

Dear Chief 1031

Chapter 1031: Could He Be Their Illegitimate Child?

With Gong Jue's actions, regardless of whether Chu Junmo was willing or not, he could only let Professor Brown perform the surgery.

Gu Qiqi was indeed very apologetic towards him. "Brother Chu, I'm sorry... I can't ignore this child... Professor Brown's medical skills are better than mine. He will do his best..."

Chu Junmo glanced at the little packrat with a complicated expression, then at Gu Qiqi.

What was the relationship between this child and Gong Jue?

What did this have to do with Gu Qiqi?

Why did he vaguely see a resemblance between Gong Jue and Gu Qiqi on this child's young face?

Those big, black, grape-like eyes, and that straight nose... It was as if the two of them were exquisitely condensed... n

Could this child be their illegitimate child?

"No, this is impossible!"

Gu Qiqi was only 19 years old.

She had only known Gong Jue for a few months!

Coincidence. Everything was just a coincidence!

Even though he couldn't bear to see Gu Qiqi leave, Chu Junmo still spoke considerately. "Qiqi, I understand. Go do what you want. You don't have to care about me."

His smile was so forced, his tone so magnanimous, and his voice so weak!

Don't mind me...

Don't mind me...

Gu Qiqi's heart clenched when she heard this.

She felt that she was a terrible woman. How could she abandon her savior?

Gong Jue's eyes darkened and he snorted coldly in his heart. This Chu Daiyu was playing the sympathy card again!

He rolled his eyes at Chu Junmo and took Gu Qiqi's hand to help her carry Little packrat. His tone was a little displeased as he criticized, "Men save men, and women save children. This arrangement is very reasonable. If you stay here, it will affect the effectiveness of CEO Chu's surgery!"

Only then did Gu Qiqi retract her gaze awkwardly. That's right. She couldn't disturb Professor Brown's work. It was taboo for outsiders to chat during surgery.

Making up her mind, she walked towards her operating theater.

Chu Junmo looked at Gu Qiqi's back with reluctance in his eyes.

He wasn't afraid of being disturbed. He yearned for Gu Qiqi to be by his side the entire time. In that case, he wouldn't even need anesthesia...

She was so beautiful. Just by looking at her, he could stop thinking about anything, let alone feel any pain...

==

In the operating theater.

Due to the fact that Qiu Qiu, Bei Mingtian, Xiao Lan, and the other members of the Chu clan's team had all gone all out with Professor Brown to treat Chu Junmo's major heart attack, the operating theater was empty now.

Gong Jue carried the little packrat in. Gu Qiqi instructed bluntly, "Lay him flat. Be gentle! Unbutton his shirt and the front of his shirt so that he can breathe. Then, connect the pulse detector."

Gu Qiqi quickly washed her hands and disinfected herself, putting on a sterile gown.

Gong Jue was flustered. After unbuttoning his shirt, he didn't know where to put his slender hands.

Gu Qiqi said, "Why are you standing there like a fool?"

Gong Jue said, "I don't know which one is the pulse detector."

There was a large pile of equipment by the bed. All of them looked the same. How could he tell?

Gu Qiqi pursed her lips. "No wonder you didn't even know how to pick... refined machines back then. You're really stupid."

Gong Jue was speechless.

It had happened eight hundred years ago, yet this stupid woman still brought it up!

Could he not have some dignity as a man?

Although Gong Jue had lost face, Gu Qiqi's words reminded him of the first time they met.

Chapter 1032: Already Opened Her Mouth

That moment couldn't be considered beautiful. Back then, Gong Jue was so angry with her that he wanted to kill her. But when he recalled those scenes, he actually felt a little warm and excited.

Back then, he didn't know how to use the semen collection machine. However, Gu Qiqi had personally helped him put his penis into the machine...

Ever since that time, she had never taken the initiative to touch him... How depressing!

So, the conclusion was that it was better for men to be stupid?

Gu Qiqi's instructions rang in his ears again. "What are you waiting for? Hurry up and disinfect your hands. Put on sterile clothes. Hand me a knife, a needle, and medicine..."

Gong Jue came back to his senses and resigned himself to being her assistant.

Sometimes, when he encountered something he didn't understand or didn't know what she was looking for, she would even lecture him like a dog.

When Special Assistant Lu pushed the door open and entered, he saw a chaotic and unbelievable scene.

Their Chief was actually as obedient as a little wife. He listened to Young Lady Qiqi's orders and did whatever she told him to do. He would never go the wrong direction. He would raise his left hand and not dare to raise his right hand...

