

Dark Ages 711

Chapter 711 - Exiled creature, fierce fight

In the darkness, a huge black shadow was approaching, walking on the barren land, each step seemed extremely heavy.

“What kind of creature is that?” Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, staring at the huge creature approaching, walking step by step, tall, like a hill.

The most amazing thing is that this creature turned out to have eight arms and three heads, one head behind, one in front, and a weird growing on the chest, scarlet eyes, constantly scanning all directions.

Huh! Suddenly, the terrible creature found Qin Tiange here, and two pairs of scarlet eyes looked at each other, revealing a desire to devour.

What Qin Tiange felt was an endless devour, without any other consciousness and conviction, but only a murderous and horrible killing.

“Roar!” A roar, the creature’s head opened his mouth and snarled, exposing his fangs, and the huge body suddenly moved and rushed.

There are still several kilometers away, but Qin Tiange has felt the  fierceness and arrogance of the opponent.

It was a fierce creature, extremely fierce, with terrible feet rushing forward with great strides, one arm slamming down at Qin Tiange.

Boom! The ground shook and the violent forces set off dust, and a huge punch appeared in Qin Tiange’s original position.

Although the violent power can not break the ground, it can make a fist print, so that Qin Tiange’s face changed slightly. At that level, he was barely able to do it, but the creature in front of him managed to do it easily, with every movement carrying horrific physical power.

“Drink!” Qin Tiange stepped back and dodged, screaming angrily, his body swelled up, and Pangu’s blood was boiling. However, the body that could grow thousands of feet has been inexplicably suppressed and can only expand to thirty feet tall.

Compared to the violent mysterious creatures in front of him, Qin Tiange’s body is still too small, but his strength cannot be underestimated. The strength of the Pangu tribe is not so fragile.

boom! Qin Tiange waved his fist and collided with the other’s fist. Under the strength of the two, the rumble came out very far.

Powerful gushing out, Qin Tiange stepped back for a full three steps before stopping, but the other party took a small step back.

“Good and powerful powers are all physical powers. There is no trace of other energy fluctuations. Is this the creature in the place of exile?” Qin Tiange threw away some numb arms, his expression dignified.

The blow just now is enough to illustrate the horror of the exiled creatures here, and the physical power is extremely powerful and terrible. “Roar!” The roar screamed, the fierce creature opened his mouth and roared, and his eight arms suddenly opened up, attacking wildly.

It devours Qin Tiange as a delicious creature, without any consciousness or spirituality at all, but with a killing instinct.

Maybe this is the exiled creature, cruel and terrible!

“Kill!” Qin Tiange drank swiftly, wielded his fists and fought against each other. The Pangu tribe was not weaker than any race, and even had the power to overpower the 10,000.

With the fierce fighting, Qin Tiange gradually figured out the extent of this creature, which is much more powerful than his current Pangu body.

This is amazing. Qin Tiange is faintly excited, can he swallow these creatures to improve his Pangu body?

boom!

A punch hit the opponent’s chest, in the middle of the head growing there. As a result, a loud noise and a spark splattered, and the head was unscathed.

Instead, Qin Tiange himself was bombarded with eight arms from the other side, and the whole person was beaten dozens of meters away before stopping.

Looking at the white marks on the body, Pan Gu’s body was beaten by the other side, but Qin Tiange became more excited because he felt his Pan Gu’s blood seemed to become thicker and deeper.

“Come on, physical fight, who am I afraid of?” Qin Tiange Li Xiao, rushing forward, banging with his fists.

With a bang, the * battle was staged!

There was a constant bang and bang, and two powerful creatures were fighting fiercely. The * hand-to-hand fist reached the flesh without any mercy and softness.

This is either you die or I live, in the land of exile, either you are swallowed or you swallow other creatures.

boom!

Qin Tiange punched his head in front of his opponent’s chest with a thump, and the force of pangu finally shattered the opponent’s powerful defense and hit the head down.

The cricket screamed screaming and issued a roaring roar, which appeared to be increasingly cruel and horrifying.

Its eight arms continued to wave, smashing down, with the power of destroying the world, heavy and unmatched. The one-on-one, fierce, turbulent battle that fought the surrounding smoke and raging, it was impossible to break the ground or even fly into the air.

The two started fighting on the ground, Qin Tiange became more and more brave, and Pangu's blood boiled into an ancient and vast force.

Click!

Finally, a long time after the fierce battle, the creature's head was smashed by Qin Tiange's punch, and his breath weakened.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange sneered on his face and said, "What's the use of growing your three heads?" "Look at me banging you!" Then, as he shouted, he waved his fists, the power of Pangu poured into his fists, and each punch brought a force to open the sky.

There was a muffled sound, and the creature's body was repeatedly repelled, and its violent force cracked its body constantly, blood poured out, and the weird flowed back.

Qiao Tiange was shocked by his strong body and strong defense and resilience.

Qin Tiange rushed forward, banging his fists like raindrops, eventually knocking down this terrible creature.

“嗷” The moment when the horror creature fell down, it gave out an extremely unwilling roar, showing fierceness and fierceness. He rushed in one step, slamming his fist in front of the other's head, and it burst into a crisp sound. The whole brain was smashed into pieces.

Two heads exploded in a row. The creature was not dead yet. The last head growing behind was still roaring, controlling the body's struggle and trying to resist.

“Not dead yet?” Qin Tiange drank coldly, raised his hand and split it on the last huge head, and split it in half on the spot, completely silent.

Shattered each other's three heads, and this creature gradually died, making Qin Tiange have to feel the strength of the other side, which was terrible.

“The exiled creature ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ It is really terrible, it seems I have to be careful.” Qin Tiange muttered, then picked up this heavy body, quickly left here, afraid of the fierce battle just now. It attracted the attention of other tyrannical creatures.

After walking for dozens of miles, he stopped in front of a barren mountain and sat there, the silent observer, a dead exile.

“Swallow!” Qin Tiange, without hesitation, went straight to eat, devouring the essence of this creature's flesh and blood, and used to strengthen himself.

Soon, he was surprised to find that the energy in this creature was so amazing that he couldn't add a bit of cultivation, but instead merged into the body, enhanced the intensity of Pangu's blood, and tempered the body, looking more powerful.

This is a place of exile. All the creatures who have been exiled have lost their energy and cultivated.

Over time, a mainstream will gradually form here, that is, the physical body becomes more and more domineering, and evolves into a more perfect and stronger physical body, so that it can continue to kill and devour other creatures to survive.

Qin Tiange knows that after coming here, he will face countless cruel, terrible,  exiles, and a survival and evolutionary killing cannot be avoided.

Chapter 712 - Weird humanoid

Qiang Qiang

There was a tadpole in the body, which surprised Qin Tiange, and found that after swallowing the essence of the exiled creature, he could enhance a trace of ancient blood and physique.

Immediately afterwards, he swallowed the real spirit of this creature, only to find that it was not that the other party did not have the true spirit, but was blinded by a strange power and even eroded.

“What a weird power can erode the true spirit?” Qin Tiange was surprised, and carefully felt the strange powers.

As he devoured the eroded true spirit of this creature, the strange forces came quickly, trying to infect his true spirit.

boom!

As a result, these strange forces were shattered on the spot by the true character of the earth book, turned into nothingness, and eventually disappeared without a trace.

Breaking up that power, Qin Tiange fell into meditation and had great vigilance for this strange power.

What made Qin Tiange frown is that the real spirit of this creature is so incomplete that he has no memory at all and is chaotic.

“Kill a few more banished creatures.” Finally, Qin Tiange initially decided to kill a few more banished creatures.

