiange smashed the cold and evil consciousness with an ancient sword.

Chapter 558 - Buddha's blood stained Xitian, Shakyana returned?

Qin Tiange smashed the cold and cold thoughts, and suddenly felt that a new wave of soul thoughts reappeared in the body.

“Sum! Sum!”

Rulai slowly closed her eyes and opened again, a ray of golden light diffused, which is the purest nature of Buddhism. The original meaning of evil turned into a kind of compassion and holiness.

He had a holy white lotus in his mouth, a smile on his face, and a golden buddha character rose from his body. The black chakra behind him suddenly turned into a golden day.

“Dairi is here!”

Qin Tiange stepped back and looked at the changes in Rulai carefully. This is one of the real great Riru, Xitian Buddha.

“Amitabha!” Rugao folded her hands, smiled, and bowed her head. “Thank you, Xiaoyou, for cutting off that foreign object.”

Qin Tiange looked calm and didn’t speak. He just listened to Rulai and smiled indifferently.

“What’s the matter, you say.” Qin Tiange nodded gently.

I saw Rulai sweeping through many evil Buddhas here and sighed: “My Nirvana was robbed and controlled by foreign objects, such as the coming of the Fa phase, which caused Xitian Pure Land to be contaminated. I also asked the friends to break the Buddha’s evil bodies and come as I did The law phase, blood stained Xitian, washed away the dust and dirt. “

Speaking, Rulai folded his hands together, suddenly pointed at the eyebrow, took out a group of Jin Chancan's brilliance, and sent it to Qin Tiange.

"This is my memory. I will give it to the little friend as a gift of gratitude. Then, I will bother the little friend." After speaking, the golden light disappeared, and the big Buddha wheel turned black.

Suddenly, Da Rirui recovered the evil again, incarnate the evil Rulai, and the evil thought that was originally chopped up was born again.

Qin Tiange quietly looked at a group of Jin Chancan's radiance, which was filled with endless Buddhism, containing the Nirvana meaning of the Dharma Buddha, and even had a huge memory of him, which was given to him?

"Mortal, kill me, you will die!"

At this moment, the evil opening of Yin Rulai was filled with horror, the evil spirit boiled, turned into a sea of death, and Qin Tiange was enveloped in it.

At the same time, evil spirits from all over the sky arrived, and Qin Tiange was attacked to kill him completely in the bitter sea of death.

"It came just right, so I dyed Xitian with the blood of the Buddhas and washed away the evil delusions."

Qin Tiange came step by step, the ancient sword swept across the sky, killing a Buddha in ten steps, and taking on a touch of dark golden Buddha blood and spilling it on Xitian.

With a buzz, the ancient sword crossed the head of an evil Buddha, and it was instantly cut off, and the twilight heavy black Buddha blood was faintly revealing a ray of golden Buddha nature.

This is the evil body of the Buddhas. Even if it is polluted, there is still a ray of pure Buddhism. Under the killing of Qin Tiange, the blood of these evil Buddhas spilled and contaminated the entire Daleiyin Temple.

"Imperial Wrath!"

Suddenly, Qin Tiange vacated the sky, turned into a huge prince's shadow, and slashed forward with his sword, and the horrible sword exploded, instantly smashing dozens of hundreds of evil Buddhas.

With a loud sigh, the ancient sword was blocked, and the evil lord came to kill it powerfully. The bergamot supported the sky, blocking the assault of the ancient sword.

Qin Tiange saw that the ancient sword was blocked, with a sneer on his face, put away the ancient sword, and directly waved a pair of fists, condensing a black particle to kill it.

"kill!"

With a violent drink, Qin Tiange's fist rushed to the ground, the black particles broke into the space, and slammed on the evil body of the evil ascendant, heard the sound of gold and iron attack, and shocked Xitian Lingshan.

The two collided, and the huge bergamot revealed endless evil delusions, to suppress Qin Tiange and pollute his soul.