Was... was this still his Chief?

Special Assistant Lu swallowed. He was stunned for a long time before he reported, "Master Jue, the attacker just now has been interrogated. He has already opened his mouth."

Only then did Gong Jue stop what he was doing. He turned around and said coldly, "Speak."

With just one word, he instantly returned to being the decisive, cold leader.

Special Assistant Lu's heart skipped a beat. He replied, "That person has a lean figure. From the back, he looks 70 to 80% similar to the culprit that day. Moreover, he admitted that he was the culprit. Today's attack was also because he was unwilling to admit defeat that day. He wanted to destroy Little Chief and Young Lady Qiqi in one go..."

Gong Jue frowned slightly and fell silent.

Gu Qiqi was bleeding the little packrat's acupoints.

After draining the blood, she gently stopped the bleeding. Only then did she look up. "He's not the culprit."

Gong Jue narrowed his cold eyes. "Why do you think so?"

Gu Qiqi said, "A woman's intuition."

Special Assistant Lu had a bitter expression on his face. "Young Lady Qiqi, my intuition tells me that this cannot be used as a basis for a case..."

Gong Jue said calmly, "What else do you have other than intuition?"

Gu Qiqi said, "This person today doesn't have good marksmanship, and his movements aren't agile enough. When I blocked the bullet, he actually had a chance to stake everything in one throw. He quickly stood up and fired from a different angle, but he escaped. Once he escaped, not only would the attack fail, but he would also be destined to fall into your encirclement. A suicide killer like him shouldn't have escaped. Anyway, his life is limited. Isn't the right choice to fight to the death? Shouldn't he risk his life to kill the boy? So my intuition tells me that he's doing this to cover up for someone. He wants you to think that you've caught the real culprit, but in reality, the devil is still wandering around the human world. He'll attack when no one is paying attention!"

This time, Special Assistant Lu was convinced. "Miss Qiqi's analysis makes sense."

Gong Jue added coldly, "The back view is 70 to 80% similar. Just now, Gong Ting has already taken a careful look at the location of the S Nation's delegation. There's no one he's familiar with there. Go back and interrogate him again."

As he spoke, his voice turned bone-chilling. "I can allow you to use some unconventional methods."

There was no need to be merciful to the enemy!

However...

Special Assistant Lu lowered his head in frustration. "Chief, it's too late... That person was too useless. He confessed halfway through the interrogation just now. After he confessed, he couldn't take it anymore... He bit his tongue and committed suicide..."

Gong Jue's pupils shrank!

Chapter 1033: Very Aggrieved, But The Child Won't Say It!

Suicide?

Why didn't he kill himself before confessing?

This confession could not be trusted!

The murderer was definitely someone else!

Gu Qiqi also sighed. "I see. Looks like my guess just now was actually true."

Gong Jue ordered in a low voice, "Investigate everyone in the venue today! I don't believe that this criminal can evaporate on the spot!"

Special Assistant Lu replied, "Yes!"

Not long after Special Assistant Lu left, the little packrat's medicine took effect. He slowly opened its big eyes.

Immediately, he grabbed Gu Qiqi's fair hand tightly. "Big Sister, were you injured just now?"

Gu Qiqi shook her head. "I'm fine. Little packrat, you've inhaled a harmful gas. You need to rest well."

"Then can I still come to the venue to watch the results of tomorrow's competition?" The little packrat was worried.

Gong Jue said sternly, "No!"

The little boy pouted. "I knew it..."

At the first sign of trouble, Papa would lock him back in the cage.

But he really wanted to see Big Sister receive the award with his own eyes. He believed that she would definitely win the championship.

Even if she couldn't win the championship, he would fly over immediately and comfort Big Sister with his warm embrace!

Gong Jue's expression darkened. "She was almost injured today because of you. If the criminals attack again tomorrow, how many lives do you think she will have to take the bullet for you?"

The little boy lowered his gaze. "I understand. I'll watch the live broadcast tomorrow."

Although he felt wronged, he refused to say anything!

The child didn't want any young ladies to be in any danger!

Gu Qiqi hurriedly hugged the little packrat and glared at Gong Jue reproachfully. "How can you scare a child like this?"

In a gentle voice, she said to the little packrat, "Don't listen to his nonsense. It's not that serious. I almost didn't get injured because of you. I'm just inexperienced. My skills in dealing with criminals still need to be improved."

If only her martial strength was a little more impressive and she could quickly deal with the criminal from afar.

Therefore, she had to study how to use her intelligence instead of brute force to block a bullet at the critical moment...

