

Dark Ages 62

Chapter 62 - eat human?

What kind of anger is Liu Jiaojiao in her heart, is she ugly? Think about it before, a large group of men wandering around her just to get her hands.

I'm fine now. The man in armor is obviously young, but why he turned a blind eye to her and left without a second glance.

“Wait, I haven't eaten for two days, can you give me something to eat?” Liu Jiaojiao said anxiously with a hungry dizziness.

Muttering ... As soon as the words came down, she had a bowel sound in her stomach, apparently hungry for two days. If it weren't for her usual love to bring a lot of snacks with her, it is likely that she would be starved to death without being eaten by the zombies.

Qin Tiange, who walked out, took a footstep, waved a pack of instant noodles, and threw it back. He just landed on Liu Jiaojiao's bed and left without looking back.

“Brother Qin, after cleaning up, there are still three in this sleeper ... no, four survivors, three of whom are starving to death.” Mo Dalai, the three of them, saw the ripped inside Liu Jiaojiao, who had eaten instant noodles, changed her mouth immediately.

There are only four survivors in the entire carriage. The carriages in the front are all full of zombies. Here are sleeping berths, which can avoid a lot of zombies.

At least, Liu Jiaojiao was one of the survivors.

“Give them some food and continue to clean up the next compartment. I feel a strong breath in front of me, it seems to be a zombies with more than two stars.” Qin Tiange said with a dignified expression.

完 After he said, no longer staying, leaving some food for the four starving survivors, he took the crowd and opened the sixth compartment, which was also a sleeper.

Here, zombies were swaying in the corridors on both sides, and when they saw Qin Tiange and others appearing there, they immediately made a crazy roar.

These zombies were equally hungry, and when they saw the living creatures rushed up, scrambling and yelling, Zhang Yawu claws rushed at everyone.

flutter!

Qin Tiange stepped forward three steps and swiped flatly. The head of a male flight attendant who flew up in front of him jumped off his head.

Then stepped forward, kicked up, and banged, a huge force flew a zombie, and even knocked down four zombies in a row before stopping.

He drew his sword from his hand, and the two zombies moved their heads, sprayed with black blood, and stained the curtains of the car window. Qin Tiange calmly struck down, raised his knife, and slashed the zombies in the channel one by one.

As for Moda, Liu Yan and others behind them, they cleaned up the sleeping berths one by one.

Roar!

Zombie roared, the zombies in the entire compartment were attracted, and rushed out from the curtains of the berths, but was quickly slashed to death by the prepared sword and shield.

Some were shot and killed by an arrow through the brain. None of the zombies survived, and the cleaning speed was very fast. Qin Tiange killed the last zombies in the aisle, stood in front of a sleeper curtain, and gently lifted it open.

Inside, a male in a suit was sitting on a three-story sleeping berth, holding a hand bone in both hands while eating, his eyes were full of crazy light.

At the first glance, Qin Tiange knew that he was not a zombie, but the other side was eating a human hand bone, flesh and blood, very scary.

“You ...” The moment Qin Tiange appeared, the young man in a business suit gathered his pupils and contracted, and the bone in his hand fell down.

Qin Tiange looked expressionless, looked at the hand bones on the ground, and looked very slender. It should be the female hand bones, and then swept across the three-story bed, where a broken female body was lying, slick. , Death is extremely miserable.

Holding her hands, her feet were gone, her lower body had blood stains, and she was obviously violated before her death. And, most cruelly, she was divided into corpses. The murderer was the young male on the three-story sleeper opposite.

“Cannibalism?” Qin Tiange looked cold, and his heart flashed. In the past or the present, what he couldn't see more was eating people of the same kind.

“No, it's not like that ... she didn't kill me, I didn't.” The young man was afraid, trying to explain something.

Behind him, Liu Ye and a few girls just came over and saw this scene, one by one pale, shocked and unbelieving.

What did they see? How did it feel to see someone eating the same in front of them?

“He, he, he eats, cannibalism?” Liu Ye looked horrified and took a step back in shock.

The three girls next to me were so shocked they couldn't speak, and saw the flesh and bones on the ground, and then there was a little flesh left in the young man's mouth. Their stomachs were tumbling for a while, and they turned and bent over. The big vomit vomited and vomited everything that was eaten today.

Seeing this, the young man panicked and tried to explain, “No, I didn't eat people, I didn't, I really didn't kill them, I didn't ...”

It was a pity that Qin Tiange didn't listen to him at all. He took a step forward, his blade whistled, pierced through the young man's jaw, and nailed him to the bed.

Before dying, the young man's hand hiding behind his back slipped and a fruit knife held in his hand fell.

Humph!

Killed the flesh-eating young man Qin Tiange gave a cold hum, swept the female body on the opposite bed, shook his head, ignored, and turned away.

In the last days, some ugly nature of human beings will be released. For example, the youth in front of them has lost self, killed the young woman on the opposite side, or killed first, then eats, and then eats, very cruel.

In the previous life, Qin Tiange would kill everyone who met such people, and he would not let go of any one. He did not consider himself a good person, not even a guardian, but at least a human bottom line must exist.

It's definitely one of the things he can't stand to eat the same kind. Seeing one kills another.

"Listen well, don't hesitate to see such people, kill them directly, because these people can no longer be regarded as us humans." Qin Tiange warned Liu Yan who was vomiting, and Moda who came over, etc. One sentence.

Moda arrived, and when they saw the situation here, they looked pale, they were not afraid of killing people, but it was difficult to accept people.

I heard Qin Tiange's words full of anger, and several people in Moda immediately said that they would kill them directly because they could not tolerate them.

"Brother Qin, there are no survivors here."

At this moment, Moda chased up and whispered the news. There was no one living in this compartment except the killed man-eating youth.

Qin Tiange nodded his head slightly and looked at the door leading to the fifth compartment in front of him. He said, "Hurry up and open the fifth compartment. I always have an unknown feeling."

boom!

At this moment, a loud muffle came from the fifth compartment, followed by a roar of zombies, the sound of which was extremely terrifying and terrifying.

I heard this roar, Qin Tiange's face turned wild, and the whole person was bad.