However, Qin Tiange's body was filled with a strong will, and he was unmoved at all, and any evil intentions were added, which was mysteriously worn away.

boom!

Another punch came, and the Buddha's hand, Xie Rulai, was smashed, and the blood of the Buddha was boiling, and it was sprinkled on the Xitian Lingshan, rendering the pure land of the Buddhas.

In this buddha's blood, with a strong buddha nature, the dust and dirt of Xitian's pure land were washed away, and the holy Buddha's light began to spread a little bit, expelling Xitian's evil spirit.

“Mortal, stop, I want to talk to you.”

Finally, Xie Rulai's complexion faintly revealed a trace of anxiety, and he stopped in the fierce battle and wanted to talk to Qin Tiange.

Unfortunately, in response to Qin Tiange's punch, the fist wrapped in black particles broke through the space and hit him directly.

The crunching sound of cracking, the body of the evil Rulai cracked, the blood of the Buddha burst out, spilled Xitian, and stirred up a black gas.

“Nothing to talk about!”

Qin Tiange snorted, smashed the two evil Buddhas behind him with one palm, split them into pieces, and scattered the West Tianling Mountain.

He pressed hard, waved his fist, condensed a horrible black particle, and punched the top of Daleiyin Temple with a brave punch.

With a bang, the top of the main hall was blasted with a punch, revealing the outside scene. Qin Tiange vacated his body, killing several evil Buddhas blocking the front with one palm.

“The bitter sea is boundless, suppress the heavens!”

When the evil came, the hand turned into a sea of bitter death and fell from the sky. Qin Tiange, who flew out, was brought down.

Only this time he was disappointed, Qin Tiange suddenly accelerated, punched the sea of death, punched through this so-called boundless sea of death, and rushed out.

I saw Xie Rulai soaring, staring gloomily at Qin Tiange, furious, and did not expect the other party to be so tangled, and did not accept any chance to talk.

“Time is up, you can die.”

As soon as Qin Tiange's expression moved, the corner of his mouth suddenly evoked a slight sneer, his hands crossed, and a dark space particle came from all directions, forming a huge black sun behind him, emitting endless black light.

“Space storm!”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange held the horrible black sun in his hands and threw it directly at the evil Era, and the rumbling sound shook the whole Xitian.

Suddenly, the sun sinks, crushed all the way, the space collapses, turns into countless space sharp blades flying around, a terrible torrent of chaos rushes out, forming a terrible space storm.

Nowhere is this void intact as this space storm passes, enveloping the huge body of evil as it is, constantly cutting and locking.

“Ah ...” In the center of the storm, Xie Rulai’s body was cut by the space storm, and pieces of flesh flew apart, spilling Xitian.

The space storm swept through, shattered the evil Buddhas, the Buddhas fell to the sky, the Buddha’s blood stained Xitian, washed away the dust and dirt, and the golden buddhas were magnificent, washing away the evil spirit above the Xitian Lingshan.

The huge body of Xie Rulai was smashed, turned into the blood of a Buddha, and turned into a huge ocean, with the golden light of the Buddha, washing the entire Lingshan.

“Mortal, this seat will not give up.”

A dark ray of light radiated out, and there was a round of black Buddhist chakras floating up and down, dripping the deep and evil light, and rushing toward Qin Tiange with the meaning of heaven and man and five declines.

Hidden in this power is a delusional true spirit, which is the foreign creature that occupies and controls Rulai.

“Wait for you!” Qin Tiange was not surprised, but showed a hint of sneer, and raised his hand to blast a black particle that had been condensed.

Just listening to the rumbling noise, the black particles exploded, and a mysterious force hidden inside suddenly dispersed, and the eight sides were still.

“Time ... sometimes ...” A roar came, but it was a pity.

Evil Rulai was completely destroyed, the body of the Buddha was smashed by Qin Tiange, turned into the blood of the Buddha and rendered Xitian, and the evil dust here was washed away.