The boy was fine now. She wondered how Brother Chu was doing.

Worriedly, she glanced at the operating theater opposite her. "Little packrat, actually, I wasn't the one who saved you today. It was your Uncle Chu. He was shot in the heart and is still undergoing emergency surgery. Shall we go take a look at him together?"

Although Professor Brown's standard should be quite high, she was still a little worried.

Chu Junmo had just undergone heart surgery a few months ago. She had personally helped him perform it at Qing City Hospital. She knew very well that his heart was different from others. There might be serious repercussions...

When Gong Jue heard that Gu Qiqi was still worried about Chu Junmo, his face instantly darkened.

He knew that she was very stubborn. He couldn't stop her from doing whatever she wanted.

However, he also knew her weakness!

He raised his eyebrows but did not stop her. Instead, he gave the little packrat a look.

The little packrat looked at Gu Qiqi in confusion, then at him.

Gong Jue's thin lips moved coldly again, forming the words "Chu" and "love rival".

The little packrat immediately understood!

Chu Junmo was their common love rival! Yes, then he had to join forces with his father to fight the enemy, right?

But had Chu Junmo really saved him? Wouldn't he be too ungrateful?

The little packrat hesitated for a second.

He had finally made a decision that would benefit both parties—

Chapter 1034: Anticipation

The little boy's voice was as soft as a glutinous rice ball. "Miss, my head still hurts. I want to go home..."

Indeed, Gu Qiqi's heart ached as she hugged him. "Okay, let's go home."

Wow, this was too effective!

The little boy was surprised by his own influence. He was happy, but at the same time, he couldn't help but feel a little guilty.

His soft child-like voice rang out again. "Why don't we take a look at Uncle Chu's operating theater before we go home? Let's see if he's alright, okay?"

Gu Qiqi smiled in relief. "Baby, you're so sensible!"

Gong Jue pursed his lips.

Sensible my ass!

What Uncle Chu? He was clearly Chu Daiyu! Daiyu!

As the little packrat's compromised, Gu Qiqi carried the little packrat to Chu Junmo's operating theater.

Through the glass door, they saw Professor Brown instructing his students to carry out the rescue.

Perhaps it was because he was approaching his seventies, but Professor Brown did not personally perform the surgery. However, this was understandable. After all, one's eyes were not as good as when one was young. It was more reasonable to let a younger subordinate perform the surgery.

Moreover, he was experienced. It was not a problem for him to give pointers from the side.

Inside, Qiu Qiu and Bei Mingtian were also helping.

When Qiu Qiu saw Gu Qiqi, he immediately made an "OK" gesture at her, indicating that the surgery was going well and that she could rest assured.

Gu Qiqi glanced at the various instruments connected to Chu Junmo's body. The heartbeat, pulse, and various important indicators were indeed very stable. This meant that the person who was the chief surgeon was quite skilled.

Only then did she feel slightly relieved.

She glanced at the operating theater guiltily and muttered to herself, "Brother Chu, I'll comfort the child first. When I get back, I'll concoct some medicine to speed up the recovery of your heart. I'll visit you again!"

In the first half of the finals, the competition was suspended due to an unexpected shooting incident.

Only Bai Lang introduced Young Master Ye's magical facial mask to the contestants of the three teams. Before Gu Qiqi and Professor Brown could introduce the characteristics of their respective medical skills, they were already busy saving people.

Afraid that they would have to bear the responsibility if anything happened again, the organizing committee did not allow them to continue speaking. They simply announced the end of the first half and that the second half would begin tomorrow night to show the results of the beautifying techniques of the three teams.

The audience swarmed out of the laboratory, feeling as if they had just escaped death.

But when they left safely, their hearts couldn't help but itch—

These three teams all looked so powerful and unique. Which team would win the championship?

They wanted to know immediately!

In front of the live broadcast screen, Gu Meifeng and her daughter looked at each other and gave each other gloating looks.

"Mommy, someone has finally taught that b*tch a lesson!"

"Hmph, I've already told you that Gu Qiqi, that b*tch, won't have a good ending! The bird that sticks out will be shot. She's so high-profile. I don't know how many people she's offended. We don't have to do anything. Someone will deal with her!"

"It's a pity that someone suddenly pounced on her and hugged her today. I didn't see clearly if she was shot or if she fell to the ground. It would have been best if her blood had splashed three feet away! I wonder which idiot with a swollen head still wants to save that b*tch!!"

"Don't worry, even if he didn't die, he would have lost half his life! That was a gunshot! It's not like we're playing house!"

