"It's alright, it's alright, Yingluo." Su Wanwan said in a daze. It didn't matter if she hit her. PEI Munian indeed had an accident because she drove her car. Even if she didn't know beforehand that there was a problem with her car's brakes, she had indirectly harmed PEI Munian. If she had brought the car for inspection and repair earlier, then nothing would have happened. If she had driven the car home directly that day instead of leaving it at the old house, PEI Munian would not have driven her car and nothing would have happened.

She could accept what Mrs. PEI had said when she was angry at her. However, she could not accept that she had chased her away and not let her know about PEI Munian's situation.

PEI Munian's life was in danger, but she could not accompany him.

Su Wanwan thought about it and her tears fell again.

"Alright, alright, I won't say anymore. Don't cry, don't cry."

Yu Jia hugged her with heartache, took out a tissue from his pocket, and helped su Wanwan wipe her tears. "Let's go to the café opposite and sit for a while. Don't just stand here."

Su Wanwan still didn't want to move, but Yu Jia dragged her away.

After entering the coffee shop, Yu Jia found a corner seat, pulled su Wanwan to sit down, and ordered two cups of flower tea.

"Wipe your face,"

Yu Jia asked the waiter for wet tissues, took one out and handed it to su Wan. She took it and wiped her body in a daze. She accidentally touched the wound on her cheek and hissed in pain, unable to help but frown.

"I'm watching you! It's a good thing I brought the medicine out."

Yu Jia took out the ointment from her pocket, unscrewed the lid, squeezed some on her fingers, and wiped it on su Wanwan's cheek.

Su Wanwan dazedly let her apply the medicine. Her eyes stared at the phone without blinking, as if she was afraid of missing the call.

Yu Jia couldn't help but sigh.

The waiter brought two cups of hot cocoa and Yu Jia pushed one to her. have some warm ones to warm up first. You're shivering from the cold.

Yu Jia took her hand and held the cup. The heat of the hot cocoa warmed su Wan's palm, but it couldn't warm her heart. Her whole person was still as if she was in an ice cellar, extremely cold.

It was still an anxious and unbearable wait. Time passed by little by little. The light at the bottom of su Wan's eyes was a little silent. Her heart was flustered and heavy. She licked her dry lips and her voice was very broken, " Yu Xuanji, Yu Jia, it's been, it's been so long since the operation, is Xuanji in danger? "

Normally, the longer the surgery time, the greater the risk factor.

But now that su Wanwan was like this, how could Yu Jia dare to say this to her? She only comforted him vaguely, " it's okay. The length of the operation doesn't mean anything. As long as the operation is not over and the doctor hasn't announced the results, nothing can be concluded.

Yu Jia stretched out her hand and held su Wan's hand tightly. don't be afraid. Young master PEI loves you and won't bear to leave you alone. He will definitely survive.

"Yes, I will definitely survive." Su Wanwan muttered these words, trying to give herself confidence.

She didn't know how long had passed when su Wan's phone finally rang. Her whole body suddenly quivered and her dull eyes gradually became clear. Looking at assistant Wu's name jumping on the phone screen, her hands trembled. She quickly picked up the phone and answered.