On the top of the Lingshan Mountain, in the Daleiyin Temple, the bodies of many evil Buddhas collapsed and turned into a rain of blood, which drove the evil spirits here.

“what...”

Suddenly a scream came, and a three-headed, six-armed Luo Han was smashed by his own blow, and the whole exploded, turning into a blood rain.

Immediately afterwards, a monster force broke out from the goblin, and the gods behind it unfolded, rumblingly rolled over, united with Jiu Duo Lian Tai to destroy the dragon-riding Luo Han on the spot.

Alas ... The black dragon howled, unfortunately he was trapped by the goblins in the sacred soil, and then directly suppressed into a black lotus.

“All living beings are suffering and fall into the sea of suffering forever. I would like to dispel a Buddha fruit and turn it into a canoe, only to lead all beings to the other side. Anyone who believes in us can board the other side in a boat and enjoy bliss!”

Hearing a low murmur of voices, showing the meaning of compassion, the Miaoshan Heihua Fa body even voluntarily dissipated a Buddha fruit.

She exuded two extreme breaths, an immaculate, compassionate, an evil unparalleled, twilight.

“Shan Ye! Shan Ye!” Miao Shan folded her hands and looked at the enlightened body in complex expression. I did not expect that this would happen.

The transformation of the Dharma Body means that it will completely disappear and disappear in the future. Heihua Miaoshan’s face gradually showed a trace of compassionate smile, nodded to the body on this side, the body turned into an energy, and then, A touch of pure Buddhism flew into Miaoshan’s body.

“Shan 哉! Shan 哉!” Miaoshan sighed and said nothing.

Throughout the Xitian Lingshan, the blood of the Buddha filled the sky, washing the evil spirit here, and gradually restored the original pure Buddha’s breath of Xitian Lingshan.

At this time, somewhere on the earth’s China, Dustless opened his eyes suddenly, and two beams of golden light passed through.

He slowly raised his head, looking up at the position of Mars above the starry sky, his eyes flickered, and a giant Buddha appeared faintly behind him, which was the Sakyamuni Buddha.

“The evil delusion has been removed, the Buddhas have returned, the demon and the Buddha are united, and Nirvana is born again!”

Suddenly, sitting cross-legged, muttering to the direction of Mars, a large Buddha bloomed behind him, and then a buddha nation emerged, with many Buddhas in it, three thousand Buddhas metal shining, one black and one gold, two breaths intertwined. Fusion into one.

The evil thoughts of the Buddhas were killed, and the Buddhas succeeded in the integration of the Buddha and the demon, and Nirvana was reborn.

“The past, the present, and the future, the three are in one, Nirvana testifies!”

Dustless hands clasped together, behind a giant Buddha shadow slowly solidified, that is the Sakyamuni Buddha, which belongs to the past body. Then, his body emanated a bright Buddha light, the splendor of the Buddha’s nature, just as the present body .

Dust-free, is the reincarnated body of Buddha Nirvana, which is now.

As for the future body, it is the statue of Rugao who has just been killed, the evil thoughts are eliminated, the day of Riyadh comes, the golden Buddha is magnificent, and the three bodies are instantly unified.

Bang ...

The world trembled and the Buddha light became universal. At this moment, countless Buddha statues from all over the world suddenly came to life. It is appropriate to pray together. In this direction, the worship is as if a Buddha Nirvana returned.

“Sakya Nirvana succeeded Kunlun, a word of ethereal words came out, with a hint of joy.

“Shakya, you finally succeeded in Nirvana.”

In a secret realm, Zhen Yuan looked nostalgic, and was a little sad. There were not many deceased people in the previous period, and not many of them could return.

“Sakya Mani, have you succeeded? It seems that this seat should be born too, reincarnation again and again, does anyone remember the existence of this seat?”

Extreme cold secrets, in the central area, where a huge ice palace stands, there is a cold voice of a woman, like an ancient existence from the previous period.

“Sakyamuni?”

“interesting!”