He wanted to know the secret of this exile, but unfortunately, the biological spirit just now was incomplete, and was contaminated by inexplicable erosion, without even a little memory.

Qin Tiange stood up and looked away at the creature that had been devoured by the essence of flesh and blood and turned into ashes.

He wants to find more creatures in the exile, research, and want more information about the exile.

quack

Ahead, the black mist billowed, as if continually condensing like a sage, floating over this side and over there.

You can see from a distance that the black mist is moving at a fast speed, and in a blink of an eye, it came to Qin Tiange not far away.

“There are not many black beasts. There is a figure hidden in the black fog.” Qin Tiange’s eyes narrowed, staring at the strange black fog in front of him.

There was a figure hidden inside, the breath was strange and unpredictable, as if it were an individual, but it seemed not.

boom!

Qin Tiange didn't have any nonsense. He stepped forward and split the rolling black mist, revealing a hidden creature inside.

The whole body is dark, and the body is no different from humans. The only difference is that the eyes are as dark as ink, as if two black holes can devour the soul.

Humanoids have unknown origins. Even Qin Tiange does not know the origin of the other person. Some ancient memories have no records.

Qin Tiange looked serious, his eyes shone slightly, and murmured, "This is definitely a human race of the ancient era, exiled here, the true spirit is polluted and the power is consumed."

That's right, he guessed that the humanoid creature in front of him must be the human race exiled here in the ancient era.

"Roar!"

The humanoid saw Qin Tiange break up the black mist, and grinned at him immediately, making a terrible growl.

Suddenly, the humanoid flew in, and a blood-colored claw approached Qin Tiange, with a sharp edge, and a chilling bone.

Feeling that terrible killing, Qin Tiange was expressionless and waved his arm to hit him.

boom!

I only heard a loud noise, and the two hit each other in a single collision, and they both backed away, and the sound of chanting came out.

Qin Tiange looked serious, staring at the humanoid on the opposite side, his heart vibrated a little, and the opponent's body was extremely arrogant.

He could clearly sense that in this humanoid's dantian, there was a dead star field empty.

The only powerful and terrible thing is that the physical body is extremely terrifying, the speed is fierce, and the power is mad like a dragon.

Bang bang bang

The two fought fiercely with each other, hitting each other with their claws, hitting each other's body with pain, and their powerful forces created an extremely scary picture.

Silhouettes are staggered, and powerful and weird humanoid creatures, just like a ferocious beast roaring constantly, beat Qin Tiange to feel his arms numb.

"Come again!"

Qin Tiange drank swiftly, his figure flickered, and he fisted against the humanoid's body again and again. The violent full force made this tyrannical creature have to back down.

It growled in anger, blood-red eyes, and flashed an astonishing murderous power.

With a bang, I saw a mysterious and overwhelming force burst out from within, catching up.

“Kill!” Qin Tiange drank angrily, waved his fist, and directly struck up. The ancient power contained in Pangu’s body shattered his thoughts on many ancient characters.

Huh!

The humanoid roared and looked strangely angry, anxious to swallow Qin Tiange on the spot to devour.

The loud rumblings continued to come, and Qin Tiange opened his arms and grasped the humanoid with one foot and swung it around.

Hearing only a loud noise, Qin Tiange grabbed each other’s feet and swept over, the four sides minus the billowing smoke.

Qin Tiange slammed the humanoid into shape, punched him to the flesh, and even suffered minor injuries.

“Oh!” The screams were mixed with strong anger, stunned through the wilderness, and suddenly a horrible atmosphere appeared in all directions, quietly approaching.

After all, the fierce battle here attracted the attention of other creatures, one by one came closer and smelled the * deliciousness.

“It’s really troublesome!” Qin Tiange looked cold, and felt the powerful creatures quietly lurking around.

He gave a sudden meal, his body narrowed and clicked, and he suddenly punched the humanoid’s cheek with a quick punch.

There was a loud bang, and there was a sound of bone fracture, followed by Qin Tiange’s left-handed sword slashing in the other’s forehead.

Click!

“Huh!” The humanoid screamed violently, and all the eyes were split open, blood and gushing and spilled across the ground.

The smell of blood was getting stronger and stronger, causing more fierce agitation to those nearby inexplicable creatures, as if to swoop up.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange looked cold, knowing that it could not be dragged on, so Pangu blood in his body was compressed instantly, and an ancient force emerged.

“Kaitian!” There was a roar, and the sound was nothing, as if Kaitian.

That punch ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ contains the power of Pangu tribe to open the sky. The punch of Xun Long punched in the heart of the humanoid, and a click passed through.

The humanoid was penetrated through the heart, and before it was completely dead, the scarlet eyes gradually faded, and then a little bit of aura recovered.

“Who am I?” The humanoid opened his mouth and uttered an ancient language, which was an ancient human language.

Hearing this, Qin Tiange froze and wanted to inquire, but the life of this humanoid was completely extinguished, and the true spirit collapsed.

“Suddenly regained consciousness?” Qin Tiange was horrified, watching the dead humanoid for a moment, silent, and many speculations flashed in his heart.
call!

At the moment of his contemplation, a sound of breaking air came from behind him, rushing to thunder and killing the sky.

Even without looking back, Qin Tiange knew that he had been attacked by a certain creature, and his heart was surging.

At the critical moment, Qin Tiange’s strength suddenly condensed, turned back to make a fist, and banged out with a punch.

Chapter 713 - Madman, scary red mist

boom!

There was a muffled sound, and a figure was beaten out and smashed to the ground and splashed with dust.

But soon, the figure stood up shaking again and looked up, exposing the scarlet eyes, like a madman.

Qin Tiange frowned and stared at this creature. It was human beings, but it seemed to have been eroded by some force and turned into a demon who killed insanely.

In his opinion, this person seemed to be enchanted, very weird, leaving only a terrible killing demon.

“Roar!” It uttered a beast-like growl, full of brutality, and the body radiated.

Bang Bang!

The two continued to collide, Qin Tiange hit three punches on the opponent’s chest, and the heavy punches made him back again and again, and he fell back a few times, but he was fine.

The man stood staggeringly, his eyes became scarlet, with a brutal and crazy light.

On his chest, there were still three faint boxing marks, all of which were bombarded by Qin Tiange. His bones were broken and still undead.

“What the * is going on?” Qin Tiange frowned, bullied himself, and launched an onslaught.

One palm slashed, and a muffled sound, the figure lay on the ground on the spot, and was smashed on the ground with one palm.

Immediately after, Qin Tiange's left hand fist slammed into the opponent's head with a click, the brain cracked a mark, and the blood was mixed with his brain.

But what's alarming is that this person was not dead yet, stood up swayingly, his cracked brain was flowing with blood and brain plasma, and the scarlet eyes always exude that kind of crazy killing.

“Roaring” It roared upward, and the sound spread, and then scarlet eyes suddenly appeared in the darkness around.

One by one, weird figures emerged from the darkness, encircling Qin Tiange, exuding a savage killing.

Qin Tiange looked serious, sweeping all around, all kinds of terrible figures appeared. These were all crazy people. Some were wearing broken armors, some were naked, their skin was dark red, their eyes were crazy. Meaning.

“A group of madmen, thick-skinned and hard-to-kill.” Qin Tiange muttered to himself without expression.

At the next moment, dozens of shadows of the madman came blasting, killing Qin Tiange as if to tear him up and devour him.

This made him very puzzled. Did he just provoke these crazy devil likes?

In fact, he didn't understand that these crazy monsters smelled the strong vitality on him, and naturally devoured the instinct to swallow them to siege Qin Tiange.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange drank swiftly, waved his fists, and directly launched a  fight. This time, he faced a whole number of ten terrible madmen.