The live broadcast was quickly cut off after the shooting.

Hence, Gu Meifeng and her daughter didn't see what happened after that. They didn't know that Chu Junmo had been shot for Gu Qiqi either.

They were all celebrating Gu Qiqi's misfortune.

In fact, Gu Meifeng's mouth was crooked. She had already planned to make Gu Qiqi look even worse—

Chapter 1035: I'm Ready!

"Xue Xue, the Mu family has already agreed to hold the engagement ceremony. The time is set for tomorrow night. I've already told Mrs. Mu that you've suffered enough since this is done in such a hurry. I want her to make a big scene, or my daughter won't get married!" Gu Meifeng said smugly.

A smile bloomed on Gu Xuexue's face. "Really? Mommy, isn't the Mu family facing a crisis in their business? Are they willing to do something big? Will Brother Liuchuan think that I'm insensible?"

Gu Meifeng sneered. "That's exactly what they want! You don't understand. The most important thing for a businessman is face and extravagance. If the Mu family marries a new daughter-in-law, and the engagement ceremony turns sour, who will be the one to lose face in the end? It will definitely be the Mu family! People will gossip behind their backs and say that the Mu family is finished! The Mu family is going to fall! The Mu family won't even have the money to hold a wedding..."

Gu Xuexue's eyes lit up. "Mommy, you make sense."

"Of course. I'm experienced! I know exactly what a woman like Mrs. Mu is thinking. She also wants to do a grand job so that the guests will think that the Mu family's business hasn't collapsed yet. There's still money to be squandered! Only then will the investors have confidence in the Mu family..."

Gu Xuexue nodded vigorously. "Mommy, you're right. I admire you so much! But Mommy, why did you say that you wanted to make Gu Qiqi look even worse? What if she doesn't die tonight..."

Gu Meifeng sneered. "Even if she doesn't die, don't be afraid! When your wedding tomorrow night is announced, won't the results of that bullsh*t medical competition be announced? When the results are announced, the most awesome Professor Brown will definitely be first place. Also, Young Master Ye is also better than her, right? Therefore, she'll be the last place in the finals. Then, when she's in a daze and seriously injured, she'll be dragged to your grand engagement ceremony by your grandfather. When she sees you marrying someone in a glamorous manner, won't she be furious? Hahaha, Xue Xue, the time for you to hold your head high has arrived!"

Gu Meifeng's description was very vivid.

Gu Xuexue was instantly immersed.

Satisfying.

It felt really good.

To be able to let Gu Qiqi see her happiness and smugness in a sorry state was simply a high and mighty enjoyment.

However...

Gu Xuexue was a little worried. "Mommy, what if the little scumbag goes crazy from anger and messes up my wedding?"

Gu Meifeng raised her eyebrows. "What's there to be afraid of? I'm just afraid that she won't go crazy! As long as she dares to go crazy, the security guards we've prepared will immediately pin her down and drag her out! This way, there will be another article in the news tomorrow night: A girl was jealous of her cousin's marriage and lost control on the spot. Then, not only will she be humiliated at the engagement ceremony, but she will be humiliated all over the world, hahaha..."

Gu Xuexue smiled. "Yes! Mommy, your arrangements are too perfect! I almost forgot. Gu Qiqi will definitely be injured today. Even if she doesn't die, she'll be half crippled, right? Such a b*tch definitely won't be able to cause any trouble. She'll only be schemed against by us."

This mother-daughter pair had decided on a plot in front of the live broadcast cameras. They were secretly delighted for a long time. After a long time...

The only thing that displeased Gu Xuexue was that she couldn't get through to Mu Liuchuan...

Was he too busy?

He was so busy that he couldn't even find the time to return her call the night before the engagement ceremony?

==

At night.

In the hospital.

Gu Qiqi fed the little packrat some medicine and coaxed him to sleep.

She put on her clothes and quietly walked out of the hospital.

Gong Jue waited for her in her ward, but she didn't reply.

"I've already arranged it. What the hell is that stupid woman doing?"

Chapter 1036: Be Harder, I Definitely Won't Scream In Pain!

At this moment.

Gu Qiqi had just walked out of the hospital when she bumped into someone she didn't want to see.

"Qiqi..."

Mu Liuchuan stood guard outside the hospital's security booth. He was stopped from entering.

The moment he saw Gu Qiqi's petite figure, he immediately muttered. He was filled with anticipation, as if he had just received rain after a long drought.

Gu Qiqi's expression turned cold. "Why are you here? Are you following me?"