As the evil thoughts of the Buddhas on Mars were cut, the blood of the Buddha stained the west, and Shakyamuni Nirvana returned, immediately alarming many ancient beings and waking up.

Chapter 559 - Black Prison, Monarch

Mars, above the West Tianling Mountain, Qin Tiange looked at the West Tianling Mountain that had been exhausted by the dust, and bloomed a ray of pure Buddha again.

“This is the pure land of the Buddhists.” He muttered to himself.

Behind him, Miaoshan looked weird, took a look at Qin Tiange, and suddenly said, “Shizun asked me to give a message, thank you for your help.”

“No, I will ask him for help in the future.” Qin Tiange shook his head slightly, smiling at the corners of his mouth, as if he already knew that Shakyamuni Nirvana had returned.

He obtained a part of Zhenyuan’s memory and naturally learned many secrets of the previous period. How could he not know about the Buddha of Shakyamuni?

“Dad, Lianer gave it to Dad!”

At this moment, the little fairy took out the black lotus, took out the suppressed black dragon, and went directly to Qin Tiange and handed it to him, with a look of anticipation on the little face.

This was the first gift she gave to her father, which moved Qin Tiange’s heart and rubbed her hair.

“Thank you, Dad likes this gift very much.” Qin Tiange pinched the black dragon directly and put it away with a smile.

Since the daughter has a heart, it cannot be rejected, otherwise it will hurt the little guy’s pure heart.

Qin Tiange thought, just go back and prepare a gift for the little fairies, otherwise, how can you be a father without preparing a gift?

“Master, be careful, I feel a terrible wave nearby.”

Xunji stepped up carefully, said this sentence quietly, and seemed extra vigilant.

Miaoshan also nodded and said earnestly: “His respect, Miaoshan also noticed something wrong. I’ll leave as soon as possible.”

“No hurry!”

Qin Tiange smiled inexplicably, but both Jiji and Miaoshan felt it. He could not sense it for no reason. In fact, he had already discovered it, but he ignored it.

I saw him look up, staring at the space at the top of Da Lei Yin Temple, and suddenly said, “You have seen it long enough, now you can come out.”

“Interesting, can you spot me?”

With a word of surprise coming, then the void rippled, and there was a figure coming out of it.

Let’s say it’s a human figure. He looks a lot like a human, but there are two scarlet horns growing on his forehead.

The most amazing thing is the position of this man’s eyebrow, and a closed eye, the slightest evil breath is revealed, posing an endless threat to people.

“Hell Prisoner, King Class?” Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, staring at the creature that appeared in front of him. He was one of the hundred stars in the sky.

What he didn’t expect is that this black prison powerhouse turned out to be a king-level master and had to be said to be a bit amazing.

“Yo, you know a lot.” The black prison king looked at Qin Tiange in surprise and began to take it seriously.

He didn’t even bother because Qin Tiange was just a nine-star star. In his eyes, it was a dregs existence, and he didn’t even look at it.

Under the king are ants, and they can be killed easily, even if the three ten-star creatures in front of him are not seen in his eyes.

But I did not expect Qin Tiange to come from all over his identity, even to sense his hidden breath and cultivation, which had to attract his attention.

“I’m curious, how did you see that?” The black prison monarch-level master looked very young and should have just reached adulthood.

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange said with a smile on his face and said, “I guess that you should have just broken through the ranks of the king as an adult, not enough. I heard that most of the Hells are * merchants. Are you here to do business or something purpose?”

Qin Tiange's words were slow and powerful, showing a strong self-confidence, even if he was facing a king-level master, there was no stage fright.

Even if he can't beat the opponent, Qin Tiange is confident and self-protecting. Of course, he hasn't played before and it's not clear if he is a king-level opponent.

"Hey, this tribe is interesting, and the king has begun to admire you a bit." The young king of the black prison tribe smiled strangely.

He looked up and down Qin Tiange, and then said: "I do come here to do business, but only if you have the strength and qualifications to do business with me?"