Their only strength is the physical body, powerful and horrifying, as if they can't be killed, it's scary.

boom!

One punch flew one, and a few more rushed up, snarling wildly and slamming Qin Tiange's body.

“Get out!” Qin Tiange shouted angrily, burning with a gray flame, chaotic flames wrapping his fists, waving wildly, shaking in emptiness.

Dozens of fists waved, and all the madnesses that flew up suddenly flew out like a heavenly girl scattered flowers.

As soon as Qin Tiange stepped on the ground, he jumped up to catch up with one, raised his hand and split it in front of the other's brain. With a click, his head burst and broke completely.

The madman was dead, his head was completely blown, and finally he was silent. Seeing this, Qin Tiange finally felt relieved.

In fact, they look very powerful and can't be killed, but they can die as long as they break the heart and the head.

“Roar!”

The madmen roared, one by one, and rushed up one by one. They had no consciousness, didn't know the pain, and they were just willing to swallow Qin Tiange.

This may be the difference between living and dead things. Qin Tiange's body is filled with a strong breath of life, just like the lighthouse in the night is extremely eye-catching.

“Can't drag it down.” Qin Tiange's eyes were sharp, and suddenly he opened his mouth and spit out a swordman, snorted, Jianguang pierced a figure.

A crunching noise came, and a crazy sword in front of him was penetrated by an ancient sword, and died on the spot.

Qin Tiange came forward, holding an ancient sword, and started a horrific killing. Holding the ancient sword, he was just a  of killing. One sword cut off the heads of these madmen, and a total of 38 madmen were beheaded and killed.

Click!

The last head emptied and fell to the ground with a sloppy face, and scarlet eyes still had the crazy and chaotic will.

Qin Tiange carried the ancient sword in his hand and walked past these madmen's bodies expressionlessly. After examining them one by one, he quickly discovered that their wills were chaotic and the true spirit had already been polluted and eroded to break.

“Are these ancient people exiled in the ancient era?” Qin Tiange muttered to himself.

He looked at some corpses, and there were some clothing and armor left on his body, looking at the styles of the ancient era.

Obviously, these ancient people who turned into crazy monsters were all ancient humans who were exiled here, somehow they became this way.

Even if Qin Tiange wanted to get a little memory of the true spirit, it was completely chaotic and even collapsed.

Rumbling

At this moment, an inexplicable vibration came from the distance, which caught Qin Tiange's attention. He looked around and suddenly changed his face.

He blinked his eyes, staring at the billowing sound, and gradually, a strange mist surging surging, sweeping the sky.

“What's that?” Qin Tiange felt a crisis in his heart fiercely, and the real spirit had a strong shock in an instant.

A strange red mist swept across all directions like a tide, and the world was silent, only that red mist existed.

Moreover, through his powerful eyes, Qin Tiange saw inside the red mist that there were all kinds of horrible figures hidden in all kinds.

“hiss!”

Qin Tiange was startled, staring into the red mist tide, hiding a shadow of people, like crazy monsters, red eyes, showing a little madness.

Seeing this, he faintly understood that maybe the ancients like the crazy monsters were because of these weird and scary red mist tides.

“The red haze is here, why don't you leave?”

As Qin Tiange hesitated, a shock came from not far away, letting him look surprised.

The red mist rolls around ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ There is a figure rushing fast, wearing a black robe, can't see the true look, but can see a weird plant in his hand, emitting a hazy light, Stop the erosion of those red mists.

At this moment, the red mist gradually diffused, and Qin Tiange suddenly changed his face, feeling that a red mist had penetrated into the real spirit, as if to pollute his true spirit consciousness.

Huh!

However, this red mist was shattered by the true spirit of the ground book, which failed to affect the true spirit, nor polluted the soul by erosion, but shocked Qin Tiange.

The strange red mist can even affect the soul and even erode the true spirit, making people polluted like crazy monsters behind.

“Come on!”

Seeing Qin Tiange dazed, the man drank again, rushing at a fast speed, so that Qin Tiange woke up, and ran away behind this strange man without thinking about turning.

Rumbling

Behind, a weird red mist, surging like a tide, like a torrent of torrents and tsunami, sweeping over.

Chapter 714 - Purple spirits, true spirit grass

“The red fog tide erupts every ten years. This time it has not yet reached ten years. Why did it erupt in advance?”

At the entrance of the cave, two figures stood quietly, watching the red tides rolling and rolling outside.

Listening to the words of the Heipao people, Qin Tiange was surprised, took a look, and asked, “What are these red mists, why can they erode the soul and pollute the true spirit?”

The man in black robe turned his head, a pair of lilac eyes shone brightly, and looked up and down at Qin Tiange, very curious.

“The red mist is the most weird substance in the exile. The origin is unknown and the source is unknown. It only clears that it erupts every ten years.”

“The most frightening thing is that these substances can erode and pollute the soul of a living thing. All infected beings, without exception, become those things outside.”

Talking, the man in black robe pointed at the tide of red mist rolling over, and wrapped in a terrible figure inside.

Those figures are extremely deliberate, with binocular scarlet, all kinds of races, and there are many ancient human madmen killed by Qin Tiange.

“What is this plant?” Qin Tiange pointedly pointed at a strange plant floating at the entrance of the cave. The whole body was dark, but exuded a kind of gloss.

It was this plant that blocked the rolling red mist outside and did not allow it to invade the cave, which caused Qin Tiange’s curiosity.

Even though he has obtained the true spiritual memory of many ancient creatures, he has never recorded this kind of thing, thinking that it is the strangest thing in the place of exile.

The black robe creature was surprised, looked at Qin Tiange, and said softly, “It’s weird why you don’t understand these. In the place of exile, every race creature knows this thing.”

“It’s called Zhenling Cao, and it has magical powers. It can not only improve one’s true spirit, repair the damaged true spirit, the biggest role is to stop the weird red tide erosion outside.” The black robe creature also watched Qin Tian Go for a glance.

After listening to his heart, Qin Tiange stared at the black plant, nine inches tall, with crystal-like leaves, like black jade, but exuding its glory.

That peculiar ray of light was mysterious, as if eating it could restore the true spirit, which caused Qin Tiange’s attention.

“Where can this true spirit grass be found?” Qin Tiange asked in a solemn tone.

Heipao people were surprised: “You don’t even know this? True spirit grass, of course, grows in the Red Mist Sea. Only in the mangrove forest of the Red Mist Sea can this strange true grass grow.”

Everything has two sides, such as the scary and weird red mist, but also has the nemesis and defense ability, such as the true spirit grass is one of them.

These things grow in the mangrove forest of the Red Mist Sea, and are the most precious things in the exile.

“My name is Ziling, and I’m from the Ziling clan. What’s your name?” Said the black robe creature, dropping the black robe, revealing her true face.

Qin Tiange was surprised, only to discover that the other party turned out to be a girl with purple hair. The voice just now seemed to be isolated by a black robe and turned into a husky sound, which could not be heard.

Only when she took off her black robe did she realize that it was a girl from the Ziling ethnic group. Her purple hair was flowing and her lilac eyes glowed a little. The most special thing was that she was embedded with a crystal like a ruby.

This race Qin Tiange knows that it belongs to the rarest strong tribe among the hundreds of stars.

The Ziling family has the least number of people among the hundreds of stars, because most of them are females, and the males are rare, as if they are national treasures.

Once the male babies in the Ziling clan are born, they will be guarded as national treasures, multiplying for the ethnic group, and succeeding to generations.