Mu Liuchuan shook his head anxiously. "No, I didn't do it on purpose. I watched the competition and was worried that you would be injured... So I followed the car you often took... I came here to try my luck. I didn't expect you to really be here. Qiqi, we're really not fated to be together..."

Gu Qiqi felt disgusted.

Who would want to be fated with a scumbag like you?

Gu Qiqi's expression turned even colder. "So, wasn't it enough for me to beat you up yesterday? Are you here to be beaten up?"

Mu Liuchuan nodded vigorously. "Qi Qi, if hitting me can make you feel better, hit me hard! I won't cry out in pain... After all, I'm going to announce my marriage to the world tomorrow night. Even if I want to be hit by you in the future, I won't have the chance. I think Xue Xue might be unhappy if she sees me coming out to look for you after I get married..."

Gu Qiqi frowned deeply.

Damn it, who gave this scumbag the confidence to think that she would feel terrible because he was married to Gu Xuexue?

A scumbag and a b*tch were a despicable couple. Wasn't this a perfect match for everyone?

Gu Qiqi had already clenched her fists so tightly that her knuckles were cracking.

If she didn't beat him up today, she probably wouldn't be able to sleep!

Indeed, in the next second, Mu Liuchuan said something even more infuriating—

“Qiqi, I'm sorry. I was going to send you an invitation to my engagement banquet yesterday. After all, we grew up together. Even if we can't be together, we still have feelings for each other. But... Xuexue doesn't seem to be happy about you coming to her engagement banquet. When she arranged the seats at the main table, she didn't leave a seat for you... Therefore, I was afraid that if you go to the engagement banquet tomorrow, it would be awkward if you didn't have a seat. I specially came to tell you that you shouldn't go... Even if you don't go, I'll still leave a seat for you in my heart...” Mu Liuchuan said with deep affection.

Gu Qiqi sneered three times!

Was there something wrong with this scumbag's brain?

Yesterday, she had already torn the invitation apart on the spot and stepped on it. Yet, this scumbag still thought that she would attend the banquet in a compromising manner?

How confident!

“Wake up. You died early in the morning. I've long stopped caring about you and Gu Xuexue. Looks like I have to teach you a lesson. Only then will you remember. Don't harass me again!”

As Gu Qiqi spoke, she suddenly raised her hand and slapped Mu Liuchuan's face...

She was about to wake Mu Liuchuan up!

Suddenly, a strong palm grabbed her wrist.

“Stupid woman, your hands are used to treat illnesses and save people, not to hit flies and bugs.” Gong Jue's cold and gorgeous voice was like a bright star in the dark night. “If you want to fight, I'll fight for you!”

With that, he put down Gu Qiqi's hand and took a step forward.

He kicked his boot forward—

Like a kite with a broken string, Mu Liuchuan fell to the ground and rolled down eight to ten steps.

He looked as miserable as he could.

He looked up. “Master... Master Jue!”

Master Jue had actually hit him for Gu Qiqi?!

Could it be that... Gu Qiqi had hooked up with Master Jue? The person who kept Gu Qiqi was Master Jue?

Mu Liuchuan panicked and began to tremble.

If Master Jue had taken a liking to Gu Qiqi, wouldn't it be a joke if he said that Gu Qiqi couldn't forget him?

The difference between him and Master Jue was simply heaven and earth.

Just as Gong Jue was looking disdainfully at Mu Liuchuan and preparing to give this toad another beating on behalf of Gu Qiqi...

Gu Qiqi walked along the wall guiltily, bit by bit...

Well, you guys fight first. I'm going to see if Brother Chu is still alive...

Chapter 1037: Chu Junmo's Confession

While Gong Jue was dealing with Mu Liuchuan, Gu Qiqi quickly slipped out of the hospital. She took a taxi and headed straight for the laboratory.

The laboratory was brightly lit.

Apart from the patients from the three teams who were still resting and recuperating in their respective operating theaters, there was also an additional bed in Dr. Brown's operating theater for Chu Junmo.

When Gu Qiqi arrived, the doctors and assistants on duty in the operating theater were all snoring.

She quietly opened the door and entered. She carefully checked the various statistics of Chu Junmo's body. They were all relatively stable. The bullet had been removed and the bleeding had stopped. The surgery was undoubtedly successful.

However, when she saw Chu Junmo's wound stitched up, she frowned.