"Oh?" Qin Tiange smiled, his eyes filled with a terrifying warfare, a terrible will brewed in his heart, getting stronger and stronger, and finally he couldn't suppress the growl.

Bang!

A * of war frightened into the void, shaking in all directions, causing the black prison monarch-level master to shake and look horrified.

"It's a vigorous battle, what exactly gives you such a magnificent confidence is simply unshakable." The black prison monarch was really surprised.

Because even he did not have this confidence, while being curious about Qin Tiange, he was a little jealous, so unwavering, unbreakable self-confidence, it was not easy to build up.

"Let me see, where does your self-confidence come from?" The black prison monarch smiled confidently, stepped up, and stood directly on Mars near-Earth orbit.

"You are waiting for me here." Qin Tiange didn't look back, stepped across the atmosphere and went directly into outer space orbit.

The two stood quietly facing each other in space, and Sisi's eyes tore through the void, constantly colliding and interweaving, emitting a strange arc in the universe.

"kill!"

Almost at the same time, the two drank violently and instantly fisted their fists together.

Just listening to the sound of a crisp sound, fists hit each other, squashing various trace elements in the universe into nothingness, and huge energy waves radiated.

Boom boom ...

In space orbit, Qin Tiange waved his fists, condensing a terrorist force, with ninety-nine star cores erupting in unison, bombarding his opponent with black particles.

And the black prisoner's king-level powerhouse is even more horrible, with one shot and one type containing the terrible destructive power of the meteor explosion, as if raising a hand and throwing it all are a super power of nuclear explosion.

Huh!

There was a sudden crackling sound in the void, as if the mirror was broken, and he saw the void in the void where the master of the black prison tribe was suddenly broken, turning into countless blades of space to wrap him.

“The power of space?” The black prison monarch was startled, then shook his body, and a force of black prison broke out, shattering these space blades.

He rushed out quickly, his body was a bit embarrassed, his clothes were torn, but he wasn't hurt, and he felt uncomfortable.

A majestic black jail monarch, was even shattered by a nine-star young human race, which was incredible.

What's even more incredible is that he couldn't win Qin Tiange in a short time, and his opponent's physical strength was enough to withstand the bombardment of the king-level strong.

“Come again!”

Qin Tiange's face was hyper-excited, and his warfare became more and more vigorous. He felt that the power of the ninety-nine star cores in his body broke out, and he was able to fight against the king level.

This made him very excited. He rushed directly and waved his fist to kill him. He wanted to use this monarch-like power of the Black Prison to prove his abilities, and even see where his current limits were.

Opportunities are rare and must be grasped. Despite some dangers, Qin Tiange believes that his physical body and undead body will surely support it.

Sure enough, he was not disappointed. With the escalation of the two men's fierce battle, the strength from the beginning of the test increased all the way, 60%, 70%, 80%, 90%, and the last 10% all exploded, the power of the king bombed up, Qin Tiange was Suppressed.

“Okay, come again!”

Qin Tiange was blown out with a punch from the other side, his face flushed, but he continued to kill him with a drink of excitement, and his space particles almost turned into substance.

The two powerful men battled fiercely, and Mars' outer orbital space shattered as if a mirror, without seeing any figures.

Regardless of Qin Tiange or the king-level master of the black prison clan, the speed is too fast to capture the figures of the two.

In fact, it was the two who broke into the chaos of space, or Qin Tiange deliberately dragged the king-level master of the black prison into the chaos of space chaos.

“It's time to stop, I admit, you're qualified to trade with me.”

In the turbulent space, the young king of the Heil tribe looked dignified and looked at Qin Tiange's eyes differently.

Although he has many useless bottom-box abilities and believes that he can defeat this young human master, he has not continued.

No matter whether he wins or loses, he feels ashamed. It is funny to defeat a nine-star guy who beats a nine-star guy with all his strength and hole cards.

“I want to buy something, I don’t know if you have it here, if not, I will buy it from the Hell My Neighbor Totoro family.” Qin Tiange said quietly.