In other words, the Ziling tribe is a female-respected ethnic group. Males have only one task, which is to continuously make their only contribution to the reproduction of the ethnic group.

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange raised his eyebrows and chuckled: "My name is Qin Tiange, from a human race."

Ziling nodded, and those lilac pupils glanced at him, and smiled, "Did your elders tell you the basics of Red Mist and some places of exile?"

"I, the elders are gone, I'm alone." Qin Tiange said lightly, it was not clear who his parents were.

Moreover, he even suspected that he had no parents. This was him, Qin Tiange, a kind of enlightenment after seeing his true spirit.

"That's it!" Zi Ling's head understood, then took out a piece of jade bone and said, "Here's some information I know, you can take a look."

Qin Tiange's eyes flickered, and he asked with a smile, "Why did you give me this? You know, I just met you."

Zi Ling blinked, and looked at Qin Tiange in surprise. The more he looked, the more weird he seemed, looking at the national treasure.

"Don't you know that our Ziling tribe is an ally with the human tribe?" Ziling tilted her head in surprise and became curious about Qin Tiange.

She said with a smile: "As an ally, in general, you cannot attack each other, and you cannot attack your ally at will. You are a human race, and I give you this is to help your ally. Maybe I will get you help."

"Allies?" Qin Tiange's eyes flickered, and she looked at Zi Ling in front of her. What she said was true. Perhaps, in the place of exile, there were various ethnic forces and alliances.

This place has suddenly become another forgotten and closed world, and the exiled souls of all ethnic groups have gradually formed their own forces.

He looked at the jade bone given by Ziling and understood some basic information about the place of exile from the various information in it.

"That's it!" After reading it, Qin Tiange felt astonished.

He handed back the jade bone and smiled, "Thank you very much. If you are in trouble in the future, I can help you once, as if it were you."

"Okay, that's what you said." Ziling was surprised, and directly recognized the sentence.

She was faintly agitated, and Qin Tiange's toughness, she didn't know exactly, but when she fled just now, she saw the mad body on the ground, apparently he killed him.

This moved her, and I have to say that Qin Tiange's strength was the reason for her intentional association. Another thing is that she was right that the human race and the purple spirit race are only a few allies here.

"The red haze has receded and we can go out."

At this point, UU reads www.uukanshu.com Ziling said these words, looking out, those weird red mist tides really receded.

Qin Tiange looked at the red tide that was fading, a strange red mist filled the air, and gradually dissipated as if he had never appeared.

"This time I went out to venture into the Red Mist Sea, and found a true spirit grass. After returning, I should be able to change ten kilograms of hardened treasure."

Ziling looked with a touch of excitement, took back the true spirit grass, murmured to himself, carefully collected this true spirit grass.

"somebody is coming."

Qin Tiange suddenly looked up, looking out of the cave with his eyes, and felt that a dozen strong breaths were approaching.

Ziling's complexion changed slightly, and when he looked up, his complexion was hard to look.

"Sure enough, it is the true spirit grass. Give it up and spare your life."

At this moment, a cricket word came from outside the cave, which made Qin Tiange frown, and he was surrounded by a group of people outside.

Chapter 716 - Demon quench body fluid, chaos 0 family town

"Head is dead!"

Not far away, the last five gangsters were horrified, stunned by the scene in front of them, and couldn't believe it.

Their powerful leaders, the gangsters were killed by Qin Tiange, and even two powerful companions were killed by one pinch.

Flutter!

There was a sound of throat slitting, and one of the gangsters was terrified, holding his neck slowly back, then his head bones fell.

Ziling turned into a purple light, the figure flickered, crossed a cold arc, and brought up two heads.

“run!”

The last two gangsters were terrified and turned around to fire, just like running away, but unfortunately Qin Tiange gripped his neck and lifted it with one hand.

“No, forgive me” A gangster begged for mercy, and a tentacle on his forehead trembled constantly, looking very scared.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange didn't intend to leave them at all. With five fingers, he cracked the necks with a click.

He even took out the true spirits of the two and swallowed them, crushing them, and forcibly capturing their memories.

“Black Bone Mountain, the gangster?” Qin Tiange swallowed the two spirits, learned the origin of these gangsters, and even obtained some map information about the exile.

Take Black Bone Mountain, for example. This is an extremely weird mountain in the exiled land. It is surrounded by fierce gangsters and killed countlessly.

These gangsters are the exiled creatures of all races, and they are cruel and abnormal, and they are not subject to discipline.

For them, killings are a common occurrence. They often kill people of various ethnic groups and seize resources here.

“I didn't expect you to be so powerful.”

At this time, Ziling came up with a look of amazement, looked up and down Qin Tiange, and realized for the first time that he was domineering and terrible.

The eighteen gangsters, if she herself, would have been severely wounded, and she could not even escape the other siege.

However, Qin Tiange did not expect to kill several other gangsters in a face-to-face manner, and then beheaded, none of them could pass him.

This kind of power is reflected in Qin Tiange's physical aspect, and that kind of violent power is simply hitting who died.

“They have a lot of good things on them, collect them.”

Qin Tiange smiled, came to the lead gangster's body, and began to search for his body.

Soon he found a lot of storage treasures, ten full, and at a glance he knew that they were snatched.

Ziling found five. This group of people has fifteen stored treasures. They looked at them a lot, but Qin Tiange didn't care.

He was more concerned about the contents of these storage treasures. After looking at all the storage equipment, he found what he was looking for.

“This is the medicine for quenching the body?” Qin Tiange took a stone jar and looked at the liquid inside with surprise.

This black liquid emits a strange light, but has a magical effect, that is, the body is tempered to the extreme.

“His, do they even have demon treasure?” Ziling’s face changed slightly, apparently this thing was unusual.

A glance at the memory I just obtained shows that in the place of exile, the only cultivation resource, the hardened treasure, is also divided into several types.

Some grades are very high. For example, the potion liquid in front of the eyes is actually a higher-level quenching liquid.

The demon treasure medicine is rumored to be a blood essence that has been quenched from a primitive creature in the place of exile, which can temper the physical body and become stronger.

Devil, this is a collective name for the primitive creatures in the exiled land of various races.

Those primitive creatures have extremely powerful, very scary, and even dangerous, and they are generally difficult to hunt.

“In this jar, there are at least five pounds of magic demon treasure, enough to pour out to temper the body for a month.” Ziling said with his eyes bright.

Qin Tiange carefully sensed this strange treasure, didn’t care, just put it away, wait for some time to see how it works.

If the effect is good, he said that he would not go out to find the primitive deities in the exiled places to kill and devour them.

“Come on, let’s go back quickly.”

Ziling collected five storage treasures, which were her own spoils. Ye Qing didn’t take it seriously, and it was already good to get ten of them.

And most of the things that are useless to him are of little use if they come. It is Ziling, an ally of the Ziling clan, that he values.

With Ziling, he has a lot less trouble, can speed up understanding of the situation in the place of exile, and can even hide himself even higher.

“Here, it is very close to the chaotic Baizu city. I plan to go to Baizu city, how about you?” Qin Tiange said suddenly as he was walking.

He obtained this information from the memories of the true spirits of the gangsters. There was a chaotic city of hundreds in the place of exile.

It’s messy, you don’t even want to be healthy at all, because you don’t bother you and others will bother you.

Even if you are unhappy, you can directly kill you. This is a chaotic city of hundreds of ethnic groups. All major ethnic groups have creatures, all cruel and terrible.

Many creatures are unwilling to come here, just like Ziling. When they heard the chaos of hundreds of ethnic cities, their faces couldn't help but change slightly.

