Divorce agreement?

Su Wanwan's Black eyes darkened and she looked at Xi Zhiwei. Her face also seemed to be in a difficult position. She bit her lower lip and continued: I've tried to persuade her for a long time, but she's really angry this time. After all, brother mu Nian is in such a bad state. So, if sister Wanwan wants to see brother mu Nian, you have to agree to her conditions.

He really knew how to loot a burning house.

He clearly knew that she was worried about PEI Munian and would not let him go at this time. Yet, he actually threatened her to sign the divorce agreement before she could see PEI Munian. She had no choice at all.

Su Wanwan pursed her red lips tightly and her voice was hoarse and deep. I want to see Mrs. PEI first.

"This Yingluo."

Xi Zhiwei hesitated for a moment and said, " Auntie said that she will only see you if you agree to sign the divorce papers. Otherwise, no matter how long you kneel here, she will not see you.

"This is simply too much!"

Shen Ziwei held su Wanwan's arm tightly and said in a deep voice, " Wanwan, let's go. Don't agree to their unreasonable conditions. Let's go back first and think of other ways.

Su Wanwan did not move at all.

She knew that they had gone too far, but what could she do? They had hidden PEI Munian away. Even if she could find out where PEI Munian was, she would not be able to get close to him. Was she going to just watch him fall asleep like this?

Without PEI Munian, what was the point of her insisting on not getting a divorce?

Su Wanwan's Red lips wriggled and she slowly said, word by word, " okay, I can sign the divorce agreement. Then, ran ran, is Mrs. PEI willing to see me now? "

Xi Zhiwei smiled and nodded. She turned her body slightly and made a gesture of invitation. come in.

Shen Ziwei's hand that was holding su Wanwan's arm was unwilling to let go. Su Wanwan glanced at him and said lightly, " brother Ziwei, it's okay. Mu Nian and I never needed a marriage certificate to be together.

Shen Ziwei sighed helplessly. then I'll go in with you.

Su Wanwan was about to nod her head when Xi Zhiwei spoke again, as if she was trying to persuade her with good intentions. I'm sorry, Auntie doesn't want to see other people. Sister Wanwan, you should go in by yourself, lest you make Auntie unhappy again.

Don't want to see other people? He clearly felt that su Wanwan was easy to bully.

Shen Ziwei's eyes were quickly dyed with a flame and his handsome face sank. He looked at Xi Zhiwei with eyes full of endless anger. Su Wanwan quickly said: forget it, brother Ziwei. I'll go in by myself. Don't worry about me.

Although he was angry, Shen Ziwei also knew that he couldn't make things difficult for su Wanwan. Even if they were using their power to bully people, there was no better way right now.

After all, Mrs. PEI was PEI Munian's mother, while su Wanwan was the daughter-in-law that the PEI family didn't recognize. Now that PEI Munian couldn't make a decision for her, she could only rely on herself.

"I'll wait for you here. If you don't come out in 30 minutes, I'll call the police!"

These words seemed to be directed at su Wanwan, but his eyes were directed at Xi Zhiwei. His gaze was deep and cold. Xi Zhiwei felt a chill down her spine and was even more annoyed.

Su Wanwan, this woman, seemed to have someone protecting her no matter when and where, which really made people feel uncomfortable.

"Go in, aunty is waiting for you," Xi Zhiwei said.

Xi Zhiwei and su Wanwan walked into the main house one after another. Su Wanwan was all wet and looked extremely embarrassed. Mrs. PEI, who was sitting on the sofa, glanced at her and frowned in disgust. She didn't say anything and went straight to the point.