"This suturing technique is too lousy..." Gu Qiqi couldn't help but mutter softly. "Although Brother Chu is a man and doesn't need to be so vain, Brother Chu isn't married yet. If he sutures like this, it will leave a huge scar that won't heal easily... This definitely wasn't stitched up by Professor Brown himself, right? His skills are so poor. Could it be that some intern messed around? Professor Brown, why didn't you supervise him? Why didn't you consider Brother Chu's future wife..."

As Gu Qiqi complained, she couldn't help but help Chu Junmo change the surgical threads and sew his back together.

This was because her movements were quite agile. During the process of changing the threads, not a single drop of blood was shed.

After changing the threads, she took out the small medicine bottle she always carried with her. Inside was the unique medicine she had concocted to promote healing. She carefully applied it on Chu Junmo's wound.

His heart was injured. If he didn't recuperate well, there would be no end to his troubles in the future.

In the quiet night, Gu Qiqi's fair fingers wandered over the man's skin...

Just as Gu Qiqi was about to withdraw her finger after applying the medicine...

Suddenly!

Chu Junmo's hand gently pressed down on hers.

Her phoenix-like eyes slowly opened a crack. "Qi Qi, you're finally here..."

Gu Qiqi felt as if she had been caught red-handed doing something bad. She laughed dryly. "I'm sorry, Brother Chu. I couldn't operate on you myself. I... I was worried. I came to take a look..."

Chu Junmo's large palm gently covered her small hand, while her small hand covered his heart.

He pursed his lips slightly, his eyes shining. Although his tone was weak, it was still noble. "Qi Qi, it's fine as long as you come... Qiqi, you've applied medicine to my heart twice. Wherever you touch, my heart will beat for you in the future..."

Chu Junmo's words were clearly very gentle, but Gu Qiqi felt as if they had struck her heart!

His heart was beating for her?

Did he mean...

She was too embarrassed to think too deeply!

For a moment, the little face panicked. Her voice was a mess. "Brother Chu, you've just finished the surgery. You need to rest."

Her womanly instincts told her that if she continued listening to him, she might hear something that made her unable to answer.

Or, it would make it impossible for the two of them to get along like before!

Brother Chu was such a good person. She didn't want the two of them to become awkward.

"Qi Qi, I don't want to rest. I want to talk to you." Chu Junmo didn't let go. He tightened his grip on her hand.

Due to this action, her palm pressed against his skin slightly.

The warm and sticky feeling instantly made him forget all the pain in his wound. So it was true. When you saw the woman you missed day and night in front of you, and when your skin touched hers, no matter how great the pain, it was nothing.

She could really be his anesthetic.

This realization made Chu Junmo suddenly understand deeply that he could no longer let her go.

In the past, he had always thought that she was still young. He could wait until she grew up.

But he couldn't wait any longer...

Right now, he just wanted to confess his love to her...

Chapter 1038: Leave the Rest of Your Life to Me and I'll Make You Happy

Chu Junmo's gaze hardened!

He knew that if he didn't confess soon, Gong Jue might make a fool of him.

The little girl he couldn't bear to lay his hands on wasn't necessarily unwilling to do so to Gong Jue, who was a simple and crude fellow!

Moreover, she was also a little girl of unknown origins. Just now, he had gotten someone to investigate, but... he couldn't find any information...

Gong Jue had protected that little packrat so tightly. That child must have an extraordinary background.

If that child was related to Qiqi, he would have even less of a chance.

At the thought of this, Chu Junmo's throat turned slightly hoarse. "Qiqi, can you let me take care of you in the future? I think..."

He was about to say, "I want to tell you that I love you and want to be with you. Please leave the rest of your life to me. I will definitely make you happy."

He had carefully prepared it countless times in his heart. There were not many flowery words, only a simple and affectionate confession. He was just about to blurt it out.

However, Gu Qiqi blinked her big black grape-like eyes. Her heart was beating wildly like a deer. Her lips trembled as she replied, "Brother Chu, I don't have an older brother, and my family isn't very warm either. So after I met you, I've always treated you as my biological older brother. In the future, let's take care of each other, okay? I'll treat you as my most respected older brother. Please don't despise this younger sister for being insensible and always causing trouble..."

Big Brother!

Little Sister!

Chu Junmo's heart sank.

Although he had never been in a relationship, he knew that usually, when girls treated you as their eldest brother, they would treat you as a good friend. There was no possibility of them falling in love with you again.

His breathing stopped for a moment. He said in a low voice, "Qi Qi, you don't have to take care of me like I'm your older brother..."

Before he could finish speaking...

Suddenly, the glass door of the operating theater was pulled open.

Gong Jue was like a tornado. He tore through the ice and sped in.