As soon as this word came out, the young king of the Black Prison looked intent and asked, “It seems that you have met the merchants of the Hell My Neighbor Totoro, those * people know to grab business.”

Speaking of which, the young kings of the Black Prison were unhappy, and then laughed: “Sorry, excited, introduce yourself, my name is Heigu, you can call me a * businessman.”

Qin Tiange nodded and asked, “What do you have here, give me a starry fortress.”

“Uh ...” Heigu Hegu said he was stiff, and he drew his skin away. “The starry fortress you said, that thing belongs to the core product of the Zhixing clan. I want nowhere to buy it.”

“Oh ... nothing.” Qin Tiange didn’t care, and asked, “Aren’t you a * businessman? There are so many goods in my Neighbor Totoro clan. You don’t even have one here?”

“You don’t know this ...” Hegu explained: “In fact, our people are not selling those items, but they are selling information and information. As long as they are in the Starry Clan, there is nothing that our Hells do n’t know. . “

After listening, Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes and stared at the black prison monarch, and asked, “Do you know how this universe came from?”

“This thing is basically known to all races and creatures on the starry sky? Rumors are that some ... um, why did I tell you for free?” Heguo, the king of Hell prisoners, came to his senses and immediately kept silent.

Qin Tiange was disappointed and didn’t care, but went straight to the theme: “I need a copy of the biological information of all ethnic groups who came to earth to participate in the ceremony.

The pupils of the Hell Crow’s prisoner shrank, staring at somewhere on Mars intentionally or unintentionally, and suddenly a smirk appeared.

“Yes, there is a rule for trading with us, that is, we only charge the customer’s Shouyuan as the trading chip.” Heihe Hegu directly stated the rules of their * merchants.

In fact, like the dead businessman My Neighbor Totoro, they only receive Shou Yuan as a trading chip, which is surprising.

“How much?” Qin Tiange squinted his eyes, staring at the prison go all the way, even the king was not afraid.

I saw Jail Gu slowly stretch out five fingers, with a smile on his mouth, his eyes flickered, waiting for Qin Tiange's reply quietly.

Chapter 560 - Bloody trade, return to earth

"Fifty years of life ..." Jailu said lightly.

Purchasing this information actually requires fifty years of life. It is unexpected that ordinary people can live a hundred years at most, even if they live long.

Jie Gu said that it was fifty years of life, and ordinary people must not be able to afford it. Of course, in terms of Qin Tiange's current life, even he himself didn't know how long he could live.

"Fifty years, right, you wait."

Qin Tiange bowed his head slightly, dropped a sentence, and turned into a black particle and disappeared.

The next moment, there was a roar from Mars's atmosphere, and then two loud fighting sounds gradually subsided.

When Qin Tiange reappeared, carrying a humanoid in his hand, he was severely wounded and dying.

"Yo, ten star masters of the ancient star family, not yet an adult ..." Jail Gu's eyes flickered, and a weird look appeared on his face.

The creatures carried by Qin Tiange are the Starry Hundreds of Stars, the ancient Stars, living creatures, ten-stars, and not yet adolescents. They are not much different from humans in appearance, the only difference is that their eyes are shining bright .

The ancient star family is a group of hundreds of starry sky, extremely ancient and powerful. Qin Tiange has long sensed the atmosphere under the hidden atmosphere, and just now suddenly came down, and injured and captured this hidden ancient star family of ten-star masters.

Click!

I saw Qin Tiange pressing his hand on the head of the ancient star clan who was in a coma, and immediately, the unconscious ancient star clan woke up and looked terrified.

"No, you can't do this ... Ah ..." The ancient star clan screamed before he finished speaking.

Then, a powerful vitality emerged from above his head, which was directly extracted by Qin Tiange with the force of taboo, and united into a ball.

Extracting the vitality of others is a kind of ability recently discovered by Qin Tiange. It is rarely used, but it is just a try now.

Prisoner's pupils shrank, staring at Qin Tiange, and a shocking sea was set in his heart, apparently surprised by Qin Tiange's very hot means.

