Su Wanwan couldn't stand still and stumbled back. Just as she was about to fall to the ground, an arm suddenly stretched out from behind and supported her. She unconsciously looked back and saw assistant Wu.

Assistant Wu looked at su Wanwan nervously and said worriedly, " "Young Madam, are you alright?"

"I'm fine." Su Wanwan weakly shook her head.

Assistant Wu quickly helped her to stand up. Then, he looked at the bodyguards in black in front of him and recognized that they were master's personal bodyguards. He frowned. what are you doing? don't you know that this is young Madam? How could you push her like this?"

assistant Wu, this is old master's order. He wants us to keep an eye on miss su and not let her get close to the hospital.

While they were talking, su Wanwan tried to break in again but was quickly stopped by the bodyguards. miss su, we don't want to hurt you. You should be more obedient and don't force your way in. Otherwise, don't blame us if we accidentally hurt you.

Assistant Wu was afraid that su Wanwan would get hurt and quickly pulled her back. young Madam, calm down. You shouldn't go in first. You can't get past them.

These bodyguards had all undergone special training and were very strong. There were several of them. How could she, a woman, fight against them? she would only get hurt.

"But I don't know how niannian is right now. I'm Yingluo."

"I understand, I understand!"

Assistant Wu naturally understood that su Wanwan was worried about PEI Munian's injury, so she didn't care about it. He took a light breath and his eyes turned red. don't worry. I'll go in and wait. I'll call you immediately if anything happens to boss PEI, so don't waste your time here. You should go back and rest first. Why don't I send you back first, Wanwan? "

"No, I won't leave. I'm going to wait here until the surgery is over." His hoarse voice was filled with determination.

Assistant Wu could only give in. then, can you stay here alone? "

I can do it. You can go now. You must let me know the results of the operation as soon as possible.

"Alright, don't worry."

After saying that, assistant Wu strode into the hospital. The bodyguards blocked his way and he sneered. what's wrong? Even I can't go in?"

One of the bodyguards pondered for a second and waved his hand. The other bodyguards moved aside and made way.

Assistant Wu strode into the room.

Not long after he went in, Yu Jia ran out from inside and saw su Wanwan standing at the door, confronting the bodyguards. She couldn't help but glare at the bodyguards and then walked towards su Wanwan.

"Wanwan, how are you?"

"I'm fine, I'm fine." Su Wanwan's eyes unconsciously swept inside and said, "Where's niannian? How is niannian? Is the surgery over?"

I'm not sure either. They didn't let me get close to her, but I guess it's not over yet, because I haven't seen the doctor Who performed the surgery on PEI Munian come out.

"Anyway, no news is good news. Don't worry too much. How's your face?" Does it hurt?"

Yu Jia looked at su Wanwan's face. On her pale face, there were clearly five red fingerprints. That side of her face was slightly swollen and there seemed to be some blood left at the corner of her lips. Yu Jia's face suddenly sank.

"Isn't PEI Munian's mother too cruel? You're using so much force, you're not showing any mercy at all!"