His eyes were filled with malice, and his voice seemed to be wrapped in a large sheet of ice. "Do I need you to take care of my woman? Chu Junmo, you're really shameless!"

Gong Jue's voice was loud and cold. Instantly, everyone in the operating theater was jolted awake.

Chu Junmo's unspoken confession could no longer continue.

Someone as calm as him couldn't be like Gong Jue. Even in front of the entire world, he couldn't shamelessly say the words "my woman".

It was even more impossible for him to force a confession in front of everyone.

Chu Junmo's pale face flushed red. His lips moved. "Gong Jue, didn't your family teach you that you have to knock before entering someone else's room?"

Gong Jue snorted. "Qi Qi knocked on the door for me! I came to protect her! Do you have a problem with that?"

Gu Qiqi was speechless. When did this stupid man arrive? How much of her conversation with Brother Chu had he heard?

Shouldn't he be fighting with Mu Liuchuan?

Unfortunately, Gu Qiqi had underestimated Gong Jue's fighting speed.

To deal with a young master like Mu Liuchuan, Gong Jue could simply kick him twice and make him unable to see the sun tomorrow. Why would he waste more than three seconds?

The moment she left in the taxi, Gong Jue chased after her with a cold expression.

Initially, he had only planned to take a look outside the door and pick Gu Qiqi up.

However, he didn't expect Chu Junmo's every word to be so mushy when he said "let me take care of you." This angered him, and he barged in.

Did this sinister Chu Daiyu think that just because she was lying on the hospital bed, he couldn't hit her?

Gong Jue approached the bed with a dark expression. He pushed Chu Junmo's hand away and held Gu Qiqi's small hand. "Mr. Chu, hasn't anyone in your family taught you that you can't touch a woman's hand casually?! A lecher like you would have been drowned in a pig cage or drowned in a river in ancient times!"

Chapter 1039: A Living Wife Slave!

When Gong Jue talked about drowning in a pig cage or in the river, everyone in the room trembled!

So this was the Empire's Chief Gong Jue!

As expected, his aura was overwhelming.

However, this anger seemed to be directed at Doctor Gu...

In contrast, CEO Chu was so gentle and protective of Doctor Gu...

Tsk, tsk. There's gossip!

The exciting gossip of the love triangle!

Just as everyone had silently prepared melon seeds and tea, preparing to secretly observe the two men fighting over a woman...

Gu Qiqi spoke.

She frowned slightly and said to Gong Jue unhappily, "How can you speak to a patient like that?"

Gong Jue said, "I'm happy to...!"

Before he could protest, Gu Qiqi suddenly pulled out her slender hand and tidied up his collar. She said disdainfully, "Why didn't you button your shirt properly when you went out? It won't be good if outsiders see you like this. It'll affect your image, understand?"

Gong Jue choked.

The way that this stupid woman's little claws were helping him straighten his shirt was really too gentle. It was as if she was a young wife blaming her husband for not dressing up as she had requested.

And that word "outsider" completely pleased Gong Jue.

Yes, well said!

I'm an insider while that surnamed Chu was an outsider

With this thought in mind, for some reason, Gong Jue couldn't flare up anymore.

Instead, there was a faint flame in his lower abdomen. However, this small flame only lingered in his lower abdomen, causing his heart to race.

He only wanted to hug Gu Qiqi tightly.

"Got it. It won't happen again." Gong Jue's voice sank, and his temper dissipated.

Everyone's eyes fell to the ground!

Oh my god, did they hear wrongly? The Chief was actually apologizing to Doctor Gu!

This... this... this was simply a slave to his wife.

The triangle gossip instantly turned into a scene of ferocious public display of affection.

Everyone watched with tears in their eyes as Gong Jue obeyed Gu Qiqi's every word. Everything he said was "good".

Gu Qiqi finished tidying his shirt and held his hand. "It's getting late. Let's not disturb Brother Chu's rest. Let's go back and rest too."

Gong Jue said, "Okay."

I can't wait to go back to bed with you!

Gu Qiqi said, "Remember to knock when you come in next time."

Gong Jue said, "Okay."

As long as you hurry home with me and have sex, I'll agree to anything.

Gu Qiqi said, "Then hurry up and apologize to Brother Chu. Also, everyone was sleeping just now and was woken up by your loud voice. You scared everyone."

Gong Jue said, "Okay."

With that, he turned to apologize to everyone.

No one dared to accept the apology of this living King of Hell. They immediately closed their eyes, covered themselves with the blanket, and instantly pretended to be dead!