“You want to go to the Baizu City, but it's very dangerous there, maybe it will cause other strong races to bombard as soon as you enter the city.” Ziling said with some concern.

She explained: “Moreover, there are hardly any human races in the hundreds of ethnic cities, because for a time, all human races were killed by several strong ethnic creatures. Over time, no human races were willing to go. No tribe is willing to go there. “

“No human race?” Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes and sneered coldly: “From then on, there will be one of our human races in the hundreds of ethnic cities. I'd like to see, how cruel are the creatures of each ethnic group in the hundreds of ethnic cities? “

He said with a sneer, fierceness is better, then see who is more fierce, just as he wants to devour all kinds of creatures to strengthen himself.

This is exactly in accordance with his mind, come to kill one, anyway, as long as the foreigners dare to hostile to him, they will be mercilessly swallowed.

“I've decided, and go to the Hundred Cities, you can leave on your own.”

Qin Tiange said, directly separated ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ and went to the other side, where is the direction to the hundreds of ethnic cities.

Watching him leave, Ziling's complexion changed, his teeth gritted, and he was struggling, thinking whether to keep up.

However, the Baizu City is very dangerous. She knows this best. If she goes, she may never come out again, and she may never even come out.

“Forget it, I also rushed through the chaotic hundreds of towns. How can my Ziling clan be a starry strong clan, how can a hundred towns not have our purple spirits?”

Ziling said, rushing forward with gnashing teeth, quickly came to Qin Tiange's side, and followed him quietly.

When she saw her coming, Qin Tiange smiled lightly and said, “In fact, you don't have to follow, it's dangerous here, why should you follow me?”

“As an ally, how can you shrink back?”

Ziling said, he didn't care, and was determined to follow Qin Tiange, a tribal youth, to break into the hundreds of cities.

The two came together, and soon saw a huge ancient city in the distance, where there was a chaotic city of hundreds of ethnic groups.

Chapter 717 - Terran, forbidden, those who enter will die!

Chaos hundreds of cities, ancient sites, faint killings, fierce vigor.

In front of the Baizu City, two silhouettes of a man and a woman came slowly, standing outside the Baizu City, and quietly looking at this ancient mottled city, as if a ferocious animal was dormant.

There was a fierce evil in the city ahead.

Qin Tiange came slowly, looking at the fierce city, staring blankly at an ancient monument standing in front of the gate.

“Human race, forbidden to enter, who will die?”

He stared at the ancient monument, with such a typeface engraved on it.

Those words were written in the blood of the human race. Qin Tiange is certain that the above atmosphere is definitely written in the writing of the human race.

The purpose is to deter the human race, not to allow the human race to set foot in this city of one hundred ethnic groups, as if it excludes the human race and is not a member of the one hundred ethnic groups.

Obviously called the Baizu City, the human race is also a member of the Starry Baizu, but it is not to be seen here, even unwelcome, and all the entrants are dead.

“Suppress my human race, a hundred ethnic towns?” Qin Tiange said with a sneer, his eyes filled with fierceness.

He walked step by step, stopped in front of the nine-foot-tall monument, and suddenly reached out a hand to grasp the monument.

With a bang, the ancient monument shook, and then he was pulled up, resisted on his shoulders, and walked towards the gate step by step.

There, there were eight strong horizontal guards, all strong men of all races, holding Bing Ge at the gate of the city, all staring at Qin Tiange who came to the monument with faint eyes.

“Human race, you are so brave!”

A guard drank swiftly and waved an iron iron spear straight through, trying to kill Qin Tiange, an extravagant clan.

The iron spear roared sharply, slaying through the slaughter, and was almost horrible in speed and strength. It came quickly, pointing directly at Qin Tiange’s heart.

Looking at the iron spear that came through, Qin Tiange’s face was calm. He slowly reached out with his left hand and held the iron spear with a bang.

boom!

Immediately afterwards, he waved the monument with his right hand, and slammed into the guard’s forehead, his brain cracked and died on the spot, and the body was lying down.

A monument smashed a gate guard, and Qin Tiange brushed blankly across the other seven guards blocking the road in front of him.

“Bold!”

“You, dare to kill the guards of Hundred Cities?”

“Every human race comes to kill!”

With a loud shout, the seven guards waved their iron spears, and the bombardment of Qi came up. The strong brute force made the iron spears burst with air, and the air burst into tears.

Qin Tiange stopped, his face was cold and cold, his expression was surging, and he swept past the monument.

With a bang, the iron spear was blown out, then Qin Tiange waved the ancient monument and rushed forward, smashing the monument severely.

Clicking, the guard even broke up with a spear and flew into a mist of blood.

He suddenly turned his head, staring at the guard on the left, scaring the other person to take a step back, and was about to drink, but ushered in an ancient monument.

boom!

The earth roared, where smoke and dust raged, accompanied by a flurry of flesh, and another guard was killed.

Qin Tiange carried the ancient monument, wielded the heavy ancient monument, and directly launched the killing. One hit would inevitably result in the guard's body breaking down and dying.

Three breaths passed in the blink of an eye, all eight guards were killed, one stayed, only the flesh and blood fragments scattered here.

“Let's take a look. I stepped in today. Who can kill me?”

Qin Tiange said expressionlessly and slowly walked into the gate with the ancient monument behind him. Ziling's sluggish follower followed him step by step into the gate.

She did not expect that Qin Tiange would be so straightforward and straightforward. When she saw the ancient monument standing at the door, she pulled it up, and then killed the guards one by one.

This was to force in. For a while, she was a little uplifted and a little worried.

There are hundreds of chaotic hundreds of people in the city, but there are some racial and physical beings in the body.

It is certain that there is a strong person in it. Qin Tiange is so arrogant and aggressive. Is it really good?

“Bold people, break into hundreds of cities, you're looking for death!”

As soon as I stepped into the city gate, I heard a rage coming, followed by a strong pressure in front of me.

Qin Tiange suddenly looked up, his eyes revealed a slaughter of murderous power, and he looked at the powerful murderous power coming from the head.

when!

Qin Tiange waved the ancient monument with a bang, and there was a strong air wave rolling, and he was shaken by the surroundings.

Only to discover that a giant in front blocked the way, and his steps slightly backed up, apparently hit by this monument.

“Star Giants?” Qin Tiange said lightly.

The giant of the starry sky was blocking the road, and its huge body stood ten feet tall and stood in front of it.

Its power is very strong, exudes a ferocious meaning all over, and stares at Qin Tiange fiercely.

“Human race, you’re looking for death!” The starry giant roared, waved his fist and continued to smash down.

Looking at the other side’s strong blow, Qin Tiange calmly, waving the ancient monument and slamming in the past.

boom!

After a violent roar, the star giant receded, his fists sunken and blood dripping, apparently injured by a blow.

Qin Tiange’s feet were motionless, his body shook and he recovered, and then walked away, slamming the heavy monument to the giant’s face door.

“Roar!” The starry giant roared, blocking his arms in front of him, and then fell to a monument.

With a bang, the giant’s body trembled, his face turned wild, and then he heard his arms snap and break.

The stele was extremely heavy, smashing into its face door with an unstoppable force, and blasted his upper body on the spot.

The tyrannical star giant, the upper body was smashed by a monument to Qin Tiange, turned into flesh and mud splashed around, startled a group of nearby creatures watching.

“His, the big stars of the Starry Tribe were blown up?”

There were hundreds of creatures who took the air and looked at the star giant that was killed. They were silent for a while.

They originally thought that Qin Tiange would be killed, and then the blood was incorporated into the ancient monument he carried, which shocked the people.

It was a pity that the star giant was dead and was killed by a monument.

“Everyone who blocks the steps of my people will be crushed by my people.”

