“Niannian Yingluo.”

Su Wanwan shook her head in disbelief and staggered over. The paramedics carefully pulled PEI Munian out of the car, put him on a stretcher, lifted him up, and walked towards the ambulance.

Su Wanwan followed closely beside the stretcher bed and held his hand tightly. She looked at his handsome face that was stained red with blood and his closed eyes. Her tears couldn't help but fall. niannian, wake up. Niannian, wake up quickly. Don't scare me, Huahua.

The man did not open his eyes. He slept quietly, as if he was going to sleep forever.

In the ambulance, the paramedics performed emergency treatment on PEI Munian. Su Wanwan was on tenterhooks and kept begging, “ please, you must save him.

miss, don't worry too much. We'll definitely try our best.

When the car arrived at the hospital, the paramedics moved PEI Munian from the stretcher bed to a mobile bed. The doctors and nurses who were prepared to push her there quickly walked to the operating room. Su Wan's hand was still tightly holding PEI Munian's hand and she shouted, “ niannian, you must wake up. I'm waiting for you. You must be fine.

At the door of the operating room, su Wanwan was separated by the nurses. you can't go in. Wait outside. Also, inform his family to come over as soon as possible.”

The moving bed was pushed into the operating room. Su Wan's hand let go of PEI Munian's hand bit by bit. The door of the operating room slowly closed in front of her eyes. Su Wan lowered her eyes and stared blankly at her hand full of blood. It was so red that it was piercing and shocking.

She staggered and fell to the ground.

Wanwan, are you alright? ” Yu Jia ran up from behind, squatted beside her, and grabbed her shoulders with both hands. I heard that ran ran heard that PEI, young master PEI had a car accident? ”

Yu Jia's gaze touched su Wanwan's tear-stained face. She didn't need her to answer and already knew the answer. She couldn't help but hold su Wanwan's trembling body in her arms. She patted her back and comforted her, “ don't worry, nothing will happen. Young master PEI is blessed and has a long life. He will definitely be fine. Don't be afraid, don't be afraid.

“Yu Jia, what should we do? what should we do, Zhenzhen?”

Yu Jia's comfort entered her ears and slightly restored some of su Wanwan's consciousness, but she collapsed in an instant. She leaned in Yu Jia's arms and cried uncontrollably, “ What should I do if something happened to niannian? niannian can't be in trouble. He can't be in a daze.

“It'll be fine, it'll definitely be fine!” Yu Jia said repeatedly. After hugging her for a while, he continued, “ Wanwan, get up first. Don't keep sitting on the ground. Get up.

Yu Jia supported su Wanwan with all her strength and pulled her up from the ground. She had almost no strength in her whole body and her whole body was limp. Yu Jia let her lean on her body, supported her, and walked to the bench on the side. She let her sit on it and said, "Wanwan, have you informed young master PEI's parents?"

Su Wanwan sat there in a daze, as if she couldn't hear what she said at all. Yu Jia could only take out her mobile phone from her pocket, open the address book, find mother PEI's phone number and call her.

Mr. And Mrs. PEI arrived very quickly. Their faces were filled with shock and disbelief. Mrs. PEI ran over with Mr. PEI's help. how's Munian? "How is he?"