Gong Jue raised his eyebrows. "I'm sorry to disturb you, everyone!"

With that, he led Gu Qiqi out smugly.

Chu Junmo didn't have a chance to speak again!

He looked at Gu Qiqi's back view, which was in Gong Jue's arms, with a complicated expression. Although he had persuaded himself ten thousand times in his heart that Gu Qiqi was appeasing Gong Jue in order to help him out of the situation, he still hurriedly left.

However, an uncontrollable bitterness still gradually filled her heart...

Perhaps he should really be a little stronger. He should ignore everything and live a life of recklessness!

To pursue the love of his life!

Gong Jue, if I, Chu Junmo, get serious, you might not have a chance!

Beside him, everyone, who had been suffocated by Gong Jue's stern aura and Gu Qiqi's gentle display of affection, finally came out of their state of pretending to be dead. They quietly raised their eyes and asked timidly, "CEO Chu, is Doctor Gu and Lord Jue... cough, cough... lovers?"

Chapter 1040: He Flipped Over Her Body To Become Her Blanket

Chu Junmo's voice turned cold. "Qi Qi can't be someone else's lover!"

Everyone's hearts skipped a beat. Before they realized what they had said wrong, they continued gossiping.

"With your status, it's definitely impossible for you to marry a commoner. Moreover, Doctor Gu is just a student. She doesn't have any background or reputation. You must be just having fun, right? If she's not your lover, what else can she be?"

"I think so too! However, Doctor Gu is quite impressive. After all, I've never heard of any rumors about her and Master Jue. Tonight is really an eye-opener! Master Jue actually listens to Doctor Gu!"

"Come on, you don't understand. Old men all dote on their girlfriends like this. It's just like how fathers dote on their daughters..."

"Cough, cough, cough. Are you saying that Master Jue is an old man?"

“Haha, what else? Master Jue is just trying something new, right? Can he really marry her? Anyway, I don’t care. I’m going to expose the news to the newspaper. This big piece of news is probably very valuable...”

Just as everyone was about to make a profit from the news...

Chu Junmo’s cold voice resounded throughout the entire operating theater.

“Whoever dares to say a word about tonight’s incident and make wild guesses about Qiqi’s character, I, Chu Junmo, will treat him to a life worse than death for free!”

How did he look like a patient who had just undergone surgery?

Everyone fell silent.

Chu Junmo said slowly and lightly, “Have you thought it through? There’s no medicine for regret in this world.”

“Clang—!”

Everyone’s phones fell to the ground.

Who would dare to spread rumors?

Although Chu Junmo wasn’t as simple and crude as Gong Jue, he was a low-key and mysterious tycoon in the capital.

These rich people could easily destroy them!

They couldn’t afford to offend Gong Jue, nor Chu Junmo!

Everyone obediently shut up. This time, they pretended to be asleep...

The saying that trouble came from the mouth was not spread for nothing.

Gu Qiqi was dreaming again.

In her dream, in order to study the prescription for treating Xiaobei’s eye disease, she went to the forest to carefully observe the plants growing next to the pharmacopoeia.

In the end, a huge green stone suddenly flew up from the forest and smashed towards her.

She ran, but the Green Dai Stone was extremely fast. In an instant, it caught up and smashed down!

Gu Qiqi let out a muffled groan. She was dizzy from the impact of the Green Dai Stone and was buried underground.

In her sleep, she even muttered indignantly, “Sister isn’t Sun Wukong. Do you want to suppress me for five hundred years?”

Oh my, the Qing Dai stone was really heavy. She felt suffocated.

She pushed, pushed, pushed...

“Plop—!”

There was a muffled sound.

She woke with a start.

She was shocked to discover that the person pressing down on her was Gong Jue. It wasn't a big rock!

Just now, she had pushed the man to the side of the bed. Fortunately, the hospital bed had a guardrail. Otherwise, Gong Jue would have fallen to the ground!

Gu Qiqi wanted to pull him up.

In the end...

Gong Jue looked up!

His eyes were like torches!

Gu Qiqi swallowed guiltily and explained, “Um... I had a nightmare just now. I didn't do it on purpose... Who asked you to be so dishonest in your sleep? You flipped over my body...”

Last night, before she went to bed, he had clearly behaved himself. He had shared a blanket with her and laid down side by side, saying that he would let her rest well and not go overboard.

In the end?

It was so damn early in the morning, and the blanket had disappeared without a trace. Had he moved towards her to use her as a blanket?

At the thought of this, Gu Qiqi no longer felt guilty. She became self-righteous.