Qin Tiange walked word by word, came to the star giant's body, a powerful swallowing force came, and devoured his body into ashes.

After doing this, Qin Tiange glanced sharply around, one hundred people living inexplicably trembling, receding unconsciously, and then felt a moment of shame.

“Arrogant Terran, watch me kill you.”

Hundreds of creatures roared, their eyes were red, two black horns were shining on their heads, and a black sword was slashed.

This knife condensed his life-long power ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ with a anger, and caused extremely terrible lethality.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange didn't even look at it. He just swept up the ancient monument and swept it. With a bang, the sword fell into the rock.

Then, the ancient monument whistled, banging that creature on the ground, and flesh flew, smashing it into a meat pie on the spot.

Boom!

Qin Tiange lifted the ancient monument for a meal, and there was a huge roar on the ground. So he stood here, glanced at the hundreds of people around him, and no one dared to step forward.

“Why, isn't Hundreds of Cities saying that the people of the tribe will die? Now that I'm here, why didn't I see me die?”

Qin Tiange spit out a sentence, the scene was dead silent, followed by Zi Ling pretty face horrified, and my heart was trembling.

“Arrogance, you want to die, this seat fulfills you.”

At the moment, a loud drink came, and a strong horizontal figure rushed out behind the large group of creatures in front of him.

Chapter 718 - 1 group of * bones, 18 immortal bones

The figure flashed, and it was photographed with one palm!

boom!

Qin Tiange's body was not moving, and he raised his hand with a lightning-like slap, banged loudly, a strong energy filled, and the dust was rolled away.

I saw that a thin figure appeared in front of the crowd, and met Qin Tiange's palm. The thin body had hidden great strength.

With a click, Ye Qing cracked the ground and sunk a little, but didn't let him move at all.

Instead, the other party was shocked by the powerful force, and he stepped back two steps, looking at Qin Tiange in surprise.

“No wonder you are so arrogant.” The thin creature said coldly.

He shook his thin arms like skinny skin, but the blood in his body was like a sea of ocean, and his strength was extremely powerful.

In a blow just now, Qin Tiange has felt the terrible power hidden in the opponent's body, pure physical power.

“Isn't the God-bone tribe claiming to have no flesh and blood?” Qin Tiange glanced lightly at the lean creature on the opposite side.

It is actually a god-bone family, which has no flesh and blood. In fact, seriously, the body of this group is bones, but flesh and blood is a burden.

However, in order to hide the * bones in the body, some flesh wraps are derived, just like skinny bones.

“Yi” the creature smiled coldly, revealing a bit of gold teeth, he ironically said: “Human race, this is the food of hundreds of races I wait for, boy, the acquaintance immediately kneels for mercy, this seat can spare you a life.

Behind him, Ziling had a cautious face, reminding him: “Tian Ge be careful, this is the strong man of the * bone family, with immortal bones and strong brute force. It is a terrible race with few digits in exile.”

Qin Tiange bowed his head and didn't care. He looked at the other person indifferently, and stretched out a finger to hook it.

“Come, let me see the skeleton of your * bones. Is it really as immortal as the rumors?”

This sentence completely annoyed the god-bone tribe strong, and there was a touch of sensation of murder on his withered face.

He sneered coldly: “Human race, you will die ugly. This body of this seat gave birth to eighteen spirits. This seat is the eighteenth spirit, which is equal to the immortality that has been condensed eighteen times. Bone, you will beg for mercy. “ “Really, that's exactly what made me swallow.” Qin Tiange said, his eyes flickered with two horrible chills.

He cracked a bite of white teeth, and looked at the bony creatures as if watching a plate of delicious food.

The * bone family is extremely strange. The bones of this family are called immortal. Once the true spirit is extinguished, the bones are immortal. Then in the following years, the holographic spirituality will continue to be born, and then the skeleton will be tempered again and again. Made truly immortal.

This is the horror of the God Bone Tribe. The creature in front of this God Bone Tribe seems to have experienced eighteen times of coagulating bones, which is unfathomably strong.

Their strength comes from a bone, a terrible power born from the bone marrow, and flesh and blood becomes decoration.

“Kill!” With a loud scream, the strong bones of the God Bone came violently, and a punch hit Qin Tiange’s face door, the wind screamed, and the murderous shouted.

In the face of this Xeon punch, Qin Tiange looked calm, raised his right arm and waved, and thumped a punch.

boom!

The two fists bumped together, the powerful forces competed, the ground collapsed on the spot under both feet, and the cracks spread.

The Soul Bone creatures sneered: “Boy, you are dead.”

However, before he continued to laugh, his face was instantly stiff, and he felt only a violent force coming from Qin Tiange’s fist.

collapse!

Flesh and blood collapsed, and at that moment, the creatures of the God-bone tribe began from the arm, and flesh and blood broke up into powders, and they were torn up by a powerful force on the spot.

It looked horrified, watching the flesh and blood on its body crushed into a powder by a punch, and even the immortal bones hardened eighteen times were a little hard to resist.

“Not impossible!” It growled sharply, and even the flesh on his face was blown off by a fist wind.

Suddenly, the strong man of the Bone Clan was hit and smashed into the ground, leaving only a hard and unmatched skeleton on his body and his flesh dissipated.

Huh!

The creatures of the God-bone race got up, and the body sent out bursts of gold and iron, and the black-purple skeleton exuded a silky luster.

It did not die, the whole body collapsed with a single punch, leaving only the real body, the bones squealed and exuded a terrifying breath.

“You, very good!” The creatures of the God-bone race stood up, and there were two blazing flames in their eyes.

It was a soul fire, blazing, as if two Shenyang Xiangs were embedded in it, showing a dazzling light.

Qin Tiange looked at each other up and down, and Huer smiled: “Okay, it really is immortal, a skeleton is almost immortal, and eighteen independent beings are born in a row. The energy contained in this skeleton is absolutely powerful, which just makes me temper . “ “Boy, do you know what you’re talking about?” The skeleton opened his mouth and gave a horrifying growl.

With a bang, it slammed the arms of two skulls, and a strange mist lingered over the bones, killing them with endless might.

Qin Tiange snorted, and suddenly a mysterious light bloomed in his brows, with a sigh, the powerful will directly turned into a sky knife running through the other side's brain.

Click!

“Ah, the will to obliterate?” The skull screamed, the soul suffered a horrible killing, the sky knife chopped, directly crushing the soul fire in its brain, and obliterated his will.

The powerful willpower turned into a sky knife, and in just one blow, it cut off the opponent's true spirit, directly killing this powerful divine creature.

boom!

The skeleton skeleton of the God-bone creature slammed to the ground, and the blazing soul fire in the eye socket suddenly dim, and then went out.

It died, and was directly crushed by Qin Tiange's will, and on the spot it shattered its self-consciousness and strangled it completely.

“Yes, a pair of immortal bones that were born eighteen times is just right for me to train.” Qin Tiange put away this powerful pair of immortal bones with a smile.

Seeing this, people of all races around were eager to move, and they were no less attractive to immortality, but none dared to jump out.

After several trials, the powerful Divine Bone creatures were directly killed by Qin Tiange with a strong will.

What a terror means? Not only is he physically arrogant, his own will is simply a technique that can be used to kill and slay his opponent's true spirit.

“Who else, dare to stop my tribe from entering the Hundred Cities?”

Qin Tiange's eyes were stubborn, and he swept around, carrying the ancient stele step by step.

Wherever I went, no one dared to stop ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ but let alone a way, as if I was afraid of being killed. In fact, the reason these creatures of various ethnic groups did not dare to come up was that they felt that they had no strength and were temporarily deterred by Qin Tiange's fierce means.

