

Deadly Alpha's Cursed Luna

Chapter 3

Jennifer packed her bag and stood outside of the pack house. She was waiting for the men who would take her to the Blood Stone pack.

Her stepmother Nicole was standing beside her. There were no maids around them but only a few pack fighters.

Nicole grabbed Jennifer's arm.

"Listen to me very carefully. They don't know who you are. I didn't tell them that you are a cursed omega with that birthmark."

Jennifer looked at her, "What if they get to know about it?"

Nicole chuckled. "Silly girl. It will not be my problem since I have already sold you. But you will be the one who will bear the consequences. So it's better if you shut your mouth. Don't tell them who you are. The Alpha doesn't know about your identity; he only wants a weak Omega who will take care of his son until he dies."

Jennifer lowered her head without any reply.

So Nicole warned her again, "That vegetative man will never get to see your body anyway. So you should always hide your back. If anyone sees it, they will kill you. Not everyone is kind-hearted like me who will let you live here; they will slay you right then."

Jennifer felt her life had become a joke. Why were so many things happening to her?

She turned her head inside the house. As if Nicole got what she was looking for, she said,

"Nathan will mark my daughter soon. So he does not even need to reject you. The bond will automatically end after the marking."

Though Nicole declared it confidently, inside her heart, she was a little bit doubtful whether Nathan would really reject Jennifer if he saw her leaving. So she did not take any risk to inform anyone about Jennifer.

Three cars reached the pack house and stopped in the entrance area.

Nicole was shocked. Many men in black suits came out and stood in front of them.

Nicole realized that it was the Blood Stone pack heir's men. However, she did not take it into mind since he would die soon, and Jennifer would never get to live a married life for one day with a lifeless man.

“Go now; I don't have much time.” Nicole pushed Jennifer towards those men.

Jennifer controlled her steps and stood straight. She saw a few men giving some briefcases to Nicole.

“Here is your money,” one of them said.

Jennifer's eyes widened. They gave Nicole one million dollars in cash!

She was getting sold in front of her own eyes!

Nicole's eyes brightened up with greed.

“Please!”

A man told Jennifer and opened the car door.

Jennifer glanced at the pack house for the last time, then got in the car.

The car drove for almost twelve hours. She was alone in the car with the driver. The car was in the middle between two cars. The men in those two cars looked like they were guarding her.

‘They think I will run?’ Jennifer thought and shook her head.

The whole journey was very tiring. She tried to ask the driver many things. But most of the time, he was quiet, as if he was forbidden to speak much.

When the car arrived at the Blood Stone pack, it was afternoon time.

The Blood Stone pack was really massive and beautiful. It was far bigger than her pack. It was the most developed pack.

The car stopped in front of a palace, and the driver got down and came to open her side of the door.

The moment Jennifer came out, she saw many other people looking at her with a smile.

She almost frowned her brows at their happy faces.

‘Why do they look delighted?’ She asked herself. She could see they were not well dressed like her in inexpensive clothes.

“Hello!”

She greeted an old woman who smiled and nodded her head.

Those men who guarded her gestured to her by their hands to enter the palace.

“Alpha Mark is waiting for you inside our pack house,” Jennifer heard when she entered the palace.

‘Is a pack house? But it looks like a royal castle!’ She thought.

She was amazed by the decoration of the pack house. Her eyes fell on the old man, who looked strong.

“Welcome to the Blood Stone pack.”

Jennifer understood that he was the current Alpha. She immediately bowed to him.

The old man chuckled and nodded.

“Great, good etiquette! I wanted a girl like this for my son.”

Hearing him, Jennifer felt nervous.

“Come with me.” The Alpha told Jennifer and headed to the hallway.

Jennifer followed him behind; he stopped at a big door. He opened the door, and Jennifer entered the room with him.

“Here is my son, Alpha Raymond.”

She turned her head to the master bed and saw the most handsome man she had ever seen.

He looked like a prince who was sleeping.

She remembered what the driver told her about this man.

“Our Alpha was very strong and powerful. He turned into a vegetable by poisoning in the last war a few months ago. He was the one who helped his father’s pack to become this powerful pack we are today.”

Those driver's words echoed in her mind. But how could she ignore what her pack members said? It was rumored that he was ruthless and violent. Anyone who messed with him ended up miserable. So, she never thought she would marry such a man.

"I have an offer for you. You can take it as my order too."

Jennifer came out of her thoughts and turned to the old Alpha.

"Yes?" She asked softly.

The old Alpha looked straight into her eyes and said,

"I want you to bear a baby with my son within a month. If you do that, you will be rewarded with another one million."

Jennifer was shocked and, at the same time, dumbfounded. Mostly she was embarrassed. How could he say such a thing to her so easily?

'How can it even be possible?' She asked herself.

She lowered her head and asked,

"B-But how can I-"

"The doctor said my son still has a physical reaction. He does not have much time in this world. I want someone who can always make others remember who Alpha Raymond was." The old Alpha explained with an upset tone.

Jennifer could feel that man's sadness in his voice. But it was not easy for her. She was not money hungry; it was her stepmother.

"If you can't do this. Your life will be in danger."

"W-What do you mean, Alpha?"

"You have to do it. Otherwise, I can do anything for my son."

Jennifer was silent. Was he threatening her that he would kill her?

This pack and its people were ruthless. They could do that too.

"I am leaving him to you, and this room is yours from now on," the old Alpha said and left the room.

Jennifer sighed and closed the door. She came out of hell, but little did she know it was another trap for her.

Her eyes moved to the man who was lying on the bed.

Her legs unknowingly stepped forward. She went to the bed and stood beside him.

“Alpha Raymond.” Her tongue rolled up his name softly.

She had been suppressing her wolf’s instincts for a significant period. It wasn’t until she discovered Nathan as her mate that her wolf finally emerged. Following this, her wolf ceased to resist her commands.

However, now her wolf unknowingly felt excitement just looking at this man; Jennifer did not know why.

His in-depth brows, handsome facial structure, and strong body really caught her eye.

She bent down to see him more closely.

Suddenly, his eyes opened, and she let out a scream,

“AAAAAHHH!”