This guy was able to forcibly extract the vitality of the living beings. Although the vitality lost was extremely huge and wasted a lot, only a small part of it could be extracted.

Soon, the face of the ancient star tribe quickly grew old, and the whole person seemed to be depleted, losing a lot of vitality and losing his life.

“This is the fifty-year birthday, and what I want, bring it!” Qin Tiange threw a powerful life force over.

Prison Gu quickly caught it, staring at the source of life that had been forcibly extracted from the group, and had a full fifty years of life.

Looking at the ancient star celebrity master, he turned into a bad old man on the spot, and let Qin Tiange directly wipe out valuables on his body and throw them into space like a litter.

The poor ancient Xing juvenile was still peeping at Qin Tiange and others, only to see that the king of Hegu did not dare to come out.

It's a pity that he hides no matter how deep, it is still discovered by Qin Tiange. If it wasn't for Qin Tiange to get some information from Jailu, he might not bother him.

It can only be said that he is unlucky, or that * businessman Hellgull is to blame, as long as Shouyuan is such a powerful source of life.

“All the information you want is here. Take it.” He didn't regret it, and threw a small ball directly.

In this little ball, the information Qin Tiange wanted was recorded, which was exchanged for the life of the ancient star family's ten-star master, which was worth it.

Qin Tiange glanced at it, collected it, and looked up at Jail Gu, and asked, “I don't have the information I want for the time being. Please leave a contact information. I will contact you if necessary.”

“Okay, I like refreshing beings.” He said with a grin, and gave Qin Tiange his contact information, which was a communication symbol.

Yes, it is a glowing symbol. It is very old and mysterious.

“Now that the transaction is complete, I will leave.” Jail said, turning and flashing, disappearing into space orbit.

Only Qin Tiange was left alone, watching the leaving Gu Gu lost his thoughts, without moving for a long time.

“Mars, the wormhole ...” Qin Tiange turned around and looked down at the super-large planet in front of him.

There is a space-time wormhole here, but where is the specific location? In fact, Qin Tiange is also very vague. From the star map, there is no specific location recorded.

From Heguo just now, to the ancient star family that he forcibly extracted his life force, all came out of that wormhole.

“Forget it, go back first.” Qin Tiange shook his head, did not continue, but instead rushed into Mars into a black particle and returned to the top of the Xitian Lingshan.

“Daddy!”

Seeing Qin Tiange’s return, the leprechaun immediately rushed up, and there was still a trace of anxiety on his face.

After patting the little head of the fairy, Qin Tiange said to Miaoshan: “This place should not be stayed for long. There are strong people of various ethnic groups hiding outside the Xitian Lingshan. It won’t be long. “

“What the Supreme said was, leave first.” Miaoshan nodded and agreed.

As for the self-confidence and the goblin, Qin Tiange is completely respected. Naturally, without any opinion, he followed Qin Tiange directly and left here.

If he wanted to leave, he had to go out of the Xitian Lingshan area, but Qin Tiange knew that there was a secret exit here, a secret passage to the earth.

This channel is in the Daleiyin Temple. Miaoshan does not understand it, but Qin Tiange has sensed the fluctuation of this space channel.

“There is a passage to the earth here?” Miaoshan was surprised when she saw the hidden passage in Daleiyin Temple.

Qin Tiange finally glanced here, turned around and stepped into the space tunnel, no longer staying on Mars, after all, it is not just a powerful alien master like Heigu who hides here.

“Damn Terra!”

When Qin Tiange and others left, a large number of powerful figures emerged from the Xitian Lingshan, most of them were hidden in a mist and could not be seen.

Among them, there are several juvenile strongmen of the ancient star family. For Qin Tiange’s ten-star masters who killed the ancient star family, they made some of the ancient star strongmen to tremble and dare not come out.

“Quickly report to Prince Xingyao.” An ancient star young man looked somber and directly proposed.