They don't want Qin Tiange's tribe to easily enter the Hundreds of Cities in this way. In that way, why are the faces of the Hundreds of ethnic groups?

“The Lord of the City has an order, whoever killed this human race will reward a hundred catties of magic liquid!”

A loud drink suddenly came, and instantly shocked all living beings in the entire hundred ethnic cities, all eyes were red, which was obviously stimulated by this sentence.

Hundred catties of devil liquid, which is the demon god's hardened body medicine, naturally exploded the strong men of various races, and blasted.

“kill him!”

“The demon treasure is mine!”

Suddenly, there was a terrible breath coming from all directions, and they saw all the terrible figures, and they all struck Qin Tiange.

The strong men of all races, with slaughter and slaughter, waved a heavy momentum, as if the sky had fallen and rushed towards Qin Tiange to kill him to receive the award.

Chapter 719 - Holding ancient monuments, killing all peoples

With the order of the owner of the Baicheng city, killing Qin Tiange to get a hundred catties of demon treasure, the news directly exploded.

The entire city of hundreds of people was boiling, and a series of strong cross-body shadows came in, all crazy to kill Qin Tiange to get a reward.

“Human race, die!”

The first strong man stood three feet tall, wielded a huge war spear, and smashed down towards Qin Tiange, with a heavy momentum and unstoppable.

Looking at the assassin that came from the assassination, Qin Tiange looked cold and unconcerned, and instead launched two beams of terror in his eyes.

Dang!

The ancient monument was swept away, and the war spear was blown away, and then he stepped forward and smashed the opponent's head.

With a bang, the powerful creature's head was smashed, and half of his body was smashed into mud, lying there and dead.

“Kill!” Qin Tiange burst into anger, whispered long, and waved the ancient monument that had been pulled up from the gate of the Baizu city, directly meeting a powerful creature.

The opponent waved a huge mace, the powerful wind whistled, and the two instantly collided.

Just listen, with a bang, the mace broke into pieces, and then the ancient monument struck the burly creature's chest with an unstoppable force.

The crackling sound, broken bones, gushing blood, this powerful creature, the body was torn apart by the ancient monument, and died on the spot.

“Ah kill him!”

There were powerful creatures roaring. Around them, powerful figures rushed to each, and each hit a Xeon blow.

They are all strong men of all races. Even if they lose their body, they are arrogant and brutal.

Under the union, Qin Tiange brought a slight amount of pressure, but without fear, he took the initiative to kill the monument.

“Dead!” Qin Tiange drank in anger, the monument was fierce, and he thundered, and flew out two powerful creatures that flew into the air with weapons, spilling blood into the sky.

“Roar!”

A roar came from behind, a single-headed creature roared, and Sanzhang’s body was full of oppression, and his arms were dissatisfied with the red cuticle, full of strength.

He slashed his arms open, his fists buzzing, and his air trembled.

boom!

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange turned around and swept over a monument, discounted his arms, violent force bombarded its chest, collapsed instantly, his body fell down and fell far away, and he couldn’t get up.

“Come on!”

Qin Tiange screamed and turned the ancient monument into a weapon of terror. He killed the hundreds of souls in front of him and raised the monument with his hands.

The screams and roars were intertwined, and he transformed into Shura, and began the * killing directly, killing the powerful hundreds of souls.

In the back, Ziling was completely stunned and looked at the scene in shock. Qin Tiange waved the ancient monument and rolled up a * storm. Everywhere he passed, hundreds of souls spit blood.

Click!

As the monument went down, the heads of the three hundred ethnic groups were beaten with their heads crooked, their eyes were shattered, and their mouths and noses spurted blood.

His face was cold and cold, his eyes were condensed, his strength burst out, and he completely let go of his hands and feet, dancing to the ancient monument to kill the Quartet.

Woo

The dark monument was broken, and the street slammed in front of it. Several hundred powerful men screamed in horror. They were smashed into flesh before they could dodge.

The killing continued, Qin Tiange killed one step at a time, waving the ancient monument, and expressionlessly bombarded all the creatures who dared to rush up.

The blue blood tribe, the magic horn tribe, the star giant, and even all kinds of strange races that have never been seen before have been killed by him.

Blood flowed into the streets, corpses piled up, and stretched all the way, the gravel on the ground exuding a strong unwillingness.

They were all first-rate powerhouses, and even once powerful creatures. Unfortunately, after being exiled here, they could only use physical power.

However, some creatures are strong, but the physical body is not so strong, which has led to Ye Qing's slaughter and an unwilling roar.

“No” Finally, the creatures were trembling.

Before death, some creatures screamed in horror. They were beaten to death by Yi Beisheng, and flesh fragments scattered and sprinkled on other creatures, frightening many hundreds of creatures.

Fear, they produced fear. Qin Tiange's brutality was beyond imagination, and even a stone tablet was not broken.

The blood-red flesh was covered with stone steles, and the dark monuments were covered with the flesh and blood of various ethnic groups, exuding the sky to kill.

“Those who commit my tribe will be beaten!”

Qin Tiange was killing and killing, suddenly roaring to the sky, waving the ancient monument, Pangu blood boiling, turned into a gray force wrapped around the ancient monument, and opened the killing ring.

He seemed to be a madman, and wherever he went, he cruelly killed when he saw a soul, leaving no one behind.

boom!

A monument fell, and dozens of hundreds of creatures in front of him who escaped were blasted into flesh on the spot.

Blood stained hundreds of ethnic cities, and the streets were lumpy, lying with a broken body, and some were dead.

Some corpses are incomplete, leaving only a broken head. Before death, they were all unwilling and regretful.

“Restrict my tribe to enter the hundreds of cities, kill!”

A roar, accompanied by the figure waving the ancient monument, dozens of powerful figures banging out were blown out, as if the heavenly girl scattered flowers, blasting and falling in the air.

Qin Tiange is like a killing demon, carrying a black ancient monument with blood dripping on it, and the blood-colored font on it reveals a mighty killing.

In the typeface written with human blood, there is an indomitable will, which is the remnant of the killed human race.

At this moment, with Qin Tiange's massacre, he finally awakened the indomitable beliefs contained in these blood.

“Roar at my people, not the weak!”

“Human race, immortal!”

“I'm human, I can fight again!”

On the ancient monument, a terrible roar suddenly came out, with a slaughter and slash, the will soared into the sky, as if transformed into an immortal war soul, and directly integrated into Qin Tiange's body.

“kill!”

“Slay the dignity of the human race!”

Inside the ancient monument, a resentment of unwilling human races was hidden, and at this moment was released, transformed into a war spirit, followed Qin Tiange's left, and entered the city of hundreds.

At this moment, the lingering thoughts of countless ancestors who had been killed at the beginning turned into immortal war spirits again, wielding war soldiers and conquering hundreds of cities.

“kill!”

Thousands of human spirits came out of the incarnation, killing in front of them, and with the passing of Qin Tiange, the countless souls in the hundreds of cities were trembling.

They screamed in horror, made a final wailing sound, were crushed by countless war spirits and strangled, and eventually left only broken bodies.

At the end of these battle spirits, a sound of faith was completed, and finally turned into a ray of light soaring into the sky, leaving only a sound full of unyielding roar.

“Those who commit my tribe will be beaten!”

“Human race, immortal”

Tens of thousands of war souls suddenly killed after Qin Tiange's stimulus woke up, and eventually dissipated.

They died with the wind and died for the war. It was the last ray of immortal warfare, completely wiped out.

This is the human race, immortal, unyielding human race!

Boom!