On Mars, it is not just a powerful race that is coming, but there are many alien creatures. Unfortunately, Qin Tiange no longer knows, and now he has returned to the earth.

...

On the earth, the desert Gobi in northwestern China, a storm rolled up, and a space crack burst suddenly in the center, and four figures emerged from the inside.

Qin Tiange took the lead, with Miaoshan, Xiji, and Leprechaun all returning to Earth safely from Mars.

“Meteorite rain is coming.” Qin Tiange looked up inexplicably, watching a large blaze of fire rushing towards the earth, knowing that the meteorite rain was about to land on the earth.

“Hi respect, thank you for your help this time, Miaoshan thanks.” Miaoshan bowed to Qin Tiange and thanked him for his help this time.

Qin Tiange shook his head and said indifferently, “Don’t worry, you and I have signed an agreement, which is a partner.”

“Hi, if nothing else happens, Miaoshan will go first.”

At this time, Miaoshan said goodbye directly. She wanted to see the Nirvana reborn Buddha as soon as possible. As for Qin Tiange, she left with her self-confidant and goblin.

This time, I even went to Mars and saw the rumored Xitian Lingshan, killing the evil man and a ruling evil spirit.

Moreover, when encountering some alien life forms, Qin Tiange was most vigilant, especially for a king class like Heigu.

Quickly returned to base.

“You guys play first, I’m going to retreat for a while.”

Qin Tiange left the sentence and left, and his heart fluttered in the memory of the large group of sunrays. The majestic vastness contained many ancient secrets.

Qin Tiange, who once experienced this, is no stranger to this, and he was ready to step directly into the gap between the spaces and fall into cultivation.

He wants to absorb this memory group from the sun, and get something useful for him, such as various secrets, as well as the hidden meaning of Nirvana.

It also has extremely precious various cultivation insights. This is what Qin Tiange wants to know at present, and also the inspiration he most desperately wants to obtain.

In the memory of Da Ri Ru Lai, there is hidden Buddha Nirvana, which has a great effect on Qin Tiange’s immortal body.

What’s more, the Buddha’s meditation for the Buddha is profound and profound. Qin Tiange himself feels that his life experience is no worse than that of Zhen Yuan’s memory.

In this way, Qin Tiange is in the turbulent flow of the mezzanine, absorbing the memory light group that understands the coming of the Sun Ri, learning a little bit of what is useful to himself, constantly comprehending and improving himself.

Even in the end, Qin Tiange simply practiced here, taking the efforts of his ancestors and a small group of souls to improve himself, and fell into deep cultivation.

He feels that the nine-star rating has been consolidated, and the difference is to upgrade the level. After all, the nine-star rating is still too thin.

Think about not only the rapid evolution of various powerful creatures on the planet, but nine stars and ten stars are not uncommon.

Not to mention outside the earth, those alien races hidden in the solar system, and even a large meteorite rain not far from the earth's space.

These things are huge threats. In order to better grasp the timing and control the overall situation, Qin Tiange had to bite his teeth to cultivate and improve his strength.

This time the cultivation time is not so long One month later, Qin Tiange came out of the chaos of space, and the whole person became a little different.

He didn't reveal any breath all over him, as if he were an ordinary person, but the amazing changes in his body had already taken place.

The nine-star rating successfully broke through the ten-star rating, consumed huge amounts of blood energy, and swallowed up a lot of ancient soul sources to successfully break through the ten-star rating.

If the average person wants to improve so quickly, they must find endless resources, because the ninety-nine star cores absorb and improve at the same time. That foundation is too scary.

At ten stars, the nucleus is even stronger, with a faint gravitational characteristic. It is autonomously absorbing the strands of dark energy scattered in the air, and is growing stronger.

“Master, come on, Huniu is about to transform, but I'm having some trouble.”

As soon as Qin Tiange returned turbulently from space, he received a message from his own self, Huniu was about to transform.

Huniu, naturally Qin Tiange's original mount white tiger, but it seems to have encountered