Qin Tiange held the ancient monument for a meal, the ground roared, and the surrounding creatures of various ethnic groups receded in horror, and were afraid to go forward.

Click!

At this time, the fonts on the ancient monument began to crack, and the pieces were broken and collapsed. The ancient monument was completely turned into powder, and the remnants of the human race sealed in it were completely extinguished after releasing the final glory ~
www.mtlnovel.com ~ Those who commit my tribe will be stubborn! “

Qin Tiange gave a cold drink, and a strong voice penetrated the entire hundred-city city, leaving the hundred-city city dead in all directions, and no one made a sound.

“Hundreds of towns, come out and fight with me, otherwise, I will slaughter the entire hundred of towns today.”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange stepped forward and spoke terrifying words word by word, spreading throughout the city, and actually slaughtered the city of hundreds.

“Arrogance!”

An icy word came, and then there was a terror in the center of the Baizucheng.

“You, take me a hit, then take me off and let you go. If you can’t take it, you will fall here, a city of one hundred people, and you will not welcome people!”

In the center of the city, such a word came out that shocked all parties, and countless souls shook in the entire city of hundreds.

Hundreds of cities, the city’s owner shot himself!

Chapter 720 - Black hole, Xeon 1 strike

boom!

As the voice just fell, a huge hand in the center of the city protruded out, all over gray, with dappled marks of years.

The hand was extremely huge, and the thunderous Chao Qin Tiange pressed down, and the pressure of terror swept across.

This strike, from the owner of a hundred ethnic cities, a Xeon strike turned out to be a black hole-level strike, terrifying.

Black hole level, that is a terrible strong, is a strong one on the starry sky.

“Huh, it really is a black hole class, the leader of a hundred ethnic cities” Qin Tiange snorted coldly, expecting it in his heart.

In fact, the moment he arrived at the Baizu City, he already felt the strongest breath in the city, the black hole level.

Yes, the strongest person in the hundreds of cities is a black hole-level creature, which made him change his plan and directly entered it.

Bang!

The gray and white giant hand propped up the sky, the cover was pressed down, and with terror, it seemed like a black hole devouring everything.

“Pangu blood, burn!”

Qin Tiange sighed in secret, his body swelled, and the whole body of Pangu’s power burst into confusion, turning into a chaotic flame.

His body swelled instantly, he was thirty feet tall, his muscles swelled, and he was full of ancient and vicissitudes.

“open!”

With a roar, the giant giant 30 feet tall stood in the city of hundreds of peoples. Under the collision of his hands, he pulled out a terrifying war sword.

With a bang, Qin Tiange lifted his sword with both hands and struck a sword, and the crackling noise spread throughout the city.

The two Xeon strikes, and the Xeon forces belonging to the black hole level collide.

There was a click, and the giant hand was chopped, the blood was flowing, and it turned into a shower of blood.

boom!

Immediately afterwards, the violent waves of the two collisions erupted and swept away, hitting all the city's living creatures, the houses collapsed, and the smoke was raging.

The prestige of a single strike shocked the entire city of hundreds of people, and the powerful city-lord Xeon hit him, but Qin Tiange blocked it.

Moreover, he held the battle sword and smashed the terrible giant hand with a sword, and Zhiqiang, who belonged to the black hole level, was broken.

Quiet!

Deathly silence!

Throughout the hundreds of cities, countless creatures lay on the ground, some lying there, and looked at the towering giant in horror.

The thirty-foot-tall body is full of oppression, and the arrogant breath really makes people dare not look straight.

Around Qin Tiange, the ground house was completely turned into powder, and his feet were sunk, forming a giant pit.

He stared through the scorching warfare, staring at the center of the Baizucheng, the huge mansion, the main residence of the Baizucheng.

“You, fine!”

For a long time, such a word came from the city's main government house, cold and indifferent, with a hint of anger.

But it still said: “You take a blow from this seat, let's go, let you go, get out.”

As soon as this word came out, the entire city of hundreds of people was silent, and many creatures were incredible. Looking at Qin Tiange who was standing there quietly, he did not expect that he was still alive after being hit by the city owner, and was released by the city owner.

This was the first time in thousands of years. For a while, many people were horrified that Zi Ling was completely stagnant, stood up from a ruin, and stared at the back of Qin Tiange's mighty shore, full of endless admiration.

“He is so powerful, is he a strong man from the main city of the human race?”
Ziling muttered to himself, stunned by the might of Qin Tiange.

However, Qin Tiange’s next performance has made countless students scary.

“Go?” Qin Tiange smiled sharply at the corner of his mouth, and hummed, “What are you, let me go and let me go?”

Get off, yes, what the city owner just said was to get him off, this is a kind of contempt and humiliation.

The kind of people who look down on the human race from their bones and despise the human race, even if Qin Tiange kills him here can’t eliminate this kind of contempt.

“Come without indecent assault. My people have always been a state of etiquette. I just took a blow from you. Now, I took a blow from you. Then I will spare you a life. If you can’t take it, you will die. . .”

Qin Tiange’s indifferent words spread and shocked all parties. Many powerful creatures in the hundreds of ethnic cities were shocked and looked at him inconceivably.

This human race was arrogant, and it was so arrogant that it dared to treat the owners of hundreds of cities in this way.

“You will pay for what you say!”

In the center of the city, a huge figure stood up from inside the city’s main house, rolling in the dark sky, and a terrible figure stood up inside.

It is the owner of a hundred ethnic cities. Its origins are unknown, its race is unknown. It only knows that its strength is unfathomable and its means are fierce and fierce.

“Hiding your head and showing your tail, you have nothing in my eyes. Today, you can survive the next blow. If you can’t, you can go on the road.”

Qin Tiange drank, his breath suddenly boiled, and endless gray gas intertwined the body, turning it into a hazy chaotic mist.

“Chaos?” That surprised the mysterious city master, and looked at Qin Tiange in horror. It was chaos outside the body.

That was violent power, full of destruction. Qin Tiange had already angered his heart because of the word “roll” just now.

Terran, is it appropriate to be looked down upon? Now that you look down, it will kill you until you are scared.

boom!

Suddenly, a more terrible breath permeated, and all parties rumbling, the city of one hundred people trembled.

Qin Tiange's body suddenly rose up, and instantly became a Baizhang giant, standing there, exuding a simple and violent atmosphere.

He not only exploded the whole body strength of the Pangu tribe, but also directly drew the power of the chaotic membrane of the fetus. The combination of the two instantly turned them into a strong blow.

“open!”

With a roar, as Qin Tiange held up his sword with both hands, struggling to chop it down, the void in front was cut with a trace.

The sword mark of the sky combines the power of chaos and the power of Pangu with the unstoppable potential.

This sword seemed to break the ground, split the day, and cut the ground.

“Roar to death!”

The huge creature ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ The lord of the hundreds of towns roared, his body was dark, his arms stretched out, and each of them gathered a terrible power.

One hand, the black holes appearing in the palm of your hand, that is a real black hole, which belongs to the power of the black hole class.

With a bang, as the two hands became one, the two black holes merged into one on the spot, turning into a more horrible black hole and pushing it up.

“kill!”

The roar came, and the owner of the Baizu city held a black hole and slammed it hard. At that moment, the sky shook and the terrible scene of extinction formed in the Baizu city.

In the surroundings, countless objects were attracted to the past, and even some creatures of all races who had no time to run away were sucked into the black hole and strangled into powder without any resistance.

They were too late to scream, and they were swallowed up by black holes, scaring the souls of hundreds of ethnic towns into fright and horror.

Huh!

I only heard a gurgling, Kaitian sword fell off, and instantly split on the black hole.
